Chapter 271: The Truth of the Mars project

“Wow...” Old Wang and old Zhang arrived at the home of the so-called kindred spirit, old Wang looked around in amazement. The luxurious marble floor, the avant-garde design that he had only seen in movies, and the astronomical telescope that was bigger than a person on the balcony., he suddenly sighed in his heart. The wife that he had found back then was too reckless...

“Yo, Old Zhang, you’re so busy that you actually have the time to come to my place. It’s really rare...” a tall and slender man with an extremely three-dimensional handsome face walked down.

Old Wang compared them and felt that he was still slightly better than him. In that case... .. It was indeed a loss for him to find a wife back then...

“Do you think everyone is you, with a wife to support you?” Director Zhang rolled his eyes and said.

The man smiled. “This thing depends on your aptitude... well...” then he looked at Old Wang, who was also shabby, and said, “And a little bit of luck...”

Old Wang: “Brother, you have insight...”

Director Zhang: “Ghost, I didn’t bring you here to ask you to discuss how to live off this guy.”

“Then why did you come to me?”

“Ahem...” Old Wang coughed lightly, then pointed at the telescope outside and said, “That... Mr. Yang Renjie, right? The main reason we came to you this time is to ask about astronomy.”

“Astronomy?” The other party was immediately interested. “You police officers are still interested in astronomy?”

“Haha... Naturally, I don’t have the spare time to care about that...” old Wang laughed and then pointed at the telescope on the balcony and said, “Brother, how far can your telescope see? Can you see Mars?”

“Of course... I’m a professional...” at the mention of his professional tools., the man looked smug. “The best ones you buy on the market can at most help you identify the polar ice caps on Mars. If you want to see the same level as the crater, you have to use a professional telescope like mine!”

“Then... What if you want to see something on it? Like a small base... or a spaceship...”

The man was stunned, then he looked at old Wang and said, “Sure, if the spaceship is half the size of Mars...”

Old Wang: “...”

Director Zhang frowned and said, “Renjie, be serious. My Friend is not joking.”

“How can I be serious when you tell such a funny joke?” Yang Renjie rolled his eyes at the two of them.

"Then... is there any way to see the interior of Mars?" Old Wang asked the purpose of this trip.

"The interior of Mars?" Yang Renjie was stunned, then he smiled and said, "I also want to know how to see the interior of Mars..."

"Huh?" Old Zhang was stunned, then he quickly asked, "Didn't you work at the North American Astronomical Observatory? Haven't you seen the interior of Mars?"

"The North American Astronomical Observatory?" Yang Renjie immediately sneered.

"No... isn't it?" Old Zhang immediately frowned.

"That's true..." Yang Renjie stretched his body and nodded. "I did work there, and coincidentally, I just happened to be in the Mars project team..."

"Then you said you didn't see it?"

"I didn't see it..." Yang Renjie shrugged.

"What's going on?" Old Wang interrupted, "Although I don't know much, I know that the Astronomy Bureau is a world-funded project. Don't they send a group of people up to investigate every once in a while? "And they make documentaries for the whole world to see."

"It's true that they make documentaries for you to watch every once in a while. As for sending a group of people up... Hehe..."

"What do you mean?" Old Wang and Old Wang were stunned.

"Literally..." Yang Renjie sneered, "Why do you think I didn't work there when I loved astronomy so much?"

"Didn't you say that I was fired?" Old Zhang was stunned.

"Bullsh * t, that's because I can't continue acting... I'm going to apply for an astronomer, not a documentary actor..."

"You... you mean... It's fake?" Old Wang and old Zhang stood up in shock. "The Mars Landing project is fake?"

"It's not entirely fake..." Yang Renjie sighed. "The world-funded Mars Landing 130 years ago was indeed real, but do you know how much it cost?" He paused for a moment and said, "750 billion USD!"

"Gathering the top scientists from almost all the countries at that time and sending them up, they built a base of about 75 square meters there. Do you think that the capitalists of such a neurotic real estate project can continue for so many years?"

"Then... those documentaries that landed on Mars all these years were shot by you in the studio?" Old Zhang said blankly.

"I didn't say anything..." Yang Renjie rolled his eyes and said, "I signed a confidentiality agreement..."

Old Zhang:"..."

Old Wang immediately frowned. "Then, there should be a probe machine on it, right?"

Yang Renjie: "Big Brother, it's been more than a hundred years. Even if it's solar energy, do you think that no one has gone up to maintain it for so many years without any malfunctions?"

Old Wang and director Zhang looked at each other and instantly fell silent.

"Speaking of which, you two are police officers. For one day, you didn't care about your own case. Why are you suddenly interested in the interior of Mars?" Yang Renjie asked curiously.

Old Wang said, "I want to know... is there anyone living on Mars now..."

"PFFT!" Yang Renjie immediately choked. "You two are here to make me laugh, right?"

Old Zhang hesitated for a moment, and finally said old Wang's ridiculous idea.

"Galaxy?" Yang Renjie was stunned, and then he said in surprise, "Oh, is it the masterpiece that has been blown up on the Internet?"

"You know this game?" Director Zhang immediately asked.

"Of course... how can I not play games when I stay at home every day?" Yang Renjie spread his hands and said.

"Do you have an account?" Old Wang asked immediately.

"No..." Yang Renjie shook his head. "I'm late. There are hundreds of thousands of people in front of me... This game doesn't sell chicken feed. F * ck, my wife is so rich for nothing..."

Director Zhang: "..."

Yang Renjie: "Are you saying that the Mars in this game is real? Brother, your imagination is really big..."

"Is there really no way to see inside Mars?" Asked Wang.

"You can't see it from the inside of Mars... The last monitoring robot in North America lost its signal 30 years ago..." Yang Renjie touched his chin and said, "But brother, your imagination, we can verify it..."

"Verify?" Lao Wang and Zhang Bureau heard the facial expression to shake, almost in unison way: "How to verify?"

"I go..." far in the Mars base to see the monitoring of the image of the dog dad, suddenly handsome face under the helmet a twitch.

He said it had been scanning surveillance equipment on Mars, only to find dilapidated solar-powered robots and a run-down base almost completely buried in sand.

He had thought that AI had failed to find a new human base, but it turned out that it was not there at all...

What a waste of expression...

Since that was the case, he might as well activate the artificial atmosphere plan...

Al asked, "What about Wang Lin and the others?"

Xi Ye said, "Let's take a look again. This guy is really interesting. He was able to come up with so many things with just that little clue. He's a genius..."

Chapter 272: Oh No, I think I've overplayed my hand...

"Ruolan, how are you doing here? Did that brat of mine treat you well? If you have any dissatisfaction, tell me, I won't kill him." In the Huang family villa, Huang Huafeng, the leader of the Huang Group, looked at Hou Ruolan and said with a smile.

"Uncle Huang, you must be joking..." Hou Ruolan smiled. "It's quite lively here. It feels pretty good..."

"It is quite lively..." Huang Huafeng shook his head and smiled.

Originally, this villa was basically empty in the past. The old man usually stayed in Xiamen to recuperate. His other two brothers were basically not here when they were free. His wife had passed away early, and there was no mistress at home., the Little Brat loved to mess with his studio and was a master who did not return home all year round. This made Huang Huafeng not have the mood to go home normally. Once he returned, there was only an empty big house...

In the end, for some reason, all of them came over these two days. First, Yunji Mu moved in. Then, his two nephews moved in to curry favor with him. Although they were kicked out by the old man after a beating., however, there were more people in the family. First, the old man also moved in. The two brothers didn't dare to run around while the old man was watching over them. They also stayed at home obediently, and then there was the little rascal's group of friends.

In an instant, the entire villa became extremely lively. Every time they ate, there would be a large table of people.

However, the atmosphere was very strange...

Huang Huafeng recalled the scenes of the meal in the past two days, and his expression immediately became a lot weirder.

A few women and a drama made him dazzled. He felt that it was even more melodramatic than the urban romance dramas on television. These two days, he had roughly sorted it out. The Hou's daughter in front of him was obviously here for that young man called Leng Xing., and Mu Yunji seemed to be very interested in Leng Xing as well. Then, it was that Li Xiaoqian who appeared out of nowhere.

A personal disciple of the sect leader, a daughter of a group, and a folk beauty. It had to be said that cold star, the game's sales assistant, received the proper treatment as the main character. Of course, there was also that Wang Chengbo, who was said to be Shijie's friend, he was also the best planner in Shijie's studio.

He could be considered to have some sense of existence. At least, he was usually quite close to Yunji Mu. That Li Xiaoqian seemed to be somewhat related to him. She had the potential to be a spare tire.

The key was that she could be a spare tire for two beautiful women. It was not a F * cking loss., the thing that made him the most speechless was that little brat of his.

He was simply a bystander...

He paid for food, accommodation, and money, but the whole play seemed to have nothing to do with him. He had to admit that it was a complete failure. Even if you were to be a spare tire and fight for the second male lead, it would still be good. It would be difficult for me to perform at the dinner table if you did that...

“Uncle Huang, what’s the background of that Yunji Mu?” Hou Ruolan could not help but ask in the end.

“Oh, you’re here to inquire about the enemy’s situation?” Huang Huafeng laughed.

“Uncle Huang... If you continue to make fun of me like this, I’ll go back and complain to my father...” Hou Ruolan said with a rare blush on her face.

“Am I not feeling anxious for my own little brat?” Huang Huafeng laughed and said, “Look at him, all of them are throwing themselves at him. Only my little brat, no one pays attention to him...”

“Who’s throwing themselves at him?” Hou Ruolan rolled her eyes at him, then, she said, “Shijie is still not bad. He’s young and promising, and he even took over the rights to represent Xing Hai. His future achievements will definitely not be low. Uncle Huang, are you afraid that you won’t be able to find a good wife for him?”

“Haha... That Little Brat, I don’t know where he got lucky...” Huang Huafeng waved his hands and laughed, but his face couldn’t help but show a smug look.

These few days, those internet giants had almost beaten him to death. Although the Huang family was in the pharmaceutical business and didn’t have much business with these Internet Giants, he couldn’t help but feel good. He had to admit that he had raised that brat so well., it finally made him proud...

“That Yunji Mu is a disciple of a sect, right? What is her identity in the sect? Uncle Huang, can you tell me?” Hou Ruolan didn’t intend to let the other party change the topic and continued to ask.

“This... uncle, I can’t tell you yet...” Huang Huafeng drank his tea and smiled. “Niece, you also know that our Huang family and Yunshan sect have a close relationship. There are some things... that can not be revealed...”

“A normal disciple shouldn’t be a big problem, right? Uncle Huang doesn’t dare to reveal it. Could it be that this miss mu has an extraordinary background? Is she a direct disciple of an elder or something?”

“Niece knows quite a lot...” Huang Huafeng smiled helplessly.

Hou Ruolan narrowed her eyes. The other party didn’t answer directly, but that expression already indicated the problem. That woman was at least a direct disciple of an elder.

Just as she was about to ask again, a cold voice suddenly appeared, “Miss Hou, it’s best not to make things difficult for her anymore. If you have anything you want to ask, just ask me directly...”

Hou Ruolan was stunned. She turned around and saw that it was indeed Mu Yunji. Her face immediately revealed a hint of awkwardness.

It was indeed a little awkward for her to be caught in the act of secretly inquiring about others.

However, she was, after all, a strong woman who had been in the business world for a long time. The awkwardness flashed past her face before she immediately returned to normal. She said with a smile, "Does miss mu really like to eavesdrop on people's conversations like this?"

Wang Chengbo, who was behind Mu Yunji, immediately rolled his eyes. were all women nowadays so good at making accusations?

"I'm not as boring as you..." mu Yunji replied coldly, and then she looked at Huang Huafeng. "Uncle Huang, I have a favor to ask of you..."

"Oh, okay, okay, okay, go ahead..."Huang Huafeng quickly stood up with a humble posture. The difference in status was instantly obvious...

Hou Ruolan's heart sank when she saw this. She didn't expect that the person who was the leader of the group could be so humble to a girl who was so much younger than him. It seemed that she had still underestimated the influence of the sect.

From the looks of it... .. She, the daughter of the group, was probably slightly inferior... ..

Her status was inferior, her appearance was inferior... No Wonder Leng Xing was willing to run to her... ..

At the thought of this, Hou Ruolan felt more and more uncomfortable

However, Mu Yunji ignored her and asked, "How is the relationship between Uncle Huang and the police station?"

"I have some connections... What does miss mu want us to do?"

"Can you help me find out the whereabouts of the former criminal police captain Wang Lin..."Mu Yunji quickly said.

"Wang Lin? Oh, okay, I'll ask someone right away..."Huang Huafeng said and quickly went out to make a phone call.

Yunji mu looked at Wang Chengbo. "Are you sure that something has happened to your father?"

"I don't know..."Wang Chengbo appeared to be a little flustered, he swallowed his saliva and said, "My father and I agreed to contact each other through the phone call of an old friend of his. Basically, he would call me every two days to tell me how to do it, but now... .. It has been two weeks since he contacted me ..."

"Then what about your father's old friend's phone call?"Yunji mu asked curiously.

"I took the initiative to call, but uncle ou always doesn't answer my questions directly. I feel that something must have happened to my dad..."

Yunji mu immediately lowered her head and fell silent. Wang Chengbo's father was in the police station and was personally protected by the bureau chief. The only person who could cause him to be in trouble was Kunlun, and she was the one who led Kunlun to the Wang family. At this time, she still had to take some responsibility...

Just as she was thinking, a white shadow suddenly passed by. Mu Yunji's eyes lit up and she instantly grabbed the white shadow. When she caught it, everyone realized that it was actually a white bird.

The bird was very small, but its shape was not like a small sparrow. Instead, it looked like a bird of prey, like a small version of a white eagle.

Everyone was stunned. They saw Mu Yunji pull out a piece of paper from the White Bird's claw.

"Yo, in this day and age, there's still a pigeon messenger?" Seeing this, Hou ruolan smiled and said, "You people from the sects really keep up the tradition..."

Yunji MU ignored the other party and unfolded the paper. Cultivation sects usually didn't call when they had something important to do. They were afraid of being bugged, so they each raised a spirit bird to be responsible for sending messages.

This white bird was the cloud condor that was unique to their cloud mountain.

Since the sect had chosen to use the cloud condor to send messages, it meant that this was definitely not a small matter...

When she opened the note and took a look, her entire body instantly froze...

She saw that the note read: The Twelve Kunlun Immortals have collectively left and have rushed to city C. there might be a major incident. If my disciple has nothing to do, quickly return. You must not get involved in such a dispute!

Oh No... .. Mu Yunji gritted her teeth and thought, this is too big...

Chapter 273: Bad Blood

Yun-ji mu had never thought that there would be such a big commotion at Kunlun. She just didn't want to drag down her sect, so she used other sects to test the power behind Wang Xiaojia. She didn't expect...

What should she do now?

Before she could think clearly, Huang Huafeng walked in with a heavy face and said in a low voice, "Miss Mu, there's news about that Wang Lin you mentioned..."

"Speak!" Yunji mu hurriedly said.

Huang Huafeng looked around, in the end, he said, "A big sect pressured the C city police station to hand over Wang Lin. The local police station initially refused strictly, but for some reason, the local governor issued an order for the police station to hand him over. Wang Lin has already escaped from the police station five days ago. His life and death are unknown...". "..."

"How could this be! !"Wang Chengbo was immediately shocked and lost his bearings... After all, he was just a young man who hadn't been through much. Now that so many things had happened to him, even his last pillar of support, his father, was in trouble. He was a little confused... ..

"Calm down..."Yun Mu Ji glanced at Wang Chengbo, and a guilty look flashed across her eyes. Then, she hurriedly said, "We can't stay here anymore. Come with me!"

"Where are we going?"Wang Chengbo was stunned.

Mu Yunji: "To Yunshan!"

Wang Chengbo:"..."

This plot twist was so fast that Hou Ruolan, who was sitting on the sofa, was stunned. What's going on?

Wasn't this woman always interested in Leng Xing? Why did she have to take another man with her? What was going on here?

"Don't hesitate anymore..."Mu Yunji looked at the silent Wang Chengbo, she suddenly became anxious. Back then, because of her whim, the Wang family was targeted by Kunlun. Now that his sister was missing, even his father might be controlled by Kunlun. She might have to take half the blame, no matter what.., at least he had to protect her.

"Thank you for your good intentions, Miss Mu, but I can't leave..."Wang Chengbo shook his head after he recovered. "I promised father to find little jia. Father is missing, so I'm the only one left..."

Yunji mu frowned. "The situation is different now. Kunlun is obviously preparing to break the rules. If you don't Leave Now, you won't have a chance to leave. Get out of here first. I promise you that I won't give up on your sister. Come back to Yunshan with me first. I'll ask my master to help you." "..."

Wang Chengbo raised his head and looked at her blankly. He didn't understand why she would care so much about him and Xiaoja.

But before he could say anything, a cold voice came from the door. "Miss Mu, you talk big. I'm afraid this muddy water isn't something that you, Yunshan, can wade through, right?"

Everyone looked over and saw a woman in a plain dress at the door. If it wasn't Li Xiaoqian, who else could it be.

Huang Huafeng was stunned. He looked at the woman and thought to himself, this woman is actually a member of the sect?

Hou Ruolan was also stunned as she looked at this scene. She felt that she was not able to blend in. She thought that she had already grasped the general situation after coming here for a few days. She did not expect that she was still a marginal character. What exactly was the plot?

"Whether or not I, Yunshan, can get involved in this muddy water is not up to you, a Kunlun Cauldron Cauldron, right?"Yunji said coldly.

Li Xiaoqian was stunned. Cauldron? What cauldron...

Looking at Li Xiaoqian's expression, Yunji mu sneered, "It seems like you don't know... I thought you were really so despicable that you would disregard everything in order to walk on the path of cultivation..."

"You... What do you mean?" Li Xiaoqian looked at the other party and a trace of uneasiness flashed through her heart. She immediately recalled the disgusted gazes of those Kunlun disciples when they looked at her.

"You talk too much... Yunji Mu!" An incomparably cold voice suddenly sounded, causing the temperature of the entire room to drop by a few degrees. Yunji mu raised her eyes and looked over. It was Situ Xue, who was dressed in white, and the group of Kunlun disciples behind her.

"Situ Xue..." Yunji Mu's expression was unsightly... ..

"Wang Chengbo, come with us..." Situ Xue said coldly.

"You've crossed the line, Situ Xue!" Mu Yunji stepped forward to protect Wang Chengbo. "Aren't you afraid of being punished by the authorities?"

"It's none of your business whether you've crossed the line or not..." situ Xue looked at Mu Yunji.

"Whether the authorities will punish us, Kunlun, is not something that a member of the Yunshan sect should be concerned about. If you block me, you'll be the enemy of Kunlun!"

Hearing this, Mu Yunji's expression became even uglier. For a moment, she did not know what to say. If she made a move now, she was afraid that she would bring a lot of trouble to her sect...

Yunshan had just entered the top ten sects, and his background was far from the top-ranked sects. Behind him, Qingcheng was eyeing them like a tiger eyeing its prey. They wanted to return to the top ten sects at any time. If she were to offend Kunlun at this time., she would probably be a sinner of Yunshan sect.

"Alright, Miss Mu..." just as Yunji was in a dilemma, Wang Chengbo finally spoke from behind her, "I'll go with them..."

Yunji turned around and looked at the other party with a complicated expression.

"Thank you, Miss Mu..." Wang Chengbo smiled and said, "Although I don't know why you helped us brother and sister like this, my father said that no matter what the cause and effect, a debt must be repaid..."

Mu Yunji:"..."

"You're a good person..." Wang Chengbo bowed deeply and said solemnly, "If there's a chance, I will definitely repay your kindness..."

Mu Yunji looked at him with a complicated expression and muttered, "I'm not a good person..."

After saying that, she grabbed him and pulled him behind her. Then, she raised her hand and waved her sword qi, drawing a deep sword scar in front of Situ Xue and the other disciples!

The disciples retreated in shock while Situ Xue looked at him in shock. "Are you crazy, Mu Yunji?"

"No, no, Miss Mu!" Huang Huafeng said quickly. He knew that he couldn't let Mu Yunji and the people of Kunlun Fight, but how could a mortal like him dare to get close?

Hou Ruolan couldn't sit still at the side. She stood up and retreated in shock, looking at the sword mark on the ground with a strange expression.

This was the first time she had seen these so-called cultivators make a move. It was just like in wuxia dramas. They could release sword Qi from such a distance...

"Are you sure you want to interfere?" Situ Xue looked at the other party coldly.

"Are you only good at pulling the big skin of Kunlun?" Mu Yunji sneered.

As soon as she said this, Situ Xue's expression instantly turned extremely cold. She nodded and said, "Provoke me? Okay, okay, okay. Mu Yunji, today is the perfect time for me to try and see what kind of progress you have made in the past three years..."

"These words should be said by the winner, right?" Mu Yunji continued to provoke her.

Bang! !

Mu Yunji's words successfully provoked the other party's anger. Situ Xue could no longer hold it in. He unsheathed his long sword. A bright sword light flashed past, and a three-meter-long sword qi slashed towards Mu Yunji head-on!

"Let's Go!" Mu Yunji lightly pushed Wang Chengbo behind her, pushing him behind the sofa on the left. There was a side door on the left side, and she dodged the Sword Qi.

In an instant, the three-meter-long sword Qi struck the escalator behind Mu Yunji. With a bang, the marble staircase shattered and exploded. Immediately, sand and stones flew, and the scene instantly turned into a mess.

Mortals like Huang Huafeng quickly fled to the left. Seeing this, Hou Ruolan did not dare to stay where she was and quickly retreated to the left...

After Mu Yunji dodged the sword qi, she used the flowing cloud steps. She moved like a ghost and blocked many Kunlun disciples who were trying to catch up with her. Situ Xue saw that Mu Yunji was still in the mood to pay attention to the other disciples when facing her., instantly, the coldness in her eyes intensified. She waved the long sword in her hand and turned into a stream-like curve that slashed toward Mu Yunji.

It was her famous ultimate skill, flowing sky water!

Mu Yunji didn't dare to be careless and hurriedly raised her sword to counter the attack. In this delay, a white shadow instantly chased to the left.

Oh No... ! ... missed one. ! When Mu Yunji saw this, a trace of anxiety appeared on her face.

Chapter 274: So It's because of a man?

“Hey, Hey, what’s going on?” Hou Ruolan ran out with him, feeling confused.

When she came here earlier, she clearly felt that everyone was surrounding Leng Xing. Whether it was Mu Yunji or Li Xiaoqian, including this silly little brother, they were all staring at Leng Xing.

Why did it suddenly become that everyone was surrounding this guy in front of her? Moreover, there was an extra woman coming out to snatch him. What right did this little brother have?

Hou Ruolan looked at the ordinary-looking Wang Chengbo and suddenly had a puzzled look on her face. It would be easy for her to understand if he was just being snatched by a group of ordinary beauties, after all, it was not impossible for an ordinary-looking person to have the talent to drive a Maserati with one arm, right?

But those were not a group of ordinary beauties. In the secular world, they were all sect fairies? What did this guy have?

If the escaping Wang Chengbo knew what Hou Ruolan was thinking behind him, he would definitely roll his eyes. But he could not blame her. She was an outsider to begin with, so she definitely could not sense his crisis. To put it bluntly, she was just joining in the fun.., his mind was naturally filled with these melodramatic plots...

“Little brother, go this way. I’ll get someone to drive you away!” Huang Huafeng hurriedly said.

Since the people of Yunshan had already decided to resist this wave, as a subordinate family, although he felt that it was inappropriate, he could only follow the orders of the higher-ups.

“Thank you, Uncle Huang...” Chengbo looked at the other party gratefully.

Just as they were speaking, a white figure suddenly descended from the sky and landed in front of the three of them with a bang. The granite ground was instantly trampled open, and this kind of power caused the three of them to continuously retreat.

That person glanced at Wang Chengbo and did not say anything. He raised his hand and grabbed at him.

Huang Huafeng and Hou Ruolan knew that the other party’s target was not them, so they hurriedly retreated to both sides. Only Wang Chengbo was left in a panic as he staggered backwards.

Although both of them were mortals, their reactions were extremely fast. Hou Ruolan was just a bystander, so she naturally would not really take the risk. As for Huang Huafeng, he had already done what he had to do. It was impossible for him to risk his life for the sake of this youth...

The Kunlun disciple sneered and looked at Wang Chengbo’s panicked expression as he thought to himself, ‘just this guy, wouldn’t it be fine if I had caught him earlier?’? “What’s there to test?”? “I’ve already used the method to capture him and force him to confess. Don’t you already know everything you need to know?”?

However, in an instant, a hair-raising sense of danger suddenly struck him. He saw the young man, who had been retreating in panic and falling to the ground, was about to catch him when the panicked expression on the young man's face instantly disappeared and a sneer appeared on his face, then, he actually pulled out a gun and pulled the trigger without any hesitation toward his head!

The Kunlun disciple was stunned. He did not expect this to happen. Now that he was so close and his body was leaning forward, there was no time for him to dodge. He immediately cried out in his heart, "F* ck!"!

Huang Huafeng, who had dodged to the side, was also shocked when he saw this scene. He did not expect this seemingly honest guy to be so sneaky. He actually hid a gun on his body. Moreover, looking at his suddenly calm expression, it was obvious that... It was clearly a deliberate plan...

"No!" He hurriedly cried out.

If a Kunlun disciple were to die in his Huang family, then the matter would really be very serious!

Just as the few of them were greatly shocked, and even Hou Ruolan was prepared to close her eyes and not look at the bloody scene, a pair of fair fingers suddenly appeared between the two of them, and caught the bullet that had flown out!

Everyone was shocked again, especially that Kunlun disciple. He stared blankly at the bullet that was only a few centimeters away from him, and then turned his head stiffly to look at the person who caught the bullet.

It was a black-clothed youth. If it wasn't Leng Xing, who else could it be?

Everyone was stunned. Hou Ruolan stared blankly at the other party. She knew that Leng Xing was very powerful and was a special bodyguard. It was said that he had done that kind of human life business in the past, but... "...". He could actually catch bullets so well?

"You are a bit ruthless..." Leng Xing looked at Wang Chengbo and said.

The Kunlun disciples immediately stepped back with cold sweat. After they came back to their senses, they glared at Wang Chengbo fiercely, but they didn't dare to make a move. They looked at Leng Xing with extreme fear.

Someone who could catch bullets at such a close distance with his bare hands was at least at the Earth immortal realm!

This young man was indeed as Big Brother had expected. He was also an expert!

Huang Huafeng stared at the other party in a daze and thought to himself, didn't that Brat Shijie say that he was just an after-sales attendant?

"Let's go quickly..." Leng Xing grabbed Wang Chengbo and said, "The situation has changed. We have to send you and uncle to a safe location!"

"Uncle? Do you know where my father is?" Wang Chengbo said excitedly.

Leng Xing didn't say anything and nodded. However, Wang Chengbo pulled him back and said, "You know where Little Jia is, right?"

"Let's go first, we'll talk later..." Leng Xing avoided the topic and helped Wang Chengbo up.

"I pulled my leg... I can't walk..." Wang Chengbo frowned.

Leng Xing looked at his leg and squatted down to pull open his pant leg without saying anything. Then, he saw the swollen leg and immediately frowned. "How can this be?"

Wang Chengbo said, "I twisted when Mu Yunji pushed me, and I twisted again when this guy chased me..."

"You can't walk with this injury..." Leng Xing didn't say much and turned around to carry the man on his back.

Wang Chengbo was stunned, and Hou Ruolan behind him was also stunned... She became more and more speechless when she saw this scene... ..

"Stretch your feet forward. It will be more comfortable this way..." Leng Xing gently reminded her.

"Oh..." Wang Chengbo's face turned red. He had never been carried by anyone in his entire life. It felt strange... ..

What was going on with this guy?

Hou Ruolan looked at the two of them and found it more and more strange. It was one thing for a woman to fight over him, but why was the man so nice to him? Such a gentle tone, she had never heard it from Leng Xing.

Could it be... ? Leng Xing's target here wasn't that yun-ji mu? In fact, it had always been this dull-witted little brother in front of her?

No Way...

Feeling that she had discovered the truth, Hou Ruolan sucked in a breath of cold air. Then, she felt discouraged. How could she endure losing to a man?

Watching them leave, she stamped her foot and hurried after them, she must make it clear today!

Behind the Kunlun disciple is a gloomy face, do not know whether to follow, the other party just did not attack him is already very give face.

After hesitating for a while, he finally sighed and shook his head, thinking: forget it, the elders are here anyway, you can't run away!

"This is?" Yang Renjie home, dog father and Zhang Bureau looked at the computer on the photo curiously: "What do you mean?"

"The Panorama of Mars!" Yang Renjie smiled and said, "I just called my old lover to send it over. This is the last set of panoramas of Mars sent over from North America 30 years ago. It's the only one in the world by the astronomical administration. The images of the documentaries you saw in China were all modified using this.”

“What’s the use of this?” Dog Dad asked curiously.

“Compare it!” Yang Renjie said, “Aren’t there players who pass down the map of Mars in the game? This is the most realistic panorama in modern times. There are no changes. It’s unlikely that a gaming studio in central China could get this map. No matter how realistic his game is, it should be copied from the original documentary. Let’s compare it carefully. If there are some parts that are not in the documentary but the real images are the same, then it means... There is a possibility of your guess ...” said Yang Renjie quietly.

Chapter 275: The Golden Immortals of Kunlun (part one)

“Damn...” after a few hours of comparison, Yang Renjie rubbed his chin and said, “It’s really the same...”. While speaking, he pointed at a valley map and said, “This set of maps was taken 30 years ago. At that time, due to the stable topographic structure, the surrounding sand was not severely degraded. It has been designated as the location of the next Mars landing site, known as the Angel Triangle. It has never been released in documentaries.”. “...”

“Didn’t you say that the upper echelons of North America have already given up on this project?” The dog father frowned and said, “Why is there a location for the next landing site?”

“This should at least give some hope to those who work in the Astronomy Bureau, Right? We can’t just openly say that we’ll let you be actors for life, right?” Yang Renjie rolled his eyes and said.

The Dog Father: “...”

“Now the comparison is more or less out...”. Yang Renjie pointed at the computer and said, “The players uploaded a total of more than 30,000 maps of the Martian landscape, and there are more than 17,000 maps that are not duplicated. They can basically match the actual maps of the astronomical bureau. Although some places have undergone some geological changes, they can still be deduced ...”

“What you mean is?” Director Zhang’s heart skipped a beat. To be honest, when his old partner told him about his speculation, he almost did not believe it at all. He only thought that the other party had gone crazy looking for his daughter, now, from Yang Renjie’s tone, it was actually possible?

“It means that the game team may have used some means to get the astronomy bureau’s map...” Yang Renjie lit a cigarette and said.

The dog father frowned. “Didn’t you say that this map is very difficult for outsiders to get?”

Yang Renjie: “It is difficult to get, but it is much more reliable than your alien’s deduction, right?”

Director Zhang was silent. He was actually more inclined to Yang Renjie’s point of view.

Hearing that, dog dad also lit a cigarette. He was silent. He knew in his heart that what he said was incredible. Any normal person would probably think that he was crazy.

"I'm very curious...". Yang Renjie suddenly said, "If what you said is true, according to the game's official announcement, there are tens of thousands of players. If this is a modified invasion plan, there's no reason for tens of thousands of players to say that they didn't notice it, right?"

Hearing that, the dog father looked at him and said, "If you are one of the players and know that this game is a real world, and you can turn yourself into a Superman, would you be willing to disclose it to outsiders?"

Yang Renjie was stunned. He had to say that what the dog father said was not unreasonable. Human nature was like that. Who would not hide something good? It was the retard who would share it, okay?

Moreover, once it was publicized, it would definitely attract the attention of the whole world. When that time came, he might even be in a certain amount of danger. This kind of thankless task was something that normal people would not do.

But it was still too ridiculous...

"I still don't believe it..." Yang Renjie shook his head. "Unless you can find a player to prove it to me..."

Hearing that, the dog father was stunned and suddenly became spirited. "You're right!"

"What?" Director Zhang and Yang Renjie looked at the shocked dog father and said in a daze.

"This map alone is not convincing, but if a player can prove it, it will be different..." the dog father said excitedly.

"Didn't you just say that the players won't cooperate?" Yang Renjie was speechless.

"That's because the players who know the inside story won't cooperate!" The dog father quickly said, "Most of the players don't know the inside story now. If we can use them to show the effect, the higher-ups should believe it, right?"

"Show how?" Yang Renjie and director Zhang asked in a daze.

"I once saw Xiao Jia disappear directly from the game cabin. I suspect that this game is to teleport the players directly to Mars. If we can find an ordinary player to let him log into the game, it should be very convincing, right?"

Yang Renjie heard and Zhang Bureau looked at each other, feeling that the other side said so serious, they were a little uncertain of their own judgment.

Yang Renjie hesitated for a moment and then asked: "Where to find an ordinary player? Through Your Public Security System?"

"No, I only know one. Let's go find her now! !"

“This after all how to return a cold star?” Hou Ruo Lan all the way to follow, acid looked at lying on the back of the cold star Wang Cheng Bo Way.

Leng Xing frowned. “What are you doing here?”

Hou Ruo Lan heard a mouth, immediately aggrieved, but has not yet said on the back of Wang Chengbo said: “Let her follow it, had better send her to a safe place.”

Hou Ruolan was stunned when she heard that. She didn’t expect Wang Chengbo to speak up for her.

“It’s dangerous to follow us...” Leng Xing frowned.

“It’s more dangerous to stay there...” Wang Chengbo said calmly, “My father told me that decent cultivators usually don’t harm mortals, but now it’s obvious that Kunlun is disregarding the rules... “What if Miss Hou stays there and Kunlun thinks that she knows something and arrests her for interrogation “... Plus, Li Xiaoqian is playing tricks on the side. It’s very easy for things to go wrong “...”

Leng Xing was silent for a while. He thought about Li Xiaoqian’s character in the intelligence report, then nodded and said, “What you said makes sense...”

Hou Ruolan bit her lip. Although Wang Chengbo was speaking up for her, she didn’t feel comfortable at all. She kept feeling that Leng Xing seemed to be very willing to listen to this man’s words...

Leng Xing, who had been walking quickly, suddenly stopped and narrowed his eyes as he looked ahead.

Hou Ruolan also stopped when she saw this. The Huang family’s villa was in the suburbs, and the surrounding environment was very good. Looking ahead, they could see a pine forest. In addition, it was foggy at this time, so they could hardly see anything. Hou Ruolan was instantly puzzled, she hurriedly asked, “What’s Wrong?”

As soon as she finished her words, she heard a burst of strange laughter, which only shook the surrounding forest. Hou Ruolan and Wang Chengbo couldn’t help but cover their ears, but they still felt as if their eardrums were about to explode. It was very uncomfortable!

“Interesting, interesting... I haven’t met such a young Earth immortal for at least a hundred years...” after the laughter, a short and fat old man in white slowly walked out from the forest with his hands behind his back.

“That’s strange...” as soon as he said that, another tall and thin old man walked out from the side. Compared to the short and fat old man with a friendly face, this tall and thin old man’s face looked much colder.

“The junior named Qing que in the information isn’t old either. Where did this sect find so many good materials?”

“I think the venerated immortal is right. This sect must have a Beyonder mystic realm. I’m afraid it’s not worse than Kunlun...” the two old men had just finished speaking, a cold female voice came from behind. Hou Ruolan turned her head and saw a woman in a robe slowly walking out from the fog. Although this woman’s beauty had faded and she looked a little old, her facial features were still extremely stunning, upon closer inspection, she looked quite similar to the woman who had fought with Mu Yunji.

Leng Xing put Wang Chengbo down with a solemn expression and said to Hou ruolan, "Help me take care of him."

Hou Ruolan:"..."

This kid... seems to be able to remain calm in the face of danger...

The three of them exchanged a glance. The three of them hadn't hidden their auras at all. To be able to remain so calm in the face of the three celestial immortals... putting aside their cultivation bases, just their calm demeanor in the face of danger was worthy of praise.

If they were willing to submit to Kunlun, they wouldn't have to resort to such cruel methods... ..

"Leng Xing?" Hou Ruolan looked at Leng Xing and said worriedly, "You..."

"Don't worry..." Leng Xing slowly took out the necklace on his chest. "Don't be afraid of what you'll see later..."

Chapter 276: The Golden Immortal of Kunlun (middle)

"What? You want me to enter the game for you to see? What's so interesting about that?" The little fairy was speechless when she heard her father's request.

"That... there is indeed something very important to confirm..." father dog said with a serious face.

"Even if you say so..." the little fairy looked at him, a hint of wariness appeared on her face. Although he was an old handsome man and had been acting like a good housekeeper these days, this was definitely not a reason for him to bring two strange men into her room...

If he said that he wanted her to log into the game, who knew what she would do?

They were not very familiar with each other, so they had to take necessary precautions...

The dog father was a criminal police officer, so he was very observant. He instantly saw a trace of distrust on the other party's face, and he immediately became anxious. However, there was nothing he could do. The other party had only known him for a few days.., it was obviously impossible for the other party to completely trust him.

Although the little girl hadn't been in contact with anyone for a long time, it didn't mean that she was stupid. After all, she had once been in Shanghai's financial circle, so what kind of monster hadn't she seen?

"So..." although the dog father was anxious, he tried his best to speak in a gentle voice, "Little Landlord, you have to have some concerns. I'll call the two pairs of tenants over. If you have any people you can trust, you can also call them over. Once there are more people, you won't have any concerns, right?"

The tenants that the dog father mentioned were the couple and the teacher couple who had eaten together previously.

“This...”the little fairy hesitated for a moment before finally nodding. “Alright...”

After getting the promise, the dog father hurriedly dialed the phone numbers of the other two tenants. In the end, only the woman was free at home while the man was at work. The middle-aged couple also had classes and would only be back at around five in the afternoon, the dog father looked at the time. There were at least three hours left, and his heart immediately became anxious.

He did not know why, but he always had a sense of unease. Those who worked on the front lines all year round, and those who lived for a long time, often had this sense of crisis. He had been feeling that a crisis was approaching since noon.

But at this time, he knew that he could not push it too hard. He could only force down the unease in his heart and try his best to comfort the little fairy.

Yang Renjie looked at the little fairy and said in a low voice, “This girl doesn’t look like a Superman no matter how you look at it. Are you sure your friend is Serious?”As he said that, Yang Renjie pointed at his head.

“Who knows?”Old Zhang rolled his eyes. To be honest, if he didn’t work with the other party all the time and knew Old Wang’s mental endurance, he might have already reported to the psychiatric department and arrested him.

While they were talking, the phone suddenly rang. Old Zhang looked at the phone and saw that it was the deputy director, Old Bai, then, he quickly picked up the phone and said, “Hello, what’s wrong, Old Bai? I have something to do outside. I probably won’t return to the station until tomorrow. HMM? Who are you talking about? Old Li?”

“Really? That’s great. That son of a B * Tch should have been locked up long ago!”Old Zhang said excitedly.

“What’s the situation?”The dog father was also attracted by the situation here, so he came over.

“What? This...”old Zhang’s excited face suddenly stiffened, and then became more and more serious. After a long time, he hung up the phone.

“What’s Wrong?”The dog father and Yang Renjie asked quickly.

“A good news and a bad news!”

“What’s The Bad News?”Dog father asked cautiously.

Old Zhang said with a serious expression, “The good news is that elder Li came. When he heard that the governor betrayed his subordinates, he immediately detained him. In other words, Old Wang, you are safe now. The government has restored their protection for you!”

Dog father: “I’m asking for the bad news... forget it, who is that elder Li?”

“Who else could he be?”Director Zhang rolled his eyes at him and said, “Of course, it’s old master Li Yunfei!”

'hiss... ?'? 'The big shots of the capital city are also alarmed??' Old Wang was delighted at first, but then he came back to his senses and asked nervously, "What's the Bad News?"

Usually, when someone said good news and bad news and gave priority to the good news, the bad news was definitely the worst news...

"The Twelve Golden Immortals of Kunlun have come out in full force and have arrived in City C. their target seems to be the sect behind your daughter. I heard that the legendary thousand-year-old ancestor of Kunlun has also left the mountain... "...". That was a human-shaped nuclear bomb-level figure who had overturned several dynasties. He was probably in city c right now... Director Zhang said with some seriousness, "Old Wang, I'm afraid something big is going to happen!"

"Really?" Old Wang also felt that the situation was getting worse...

"I'll call and ask about the situation..." old Zhang Said and called director Bai again... ..

"Twelve Golden Immortals?" Yang Renjie was confused. "Are you guys talking about immortal cultivation novels?"

Old Wang rolled his eyes at him and didn't intend to pay attention to him, but suddenly, the petite little fairy came over and hid behind Old Wang.

"What's Wrong?" Old Wang asked curiously when he saw the little fairy's nervous expression.

"Human... human trafficker... came into the neighborhood..." the little fairy stammered as she pointed outside.

Human trafficker? Old Wang was stunned. Was she so arrogant? Barging into the neighborhood in broad daylight? And she scared our little landlord so much. Did she really think that we were just decorations?

Old Wang, who was trying to gain her trust, patted the little fairy's shoulder and then looked at her fiercely. However, when he looked at her, his whole body suddenly froze...

"Old Zhang..."

"What's Wrong?" Old Zhang, who was still on the phone, frowned.

"What did you say the Golden Immortals of Kunlun looked like?"

"How would I know what they looked like?" Old Zhang said in a bad mood.

"Do you think... the ones across the street look like them?"

Lao Zhang:"..."

"What do you mean by Kunlun?" Asked boss Li with a straight face, glaring at elder Li of Kunlun in the police station. In the police station, besides elder Li and some Kunlun disciples, elder Hong of Er Mei and his disciples are also here.

Actually, elder Hong could have left a long time ago, but when he found out that Kunlun was actually pressuring the authorities so forcefully, he couldn't help but stay behind out of curiosity. After all, this was a major matter. If Kunlun really fell out with the authorities, all the major sects had to take sides.

"The sect behind the kid of the Liu family is an evil cultivator. The sect master has ordered that it must be eliminated!" Elder Li said with a cold expression.

"Luofu is the official cooperating sect and a strong supporter of the National Dragon Group Plan. How did it become an evil cultivator in the mouth of Kunlun?" Elder Li Yunfei said with a livid face.

"Ordinary people like you don't know evil. It's normal for you to be bewitched by others. We, Kunlun, hold the righteous path in the world. It's our duty to sweep away evil. We hope that the officials will not obstruct us. Elder Li should also know that if there are no problems with that sect, why would they take the initiative to cooperate with the officials?"

Elder Li laughed angrily when he heard that. "From what you Kunlun mean, those who take the initiative to cooperate with our officials must be evil cultivators, right?"

While they were talking, a tall middle-aged man suddenly walked in quickly with an anxious expression. It was Bai Ju, who had just talked to elder Zhang.

"What's Wrong?" Elder Li frowned.

"Director Zhang just called. He said that Kunlun's people surrounded their neighborhood, and it seems that they want to capture Old Wang and a disciple who is suspected to be Luo Fu."

"Send someone over immediately! !" Elder Li slammed the table with a livid face. "I want to see who dares to use force in public today! !"

Elder Li of Kunlun's face darkened when he heard that. "Elder Li, are you really going to break the agreement between US cultivators and the officials?"

Chapter 277: The Golden Immortals of Kunlun (part two)

"This is the world of martial arts!" In the police station, elder Li said in a deep voice, "In the past hundreds of years, Kunlun has never violated the rules set by your government. Not only do you organize all the cultivation sects to protect the territory of central China from being invaded by the transcendents from the outside world, but you also adhere to the rules and never interfere with the affairs of the secular elites. Basically, we are far away from the mortal world. We have done everything that your government asked us to do. How come... "... are you unwilling when it's your turn to keep your promise?"

Elder Li: "..."

"Let's talk it out. Why Are You So Angry?" Elder Hong quickly tried to persuade him.

However, he was thinking about how to report this matter to the sect.

Once Kunlun and the government fell out, the big sects that were affiliated with Kunlun would have to take sides. According to the situation in the past, they would definitely follow Kunlun. However, the imperial court today was different from the imperial court in the past, the current era was also different from the past.

With the development of technology, it was impossible for cultivators to be as unbridled as before. The Army of the imperial court now had the strength to completely wipe out the cultivation sects.

“There’s nothing to say...”. Elder Li flicked his sleeves and said, “This is a matter of principle. The agreement that was signed back then was like this. If the government wants to break the agreement, then the things that Kunlun agreed to back then naturally don’t count. You guys think about it carefully!”

After saying that, he didn’t wait for the other party to reply and directly left with his disciples.

Elder Li was so angry that his face turned ashen.

Seeing this, elder Hong sighed and said, “Elder Li, don’t be angry. Elder Li is a sword immortal, and his temper has always been straightforward. About this matter, I think...”

“Elder Hong...”elder Li suddenly interrupted the other party’s words and faintly asked, “If Kunlun insists on fighting with the official, which side is emei on?”

Elder Hong choked immediately and was secretly shocked. The authorities really had the intention of falling out with Kunlun?

“This... this matter is too big, I can’t make the decision... i... I have to go back and report to the sect master before...”

“Emei... do you always want to be held hostage by Kunlun Like This?”Elder Li didn’t give the other party a chance to stall for time and continued to ask.

“Elder Li...”. Elder Hong smiled bitterly and said, “It’s useless even if you force me. How could an elder like me be able to make such a decision ? Moreover.. ... Have your officials really thought about doing this? To put it bluntly, do the officials really believe that the so-called Luo Fu can support the situation in central China?”

Elder Li was instantly speechless upon hearing this.

Seeing the other party’s hesitation, elder Hong immediately shook his head and smiled. “Elder Li, please think about it carefully...”as he spoke, he also led his disciples out.

After elder Hong left, Bai Ju looked at elder Li, who had a heavy expression, and asked carefully, “Elder Li, then... Should we still send people?”

“Yes, of course we will!”Elder Li glared at the other party. “Don’t tell me that you are scared by the other party and want to retreat? Then why did you come all the way here?”

Elder Tian, who had followed elder Li here, frowned and said, “But Kunlun said...”

“Let’s save him First!” Elder Li said in a deep voice, “I don’t believe that Kunlun would dare to completely fall out with the authorities. After we save him, I’ll come out to make peace and give them a way out. Anyway, we have to stall for time first. We can’t let Kunlun kill Luo Fu Like This!”

Elder Tian nodded. “That makes sense!”

“Why aren’t you going?” Elder Li stared at director Bai who was still in a daze.

“Oh Oh... .” The White Bureau then reacted, hurriedly ran to call people... . . .

“Elder, do you think this official will really fall out with Kunlun because of that new sect?” After leaving the police station, Luo Feifan, a personal disciple of elder Hong, asked curiously.

“Who can say for sure?” Elder Hong shook his head and said with a smile, “It depends on whether the authorities have the boldness of Li Shimin in the past. However, in this tight situation, the gambling risk of the authorities is not any worse than that of the Li dynasty in the past.”

“Kunlun probably doesn’t want to fall out with the authorities, right?” Luo Feifan frowned and said, “What exactly does that Luofu guy have? Is he worth the trouble of Kunlun?”

“What else can he have?” Elder Hong said with a smile, “Of course, it’s the Mystic Realm!”

Luo Feifan was stunned when he heard this. “Isn’t the mystic realm only available in Kunlun?”

As the personal disciple of an elder, he was going to participate in the Kunlun martial arts competition at the end of the year to fight for a spot in the mystic realm for Er Mei. Therefore, he knew a little about these things.

“Who said that?” Elder Hong rolled his eyes. “Doesn’t the Huangjue Temple have one too?”

“Uh... does the huangjue temple... have one too?” Luo Feifan, who was not even thirty years old, was naturally a little unfamiliar with a large sect like the huangjue temple that had been in closed-door cultivation for almost a hundred years.

“Sigh... speaking of which... our sects have the opportunity to enter the mystic realm. We really have to thank the Huangjue Temple...” elder Hong said faintly.

“Uh... Why?” Luo Feifan was even more confused.

Elder Hong: “If it wasn’t for the rise of the Huangjue temple that made Kunlun feel threatened, how could he have opened the mystic realm to recruit us? For the past thousand years, Kunlun has been the leader of many sects because of that mystic realm, right?”

“So... perhaps the appearance of Luo Fu Isn’t a bad thing?” Luo Feifan finally understood a little.

“Hahahaha!” Elder Hong laughed heartily and patted the disciple’s shoulder. “I like your cleverness...”

After a pause, he continued, “That’s right, everything in this world is afraid of monopoly. Without competition, the upper class can only squeeze the bottom. This is a principle that has never changed. If this Luo Fu is also a mystic realm sect, it would be unfortunate for Kunlun, but it would be a great fortune for many of our sects!”

“This... the premise is that this sect can withstand Kunlun, right?” Luo Feifan was stunned.

“That’s right...” Hong changlao said solemnly, “Kunlun has suffered once before, and this time, history will not repeat itself. Luo Fu’s situation is much more difficult than that of the Huangjue temple back then ... I just received the news that the Great Luo ancestor of Kunlun has personally made a move this time!”

Luo Feifan was stunned. He took a deep breath and said, “Master, what state is Big Luo in? I heard that he has lived for more than a thousand years. Did He really become an immortal?”

“Big Luo... .” elder Hong sighed. “I don’t know either. After all, even though I’ve lived for more than two hundred years, I’ve never had the fortune to meet that venerable immortal of Kunlun. However, my previous Grandmaster had the fortune to meet master Xuanzang of the Huangjue Temple. According to him, that Big Luo is a true immortal!”

“I warn you not to mess around!” In the community, Old Zhang pointed at the opposite of a few old men, in fact guilty of a batch.

Kunlun Gold Immortals, rumors are at least the Ming dynasty when the old monster came alive, to say that the heart is not a little nervous is impossible.

Although the other side has not released a bit of momentum, but the shadow of the famous tree...

“Benefactor, please calm down...” The old man in the lead cupped his fists and said, “We are not here to make things difficult for you. Captain Wang Lin, your misunderstanding has been resolved. Our target now is the little girl behind you. She is an evil disciple. I hope that your authorities will not continue to protect her!”

“What Evil Disciples?” Wang Lin immediately protected the little fairy. “She is obviously an ordinary girl. Are you people from Kunlun trying to break the ban in name?”

“We both know that she’s not an ordinary person. Please don’t make a mistake, Captain Wang!” The old Taoist said faintly.

“I’m just an ordinary person, the most ordinary kind...” the little fairy hid behind Wang Lin and said weakly.

She was completely confused by what was happening in front of her. What was going on with this group of people wearing Taoist robes? How am I an evil cultivator? Evil coal!

She recalled some old superstitious videos in which some wizards falsely accused their daughters of being reincarnated as white bone spirits and brought them to the back of the mountain to be hacked to death with knives. Could this group of old Taoist priests be that kind of people?

Damn, where are the security guards? Dead people? Your landlord is about to be kidnapped, why aren’t you coming over? Did I F * cking pay so much property fees in a year for nothing?

“Old Wang, Where’s Your Gun? Take it out first to intimidate us and stall for time... I’ve already asked old Bai to call someone...” Old Zhang said in a low voice.

“The gun was given to my son for self-defense...” Old Wang said guiltily.

“F * ck, that’s a police gun. You’re really F * cking reckless!”

“In that kind of situation, what’s the point of a police gun?” Old Wang frowned and said, “Moreover, do you think that these people in front of you can be stopped by a single gun?”

“Elder!” At this moment, Situ Ming, who was behind him, leaned forward and said, “Elder Li called and said that the police station has already sent people over. Our Side...”

The elder frowned when he heard that. Did the authorities really intend to go against them?

Then, he said to Situ Ming, “Then don’t waste time. Go ahead and be careful!”

“Yes!” Situ Ming nodded when he heard that. He strode to the front and slowly pulled out his sword. He bowed and said, “Kunlun Situ Ming, I would like to ask for your advice!”

The little fairy’s eyelids twitched when she saw this. She thought to herself, “Damn, is he really going to kill someone?”?

Chapter 278: I don’t think I can handle this old man!

“Senior brother, although this little girl is divine and has the appearance of an Earth Immortal, the Qi and blood in her body doesn’t feel like it’s been tempered. What’s going on?”

In the small district, behind the chief elder, a woman wearing a Daoist robe asked softly.

“Humph... do you even need to say that?” The chief elder smiled slightly, he said disdainfully, “It must be that Luofu sect that used the resources in the secret realm to help them grow, just like the Huangjue temple back then. That’s why they trained their disciples to look like this. How Stupid...”

“Senior brother is right...” the woman nodded and said.

In the front, Situ Ming, who was holding a sword and asking for a fight, saw that the woman was still trembling and hiding behind Wang Lin. He immediately frowned and looked at the elder.

“Since she likes to pretend, she can just attack directly? Do you need me to teach you?” The elder frowned, he thought to himself, ‘this child Situ Ming, her aptitude can be said to be the best among the younger generation of Kunlun disciples. However, her actions are too steady, and she has lost the courage to advance.’ This was also one of the main reasons why he lost to the personal disciple of the sect master of Yunshan during the last martial arts demonstration of Kunlun.

“Yes!” Situ Ming’s face turned red after being reprimanded. He then took a step forward and his figure was like a cloud floating in the sky as he stabbed towards the little fairy behind Wang Lin without any trace.

Wang Lin had already lost sight of the other party the moment the other party moved. He was shocked to know that the other party had already made a move. Based on his many years of experience, he knew that his reaction would definitely not be able to stop these cultivators, then, he gritted his teeth, turned around and used his body to completely hug the little fairy to stop the other party.

The little fairy was slightly stunned. She felt that it was very strange. Situ Ming's actions were extremely fast. In the eyes of ordinary people, it was difficult to even catch him. However, she could see it clearly. Moreover, her senses were extremely strange. It was a little like a movie that was four times faster. She only felt that it was incomparably ghastly...

When Situ Ming saw Wang Lin using his body to protect his opponent, he shook his head slightly and thought to himself, "Ignorant mortal."

Then, he turned the longsword in his hand. The sword light instantly shot out from a strange angle like a stream of water, stabbing towards the place where Wang Lin's body could not protect him.

It was precisely the heavenly water flowing flower that the situ siblings were best at!

The little fairy was stunned when she saw that the angle of the sword could be like this?

Then, she subconsciously reached out to grab it!

This grab was completely due to the battle nerves that she was used to in the game. Moreover, she accurately grabbed the blunt point of the blade. In an instant, that pair of tender little hands stopped the flowing sword light, and the sword light stopped, in an instant, it turned back into the white longsword.

She grabbed it with her hands?

Situ Ming was slightly stunned. His heavenly water sword came from the mystical realm, and it was a top-notch sword skill. Its trajectory was not normal, and it moved like flowing water. It was the most difficult to figure out. This woman actually dared to grab it with her hands, and she even managed to grab it!

"Senior brother..."the female elder behind him was obviously shocked as well... ..

"What precise techniques!"The elder took a deep breath. The Situ clan's heavenly water sword technique was one of the most difficult sword techniques to figure out the trajectory of the secret swords of Kunlun. Even at the same level, he did not dare to grab it with his hands easily, moreover, he had seen clearly just now that the moment the girl made her move, she was extremely shrewd. If she moved slower or faster, her entire palm would probably be cut off.

His judgment might have been wrong. This girl was probably not a junior who would pull out a seedling to encourage growth...

After being stunned for two seconds, Situ Ming hurriedly shook his inner strength and wanted to pull out his longsword. After the little fairy felt the force, she subconsciously wanted to use force to pull the longsword out of the other party's hand, however, when she suddenly remembered that she was being hugged by the dog father, she did not dare to use force casually. She hurriedly pulled her palm away and allowed the other party to pull out the longsword.

Situ Ming staggered a few steps back and looked at the other party coldly. "Do you still want to pretend to be a mortal and hide behind me?"

When the dog father heard that, he looked at the Little Fairy in a daze. The little fairy also looked at her hand in a daze with a look of disbelief.

I... How Am I so powerful?

"Little... little landlord?"The dog father called out carefully.

The little fairy looked at him in fear, then looked at her own hands and said in panic, "I. . . I didn't know that I could do this..."

"I know... I know... Don't be afraid!"The dog father immediately comforted her gently, looking at the girl in front of him who was a little flustered, he thought of his own dog egg. The first time that wretched girl discovered his ability was probably when he faced that so-called evil cultivator, right?

Was he so terrified at that time?

Girl... What happened to her now?

"Witch, look at the Sword!"On the other side, seeing that the other party was still pretending to be innocent, situ Ming was suddenly angry. Feeling that he had been played, he did not show any mercy this time. He mustered all his strength and stabbed the sword again.

This time, when he attacked with all his strength, the inner qi on the blade of the sword made a sizzling sound in the air. Obviously, it was not the same as the sword that was used to test the other time.

Seeing this, the little fairy pushed away her father and rushed forward. Before her opponent started to move, she blocked the tip of the sword and grabbed the long sword once again.

Quake Mantra!

Situ Ming's eyes flashed. This time, there were no mortals to interfere. He was not afraid of being hurt by accident. He instantly activated the inner strength on the long sword and waited to shatter the hands that dared to grab his long sword twice!

Quake Mantra!

The little fairy took a step forward. Her mind was completely filled with the things that the instructor had taught her in the game. She had been through many battles and practices, so she was already familiar with the way. The ground was instantly shattered by her foot, then, a pure force came out from her hand. In an instant, that force shattered situ Ming's own vibration force and spread up.

With a cracking sound, Situ Ming, who was holding the sword, felt a powerful rebound force coming towards him. Before he could react, his fingers holding the sword were instantly distorted by the vibration!

The pain of his bones being torn apart caused situ Ming to lose his grip on the long sword. With a miserable cry, he continuously retreated. Seeing this, the elders behind him hurriedly stepped forward to support him. Then, they saw that the fingers of Situ Ming's right hand had been completely shaken into a mess, the force was still going up. They were shocked and quickly shouted, "Green String!"

The female elder beside him quickly stepped forward. Her right hand struck Situ Ming's arm dozens of times at lightning speed before she managed to draw out the force.

After drawing out the force, the female elder looked at her trembling fingers and the numbness. She muttered, "What a pure force!"

She looked at the little fairy and thought to herself, "This little girl's Qi and blood level is average. At most, she is at the initial stage of the Earth immortal realm. Moreover, it is obvious that she is not well-trained. How can she condense such pure strength?"

Normally, a person who could use 30% of his or her strength was already an extraordinary expert. Judging from the strength that this girl just released, she could instantly shake the bones of Situ Ming, who was also at the Earth immortal realm, into that state, wasn't she using 100% of her strength? Was she using some kind of secret technique?

The female elder guessed secretly.

"Your excellency is so ruthless!" The chief elder looked at Situ Ming's completely twisted right arm and said with a gloomy face.

Ruthless? The little fairy rolled her eyes. You guys used a sword to chop people up just because of a disagreement. Now you want to blame me for being ruthless. Damn it, you old man, your double standard is comparable to a certain basketball club that closed down a hundred years ago... ..

"Senior brother, time is tight!" The female elder reminded.

"Mm..." the elder nodded, originally, he didn't want to lower himself when dealing with juniors, so he let Situ Ming make a move. He didn't expect this girl to be so sharp. Now that the officials were about to arrive, in order not to directly clash with the officials..., he could only make the first move and take the doll in front of him away.

Then, without any more nonsense, he took a slight step forward and said in a low voice, "This old man, Zhou Chiyang, has experienced your great skill!" As soon as he finished speaking, the aura around the old man's body surged, and his entire Daoist robe swelled up like a balloon, in an instant, a huge pressure spread out, only forcing the few mortals to fall to the ground. Even breathing became difficult.

The little fairy also felt that her breathing was not smooth. Her whole body felt as heavy as if it was filled with mercury. She thought to herself, "This old man doesn't seem to be able to handle it himself..."

Chapter 279: as expected, it was an evil trick

In the base, a group of people were also paying attention to this fight. After seeing the old man make a move, Wang Goudan muttered, "I don't think I can beat him..."

At this time, after two weeks of recuperation, Wang Goudan's body's genes had finally stabilized by more than half. His swollen body had basically recovered the beauty of an elf. However, from time to time, a green sprout would grow on his skull, just like a green hair, he looked extremely amusing.

"It's normal that you can't defeat him..." Seer sighed. "In order to withstand your spiritual energy, I've secretly strengthened your bodies with genes. However, you're still only a level one life form after all, and your bodies haven't undergone systematic training yet. Even if you have the battle consciousness of a level three life form, it's obviously impossible for you to defeat a true level three life form."

"So the people we beat up last time were real?" Wang Goudan stuck out his tongue as he thought of the Yunshan disciple he had kicked to death. He couldn't help but think to himself, "Amitabha, I really didn't do it on purpose..." It was this Lord Dog who lied to us that you're an NPC. It really has nothing to do with me...

Xi Ye looked at Goudan from the side, "Can you not say that out loud?"

Everyone: "..."

"My Lord!" The system asked. "Do you wish to activate teleportation?"

"Well, turn it on..." seer nodded. "She won't be able to make it to the authorities in her current condition..."

In reality, the fairy as everyone saw so tired to parry, is obviously completely at a disadvantage, but the heart is playing very angry.

In fact, she could see clearly the speed of the other party's attacks. However, her body could not keep up with her consciousness. It was fine if she wanted to hit that Situ Ming, but his movements were too slow, the old man in front of her, who could not fight as he pleased, was really struggling.

At this moment, elder Zhou was also surprised. He thought that when he attacked, a mere earth immortal would only need one or two moves at most. However, the strength of this doll was very exquisite. The strength of this little earth immortal was comparable to that of a heaven immortal, moreover, his moves were exquisite. When he fought with him, he did not make any unnecessary movements. The strength of his close-range attacks made him extremely shocked.

"Senior brother!" The female elder in the distance said with a frown.

When elder Zhou heard the voice, he frowned. He was ranked fifth among the twelve gold immortals. He was an old man who had been alive since the Zhengde years of the Ming dynasty. Nowadays, many sect masters had to address him as senior, however, it was so strenuous for a junior. When the officials arrived, how could he save face?

At the thought of this, he didn't want to hold back anymore. The gang Qi of a heaven immortal instantly burst out from his body. At a close distance, he directly sent the little fairy flying.

“Little Landlord?”The dog father in the distance was immediately shocked, but at this moment, he was intimidated by Elder Zhou’s pressure. His body went limp and he could barely move. He could only watch helplessly, and he was a little angry that he had implicated the other party.

If he had not come here, the people of Kunlun would not have noticed the little landlord, right?

At this moment, the little fairy who was sent flying rolled a few times on the ground before she could stabilize her body. She was so shocked that she could only grit her teeth in anger. In her heart, she missed her strong body very much.

Just as she was thinking about it, an extremely familiar electronic voice suddenly sounded.

Upon detecting that the player had suffered fatal damage, the teleportation device was activated. The player was requested to remain where they were and to activate the teleportation device after three seconds to replace the Green Titan’s body!

“F * ck...”the little fairy was stunned... ? ... I don’t seem to be in the game cabin, right? Could it be that I forgot to log off? Was it actually in a dungeon?

Dog Daddy and the others were actually npcs?

Just as he was thinking about it, elder Zhou had already pounced in front of him. Just as he was about to knock her out and take her down, suddenly, a ray of light descended from the sky. Sensing Danger, elder Zhou hurriedly stopped himself and retreated. However, he was still a step too late, the palm that was grabbing the little fairy was instantly cut in half by the spatial light.

Elder Zhou’s pupils suddenly constricted, and he instantly used a movement technique to retreat thirty feet away!

“Senior brother?”The two elders behind him hurriedly stepped forward. Looking at elder Zhou, who had lost half of his hand, the female elder hurriedly used the acupoint dissolving technique to help stop the bleeding.

Ignoring the wound, elder Zhou looked at the light barrier and muttered, “What is this thing?”

“It’s not a big problem...”the female elder said in a low voice, “The incision is smooth, and there’s no need to make any special adjustments. After a week of rest, it will grow back very quickly.”

“Then... can it grow back?”Yang Renjie and the female elder looked at each other in the distance, feeling a little strange.

“Who knows?”Director Zhang curled his lips and said, “Isn’t he known as the Golden Immortal? I feel a little sorry for not growing it back for you right away...”

Meanwhile, Xi Ye, who was far away in the Martian base, was also stunned. She whispered, “It can grow back? System, I remember that you checked the human genes before, and I don’t think there are any regenerated living cells, right?”

The system replied, “Yes, I’m very sure...”

“So you’re saying that they obtained this ability through training?” Seer was instantly more interested in the training methods of these cultivation sects. This training method could not only train the physique of a level 0 life form like humans to level 3 and above, but it could also train such a system of regenerating limbs. This was a direct change in the characteristics of the genes...

The cultivation techniques of these cultivators might have greater potential than he had imagined. It seemed like the Karakorum martial arts demonstration was inevitable.

Thinking of this, he hurriedly asked, “How’s the construction of the Mountain Gate?”

Al replied, “With the help of a large printer, it’s almost finished. The only thing that’s missing is the meticulous grinding of the fairy engineering team...”

Xi ye replied, “Alright, then everything will be carried out according to the original plan!”

“This is?” After the light faded, everyone looked into the light in a daze. The Petite Loli from before was nowhere to be seen. In its place was a hulk who was tall and muscular all over!

“Heya!” The little fairy moved her body. Suddenly, crackling sounds like firecrackers sounded. The powerful qi and blood in her body made the three elders of Kunlun retreat in shock.

“What the... Hulk?” Director Zhang, who was still in Marvel’s mind, said in a daze.

“It’s not Hulk!” Yang Renjie said excitedly, “Now I believe your friend’s deduction. Damn it, it’s the Green Titan in the game. I’ve seen this model many times on the forum. Damn it, it can really appear in the real world. Wahahaha, this is too interesting. I must get it into this game!”

Papa Dog’s mouth twitched. After hearing the voice of the other party, he was sure that this fierce giant was the petite and cute little landlord. He could only watch as a little Loli transformed into such a fierce giant. He felt extremely strange in his heart. He thought to himself, “I wonder if my dog egg also chose this type of character. When I think about how my cute daughter would turn into this...”. ...

“Hehe, to actually be able to teleport a game character here, this is really F * cking black technology...” the little fairy said excitedly, then, with a malicious smile, she said to Elder Zhou, who had been suppressing him earlier, “Come, come, come, little old man, Let’s start over. This fairy will let you have one hand this time!”

The three of them looked at the little fairy, who was unbelievably strong, and looked at each other, elder Zhou said with a gloomy face, “I told you that such a young girl shouldn’t be so sharp even if she started cultivating from her mother’s womb. It turns out that she is a monster. This Luofu is indeed evil!”

Chapter 280: Heaven Overturning Seal!

“I was wondering where this sect got so many talented juniors. It turns out that they are monsters who have mastered the Dao. I didn’t expect that the Demonic Dao, which was killed all those years ago, would be revived...” outside the Huang family manor, the three elders looked at Leng Xing, who had changed his body, and the female elder of the Situ family immediately sneered.

“Junior sister, don’t be careless. This evil creature has boundless qi and blood, and it’s on the level of a great demon!” The Elder, who looked the oldest, looked a little solemn.

Among the many Golden Immortals, he was the oldest. He was an old antique who had come to life during Tang Tianbao’s time. He was of the same generation as the venerated immortal, but in his era, he had only heard of great demons, the last great demon in the world was the unruly Wang Mang. He had never thought that after a thousand years, there would be a great demon-level monster.

Logically speaking, the spiritual energy in this world was far from what it used to be. It shouldn’t be able to support a great demon.

It seemed that the venerated immortal’s guess was right. A new mystic realm must have been born. The worst thing was that it was actually occupied by a group of demons!

“This is...” Hou Ruolan stared blankly at Leng Xing’s back and muttered, “Leng Xing... is... a demon... Demon?”

Wang Chengbo’s eyes lit up. He had seen this before. It was in the screenshot of Galaxy’s game model. His father had guessed correctly. This game was indeed not a serious game, the player could actually summon the game model into reality...

At this moment, he had a lot of questions in his mind to ask Leng Xing, but he clearly did not have the opportunity to do so now, the gold immortal who looked similar to Situ Xue sneered when he heard his senior brother’s warning. “Great Demon? This is a rare item. I have never seen it before in my life.”

He did not waste any time talking. A sword humming soared into the sky, and the long sword in his hand rushed toward Leng Xing like a stream. Leng Xing, who was blocking the attack, was stunned.

Could this move be used like this?

In the base, when the instructor had taught them, he had also mentioned the race’s combat characteristics of cultivating inner qi. Usually, they would use their qi-jin to perform some very gorgeous moves. Those Gold Knights in the New World could use many gorgeous sword skills., however, Leng Xing had not expected that the sword skills would be so gorgeous. Under the exquisite use of inner qi, it actually gave people the impression that it was like a stream rushing towards them. What was the principle behind this?

Leng Xing, who could not see the technique clearly, did not dare to be careless. He took out his long spear in the air and gathered his strength. The long spear immediately turned into a streak of cold light and accurately stabbed toward the female Taoist priest.

Due to the excessive force, the long spear made a sharp metal whistle in the air. The majestic momentum made the other two elders who were watching the battle from the outside gasp in surprise.

The female Taoist priest who came into direct contact with Leng Xing’s spear was also shocked. Although she was surprised, she did not panic. The power of the stream in her hand instantly turned, and the power of the stream naturally avoided Leng Xing’s sharp light. The spear’s light pierced through the air. In an instant, it pierced through a giant rock ten meters away. Its power was shocking, and the female Taoist priest who had successfully dodged the attack was so scared that she broke out in a cold sweat. If she was stabbed directly, the consequences would be unimaginable...

Leng Xing was not feeling very well at the moment. He did not expect that the opponent could dodge so smoothly. He was actually very confident in his own judgment. Although he could not understand the opponent's technique., however, he could clearly see her speed and the trajectory of her steps. Thus, he used the method of using force to break the technique that the instructor had mentioned and chose to break the technique head-on.

However, he did not expect that the female Taoist opposite him was like a loach. She slipped away as soon as she touched him, causing his spear to miss. Meanwhile, his opponent dodged so smoothly and instantly, forcing him to forcefully withdraw part of his strength., he turned around to defend himself. This forceful retraction of his strength caused his qi and blood to surge, and an extremely uncomfortable feeling welled up in his heart.

Seeing this, the female Taoist priest did not take advantage of the situation to attack. Just now, she had used the power of flowing water to dodge the other party's strength, but just the force of the brush had caused her qi and blood to surge all over her body, and her arms were directly shaken until their tendons and bones were deformed...

Seeing this, the eyes of a black-clothed elder next to him flashed with a bright light. Then, his figure suddenly moved forward in a ghostly manner, taking advantage of the moment when Leng Xing's long spear could not return in time to attack to deliver a palm strike!

The inner strength in his hand turned into a black electric current. Seeing this, Leng Xing could only raise his hand to forcefully receive it. With a loud bang, the two palms collided, but it was like a clap of thunder. It only shook Wang Chengbo and Leng Xing, who were not far away, until they were in a daze...

After the loud bang, the black-robed elder let out a muffled grunt and flew backward. He glided about thirty feet in the air before he managed to stabilize his body. His cold and hard face instantly turned red. It was obvious that his qi and blood were extremely unstable.

The leading elder's pupils constricted when he saw this. This exchange had only lasted for two moves, and both of his gold immortals were injured. He could not help but think to himself, "This demon is really something!"!

However, it was not a bad thing. This fellow had been struck by his junior brother's Yin Thunder Palm, so he must be severely injured at this moment!

The elder looked at the other party as he thought. Leng Xing was indeed in a rather miserable state at this moment. He was half-kneeling on the ground, one of his hands barely supporting his body. The arm that had just received the palm from the other party was charred black, and his face was purple and green!

As the other party had expected, Leng Xing was indeed severely injured. He had just received the palm with his unstable qi and blood. It could be said that he had barely received it. Moreover, the palm strike of the black-clothed old man was extremely strange. During the exchange, a black electric current exploded, it was extremely overbearing. It was a little like the palm strike of the old man who had taught him the skills of an assassin. However, it felt like it was invaded by an evil chill. It was countless times more uncomfortable than normal electric currents!

Even now, that evil chill was still surging up from his arm to his chest, causing Leng Xing's expression to become even uglier.

He had been careless...

According to the intelligence, the Heaven Immortal realm was only an ordinary third-level life form. Back then, when he had saved Wang Xiaojia, Brother Dog had killed a heaven immortal cultivator with ease, however, he didn't expect that these few from Kunlun wouldn't be so easy to deal with.

As expected... ? Should he say that they were indeed worthy of being the leaders of the Cultivation World in central China?

Just as he was thinking, he saw the elder who hadn't made a move all this time take a step forward with a gloomy face. He took out a square-shaped jade medallion from his bosom and slowly leaned forward.

"Senior brother?" The female Taoist priest next to him was shocked when she saw the other party take out this item. "Didn't the venerated immortal say to capture them alive?"

The elder shook his head when he heard that. "This great demon is extraordinary. It's obviously impossible for the three of us to capture him alive. Our main purpose for coming here is to seize the secret realm. If we can't capture him alive with such combat strength, then we can't let him escape!" As he spoke, the square jade medallion in his hand slowly floated into the air.

What was this thing? Leng Xing looked at the square object with extreme vigilance. From the conversation between the two of them, it was obviously a great killing weapon. However, how could that thing injure the enemy?

Could it be used as a brick to hit him directly?

Just as he was thinking, the square jade object really came at him like a flying brick, causing Leng Xing's eyelids to twitch!

However, even though he was complaining in his heart, he did not dare to let the brick hit him. This kunlun cultivator's methods were strange, and Leng Xing, who had suffered twice, naturally did not want to suffer a third time.

Thus, he pulled back and prepared to dodge. However, the moment the brick got close to Leng Xing, it suddenly grew in size. From a small brick the size of a palm, it instantly turned into a small mountain that was twenty to thirty feet long and instantly pressed down, this change came without warning, catching Leng Xing off guard. He wanted to speed up his escape, but he was stuck by a suction force. He could only watch helplessly as the huge stone pressed down!

With a loud boom, the entire mountain range shook violently. Yun Ji Mu and the other Kunlun disciples who were still fighting in the distance were shocked. They thought to themselves, 'what's going on?'

'what's going on?'' 'is someone trying to blow up the mountain?''? Everyone was dumbfounded.

Situ Xue looked outside and saw a jade-colored mountain peak in the distance. She thought to herself, 'this is...'. ...

She had once seen in the records of Kunlun that the Golden Immortals of Kunlun had a treasure, and the first one was the Great Elder's heaven flipping seal!
