Chapter 321: terrible situation

“How could this be?” Rain Girl, Wugua, looked at the scene in front of her and was stunned. She looked at Xi Ye in the video and said.

“The teleportation is blocked!” Xi Ye said in a gloomy tone in the video.

“W-why is it blocked?” Rain Girl, Wugua, asked immediately. There was a rare sense of panic in her voice, and a sense of panic that she had not felt for a long time rushed into her heart.

“That guy who walked out of the undead world... is very likely a god!” Xi Ye said in a deep voice, “It seems that that guy used some kind of method to seal off the imperial city’s teleportation!”

“God?” Rainless melon was stunned, and then she said angrily, “Why didn’t you say something like this earlier?”

“I only found out after I received your information...” Xi Ye was just saying this when he saw rainless melon’s expression. He immediately frowned and said in a deep voice, “Calm down first...”

At this moment, rainless melon was clearly in a mess. Xi Ye’s heart sank as she knew that things were not looking good. If she were to mess up now, the players in the imperial city would have no chance at all!

“How can I calm down?” Rainless melon looked at her and roared, “You suddenly told me that there was going to be a big mess here and the teleportation was cut off. How can I calm down now?”

Rainy melon was really panicking now, because she knew before she came that there were undead here that could really kill them!

In other words, if they were attacked, players like them could really die... ..

This was completely different from the previous missions she had encountered. Even when she first met the void, she was not this panicked because the lord had told her that there was still a backup base. Even if the entire army collapsed, there was still a way out...

However, the situation before her was not as large as the previous one, but the degree of danger was far greater than the previous one.

Seer, who was opposite her, was slightly stunned when she saw rainy Wugua’s roaring appearance. However, she immediately came to a realization.

After all, she was just a student a few months ago... ..

The developer’s bloodline had indeed given her an extremely high computational ability. In addition to her own natural talent, Seer had once regarded her as a mature strategist.

However, she had neglected the fact that a qualified strategist needed to be tempered by great matters. Rainmaiden, Wu Gua, had been so calm previously because she had nothing to fear.

After all, being able to teleport and resurrect without any pressure, everything seemed to be going smoothly. However, once things went out of her control, her weakness, which she had not experienced before, would be revealed.

“Calm down! !” Xi Ye raised her voice and shouted to cut off the other party’s incessant complaining.

Rainless melon was stunned by the shout, and then she looked at Xi ye blankly.

Xi Ye saw this and slowly said in a gentle voice, “Panic and fear can not solve any problems. Think about your decisiveness when you faced the plague in school. Think about your state back then. The more dangerous the situation is, the more you need to calm down!”

Rainmaiden Wugua looked at Xi Ye with a stunned expression. Then, she lowered her head and remained silent for a few minutes.

Xi Ye waited patiently. Although the situation was urgent, he knew that he had to give the other party a buffer time.

After another 15 minutes, Rainmaiden Wugua raised her head and took a deep breath. “Does this teleportation shield only cover the Imperial City?”

“Not necessarily...” Xi ye shook her head. “I’ve already asked the system to test the teleportation point of Molundo. There’s no problem at the moment. It’s hard to say how far the radiation shield is over there...”

“Which means that in the worst case scenario, we’ll have to run back to Molundo on our own, right?” Rainless melon asked.

“From the looks of it... It’s like this!” Xi Ye nodded.

“Other than these... do you have any other useful information for me?” Rainless melon continued to ask.

It seemed like he had regained his calm... “...”. Xi Ye nodded to himself, she then said, “From the information you’ve gathered, it seems like the combat power of this guy who walked out of the death realm is that of those legendary figures of the empire. The two players in the base have fought against the members of Shadow Stream, and both of them have gained a certain advantage. Moreover, they haven’t directly attacked Pu Yunchuan and the others for so many days. This lord judges that the combat power of shadow stream should be limited!”

Rainless melon’s eyes lit up when she heard this. “Then... What about the deity that walked out of the death realm? Can he be dealt with with the strength of a player?”

Xi Ye shook his head. “From the fact that he can directly seal off a city’s space, I’m afraid that it’s not something that a few level 3 players can deal with with their strength...”

Rainless melon asked, “Then what’s he afraid of by not taking action?”

Xi ye replied, "The other party should have guessed that we are a deity faction. He didn't take action directly. It's obvious that he doesn't know what level our deity faction is at!"

Rainless melon paused for a moment. She looked at Xi Ye and said, "If that's the case... I'm afraid we won't be able to escape, right?"

"Yes!" Xi Ye looked at the other party and heaved a sigh of relief. She not only thought to herself, 'it looks like this girl has really regained her composure and her mind has also regained its clarity... !' If they were to escape, it would expose their lack of resistance, and the other party's deity might attack them instantly!

"Then, is the Liege confident in defeating him?"

Xi ye replied, "If we can meet, then we have the confidence..."

Raingirl without a melon asked, "Does that mean that we have to hold on until you arrive? How long will the liege need?"

Xi ye replied, "Since I can't activate the teleportation, I can only rush over from Molundo to your place. It'll take at least three days!"

"Three days... .." rain woman no melon muttered a, then solemnly said: "I will try to survive!"

"Not only you, you must also ensure the safety of the other players!" Seer looked at the other party. "Before I arrive, I can't let any player have any accidents. Once a player dies, the other party will be able to access your information through their memories. If one player dies, none of you will be able to escape... .."

Rain girl without a melon: "..."

"Lord Swein!" In the manor, after Rox Bade Farewell, Galen, who was left behind, returned to the living room after packing up his things. When he saw Swein, who was still leisurely sipping tea, he was instantly stunned.

"Lord... you... aren't you going to pack up?" Galen asked in a daze.

"Why do I need to pack up?" Sweyne raised his head and smiled at Galen.

"Sir Rox said that the situation is urgent, we have to hurry... and..." Galen was speaking anxiously when he realized that the other party had no reaction and refilled another cup of tea for him, galen's expression immediately stiffened and he said in a daze, "Sir... you... Don't plan to leave?"

Swein took a sip of tea and did not speak...

"You... Do you not believe what Sir Rox Said?" Galen took two steps back warily. "Or are you..."

"You are a quick-witted child... much better than your dull father!" Swein looked at his wariness and laughed.

Galen's pupils constricted. Just as he was about to move, he suddenly felt a weight on his shoulders. A pair of pale and tender hands firmly held his shoulders, making him unable to move at all... ..

How was this possible?

Galen was stunned in disbelief. This person who suddenly appeared behind him approached him. He did not even feel a thing. Just by grabbing his shoulders, he was unable to even use his battle spirit!

What kind of disparity was this?

"You'd better not move recklessly..." Swain sipped his tea slowly and said, "The person behind you, two Rox are no match for him, let alone you!"

"Is that so?" Galen smiled coldly. "Then why didn't you dare to attack Lord Rox when he was here?"

"Well..." Swain looked at the remaining half cup of black tea on Rox's seat on the table and smiled.

"Naturally, there's a reason..."

Chapter 322: Unexpected Change!

"Lord, are you really going to take such a risk?" In the base, looking at Xi Ye who was about to set off, the system frowned.

To be honest, Xi Ye had a treasure trove like the people of Planet D, so there was no need for him to take such an unknown risk. He did not have any information on the rank and ability of the local lord. If he stepped in rashly, even if he had an ace up his sleeve., however, he was only level five, so the probability of him capsizing was still very high!

"It's better to take a risk than to die slowly... "... Xi Ye said faintly, "The spatial rift here can not be recovered for the time being. Once this world falls into the hands of other lords, it will also be a huge threat to us. Moreover, you've also seen that the other party has the technology of the map of the Black Goat. Once he successfully activates it, it will only corrode this world for a maximum of three years. In three years, we won't be able to grow to the point of mending the space..." "..."

The system: "..."

Seer's words were right. The Black Goat's map was one of the fastest ways to corrode a world. With this world's life force, it would be optimistic to say that it could last for three years.

Once that happened, with the terrifying biological weapon that the Black Goat's map gave birth to, they would have even less of a chance. After all, a war between lords was never a one-on-one fight between bosses... ..

"Then, Lord, you mean... you want to try your luck?" The system asked cautiously.

"Yes..." Xi ye answered honestly.

Although his body had not fully recovered, he could still cast a restriction once more. As long as the other Lord dared to appear in front of him, he would have a chance to behead... . .

“Where is the nearest teleportation point to the imperial capital?”The seer asked.

SMART: “In Mullen Multilateral City Karnas, but you still have 10 days of travel without flying tools, if you do not expend travel, it will take three days, but I do not recommend that you do!”

“I see...”Xi ye nodded and thought to himself: the fastest is three days... ? I hope that girl can hold on... ...

The imperial capital:

“Where is Lady ICASIO?”Rox asked the Butler who took his horse after he returned to the mansion.

“In the study...”the old Butler smiled, iCASIO had taken over Morondor now, and the way he was addressed outside was by his husband’s family name, Felon. However, his grandfather seemed to forget this very easily, and he always addressed him by his old name.

Moreover, the word ‘lady’was used to refer to single women... ...

Rox did not notice the meaningful look in his housekeeper’s eyes. He passed his coat to her and quickly walked towards the study room.

In order to ensure that the light and view of the study room in Rox’s mansion were always facing the courtyard, Rox could see the rain woman flipping through the information from afar.

To be fair, this woman was definitely not stunning. However, her temperament, which was always calm and composed, was the most attractive point. It was as if no matter how big the matter was, it could not shake this woman’s calm attitude... ...

It had to be said that sometimes what men saw was not necessarily the truth. At this moment, rainy without melon was actually panicking in her heart... ...

SH * T... It was not a game after all...

Rainless melon muttered in a low voice...

To be honest, even after she knew the truth, she did not really treat everything in the base as real in her heart. After all, this environment where she could go offline and resurrect at any time was too comfortable. Who would not be full of confidence in such an environment?

In fact, she should have thought that she would face such a crisis one day, but she did not expect it to come so quickly.

“Boss, your old lover is here...”an elf player reminded her in the secret area of the study.

“Shut up!”Raingirl, WUGUA, glared at the elf and looked up at the sky speechlessly. She thought to herself, “These players from the military faction have such good attitudes. Aren’t they worried at all?”

While sighing, she saw Rox rushing over with a travel-worn look on his face. She quickly stood up and bowed, “Sir is back. How is it?”

"It's going pretty well..."Rox nodded, but then he rubbed his hands together and smiled. "Let's make a bowl of noodles first."

Rain Maiden had no melon."..."

Fifteen minutes later...

"According to what you said, we will try our best to mobilize the border troops ahead of Time..."Rox smacked his noodles twice, after taking a deep breath, he said, "However, the situation is still not very optimistic. The terrain outside the empire is too good, and we don't have the advantage in terms of timing either. We are at a disadvantage in terms of timing and location. This war will be very difficult to fight..."

After pausing for a moment, Rox looked at him and said seriously, "I think it's better for you to return to the South First, Madam, and bring the child back with you..."

Rainy Girl, Wugua, rolled her eyes in her heart when she heard that. She wanted to run away quickly, but the key was, did she dare to run now?

"Sir, there's no need to say anymore..." Rainy Girl, Wugua, shook her head and said, "There are still intact eggs in the nest "? If my lord fails, even if my mother and Son are far away in the south, we will only end up dying later. Now..." "...". "You are already our mother and son's last hope..." ". "..."

Rox paused when he heard that. As he watched this strong woman say those words, a strong desire to protect him arose in his heart.

There are intact eggs under the overturning of the nest. This word... was really well used!

Rox smiled and did not say anything. He lowered his head and drank the delicious broth.

"Sir, without the handsome seal, how did you manage to mobilize the four armies?"Rainy girl asked curiously.

Rox put down the bowl in his hand and smiled, "US old people have fought on the battlefield for more than half of our lives. Sometimes, this old face is more useful than some dead things..."

Rainy girl was stunned. For the first time, she felt that this guy's tone was showing off.

Rox was also stunned after he said that. To be honest, among all the generals in the empire, he was the most low-key and reserved person. He did not expect that he would one day show off his feathers like a young man.

He could not help but laugh in his heart.

Perhaps... ... After this tough battle, he could really consider some things... ... Rox looked at Rainy Girl and thought to himself.

Just as he was thinking, suddenly, a strange thing happened... ...

Rox discovered that the beautiful and bright image of the woman in front of him suddenly froze in place. The light gradually dimmed, and the entire space suddenly turned into a black and white portrait!

What was going on?

Rox's body trembled, and he immediately thought that it might be a curse attack from some secret mages. He was shocked, and just as he was about to make a move, he realized that the combat aura in his body could not help but circulate. Immediately, an extreme sense of panic surged into his heart... ..

Because he realized that the person that the combat aura in his body was targeting was actually rainy girl, who was less than a few feet away from him!

No! !

Rox realized something and shouted in his heart. He wanted to control his warrior power, but he realized that it was not only his warrior power, but also his body that had almost lost control!

Rainy Girl, WUGUA, who was right in front of him, did not notice Rox's strange behavior at all. She was about to ask about the information about the Gus family when she suddenly felt a chill. She raised her head and looked up, however, she saw Rox's strange pair of eyes, which had turned as green as Opal!

"Boss!" The Elven players in the distance finally realized that something was wrong. However, in order to prevent Rox from noticing them, they didn't stay too close. They tried their best to stay ten meters away, moreover, they had never thought that Rox would attack rainy girl. Rox was a level 3 lifeform. If he suddenly attacked at such a close distance..., even an agility-type elf player would not be able to do anything at this moment. The distance of ten meters was like a ditch that they could not cross even if they tried their best, they could only watch as Rox stabbed a blade that was as cold as ice towards rainy without melon's chest!

Chapter 323: Why are you smiling so happily after failing?

This isn't ice, but real metal...

Before the elf player came, he had received seer's warning about weapons.

"This thin ice-like weapon is one of the many metals in the death realm. The primitive form of the ore is extremely soft, like a transparent sponge. After being frozen at low temperatures, this sponge-like soft ore will condense and harden, and its density will rapidly increase at low temperatures. It is a metal commonly used to forge weapons in the death realm. Weapons forged with this metal are extremely dense and exceptionally sharp. They can cut through most objects in reality, and they have a very strong magnetic property! It can absorb the souls of the living. Do not let it touch you. Even if you only get a small cut, the soul in your body will be attracted by this magnetic force. If you are hit in the vital parts...

"You may become a member of the death realm in an instant. No one can save you then!"

Seer had reminded the elf players to protect themselves with their minds. He also wanted to protect rainy, who was not capable of fighting, as well. He looked at the moment when the weapon described by the Lord stabbed into rainy's chest, the player not only said in despair, "It's over!"

As the Lord had described, Rainy's body instantly turned gray-blue. Her expression was dull, her pupils dilated, and she lost her vitality in an instant!

Bang!

Almost the next second, Rox, whose eyes were emitting a strange green light, was pressed to the ground by the two elven players who had rushed over. All the joints in her body were destroyed in almost half a second., the Golden Knight's Warrior Power Source Sea was also shattered by the players with one finger!

The imperial legend could not last a second in front of the two level 3 elven players!

Unfortunately, he was still one step too late!

The few players looked at rainless melon's gradually turning gray body, and their faces instantly turned extremely ugly!

"Wood Elf?" At this moment, Rox, who was controlled, uttered an extremely old voice with a hint of curiosity and ridicule, "Such a high-quality wood elf? which Lord is so extravagant?"

"Hand over the antidote! !" One of the players said with a cold expression.

"Antidote? What are you talking about?" Rox's body's voice was a little funny as he said, "Didn't your Lord teach you the knowledge of the undead? How could there be an antidote after being stabbed by that thing? She's already dead... "... but it's interesting. A developer and a few wood elves, their quality is actually so high. It seems that your lord is also a person with a secret!"

The few players' faces turned pale when they heard that!

Dead?

Such a powerful figure like rain girl died just like that?

What kind of joke was this?

"You guys are really panicking..." Rox laughed and said, "Are you kids who have never experienced such a situation before? Are you still indulging in a comfortable environment where you can revive at any time?"

"Shut the F * ck up!" The player directly slapped Rox until his teeth fell out, and his face turned extremely pale.

"Anger can only hide the fear and helplessness in your hearts..." Rox's mouth was covered in blood, and the demonic green in his eyes looked even stranger.

"Shouldn't we contact your Lord Now? Recruits?" Rox said as he stared at everyone's expressions, wanting to see the details on their faces...

The players' expressions changed when they heard that. They had a look of despair as if they had found a life-saving straw.

Could it be that their lord wasn't Here?

The will that possessed Rox's body flashed with joy. If that was the case... ..

"Is there a need to deal with you?"

Just as he thought of this, a cold voice suddenly interrupted his train of thought.

Rox was stunned. This voice... ? ... how could it be?

Because this voice was obviously the voice of the girl he had just assassinated...

At this thought, he looked up at the body that had turned gray, but in an instant, the body turned into countless pieces, and then, in the empty space opposite her, Raingirl, Wugua, appeared out of thin air!

The ancient soul in Rox's body was stunned, but as someone with deep experience, he almost immediately thought of the reason. He said in a daze, "Arcane Mirror?"

Arcane mirror was a kind of cheating apprentice-like spell used by arcane wizards. It was a low-level substitute made from magic puppets, and because of its low functionality, it could only imitate the actions of its owner, therefore, it needed its owner to be nearby to move.

This kind of thing was only used for low-level alchemy practice for arcane apprentices, but unexpectedly, it could be used in this way... ..

Was it a trap deliberately set up to predict his plan in advance?

No... .. Rox shook his head and looked at the wood elves around him. Judging from their anxious expressions just now, it was obvious that they did not know about it. Moreover, the magic puppet's expression could only imitate its owner's movements, the stunned expression on her face just now was obviously not fake.

In other words, the other party did not know that she would use Rox to assassinate her. Instead, she had been so cautious from the very beginning. Usually, she would communicate with Rox using the Arcane Mirror... ..

This doll's life level was only level three. It did not look old. Was she so cautious?

"Being so cautious at such a young age, isn't it a little too mature?" Rox could not help but ask.

"There's nothing I can do..." raingirl, wugua, smiled and said, "I am a person who is more afraid of death. If I can prepare more, I will prepare more. After all, I only have one life..."

"Hahaha!" The ancient soul immediately laughed loudly when he heard that. "Your Lord really picked up a treasure..." as he said that, his expression suddenly became very serious. "If I Kill Your Lord, you will follow me, right?"

"That's good..." rainmaiden wugua laughed, "It seems that I have found my next home. Please work hard, Sir!"

"Interesting doll! !" Rox smiled... "...". Her voice became blurry, and then her pupils dilated, and the green light in her eyes disappeared.

“Are you okay, Big Brother?” The players saw that Rox had fainted, and they felt relieved. Then, they looked at rainmaiden wugua with a fearful expression, “You scared us to death!”

“Hey, Hey, Hey... What are you guys doing?” Rainy without melon took two steps back and said, “Press it properly. If he suddenly jumps up and hits me again, I will not let you go even if I become a Ghost!”

The players:”...”

“Sir?” At this time, in the Dark Palace, the gray pupils of the white-haired boy on the throne suddenly lit up again. The undead beside him immediately bent down and half-knelt when they saw this.

The boy looked at the curious gazes of his subordinates, then smiled and said, “We failed...”

The spectres were stunned. With their stiff skin, they were unable to make a delicate expression, but they felt strange in their hearts. Not only did they think, ‘why are you smiling so happily after failing?’?

Chapter 324: Incident!

Who would have thought that he would one day suffer at the hands of such a young junior...

The boy on the throne smiled faintly as he secretly guessed the identity of the mysterious Lord. From the looks of his subordinates, they were all high-quality wood elves and developers.

These two bloodlines were publicly acknowledged as one of the most difficult bloodlines to nurture, and there weren’t any large native families in the universe. If they wanted to nurture them, they could only do so from scratch through the aborigines.

Very few lords would do this. This was either because this lord was stupid and had a lot of money, or because the Aborigines under this lord had extraordinary qualities... ... For example, their tolerance for these two bloodlines was stronger...

“Your Majesty?”

Just as the boy was thinking about these things, the subordinate who had been watching him laugh finally couldn’t help but ask, “What should we do next?”

“There’s no rush. How are the preparations on the beastmen’s side?” The boy asked with a smile.

“Mr. Yi has already sent word that they can act at any time!”

“Is that so...” the boy smiled and said, “Then go down and make preparations!”

“But Your Excellency, don’t you need to care about that mysterious force that you mentioned?”

“There’s no rush...” the boy frowned slightly, he was actually quite conflicted about this matter as well. The life forms on this planet were too weak. Without any equipment, it would be impossible for him to nurture high-level life forms with the power of the undead alone. Meanwhile, although the other party’s subordinates were not high-level..., their purity was extremely high. It was not something the natives under him could defeat.

Unless he personally took action...

However, it would be too risky if he personally took action because he could not figure out the strength of the other party's Lord. Seer had too little information about them, so was he not the same?

"How is it going with Alice?"The boy asked.

"Isabelle's side has already prepared the blood sacrifice. She can begin the descent ceremony at any time!"Great Mage Riel said respectfully.

"Well..."the boy nodded. "Then we'll wait for another day... we still need enough information..."

"What about the formation map?"

"We can't wait for that..."the boy shook his head. "We'll proceed as planned..."

"Yes..."

"It's such a troublesome time..."the boy leaned on the throne, and a hint of fatigue flashed in his eyes.

The new Lord did throw his plans into disarray, and he did not wish to be disturbed by others before the arrival of the fellow, if he could.

The boy looked up, a pair of green eyes as if through the underground palace straight into the stars... .

I'm afraid that guy is not far from here... We have to hurry. . .

"Oh, Xiaochuan, come out with your foreign girlfriend..."

Is at home drinking wine Pu Yunchuan received a call from his mother suddenly speechless, sighed:

"What is the Mother?"

"Your mother i kill everywhere today, paste two Big Four XI, come and take your little wife out, I take you to buy a good-looking clothes to go."

Pu Yunchuan was stunned. He could clearly feel the joy from his mother's words. It was obviously not just the joy of the Hu brand.

He wondered if his mother, who had won two big four happiness prizes, would be able to cancel out this nightmarish news?

After thinking about it, Pu Yunchuan still felt that he should forget about it. Why did he have to let the elderly bear this kind of grievance? It was rare for his mother to be so happy in front of her relatives in recent years. The last time she was so happy was when he was admitted to university. He did not want to spoil her mood at this time, therefore, he deliberately lowered his voice and said, "Mom, it's too late today. Isabelle is already asleep..."

“Isabelle? TSK TSK, Aiyo son, this name sounds like a noble. You have to work hard, Kid. I’m waiting to bring your mixed-race baby...”

Pu Yunchuan curled his lips. These elders were really thinking too much. What else was there to think about? He was starting to think about the baby.

There might be a baby, but he didn’t know whose it was...

Pu Yunchuan smiled and took another sip of beer. “Mom, I’m going to sleep too. You should rest early...”

“Oh, okay, okay, okay. I Won’t disturb you guys...”

Pu Yunchuan:”...”

Just as he was laughing bitterly, the doorbell suddenly rang. Pu Yunchuan was stunned. To be honest, he had lived in this house for so many years, and the number of people who rang the doorbell could be counted on one hand. They were either collecting property fees or selling goods at the door, it was already so late. Could it be that they were checking the water meter?

“Who is it?”

Pu Yunchuan burped into the anti-theft door and looked through the peephole. He was instantly stunned and thought to himself, why is he here?

He opened the door and saw Liu Xincheng, who was the oldest among his cousins who usually hung out with Liu Kai.

“What’s the matter so late?”Pu Yunchuan looked at him suspiciously.

“Nothing, I just wanted to talk to you...”Liu Xincheng smiled.

Pu Yunchuan was stunned. He recalled that when Isabelle left with Liu Kai and the others, there was no such person... ..

Could it be that she was ostracized and could not catch up with the good news, so she came to him to complain?

What the F * ck... .. If that was really the case, Pu Yunchuan did not know how to complain for a moment.

After entering the door, Pu Yunchuan gave him a glass of wine and took out the stewed beef that he bought two days ago from the fridge.

“Drinking alone in the middle of the night?”Liu Xincheng said with a somewhat dry smile.

This guy really knew that he was alone!

Pu Yunchuan’s face turned black, and then he said sarcastically, “Liu Kai and the others didn’t bring you for a good thing. Is it very interesting to come here to entertain them?”

Liu Xincheng was stunned when he heard that, and then he was so embarrassed that he didn’t know what to say because he usually stood on Liu Kai’s side.

“Liu Kai and the others didn’t go back for a day...”Liu Xincheng suddenly said after the two of them clinked glasses.

Pu Yunchuan was stunned for a moment, and then he sneered, “Are you having such a good time?”

“Did that woman contact you?”Liu Xincheng asked carefully.

“You’re here to look for trouble today, right?”Pu Yunchuan’s face became more and more unsightly.

“No...”Liu Xincheng shook his head repeatedly and said, “I was afraid that those people would do something bad. I should have stopped them, but they insisted on forcing their way here. I tried to persuade them...”

Force? What Force? Pu Yunchuan frowned.

The more Liu Xincheng spoke, the more flustered he became. He said to himself, “In the end, President Chen couldn’t find any of them today. I couldn’t get through to him on the phone, and I couldn’t find anyone at home. I knew something bad would happen...”

“Wait... What?”Pu Yunchuan was stunned for a moment and asked.

After asking in detail, Pu Yunchuan finally understood what the other party wanted to say. He thought that Isabelle had been kidnapped by Liu Kai and the others. If they couldn’t find anyone today, they must have done something wrong and ran away... ..

After hearing this, Pu Yunchuan could not help but be furious. This group of hot-blooded people actually had that kind of attention at the beginning? F * ck his Grandpa!

However, after his anger, he became even more disgusted. This was because the other party had not even started to snatch the woman and had already taken the initiative to leave with the other party. This was really ironic... ..

After hearing that Liu Xincheng was worried, he could not help but be speechless.

“Aren’t you worried about your female companion at all?”Liu Xincheng asked anxiously.

“Why would I be worried about her?”Pu Yunchuan rolled his eyes. She was an imperial general in the game. If he gave her a sword, she would be able to kill hundreds of female knights..? He should be worried about Liu Kai and the others, right?

Wait a minute...

Pu Yunchuan was suddenly stunned. He remembered the quest for the system to stabilize the NPC, and his heart stopped for a moment.

Ah, he was so focused on his sad girlfriend being stolen that he forgot her real identity... “...”. Is there any F * cking trouble?

“Um... where do you think Liu Kai and the others usually take people?”Pu Yunchuan asked quickly.

“This...”

Just then, the doorbell of the burglar-proof door rang again. Pu Yunchuan was stunned and couldn't help but think to himself, my house is quite lively today...

Then, he walked to the door and looked outside. When he saw the scene outside, he was stunned.

"What's Wrong?" Behind him, Liu Xincheng saw that Pu Yunchuan was still not opening the door and asked curiously, "Who's outside?"

Pu Yunchuan: "The Police..."

Chapter 325: Big Case...

"Dead?" In the police station, Pu Yunchuan and Liu Xincheng were stunned when they heard the news...

Liu Xincheng was completely stunned when he heard the news. He had a feeling that something big would happen, and the worst-case scenario was that his buddies had played with fire and killed the foreign girl. However, he didn't expect the situation to be worse than he had imagined...

Pu Yunchuan was also completely surprised at this moment. He sat on the chair in a daze and looked at the few photos on the table with a complicated expression... ..

"Do you know all three of them?" The policeman sitting opposite him asked seriously.

"Yes..." Liu Xincheng was the first to react and quickly nodded. "Those three are the sons of my third uncle and eldest uncle respectively."

"What's the relationship between the two of you?" The police officer asked the two of them.

"Cousin relationship..." Liu Xincheng quickly answered.

"Two grown men drinking at home so late at night?" The police officer asked.

"This... I'm looking for him for something..."

"What is it?"

"Uh..." Liu Xincheng was stunned. This was the first time he entered the police station since he was young. He only knew how much pressure it was to be interrogated by the police in person. He didn't do anything wrong initially, but he was inexplicably flustered by the question.

"Officer, is there a problem?" Pu Yunchuan suddenly spoke from the side. "We're cousins, not strangers. It's normal for friends to drink together at night, right? "Is that why you called us here at night?"

The two police officers were stunned. They looked at each other. From the information, neither of them had any criminal records and their resumes were ordinary. They probably rarely entered the police station, so they didn't separate and ask like they were interrogating criminals. Now it seemed that they were a little careless. This fatty obviously didn't look like a rookie who entered the police station for the first time. His tone was as calm as a recidivist...

“At about 8:11 yesterday, at the New Street Plaza in Sha District, the surveillance footage showed that you and the three victims had an argument at the Chong Bai Building. After that, you left angrily. Please tell me what happened at that time?”The policeman took out a photo.

“I. . . That... it was just a trivial matter...”Liu Xincheng stammered.

“Please cooperate...” . “...” . “So that we can eliminate you as a suspect!”The police officer saw Liu Xincheng’s expression and immediately became serious. “This is a big case where three people died. If you are a suspect, we have the right to detain you!”

“I... I didn’t! !”Liu Xincheng was so scared that he completely forgot all the knowledge about law enforcement that he had seen on the internet. Just like how he usually despised those who were so scared by the police that they were legally blind, he honestly told them what had happened.

Pu Yunchuan was speechless. He usually saw that Liu Xincheng was quite slick and thought that he could hold on for a few minutes. He did not expect that he would honestly tell the truth after being scared. It turned out that those extras on TV who could talk back to the police officers were all heroes...

“You mean you guys were planning to kidnap her in the beginning?”The police officer frowned.

“No, no, no, it was them... I didn’t participate in it. I directly opposed it at the beginning and tried to persuade them...”Liu Xincheng quickly said.

“Who is this foreign woman?”The police officer asked the question they wanted to know the most at the moment.

Because from the image capture, there was no record of the woman entering the country. They couldn’t find any identity information at all, but from the surveillance footage, the woman was the most suspicious.

“I. . . I don’t know...”Liu Xincheng shook his head and pointed at Pu Yunchuan. “You have to ask him, it’s his girlfriend...”

The two police officers looked over. From the surveillance footage, the other party’s words were very reliable. When they searched for traces of the woman through the surveillance footage, they found that the most common image was of her shopping with Pu Yunchuan, from their behavior, they did look like a couple.

Pu Yunchuan pursed his lips and could not help but think to himself, this guy sells himself very quickly.

“Tell me...”the police officer looked at Pu Yunchuan and asked.

“I’m not very clear about the other party’s identity...”Pu Yunchuan shrugged and said.

“You’re not clear that you’re dating her?”The police officer waited for him to say.

“Isn’t that normal? Do you need to know her background?”Pu Yunchuan bragged casually.

In fact, he had never known what she looked like in his entire life... ..

“Then how did you meet her?”The police officer looked at the wily Pu Yunchuan and suddenly felt a headache.

“I met her online...”

“Wechat? QQ? Silent?”

“In the game, in a game called Galaxy...” Pu Yunchuan said half-truthfully.

His words were not actually a lie, because they had indeed met that thing in the game.

The police officer frowned and looked at Pu Yunchuan. Based on their experience, they felt that it would be difficult to get any clues from this person... ..

“What situation is this? ” Old Zhang and just returned to the police station saw a group of people busy appearance, also surrounded by a large number of reporters outside, suddenly face a pull on the plan to retreat.

By this time it was almost midnight, Lao Zhang actually came to get the bottle of good wine that he hid in the office. In the game, Lao Wang’s supper buffet was about to start. He took the wine and intended to run away quickly. Anyway, he called in sick.

But looking at the current situation, it was better not to go in and take the wine...

Just as he was about to leave, the eyes of the deputy director, Old Bai, who had been pestered by the reporters in the crowd, sharpened. From afar, he shouted, “Eh, Director Zhang?”

The reporters were instantly stunned. Then, they felt that they had turned their heads and looked over. They saw that the people were like wolves and tigers as they rushed forward to block old Zhang, who was about to leave.

“Director Zhang, may I ask if this particularly brutal killing method is really... ?”

“How do the police plan to appease the public this time? What regulations do they have on how to ensure the safety of ordinary citizens? What clues do they have on the murderer?”

Director Zhang was a group of people came up to ask a face of confusion, I’m afraid there is a big case, today’s Supper is afraid that he has nothing to do... ..

About half an hour later, director Zhang just from a lot of vicious reporters out, a into the office of Lao Bai that do not help the fellow head-on scold.

Then asked what the hell is going on.

Only after listening to Lao Bai did he know that there had been a big murder case, and it was different from ordinary cases. The murderer’s killing method was extremely cruel. No one knew who had spread the photos of the scene, the Internet was abuzz with rumors that a black mass cult had appeared in C City, and people immediately became anxious.

When director Zhang heard this, he immediately furrowed his brows tightly. This kind of case that caused social panic would give more pressure to the higher-ups, so it was no wonder that there were so many reporters outside.

“Any leads?”

“Yes, yes, yes...” director Bai brought Lao Zhang into the analysis room, he opened the powerpoint on the computer. The first thing he saw was a few photos of the dead. When he saw the photos, old Zhang felt his stomach churn. He was also a criminal police officer, but this was the first time he had seen someone die so miserably, what kind of torture did he have to suffer to have his flesh twisted like that. It felt like someone was twisting a handkerchief with both hands...

“D * MN, isn't this a little too tragic?” Director Zhang couldn't help but ask.

“Then what do you think? Otherwise, how could it cause such a huge sensation so quickly?” Lao Bai rolled his eyes at him.

“The suspect has been found, but the current problem is that we can't find her identity, so now they're not in the surveillance area, so it's a little difficult to track them...”

“Them? They really are an organization?” Director Zhang frowned and said.

“I don't know if they are an organization, but it's a little strange...” Lao Bai turned the powerpoint to the back with a serious expression. “The crime scene was in a hotel. The three victims and a woman entered the same room that was booked...”

“Three men and a woman are so exciting?” Director Zhang was stunned.

“Seriously, director Zhang...” Lao Bai coughed lightly.

“Oh... uh, go on...”

“The four of them stayed in the room for about three hours, but after three hours, a stranger came out of the room...”

As he spoke, he flipped to a screen. It was the screen of the person wearing a black cloak who came out and looked at the surveillance camera.

The face under the hood of the woman in the screen was so pale that there was not a trace of blood on it. There was also a pair of green pupils that were like cat's eye stones.

“D * mn, this woman's appearance is quite unique. By the way, the picture is so clear. Are you telling me you can't find her identity?” Old Zhang immediately frowned. “Use the Skynet to check!”

“Do I need you to teach me that? ...” Old Bai rolled his eyes, then he shook his head and said, “I've checked long ago. These two women can't find their immigration records. Moreover, we've searched through all the surveillance cameras in C City and asked the supercomputer to do a search. We found that there was no image of these two people before. It was as if they appeared out of thin air. I even suspect that they're from the sect.”

Director Zhang said, “The Huazhong sect has never accepted foreign devils...”

“That’s What I was thinking, that’s why I don’t have any leads right now... by the way, where’s old Wang? He didn’t pick up his phone and there’s no one at home. Hurry up and contact him and ask him to come back and solve the case!”

He didn’t have the time right now... Old Zhang couldn’t help but think to himself.

“There are no other clues?”

“There are some...”. Old Bai pointed at Isabelle and said, “This woman did have surveillance records a few days ago. She has been in contact with someone called Pu Yunchuan. The two of them seem to be lovers. Moreover, this Pu Yunchuan is cousins with the three victims.”

“Where is he? Did you bring him back?” Director Zhang asked immediately.

“Yes, but the interrogation didn’t go well...” Lao Bai played the video of Pu Yunchuan and Lao Bai being interrogated.

Looking at the video, Lao Zhang’s expression suddenly became very interesting, especially when the other party said that they met in the game galaxy... ..

Chapter 326: So It’s you

“What a wonderful place...” in the darkness, on the rooftop of a building dozens of stories high, Alice looked at the lights of the city below with a strange look in her eyes.

At this time, the night wind was actually very strong, but because of the heavy quality of Alice’s cloak, the night wind didn’t cause any ripples at all, Alice looked at herself and said, “The power of this world is really small, even the wind is so weak... are the people here also so weak?”

“It seems so...” Isabelle replied in a low voice, she recalled the scene when Pu Yunchuan took her to buy clothes for the first time a few days ago. At that time, the waiter was dragged to the ground by the weight of her clothes, she even complained if her clothes were made of iron.

“What a strange place...” Alice shook her head and said, “With such a prosperous city and a brilliant civilization, even ordinary people can afford such sophisticated arcane equipment.” “...”. Then, she picked up Isabelle’s phone and mumbled, “But the strength of an individual is so weak...” “... “..

“Don’t you have any clues about the organization that connected the two worlds and invaded us?”

Isabelle’s heart skipped a beat when she heard this, but she shook her head calmly and said, “No... When I just teleported here, I was in a civilian’s residence. I didn’t find any traces of sim...”

Actually, she had heard Pu Yunchuan mention them before, saying that they were npcs in the game. She still didn’t understand what he meant, but she didn’t want to tell Alice this information, she did not want that simple man to be hurt.

Alice turned around and looked at Isabelle. “The little girl has grown up and become cunning. She is so cunning that I can’t even tell if she is lying to me...”

Isabelle's heart skipped a beat, but her face remained calm. "You worry too much. Everything I have is from you. I don't have the courage or the ability to betray you..."

"Is that so?" Alice sneered. "You didn't seem to want to take me to the place where you first entered this dimension..."

Isabel's heart skipped a beat, and she finally panicked. She lowered her head and said, "That's just a civilian's residence. It doesn't have any intelligence value, so i..."

"I need to see if there's any intelligence value before I can confirm your statement..."

"You don't trust me?" Isabelle lowered her head and made a final struggle.

"You're the one who doesn't trust me, girl..." Alice gently lifted her chin with her finger, her pale face squeezed out a stiff smile and said, "It seems that you value the person who took care of you these few days, right? So You're afraid that I'll hurt them?"

"I. . ." Isabelle was forced to make eye contact, and she finally began to dodge.

"Take me there..." Alice's voice sounded gentle, but it also carried an irresistible will...

The thing that old Zhang was most worried about had happened...

He had actually considered this question from the beginning. There were tens of thousands of players in the game, which meant that there were tens of thousands of Superman hidden in society. If these people found out about his power., would they continue living their lives obediently or would they use their power to cause trouble?

To be honest, old Zhang had always felt that the number of the latter was definitely not small... ..

There might be more and more such things in the future, and it would not be able to be hidden for long. When the whole world found out about the alien's plan, what would it look like?

This was also the reason why he did not dare to send his wife and children over immediately.

If he could, of course, he would prefer that place. Everything there was full of vitality and had a future that was worth looking forward to, even if it did not have the starry sea life that Old Wang had envisioned, he also felt that the Martian city that was currently developing over there was very interesting.

At least after becoming a green titan, his waist would no longer hurt, and he would no longer be able to get up at night...

But if the conflict between them broke out, what should he do?

For example, right now...

Old Zhang looked at the fatty who was picking his nose and was most likely related to the three deaths. He thought to himself, 'If it was really him and a few players who caused this matter, what should I do?

'no matter what, I have to clarify the matter first...'

Thinking of this, Old Zhang turned to the police officer behind him and said, "Go out, turn off the surveillance cameras..."

The police officer nodded. A confession without surveillance cameras and audio recordings was invalid. Facing some old fogeys, this was obviously a common method to lower the opponent's vigilance and get some information.

"What do you mean? You detained me in the middle of the night and didn't let me go home or rest!" Pu Yunchuan yawned and said, "Don't think that I don't know the law. A confession from a tired interrogation is illegal!"

"Oh? You know the law? If you know the law, do you still want to break the law?" The police officer who was about to leave glared at Pu Yunchuan and said.

Pu Yunchuan did not back down at all when he saw the situation. He glared back at the other party and said, "Which eye of yours saw that I broke the law?"

"You..."

"Alright, Get Out..." chief Zhang waved his hand impatiently. The police officer glared at Pu Yunchuan angrily before he quickly walked out of the interrogation room and closed the door.

After the police officer left for about a minute, old Zhang took out a cigarette and passed it to him.

Pu Yunchuan took the cigarette and was stunned for a moment. Then, he looked at old Zhang and said, "Uncle, judging from your posture just now, you should be at the cadre level, right? Why are you smoking so shabby? A six-yuan red double happiness is coming."

Old Zhang took a puff and said dryly, "I know that you don't have a family from your words. Now, ordinary people have 20 years to pay the mortgage and 20 years to make a down payment for their children's houses. How can they have the extra money to enjoy other things with ordinary wages?"

"Who isn't young enough to Smoke Yuxi?"

"Uh..." Pu Yunchuan was stunned. Then, he looked at the cigarette in his hand and sighed, "It's not easy..."

"That's right. It's not easy. Don't make our work difficult. Tell me, what's Going On?"

"Didn't I say it just now? I know that woman in the game. I don't know her background..." Pu Yunchuan's face became serious at the mention of this.

"What's her name in the game? Green Titan or Elf?" Old Zhang continued to ask.

"Eh?" Pu Yunchuan paused, then looked at the other party in a daze. "Uncle... you... You Too?"

"Don't call me uncle. Green Titan has a lifespan of more than 500 years at level one. With our age difference, what should I call you uncle?" Old Zhang Glared at the other party.

"UH... can the settings in the game be described in real life?" Pu Yunchuan immediately laughed and his expression eased up. When he heard that the other party was also a person in the game, for some reason, he felt a lot closer.

"It's actually someone who doesn't know the truth..." Old Zhang muttered in a low voice.

"What truth?" Pu Yunchuan's heart thumped as he hurriedly asked.

"We'll talk about it when we have time..." Old Zhang waved his hand and said, "Tell me, who is that female player? What's her name in the game?"

"Uh... that's not a female player..." Pu Yunchuan's expression was a little conflicted.

"It's not a female player... could it be... a male?" Old Zhang said with a serious expression.

Pu Yunchuan: "..."

"Then... it's not a player!"

"Not a player? Are you lying to the police?" Old Zhang frowned.

"It's not really lying..." Pu Yunchuan was at a loss. He looked at the other party and said, "Uncle, what I said might be a little mysterious. I'm just afraid that you won't believe me..."

"You go first..." Old Zhang quickly said.

"That woman is a NPC..."

"Oh..." old Zhang suddenly realized, "So the guy they talked about a few days ago who brought npcs to reality is you!"

Pu Yunchuan: "!!!"

Chapter 327: Has It Begun?

"If it's npcs, things will be easier..." old Zhang rubbed his chin and muttered.

From what old Zhang knew of the game, most of the npcs were just natives of the new map. As long as they were not players in the real world, he could just install the name of an evil cultivator in the wild and report it to the higher-ups...

Thinking of this, he let out a sigh of relief. As long as there were no conflicts between players and society, everything would be fine... ..

It would be easy if they were npcs? What did he mean by that?

Pu Yunchuan Thought in a daze. Why did the other party sound like it was an unusual thing for npcs to run out?

"Uncle... this game... do npcs often run out of it?" Pu Yunchuan asked in a daze.

How the Hell Should I know? I've only been in the game for a few days? Why would an experienced player like you ask me? Old Zhang couldn't help but roll his eyes in his heart.

But he still looked calm on the surface and said, "Well... it's not very common, right? Tell me about that NPC first..."

Pu Yunchuan heard this and quickly told him about Isabelle without missing a word.

Director Zhang sorted out the information about Isabelle and then said faintly, "The marquise? Thinks highly of you? I'm afraid it's not that simple..."

"Uh... Why?" Pu Yunchuan asked quickly.

"How could a normal noble marquise do such a cruel thing?"

"That should be because Liu Kai and the others wanted to do something to her, so she did that, right?" Pu Yunchuan subconsciously defended Isabelle.

"Is that so?" Director Zhang did not say much and directly threw the photos of Liu Kai and the others' corpses over. Pu Yunchuan took a look at the corpses and immediately gasped, "This F * ck... isn't it a little too tragic?"

Immediately, a complicated feeling rose in his heart. To be honest, when he first heard that Liu Kai and the others were being led by dogs, Pu Yunchuan did not feel sad at all. Instead, he felt a little happy in his heart. His first thought was: F * CK You, you deserve it!

However, when he saw the photos of their miserable deaths, he suddenly came to a realization.

After all, they had known each other for decades since they were young. To suddenly die in such a miserable way, it was quite a deep feeling... ..

"This scene has been made into a black mass ceremony. The Internet has gone crazy. You've caused us a lot of trouble..." director Zhang covered his head and said.

"You Can't blame me, right?" Pu Yunchuan said innocently, "How do I know that this damn game can bring an NPC with it when it goes offline?"

Pu Yunchuan paused for a moment as if he remembered something and said, "I remember two days ago when Isabelle first appeared in the real world, the AI warned me to stabilize the NPC. Now that such a thing has happened, is it useful to ask the system?"

"Are you talking about that artificial intelligence? It should be useful. Why Don't you try it?" Old Zhang's eyes lit up.

Pu Yunchuan took a deep breath and closed his eyes. He recalled the way he used to call the system in the game.

"Hello, the system has something to do. If you have anything to say, please leave a message..."

Pu Yunchuan:"..."

The system... .. Went out first. As expected... .. The system of this damn game was just a human customer service?

..

“Can’t you fix it?” Seer looked at the aircraft he brought over from the New Territories and asked with a frown.

“No...” the AI replied, “The aircraft you bought is the core of a low-quality arcane crystal. This product is basically useless after being disturbed by the magnetic field. Obviously, it can’t be used here...”

“It seems that we can only use this to travel...” Seer sighed as he looked at the strengthened dragon horse beside him.

After being strengthened by Seer, the dragon horse’s entire body had become bigger and stronger. The dragon scales on its body were like iron plates, and the horse’s appearance was also approaching the shape of a dragon.

This side was different from the D sphere. Without the earth passage built by Kunlun, he could not use other people’s laws to travel as fast as he did over there.

Since he could not use the aircraft or the laws, he could only use the most primitive way to travel.

Xi Ye sighed at the thought, but it did not take too much time. After getting on the horse, he squeezed its belly. The dragon horse neighed and turned into a black whirlwind, bringing Xi Ye along as it sped toward the Empire Avenue... ..

The speed was faster than expected...

Xi Ye was slightly satisfied. The genes of the natives of this world were not that good, but the dragon horse’s biological modification seemed to be quite different. Its genes seemed to be very superior..., it did not seem like a species that was produced by low-level genetic experiments like the orcs.

Xi Ye’s heart jolted. He could not help but think to himself, ‘looking at this speed, I might be able to arrive three days ago!’!

However, just as he rode past a few mountains, an invisible feeling suddenly rose in Xi Ye’s heart... .. Then, the dragon-horse that was running happily suddenly stopped...

Xi Ye was stunned. This was because the dragon-horse did not stop under his control. Instead, it stopped by itself. It was rare for a tamed horse to stop by itself without its master’s control... ..

Thinking of this, Xi Ye raised her head and looked ahead. The road ahead was empty, but for some reason, there was an invisible magnetic field spreading out in all directions.

The scale was so large that it was almost visible to the naked eye, but it was covered by the magnetic field.

Then, the surrounding flowers and plants turned into a dead gray color!

“This is...” the system said.

“Ah...” Seer rode on his horse and stood on the peak of the Empire’s main road, looking at the changing colors of the world. He muttered, “Is it about to begin?”

“Finally... is it finally about to begin?” Inside the manor on the Empire’s main road, Swain stood in front of the balcony, looking at the changes in the world around him. He was so excited that his entire body trembled... ..

“What... What’s going on?” At this moment, Galen, the son of the Sword of Dawn who had been controlled, was staring blankly outside.

The world began to lose its color without any warning. The colorful manor turned grayish-white, and the white mist began to turn gray like a haze, it was as if someone was using a pen to infect the world with dark gray.

Then, something even stranger happened. Right next to him, in the large fish tank, the ornamental fish suddenly became extremely agitated after being infected by the gray color. They began to attack their companions crazily.

Then, a tank of clear water was instantly dyed black. The beautiful ornamental fish became larger and larger after devouring their companions, and their forms became more and more ferocious!

After a fierce roll, the final winner slowly floated in the water. Its size was two to three times bigger than before, and the scales on its body became as sharp as a blade, the originally flat fish head became like an axe, and its sharp teeth were densely packed. It was a completely different creature from the elegant and beautiful ornamental fish from before.

At this moment, its pair of orange-yellow eyes were staring coldly at him, as if it would jump out of the fish tank and eat him at any moment!

“This... what... Did you guys do?” Galen felt an extremely ominous feeling welling up in his heart. He suddenly felt that the plan Swain and the others had planned seemed to be a thousand times more terrifying than taking down the imperial capital!

Chapter 328: Training Ground!

“Hiss...” on the Empire’s main road, the draconic horse carrying the seer moved uneasily under its master’s command. It was constantly on guard against its surroundings.

The instincts of animals were often more sensitive than that of humans. They were always able to detect the risks of the brewing environment ahead of time. However, the price that humans paid was the weakening of their ability to think calmly, their adaptability was much worse than humans’. Even though they were protected by Seer’s power, the danger that was right in front of them still made the draconic horse anxious.

Seer slightly tightened the horse’s abdomen and slowed down its speed. Over and over again, it used magic to pacify the heart of this only means of transportation so that it could adapt to the environment as soon as possible.

After walking on the Empire Avenue for a day, the style of the painting became more and more bizarre as they walked further in. The rock walls were actually covered with vines that looked like blood vessels, squirming from time to time, as if there was blood flowing in the vines, there was also the sound of sucking, as if the blood on the mountain wall was being sucked, which made one's hair stand on end.

In fact, this place was still considered good. The Empire Avenue had been built for many years, and the spacious road surface was paved with very good sealing materials. There were very few green plants, except for these vines that climbed the mountain, some mutated plants would rarely rush onto the road directly.

On the other hand, the changes in the countryside at the foot of the mountain and in the depths of the mountain were very exaggerated. Along the way, the rice had changed from golden yellow to a strange purple-red color. Moreover, the shapes were all different. Some of them had sharp spikes, some of them had grown things that looked like suckers. The surrounding trees and flowers were also the same. Either they had become extremely aggressive, or they had become unapproachable.

In a very short period of time, plants and animals began to evolve. In comparison, the evolution speed of plants was still a little slow. Some plants were even evolving in the direction of conservative defense, those plants with sharp thorns and hardened shells were like this.

Some plants had already begun to look in the direction of their prey... ..

The further they went in, the more exaggerated the scene became. This rapid rate of evolution made most of the creatures look like demons. No matter whether it was animals or plants, they were all ferocious and terrifying.

There were no longer any people in the courier station on the road. It was obvious that the military forces had been tightened. Seer soon arrived at the first sealed city.

Seer had seen this city from the map information that rainy girl had uploaded. It was called Rustard. It was the second major city on the main road after Molando left Cisco City. It was also the only place to go to the imperial capital, at this moment, Rusta's city gate was tightly shut. A group of soldiers armed to the teeth were standing guard at the city gate.

A large number of villagers and mercenaries gathered at the city gate. They wanted to enter the city to seek protection, but they were obviously rejected. Moreover, the city was constantly expelling the infected humans.

Countless cries of despair and anger filled the surroundings. The villagers who were forced into desperation even launched an attack when the people inside were being expelled to open the small gate. However, how could they, who were made of flesh and blood, withstand the fully armed soldiers?

The impulsive ones were either pierced in the throat by an arrow or pierced into a sieve by a spear...

Wave after wave of determined and cold-blooded actions warned the people behind them who were ready to make a move. Many of them, who had been incited by the blood, felt as if they had been poured a bucket of cold water on them.

Obviously, these soldiers did not want to let them in at all. However, when they turned back, the countryside was full of mutated monsters. What awaited them if they could not enter the city was to become the food of those monsters!

In an instant... ... Despair spread in everyone's heart.

Seer used arcane magic to hide his body and the shape of a draconic horse. Ignoring the defense of the military and soldiers, he walked straight in when the small door was opened, his eyes did not linger on the soldiers and the miserable people.

As a graduate of the divinity school, he knew very well what had happened.

The so-called infected humans were actually nonexistent. The reason why they looked so ferocious was that it was their normal reaction after killing the monster and successfully absorbing the energy.

Within the range of the Black Goat, plants would mutate, animals would mutate, but not intelligent life forms!

The reason was very simple, because intelligent life forms were the main goal of the Black Goat's map's evolution!

When the Black Goat's map was activated, it would use accurate calculation of the energy around the mutation to quickly stimulate the evolution of the surrounding species. However, this way, the evolution of the species would become violent and uncontrollable, the rapid evolution of the physical body would cause the brain nerves of most species to be unable to keep up with the speed of the evolution of the body and collapse, becoming monsters that only had appetites.

The utilization rate of these monsters was not high, but they had successfully digested most of the mutated energy, forming a pure energy crystal in their bodies, the energy that was digested once was much more stable than the mutated energy before.

It was also easier for the creatures to absorb!

The surrounding creatures attacked each other crazily because they were attracted by the energy crystal. However, their bodies had already mutated, so their growth rate was not high. The ones with high growth rate were naturally the intelligent creatures that did not mutate!

As long as they could kill some mutated creatures in the early stage and obtain the energy crystal, their bodies would grow rapidly. Those humans who had the courage and reaction to kill those mutated creatures usually had extremely strong adaptability, as long as they could survive in this shura training ground, it would not be a problem for them to increase their levels by a few levels!

Yes, the purpose of this map of the Black Goat was actually to create a large-scale biological training ground!

Of course, there were also drawbacks. This kind of evolution would cause the body to mutate too quickly, and the genes would be greatly damaged. Children with high-quality genes would not use this method to grow.

However, the benefits were also obvious. The growth limit of a rapidly mutating intelligent life was extremely high. According to the level of the goat map, it was even possible to create a star core monster in a short period of time!

Xi Ye's face was cold as he drove the dragon horse forward. He did not stop because of those desperate wails. He really did not have the time right now.

The value of rainy girl, Wu Gua, and the players in the imperial capital was higher than the value of all the people in this city combined. The base did not lack basic citizens for the time being. These people were not very important to Xi Ye.

As for pity, that wasn't a quality that a heavenly god Lord should have.

Just like the person who used the map of the Black Goat. He clearly knew that once he used it, he would use countless creatures in exchange for a small portion of the elite growth. However, he still didn't hesitate.

Clearly, in the Lord's eyes, these intelligent creatures that hadn't survived the training ground were the weak ones that had been eliminated. They had no value at all.

This was the attitude that a normal lord should have when they were colonizing. If seer was not weak and everyone on Planet D was too valuable.., his methods would definitely not be any better than this lord's.

After all, violent colonization was the most efficient method.

Chapter 329: the situation in the imperial capital (I) !

Two days ago...

After being enveloped by the map of the Black Goat, the imperial capital, like other cities, underwent a terrifying transformation. The surrounding flowers, trees, and animals, especially the giant griffins that were domesticated in the imperial capital.., all underwent an extremely terrifying transformation.

As the city with the highest population density, there was no need to be afraid of the chaos. In just a few hours, the number of casualties in the entire imperial capital could reach up to a million.

However, as the imperial capital city, with many imperial generals and high-level mages stationed in the capital city, its resistance was naturally not something that cities like the southern Rustard could compare to.

Almost in the fifth hour after the chaos started, the imperial city, under the coordination of many generals and elite soldiers, suppressed the mutated creatures.

However, what happened next was the beginning of the great panic in the Imperial City!

After the mutated creatures were suppressed, the bodies of the soldiers and knights who bravely killed the mutated monsters began to undergo inexplicable changes, especially the low-end soldiers, pure energy invaded their bodies, causing their bodies to become malevolent. At the same time that their veins bulged, some of their muscles also underwent terrifying changes.

For example, their bodies grew larger out of thin air, and their muscles and bones became stronger. Some of the shorter ones grew up to four to five centimeters in a day, and some of their genes even became chaotic in the early stages, showing signs of animals.

For example, their skin had become phosphorescent, and they had grown sharp teeth and claws. The color of their eyes had changed, and their energy had become too violent. Their muscles were clapping, and their veins were bulging. They were as terrifying as devil-like muscle people.

These people did not lose their reason like ordinary creatures after their mutation. The relatively stable energy intake had allowed them to evolve in a relatively balanced manner.

However, outsiders did not see it that way. After experiencing a terrorist attack of an animal mutation, they became extremely sensitive to the mutations of their surrounding companions.

In an instant, those mutated humans were targeted and ostracized. At this moment, the Gus family, which was in the lead, spread panic-stricken words, causing conflict between the two sides. The situation was extremely precarious... ..

Because at that time, the ones who organized the soldiers to resist were the empire's generals and high-ranking military officers, so the ones who were infected were the empire's intermediate forces.

And because those mages were themselves weak, they were protected at the first moment, so they did not attack and kill those monsters.

The ones who proposed to control the mutated humans were mainly the mage family. This made the conflict between the empire's generals and mages even more serious, as if the balance was about to be broken...

..

At night, a group of infected generals wearing cloaks rushed to Rox's mansion. After being welcomed into the hall by the butler, they finally saw Marshal Rox who refused to show himself!

The few of them walked over excitedly and performed a knight's etiquette. Then, they said, "Marshal Rox, you can't hide from the current situation anymore..."

The general in the lead was called Enzo. He was a capable candidate to inherit the position of commander-in-chief of the three armies after Rox was demoted. He was also an extremely outstanding general in Rox's camp. Currently, he was leading one-third of the troops in the northern front, this time, he was only temporarily returning to the imperial capital to take over. He did not expect to encounter such a thing.

Rox looked at the anxious generals and sighed in his heart. He turned his head to look at rainy, who was quietly drinking tea on the left. He could not help but think to himself, 'it's really like what that woman said... !! This time, the first batch of people who were infected were all officers who were more inclined to their own camp!

Two days ago, after he was controlled to attack rainy, he could not move, but he knew that rainy was definitely not a simple viscountess.

His subordinates were unbelievably skilled. In the past two days, he had tried to resist a few times, but in the end, he was instantly subdued by a few people.

He had calculated in his heart that if it was a one-on-one, he might not be a match for any one of them...

...

And this woman actually had four or five of such people under her command. She definitely had an extraordinary and powerful organization behind her.

He looked at his old comrades on the battlefield and calculated in his heart the possibility of subduing rainy without melon if they attacked now...

However, looking at rainy without melon who drank tea quietly and did not seem to prevent him from seeing his old comrades, Rox finally suppressed that thought. He looked at his comrades and asked, "How bad are you guys now?"

The generals looked at each other and then took off their cloaks. At this moment, it could be seen that most of the people's bodies had changed more or less, but compared to the low-level soldiers, the changes were much smaller, some of them only had some scales on their arms, some of them had some feathers on their bodies, and some of them even had their hair become more exuberant.

The officers who were lower than the generals were more serious. The most serious one had bulging muscles all over his body, a ferocious face, and a pair of horns on his head. His skin was as red as if it had been scalded, he looked like a devil that had crawled out of hell, looking especially ferocious and terrifying.

Rox's eyelids twitched when he saw this. To be honest, if it wasn't for the letters from his old comrades saying that these people were still rational, he would have thought that these people had become monsters just like those mutated animals.

"Commander Luo!" The leader of the generals said, "We have already been treated as monsters. The soldiers below are also becoming more and more irritable under the circumstances of being targeted. I'm afraid that in another two days, they might not be able to hold back and explode!"

Rox paused for a moment and looked up at the high ranking officers behind the generals. Although most of them did not say anything, it could be seen that their eyes were filled with hatred.

Indeed, back then, they were the ones who had stepped out to protect the citizens and the safety of the imperial city. They were the ones who had fought against the mutated monsters. However, after defending the imperial city, they were treated as monsters by the people who were protected. No one could withstand the blow of such a deficit...

To be able to suppress it until now, it was probably because of the high military literacy of the elites of the empire...

"What Did His Majesty Say?"

“His Majesty?” The leading generals said with a cold face, “His Majesty wants us to surrender for the safety of the Imperial City and be isolated first, waiting for the arcane wizards to develop a method to treat us...”

Rox was silent. To be honest, under normal circumstances, this was the right thing to do. It was indeed the right thing to control these seemingly mutated officers, but the imperial generals and the Wizard family had always had a big conflict, now that they were asked to give their names to these wizards to make a decision, who would be willing?

Who knew if these wizards would think of a way to make an antidote or burn them all to death after isolating them?

To hand over the power of life and death to someone else, even a powerhouse would not be willing to do so...

After sighing, Rox turned to look at the mysterious woman and asked, “Sir, let’s Call You Lady ICASIO for now. I would like to ask... do you have any way to treat the infection of my subordinates?”

Chapter 330: the situation in the empire (middle)

The group of generals stared blankly at rainy girl, who was drinking tea. They looked at each other in surprise.

At first, they were surprised to see such an important meeting with a woman sitting there. Now that this question was asked, they were even more surprised, it was as if Rox actually thought that the woman in front of him had a way to resolve all of this.

Most of the people present actually recognized this woman. She was the daughter-in-law of the old Duke of Morondor in the south. The two sons she gave birth to were the last of the Ferran family’s bloodline, she seemed to have received the approval of the Marshal during the battle for Marshal Rox’s recapture of the south and was recommended to temporarily govern Morondor.

This Woman’s social skills were extremely strong. Within a short month in the imperial capital, she had already formed relationships with many aristocratic ladies. Her skills and conversation were far from what an ordinary country aristocrat could compare to, and Rox was also secretly asking them to support this woman in taking charge of Molundo.

This made many of the old men even secretly believe that this woman was Rox’s mistress.

But this turn of events made them realize that this woman might not be that simple.

“Yes!” Facing Rox’s question, rainless melon gave an affirmative answer without hesitation...

Looking at rainless melon’s straightforward answer, Rox was slightly stunned and did not know what to say for a moment.

No matter how he looked at it, this extremely suspicious woman's straightforward answer was not reliable. However, if he immediately denied it, didn't it mean that he had just asked a useless question?

Looking at Rox's conflicted expression, Rainless Melon smiled slightly, put down her teacup, and said gently, "You don't have to be nervous. The reactions on your bodies right now are not as scary as you think."

When she said this, everyone was shocked. The general in the lead asked in a daze, "Do you know what happened?"

"HMM... sort of..." Rainless Melon nodded.

"What happened to us?" A burly general on the left couldn't help but ask in a muffled voice.

Rainless Melon said, "Evolution!"

"Evolution?" Everyone quickly asked, "What do you mean?"

"Literally... Don't you feel anything?" Rainless Melon looked at them and said faintly, "That feeling of increasing your strength..."

Everyone was stunned. Then, their bodies stiffened as they looked at the place where they had mutated.

To be honest, although their bodies had become like this, their strength had indeed increased a lot, just like what the other party said... ..

"You mean the monsters we killed also evolved?" One of the generals said gloomily.

"That's true, but it's different from you guys..." Rain Maiden Wugua said slowly, "Those monsters lost their rationality, but you guys didn't, did you?"

Everyone was stunned again. ROX frowned and asked, "What's going on?"

"To put it simply, someone performed a huge magic ceremony in the imperial city. This magic ceremony made the flowers and animals around them evolve, and the evolution was too fast. They lost their minds and began to attack all the creatures in a frenzy. You guys, who killed those mutated creatures, gained the magic energy in their bodies that allowed them to evolve, so you guys also changed like those mutated creatures..." "..."

"Then... will we lose our minds like those animals?" The officer who had experienced the biggest change could not help but ask. His body was still trembling when he asked the question.

"Not for the time being..." "After another round of digestion, the magic energy will become pure and easier to absorb, so your bodies can accept it temporarily, but you can't ingest too much. Otherwise, there will be a mutation. If the mutation reaches a certain level, it might be like the monsters you saw before." "..."

"Did you ingest it by killing monsters?" Rox quickly asked.

"Yes..." Rain Girl nodded. "The more monsters you kill, the more energy you ingest. If you are weak, your body will not be able to withstand this energy, such as that one." "...". Then, she pointed at the officer who had changed the most.

The military officer's expression immediately turned ugly...

"Of course, if your strength is strong and your body is strong enough, your body won't be unable to withstand a little more energy. You Generals of the Empire should be able to understand this, right?"

The moment she said this, the generals looked at each other and thought, so that's how it is!

Rox also understood at once. This logic seemed to be very logical.

"How do you know so much?" The tallest general standing on the left had a gloomy expression.

"Forgive me for not being able to reveal this..." rainy girl, Wu Gua, said with a smile.

"That won't do!" The general's expression turned cold, and his body turned into a shadow as he rushed towards rainy girl, Wu Gua.

"No!" Rox hurriedly shouted when he saw this.

However, it was clearly too late. A figure that was much faster than the general suddenly stood in front of rainy girl. He grabbed the general's arms and with an extremely exquisite technique, he grabbed the general, everyone only heard a cracking sound. The upper body of the general was instantly shattered. Both of his arms were dislocated!

Everyone was shocked by the sudden appearance of this person. They all looked at the beautiful woman with extreme fear.

The general who was restrained let out a muffled groan and endured the pain without making a sound. However, he was incomparably shocked in his heart. Although the other party had come in a flash, it was a direct confrontation with the enemy. He actually did not manage to receive a single round? Just who was this person?

"Commander Luo, just who is this woman?" The leading general asked with a frown.

"Now is not the time to explore this..." Rox sighed. When he saw the skill of the elf player once again, he completely gave up on the idea of using force to subdue this mysterious woman's group.

It was likely that his group combined might not even be enough to defeat the other party... ..

"Did you guys create this ritual or the shadow stream organization..."

"Of course it's them..." rainy girl picked up the Teacup again and refilled it with water. "If it were me, why would I waste my breath talking to you guys?"

"What's the purpose?" Rox frowned and asked.

"Training troops!" Rainy girl said faintly, "Through this ritual, he can evolve a batch of troops for him to use in a short period of time!"

"What you said is wrong..." Rox frowned. "You said it yourself, if we absorb too much of this energy, we will lose our rationality. How can he use a monster that has lost its rationality?" "And if we haven't lost our rationality, why should we be used by him?"

“We don’t have to lose our rationality...”Raingirl WUGUA smiled. “Have you forgotten what I Said? After this energy is digested once, it will become much purer. After the second digestion, it will become even purer...”

“What do you mean?”Rox was stunned. Then, she suddenly thought of something and her face turned extremely ugly.

The expressions of the surrounding generals also became strange.

“It seems that you understand now...”rain girl said with a smile, “The same mutated species around you are the food for your next evolution!”

Everyone:” ...”
