

A Bunch 301

Chapter 301: exposed?

"1,000 pure gold? Is he crazy?" The surrounding nobles were all excited. This was only the first round. Even if that kid had a good physique, he should not be worth such a high price...

A regular Silver Knight's hiring fee was only 10 pure gold per month, right? Could it be that they thought that this kid had the potential of a Gold Knight?

"It's Marquis Isabelle!" Someone on the field suddenly recognized him. As soon as he said that, all the nobles had a look of realization on their faces.

Here it came, another confrontation between the new nobles and the ancient noble families!

As the Empire was a warrior and did not stint on military achievements and titles, there would be a large number of new nobles appearing on the battlefield in every generation of the emperor. Of course, the influx of these new nobles would inevitably cause conflicts with some of the ancient noble families.

At this moment, when they saw Isabelle's bid, many of the nobles thought that she was competing with Arthur and immediately understood the sky-high bid.

In the distance, Arthur frowned when he heard the bid. Unlike other nobles, he had a better understanding of Isabelle. Unlike the ordinary new country bumpkins, Isabelle was actually a descendant of the old and declining wealthy families, although he did not use his ancestor's surname after his hard work to rise again, his bloodline was noble, and he had the bearing of a noble, he was not like those country bumpkins who often targeted the old and powerful families because of their inferiority complex.

But why would they suddenly target him this time?

Arthur frowned as he thought about it. He did not seem to have offended this guy recently. Then, he looked at the ribs spirit on the field. Could it be that he was not targeting him, but that the youth was worth that price?

Thinking of this, he carefully looked at brother dog off the field. To be honest, he had also seen the master-level strength of the young man before he decided to buy him out with a large sum of money. He thought that he was quite generous... He didn't expect someone to be more generous than him, 1,000 gold... Based on the young man's current performance, he wouldn't be able to offer such a price...

"Wow, Vichy, your offer... isn't it a bit harsh? Did you dig up a gold mine?" Sam asked softly.

"That young man is worth this price..." Isabelle said softly.

"This... 1,000 pure gold... we haven't even tested his combat aura, and you already know that he's worth this price?" Sam was stunned.

“A woman’s intuition...” Isabelle said softly.

“What an all-purpose explanation...” Sam rolled his eyes and thought to himself, ‘it’s good to be a woman. Anything that doesn’t make sense can be explained by a woman’s intuition...’ ...

“1,000 pure gold?” The illegitimate children of the AUDORAN family looked at each other in a daze, full of incomprehension. With such a price, what right did that skinny ribs have?

Just because he could lift 600 jin? And he used a strength of 1,500 Jin?

Although this result was not bad, it should not be in such a market, right?

1,000 pure gold was not the ceiling for gamblers. Once, the Genius Youth Uther had won the record of 10,000 gold. However, that was only after his Dou Qi test, and he was still able to get this price in the physical fitness test... ... this skinny ribs spirit must have set a record...

In the distance, after putting on his clothes, schisenming also had an incredulous look on his face, but then he suddenly thought of something, and then he revealed a cold smile.

“Miss? Miss! !”

On the other side, in the fort in the south, David hurriedly shook his second miss who was still in a daze. “Someone else has made a bid, quickly respond!”

David’s mood could be said to be very happy now. 1,000 gold coins was enough to buy a thick dowry for his miss and hire several outstanding knights as dowry.

The other brothers and sisters were surprised and jealous at the same time, especially Jenny. The jealousy in her eyes was undisguised!

She had been pampered by her father since she was young, but she didn’t have one thousand gold coins. How could this ugly duckling be so lucky?

Even Goffin looked envious. One thousand gold coins was enough for him to raise a squadron of dragon-horse knights... ...

“Miss Sunny Odolan?” On the arcane crystal, Isabelle saw that the other party did not respond for a long time, so she frowned and called out again.

“Miss!” David quickly shook his miss again.

This was a former general of the Empire, and his title was higher than his master’s. He could not let his miss offend him...

“OH...” sunny finally woke up from her dream. She looked at the screen and was about to answer, but when she saw the anxious expression on brother Dog’s face in the corner, she suddenly choked on her words.

She suddenly remembered the smug look on Brother Dog’s face when he announced that he was her guardian knight... ...

“Miss?” Seeing that his miss was in a Daze, David hurried her again.

"I . . . I don't want to sell..."sunny suddenly said.

"What? ? ?"The people next to her were stunned.

In the arcane crystal, the people at the scene were also sighing. Isabelle also frowned slightly.

She had offered a high price, but this master still wanted to bargain. This was a bit too much...

"Can I ask the reason?"Isabelle asked the crystal in a light voice...

"I . . . I only have one guardian knight... I don't want to sell..."sunny said honestly.

Hearing this, everyone was stunned and thought, "What kind of answer is this?"?

On the other hand, Brother Dog suddenly became energetic when he heard this. He looked proud and puffed out his chest like a proud rooster...

"Are you sure?"Isabelle asked.

Looking at Brother Dog's look, Sunny's hesitant heart calmed down. She nodded and said, "I'm sure. I Won't sell Sims to anyone who bids. I'm very sorry, Your Excellency..."

"Second miss..."David suddenly became anxious. Even his eldest brother, Goffin, couldn't help but say, "Sunny... you're too reckless..."

These words were a promise. If someone offered a higher price, she couldn't sell it. Otherwise, not only would she violate the reputation of the nobles, but she would also offend the newly promoted Marquis, Isabelle!

"PFFT..."Jeanne could not help but Snicker, thinking to herself: What a complete idiot, to let such an opportunity slip away, it seems that he will be poor for the rest of his life. . .

This kind of person, also don't know oneself usually with her what strength... . . .

"This master and servant is interesting..."Sam laughed, and then pointed to the stage like a cocky dog brother said: "You see that smug look on his face... is not silly?"

Generally speaking, this kind of opportunity was rare. The higher the wealth, the more the person who bought you valued you. If they were willing to spend so much money to buy you, they would naturally spend more resources to nurture you, wasn't this better than being a guardian Knight of a woman?

"Forget it..."Isabelle looked at the smug brother dog and smiled. Her tone had a rare hint of gentleness. "Everyone has their own aspirations... this is actually quite good..."

"This idiot... look at his silly smile. He didn't even know that he was tricked by his own master..."after Brother Dog walked down proudly, the group of illegitimate children immediately mocked him.

Once Sunny said that, it could be said that she had completely cut off his path of being bought off by others. He was a guardian knight in this life, yet he was still laughing foolishly. He was really a fool...

However, in the distance, Sassen was clearly looking at the silly smile on Sim's face. For some reason, he felt uncomfortable in his heart. When he thought of Miss Sunny's sweet smile, a wave of jealousy slowly rose in his heart...

You Fool... ? Did you think that you could get that miss just like that! ! ? Fool, only by breaking away from that label can you stand on the same level as her. If you don't change yourself, you can only be a guardian knight forever!

"John Collins, it's Your Turn!" In the illegitimate child's cubicle, the staff member in charge of arranging the appearance order said.

"John Collins?" That staff member immediately frowned and shouted again.

Brother Dog's smile froze when he heard that. He knew that he was calling that damned fatty Pu Yunchuan...

After shouting twice, the staff member's face darkened, just as he was about to impatiently cross out that name, Brother Dog hurriedly went forward and said, "I'm sorry, teacher. My Friend is really on the way due to some urgent matters. She'll be here very soon. Can you let someone else go first?"

When the staff member heard the teacher address him, his expression softened a little. In the academy, they were not teachers, they were just normal support staff.

"What could be more important than the current matter? Do you young people really know what is important?"

"Yes, yes, yes, teacher is right..." brother dog apologized repeatedly, "When he comes, I will definitely scold him. Please do me a favor and don't cross him out..."

"You'd better contact him quickly. You have to arrive before the second round of the skill test in this area at the latest. Otherwise, no one will be able to help him!"

"Yes, yes, yes. I will log off now and rush him!"

Log Off? What the hell? That person did not understand, but he still waved his hand impatiently and said, "Hurry up and go..."

After receiving chengruo, brother dog heaved a sigh of relief in his heart. Then, he quickly ran out of the venue while cursing in his heart, this damn fatty is really troublesome.

He quickly walked out of the venue and quickly found a remote place to activate the teleportation.

A white light flashed. After Brother Dog was teleported away, a figure appeared. It was Shi senming, who had followed him here to find evidence of Brother Dog cheating. In his opinion... That Sim must have used some special cheating method to achieve that kind of result...

"Where did he go? What was that white light just now?" Shi senming approached the spot where brother dog disappeared with a surprised expression.

“Interesting...” suddenly, a cold voice sounded behind schisenming. That voice was so cold that it didn’t have any warmth. It only scared schisenming so much that goosebumps rose all over his body. He turned his head abruptly!

Then, he saw a pair of blue eyes that were as cold as ice... ..

Chapter 302: It’s better to go back and play the game earlier...

“Mom... I’ve given away the money. It doesn’t matter if she goes or not, right?” Pu Yunchuan was dragged like a dead pig by a middle-aged woman. His fat face was full of unwillingness.

“Nonsense...” the middle-aged woman turned around and glared at Pu Yunchuan. “That’s your biological cousin. How can you not be present as her brother?”

“Nonsense...” Pu Yunchuan pursed his lips and said, “Moreover, we’re not familiar with each other. We haven’t contacted each other for two to three years. Why did you suddenly become so attentive two days ago? Isn’t it because of that little gift money?”

“What do you mean?” The woman glared at him and said, “This is an exchange of favors. It’s not like you didn’t return it after you gave it to her. Is there a need to deliberately keep an eye on that little bit of yours?”

“That’s hard to say...” Pu Yunchuan pursed his lips and said, “This portion of mine... perhaps I really don’t need to return it in my lifetime...”

“You still have the face to say that!” The middle-aged woman was furious when she heard that. She hit Pu Yunchuan on the head and said, “It’s almost my 30th birthday, and you still haven’t found a wife for me. You’ve really embarrassed the entire PU family...”

Pu Yunchuan covered his head and felt that it didn’t hurt at all. He felt a little strange in his heart. His mother seemed to have used quite a bit of force in that hit, but why didn’t he feel anything? Could it be that he had become more sturdy?

“Let me tell you, this time, your aunt has chosen one of your cousin’s friends for you. That Girl is very handsome, and she is also a primary school teacher. If you know how to do it, you better perform well for me. Don’t embarrass me...”

“I knew it...” Pu Yunchuan rolled his eyes, feeling more and more helpless in his heart.

Under his mother’s kicking and beating, Pu Yunchuan looked like a dead pig who was not afraid of boiling water as he was chased all the way to his mother’s house.

At this moment, there were several tables of Mahjong in his grandfather’s living room. His mother first brought Pu Yunchuan to recognize a round of relatives. In the past, his mother would bring him over once every new year, but there were too many people, he really could not recognize them.

But this year, for some reason, Pu Yunchuan suddenly realized that he had quite an impression of them. Many times, before his mother started introducing them, Pu Yunchuan had already called out their names, such as little grandfather, fourth aunt, and so on. He felt as if the information had suddenly burst out from the corner of his mind...

The elders who were called out were also stunned, then they smiled and said, "Oh, Child Chuan finally remembers people?"

Pu Yunchuan was also stunned. He didn't understand why he was suddenly so smart today... ..

"Well... not bad... not bad. You're more energetic than before..." Grandpa looked at him and smiled. "You're not as greasy as before..."

"UH... is... is that so?" Pu Yunchuan was stunned again. He had been driving for three hours just now. According to his physique, his face should have started to ooze oil a long time ago, right?

Out of curiosity, he took out his phone and took a photo. He found that the reflection on the screen was completely different from before. His hair was fresh and his face was clean. Although he still had a fat face, he looked much more energetic...

Could it be because he used Hai Fei Si? Pu Yunchuan touched his head curiously and thought to himself.

"Have you found a wife yet?" Pu Yunchuan didn't have time to be happy for two seconds when his relatives' first three consecutive shots came.

"No... No..." Pu Yunchuan said guiltily.

"Where did you buy the house?"

"I haven't bought it yet..."

"AH... which school did you graduate from? What kind of job are you doing now? How much is your salary?"

Pu Yunchuan: "..."

The series of attacks exhausted Pu Yunchuan. He turned around and looked for his mother for help, only to find that his mother had unknowingly gone to the table to play cards... Pu Yunchuan's heart suddenly felt desolate.

You brought your son into a wolf's den, so you should at least control him...

After the relatives found out that he was living a miserable life, with no car, no house, and no wife, they all arrogantly used their own children to compare and scold him a few times before finally letting him go with satisfaction.

Only then did Pu Yunchuan escape as if he was relieved of a heavy burden. He found his little cousin in a corner. Theoretically speaking, after he got rid of the scolding from the elders, he should have gone to chat with his peers.

However, Pu Yunchuan felt a little guilty. First of all, he did not know how to play cards. Moreover, the young people at the table who were his age did not seem to be of the same level as him. Each of them was well-dressed and holding the latest iPhone model, the keys hanging on their waists were either Bao Niu or Audi...

He remembered that these cousins of his seemed to have been forced to run engineering projects with their relatives because they could not afford to go to school? Why were they all so rich. He had worked for so many years and still couldn't bear to buy a domestic Chang 'an... ..

So who was the one who spread the rumor that the app Ape was a high-paying job?

Coming to his little cousin's side, Pu Yunchuan looked at him. At that moment, the other party was using his phone to play the Glory Alliance virtual screen.

He remembered that his little cousin was only twelve years old, yet he was already playing competitive games at such a young age. He had a bright future...

Pu Yunchuan suddenly felt as if he had found a friend who had forgotten his age... ..

At this moment, the opponent had just finished a round, and two failed typing appeared on the screen. The little cousin's young and tender face revealed a look of annoyance as he angrily said, "F * CK Your Grandpa! !"

Looking at this little cousin who was spitting out a mouthful of fragrance, Pu Yunchuan's eyes slightly narrowed, he revealed a smile on his face. "Just fight back if you lose. Don't be impatient. The more impatient you are, the easier it will be for you to kneel down..." Pu Yunchuan spoke of his many years of experience!

"Eh?" The child turned around to look at Pu Yunchuan when he heard that. He was stunned when he saw who it was. "Cousin, you play this too?"

"I play a little, a little. I've been an old player for eleven years," Pu Yunchuan said with a smile.

The child immediately felt a sense of respect and hurriedly said, "Then cousin, come and help me play a round. I'm going to advance to the next round. If I lose this round, I'll fail!"

"Is that so..." Pu Yunchuan slightly stretched his muscles and bones when he heard that and said indifferently, "I haven't played for a long time. I'll give it a try. Don't blame me if I fall into a trap..."

"Oh right... What is your bronze rank?"

His little cousin was stunned.

Looking at the other party's expression, Pu Yunchuan's expression became serious. He thought to himself, "Could it be that my cousin is already a silver player at such a young age?" His talent was extraordinary. It seemed that he had to use his full strength this time.

"I... Advanced to master..." his cousin was stunned for a moment.

Maestro?

Pu Yunchuan eyelid twitches, obviously some do not quite believe, immediately adjusted the other party game data to see, the mother egg, is really drill a hundred victory points... .. It's all about the number of the Kings one...

What the...

Are all babies this good these days?

Pu Yunchuan was silent for a moment, then he turned off the screen and said, "Your sister is married, so many relatives are here, it's not good for you to keep playing games... Let's talk about something else..."

"Oh..."his younger cousin immediately nodded obediently.

"Are you in the sixth grade or the first year of Middle School this year?"Pu Yunchuan asked like an elder.

"The first year of middle school..."

"Oh, How's Your Studies?" "You can't be as lax as primary school when you're in middle school. If you don't hurry up, it'll be hard to make up for it once you don't have a good foundation in the later stages. How about it? Tell cousin, how did you score in the final exam?"

Cousin: "Around 680. I didn't do well in the exam, not as good as my girlfriend..."

Pu Yunchuan:"..."

"Eh? Cousin, where are you going?"Seeing that Pu Yunchuan had stood up and walked out without saying a word, the little cousin hurriedly asked, thinking to himself, did I say something wrong?

Aiya, not good! I think I've exposed my puppy love. He won't Sue My Mom, right?

Pu Yunchuan: "I... I'm going to have a cigarette to calm down..."

"Then let's go together, cousin..."the younger cousin was afraid that the other party would expose him, so he quickly stood up and sneakily took out a bag of heavenly sons of Heaven from his bag and stuffed it into Pu Yunchuan's arms.

Pu Yunchuan looked at the other party's skilled technique and silently withdrew the red double happiness that he was about to take out.

Or finish early to go back to play the game... . Pu Yunchuan silently thought.

Chapter 303: You Can't be a fat otaku or a baldy

"Cousin, do you want to chew betel nut?"In the corridor outside the door, his little cousin skillfully handed him a piece of betel nut.

Pu Yunchuan waved his hand, and the other party smiled. He bit the betel nut into his mouth and instantly dyed his teeth purple and red, pu Yunchuan frowned when he saw this. "Kid, you're already drinking betel nut and smoking at such a young age. Are you trying to go to heaven? Are You..."

“Cousin, look at what you’re saying. When were you not naughty when you were young? At your age, you don’t even have the energy to be naughty. Look at how little hair you have now...”. “...”. Huh? Cousin... .. your hair volume seems to be a little higher than last year. You’re not as bald as before “...”

“Is that so?” Pu Yunchuan touched his hair and immediately reacted. He quickly said angrily, “When did you become bald? It’s just that your hairline is a little higher. It’s still very early for you to become bald, okay?”

Just as he was speaking, his phone suddenly rang. The Voice of the ancient Phoenix Legend immediately became loud and clear.

When his younger cousin heard the voice, his face twitched. “Cousin, quickly change your ringtone. My mom found you a blind date... you’re... Too Low...”

“What do you know... Mature men all listen to the legend of the Phoenix...” Pu Yunchuan rolled his eyes at him and answered the phone. “Who is it?”

“Fatty, the Knight Academy test has begun. Where are you? Why aren’t you online yet?”

“Uh...” Pu Yunchuan was stunned, and then he whispered, “I’m at a relative’s house. It’s a little inconvenient. Can We slow down the plot?”

“Slow down how?” The dog brother on the other end of the phone rolled his eyes and said, “Do you think it’s your family’s single-player game?” “Slow down? If you don’t go online and get your name crossed out, this mission of yours will be considered a failure. Let me tell you, if we who do long-term missions fail, we will really lose everything. When we go back, there will be a few farms and ranches open. We still have to move bricks!”

“Don’t... help me think of a way to stall for time first. I will immediately find a machine to go online...” Pu Yunchuan immediately became anxious when he heard that they had to continue moving bricks, as the first batch of veteran players, if they managed to survive by moving bricks, wouldn’t that be as miserable as reality?

If they couldn’t even act cool in the game, then what was the meaning of life?

Thinking of this, Pu Yunchuan hurriedly asked, “Little cousin, do you have a virtual machine at home?”

“I do have one... It was originally in my sister’s room, but I have to decorate my new room in my sister’s room. Now it’s in my grandmother’s room...”

“Okay, okay, okay, it’s good that you have one... take me there quickly...” Pu Yunchuan said quickly.

“Cousin, are you going to play games now?” The younger cousin suddenly looked strange and reminded him, “The girlfriend that mom introduced to you will arrive at the battlefield in about ten minutes...”

“I’m going online to do a mission, and I’ll be out soon...” Pu Yunchuan said quickly.

It seemed that his cousin didn’t have a girlfriend just because of his looks... “...”. His little cousin thought to himself.

The two of them walked into Grandma's room and saw the virtual machine placed in the middle. Pu Yunchuan's eyes lit up and he quickly plugged in the power and sat inside.

"The size is a little small..." Pu Yunchuan immediately frowned and said.

"Nonsense, isn't it..." his little cousin immediately rolled his eyes. This virtual machine was bought by his elder sister. Of course, the size was tailor-made for her. If she felt that it was too loose, would she be able to marry off?

"By the way, what game does my cousin play?" The younger cousin asked curiously when he saw that his elder cousin was so obsessed that he didn't even care about blind dates.

"Galaxy..." Pu Yunchuan verified the game's fingerprint and said.

"Galaxy? Elder brother, you have an account?" The younger cousin was instantly energized.

"You know this game?" Pu Yunchuan was stunned.

"Who doesn't know about it now? This godly game has been spreading like crazy on the Internet. I've long discovered it. Now, there are only 2,000 seats left in the queue..."

"That's not bad..." Pu Yunchuan first nodded, but then he suddenly thought of something and hurriedly said, "Uh... No... You're only 13 years old. You Can't enter the virtual world, right?"

The country clearly stipulated that minors were not allowed to enter the virtual world...

"Eh... There's always a way..." his little cousin smiled and said.

Pu Yunchuan immediately curled his lips when he heard that. He could not help but sigh that children nowadays were really good. What should have been enjoyed by adults were now enjoyed in advance, such as betel nuts, and girlfriends...

"How's cousin doing in Galaxy?" His little cousin asked curiously.

"I'm not kidding you..." at the mention of this, Pu Yunchuan finally found a trace of his dignity as a brother and said proudly, "Who in the game doesn't know that I'm the first brother to eat Elf Sex?"

"The origin of all evil mentioned in the Elven Forum, G, you're too beautiful, is that you, cousin?" The younger cousin suddenly felt a sense of respect, even more shocked than knowing that the other party was an 11-year-old player.

"Shh, keep a low profile!" Pu Yunchuan immediately laughed proudly.

As soon as he finished speaking, a familiar electronic voice sounded, "Respected player: g, you're too beautiful, Hello, you've logged into the game and will enter the game interface in ten seconds, please don't move."

"Eh?" The younger cousin at the side was suddenly stunned, why did he feel that his cousin's body was glowing?

Could it be... This was the legendary aura of pretentiousness?

That's not right... ? ... This F * cking light seemed to be real. Could it be that there was a problem with the virtual machine?

The younger cousin quickly stood up and said, "Hey, cousin, you..." before he could finish his sentence, a strong light flashed, and Pu Yunchuan disappeared from the game cabin. ...

What... was going on?

On the other side, a middle-aged woman who looked 60-70% like his little cousin was leading a mother and daughter along the way.

"What do you think your nephew does?" The mother asked curiously.

"I think he works in computer software, and his salary is quite high. 10-20 thousand a month..." the woman who was obviously his little cousin's mother immediately helped her nephew put in a good word.

"A programming ape?" The girl behind him asked.

The girl looked more delicate and belonged to the small family type. This kind of girl was obviously liked by the adults.

"It seems to be..." her aunt nodded.

The girl immediately frowned slightly when she heard that. She was obviously a little disappointed.

This was not because she was prejudiced against the programming ape profession... .. But... The women in this world were prejudiced against the job of a program ape... ..

After all, they had a greasy reputation. Most of them were either fat otakus or bald. There were very few high-quality products left in this world...

In the dating world, their teachers were the only class. The nature of their work was respected. Their working environment was relatively simple, and they had more holidays. They were not as busy as other jobs, and they had a lot of time to take care of their families, they could be said to be the most popular type on the market.

Compared to them, doctors and civil servants could only be in second place, but compared to men, the programmers were clearly in fifth place!

Their status was slightly higher than that of brick-moving, and lower than that of the excavators and New Oriental chefs who graduated from Lanxiang... ..

In comparison, they were almost as unpopular as the female saleswomen or female public relations.

Seeing the expression on the woman's face, her aunt secretly panicked, she quickly said, "But my nephew is relatively honest and has a gentle personality. He never throws a tantrum. He usually saves money. After working for a few years, he keeps his money in the bank. He's the type of person who lives at home the most, and...". As she spoke, her aunt whispered, "His father's old house has just been demolished. He lost a few houses and two big business fronts. He's the only son in his family." "..."

"This..."the mother's eyes lit up, and the girl's expression turned a little better.

It sounded like the conditions were not bad... .. Although the program ape was greasy, its salary was also high. With so many houses and fronts, it was still a good choice to take a look... .. But the prerequisite could not be a fat otaku... .. or bald... ..

Chapter 304: the portal that was discovered

"Hey Qingfang, are you still playing cards? She's here. Where's Yunchuan? Hurry up..."his aunt immediately motioned for Pu Yunchuan's mother to call her child over.

"Hey, she's here..."Pu Yunchuan's mother raised her head to look at the delicate girl behind the child's aunt. Her eyes immediately lit up. She did not even care about the big three yuan that she had almost gathered in her hands. She quickly gave up her seat and moved over.

At the same time, a few young men and women at the next table suddenly revealed a playful smile when they heard this. They said to the young man in the gray jacket, "I saw you perform brother Kai..."

The young man who was called brother Kai smiled when he heard this. He tidied his clothes and followed Pu Yunchuan's mother to move over.

"Where's your son?"His aunt hurriedly asked.

"Eh? He was in the living room just now. Where did he go this time..."

His aunt immediately covered her face and thought to herself, "Can this family be more reliable?"?

"Second aunt is looking for Brother Yunchuan? I saw him and little cousin playing games in Grandma's room just now..."brother Kai, who had followed her, suddenly said.

When he said this, the female teacher's expression did not look good. This blind date was arranged by the elders of both parties. Although she was not very willing, she still carefully put on makeup and spent time to dress up in order to express her feelings.

In the end, the other party went to play games?

As expected... .. The programming apes were a bunch of hopeless otakus...

Pu Yunchuan's mother and aunt were stunned at the same time. Their expressions instantly turned ugly and they couldn't help but curse, "Damned Brat! !"

On the surface, the two of them seemed to be scolding Pu Yunchuan, but in reality, they were actually targeting this young man who had suddenly appeared.

The two of them were already over 50 years old, how could they not see what this kid was trying to do? Most of the people around knew that Pu Yunchuan was going to go on a blind date today, and this guy was obviously playing dumb.

He clearly knew Pu Yunchuan's location, so they could have gone in and called him out, but he insisted on yelling at him to play games inside. How could the two elders not see what he was thinking?

Pu Yunchuan's mother's face was gloomy, beside her, her aunt hurriedly covered up for him and said, "It must be that little bastard, Xiao Jie, who is pulling his cousin to play games. This rascal, besides Yunchuan, can't get along with his other cousins. It's not easy for his cousin Yunchuan to come back. He must have pestered him to play games again..." "..."

After saying this, the girl's expression turned a little better. Pu Yunchuan's mother looked at his aunt gratefully.

"I'll go over and take a look..." his aunt smiled and took the initiative to walk into his grandmother's room. She was afraid that a few people would go in and see Pu Yunchuan playing games like a nerd.

Seeing that his aunt could even cover for him, the young man was stunned for a moment. He directly went forward and said, "Hey, second aunt, who is this?"

Pu Yunchuan's mother coldly stared at the little brat who knew the answer but still asked. She said indifferently, "The person your aunt introduced to your brother Yunchuan."

"Is that so? She's really beautiful. Why didn't your aunt introduce such a good-looking person to me? She's really biased..." the boy pretended to be wronged.

"Aiyo, Little Kai is also anxious?" The surrounding relatives immediately asked in amusement.

"How can I not be anxious... she's already in her twenties..." little kai laughed and rubbed his head, immediately causing the surrounding relatives to burst into laughter.

The female teacher secretly sized him up. He looked pretty good and was quite tall. He looked at least 1.75 meters tall. He was considered pretty good in the south. He was well-dressed and wore name brands. Especially the Porsche key on the waist, especially the bright... . .

"Where's your brother?" The aunt asked as she rushed into the room and looked at her son, who was standing there in a daze, and quickly went up to him and gave him a quick peck on the head.

"He... he... he's gone..." the younger cousin stuttered.

The aunt frowned and looked at the virtual pod. It was inserted into the movie, but there was no one there. She was stunned and asked, "Where did he go?"

The younger cousin looked at the game pod. The scene was so shocking that he didn't know how to explain it to his mother.

"Where is she?" His aunt asked anxiously. At this moment, she had come to steal his wife, but he was gone...

"I . . . I don't know..."his cousin suddenly sounded like he was crying...

"Aiyo... really..."his aunt hurriedly made a phone call, but she couldn't get through. She suddenly felt helpless.

Pu Yunchuan's mother was stunned when she saw her walking out alone. Her aunt glanced at her sister-in-law and did not hide it. She directly said weakly, "Little Jie said that he ran off to God knows where..."

"This darn B * Stard..."Pu Yunchuan's mother was really angry this time.

After hearing that the other party was not around, the teacher lady did not say anything on the surface, but she was laughing coldly in her heart. Brother Kai, who was standing at the side, was amused when he saw this. This idiot was really useless even if he was assisted by a god... ..

Then, she hurriedly put on an embarrassed expression and said to the lady, "Aiyo, this cousin of mine is always like this. He's brainless. Don't mind him, he'll probably be back in a while..." . Then, she pointed to the table where the young men were sitting and said, "How about... "Go over there and have a seat. We're all young men, so you won't be bored by yourself. I'll call Brother Yun Chuan over when he's back."

The girl looked over when she heard that. The group of young men and women on the other side of the table immediately waved at her. They looked very enthusiastic. After hesitating for two seconds, they nodded. It seemed that it was better than being left to the side. After all, her best friend is getting married, and she can't just walk away... . .

The faces of the two uncles and aunts at the side darkened, but they could not say anything. They could not let the girl wait here all the time. From the surface, there was nothing wrong with this little Ah Kai's way of doing things, very much like a proper host.

The more Pu Yunchuan's mother thought about it, the angrier she became. She planned to give the Fat Man a good meal when she got back. If this blind date was really stolen by someone else, she would have no face to be introduced by relatives in the future. . .

"What took you so long? It's almost over there. Hurry up, this way, this way!"Pu Yunchuan, who had just come online, was pulled by the anxious Brother Dog and ran into the arena. Not noticing a black figure staring at them in the distance... . .

"It's a gang..."muttered the black figure.

"This is the person who hurt you?"A Guy wearing a scarlet cloak said in a low voice, "Alice, this guy doesn't look as powerful as you said!"

"But he is indeed very powerful..."Alice recalled the scene where she and her companions were beaten up by the drunk and naked Pu Yunchuan in the Royal Palace. Her stiff face twitched.

"They appeared out of thin air. is that the spatial magic that the Lord once mentioned to us?"

"It's a bit like..." Alice nodded, because an hour ago, after that brother dog was taken away by the white light, they could not find any trace of Brother Dog's aura... ..

"What will be on the other side of the space?"

"How would I know?" Alice muttered in a low voice, "Should I take the opportunity to go in and take a look?"

"Of course we should..." the man in the red cloak said hoarsely, "But it's too risky for us to go, but I have an excellent candidate in mind..."

"What do you mean?"

"The descendant you've trained... It's time for it to work..."

Alice: "..."

Chapter 305: Descendants

"Hasn't John Collins arrived yet?" The staff member responsible for recording the appearance of the students looked at the few remaining students and immediately frowned.

"He's here, he's Here! !" Brother Dog pulled the Fat Pu Yunchuan and was instantly stunned.

Normally, these bastards from the Empire would have a basic test before they registered, in order to get rid of those truly unsightly characters. At that time, he was one of the supporting staff members for the auditions, even though it was an audition, it was actually quite strict. How could such a fat person sneak in?

Pu Yunchuan was also speechless. After the weak curse was cast, Brother Dog had shrunk into a skinny otaku within two days. On the other hand, he had directly returned to his old fat otaku form... .. So what was this weak setting like?

Actually, after seeing Brother Dog's transformation, he really wanted to experience the feeling of a skinny otaku...

"Since you're here, hurry up and go on stage..." the staff waved his hand, he was a little uncertain. Because of Brother Dog's performance, he had learned the principle that one should not judge a book by its cover. Therefore, he did not dare to be certain that this chubby guy was a good-for-nothing.

"Thank you, teacher! Thank you, teacher!" Pu Yunchuan bowed and nodded.

Then, under the urging of the other party, he ran to the arena with his chubby body swaying. He hesitated and ran so fast that his pants did not tighten. Half of his buttocks were exposed, which made everyone's eyes burn...

"Damn, what the hell?"

Everyone was dumbfounded when they saw a chubby guy running onto the trial platform. Although the disciples who had entered the arena before were not as good as each other, they all looked like knights. Was this chubby guy who revealed a large part of his buttocks a joke?

“The south is really getting worse year by year...” Marquis Sam complained to Isabelle, “Even if we focus on the foundation of warrior power cultivation, physical training should not be so wasteful. Among the dozens of people who appeared later, there was not a single one who could be compared to Shi Senming. The last one was actually this annoying guy “...”. “... by the way, this guy is also an illegitimate child.” “? How stupid is his investment?”

On the side, Isabelle Glanced at the equally fat Sam and could not help but say, “You are not qualified to criticize him, right?”

“My fat body is very rich, okay?” Sam rolled his eyes and retorted.

“You know that he is not rich?” Isabelle smiled and said, “You should know that you can’t judge a book by its cover...”

“What? Really?” Sam was stunned. Then he remembered the ribs fairy who was the second one. He hesitated for a moment and asked, “You have a hunch again?”

Isabelle rolled her eyes. She was about to say something, but she suddenly froze. In her vision, a man in a black cloak waved at her...

That slender finger and the red dragon stone ring unique to the family on the finger made Isabelle Freeze. She instantly understood the identity of the man!

“Oh... nothing...” Isabelle shook her head and said, “I have something to go out for a while... help me keep an eye on him.”

“AH? Oh...” Sam nodded, “Go and come back quickly. I’ll help you fight for any good seedlings. I Won’t let that bastard Arthur take advantage of you...”

Isabelle didn’t mind it. The hostility of the new rich towards the old rich families was engraved in their bones. They were all happy to make the old rich families uncomfortable. She was used to this kind of atmosphere.

In the heart at this time is more concerned about this occasion, why she is here. Thinking of this, with a heavy heart, she quickly walked out of the arena... .

“Name...” the instructor on the stage looked at each other although also felt that the eye-sore, but because of the lessons learned from Brother Dog, but also did not completely deprive people of the right to be named.

“AH? Didn’t we record the name when we signed up? Do We have to say it again?” Pu Yunchuan said in a daze.

Everyone: "..."

The instructor's face turned black, and the veins on his forehead obviously throbbed. But in the end, he resisted the impulse to lose his temper and said, "Forget it if you don't want to say it. Which Project do you want to do First?"

"I don't care... I'll do whatever they do..." Pu Yunchuan imitated the guy who had just left the stage and also took off his shirt. Without the restraints of his shirt, his fat body expanded like a spring, causing everyone's eyelids to twitch...

He really felt embarrassed to take off his shirt... "...". Everyone could not help but rub their eyes and say.

"Then let's do the bench press first... how much weight do you push?" The instructor turned his head away to avoid this eye-piercing fat body.

"I... Whatever, I'll do it... Can you hurry up? I still have something else to do..." fatty said anxiously.

He was afraid that his mother would forcefully drag him out of the game cabin in the middle of the test... ..

"Whatever?" The veins on the instructor's forehead throbbed again. It was obvious that his anger had reached its limit. He could not help but mock coldly, "Then how about 1,000 Jin?"

"Alright... then hurry up..." Pu Yunchuan waved his hand nonchalantly.

Everyone: "..."

Did this guy not hear it clearly or something. 1,000 jin: "...". It was almost the strength of a northern Tauren. Could this damn fatty be a real person who did not show his face?

"Are you sure?" The instructor was stunned.

"Yes, yes... Hurry up and start..." Pu Yunchuan said impatiently.

The staff member who was preparing to add iron plates at the back looked at the instructor. The instructor hesitated for a moment before finally nodding his head.

"Eh... This is similar to what we have in the gym downstairs. Aren't you guys a little creative..." the fatty muttered. Then, he took a deep breath and abruptly took the lever off the shelf.

When everyone saw that the other party had really lifted it up, their hearts jumped.

The instructor thought to himself, 'his strength is pretty good... unfortunately... he ate so much, so he definitely doesn't have enough endurance...'.

Usually a 200-jin fat man and a 200-jin muscular man in the strength of most cases is similar at the beginning, but often people exercise more utilization rate, endurance and explosive power is often more adequate... ."

"One hundred and eight, one hundred and nine. Hey, how many more, Old Man?"

Instructor: "..."

Outside, Isabel trotted to a remote spot where a black shadow flashed past and floated behind her like a ghost.

She did not feel the slightest nervous, but one knee to the ground to do a respectful salute:
“Grandmother!”

“You’re good... very good...” Alice looked at Isabel and nodded with rare satisfaction.

After she passed away, her family was suppressed by the next generation of the Emperor and had declined a long time ago. None of her descendants could hold up the fort. Only this girl had a bit of her former style. After a series of training, she lived up to the expectations of the public and became one of the empire’s generals. She also successfully took the position of the Empire’s throat in red dragon city...

“I’m very honored to be praised by you. Is there anything you need me to do this time?” Isabelle hurriedly asked.

She knew very well that her dark ancestor did not come to such a crowded place just to praise her.

“I have a task for you. This task might be a little dangerous... are you willing to do it for me?” Alice asked with her eyes narrowed.

“It’s my honor to serve you!” Isabelle replied without hesitation.

But she thought to herself, ‘is it finally here?’?

She knew from the first day she received the teachings of the deceased ancestor that this was definitely not free, even though the other party was her ancestor.., even though she had not asked her for anything other than to take down the red dragon city for so many years.

But Isabelle knew that sooner or later, she would have to pay a corresponding price. Therefore, she had not slacked off all these years, insisting on training and improving her body to maintain the peak level... Just to deal with this moment... ..

“Later, there will be a guy named John Collins among the test students. You have to buy him out no matter what the cost, and then...”

Chapter 306: Doubt

“500 pure gold!”

“550 pure gold!”

“600 pure gold!”

When Isabelle returned to the ring, she found that the bidding had begun. She frowned, patted Sam’s shoulder and asked, “What’s the situation?”

“Ah, you just came back?” Sam said excitedly, “Your women’s sixth sense is really a magical thing. This fatty really can’t judge a book by its cover...”

Isabelle: “...”

“Let me tell you, this fatty just lifted a 1,000-kilogram lever more than 100 times, and his explosive strength was more than 2,000 kilograms. During that time, he didn’t use any combat aura at all. Can you believe it?” Sam rubbed his hands excitedly and said, “Moreover, he is in a fat state. If we can train his fat body well, his body has a lot of potential to improve. Even if his combat aura level is a little lower, even if he only passes, he is at least a silver knight. It is worth investing in...” . “...”

“Where is the price now?” Isabelle frowned and asked.

“Almost 700!” Sam said eagerly, “I think it’s not rare to get to 1000...”

Isabelle nodded and showed her card, “2000 Gold! !”

As soon as the price was out, the venue quieted down. Looking at the Bold Isabelle, Sam thought, “Did the Red Dragon City Master Dig a gold mine?”? ‘so heroic?’?

Sam could not help but roll his eyes. “This is a little against the rules...”

Isabelle did not pay attention to her companions. After bidding the price, she looked around nervously. Her Red Dragon City was not a rich city. As it was located at the throat, it often had to assist the various border crossings to defend against the beastmen, it consumed a lot of money every year. Although it was subsidized by the empire, it could not be considered rich.

Now, 2,000 gold coins was almost all of her budget for investing in the Knights. Any more and she would have to use the annual budget. Obviously, she could not afford to use the annual budget in her city... Therefore, this was the highest price she could offer. ...

As the price was too high, most of the nobles in the surroundings wanted to retreat. After all, this was only the first round. After that, the skill test and the combat aura test had not been tested yet. Investing such a high price in one person.., many people did not have the courage.

Arthur, the castellan of black iron city, frowned. He looked at Pu Yunchuan, who was below the field. Just as he was about to bid, he was noticed by Isabelle, who was very sensitive from afar. She directly called out, “Sir Arthur!”

Arthur did not expect that the other party would directly call his name. He was instantly stunned and looked at the other party.

“We, the Red Dragon City, want this person. How about you give us some face and treat it as if I owe you a favor?”

Hearing this, Arthur frowned and hesitated. Isabelle was different from an ordinary upstart. She had been valued by two emperors in a row. Obviously, she had the potential to become a wealthy family. Moreover, her main city was located in a special location, she had military dealings with many families. Her conduct in the world was not something that those country bumpkins could compare to. To be honest, he did not want to offend her.

Especially for an illegitimate child whose potential was still unknown. However, the other party had even said that he owed him a favor, which made him feel that this illegitimate child was not that simple...

Should I take a gamble? Arthur thought in his heart.

But there was no information at all...

After hesitating for a long time, he finally felt that there was no information at all. It was obviously not worthwhile to offend the other party for no reason, finally, she nodded and said, "Since you have spoken, we still have to show you some respect. I hope that Red Dragon City will remember our kindness..."

Upon hearing this, Isabelle looked at the other party gratefully. Just as she was about to say something, she saw Pu Yunchuan hurriedly running out of the venue as if he was about to shit his pants. Her heart suddenly moved, remembering what his ancestor Alice had just told him, he hurriedly returned a salute and followed her out of the arena!

At the same time former Marshal Rox in the House, Marshal Rox Face of expectation sitting at the dining table watching rain woman no melon operation.

On the other side, the rain woman put two pieces of bread into cold water, she then explained leisurely, "The water used for instant noodles must be good. It's best if it's a mountain spring, and the next best is a stream. The river water and well water with a strong earthy smell are the next best choices. Also, don't soak them in hot water immediately. Use cold water to wash away the dust from the bread. Then, add hot water that has just entered the boiling point. After soaking for a minute, pour out the hot water and add the seasoning package. Then, add the hot water and soak them in hot water for a second time for three minutes..." "..."

She said as she operated the noodles. Her movements were as delicate and elegant as making tea, pleasing to the eye.

"This way, the noodles will be more elastic after soaking. The wheat fragrance and egg fragrance will also be brought out to the best. At this time, add some sausages, and it will be an excellent delicacy," raingirl said as she handed over the noodles.

"AH... Tsk Tsk!" After receiving the noodles, Rox took a deep breath. Two seconds later, he suddenly beamed with joy. He felt that the noodles were so juicy that his teeth were bouncing off them ... It was really delicious!

After taking another sip of the noodle soup, Rox took a deep breath and could not help but sigh. "You Southerners are so particular. This instant noodles and sausage are a perfect match!"

"Marshal, you flatter me..." raingirl, gownless, smiled faintly.

When the other two developers saw this scene, their foreheads were filled with black lines. For a moment, they did not know what to say.

"I heard that the marshal suspected that the person who broke into the palace and killed General Nix was the honorable lady Alice in the Tower of Glory?"

When Rox heard this, his hand trembled slightly, and he put down the noodle soup that left him with an endless aftertaste, with a solemn expression, he said, "This matter is rather strange. It might be very dangerous for you to be involved in it... Even I... Can't guarantee that I can protect myself in this strange situation..."

"This isn't a matter of whether I'm involved or not...". Raingirl, Wugua, shook her head and said, "Although I don't know why they're targeting my two pitiful children, it's obvious that this matter has already come knocking on my door. It's not something that I can avoid just because I want to." ... As she spoke, she looked lovingly at Pumpkin and papaya.

The faces of the two players twitched. They couldn't help but think to themselves, boss, what kind of teacher training does he need to take this acting test in real life. Going to the Chinese opera to polish up his acting skills, the future best actress is in sight...

"It's been hard on you..."Rox looked at rainless melon with some pity, "You just experienced such a great ordeal, and you still have to bear such a heavy burden, but now you still have to face some inexplicable things..."

"Life is not as good as you think, you have to face it, don't you?"Rainless melon smiled and said, "The marshal asked to investigate the Tower of Glory immediately after the incident happened. I think it was not a sudden idea, but a suspicion, right?"

Rox was stunned when he heard that, after hesitating for a few seconds, he finally nodded and sighed. "You're really quick-witted. Indeed, I've long sensed the signs... "...". When the previous Emperor was ambushed, I was stopped by a mysterious expert. At that time, I realized that the person who stopped me was very similar to a person recorded in the heroic records. Then, in some mysterious cases in the empire, I also found some unusual traces... "..."

"In other words, these people who should have died a long time ago have actually been alive?"Rainmaiden wugua asked while sipping her tea.

"I don't know... "... After all... ... I don't have any evidence either "... "...Rox shook his head and sighed. "These people do things meticulously and rarely reveal their flaws. I feel that they have existed for so long and have probably set up many hidden tricks in the empire. Perhaps they have already formed a huge network of influence, but I don't have the slightest clue... "..."

"I do have a few things here. Would you like to refer to them?"Rainy Girl took out a piece of material with a smile.

Rox took the material and looked at it. He was immediately stunned. "Marquis Isabelle?"

Chapter 307: a variety of coincidences

"Marquis Isabelle?"Rox looked at the person on the materials and frowned. "Why do you suspect her?"

In his impression, she was an admirable female knight. She rode on the battlefield as a woman, fought bravely, and made great contributions to the empire. After she retired, she did not choose to find a southern city to enjoy the rest of her life like most nouveau riche, instead, she chose a place like Red Dragon City, where she still needed to work hard at the moment, to continue to exert her remaining strength. In his opinion, this was an example of a warrior who had never forgotten the honor of being a warrior!

"I heard that this Marquis Isabelle might be the descendant of the hero Alice?" Raingirl WUGUA said faintly.

"This... " "...". "It doesn't mean anything, right?" ROX frowned and said, "Alice's family was very large at that time. Even if it was suppressed by three generations of emperors, it took 200 years for it to gradually disappear. At that time, I'm afraid that there were thousands of illegitimate children that were not completely counted. It has been passed down until now..." "..."

"Is it a coincidence that a descendant suddenly rose up after being passed down until now?" Rainmaiden Wugua put down the Teacup and said with a smile, "Historically, it is rare for a declining noble to rise up again. Moreover, it happened to be a woman who rose up. Did the marshal really not suspect it?"

Rox:"..."

"I'm afraid that the marshal already has a list of suspects in his heart, right?" Rainmaiden wugua shook the Teacup and said faintly.

ROX's entire body trembled. He took a deep look at the other party, and then a hint of struggle appeared on his face... ..

After a long while, he sighed. "I really don't want to believe that those warriors who fought bloody battles with the Beast Race in the north for the empire would... would betray the empire..."

"It seems that the marshal hasn't figured out some things..." Rainmaiden, WUGUA, sighed and said, "First of all, those first generation heroes that you suspect, weren't they also fighting bloody battles with the Beast Race in the north for the glory of the Empire "And then..." "...". "Why do you think that those who fight with the beast race must be loyal to the Empire?"

Rox's face darkened and he said unhappily, "If they aren't loyal to the Empire, why would they risk their name to fight with those beasts?"

"For fame, for profit, for power... anyway, I think that loyalty to the empire should be the last..."

Rox:"..."

"Even if it's as you said, what benefits are there that are worth them betraying the empire that holds a high position?" Rox asked with a frown.

"This is what we need to investigate..." Rainmaiden, WUGUA, smiled. "The hero you spoke of has already stood at the peak of the Empire. To be able to make them betray us is definitely an extraordinary benefit. We can't understand it because we know too little." "... "..."

Rox glanced at her and could not help but think to himself, such a powerful woman, and the Tuli family is actually willing to marry her off? No wonder the Tuli family is now in decline.

"I understand...". Rox took a deep breath and stood up. "I'll find someone to investigate Marquis Isabelle. It's best if you don't go out casually these few days. I feel that those people will not let it go so easily."

Rainmaiden, WUGUA, smiled and said, "Please be careful, my Lord..."

Rox nodded and walked out quickly.

Rainmaiden, WUGUA, said to the elven player hiding behind her, "Follow him. Don't let anything happen to him...". "...". "Just leave one person here...". After a pause, she said, "Be careful. This mission is very dangerous. If you encounter an enemy that you can't defeat, Retreat immediately. Don't force yourself!"

The ELF player nodded. She had also heard that if they were killed by undead creatures, the Lord's side would not be able to revive.

"Boss, there's News!"The Elf had just left when Pumpkin's eyes suddenly lit up. "Brother Dog just said that that Isabelle bought Pu Yunchuan!"

"As expected..."raingirl, Wu Gua, smiled.

Pu Yunchuan had defeated Ying Liu and Ying Liu in the palace, so it was impossible for Ying Liu not to investigate Pu Yunchuan. She still let them take the academy test after Pu Yunchuan and Brother Dog were exposed, just to lure the snake out of its hole...

"Boss is in trouble..."pumpkin suddenly looked horrified... ..

"What's Wrong?"Raingirl wugua sipped her tea and said leisurely, "Don't make a fuss, be calm when something happens..."

"That Isabel, she..."

"HMMM? What? ? ? ?"Rain woman no melon after listening to pumpkin words a mouthful of tea spit out, stunned: "No Way? ??"

"Is this what Lord Alice is talking about?"After seeing Pu Yunchuan disappear in a white light, Isabelle sprinted up.

Standing in front of the white light, she suddenly felt a magnetic force. Her pupils constricted as she recalled what her ancestor Alice had said to her.

Sim and that Fatty John might have come from an unknown mysterious force. These people were extraordinary in strength and their skills were above that of heroes. It was very likely that they would hinder the master's plan to establish an immortal empire!

We had followed them and discovered that they would regularly disappear under a white light. We suspected that the white light might be a spatial magic. The other end of the space might be the true face of this mysterious force.

Now, you should first buy that John and enter it by mistake as his noble master to test their reaction!

Isabelle looked at the white light that was about to suck her in and gritted her teeth...

This mission was obviously full of risks. Obviously, her ancestors were using her as a test stone...

But she had no choice. Everything she enjoyed now came from Alice. Without her guidance and her help in secret, how could she become a general in just a dozen years? Become one of the top people in the empire?

She clearly understood that Alice could give her so much and take it back at any time. Having experienced Alice's strength, she knew how terrifying she was. This was not to mention the enormous and terrifying organization behind her.

In the front... . Although it was extremely dangerous, there was still a chance of survival. In the back... . . . She was probably doomed... ..

Seeing the white light gradually disappear, Isabelle no longer hesitated. She gritted her teeth and directly stepped in!

"What an excellent descendant..." after the white light dissipated, the person wearing a scarlet cloak not far away said in a gloomy tone, "It's rare for someone to be so decisive and take risks despite having the authority of the castellan..."

"That's because she knows who gave her everything, and she also knows that we can take it back at any time..." Alice said coldly from the side.

"It's also wise to understand all of this..." "..." Although the reason was simple, not everyone could figure it out so quickly... "..." that person sighed slightly. "As long as she can bring back the information this time, I'll agree to recommend her to the eternal life list with you!"

"That's good..." Alice nodded slightly when she heard that.

While the two of them were talking, they did not notice that a particle that was countless times smaller than a mosquito had circled around the side before rushing back to the base in a panic.

It was the AI that had sneaked out to be a bystander...

"F * ck, F * ck..." the AI could not help but feel that it was unlucky on the way back. How could such a thing happen at this juncture?

Pu Yunchuan's Space Tunnel was a space tunnel that led directly to sphere D. if he was still at the base, he could control it to intercept the intruder halfway.

But... he was not at the base...

If something went wrong, he would have to take the blame...

Chapter 308: Suddenly Intrepid...

“What do you think Liu Wenjun’s kid is trying to do?” At Pu Yunchuan’s house, Pu Yunchuan’s mother looked at Liu Kai and the girl who were talking and laughing from a few tables away. They were sitting so close to each other, and her face was getting darker and darker.

“What else can he do?” His aunt said while eating melon seeds, “His father is a terrible person to begin with. What good can he teach him? I just didn’t expect him to do such a thing as poaching someone in front of him...”

“Sigh... It’s that B * Stard’s fault for not doing things properly. He really can’t be saved by running away at this critical moment...” his mother said with a sorrowful face.

His aunt didn’t say anything while munching on sunflower seeds. She thought to herself, “Actually, this is also good...”

Although Liu Kai had a bad personality and couldn’t stand the fact that he was doing well, he was already worth several million yuan in just a few projects. Didn’t he even drive a Porsche. If he really had bad intentions, Yun Chuan’s presence might not be able to change the outcome. Perhaps it would be even more awkward...

The girls nowadays were very realistic...

Aunt looked at the girl who was chatting and laughing with Liu Kai and sighed slightly. She didn’t believe that the girl couldn’t see through Liu Kai’s intentions. This kind of person who openly poached her relatives was obviously not a good person. However, the girl was still willing to come into contact with him. It was obvious that she had taken a liking to his conditions...

If she were to say that Pu Yunchuan had better not come back, in case he would be even more embarrassed later...

Just as she was about to say that, he suddenly saw his son running to his side in a panic with a ghost-like expression on his face. The aunt was stunned and patted her son’s sweaty head. “What’s Wrong?”

“Mom... Cousin... Cousin is back! !” His cousin shivered.

“If he’s back, then he’s back...” his aunt rolled her eyes, wondering if there was a need to be so exaggerated? But then she quickly said, “Did he call you? Hurry up and tell him to book a table at the restaurant downstairs. I’ll call the girl down...”

This way, even if he didn’t like Pu Yunchuan, he wouldn’t be teased by Liu Kai... At least it wouldn’t be too embarrassing. ...

But before he could finish his words, Pu Yunchuan’s voice sounded from the side, “Girl? where is there a girl, Aunt?”

Aunt was stunned. She and Pu Yunchuan's mother turned around and looked at each other strangely, thinking to themselves, "When did this bastard come back?". They had been guarding the door the whole time. They were just waiting for him to block the door and give him a good beating...

"Aiyo, Brother Yunchuan? Over here, over here..." a tall guy among the group of young people from afar saw them and quickly waved his hand.

Pu Yunchuan looked up when he heard the call. He was stunned when he saw Liu Kai's group. To be honest, this group of people had a very ordinary relationship with him since he was young. They often bullied him when he was young., after he grew up, he would always act strangely whenever he met them. When he came here just now, he did not see anyone paying attention to him. Why did he suddenly look so enthusiastic now?

After hesitating for a while, he finally walked over. They were all relatives. Although they did not have a good relationship in the past, they had already called him. It was not right for him to remain indifferent.

His mother and aunt's faces immediately darkened. They thought to themselves, these people are determined to trample on Yunchuan today...

"Come, come, Brother Chuan, sit here, sit here..." Liu Kai pointed at the empty seats on the opposite side of the table.

Pu Yunchuan heard this and walked over. Just as he was about to reach the empty seats, he stopped in his tracks.

He had not been in contact with anyone for a long time after he resigned. He had thought that he would be awkward, but for some reason, he could see every single face clearly. This group of young people's faces were filled with malice, on the other hand, his mother and aunt's expressions were extremely unsightly, which made him feel that something was very wrong.

This was especially so for the woman beside Liu Kai. He had the impression that he was very sure that he did not know this person, but when the other party saw him, she had such an expression of disgust... ..

Who the hell is this? What right does he have to dislike working for him? Did I eat your rice? Pu Yunchuan felt injustice in his heart.

Hence, he stopped and stared at the other party in a daze.

"Who is this?" Pu Yunchuan asked directly. His aggressive manner made the girl feel inexplicably guilty...

"I... I Am..."

"Brother Aichuan, don't you know this person?" Liu Kai chuckled and said, "This is the person that your aunt found for you... His name is Liu Silei, and he comes from the same family as me..."

Pu Yunchuan's expression instantly turned cold. He understood why his mother's expression was so ugly. He also understood why this group of people had an evil expression of schadenfreude. They were planning to bury a hole and humiliate the boss...

Looking at Pu Yunchuan who was standing still, his aunt sighed and held down Pu Yunchuan's mother who was about to lose her temper. She was about to go up and make a scene.

“What the hell are you doing sitting here?”

Aunt was stunned. She did not expect that her sister-in-law, who was usually hot-tempered, would not lose her temper. Instead, Xiao Chuan, who was usually an honest person, started to lose his temper first... ..

And that imposing manner...

At this moment, aunt could see from afar that Pu Yunchuan’s imposing manner had instantly become completely different from before. His originally honest and honest appearance had instantly become incomparably fierce, it gave her the feeling that he was ready to go up and Rip off Liu Kai’s head at any moment.

The group of young people around them were also instantly shocked by Pu Yunchuan’s aura.

The smiles on their faces instantly stiffened. They were originally prepared to watch a joke, but they were suddenly frightened by the other party’s aura and shrunk back in fear.

However, they immediately felt that something wasn’t right. F * CK, where was this guy putting up a hammer by himself? He had been bullied by them since he was young. Who Didn’t know who he was. Who was he being fierce to...

After he came back to his senses, he immediately wanted to retort. The tall man in the lead straightened his back and frowned, “How can you talk like that...”

The surrounding people also joined in the jeering, “That’s right...”.

But when the words reached their mouths, even they themselves didn’t know how soft their voices were. It was like the chirping of a mosquito. They felt extremely guilty... ..

Pu Yunchuan directly ignored those humming sounds and directly walked towards Liu Kai. Liu Kai looked at fatty who was approaching him aggressively, and his heart was extremely flustered. It was as if he felt that he would be pulled over by the other party in the next second and pressed onto the ground and beaten up... ..

That scene was so real that he did not think that he had the ability to resist at all, physically and mentally, he immediately stood up and retreated to the side, stuttering, “Chuan... Brother Chuan, don’t misunderstand... weren’t you... not here just now? We were afraid that she would feel awkward sitting there alone, so we just helped you greet her...”

“Then I really have to thank you...”Pu Yunchuan glanced at him coldly, and then sat down at the spot where Liu Kai had retreated without hesitation. He had a confident expression on his face, which stunned everyone.

“My son’s temper is growing...”his mother, who had seen this scene not far away, looked over and said in a daze.

His aunt was also stunned and thought to herself, is this still that honest child?

The female teacher also felt her heart skip a beat. She had to say that this fatty was quite manly. On the other hand, Liu Kai’s reaction seemed to be very lame... ..

Since he had already decided to do something bad, he was so scared that he looked like that. He did indeed look pretty lame...

It was a pity that the conditions were too poor... .. The female teacher shook her head slightly.

This fatty was dressed casually in a pure set, revealing his current status. Although his family had revealed how many properties this fellow's old family had demolished, it was still incomparable to the conditions of the person beside him called Liu Kai.

In the chat just now, she had already understood that this Liu Kai had been doing his projects very smoothly over the past few years. He was already worth tens of millions, and there was still a lot of room for him to rise in the future, compared to a fat otaku programmer with a monthly salary of just over 10,000, what choice should she make?

Thinking of this, she slowly stood up and said calmly, "I suddenly remembered that I still have something to do, so I'll be leaving first..."

Chapter 309: This is a foreign language!

"You're leaving, Silei?" Liu Kai's eyes lit up when he saw this and he quickly asked.

"HMM... let's chat on wechat later..." Liu Silei smiled and nodded. She didn't pay any attention to Pu Yunchuan's words. She was obviously on his side... ..

This made Pu Yunchuan's mother, who had been happy for her son's mighty comeback, suddenly turn stiff. She tugged at her sister-in-law and asked softly, "Who did you say you introduced?"

Her aunt's expression also did not look too good. Although girls were realistic now, wasn't this little girl a little too realistic?

Liu Silei was also a little conflicted. She had been a smart girl since she was young. It was not that she did not want to give Pu Yunchuan face, but if she gave him face., liu Kai, who had just made a fool of himself, would definitely not contact her again.

From his current performance, Pu Yunchuan did appear more manly. To be honest, she was a little tempted at that moment.

This Pu Yunchuan was not as greasy as she thought. Although he was a little fat, his facial features were not very ugly. Moreover, his energy gave people a unique charm.

At first glance, he did not look good. He could not be compared to those fresh meat, but the more he looked at him, the more tasteful he was. In addition to the imposing manner that he had displayed earlier, he was obviously a very manly MAN.

However, she was already 27 years old. She had passed the age where she would act on impulse.

Material conditions were the best criteria to judge whether a man was outstanding. In this aspect, Liu Kai clearly had a lot of advantages. He could not act on impulse like a young girl just because of a momentary performance.

This could not be blamed on her being too materialistic. It was because everyone around her was like that. She was teaching in a key middle school. Her colleagues around her were all married well. They were either civil servants above the subject level or men who were successful in business, the people who drove to and from work to pick up their wives were either Mercedes-benz or bmws. The circle around her was like that. If the person she married was a loser, she might be able to maintain her relationship in the beginning, but after a long time?

The people around them were better off than them. How long could they maintain their relationship for?

The material conditions were the most important requirement for him now. It wasn't that she would definitely be able to get along with Liu Kai. It was just that accumulating Liu Kai's popularity was obviously more useful than accumulating Pu Yunchuan's...

This was the reality...

Pu Yunchuan paused slightly when he saw this scene. In the end, he didn't say anything. If he could be fierce to Liu Kai, how could he be fierce to that woman?

In the end, what could he care about what she chose?

At this moment, Liu Kai looked at Liu Silei with a smile and said, "I'll give you silei..."

"Mm..." Liu silei nodded slightly.

The surrounding people immediately laughed. Although it did not achieve the expected effect, the result was still not bad. Then, they all looked at Pu Yunchuan with cold smiles. If he was useless, then he was useless. What was the use of shouting so fiercely?

Pu Yunchuan sat in his seat without moving. He glanced at the shiny Porsche key on Liu Kai's waist and sighed in his heart.

That was why he did not like to go back to his hometown and did not like to go on blind dates.

A blind date was a match of resources. First, he matched the resources before talking about relationships. He did not blame the reality of this world. He knew that it was because he was not good enough...

However, his mother clearly did not realize this. In her heart, her son was the best. She often wanted to find the best for her son. This was also the reason why he often avoided her for blind dates...

Hurry up and end it... Pu Yunchuan thought silently. ...

After it was over, he returned to that virtual world. He returned to the world that he liked. There were adventures, brothers, Futures, and a world where he was outstanding enough... ...

Oh right, there was also that Marquess who bought him...

To be honest, that woman was really beautiful!

He actually really liked that kind of heroic-looking woman. Perhaps every otaku liked that kind of woman. If it wasn't for these messy things, perhaps he and that Marquess would still have some interactive storylines?

Would Something Pleasant Happen?

Sigh... .. It shouldn't be. After all, the game advocated a green internet environment...

But it would definitely be more pleasant than staying here, right? Even if it was just chatting?

Pu Yunchuan thought as he smacked his lips. Just as he was thinking about it, he suddenly saw an extremely familiar figure walking from the corridor at the corner to the living room... ..

Pu Yunchuan was stunned, and then he laughed bitterly.

This F * cking game is making me hallucinate. I'm just thinking about it. There's no need to be so useless... .. hallucinating... ..

Pu Yunchuan rubbed his head with a bitter smile. When he opened his eyes for the second time, he realized that the figure was still in the living room. He was instantly stunned.

That was because he saw a large group of people surrounding them.

The relatives who were playing cards before, even Liu Kai's big commotion did not disturb them from playing cards. Now, they were all attracted to her.

It was just that this woman had too much temperament...

Her facial features were like sculptures, but her skin was as fine as silk. As a general of the Empire and the ruler of a city, her temperament was extremely noble. When paired with a beautiful blue gown, she really looked like a woman from a Hollywood movie with special effects!

"Which family is this girl from? Why did she come out of your room?" Grandpa stared at her with his eyes wide open, tugging at his wife's sleeve as he asked.

"My eyes are about to pop out. Damn Old Man!" Grandma slapped Grandpa fiercely.

The surrounding relatives were also pointing at her. Aunt was also dumbfounded. Why did a foreigner suddenly come out of her mother's room?

And she was so beautiful?

"Beauty, how should I address you?" Liu Kai, who had already walked to the door, immediately left Liu Silei beside him and went forward to ask her with a warm expression.

Liu Silei's expression immediately stiffened when she saw this. She had never expected this fellow to turn hostile so quickly? Was she a dog?

Pu Yunchuan's mother was stunned when she saw this. She could not help but want to laugh when she saw the surprised expression on Liu Silei's face. To be honest, it was reality for women to see material things, but wasn't it reality for men to see beauty?

If you can be realistic, why can't others be realistic?

"Where is this?" Isabelle looked at the enthusiastic Liu Kai and frowned slightly. After becoming a general of the empire, very few men dared to approach her because of her purple color.

Moreover, this man... was very weak...

"Eh?" Seeing Isabelle speak, everyone around was stunned. It was obvious that they did not understand what she said.

"It seems that she is indeed a foreign girl. She is speaking in a foreign language..."

"Hey, Hey, which one of you knows English? Hurry up and come over and translate. Can't you see how worried the Pretty Girl Looks?" Liu Kai quickly said.

The young men and women at the table who were drinking and playing cards with Liu Kai looked at each other in confusion. They were all elites who earned points through multiple choice questions in the college entrance examination. Asking them to communicate with foreigners? What kind of joke was this?

What was going on?

Pu Yunchuan was dumbfounded. As a gamer, of course he could understand. Was this a foreign language? This was clearly the language of the New Territories Empire Alliance!

Why would the npcs in the game appear in his house?

Chapter 310: study hard!

"What is this?" Isabelle's heart sank when she woke up from the spatial dizziness and looked around. When she found herself in a sealed box, she thought that she had been captured, but she didn't panic, because she had been prepared for such a situation before coming here.

However, when she looked up and saw that the box was not sealed, she was slightly stunned when it was opened. She slowly sat up. When she sat up, she felt her blood and Qi floating all over her body, as if her blood vessels were about to explode.

She was shocked and immediately took a deep breath to forcefully adjust her body mechanism. When she was fighting against the northern beasts, she had experienced the gravity magnetic field created by the shamans' totems, whether it was to increase or lose gravity..., these generals had already trained to deal with this kind of move.

Could it be a beast faction?

Puzzled, Isabelle slowly climbed out of the game pod, but when she came out and saw the surrounding environment, she was stunned.

It was only about ten square meters, a bed, a wardrobe, and some miscellaneous items piled up on the ground...

She had thought of all kinds of scenarios that she would encounter when she came out, but she did not expect to encounter such a situation. This was clearly the ordinary residence of a poor citizen, right?

She slowly walked outside with doubt. There was not a single guard on the way, and it was frightfully loose. Outside, there was a group of weird-dressed old men sitting around a table, rubbing a square-shaped jade...

Was it some kind of magic ritual?

But there was no energy fluctuation...

As imperial knights, they were very sensitive to magic fluctuations, because they had to be careful of their curses and inexplicable spells when dealing with the mysterious Wizards of the Beast Clan.

These people in front of her did not have any energy in their bodies, and their physical quality was very poor, as weak as paper...

After observing for a few seconds, the group of people soon noticed him. They all stopped what they were doing and moved closer to him, muttering a language that they could not understand.

It was not the language of the alliance, nor was it the language of any of the twenty-four major countries in the Western archipelago. It was also not the language of beasts...

Isabelle narrowed her eyes and made a judgment. She was not only confused about which country these people were from?

They were short and yellow-skinned. They looked like people from the South Sea, but they were wearing very strange clothes. She had never seen such clothes from any businessmen...

"Where did this foreign girl come from? She's so handsome..."

"Yeah, she looks like a Hollywood star..."

"Bullsh * t, which Hollywood star looks better than this?"

Isabelle frowned. Although she did not understand what these people were saying, the way they were discussing her as if she was a rare object made her slightly uncomfortable, but she was sure that these people did not have any ill intentions...

"Beauty, What's Your Name? Is there anything I can help you with?"

Just as she was thinking about it, a young man came up to her and struck up a conversation with her. He spoke in a self-righteous and gentlemanly tone, and his actions were comical and without grace. The undisguised desire in his eyes made her frown even deeper.

"Where are we?" Isabelle asked.

"Hey, which one of you knows English? Hurry up and help translate!"

The men at the other table all rushed over, leaving a few girls cold and indignant on the spot.

“Beauty... Are You Lost? Where do you live? Do you want us to send you back?”The tallest man among the young men asked.

“I said in English, English. I don’t understand, don’t you see?”Liu Kai was dissatisfied with these compatriots who rushed up to him to snatch food.

“Let me! Let Me!”The younger cousin took the lead and came over. However, when he got closer and felt the inexplicable and intimidating temperament of the other party, the younger cousin felt a little guilty and turned around to ask, “How do I ASK?”

“You should ask her where she lives first!”Liu Kai hurriedly said.

“Oh, oh...”the younger cousin went over and stuttered, “By feeding her poison oil and milk?”

Pu Yunchuan:”...”

Pu Yunchuan, who had his worldview shattered when the NPC jumped out of the screen, could not help but choke when he heard the younger cousin’s English. He could not help but sigh inwardly. As expected of a strong English speaker who had passed Grade 8 in primary school. It was so smelly... ..

Isabelle frowned. Seeing that there was no one around who could speak alliance language, and that she did not intend to get entangled with this group of people who were obviously civilians, she decided to go outside and take a look first... .. She changed into inconspicuous clothes so that she could continue to ask for information...

Seeing that the beauty was about to leave, the men immediately became anxious. “Hey, beauty, don’t go...”

“Back off! !”Although Isabelle did not understand what the men were saying, she clearly knew what they meant from their posture. Since she could not provide any information, how could she have the time to deal with them? She immediately rebuked them impatiently.

As a gold-tier knight, she was already close to a level three life form. Her cultivation base matched that of the celestial immortals on the D sphere. Moreover, as a general of the Empire and the Master of a city, how powerful was she when she roamed the battlefield all year round?

In an instant, Liu Kai and the others fell to the ground as if they were pushed away by gravity. They rolled on the ground a few times and looked extremely miserable. The old men around them also staggered back and could not help but be secretly speechless...

This foreign chick was so awe-inspiring...

The group of young women around them, including Tian Silei at the door, were all stunned. They were initially feeling unbalanced, but now that they saw this group of dog-licking people suffering such a fate, they suddenly felt a sense of inexplicable joy in their hearts.

However, at the same time, they also felt a different feeling. Such a majestic woman made them feel somewhat ashamed of their inferiority... ..

“You can’t Leave!”Just as Isabelle was about to dismiss Liu Kai and the others and prepare to leave, Pu Yunchuan finally reacted and spoke in the common language of the New Territories Alliance.

“Huh?” Isabelle turned around and stared at Pu Yunchuan in a daze. Pu Yunchuan was also stunned for a moment. He thought to himself, damn, the language in the game can really be used in real life... ? F * ck, this technology, in the future, when the game is publicly tested, those who learn foreign languages won't struggle until they die?

After learning for so many years, he finally passed level eight and obtained the simultaneous translation certificate. The game could directly imprint a language into his mind with a bang... .. Wasn't this equivalent to studying for so many years for nothing?

It was really dark technology... .. Pu Yunchuan thought to himself. However, compared to this guy in front of him, he felt that the dark technology in the language library was nothing. He couldn't help but think to himself, what on Earth is going on?

“You know the Alliance language? Who Are You? where is this place?” Isabelle stared at Pu Yunchuan and said.

“This...” Pu Yunchuan did not know what to say..? ... could it be that this place is a three-dimensional world?

Player G, you are too beautiful. Please pay attention. Due to your negligence, the characters in the new world have entered randomly. Now that your mission has changed, Please Calm Marquis Isabelle Down and do not let her cause any trouble on the D ball... ..

At this time, AI, who had finally arrived at the base, immediately contacted Pu Yunchuan and said that he was going to throw the blame.

Pu Yunchuan was stunned. AI had appeared, and the most important thing was that AI had tacitly admitted that npcs were trespassing?

Was he f * cking awake?

Just as his mind was in a mess, Isabelle suddenly stepped forward and grabbed Pu Yunchuan. She went straight into the room, leaving a group of people in a daze...

What was going on, just like that... .. She went into the room? Was a foreign girl so bold and unrestrained?

“Do you see that?” His aunt took the opportunity to lecture him. “Did you see that? I told you to study hard, right? If your cousin didn't study hard, wouldn't his English be better?”

His younger cousin looked at his mother in a daze and thought to himself, “Mom, I don't study hard. Don't try to fool me. This doesn't sound like English, right?”
