

A Bunch 331

Chapter 331: the situation of the Empire (Part Two)

“What? Has It been pacified?” In the palace, Emperor Jiawen was listening to the news from the Meghan family’s heir, Dieter. When Meghan reported the news, a hint of shock appeared on her face, which had been frowning all this time.

“Yes, your Majesty!” Dieter bowed slightly as a noble, he replied respectfully, “It was Enzo who came to ask Lord Rox to come out and pacify it. Now that the mutated soldiers have basically stabilized, a few generals are also willing to accept our isolation under his pacification...”

“He can be persuaded with such a matter. He is indeed worthy of being our marshal...” the emperor revealed a smile as if he had been relieved of a heavy burden, but there was a cold glint in the depths of his eyes.

“That’s right...” Dieter seemed to have not noticed the coldness in the emperor’s eyes at all, there was a hint of respect on his face. “When father was still alive, he said that that Lord is the true cornerstone of the empire. Even if the Sky Falls, as long as that Lord is still alive, he will give people a sense of peace. At first, I did not think much of it. I felt that Father’s evaluation of a martial artist was too high, but after coming into contact with him, I realized that that Lord is worthy of Father’s evaluation...” “...”

The middle-aged mage looked very similar to his father, the first guardian mage of the empire, Huo. Lin Meigan looked very similar, but at this age, he had the inherent arrogance of a mage. Among the new generation of mages, the arrogance of the current heir of the Meigan family was well-known, he especially disliked those warriors of the empire.

But even so, he still had such a high evaluation of ROX, which made the coldness in Gavin’s eyes grow stronger.

He faintly replied, “Yes... as long as that person is alive... it seems that many things can’t be changed...”

After Dieter Left, a mysterious man in a scarlet cloak walked out from a vague dark corner in the middle of the hall. This man was the one who had watched Pu Yunchuan with Alice.

At this time, he whispered in his usual hoarse snake-like voice, “Your Majesty, do you still have any doubts now?”

Gavin lowered his head slightly and remained silent.

He had grown up under the shadow of his father and Rox, the two heroes. When he was young, he had always tried his best to move forward with the two of them as role models.

However, sometimes the gap between people could not be solved by hard work. As he grew older, he understood how difficult it was to climb the height of his father and Rox.

At that time, shadow stream began to come into contact with him. It was also the man in the scarlet cloak who had told him that the ruler of the world did not rely on personal valor. Who said that the position was for the best fighters?

The second generation of the Emperor had average talent. He had commanded more than a dozen heroes to serve him, and he had conquered the current great empire?

This statement made him regain his goal, but he found that his father was like a mountain blocking in front of him... ..

His father was a legendary hero who had lived for 400 years. It was said that his previous brothers had waited until they died of old age before his father passed the throne to them... ..

He did not want to end up like his brothers and become a prince who died of old age, so he plotted with shadow stream and did a bold move that no one had expected...

But after his father died, there was still rox in front...

He sat on the throne, and a bunch of old fogies still believed in that old Fogey. All these years, he had tried his best to weaken that old Fogey's military power, and this time, he even took away the commander's seal, but it still couldn't erase his influence.

Those fellows who were about to rebel yesterday had been appeased by Rox Today?

This ability made the successor of the Megan family feel at ease, but it made him, the emperor, feel a chill down his spine... ..

"Don't hesitate anymore...". The mysterious man said in a hoarse voice, "Only when those old fellows are all dead will you have a chance to become a real emperor ... "You used to worry that these old fellows wouldn't have enough strength to resist the beastmen after they died, but now you've seen it. After killing these old fellows, you'll have a batch of even more perfect warriors. With them, you'll be able to unify the continent and complete the unfinished feat of the second generation Emperor!"

"Phew..."Garvin was breathing heavily, his eyes bloodshot: "But... now there is no excuse..."

"We will find excuses for you, even if only by your Majesty's Determination!"

"Determination..."Gavin looked at the other party. He knew that the person in front of him was a complete demon. He knew that it was likely to be a big pit, but in the end, he could not resist the temptation.

"Is general delos willing to be quarantined, too?"Rox asked from the Imperial Barracks.

"Yes..."replied Enzo, after Rox had steadied the situation, he could not help but sigh at the gap between them.

After Rox, he is the next marshal's favorite, but regardless of strength or prestige, it seems that the gap with the others or the sky.

“There are a total of nine generals who have been infected, a total of more than 173,000 soldiers, and more than 200 high-ranking officers of silver-rank Knights. Except for a few who are still hesitating and watching, most of them have chosen to believe in you, Marshal...”. “...”

“Believe in me...”Rox smiled bitterly when he heard that. He did not know whether these people were right or wrong to believe in him.

Thus, he looked at rainy without melon, who had come with them.

“Now that the situation has stabilized, what should we do next?”Rox turned around and asked.

“It won’t be stable for long...”rainy without melon shook her head.

According to the information the Lord had sent about the map of the Black Goat, she knew that this thing wanted everyone in the map to kill each other and raise a batch of high-level creatures as quickly as raising a Gu.

This was only the first stage. After that, they would use these high-level creatures to guide the mutation step by step into the biological weapon they wanted.

Under such circumstances, it was impossible for them to stop the killing, especially these empire generals who represented the peak strength of this plane. They were the best materials... ..

Just as she was thinking, Rox suddenly frowned and looked at the general standing at the back. “Hey, Big Bear? What’s Wrong?”

Rainy girl looked over when she heard that. That Big Bear was the tall general who had tried to take her down and was countered by the players. She heard that the barbarians in the Beilun Mountains were so tall, he was almost similar to the orcs.

His real name was Motson. Lagris, which translated in the Alliance language, meant the northern giant.

At this moment, he seemed to be in an abnormal state. His skin was so pale that it was as if his blood had been sucked dry, and his entire body was emitting an inexplicable stench.

“I. . .”Motson opened his mouth with some difficulty, but he could not utter a second word for a long time.

“Are you not feeling well?”Rox heard him and walked over, asking with concern.

But before he got close, he saw Motson vomit, and a large pile of ink-like things instantly spurted out of his mouth. The surrounding generals hurriedly dodged when they saw this.

“Damn Big Bear, did you drink too much yesterday?”One of the gray-haired generals frowned and asked.

“I’m afraid it’s not because you drank too much...”Enzo said in a daze.

Everyone looked over and saw that Motson kept vomiting out that pure black unknown thing. Those ink-like things were sticky like glue and emitted an incomparable stench.

Moreover, the amount was so big that it was frightening. Soon, the entire floor of the room was submerged. Clearly, it was not the amount that a person’s stomach should have.

“What’s wrong with this guy?”The surrounding people felt a chill in their hearts.

“He’s here already?”raingirl, WUGUA’s expression darkened.

“What do you know?”Rox grabbed raingirl, WUGUA, and said anxiously.

“Please let go!”The elf beside him pressed on Rox’s shoulder and said coldly.

The surrounding generals immediately surrounded Raingirl, WUGUA. The atmosphere was on the verge of exploding. Raingirl, WUGUA frowned. Before she could say anything, a shrill goat’s cry was suddenly emitted from Motson’s mouth.

Then, everyone was shocked to see a black hoof sticking out from Motson’s mouth!

Chapter 332: son of the Black Goat!

“Big Bear!”One of the fat generals wanted to rush over but was held down by Enzo!

“What’s wrong with him?”Rox asked anxiously!

“Retreat!”Raingirl’s face turned pale. Then, the Elf player slapped Rox’s hand away, hugged raingirl and quickly retreated.

The surrounding generals looked at each other. The scene was too strange. None of them dared to go forward. They pulled Fatty, who was still shouting, out of the command room!

“Baa ~ ~ ~”

In less than a few seconds, a terrifying goat’s cry sounded. The entire command room spewed out that black mucus, it instantly turned into countless black tentacles and dragged the soldiers who did not know the situation into the darkness!

Along with the shrill screams, the sound of chewing came from the dark ink.

“What... What’s going on?”Enzo’s face was ashen as he looked at raingirl, who was the first to retreat.

“Black Goat Cub...”raingirl, who was looking at this scene, recalled the information the Lord had given her. ...

“Black Goat Cub? What is that?”Rox asked immediately.

“The energy in the body is out of control, the first form of mutation...”rain girl Wugua said softly.

“Mutation?”Rox was stunned for a moment, then said coldly, “Didn’t you say that as long as we don’t kill mutated creatures, we won’t absorb energy and won’t mutate?”

The surrounding people also looked at rainy girl without melon with an unfriendly expression.

Rainy girl without melon sighed, “Why do you look at me the moment something goes wrong? Don’t you suspect that something is wrong with that brother of yours?”

Everyone was stunned, and Enzo said directly, "What do you mean?"

While they were talking, a shrill roar came from the command room, like the cry of thousands of goats mixed with a distorted howl.

"It's the sound of a Big Bear!" The fatty beside him hurriedly said.

As soon as he finished speaking, the entire command room that had been dyed black seemed to melt as it slowly melted. Following that, everyone saw a huge piece of meat floating in mid-air. On the meat was a black whip-like tentacle, around the meat was a huge mouth that continuously dripped green mucus.

"Big... Big Bear..." fatty looked at the huge meat in a daze. There was a human face in the middle of the meat, and it was Motson's face. Right now, it was in the middle of the monster, giving off an extremely strange feeling.

TSS TSS!

While everyone was shocked, the meat began to Twitch and squirm. Then, huge hooves could be seen protruding from the meat below. After the hooves grew out, the huge meat slowly descended from the sky and landed on the ground, with the newly grown hooves, it stood there steadily.

At this moment, looking at the body of the monster, it looked like some kind of tree. Its thick and short feet were tree trunks, and its body was covered with tentacles. From its body, it emitted a stench that was as if it had dug a grave.

Looking at this monster that was almost ten meters tall, everyone could not believe that it was a human just a few seconds ago.

"I've already said... Don't believe them!" The fat general muttered with a look of realization.

When he heard this, Enzo immediately turned around and grabbed the fatty. "Yege, what did you say? Do you know what happened?"

The fatty who was caught had a pale face. "I don't know... I don't know..."

Enzo's heart skipped a beat when he saw this. He did not expect that it was really as the other party said. The problem was really on his own people?

Just as he was about to ask what was going on, the monster let out a terrifying cry again, and countless black tentacles attacked them.

When the generals saw this, they immediately turned around and dodged. Rainy melon was grabbed by the elf players and quickly retreated outside!

"Can he still be saved?" Rox asked.

"How can he be saved in this State?" Rainy melon rolled her eyes.

"If that's the case..." Rox looked at the soldiers around him who were being pulled into the tentacles and devoured, after taking a deep breath, Rox pulled out his black greatsword. He circulated the combat aura in his body, and the body of the sword was instantly activated by the combat aura, causing a loud roar.

It was like the roar of the Earth!

Everyone was shocked. Before they could react, ROX had already turned into a fierce light and rushed toward the monster, Motson!

The burning combat aura wrapped Rox's body and burned the countless tentacles that were surging towards him into ashes. The huge sword aura turned into a golden sharp light and slashed fiercely towards Motson.

Since he could not save him, he could not let him turn into a monster and harm his former compatriots!

"Baa ~"

Motson once again let out that Strange Goat's cry. The powerful slash landed on his body, but only a white mark appeared on the huge piece of meat... ..

Rox was shocked. He felt as if his strength had entered a sponge, disappearing without a trace in an instant. Moreover, this huge piece of meat seemed to only suck the sword in his hand., it made him feel as if he had fallen into a quagmire. As he had jumped into the air to slash, he no longer had any support points after using his strength. He could only watch as he and the sword were sucked into the piece of meat!

"Save him! !" Rainy melon hurriedly said.

As soon as she said that, two elven players rushed towards Rox like two silver lights. Their movements were swift, and their countless tentacles did not even touch their sleeves., the two of them leaped into the air and grabbed Rox's arms from both sides. The other two elves quickly took a detour and shot two arrows in Rox's direction!

However, it was obvious that the arrows were not aimed at the mutated monster. Instead, they were aimed at the two elves who had rushed over to save Rox... ..

What was going on?

The generals were stunned. In the next second, they saw the two elves grab Rox's arms with one hand and the arrows flying over with the other hand. In an instant, they flew out of the meat with Rox in tow!

They could do that?

The generals were stunned. To be honest, they didn't know how to save Rox.

"Don't act rashly..." rainy girl said calmly as she looked at Rox who was rescued.

"Let me do it!" At this moment, a rough-looking female general suddenly took out a huge golden longbow. Under the scorching sun, a strong energy fluctuation made the surrounding air feel like it was burning.

"What's This?" Rox was slightly stunned when he saw the bow.

Rainy Girl, Wu Gua, also looked at the longbow. From the intense energy fluctuation, it was obvious that this was an alchemy weapon. However, from the information she had gathered, it was clear that the steel war empire did not have such a weapon.

With a loud bang, like the sound of a landslide, the ground where the female general was standing instantly exploded. The powerful force caused the bones in her fingers that were pulling the bow to be fractured and deformed, immediately after, the Golden Arrow turned into a ray of light and entered Motson's pitch-black body.

Immediately after, a mournful scream sounded. Motson's body, which could not even be damaged by legendary Rox's battle Aura, was instantly blasted open by a huge hole. Countless black-red blood gushed out from within!

"It's effective!" The female general's expression was joyful. "Why aren't you attacking?"

The few generals behind her took out their weapons one after another. Some were huge black hammers, and some were huge iron swords. However, those weapons carried a huge amount of energy just like the longbow.

Rox and enzus were stunned. They did not understand where their subordinates got such powerful weapons.

Rainy Girl, who was at the side, laughed coldly when she saw this!

Chapter 333: Good Acting

The battle ended very quickly. Although the camp looked messy, the battle was not as difficult as they had imagined.

With the help of the alchemy weapons, the black goat's son, who could not move, was soon smashed into pieces by the generals and turned into countless energy molecules that surged into everyone's bodies.

The generals closed their eyes and felt the pure energy. The feeling of increasing their strength was so clear that it made them excited.

Rox was stunned when he saw this. His eyes were full of doubt, shock, and then disbelief... ..

"Look... I said, the problem isn't with me, right?" Rainy Girl said with a cold smile.

Enzos looked at everyone coldly. He looked at the female general who was the first to draw her bow and said faintly, "General Eve..."

"Yes!" The female general replied with a military salute.

Enzos asked, "What's going on?"

Eve said, "As you can see, General Motson has mutated into a monster. We had no choice but to kill him to prevent him from causing more damage..."

Enzos asked, "Where did you get your weapons?"

Eve said, "By chance..."

Enzos sneered. "All six of them are so coincidental?"

Eve remained expressionless. "Since it's a coincidence, no matter how coincidental it is, it's not that rare..."

Enzo took a deep breath and slowly pulled out his sword. He was not a person who was good at scheming, but the situation before him was something that even a normal person could deduce. His expression turned extremely ugly, his voice was filled with disbelief and heartache. "Why did you do this?" "You and Yaeger shouldn't have done this. Back then, he risked his life to save the two of you from the Beast Tribe's coal mine, especially you, Eve. He protected you for a full 60 years..." "..."

Eve:"..."

Rain Girl, Wu Gua, saw the cold expression of this female general called Eve and could not help but ridicule in her heart. The facts once again proved that licking a dog would not end well... ..

"Sixty years..."after a long time, the silent eve finally spoke, "Did you know... ?". ? A few days ago, I met Sam, the student that you trained, the Sam who went to the south to drink his life away after he retired"

Enzos frowned when he heard that. He did not know why the other party suddenly mentioned Sam? He didn't even want to admit that the fat pig was his former student.

Eve said, "I was there when he retired. At that time, I was a little stronger than him, but after decades, when I saw him again, I was weaker than him..."

Enzos:"..."

"It's hard to imagine, right?"Eve smiled and said, "That fat pig-like thing, the guy who lived in South Africa for decades and never exercised a day, but I fell behind him..."

Enzo frowned. "There's nothing I can do about it. Sam may be living a ridiculous life, but he's still in his prime. You're already..."

"Old, right?"Eve smiled foolishly. "I was a general 60 years ago. In these 60 years, I haven't slacked off a single day. Every day, I persevered in training myself, and the intensity increased day by day..." "..." . But it was useless. It was completely useless. My body was slowly aging. No matter how much I trained, my strength was slowly regressing. It was as if God had closed the door to advance. No matter how much I pushed, I could not push it open... "..." . In the end, I was left behind by a pile of fat pigs. What was the point of me persisting all these years? A warrior without a path to advance could only become a pile of rotten meat like those useless fellows, rotting in the graveyard. Can you understand this despair, Sir Enzuosi?"

"Is this the reason for the remains of your robe? My Generals!"Rox, who had not spoken all this while, said coldly.

"Sir, times have changed..."a total of six people surrounded Rox and Zuosi.

"Last question!"Rox picked up a long sword on the ground and said coldly, "Why is it Manson?"

“It’s not him, the target was you from the beginning!” The painful fatty Jaeger who was kneeling on the ground just now held his huge axe that was shining with an unknown light and said fiercely, “But Manson is too old-fashioned. He kept persuading us, and in the end, he even forced himself to eat your poison!”

Rox was stunned when he heard that. In his heart, he recalled the scene of his meat porridge being snatched away by Manson at noon. He thought that this stupid barbarian’s temper had become stupid again, but he did not expect it to be like this...

In the end, the one who lived the most like a human turned into a monster first. What a F * cking world.

Rox stopped nagging and pointed his sword at Jaeger. “Get Up, you don’t deserve to cry for him!”

Jaeger’s face turned gloomy when he heard that. He slowly picked up his axe and stood up. After taking a deep breath, his fat body shrank visibly. Then, he instantly turned into a vigorous man, with a black whirlwind, he slashed at Rox.

Rox’s pupils constricted slightly. This guy’s speed was much faster than before? Did he devour his own kind or split it among six people? How could the improvement be so great?

With a loud bang, Rox narrowly avoided the huge axe. That kind of strength was not something that the inferior longsword in his hand could withstand. When he fought the mutated model Sen, he had seen the power of these weapons!

However, no matter how powerful the weapon was, it still depended on who used it. No matter how good the weapon was, it was still an external object. It was quite effective against a young black goat with stiff movements. However, it was different when it was used against humans!

Rox nimbly avoided the range of the axe’s blade and moved horizontally behind Jaeger. He said coldly, “With this thing, do you think you can defeat me?”

Without hesitation, he thrust his sword at Jaeger’s chest. However, with a loud bang, he did not expect Jaeger to change the direction of his attack and move backward, the quality of the alchemy weapon instantly shattered the ordinary longsword in Rox’s hand, forcing Rox to retreat.

“Finally... I can see your movements clearly... Lord Rox!” Jaeger turned around and sneered at Rox.

ROX’s expression turned serious. He had heard from rainy girl that anyone who absorbed energy would evolve at an exaggerated speed, but he did not expect it to evolve so quickly. That skill just now was clearly above his... ..

On the other side, three generals were fighting against three elves. Enzo was fighting against female General Eve, and the remaining two players were protecting rainy girl, one in front and one behind.

“F * ck, boss. This situation isn’t good. These people have only absorbed one cub, and their strength has skyrocketed. If they increase by two more waves, we might not be noobs anymore...”

“Let’s end this quickly. You Go and Help!” Rainy without melon frowned. She had also underestimated these people’s evolution speed. If this continued, they would soon have individual strength that was higher than the players’.

At that time, they would be able to test their side without the opponent's lord taking action... ..

The player hesitated for a moment and finally said to his companion beside him, "Protect the Big Boss..." as he said that, he ran towards Rox, who was already at a disadvantage.

However, Enzo was also at a disadvantage. It was difficult for him to resist and he kept retreating towards Rainless Melon's side.

Following Rainless Melon's signal, the last elven player resisted Enzo and forced Eve to retreat. Enzo heaved a sigh of relief and slowly retreated in front of Rainless Melon, he protected her and said, "Lady, move back a little..."

Rainless Melon looked at him and suddenly smiled. "Uncle, your acting is quite good..."

Chapter 334: unbelievable genetic quality

"What do you mean?" Zongos was stunned. There was anger on his confused face, but he still looked around carefully and protected Rainy Girl.

"You're a veteran..." Rainy Girl smiled. "But unfortunately, I don't believe you..."

Enzo's face darkened, and he immediately pounced on Rainy Girl Wugua. His speed was so fast that it was on a completely different level from when he first fought with Eve.

"Crack!"

Immediately after, a crisp sound of joints being dislocated was heard. Then, everyone saw Enzo's head turn behind him at a 180-degree angle, and his body instantly stiffened and fell to the ground.

Meanwhile, an elf dressed in black suddenly appeared beside him.

Unlike the other beautiful elves, this elf's entire body was pitch-black like a shadow. It was as if the sunlight could not penetrate through it in broad daylight.

"Retreat! !" Eve hurriedly shouted when she saw that the first move of Zorn was no match for him.

A few generals who were engaged in a fierce battle with the players immediately forced the other party to retreat with a single move when they heard that.

Rainless Melon ignored the decision to retreat. She looked at the only shadow in the base and asked in a low voice, "Where are the other players?"

The Shadow said in a low voice, "They're all in position..."

As soon as he said that, he heard a series of screams coming from afar. Rox was shocked and quickly looked up.

He saw a group of green figures in the distance. They were holding the corpses of the generals who had escaped.

“Orcs?” Rox looked at them in a daze, but then he shook his head. He felt that they were different from the orcs he had seen before.

Looking at these corpses, ROX’s expression was complicated. He sighed and said, “Who are you people?”

“This... When you can leave the imperial city alive, I will tell you slowly...” jade maiden Wu gua looked at the leader, Brother Dog, and said in a low voice, “You’re still carrying it. It’s going to mutate...”

“Eh?” Brother Dog was stunned. Then, he saw the corpse in his hand suddenly begin to vomit large mouthfuls of ink. Immediately, he threw the corpse away with a disgusted expression. “What the F * ck is that?”

Rain maiden wugua said, “After absorbing too much of the mutated energy, the body will mutate. If the brain dies, the mutated energy in the body will directly corrode the body and eventually form Black Goat Cubs. If we absorb too much of the energy of these cubs, the body will mutate like this. So, when we kill them later, try to cut each of them with a knife to share the energy...” . .”

Everyone was stunned when they heard that. Brother Dog looked at the black goat cubs that had begun to transform and floated to the sky. His face twitched slightly as he said, “This... according to what you said, isn’t it better for us to just run away?”

“Not good...” rain woman no melon shook his head: “You must become stronger, or not to survive until the Lord came to save us...”

The crowd:” ...”

And in the place that everybody does not notice, the eyeball of a sarcoma in the sky looks here from a distance, cast all picture to a piece of green crystal of underground palace.

“Green Titan?” Crystal in front, that white-haired boy is a little bit dazed way.

“Green Titan, what kind of orc is it?” The great mage Cris su said.

“This breed is not something that the low-grade bloodline of orcs can compare to...”. The boy smiled and said, “A true high-end Titan breed. Such a high-quality Green Titan, wood elves, and developers. This lord that suddenly appeared is really interesting.””

As he said that, he focused his attention on the battle on the screen. The battle ended very quickly. After all, the Black Goat Cub’s combat strength was not strong. With the alchemy weapons left behind by several generals..., these players could even pass their weapons to the next person after one slash to divide the exp.

The boy smiled. “That’s a good idea. Share the burden with more people, and try to reduce the possibility of the genes being messed up... “...”. Unfortunately... .. This was a level 14 map of the Black Goat. How could some level 2 or 3 lifeforms be able to resist it ... Uh.. ... “No Way?”

The boy was stunned. He saw that after all the black goat’s energy had been absorbed by these people, the Green Titans’ bodies hadn’t changed at all.

Meanwhile, rainy girl, Wugua, who was still standing at the same spot, hurriedly asked, "How do you feel?"

"Uh..." brother dog rubbed his head in puzzlement. "I don't feel much. I just feel my body heat up a little..."

Rain girl, Wu Gua: "And then?"

"There's no "And then!" Brother Dog shook his head.

"Eh..." rain girl, Wu gua lowered her head and rubbed her chin. She frowned. She felt that it was a little different from what was recorded in the information... ..

Meanwhile, the Lord in the Dark Palace was in a daze when he saw this scene. His eyes revealed a look of disbelief...

How was this possible?

These generals were all level three lifeforms. After being transformed by the Black Goat, the energy produced was at least equivalent to the level of two level four lifeforms. Even if such a large amount of energy was eaten., these people's bodies shouldn't have no changes at all.

After all, the energy in the map of the Black Goat was very messy. This was also the reason why it could quickly mutate into a high-level biological weapon in the future, because only mutating would be the fastest way to evolve.

However, these guys did not have the slightest change in their physical characteristics. Not a single hair was missing. This made him feel extremely incredulous...

There was only one possibility for such a situation. An object with extremely high genetic quality would not be easily disturbed by this energy.

However, what level were these creatures at? How pure could the genes in their bodies be? In such a situation, unless the descendants of large families had the main genes passed down from their ancestors, how could such descendants work for other lords at level two or three?

Even if it was a small family, after studying a set of procedures, they would start off as a level eight life form when they graduated. They would receive preferential treatment wherever they went. Under many big lords, they would at least start off as a colonel.

How could they gather together to colonize a level seven planet without any money?

"What exactly is going on?" The boy had a puzzled look on his face. At this moment, he wished he could personally capture one or two people to do experiments to see what was going on with them.

After thinking for a while, he didn't act rashly. He asked Crixus, "What's the situation on Alice's side? Is there any information?"

"Not yet..." Crixus was stunned and quickly said, "There's information coming... But..."

"What?" The boy asked with a frown.

“Alice said that Isabelle has defected!”

The boy frowned when he heard that. At such a critical moment, trouble would come one after another, which made him very unhappy. Then, without asking why he had betrayed them, he asked directly, “Where’s the information?”

“The information is a little strange...”Cris said hesitantly.

“Release!”The boy said directly.

Upon hearing that, Cris cut open his arm and took out a black sarcoma, placing it on the green crystal.

What appeared on the crystal was a world full of cars and lights.

Chapter 335: A capable team

“This is...”Cris looked at the picture on the crystal and said in surprise, “What a brilliant Arcana Civilization!”

The boy rolled his eyes and ignored him. Instead, he slowly approached the crystal, looked at the picture, and murmured, “Low-tech era? How could this be?”

“Low-tech?”Crestus was stunned. “Isn’t It Arcana?”

The energy that could drive steel and the Sophisticated Arcana instrument that Alice demonstrated could be used for long-distance communication seemed to be the result of a high-end alchemy civilization... ..

By the way... What was technology?

The boy ignored him and kept thinking about the possibility of this information.

This shouldn’t be... . Normally speaking, if a god Lord was following the path of pure technology, even if he was just starting out, he shouldn’t have used such a low-level energy source. Those cars were clearly still using crude energy such as gasoline to refine energy.

There was only one possibility in this situation, and that was that he didn’t occupy that plane at all. These technological civilizations were indigenous technological civilizations...

But if that was the case, how did he travel to another planet in such a distant space?

This was what the boy was puzzled about. From the coordinates of the bloodline magic, the plane these fellows had traveled to was at least tens of millions of light years away from here. They might not even be in the same star field. To cross such a distance., it was probably not something that a lord who could not even occupy such a low-level technological civilization could do, right?

It was really hard to see through... “...”. The boy thought to himself, ‘high-quality bloodlines, all of his subordinates have the purity of the bloodline of the direct descendants of large families, but their levels are low. They traveled tens of millions of light years to invade this planet, yet their movements are so small...' 'they sent out low-level descendants as well. Just what kind of background does this guy have??'

'Why isn't there any logic in what he does?'

"My Lord?" Crestus asked in a low voice, watching carefully for a long time the observance of which he had not answered.

"One last Test!" said the boy in a low voice.

He had a feeling that the lord level of this force may not be too high, but too many strange things let him still can not confirm, do not dare to directly.

Now his situation, once arrested, can really have no chance to turn over!

On the other side, Rox is trying to placate the soldiers in the barracks, but then came a news but let his heart sank to the bottom.

Thirty-seven recalled generals, led by the Rox faction in the Palace, were judged by Gavin to have committed treason and were strangled in the palace. Now they were all annihilated. The palace messenger sent news to let Rox enter the palace to take charge of the overall situation.

This news made Rox feel cold. He didn't expect the king to do this!

"Is he crazy?" Rox muttered.

"Half of him is crazy, but it's not without logic..." rainy girl said while munching on melon seeds.

Rox stared at Rainy Girl Blankly.

"Don't look at me like that. I didn't instigate him to do this...". "I knew that something like this could happen since you were able to calm down such a chaotic situation by yourself. You're too dangerous for an emperor." "...". "..."

"I know... but I've never thought of betraying..." Rox lowered his head and said, "If I wanted to betray the country, how could he sit still until now?"

"That's not how the matter is calculated...". "...". "What an emperor wants is absolute control. I don't think any Emperor wants a minister who can be killed at any time to live in the world. The authority of life and death depends on the loyalty of the other party. In this day and age, very few people dare to be so ambitious. The reason why the previous Emperor could tolerate you was because he was confident that he was stronger than you. This is obviously not...". "..."

Rox said, "But he can't destroy all the power in the middle of the empire just like that..."

"In the past, he couldn't...". "...". Rainy Wugua shook her head and said, "In the past, he needed you and the older generation of empire generals to help him hold up the situation in the north, so he could only tolerate you who had such prestige. But it's different now. After killing these generals, the power will be gathered on the people of the forces under him, and it will become even stronger. In this way, your role will be lost...". "..."

Rox kept silent for a while with a cold face. Finally, he said, "He is working with the Devil. The Devil will not give him this power for no reason. I don't understand. Is the force behind this really doing this for him?"

"How is that possible?" Raingirl, WUGUA, rolled her eyes and said, "Your King is a fool. The person behind him is not."

"We... What should we do now?" Rox finally sighed and asked.

"Of course we can't enter the palace..." Rainmaiden WUGUA stretched lazily and said, "If you go in, you will die..."

"If I die, it is not impossible to exchange for peace..." Rox said faintly.

"You are thinking too much!" Rainmaiden WUGUA sneered and said, "Now you are the backbone of the army. As long as you die, the situation will immediately become chaotic. Those soldiers who have mutated will no longer have anyone to trust, and those who have not mutated will eventually kill each other. Once that happens, the imperial city will really become an Asura training ground."

Rox: Why does he have to do this

Rain woman without melon: "Didn't I say just now?" Every time the energy was digested, it would become even purer. The soldiers who were not infected could not be wasted. As long as they killed the mutated soldiers, they would obtain even purer energy. After digesting the energy for the second time, the energy would become more and more. The more people were infected, the more energy would be created. This was the intention of the mastermind. He would not let this massacre die down... "..."

Rox: "..."

"..."

"What a wonderful power!" At this moment, in the palace, more than ten generals in armor were standing in the hall. Their armor had been dyed black by the black ink, and their faces had become as ferocious as those of evil ghosts, at this moment, they felt the surging power in their bodies, and they only felt their bodies tremble.

From the vague outline of their faces, it could be seen that these knights were relatively young. They were the great generals that Jiawen had painstakingly trained over the years.

"Your Majesty, I feel that even if that old man Rox is standing in front of me right now, I can still tear him apart!"

The person who spoke had skin that was as ugly as old tree bark. Red blood vessels protruded out from his body, but his entire body emitted a shocking power. Jiawen, who was sitting on the throne, secretly swallowed his saliva.

He said excitedly: "Good, with you guys, the great ambition of unifying the continent, the glory of Our Steel Martial Empire is just around the corner!"

The few mutated knights heard this and knelt on the ground, saying enthusiastically: "Your Majesty is Wise!"

Jiawen looked at them and heaved a sigh of relief. He thought to himself: looks like those people aren't lying. After absorbing the pure energy, they won't lose their rationality. As long as they don't die, they won't turn into meat monsters!

They were still his most capable team!

Chapter 336: Persuasion

"What is His Majesty trying to do?" A group of representatives from the Mage family sat together in the Palace Council, their expressions extremely grave.

This unprecedented crisis had never occurred to them, but his majesty's response was even more unexpected.

The execution of thirty-four former generals of the empire had caused everyone present to suck in a breath of cold air.

In their eyes, this was something that only a madman would do!

Although the members of the Mage clan were not on good terms with the empire's military, they still knew their limits. This was because both parties knew that the other party was an indispensable part of the empire. They had never thought that there would be a day when they would directly eliminate the other party.

However, His Majesty had done so. Thirty-four generals. Even if they were not martial arts clans, they knew how many resources were needed to nurture a general. The birth of every gold-tier knight was extremely valuable, this required a person's aptitude, luck, and a huge amount of resources to accumulate. It also ensured that under the situation where the intense battlefield in the north did not fall, it was a very small probability.

With the development of the Empire to the present, almost all the people in the north valued martial arts. With the perfect chain of knight academies and illegitimate children groups, as well as the wealth accumulated by more than a dozen generations of kings, the highest number of generals that could be supported was only a few hundred.

Thirty-four. If the retired generals were not included, it was almost the total number of generals in active service. And with such a force, the king could kill them just like that?

Just as he was thinking about it, the conference door opened, and Jiawen slowly walked in wearing his father's armor of glory. His imposing manner was astonishing.

Of course, the astonishing thing was not Garvin himself, but the two knights who were wrapped in armor following behind Garvin.

Who were these two people?

The mages present looked at the two knights who were armed to the teeth, and their hearts were filled with suspicion. There was an unsettling power on their bodies. Just these two people could suppress the mages present and not even dare to breathe.

Even Marshal Rox had never felt this kind of pressure before...

Since when did the king have such powerful people under him?

The successor of the Megan family, Dieter, and the President of the nearby Parliament, Udis, looked at each other. In fact, they had been thinking about a question before. How did the King Kill these thirty-four generals?

No one present would believe that those experts at the level of generals would be so loyal to the point of waiting to be killed... ..

Now, it seemed that this king seemed to have grasped a power that they did not expect... ..

“Rox has betrayed us! !”Gavin’s first sentence after he sat down in front of Udis, the chairman of the Parliament, made the hearts of the mages present sink!

As expected, the monarch still wanted to target Marshal Rox in the end!

In fact, they had already thought about it before. The other party had even dared to kill thirty-four generals, how could marshal Rox Still Be Alive?

“How did His Majesty determine that Marshal Rox had betrayed us?”The chairman of the council opposite, Udis, asked in a low voice.

After all, he was the former Marshal of the Empire. He could not help the monarch kill the only remaining legendary hero of the Empire until now without asking anything.

“I invited him into the palace, but he refused!”Garvin said calmly.

After hearing this, all the mages rolled their eyes and thought to themselves, isn’t this nonsense? The people you summoned into the palace were all killed by you. How stupid would others be to be summoned into the palace?

“Everyone, the Empire is now at a critical juncture. I need your help...”

Udie’s eyelids twitched. He looked at the Serious Garvin and thought to himself, ‘If you don’t do it, the empire will be very stable...’. ...

“How does the King Want Us to help you?”

Garvin: “The Traitor Rox used the fear of the infected soldiers to control them and asked us to let them out of the city. On the surface, he said it was for the safety of the empire. He had the infected soldiers stationed outside the city, but in reality, he was up to no good...”. “...”

The mages looked at each other and looked at each other in dismay, on the other hand, udie frowned and said, “Does the king feel that this proposal is inappropriate?”? The infected soldiers were obviously on the verge of a riot. Forcefully isolating them would obviously escalate the conflict and let them station outside the city. Is there anything wrong with this proposal?”

“What if he took his men and left?” Gavin suddenly said faintly.

“This...” all the mages were stunned, while Udis frowned. “Why did Lord Rox Do This?”

“Who knows the motive?” Gavin sneered. “Just like this inexplicable change, who can say that it was not man-made? Then what is the motive of man-made?”

‘If it was really man-made, your motive is obviously greater than Rox’s, okay?’ The mages thought to themselves.

“You have to think clearly...” Garvin’s tone became gloomy, “What if that group of mutated soldiers were brought to your respective family’s territory by Rox?”

Everyone:” ...”

“You have seen the power of this infection. This is still a situation where the imperial capital has enough force to suppress the situation quickly. According to statistics, more than a million people have been killed or injured. If it were in your territory, or even those cities in the south, what would the consequences be? Think about it for yourself... “...”. “...”

“This... Marshal Rox wouldn’t do that, right?” A mage on the left row mumbled.

“What if?” Gavin’s eyes were gloomy. “Let’s not talk about whether he’s the mastermind. Even if he’s not, how long can he suppress those soldiers? What if those soldiers don’t have a treatment plan? After being isolated and monitored outside the city for a long time, how long can they maintain their loyalty under such a depressing situation?”

“Uh...” the imperial mages looked at each other, what the other party said was actually reasonable. At this time, Rox could use his prestige to stabilize the soldiers, but it did not mean that he could do so forever. Humans were selfish. Under such circumstances, who knew if they would run away for their lives?

If one of them escaped and ran to another city...

When they thought about how their own clan’s city would face such a disaster in the imperial capital, the mages were suddenly unable to stabilize themselves... ..

Seeing the expressions of the people around him, Jiawen’s eyes flashed with a hint of a smile, he continued, “I also don’t want to kill the innocent. I’m only doing it for the empire. The reason why I want to kill those generals who have contributed to the Empire is also for the Empire’s consideration. You have to know, if those people run away from the imperial capital for their lives, what kind of situation would that cause?”

“This...” Udie was stunned. To be honest, he didn’t know how to refute.

Although Gavin’s methods were extreme, it had to be said... .. It seemed to be the case... .. The human heart was unpredictable. At such a time, no one could guarantee that those soldiers or the infected generals wouldn’t flee for their lives... ..

Although taking the initiative was a little cruel, it had to be said that it didn’t seem wrong to consider the overall situation... ..

But for some reason, Udius felt that if he agreed to Garvin's request... .. Something Terrible would happen... ..

Seeing that the mages did not object anymore, a hint of a smile flashed in Garvin's eyes. To be honest, with the power he had under him, he was not afraid of the Mage Council at all. But just as shadow stream said,. If these mages were killed just like that, it would be too wasteful... ..

They... .. were all great containers for digesting the Black Goat's energy. ...

Chapter 337: Choice

"Marshal, His Majesty has agreed to my request..."in the temporary military camp, a major general officer looked at Rox carefully.

The major general was young but had the strength of a silver knight. However, he had a pair of red horns on his head.

"It went so smoothly..."Rox muttered. Then, he subconsciously looked up to seek the advice of others. However, when he looked up, he saw that the military camp was filled with some confused juniors. Rox immediately smiled bitterly.

The previous generation of generals who had followed the late emperor were now all gone. Enzo and the other six had rebelled, and thirty-four of his former comrades had died tragically in the palace. Gavin was really ruthless.

"Tell the soldiers to prepare to stand by..."Rox said faintly, "Bring your weapons and equipment. If the cavalry doesn't have horses, change them to short-handed weapons. This battle is not for the Empire, but for survival!"

"UH..."the officers from many years ago were stunned. The major general who was closest to ROX said, "Didn't His Majesty promise us? Do we still need to... Fight?"

"Ha..."rox sneered, "If he doesn't agree, we might not be able to fight. If he agrees, this battle is completely unavoidable..."

Rox knew that Gavin, who had always regarded him as a thorn in his side, would not let him take these mutated soldiers away?

He sighed and patted the shoulder of the confused major general. He did not say anything and walked straight out of the military camp. He knew that he had to leave some time for these children to buffer the current situation.

They were in their prime, and it was a good time for them to make a name for themselves. At this time, they should have been fighting for the glory of the Empire and their future titles. They should have either died or returned in glory.

They definitely would not be fighting against their own countrymen...

“Your Majesty... you have given birth to such a stupid son...”Rox not only sighed slightly in his heart, he recalled the king who had fought alongside him and was truly recognized in his heart. ...

After leaving the military camp, he walked straight to the corner of a small tent. Inside the tent, there was a woolen carpet. Rainy Melon and a few elven players sat on the ground, the other players were in the other tents.

Rainy Melon was looking at the map seriously. She held a cup of water in her hand as she ate the dry military rations.

These military rations were originally used for expeditions, but because the animals and plants around them had mutated, no one dared to use fresh food.

“How is it?”Rox walked in and sat cross-legged opposite rainy girl, Wugua, and asked.

“Four gates. From the road section, it’s best for us to break through the south gate...” . Rainy Girl, WUGUA, pointed at the map and said, “Go straight to the Empire Avenue to correny, then enter the south. The East Gate has to go through the Black Rock mountain range to turn to the Empire Avenue, and the West Gate has to go through the Nibo River. Both are very risky “...” . “...”

Rox nodded. He had also seen the situation of the mutation. Other than the Griffins that flew away, most of the mutated creatures in the city were just animals like cats and dogs. They could cause such a big commotion, rox did not dare to imagine what he would encounter if he went through the forest or the river.

Only the Empire Avenue was the safest road...

“Since we want to go to the South Gate, why did you ask me to write a letter requesting to be stationed at the South Gate? Isn’t this exposing our purpose?”Rox frowned slightly.

Rain Girl rolled her eyes. “No matter how weak your king is, it’s impossible that he can’t guess our true purpose, right?”

Rox:“...”

“Writing a letter to the south gate is a psychological test to see if he will set up an ambush at the South Gate...” . “...” . “The enemy wants to intercept us in the most appropriate way, and that is to set up a magic trap at the place we want to go. There are more than 70,000 mutated soldiers here, and their combat strength after mutation will be much higher than ordinary soldiers. If they want to stop us, the quality of the magic trap must be high, and this requires some preparation time.”

“That is to say... the enemy can only choose one place to ambush us, right?”Rox rubbed his chin as he looked at rainless melon. He couldn’t help but sigh in his heart. Such an outstanding person, which faction did he come from?

“Which location to choose?”Rox looked at the map and asked.

Rainless melon’s expression became a little solemn.

Of the four locations, the north gate was directly abandoned. The north gate led directly to the impregnable pass: Griffin City. Once they went there, they would never be able to reach Molundo in the south, because the only way to the empire's main road was through the imperial capital.

The clan currently stationed in Griffin City was the bailent clan. This clan was one of the Gu Si clan's alliances that she had previously analyzed, and was an absolutely hostile force. Secondly, according to the information from the Liege., this so-called map of the Black Goat was centered around the imperial capital and the Northern Beast race grassland. Even if they walked all the way to the end, they would never be able to walk out of the map of the Black Goat. Thirdly, adding on the fact that meeting up with the Liege was a completely different matter., it was impossible for them to consider the scope of the map.

The south gate was the best choice, but it was also the most likely location to be ambushed. Even though she had deliberately set up a mental barrier and told the other party openly that she was going to the south gate, making the other party suspect her true purpose., but if she wanted to use this psychological advantage to attack the south gate, the risk was still too high.

The safest choice was to choose between the West Gate and the East Gate. This way, there was at least a 50% or even lower chance of avoiding the ambush. The key was... ..

What about after they got out?

It seemed impossible to walk through the mountains or cross the river. They could only rely on the lord to pick them up, but the key was that she could not contact the lord right now...

This was the most fatal thing...

How should she choose?

Rain Girl, WUGUA, was in a dilemma...

"Let's go to the south gate..." just as rain girl, Wugua, was in a dilemma, Brother Dog suddenly said.

"Eh?" Rain girl was stunned. She looked at brother dog and said, "Do you really think that my little trick will work? The probability of the enemy setting up an ambush at the south gate is the highest."

Brother dog said, "Even if there are no magic traps, the defense of the four gates is not easy to break through. A fierce battle is inevitable. However, if we go through the other two gates, we will still have to worry about how to return to the Empire's main road. After the Battle of Life and death, the most annoying thing is that there will be a test later. We might as well go straight to the south gate and finish it in one wave. At most, it will be a little more difficult to fight the last battle. It is better than having to worry about it after the battle."

"This..." rain girl, Wu Gua, was stunned. She did not know how to respond to such a manly explanation. On the other hand, Rox was stunned for a moment before he suddenly smiled and looked at him. "Sure, I think this explanation makes a lot of sense!"

"Right!" Brother Dog laughed and rubbed his head.

Rain Girl, Wu Gua rolled her eyes and frowned. "I don't have much experience dealing with magic traps. Commander, do you have any experience?"

“Me neither... .” Rox Shrugged. “Because of the orcs, there has never been a civil war in the history of the Empire. . But . . .” pausing for a moment, ROX smiled and said, “After cooperating with them so many times, I know something about their methods...”

Chapter 338: The Battle of the South Gate -PartpOne one)

“They really came from the south?” Garvin stood at the South Gate and looked at the Dark Army with his arcane crystal telescope. He was a little angry.

Did they really think that they would fall for such a stupid trick?

Far Away, in the dark underground palace, a group of undead heroes were also watching the battle through the huge arcane crystal.

The Great Wizard Cris frowned and said, “Sir, you’re right. They really chose to fight in the south gate.”

“This is the most correct choice...” The boy on the throne smiled and said, “Compared to those creatures in the wild who don’t know what kind of monsters they’ve transformed into, the odds of winning against the Arcane Wizards of the Empire are actually higher. At least they know the root of the problem.” “...” after a pause, he continued, “Of course, if they choose the other two paths, it won’t affect us. It’s just a test on another battlefield...” “...”

Upon hearing that, Cris nodded. His Excellency had used supreme divine power to seal the space teleportation. If the other side wanted to leave, they could only go out of the area of the Black Goat map through the Empire Avenue, but if they went through the east and west gates... Even if they temporarily escaped Garvin’s ambush, they could still continue to set up ambushes in the mountains at the East Gate and the rivers at the West Gate...

At this moment, Rox had already led the infected troops to the city gate. Looking at the military defense that had already been set up at the city gate, Rox could not help but smile wryly as he felt the strong magical fluctuations.

It seemed that he really did not have any luck...

To be honest, he was still looking forward to this idiot king setting up the city defense at the east and west gates.

“My fellow countrymen, please listen to me for a moment!” At this moment, Rox took a deep breath and shouted at the soldiers who were waiting at the city gate.

“It’s Marshal Rox!” All the soldiers were stunned when they heard this voice. Most of the troops stationed in the imperial capital had experienced the northern battlefield, so they were very familiar with Marshal Rox’s voice.

Looking at this voice that could shake the morale of the army with just one sentence, the king who was sitting above the south gate had a gloomy expression.

As expected... .. This person could not be left alive...

“This is a meaningless battle...” ROX applied and said, “Take a closer look.” ... “These are all your comrades who have gone through life and death together. Everyone has blocked swords, Spears, arrows, and arrows for the other party, and fought bravely against the enemy together. During the most difficult moments, they are each other’s most reliable comrades. This is the friendship between comrades that surpasses the bloodline. Right now, they only want to live, and don’t want to become enemies with their closest brothers. Stop, this battle is meaningless!”

All the soldiers on the city gate were stunned. When they looked down from afar, they could vaguely see some familiar faces. They couldn’t help but feel sorry for each other.

“Why do we have to kill each other?”

Rox’s question reached the bottom of everyone’s heart. No matter on or below the city gate, everyone looked confused. The fighting spirit of both sides was reduced to the lowest.

“Don’t be confused soldiers...” just as the soldiers on the city gate were at a loss, Gavin’s low and dignified voice sounded.

“Your weapons are aimed at your former comrades in order to protect your hometown.” Gavin stood up, he said in a low voice, “It’s not wrong for them to want to live, but you have also seen the power of this infection. If they break through this gate today, they will definitely bring everything to where your loved ones are!”

As soon as he said this, all the soldiers on the city gate trembled, and their expressions became complicated.

“Remember why you are wearing this armor!” The emperor raised his voice. “It’s to let ourselves and our loved ones live a better life. We fought in the north with blood, so that the group of green-skinned orcs would not have the slightest chance to trample on our hometown and our loved ones... “And now, the people who are going to bring disaster to the things you protect have changed targets. Can’t you hold your swords tightly?”

As Jiawen’s words fell, a huge magic array appeared in the sky. It swept away the last confused look of the soldiers on the city gate with the radiance of the sun and looked down, all the soldiers began to hold their weapons tightly again.

“Yay, yay, yay, it seems like he’s not that bad... at least he’s well-prepared...” raingirl, wugua, sighed from behind.

Rox looked at Jiawen with a complicated expression. He only realized today that as an emperor, Jiawen had learned his mind well. He actually couldn’t F * cking win against him...

But it didn’t matter... He was old and did not rely on his words. Anyway, his goal had been achieved... ..

The goal of stalling for time...

While both sides wasted a few minutes to divert everyone’s attention, a few mysterious figures sneaked into the city gate under everyone’s watchful eyes.

In just a few seconds, the elf players who sneaked in had found the location of the arcane mage's spell core.

According to Rox, all large-scale spells required high-end mages to work together, especially for things like magic arrays. They also required great mages to act as energy points to stabilize the magnetic field. Regardless of the magic trap, as long as it was destroyed.., it would instantly lose its effectiveness. Until now, the Tower of mysteries had not been able to think of a way to overcome this.

After the six figures hiding in the shadows found their targets, they transformed into streaks of shadows and pounced toward the mage in the core.

However, at that moment, blades fell from the sky, forcing the players who were already close to them to retreat.

"What a brilliant hiding method..."in the eye of the main formation.., a knight covered in crimson scales held a large saber and looked at the other party with admiration. "You actually managed to sneak in under the noses of hundreds of thousands of people. To be honest, if I hadn't been prepared, I might not have noticed you when you were right in front of me..." . "..."

The player who responded was called Ying. He was the second killer player in the base after Cold Star, and he was also the best assassin among all the other players.

At this moment, he looked at his bleeding arm and frowned slightly.

"To be honest, your movement technique is really good..."the knight covered in scales chuckled and said, "You can avoid it at that level. I'm afraid that even Rox doesn't have your skill, right?"

"Are you praising yourself in disguise?"The Shadow looked at the knight and said coldly, "What made you think that your level is very high?"

"B * stard, do you want to provoke me?"The knight sneered and said, "Do you think that I will be fooled by your low-level provocation? "If you want to kill the people behind me, you have to defeat me openly. These little tricks are useless."

"I'm an assassin. The word 'fair and square' doesn't exist in the dictionary..."shadow said coldly, "If you need to defeat the gatekeeper head-on to assassinate a target, that only means that your kung fu hasn't reached home yet..."

As he spoke, he slowly raised his left hand. However, he did not know when, but a human head had appeared on his hand. It was the gray-robed Mage's head.

"What? When?"The knight turned his head around abruptly, only to discover that the gray-robed mage was standing safely in the eye of the formation.

'SH * t! !'

Chapter 339: Battle of the South Gate (middle)

“SH * T...”The moment he turned around and saw that the gray-robed mage was safe and sound, the Knight knew that he had been tricked.

Immediately after, a gust of cold air rushed over. At that moment, he even felt that the enemy’s dagger had already cut into his throat. The powerful pressure made him reflexively turn around and slash.

He did not hesitate at all, but he still held back his strength. He wanted to change his actions at any time after seeing his opponent’s actions clearly.

However, when he turned around with his slash, he realized that he did not see anything.

Where was he?

The Knight was stunned. Just as he was puzzled, a shocked and terrified voice came from behind him. However, that voice only lasted for a moment. The Knight turned his head stiffly, but when he turned around, he saw that the mage who was in charge of protecting him had already been beheaded...

At this moment, the beautiful elf was holding the mage’s head in her hand. She seemed to be worried that the other party was not dead yet and stabbed her head again.

“You...”the knight looked at him in a daze. Then, a sense of shame and annoyance welled up in his heart. He felt as if he was being played with like a monkey...

However, the key was the chill that felt like a ray of light on his back. How did the other party simulate it? Wasn’t this ability that could trick the warrior’s reflexes a little too exaggerated?

Shadow ignored him. After confirming that the mage was dead, he looked at the matrix gears that had stopped working. He stood up and prepared to leave.

“Are you planning to escape just like that? You Coward who only knows how to play tricks,”the Knight roared indignantly.

Shadow glanced at him. “I’m an assassin. I’ve already completed the mission. Why should I fight with a guard like you? Moreover... you’re really as brave as you say. Why didn’t you rush up at the first moment?”

Hearing that, the Knight was stunned and his face turned green. The other party was so strange. It was not wise to rush up rashly. However, as the other party had said, if he hesitated, how could he have the face to mock others as cowards?

After saying that, the player retreated step by step and disappeared into the shadows in the corner. Then, as if he had merged into the shadows, the knight could not see his figure.

The knight hesitated for a moment. The veins on his hands that were holding the sword bulged, but in the end, he did not chase after him...

He was not confident. Moreover, he was not prepared to take such a big risk for that idiot emperor. He still had a lot of room for growth and could become stronger...

With this thought in mind, he looked at the scales on his body and then walked out.

At this moment, the players in the shadows heaved a sigh of relief when they saw the other party leave. He actually didn't want to fight either. The other party's physical abilities were off the charts, and they were even stronger than the strongest berserk green titan in the base, he actually didn't have the confidence to defeat the other party. Moreover, according to Rainless Melon, he had to avoid fighting these high-level mutated lifeforms as much as possible.

This was because once he won, his genes might be affected by the energy and become disordered. She was not interested in this kind of business where she would not make a profit even if she won or lost. She was different from Leng Xing, who was different from the rich female tycoon who came back to the country to support her. She was a self-reliant assassin. She needed to rely on her own business to pay the mortgage. What she pursued was efficiency...

However, when she walked out, she found that there were already several companions standing at the agreed meeting place. She was momentarily stunned and was a little surprised at their efficiency. She could not help but wonder if they were in the same line of work?

"You... didn't meet any guards?" Shadow could not help but ask.

Player A: "We did... F*ck, that's pretty impressive. I was so scared that I quickly slit that Mage's throat and ran away."

"Then... didn't that guard say anything?" Shadow could not help but ask.

"I think he did... he ran away too quickly and didn't hear clearly..."

Shadow: "..."

It seemed that he was still not efficient enough... "...". Shadow ridiculed in his heart, but at this moment, a chill suddenly rose in his heart. He instantly reacted and pushed aside his companions beside him and jumped back to increase the distance between them.

The few elf players were shocked when they saw this and retreated one after another, but they didn't find anything after retreating. They couldn't help but glare at Shadow. "What are you doing?"

"There's something..." shadow looked at the empty surroundings with a serious expression.

"The magic array has disappeared..." rain girl, Wugua, looked at the dim magic array in the sky and muttered, "Looks like they succeeded..."

In the distance, Rox, who was standing on the frontline, saw the dim light of the magic array in the sky and was shocked. Without hesitation, he pulled out his sword. "Soldiers..." Rox pointed the tip of his sword forward, without saying anything, all the soldiers roared and rushed forward.

The body functions of the mutated soldiers were almost doubled, and their speed and strength were comparable to that of an orthodox orc. The momentum of the charge of 70,000 people completely overwhelmed Garvin's side.

All the soldiers holding crossbows were suddenly shocked by their former companions. It seemed that these guys had really become monsters.

“Shoot! !” On the city tower, Jiawen’s face was gloomy as he looked at the Rubik’s cube matrix that had dissipated in the sky. He couldn’t help but curse in his heart: a bunch of trash!

The Arrows flew towards the soldiers like locusts, but at this moment, the soldiers who had greatly increased their strength and agility were charging forward at an extremely fast speed. The distance of 10,000 meters was covered by them in a few breaths’ time, Jiawen, who was watching from the city tower, was shocked.

He only treated these soldiers as evolved energy that was waiting to be slaughtered. He didn’t expect them to have such explosive strength!

“Raise your shields! ! !” The heavy armored soldier commander at the front row hurriedly shouted when he saw this!

The defense of the city gate to the outside and inside of the city was on a completely different level. They couldn’t rely on the geographical advantage of the city gate. They could only rely on the square formation of the heavy armored soldiers to defend against the Charge!

Bang! Bang! Bang!

As the two torrents collided, a violent sound of metal colliding rang out. It was as if a hammer had struck a person’s chest. The soldiers in the front row felt it especially clearly.

They felt as if they had been hit by a Minotaur. Many of the soldiers raised their shields and their arms were instantly fractured. They let out waves of blood-curdling screams!

The two armies intersected. At the moment of life and death, there was no room for any mercy. At this moment, everyone’s eyes were red with killing intent. Countless mutated soldiers brandished the weapons in their hands and slashed at the robe that once belonged to them. Instantly, blood and limbs flew all over the sky, the scene instantly became extremely tragic!

“It went very smoothly...” brother dog looked at the battlefield in front of him with some excitement. The Green Titan’s warlike genes did not make him feel uncomfortable at all. He even wanted to raise his weapon and charge forward to kill.

“It went too smoothly...” rainy girl, Wu Gua, frowned slightly.

Could it be that the opponent’s backup plan was just a magic trap?

She was thinking about the possible variables that might appear later. From the information that the Overlord and her had analyzed, although this undead might be a deity overlord, the strength of his subordinates wasn’t high, this could be seen from the strength of their armed forces that attacked her. Although the deity Overlord’s level was unknown, it was clear that it had just begun to develop in this plane, so the strength of its subordinates was limited.

The reason why she hadn’t made a move was because she was afraid of the heavenly lord on her side, so she was testing him...

At this time, how her limited forces would test out her trump card was a point in the game between the two sides. She had to protect this situation before the Lord arrived.

Breaking through the city gate was a key point in the battle between the two sides. She used Rox's reputation to win over a large group of mutated soldiers. From the looks of it, these soldiers should be the strongest force in this plane.

Actually, she was also curious about how the other party could get rid of her and the others without personally making a move? Just by relying on this magic array? Was it that simple?

Raingirl Wugua looked at the dark magic array in the sky and a sense of unease gradually rose in her heart.

"Shadow is back..." brother dog suddenly reminded her from the side.

"Huh?" Raingirl wugua nodded and raised her head to look at shadow who was slowly walking over. She frowned and said, "Why are you the only one back?"

When Ying heard this, he acted as if he did not hear anything and continued to walk forward unsteadily. This scene caused Rainmaiden Wu Gua to be on high alert. She hurriedly retreated and said, "Stop him!"

Brother dog frowned and walked forward. "Did something happen?"

This time, Ying did not continue to walk forward on his own. After he was stopped by Brother Dog, he slowly raised his head. At this moment, Brother Dog saw the entire picture under Ying's hood. However, he was shocked by his appearance!

Ying's face was as terrifying as dried tree bark. His face was contorted in pain as he said with difficulty, "Save... Me..."

Chapter 340: Battle of the South Gate -PartpTwo two)

"Damn it, What's wrong with you?" Faced with his companion's pleading hand, Brother Dog subconsciously reached out to help.

Rain Girl, Wu Gua, who was behind him, saw this and immediately shouted, "Back off, dog! !"

It wasn't that she was indifferent to shadow's situation, but it was because her brain was rapidly calculating that she couldn't save him!

The people who followed shadow were all the top elf players in the base. Not to mention other things, only Leng Xing and Xu Xian could fight against her in the entire base. It was just that she usually kept a low profile.

Elves, especially assassin-type elves, were far better at dealing with complicated situations than the Green Titan. If they could not deal with something, it meant that it must be extremely troublesome. Before figuring out the situation.., she naturally wanted to stop brother dog from recklessly approaching.

However, it was still too late. A blurry light figure suddenly jumped out from the shadow's body and pounced on Brother Dog.

It looked like an unstable ball of light, emitting a strange color. This color had never been seen on the D sphere or in the new world, rain girl was even sure that it was not any of the colors in the known spectrum.

It was a very strange feeling. Normally, the human eye could see the color because of the reflection of light from the object, but the color of this thing definitely did not come from the sunlight here... ..

Brother Dog subconsciously slapped away this strange thing, but when he slapped it, he found that it was as if the other party did not have a physical body. It was really a ball of light and there was nothing when he hit it with one hand.

He felt as if he had touched a ball of sticky steam.

“What... Is This?” Brother Dog was stunned, but rainy, who was behind him, was shocked when she saw this. She hurriedly shouted, “Retreat! !”

However, it was obviously too late. The ball of light moved along Brother Dog’s arm and wrapped around Brother Dog’s huge body. In an instant, it wrapped around the other party and drilled into his ears, nose, and throat!

Brother Dog’s entire body stiffened. Following that, his green skin actually emitted an ominous light that was exactly the same as that Strange Ball of light. Brother Dog’s face was twisted in pain as he kneeled on the ground. His muscles were twitching all over his body, and his expression was extremely ferocious.

Just that appearance alone made rainy girl, Wu Gua, feel what kind of terrifying pain he was experiencing!

In fact, it was also the case. At this moment, Brother Dog felt as though he was being sucked by something. His entire body felt as though it was burning, and his body visibly became withered and pale, the intense pain caused him, who had never begged anyone, to act like a shadow. He looked at rainless melon as if he was asking for help, “Save me!”

The surrounding players wanted to step forward when they saw this, but they were immediately stopped by rainless melon, “All of you, Stop! Don’t go over!”

The players stopped in their tracks. Then, they looked at Brother Dog, who was writhing in pain, and how his muscular body was visibly shrinking. They felt a chill in their hearts...

“What the hell is this thing?”

Rain Girl looked at Brother Dog, who was kneeling on the ground, with a cold expression on her face. She thought to herself, “How did this thing appear so quickly?”

Previously, when the Lord Seer had sent her information about the map of the Black Goat, she had carefully looked at its functions, apart from rapidly mutating the surrounding objects to promote evolution, this thing could also create terrifying biological weapons based on the mutation of life forms.

Usually, when an object could not withstand the energy mutation, it would first turn into a black goat cub. After a period of time, the Cubs would devour each other, eventually forming some kind of strange mutated life form. This kind of thing was random, generally, according to the level of the array diagram and the level of the mutated life form, the mutated life form would turn into different strange mutants.

The higher the life level, the higher the level of the array diagram, the higher the quality of the mutated biological weapon would be.

And this thing in front of him was a very high-quality biological weapon in the library of known mutated creatures: The Color of stars!

This was an extremely terrifying monster. It did not have a fixed body, and was one of the indescribable things. The most terrifying thing was that it could almost ignore all physical attacks, but the key was that it could attack others without a body., it could not be defended against.

Once it entered the body of a living being, it would quickly absorb the biological fluid and mummify the body of the creature it was hunting. Furthermore, it was much more terrifying than that. Sometimes, the victim would collapse to the ground and their entire body would squirm like liquid. No matter how powerful one was, they would not be able to escape the hunt. They could only watch as they were eaten bit by bit... ..

To be honest, when she saw the introduction of this creature, felicitous rain was shocked. However, she never expected to encounter it at this time. According to the introduction, the probability of this star radiance being born was extremely low, even a level 10 or higher black goat's illustration on a level 5 or higher planet would find it very difficult to create such a biological weapon.

The probability was extremely low. The creation of a biological weapon in the Black Goat's illustration was random. This was something that no faction had yet broken through. With the current level of the new world, the probability of such a thing appearing was almost negligible...

But it just happened to appear!

"What should we do?" Rainy Girl, Wugua, suddenly panicked. For such a thing, it was impossible for a living being that had not experienced fire forging to even touch it... .. they were completely unable to resist... ..

At the same time, the mutated soldiers led by Rox were about to break through the phalanx and charge into the rear of the army. As long as they could break through the stairs in front and disperse the long-range troops, they would win this battle...

However, at that moment, a huge black totem suddenly appeared in the sky. The moment this totem appeared, Rox felt that something was wrong. Then, a huge gravitational force came, causing all the soldiers to fall to the ground.

"Gravitational totem? How could it be?" Rox's heart sank. He thought to himself, why would the totem of the ORC priest appear here?

Just as he was thinking, an extremely familiar voice sounded, "Long time no see, old friend..."

This voice... .. Rox was shocked, "Luoba Gudan?"

He looked around in shock, but could not find a figure. However, he was very sure that this voice was the first orc priest that he and the late Emperor had killed together!

How could he still be alive?

However, in the next second, he felt relieved. It made sense. Even Alice and the other heroes from thousands of years ago could be used by him. The situation before him was not strange.

However, if this was the case, the situation would not be good...

Rox looked at the archers above the city wall who had already reacted. He felt a chill in his heart. Originally, the soldiers had strong physiques. Even if they were hit by a few arrows, it would not be a big problem. However, if they were supported by this gravitational magnetic field... The power of the arrows would be at least several times stronger. At this distance... ..

With this round of arrows, they would probably be finished! !

At this thought, he suddenly realized that his group couldn't advance or retreat, so he quickly looked behind him. He could only hope that the people under the mysterious woman could quickly find the position of the shaman priest... ..

"Release the Arrows! !" Garvin's face revealed a ferocious sneer as he looked at the gloomy rox. He had been waiting for this moment for a long time!