Chapter 401: "Oh Ho, your senior brother Will Be Gone Tomorrow!"!

"Who is this idiot?"

As soon as these words were said, the disciples of the Yunshan sect behind Lu Xingfeng were stunned for a moment. Then, a strange expression appeared on their faces, and Lu Chenshuang immediately burst out laughing... ..

Lu Xingfeng's face twitched, but he didn't want to argue with such a little kid in public. He could only snort coldly and find a seat to sit down... ..

The surrounding Yunshan disciples couldn't help but laugh, but they didn't dare to laugh like Lu Chenshuang. Each of them had a hard time holding it in... ..

Li Goudan didn't care at all about his words just now. He pulled Yunji Mu and sat down at the side...

Yunji mu asked curiously, "Are You Alone?"

"Sigh..."Li Goudan couldn't help but pout at the mention of this. "Brother Goudan is going to accompany his grandfather. That Guy Yu Tong seems to have some urgent matters to attend to. If I didn't meet you today, I'm afraid I would have gone online too..."

"Then..."Yun Mu Ji subconsciously wanted to ask Wang Chengbo if he wasn't with you... ..

But she was too embarrassed to ask, so she immediately bit her lip.

Seeing this, Li Goudan said with a sly smile, "You want to ask Chengbo, right?"

"Who... who wants to ask him?"Yun Mu Ji rolled her eyes at him and immediately denied it, but she was a little nervous in her heart.

He said that he would come to cheer for her...

She told him that Li Xiaoqian was in Kunlun...

She was a little afraid that he wouldn't come because of this, because if that was the case, it meant that Li Xiaoqian was still more important to him than she was...

If that was the case...

She felt that there was no need to continue with him, even if his performance moved her...

"Cheng Bo should be on his way..."Li Goudan said.

"You... how do you know he's on his way?"Yun Mu Ji hesitated for a moment, but she couldn't help but ask.

“Goudan is right!” Li Goudan said, “Goudan said that after her brother went offline, he realized that he had no money and no travel expenses, so he quickly went online to ask his father. His father told him to get lost, and then he shamelessly went to his boss to get an advance of his salary...”. “...”

Yun Mu Ji:” ...”

“Cheng Bo? Who is that?” Lu Chen Shuang immediately had a gossipy look on her face!

The surrounding disciples also looked at Yun Mu Ji curiously. Yun Mu Ji’s face immediately turned red, and she poked Li Gou Dan to stop her from talking nonsense.

This small action was immediately seen by the surrounding disciples, and they immediately became more spirited...

They didn’t expect that this cultivation maniac who was as cold as an ice mountain would have such a daughter’s attitude. Which Brat picked their immortal peach?

A few male disciples immediately became displeased, especially Lu Xingfeng, whose face instantly turned terrifyingly gloomy...

Lu Chenshuang, on the other hand, was full of excitement.

“Ahem... it’s just a friend...” mu Yunji quickly interrupted the topic and said softly, “Let’s talk about serious business. I saw that Kunlun’s battle rankings are out tomorrow. Jiayi, did you see your opponent clearly?”

“Ah?” Li Goudan was stunned, then he scratched his head. “I roughly glanced at him, and I think his name is... Nie something yun...”

“You’re a disciple participating in the competition? Which family are you from? How come I’ve never seen you before?” Lu Xingfeng immediately frowned, he had always thought that this carefree fellow was just a disciple of the pugilistic world. He had deliberately found an opportunity to get close to his junior sister. The disciples of the various sects who could participate in the competition were all elites of the third generation. Logically speaking, he should know all of them.., where did this girl come from?

“You talk big... Do you have to know her to qualify for the competition?” Li Goudan retorted impolitely.

“You...” Lu Xingfeng was instantly furious. Ever since he had won the first place in the martial arts competition last time, no matter where he went, other disciples would treat him impolitely? When had he ever been retorted like this?

“Alright, you...” Mu Yunji knocked on Li Goudan’s forehead. “Stop it, my senior brother doesn’t have any ill intentions...”

Seeing his junior sister speak up for him, Lu Xingfeng’s expression softened slightly.

“Hmph...” Li Goudan snorted coldly and turned his face away, as if he didn’t want to argue with Lu Xingfeng on account of Mu Yunji.

Lu Xingfeng was so angry that his eyelids twitched again. Seeing this, the surrounding Yunshan disciples couldn’t help but cover their mouths and snicker.

“Oh right... did you say that your opponent’s surname is Nie?” Mu Yunji saw her senior brother’s expression turning uglier and hurriedly changed the topic.

“Yes...”

“There aren’t many experts with the surname Nie. is your opponent a Wudang Expert?” Mu Yunji’s eyes lit up as she asked.

“Yes, Eh, Do You Know Him?” Li Goudan tilted his head and asked.

“I’ve heard of him...” Mu Yunji said in a low voice, “I heard that Wudang produced a once-in-a-century genius who was personally taught by the Wudang Grand Elder, Master Ling Feng. He became an Earth immortal at the age of 30. He’s an incredible figure...”

“Junior sister, are you talking about Nie Liuyun?” The one who asked was Wu Sheng from the Crimson Cloud Peak.

“Eh, I’ve also heard of him...” Lu Chenshuang was also interested. “I’ve heard that this person has an extremely high seniority. Although he’s young, even the chief disciple, Wang Qing, has to call him senior uncle...”

“Is he that powerful?” Li Goudan immediately looked unhappy.

“Of course he’s not as powerful as you...” Mu Yunji pinched Goudan’s face and smiled.

“Of course. If he really wants to be more powerful than me, then that so-called grand martial uncle of his...” Li Goudan immediately felt smug.

He really had a big mouth!

The group of disciples sighed in their hearts. They didn’t know whether this girl was naive or really arrogant...

However, with their senior brother’s previous failure, they didn’t want to provoke this little dynamite bag’s bad luck...

“Which one is junior sister going against tomorrow?” Lu Xingfeng asked with concern after he caught his breath.

“Yan Wushuang...” Mu Yunji replied indifferently.

“Yan Wushuang? The one from Emei?” Lu xingfeng frowned and said, “That person’s reputation isn’t very good, and he’s very narrow-minded. Junior sister, you have to be careful...”

Lu Chenshuang said, “I heard that her hand was broken two days ago...”

“Damn, who did you hear it from?” Wu Sheng said blankly.

“I came out in the afternoon to listen to people’s idle chatter...” Lu Chenshuang quickly said, “I heard that she had a conflict with the newly rising disciple of the Luofu sect, and her hand was crippled in one move!”

“So powerful? What’s the background of that Luofu Disciple?”

“He seems to be a newcomer. His name is Liu... Liu Something...”

“Liu Shiyu...” Lu Xingfeng, who was at the side, drank a mouthful of wine, his tone was indifferent as he continued, “The third generation disciple of the Liu family in Yanjing broke Yan Wushuang’s hand a few days ago and even exchanged a palm strike with Hong Tianlu. I heard that Hong Tianlu even suffered a small loss...”

“Damn, Hong Tianlu suffered a loss in a palm strike?” Wu Sheng, who was at the side, said, “This Luofu disciple is amazing. Eh... Senior Brother, how do you know so much? You also came out in the afternoon to stroll around?”

Lu Xingfeng sighed. “I specifically went to inquire about him. My opponent tomorrow will be him...”

“Oh...” the disciples of Mount Yunshan immediately nodded. They didn’t expect their senior brother to be so pragmatic. ...

Mu Yunji had a strange expression on her face. For a moment, she didn’t know what to say...

Li Goudan took a bite of a steamed bun when he heard that. He moved closer to Mu Yunji and said softly, “Oh, your senior brother Will Be Gone Tomorrow...”

Yun-ji:” ...”

Chapter 402: “Brother, are you serious?”?

The next day, many of the participating disciples left Kunlun town early and arrived at the designated Mountain Gate Arena.

Kunlun’s terrain was high, the climate was cold and humid, and the air was thin. For the cultivation disciples, it didn’t have much of an impact. Most of the cultivation disciples, even those who cultivated talismans and mountain techniques, had qi and blood that far surpassed that of ordinary people, this little bit of climate had no effect on them at all.

It was elder Li and the people of the Liu family who suffered. Elder Li was still fine. He had been stationed in the northwest many times in his early years, so he was quite used to the climate here. In addition, he had practiced some internal martial arts. Even if he was old, he wouldn’t be completely unable to endure it.

On the other hand, the second-generation disciples and a few children of the Liu family, who were living in luxury, immediately cried out bitterly. Along the way, they constantly complained about the terrain. There were suddenly craggy ice mounds and unpredictable icicles everywhere. The plateau tundra, which never melted all year round, was very different from the image of the immortal sects in their hearts... ..

In fact, in terms of scenery, although the Kunlun mountains could not compare to the seer man-made immortal mountains, they were absolutely spectacular in the natural scenery. The mountains here were continuous and undulating, the snow-capped peaks stood in a sudden forest, and the lines were thick and vigorous. It had the aura of the roof of the world...

It was just that it could not be compared to the beautiful mountains and rivers in the South...

The girl from Liu Xiaoli's house was frozen until her face was red. She had been crying all along the way, but her mother was heartbroken. Seeing this, brother dog could not bear to see it, so he took the initiative to bring him to carry the little girl forward, after Brother Dog's body was strengthened, his Qi and blood became strong. After activating his qi and blood, his whole body was like a furnace. This made the little girl's tears turn into a smile, and she hugged her cousin like a kitten and refused to come down.

Some of the disciples in the distance were stunned when they saw this. This was still a long way from the competition venue. This guy actually dared to activate his qi and blood like this to warm a child? Wasn't he afraid that it would affect his performance later if he used too much of his Qi and blood?

Lu Xingfeng, who saw this scene from afar, also had a cold expression. How much did he look down on him to be so arrogant?

Brother Dog's obvious change made the Liu family members feel unusually obvious. While they were shocked, they all leaned over. Liu Xing was the fastest, and he even took the initiative to talk to Brother Dog from time to time.

Although he only got a D lower grade in the test, this did not stop him from wanting to befriend a disciple of cultivation. In addition, it was such a cold day. It was really too comfortable to walk beside Brother Dog.

Brother Dog was speechless at this person's thick skin, but he didn't pay much attention to it. He was a person who bore grudges. Liu Xing was one of the few people who bullied him the most back then, he wouldn't be so magnanimous to the point where he would be coaxed by the other party with a few polite words once he gained power.

Liu Lao San's youngest son, Liu Kai, also wanted to lean over, but he was a little embarrassed because he also seemed to dislike brother dog at the beginning, although his behavior wasn't as obvious as those cousins...

Seeing his son hesitating, Lao San quickly pulled him closer to brother dog and scolded angrily, "Stay Closer to your brother, be careful of catching a cold..."

Liu Kai lowered his head and remained silent.

Seeing his son's expression, Liu Jianchao was furious. He could only say to brother dog, "Shiyu, you have to take care of your little brother in the sect in the future..."

"I know, third uncle!" Brother Dog laughed.

He did not care about Liu Kai, this little kid. Moreover, he believed that with third uncle's character, even if there was no such thing, he would not teach his son to be like Liu Wenhao.

Liu Wenhao and his son were sent home by the old man the next day. When they left, Liu Wenhao looked at him as if he was a cobra that he had seen in a cage. It almost made him reflexively prepare to slap the other party to death...

To be honest, he really had some thoughts in this regard. In the future, the scale of the game would definitely expand, and sooner or later, it would be exposed. With such a large platform, it was hard to guarantee that Liu Wenhao wouldn't have the chance to rise up. This kid was a scourge. It was naturally best to kill him in advance. He was just afraid that his grandfather would be sad...

At the end of the large group, Wang Chengbo and young master Huang were hanging far behind. When Wang Chengbo saw the group of Yunji sect from afar, he didn't dare to go up and greet them. After all, he heard that the leader was the sect master of Yunshan sect. The person who raised Yunji from a young age was no different from his own father. Wang Chengbo, a loser, didn't have the guts to rashly...

Just like that, the group of people, each with their own thoughts, walked all the way to the Fengyun platform in the valley under the guidance of the Kunlun disciples...

The scale of the FENGYUN platform for the Kunlun martial arts demonstration was very large. After all, it was used to deal with a grand gathering of the top cultivation sects. The people of Kunlun naturally would not be stingy in the pomp and circumstance.

The arena was polished with an unknown steel rock. It was abnormally hard and beautiful at the same time. It was bigger than any stadium on the market today, and there were spiral stairs around the arena, the stairs were filled with various stone pavilions for watching the match. Each stone pavilion was about twenty square meters in size, and there were pear wood tables and chairs inside. Under the tables and chairs were braziers for heating, and there were expensive silver frost charcoal, the tables were filled with exquisite pastries and fruits.

Of course, the pergola's treatment was naturally only available to large sects. Those itinerant cultivators who could not be called to watch the show could only sit on the stairs to watch the match.

As there were fewer people coming, Luo Fu invited the Liu family members to watch the competition. However, Wang Chengbo and Luo Fu weren't that lucky. They could only sit on the ice-cold stairs with a large group of itinerant cultivators, young Master Huang had been pampered since he was young, so how could he receive such treatment. He was so cold that he was hopping around...

He kept complaining, "Damn, how cold is this? I say, Chengbo, look at how much I've suffered in order to help you pick up a girl."

Wang Chengbo rolled his eyes and thought to himself, I only asked you to borrow money, I didn't ask you to follow me. You were the one who wanted to join in the fun...

"Is this how the F * cking Kunlun hosts? They even let guests sit on the floor!"

"Brother, you really dare to say that... We are not considered guests..."

Just as young master Huang was complaining, a tall man in a gray robe suddenly interrupted, "At most, they are just uninvited guests who came to join in the fun. The guests that Kunlun admits are all in those pavilions...". As he said that, the man pointed at the stone pavilions and smiled, "See, these pavilions are all burned with high-quality charcoal. It's so warm that it's like turning on the air conditioner. They won't let the real guests suffer...". "..."

"Isn't that just dog-eye looking down on others?" Young Master Huang couldn't help but ask.

“This is a little unfair...” . “...”the man said with a smile, “They didn’t invite us from the beginning to the end. In the end, we unrated freelance martial artists just wanted to join in the fun. It’s already considered giving them face that they didn’t chase us out. Brother, don’t ask for too much.””

As he spoke, he took out a wine flask from his bosom and said, “Little brother, this is your first time here, right? Come, drink some wine to warm your body...”

Wang Chengbo was stunned for a moment, but he didn’t reach out to receive it. His father was a police officer, and he had developed a cautious habit since he was young. The things that strangers handed him couldn’t be carelessly stuck to his mouth... ..

But Young Master Huang was different. He directly took the wine flask and opened it to take a sip... ..

Then, as if he had choked, he coughed violently a few times, and his face instantly turned red from holding it in. “Damn, Bro, your wine is really overbearing! !”

“Haha!”The Brawny man laughed when he saw this. “This is all good stuff...”

“It is indeed good wine...”young master Huang nodded repeatedly and handed the wine flask back. “This feeling is equivalent to half a Jin of Erguotou... Oh Right, where are you cultivating, Brother?”

“Me? A small itinerant cultivator sect isn’t worth mentioning. Brother, What About You?”The Brawny man smiled as he looked at young master Huang, however, when he saw young master Huang’s drunken appearance, he secretly frowned. This wine was specially used to test the other party’s cultivation level. The young man opposite him looked like an ordinary person...

Thus, he curiously added, “Brother, you don’t look like a cultivator...”

“Big Brother, you have good eyes...”Huang Shao’s eyes lit up. He knew that the other party probably had something up his sleeve, so his smile became even more attentive. “I’m only from a vassal family. I don’t have the aptitude for cultivation, so I can’t compare to you guys...”

“You’re really an ordinary person?”The burly man’s smile gradually faded, and it was obvious that he wasn’t in the mood to continue the conversation. After all, other than coming to Kunlun to watch the show, they were also taking the opportunity to make some connections. Cultivation was difficult, independent cultivators like them could not be compared to large sects that had a complete set of techniques. They were all fumbling around on their own. If they could get to know more cultivators, they could also learn from each other and discuss, or exchange some resources. As for ordinary people like young master huang., the burly man clearly did not want to waste any more time.

However, he still said politely, “It’s rare to see an ordinary person coming here...”

“Wasn’t he forcefully dragged here by this bro?”Young Master Huang was clearly a little dizzy from that mouthful of strong liquor. He patted Wang Chengbo’s shoulder and said, “He accompanied brother to watch his wife fight in the arena...”

The Big Man, who had been prepared to change his seat after a few perfunctory words, was stunned when he heard this. “Wife? Fight in the arena? Brother, you must be joking, right? The people who went up to fight in the arena are all core disciples of the ten great sects!”

He looked at Wang Chengbo and felt that his body was trembling like an ordinary person like young master Huang. It was nonsense to say that he could get a core disciple of a big sect?

Wang Chengbo also felt a great pressure. He coughed lightly and said, "Young Master Huang, you drank too much..."

"I didn't drink too much..." young master Huang was half-drunk and half-awake. How could he admit defeat when he was boasting? He patted Wang Chengbo's shoulder and said, "I just watched your wife fight in the arena, didn't I?"

After a pause, he suddenly pointed at the arena and said, "Look, she just entered the arena..."

Wang Chengbo was stunned. He looked up and saw that it was indeed mu Yunji who had entered the arena. The Big Man at the side was also stunned and said with a strange expression, "Brother... are you two serious?"

Chapter 403: The Unexpected...

This was not the first time Guo Hongde had come to Kunlun to practice martial arts. He was 50 years old this year and was not considered very old in the cultivation world. In his early years, he was fortunate enough to be personally taught by an old monk who claimed to be the successor of the Vajra sect. He walked into this cultivation world...

This was originally something that many people dreamed of. In ancient times, it was equivalent to being regarded as a lucky person by immortals... ..

However, after he entered the old monk's sect, he realized how difficult it was for itinerant cultivators. Unlike those disciples of big sects with abundant resources and complete orthodoxy, these itinerant cultivators' cultivation was summed up bit by bit.

And the price was actually very high. For example, his master, who died more than ten years ago due to a mistake in his cultivation, became more and more cautious in his cultivation after learning from his master's example, he usually proceeded with extreme caution. In order to make his cultivation safer, he had befriended many fellow Daoists over the years. This Kunlun martial arts demonstration was a great platform for him to get to know fellow itinerant cultivators.

Therefore, Guo Hongde could be considered a regular guest of the Kunlun martial arts demonstration. As a regular guest, he naturally knew about last year's dark horse, Yunji Mu...

For a sect that participated in the Kunlun martial arts demonstration for the first time to have its seed explode and take the first place, this kind of thing was still very shocking. Even though many experts from the previous tournament did not know, this girl definitely had a bright future ahead of her, in the future, she would definitely be a disciple that the Yunshan sect would focus on grooming. She was far from being comparable to itinerant cultivators like them. She could not even touch her feet.

How could such a person be the wife of this person who did not seem to have any cultivation?

Guo Hongde thought that the other party was probably bragging. He could not help but secretly think that the other party was quite bold. Thus, he said coldly, "Brother, there are some things that you should not joke about. Be careful that you don't let trouble come out of your mouth..."

"Who's joking?" At this time, Young Master Huang was riding a tiger and could not get off. He said with a red face, "After she's done fighting, I'll introduce you to get to know..."

"Oh?" Guo Hongde, who was about to leave, was suddenly amused. "Good, good, good. Then I'll take advantage of you and get to know some experts..."

Just as he was saying this, the arena had already announced the start of the match.

At this moment, Yan Wushuang, who was standing opposite him, had an unfriendly look on her face. Her arm had just recovered, and she had been holding back a lot of anger for the past few days. At this moment, a hint of malevolence flashed across her face when she saw Mu Yunji's indifferent expression, she sneered and said, "I heard that you defeated that Kid from the Situ family last time?"

Mu Yunji ignored the other party and looked around, trying to find Cheng Bo's position...

Seeing the other party's absent-minded look, Yan Wushuang's face turned even colder, he said in a deep voice, "You defeated a little girl who's only in her teens. Do you really think you're a big shot? The experts from the various sects were not around in the last tournament, so I picked up the first prize to advise you not to take yourself too seriously..."

"Yes, senior is right..." Mu Yunji still looked around absentmindedly...

"You..." in the face of Mu Yunji's perfunctory look, Yan Wushuang felt that it was even more infuriating than the other party bumping into him. This girl... Was she ignoring him?

Just as he was about to say something else, he heard a familiar voice from the stairs in the distance, "Miss Mu, miss mu, here, here, Chengbo is here! !"

When Mu Yunji heard that, she looked over in shock and saw young master Huang dancing around like a monkey. Many people present were also attracted over and were instantly stunned... Wang Chengbo quickly pulled young master Huang, who had gone crazy from drinking, to sit down. Then, he smiled awkwardly at the surrounding people. ...

Mu Yunji looked at Wang Chengbo's face, which was embarrassed by his pig-like teammate. Her originally cold expression instantly melted, and she couldn't help but burst into laughter.

When this goddess smiled, the people present were even more surprised and began to discuss among themselves. They were all discussing, "Who's that Kid?"

This topic naturally became hot among the disciples of the Yunshan sect who were watching the competition.

The one who asked was sect master Yun of the Yunshan sect.

"Is this the man that Luofu said yesterday?"

“Oh?” Sect Master Yun was stunned for a moment and then asked curiously, “Shuang-er, do you know what happened?”

Lu Chenshuang was not interested in her sect master because of her mother. However, she could not care about gossip anymore. Therefore, she told him about yesterday’s incident.

“Oh? Yunji actually has a friend outside. It’s rare...” sect master Yun laughed.

Lu Xingfeng had a disdainful look on his face. He looked at Wang Chengbo and Guo Hongde in the distance with a cold expression.

“Damn, brother, do you really know Yunji Mu?” Guo Hongde said in surprise.

“Of course!” Young Master Huang was immediately proud. “Do you think I’m the kind of person who talks nonsense? After she finishes beating her up, I’ll ask my brother to call her over for you to get to know her...”

“That’s Good!” Guo Hongde said the truth this time. He didn’t have many opportunities to explain to the disciples of big sects and such core disciples... ..

Young Master Huang looked at Guo Hongde who immediately changed his attitude and felt even more proud. Then, he leaned to Wang Chengbo’s side and said in a low voice, “Brother, this big brother is bragging. It’s up to you whether I’ll be slapped in the face later...”

“You still know that you are bragging?” Wang Chengbo could not help but roll his eyes. The relationship between him and Mu Yunji had not even been settled yet, and you, this fellow, dared to go crazy and spread rumors.., after Mu Yunji finished her fight, she naturally had to return to her sect. How could she come to my place?

On the other side of the arena, Yan Wushuang immediately sneered, he said mockingly, “I was wondering why the little girl looked so absent-minded. So it turns out that she is looking for her own little lover. She doesn’t even care about the competition between her sect and her sect. Her heart is really stirred up...”

The other party had provoked and mocked her many times, and Mu Yun Ji was not made of mud. In addition, just now, she saw a person she did not want to see walking towards Wang Chengbo... ..

She was originally in a good mood, but her face suddenly darkened and she said coldly, “Senior, it’s better for you to take care of yourself. It’s only been two days, and if you accidentally break your hand again, it won’t be good!”

“Little Bitch, what did you say?” Once Yan Wushuang was brought to the sore spot by the other party, her face instantly turned ashen. The matter of her hand being broken had been spread everywhere these few days, and even the disciples of Er Mei were secretly discussing it as a pastime, it was just that she was so angry that she almost shut herself up. Now that it was exposed, her eyes immediately turned red from holding it in!

In a fit of rage, Yan Wushuang’s Qi and blood instantly circulated to the extreme. With a bang, the steel rock under her feet cracked open like a spider web!

This caused the surrounding unaffiliated cultivators who were watching the match to suck in a breath of cold air. The stone foundation of the Kunlun's arena was specially treated. Even if an ordinary disciple used a knife and axe to slash across, they would not be able to leave a single white mark... ..

Although this Yan Wushuang was ugly, his cultivation was not just for show. As expected of the number two ace disciple of Emei... ..

However, in the face of such power, Mu Yunji still did not place her gaze on her. Instead, she stared at a white figure leaning towards Cheng Bo and the others outside the arena...

"You seek to die! !" Yan Wushuang sees opposite party unexpectedly still dare to ignore him, with a sinister laugh, he stepped forward and crushed the stone floor with a bang. Like a shadow, he appeared in front of Yun-ji in an instant. He raised his hand and threw a cannon punch at her handsome face!

— — — —

On the other side, the white figure has slowly come to Chengbo in front of them, in the face of people, Wang Chengbo and half-drunk Huang Shao are all stunned.

"It's been a while, Cheng Bo..." Li Xiaoqian, who was dressed in white, said with a smile... ..

Chapter 404: What does this guy have?

Wang Chengbo was indeed stunned. He didn't expect Li Xiaoqian to take the initiative to look for him at this stage, and young master Huang was half sober because of her arrival...

"Brother... who is this person?" Seeing Li Xiaoqian in Kunlun's clothing take the initiative to come over, Guo Hongde hurriedly asked in a low voice.

Young Master Huang turned his head slightly and said softly, "A bad person..."

After Wang Chengbo came back to his senses, he replied with a smile, "It's been a while..."

Here it comes again...

Li Xiaoqian frowned. Just like the last time at the Huang family's villa, this kid spoke to her in the same tone... ..

His tone was gentle and his smile was welcoming...

But there was no trace of emotion...

This shouldn't have been like this...

"You came all the way here to see me this time?" Li Xiaoqian asked with a smile.

Wang Chengbo said with a smile, "I'm here to watch Yun Ji's competition..."

"You're really not here to see me?" Li Xiaoqian said with a smile.

"I'm really not!" Wang Chengbo nodded very seriously.

"Liar..." Li Xiaoqian said in a low voice. Her voice was resentful, like a little girl who had been wronged...

Wang Chengbo was stunned for a moment. He didn't expect to see Li Xiaoqian treat him like this one day...

If it was in the past, he would probably be dreaming about this scene in his dreams?

But now, for some reason, there was no emotion in his heart... ..

Whether it was joy, anger, or confusion, there was nothing... ..

Why?

Wang Chengbo was puzzled. Was it really like what young master Huang said, Licking Dogs was actually the most ruthless kind of people?

Seeing Wang Chengbo in a daze, Li Xiaoqian was delighted. She thought it was effective. Just as she was about to say something, a cold voice suddenly sounded behind her, "Madam, please excuse me..."

Li Xiaoqian knew it was Mu Yunji before she even turned around. However, she was stunned in her heart. Was this woman crazy? She didn't even fight in the competition and came to tangle with her?

When she thought of this, she turned around and sneered sarcastically, "Sister Mu is really a person with a temperament. She doesn't even care about competing with my Dou Qi sect?"

Mu Yunji glanced at her coldly, "Are you worthy?"

Li Xiaoqian's eyes twitched and was about to retort, but suddenly, she saw Yan Wushuang, who was severely injured and vomiting blood on the arena behind Mu Yunji, being carried down by the disciples of Er Mei...

This scene made her choke the words she wanted to say.

She knew that Mu Yunji had advanced to the Earth immortal realm, but she had heard elder Li's prediction before she came. Although Mu Yunji had broken through to the Earth immortal realm, she would need at least a hundred moves to defeat Yan Wushuang. After all, Yan Wushuang was also the number two figure among the third generation disciples of Kunlun. He was not far away from the Earth immortal realm...

A hundred moves... did it pass so quickly?

It had only been a few seconds?

And the crowd who had just watched the fight between Yun Ji and Yan Wushuang was really shocked!

Before the bid, most people had actually thought highly of Yan Wushuang. Although this woman's reputation was not very good, under her fierce reputation was the strength that everyone feared. Although Yun Ji had won the first place in the previous round... But the only one who had some weight in the battle was only Situ Xue, but Situ Xue... Was only nineteen years old. ...

But no one had expected that not only did mu Yunji win, but she also won in such a crushing manner. Yan wushuang actually could not even move a single move under her hands... ..

This scene not only stunned the crowd who did not know about Mu Yunji's background, but even those who knew that Mu Yunji had advanced to the Earth immortal realm were also shocked.

This included the sect master of Yunshan...

He stared blankly at Yan Wushuang who was being carried away, his face full of disbelief. He originally thought that his disciple had just entered the Earth immortal realm, but he did not expect it to be to such an extent!

In the stone pavilion at the highest point, the experts of Kunlun all had solemn expressions on their faces, a white-haired youth narrowed his eyes and said, "It seems that elder Xiao's information is correct. This Yun Ji's cultivation base is solid. She is definitely not a newly advanced Earth immortal realm expert. She is a tough opponent, comparable to the level of the top aces of various sects..."

"In three years, this child can't be so fierce even if she takes drugs, right?" Wang Daoxin muttered.

"It might be related to the Luofu mystic realm..."

"That makes sense... then it seems that Kunlun must take the initiative in the Luofu Mystic Realm this year..."

While the people of Kunlun were discussing, the other stone pavilions were also in an uproar. They were all amazed, especially in the Yunshan sect, lu chenshuang muttered, "Senior sister... she is already so powerful? Brother, can you do it?"

Lu Xingfeng was stunned when he heard that. Then, he frowned deeply. To be honest, if it was him, he was not confident that he could beat Yan Wushuang to that extent in one move...

When he thought of this, Lu Xingfeng suddenly felt uncomfortable. He could not accept the fact that his junior sister might have already walked in front of him...

"Xingfeng..." just as the disciples were discussing, sect leader Yun suddenly said in a deep voice, "When you face Luo Fu, you must be careful!"

Lu Xingfeng was stunned, "Why do you say that, sect leader?"

After all, they were all discussing about his junior sister, but the sect leader told him to be careful of that kid from the Liu family...

But sect leader Yun obviously thought more, with a solemn expression, he said, "The opportunity for your junior sister to increase her realm came from Luofu. For an outsider like her to be able to grow to such an exaggerated extent, the disciples of Luofu's main division are probably even more extraordinary. You must not be careless!"

"Sect leader filtered it!" Lu Xingfeng said lightly, "Junior sister's aptitude is extremely good, and her foundation isn't bad either. When she encounters an opportunity, she will naturally advance by leaps and bounds. How can that kid from the Liu family be compared to her?"

Sect leader Yun shook his head inwardly when he heard this. His junior nephew's life was too smooth-sailing. He had cultivated in the mountains for many years, and once he came out of the mountains, he became famous in the martial arts practice of Kunlun. It was natural for young people to be a little frivolous when their lives were too smooth-sailing... ..

He thought to himself that with Yun Ji protecting him, his original trump card would be able to accept it even if his boat capsized. Moreover, it might not be a bad thing... . .

At this time, Lu Xingfeng was more concerned about his junior sister's movements than her soaring strength. She didn't come back immediately after the match, but walked towards the other men. It made him look even worse... . .

On the other side, Li Xiaoqian did not tangle with Yunji Mu for long. Yunji Mu's power was too eye-catching. Everyone was looking at her, but she did not dare to be openly arrogant.

After all, her status wasn't right...

Furthermore, if people knew that elder Li's cauldron and Yunji Mu were arguing over a man, they were afraid that they would really be turned into cauldrons... ..

After Li Xiaoqian left, Yunji mu glanced at young master Huang. After being stared at for a while, the other half of young master Huang also sobered up, and he immediately felt like he had to give up his seat.

Yunji mu naturally sat next to Wang Chengbo.

This scene stunned everyone, and Guo Hongde, who was next to young master Huang, was the same. It seemed like what the high-spirited brother said was actually true. Yunji MU was actually related to this man...

Moreover, the woman in Kunlun's clothing just now seemed to be a little unclear about this man...

Oh My God... Where did this guy come from?

Guo Hongde looked at Wang Chengbo in a daze. While he was surprised, he was also confused. In his eyes, this guy didn't seem to have any cultivation, and his appearance wasn't outstanding... .. He looked silly and looked like a loser. In society, he was definitely the kind of man who lived on the left Noble Consort and paper-drawing...

How on earth did this guy seduce the girls from two big sects?

Chapter 405: After all, she's not a heartless person... ..

"Brother, brother, Guoguo, Guoguo..." in the stone courtyard where the Liu family was, Yang Zhixin hugged brother dog's waist and acted coquettishly.

This fat girl was originally a child who was extremely afraid of strangers. However, when Brother Dog saw that she was eating the food on the table so sweetly, he couldn't help but give her a red crystal fruit planted by Wang Goudan. He immediately ate the little girl up. He kept pestering brother dog to ask for another one... ..

Brother Dog was in a dilemma. This red crystal fruit was a high-grade variety among second-class crops. It tasted very good and it was very troublesome to plant it. It was an experimental variety of Goudan, and he even invited a flower spirit player to cooperate with him. So he gave one to himself to taste it... .. How could he have a second one...

Therefore, he looked at Li Goudan for help. Li Goudan turned his head away directly. What a joke. He didn't even have enough to eat, so how could he feed it to this chubby pig?

"Alright, Alright... stop pestering your brother..."Liu Xiaoli smiled as she picked up her little fat pig... ..

The fruit that Liu Shiyu had taken out just now was crystal clear, just like a red crystal. At a glance, it looked good. When the girl took a bite, the fragrance of the fruit made the surrounding adults feel like their bodies were completely transparent. At a glance, they could tell that it was not an ordinary fruit, perhaps it was some kind of immortal fruit.

It was probably very rare for someone to take out such an item to tease their own daughter...

At the thought of this, Liu Xiaoli's expression when she looked at brother dog was not only grateful, but also a little complicated...

Brother Five's child had been bullied by his cousins since he was young because his mother's background was not good. The elders did not like him, and he was actually not close to the Liu family. However, the facts proved that this child had a good heart. Liu Xiaoli didn't treat him well when he was young, but he wouldn't be angry with a child at all... ..

He suddenly felt lucky that he was the one with the highest talent among the younger generation. If it was Liu Wenhao and the others, he was afraid that the Liu family might not be able to get any benefits...

Old Master Liu's face was full of relief at this moment. He had many children and grandchildren, so he naturally couldn't be fair. The child from fifth brother's family definitely received the least amount of love from him, but he brought the most people to the Liu family...

And the second family, who had high hopes...

When he thought of Liu Wenhao and his son, Old Master Liu felt a wave of frustration in his heart... ..

How to face this father and son from now on, Old Master Liu's heart was also very conflicted. To say that he was cold-hearted was indeed extremely cold-hearted, but to say that he had completely cut off relations with them, as an old man who was almost eighty years old, he couldn't bear to part with his family's bloodline.., how could it be cut off just like that?

Just as he was thinking about it, the sound of Li Jiayi entering the arena came from the stage... ..

After Mu Yunji finished her first match, there were five matches in a row. Other than Yun Shan and Lu Chenshuang who won one match, the rest of the matches were won by the disciples of Kunlun. It had to be said that Kunlun was the host, the effect of this obviously cheating method was very obvious.

They had picked soft persimmon for their own disciples. The other sects saw this, but they only dared to be angry but did not dare to speak up... ..

Wudang was especially injured. Out of the five matches, two of the losses were from his Wudang disciples. Those two disciples had just entered the arena this year, and as soon as they entered the arena, they met the two brothers of Kunlun. In an instant, they were beaten so badly that they did not have any temper. Although Wudang had already expected this when he first saw the formation, when he saw the scene now, his face was still gloomy...

However, seeing that Wudang's aura was low, Nie Liuyun smiled slightly. With a long whistle, he leaped out of the stone pavilion. His body was as light as a feather, like a snowflake falling from the sky. His posture was extremely carefree.

"Good movement technique! !"

When the cultivators on the field saw this light movement technique that was as light as a feather, they all praised it. Also, the whistle just now seemed to be not loud, but it could be heard so clearly by the people in the large square. It was as if it was right beside their ears. Without a top-tier cultivation base of the internal clan, it was impossible to achieve this...

"Wudang picked up a good treasure..." in the stone pavilion of the Kunlun sect, several elders sighed slightly.

According to the intelligence, this kid was only in his thirties, but he was already in the Earth immortal realm. Judging from the whistling sound just now, his internal energy was vigorous and steady. Obviously, he had not just stepped into the Earth immortal realm...

"It's obviously not bad to use it as a touchstone..." the oldest elder beside him muttered in a low voice.

When the elders heard this, they narrowed their eyes slightly. They knew who the other party was talking about... ..

Today, they could clearly see the level of these three disciples of Luo Fu...

... ..

On the other side, the Li family members were also sitting in a group. Old Master Li was so old. Although he was wearing a thick cotton jacket and scarf, he was still shivering from the cold. The two sons sat at the side and used their hands to warm up old master Li's hands... ..

There was no electricity in the ancient Kunlun town, so the hand-warming treasures they brought were useless. Now that they saw old master Li shivering from the cold, the little girl's heart instantly ached, not only did she complain, "Jiayi, this child, is too much. That child of the Liu family even knows to invite his family into the stone pavilion. This girl, does she really have the heart to watch US freeze here?"

Old Master Li's face was also gloomy at this moment. It was a small matter to be frozen, but the key was that he really couldn't bear to lose face. Moreover, he also heard that that child from the Liu family directly handed over the quota to his old master without saying a word. No conditions were discussed. This was the appearance of a good grandson... ..

The boss at the side also sighed and said, "It's nothing much for us. The key is that old master is already so old. She came all the way here to watch her match. This girl is really capable. Min Jun is such a soft-hearted person. How could she give birth to such a cold-hearted girl? Who did she learn it from?"

"Of course I learned it from you..."

At this moment, a clear and cold voice sounded from behind the Li family. The group of people turned around and looked. If it wasn't Li Goudan, who else could it be?

Li Goudan looked at his father who was badmouthing him behind his back and sneered, "As the saying goes, a child is like a mother and a daughter is like a father. If I didn't inherit this cold-hearted character of mine, who else would I have inherited from you?"

When they were caught badmouthing someone, the Li family members instantly felt awkward, especially when the other party was still in a strong position...

"Jiayi... we just feel that the old man can't stand this cold..." the Li family's eldest son, Li Yichen, smiled wryly.

"I didn't ask you guys to come over..." dog-egg Li rolled his eyes at the other party and replied, then, he suddenly recalled something and turned to look at his deadbeat father. "Eh? Didn't I hear that you went out to start your own family? Why did you come back?"

"Uh..." his daughter's question made him even more embarrassed... ..

Ever since his shares were stripped, he did choose to be tough at first. He planned to go out and start his own family, and his old man secretly gave him a sum of money.

But reality proved that without the Li family's platform, business was not so easy. The mother and son were also ruthless enough. After learning that he was chased out by the Li family, they directly took his money and ran away. It really made him know what it meant to be cold and warm...

After hitting a wall, he had no choice but to run back dejectedly. The backbone that he had when he first left was instantly thrown away...

Almost all the members of the Li family had been using this matter as a joke recently. Now that Li Goudan had asked about it in person, some of them couldn't help but cover their mouths and snicker...

"Jiayi, are you confident in this competition? Don't try to be brave later. If you can't win, just admit defeat. We're young, take it slow in the future..." seeing his son's embarrassment, the old man changed the topic. The old man changed the topic and looked at his granddaughter with a smile. His concerned look was as if he didn't care that she had left them here to be frozen... ..

Li Jiayi frowned slightly. Although she knew that her grandfather's smile was mostly fake, she couldn't harden her heart in the end, she turned her head and pointed at the stone pavilion in the upper left corner and murmured, "Go inside and stay there. Don't really freeze to death here..."

Without waiting for a reply, he moved like an autumn leaf and drifted toward the arena... ..

Looking at his granddaughter's graceful movements, old master Li Chuckled and nodded. "It seems that she is indeed Min Jun's biological daughter. No matter how much you pretend to be, you can't be a heartless person..."

As he spoke, he looked at his eldest son. Looking at Old Master Li's gaze, he lowered his head in silence. His eyes were filled with complicated emotions... ..

The thought of the mother and son who did not hesitate to take his money and flee North America made him feel even worse... ..

Chapter 406: I said I'll let you have three moves, so I'll let you have three moves!

Li Goudan didn't go down in such a high-profile manner. What she had learned in the base were all practical techniques. When her teacher taught them how to familiarize themselves with their attributes, she did her best to not have any unnecessary movements, so she naturally looked plain and unflashy, it didn't have the same effect as Nie Liuyun.

"This doll is from the Luofu Sect?"

A group of cultivation disciples looked over curiously. The Legend of the Luofu sect was now very popular in the cultivation world. A reclusive sect with a secret realm that could make Kunlun regress was naturally very curious.

"Is this girl very famous?" Master Huang looked at the surrounding discussions and asked Guo hongde curiously.

Guo Hongde saw that the master beside him was asking, he quickly replied, "This is Luo Fu's first time participating in the Kunlun martial arts competition. It's a reclusive sect. It's rumored that they have their own secret realm just like the Huangjue Temple. It's a specially invited sect from Kunlun this time. Kunlun gave them ten spots in one go!"

"So Powerful?" Master Huang was stunned. Even if he didn't know much, he knew that all the major sects were trying their best to increase their ranking in order to get one more spot. The Yunshan sect that the Huang family was affiliated with only had three spots in the last competition. Among the top ten sects, only the Celestial Master and Wudang were qualified to get ten spots. Even Quan Zhen sect only had seven spots...

"Yeah, that's not all. Kunlun gave Luo fu ten spots, but Luo Fu only sent three. She is really arrogant...". "...". Guo hongde said excitedly, "This Li Jiayi's Dao name is green sparrow. I heard that she is the daughter of the Li Group. She is only in her early twenties this year, but she has already made a name for herself overseas. She is the No. 001 member of the National Dragon Group. Many people are curious about what kind of strength this 20-year-old girl has...". "..."

"Oh?" Young Master Huang was suddenly interested. He nudged Wang Chengbo and said, "I remember your sister is also that Luofu? Do you know the background of this girl? Is she powerful?"

“Uh... She should be... quite powerful...” Wang Chengbo deliberated. Li Goudan was a level 3 player. Leng Xing, who was also a level 3 player, could challenge the three golden immortals of Kunlun alone. However, he couldn't summon a Geno Body in this competition. Therefore, he wasn't sure how powerful Li Goudan was...

Guo hongde, who was next to him, was stunned again. He looked at Wang Chengbo and could not help but think to himself, what is this kid's background? Why does it feel like he has something to do with everything?

Previously, he was a female disciple of Kunlun, plus Yunji Mu of Yunshan sect. Now, he also had a younger sister who was in Luofu... ..

F * ck, he might be a thick thigh...

On the other side, elder Li and elder Tian were a little nervous as they watched the competition... ..

One had to know that Qing que wasn't just a Luo Fu disciple, she was also the No. 001 member of his official Dragon Group. If she could get a good ranking, it would greatly promote the dragon group to the outside world and gather those wandering cultivator disciples... ..

But he didn't expect that the first opponent would be such a tough guy. Elder Li had heard of Nie Liuyun's reputation. He was a rare genius of Wudang in a hundred years. Since Wudang was willing to take it out to participate in the competition this time... He definitely had extraordinary strength. If Green Sparrow was eliminated in the first round, the officials would lose face... ..

On the field, Nie Liuyun looked at Li Goudan and smiled at him. “I heard that you killed two of Kagura's captains in Basen?”

‘Eh? Am I already that famous?’?

Li Goudan immediately raised his head proudly and said, “You flatter me, you flatter me...”

Nie Liuyun was stunned and thought to himself, when did I praise her?

“I heard that you're only in your early twenties. It's rare for you to have such cultivation at such a young age...” Nie Liuyun put his hands behind his back and said like an elder, “How about this, I won't bully you. How about I let you have three moves?”

In the previous two matches, his martial nephew had just entered the martial arts arena. His opponents were the experienced and experienced Yan brothers, so it was not really embarrassing to lose. However, he had lost two rounds on the first day of Wudang. No matter the reason, it was still a loss of face. Nie Liuyun wanted to use this girl in front of him to show off. He also wanted to let everyone know that Wudang also had people who could make a name for themselves...

Facing this young-looking guy who had a pretentious look on his face, the corners of Li Goudan's mouth twitched. Then, he smiled like a flower and said, “This relationship is good. Then this Goudan won't be polite...”

What the hell is this Goudan?

Nie Liuyun was slightly stunned, but before he could react, Li Goudan, who was dozens of feet away, suddenly appeared in front of him. His speed caused Nie Liuyun's eyelids to twitch!

Li Goudan took a step forward and suddenly threw a punch at Nie Liuyun's chest. His speed was as fast as lightning. Halfway through the punch, his left hand moved even faster and rushed forward. The attack came first and hit directly on Nie Liuyun's face. The move was smooth and impractical. But it was also extremely strange. It was really rare... ..

Nie Liuyun didn't dare to be careless and immediately used the bird's tail. His right foot was firm, and his left foot was weak. He used the "squeeze" formula to stick together. His right palm grabbed Li Goudan's left wrist and used a horizontal force to borrow the force, Li Goudan couldn't help but rush forward in an instant. He immediately exclaimed, "Eh? It can be like this..."

However, his body strangely recovered from the loss of balance. He raised his hand and threw an elbow at Nie Liuyun's face... ..

Nie Liuyun was stunned when he saw this. His face was filled with disbelief.

Just now, his opponent had suddenly crossed a few feet. His punch was extremely powerful. It was clear that his body was as taut as a bowstring. The power of this punch was perfectly displayed from the bottom up. However, this kind of powerful punch was most restrained by the Wudang Soft Fist...

In fact, this girl clearly did not have any experience in fighting with Taiji fist. She had easily been used by Li Goudan to borrow the strength of the sticky force to make her body lose its balance. Theoretically speaking, with the strength of her full-strength attack just now., not to mention falling and eating SH * t, she would have to stagger forward at least four or five steps to stabilize her body, right?

However, Li Goudan had barely taken half a step forward when his body suddenly stopped and continued to attack him. It was like playing LOL, where you had already moved to dodge the old driver's ultimate move. Just as he was about to mock the other party, the other party suddenly made a 180-degree turn and crashed into you again. ...

Nie Liuyun did not expect that his opponent's move would be so swift and violent that he could not react in time. He could only subconsciously stretch out his hand to block it, but he was caught off guard and did not have enough strength! He was directly hit in the face by his opponent's elbow and palm, causing him to fly backwards!

Everyone looked at Nie Liuyun, who had flown nearly ten meters before landing and rolling on the ground a few times. Everything happened so fast that even Nie Liuyun himself could not react in time. Naturally, they could not react in time either. Their senses told them that Nie Liuyun had acted pretentiously and wanted to let the other party attack him three times. In the end, he was sent flying by an elbow strike... ..

"Senior, are you alright?" Li Goudan hurriedly asked. She had not used this body to fight with anyone before. She was not sure if that strength could kill someone. As someone who had no grudges, she naturally did not want to hurt anyone's life, she quickly asked with concern.

"I'm Fine! !" Nie Liuyun stood up like a carp and pulled his finger out of his nose with great effort. As a straight arrow of blood spurted out, Nie Liuyun said seriously, "Again!"

“Eh... Are You Really Alright?” Li Goudan carefully looked at Nie Liuyun who had lost a lot of blood and asked.

“I’m Fine!” After Nie Liuyun suffered another nosebleed, he still raised his head and puffed out his chest, “That little force of yours can’t hurt me. Continue. I said I’ll let you have three moves today, so I’ll let you have three moves!”

Li Goudan: “Oh...”

Chapter 407: completely devoid of physical logic?

“Did you see that girl’s movements clearly?”

Most of the people on the scene did not see clearly what was strange about Li Goudan’s movements. After all, most of the loose cultivators were only at the initial stage of the Xiantian realm, so their eyesight was limited.

However, they could still see clearly the problems of the elders and the Aces of the top sects... ..

At this moment, the one who asked the question in the Wudang Stone Pavilion was elder he songzi. Wang Qing nodded and said, “This little girl is a little strange.”

As insiders who knew Nie liuyun well, they could naturally see the situation clearly. They knew that Nie Liuyun was tricked because of the girl’s unreasonable actions...

The elder nodded solemnly and said, “This girl’s movements are one with her body, there isn’t a trace of excess. Her entire body is like a javelin, able to concentrate her strength at any time. This kind of attack has great lethality, but it requires a very high judgment of the attack. In a duel between experts, unless they go to extremes, they rarely use this kind of method. and Wudang’s soft fist just happens to be the best counter to this kind of attack... .. But..”

Wang Qing also nodded his head solemnly. He understood what his uncle-master was referring to. This Woman’s strange body control ability was extremely unreasonable.

Not only did her own strength come from that move earlier, Nie Liuyun even used the cloud hand to add in her own strength. It was the same as if she didn’t hit you when you were sprinting and you were pushed from behind, a normal person would normally fall to the ground. Even if they had strong control, they would at least need a certain distance to dissolve their own strength. But this girl seemed to be completely illogical, not to mention that she could brake in an instant, she could even turn around and accelerate to the extreme!

This was a little illogical...

Just as he was thinking about it, the second round of battle had already begun. At this moment, Nie Liuyun didn’t dare to be careless in the face of this girl. He circulated the Qi in his entire body to the extreme, paying full attention to every move of his opponent... ..

Li Goudan's movements were still simple and straightforward, but they were extremely efficient. He attacked with quick punches and the shadows of his arms swayed. It was as if there were dozens of arms and dozens of fists striking out at the same time.

When the people present saw such a storm-like attack, they cried out in satisfaction. This kind of straightforward fighting style was obviously more suitable for people like them who were just eating melon seeds... ..

The experts looked deeper. This girl's attacks seemed straightforward, but they contained an extremely high degree of control. Every time she attacked, every time she withdrew her fist, and every time she attacked, it was as smooth as flowing clouds and flowing water. There wasn't the slightest bit of stiffness., it was clear that she had pushed her power to the extreme. She seemed to be a little too complicated and simple. It would be extremely difficult for an ordinary disciple to deal with her.

However, she had to face an expert from Wudang. The profound meaning of Wudang's soft fist was to use defense as an attack, and the profound meaning of using slow to fight fast seemed to be used specifically to counter this type of girl...

At this moment, Nie Liuyun, who was giving it his all, was using tai chi in a smooth and unrestrained manner. He used a single whip, a raised hand, a white crane flapping its wings, and an arm around its knees. Each time, he was able to turn Li Goudan's attacks into formless and invisible...

Although Li Goudan was an assassin in the base, he had yet to develop the patience of a professional assassin. After all, ever since he started his career, regardless of whether he was facing a transcendent from North America or a captain from Red Sun, he would be able to exchange one or two blows with anyone, at this moment, he couldn't help but feel a little irritated when he encountered such a turtle-like fellow.

With his anxious state of mind, there was a gap in his attacks. Although Nie Liuyun was arrogant, he had cultivated for more than 20 years and his patience was still a little higher than Li Goudan. At this moment, when he saw that there was a gap between Li Goudan, his eyes lit up, he instantly seized the opportunity and waved his lute, turning from right to left and then from defense to offense. This offense and defense were flowing smoothly, to the point of perfection. Even the Kunlun Ace Disciples couldn't help but exclaim, "Good!"

Li Goudan was stunned. When he came to his senses, he felt that his upper body was already enveloped by the opponent's two palms. There was no way to dodge, no way to resist. Unless he retreated quickly, his momentum would be weakened, although the assassin had taught them to retreat quickly when they encountered such a situation, this was still an arena after all. The surrounding terrain was square. Once they retreated, they would definitely be counterattacked by the opponent. He had never been in a disadvantageous situation before. Once he fell into such a situation, he might really be defeated in this first round... ..

SH * T... ? There were so many people watching. Most importantly, the Li family was here. If she were to lose the first round, wouldn't she be mocked to death by those guys who had long disliked her?

If it weren't for the fact that everyone was watching, she would have decided to use teleportation to cheat... ..

With no way out, Li Goudan made up his mind and decided to use his strength on his back. He planned to take his palm head-on. At the same time, he swung his right fist fiercely. He only hoped that both of them would take one move each and end up in a situation where both sides would suffer heavy losses.

Nie Liuyun was instantly delighted when he saw this. He knew that his opponent was already at his wit's end, so he immediately steadied his mind and circled his hands, as if he was embracing tai chi. An incomparably powerful force formed a vortex and instantly brought Li Goudan into the air, following that, he pulled his internal force and caused Li Goudan to spin in the air like a Spinning Top!

At this moment, his opponent's body was completely out of balance, and it was a great opportunity for victory. How could Nie Liuyun let go of this opportunity? The instant his right hand pulled the power of the spiral, his left hand gathered power and intended to give his opponent a palm strike to decide the outcome of the battle...

However, he hesitated for a moment before releasing his palm strike. After all, he had promised to give his opponent three moves, and now he was going to break his promise. However, if he gave up on this opportunity to win, he would be a retard... ..

After all, his opponent was not the kind of opponent that he could control. At this moment, he had the upper hand because his opponent had never encountered a person with insufficient experience in soft fist. Once his opponent reacted, it would be hard to say who would win and who would lose... He represented Wudang and was the second trump card other than Wang Qing. If he lost the first round, Wudang's morale would definitely drop.

Thinking of this, he did not hesitate and instantly swung out his palm. However, in the next second, an extremely strange thing happened again. Li Goudan, who had lost his balance and was being pulled by the force, instantly froze in midair. Suddenly, with a strange twist, he twisted away Nie Liuyun's palm...

This wave of manipulation instantly made the experts outside the arena's eyes almost pop out!

When they saw Nie Liuyun's palm strike, the outcome of the battle had already been decided. If they were in Nie Liuyun's place now, they would not know how to turn the situation around!

However, they did not expect the other party to be completely illogical. This person was unable to borrow strength in mid-air under the control of that level of internal energy. How could he possibly escape? If he was in his place, he would at most use a thousand-pound fall to forcefully drop his body from the air. However, this would definitely result in his blood and Qi surging all over his body. He might as well have received that palm strike in mid-air. In the end, the other party forcefully stopped in mid-air and twisted his body... ..

This gave people the feeling that a speeding car at 200 yards on the highway had suddenly lost control and crashed out of the viaduct. Initially, they had thought that it would definitely end with the car being destroyed and people dying. However, they did not expect the other party to suddenly turn around in mid-air and fly back onto the viaduct as if they were talking nonsense... ..

It was completely illogical!! !

Everyone did not expect it, and NIE liuyun naturally did not expect it either. At this moment, he swung his palm and did not think of holding back at all. After being dodged, it was naturally wide open, li Goudan's figure twisted strangely and after the other party's palm, he grabbed the other party's shoulder and instantly returned to the ground. His left hand then grabbed onto Nie Liuyun's soft neck bone!

"Thank you... Little Senior! !"

Chapter 408: Elder Li's expectations

"Luo Fu: Li Jiayi wins!"

"Great! !"The ending was surprisingly reversed. The onlookers immediately applauded, while the people from the big sects were still immersed in the unreasonable actions just now.

Nie Liuyun, who had lost the match, was also dumbfounded at this moment... ..

After being stunned for a long time, Nie Liuyun hurriedly stopped Li Goudan when he saw that he was about to leave the stage. "Hey, wait a minute!"

"Eh?"Li Goudan frowned and looked at the other party. "What?"

He thought to himself, "This kid won't be unconvinced, right?"? Although his victory just now was indeed a little thrilling, but he didn't break the rules, right?

"Just now... How did you do it?"Nie Liuyun quickly asked.

"How did you do what?"Li Goudan asked in surprise.

"That's right... you clearly lost your balance in midair just now. How did you suddenly regain control of your body?"

"Uh... that?"Li Goudan looked at the other party's serious expression as if he was asking for advice. He tilted his head in puzzlement and said, "Is it very rare? Can't you just practice more?"

Nie Liuyun was instantly stunned. He did not know what to say for a moment... ..

'just practice more.'these words seemed to be perfunctory, but they had a profound meaning behind them. This kind of unimaginable skill was naturally something that someone had trained and refined over a long period of time. What was there to ask?

At the thought of this, Nie Liuyun suddenly felt a trace of shame. To be able to do such a thing, this girl who was more than ten years younger than him must have put in hundreds or even thousands of times of effort, while he relied on his little talent to idle away all day. Compared to today's fruit, it seemed to be a coincidence, but in fact, it was inevitable... ..

After thinking clearly, Nie Liuyun took a deep breath and bowed deeply. "Thank you for your guidance, miss. Liuyun is completely convinced of his defeat. From now on, I will strive to catch up. In the future, when I have achieved something in my studies, I will definitely come to you for advice!"

"Uh... oh..." Li Goudan scratched his head in a daze. He kept feeling that Nie Liuyun's expression seemed to have comprehended some great principle. Even his temperament had changed quite a bit, which immediately made her feel somewhat baffled. ...

Inside the Wudang Stone Pavilion, elder he songzi nodded his head in satisfaction as he watched Nie Liuyun's attitude change. Although he had lost this match, he felt that for his little junior brother, the benefits were definitely greater than the disadvantages, after all, this setback was not considered a big setback.

He remembered that he had once heard a rich man say that the greatest waste of effort in this world was to reason with young people, because they would not take a single step less of the detours that needed to be taken. He songzi deeply agreed with this statement... ...

However, there were some setbacks in this world, and some that could not be taken. At this moment, he songzi felt that it was very worthwhile to be able to exchange such a small price for a beginner's heart in cultivation... ... At most, he would just lose a spot in Wudang... ...

On the other hand, old master Li and the others were unable to recover from their emotions. When they saw that Li Goudan had fallen into a disadvantageous position, their hearts could be said to have been pulled to the extreme. In the end, the turn of events was like a roller coaster...

Of course, the outcome was very perfect. The Green Sparrow had defeated Wudang's number two trump card. This battle record was already very impressive. As the official number one seed of the Dragon Group, at least they still had a card to play, it was a great advantage for the Dragon Group's publicity!

The Li family members who had just entered the pavilion had different expressions at this time. Old Master Li nodded to himself. He was naturally pleasantly surprised. After all, Li Jiayi was a member of the Li family, the better her performance, the more important the Li family would be in the sect and in the secular world.

Meanwhile, those Li family members who wanted to see Li Jiayi make a fool of herself were secretly cursing that Wudang Kid as a good-for-nothing...

How could he be considered the number two trump card just like that?

"This kid from the Li family is really amazing..." the one who spoke was the fourth son of the Liu family, Liu Xing's father. At this moment, he looked at Brother Dog and asked with a fake smile, "Shiyu, how are you compared to your senior sister?"

His question was very heart-wrenching. Clearly, he did not like Liu Shiyu very much in his heart. Of course, this was also understandable...

His son was not fated to be in the immortal sect, but the most useless child of the fifth family was doing well. His heart was naturally more and more uncomfortable. When he saw an opportunity, he planned to annoy the other party. His son did not have the aptitude and he could not ask brother dog for help. Therefore, he was not afraid of offending Liu Shiyu... ..

Elder Liu frowned slightly, but he did not scold his son. After all, in front of so many people, he had to give some face. Moreover, he was actually also curious. After all, that child of the Li family was so imposing. He still wanted to know what level his child was at... ..

Brother Dog rubbed his chin and thought for a while, then finally said, "She should be more powerful..."

He was not lying. There were only a few Green Titans in the base who could defeat the shapeshifting elf assassin. After all, highly sensitive people had an absolute advantage in one-on-one duels, especially in the early stages...

As soon as he said this, old man Li's eyes lit up, and he immediately revealed a trace of pride. Elder Liu, on the other hand, was slightly disappointed. He still felt a little uncomfortable after losing to his junior...

"Green Sparrow's cultivation method is different from Shiyu's. It's hard to say who's stronger. Your grandson is just being modest. Elder Liu, you're not conflicted..."virien said with a smile.

"ER... i... I'm not conflicted..."elder Liu's face turned red as he denied it. Elder Li and elder Tian couldn't help but laugh. ...

Elder Liu turned his head away and didn't say anything. He thought to himself, these two old fogies... ..

The Liu family rarely saw elder Liu like this. They were surprised and amused... .. They didn't expect their old master to have such a side to him. ...

While they were enjoying themselves, a proclamation was suddenly announced on the stage: "We invite Lu Xingfeng of the Yunshan sect and Liu Shiyu of the Luofu sect to enter! !"

This proclamation immediately caused the cheerful atmosphere in the room to slightly stagnate. Old Master Liu, who was originally angry and didn't want to speak, immediately became nervous when he heard that his grandson was about to enter the stage. He hurriedly looked at brother dog and said, "Shiyu, are you confident?"

The nearest big sect in the capital was Yunshan. Although elder Liu did not usually like these sects, he still had some understanding of Yunshan's matters. This Lu Xingfeng was the number one ace disciple of Yunshan, and he was also the previous champion of the martial arts demonstration. His reputation was very resounding...

He also did not expect that his grandson would encounter such a hard piece of steel in his first match. He immediately became a little worried.

"It's okay, Grandpa..."brother dog smiled and said, "Even if you can't beat senior sister, it's more than enough to beat an outsider!"

Seeing that his grandson was so confident, Grandpa Liu felt a little relieved, but he still said with a straight face, "There's always someone better than you. Don't be so arrogant just because you have some strength!"

Seeing that his grandpa started to scold him again, Brother Dog smiled bitterly and said, "It's grandpa. I will be careful..."

After saying that, he jumped out of the stone pavilion and watched his grandson leave. Elder Liu opened his mouth and wanted to warn him, "Don't try to be brave if you can't beat him."

However, there were so many people around him and he felt that saying that would weaken his grandson's prestige. In the end, he couldn't say it out loud... ..

Elder Li saw the stubborn old donkey's expression and shook his head slightly. He smiled and said, "Don't worry. Shiyu was able to tie with Hong Tianlu last time. He won't be at a disadvantage against Lu Xingfeng..."

"What am I worried about?" Elder Liu tilted his head and said insincerely, "It's good that that B * Stard Kid lost. It's a good opportunity to learn a lesson. Otherwise, he would really think that he has no limits just because he has some ability..."

"You Old Kid..." elder Li shook his head in amusement. Then, he looked at the arena with an unconcealed look of anticipation on his face.

This brat from the Liu family had already registered for the Dragon Team. If Lu Xingfeng won this battle, then the reputation of the dragon team would be very convincing in the future!

Chapter 409: Divine Weapon, you're not the only one who has it!

"Tianlu, what do you think of this child of the Liu Family?" After brother Gou left the arena, in the stone pavilion of Emei, elder Hong asked this junior of his.

Hong Tianlu looked at brother Gou, who was walking towards the arena, and said with a solemn expression, "I don't know about the others, but his hard body skills are better than mine!"

The surrounding emei disciples were all stunned when they heard this. Although they had seen their senior brother being forced away by Liu Shiyu's palm strike, they had all thought that their senior brother did not dare to use his full strength because he was concerned about senior sister Yan. Now that they had personally heard from their senior brother that he was inferior to the other party, they suddenly found it hard to accept it...

After all, Hong Tianlu's hard body technique was publicly acknowledged as the strongest among the three generations of disciples of the major sects. Now that Emei was declining, their senior brother was already a rare pride of Emei... ..

Elder Hong nodded secretly when he heard this. To be able to face up to one's strength was a rare quality. This was something that many young people could not do... ..

Although this child of his might not be comparable to some heaven's favored ones in terms of aptitude, his advantage was his steadiness and pragmatism... ..

“Then what do you think the chances of this child of the Liu family winning against that Lu Xingfeng?”The elder asked again.

“It’s hard to say...”. Hong Tianlu shook his head and said, “Yunshan sect pays attention to footwork and sword skills, skills and techniques. Lu Xingfeng is extremely talented and highly accomplished. Otherwise, he wouldn’t have been able to win against Situ Ming of Situ clan, who has the inheritance of gold immortal. Now that Lu Xingfeng has broken through to the Earth immortal realm, to be honest, although he has just broken through, not many people can defeat him. Although that kid of the Liu family is strong in hard body skills, he might not have the means to defeat Lu Xingfeng with his skills.” “...”

Elder Hong nodded his head. His disciple’s evaluation was quite accurate. The disciples of the Luofu sect had the benefit of the mystic realm, which could shorten their cultivation time. However, this technique required talent and experience. Although the Liu family’s child’s cultivation had reached this stage, whether or not he had the means to use his cultivation still remained to be seen...

On the other side, the Yunshan sect master was also seriously exhorting his disciple, “That child of the Liu family was able to force Hong Tianlu to retreat last time. His hard body technique must be extraordinary. He must be above you. You must remember not to use your own weakness to attack the enemy’s strength!”

“Your disciple understands. Please rest assured, sect master martial uncle!”Lu Xingfeng nodded and said.

After seeing Li Jiayi’s performance just now, he knew that this Luofu disciple was indeed not that simple. He did not dare to be careless in his heart.

After walking onto the stage, Lu Chenfeng pulled out his long sword and bowed slightly. “Yunshan Lu Changfeng, please teach me!”

As soon as the long sword was drawn, a sword chime soared into the sky. Everyone could instantly tell that it was the Qingfeng sword that Lu Xingfeng had obtained in the mystic realm last time!

They all looked at each other in dismay. There were no restrictions on techniques in the martial arts practice field. There was nothing wrong with a skilled swordsman wielding a sword, but to use such a sharp sword against a bare-handed person was clearly bullying...

In the stone pavilion, Hong Tianlu frowned slightly and said, “This kid from the Yunshan family is really something. With such a sharp weapon in hand, that kid from the Liu family will probably have some difficulty...”

He was a hard body expert himself. He knew in his heart that hard body experts would be at a disadvantage when facing such a divine weapon. They were not good at changing their moves. As long as the opponent’s sword moves were a little strange and their changes were a little unpredictable, they would probably end up with broken limbs!

Brother Dog looked at the other party in a daze...

Lu Xingfeng’s face turned slightly red when he saw Brother Dog’s expression. He said, “This arena doesn’t limit weapons...”

“But your sword... looks a little scary...”brother dog replied in a daze.

He could naturally feel the danger. His physical body would not be able to block this sword...

“Are you going to fight or not?”Lu Xingfeng was instantly angered to the point of embarrassment.

“Fight...”brother dog nodded. “Allow me to take a weapon too...”

Lu Xingfeng was stunned and thought to himself, this fellow is actually good with weapons too. Then, he nodded and put down his long sword slightly, indicating that he would wait for the other party to return to the stage...

However, a silver light suddenly flew out from the stone pavilion of Luofu and instantly stood in front of Brother Dog. When everyone saw it clearly, they realized that it was actually a silver-white iron spear!

“What an ingenious technique! !”In the stone court of Kunlun, the sword immortal elder Li looked at the stone pavilion of Luofu with Bright Eyes and couldn’t help but exclaim in admiration.

That long spear was made of pure iron. From its texture, it seemed to weigh at least a hundred kilograms. When it was thrown from such a high position, its speed was as fast as a silver ray, but when it landed on the ground, it didn’t make a single sound. This technique of lifting something heavy as if it were light was really ingenious to the extreme. If it were him, he would probably find it difficult to do it...

On the field, brother dog grinned and lifted the long spear. After testing its texture, he was instantly extremely satisfied. He looked curiously at the stone pavilion, not knowing when this long spear was made.

In the base, the Green Titan’s long spear was four meters long and weighed more than a thousand kilograms. It was obviously not suitable for his short body. However, the length and weight of the spear in front of him were exceptionally suitable for him, it was obvious that the Lord had prepared for this. Brother Dog’s heart immediately warmed.

However, as soon as he held it in his hand, he heard a familiar electronic voice say, “A high-quality long spear. The selling price is five thousand points!”!

Brother Dog’s face immediately turned black. “This piece of junk costs 5,000 points?”

AI replied, “This is a high-quality spear that blacksmith Grandmaster Dabao personally made for you in the base. The price is absolutely fair...”

“I don’t Believe You!”Brother Dog rolled his eyes. However, he could not say no in this situation. Otherwise, he might be cut into a pillar if he fought with his bare hands...

After sighing, he could only hold back his heartache and secretly click on the buy confirmation button...

“You actually use a gun?”Lu Xingfeng was slightly stunned when he saw this.

Logically speaking, for a hard body expert like the other party, even if he used a weapon, it should be a relatively heavy weapon, right? For example, an iron rod that weighed a few hundred pounds was more logical. A weapon like a long spear that pursued the feel and technique wasn't something that a hard body expert should use.

"You have a problem with that?" Brother Dog rolled his eyes at the other party. He did not have a good impression of this guy who had caused him to lose a few thousand points... ..

He pointed his long spear and said coldly, "You can fight now!"

"Then I have offended you! !" Seeing that the other party also had a weapon, Lu Xingfeng no longer felt any burden in his heart. He circulated the inner strength in his body and made an inviting gesture. Then, he no longer held back and attacked the other party with his sword.

The spear was a long weapon, and the sword was a gentleman's weapon. There was a natural disadvantage in the attack range. If he wanted to defeat his opponent, he had to gain an advantageous distance as soon as possible.

As he stabbed his sword, the green light emitted a sizzling sound. The strength of his inner strength was so strong that he did not look like an Earth immortal who had just advanced.

Everyone was shocked. They thought to themselves that this kid surnamed Lu from Yun Shan was indeed not simple. The Green Peak Sword in his hand was not only a treasure that could cut gold and jade, but also a piece of scrap metal. Under this kind of inner strength, it would definitely be unstoppable!

Seeing this, brother dog smiled slightly. The long spear in his hand moved, and like a silver dragon, it instantly pierced towards Lu Xingfeng with a cold light!

"Good spear technique! !" Lu Xingfeng's pupils constricted, and he could not help but praise in his heart. Of course, he also became more vigilant. This was a hard body technique expert, and with such spear technique cultivation, it was indeed not so easy to win...

Thinking of this, he flicked his wrist and flipped his sword. His sword move instantly changed from an aggressive thrust to an oblique slash. Clearly, he wanted to use the sharpness of his sword to break the opponent's weapon and gain the upper hand!

When the other ace disciples in the distance saw this scene, they couldn't help but shake their heads. This kind of trickery wasn't the bearing a swordsman should have. No wonder Lu Xingfeng's sword technique attainment was extremely high, but he didn't walk the path of a sword immortal...

On the other hand, Yunji mu sighed inwardly when she saw this scene. She could understand her senior brother's trickery. After all, as the number one ace of Cloud Mountain, he was under a lot of pressure, but... .. You're not the only one who has a divine weapon...

Bang! !

In the next second, a scene that no one expected happened. When Lu Xingfeng's green peak sword slashed at the opponent's spear shaft, it was as if it had collided with a piece of iron glass, instantly breaking into several pieces... ..

Chapter 410: Qin Xuanji requests an audience

“This...”

No one had expected this scene. They had thought that Lu Xingfeng was using his sharp weapon to bully others, but they did not expect the outcome to be like this in the next second...

For a moment, the disciples of the large sects were stunned speechless, not knowing what to say...

Lu Xingfeng stared blankly at the spearhead pointing at his throat, not knowing what to say for a moment. He wanted to say that the other party was shameless and that he could not stand up for reason, and he wanted to say that this did not count... .. He really did not have the face...

He looked at the spearhead at his throat. The cold light that could not be covered by the sunlight came to an abrupt stop at his throat. Although it made his body feel cold, he did not even suffer the slightest injury... ..

He not only sighed in his heart, ‘what a brilliant mastery of spearmanship...’.

He thought that if the two of them had a proper and fair battle today, this might be a battle that was worth remembering... ..

In his confusion, Lu Xingfeng suddenly felt a trace of regret... ..

“Thank you!” Brother Dog did not add insult to injury after putting away his gun. He smiled and saluted.

“I’m ashamed...” Lu Xingfeng looked at the fragment on the ground and then at the other party. In the end, he saluted bitterly and swallowed this terrible ending...

On the stage, sect master Yunshan also had a complicated look on his face. He had never expected such an outcome. That Luo Fu could actually bring out a weapon that was even more powerful than the mystical realm... ..

Such a dramatic effect would probably turn his disciple’s martial arts performance this year into a joke...

Originally, the most brilliant junior of his Yunshan sect had broken through to the Earth immortal realm to compete with the proud sons of the world. Now that he had lost the original intention of being a warrior and the victory, he suddenly regretted putting too much pressure on this junior... ..

He did not know if he could survive this time...

This was what the elders who cared about Lu Xingfeng thought, but the people from other sects were not in the mood to pay attention to Lu Xingfeng. At this time, they all looked at the long spear in Brother Dog’s hand, their eyes shining... ..

The weapons in the mystic realm were forged by ancient Qi cultivators, and they had incredible craftsmanship and power. The secret treasures in the hands of the twelve gold immortals all came from the mystic realm. Although the weapons in Lu Xingfeng’s hand were not the top-tier secret treasures in the mystic realm, they were still weapons forged in the ancient times, they were far from being comparable to modern weapons. An ordinary person could cut through gold and stone with the long sword in Lu Xingfeng's hands, but such a divine weapon could not even last a single round against the opponent's weapon. It was evident how high the quality of the opponent's weapon was!

From the looks of it, this Luofu secret realm was definitely not inferior to Kunlun, and might even be more impressive. At the thought of this, the elders of the major sects became even more eager.

This year's quota must think of ways to get more is it! !

After the dog brother came back, he saw his old man's face full of red light and old Li was talking about something, apparently some high-spirited feeling.

No matter what means to use, their grandson can beat Yunshan Ace, this is really a matter worthy of bragging!

At first, he thought that his grandson was still young and that it would take some time for him to revitalize the Liu family. Elder Liu was already prepared not to see this day. However, even though he was prepared, he could not help but feel a little regretful in his heart...

However, he did not expect his grandson to be so capable. From the looks of it, he would be able to see something he wanted to see in his lifetime.

When he thought of this, elder Liu wanted to live a few more years...

"Old Liu, you're really blessed. In that case, you can't put on airs for me when Shiyu joins the Dragon Group in the future, right..." elder Li said with a smile.

"Heh, you don't put on airs for me much?" Elder Liu said smugly with a flushed face.

"Heh, you old brat, you don't remember when I was good, right?"

Brother Dog had just returned, and when he saw his old man so happy, his heart warmed slightly. This feeling of being able to make his elders feel proud of him was not bad at all...

To be honest, he had never thought that he would have such a day in the past... ..

Now that he thought about it, although that Lord was heartless, he had indeed changed him too much...

...

At the side, Vivian sipped her tea and smiled as she watched all of this. She did not say anything, but she was secretly constantly reporting the situation to the Lord in the base.

After all, she was not just here to make a scene. Collecting information was also one of the missions of this trip.

On the other side, the lord seer carefully and repeatedly watched the battle scenes of the disciples of the sect that Vivian recorded.

The more he watched, the more he felt that the game was strange...

The strange thing was not about combat techniques. Native combat techniques were very common. Any civilization would usually have a set of combat techniques that belonged to them, after all, any civilization was basically slowly transformed from the era of cold weapons. It was just that planets with high energy content were stronger, and their usage of power was more complicated.

However, most of these combat techniques were of little value. After all, the Federation had developed for so many eras, and the most efficient combat techniques developed from the history of various races were definitely the most scientific, very few indigenous planets could be used for reference in this aspect.

However, the D ball was indeed interesting, especially the soft fist technique of the Wudang disciples. It seemed to have a lot of value for development...

However, Qing que had won too quickly and could not gather any more data. As for the other Wudang matches, they were not very valuable either. After all, the three matches were internal fights, and the opponent had directly made the ball admit defeat. As for the other two matches, the experience and techniques of the two kids were far inferior to that Nie Liuyun... And they had lost too quickly. ...

Should he include Nie Liuyun in the game?

Xi Ye thought about it and eventually shook her head and rejected it. In the current situation, it was too risky to join a sect, and it would affect the overall situation...

Thinking of this, Xi Ye contacted Virion and gave her a mission...

On the other side, after the first day of the competition was almost over, the various elders of Kunlun were discussing the name list for the next day.

Under their planning, the major sects had lost one-third of their spots in the internal strife alone. In addition to some of the people who were eliminated by Kunlun themselves, almost half of the remaining people were from Kunlun.

They had to carefully consider the arrangements for the next day... ..

Since most of the twelve gold immortals had yet to recover from their serious injuries, the task of taking care of the spots was handed over to the Patriarch of Situ clan, at this moment, elder Situ looked at the elders who were sitting under him with a slightly hoarse voice and said softly, "The end is coming soon. How do you think the quota for the next day should be arranged?"

As soon as he put down the Teacup, the woman who had been standing guard next to him went up to refill the Teacup. The one who refilled the Teacup for the elders was Li Xiaoqian.

Looking at the woman who had a coquettish look on her face, patriarch situ frowned slightly. Usually, the elders would cover up when they took in the cauldron. They rarely showed off like elder Li did. Moreover, this time, the Elders Council actually took the initiative to ask her to serve tea. It was obvious that they intended to groom her. They were probably planning to take her as a dual cultivation partner...

This woman named Li Xiaoqian had been mentioned to him by her own junior. She had a bad character and was a sex slave in the mortal world. Naturally, no one would say anything if she was used as a cauldron. However, if she were to be a partner with elder Li's identity, then Li Xiaoqian would definitely be an elder of Kunlun in the future... ..

In her opinion, it was very inappropriate for such a tainted figure to become the wife of an elder... ..

However, elder Li's attitude this time was very tough. It was clear that he wanted the approval of the older generation. As one of the outstanding elders of the younger generation of Kunlun, Li Changqing was currently in the limelight. At the age of 131, he had already broken through to the Heaven Immortal realm, moreover, he was the type of sword immortal that was the most difficult to cultivate. This was rare in the history of cultivation. It was very likely that he would enter the twelve gold immortal realm in a hundred years.

To be honest, elder situ didn't really want to offend such a figure... "...". Therefore, although he didn't have a good impression of this woman, he didn't show it.

"Now that many disciples from various sects have been eliminated, there must be no more internal strife in the second round..."elder Li was the first to speak. "Otherwise, it would be too late..."

"HMM..."situ nodded. "Elder Li is right..."

Li Xiaoqian felt even more delighted when she saw that her old man had such a high status. It seemed that the rumors were true. Elder Li's status in Kunlun was indeed high... ..

Just as she was thinking, someone suddenly rushed in from outside. The person was handsome and had a scholarly temperament. Everyone looked and saw that it was Su Ruoyu, one of the three core disciples of Kunlun,

"Ruoyu, is something the matter?"Elder situ frowned when he saw the child. Among all the disciples, this child knew his limits. Logically, he should not be so reckless to disturb the Elder Council.

"Elder..."Su Ruoyu hesitated for a moment and said strangely, "The sect master of Luofu Xuanji sect, Qin Xuanji, requests to see you!"

"Oh?"Elder Situ's pupils constricted slightly...
