Chapter 69: Crushing Power!

"F * ck..." Brother Dog threw away the lump in his hand with a disgusted look and looked at Emperor Liver speechlessly.

Emperor Liver also smiled embarrassedly. He wiped his hands on the bark beside him and said weakly, "I didn't know that Lang Kai couldn't play because I saw that you were playing with a good feeling."

"You don't have to talk nonsense. That's a human brain. Do you think it's a marble?" Brother Dog said in a bad mood.

"But the game's graphics are so bloody. It's not good. It must be coded in the future, right?"

"It should be..." brother dog also thought so, but he still cared about the of the factory. Could it be that his uncle Fang was also one of the investors in the game?

Wow, if that was the case, when he went to meet Fang Xiaojia on the weekend, would he have to kneel down a little?

Sigh... ... The old man was unhappy that he didn't have any strength. He looked at his father, who had placed a factory advertisement in the game, and then looked at his father...

Just as he was thinking, the liver emperor suddenly said, "Hey, behind you..."

"Huh?" Brother Dog turned his head when he heard that. The two ugly giants had just done a brutal act of blowing someone's head off, and their faces were still covered in blood. At the same time, they looked over with extremely ferocious expressions, the female ninja who was just about to save them turned pale with fright. She staggered back while Sakazaki was also on high alert!

Brother Dog's expression changed when he looked over. The muscles and veins all over his body bulged as he suddenly leaped up. His huge body flew over like an arrow that was released from the bowstring. He arrived in front of the two ninjas in the blink of an eye!

The female ninja immediately felt despair when she saw this terrifying speed. She finally understood why Uncle Poison had fallen into the hands of these two monsters!

Would she be caught like uncle poison and killed with a bullet to the head? What a terrifying way to die. She didn't want to die!

The male ninja beside her couldn't help but say, "How can someone with such a body have such speed?" He was like a ghost!

Bang!

Just as they were feeling despair in their lives, a loud bang suddenly exploded in their ears. In that instant, they felt as if the earth was shaking and the mountains were shaking. It was as if the world had turned upside down.

Did they really need to put up such a big show? The female ninja was momentarily stunned.

But it felt like... ? ... the other party had grabbed them in his hand, but his movements were very gentle and even a little cautious. It didn't seem like he was targeting them. Then who was he targeting with such a huge explosive force?

"Damn, this guy is really strong!"

Chinese? The female ninja and her companion looked at each other and saw that the hulk was holding both of them in one hand and blocking the armored giant behind him with the other!

When did this thing follow them here? Sakazaki thought with lingering fear.

This is... .. Protecting us? The female ninja was somewhat stunned in disbelief.

The two giants' arms were clashing against each other, and their muscles were bulging with veins. The incredible thing was that the Hulk looked to be almost twice the size of the blue tyrant, yet it was able to block the other with one hand!

Shuga! Sakazaki suddenly understood and thought to himself, just as the captain thought, these two hulks really aren't the power of the extraordinaires!

Speaking Chinese, could it be that they're really from the Huazhong Dragon Group as the Captain Said? Sakazaki's eyes were filled with thoughts as he looked at the Hulk that was able to fight against the tyrant. He thought to himself, if that's the case, I can use these two stupid pigs from the Huazhong Group to escape.., maybe I can even use them to save Captain Takashima!

Just as he was thinking about how to carry out the plan, Brother Dog, whose hand was unable to withstand the strength of the five-meter-tall giant, turned furious and said to the liver emperor behind him, "Got it!"

Got It? Sakazaki's right eyelid twitched, and an ominous feeling surged in his heart. Then, his entire body was sent flying by a huge force. Instantly, he felt as weak as if he was on a roller coaster, and it was the kind of feeling without a seatbelt!

"Alright! !"The liver emperor agreed. Just as he was about to go forward to pick up the girl, he realized that there was something wrong with the direction that Brother Dog threw her. The two of them were clearly flying in two different directions. How was he supposed to pick her up?

After hesitating for half a second, he decisively jumped up and caught the girl... ..

Bang!

F * ck! !

Sakazaki only had time to greet the two idiots' families in his heart before he crashed into a tree with a bang and turned into a puddle of mud!

"F * ck, do you know how to take it?" Brother Dog said angrily.

"Do you know how to throw it?" Emperor liver immediately retorted.

The female ninja looked at the mud on the tree not far away and was so weak that she did not dare to speak.

“Roar! !”

When the blue giant saw that the green-skinned monster was still in the mood to turn around and speak, he immediately increased his strength by 10% . He withdrew his right fist and the veins on his arm bulged. Then, he suddenly swung his fist at Brother Dog’s head. The huge force brought with it a whistling strong wind, he only felt that the mountain in front of him would be smashed into pieces by the hammer.

Brother Dog looked at this aggressive punch, but his heart was not at all empty. The Green Titan’s warlike genes in his body instantly exploded, and a heroic feeling that he had never felt before arose spontaneously. He did not Dodge or dodge, and his empty right hand clenched his fist tightly, he threw an uppercut at the opponent’s face and threw it!

It was a fight between two bastards, who did not know how to do that?

However, that scene made the eyes of emperor liver, who was behind him, jump. From the size of the monster, it seemed that it had an obvious advantage. The fist was almost bigger than Brother Dog’s face, and judging from its stance, people would believe that it could blow up Brother Dog’s head.

Bang! !

The sound of Fist and flesh colliding rang out. The huge force caused the surroundings to be like a strong wind raging, and the ground was covered in dust. Emperor liver and the female ninja in his hand looked ahead with some apprehension... ..

If Doggie died, he would bring the female doll back to the factory and tell Grandpa Lu that there were elite monsters here. He could not afford to provoke them, so he should not come over!

Emperor liver thought...

As the smoke dispersed, he saw that brother Doggie was beaten so badly that he almost fell to the ground. However, with the strength of his waist and horse, he managed to stand firm.

Then, the two of them looked towards the blue giant. When they looked over, emperor liver was so scared that he almost threw the female doll in his hands out.

The giant Blue Giant’s jaw was completely deformed by the punch. Moreover, his neck was stretched out by the uppercut punch. It was like a soft snake twisting backward. It looked really scary!

“Bah!” Brother Dog slowly straightened his back and rubbed his cheeks. He looked at the blue tyrant whose head had been deformed by him and spat out a mouthful of blood, “It’s just a facade!”

As soon as he said that, the tyrant fell to the ground. Emperor liver quickly prepared to applaud. “That’s great, brother. That punch was really manly. If you had taken a video just now and posted it on the Forum, you would have charmed everyone! !”

“Then did you take it?” Brother Dog quickly said.

Emperor liver: "I forgot..."

Brother Dog:" ..."

The female ninja looked at the two of them in shock. She could not help but think to herself, they... ..
Who were they?

... ..

On the mountainside, Takashima nimbly dodged the pursuit of those giants. Although these tyrants were fast, much faster than Takashima had expected, they were still a little inferior to the special ninja. Using the terrain, even if there were a dozen or so tyrants.., they couldn't do anything to him at the moment.

The red-haired blade who was watching the battle from afar narrowed his eyes and said: as expected... "It's still too difficult to kill a captain-level ninja at this level. It's more suitable for a heavy firepower battlefield."

At the thought of this, she stood up and was about to personally cooperate when suddenly... ! A vibration came from the controller on her waist. Blade was shocked. Then, she took out the controller and looked at the data on it. A look of disbelief appeared on her face!

Number Six was killed? How was that possible?

Blade looked at the edge of the cliff with a look of disbelief on his face. Could it be that there were other team leaders lying in ambush over there?

But that was not right. She knew how strong tyrant's vitality was. This thing was a biochemical weapon that the consortium behind the extraordinaire spent a lot of money to build. It had extremely high physical strength, and ordinary bullets could not even break the surface, even a heavy missile, as long as it didn't directly hit, wouldn't be able to injure it with just the explosive force. The cost was tens of billions of federation dollars. This time, it was specially brought to this chaotic situation to be used as a battlefield experiment.

Those ninja-level captains were indeed very troublesome, but she didn't believe that they had such destructive power. Even for her, if she wanted to kill a tyrant head-on, she would definitely need to rely on super powerful military firepower and various supporting conditions.

Moreover... . There was no sound of heavy firepower exploding from below.

Then what on Earth had killed the tyrant?

Blade looked down solemnly. At this moment, the distant Takao saw that Blade's attention had been diverted and instantly seized the opportunity to run out.

He did not leave at the beginning because he did not dare to leave his back to the other party. For people of their level, leaving a back was equivalent to courting death. That was why he was being entangled by the ten giants. Seeing that the other party had diverted his attention.., how could Takashima let go of such a good opportunity? He seized an opportunity in an instant and fled in another direction!

Almost a second later, Blade reacted. But when he looked over again, Takashima had already pulled a distance of several Zhang away. He knew that he would not be able to catch up even if he wanted to. But he did not hesitate too much. Takashima's special-class ninja methods were mysterious., it would not be that easy to kill him. This group of ninjas did not have any other abilities, but their escape methods were definitely top-notch.

On the other hand...

Blade looked at the spot where the controller indicated that number 6 had died. He frowned. Number 6's death was very strange, but she had no choice but to check it out. More than ten billion products had fallen. Even with her identity, it was impossible for her not to give an explanation, at least tell me why!

But she was not in a hurry. Instead, she first called out the remaining ten tyrants hidden in the woods, and then cautiously called out to her other teammates in Zinba. After sending out a flare, only then led the tyrant troop cautiously toward that direction to walk.

"Oops, don't touch, painful!"The dog elder brother one palm smacks open liver emperor's palm not good gas way.

"Oh, I thought you were really a good man..."emperor liver smiled and said, "By the way, you really dared to go head-on just now. With that kind of physique, aren't you afraid that your head will explode?"

Brother Dog was stunned when he heard that. In fact, after the incident, he was also quite afraid. That Blue Monster's physique, theoretically, was not ordinary. He actually dared to be so tough without testing it out. What was he thinking at that time?

But that feeling was really strange. That kind of hot-blooded surge, as if the confidence that he had just gained spread throughout his body. How many years had it been since he had this kind of confidence after his kidney deficiency?

This game... was too f * cking awesome!

Looking at the curiosity of the liver emperor, brother dog smiled slightly and said meaningfully, "When the time comes, won't you try it yourself and find out?"

"Cheh!"The liver emperor curled his lips and said, "This emperor is a skilled type, the kind of elegant fighter who can put the other party down without touching the dust. Your method of beating each other up is too low-level, not suitable for a high-level game like this emperor!"

Brother Dog curled his lips when he heard that, but at this moment, he was too lazy to argue with the other party as he was immersed in the pleasant feeling just now. He was extremely grateful that he would be able to encounter such a game in his lifetime, otherwise, with his real body, he might not be able to display that kind of heroism in his entire life.
