

A Bunch 411

Chapter 411: I would like to ask for a favor from your sect...

“Interesting...”elder Li smiled. “You came to visit us on the first day of the competition. Do you want to protest against the injustice of Kunlun?”

All the elders smiled when they heard this. The martial arts of Kunlun had always been unfair. Didn't the other sects have to endure it? Now, Luo Fu really thought that they were nothing. Did Kunlun want to treat them differently?

“Go and answer her. If she's here to argue, then you can go back!”Elder Li smiled.

If he smiled when he heard this, the Elders' attitude was similar to what he had expected. In fact, he was too lazy to come in and report it. However, that sect master Luo Fu was too good-looking, so he couldn't refuse for a moment...

Just as he was about to respond to elder Li's words, Patriarch Situ, who had been silent all this time, suddenly said, “No, go and invite her in. Be a little more humble...”

When he said this, everyone was stunned. Among the Twelve Gold Immortals, the Situ clan was usually the most arrogant one. He had always looked down on other sects, but now, this attitude made them a little surprised.

Looking at the stunned expressions of the elders, elder situ could not help but sigh in his heart. It had to be said that Kunlun used to be too self-important. Now, they could not see the situation clearly at all. A sect that could make the patriarch return empty-handed., could they be treated the same as other sects?

Moreover, this sect Master Qin was not a kind person. He still remembered the divine ability she used to snatch the heaven overturning seal. Now, all the golden immortals were in closed-door cultivation. If they really caused a ruckus, to be honest... She might not be able to suppress them just based on the things that were present... ..

Soon, Wei Lin was led into the Hall by Su Ruyan. When the group of elders saw Wei Lin dressed in green, they could not help but take a deep breath.

Although they had heard from the people in the town that this sect Master Qin Xuanji was as beautiful as a celestial immortal, when they saw him, they felt that this rumor was not exaggerated at all. Such beauty could not be described without the word 'celestial'...

Even elder Li was stunned, and a trace of eagerness flashed in his eyes...

When Li Xiaoqian saw this, a trace of haze flashed in her eyes... ..

It was this appearance again! ! !

It was not the first time she had seen the appearance of an elf. The last time Wang Goudan appeared as an elf, she had been shocked. With that appearance, she was afraid that she would not be able to draw such beauty, even though she had cultivated the enchantment.., moreover, she was extremely talented. However, whenever she looked in the mirror and thought of Wang Goudan's appearance back then, she would feel bored...

And now, she was in such a state. Although this Qin Xuanji was very different from Goudan, the flavor of this beauty was somewhat similar. This luofu must have a top-notch beauty art!

When she thought of this, Li Xiaoqian wanted to enter that sect even more... ..

"Greetings, elder situ, greetings, Elders!"Virien smiled and bowed, using the unique etiquette of the space elves. Her posture was graceful, and her movements were generous, which made people's eyes light up.

With her exceptional appearance and etiquette, her temperament instantly rose to another level... ..

"She's really a beauty..."elder li smiled and said, "I wonder if she has a dual cultivation partner?"

The faces of the surrounding elders twitched when he said this. Situ, who was at the head of the group, couldn't help but cover his head. Elder Li was good at everything except for the fact that he was lustful... ..

"Never..."Qin Xuanji looked at him with a smile, but he wasn't annoyed by his frivolous words... ..

As a space elf, he had been seduced by countless people in school. Elder Li was nothing... ..

"Sect Master Qin is so beautiful, but he doesn't have a partner. Is there a reason for that?"Seeing that the other party wasn't annoyed, elder Li's eyes lit up and he continued to ask with a smile.

"I have yet to find a man who meets the requirements..."

"Oh?"Elder li smiled even more happily. "May I know what sect Master Qin's requirements are?"

Virien smiled and gently raised her right hand to form a sword finger. At that moment, the entire hall suddenly rang with the sound of sword chimes!

All the elders were shocked when they heard this because they could feel that the sword chimes came from their respective swords!

Before they could react in time, countless sword lights shot into the sky and gathered in Vivian's hand. What happened next was even more unbelievable...

The swords gathered at the tip of Vivian's finger and melted like flowing water into a single point. More than ten swords finally turned into a golden core-shaped object in front of their stunned expressions!

"This is..."

Virien smiled slightly. "To be able to do this, you must be able to meet the requirements of Xuanji..."as she spoke, she gently pointed at the newly born golden core, the golden core floated towards elder Li like a fallen leaf. Elder Li subconsciously reached out to receive it, but then he suddenly felt a strong force from the golden core, causing him to suddenly pull his hand back, with a loud bang, the entire hall shook like an earthquake, and the pill-sized golden core smashed into a huge pit beneath elder Li's feet!

Everyone was instantly shocked, and elder Li even sucked in a breath of cold air. That small golden core, that weight just now was probably at least a million Jin!

This is... What divine ability?

Vivian smiled faintly. The thing she used was not some profound technique in the federation. It was just the most commonly seen material exchange technique in alchemy. Adding her level 5 mental strength, she had forcibly converted the material attributes of these treasured swords, becoming a higher grade metal was actually very common in the field of alchemy.

However, in the eyes of the people of Kunlun, this was no different from turning a stone into gold!

"This is high-grade Kang Jin, a material used to forge high-grade divine weapons. I came in a hurry and didn't bring any gifts. I hope you don't mind..." Vielin said with a smile.

Elder Situ put away his shock and looked at her deeply. This woman was really like what her senior brother had said, a top-notch master blacksmith. Thinking of this, she took a deep breath and said with a smile, "I'm afraid this little bit is not enough to forge a weapon, right?"

"You can also forge a treasured weapon by melting a little and adding other weapons to temper it!" Virien said with a smile.

"Are you here to show off your skills, Sect Master Qin?" A white-browed elder beside her asked in a deep voice.

"Of course not..." Virien said with a smile, "I'm here to make a list of the members of your sect!"

Hearing this, everyone's faces were shocked...

This guy really came to make a scene?

Then, their faces turned serious. Judging from the other party's move just now, he was probably at least a gold immortal. It was probably true that big brother Zhang suffered a loss at her hands... ..

"Sect Master Qin, do you have any advice?" Situ narrowed his eyes and asked. As the only gold immortal present, he couldn't be afraid...

"I don't deserve your advice. I just want to ask your sect for a favor..."

"What favor?" Situ frowned.

"I want your sect to arrange Daoist Wang Qing to be on the list of any disciples of my sect for tomorrow's match..."

"Huh?"

Chapter 412: The Yunshan sect, which was in a dire situation

“What... Did you say just now?”Elder situ didn’t react immediately. ...

She had thought of many possibilities. Perhaps the other party was dissatisfied with Kunlun’s blatant cheating and came to make trouble, or perhaps he came to ask them not to continue to make things difficult for the disciples of Luofu. She didn’t expect that he would take the initiative to ask for more difficulties for his own disciples... ...

This wudang Wang Qing was the one who had entered the Earth immortal realm the longest among all the participating disciples. Moreover, the Wudang’s cultivation method was particular about the long-term flow of water and the accumulation of experience. After all these years of accumulation, regardless of cultivation base or experience, Wang Qing could already stand shoulder to shoulder with the first-rate elders of the major sects. He was a dark horse in this competition, even for the three core disciples of her family., perhaps only the first seat of the Jiang family had a chance of winning!

She hadn’t expected that the other party would actually ask to meet Wang Qing in the early stages. ...

After pausing for a moment, elder situ frowned and said, “Sect leader Qin, why are you doing this? If you feel that our arrangement this time isn’t very reasonable, we can treat your disciples well tomorrow. After all, it’s a partnership...”

After pausing for a moment, he continued, “The previous arrangement was because it’s your sect’s first time participating in the martial arts competition. It’s not convenient to treat them well directly. We’re afraid that we’ll be exposed...”

When he said this, even the elders rolled their eyes. This Kunlun sect was already shameless. When had they ever been afraid of being exposed?

“There’s no need for that...”Qin xuanji smiled and said, “Our sect is still quite confident in the disciples participating in the competition. It’s the same no matter how we arrange it...”

What a big tone! !

All the elders were instantly displeased. They had watched the competition between the disciples of Luo Fu before. Although they did have some skills, they were definitely not from the top batch. Chen Yutong was fighting against a new disciple of Kongtong. It was hard to tell what was going on. The Liu family’s disciple was able to win today purely because of the weapon in his hand. And although that Green Sparrow’s performance was quite stunning, that was all he could do... ...

He was exaggerating so much that he was not afraid of losing his tongue!

“I wonder why it’s Wang Qing?”Situ asked curiously.

“It’s not convenient for me to tell you this. I hope that your sect can give me a favor on account of our cooperation...”virien said with a smile.

“Since sect leader Qin has come to tell me personally and even gave me such an important gift, I still have to give you this favor...”elder Situ said with a fake smile.

“Then, thank you, elder Situ...”Wei Lin smiled slightly and didn’t stay any longer. Then, she left.

After Wei Lin left for about 15 minutes, the elders finally came back to their senses. The white-browed elder frowned and asked, "She really agreed?"

"With her formation, if she doesn't agree, who among you has the confidence to defeat her in a real fight?" Situ said unhappily.

"Uh..." the elders were speechless. With her move just now, only the elder could say that she could be suppressed... ..

"Moreover, her request isn't too much..." situ sneered, "We can also see how strong this Luo Fu Disciple is!"

"Then... who should we arrange to fight against Wang Qing?" The gray-robed elder who was in charge of the formation asked weakly.

"Let's let that Chen Yu Tong fight against Wang Qing..." Situ said in a deep voice, "She seems to be the one who has hidden the deepest among the three disciples. There's no information from the outside world, only that she's an assassin. We can use Wang Qing to see what her level is!"

"Okay!"

"What about the other sects?"

Situ said, "Just like what elder Li said, it's better not to overdo it. Let's not arrange internal strife this time. Let's arrange it normally and try to divert the fight between the trump cards!"

"Yes!"

In the room of the Yunshan sect:

Sect Master Yun looked at the remaining three disciples, he sighed and took out the name list. "Yun Ji, tomorrow, you will face Yan Xiaofeng of Mao Mountain. Although this woman has not entered the Earth immortal realm, she is the famous No. 3 seed of Mao Mountain. Her lightning talisman technique is quite sharp. Although you have entered the Earth immortal realm, you must not be careless!"

At present, Lu Xingfeng of Yun Mountain had flipped over. Yun Ji could be considered as the last face of his Yun Mountain. If she lost again, she might not even be able to get one of the top 32 spots of this year's Yun Mountain... ..

"I understand!" Yun Ji hurriedly said.

"Chen Shuang is against Helian Cheng of Wudang. This boy has entered the Xiantian realm for many years and has participated in a total of 14 martial arts practice sessions. Last time, he lost to your senior sister by half a move. His strength is definitely not to be underestimated. You also have to be careful..."

Lu Chen Shuang snorted. "If senior sister can win, I can win!"

She didn't know when, but she had already called Mu Yunji senior sister... ..

“As for you, Wu Sheng...”sect master Xiao frowned. “Tomorrow’s opponent will be Celestial Master Zhang Lingyu. You just have to do your best. Don’t force it...”

Wu Sheng:” ...”

“Master...”Mu Yunji immediately frowned. “Isn’t this formation a bit...”

It was obvious that apart from Yunji herself, the remaining three were all tough opponents. However, the battle tomorrow was about the top 32. It was obvious that this formation was a little malicious... Especially Wu Sheng’s opponent, who was the trump card of the Celestial Master sect... ..

“There’s nothing we can do...”. Elder Yun sighed. “After the first round, Kunlun will have to appease the resentment of the major sects. Obviously, the disciples of the other major sects will be given priority in the formation. However, if someone takes advantage of the formation, someone will have to sacrifice themselves. After weighing the pros and cons, the ones who will be sacrificed are naturally sects like us who don’t have a deep foundation!”

Hearing this, Mu Yun Ji’s face immediately sank. Although she knew that this was the truth, she still felt a little uncomfortable...

Looking at his disciple’s appearance, elder Yun sighed in his heart. Tomorrow, apart from Mu Yun Ji, the other three disciples were all in danger. Lu Chen Shuang might still have a 30-40 chance, but the other two... ..

Sigh...

In the end, her foundation was too weak...

“Yunji... are you on good terms with that Luofu disciple?”Sect Master Yun suddenly asked.

Mu Yunji was stunned, and then she nodded. “Not bad...”

“If it’s possible, you are alone in the mystic realm this time, so try to rely on Luofu. If your junior sister Chenshuang is lucky enough to win tomorrow, you can rely on Luofu with her. Remember to take good care of your junior sister!”Sect Master Yun Sighed.

“I don’t need her to take care of me!”Lu Chen Shuang curled her lips and said, “And... What do you mean by lucky enough to win? Don’t you think highly of me?”

Sect Master Yun looked at this young girl helplessly. To be honest, he really didn’t think highly of her. Chen Shuang had excellent talent in Sword Dao, but she was very restrained against Wudang...

“Speaking of Luo Fu...”sect master Yun suddenly frowned and said, “Logically speaking, they shouldn’t be targeted when they cooperate with the Kunlun mystic realm this time, but when I saw the list just now, I felt...”

“What?”The disciples immediately asked curiously.

“I just saw that Wang Qing of Wudang is going to fight against Luofu Tomorrow...”

“Eh...”

“Chen Yutong?” In the Wudang House, elder he songzi looked at the list of opponents tomorrow and immediately had a puzzled look on his face. “Strange, strange...”

“Theoretically, it shouldn’t be arranged like this!” He songzi frowned and said, “I took a look at the formations of the major sects. Just as I expected, Kunlun had made reasonable arrangements to appease the dissatisfaction of the major sects on the second day of the formation, but it just had to be arranged like this by my Wudang...” “...”

Chapter 413: “This is a black sheep.”

The Kunlun martial arts competition was going on like fire and tea. The foot of the mountain was actually not peaceful either. The main focus of the chaos was still on City C. First, there was a large-scale missing person case recently.

With the help of the unscrupulous media, the people of City C had been feeling anxious recently.

Then there was the incident of many people surrounding the Ming Hua community. The specific reason seemed to be that a player named little cabbage had been attacked by human flesh on the Internet. The incident of being surrounded by a large number of second-generation rich people was quite interesting to talk about...

It was said that even the four young masters of the capital city had come to join in the fun and shouted for 200 million just to get a spot in the inner circle. Not only were there second-generation rich people, there were also many beta testers from large internet companies who wanted to buy a spot on behalf of the company...

At this moment, in a hair salon city two streets away from the community, a middle-aged man in a suit rubbed his head in slight distress.

Most people who frequented online entertainment companies would recognize this person. His name was Tang Kaimin, the director of the Planning Department of the Internet Disaster Company. He was very famous in the industry... ..

He came here to buy a few spots...

It was confirmed that this game had been taken over by a small studio, and behind this small studio was a large pharmaceutical company.

This made things a lot more complicated. Now, they either had to create a new game called snipe, or they had to find a way to negotiate a wave of acquisitions at a high price. From the spread of pictures and word of mouth... It was probably unrealistic to rely on technology to break through, but if they wanted to buy it, they would have to pay a high price to buy this studio from the boss of a large pharmaceutical company...

Therefore, they needed a certain amount of information to decide. Although from the online game intelligence, this game had the value of subverting the market, but the specific details of whether this game was as amazing as the online hype.., this was something that they had to test themselves to find out. They couldn't just listen to the netizens and the evaluation company bragging, could they?

When they entered the game, what were the advantages of this game? What exactly was going on? What should they do in the future? Should they poach the design team's employees or investigate the engine they used, or should they simply purchase the studio from the high-rise? They would have to see the value of the game before they could make a judgment.

Unfortunately, the game had not opened the quota for a long time, so they had been unable to obtain more information. It was not easy for the quota to be released. The next day, when he received the news, he personally came to City C, wanting to negotiate with that player. He wanted to buy two quotas...

But now he had encountered some problems...

Those rich second-generation kids really did not treat money as money...

Two days ago, young master Wang, who had surrounded the residential area, had already shouted that he wanted to buy 200 million. This greatly increased the difficulty of this mission. To be honest, it was really unprecedented for a closed beta account to be sold for 200 million. If this was deliberately done by the operator, it felt like he was a marketing genius... ..

He couldn't help but want to poach that genius to work online... ..

He sighed and closed his eyes to feel the massage from the shampoo girl. He felt a little relieved. Although there weren't many strands of hair left, he still needed to take care of them...

Just as he relaxed a little, a conversation outside the barber shop attracted his attention.

"Hairdresser..."

"Oh, beauty, please take a seat. Are you familiar with a hairdresser?"The boss asked immediately.

"No!"

"Then I'll cut it for you?"

"How much do you get?"The voice on the other side asked vigilantly.

"Hey, same as other hairdressers..."

"Oh, okay..."

"What do you plan to do today, beauty?"

"Don't Perm her hair, don't dye her hair, don't do nutrition, don't get a membership card, don't buy hair accessories, and only cut her hair short. From now on, whichever one of us speaks first is the bastard. Alright, you can start cutting..."

The Boss:"..."

This woman is a passionate person...

Tang Kaimin, who was washing his hair, thought to himself:

But suddenly, he felt like he had heard this voice somewhere before... .. After hesitating for a few seconds, he suddenly realized, what the... ? ... wasn't this the voice of that little cabbage?

Although she had been hiding for a few days, Tang Kaimin still remembered her voice. He hurriedly sat up, not even paying attention to the foam on his head as he hurriedly ran over.

He had guessed correctly. This hairdresser was indeed little cabbage. At this time, she, who was wearing a mask and sunglasses, saw a bald man with a head full of foam running over to her, she was so scared that she grabbed the hair dryer next to her and threatened, "You... What are you doing?"

"Eh... Excuse Me, is this Ms. Lu Xiaoke?"

Little cabbage looked at him in surprise and took off her mask. "You can recognize me even with this? Who Are You?"

"Haha..."Tang Kaimin quickly took out a business card from his wallet and handed it over. "I'm Tang Kaimin, the planning director of the Internet Disaster Group..."

"Planning director?" Bai Cai was stunned. He took the business card and looked at it. The business card was very high-end. It was completely different from the business cards of the agents on the street. Then, he looked at the loose hair on the other party's head. He felt that the credibility seemed to have increased by a few points... ..

"Internet Disaster Group?" Bai Cai frowned. "It sounds a little familiar... oh..." Bai Cai suddenly came to a realization.

"Ahem... Ms. Lu, the main reason I came this time is for the quota in your hands..." Tang Kaimin put aside the topic and smiled.

Bai Cai gossiped excitedly.

It's not over yet, is it?

"Ahem... Ms. Lu, how about we talk about the invitation quota? We're here with sincerity this time. The price is easy to negotiate..."

"That's what I want to hear..." little cabbage looked at him in a daze.

Tang Kaimin:"..."

To be honest, if it were any other person in the industry, Tang Kaimin would have turned hostile long ago if they were to talk about the other party's sore spot. However, he couldn't do anything about this person in front of him. It was said that he was a medical student, he had nothing to do with their industry. He was just a passerby. What could he do if he was put in a difficult position by such a person?

The key was that the thing he wanted was still in his hands... ..

“Ms. Lu, this humble one is a planner. You said that the human resources department is mainly in charge of that matter. I don’t know much more than you. If you want to know more about our company’s game planning, this humble one can chat with you slowly...” “...”

“Planner?” Little cabbage was stunned for a moment before he reacted. “Then tell me, who was the planner of that SH * t-like vote in your game?”

It’s over...

Tang mingliang suddenly had a headache. It seemed that this was a person who knew little about the internet... ..

Chapter 414: the persistence of little cabbages

Yi Shuihan’s vote had always been a trick of the industry. It was so shameless that even penguin, who was used to scamming people, had to admit defeat...

This matter was traced back to after Penguin’s defeat in the game, netnan had also released a martial arts-type virtual online game. Although the screen displayed during the test was not much better than that of heavenly blade., however, after everyone was disappointed with Tian Dao, many people still turned their attention to internet cafe.

After all, many people were still very tolerant of domestic wuxia-type games. It was just like how the national football team could not get into the world cup several times, but the people still had hope for it.

In the end, during the test, internet cafe’s godly operation came. At that time, he launched a round of voting, allowing the players to choose whether to charge for a point card or for a prop...

This operation was very popular at the beginning. A bunch of people hated the tool that broke the balance of the game, so they supported the point card charge with tears in their eyes. After all, for many of the domestic whoremongers,. This was definitely a breakthrough in their support... ..

Then, the result was unexpected. Online difficult first announced the point card charge. However, considering that there were quite a number of players who charged for the item, in order to not disappoint the other players,! Internet Explorer decided to adopt a two-way charging system!

In other words, it would charge a fee for a card and also open a tool store!

This operation had shocked everyone’s worldview. Even many of the planners who had been in the planning circle for many years were shocked. They thought to themselves, “How can this be?”?

Of course, this matter had happened many years ago. The new generation usually did not know about it. Moreover, the people who had been scammed were only a small number of people who had participated in the inner circle, tang Kaimin did not expect that the person he was going to discuss business with this time would be one of the victims from back then. Looking at the unfriendly expression on little cabbage’s face, Tang Kaimin could not help but sigh, “Could it be God’s will?”?

Unfortunately, little cabbage was indeed one of the victims from back then. At that time, little cabbage was still in junior high school and had yet to enter her long and arduous schedule of studying medicine for eight years. She had also been infatuated with wuxia games, she clearly remembered that her breakfast money was only five yuan at that time. Every time, she had to be frugal in order to save some money on the internet bill.

At that time, she had made a lot of decisions in choosing to support a game to charge for a point card, but in the end, this wave of online difficult games... .. It made her so angry that she swore that she would never play online games again.

Only then did she start to study hard and improve every day. She was admitted to Shanghai Medical University and read an eight-year-old serial book... ..

Of course, just this matter alone was actually fine. After all, it had been many years. The thing that really made little cabbage have a bad impression of this company was the recent incident of the employee dismissing her!

After all, she was once a low-level figure. She had been working as an intern in a tertiary grade a hospital for a few years, earning a salary from eating instant noodles and doing all kinds of hard work just for the sake of the hospital becoming a full-time employee, she had dreamed countless times that the hospital director would suddenly say to her after she had worked for five years, "You're not suitable for the hospital!!"

Therefore, little cabbage was very sympathetic to this example of the upper class deliberately squeezing the bottom-level interests. It was because she was afraid that one day, this kind of unfair thing would fall on her head.

It didn't matter if she was a fox mourning the death of a rabbit or filled with righteous indignation. After little cabbage learned that the other party was a person who was in trouble with the Internet, she immediately blacklisted the other party... ..

Before she returned to reality, she had discussed with the liver emperor what kind of people she should use this slot to recruit.

Players' evolutionary ability was the strongest. In the future, the upper echelons of the various factions would definitely be players as well. Recruiting suitable players to work together would definitely be beneficial for their future development. As for who to recruit, that slot was precious., they would definitely have to think twice.

Now that the tribe had the emperor of the liver, they did not have a pressing need for high-level warriors. The only things that they lacked in their development period were research-type and management-type talents.

The direction of research-type talents was relatively clear. When the time came, they would choose which civilization to recruit. The emperor of the liver had already used the money from the land farmers to register a company. He was preparing to go to the school with little cabbage to recruit a wave of talents after the New Year.

However, management talents could not be recruited in the school. More and more stray beasts came to seek refuge in the small base, and there were more and more contradictions between the classification of grades and the planning of each type of labor. Little cabbage felt that she really needed a perfect system to manage her small tribe now... ..

Therefore, she might be very interested in being the planning director of a normal company. After all, she was definitely more reliable than those rich second-generation children... ..

But if it was a director who had trouble with the Internet...

Emmm

Although many black-hearted bosses would like this kind of management talent who cheated money from the outside and was unkind to the inside, she had just climbed out of the pit of a miserable employee and her psychology had not yet changed to the level of a capitalist, just like when Zhu Yuanzhang, the peasant uprising, became the emperor, didn't he first stand on the side of the common people?

Therefore, little cabbage said impolitely, "Um... Director Tang, right? I Don't plan to sell the quota for the time being, so don't waste your time..."

"Ahem... Ms. Lu Xiaoke..."Tang Kaimin tried his best to keep his tone calm, he said slowly, "We are all adults. When we are too impulsive, the two things that you are arguing about don't conflict with our deal, right? "How about this? We're not willing to pay 250 million for the invitation quota in your hands. What do you think?"

Little Bai Cai was unmoved. She was not a person who was obsessed with money. 250 million and 200 million were not different in her heart. In any case, she felt that she would not be able to use up all of them...

If that was the case, why would she sell it to the Internet cafe that made her unhappy?

The barber shop owner at the side looked at the two of them with a strange expression, especially little bai cai. From the conversation she had with him in the beginning, he could tell that she was a veteran loser. Now, she was actually talking about a business worth over 100 million?

Should he say that one should not judge a book by its cover or that these two guys were talking about each other?

"That... Beauty, do you still want to cut your hair?"The boss asked carefully.

"No!"Little cabbage put on the mask and sunglasses again. "It really ruins my mood..."as she said that, she walked out of the barber shop without looking back.

How could Tang Kaimin let her go? It was not easy for Bai Cai to reveal his whereabouts. It would be difficult for him to find another person if he missed this time. Moreover, it was rare for him to meet him alone. This was also the best time to negotiate the price, so he naturally did not want to let him go, he quickly chased after him.

"Hey, Buddy, you haven't given me the money yet, and... Your Head..."the barber shop owner was speechless when he saw Tang Kaimin chase after him with a head full of foam.

Just as he was about to chase after him, a pale and slender hand rested on his shoulder. “Do you know the two people just now?”

“Who the F * ck knows those two Jokers?” The Boss said with a funny face. When he turned around, he saw a pair of eyes glowing with green light. He suddenly felt a chill in his body in the middle of the day...

It was not the first time he had seen this foreign beauty. This was the third time this woman had come to his business. She could be considered the type of customer that the barber shop liked the most, and she was extremely beautiful.., she was even more beautiful than the one who played the Crimson Witch in Marvel, and the results were very good. He had even left two photos for promotion.

Logically speaking, such a beautiful customer should have been very happy, but every time he saw her, he felt an inexplicable chill in his heart... ..

Especially her eyes. He felt that even if she had cosmetic contact lenses, they shouldn't be so bright, right. Like a cat... ..

If Isabelle were here, she would definitely recognize that it was Alice who had transmigrated with her!

“Alright...” Alice smiled and said, “The money will be deducted from the membership. I still have something to do, so I'll leave first...”

“Take care, beautiful!” The store manager hurriedly nodded and bowed.

Alice smiled and walked in the direction of little cabbage and the others... ..

Chapter 415: What a perfect match

At this moment, Emperor Liver was excitedly managing the registration of the company. To be honest, he had never thought that he would be able to live the life of a boss...

The registration funds were exchanged with the gnolls captured by the tribes and the rich people in the base. The quality of the gnolls captured by the cabbages was not high. Whether it was their appearance or strength, they were far inferior to those captured by the players in the five major tribes, however, the advantage was that they had a lot of them. In any case, they were all used for herding, so they could just make do with it. They were also selling well.

They sold about a thousand gnolls, and in total, they exchanged for a total of 50 million. As for the quota... .. After careful consideration, the two of them still decided not to use it to exchange for real money.

In the future, the general direction would definitely be in the game. The money in the game was far more useful than in the real world. Although using the quota to exchange for 100 to 200 million sounded great, after thinking about it carefully, they would definitely suffer a loss in the future...

As the first player to have a cooperative quota and a large territory, little cabbages had a huge advantage. It was also because of this that they had to seize the opportunity to develop and expand as much as possible, therefore, it was definitely much more useful to attract talents than to exchange for the seemingly gorgeous currency in the real world.

Moreover, the two of them felt that what was the use of exchanging so much money now? This bit of money could only be used to buy a few houses in a first-tier city in central China. Wouldn't it be nice to build a palace in the game? Why should I waste it on this?

The most important thing was that there weren't many spots. Emperor liver had taken one of the ten spots, and with Wang Goudan joining, two of them had already gone. The remaining eight were definitely not to be wasted... ..

They had already discussed it. The base would follow the path of the wood elf civilization, mainly recruiting talents in biology, agriculture, and alchemy. After that, it would be talents in finance and management.

There were actually quite a lot of people needed. Eight spots were not even enough. Under such circumstances, they would naturally not sell them. This was also the reason why cabbages avoided those rich second-generation players the first day they appeared...

This time, they were recruiting people to pursue quality. If they were recruiting warrior-type players, it would not be a big deal to work with these rich second-generation players. They could also earn a wave of real-world currency. However, they mainly wanted to recruit research-type talents, naturally, they could not recruit these profligate young masters.

Although the developer bloodline was strong, from the actual example of the base, the experience of those players who were bad students after choosing this bloodline was extremely painful. There were even developers who gave up on becoming researchers, in order to prevent such a thing from happening, they decided to try their best to recruit Brainiacs for research-type talents.

However, top students usually did not play games, and how to interact with them was also a problem. Hence, after discussing for a while, they decided to imitate their lord and use the name of recruitment to lure a group of people into the game.

Since they wanted to recruit, they naturally had to register a company. Emperor liver was originally very enthusiastic about this matter, and in order to satisfy his boss addiction, he volunteered to contract this matter. However, after only working for two days, he began to regret it... ..

In fact, as a coder who had never run an industrial and commercial business before, starting a company was indeed a very troublesome matter.

From the company's name verification to the preparation of materials, then to opening a bank account, tax reporting, applying for tax control and invoices, opening a social security account, and so on and so forth, he was dumbfounded just by looking at the smooth search on Baidu.

On the third day of the matter, the capital of the liver was still stuck on the preparation of materials. In the end, they compromised and admitted defeat, leaving everything to the agency to do... ..

Because of this, he was even ridiculed by little cabbage for the whole afternoon... ..

The efficiency of the agency was still that of a customer. In less than a week, they got them an electronic business license...

So the two of them agreed to go to the headhunting company today to find professionals to help them find people...

After all, high-end management talents were not usually available to him and little cabbage. In the end, he could only rely on some professionals.

But the emperor of the liver waited and waited, but little cabbage's phone call did not come. It was already four o'clock in the afternoon. He called little cabbage's phone, but no one answered. After thinking for a while, the emperor of the liver decided not to waste time. He went to check the situation first, so first a person went to C city, a very famous Headhunter Company.

"Hello, Sir, do you have an appointment?" In the Headhunter Company, the front desk beauty sees a guest to come suddenly smile like a flower way.

"No, the first time..." the liver emperor said honestly.

The waiter slightly narrowed his eyes, this answer is obviously not like a professional HR, bearing is not like a boss, especially the other side of the body with a pure suit particularly eye-catching.

However, as a customer service member of a Headhunter Company, he knew that one should not judge a book by its cover. After all, he was here to recruit high-level talents. The more he dressed like this, the more likely he was to be a big shot...

Therefore, the receptionist still smiled like a flower and said, "Then, may I introduce someone to you, sir?"

"Oh... okay..." emperor liver was stunned for a moment and nodded. A strange feeling rose in his heart. He felt that this conversation was similar to him going to some indescribable place... ..

Oh... of course, he was referring to the barbershop...

"Then, sir, please tell me the name of Your Company..."

"Little cabbage liability limited company..."

At the front desk: "..."

Looking at the stunned look of the other party, the emperor of the liver smiled as if he was used to it. In fact, he had also protested against this name before. Especially after seeing those mighty Tauren outside who did not dare to shout out the tribe's name out loud, he even went to the big boss to discuss it several times...

But unfortunately, the big boss seemed to be very persistent with this name...

As a second shareholder with only three layers of shares, he naturally couldn't beat the Big Boss... ..

The receptionist looked at the other party with a strange expression. Just as she was wondering if the other party was here for fun, she searched on the computer and found that there really was such a company. Her expression instantly became even more strange.

Who was so stupid to come up with such a name? Why wasn't it called Little Cucumber with limited liability?

However, when she saw the column of data below, her expression changed...

Registered Capital of 50 million?

Hiss... .. How should she put it? Such a F * cking name, and its strength was unexpectedly considerable...

Although a company with little registered capital did not mean that its financial strength was bad, a company with large registered capital was definitely not weak.

This was because the registered capital represented the responsibility of the shareholders and had a certain degree of guarantee. The more registered capital a company had, the more civil liability it would bear, especially when it came to large amounts of compensation, a company with a large amount of registered capital was quite disadvantageous to the shareholders.

For example, if you registered a company with a capital of 1,000,000, the liability you would bear would be 1,000,000. If you owed 10,000,000 in the name of the company, as long as you applied for bankruptcy, you would only lose 1,000,000.

However, there were pros and cons. A high registered capital represented a certain level of financial strength. After all, just the stamp tax alone was already impressive... ..

As expected... one should not judge a book by its cover...

The seniors taught themselves not to look down on others with contempt. There was still a reason.

Thinking of this, the front desk smiled amiably and said, "Sir, please wait in the reception room for a moment. There will be a professional to discuss with you later."

"Oh, okay..."

"Would you like some tea or coffee, sir?"

"Do you have sprite?"

The receptionist:" ..."

This fellow really matched his company's name very well...

Chapter 416: Would You like some?

"Mr. Zhang Jiaming? Hello, my name is Qin Haodong, I'm the Headhunter Here..."

Just as the emperor of the liver was staring at the tea leaves curiously, an amiable and infectious voice interrupted his train of thought.

“Oh... Hello...”the emperor of the liver quickly stood up and shook hands, then secretly sized up the other party.

This man was wearing a well-fitted suit. He was not considered tall and handsome, but his temperament was clean and refreshing, giving people a good impression. This was indeed a fundamental difference from the group of well-buttered and unkempt colleagues he had come into contact with on a daily basis...

“Your tea is quite interesting...”the emperor of the liver started the topic weirdly. He was mainly curious about the tea leaves, which were twisted like a pile of kelp... ..

“Oh, this is Emei’s medicinal tea. Our boss Bai got it from a local tea farmer. Although it looks ugly, the taste and effect are actually pretty good. It’s very hard to buy it on the market...”

“Really?”The emperor of the liver took a sip of it when he heard that. Suddenly, a refreshing feeling surged into his mouth. He instantly felt as if he had scraped off a layer of greasy food from the cabbage tribe in the past two days, and he felt much more comfortable...

He could not help but think to himself, “This is good stuff. Should I go to Mount Emei to get some tea leaves? I heard that there is a reward for contributing good plants in the main base.”.

“Sir, I have checked just now. Your Company is a business company that has just been established two days ago. It is mainly engaged in biotechnology and agricultural technology research, right?”Qin Haodong did not waste time and went straight to the point. After all, they were usually very busy in this line of work...

“HMM... more or less...”emperor liver took a sip of tea and said.

Qin Haodong looked at the other party’s dense hair and the spirit that ordinary people did not have. He felt that it was not quite the same as a scientific researcher. He thought to himself, could it be that they were purely managers?

“Sir, this company has just been established. which talent did you take a fancy to this time? Do you have a clear goal?”

“No...”. “...”. “...”the liver emperor smiled. “There are a lot of people in our company, and our personnel are also mixed. We need a complete set of large-scale enterprise management plan and system. Everything is still blank, and we really need a very capable senior executive to build a human team. Your Headhunter industry should have data on this talent pool on a daily basis, right?”

“Of course...”Qin Haodong nodded with a smile.

The so-called Headhunter was just a slightly higher-level agent. The most basic job of an agent was to collect information, the real estate agent usually needed to collect information about selling and renting houses so that when customers came to visit, they could find the goods that could meet the customers’ requirements at the first opportunity.

It was the same for headhunters. Naturally, they would collect information about all the top talents on a daily basis. Moreover, the more high-end the Headhunter was, the more accurate the information he would collect. In addition to collecting basic information such as other people's achievements, resumes, and so on., they would even take the initiative to approach and understand the other party's character, habits, and so on.

However, what made him very curious was the other party's statement that there were many people in our company. The information clearly showed that this company had just gotten its business license, so why were there so many people? Moreover, didn't a company have a backbone before recruiting low-level employees?

It couldn't be a gang, right?

No, no, no, how could there be a gang in central China right now?

Thinking of this, he decided to find out more. After all, as an intermediary service, he was both responsible for the company that was recruiting talents and also for the talents themselves. The circle of Headhunters was actually very small. If his reputation was tarnished, it would be very difficult to get a job in the future... ..

"Mr. Zhang, if you want to match the talent you need, I have to understand the nature of your company. Is Your Company A Private Research Institute?"

"Yes... purely private..." emperor liver nodded.

Qin Haodong frowned when he heard that. To be honest, the atmosphere of research in the country was actually very ordinary. Most of the scientific research projects were in the hands of the government. After all, research was very expensive, and there might not be any results, even if there were results, how the market would fare in the future was another matter to discuss. Most likely, it would be a loss of money.

Therefore, there were very few investors in the country who were willing to invest in research. Relatively speaking, they were more willing to invest in products that were formed or some projects that were done by trickery, the only ones who were truly willing to invest in research without considering the cost were actually the country itself.

Of course, there were also some messy projects that were applied for by the smoky universities...

"Actually, I don't know much about this type of company of yours..."Qin Haodong said straightforwardly, "But I roughly know that it's very difficult for a private research institute like yours to apply for a state-sponsored gene, right?"

"There's no need for that..." "..." . Emperor liver said very generously, "The investors supporting our project are very strong. Currently, there's no funding problem. Whether it's now or in the future, there's no need to apply for an official sponsorship. If you're worried about the treatment problem, you can rest assured. As long as the person you find for us has the ability, the treatment is not a problem at all!"

It's not a problem at all?

Qin Haodong's eyelids twitched when he heard that. This guy's tone was not small, but the 50 million registered capital was still somewhat convincing. However, he did not immediately relent, it was very difficult for a company of the other party's type to attract those senior management talents and planning talents. After all, top talents valued self-worth more than their salary. If they could not get a resume from a famous company., generally, they liked companies that could create miracles in a short period of time.

For example, Didi Dache, minions, or some Internet companies.

“We will discuss the issue of treatment later. After all, everyone’s needs are different. I want to know what your company’s research direction is?”

“It focuses on biological genes. Its uses are mainly agricultural products and biological medicine...” the emperor of the liver said casually.

Qin Haodong had basically passed on this company in his heart. Genetic engineering sounded noble, but most of them were just empty projects. Even if it was officially announced, there weren’t many that could truly make a profit. These were probably just a few scammers using the excuse of scientific research to swindle investors...

He not only thought to himself, Huazhong is really a fool with a lot of money. There are really idiots that are willing to join the scam... ..

Just as he was about to send the other party away with a few polite words, he suddenly saw the emperor of the liver take out a crystal-like beautiful fruit from his pocket.

The reason why he judged it to be a fruit was because of the alluring fruit fragrance that it emitted. Just smelling it made Qin Haodong’s pores feel comfortable. Every cell in his body wanted to eat this thing...

“This... This is?” Qin Haodong swallowed a mouthful of saliva and asked.

“Ah, one of the results of scientific research...” the liver emperor smiled and broke the fruit open, with a crisp crack, the crystal-like juice fell on the table, emitting an even more alluring smell. Qin Haodong licked his lips. To be honest, at that moment, he had the urge to lick it clean, however, when this idea appeared, he was shocked...

“Do you want some?” The liver emperor smiled and handed over half of it.

Chapter 417: Magical Fruit -Part One one)

“This...” Qin Haodong looked at the fruit and kept swallowing his saliva. After a long while, he finally moved his gaze away and forced a smile, “Forget it...”

What a joke, who would dare to eat such a researched variety?

Pu Yunchuan smiled and placed half of the fruit on the table, while he picked up the other half and took a bite!

Hearing the crisp chewing sound, Qin Haodong fiercely swallowed his saliva, but his heart was even more confused. This guy really dared to eat it... ..

“Don’t worry...”the emperor of liver smiled and said, “This thing has been tested for safety...”

“Has it passed the national inspection?”Qin Haodong was stunned.

“Not yet... I’m applying...”the emperor of liver smiled and said.

Then how about an egg? If you say it’s safe, it’s safe?

Qin Haodong rolled his eyes in his heart, but he smiled politely.

“Mr. Qin, have you been feeling unwell recently?”The emperor of the liver suddenly asked.

“Huh?”Qin Haodong was stunned when he heard that, and he subconsciously asked, “How did you tell?”

There was indeed something wrong with his body. Due to his irregular diet and often staying up late these years, as well as the fact that he drank quite a lot during social gatherings, he had chronic gastritis since last year, and he often needed to take stomach medicine to alleviate it from time to time...

The emperor of the liver looked at him seriously and said, “Although our new product is tempting, it is not as exaggerated as you, Mr. Qin. Judging from Mr. Qin’s performance, it is obvious that there is something wrong with his body, which is why he has such strong physiological characteristics on our product...”. “...”

“Huh?”Qin Haodong looked at the other party. His physiological characteristics were all present. was he trying to say that he was unsightly due to his gluttony?

Thinking of this, Qin Haodong hurriedly wiped the corner of his mouth. With a wipe, he realized, “Damn, so much saliva?”. No wonder the other party would say that... .. It was too embarrassing...

“I’m really sorry, I lost my composure a little...”Qin Haodong smiled embarrassedly.

“Mr. Qin, I wasn’t joking just now,”the liver emperor continued, “Do you have a very strong desire in your body? It feels as if your body will be better after eating this fruit?”

Qin Haodong was stunned for a moment. To be honest, he really did have this feeling. It was like seeing a clear spring when he was extremely thirsty. Drinking it would definitely alleviate this feeling, which was especially strong...

Therefore, he subconsciously asked, “Then will my illness be better after eating it?”

“That’s not necessarily true...”the emperor of liver shook his head.

Qin Haodong:“...”

Was this guy asking for a beating?

“Um... Mr. Zhang, why don’t we discuss about the people you want to hire?”

“Oh, okay...”the emperor of the liver hurriedly nodded.

Qin haodong: “You’re mainly looking for management talent, right? Do you have any specific requirements?”

The emperor of the liver: "Yes..." . "...". He needed to have management experience in a large-scale enterprise. The current management system of the company was very chaotic, and a complete set of systems was needed to manage it. Whether it was the treatment, performance, and distribution of labor, they all needed to be reformulated. Therefore, the larger the size of the team he had previously managed, the better... .. Yes, it would be best if he had the experience of managing hundreds of thousands of people... .."

Qin Haodong nodded and took notes. Initially, he thought it was quite normal when the other party said the first half of the sentence, but when the last sentence came out, the pen in his hand shook, and he almost flew out... ..

"Sir..."Qin Haodong smiled bitterly and said, "You are looking for a company executive, not a city mayor, right?"

"That makes sense!"The emperor of the liver suddenly realized...

That's right, why didn't he think about it in this way?

Seeing the other party really act like he suddenly understood, Qin Haodong's eyelids twitched. He thought to himself, did I meet a Fool?

After another half an hour, Qin Haodong patiently finished recording the other party's request, and then politely sent the emperor of the liver away.

After the other party left, the receptionist walked over with a smile and asked, "Big Headhunter Qin, how is it? Is it another big deal?"

"Ha... it is indeed a big deal..."Qin haodong snickered and said, "They want to recruit the mayor. How can it not be a big deal?"

"Recruit what?"The receptionist was stunned for a moment. She felt that a strange noun had mixed into the topic.

"Hey, Manager Qin, what is This?"Just when the receptionist was about to ask again curiously, the logistics person in charge of tidying up the living room came out with half of the red crystal fruit. He said curiously, "It's so beautiful!"

Mr. Qin turned his head to look at that thing and immediately felt his saliva gushing out. He hurriedly swallowed a mouthful and turned his head away.

"Wow, it's so beautiful!"The receptionist was also attracted by the red crystal fruit's shape. She walked over and held her hands. "It's like a crystal..."

Qin Haodong glanced at the two girls and suddenly realized that in their eyes, the appearance seemed to be more important than the tempting aroma of the fruit...

Then, he remembered what that Guy said just now...

When there was a problem with his body, he would have a special desire for this... ..

Thinking of this, he asked curiously, "Do you only think that it's Beautiful?"

“HMM... it’s quite fragrant. It can be eaten, right?”The logistics girl pursed her lips and asked, but she showed a reluctant expression. “But it’s so beautiful that I can’t bear to eat it...”

“Yes, yes!”The receptionist quickly nodded in agreement.

Qin Haodong’s heart skipped a beat, and he immediately took the fruit. “Since you can’t bear to let it go, I’ll take it...”

“Ah! !”The two of them instantly showed displeasure on their faces...

Qin Haodong walked all the way back to his office and put the fruit on the table. He didn’t know why he brought the fruit in, but he felt as if his body was instinctively asking him to do so.

After putting down the fruit, Qin Haodong turned on his computer, intending to get his previous order first. It was about a big restaurant wanting to hire a chef from another restaurant and his team. The treatment was very generous. Relatively speaking, it was much more reliable than the guy just now...

However, when he was looking through the information, he suddenly felt like his stomach was on fire. He immediately frowned and felt like he took out some stomach medicine from the drawer and got another cup of boiling water...

After taking the medicine, he slowed down for a few minutes and started to work again. However, not long after, the burning feeling in his stomach did not lessen at all. It made him more and more unable to concentrate. He immediately stood up in annoyance.

After that, the burning sensation became more and more intense. At this moment, his annoyance once again caused him to see the half of the fruit on the table. If he did not mention it, the moment he saw it, it would be like a person who had been thirsty for several days seeing a spring. How could he bear it?

How about... ... Just a small bite. Qin Haodong thought of it in his heart... ...

However, once this thought appeared, he could no longer suppress it. In his heart, he kept finding an excuse for himself to take a small bite. Even if there was a slight problem, it would not cause him to die suddenly, right?

Once this thought appeared in his mind, he struggled for less than ten seconds. In the end, Qin Haodong’s rationality was broken by the desire in his body. He rushed up, grabbed the half of the fruit, and took a fierce bite!

The taste was incomparably wonderful. Qin Haodong swore that he had never eaten such a delicious thing. The taste was just like what he had imagined when he watched pig bajie eat the ginseng fruit in journey to the west when he was a child.

In an instant, that small bite of the fruit was thrown out of his mind. He could not stop his desire to eat the fruit clean, and even the juice in his hand could not help but be licked clean.

After eating, Qin Haodong only felt the pores all over his body relax, and the burning feeling in his stomach slowly faded as if it had met a sweet rain. Then, a warm feeling spread throughout his body from his stomach, making him so comfortable that he almost moaned.

Surrounded by this warm feeling, Qin Haodong lay on the sofa and slowly closed his eyes... ...

Chapter 418: Magical Fruit –Part Two two)

“Manager Qin? Headhunter Qin?”

After an unknown amount of time, Qin Haodong heard someone calling him again and slowly opened his eyes.

Then, he saw the familiar face of the girl at the front desk.

Why did she fall asleep? Could it be that she had been under too much pressure recently?

Qin Haodong frowned and immediately stood up to ask, “What time is it?”

He remembered that he had an appointment with a private doctor.

“Uh... It’s nine o’clock...”the receptionist said with a strange expression.

“It’s nine o’clock and you guys haven’t left yet?”Qin Haoran sat up curiously, but then he felt that something was wrong. Why did the room feel so bright at nine o’clock?

After being stunned for a moment, he looked at the receptionist. “It’s... It’s nine o’clock the next day?”

“Yes, yes...”the receptionist nodded repeatedly.

No Way, I slept for so long. He remembered that when he met that Strange Mr. Zhang, it was only four o’clock in the afternoon. Qin Haodong suddenly stood up, thinking that there was indeed something wrong with that inexplicable fruit... ..

However, as soon as he got up, he felt that his entire body was wet, as if he had rolled in mud.

The receptionist at the side immediately covered his nose. “Aiya, Great Headhunter Qin, what did you do? Your body smells so bad!”

Qin Haodong was stunned. He pulled open his suit to take a look. Sure enough, there were sticky things under his white shirt. The stench was terrible... ..

Suddenly, he felt more and more regretful. He shouldn’t have let that fruit in. If he really ate something wrong, he would be finished.

His child had just been born, and his wife was in confinement. He couldn’t let anything happen to him at this time...

Then, he picked up the phone. Sure enough, there were a bunch of missed calls on it. Thinking of this, Qin Haodong hurriedly stood up. He didn’t even bother to ask for leave from the front desk and walked out of the company.

After driving home, his wife was sitting on the sofa coaxing the child. When she saw him coming back, she immediately complained, “What’s wrong with you? If you didn’t come back, you should have answered the phone. You made me worry for a long time...”

"I... Fell asleep at the company... I really didn't hear the phone ring. Sorry, wife!"Qin Haodong hurriedly raised his hands and begged for mercy.

"Fell asleep at the company?"The woman was stunned when she heard that. Then, the resentment on her face immediately disappeared, she said worriedly, "Don't work too hard. You have gastritis to begin with, so you don't take care of your body. What's the use of earning more money if your body collapses?"

Qin Haodong chuckled, and his heart warmed slightly. But then he remembered that he might be in a situation now, and his heart was filled with worry. He secretly prayed that nothing would happen to him...

"Eh... What's that smell on You?"

"I don't know either. I'm going to wash up first..."Qin Haodong hurriedly ran into the bathroom when he heard that. As soon as he took off his clothes, he was almost disgusted by the lumps of unknown things and vomited.

God knows how he managed to resist the strange smell and drive back. Thinking of this, he hurriedly rubbed his body eight times with the shower gel and bathed for a whole hour!

Even his wife outside was worried. She knocked on the door and asked, "Honey, are you okay?"

"I'm... I'm fine..."Qin Haodong sniffed his body and confirmed that there was no strange smell. Then, he walked out of the bathroom. "I'm fine, I'm fine... I'll be done in a minute..."

Be Done in a moment?

His wife was stunned for a moment. She thought to herself, could it be the one inside?

Ah, it seemed that her husband wasn't fooling around outside yesterday. Otherwise, he wouldn't have needed to rely on that.

Eh, that's not right... ... Even if he was doing that, would it take so long? In her impression, her husband wasn't someone who had been doing that for so long...

After a while, Qin Haodong came out in his new clothes and kissed the child. "Honey, I have a follow-up appointment with the doctor. I'll be back soon. I'm taking a day off today. I'll stay at home with you two..."

"Good..."the wife heard suddenly laughed: "Go early and come back early..."

"Old Peng, you this list is not wrong?"In a private clinic, Qin Haodong looked at the private clinic's doctor stunned asked.

This doctor was very familiar with him. Back then, he was the one who had poached him from a tertiary grade a hospital, so he was quite assured of this person's medical skills.

That doctor also frowned. He was very familiar with Qin Haodong's physical condition. Because he stayed up all night and worked overtime all year round, his diet was irregular, and he often drank alcohol, he had already suffered from gastric ulcers a few times, he would not have been surprised if the other party's condition had been diagnosed with gastric cancer.

However, it would be f * cking ridiculous if his index had all become normal... ..

When he thought of this, he personally went to the people in the laboratory to see if they had gotten the other party's data wrong.

However, this was not a public hospital. It was a high-class clinic for some wealthy people. It was so busy. Today, Qin Haodong was almost the only patient. No matter how hard he tried, he could not get it wrong.

After confirming that the data was correct, the doctor looked at Qin Haodong curiously and asked with a strange expression, "Where have you been these two days?"

Qin Haodong was stunned and immediately said, "I work. What else can I do? It's not like you don't know my situation. My wife is in confinement, and she changed her car to pay the car loan. If I don't work overtime to find a business, do I still have time to go on a trip?"

"I really thought that you went on a trip to the mountains and forests and ate an immortal fruit..."the Doctor held the list and clicked his tongue in wonder.

When he said this, Qin Haodong's body immediately stiffened. After hesitating for a while, he finally said, "Old Peng, don't tell me that I really ate a strange-looking fruit yesterday..."

"Did you feel hot after eating it, and then you woke up the next day with a foul-smelling sludge? Now you feel like your whole body is transparent and as light as a swallow?"

"Eh? How Do You Know?"Qin Haodong was stunned.

"Ha..."the doctor sneered. "Do you think I didn't read Qidian Wen when I was a child?"

Qin Haodong:"..."

"Then... Old Peng, is there anything abnormal in this physical examination report?"

"There are only a few lists that are as normal as yours..." . The doctor shook his head with a puzzled expression. "It's not just the stomach. Your various indicators have also changed greatly. Your blood lipids, cholesterol, and uric acid have all recovered to very healthy levels. Could it be that the testing machine is broken?"

Qin Haodong swallowed a mouthful of saliva when he heard this, and his heart became even more excited... ..

It can't be... that fruit...

I'm gonna... .. If that's what that thing does, that guy runs a research facility that's a pretty big deal... . .

"Hey, cabbage, where are you?"

On the other side, when the liver emperor saw that the cabbages had finally been connected, i tell you, I have a wonderful idea. Do you think we should consider going to North America and poaching some professional politicians and congressmen? Or find some retired governors who have good political achievements?”

“Sounds good...” a cold voice suddenly sounded, immediately, the emperor of the liver trembled. He realized that the other side of the phone was not a small fry. He was stunned for a moment and had a bad feeling. He lowered his voice and said, “Who are you?”

Chapter 419: kidnapped cabbages...

How beautiful, the night view of this world...

Alice stood on a large enclosed balcony, looking through the glass window at the night view of the two rivers in City C, her eyes slightly blurred.

She liked the gorgeous colors, all kinds of colors, because these things didn't exist in the world of the dead, only gray and white in the world of the dead... ..

Actually, it wasn't just the colors. There were many things that couldn't be enjoyed in the world of the dead. For example, the one in her glass... ..

The color was transparent like white water, but there were tiny bubbles. There was a fresh lemon smell, which wasn't as pungent as the taste of alcohol. The taste was excellent. It had the taste of alcohol that stimulated the tongue, but it didn't have the dullness of alcohol.

“What's this thing called?” Alice shook the wine glass in her hand and asked in fluent Huazhong.

“Sprite...” a white-collar woman who was tied to the cabbages on the sofa said with a strange expression.

“Why is there Sprite in your wine cabinet?”

This time, it was not Alice who asked the question, but the cabbages tied together... ..

“What does it have to do with you! !” The female white-collar worker looked annoyed. “By the way, who are you guys?”

“Oh, my name is Lu Xiaoke. I graduated from Shanghai Medical University and AM an intern in a tertiary grade a hospital. What's Your Name, Beauty?”

“My Name Is... Are you crazy? Who cares about this?” The female white-collar worker said angrily.

“Then... aren't you asking?” Bai Cai said aggrievedly.

What kind of stupid child was this?

The female white-collar worker rolled her eyes, then lowered her voice and said, “I'm not asking you, I'm asking her who?”

“Who? You mean this uncle?” Little cabbage quickly said, “This is a big shot, have you heard of the internet? It’s the company that persuaded the terminally ill employees to leave. This guy is the head strategist of that company...”

“It’s the planning director!” Tang Kaimin retorted with a dark face, “I’ll say it again. That stupid thing has nothing to do with me...”

The female white-collar worker: “...”

If her hands weren’t tied, she really wanted to crack open this silly woman’s head to see what was inside... ..

“I’m talking about that, the woman who drinks sprite like she’s drinking 82 accent...” as she said that, her chin was aligned with Alice who had returned to the balcony to look at the night view.

“Oh... her...” little cabbage sighed. “I don’t know either...”

Well... she was just a piece of trash...

The female white-collar worker sighed and finally decided to ask the question herself, so she said in a low voice, “Are you from President Wen’s side? Have you thought it through? The country doesn’t allow the use of underhanded means in the game of capital!”

“I don’t know...” Alice drank her sprite and looked at Deng Hai in the distance. She was in a rare good mood.

Could it be a simple kidnapping?

Thinking of this, the female white-collar worker felt a little relieved. She asked, “Do you want money?”

A good man who only wanted money was relatively easier to deal with than underhanded means in business competition. After all, everyone was making a living. If it was not necessary, there was no need to kill people, right?

“Money?” Alice shook her head and said, “I don’t need it for the time being. I have enough money...”

The last rich man had given her a lot of money in order to survive. The bag in his pocket was full of federal coins. From his understanding of this place over the past few days, as long as he did not buy a house, he should be able to use it for a long time...

“Then what are you looking for, Pretty Girl?” The female white-collar worker asked carefully.

“I don’t have a place to stay. I’m borrowing your place for a few days...”

“If you have money, why don’t you stay in a hotel?”

“I don’t have an ID...”

The female white-collar worker was stunned. She looked at the other party’s obviously foreign face and couldn’t help but wonder, why did he come without an ID? Who the hell was this person?

“Then... why did he choose my place?”

“Your position is good...”

The female white-collar worker:” ...”

If she could survive this, she would definitely not buy a Riverview House the next time she bought a house. She would be rich! !

Alice did not continue to pay attention to him. Instead, she quietly sat on the rocking chair outside the balcony and continued to enjoy this rare time.

This world was very interesting. The more she understood, the more she wanted to spend more time and see more things. This kind of life was much more interesting than listening to the stories of those old undead in the world of the dead...

It was really a boring world. Every undead was thinking about getting out. It was said that the undead in the past did not have such thoughts, but a long, long time ago, someone made the first move, forcefully tearing apart the world of death. Then, the large group of undead that followed that person were lucky enough to escape...

As a result, more and more undead began to have the idea of escaping. After all, if they could get out, who would want to stay here?

She was very lucky. After wandering in the death realm for only five hundred years, she had met someone who could bring her out. She knew how precious this opportunity was. Because she had heard that many undead who had stayed in the death realm for millions of years might not have this opportunity...

She did not even know how these undead had endured for so many years. Anyway, after staying in the death realm for hundreds of years, she felt that she was going crazy...

So she would never go back...

But there was not much time left for her...

This world was far away from that guy, and his power of law was getting weaker and weaker on her. Alice could clearly feel that her body was getting weaker and weaker, and the colors around her were not as bright as before. Even her sense of taste had decreased a lot. If it was not for the magical sprite she drank today, she even wondered if she still had the sense of taste... ..

The summoning from the realm of death was becoming more and more obvious. She didn't have much time to relax like this...

Hopefully, she wasn't wrong...

Thinking of this, Alice looked at little cabbage. The living room wasn't lit, and Alice's pair of dark green eyes looked particularly creepy. Little cabbage suddenly had goosebumps all over her body, she could only call out in her heart again, “System, can you hear me? Help...”

Who would have thought that from the moment she was kidnapped, the system that had never replied to her would suddenly reply to her... ..

The system: "You're already a mature player, you have to learn how to get out of trouble on your own..."

"F * ck, you're here! !!" Little cabbage instantly exploded.

The system: "I'm not, I'm not here, you've heard wrongly..."

"Listen to me, Hurry Up and save me! !"

System: "I can't Save You..." : "...". "That undead is very close to you, and it's also an agility-type. Its HP is estimated to be around level 3. If you activate the teleportation rashly, it will be very dangerous. Players, please be careful, if you are killed by the undead, we will not be able to revive you!"

"What? ?" Little Cabbage's eyes immediately widened, and he said in a daze, "No Way? Really?"

System: "This system has always been very serious..."

Little cabbage: "F * CK Your Grandpa!"

Little cabbage felt a chill in her heart. The calmness she had when she was kidnapped instantly disappeared without a trace. Just as she was about to continue greeting the system's parents, those pair of green eyes suddenly appeared in front of her... "...". Little cabbage was so scared that she almost jumped up. "You... you... What are you doing?"

Although she was excited, she didn't say anything. She just used a few exclamation marks in her heart...

"Your expression has changed a lot..." Alice looked at little cabbage and said, "You seem to be very afraid. What are you afraid of?"

"I. . ." Little cabbage said with a sobbing tone, "Aren't you looking outside?"

Meanwhile, on the other side of the Martian base, the system asked seer, "Is this really good?"

Chapter 420: Seer's bad taste...

"What's wrong with that?" Seer was flipping through the information on deity's wechat moments with interest. At this moment, she was faced with the system's question, seer did not mind and said, "These players will sooner or later walk out of my protection range. They will encounter all kinds of situations. It's also a good thing to let them leave the game mentality as soon as possible while we can protect them now..."

After a pause, seer continued, "Moreover, this undead's quality is very high. We can see if this little girl is lucky or if she really has the aptitude of a Lord..."

The system was stunned for a moment before it immediately understood what the Lord meant.

From what rainy had gathered, this undead named Alice had a very good resume. She had played many roles before she was alive, these included: Slave, Underground Gladiator, assassin, intelligence agent, general of the Army, General of the Empire!

This kind of experience was extremely valuable, and reality proved that with this kind of experience, this undead had indeed been trained into an elite with extremely high quality.

After summoning her, Isabelle, and betraying her, this undead could be found in a world where technology, folklore, and language were completely different from her previous world, in just a month, she had collected enough information to lock onto galaxy. To be honest, even seer herself was a little tempted by this ability.

This was also the reason why the undead could stay in sphere D for so long and still be alive... ..

“There will be such an elite in any intelligent life form on any planet, and how to absorb such an elite is one of the most basic qualities a colonizer possesses...”. Xi Ye said faintly, “If this girl has given up on such a talent, it means that she still needs to improve.” ...”

After pausing for a moment, she said, “Try your best to keep an eye on her. Don’t let anything happen to her. If anything happens, you must ensure her safety immediately...”

The system was instantly speechless. Asking it to keep an eye on her while she was scrolling through her wechat moments... as expected, being the boss of this world made sense... ..

The Liege seemed to be obsessed with scrolling through his moments recently. It seemed to be because one of his former classmates, a sky god, had also found a planet and was crazily posting his life records recently.

The system was curious as to why its liege would be so concerned, so it secretly read the contents.

This Sky God seemed to be a night demon named Ryan. These past few days, the Seer Sky God’s super messages were all sent by this guy.

The content was sent out in the form of a diary. The first message had started two days ago. The first message was: the 75th day of the 13,621 year of wandering had finally come to an end... ..

As he spoke, he uploaded a picture of the planet’s surface, along with a professional analysis: the atmosphere was not very thick, but there were certain signs of life. It was further away from the hot star, so the weather was probably colder. However, from the looks of it,. The planet’s moisture content was very heavy, so it should not be difficult to modify it... .. they had not entered yet, so they did not know what the internal environment was like. They hoped that the environment would be better. After all, the start of a grade-9 planet was still a little difficult... ..

Heavenly god armor: “Wow, Congratulations, Congratulations, Congratulations to my wandering classmate for successfully coming ashore. Sigh, I don’t know how much longer I will have to endure...”

Heavenly God b: [I’m envious. It has only been 10,000 years and it has already come ashore. I heard that a senior brother in the neighboring group had even eaten all the seeds on the spaceship after drifting for 80,000 years... I don’t want to do this, I only wish for a chance to come ashore.]

Heavenly God C: [same as above, I beg to come ashore. As long as it can be modified, I’ll be fine. I’ll even accept a level-10 planet!]

The next day:

I roughly scanned the situation of the planet. To be honest, it was a big surprise. The diameter of the planet was 4,100 kilometers, and the water content was extremely high. However, due to the distance from the hot star, the temperature was lower, from the looks of it, most of the water source was in the state of solid ice.

However, the surface was very smooth, and the number of impacts was less. This meant that the geological structure was very active. It was speculated that there should be a huge underwater sea under the thick ice layer, and it was very likely that local life forms would be born.

Today, I started to drill through the ice layer. I prayed that the situation under the sea would be just as I had predicted, and that there would be local life forms. This would greatly save the evolution time. After all, how many tens of thousands of years could one live?

Deity a: there's actually an undersea sea? Oh My God, this is probably not a grade 7 planet. Big Boss, don't forget each other when you're Rich!

Deity b: Don't forget when you're Rich!

Xi Ye: if you're Rich, don't forget about it!

System: ...

The third day:

Oh My God, the living conditions of the subglacial ocean are better than I imagined. The oxygen content in the water is exceptionally high, and the microbial content is also very high, although I haven't captured a fully formed life form yet, I feel that it's very likely that this place has already evolved into a fully formed life form. If that's the case, then I can't randomly sow life forms and disrupt the biological chain here.

I was very much looking forward to the potential of this place's original species. If it were to develop normally, this place would probably be classified as a grade 7 Planet!

Heavenly God Armor: [f * ck, forget about wealth and honor, brother!]

Heavenly God C: [f * ck, forget about wealth and honor, brother!]

Xi Ye: Big Brother, Big Brother!

System: "..."

This bastard still had such a wicked sense of humor?

"Lord, did you and this Night Demon God have a good relationship in the past?" The system asked carefully.

"Of course not!" Xi Ye pouted. "When I was in school, this lord and this bastard didn't get along the best. Even though my own conditions weren't that good, I always loved to ridicule and ridicule this lord. Moreover, I loved to show off. Do you see how low-key this lord is? "Now that the start is so good, do I have any pride?"

The system: "...".

“Then why are you following a group of people over there to brag about the rainbow?”

“Pretending to be a pig to eat a tiger! You Can’t even understand this?”

“Will he pay attention to you?”The system asked doubtfully.

“Of course!”Xi Ye nodded very seriously and said, “I know this B * Stard the best.”

“Is that so?”

Just as the system finished questioning him, it noticed that a message popped up in Xi Ye’s super message.

“I haven’t seen you for a long time. How have you been?”

Xi Ye smiled. “How have you been? What did I say?”

As he spoke, he typed a reply. “I’ve been a little busy, recently...”

“Busy? You’ve gone ashore too?”

“No, I’m not as lucky as you. I’m floating. I’ve been busy becoming a master recently. Would you like to join me in a double row?”

“Oh, hahaha, I don’t have the time right now. I’m so busy exploring the terrain and collecting specimens all day long. Sigh, I suddenly miss the days when I was drifting. Although it’s a little empty, I don’t have to think about so many things every day...”. “...”

Xi Ye:“...”

“I still need to compare the specimens I collected today to the database and see how to arrange the strengthening sequence. Let’s not talk about it for now. We’ll keep in touch whenever we can. We’ve been classmates for tens of thousands of years. If you need any help, just let me know. I’ll definitely help if I Can!”

Xi Ye:“...”

The system: “As it turns out, my lord, this old classmate of yours has a very good character!”

Xi Ye: “Hehe!”
