

A Bunch 431

Chapter 431: Where's the other one?

"Team Dragon?"

This word made the faces of the police officers in the interrogation room twitch. If it wasn't for the seriousness of the situation, they would have thought that this guy who came in to report the situation was a joke...

The police officer who came to report looked at the group of people, including director Yan, who was looking at him with a strange expression. He quickly said, "Yes... that's what the other party said, and... Governor Chen is also here."

"Governor Chen?"

Director Yan's expression tensed up. Ever since the previous governor had been removed for official purposes, City C had been temporarily replaced by the former deputy governor, Chen Xinjian.

Thinking of this, director Yan did not dare to delay. He quickly asked the other party to lead the way. Whether or not he could steadily replace Lao Bai's position, Governor Chen's approval was very important.

Elder Liu, who was at the side, had a change in expression.

The news of the Dragon Group had not been publicized by the authorities, but cultivators like them were clear that the mysterious sect, Luo Fu, had already given full support to the authorities to establish the Dragon Group. If the Dragon Group was really established successfully, then... The change in the situation of the cultivators in central China would be very huge. This would probably greatly affect the status of cultivators like them in the local areas... ..

Thinking of this, he also followed up. He could take a good look at the regulations of the officially established Dragon Group...

Soon, a group of people came to the director's office. In addition to the newly appointed governor, Chen Xinjian, there was a middle-aged military officer and a white-haired man in plain clothes next to him...

The man was wearing sunglasses and a mask. His unusual golden pupils were exposed, giving people an extremely mysterious feeling.

"Let me introduce you..." the governor, Chen Xinjian, smiled and said, "This is lieutenant general Liu Shouwei from the Western military region, and the person next to him is member 006 of the Dragon Group, codename: Rock Sparrow..."

There was really a dragon group?

The eyelids of the policemen twitched, and even director Yan frowned slightly. After approaching his governor, he whispered, "Governor, this dragon group... why haven't we heard of it?"

“Ahem... This Dragon Group is the latest organization established by the higher-ups to deal with supernatural incidents. Since it has just been established, it’s normal that you haven’t heard of it before...”

Director Yan sized up the so-called member of the Dragon Group. Although he was wearing sunglasses and a mask, he could tell that this person was extremely young and felt that he was somewhat unreliable...

“Where is he?”The person wearing a mask asked in a hoarse voice.

This arrogant attitude made Chief Yan frown. He then glanced at Governor Chen, who nodded at him before replying, “He’s in the interrogation room...”

“Please lead the way...”

“Just You Alone?”Elder Liu, who was following behind them, suddenly asked.

“Cultivator?”Yan Que looked at the man and asked.

“AH... Let me introduce...”chief Yan hurriedly said, “This is elder Liu of emei. He has been overseeing City C all year round and is a top-notch cultivator in the southwest...”

“Yes...”Yan que nodded. “Nice to meet you...”

Elder Liu immediately frowned. “You haven’t answered my question...”

As soon as he said this, the surrounding people were stunned and immediately smelled the smell of gunpowder... ..

Governor Chen looked at the two of them with a deep meaning. The newly established Dragon Group by the government clearly wanted to break away from the reliance on cultivation sects. As for whether this matter would succeed, it would depend on whether these so-called members of the Dragon Group had the strength... ..

Therefore, he did not immediately act as a middleman to ease the atmosphere. He also wanted to see whether the government’s dragon group really had something or whether it was a farce...

“It’s just me...”unexpectedly, this rock sparrow answered honestly in the face of the other party’s provocation.

Elder Liu snorted coldly. “Then you can go back. That woman inside is not something that a little doll like you can solve...”

“It doesn’t seem like it’s up to you whether I go back or not, right?”Yan que tilted his head and said.

“I was the one who caught her. I Can’t let her get into trouble just because of you!”Elder Liu said in a deep voice.

“You were the one who caught her?”Yan que glanced at the other party, then shook his head and said, “You can’t do it. You Don’t have the ability...”

As soon as he said this, the faces of the police officers led by director Yan twitched. Although the other party's words were a little demanding to be beaten, his judgment was abnormally correct. Elder Liu indeed didn't have the ability to catch that woman... ..

Could it be that this dragon group had information about that woman?

"Kid..."elder Liu narrowed his eyes. "Then do you want to give it a try?"

"Sir, are you trying to obstruct official business?"The officer who had not spoken all this time suddenly asked in a deep voice.

"If you insist on doing things your own way, if anything goes wrong later, I, Emei, will not be responsible..."elder Liu said faintly.

These words stunned Governor Chen. Even the older generation could tell that this fellow was trying to shift the blame... ..

Elder Chen stared at the other party, wanting to see how the other party would respond. He did indeed have the intention of shifting the blame. To be honest, that woman was too troublesome. Even if a heaven immortal from Emei really came, he might not be able to suppress her, if there were any injuries on his side, he would be even more regretful.

The Heaven Immortal elders of the various sects were all fossilized-level treasures, especially the two from Emei. They were both very old, and the new generation had not been able to connect. It was clearly not worth risking them for the sake of the government.

Since he had this opportunity, he naturally had to shift the blame first...

"This..."Governor Chen was instantly put in a difficult position, but Yan que seemed to be too lazy to say anything. He said coldly, "Lead the way..."

Commander Chen immediately frowned. He then looked at the military officer who was accompanying him. Lieutenant General Liu hesitated for a moment. He also felt that it was a little inappropriate, but the higher-ups had instructed him to listen to the wishes of this member of the Dragon Group... Thinking of this, he braced himself and nodded.

When Commander Chen saw that the other party had nodded, he asked Chief Yan to lead the way.

Just like that, the group of people returned to the interrogation room in an imposing manner...

"It's inside..."director Yan brought them to the back and pointed at the door of the interrogation room.

Yan que nodded. "Open the door..."

Director Yan nodded at Officer Yang. The other party quickly ordered someone to open the door of the interrogation room. The moment the door was opened, Yan Que's eyes flashed and the aura around him instantly dissipated!

Everyone felt the entire atmosphere around them sink...

On the other side of the door, the expression of the originally calm Isabelle immediately changed the moment the door was opened!

She clearly felt that there was a considerable threat coming from outside!

Elder Liu by the side was also startled after the Rock Sparrow released his aura. He did not expect this unknown fellow to actually have such an aura.

Bang!

Within, Isabelle's chair was shattered by her. One could only see Isabelle suddenly stand up. The Dou Qi around her body was pushed to the limit. Golden-yellow energy surged out and wrapped around her entire body. The visible combat aura energy stunned the surrounding police officers.

Was This... A Saiyan?

Elder Liu's heart skipped a beat and he retreated slightly. He had never seen such an ability before. What kind of technique was this?

Most importantly, when he fought with the other party, the other party did not do this at all...

In other words, she still hid her strength...

Was there really such a strong extraordinaire overseas?

"Protect the commander and get out. Tell the people outside to quickly evacuate the people!" Director Yan was the first to react and hurriedly shouted.

He never thought that this guy would actually directly prepare to fight just because of a disagreement... ! ... As expected, he was an unreliable brat!

"There's no need..." rock sparrow said softly. Then, his body moved. In an instant, before the voice reached director Yan and the others' ears, he had already rushed in front of Isabelle!

This terrifying speed gave Isabelle a fright. Just as she was about to move, she felt her neck tighten. An ice-cold dagger ignored her dou qi and placed it on her neck artery.

Immediately, a chill made Isabelle's Dou Qi stiffen...

In the next second, she saw the other party withdraw his dagger and strike with his hand knife. Isabelle felt a pain in the back of her neck and then lost consciousness.

Rock Sparrow held the opponent and then turned to look at the group of people behind him who had not yet dispersed because of his action and asked, "Where's the other one?"

Chapter 432: The World is about to change

Everyone was stunned on the spot. They didn't expect the battle that looked so terrifying to end so quickly!

Especially when that woman's battle spirit erupted, everyone felt that this woman tore the police station apart with her bare hands. Perhaps they felt that it was only natural. That Aura... ... Was too strong!

Even an ordinary person could feel that she was an extremely formidable existence...

But they didn't expect that she would be taken down by this youth from the dragon group in just two moves... ..

They didn't even see how the other party did it... ..

Not only were the ordinary people around them, even elder Liu, a cultivator, couldn't see how the other party did it. It was like watching two powerpoint slides in a cartoon. One was a scene of two people confronting each other. The next one was the scene of this guy with a dagger on the other person's neck. The next second, the woman had already fainted...

If this had happened in an anime, people would definitely complain about how poor the budget was, but in reality, it was very strange...

Who exactly was this guy. Elder Liu looked at the other party with a solemn expression, and cold sweat broke out on his back in shock...

That woman was definitely at the level of a Heaven Immortal. To be able to defeat a heaven immortal with a single move, perhaps only the supreme elder who was in a life-and-death seclusion in emei had this level of skill...

This Luo Fu actually spent so much money? To let such a powerful figure enter the National Dragon Team?

"Where's the other one?" Rock sparrow frowned as he looked at the group of people who were in a daze. He said somewhat impatiently, "I'm very busy..."

"Oh, oh... He's... He's next door..." director Yan hurriedly said.

"Lead the way..."

At the entrance of the police station, director Yan and his group escorted the officer and Yan Que out. After watching them get into the car, director Yan suddenly asked, "Governor Chen, aren't you going with them?"

Governor Chen rolled his eyes at the other party and said, "That's a car to the military region. Why should I go with them?"

Director Yan nodded and said carefully, "Then this case... how will it be announced to the public?"

After all, it had caused such a huge commotion. They had to give an explanation to the citizens.

Governor Chen hesitated for a while and sighed, "Hold it for now. Let's see what the higher-ups say..."

Director Yan smiled bitterly when he heard that. He thought to himself, how can it be so easy to delay. The reporters were blocking the entrance every day now...

"Governor Chen..." suddenly, elder Liu said, "Can we talk about it?"

Governor Chen looked at him and then nodded. As a governor in the southwest, he had some dealings with the big local sects. Governor Chen was very close to the emei sect. This could be seen from the Emei Association sending an Earth immortal elder into the public security bureau... ..

As governor Chen nodded his head, director Yan tactfully took his leave.

The two of them walked from the police station all the way to the park outside. Elder Liu looked at the setting sun and sighed, "I'm getting old..."

Governor Chen smiled and said, "The last time elder Liu said this, I was only 30 years old and in the prime of my life. Now that I have one foot in the coffin, and hearing you say this, I suddenly feel strange..."

"Haha..."elder Liu immediately felt relieved. This little Chen was still so good at talking. Indeed, compared to ordinary people, he had already obtained too much... ..

"How much do you know about the Dragon Group?"

Governor Chen immediately frowned.

"Is it inconvenient to say?"Elder Liu said faintly.

"It's not inconvenient to say... It's not a secret..."governor Chen smiled and said, "This dragon group was established by elder Li of the capital city. The main members are now from the Luofu sect."

"How many people are there?"Elder Liu asked.

"As far as I know, there are already seven people..."

"Are all of them so powerful?"

"I don't know..." . Governor Chen shook his head and sighed, "But they shouldn't be weak. Green Sparrow No. 1 is very well-recognized in Basen. The leader of that side has personally called us to ask us to keep him. That kid from the Liu family is also in the Dragon Group. Currently, the two of them are participating in the Kunlun martial arts competition."

Hearing this, elder Liu nodded. The proof of being able to participate in the competition shouldn't be that exaggerated. He immediately heaved a sigh of relief in his heart.

"I heard that the Dragon Team is currently recruiting members?"

"Why? Emei is also interested?"Governor Chen's spirit was roused. If he could pull a large sect like emei into the dragon team's camp, it could be considered a great contribution... ..

"I'll have to go back and ask..."elder Liu shook his head. "After all... This isn't a small matter..."

As he spoke, he looked to the west. Back then, it was Kunlun who had signed the balance agreement with the authorities. Now that Luo Fu had broken the agreement, the balance between the cultivation world and the secular world was about to be broken. And choosing to follow Kunlun or the authorities at this time was a big decision that would determine the rise and fall of the sect. He couldn't make this decision... ..

In any case, first Luo Fu into the fairy level experts to report back to the Dragon Group this intelligence...

"I Go... Dragon Group Six?" In the car, Pu Yunchuan typed curiously: "Then who is number one?"

"Li Goudan..." replied the rock sparrow.

"I go... . Dog Egg?" Pu Yunchuan suddenly thought of the base of the two naughty dog egg elves, suddenly speechless: "She can also be a number one?"

"What's The Big Deal? Anyway, the dragon team is full of players. Whoever goes first will be number one..."

"So Casual?" Pu Yunchuan was stunned. He looked at the military rank on the shoulder of the officer driving the car in front and swallowed his saliva. It was hard to imagine that a group of loser players who used to brag in the game had become a big shot, they had become big shots who could be picked up by military officers!

It felt so surreal...

"Aren't you... Afraid after knowing the truth?"

After hesitating for a long time, Pu Yunchuan finally couldn't help but ask.

"At first, it was a little..." rock sparrow narrowed his eyes and typed, "But when I think of the benefits, I'm not afraid anymore. But you, what do you think? You're not online for two months. Do you know what your rank is now?"

"UH... is this... very important?"

"It's very important..." rock sparrow said seriously, "This world is going to change. We belong to the luckiest batch. Believe me, if you miss it, you'll regret it for the rest of your life..."

"I'm just a loser..."

Rock sparrow: "How many players in the base aren't?"

Pu Yunchuan: "..."

"Brother, there aren't many chances for losers to make a comeback... think about it..."

Pu Yunchuan looked at the sleeping Isabelle and fell silent.

After a long while, he asked, "Where are we going now?"

"To the airport..." rock sparrow said, "I bought a ticket to Xinjiang."

"Go There to do?" Pu Yunchuan Leng Way.

"Watching the Kunlun martial arts show..." yan que said, "I was going there to watch the show. If it weren't for you, I would have been there yesterday and missed a few matches..."

Pu Yunchuan: "..."

And in the back of the military vehicle, a black Ford far behind, and the driver, but it is the police officer Yang should have stayed in the bureau.

“Boss, how dare you follow the Lieutenant General’s Car?”The female officer frowned.

“This... isn’t right...”officer Yang looked at the car in front and said quietly.

Chapter 433: Dogdad’s Foresight!

“What’s Wrong?”In the car, the female police officer asked in a daze.

“There’s a lot of things wrong...”. Old Yang shook his head and said, “First of all, it’s too coincidental. We caught the person at noon, and in the afternoon, someone else came to pick him up. It’s as if it was pre-arranged. Even for the official dragon team, the efficiency is too fast “... and then it’s Pu Yunchuan’s attitude when he saw that member of the Dragon Team!”

“What attitude?”The female police officer asked curiously.

“That kind of... First, it was abrupt, and then it revealed a relieved expression... it’s very obvious that the two of them know each other.”Old Yang recalled the last time the two of them met, after a moment of hesitation, he said, “Although they haven’t spoken, I always feel that they are communicating.”

“How can we communicate if they haven’t said anything?”The female police officer asked in a daze.

“I don’t know...”Old Yang shook his head, recalling the situation at that time, Pu Yunchuan was first shocked and angry when he saw the unconscious Isabelle. He was also very angry when he faced the dragon group member, but after a few seconds, the expression on his face froze for a moment, and then slowly calmed down.., he let out a sigh of relief. This change was very complicated and obvious, as if the dragon group member had explained something to him.

“But the two of them didn’t speak at that time...”the female officer said in puzzlement, “And I observed that the dragon group member was wearing sunglasses and a mask. Even if he wanted to make an expression for others to see, they wouldn’t be able to tell...”

“I just felt that something was wrong...”Old Yang said stubbornly.

“Boss, Fraud Yang? This... is your intuition again?”The female police officer was speechless.

“But I didn’t miss it, did I?”Old Yang narrowed his eyes and said.

“Uh...”the female police officer was stunned. Since she had cooperated with the other party, she didn’t seem to have seen the other party make a mistake, although she didn’t like the other party’s way of relying on intuition to solve cases... ..

Old Yang continued to drive in silence. In fact, there was one thing that he didn’t say, which was to old Wang of the police station.

Old Wang gave him the feeling that he knew something. Although he acted well and his shocked expression was on point, he was too much of a passer-by. He understood Old Wang. Old Wang was a person who had a strong sense of presence when he encountered a case, but now... He was deliberately weakening his existence...

It was very unusual...

"This doesn't seem to be the way to the Military Area..."the female police officer suddenly said.

"Yes!"Old Yang nodded. "It's to the airport... Call Little Zhou to find out where Pu Yunchuan booked the plane ticket to..."

The female police officer nodded. She realized the seriousness of the matter and quickly took out her phone. A few minutes later, she replied, "It's to Hotan..."

"Hotan?"Old Yang frowned and then nodded. "Okay, I'll pull over at the airport later. Drive the car back..."

"Boss... You Want to be alone?"The female police officer was stunned.

"It's very dangerous... don't follow me..."Old Yang took a deep breath and said.

There were too many people involved in this case. Even the lieutenant general was helping to cover it up. It could be seen how complicated the matter was.

"Boss..."the female police officer hesitated for a moment and suggested, "Why don't we... forget it? The higher-ups have already taken over. Is there a need to continue chasing?"

"I think... this person is a little obsessive-compulsive..."old yang smiled and said, "What I want to know is that he likes to get to the bottom of things. Some people say that curiosity kills the cat. Perhaps I'm the kind of cat that seeks death..."

The female police officer was silent. After a while, she asked, "Is there anything else I Can Do?"

Looking at the deep waters, she was indeed a little scared. Not everyone was willing to risk everything for the truth...

"Help me keep an eye on old Wang in secret..."

"Old Wang? Which Old Wang?"The female police officer was stunned for a moment before she reacted. "You mean... officer Wang?"

"Well... . Be careful, Lao Wang's anti-tracking ability is very strong, if there is anything unusual, call me immediately... ."

"OK..."the policewoman nodded.

On the other side of the game has returned to the old Wang suddenly felt a cool back, and then thoughtfully touched his chin, thought: I Go, will not really be the pervert targeted?

“Dad, why did you come back so late? Everything has been settled...”Goudan looked at his father with a green sprout on his head and looked displeased.

“How did it go?”Goudan smiled as he entered the house and drank tea.

“I’ve made an agreement with the emperor of the liver’s side. They’ll develop outside while we’ll develop inside. Little cabbages will be responsible for setting up farms and farm bases outside. We’ll do business here and sell their products. Of course, we’ll be responsible for market research and also follow the Lord Quest closely...” . “...”

“Sounds good...”dog dad laughed.

“Dad, is this really a good idea? Giving up our farm for business?”Dog Egg said gloomily.

“What do you think?”Dog Dad knocked on Dog Egg’s head. “How big is the land you’ve allocated?”? Now that the base was about to be urbanized, the temporary farms of players like you were all for the base’s current needs. They would definitely be eliminated in the future... “...”

Ever since the Lord announced the cabbage-like model, Father Dog had immediately seen the future. Private players could have their own territory and civilization outside. After a long time, in terms of land area., players who went on expeditions outside would have an absolute advantage, and the area of the administrative center cities of the base would become more expensive.

Under such circumstances, using these lands for agriculture would be a fool’s errand. Although it was still a little early, they had to prepare for a rainy day, right?

“Sell half of the land first, then find little fairy to contract the commercial street she develops. We have the logistics supply of cabbage, so we have a big advantage in the early stage... I’ll do these things, you focus on training...”

“Training?”Doggie was stunned.

“Of course it’s training. Look at how lazy you’ve been lately. Where did your ranking go?”

“UH... aren’t you going to be a rich woman? What’s there to train?”Doggie immediately pouted.

“Lazy girl...” . “What do you know? You have to be hard to forge iron. You can enjoy so much now because you’re ahead in the early stage. If someone catches up to you, these things will come and go quickly.”

“Is it that exaggerated, Dad?”Dog Egg was stunned.

“Humph...”dog father snorted, “Do you think the Lord gave you such a big platform so that you can be idlers? Just wait and see. The competition will only get stronger and stronger. If you are not careful... you might be eliminated...”

“Oh... But... I promised Li Goudan to watch the Kunlun martial arts show today...”

“Kunlun’s martial arts demonstration?”The dog father was stunned, but he immediately became interested. He had heard of this thing before, but he had never had the chance to watch it.

Seeing his father's interest, Goudan continued to bewitch him, "I heard that Yunji MU is also participating in the competition. My Brother is going to cheer for her. Do you really not want to watch it?"

"Ugh..."the dog father touched his chin. He was still very concerned about this topic... .

Chapter 434: conflict

On the second day of the martial arts demonstration in Kunlun, some new faces came to the town. Pu Yunchuan and the others were the most eye-catching, because it was rare to see foreign beauties with blonde hair and blue eyes in this place.

This was not a tourist city. Those who came here were all cultivators, and after the foreign extraordinaires sneaked into central China, they were eager to stay away from Kunlun. There were very few who dared to come here like this...

Therefore, Pu Yunchuan and the other two could see the surprised gazes around them all the way.

"Damn, a serving of Youtiao soy milk costs 500 yuan? Two days ago, I thought that the Qingyu New Year was the blackest place in the world, penguin and hateful strange. Now, it seems that they are really ignorant...". "...Yan que curled his lips slightly.

Pu Yunchuan was stunned. He had heard of this before, but he did not feel much about it because he had never been a member...

"Is... is it eaten like this?"Isabelle asked curiously.

"Ah, yes, yes..."Pu Yunchuan immediately smiled and said, "Soak the fried dough sticks in the soy milk and eat it when it's soft. If you want a crispy taste, you can eat it like that... how is it? Are you used to it?"

"It's quite interesting..."Isabelle smiled and said, "It feels like milk, but it has a bean flavor..."

"It smells sour..."rock sparrow frowned.

"Is it?"Isabelle was stunned. She took a sip and felt a little sour. It was not stinky, right?

"Yes!"Rock sparrow stared at the two of them and said.

"Ahem..."Pu Yunchuan coughed and rolled his eyes. Then he smiled at Isabelle. "Ignore him, the useless roar of a single dog..."

"Eh? Oh..."Isabelle was stunned for a moment. She didn't understand what the two of them meant. Could it be a code?

"How dare you! !"

Suddenly, a stern voice rang out. An incomparably powerful light suddenly attacked. Isabelle's pores suddenly stood on end. She turned around and saw an old man wearing a Taoist robe from Kunlun standing ten meters away with his hands behind his back, standing there, he was like an incomparably sharp sword. Even from a distance, Isabelle could feel waves of coldness.

She instantly judged that this was an expert at the level of a great general, and not an ordinary great general. This aura was probably even inferior to the dawn divine sword. Could he be a legend?

Thinking of this, Isabelle's entire body was pushed to the limit.

"TSK TSK, people finally came to Kunlun. I told you, this foreign girl is too daring. She even rushed to the entrance of Kunlun..."

"That's right, that's right..."

"What's with the light on that girl's body? Her aura isn't weak. She has some ability..."

"She dares to come to Kunlun and act atrociously. Doesn't she have some ability?"

The surrounding spectators started to watch.

Pu Yunchuan quickly stood up and shielded Isabelle behind him. He frowned and said, "What are you doing? Are you sick, Old Man?"

"Move aside!" The person who came was elder Li of Karakorum Sword sect. He looked at Pu Yunchuan with weak blood and Qi. One look and one could tell that he was an ordinary person. He immediately frowned.

"Old Man, we are here to watch the competition. You can go to your own side. If you really want to cause trouble, don't blame me for bullying the old man..." the one who spoke was rock sparrow. He lazily walked to the middle and stared at the other party with a pair of dead fish eyes... ..

"Arrogant!" Elder Li's expression turned cold. Yesterday, he had been annoyed by Qin Xuanji who came to his door by Luo Fu. Now that someone actually took the initiative to provoke him, he could use these reckless western barbarians to vent his anger!

Thinking of this, he did not say any more nonsense. The long sword in his hand left his body and the sword cry soared to the sky. The sword momentum instantly reached its peak. He raised his hand and a ten-foot long sword qi slashed towards the other party!

He did not hold back. With so many people watching, it was a chance for Karakorum to establish their might. Naturally, they used the momentum of thunder to eliminate these reckless rascals!

Li Xiaoqian, who was following by the side, saw this power, and her mind instantly jolted. She thought to herself, 'one day, I will definitely become such a person...'.

Isabelle's expression was shocked. That transparent sword Qi was incomparably sharp, as if it wanted to cut through space. To be able to use the energy in his body so skillfully from so far away, he was truly an incredible person.

Under normal circumstances, she would definitely pull Pu Yunchuan to dodge it and not dare to take it head-on. However, at this moment, rock sparrow was in the middle, so she was not in a hurry to move.

After exchanging blows, she naturally knew., this dead fish-eyed youth was an expert that was far more powerful than a legend!

“How cool...” rock sparrow sighed. Then, he directly stretched out his hand and grabbed, and everyone saw him grab that sword Qi in his hand!

His posture was extremely arrogant!

Elder Li’s body trembled. Ever since he became famous, he had never seen anyone who dared to receive his sword Qi with his bare hands. Even elder Hong, who was famous for his hard body skills, did not dare to be so bold. This youth really dared to be so arrogant.

However, in the next second, he saw the other party’s fair and slender hand really grab his sword qi. Then, with a casual wave of his hand, his sword qi was forcefully changed direction and slashed towards the sky. On the white clouds above a hundred meters in the sky... It left a mark...

“Hiss! !”Some of the onlookers who were watching the show sucked in a breath of cold air. He had caught Li Changqing’s sword Qi with his bare hands. He was F * cking ruthless... ..

“What a clever judgment!”Elder he of Wudang in the distance narrowed his eyes slightly and said.

Everyone was immersed in the arrogant visual effect of catching the sword Qi with their bare hands. However, he saw it a little deeper. Compared to the heroic spirit of catching the sword Qi with his bare hands, the opponent’s judgment of the opportunity to deflect the force was really the essence of the essence. It was just that his movements were slightly stiff and not gentle enough. If he could cultivate the wudang cloud hand...

“Who are you?”Elder Li’s expression instantly became solemn.

“Dragon Group Number Six, Rock Sparrow!”Rock sparrow proudly revealed his official identity.

The surrounding people immediately began to discuss when they heard this.

[Dragon Group? What is that thing?]

[you don’t Know? The latest transcendent organization announced by the government belongs to the government’s own cultivation force. The one who defeated the Wudang Disciples yesterday is the Dragon Group’s number one green sparrow.]

-LSB- damn, where did the government find such a group of experts?]

[I heard that they are supported by the new sect, Luo Fu. The three participants this time are all members of the Dragon Group. With this, it seems that Luo Fu has invested a lot in cooperating with the government this time...]

While everyone was discussing, elder Hong of ER mei looked over with a slight frown. He had received the news from the sect yesterday. According to elder Liu’s guess, number six rock sparrow had the strength of a high-level Heaven Immortal, at first, he didn’t believe it, but after seeing his skill today, he no longer had any doubts. Even he might not be able to do what he did just now...

This high-level heaven immortal expert, Luofu, was willing to vote for the Dragon Group. It seemed that Luofu really wanted to break the current balance... ..

Then how would Kunlun respond?

“What’s going on?” While elder Hong was thinking, he heard a familiar voice from afar. It was elder Tian and elder Li, who were strolling on the street...

“Elder Li...” peafowl turned around, seeing elder Li come over, he bowed respectfully and then stood behind elder Li. Everyone was stunned when they saw this scene. They didn’t expect that an expert who could fight with Kunlun’s heaven immortal elder would be so humble in front of the officials?

Elder Li’s face instantly turned red. This was the first time he felt so confident when facing someone from Kunlun. He slowly walked up and said with a smile, “Elder Li, is there a misunderstanding?”

Chapter 435: did he see a Ghost?

Li Changqing looked at the old man who used to knock on the door of Kunlun. At that time, this guy was so humble, and Kunlun had proved to the cultivation world that the imperial court could not leave Kunlun...

But now, this confident attitude made elder Li’s heart slightly cold.

“Is that blonde woman also a member of Your Dragon Group?” Elder Li asked faintly.

“Of course...” elder Li smiled.

“Your Dragon team even wants Western Barbarians to expand their strength? Are You So Desperate?”

“She’s from Luofu...” elder Li said with a smile.

“You Luofu really have no morals...” elder Li looked at Yan Que and said sarcastically.

“None of your business...” Yan que rolled his eyes at him.

“Don’t be rude...” elder Li frowned and reprimanded. Then, he looked at the other party with a smile.

“Since it’s a misunderstanding, elder Li, if there’s nothing else, we’ll take our leave...”

The veins on Li Changqing’s forehead twitched violently. He resisted the urge to make a move. Making a move on the government in public was such a big excuse. Although he had always been arrogant, he knew the severity of the situation. Moreover... .. The strength of this fellow from the Dragon Group was unfathomable. Even if he made a move, he was not completely confident. If he were to fall into a disadvantageous position, he would lose face at the foot of Mount Kunlun...

With this thought in mind, he glanced at the other party, snorted coldly, and left with a flick of his sleeve... ..

Li Xiaoqian hurriedly followed. Before she left, she took a deep look at the rock sparrow and thought to herself, Luo Fu, Luo Fu... “...”. Was this sect really that powerful?

After Li Changqing left, the surrounding onlookers began to discuss animatedly.

“Damn, this official is now full of confidence. How much confidence does this Luo Fu give the official?”

“That’s right. Is this Luo Fu really that powerful? Then why did he seek refuge with the official?”

“Who knows? Anyway, I heard that it’s also a mystic realm sect. It’s amazing...”

Some of the elders from the other large sects who were watching from afar also began to ponder. As a sword immortal, elder Li had a fiery temper. If he was able to forcefully endure it, then Luo Fu’s weight must be extraordinary. Could it be... ? Was there really going to be an existence in this world that could contend against Kunlun?

“Elder Li, how is it? I still give you a lot of face, right?” On the way back, Yan que saw that many people had dispersed, so he approached elder Li and asked sneakily.

“Cough...” elder Li’s face immediately turned red, and he coughed lightly, “Thank you for showing your face, Sir...”

He was indeed quite happy just now. Ever since he took over the contact with extraordinary people, it was the first time he was so confident. He felt that his years of frustration had been cleared up quite a bit... ..

Pu Yunchuan, who was behind him, was stunned. When he saw elder Li address Yan que as Mr. Li, a strange feeling rose in his heart. He had seen this character, elder Li, on the news many times. He was a famous big shot. Now that he was being so modest to a player, he felt that it was a little unreal... ..

He had been ordering takeout at home for the past few days. Had the players already gotten so high?

F * ck...

He suddenly felt a little regretful that he had wasted these two months...

“Then the Aston Martin agent version that you promised me previously can’t be swindled by me... it must be exactly the same as the one in the movie... so that I can take it back to show off...” Yan que said slyly.

Elder Li:”...”

Pu Yunchuan immediately covered his head. He felt that it was indeed difficult to get rid of the aura of a loser... ..

“Oh, right, dog egg... cough cough... how many rounds have Qingque and the others fought?” Rock Sparrow asked curiously.

“The second round today, we’ll have to go up the mountain later...” elder Li suddenly said curiously, “Rock sparrow, how many of the few people in your sect who have entered the Dragon Team are as powerful as you?”

He was surprised to see Yan que fighting with Li Changqing. He thought that the people sent by Luofu to the Dragon team were all at the disciple level. He didn’t expect Yan Que, who was usually careless, to have the strength of an elder, he suddenly thought greedily that there were several such people?

“US?” Yan Que obviously didn’t understand what the other party meant. He rubbed his chin and said, “They’re almost the same...”

About the same?

Elder Li was stunned. How could it be about the same. Take Qing que as an example. One of them had to fight so hard to participate in the martial arts practice of Kunlun, and the other one could already confront a well-known elder...

Forget it. Since the other party didn’t want to say anything, he didn’t ask any more questions, so he asked, “Do you want to go up the mountain with us to watch the competition or rest here?”

“Of course we want to watch the match. As for those two...” rock sparrow looked behind him and coughed lightly, “Why don’t we arrange a room for you to rest?”

Pu Yunchuan’s face turned red when he heard that, and he looked at Isabelle who was beside him.

“Match?” Isabelle’s face brightened, “Is it the battle in this world that you mentioned before?”

She was actually quite curious about how this world’s fighters fought... ..

“Uh... I guess that’s what it means...” the rock sparrow hesitated.

“Can I go and take a look?” Isabelle looked at Pu Yunchuan and asked expectantly.

“UH... of... Of course...” Pu Yunchuan was stunned for a moment. He looked at the expectant look on the other party’s face and quickly nodded.

As soon as he said that, Pu Yunchuan wanted to give himself a slap...

“Thank you...” Isabelle tugged Pu Yunchuan’s chubby hand in soft judo.

This small hand pull, Pu Yunchuan moment just that chagrin disappeared without a trace, silly laugh up.

The Rock Sparrow looked at this silly guy, suddenly a corner of the mouth, thought: finished, this guy... . .

On the other side, officer Yang Rui arrived in Hotan about an hour after Pu Yunchuan and the others arrived. It took him quite some time to find the small town in the direction of the Kunlun martial arts demonstration. After all, he used to be a small policeman, how could he have the opportunity to stroll around in such a place?

When he arrived at the small town in Kunlun, he soon saw a person he had never expected...

After looking at that person from afar, he hurriedly picked up the phone and dialed the number of his deputy, the female police officer.

“Hello, Boss? Are you here?”

“Yes, I’m here...” Yang Rui nodded, and then lowered his voice and said, “Xiaoli, I told you to keep an eye on Old Wang. How is his situation now?”

“Oh, he...” on the other end of the phone, Xiao Li said in a low voice, “There’s nothing strange about him. After work, he bought some vegetables and went home. He hasn’t come out since then...”

“Are you sure?” Yang Rui looked at the dog father who was talking and laughing with his daughter not far away.

“Yeah...” the other side was puzzled. “What’s Wrong?”

“Wait a minute...” Yang Rui hung up the phone and called director Yan of the Bureau.

“Hey, Little Yang, where have you been? I was looking for you. Come with me to a dinner party tonight. Ah, it’s with Governor Chen. Let me tell you, if you perform well later, I’m going to recommend you to be the director of the police station in the Sand District...”

“I’m not in City C...” Yang Rui was stunned for a moment.

“What?” The voice on the other end suddenly sank. “Where did you go, you bastard?”

“I have to go out for something... Yan, let me ask you something...”

“what’s the matter?” The other side was getting impatient.

“When did Lao Wang leave the police station?”

“Half past five...”

“So accurate?” Yang Rui Leng Way.

“Well... .” director Yan snorted coldly and said, “Originally, there were so many things in the bureau that needed to be settled, but in the end, he immediately ran away after work. Ever since I took over Lao Bai’s matter, this guy was like an old fox. He had been fishing for fish for three days and fishing for nets for two days. Every day, he was not punctual when he went to work, and he ran away from work the fastest. It’s getting more and more outrageous. And you, you ran so far away, but you didn’t even greet me. What are you trying to do? Do you think I can’t control you?”

“No, no, no... Chief Yan, look at what you’re saying. When have I not been doing my best? I really have something to do...”

“Where did you go?”

“I... Some private matters...”

“You didn’t... run away with the military vehicle, did you?”

“Uh...” Yang Rui was stunned. He had to admit that Chief Yan really knew him well... ..

Old Yan immediately said sternly, “Are you crazy? Do you know what you’re doing? Come back immediately!”

“Aiya... the signal is bad. Aiya, Aiya, I can’t hear what you’re saying. The wind is so strong here. I’ll call you later...”

Director Yan: “...”

After hanging up the phone, Yang Rui let out a sigh of relief. Then, he called his assistant, Zhang Xiaoli. Since old Yan said that old Wang got off work on time, it proved that Zhang Xiaoli was not lying to him.

But the strange thing was...

Yang Rui looked at Old Wang who was not far away and thought to himself, my flight is in the morning, and Old Wang gets off work at 5:30 in the afternoon. Why is he here before me?

Did I see a Ghost?

Chapter 436: you have the nerve to bring this kind of trash back?

The next day, Kunlun's layout competition was much more normal. After all, they couldn't go too far. Therefore, on the second day, not only did the major sects not fight among themselves, but their trump cards were also separated before the top 32.

However, in general, they were still biased toward Kunlun. For example, the opponents of the various trump cards were all the No. 3 or No. 4 seeds of the other sects. However, the disciples of Kunlun would not encounter these people at all. The ones that Kunlun would encounter... were the disciples of the other sects who had a relatively higher chance of winning.

In this way, Kunlun's survival rate would always be the highest within the top 32.

The first match was between Lu Chenshuang and Helian Cheng, a Wudang disciple. This was a tough battle for Yunshan. Now, apart from the fact that Yunji mu seemed to have a higher chance of winning on the surface, Lu Chenshuang had a slight chance of winning this match. As for the other two opponents... They were basically at the stage of giving up on treatment...

At the thought of this, the group of people from Yunshan sect seemed a little depressed.

Their Yunshan sect's foundation was too weak. Now that they were being targeted by Kunlun in the formation, they naturally dared to be angry but did not dare to speak out. After all, if they did not want their trump cards to face each other, then the ones who would be sacrificed would naturally be the number three or four seeds of each sect. When the Kunlun sect was in formation, they would not consider the fact that there were fewer people in the Cloud Mountain sect...

Initially, sect Master Yun was mentally prepared for all of this. However, this time, his family had two earth immortals. In addition, the remaining children were not weak either. Originally, he had hoped to protect two against three, if he was lucky, he might have four positions.

However, reality proved that he had overestimated the integrity of Kunlun. What he did not expect the most was that his trump card disciple, Lu Xingfeng, was eliminated in the first round.

Now, the only people that the Yunshan sect could count on were actually two girls... ..

Thinking of this, sect leader Yun sighed slightly in his heart, he said to Lu Chenshuang, who was about to enter the battle, "That Helian Cheng is experienced and has strong inner strength. You, who cultivate the path of the sword immortal, should avoid fighting a prolonged battle. When you face him, you must not let him delay the situation..."

Hearing this, Lu Chenshuang nodded. In her heart, she also knew the pressure on her body...

While they were talking, Yun Ji Mu slowly walked in from outside the stone pavilion.

"Master..." Yun Ji Mu quickly bowed and said.

"Oh, you're finally willing to come back from your Little Langjun's Place?" Lu Chen Shuang couldn't help but tease.

Yun Ji Mu's face turned red when she heard that. She cupped her hands and said, "Master, it's winter outside. It's quite inconvenient for my friends to watch the competition outside. Could you..."

"Ha..." Lu Chenshuang immediately smiled. "I was wondering how you could bear to do that. It turns out that you brought them here directly..."

The faces of the surrounding Yunshan disciples immediately darkened, especially the eldest senior brother, Lu Xingfeng. His face was so dark that water almost squeezed out of it.

Sect Master Yun looked at Mu Yunji, then nodded and said, "Since they are your friends, we shouldn't neglect them. call them in..."

Now That Mu Yun Ji had entered the Earth immortal realm, and she had defeated Yan Wushuang of Emei in one move, her realm was stable. Even above Lu Xingfeng, this Yunshan sect, which had a weak foundation, could even take on the position of an elder.

Although sect master Yun hoped that Mu Yun Ji could become a couple with Lu Xingfeng, the cultivation world had always talked about strength. Now, with Mu Yun Ji's strength, even if he was Mu Yun Ji's master., he wouldn't be able to influence her matters.

Moreover, he also wanted to know what kind of background a man who was valued by his child had... ..

"Thank you, Master!" Seeing that her master had agreed, Yunji Mu's face lit up, and she hurriedly called for the people outside to come in.

The so-called friends were naturally Wang Chengbo and young master Huang. Of course, this time, there was also that itinerant cultivator, Guo hongde.

After entering the sect, Guo Hongde and young master Huang both appeared a little uneasy. Although Young Master Huang was quite powerful outside, his family knew his family's affairs. His Huang family was merely a subsidiary family of the Yunshan sect, back then, Yun Mu Ji's attitude had forced old master Huang to cripple his own grandson's legs and chase him out of the sect. His status in this Yunshan sect was probably even inferior to a servant disciple!

On the other side, Guo Hongde was even more constrained. As an itinerant cultivator sect, he was usually submissive when he came into contact with the disciples of some slightly larger sects. Now, facing one of the top ten sects' elite disciples and sect master, he was even more nervous... Naturally, he was even more nervous...

However, he still braced himself and came in. Not to mention whether he would have the opportunity to get to know the high-ranking disciples of Yunshan sect, just the fact that he could come to the stone pavilion to watch the competition during the martial arts practice in Kunlun, when he went back, he would be able to boast about it... ..

“This is my master...”Yunji Mu introduced him to Wang Chengbo.

“Greetings, Sect Master Yunbo...”Wang Chengbo said bashfully, looking as nervous as a parent.

Sect Master Yunbo looked at Wang Chengbo and frowned slightly. He took a closer look and found that Wang Chengbo’s Qi and blood were weak. He was even weaker than a warrior in the mortal world. What did his Yunji value about him?

It was fine if he was said to be handsome, but he was just average looking... ..

When he thought about how his well-groomed seedling had been taken away by such a guy... .. Sect Master Yun felt even more frustrated today...

Whoosh!

At this moment, a sharp cold light suddenly lit up. A snow-white sword suddenly slashed toward Wang Chengbo without any warning.

The sword’s attack wasn’t fast, giving young master Huang and Guo Hongde enough time to react and retreat in fear.

With such speed, the others would definitely be able to stop it in time, but no one made a move, including the sect leader himself.

A second later, the sword suddenly stopped and pointed at Wang Chengbo within a millimeter, but Wang Chengbo didn’t retreat in fear like Young Master Huang and the others.

“What are you doing?”Mu Yunji looked at the person who drew the sword. She didn’t expect that the first one to make things difficult would be Lu Chenshuang. She had always thought that it might be senior brother Lu...

“Scared silly?”Lu Chenshuang ignored her senior sister and frowned at Wang Chengbo, who was standing at the same spot.

Sect Master Yun was also slightly interested. He noticed that there was no trace of panic in the young man’s eyes. Although he was a mortal, his bearing was unusual...

However, in the next second, sect leader Yun’s thought disappeared without a trace. Wang Chengbo was stunned for a moment, and as if he had just reacted, he rolled his eyes and fainted immediately...

This operation stunned everyone...

Mu Yunji quickly went forward to support him, and then glared at Lu Chenshuang. “You scared him...”

“Mu Yunji...”Lu Chenshuang laughed in anger. “Where did you find this trash? Is he here to make a joke?”

Young Master Huang couldn't help but cover his head and mourn for his brother. Guo Hongde was also speechless. He thought to himself, are the disciples of big sects so easy to fool? He could even fool a guy like this. Should he try to take the path of living off a woman?

Sect Master Yun's face was also gloomy. Could it be that this child of his had been poisoned by some kind of venomous insect and lost his mind?

Just as he was about to say something, a strange phenomenon suddenly made him choke on his words...

"Senior sister, it's not that I want to scold you, but how can you bring this kind of trash to your place? If it were me, I wouldn't even be able to bring him out!" Lu Chenshuang said angrily.

"It has nothing to do with you..." mu Yunji said lightly, "Besides, he's not a trash..."

"Yes, that's true. Calling him a trash is an insult to the word 'trash'!" Lu chenshuang sneered, "At least those two trash still know how to hide..."

"Chenshuang!" The sect master suddenly opened his mouth.

"What did I say wrong?" Lu chenshuang snorted coldly, "Sect master, isn't that what you think in your heart? Why are you pretending?"

"Cough..." the sect leader coughed lightly and said, "Your sword..."

"Eh?" Lu Chenshuang was stunned. "What's wrong with my sword?" As she said that, she looked over, but her body suddenly froze on the spot.

The originally smooth body of the sword was unexpectedly suffused with a sea-blue light. If one looked carefully, it was as if there were waves rolling in the sword!

This... . This Is?

Chapter 437: Wang Chengbo's method (part one)

"Let's invite the Yunshan sect: Lu Chenshuang, and the Wudang sect: Helian Cheng to the Stage!"

As soon as the referee's voice fell, a blue figure descended from the sky like a feather, showing his superb cultivation of internal strength.

The group of people, including the Wudang elders, all nodded slightly. In the past two years, Helian Cheng's cultivation had reached the explosive stage, and his progress was extremely fast. The Wudang internal strength was built up, and Lian Cheng's current cultivation was not far from the Earth immortal realm.

If he had participated in the last martial arts demonstration in his current state, perhaps it would not have been the turn of the two children of the Yunshan sect to shine.

At this time, Helian Cheng looked at the stone platform on the side of the Yunshan sect, and his expression was complicated. Three years ago, he had been defeated by an unknown junior of the Yunshan sect. To be honest, when he returned to the sect, he had suffered a great deal of pressure.

However, three years ago, it was a critical period when he was defending his purple cloud technique, so he was unable to use his full strength. Now that he had met the Yunshan sect disciple again, the person he wanted to confront the most was actually the Yunji who had defeated him back then.

However, that Mu Yunji's talent was really amazing. She had actually stepped into the Earth immortal realm. To be honest, it had caused him quite a blow. Now, he had to face another disciple of the Yunshan sect who was participating in the competition for the first time. He suddenly had a feeling that fate was familiar to him...

For some reason, a very uneasy feeling welled up in his heart.

Not long after, he saw a white figure descend from the sky. Its movement was light and graceful, but when it landed, it gave off an otherworldly aura. With just a slight feeling, Helian Cheng could tell that this person was a sword immortal!

However, for some unknown reason, the other party's aura was somewhat chaotic. Thinking of this, Helian Cheng frowned slightly and said, "Your Mind is still unsettled. Do You Need Time?"

As a senior, facing this kind of girl who was participating for the first time, he still had the bearing that he should have.

Hearing this, Lu Chenshuang was stunned. She looked at the other party and could not help but secretly think that the other party was very sharp.

She had been distracted by the strange phenomenon of the sword just now, but she did not expect that the other party would see that she was uneasy as soon as she came down. It was said that the Wudang deity observation technique was unrivaled in the world. It seemed that what they said was true...

However, the other party's gentlemanly attitude made people have a good impression of him.

After that, she bowed in embarrassment. "Thank you..."

Helian Cheng nodded, then he stood on the spot and closed his eyes to rest. Lu Chenshuang activated her own mental cultivation technique and calmed her mind.

When the surrounding onlookers saw this, they all nodded and praised the bearing of this wudang disciple...

At this time, in the stone pavilion far away from the Kunlun disciples, the Kunlun disciple, Su Ruoyu, who was dressed like a scholar, suddenly smiled and said, "This Wudang Kid Looks so honest, but he has good intentions."

When the Kunlun disciples heard this, they asked curiously, "Senior brother, why do you say so? I see that this person's actions are quite magnanimous..."

"Magnanimous?" The scholar disciple shook his head with a smile. "This meditative state of mind is the most important state of mind. In this kind of environment, with so many people watching and the fight approaching, and with an opponent waiting for you at the side, forcibly meditating will only make your mind even more chaotic. In this kind of situation, most of the people who can meditate are people with excellent cicada skills. If it were Wang Qing, I believe that he can meditate. This girl is also a sword immortal...". "... Hehe "..."

"Hiss..."the surrounding disciples felt a chill in their hearts when they heard this. They didn't expect that Helian Cheng, who looked so honest, was actually such a black-bellied person.

In the stone pavilion on the Cloud Mountain, the sect leader also shook his head and sighed. He thought to himself, "Chen Shuang, this child is still too young. She was tricked just like that. I'm afraid this battle will be difficult."

However, in the next second, something that no one expected happened.

After Lu Chen Shuang activated her mental cultivation method, her entire aura actually stabilized in an instant. Moreover, it was as calm as the surface of the sea. It was thick and calm...

This situation caused the disciples of the various sects to be stunned. This was especially so for Helian Cheng, who was opposite her. It was originally not shameful to scheme against a junior. It was just that the outcome of the battle was very important to the sect and he had no choice but to do so. However, he had never expected that., such a little fellow's cicada technique was actually so amazing. She actually entered a meditative state in just a few seconds? And in this kind of environment?

Even a monk who cultivated cicada might not be able to do it, right?

In fact, Lu Chenshuang herself was indeed unable to do it. Just as Helian Cheng had calculated, when she had just entered a meditative state, she was indeed somewhat anxious. A moment of confusion might cause her internal breath to become even more chaotic, however, she did not expect that the moment she activated her mental cultivation method with the sword by her side, there would be a cool and refreshing feeling. She was like a withered grass that had encountered the rain and dew on the mountain in an instant, instantly making her anxious mood calm down, she sank into the clear and sweet rain.

As the other party's breath became longer and longer, Helian Cheng somewhat regretted it. If he had taken advantage of the moment when the other party's breath was unstable just now to attack her, his chances of winning would have been much higher, right?

Does that count as digging your own grave?

"This Yunshan is really lucky... The elders of Kunlun slightly narrowed their eyes and said, "In the past, there were two immortals, Mu Yunji and Lu Xingfeng. Now, this girl's meditative skills are probably not as good as those of Wang Qing of Wudang. TSK TSK, could it be that the previous sect master of Yunshan has buried a good geomancy terrain?" "? Even the juniors are so powerful?"

The Kunlun disciples were all embarrassed when they heard this, but they did say one thing after another. This meditative skills were indeed a little scary. It was hard to imagine that a girl in her twenties could have it...

"Master... This..."on the side of Mount Yun, Lu Xingfeng and the others frowned and said.

Sect Master Yun was silent for a while. Although he had never taught Lu Chenshuang, he was still clear about her abilities. She definitely didn't have such meditative skills, so if she didn't have it herself, could it be...

Thinking of this, he looked at the sword in Lu Chenshuang's hand and said in a low voice, "Yun ji, the sword in Shuang 'er's hand..."

Mu Yun Ji was helping Wang Chengbo to his seat. Hearing this, she said in a low voice, "Master is right..."

Was it really because of that sword?

Sect Leader Yun's heart skipped a beat. Then, he swallowed his saliva and asked, "Is the sword in Shuang 'er's hand because of this child?"

Mu Yunji gently rubbed the unconscious Wang Chengbo's temples and said, "Chengbo is a disciple of Luofu. The technique he cultivated is a technique to help others. His cultivation is still shallow. He shouldn't have used this technique so casually..."

There was such a technique?

Sect Master Yun and the other Yunshan disciples were shocked.

They suddenly understood why mu Yunji valued such a simple-looking guy. So it was like this...

On the other hand, young master Huang was dumbfounded. He cried out in his heart, F*ck, how come I don't know about this?

"Junior sister sure knows how to joke..." Lu Xingfeng frowned and said, "You mean this kid has the ability to turn mortal weapons into treasures?"

"Isn't it obvious enough?" Mu Yunji said coldly.

"I've never heard of such a technique in the world!" Lu Xingfeng frowned and said.

"You talk as if you're knowledgeable and know all the methods in the world. Don't tell me that what you don't know is unreasonable?" Mu Yunji retorted coldly.

"You..."

"Alright..." sect master Yun raised his hand to stop the quarrel between the two of them. Then, he looked at the field with concern and said with a serious tone, "Disciple, you brought this kid's ability to help Shuang 'er enter the meditative state quickly, right?"

"Of course not..." Yun mu ji said faintly, "Master, just watch at ease. This battle... Chen Shuang will definitely win! !"

"Hu..." on the field, Lu Chen Shuang slowly exhaled a breath of fresh air. Her entire person was as calm as water. However, Helian Cheng could clearly feel that the other party's calm state hid the surging momentum behind it.

“Thank you, senior, for your understanding!” After Lu Chenshuang exhaled, both of her eyes slowly opened. A sea-blue light flashed, and she calmly looked at the other party. There was no longer a trace of distracting thoughts in her heart.

“Senior, Please! !”

Chapter 438: Wang Chengbo’s method (part two)

The battle ended faster than expected. No one had expected that Yun Shan, a young girl in her twenties, would have such a terrifying sword momentum!

If elder he songzi of Wudang had not acted quickly, Helian Cheng would have at least crippled one of his hands and legs...

“The Yunshan sect is really well-hidden!” He songzi said coldly as he looked at the Longsword in Lu Chenshuang’s hand that was glowing with a blue light like the ocean.

Lu Chenshuang lowered her head when she heard this. She was too embarrassed to retort because she could feel that this sword was not something that she could slash out...

Thinking of this, she recalled the shy boy in the stone pavilion just now who was staring at her longsword in a daze... ..

“They’re just using their own methods...” on the Yunshan sect’s side, sect leader Yun stood in front of the stone pavilion and replied in a clear voice, “Didn’t the disciples of your sect also play tricks on a Junior?”

He songzi’s expression darkened when he heard this, but he didn’t reply immediately...

Putting aside the fact that this arena had never banned the use of precious artifacts, just the fact that his own disciple had schemed against such a young junior made it impossible for him to have the confidence to continue the confrontation...

In the end, he sighed and supported the disappointed-looking Helian Cheng as they walked towards the stone pavilion of Wudang.

“Elder... Elder...” Helian Cheng gritted his teeth fiercely. Due to using too much force, blood continuously flowed out from his gums. It took him a long time before he finally spat out those words, “I don’t want to do that...”

He songzi sighed when he heard this. Although he did not agree with the child’s actions, he could understand him. Then, he nodded gently and said, “I understand...”

Lu Xingfeng, who was in the stone pavilion in the distance, looked at the regretful Helian Cheng. Suddenly, a feeling of being in the same boat surged into his heart.

Didn’t he also choose a method that he did not want because of the pressure from his sect. In the end, he still lost. He didn’t get the result he wanted, and he also went against his original intention...

It was really... terrible...

“What did he do to my sword?” As the first person to get into the top 32, Mu Chenshuang’s heart was extremely complicated. She felt fortunate, but there was also a trace of guilt that she didn’t use her strength to get to this point.

Mu Yunji: “In the words of their sect, it’s called Enchantment. It’s a technique that uses spiritual energy to sublimate objects. This technique is soul-damaging. I’m afraid he won’t be able to wake up today to explain it to you...”

Mu Yunji was not lying. Wang Chengbo’s ability was called enchantment. It was a branch of alchemy, and it was especially compatible with the star spirits. Wang Chengbo had been practicing this for the past two months.

However, due to his low level, using it rashly had indeed caused his spirit to weaken. He needed to rest for a period of time to recover.

Lu Chenshuang was stunned. She looked at the sword in her hand that allowed her to win, then at Wang Chengbo. In her heart, she wanted to thank him, but in the end, her words turned into a different kind of question. “Is that why you’re with him?”

Mu Yunji rubbed Wang Chengbo’s temples and didn’t even lift her eyelids. “This has nothing to do with you...”

“You...”

“Okay...” the sect master glared at Chen Shuang. “Don’t try to be a good girl when you’ve got something good... Go Away...”

“Who Cares!” Lu Chen Shuang retorted, but she still couldn’t bear to throw the sword away and retreated to the side resentfully.

“Disciple... is the effect of this Chenshuang’s sword permanent?” Sect Master Yun asked the key question.

As soon as he said this, all the Yunshan disciples looked over, including Lu Chenshuang, who had pretended not to care, and couldn’t help but quietly perk up her ears...

“If it wasn’t permanent, how could it consume so much energy?” Mu Yunji looked at Cheng Bo with heartache, apparently disapproving of Wang Cheng Bo’s approach.

“Oh... is that so...” sect leader Yun was instantly delighted and rubbed his hands excitedly. With such ability, it was no wonder that Mu Yunji had taken a liking to the other party. If he was a woman, he would also have taken a liking to the other party... ..

F * ck, where could he find such a capable dual cultivation partner?

Lu Chenshuang’s heart skipped a beat when she heard this, and her hand that was holding the sword couldn’t help but tremble in excitement.

This sword alone could greatly increase her cultivation efficiency just by its ability to allow her to enter a meditative state quickly. If the effect was permanent, it would truly be a great favor...

At the thought of this, her gaze towards Wang Chengbo became much gentler. It was no longer as difficult as before.

Meanwhile, Lu Xingfeng's gaze towards Wang Chengbo became much more complicated.

In the current situation, if junior sister could rope this silly kid over and make him a member of the Yunshan sect, with his skills and abilities, he would definitely be a great help to the weak Yunshan sect!

However, in private, with this kid being so useful, the sect would probably not support him at all. Junior Sister's thoughts were not on him to begin with. If he did not have the support of the sect, he would have no chance at all...

Thinking of this, Lu Xingfeng's heart became extremely uncomfortable.

Now that Kunlun had lost the martial arts competition and lost to the 20-something-year-old kid of the Liu family, and now that his junior sister had taken a fancy to someone else, he suddenly felt that the sun today was gray... ..

As Lu Xingfeng had expected, at this time, sect leader Yun no longer had any intention of marrying Mu Yunji to Lu Xingfeng.

The main reason was that Wang Chengbo was too useful... ..

However, he was worried about one thing. Would the Luofu sect be willing to release such a powerful technique? At that time, if Mu Yunji and this kid succeeded, it was very important which side would take the lead.

Otherwise, if he lost mu Yunji instead, it would really be a loss...

No... .. He had to find a way to get some information from the other side... ..

Thinking of this, he did not even have the mood to watch the rest of the matches. The most suspenseful match had already been settled, so he did not need to watch the rest of the matches to know the result...

The more he thought of this, the more he could not sit still. After hesitating for a while, he finally stood up and said to the surrounding disciples, "You guys entertain the guests well. Xingfeng, come out with me for a while..."

Lu Xingfeng was stunned. For a moment, he didn't understand why the sect leader would bring him along when he went out.

He naturally knew that the sect leader might have wanted to go to Luo Fu's side to probe for information, but why would he bring him along?

After thinking for a while, he finally understood the reason. He knew that he liked junior sister Mu, and the sect leader obviously didn't want him to disturb the atmosphere here by bringing him along, at the thought of this, Lu Xingfeng's face broke into a wry smile.

Just as I expected, after knowing the boy's value, the school will not stand on my side... . .

With the departure of sect master Xiao and Lu Xingfeng, the atmosphere among the surrounding disciples immediately became much more relaxed, especially in the absence of eldest senior brother. This made them no longer have any psychological burden, and they immediately surrounded Yunji Mu, they began to ask about things that interested them.

For example, how did Yunji Mu and Wang Chengbo know Yunyun.

"Brother..." Guo Hongde, who was sitting in the corner, swallowed his saliva and said, "Your friend is very capable. No wonder he was able to get the personal disciple of the sect master..."

Young Master Huang rolled his eyes when he heard that. He was the one with the most complicated feelings, okay? His underling had suddenly become a big shot in the cultivation world?

It felt like he was making up a story. He had come to enchant the city. Why didn't he realize that this kid had such an awesome ability?

Wait a minute...

Now that he thought about it, Cheng Bo's work efficiency was indeed much faster than the average employee... ..

Did he enchant the keyboard in the office?

What the... .. Then I have to find a way to get that keyboard when I go back. What if it's a treasure... ..

Chapter 439: Conditions!

"Ah, this Yunshan sect is really something. Such a young girl can actually defeat Helian City of Wudang!"

In the stone pavilion in Luofu, elder Li clicked his tongue and sighed.

The players on the side rolled their eyes. wasn't it normal for a level one warrior who could slay a dragon to defeat a level ten warrior with a wooden sword?

Do you know why the RMB players in the game are so awesome?

Elder Liu nodded as well. "Yes, there's a reason why Yunshan has risen so quickly recently..."

The sons on the side rolled their eyes when they heard that. Their old man did not like cultivation sects, especially Yunshan sect. Because they were close to each other, Yunshan was in charge of the extraordinary security in the capital. He often came into contact with those arrogant disciples, usually, he did not like them the most.

But now, he was supporting and praising Yunshan. Obviously, everyone knew the reason...

After all, Shiyu had just defeated Yunshan's trump card yesterday. The more he bragged about Yunshan now, didn't it show that his grandson's battle yesterday was better?

"I'm ashamed, ashamed..."

At this moment, a peaceful voice came from outside the pavilion. Everyone was stunned and looked back. Who else was outside the pavilion but the sect master of Yunshan?

"Yo, Sect Master Yun?" Elder Li quickly stood up to welcome him. "Why are you here?"

Sect Master Yun quickly returned the greeting and put on a good posture. After entering, he bowed again to Wei Lin who was quietly watching the match in the corner. "Greetings, Sect Master Qin!"

Wei Lin stood up and returned the greeting. "Sect Master Yun, you are too polite..."

"No, no...". Sect Master Yun smiled and said, "This time, it's not because of the help of that disciple of your sect called Wang Chengbo. With my Chen Shuang's skills, she's definitely not a match for that Daoist priest he." ... As he spoke, he cupped his hands and bowed again. "I, Yunshan, thank you...". "..."

"It's Alright...". "...Wei Lin smiled and said, "Chengbo, that child, cultivates our sect's unique weapon refining sect. This method is cultivated for the benefit of others. There are very few people in the sect who choose this path. Back then, he cultivated this method for the sake of your sect's Yunji Mu. He originally had impure intentions, so it's only right for him to pay a little "...". "..."

"Cough cough..." when the surrounding people heard this, they choked. They felt that sect Master Qin's words were true. "...". "... so straightforward...". "...".

"Uh..." sect master Yun also choked for a moment. "Sect Master Qin, you must be joking..."

"I'm not joking...". "...". "...virien said faintly, "Yunji MU obtained many benefits in My Luofu mystic realm. Not only did she obtain an opportunity in the mystic realm, she also learned my luofu cultivation technique. Logically speaking, she should be considered half a disciple of my luofu. Her aptitude is extremely good, and I was originally very tempted...". "..."

Upon hearing this, sect Master Yun's heart suddenly thumped, and Lu Xingfeng, who was beside him, was actually delighted. The other party actually had the intention to take Yunji mu away. If that was the case, the sect would definitely not allow it. Then, he... He was afraid that he would have a chance...

"However..."virion's tone changed, and he said, "That child, Yunji Mu, seems to be very concerned about the friendship of Yunshan Mountain and isn't willing to join My Luofu..."

When Sect Master Yun heard this, he heaved a sigh of relief and thought to himself, 'fortunately, I didn't raise an ingrate...'. ...

If Yunji Mu was willing to join him, with the strength that Luofu had displayed, Yunshan would probably have no choice but to swallow this bitter fruit.

"Then... Sect Master Qin, what do you mean?"Sect Master Yun looked at him carefully.

Qin Xuanji, the only high-level official of Luofu who frequently appeared on the surface, had strength... ! Unfathomable!

It was rumored that she had gone to meet the elders of Kunlun alone yesterday. Although she didn't know what had happened inside, there seemed to be an argument, and a great commotion had occurred in the temporary hall of elders of Kunlun.

Some people guessed that Qin Xuanji had fought with someone inside, and then walked out safely. After all, there was one of the Twelve Golden Immortals, patriarch situ, in the Hall of elders.

Many people said that after yesterday, elder Li of Kunlun had walked far away when he saw this person...

But no matter what the situation was, it was not an easy thing to walk out safely from the Elder Hall of Kunlun. At least for the Yunshan sect, even if his senior brother, who was at the Heaven Immortal level, came, he would not be able to do it... ..

"Cheng Bo is very talented, and it's a pity that he cultivates auxiliary techniques, but I, Luo Fu, never interfere with the disciple's wishes, so I accepted his request and taught him this technique. Although this technique is an auxiliary technique, it is of great help to the sect. I'm sure sect Master Yun can see that...". "..."

"Yes, yes..."sect master Yun nodded repeatedly.

"Cheng Bo can enter Your Cloud Mountain, and he can also impart the technique he cultivates to your cloud mountain's disciples. I can even promise to open the mystic realm every year and give you ten spots in the Cloud Mountain!"

"Hiss..."sect master Yun was shocked when he heard this. He didn't expect the other party to be so direct, and the benefits he received far exceeded his imagination!

However, as the sect leader of a sect, he naturally wasn't completely dazzled by the shocking benefits before his eyes. He calmed down his excitement and asked in a low voice, "Then may I ask sect leader Qin, how should I, Yunshan, repay you?"

He naturally knew that there was no free lunch in the world. Since the other party had given such great benefits, he naturally had some requests.

"Stand on my side of Luo Fu, fully support the Dragon Group!"Wei Lin Faint Way.

As soon as these words came out, elder Li and the others' hearts jumped and their faces couldn't help showing joy. They didn't expect the sect they were cooperating with to be so official...

Suddenly in the heart that excited Ah, see what is called a partner? What's a model sect?

"This..."cloud sect leader suddenly hesitated.

Standing still... .. It meant that he had fallen out with Kunlun...

If he didn't make a good choice in this decision, he was afraid that his cloud mountain would be in danger of being destroyed... ..

"Sect leader Yun, there's no need to be anxious...". "...virien smiled and said, "After all, it's a big matter, it's normal to think about it. How about this, after this martial arts demonstration, sect leader Yun can also go back and discuss with the elders in the sect. When the time comes, he can just give an answer . . .”

Cloud head heard the words nodded: “This matter is important, but I can not make the decision alone, please forgive Qin Head.”

“Never mind...”replied welling with a smile.

Then a line of people will fall into silence, this strange silence let cloud sect leader some left standing uneasy, was about to say something to ease the atmosphere, when suddenly outside came the next list.

“Please invite Daoist Wang Qing of Wudang and Chen Yu Tong of Luofu to come on stage!”

The moment this list was out, everyone immediately became energized.

Originally, most of the formations on the second day were compromised due to the various sects’ resources, and their trump cards were diverted, resulting in fewer surprises on the second day. However, this round was the only one that many people did not expect.

It was rumored that the sect master of Luofu, Qin Xuanji, went to Kunlun yesterday and caused a ruckus. In the end, Kunlun became even worse, directly putting Wang Qing of Wudang and the disciples of Luofu together.

Some of the nosy people secretly ridiculed this Luofu for pretending to be big and taking him seriously. Did he think that he could make Kunlun regress?

As soon as this arrangement was made, sect Master Yun immediately came up with a topic. He hurriedly said, “This Wang Qing of Wudang is the favorite to win the championship this time. Even Jiang Shisi of Kunlun might not be able to win this Wang Qing for sure...”

“Jiang Shisi?”Brother Dog was stunned. “What kind of name is that?”

“The Jiang family is very special in Kunlun...” . “...” . Sect Master Yun narrowed his eyes and said, “Each generation’s key disciples are personally selected by the ancestor of Kunlun. There aren’t all of them in every period. Once selected, they are named by numbers. This shisi was selected by the ancestor of Kunlun 30 years ago. Since the Ming dynasty’s righteous era, the ancestor of the Jiang family hasn’t chosen a direct disciple for 400 years...” . ”

“Uh... that sounds awesome...”said the dog.

Chapter 440: I Am a man!

Wang Qing’s stance on the stage was very stable. His fall from a height was extremely ordinary and gave people the feeling that it was simple and unadorned. However, his slow fall still revealed the extremely high internal cultivation level of Wudang.

On the other hand, Chen Yutong’s leap from a height of more than a hundred feet was rather unsightly. However, he directly fell from a height of more than a hundred feet. It was as if he did not use any light body technique. He just landed straight on the ground. It was rather puzzling.

Although the stone pavilion of Luofu was not as tall as the Wudang Pavilion, its position was not low either. It was at least fifteen to sixty feet tall. In the city, it was equivalent to jumping down from more than ten floors. Even if a cultivator's body was strong, it was still difficult to understand. It was inevitable that his qi and blood would churn when he landed like this. It was clear that there was something wrong with his actions before the competition...

However, Wang Qing saw it clearly. Although his opponent was landing at a flat speed, he landed with extraordinary lightness. He did not even raise a speck of dust. His final control was simply unimaginable...

The principle of the internal movement technique was actually not that mysterious. It was to make use of inner strength to rub against the air pressure in advance to increase the resistance, allowing one's body to become light in the air. As for how one's movement technique worked, it would depend on the degree of control one had over one's inner qi.

As for the other party, he only started to exert his strength after falling from a height of dozens of meters. In an instant, he had reduced the force of his falling body. He knew that he would not be able to achieve such control...

As expected... Even though the disciples of Luo Fu looked young, they were all extraordinary... ..

Wang Qing stared solemnly at the delicate young lady. Not daring to be the slightest bit negligent, he pulled out his sword and circulated his zhenqi around his body to perform the opening stance of welcoming guests. He was currently the greatest trump card of Wudang, he could not afford to make any mistakes. He could not afford to be as careless as his junior martial uncle.

He started with his hands. Although he was using the humbly welcoming sword technique, the Qi around his body was surging. The powerful genuine Qi formed an invisible air current, and his aura was as heavy as a mountain.

"Black tortoise genuine qi?" A strange voice suddenly sounded in the stone pavilion of Kunlun. "It seems that this guy is serious..."

All the disciples of Kunlun, including the elders, looked over when they heard the voice. They saw that the person was wearing a snow-white Daoist robe. His white hair was messy behind his back, and he was barefooted, if they recognized him wrongly, they might think that he was the great Luo Patriarch of Kunlun.

"Fourteen, you are finally willing to come?" It was elder Li who spoke.

Li Xiaoqian, who was serving elder Li Tea, narrowed her eyes slightly when she heard this. She sized up this girl-like handsome guy and thought to herself, "Is he the direct disciple of the great Luo of the Jiang Family?"

The direct disciple of Big Luo had only come from the disciples of the Jiang family. The patriarch of this generation had taken in a total of 14 disciples. The Top 13 had fallen before the Ming dynasty. The exact reason was unknown, anyway, the patriarch had not taken in a direct disciple for 400 years since then.

Now, Jiang Shisi was the only direct disciple of the patriarch in the past 400 years. It was said that his talent was so high that he could even stand shoulder to shoulder with Xuanzang of the Tang dynasty. He had broken through to the Earth immortal realm at the age of 20. It was the most likely candidate to become a disciple of Big Luo in Kunlun...

Jiang Shisi stretched lazily, yawned, and slowly walked to the viewing window of the stone pavilion, he looked at Wang Qing, who was waiting solemnly below, and said with a smile, "I heard that we were smashed yesterday and forced to change the line-up list. I was curious and came to take a look..."

As soon as he said this, elder Li's face darkened. He did not want anyone to mention this matter in his heart. If it were anyone else, he would have lost his temper a long time ago, but he could not afford to offend this person.

In terms of backup, this careless young man could even call the Twelve Golden Immortals Brothers.

Li Xiaoqian looked at elder Li, who had a cold expression on his face but didn't dare to flare up, and a thoughtful look appeared in her eyes.

"Alright, fourteen, do you really like to ruin your own family's reputation that much?" Su Nuoyan sighed and said, "Let's talk about the competition. What do you think Wang Qing's chances of winning are?"

Jiang fourteen found a seat and sat down. He yawned and said, "Before I came here, I would have thought that big nose wang would win."

"You mean you have a different opinion now?" Su Nuo's eyes lit up and asked curiously.

"Well..." fourteen looked at Chen Yu Tong and said faintly, "Even if it were Tang Lin, he might not be able to do what she did just now!"

Everyone was stunned. Tang Lin was the head disciple of the Tang sect in this generation. He was unrivaled in the underworld. Although he was young, he was widely recognized as the number one figure in the Earth immortal movement technique!

"Is it that exaggerated?"

The disciples at the side couldn't help but doubt him. Jiang Shisi smiled and didn't say anything. He looked at the arena and said lazily, "We'll know soon..."

When everyone looked over, they had already begun to meet. Just as Jiang Shisi had expected, Chen Yutong's movement technique was extremely impressive. There was no sign at all when she advanced. They only felt that with a single step, she had already appeared in front of Wang Qing...

This movement technique without any signs was not only seen by the surrounding people. Even Wang Qing, who was concentrating his energy, was shocked. He hurriedly took two steps back. That imposing aura, which was originally as unshakable as a mountain, instantly felt as if it had broken through...

This scene stunned many of the experts who had fought with Wang Qing. Those who had fought with Wang Qing knew that the most troublesome thing about Wang Qing was his unshakable black tortoise's aura. He felt that no matter how hard one tried, he would not be able to move like a mountain., many people could not even make Wang Qing move a single step after a battle. However, they did not expect that this little girl would be able to solve the problem that had troubled many people the moment she stepped onto the stage.

Chen Yutong wielded an extremely small and exquisite short sword. The short blade of the sword caused her to be at a disadvantage in the initial battle. After all, a soldier's life was in danger. In a battle against a long-ranged soldier, one had to face the opponent's attack head-on first, it was already an extremely disadvantageous thing to be able to gain the advantage in a short-ranged soldier by closing the distance and avoiding the danger. However, she did not expect that she would be able to overcome the most difficult situation right at the beginning of the battle.

Right now, the position between her and Wang Qing was clearly the position where she had the advantage in close combat. She stabbed out with her sword. Her move was simple and unflashy, but it was extremely fast. Many people could only see a few afterimages... ..

Wang Qing's heart tightened, but he did not panic. It was not that he had never met an opponent who used a fast sword before. He drew a sword with his left hand at an angle. The long sword crossed and drew a semicircle. He placed it flat on the other party's Sword Ridge and sent out a force.., chen Yutong felt his arm sink and the trajectory of his sword was changed.

Chen Yutong's eyes lit up and he thought to himself, this big nose has some skills. Then, he flicked his wrist and flipped his sword. The tip of the sword pierced towards his left side. Wang Qing swung his sword in a circle. With a clap, the two swords intersected and each flew up.

The short sword in Chen Yutong's hand trembled when it was shaken. It hummed for a long time.

"Good!"

The eyes of the originally Lazy Jiang Shisi lit up when he saw this exchange. He could not help but cheer. Elder Li also nodded his head.

This Wudang Kid not only responded appropriately to such a fast sword, but he also did not forget to guard against the other party's divine weapon like the Liu family's kid. Every time they exchanged blows, they would meet on a flat surface. With his blunt body, he blocked the enemy's attack without a edge, it was a good swordsmanship!

From Afar, Chen Yutong looked at the buzzing short sword in his hand and then looked at the other party. Suddenly, he said, "You don't have to be afraid. My Sword is an ordinary sword..."

"Uh..."Wang Qing was stunned when he heard that. He did not expect the other party to be so straightforward. Immediately, his aura stagnated. Then, he cupped his hands in embarrassment and said, "That is my evil heart. I hope that Lady Can Forgive me..."

After hearing the other party's words, Chen Yu Tong immediately frowned. "I'm not a miss, I'm a man..."

"Eh?"
