Chapter 421: "Let me tell you, little cabbage has been kidnapped again."

It had been almost a month since Isabelle disappeared from Pu Yunchuan's place. Pu Yunchuan was still in a daze during this period of time. For a month, he stayed at home all day, but he did not dare to go near the gaming cabin.

The events of the past few days had had a huge impact on him!

Although the incident of the game NPC returning to the real world with him had shocked him, he was still in the dream of being a toad licking a swan. All the illogicalities had been thrown out of his mind.

It was not until Isabelle left without saying goodbye, until his cousins died tragically...

Only then did he wake up from his dream and realize that he was starting to be afraid...

To be honest, Pu Yunchuan often wished that Liu Kai and the other B * stars would be knocked to death when they left the house. However, when the other few people really died, Pu Yunchuan's heart was extremely complicated. When he thought that the deaths of those B * stars might have something to do with him, the first thing he felt was not joy, but panic... ..

While he was in a daze on the bed, the door to the house suddenly opened. Pu Yunchuan was so frightened that he sat up. However, when he heard familiar footsteps, Pu Yunchuan lay down like a lifeless puppet.

"What time is it? Why are you still sleeping?"

It was Pu Yunchuan's mother who spoke.

"Didn't you just get up yesterday? Why do you have to get up again?" Pu Yunchuan asked.

"Even a pig has to get up once a day, right?" Pu Yunchuan's mother rolled her eyes at her son. Then, she looked at the pile of takeout boxes on the bedside table and frowned.

Her son was indeed an otaku in the past, but he was at most a little dispirited. In the past, he was quite clean, but now, he was still indifferent even though the room was filled with takeout. He had already reached the level of an abandoned otaku...

If it was in the past, she would have scolded him. But now, she knew that some things had dealt a great blow to her son, so she suppressed her bad temper this time, she tried her best to be gentle and said, "Xiao Chuan, aren't you going to report the results of the blind date the day before yesterday to Mom?"

Pu Yunchuan gave his mother a sideways glance. "My cousins aren't even cold yet, so I'm not in the mood..."

"Bullsh * T..." His mother rolled her eyes. "What does that have to do with you?"

To be honest, Pu Yunchuan's mother was much more open-minded than Pu Yunchuan. Those few days when she went to his second brother's house for a funeral drink, she had won quite a few big three yuan, so she couldn't help but feel very happy... ..

However, her second brother's appearance was a little ugly, which made it difficult for her to act too happy. She even had to pretend to be sad when she won the cards... ..

"Quick, tell me, how is that girl?"

"She's pretty good. She's Petite and Dainty. I like this kind of girl the most..." Pu Yunchuan said in boredom.

"Then why don't you take action if you like her? Do you have a wife just because you're dead in bed every day?" His mother was instantly furious!

"But they said that they can't get along..."

"If they can't get along, they can see each other a few more times. They'll slowly get along..." Pu Yunchuan's mother hurriedly said, "Son, you have to be thick-skinned to chase a girl!"

The corners of Pu Yunchuan's mouth twitched. He didn't believe this. If he could get a wife just because he was thick-skinned, why would there be so many lap dogs in the world?

How thick-skinned would those lap dogs be?

"Mom, you and dad came here on a blind date. Don't you know that if you can't get along in the blind date world, it means that the other party is too ugly? If you see the right person, why can't You Get Along?"

Pu Yunchuan's mother was stunned. When did her son become so smart?

Just as she was about to persuade him again, the doorbell suddenly rang from outside. Her mother was stunned. There was someone coming to her son's doghouse?

Pu Yunchuan was also stunned. He did not seem to have ordered takeout...

Thinking of this, he became slightly more alert. Without waiting for his mother to take action, he used a carp kick and darted out. When Pu Yunchuan's mother saw the nimble fatty in front of her, she was stunned, she thought to herself, did I see wrongly just now? My son actually knows how to use a carp kick?

Shouldn't such a difficult operation only be done by his dead husband with six-pack abs?

Pu Yunchuan came to the door and looked outside through the peephole of the security door. Then he said impatiently, "Why is it you guys again?"

"Who is it?" Pu Yunchuan's mother asked curiously.

"Police!" Pu Yunchuan opened the door impatiently.

“Hello, Mr. Pu Yunchuan, we meet again...”two policemen, a man and a woman, stood at the door, the policewoman who spoke was about 30 years old. Her facial features were not bad, but she looked too capable, so Pu Yunchuan could not feel a trace of male hormones...

Don't look at the city literature, which often had policewomen. When there were policewomen, most people did not have the time to think too much...

“What's wrong with you guys?”Pu Yunchuan's mother said angrily after the police entered the house, “You keep coming to my son's house to harass him. Are you crazy?”

This was the fifth time the police had come to their house this month. Their son was obviously traumatized by the incident with Liu Kai, but these police officers were still unwilling to let it go...

“Auntie, don't be anxious. Aren't we also trying to close the case as soon as possible?” “I believe you've heard that more than 20 people have gone missing. Moreover, your relatives and friends are among those who have been in trouble. You can feel at ease if you find the murderer as soon as possible, right?”

“What does that have to do with us?”Pu Yunchuan's mother said impatiently, “Those rascals deserve it!”

Pu Yunchuan coughed

The two policemen looked at each other. It seemed that it was in line with the intelligence report. Pu Yunchuan and his mother did not have a good relationship with the deceased, Liu Kai...

“Officers, what do you want to know now?”Pu Yunchuan looked helplessly at his honest mother and invited her into the room.

After entering the room, the woman was in charge of questioning while the man carefully observed the room.

After the policewoman pulled out a bunch of nonsense, just like the previous times, she stood up and said with a smile, “Thank you for your cooperation. If you remember anything, contact us immediately...”

“Okay, okay, okay!”

After the two of them left, her mother, who had been sulking earlier, said, “Are these two crazy? They have been wasting time on nonsense over and over again. It would be weird if they could solve the case...”

Pu Yunchuan smiled bitterly when he heard that. Only he knew in his heart that they were actually looking for the right direction. If they wanted to solve the case, your son was really the breakthrough point!

Just as he was speechless, Pu Yunchuan's phone suddenly rang. Pu Yunchuan subconsciously took out his phone and looked at the caller ID. When he saw the caller ID clearly, Pu Yunchuan's body instantly froze.

“Who is this?”His mother saw her son's expression and was immediately energized. “Did that woman take the initiative to contact you? I told you, how could my son be so bad?”

Pu Yunchuan's face twitched. Sure enough, his mother always looked at her son through a filter...

"Old Liver? What's the matter?"

"Old G, you haven't been online for a long time. What have you been up to recently?"

Pu Yunchuan: "I... I have something else to do. You... didn't you go to the grassland? Why are you free to contact me?"

Emperor liver: "I have something to ask for your help. Can You Come Out?"

"What is it?" Pu Yunchuan frowned.

"Let me tell you, little cabbage has been kidnapped again!"

Pu Yunchuan: "..."

Chapter 422: anxious situation

"Captain Chen, do you think that guy really has something to do with this case? He doesn't look like a person who can do such a big thing..." the female police officer asked curiously.

That guy looked like a veteran loser. The takeout boxes at home had been left for days. To be honest, she didn't believe that such a person could be related to such a vicious case of black mass.

"There's nothing we can do about it..." the male police officer shook his head and said, "There's too little information about that mysterious woman. The only person who has a connection with her is this Pu Yunchuan. And I think this guy has something to do with this case..."

"Why do you say that?" The woman asked curiously.

"It's very strange. The takeout boxes in his house have been sitting there for days..."

"Otakus, aren't they all like this?"

"There aren't any bugs at all..." the male police officer shook his head.

"Eh?" The female police officer was stunned. "There aren't any?"

"No..." the male police officer shook his head. "I took a look. There aren't any bugs at all. Then the food residue, this is very abnormal..."

"What does this mean?" The female police officer frowned.

"This means that it doesn't make sense..." the male officer said, "Something that doesn't make sense must have a reason that we can't think of. If we're lucky, it might be a clue to solve the case..."

"Then are you lucky?"

The male officer pointed at his high-level badge. "Judging from the difference in our levels, my luck should be pretty good..."

The female officer: "..."

"I have just put a bug on the guy, you continue to monitor this guy do not break, My Luck tells me that the breakthrough in this guy!"

"Good, Yang..." the policewoman retorted.

"Cabbages?" The room Leng Leng way: "Which cabbages?"

"The task that... . You Forgot?" Pu Yunchuan Leng Way.

"Little cabbage, it's that... the one in the main storyline of the quest, the one who was captured and sent to the grassland, remember?" The emperor of the liver said anxiously.

"Oh..." Pu Yunchuan suddenly remembered that there was an unlucky player who was captured back then, so he asked subconsciously, "Captured again? Are you sure she's a player and not an NPC?"

Emperor Liver: "..."

To be honest, this guy was really lucky... ..

"Old Liver, let me tell you..." Pu Yunchuan suddenly lowered his voice and said, "I advise you not to play this game..."

"Why?" Emperor liver was stunned.

"There's something wrong with this game..." Pu Yunchuan said in a low voice as if he was sharing a secret.

"You just realized it?" The liver emperor asked in surprise.

Pu Yunchuan: "..."

The liver emperor: "I thought I was slow enough. Wang Goudan discovered it a few months ago..."

Pu Yunchuan: "..."

"Then why are you still playing?"

"Why not?" The Liver Emperor said in a daze, "Let's not talk about anything else. After I play this game, I get up much less at night..."

"I. . ." Pu Yunchuan was stunned. He wanted to retort, but he found that he could not do so because he seemed to have improved a lot in that aspect as well. ...

"Let's not talk about this... Hurry up and come with me to save people..."

"Enter the game?"

"No, come to Nanbin Road. Little cabbages were caught in reality..."

Pu Yunchuan's eyelids twitched. He felt that these days were getting crazier and crazier...

“Otaku, at home is not to play games?” The female police officer rolled her eyes.

“But he just said there was something wrong with the game and advised the other party not to play...” the male officer’s eyes lit up and he felt like he had found a breakthrough point. ...

Actually, he had been monitoring Pu Yunchuan for a long time. According to the surveillance footage, this Pu Yunchuan’s previous life pattern was not as bad as it was now. At least, he would still go out for dinner, occasionally, he would even go for a walk in the park. Moreover, he was still very clean when he went out, which was a big contrast to the past few days.

Ever since he was called to the police station for the last murder case, he had not gone out much since he returned home. He had also started ordering takeout for dinner. This obvious change made him feel that there was something wrong with this guy.

“Sir, what does a game have to do with this murder case?” The female police officer asked immediately.

“You...”. The male police officer said, “Don’t be stubborn when solving a case. Some things can’t be explained for the time being because we don’t know the truth yet. The truth is usually hidden in these unreasonable things. Everything is done according to the routine. Do you think our meals are so delicious?”

The female police officer immediately glanced at him, obviously disagreeing with him in her heart.

The few police officers behind him immediately perked up when they heard that. They looked up and saw Pu Yunchuan wearing a black down jacket walking out of the residential area. When he reached the roadside, he dialed a beep and left the residential area.

“Follow him!” The male police officer hurriedly said.

When his men heard that, they immediately started the engine and quietly followed behind.

In the Didi Car, Pu Yunchuan was in a trance as he held his phone. To be honest, he had hesitated for a long time to come out. This matter was too strange. However, if he did not figure it out, he could not hide in his house forever, could he?

He was very clear about the background of the emperor of the liver. It was an old program like him. His company had worked with him in the past. His identity was not a problem. From his tone, he seemed to know a lot.

Moreover, from his tone, there were a lot of people who knew... “...”. This made Pu Yunchuan very unhappy. Wang Goudan was still his junior. How could she know that he did not know? Moreover, the group of people seemed to be having a lot of fun after knowing something, which made him even more unhappy...

No, he could not continue to escape like this...

“No matter what kind of existence you are...” Pu Yunchuan shook an accessory in his hand, and a hint of determination flashed in his eyes.

This was a gift from Isabelle. Other than his mother, this was the second gift from the opposite sex. No matter what it was, he had to figure it out this time... ..

In the neighborhood where Alice lived, Isabelle was looking out of the window at a relatively low-key location facing Alice’s building.

Alice was tracking her, and she had been tracking him back.

Since half a month ago, she had been keenly aware that her ancestor’s physical abilities were declining, which made her extremely excited.

This made Isabelle, who had been preparing to escape thousands of miles away, suddenly have other thoughts...

She guessed that her ancestor, as a dead person, could survive in the world because there must be something supplying her, and now that she had been summoned to such a far place, that supply... .. might have already been cut off... ..

If that was the case...

She might have a chance. As long as she disappeared, she... .. might really be free. Or perhaps.. ... She could still go back to look for that little fatty...

However, although she was excited, she was very patient. If she could watch the other party disappear without a direct confrontation, that would naturally be the best. Now that she had hope, she did not want to die even more...

However, she could not understand the actions of her ancestor recently. She had captured a little girl, but she did not kill her to replenish her energy like the other hostages. It felt like she was planning something.

She had a feeling that she could not let the other party succeed. She felt that once the other party succeeded in planning, she would never be able to escape from the other party... ..

Chapter 423: Alice’s inexplicable actions...

Buzz, Buzz, Buzz...

A simple vibration broke the silence of the morning, but the two people on the sofa were shocked and glared at the owner of the phone.

Faced with the two people’s righteous glare, the white-collar lady, Xiao Xia, pursed her lips in grievance, but she didn’t dare to retort. Instead, she was as anxious as the two people.

There was a reason why she was so flustered. She had originally thought that the woman was a lunatic, but she did not expect that she was actually a monster!

Yesterday, the woman was originally a beautiful woman with three-dimensional facial features and an excellent temperament. Although the color of her eyes was a little strange, the beauty-eye technique was developed nowadays. It was common for some people to like a little novelty-seeking style.

However, it was not until this morning that she finally understood that this woman was not a normal person from the inside out...

As the sun rose, Alice's skin rapidly aged, festered, and her flesh evaporated. In less than half an hour, she had become a scrawny existence. Coupled with her strange green eyes,. Her current appearance was completely like a devil...

But for some reason, this guy seemed to enjoy the sun. He stayed on the balcony and stared blankly at the rising sun on the river.

They had goosebumps, but they didn't dare to say anything. They were afraid that he would turn around and eat them alive...

At this moment, Alice, who seemed to be attracted by the Sun, turned her head slightly, as if she was attracted by Bai Xiaoxia's ringtone

My God... Why Am I so unlucky?

Bai Xiaoxia was terrified. She looked at those green eyes and revealed a smile that was uglier than crying. "Sorry to disturb you. I'll turn it off immediately..."

"Answer it..." Alice said in a hoarse voice, "I heard that the houses here are very expensive. To be able to buy such a beautiful house, you must have a good job, right?"

"No Way... He's just a salesman..." Bai Xiaoxia said with a bitter smile.

"Pick up the phone first..." Alice urged.

"Okay..." Bai Xiaoxia didn't dare to disobey her. ? She answered the phone nervously.

"Hello, President Bai, the meeting is about to start. President Qi has arrived. Where are you?" It was Bai Xiaoxia's assistant on the other end of the phone.

"I. . . I have something to do. I Can't come. Please help me apologize to President Qi..." after Bai Xiaoxia said softly, she carefully glanced at Alice.

"You can't Come?" The voice on the other end of the phone suddenly became louder. "President Bai, are you kidding me? This is a two-billion-dollar bill. If you can't come at such a critical moment, who will come to talk about this bill?"

Who cares...

Bai Xiaoxia said impatiently in her heart. At this time, her life was almost gone. Not to mention the two-billion-dollar bill, even the two-hundred-billion-dollar bill had nothing to do with her?

“Go...”

Suddenly, just as Bai Xiaoxia was about to hang up the phone, Alice suddenly spoke...

“Ah?” Bai Xiaoxia suddenly didn’t react in time.

“Thanks to your house, I saw a very good view. There’s nothing to repay. At least I can’t delay your official career, right?”

“This... it... It’s fine...” Bai Xiaoxia stuttered.

Bai Xiaoxia was stunned for a moment. In the end, she swallowed her saliva and said, “You really want me to leave?”

Alice smiled but did not reply. She continued to look out of the window. For some reason, although she looked like an evil spirit, compared to her beautiful and sexy appearance two days ago, she looked more peaceful.

Bai Xiaoxia hesitated for a moment before she finally stood up slowly. Facing her, she slowly retreated out of the living room.

Xiao Baicai and the director of the Internet disaster, Tang Kaiming, were staring at each other. When they saw Bai Xiaoxia retreat to the door, they saw her running away as if her life depended on it!

Bai Cai was stunned. After a long while, she came back to her senses and said, “She really left?”

This didn’t make sense. According to the bad taste of the regular horror movies, shouldn’t she kill the other party the moment they thought they had escaped?

While she was stunned, she saw Tang Kaimin react first. He suddenly jumped up from the sofa and ran out of the door.

Bang!

This time, it was very much in line with the routine. Tang Kaimin’s head exploded before he even reached the living room. Xiao Baicai could clearly see that the young lady who had turned into a monster had smashed him to death with a sprite bottle beside her...

In wuxia novels, it was said that masters could kill with flying flowers and falling leaves. Xiao Baicai completely believed it this time... ..

“Why... release the young lady but smash the bald uncle to death?” Xiao Baicai asked in a daze.

“I Like It!” Alice tilted her head and said.

“Well...” Bai Cai swallowed.

“By the way... Who Are You? Why did you arrest me?”

"I thought you didn't care about this question." Alice looked at Bai Cai and smiled.

Bai Cai: "..."

"Well, there's still a while before the appointed time. Let me tell you about my background."

"This... Alright..." little cabbage said in a daze.

On the other side, after Bai Xiaoxia escaped from the room, she ran out frantically. She didn't even dare to take the elevator. She ran all the way down the stairs from the 27th floor barefoot!

She was extremely nervous every time she passed a staircase. She was afraid that, just like in a horror movie, she would encounter a ghost at a turn of the corner...

Twenty-one, twenty, fifteen, fourteen...

After coming down one by one, she saw that she had rushed to the first floor. Just as she was about to run out into the sunlight, Bai Xiaoxia suddenly felt that something was tugging at her. In an instant, her body could not help but be pulled backward.

At that moment, Bai Xiaoxia's tensed nerves instantly collapsed. She wanted to shout at the living room's light, trying to take her last chance. However, she realized that her neck was being strangled, and she could not make a single sound, seeing that she was about to see the light but was forcefully dragged into the darkness, she thought sorrowfully in her heart, is this really the same trick?

"Shh... Don't Be Afraid, I won't Hurt You..."

Bai Xiaoxia was stunned. She could tell that this voice did not belong to the evil spirit upstairs.

"I'll let go of you. Don't scream, lest you alarm the guy upstairs. From the looks of it, you should know how terrifying that guy is, right?"

Bai Xiaoxia nodded her head vigorously.

Only then did the other party slowly let go of her. Bai Xiaoxia slowly turned around and saw a tall and slender western woman with three-dimensional facial features.

It was Isabelle.

She had been keeping an eye on Alice's whereabouts for the past two days. When she saw that there was actually a living person running out of the other party's room, and that the other party did not seem to have any intention of chasing after her, Isabelle's heart suddenly stirred, she quickly grabbed the person over to ask about the situation.

After all, it was a rare opportunity to investigate the situation without taking any risks...

After pacifying the woman's terrified emotions for a while, Isabelle finally asked about what she wanted to know.

"You said that she has become skin and Bones?" Isabelle had a strange look on her face.

“Yes...” Bai Xiaoxia nodded nervously and said, “She looks extremely terrifying... it feels like she has evaporated into a dried corpse in an instant...”

Did she consume so much energy?

Isabelle frowned, but she was puzzled. With the ancestor’s cautious and cunning personality, he shouldn’t have let her out.

Did he know that she was tracking her and set up a trap on purpose or... ? ... was he so exhausted that he didn’t want to waste any more energy?

What was she trying to do?

Isabelle wondered, but for a moment she wasn’t sure what her ancestor was up to. ...

Chapter 424: the legendary past of Alice!

“I was born in a small town called Windsor. I heard that it was an extremely beautiful place, but I don’t have much of an impression of it. Ever since I was young, I’ve been a slave under a mage family called Philinos. When I was ten years old, I had two choices. One was to learn how to serve men and become prostitutes, and go to the largest brothel under the current family Dean to earn money for him...” . “...”

“What about the second one?” Little cabbage was intrigued and asked curiously.

Alice said, “The second one is to learn how to fight and then become a gladiator and go to the Gladiator Arena that was opened up by the Felinoss branch of the Steel Warrior Empire to earn money for his family...”

Little Cabbage: “...”

What a wicked slave owner...

“I don’t want to be a prostitute. I heard that the treatment there is actually quite good. As long as I don’t get infected with an inexplicable disease before I get old, I will have enough money to live the rest of my life and die in a warm bed. But that would be too tragic. I heard that the child born will be a slave of the Felinos family no matter what the bloodline. I was born with only two choices in this world. I don’t want to have a day where my child can only choose between a prostitute and a gladiator like me...” . “...”

Little cabbage: “So, you chose the Gladiator? That thing should... not even have the chance to have a child, right?”

“It’s true that there are no losers...” . Alice smiled and said, “But as long as you can keep winning, your fate will change. At that time, the steel warrior empire was still in its golden period of vigorous development. Many nobles lacked outstanding guards. Many slaves who proved themselves in the arena were appreciated by the nobles. They became awe-inspiring grandfathers of knights. As long as I can win to that extent, I can live the life I want.” “...” . “...”

“Then... it should be very difficult, right?” Little cabbage hesitated for a moment and said.

“Very difficult...” Alice nodded, a trace of reminiscence flashed through her eyes. “Half of the people would die during training, and the death rate in the first few matches after entering the arena was more than 80% . Someone calculated that there would be around 10 to 30 guards coming out of the arena of the Felinos family every year, but the number of slaves entering the family’s arena was never less than 1,000 every year...” . “...”

“You... How Did You Survive?”

“I kept winning!” Alice said faintly, “From training to being valued by the fourth prince at that time, I experienced a total of 317 battles. I won all of them without losing, and I survived...”

Little Cabbage:”...”

Although she didn’t hear the detailed description, little cabbage could imagine what kind of Asura arena it would be before she succeeded just from the data of the other party...

“What happened after that?” Little cabbage was very curious about what happened to the woman who had always won...

“After that?” Alice’s lips curled into a smile, she seemed to have recalled something very good. “It wasn’t as smooth as I thought. Even though His Highness the fourth Prince’s group couldn’t beat me back then, the other party still didn’t seem to believe that a woman could lead an army, so I was trained as a scout. Ten years later, the fourth Prince became the king, and I became an intelligence chief... “...” . Although his status was not low, he could only stay in a dark place. This was not what I wanted. “...”

“Then what did you do after that?” Little cabbage quickly asked.

“To prove myself!” Alice smiled and said, “I had been looking for an opportunity. The King was fond of fighting and wanted to unify the northern beast race. So I waited in the dark for an opportunity to prove myself. Until one year, the king was too rash in a battle, resulting in a huge defeat. All the land that had just been expanded was sent back. The most fatal thing was that the battle line was cut off. Tens of thousands of elite troops in front were cut off. But at that time, the situation forced the king to give up on those soldiers and retreat. and at that moment, I knew that my opportunity had come!”

Without waiting for Bai Cai to continue questioning Alice, she continued, “I sneaked into the rear alone. Along the way, I tried my best to gather small groups of fleeing soldiers while avoiding the pursuit of the orcs. Along the way, I took advantage of the chaos to gather 30% of the 100,000 elite troops. This result was something I didn’t expect in the beginning...” . “...”

“Then... aren’t the orcs going to hunt you down?” Bai Cai asked curiously.

“Yes... Alice smiled. “That’s why I chose to divide my soldiers into more than ten waves and let them escape to the designated location. The orcs want to chase us, so naturally, they can only divide into more than ten waves. The orcs are a tribal clan. Once people split up, they would have their own command. Their interaction with each other is much worse than before. We move as one. We split up at which location, assemble at which location, what is the route, and what is the estimated time. We also have arcana crystals to communicate with each other, which is much more efficient than the scattered tribes. I have designed a few troops to escape from the pursuit, and then quickly gather other troops at other locations. After gathering the strength, we can turn around and ambush and kill the orcs who are chasing us

“After a few waves, there were fewer and fewer pursuers. Originally, the tribes were formed by an alliance. After a few waves of heavy losses, some tribal chiefs were reluctant to send out their elites. They would shirk from each other, but the more they hesitated, the better our lives would be... ..”

“What happened after that?” Little cabbage became more and more excited as she listened...

“After that...” . “...” . “After that, a group of us burned, killed, and looted on the grasslands. When we encountered large tribes, we would go around them. When we encountered small tribes, we would rob them. Occasionally, we would even be able to save some of our fellow captives. Once the beast race encircled and annihilated them, we would scatter. In any case, we would constantly harass them and wait for the other party’s strength to loosen up before annihilating them. After a few years, our group grew stronger and stronger. By the end of it, there were already 70,000 to 80,000 of us...” . “...”

Little Cabbage:”...”

Why did this tactic sound so familiar...

“Of course, all of this was not always smooth sailing. During this period, we encountered many dangers and almost fell into a desperate situation. The losses were also great. Every year, there were new recruits who came in, and every year, there were people who died. By the fifth year that I was drifting behind the northern Beastmen, the king finally launched his second Northern Expedition. After drifting for so many years, the opportunity finally came. Taking advantage of this opportunity, the king and I worked together to take down the Black River valley, allowing the steel arms empire to finally have a foothold in the north...” . “...”

“What kind of official position did your king give you after that?”

“He still wants me to go back and continue to be his intelligence chief...” Alice laughed.

Little Cabbage:”...”

“But later, it was discovered that the situation did not allow it...” . “All these years that I was in the north, all the soldiers under me who were able to survive were all fierce and evil people. At that time, none of the armies under the five great dukes could fight better than my soldiers. Moreover, those soldiers did not trust the king who had abandoned them at that time. Under such circumstances, in order to ensure that these fierce and evil soldiers were still used by him to resist the beast race, the king chose to recruit me and let me become the sixth Duke of the Empire.” “...” . “...”

“Amazing...” little cabbage praised from the bottom of his heart. Looking at his life, it made those who were poor but complained about their poor background feel ashamed...

“What happened after that? Did you have a good life?”

“Very good!” Alice recalled the most glorious moment in her life. “In the following years, my status rose higher and higher, and my strength improved steadily. I had my own territory and people, and I even found a beautiful scholar to marry into my Lord’s mansion. The man was good-looking, and the children he gave birth to were also very beautiful. This was in line with my original expectations of life...” . “...”

“Yes... well...” little cabbage said, “I thought you would find a strong man...”

Alice tilted her head and looked at her. “If I don’t have the strength to find a strong man, why would I go to find a strong man if I have the strength? Can’t I find a prettier one?”

“Good!” Little cabbage nodded. “Very good!”

“What about later?”

“Later died...”

“Died?”

Alice looked at her and pointed at herself. “Look at me now. Do I look like a living person?”

“UH...” little cabbage’s face twitched and she swallowed. “Then... How did you die?”

Little Cabbage:”...”

“Then... how did you end up here again?”

Alice briefly recounted how she met the undead Lord, how Pu Yunchuan was teleported back home and was followed by her descendants, and how she was teleported here.

Little cabbage was stunned and could not help but curse, “So it was the f * cking other players who let me in?”

“Then why did they find me?”

Little cabbage asked the question that she wanted to ask the most...

She really wanted to know, in the vast sea of people, a stupid player that she didn’t know at all put an NPC into reality, why would she be the one to suffer?

Chapter 425: “If you’re not confident, why don’t you take a look at the situation first?”?

Little cabbage didn’t believe that she was really unlucky to have been bumped into. F * ck, the main city of City C was more than 4,000 square kilometers, and there were hundreds of thousands of people. How could she possibly be so unlucky?

Moreover, from her appearance, it was obvious that the other party had planned to find her. However, the key point was that from her description, she was a person from another world, and she had only been here for less than two months, how did she find her in such a place where the language and culture were different?

“I spent some time...”. Alice answered faintly, “When I came here, my descendant betrayed me for some unknown reason, causing my efficiency in gathering intelligence to be greatly reduced. I spent nearly half a month just learning the language and words here.” “...”

Little Cabbage:”...”

So those who graduated and didn't even pass Cet-4 knew why they were so miserable after graduation, right?

"So you're saying that you studied our language for half a month and found me in a month? How did you do it?"

"Language learning ability is something that is trained..." Alice shrugged and said, "When you were drifting in the northern grassland tribes, you had to be proficient in the language of the orcs in order to obtain information. However, most low-level orcs do not speak the official language of the orcs. The kobolds have the language of the Kobolds, and the Taurens have the language of the Taurens. You have to quickly adapt to that environment, or else it would be easy to cause serious consequences due to a misinformation"

"Then... How did you find me?"

"When I spent some time to understand this world's information, I discovered that this world's civilization did not seem to have the ability to travel through so much space. After many days of information gathering, the result was that this world was the same as ours. It had not yet been ruled by your faction, which meant that you were hiding in the dark..." "..."

"The person who brought me out of the world of the dead once told me that existences like them would definitely invade civilization if they encountered it. It's just that the method of invasion is different. Those with strength will use their strength to openly invade, while those without strength will use their knowledge and technology to secretly invade. Since it's a secret invasion, there will definitely be some unusual phenomena. Your country is very stable. The government is strong, the local private capital is weak, the control is strict, and the people are open-minded. It's also not easy to be bewitched by religion..." "...". There wasn't even a big local gang... "...". To be honest, if it were me, I wouldn't even know how to secretly invade... "..."

Little Cabbage:"..."

"But I think the person behind you is definitely different from me. After all, he has abilities that I can't even imagine, so I started to slowly search, and then I found that game of yours that doesn't make sense..."

"What doesn't make sense?" Little Cabbage Leng Way.

"It doesn't make any sense... . Alice frowned and said, "Just looking at the game picture, I feel that it is totally different from the game you are playing now, not to mention the game style introduced by Grandpa Lu. Don't you feel that you are way ahead of your time? Don't you yourselves have any doubt that such an anachronistic thing comes from a little-known mystery studio?"

"Then, are you sure that our forces are invading through this game?" Little cabbage asked curiously.

"I'm not sure..." "...". Alice shook her head and said, "I'm just suspicious. After all, there's too little information. However, after reading the news about you, I feel that the possibility is very high. After all, you disappeared for a year and suddenly came back with ten slots in the game. Just thinking about it is very abnormal..." "..."

Little Cabbage: "..."

"But actually, it is just a suspicion...". Alice sighed and said, "Originally, if I had enough time, I would have acted more cautiously. After all, your faction is definitely much stronger than mine. However, I don't have much time, so I can only choose to take a gamble. My Luck is pretty good. You are the person I am looking for, and you are also very weak. In my current state, if I were to meet an expert from your faction, I'm afraid that I wouldn't even be able to escape "...". "..."

"I..." Little cabbage opened his mouth. He wanted to say that he was actually very strong, but he didn't bring the dog with him. If not, he could beat you up ten times!

In the end, he was too ashamed to say it. He kept a thousand words in his heart and finally sighed. Looking at Alice, who was visibly weakening, the fear in little cabbage's heart slowly disappeared. He said, "You're really a powerful person..."

These words came from the bottom of his heart. He was an otherworldling, and he was a fellow whose civilization level was similar to that of the ancient people. He had come here for less than two months, and he was able to find this game through collecting intelligence and find his own group. No wonder he could become a top noble from a slave... ..

"Oh? Are you here?" While they were chatting, Alice's phone that she had been holding in her hand suddenly vibrated. Looking at the caller ID, Alice took a deep breath and answered the call.

"Yes... Building B, 25th floor, room number four. Come Up..."

Have we arrived?

Little Cabbage's heart tightened. She suddenly felt a little guilty about whether the emperor of the liver could save her. After all, from the description of this woman, she was completely different from that loser, the emperor of the liver... ..

After Alice hung up the phone, she did not look at little cabbage. Instead, she said to the door, "Don't you want to come in and talk? My descendant..."

Little cabbage was stunned and looked at the door. Then, she saw a woman in a white down jacket walk in. From her appearance, she also looked like a Westerner, and her outline was a little similar to Alice's...

Was this the descendant that she mentioned earlier about betraying her. Little cabbage curiously looked at Isabelle who walked in... ..

"You know I'm following you?" Isabelle frowned.

"Of course I know..." Alice smiled. "If I were still in this world, you would never be able to live a free life. You're not a passive person like me..."

"You look very weak..." Isabelle glanced at Alice.

"No matter how weak you are, you're still a legend. Do you want to take the risk? My Descendant?" Alice laughed.

Isabelle fell silent. It sounded like she was bluffing. If it were anyone else, she might have attacked directly, but she didn't dare to do so. After being together with this person for so many years... She knew very well how powerful her ancestor was...

She didn't believe that the other party would be so passive... ..

"Not sure?" Alice looked at her with a smile. "I have an appointment with a guest. There might be a fierce battle later. If you're really not sure, why don't you take a look at the situation first?"

Isabelle: "..."

On the other side, the police officers who had followed Pu Yunchuan and the others parked their cars outside the residential area. Just as they were about to observe the situation, they suddenly saw a woman in pajamas running into the security room with a panicked expression, it was as if she had encountered an extremely terrifying situation.

The male police officer had an idea and immediately got out of the car to walk over. The female police officer beside him was stunned and hurriedly got out of the car as well.

After the two of them walked in, they seemed to have heard the woman say that there was a monster calling the police or something. These words made their expressions change and they hurriedly quickened their pace to walk over...

Chapter 426: GO OUT and help call the police. Thank you

"Ma'am, is there anything I can help you with?" Officer Yang walked over quickly and took out his identification card.

When she saw that it was the police, Bai Xiaoxia hugged the other party as if she had found her savior and burst into tears!

When officer Yang saw this, he quickly patted the other party's back and comforted her in a low voice, "Don't be afraid, Don't be afraid..."

The other police officers had strange expressions on their faces when they saw this. They thought to themselves, "We're also police officers. Why did this woman pounce on our boss?" Just because our boss is handsome?

"Officer... Officer..." after a few minutes, Bai Xiaoxia slowly calmed down and sobbed, "I... I have a monster at home..."

As soon as she said that, their expressions changed. The female police officer was about to ask further, but officer Yang quickly raised his hand to stop her. He knew that this was not the time to be anxious, then, he said in a slower voice, "Ma'am, don't be anxious. You can speak slowly..."

Despite officer Yang's gentle words to comfort her, the agitated Bai Xiaoxia still took nearly 15 minutes to explain the situation clearly.

After hearing what happened, the few police officers, including the security guard, looked at each other in shock.

After all, what the other party said was a little creepy. Flesh and blood could be seen evaporating with the naked eye. It felt like a ghost story.

"Boss..." the female police officer suddenly narrowed her eyes and said, "Jiaming sent a message. Pu Yunchuan and another person went upstairs. From the elevator, it seems to be the 25th floor... Should we..."

"Don't worry..." officer Yang took a deep breath and said in a deep voice, "Call for backup..."

On the other side, the emperor of the liver and Pu Yunchuan, who had already gone upstairs, looked nervous, especially Pu Yunchuan.

"You said... that the one who kidnapped little cabbage is an undead?" Pu Yunchuan frowned and said, "Why do we have undead here? Is it in the game or?"

"Of course it's in the game. We in central China fight against feudal superstitions. Have you seen ghosts in all these years?"

"Then... could it be that not only we players can enter the game world, but the people in the game can also come to our reality at any time?" Pu Yunchuan said in surprise.

"It should be that they can't come at any time..." emperor liver touched his chin and said, "I heard that a happy player was followed when he went offline, and then someone came along with the teleportation..."

Pu Yunchuan: "..."

That happy player couldn't be talking about him, right?

But if it was him... "...". Could that undead be talking about Isabelle?

Pu Yunchuan's heart tightened at the thought of this. The reason why he had been running away these days was because he was afraid that the murderer was Isabelle...

Even though it was Liu Kai and the other two scumbags who died...

"What's wrong, brother?" The liver emperor clearly noticed Pu Yunchuan's uncertain expression.

"I. . ." Pu Yunchuan opened his mouth and hesitated for a moment, but in the end, he did not choose to retreat. He took a deep breath and said, "Let's Go..."

"Brother, you have to be careful..." the liver emperor said in a low voice, "If we are killed by the undead, the Lord will not be able to revive us..."

"I understand..." Pu Yunchuan nodded solemnly and asked, "Then what is our plan?"

“Plan?”The liver emperor was stunned.

“You aren’t planning to save us without any plan, are you?”Pu Yunchuan’s eyelids twitched as he looked at the other party in shock.

“OH, about that... HMM, it’s like this. It’s our plan to face all changes with no changes!”

Pu Yunchuan said, “I think I’d better leave...”

“Hey Brother, don’t be a coward...”as he spoke, the emperor of the liver took out the necklace from his chest and cut it in his hand, blood gushed into the necklace in his hand, and a white light descended from the sky. The entire elevator shook, scaring Pu Yunchuan so much that he quickly stuck close to the corner of the elevator. A few seconds later, the white light dissipated, the emaciated liver suddenly turned into a three-meter-tall green giant...

“The characters from that world aren’t strong either. I haven’t met any opponents there!”The liver patted his chest and promised.

Pu Yunchuan was stunned for a moment, and then stuttered, “I... Damn, this... This can be done? How did you do it?”

“Did I ask you to bring the accessory that the game company sent you?”

“Yes, I brought it...”Pu Yunchuan immediately took out a necklace that was exactly the same as emperor liver’s.

“This thing cuts your finger, and once it’s stained with blood, it can immediately transform our other bodies on Mars...”

“Oh, oh...”Pu Yunchuan nodded repeatedly. So it could be done like this... ..

No wonder these guys dared to continue playing despite knowing that the game was problematic. So it was like this. In the game, not only could npcs be brought over, but the game template could also be brought over. Wouldn’t that be equivalent to becoming a Superman?

F * ck... Why didn’t you say so earlier! ! !

“After we go in, the other party will definitely use little cabbage as a hostage. When that time comes, I will stand behind you as a deterrent. You go forward to negotiate. When the other party sees you like this, they will probably lower their guard against you and focus their attention on me. Later, you will look for an opportunity to save little cabbage based on the situation.”After saying that, the liver emperor smiled smugly. “How is it? “Is my plan not bad?”

Pu Yunchuan looked at him strangely and said, “This should be something you came up with at the last minute, right?”

Just as they were talking, there was a Ding and the elevator door opened. The two of them looked at each other and finally took a deep breath and walked out of the elevator.

“Room number four... on the left... it should be that room, right?”Pu Yunchuan pointed to the room with the door open.

The liver emperor nodded. The two of them walked in one after the other. As soon as they entered the room, they saw the corpse with its head smashed open on the ground. Looking at the blood and some unknown tissues on the ground, their hearts instantly turned cold...

As expected, he was an extremely vicious person, the liver emperor thought to himself.

Meanwhile, Pu Yunchuan had a complicated expression on his face. When he thought of the days he had interacted with Isabelle, it was hard for him to imagine that such a gentle woman would be such a person who did not take human lives seriously.

He walked into the living room with a complicated expression on his face. Soon, he saw Alice with a face full of evil spirits. He was stunned for a moment. Because Alice and Isabelle had similar silhouettes, even though they had changed into this appearance..., pu Yunchuan immediately recognized her as Isabelle and asked with a complicated expression, "How did she change into this appearance all of a sudden?"

Alice was stunned for a moment and thought to herself, where did this fatty come from. Why does he look like I have something to do with her...

"Do you know someone?" Little Cabbage, who was grabbed by the neck, looked at Pu Yunchuan's complicated expression and asked Alice curiously.

Alice first shook her head, but then she looked at little cabbage with a stunned expression and said, "You don't know him?"

"What the..." little cabbage was stunned for a moment before she reacted, he looked at the other party speechlessly. "Bro, who are you? Did you walk into the wrong door? Do you see that lump on the ground? How dare you come in? Hurry up and go out and help call the police. Thank you..."

Pu Yunchuan: "..."

"Why are you here?"

Just as the three of them were wondering about each other, a familiar voice came from behind Pu Yunchuan, causing his body to freeze.

Chapter 427: So... ... you can only be a system... ...

When he saw Isabelle again, Pu Yunchuan felt very complicated. There was the joy of meeting her again, and there was also panic.

The corpse in the living room proved that the person who kidnapped little cabbage was not a good person. If Isabelle was related to this, how should he face her?

"Hey, you know all of them?" The liver emperor walked behind, looking at Pu Yunchuan and the expression of the woman who suddenly appeared behind him and asked curiously.

The moment the liver emperor entered, the people around him had different expressions.

Isabelle's pupils suddenly constricted, and she stepped back slightly. She clearly sensed the threat of the Big Green Man... ..

Little Cabbage's heart jumped, and she thought to herself, so the template can be used on the D ball, damn it... ..

She was much more stable now. She had seen the fighting strength of the emperor of the liver before. He seemed to be playing with a large group of Tauren warriors in the base... ..

The moment Alice saw the emperor of the liver, she revealed a hint of excitement... ..

This expression disappeared in a flash, but little cabbage saw it inadvertently. Little cabbage looked at the other party's excited expression and felt slightly puzzled. That feeling was very strange, just like when a terminally ill patient heard the doctor say that there was hope... It was a very pure desire to survive... ..

"I . . . Only know her..." Pu Yunchuan pointed at Isabelle embarrassedly and said, "They are quite similar, so I mistook her at the beginning..."

"How are they alike?" The liver emperor was stunned and looked at the two of them. One was a western beauty who was even more beautiful than widow, and the other was a monster who looked like a ghoul without any flesh and only a leather bag outside. He really could not understand.., how were these two things similar?

Pu Yunchuan was stunned. Then, he turned around and saw Isabelle looking at him with an inexplicable expression. He hurriedly waved his hand and stammered, "I . . . I . . . I didn't mean that... I didn't mean that you look like that Ghost..."

The Liver Emperor:"..."

Isabelle looked at Pu Yunchuan's anxious expression and could not help but laugh. She thought to herself, 'this guy really hasn't changed at all...'. ...

"Oh... so it's you..." Alice looked at Pu Yunchuan meaningfully... ..

"Uh... you know him again?" Bai Cai was confused.

"Didn't you just say that my descendant betrayed me?" Alice pointed at Pu Yunchuan with her skinny finger. "It should be because of this guy..."

"Betrayed?" Pu Yunchuan's heart skipped a beat.

Bai Cai looked at each other and suddenly felt that the relationship was very complicated... ..

"Um... Do you want to consider settling my matter first?" Bai Cai suggested.

"That makes sense..." Alice nodded and tightened her grip on Bai Cai's delicate neck. Feeling the imminent death threat, Bai Cai realized that he was no longer as nervous as he was in the beginning. ...

The liver emperor asked, "What do you want?"

Isabelle looked at her ancestor, her heart filled with doubt.

This green giant was very powerful. She could feel that even when her ancestor was at his peak, he might not be a match for this Green Giant. Why did he take the initiative to provoke him when he was so weak?

Isabelle was not the only one who was puzzled. In fact, the intelligence system that was watching the situation from afar was also puzzled.

According to its calculations, Alice had almost no chance of escaping from her current predicament... ..

From the moment she chose to teleport over, this outcome was already destined. Undead creatures were different from other creatures. These souls that ran out of the world of the dead were constantly being summoned by their original world, moreover, they were also repelled by the laws of the living world. Therefore, once there was no protection from the laws of the god Lord, the soul state would rapidly weaken. Once the soul state weakened, in order to replenish the soul energy,. She would quickly absorb her body's energy, which would cause her body to collapse... ..

To the undead, the body... was a consumable item!

The other party had entered the depths of the death zone alone without any supplies. The mysterious overlord that had escaped from the death zone had been severely injured by seer, so she was unable to support her for a short period of time. It was equivalent to having her backup cut off...

Her condition would only get weaker and weaker. Under normal circumstances, if it were other undead, they would have started a massacre and crazily absorb energy in order to survive... ..

However, this method was very stupid. Usually, it would cause a backlash and be besieged by the creatures of this world. In order to prevent themselves from being isolated, some undead would choose to convert other undead, however, other undead would also need energy when they took form. These things would not only produce but only plunder when the demand increased, so they could only cause more killing.

The so-called undead calamity... came from this.

However, this Alice was very calm. She was always careful to maintain her stamina, and she was also very careful when she needed energy, can you imagine an ancient person killing over twenty people without leaving a trace in this modern world full of cameras?

Using the limited time to find a player without suffering a backlash from the world's major forces, one had to admit that this woman was indeed very outstanding. However, what would she do if they found her?

The system was curious...

Under such circumstances, even if she was lucky enough to have a hostage, what could she ask for?

"Now that I'm here, can we talk? How can you let her go?"The liver emperor frowned.

"Let me go back..."Alice's voice became weaker. "Let me go back to my original world. When I get to a safe place, I'll return her to you..."

The liver emperor's eyelids twitched. He immediately understood what Alice meant. She wanted to return to the New World... ..

Isabelle was stunned. Then, she was shocked. If Alice went back, she would still be able to find her through bloodline magic. Then, she would never be able to get rid of her control...

"How can I be sure that you'll return her to US after you go back? What if you kill her?"The Liver Emperor asked in a daze.

"Then why don't I kill her now?"Alice narrowed her eyes and said.

The Liver Emperor's eyes twitched as he thought to himself, what a straightforward kidnapper trick!

It was exactly the same as those robbers who robbed banks and took hostages on TV. However, according to the trick, most robbers would kill her even if they were safe...

The liver emperor hesitated immediately. In the current situation, he could either follow the kidnappers'intention and hope that the other party would be merciful at the end or find an opportunity to forcefully take her away...

The latter had the upper hand. However, if he could not save her, he would have to take the blame...

"Are you confident?"Pu Yunchuan used the private message function of the emperor of the liver to type.

The emperor of the liver shook his head. In this situation, he might have a better chance if he brought an elf player. However, the time given by the other party was limited. He did not have time to contact the others. The ELF players he knew were not in City C. They seemed to have gone to Kunlun...

"Can you send her back?"Pu Yunchuan asked curiously.

"I should be able to...". The liver emperor typed, "Players who know the truth will be given a mobile teleportation device. We can enter the New World at any time. As long as we set up a teleportation point in advance, it will be fine. I have a teleportation point in the grassland at the southern edge of the New World and inside the base "..."

"Then we'll teleport inside the base..."Pu Yunchuan said.

The liver emperor was stunned for a moment, but he immediately understood what the other party meant. With the Lord inside the base and so many players, the chances of saving little cabbage would be much greater than now...

After thinking it through, he did not hesitate and immediately opened the teleportation device and the portal...

A white light flashed and formed a white light screen. The liver emperor pointed at the glowing door and said to Alice, "Inside is where you came from..."

"How do I know that there isn't another place inside?"Alice said faintly.

"If you don't believe me, then I have no choice..."the liver emperor shrugged and said, "If you really want to exchange your life, then do it..."

Alice nodded, but she didn't hesitate at all. She stood up with little cabbage and said hoarsely, "You two, back off! !"

The liver emperor and Pu Yunchuan looked at each other and then stepped back. Alice took a deep breath and slowly walked into the portal with little cabbage...

Isabelle's expression turned anxious. She was about to go forward, but Pu Yunchuan stopped her and shook his head at her...

"That's it?" The system was slightly disappointed when it saw Alice walk into the portal.

"Then what else do you want?" Xi Ye scrolled through her moments and looked at her old classmate's new diary without looking up.

"UH..." the system was stunned for a moment and then said, "Isn't she worried that the portal might be tampered with?"

"What's the use of worrying?" Xi Ye rolled her eyes and said, "She's about to be a dog and she still has the time to care about this?"

"So that's the meaning of taking a gamble?" The system was puzzled, "Then this person isn't as outstanding as you think. After all, those who are smarter should know that the portal will definitely be tampered with. Her kidnapping this time has no meaning at all!"

"Uh..." Xi ye raised her head strangely. "Who said it has no meaning?"

"What meaning?" The system was puzzled. "Isn't the result the same?"

"So... you can only be a system..." Xi ye pouted.

The system: "..."

Chapter 428: Expensive Undead!

"Is that really the case?"

After coming out of the portal, Alice found herself locked in a cell filled with electromagnetism, and the cabbage in her hand had disappeared without a trace.

Facing this result, Alice did not panic at all, as if she had expected it. After sighing, she sat cross-legged on the ground and slowly closed her eyes, as if she was waiting for something.

Ai became more and more confused as it looked at all of this. Judging from her mental state, she seemed to have known that this would be the result... ? Then, what was the reason for the effort?

On the other side, in the Lord's room, little cabbage looked at seer angrily. "Big Bad Lord!"

“What’s wrong with me?” Seer said in surprise, “I’m the best to you out of all the players...”

“You could have saved me this morning, but you wanted to scare me! !”

“Wasn’t that a test of your ability to respond?”

“How was the test?”

“...”

Little cabbage sat on the spot without any intention of moving...

“What are you still sitting there for?”

“That... Alice, can she join my team?” Little cabbage asked.

“Oh?” Seer raised her head slightly and asked with interest, “Why are you wasting a spot for her? Don’t you know that spots are very precious?”

“She’s very powerful...” little cabbage quickly said, “It’s hard to find such a powerful person, right?”

Xi Ye: “She might not be willing to follow you!”

Little cabbage: “Then why would she do so much trouble? She’s so smart, wouldn’t she know that I’ll definitely be saved once I enter the portal?”

“Hahahaha! !” Xi Ye immediately laughed out loud when she heard that. “See? Even this simple-minded person understands better than you do...”

Al: “...”

So... ? Was that woman’s goal the whole time?

No wonder she talked so much with little cabbage...

On the other side, Alice closed her eyes and felt her soul getting weaker and weaker. She began to feel a little anxious...

It was just as seer and the others had said. The first time she had set her eyes on little cabbage, she had actually set her eyes on her quota.

After spending a certain amount of time to understand this world, she quickly understood Xi Ye’s game mode of invasion. The other party was trying to obtain a population in disguise, and she was very lucky... The population of this world seemed to be the main target for the leader of this faction to nurture. Therefore, she knew that the so-called closed beta quota was actually a great opportunity for these people from Planet D.

It was just like when the God had chosen her group of undead. However, the difference was that from Grandpa Lu's guide, this faction's leader had a more planned plan for the nurturing of his people, it was not like the previous leader who had promised to be empty-handed.

The result was that this faction's leader was very lacking in people and was willing to use resources to nurture people!

From the fact that the little girl had a slot in the inner faction, the leader of this faction was already preparing to build a pyramid. From her point of view, this was a great opportunity, so when she couldn't contact the previous leader., she decided to join this new faction.

However, she wasn't sure if the other party would be able to accept her, because the previous leader had once told her that undead weren't accepted in this world. She actually had doubts about this statement. I just didn't have any more information at the time, so I didn't take any chances...

And now I'm in such a desperate situation, I have to take this risk...

"You have to think about it, it's very expensive to raise an undead, especially a high-level one..." said seer with a laugh.

"Very expensive?" The small cabbage one face is stupefied: "What meaning?"

"Undead are different from the normal creatures in this world. They came from the world of death and are not accepted by the normal laws of this world, so they consume more energy...". Seer explained patiently, "Undead need a body to stabilize their souls in this world, but due to the high consumption, the moment they change their bodies, they begin to slowly exhaust the power of their bodies. This is because the stronger the undead are, the stronger the body they need. Moreover, unlike living souls, it's very difficult for them to train a body into a high-level product "..."

"What does that mean?" Little cabbage was stunned.

"It means that you have to prepare a high-level body for her at any time!" Xi Ye laughed. "You've seen the players in the base. It took them half a day to evolve into a level 2 lifeform. This is also due to the unique genes of the people of Planet D, which allow them to improve faster. If an ordinary lifeform wants to evolve from Level 0 to level 3, even if its genetic body is good enough, it will take at least 20 years. The amount of resources spent during this period is not small."

"But that's under the condition of training yourself. If you want to directly create a level three life form for her to use, the cost is very high!"

"How much?" Little cabbage swallowed her saliva and asked.

"This depends on what quality you choose..." "..." "..." seer then made a list. "The cheap level three life form has this Lyme Star, a silicon-based life form. It requires 50,000 points. If she can survive for 50 years without consuming too much of it..." "..."

Little cabbage stared blankly at the screen like a lump of snot-like things, suddenly said: "This piece of shit to 50,000? What about the other?"

“There are better ones... . Seer made a list at once. “For example, this template of the Jeros is more normal and looks more beautiful, but it requires 100,000 points. I actually recommend this black elf’s body, level four. I have an existing template here, I’ll sell it to you for 500,000 points... “...”. “...”

“500,000? ? ?” Little cabbage almost choked on her own saliva. ...

“There’s nothing I can do...” seer shrugged and said, “I have to spend money to buy these things outside. If it’s homemade, I can sell it to you at a cheaper price...”

Seer was not lying about this. The creation of such a high-level life form was something that only high-level biological forces could do. He did not have the strength right now, and this was one of the reasons why the undead forces had to follow the biological path...

Because you had to rely on imports... ... That would definitely not be able to support a bunch of undead... ...

Little cabbage: “Then... how long can we... manage this for?”

“Mm, if the soul has not evolved to level-5, it can probably manage it for four hundred years, but if it evolves to level-6, then it won’t be able to manage it for long...”

“Does that mean... she has to buy a new one for her after she has leveled up?” Little cabbage gulped in shock.

“Then why do you think I said that raising undead is expensive?” Seer laughed.

On many native planets, some mages would voluntarily turn into undead in order to live forever. However, they did not know that undead could indeed live forever, but the prerequisite was that one had to have money...

That cost was definitely more than ten times that of warriors of the same level!

“These prices... were all made up by you to squeeze us?” Bai Cai asked suspiciously.

“How can that be?” Xi Ye stood up immediately, “Am I that kind of person? You Bunch of heartless people, why do you always think that I’m so heartless? Look at the genetic bodies you’re using now, these are all top-tier goods in the universe, do you know how expensive they are? I used my hard-earned money to pay for them first! !”

“Is that so...” Xi Ye was scared by the other party’s imposing manner and shrunk her head guiltily. She smiled embarrassedly and said, “I don’t know either... are all the aliens as generous as you?”

“How is that possible?” Xi Ye immediately said righteously, “There’s no other person as kind as me in the universe. Let me tell you, if you meet other unscrupulous lords, you’ll definitely end up mining in the mines all day long!”

Bai Cai was stunned when she heard that. She remembered that at the beginning, most of the players seemed to be working hard in the mines...

Moreover... they were so happy digging...

Chapter 429: I seem to have forgotten something...

Alice did not wait for long, but she felt that every minute was torturous. She was not a person who lacked patience. The reason she was anxious was because the outcome was too important to her...

When she saw little cabbage walk in, to be honest, Alice was a little disappointed. If possible, she also wanted to be a person on the first step of the pyramid. However, it seemed that her resume did not attract the attention of this faction... ..

However, it was also good. At least the other party was willing to accept the undead...

"Boss told me that it's very expensive to raise you..." little cabbage pouted.

"How expensive?" Alice asked curiously. She was actually quite curious about the living conditions of the undead in this world.

"Very expensive!" Little cabbage pouted, feeling wronged. "Even if you sell everything I have now, it won't be enough to support you. You can only take out a loan... so you'll have to repay the loan with me in the future!"

"What kind of rules?" Alice smiled as she looked at the wronged little girl.

"I'll give you 20% of the shares, but you'll also have to bear the loan that the forces share..."

"20% ..." Alice looked at the other party. To be honest, the other party was more generous than she had imagined. She had thought that she would be in a superior-subordinate relationship, but she had never thought that it would actually be a cooperative relationship... ..

This result was really a pleasant surprise. She was almost infinitely close to the first step of the pyramid. If she managed it well, she might not necessarily be inferior to those people on the first step...

Thinking of this, Alice became spirited and asked little cabbage about the situation of her current faction.

Half an hour later, although Alice's body was getting weaker and weaker, her spirit was getting more and more excited as she listened...

The first grassland tribal lord, the environment that did not have the competition of other players for the time being, and the complete support of the civilization technology tree, this was even more space for her to play!

Most importantly, she received a message that as long as she had enough resources and enough bodies, she would be able to live in this world of the living forever!

The thing she wanted the most and the most ideal platform...

It was simply perfect!

"How about... changing your body first..." little cabbage noticed that the other party's body seemed to be on the verge of collapse, so she immediately paused the topic of the base and suggested.

Alice nodded. "Actually, I didn't need a loan to buy a good body at the beginning. The base will definitely need more funds in the early stages..."

"Really?" Little Cabbage's eyes lit up, but then he hesitated and said, "But... a cheap body is very ugly..."

"That's a trivial matter..." Alice smiled indifferently.

"Well..." the cabbage beamed, and then pulled out the list. "That's how it is. You can manage for fifty years..."

Alice looked up and her smile froze when she saw the snot-like thing. After a few seconds of silence, she finally said, "I think... Let's get a loan..."

Cabbage: "..."

— — — —

Dromah Black Elf Ranger, level 4 template, strength 35, agility 104, Constitution 41... .. Half a million points... . .

"Because the player cabbage is good, can avoid down payment installment, interest is calculated by 4%, first interest later this... . Player confirm to buy?"

"Well... . ." The small cabbage face pained expression is extremely obvious, a cut-meat like look at the side of Alice is a burst of unbearable... ..

But in the end, she hardened her heart and did not say anything. Since they were going to take out a loan, she might as well buy something better. It would be meaningless to buy something that was neither up nor down...

"500,000 points... you're really putting in a lot of money..." the emperor of the liver covered his head and said, "Is it really worth it? That guy?"

"It should be worth it..." little cabbage said uncertainly.

The emperor of the liver said, "You're a kind-hearted capitalist, you..."

Xi Ye said, "Grafting a soul into a body is a high-level surgery. If you're interested, you can go and watch it..."

"What's so good about the surgery?" Little cabbage asked in confusion.

Xi Ye said, "The base currently relies on instruments to perform biological surgeries. The structures of creatures before level five are not complicated, and they can be solved through instruments. After level five, whether it's the grafting of a soul or the injury of a level five life form, they all need to rely on artificial surgery to solve the problem. Your talent in surgery is quite good, so don't waste this skill. After all, there aren't many slots available for you right now, so you can't waste another slot to hire a doctor, right?"

"UH..."

The emperor of the liver hurriedly said, "What this dog Lord said makes sense."

Xi Ye: "..."

Little cabbage pouted, feeling wronged. It made sense, but... "...". I'm already a major shareholder, why do I feel like I can't escape being a doctor?

Having studied medicine at Huazhong High School for many years, she had no sense of belonging to the profession of doctor... ..

When she was in high school, she had originally wanted to be a teacher. She had wanted to be a teacher and live a carefree life with a few thousand Yuan of salary and a leisurely winter and summer vacation...

However, her mother said that it would be a pity if she was given such a high salary to be a teacher, so she had asked her to study medicine. In the end, she had a miserable life for the next ten years or so.

Seeing her like this, xi ye hurriedly advised, "Doctors are very popular in the universe. After you learn well, you can even earn some extra money..."

Upon hearing this, little cabbage pouted and said, "My mother said the same thing to me when I volunteered. In the end, I'm 30 years old, and I can't even afford to eat braised chicken..."

Xi Ye: "..."

After the two of them tried to persuade little cabbage to observe the surgery, Xi ye finally heaved a sigh of relief. She felt that children nowadays were so difficult to coax...

However, Xi Ye felt that she seemed to have forgotten something after the matter was settled... Hence, she turned around and stared at the liver emperor for a long time.

"Dog... ER, Lord, why are you... Looking at me like that?"The liver emperor asked carefully.

"Oh right, didn't you ask someone to come with you? Yes, that Pu Yunchuan. where is he? Why didn't he come with you?"

"Oh... . It seems that he didn't follow me in when he heard that the cabbage was alright. He seems to be... . A little resistant to this place, and there's a beautiful woman outside who seems to have some entanglements with him, so..."

"So he stayed outside?"Said seer with a frown.

"ER... . Is there a problem?"The Liver Emperor Leng Leng Leng Leng Leng Way.

"A little problem..."said the night.

On the other hand, Pu Yunchuan did not teleport to the base with the liver emperor because he was still a little resistant to the game, and he had a lot to ask Isabelle when he met her again.

And Isabel was not ready to make contact with the mysterious force, so they both stayed.

"Well..."after Emperor liver left, Pu Yunchuan scratched his head and looked at the other party. He had many questions to ask the other party at first.

Why did he leave without saying goodbye that day? Why did that evil-looking guy say that she betrayed him for him. Also, there were questions such as whether Liu Kai and the others' deaths had anything to do with her...

However, she could not bring herself to say it...

After scratching her ears and cheeks for a long time, she finally said, "You... how have you been recently?"

Looking at the other party who had been holding back for a long time, Isabelle could not help but burst into laughter again. Looking at this silly fatty, her heart warmed up slightly.

Meanwhile, Pu Yunchuan looked at the other party's smile and immediately laughed foolishly as well.

Under the sunlight, the scene of a noblewoman meeting a silly boy was exceptionally beautiful. Of course... .. If it wasn't for the guy on the ground who had his head blown off, it might have been even better... ..

However, this scene didn't last long before it was interrupted... ..

"Police, raise your hands! ! !"

Chapter 430: People from the Dragon Team...

"We meet again, Mr. Pu Yunchuan..."in the interrogation room, Officer Yang, who had been following Pu Yunchuan, greeted him with a smile.

Pu Yunchuan looked at the other party and revealed a smile that was uglier than crying. "What a coincidence..."

The female officer at the side looked at the two of them in silence. She really didn't expect that this seemingly harmless guy was actually related to this big case...

Maybe... .. There was a reason why she was still a low-level police officer after working for so many years. ...

Compared to the female police officer's speechlessness, Pu Yunchuan was actually even more speechless. He never thought that such a plot would end up like this. If he had known earlier, he would have escaped with the emperor of the liver. which bastard actually called the police?

"Then... What about the person with me?"Pu Yunchuan asked.

"That foreigner, right?"Officer yang smiled and said, "Don't worry, she's in the interrogation room next door..."

Officer Yang's attitude was very good. The reason why he was so good was because of the other party's cooperative attitude. When he heard that Bai Xiaoxia, who had called the police, had said that there were monsters, officer Yang had already prepared to face some evil cultivators. For this reason, he had specially requested for Mr. Liu, who was from Emei sect to oversee city c... ..

He did not expect that the Emei Earth Immortal Realm Elder would not be able to escape from that woman at all... ..

To be honest, he was really shocked at that time. Mr. Liu was a well-known elder of Emei, and he was already more than 300 years old now. He was ranked fourth among the Emei Earth Immortal Realm Elders, and he was one of the top Daoist masters among the cultivators in the southwest.

He could not even withstand a single move from such a figure. At that time, he almost thought that he was going to be wiped out...

But in the end, the situation changed. The Man in front of him was actually able to pacify the woman and give up resisting. He had really helped her greatly, and this also made officer Yang's attitude become much friendlier.

"According to what you said at the police station, you said that you didn't know her whereabouts..."

"I really didn't know at that time..." Pu Yunchuan said honestly.

"You mean you knew her whereabouts later and rushed to that neighborhood?"

"Not really... I don't have her whereabouts. It was a coincidence that we met this time..."

"Coincidence?" The female police officer sneered, "Sir, is it still interesting at this time?"

Pu Yunchuan was speechless. To be honest, no one believed that he had any ideas... ..

Officer Yang waved his hand to stop the sharp tone of the female police officer. Then, he asked softly, "Do you know the background of this woman?"

Pu Yunchuan lowered his head in silence.

"Your silence is not good for you...". Officer yang sighed and said, "You are now involved in a major case involving more than 20 people's lives. Moreover, there is a victim at the scene where you were captured. The current situation is very unfavorable for you!"

The most important thing was that the person who died had a special identity and was a well-known figure. The media reaction would be even greater if such a figure was killed!

"We didn't kill the person..." Pu Yunchuan hesitated for a moment and replied.

"You..." officer Yang was stunned for a moment and then said, "Does that include that woman?"

"Yes..."

The female officer: "If you don't tell us what happened, how can we believe your story?"

Pu Yunchuan opened his mouth when he heard that. Just as he was about to speak, the system's private message suddenly sent him a message from the liver emperor, "Brother, calm down, don't say anything. We've already sent a professional to save you!"

Professional?

Pu Yunchuan's face twitched, and he was a little confused. He was unsure whether to send a professional to save him or to silence him... ..

Or... should he trust the police officer?

After hesitating for a while, Pu Yunchuan chose to remain silent...

When the female police officer saw this, she slammed the table and was about to put pressure on him, but the male police officer stopped her... ..

"Then you should think about it first..." officer Yang Sighed, took the notebook, and signaled his colleague to go out with him.

"Boss, why don't you let me continue asking? He was clearly a little relaxed just now..."

"That's why there's no need to rush..." officer Yang shook his head and said, "He hesitated for a while just now, but in the end, he didn't say anything. If you force him now, it will only deepen his rebellious mentality..."

Female police officer: "You really have a lot of crooked truths..."

Officer Yang rolled his eyes at her and walked into the observation room. The first thing he saw when he raised his head was deputy chief Yan Zongwei. Now that Chief Bai was in a semi-retired state, Yan Zongwei could almost be considered the head of the bureau...

And next to Chief Yan was Mr. Liu, who was wearing a Taoist robe and resting with his eyes closed... ..

"Chief Yan, how is it here?" Old Yang walked over and asked.

Yan Zongwei drank his tea and looked at Isabelle in the interrogation room. He shook his head and said, "He's someone who has seen the scene. Old Li is an expert in interrogation. He has been asking questions for three hours and hasn't even blinked his eyes. It's not easy..."

"Old Wang, what do you think?" Officer Yang raised his head and looked at Wang Lin, who had not appeared in the police station for a long time...

However, he pretended to be serious and said, "He's an old veteran and a foreigner. I'm guessing that he might be from a foreign supernatural organization. Moreover, judging from his ability, he might be an extraordinary big shot..."

Officer Yang nodded. This speculation was reasonable, but he still said in puzzlement, "It's rare for foreign supernatural people to be able to enter Central China..."

"Isn't this a martial arts demonstration in Kunlun?" Old Wang continued, "In the past, the best force for external protection was Kunlun. Now that Kunlun is busy with the martial arts demonstration, their energy must have been scattered. It's not impossible to take this opportunity to sneak in..." "..."

"That makes sense!" Yan Ju nodded and said.

“But... why would a foreign extraordinary organization’s agent listen to a kid like Pu Yunchuan and surrender? She could have run away at that time.”

“This is indeed puzzling...” Old Wang pretended to be confused and then looked at the other party. “Didn’t you get anything out of the interrogation?”

“She’s not a difficult person to deal with. She shouldn’t be able to hold on for long...” Old Yang replied.

“That’s Good!” Old Wang’s eyes lit up, but he secretly typed and asked, “Haven’t I Come Yet? She’s going to confess! !”

Officer Yang looked at the only old criminal police officer he recognized in the police station. He felt that it was a little out of place, but he couldn’t tell where it was at the moment...

Dog Dad’s body had been strengthened once, so he was naturally very sensitive to officer Yang’s gaze. He couldn’t help but feel a headache. To be honest, he was most afraid of dealing with this guy in the police station. His intuition was very accurate...

But he couldn’t do anything about it. He needed someone to observe the situation here. Only he and Lao Bai could take on this task in the police station, but Lao Bai’s acting was clumsy. If he came, he would probably be exposed in front of this guy even faster... ..

“Mr. Liu, when will the support from your faction arrive?” Yan Bu asked the most crucial question.

Regardless of the woman’s identity and purpose, from the report, the current police station in C City did not have the ability to control this woman. obviously... “...”. This woman was like an extremely unstable bomb in this place.

The person called Mr. Liu opened his eyes slightly and said in a low voice, “There was news just now. The sect leader and elder Tianyi are in seclusion. The rest of them are here, but...”

He didn’t say anything more, but everyone understood what he meant.

There were three heaven immortals in the Emei Mountain Gate. Besides elder Hong who led the team to Kunlun to perform martial arts, the other two were the sect leader and elder Tianyi.

The rest of the elders were only at the Earth immortal realm. Although elder Liu was only ranked fourth among the Earth immortal elders, the fact that this woman could defeat him in one move was obviously not something that two more earth immortals could deal with...

This news made director Yan frown. Because of the fear of this woman’s strength, no one dared to provoke her too much. They were afraid that it would lead to a rampage. Under such circumstances, what could they get out of the interrogation?

“Focus on that man called Pu Yunchuan!” Director Yan said in a deep voice.

“HMM...” officer yang nodded. His train of thought was the same as director Yan’s. He believed that Pu Yunchuan was the only way to break through... ..

“Director Yan!”

At this moment, a middle-aged police officer walked into the interrogation room with a strange expression.

“What’s Wrong?”

“Someone wants to see you. He wants to pick someone up!”

“Pick someone up?” Director Yan was stunned. “Who is it?”

“I think... he said... It’s someone from team long...” the police officer said with a strange expression.

“What Team?”
