Chapter 68: Too Weak!

Silence...

Everyone looked at the spot where old poison had disappeared in silence. No one in the team dared to say anything.

Are you kidding me? Hello? Hello? Takao also looked in that direction with a serious expression. That weight, that body shape... not only did he catch up to old poison, but old poison himself didn't have any reaction at all?

Although that guy was a little wretched, his skills weren't bad. He was at least ranked in the top three in the team... ..

"Captain..." the woman beside Takao finally couldn't help but ask, "There's no sound. Can Uncle Poison still be saved?"

Takao smiled bitterly, "It's precisely because there's no sound that old poison is hopeless..."

Even if there was a little scream, it would still be good. They could at least locate the direction. But now, there was no sound at all. How could they save him?

He was a ninja-level expert after all. How could he be killed by a three-meter-tall fool without a sound? Who Was The Ninja?

"Captain... What should we do now?"

"Let's retreat first..." Takao said calmly.

The situation had completely reversed. Uncle Poison had been exposed and the enemy had been alerted. The enemy had turned from light to dark in an instant. If they continued to persevere, something big might happen.

He was also a decisive person. After a few seconds of silence, he gave the order to retreat first.

"Retreat? Where Are We Going?"

An unfamiliar voice suddenly sounded. Takashima was stunned. His superb hearing and positioning skills allowed him to instantly lock onto the position of the person who had come. Then, he hurriedly shouted to the left, "Miyamoto, watch your back! !"

The man called Miyamoto was a slender man with a long whip. When he heard Takashima's warning, he instantly reacted. Without looking behind him, his body suddenly pounced forward. He rolled on a donkey and hurriedly ran in the direction of his teammates!

However, he was fast, and the person behind him was even faster. A dazzling cold light instantly arrived, instantly splitting Miyamoto, who was about to escape to Takashima's side, into two halves. The blade's momentum did not decrease as it slashed towards Takashima, who was rushing over to rescue him.

Takashima's eyes flashed with a cold light. The joints of his ten fingers suddenly expanded, instantly turning into a monstrous shape. Then, he actually forcefully tore apart the Sharp Blade's light!

Clap Clap Clap!

A wave of applause came from the darkness behind them. A slender figure slowly walked out. Under the moonlight, everyone could clearly see that the person who came was an extremely sexy western beauty, a head of dazzling red hair was extremely eye-catching under the moonlight.

"Tsk... I really find it unbelievable after seeing it a few times." That woman chuckled softly and said, "Your hands really haven't undergone surgery. Did you rely on yourself to train? Captain Takao!"

"Do you think everyone is the same as your hybrid team?" Takashima sneered.

Although he appeared tough on the surface, his heart sank to the bottom. He knew that Zimba was the base camp of the extraordinary army in South Africa. That was why he decided to act forcefully before his team members had gathered, he was afraid of bumping into the extraordinary elite army. He didn't expect to bump into them despite being so far away from the city!

Moreover, it was this fellow who was leading the army...

Truthfully speaking, if there was anyone in the extraordinary individuals mercenary group that he was most unwilling to face, it would be this fellow in front of him.

This red-haired lady's nickname was: Blade! She was the captain of the second team of the extraordinary individuals mercenary group. She was also the only extraordinary individual in the entire extraordinary individuals mercenary group who could control the berserk genes in her body!

In other words, she was the only one who did not control this weakness!

The ones he brought with him were all rookies. He was afraid that today would be a little dangerous...

"Everyone, back off!" Gao Dao clapped his hands to stop his eager teammates behind him, he smiled and said, "The famous ace of the extraordinaries has descended. How are you juniors qualified to make a move?" As he said that, he turned to the red-haired woman and said, "Shall we move to another place?"

"Cut the crap, uncle!" The red-haired woman looked at him with a faint smile and said, "None of those bastards behind you can think of leaving today!"

As soon as she finished speaking, muffled thunder-like footsteps sounded behind her. A few seconds later, a few giants that were about five meters tall slowly walked out of the forest. Each of them was emitting a faint blue light, they were clearly wearing extremely heavy metal armor!

Hiss! !

Looking at their size, the corners of Takao's eyes twitched, and he forced out a smile. "New Breed?"

"Tyrant: Model T500..." the red-haired woman smiled and said, "Uncle, would you mind helping me try out the company's new product?"

Takao: "Can such a heavy thing hit people?"

“Won’t you know after you try it out?”

After the red-haired woman finished speaking, she smiled and clapped her hands. A few ferocious giants slowly walked to the front!

“Captain, how do we fight?”The woman behind Takao asked in a low voice.

“Fight My A * s!”Takao rolled his eyes and thought to himself, his previous captain was so smart. How could he be so blind when he gave birth to a daughter? Did this look like someone he could defeat?

If the person leading the team wasn’t this woman, perhaps there would still be some hope. Finding the controller and killing them would be enough. However, she was different. As the only extraordinary human who could control her berserk genes, her strength was already extraordinary, with her as the controller, the chances of her being beheaded, which was the specialty of the Kagura Legion, simply wouldn’t work!

“You guys go. Go as many as you can. Go find Captain Springwater and report the situation here!”

“Captain?”The surrounding team members were immediately shocked.

However, as soon as they finished speaking, the two giants in front suddenly exerted their strength. Although they looked clumsy, they were as agile as rabbits when they moved. They instantly appeared in front of everyone from a distance of a few meters away. When Takashima saw this., he grabbed the female ninja beside him and flew backward!

Meanwhile, a few other team members who were slightly further away did not have the time to react. They were instantly trampled to pieces by the tyrant who jumped over!

“Ah! !”The female ninja looked at the miserable state of the seniors and immediately covered her mouth with a pale face!

When Takashima saw this, he directly threw the female ninja into the jungle behind him and shouted, “Go! !”Then, he said to the only experienced expert behind him, “Sakazaki, I’ll leave her to you!”

The tall man with a paralyzed face nodded when he heard that. Then, he turned into a shadow and chased after the girl!

The two giants roared when they saw that and quickly chased after her.

Takashima didn’t stop her. He couldn’t stop her even if he wanted to... .. He could only pray that the old leader would bless his daughter.

“Your skills aren’t that good. Don’t tell me your teammates are all rookies?”The red-haired woman asked with a smile.

When Takao heard this, he took out a cigarette from his bag and lit it up. He said faintly, “What do you think? Don’t you think you can bully rookies just because you’re Stupid? It’s not that easy to kill a ninja, right?”

“Is that so?”The red-haired woman sneered when she heard this. More than a dozen of such monsters suddenly appeared in the forest. When Takao saw this, the cigarette butt in his hand immediately fell to the ground, he said in surprise, "You guys built an army here? This thing is not cheap, right? It's a big deal!"

"Thank you for your praise!" The red-haired woman said with a smile.

"By the way..." Takao put out the cigarette butt on the ground with his foot and suddenly asked, "These stupid big guys are T500, so the two green ones are T500 or a few hundred?"

"What Green Ones?" The red-haired woman was stunned for a moment and asked.

"Tsk... as expected." Takashima nodded and looked behind him with a smile. "Then let's see if I've thrown them in the right place!"

After catching the female ninja that was thrown out, Sakazaki ran with all his might. When he left, he clearly saw the two giants chasing after him. He did not want to face those terrifying fellows head-on, not to mention, the leader of the team was the blade that even their commander feared!

Captain Takashima was probably in danger. He had to quickly gather with Captain Springwater to request for reinforcements!

Thinking of this, he sped up even more. In the complicated terrain of the mountain forest, he ran like an agile cheetah. However, suddenly, an extremely horrifying scene made him stop in his tracks.

Sakazaki saw two green giants squatting about ten meters in front of him. One of them was holding a skinny old man.

It was Uncle Poison, who had been captured under their watchful eyes!

The green giant grabbed uncle poison with one hand and used his other hand to flick old poison's bald head with his huge fingers.

"Hey, why don't You Jump? Why Don't you continue jumping? You Old Bastard, do you think you can jump? HMM?"

Uncle Poison's head was full of red packets, but his mouth was sealed by a lump of mud. He could only whimper with a face full of hatred!

"Yo, you still dare to glare at me! !"

Uncle Poison was not dead. The eyes of the female ninja on Sakazaki's shoulder lit up. She immediately placed her hand on the ninja knife at her waist. Just as she was about to save him, Sakazaki hesitated for a moment. He thought that in this situation, he should make a move... "...". However, almost the next second, he regretted his hesitation.

He saw another giant at the side, who saw his companion playing the Ninja Knife Noisily. It seemed to have a good feel to it, so he immediately came over and said, "Let me try it too!"

Bang! !

"Oh my God, what the F * ck, what are you doing?"

“Uh... I didn't mean to... I didn't know that the bag was not solid...”
