

A Bunch 61

Chapter 61: bullying people too much

“What? We lost them. Why aren’t you eating SH * t? Are you out of gas? Did I tell you not to bring enough gas?” Dozens of kilometers away.., a black army of about the size of a regiment was temporarily stationed on a grassy field. When the Fat Black General heard the report on the walkie-talkie, he roared angrily!

Prado, who was waiting for instructions in the temporary tent at the side, was also speechless. The plane had run out of gas. Should he say that he was indeed the manliest man in manga?

The helicopter in their regiment used a turboshaft engine and aviation kerosene. He was convinced that they could run out of fuel while chasing people...

“Soldier, are you sure that the antibody is still safe in the hands of that monster?” After cursing for almost half an hour, the fat black general finally turned off the walkie-talkie and turned around to ask Prado with a stern face!

“Yes, I’m very sure!” Prado quickly replied.

However, a strange look appeared in his eyes.

After the little girl was robbed that day, he decisively chose not to resist at that time. Instead, he chose to gather the majority of the troops before starting the chase. The facts proved that his choice was correct.., the combat strength of those two guys who looked like hulk was really worthy of their looks.

Up until now, only these big-headed soldiers were left in the pursuit of their regiment. The armored troops and the helicopters that were equipped were almost completely wiped out. The only helicopter left in the regiment only dared to watch from afar, he was afraid that he would be killed by a flying stone if he got close.

In fact, he did not understand why these people were still following them. The general had been cursing and despising them for only knowing how to run. In fact, he really wanted to know, if they did not run, what would they do if they stood still and waited for him?

Previously, more than 20 T-72s and more than 10 helicopters with long-range heavy firepower were destroyed by them. Now, each of them had millet and rifles in their hands. If they chased after them, would the soldiers dare to attack?

Moreover, it was very strange that in such a situation, the general did not ask for military support. He did not even choose to replenish the supplies when he passed by the military point. It was as if he was deliberately avoiding something.

Moreover, the two of them were strictly ordered not to reveal the fact that those monsters carried antibodies. The reason was that the higher-ups had already classified this matter as a top secret.

However, since the higher-ups already knew about this matter, with the importance of this matter, why had no support arrived until now?

He kept feeling that this matter was revealing something strange...

“Prado...”. The general said solemnly with his hands behind his back, “You are a descendant of the Angulie tribe. You have the most outstanding Hunter’s bloodline. Now that the plane has lost track of you, the hope of tracking those monsters and taking back our country rests on you alone!”

Hearing this, Prado immediately dropped the doubt in his heart and saluted at once. “Yes, general, I will do my best!”

“That’s good...”the general nodded with satisfaction, but turned with a cold glint in his eyes.

“I go... . That day’s plane, finally no shadow...”the dog brother can not help lying on the sand, he was panting heavily. At this time, the Sun was high in the sky, and the temperature of the sand was so hot that a snake might be able to roast it. However, Brother Dog did not care at all. After all, on Mars, what kind of sand did he not sleep on?

“What did I say?”Emperor liver said proudly, “This model is just like Grand Theft Auto. If we fight it head-on, there will only be more and more troops. Run more and wait for the sin value to disappear, then we can go out and have a wave again.”

“F * ck you!”Brother Dog said unhappily, “You said that you were the one who turned around and attacked. When you saw that there were more people surrounding us, you were the one who admitted defeat and ran away. Now, you even brought out Grand Theft Auto. How can you be so reasonable?”

“Bullsh * T!”The liver emperor said unhappily, “We have already rolled up our sleeves and killed those dozens of tanks. Why would I be afraid of those soldiers with guns? I just feel that the special effects are too realistic and I’m not used to it...”

As soon as he said that, Brother Dog, who was at the side, fell silent. To be honest, there was nothing wrong with the game’s graphics. However, there was no need to make it so realistic, right?

Previously, he had accidentally sent a soldier flying with a slap, and it had been directly shattered into pieces. His hands were full of... “...”. The indescribable thing almost made him spit it out!

He really dared to play this game. If he did so, he would not be able to pass the trial, right. Why don’t he go back and ask Grandpa Lu to give the studio a suggestion? Even if the scene couldn’t be changed in a short period of time, he could at least play some code... ..

Thinking of those bloody scenes, Brother Dog felt uncomfortable, so he avoided this topic. He turned his head and asked, “Hey, did any of you bring any nutrient solution? It feels like you’ve used up a lot of it. You’re tired and Thirsty!”

It would have been better if he didn’t say it, but when he said it, he only felt his mouth and tongue dry, and he felt even more uncomfortable.

The emperor of the liver smacked his lips as well. He looked at the little girl next to him, who had a weak look on her face. Her lips were dry and cracked, but she didn’t dare to make a sound. Suddenly, his heart tightened. He thought to himself, this game is way too realistic. An NPC’s expression is so vivid., this emperor’s maternal instinct overflowed.

So he turned to look at Grandpa Lu. "Grandpa, did you bring that?"

"Who brings that for no reason?" Grandpa Lu said unhappily, "Isn't that something that you bricklayers should carry around with you? "Look at me, Grandpa, where do I look like I can hide things?" As he said that, he twisted his jelly-like body.

The liver emperor felt that it was true. A lump of stuff with no hands or feet couldn't be stuffed into the anus, right?

"Then why do I feel that you're not thirsty at all?"

Brother Dog heard this and looked over curiously. "That's right. If you elves stay out in the Sun for too long and don't replenish your fluids in time, won't you be dried up? I've been waiting for a long time!"

"DAMN!!" Grandpa Lu was suddenly so angry that his whole body turned green. "I say, why are you two dogs staring at me from time to time?" "So this is your plan. F * ck, now that I look like this, you can even take a bite out of me, you two animals!"

"I do look a little ugly, as long as the taste is good..." the emperor of the liver touched his chin and said.

"You... you won't get away with it!" Grandpa Lu said angrily.

"Why?" The two of them asked curiously at the same time.

"Ha... you don't understand, do you? We Elves in the transformation stage can store energy. I have saved a lot of energy before, so don't worry, even if you two animals starve to death, I won't Die!"

"Eh?" Their eyes immediately lit up, emperor liver smacked his lips and said, "I thought you had evolved when I said you had such a big lump. It turns out that you've bloated too much. You're wobbling, so you should be full of water, right?" "Could it be like a camel, where the top of the camel's hump is cut open to be water?"

"Holy Sh * t, the top of the camel's Hump is water, and inside is fat, okay? Do you guys have any common sense? Have you seen 100,000 whys?"

"But you do look like you've stored water..."

"What are you trying to do?" Grandpa Lu finally realized the danger. He took two steps back and warned, "I'm warning you. It's forbidden to publicly kill the players who are still alive!"

"Who wants to kill you..." emperor liver tried his best to smile gently. "You see, everyone is so thirsty that they can't walk. If you let us poke two holes and it's not water that comes out, we'll stop here. What do you think?"

"Nothing much!" Grandpa Lu shook his body desperately.

"I say, why don't you see the Big Picture? Why do you insist on forcing us to use force?"

"You..." Grandpa Lu felt wronged and finally said weakly, "Then... then... what if it's water?"

"You don't share the water?" The emperor of the liver suddenly said angrily, "Look at that little girl. Her handsome black face is so thirsty that it's white. Do you have the heart to take a step?"

Grandpa Lu: "..."

When he went back, he had to write a long article lambasting the weakness of the elves in the early stage. This group of green-skinned dogs was really going too far! ! !
