

A Bunch 63

Chapter 63: Nature is also so dark!

Is this for me to drink. The little girl looked at the green liquid that the Hulk handed over and carefully held with a leaf. Her eyes were filled with curiosity and panic, but there was also some desire...

Because the green liquid had a refreshing fragrance. She only took a whiff and felt her pores open, giving off a refreshing feeling...

That should be... Delicious, right?

"Drink it, little sister. This is the fate of your race. You will eventually become the King! !"

Brother Dog could not help but cover his head. Was this guy really a 30-year-old program ape? Why did he feel so silly?

"But... but the price... what is it..."the little girl looked at the green liquid. Her eyes were filled with desire, but also some fear.

This child can speak Chinese. Brother Dog was stunned. The most important thing was... "...". He even added the F * cking lines? ! Gul 'Dan died with his eyes wide open!

"The price... is everything! !"Emperor liver revealed a smile that he thought was very evil, but was actually very wretched. It only scared the little girl so much that she kept shrinking into the body of the nun behind her.

"You bunch of demons!"The nun, who was already so weak that she was on her last breath, said weakly. In her heart, she thought to herself, why did the heavens treat her race like this? Seeing that the hope of resolving the crisis was born.., why would such a demon appear to destroy their hope!

Was that the blood of a demon? Did these demons want to infect the saintess that God sent to save them?

The nun thought to herself. She was a religious person. Although she was a doctor, she didn't completely believe in materialism. In her heart, she firmly believed in the existence of God. In her opinion.., this miracle girl was definitely the heavenly saintess that God had bestowed upon them to save them from suffering.

Otherwise, why would she be the only one who resisted the virus? Moreover, there were such terrifying demons after her?

The appearance of these two demons made her firmly believe in the existence of God. In her heart, she kept praying that God would send the valiant god of war to dispel these evils!

As a believer, she had to protect the hope that the god of war had given her before the god of War arrived!

She had seen clearly that these demons had squeezed out the blood of the demons from the Ugly Demon. They were trying to entice the Saintess to drink the blood of the demons. They were trying to pollute the pure Saintess!

She absolutely could not let them succeed! !

“Get lost, demons. We Won’t drink it! !”The nun mustered up her last bit of strength and berated.

The liver emperor was stunned. Although he did not understand what this woman was saying, it was obvious that he could roughly guess the meaning through her hand gestures. Thus, he curled his lips and said, “If you don’t drink it, I’ll drink it. Good intentions are like the liver of a donkey!”

Brother Dog rolled his eyes when he heard that. God would think that you were being kind after hearing that line of yours. He might even think that you would turn green after drinking it.

“Damn it! You really want to drink it yourself, don’t You?”Grandpa Lu suddenly jumped more than ten feet high, in an instant, he sat on the face of the liver emperor. The flesh of the spiral jelly covered the face of the liver emperor like a lump of plasticine and stuck to him like dog skin plaster.

“I told you to poke holes in my body, and I told you to drink my elf juice. Is it good? I’ll let you drink as much as you want! !”

The liver emperor was instantly covered until the sky turned dark, and the juice in his hands spilled all over the ground. A part of it spilled on the nun’s clothes, and the little girl next to him couldn’t help but move closer to it.

Seeing this, the nun quickly stopped the little girl and said, “Oh, my dear, don’t be tempted by the demons. You have to be strong. As long as we don’t waver, these demons can’t hurt us! !”

According to their teachings, demons couldn’t hurt people who wouldn’t go to Hell. They could only use this kind of temptation. Once they resisted the temptation and passed the test., these seemingly powerful demons couldn’t hurt them at all!

“Stop arguing...”brother dog looked at the two idiots who were fighting and couldn’t help but cover his head. He pointed to the front and said, “There seems to be a river ahead.”

“There’s a River?”Grandpa Lu’s body relaxed. Emperor liver took the opportunity to grab it off his head and stared ahead with widened eyes. To be honest, although this elf juice smelled pretty good., after all, it was squeezed out from a lump of something, so it was still a little psychological pressure to drink it. It was naturally the best if it could be replenished normally.

Grandpa Lu also jumped to the front. Looking from afar, he saw that there really was a river and immediately became excited. Although there was still some energy stored in his body, his body had obviously shrunk after a day of running around. If this continued, he might really end up drying up. Moreover, this animal was not afraid of meat and vegetables. If he really treated him as food, he might have nightmares for a few days when he went offline... ..

“Hey, Zebra? It seems that not only there is water, but also some wild game to eat...”emperor liver said excitedly.

“Is zebra meat delicious?” Brother Dog sounded a little tempted. The game design was so realistic that it could even make the taste of cigarettes. could natural wild game be made as well?

“The game is delicious. Haven’t You Seen the live broadcast of the Bei ye family for more than ten generations?”

“That makes sense...” brother dog agreed with Emperor Liver’s words, which was rare. He nodded, but then asked curiously, “What’s that thing next to the Zebra?”

“It seems to be... a lion...” Grandpa Lu, who had the best eyesight, replied.

“A lion...” the two were stunned. Although they couldn’t see as clearly as Grandpa Lu, they could probably see that the two things were standing together and drinking water...? Lion and zebra were standing together and drinking water?

This game was still not rigorous...

“Eh? It seems like they are saying something?” Grandpa Lu moved closer.

“You can understand what they are saying?” The two Green Titans were instantly shocked...

“Yes... teacher said that elves can understand the language of beasts as long as they calm down. The language of beasts is not as complicated as the language of intelligent life. We Elves are born with the talent of level-one listening, so we can distinguish the language of beasts...”

“Damn... I was wondering why your herding efficiency is so high. Isn’t it too much of a bug? The producers are seriously required to weaken and modify it...” emperor liver protested.

“Modify it!” Grandpa Lu couldn’t help but roll his eyes. Why didn’t you guys say that you wanted to modify it when you guys were making so many points at the beginning?

“But this might really be a drawback. I don’t know if I played too many games. Recently, when I passed by the next door and saw the fat cat at his house, I sometimes felt like I could understand its words...”

“Damn, really?” Brother Dog was stunned. He remembered his unusual movements in the gym and asked curiously, “What did you hear that cat say?”

Grandpa Lu recalled the scene when he passed by the next door yesterday. When he went out for lunch, he saw the fat cat next door doing something indescribable on the balcony, so he couldn’t help but stop and take a look, but he suddenly heard the cat say, “Idiot, look at the F * ck!”

He immediately shook his head and threw the strange scene from yesterday out of his mind. He muttered, “It should be an illusion...”

The emperor of the liver pointed to the front and said, “The illusion is offline so sleep more. This emperor is more curious about what the lion and zebra in front can say. Hurry up and translate.”

“Let’s wait for Grandpa to come closer and listen...” after getting rid of the strange scene, Grandpa Lu jumped closer to calm himself down and began to listen carefully.

Zebra: a group of zebras will pass by this time tomorrow.

Lion: is the information reliable?

Zebra: it should be.

Lion: Yeah, I got it. Go back and wait for orders.

Zebra: this is the last time. I don't want to do this again...

Lion: Do you have a choice?

"Probably... that's what it means..."Grandpa Lu said with a strange tone.

The liver emperor and brother dog were embarrassed after hearing that. They thought to themselves, "F* ck, is the nature so dark?"?

"Eh? There's not only a river ahead... There seems to be a factory... eh? Why does the of this factory look a little familiar..."brother dog suddenly said.

The liver emperor, who was lamenting the darkness of the world, was stunned. When he heard this, he looked over and saw a relatively modern building from afar. The liver emperor was instantly excited. There were new npcs to come into contact with, he could not be so reckless this time. He had to find out more about this territory.

Grandpa Lu, on the other hand, was concerned that brother dog looked familiar. "You said the looks familiar?"

"Um... a little..."Brother Dog said uncertainly.

Grandpa Lu Thought for a moment and said, "That should be a fake . After all, it's such a big game. It's impossible for any of the commercial building s in the mission map to be original, right? "Usually, some common s would be modified slightly and then used."

"Is that so..."brother dog tilted his head in puzzlement and thought to himself, but that Uncle Fang's business... ... Doesn't seem to be very popular!
