Chapter 701 Ancient Undead

* Ka-cha... * .

The battle ended in an instant...

Bengal Goode, the most powerful pirate 600 years ago. He had once been a headache for the upper echelons of the western countries. In order to deal with him, the various countries had used all sorts of methods, the alliance had surrounded him, offered a high reward for his assassination, and even asked the Wizards to use Dark Forbidden Magic to curse him.

However, no one could kill him. Some people even thought that he was the illegitimate child of the sea, including the fact that he had become like this because his illness was about to take away his health, and the undead organization that he had come into contact with on his own initiative...

Perhaps he had never thought that he would die so casually one day. He did not even have the time to resist.

The moment those pitch-black hands grabbed his neck, his body stopped obeying the command of his soul. With a crack, he broke all his resistance.

The strange thing was that when he died, he saw the shadow behind him. At the same time, he saw the shadow enter his body. He felt that his perspective was a little strange. Why could he see his body? And he could see all angles? Could it be the legendary God's perspective?

And... .. His body and neck were not broken... ..

He looked at his body, which first stiffened, and then turned to look at himself. It was a familiar yet unfamiliar face, which he saw every day. It was strange to say that it was the first time he saw someone occupying that long face... ..

His neck was really not broken...

But if it was not broken, then what was it that was broken just now?

Bengal Goode thought about it curiously, but he could not think of a reason. He only felt that his perspective was getting farther and farther away, as if he was being pulled by something, as if... .. He was about to leave this place.

Was this the feeling of dying?

Bengal Goode was a little unwilling, but he found that his body could not resist with his will. He could only move further and further away from this place with that huge suction force.

He struggled hard. He wanted to see what would happen next.

The guy who killed him had taken over his body. Would Marina be killed as well?

Thinking about it, he suddenly felt a little expectant. If that was the case, at least he would have a companion, right?

He could not blame himself for being malicious. After all, she was the one who said that there would not be monsters in the palace. Otherwise, why would he have paid a little attention to his back just now?

Now that he was distracted by her stupid judgment, shouldn't she come and accompany him?

However, the next scene stunned him. He vaguely saw marina slowly turn around and slightly bow to him... ..

As expected of a noble. The bow was really nice, but he knew that that guy would never do this to him... ..

In other words, he knew that the person was not him?

He suddenly understood that he was the only one who would die... ..

What a boring way to die... .. With this thought, he really wanted to curse F * ck, but unfortunately, he could not make a sound and could only let the huge suction force pull him out of this world... ..

"What a dangerous attempt, my Lord..." Marina bowed and smiled at Bengal Guddu, whose body was occupied. "Why are you in such a hurry? I Can't guarantee your safety if something goes wrong..."

The being who had taken over Bengal Goode's body lowered his head and glanced at him. His stiff face squeezed out a smile and his voice was a little hoarse. "It's too late. We can only take a little risk..."

Marina looked at him with a smile.

As someone who had once walked out of this place, she was very clear about what these shadows were. The so-called shadows were actually dead people, dead people who had walked out of the undead space.

Moreover, they were not ordinary dead people. Anyone who could forcefully appear here was a terrifying existence like their master. Because of some special conditions, this space could allow powerful dead people to appear in their original bodies.., in Kersu's words, it was called dimensional reduction and manifestation!

However, this state was very unstable. It was so unstable that others could easily break the true body that it maintained. In other words, no matter how strong you were in the dead world.., if you appeared here in a dimensional reduction, you might be hacked to death by a silver or even bronze knight!

She had already tried this many times. However, as an ancient undead that had existed for countless years, as long as they got close to you, be it gold, legend, or even more powerful existences... They would no longer have the slightest ability to resist...

Therefore, without 90% confidence, these shadows would never make a move easily...

"That person, didn't he come back?" Marina asked with a serious tone.

“He came back...” Bengal Goode’s voice was a little stiff, “He is in that room!”

“Why doesn’t he see me?” Marina’s face became a little ugly.

“I don’t know...” Bengal Goad said in a low voice, “It came out after you left and wanted to trade with a wind demon.”

“Wind Demon?” Marina was stunned. “What is that thing?”

Bengal goad was silent for a moment and said in a low voice, “You don’t have to care about that...”

Marina’s eyes flickered slightly when she heard that. So did her master and this person. They always hid some strange things...

What was it?

She always felt that if she could break through these things, she would be able to obtain the secret of true immortality... ..

“What should I do now?” Marina frowned.

Bengal goode twisted his neck stiffly and then looked at the huge undead ship outside. He narrowed his eyes and said, “Find that Wind Demon!”

... ..

“Hey, this is your shop, it looks much more normal!” On the other side, Li Goudan led by the other side to a wooden house.

The wood looked like the real world, but it had a strange, eerie feel to it.

“Well... . Not Bad... . Although a bit like a haunted house... . But compared to those strange things still much better... .” Li Goudan smiled.

Hans, who was following behind, almost fell to the ground when he heard that. He could not help but look nervously at the guy who wanted to make a deal.

There were many taboos here, and every one of them was built with his life. Hans knew that one of them was that one could not say things like ghosts, undead, or dead people. Otherwise, most of these guys would go on a rampage and kill people!

Sure enough, just as Li Goudan was talking about the haunted house, the figure who was about to open the door clearly froze.

Li Goudan saw this and quickly said embarrassedly, “Eh... I only said that it looked like a haunted house. I didn’t say that this is a haunted house. Don’t misunderstand me...”

Hans: “...”

Great-aunt, could you please stop talking?

The figure obviously trembled when she heard this, but she didn’t do anything unnecessary. Instead, she opened the door and walked in.

The room was pitch-black and there was no light at all. Li Goudan tried her best to look inside, but she couldn't see anything clearly with her vision... ..

"It really is a haunted house..." Li Goudan muttered softly... ..

Hans trembled and said with a sad face, "Sis... Oh No, Mom, can you stop talking?"

Li Goudan: "..."

Buzz...

Just as she was considering whether to acknowledge her eldest son, that guy came out with a big wooden box!

Chapter 702 No! !

"What... What are these things?" Li Goudan stared at the wooden box in a daze.

There were many things in the big wooden box. There were broken dolls, rusty coins, a strangely shaped candle, an ancient bronze mirror, and... ? Half a tube of toothpaste?

This was for sale, not for sale, right?

Goudan Li thought with a dark face.

"What do you want?" The person on the other side asked in a low voice.

Goudan li said, "How about... Let's talk about the matter of the onlookers?"

"Buy the things first, then talk about the rest..." the person replied in a low voice.

Goudan Li's eyelids twitched. He resisted the urge to scratch the other person's face and looked at the things in the box with a dark face. He glanced around and finally pointed at the coin. "Just... This Thing..."

The box was full of things. It looked like it was just about right. At least it was better than a candle and half a tube of toothpaste!

"Are you sure?" That person looked at dog-egg deeply and asked.

"UH... not sure..." Dog-egg hurriedly shook his head. His face was full of vigilance as he said, "Tell me the price first..."

SH * t, fortunately, this dog-egg was smart. Otherwise, he would have really fallen into the pit!

Hans, who was next to him, heard this and heaved a sigh of relief. This great-aunt still had some brains...

"The things you sacrificed are not enough, you have to exchange them with more things..."

I knew it...

The corner of Eggface Li's eyes twitched, and he said with a dark face, "If you say it's not enough, then it's not enough. Why is this coin so expensive?"

“This is not an ordinary coin...”that person said calmly, “It’s an ancient demon trading coin, it can be exchanged for an ancient demon doing something for you...”

Goudan was stunned. An ancient demon sounded so grand. was that for real?

Li Goudan: “Then... What about this candle?”

“This is the light of dawn. It’s a candle made from the bone marrow of a star-ranked elf. It has the effect of a barrier. After lighting it, it can defend against attacks of laws. Although it can only defend, it’s one of the few items that can protect itself in the deity’s domain.”

“Uh... Deity’s domain? What’s That?”Goudan Li was stunned.

That person’s body froze when he heard that. He raised his head to look at Goudan Li for a long time before he slowly said, “You don’t know what a deity is?”

“Uh... I’m a party member. I don’t believe in feudal superstitions!”Goudan Li said seriously.

“Then you can think of it as a life-saving device. After lighting it up, nothing can attack you for a period of time...”

“Really?”Goudan Li looked at the box of broken items in disbelief. Could it be that these were all very powerful broken items?

“What about the bronze mirror?”

“Time archive. You Can Save a period of time for yourself. If one day you die tragically, you can resurrect from this...”

“Holy Sh * T... There’s such a Bug?”Goudan Li picked up the mirror and looked at it. Then, she gently put it down. The main base also had the function of resurrecting. She had seen it on some players during the attack on the Mars base.

As if he had seen through Li Goudan’s thoughts, the person said faintly, “This is a real phylactery. It Won’t be affected by the God’s law. Moreover, it can preserve the body...”

“Preserve the body?”Li Goudan’s eyes lit up when he heard that. He picked up the mirror and looked at it carefully. This function was not bad. Although the main base could resurrect and be reborn, the body that had been upgraded after much difficulty after resurrecting had to return to its original form. Starting from the elf ball...

This was almost equivalent to having the equipment level reset to zero, especially with his current leading level. It had taken her a lot of effort to reach this level. How could she bear to return to the base to pick feces and water the plants after the reset?

That person looked at Goudan deeply again. “It seems that you really don’t know about the Gods...”

The importance of this treasure was obviously not just to keep the body. The most important thing was to ignore the laws of the gods. It was a true life-saving charm. How many star-level powerhouses wanted one, yet this girl actually didn’t know?

Even though... there were side effects...

“This... can I afford it?” Li Goudan held the mirror and asked weakly.

The black shadow shook his head...

What a joke, such an item was a legendary life form?

“Then what item do you have here that I can afford?” Li Goudan’s face instantly darkened, immediately picking up half of the toothpaste: “I can at least afford this toothpaste right?”

The Black Shadow was silent for a while, and then he said faintly, “That’s not toothpaste...”

“Then what is it?” Li Goudan asked cautiously.

The black shadow said, “Universal adhesive. It can fuse any alchemy material together, and it can also make the attributes not conflict with each other...”

Li Goudan said, “Oh... so it’s glue!”

The Black Shadow: “...”

“It can’t be that I can’t afford this thing, right?”

The black shadow: “This is a top-tier alchemy product. A level two life form isn’t even worth one-thousandth of its value!”

It’s over! !

Hans’s face instantly turned pale...

Because of the unequal power, there would occasionally be some unreasonable traders here. This kind of trader would deliberately take out something that you couldn’t afford and force you to exchange it for something else, and yet, you could not resist!

This kind of situation was not common in this trading market, but it was not unheard of... ..

“I can see it! !” Li Goudan obviously reacted as well. With an unfriendly expression, he grabbed the other party’s collar. “You’re not here to sell things, you’re here to scam, right?”

The Black Shadow instantly fell silent and did not refute. Strictly speaking, it was indeed scamming today.

“Great Aunt! !” Hans was so scared that his heart almost jumped out of his chest when he saw that the other party dared to make a move himself.

Li Goudan tugged at the other party, only to find that the other party was like a rock. She tried her best, but he did not move at all. At this moment, she was sure that this guy in front of her was not someone she could defeat... ..

“What exactly do you want?” Li Goudan asked coldly.

“I want you!” The Black Shadow’s voice was rarely trembling.

Hans and Li Goudan were stunned. It took Li Goudan a long time to react. He immediately took a step back and said, “No, I have a man!”

Hans: "..."

The black shadow gently took off his mask, revealing a beautiful face that was almost as good as Li Goudan's. The temperament that seemed to have been accumulated over countless years was even better than Li Goudan's flattery!

Li Goudan's breathing stopped...

Was this an elf, or a female elf...

Li Goudan judged...

Only Elves were so beautiful...

But how could there be an elf here?

No, that wasn't the question he should be thinking about. Goudan hurriedly shook his head and said, "Even if you're as beautiful as me, you can't do it. I'm a straight woman, not a lesbian. I only like 18-centimeter strong men..."

Hans: "..."

The Elf's dark green pupils carefully sized up eggface. After a moment, she handed over the whole box. "I'll give you all of these..."

"That... that won't do either..." eggface Li subconsciously retorted, but after a few seconds, he carefully said, "Just once?"

Thinking about how beautiful she was... .. Just Once... .. It wasn't impossible. He could just close his eyes and let it go. ...

"Every day... twelve hours..."

"F * ck, you're a beast, you won't do it! !"

Chapter 703: important information...

Are you kidding me? You come here every day for twelve hours a day? Are You Nishikawa steel plate or Shichijiro?

Is a woman really that powerful?

Goudan Li looked at her carefully. Their mentor, Herrera, had taught them how to separate the male and female elves. She looked at it and found that it was very flawed. It should be a female...

"It shouldn't mean what you mean..." Hans couldn't stand it anymore and helped to explain.

"Then what does it mean?" Goudan looked at Hans.

BoxNovel.com

"This..." it was the first time Hans had encountered such a request. After a long while, he finally said, "Anyway... it's not what you mean!"

“Symbiosis...”the woman said faintly, “Half of your time belongs to me...”

Eggface was stunned, but he immediately understood what she meant. He said, “You don’t have to repeat it. I understand what you mean, but that won’t do!”

Hans:” ...”

Do you really understand? Why did you say ‘that?’

The woman suddenly fell silent and looked at Eggface Li with a cold gaze.

“You don’t have to look at me like that!”Eggface Li also stared at her coldly. “I won’t do this kind of binding deal of yours. No matter how good the things are, I won’t do it. If you really want to do it, then do it!”

At most, she would just die and be reborn. She didn’t want to have an inexplicable guy sharing the same body with her...

The Elf stared at her for a long time before she finally took the wooden box back slowly. “Then let’s talk about the onlookers just now...”

“Uh...”Li Goudan was stunned, but she still asked cautiously, “How much does this cost?”

“It’s free... It’s free for you...”the ELF said faintly.

So straightforward?

Li Goudan looked at her suspiciously. After hesitating for a moment, he finally nodded slowly.

Since the other party dared to cheat her, she wouldn’t admit it. If worst came to worst, he could just beat her to death if he had the guts... ...

People who could be reborn were so confident!

“Then tell me...”

The elf said, “The person living in that house is a very troublesome fellow. It was the first to discover this place and created this trading market...”

Hearing this, Goudan Li’s expression turned cold. He thought that it might just be a very boring piece of information, but he did not expect it to be such a useful piece of information.

“What does that have to do with you guys surrounding it today?”Goudan Li asked quickly.

The ELF said, “That fellow had already successfully left this place, but for some reason, it reappeared. Someone took the initiative to look for it. They must have wanted to bring it away from here. We think that those two people might have a passage, so they surrounded it...” “...”

“Passage?”Li Goudan’s heart skipped a beat, and he stuttered, “Is it the passage that leads out?”

The elf said, “Yes...”

Li Goudan immediately swallowed his saliva and thought to himself, damn it, I actually missed the passage out today? So he continued to ask, "Who are those two people? Where are they? Do you know?"

"They should still be in the city by now, but I don't know where they are..."the elf said honestly.

Li Goudan took a deep breath and suppressed the surprise in his heart. As long as they were still in the city, he would have a chance to find them. If that was the case, he had to find Lei Xue and the others as soon as possible!

Thinking of this, Li Goudan could not stay a second longer. He looked at the elf and said carefully, "Thank you for your information. Then... if there's nothing else... I'll leave first..."

The Elf was silent. He did not say anything, but he had no intention of stopping him.

Li Goudan glanced at the ELF and stood up carefully. He took one or two steps back, and Hans hurriedly followed him outside, the Elf did not seem to have any intention of stopping him from leaving even when he was about ten meters away. Li Goudan thought for a moment and finally bowed. "Then... Thank you for this time. We'll work together in the future!"

However, he thought to himself, I will never come to this damned place again... ..

Hearing this, the elf raised her head slightly. Her pair of dark green eyes stared straight at Li Goudan as if she had seen through her. With a smile on her stiff face, she said, "I will. You will come back to look for me, Li Jiayi..."

Hearing this, Li Jiayi, who was originally prepared to run away, suddenly froze. She looked at the elf in shock...

This guy... how does he know my name?

The more she thought about it, the stranger it seemed to her, and she led Hans out of the room without looking back.

After Li Goudan left, the elf carefully packed the things in the wooden box, took out every object to have a good look, and then neatly put away the rules...

At this moment, a black shadow suddenly appeared in front of her shop not far away. The Elf raised her head slightly, and her gem-like eyes were filled with frost.

"Don't be nervous, sir..."the black shadow on the other side let out a strange laugh. "I'm just curious. It doesn't conform to the rules here to agree to the deal and let him go... Why did you do this?"

The Elf looked at him coldly, but he couldn't be bothered to say a word.

The pupils of the black figure under the mask flashed with a ruthless light, but he didn't move. Everyone who could come here was not simple. Before they knew the details, very few people would make a move here.

Thinking of this, he took a step back. "It's fine if you don't say it. It's the same if I ask that little kid..."

“You’re courting death...”the elf finally spoke. His tone was extremely cold, and a monstrous killing intent instantly burst forth.

The person who provoked him sneered. Who Would he be afraid of if he really wanted to beat him up?

Just as he thought of this, he suddenly felt that something was wrong. The view around him distorted, and the entire space was distorted. In an instant, he felt that his five senses seemed to have lost their function... ..

What was going on? Was it magic? Using magic in this place? Was she crazy?

Just as he was about to resist, the distortion suddenly ended. The Black Shadow was stunned at first, then he looked around him. After he regained his vision, something seemed to have changed...

It had grown bigger... .. The things around him had grown bigger. The small wooden house had become as big as a mountain, and the ELF had become as big as a giant.

No... ! ... It was not that they had become bigger, but that they had become smaller!

After that person came to his senses, he looked at the other party in disbelief and said coldly, “What did you do?”

The Elf looked at him coldly. He did not have any intention of replying and directly stepped on it.

The smile under the black mask was ferocious. Although he did not know how the other party had changed his body size, did he really want to kill it? What did it think it was?

It gathered all the energy in its hands. It had to teach this arrogant fellow a lesson. Did It really think that it was the only one who had the ability? Who did not have the ability to come here?

Bang...

With a clear sound, the black shadow that had a fierce expression on its face just now was stomped into a flat piece of paper. Countless thin red energy molecules slowly floated up, all of them poured into the elf’s body from the flattened corpse.

Countless gazes from the surroundings were filled with shock as they looked over here...

The Elf coldly smiled in the face of the many prying gazes. He turned around and walked into the house, leaving behind the flattened skin bag on the ground. The face of the skin bag still had the ferocious smile of someone who wanted to fight back just now... ..

Chapter 704: Traces of the crew

“What did she do just now?”

Countless prying eyes followed the female elf into the wooden house and stopped at the flattened black figure.

The group of people fell into silence. Two elderly voices were slowly discussing in a corner.

“Dead?”

“The alchemy body has been destroyed and all the soul energy has been absorbed. She couldn’t be more dead...”another voice replied.

BoxNovel.com

“But how did she do it?”

“From the energy rules, it’s a simple shapeshifting spell...”the old man looked over and replied faintly.

“How is that possible...”the other voice obviously did not quite believe it.

Shapeshifting was a very simple spell in arcane magic. The principle was not complicated, and usually, low-level arcane magic civilizations had this kind of research, however, that thing could not turn anyone into anything it wanted. After all, if it could, wouldn’t arcane wizards be invincible?

Such instantaneous shapeshifting usually required a huge gap between the two sides...

But...

Who was not an ancient undead who had lived for tens of thousands of eras? Wasn’t this kind of crushing killing a little too exaggerated?

“She just showed up. Can you tell who she is?”

“I can’t see... that it’s not someone from our time...”

“Well...”

“Whatever you do, don’t Mess with it. At least... the two of us can’t mess with it...”

“I feel the same way...”

The two old voices slowly died down, and the many peeping eyes slowly left the place, leaving the trampled body lying there quietly, slowly forgotten...

In the cabin, the elf was lying on a wooden rocking chair, slowly rocking, not paying any attention to the peeping eyes outside, but thinking about the elf junior he had just met.

“In this era, how can there be such a pure-blooded Wood Elf?”The Elf slowly picked up a piece of leather paper, it clearly wrote: Li Jiayi: 21 years old!

21 years old... a level-four wind demon?

At first, she thought that she was seeing things...

The elf slowly shook the wooden chair and frowned slightly. She had been dead for a very, very long time. In her era, she had never heard of any elf family that could nurture such a descendant, not even the royal family of the Starlight Elves.

Could it be that after so long, a new elf family had emerged in the federation?

But from their conversation, it seemed that she did not even know what a god was...

How interesting...

On the other side, next to a floating crystal in a square, a sudden light shone down, and Li Goudan and Hans landed almost at the same time.

“Wow, you’re finally out. If you could have teleported out, you should have told me earlier. You scared me half to death!” Li Goudan could not help but grumble.

Hans twitched the corner of his mouth slightly and replied faintly, “Teleporting is not a problem, but if you’re too close to those guys, they can pull you back before you teleport out!”

He had seen it before. They had clearly turned into a beam of light and were about to leave, but those terrifying guys inside had forcefully grabbed them out of the beam of light and torn them into pieces!

He had to remind this guy of how he had been courting death just now... ..

But it was still alright. If the other party had not been courting death, how could he have gotten such information?

The tunnel...

Hans trembled at the thought of this word. If he could, how could he not want to leave this damned place?

“Oh right, you heard what I said just now. Regarding those two people, do you know them?” Asked Li Goudan.

“Not really...” Hans nodded. “Those two guys also entered the city today. I think I know where they are!”

“Oh?” Li Goudan looked at him curiously. “You knew their location just after entering the city today? How did you know? Have you been watching them?”

Hans shook his head and explained, “It’s not that I’ve been watching them, but they made too much noise!”

“What’s going on?”

“They came in by boat!”

Li Goudan was stunned when he heard that, and his expression was a little strange. “This... can a boat come in from here?”

“Let’s call it a boat...” Hans’s expression was also a little strange, he had never seen such a boat before. Thinking about the shape of the boat gave him goosebumps, but he wasn’t too surprised. After all, there were too many strange things in this place.

“Well... where are they now?”

Hans: “The ship is in the Crystal Palace. The people... should be around there too...”

“Let’s go and have a look!”

On the other side, Lei Xue and the others were also moving slowly. Under Shawn's lead, the group of people was relatively calm on the road and did not suffer a second attack. Perhaps it was because the previous group's attack had failed, it was a deterrent to some people in the dark.

"Where are we going now?" Lei Xue looked at the darkening weather and asked.

"First, we need to find a place to hide..." Xiao en looked at the sky and said, "We can't rest in a place that is too open. It's easy to be attacked. It's best to find a room and surround it in a corner."

"Why?" Wild Wang asked with a frown.

Sean said, "Didn't I tell you about that shadow monster? That thing is the most terrifying thing here. It can appear behind you and break your neck at any time. That monster is not fast, but it's silent. Without Light, it's easy for it to lurk around us. Therefore, we have to be vigilant at night. We need to find a place with light and a small area to be safe..." "..."

"I can understand the light..." wild Wang was confused. "But why a smaller area?"

"So it's convenient to take turns guarding, right?" Snow rejoined. "If the monster is as he said, then someone must be in charge of the night watch while the others are resting. and the smaller the area, the harder it is for the guards to take advantage of..." "..."

Shawn nodded. He felt that it was really easy to talk to smart people... ..

But it was also... difficult to plot against them.

"If that's the case, why don't we just find a house and go in?" Ye Wang looked at the surrounding buildings and said, "It's going to be dark soon..."

"These buildings can't go in..." Shawn shook his head and said, "These things are mortgaged. Only the owner of the foreclosed property can live in them... for example, that one..." as he said that, he pointed to a relatively bright house not far away.

Hearing that, everyone looked over. When they saw the house that Sean was pointing at, they were stunned. The color of the house... .. It was indeed not quite the same. The surrounding buildings were grayish-white in color, giving people the feeling that they had been painted on, while the house that Sean was pointing at looked much more lively...

"Then why don't We Go That Way?" Johnny asked with a frown. He found that although Sean was pointing there, he was leading them in the opposite direction.

Sean said, "Houses like this are very scarce. They are occupied by people. The place I was pointing at just now is blood hand Pike's territory. There are seven gold-tier legends there. Those guys are not very friendly to outsiders..."

"So What?" Johnny grinned with an eager expression. Ever since the surgery was successful, he had long wanted to fight with legends!

Shawn shook his head. "It's not a good choice to fight at this time. It's easy for those monsters to find a loophole..."

Johnny was about to say something else when there was a loud noise in front of him. He vaguely saw two groups of people confronting each other... ..

Shawn saw it and quickly said, "Get out of the way. We can't be delayed by anything on the street. We have to find a suitable house quickly..."

"There... seems to be our crew..." Wilson, who was walking at the front, suddenly said.

"What?" Johnny was delighted. "Lord Snow, it's probably the Chief!"

Snow frowned. Before she could say anything, Sean stopped her. "It's better not to!"

"What did you say?" Johnny looked at Sean unkindly.

Shawn explained, "It's best not to get together with scattered teammates, especially at night. It's very dangerous. You Don't even know if they're your crew!" "Bullshit!" Johnny cursed. "Are we just going to miss them?"

Shawn did not look at Johnny. Instead, he stared at Lei Xue. After staying for so long, he finally understood that the ones in charge of this team were not the two powerful Golden Knights, on the contrary, it was this woman who did not seem to be able to fight.

When Rachel saw Sean looking at her, she immediately frowned... ..

Chapter 705: The Trail of Li Goudan

Those who were familiar with Mitilina would definitely remember this street. This was a very famous street in Linxi City. There were several most famous tailor shops in the western islands, and some of them had been around for thousands of years, they were world-renowned, and their exquisite craftsmanship had once attracted countless nobles to flock here.

However, he was now despised here. Countless people who were drawn to the tailor's shop might not be able to resist killing them. Compared to tailors, they wanted the owner of a sausage shop or a bakery more.

Kudran was a person who admired culture, so even if he had fallen to such a state, he was willing to respect these former tailors and give them protection.

Over time, the name of Kudran spread here. Due to his strength, very few people would come here to provoke him, because he was one of the few powerful legends in this city.

Usually, those who could come here to fight were rookies... ..

BoxNovel.com

Kudran looked at the group of people in front of him. They should be rookies. Looking at their clean and tidy clothes, he knew that these people had not experienced any struggles in this desperate city. After all, in his impression., the only people who could maintain decent clothes in this city were his group of people who occupied the tailor street.

In fact, according to his usual character, he did not like to make things difficult for the rookies, but who asked them to have women. Women were rare here, so he could not help but stop this group of rookies. However, he did not expect to kick an iron plate...

Just one person, a guy who looked very low-key in a sailor suit, was able to hold his own against him and the other five gold-rank teammates!

Moreover, if it wasn't for the special weapons in their hands, just based on their strength alone, they would probably have been decapitated!

This wasn't even taking into account the fact that the others hadn't made a move.

When did such a character appear outside?

Fortunately, not everyone was as exaggerated as this guy. Kudran could see that not everyone in this group of rookies was so good at fighting. At the very least, those dancers and those guys dressed as bards looked very panicked, although the sailors were strong and strong, they did not look like they had practiced combat techniques. However, there were a few exceptions that were worth paying attention to.

First, the two orcs. He was not sure why there were orcs in a fleet, but he was sure that they should be orcs. He was a cultured person, and he was also involved in the orc culture. From the way he dressed.., the two orcs should be the witch doctors and shamans of the orc tribe.

Then there was the other old man. Although his body was floating, there was obviously a wave of energy surrounding him. With his years of sailing experience, he could tell at a glance that this was a high-level mage grandfather...

If he had known that it was such a powerful team, he might not have made a move just because of a few dancers.

“Stop! !”

In the midst of the anxious confrontation, a loud roar interrupted the fight between the two sides not far away. Regardless of whether it was the expert in the sailor's uniform or Kurdistan's group, they all retreated rationally. At this time, there was a third party involved.., naturally, they could not continue fighting. They had to see the situation first.

“It's the second mate, and Lord Snow! !”Some sharp-eyed sailors suddenly cheered.

Seeing that it was snow and the others, the chief steward Lun Morsenkin immediately let out a sigh of relief. Although Lord Jack, who was hiding among the sailors, was powerful, he did not have the upper hand because of the strange weapon in the other party's hands. It was true that he was an advanced mage.., but he was not a battle-type mage, so it was his side that felt guilty just now.

Once the other party realized that his mage was just putting on a show, he might attack the group behind him. When that time came, Lord Jack alone would not be able to protect his group...

Fortunately, Lord Lei Xue came in time...

Lei Xue's group approached them without hesitation, causing Shawn to frown behind them. Generally speaking, those damn things would not appear in groups, so the possibility of imitating such a large group of people was not high, moreover, the person who was able to tie with Kurdistan's group just now was definitely a real person.

However, it still did not mean that this group of people was fine. There might have already been a few of those monsters that could change their forms mixed in...

"This old man, can you explain what happened?" Lei Xue looked at the well-dressed old man opposite her and asked with a smile. She could tell that the other party should be the leader of the other party.

Hearing that, Kudran looked at Lei Xue and the others. He secretly cursed his bad luck in his heart. He did not expect that the person who came was actually the opposite party's aid.

Moreover, this group of people who rushed over were not ordinary. Those sailors had strong physiques. From the way they held their weapons, it could be seen that they had received professional combat training. Moreover, their strength was not low. It was estimated that they were at least at the silver standard.

Then, there were the two middle-aged men with the first and second mate's marks. Their auras were very powerful and were not inferior to his. It seemed that they had really kicked an iron plate today...

When he thought of this, Kudran no longer tried to resist. He put on a smiling face and saluted, "This is a misunderstanding. We did not intend to become enemies with you..."

The group of sailors laughed coldly when they heard this. They did not say this when they suddenly attacked just now.

Lei Xue looked at him with a smile that was not a smile. Then, she said softly, "It's good that it's a misunderstanding..."

"Haha..." Kurland saw that the other party did not seem to have any intention of pursuing the matter, so he secretly heaved a sigh of relief. Then, he looked at the sky and said, "The sky is already dark. If everyone is fine, then we will first..."

Before he could finish his sentence, lei xue directly interrupted him, "The old man is right. The sky is already dark, and we have nowhere to go. Can the old man keep us for a night..."

"This..." kurland immediately frowned, "It's not appropriate, right?"

Lei Xue looked at the few large tailor shops around and smiled, "I heard that it's quite dangerous here at night. It's safer to stay in a room with light..."

Kurland frowned when he heard that. The other party must have some information. It seemed unrealistic to chase them away in such a situation.

From the bottom of his heart, he naturally did not want so many people to squeeze in. Who knew how many monsters had sneaked into this group of people?

However, if they refused, there was a high chance that the other party would fall out with them. Their chances of winning in a fight were not high...

Thinking of this, Kurland finally smiled. "A guest from afar is a guest. Come with me..."

After making his decision, he did not waste any more time. He took the lead and walked towards the largest tailor shop.

More than 200 people followed behind him one after another under the signal of Lei Xue. Among the group, a few people's eyes flashed with a strange light.

"By the way, Old Man, have you ever seen such a person during the day?" Lei Xue walked in front, closing the distance between her and Kurland under Wilson's protection.

Kurland looked at the person and saw that the person took out a colorful photo. He was a little surprised by this kind of photo that almost had a person's face printed on it, however, when he saw the person's face clearly, Kurland was stunned. "This person... do you know her?"

Lei Xue and Wilson were delighted. Lei Xue quickly asked, "Have you seen her before?"

Kurland nodded slowly. "We saw her during the day. Who is she to you?"

Lei Xue replied, "She's our captain."

"Captain..." Kurland nodded. It made sense for such a powerful crew member to have such a powerful captain.

"May I ask where you saw her?"

"The position of the Crystal Palace..." Kurland hesitated for a while and said in a low voice, "Although it's a pity, since you asked, I'll remind you."

"What?" Lei Xue and Wang Ye asked at the same time, feeling uneasy.

"Your captain... She should... have an accident..."

Snow: "!!!"

Chapter 706: Li Goudan's plan

This was a large warehouse at the back of a tailor shop. As a tailor shop that had been around for thousands of years, many shops had their own raw materials processing workshops. Although the storefront was small, the dyeing workshop at the back was quite large, even if Li Goudan's group of more than 200 people came in, they could still fit in.

The warehouse was illuminated by magic crystal lamps. These things were not scarce and could be exchanged at any time in the trading area. Moreover, the consumption of light was not that great.

Looking at the transparent and bright warehouse, the crew felt a little more at ease. After experiencing the previous strange events, bright light clearly gave them a greater sense of security than the night.

Under Wilson's arrangement, a group of people surrounded the city. Half of the sailors were responsible for keeping watch, while Johnny and Wilson took turns to supervise.

Kudran seemed to have figured out some problems. Since they were all staying over, he decided to be a good person to the end and shared some food. Kudran's food source was mainly the sausage processing plant and flour processing plant that they occupied, at this time, each person was given a fat sausage, a large pile of baked dough, and a bowl of salty soup with a little cream.

Obviously, these things were difficult to swallow for the crew who were used to eating high-end ingredients...

Kudran looked at the people who were unable to swallow and couldn't help but laugh. After waiting here for a long time, these people would know how difficult it was to have a mouthful of hot food.

"Can you tell us about the situation?" Lei Xue sat in the middle, holding the salty soup and dough in her hands as she asked while eating.

As a soldier who was used to eating big pots of rice, Lei Xue wasn't picky about the food. Although the ingredients in the base were indeed delicious, as they hadn't been here for a long time, she hadn't completely spoiled her appetite... ..

Kurland looked at her. After he said that something had happened to the captain, this woman did not seem to panic except for the initial surprise, after arriving here, he first arranged all the matters of the night watch in an orderly manner before calmly asking about their captain.

This woman looked quite young, but she was quite steady and experienced in handling matters...

Then he thought of the skipper, who was so bold and unpredictable, and indeed needed such a steady man to coordinate, but... .. It's been ripped apart... ..

"The thing is like this..." Kurland drank a mouthful of salty soup, slowly began to talk about the day at noon.

It all began the day before with the arrival of that strange ship into town, and Marina's massive ship of the dead was clearly more eye-catching than Li's gang.

However, even though they made a high-profile appearance, the shape of the ship was too terrifying, causing many people to stop in their tracks. There were still very few people who were willing to take the initiative to provoke such a strange thing.

Of course, it wasn't completely unheard of. There was no shortage of perverts and lunatics in the city. Therefore, around the same night, a group of people organized an attack on the ship.

The battle began very quickly. Everyone in the group paid attention to it. The ones who participated in the battle were the craziest group of people in the city, each and every one of them had either had their blood vessels ruptured due to the rapid expansion of the potion or had more than half of their bodies devoured by the weapons in their hands.

These were the most dangerous group of people in the city. In fact, they were even more dangerous than the authentic legendary experts like them. Because there weren't many survivors left, they had almost completely let themselves go. They didn't care about any infection or virus at all, they drank potions that could increase their strength and dared to use any dangerous weapons. Each and every one of them was like their spiritual threads had been crushed and they were about to go crazy at the end. Don't look at them as being gold-tier. It was not strange at all for them to suddenly kill a legend.

On the contrary, a legend like Kurland who had been upgraded normally became more and more low-key.

The battle started and ended even faster. None of the onlookers had expected that so many crazy people would not even be able to float. After entering the ship, there was no more sound. The onlookers outside could not even see how those people had fallen... ..

They could only faintly hear the sound of chewing coming from the ship... ..

After that, no one dared to provoke them directly. They just watched as the ship arrived at the Crystal Palace.

However, although no one took the initiative to provoke them, it did not mean that no one had any thoughts. On the contrary, as the ship became stronger, the number of people surrounding the Crystal Palace increased.

When she heard this, Lei Xue asked curiously, "Why?"

Logically speaking, after the deterrence of strength, it should have had the effect of purging. How did it suddenly attract more people?

Kurland silently drank a mouthful of soup. Finally, he said, "Because we suspect that the owner of that ship has a way to leave this place!"

As soon as he said this, Wilson couldn't help but tremble. Lei Xue's eyelids also twitched, but her expression remained calm. She said indifferently, "Where did this conclusion come from?"

Kurland looked deeply at this woman once again. This fellow's willpower was really extraordinary. Which family had nurtured him?

"There are two reasons for suspicion. The first is the direction of that ship. It's different from the other outsiders who are at a loss. The moment this ship entered, it headed straight for the Crystal Palace. It's as if it came with a purpose from the beginning. An outsider who came with a purpose clearly knows some secrets here that we don't know. Moreover, since it dares to come, it's very likely that it has the confidence to escape."

"What if it's a coincidence?" Lei Xue was not very satisfied with this analysis. She said in a low voice, "What if that ship happened to go to the Crystal Palace? Why are you sure that it came with a Purpose?"

"That's the second reason..." Kurland said faintly, "They successfully opened the Crystal Palace."

"Couldn't the Crystal Palace be opened in the past?" Lei Xue frowned and asked.

Kurland shook his head and said, "All the buildings here are bound to people. For example, this tailor shop. If the master, Wangsi, dies, this house will be re-sealed. The Crystal Palace has been sealed for many years, but when that ship appeared... .. The Crystal Palace was unsealed!"

Lei Xue's pupils constricted when she heard this, and she said in a low voice, "In other words, there is a master of the Crystal Palace in that ship?"

Kurland: "Yes!"

Lei Xue took a deep breath and slowly nodded. If that was the case, her suspicion was reasonable, thus, she continued to ask, "What happened after that? What did you do? You said that something might have happened to our captain because she was also involved in this matter?"

"Yes!" Kurland nodded. "At that time, there was a large group of people gathered outside. Even some legendary elders who had been hidden for a long time showed up. After all, no one here didn't want to leave this damned place. Many people discussed trying to surround and attack, but that was too risky..."
"..."

Hearing that, snow nodded. Not to mention the strength that the undead ship had displayed at the beginning, just the internal problems of this cooperation alone were very big. There were monsters that could transform everywhere. Who the hell knew if a group of people had sneaked in or not..., once there were more people fighting, these monsters that were mixed in would be like fish in the water!

"What happened after that? Do you have a solution?"

"We don't... But your captain proposed a solution..." Kurland said with a strange expression.

"Our Captain?" Snow was stunned. That guy could propose a solution besides eating? So she also asked with a strange expression, "What solution?"

Chapter 707 "He should be a ruthless person..." .

Eight hours ago:

"Old Fordring, what should we do? Say Something!"

At noon, a group of big shots from various streets gathered together to discuss the incident with the undead ship.

Sitting at the top row were all legendary masters, and none of them were lone Rangers. They had at least four or five gold-tier masters under them, and they even had dozens of silver-tier subordinates.

At this time, Li Goudan was wearing a black mask at Hans's request. He hid in a corner of the crowd and listened to the big shots talking loudly.

BoxNovel.com

The people below were mostly the subordinates of the big shots. Of course, there were also some independent forces. Everyone consciously kept their distance to avoid being attacked by the evil spirits that sneaked into the crowd.

Goudan Li looked around curiously and found that there were quite a number of people wearing masks like her, however, Hans said that most of them wore masks because they had eaten a lot of messy food or because their faces were deformed or because they could not show their faces due to the corrosion of weapons. There were a lot of such cases, therefore, it would not seem out of place for Goudan Li to wear a mask.

The reason why Goudan Li wore a mask was to avoid trouble. Women were a scarce resource in this place, especially beautiful women like Goudan Li.

When Li Goudan heard that others were trying to cover up their ugliness while he was trying to cover up his beauty, he instantly felt a little smug. He walked with his head held high and his chest puffed out...

Hans didn't understand why Li Goudan felt so smug, but he didn't stop him. After all, her chest was the only thing that didn't need to be covered up... ..

"Uncle, who's that old man sitting in the middle up there? He's so imposing. He looks like a Boss!" Li Goudan asked curiously.

"That's old fordring..." Hans said in a low voice, "He's the boss of South Alley Street. He's the oldest legendary master here, and his strength is unfathomable. Some people say that he has lived here for more than a hundred years, and that he has two legends under him, fifteen gold-tier Masters, and an old archmage under him. To be honest, if he goes out with this lineup, he can directly establish a country!"

At this point, his eyes dimmed. To be honest, if they could get out of here, everyone here would be living very well. Even he, who was just a passerby, was a top-notch expert when he went out. His strength was infinitely close to gold-rank, there were also one or two special tools that could kill gold-rank. Anyone who went to any country would be at the level of a royal captain.

But here, they had to fight to the death for a sausage and a piece of bread!

"You've seen the situation..." urged by the crowd, old fordring, who was sitting in the middle, finally spoke. His voice was calm and genial, like an ordinary gentle old man. But everyone knew that this old man was very ruthless, otherwise, he would not have been able to establish such a large force in this damn place!

"Humndale and his men may be willing to degenerate, but their strength is not bad, especially Rosen. His ghost armor has already reached its limit. Even I don't dare to say that I can break through his defense. In the end, when the group of people entered, they did not even make a single splash before they lost their voices. One can imagine how dangerous that ship is..." "..."

Hearing that, the many big shots looked at each other. Everyone was very familiar with the Ghost Armor Rosen. The defensive power of that flesh armor could be said to be the most astonishing in the entire city. When it was still silver, it had relied on this armor to kill many gold-tier experts, now, his body was almost completely corroded by that armor. However, it was precisely because of this that the armor was at its most powerful. Those who had used the weapons here knew that the more powerful the weapon was when it corroded the body, the more powerful its function would be.

"But even so, we can't retreat!" One of the red-bearded big men said. "This might be another opportunity for us to escape from here. Think about the last time..."

Hearing this, everyone was stunned, and then their expressions turned ugly. The last time, there was an opportunity, but because most of them were too cautious, some of the newcomers seized the opportunity to escape!

It could only be said that they had lived for too long and understood this place too well, so they were a little timid.

Fording nodded. "I didn't say that I planned to back down, but I must be well prepared. Rushing in at once is not a wise move. Let's not talk about the outside, just take the current situation as an example. Who can guarantee that the people you brought are okay?"

As soon as these words were said, the venue fell into a strange silence. Everyone looked at each other, and when they sized each other up, there was a hint of vigilance.

The big shots were also silent. To be honest, no one could guarantee this, including fordring. During the riot a few months ago, his assistant who had been with him for a few years suddenly attacked him without any warning... ..

No one could guarantee that there were no problems with people other than themselves...

"Can't we just test it..."

Just as everyone was silent, a clear and beautiful voice rang out in the hall. Everyone was stunned. This voice was so sweet that it was obviously a female voice...

Everyone looked over in a daze and saw a short man wearing a white robe and a mask... ..

Then, they looked at Hans, who was beside them, with a meaningful expression on his face.

"Yo, Hans..." someone in the crowd who knew Hans suddenly said, "Kid, you've been doing well recently. You can actually hide a woman!"

Women were a scarce resource. Normal transactions could be exchanged for a large number of resources, but most people would not exchange for them. Obviously, in a place like this where they did not know when they would die, who would not want to use them for themselves?

At this moment, most of the people were looking at Li Goudan with burning eyes, as if he was a beast that wanted to eat people.

Including some of the legendary big shots, there was a hint of evil fire in their eyes... ..

Usually, the fleet would rarely bring women. The number of women left in the entire city could be counted on one hand...

Fording looked at the group of beast-like eyes and frowned slightly, so he said slowly, "Hans, right? Leave this girl to me. Later, when you go to South Street, I'll get someone to pick out a gold-grade material for you..."

Everyone frowned when they heard this, but it was fordring who spoke. He had the right to be so unreasonable...

Actually, Fordring didn't want to do anything. He just felt that it wasn't easy to get a girl, and it wouldn't end well if she was taken away by those perverts. If she followed him, at least she would have a way out...

"This dog egg is so worthless?" Dog Egg Li walked out from the corner and slowly took off his mask, revealing his country-toppling beauty as he looked at everyone with a smile!

Instantly, the entire hall fell silent again, followed by the sound of hurried breathing.

Even Old Fodin was shocked speechless for a moment. He did not expect that this was not only a woman, but also such a beautiful girl. This kind of person stood in the middle of the many hunks with their feet, like the moonlight breaking through the clouds, it rippled with an intoxicating light.

Immediately after, everyone swallowed their saliva, and their eyes became fierce. If it was not for the group of Big Shots Present, the group of people might have already started fighting.

Seeing the werewolves, Hans couldn't help but cover his face. He was already used to it. Compared to courting death in the trading city, he was obviously very gentle here.

Only Roger, who was in the corner, remained sober. His fierce face was full of fear. He was like Hans, and knew that this fairy-like little girl was not a good person... ..

After a long while, Fordring cleared his throat and broke the silence. He looked at eggface meaningfully and said, "Little girl, you have some guts..."

Compared to the People's IQ that was covered by hormones, this old man, who was almost in the grave, could see clearly that this little girl was not simple. In the face of so many people's malicious possessiveness, she did not even blink...

If he guessed correctly, she should be a ruthless person...

Chapter 708: Can We Talk properly now?

After Old Fordring reacted, some of the legendary bigwigs also reacted. However, this did not reduce the evil fire in their eyes. On the contrary, the heat was even stronger. Such a beautiful girl was worth it even if it was a little prickly, moreover, was it not good to have some strength? Only by living longer could one use it longer, right?

It wasn't like there weren't any women who had come to this city before, but what was the point of killing them in just a few moves?

Not everyone was a pervert, but everyone's strength had soared after coming here. There were more or less some problems with their bodies, and it was difficult to control their strength. Sometimes, when they were agitated, the women would disappear... ..

Therefore, women here were both precious items and consumables... ..

Fordring sighed when he saw that everyone's aura was getting more and more abnormal. If this child didn't take the mask, he might have been able to protect her, but now... ..

BoxNovel.com

He still hadn't experienced any hardships. Even if he had some strength, he shouldn't be so reckless...

After thinking for a while, he decided to help them one last time, so he asked, "You said to test it just now. Do you mean to test the authenticity of the people here?"

This topic immediately made everyone calm down, and they also remembered what they were here for today...

Thus, their eyes regained a little bit of clarity...

Old Fordring looked around, and felt slightly relieved. He looked at Li Goudan's moonlight-like face again, and sighed in his heart. This is the best I can do...

Li Goudan looked at Fordring with a grin. "It's very simple. I heard that those monsters can't completely imitate their strength, especially when they can't use the items traded in the crystals. If that's the case, wouldn't it be enough to test their strength?"

Everyone sneered when they heard that. Old Fordring also sighed slightly. They thought that this girl would come up with some good idea.

It was not like no one had thought of using strength testing methods before. However, it was very difficult to operate because the illusions of the hidden evil spirits were very strong. Not only could they disguise their appearance.., the more powerful ones could freely change the surrounding scene, and the changes were very realistic. This made it very difficult for one to see the truth clearly with their eyes.

For example, the strength test. The effects of the objects that you used could all be imitated. As long as you did not hit a person, as long as you did not personally feel it, everything that you saw might not be true...

Then, perhaps someone would ask, then let someone test it personally...

How could it be so simple? Some of these monsters had a certain level of strength. It was no problem for them to barely imitate the strength of a gold or silver knight, but if they wanted to accurately judge, they had to use weapons.

But everyone knew that most weapons had side effects. Generally, people who treasured their bodies would not easily use them. Moreover, the lethality of those weapons was very difficult to control. If they were not careful, they could easily kill the person who was testing them.

It would only be feasible if there was a huge difference in strength between the two parties. However, there were hundreds of people present, and the weakest among them was a silver-tier elite like Hans. There were more than a dozen legendary bigwigs, so who would be testing them?

"Fordring, how about this girl? I'll let you have a flour mill..." a skinny man asked Fordring directly. Apparently, he was too lazy to waste his breath on that woman.

Fordring glanced at him coldly. The other party's conditions were not bad. A flour mill here could feed a lot of people... ..

"That little girl is a human. Shouldn't she be able to choose where she wants to go?" Fordring said coldly.

“Old Man, you really can say whatever you want. You Didn’t say that when you asked Hans to give her to you just now...”The Skinny Man licked his lips, his face was sallow, and he was as thin as a dried corpse. The way he licked his lips made people feel a little scared.

Fordring looked at him coldly without any expression on his face. Seeing this, the man smiled, raised his hands, and said, “Okay, old man, whatever you say... but since the old man said so, at least allow me to ask, right?”

Fordring didn’t say anything. This guy was one of the more troublesome legends. If it wasn’t necessary, he actually didn’t want to provoke him.

Seeing that Fordring didn’t say anything, the man smiled and turned to look at Li Goudan downstairs. “Little girl, are you willing to follow me?”

Li Goudan sighed. “I’m talking about serious business...”

This group of people didn’t seem to take her words seriously...

The corpse-like man giggled. “I’m talking about serious matters, aren’t I?”

Li Goudan sighed and said, “Alright...”

When he said this, everyone was stunned. Even the corpse-like man who had spoken was stunned...

Was this little girl blind? Why would she follow such a scary looking guy when he asked her to follow him?

“Hahahahaha!”The corpse-like man immediately slapped his leg and laughed. “Grandpa Fordring, what do you say now?”

Old fordring frowned. Just as he was about to say something, Li Goudan suddenly interrupted from below, “But there must be conditions...”

Everyone was stunned again. The corpse man looked at Li Goudan with interest. “Tell me...”

Li Goudan sized him up and tilted his head. “You’re so thin, are you okay?”

Everyone choked. If it were anyone else, the entire venue would have burst into laughter.

Unfortunately, facing the corpse man, no one present dared to do so. They all held back their laughter and their faces turned green and white...

A trace of viciousness flashed in the corpse man’s eyes, but he grinned and said, “Why don’t you try it with me when you get back?”

“I mean, can you do it?”Li Goudan smiled and said, “I’m still young, don’t drive recklessly...”

The corpse man looked at him faintly and asked, “Young lady, what do you mean by strength?”

Li Goudan said, “Of course, it’s whether you can fight or not. Don’t tell me it depends on how big your lower body is?”

“Oh?”The mummy man slowly stood up. The bones in his body creaked as if they would fall apart with a casual slap. However, everyone knew how powerful this withered body was...

“Young Lady, do you want to fight with me?”The Mummy Man asked with a cold smile.

“Yes...”Li Goudan nodded seriously. “This Goudan means it!”

As soon as he finished speaking, the mummy man who had been upstairs suddenly appeared in front of Li Goudan. His ghostly movements caused even Fordin’s eyelids to Twitch.

It had been a long time since he had seen this guy go up another level... ... And... ...

Fordin looked at the position of the mummy man’s legs. The blood, flesh, and meridians had almost spread to the lower half of his body... “...”. It seemed that he was not far from his limit.

“Eh... What disgusting shoes...”Li Goudan looked at the flesh and blood on the legs of the mummified man with an obvious look of disgust.

Everyone’s faces twitched. They thought to themselves, does this guy really think that just because he is pretty, the other party won’t Mess with her? Ghost Shadow Frank was famous for being a pervert!

However, at this moment, contrary to everyone’s thoughts, the expression of the mummified man turned slightly solemn. He clearly felt that there was something wrong with this woman. Just now, in order to show off his power, he had used his shoes to jump down from above, the main reason was to give old fordring a deterrent. He believed that with his current speed, even old fordring might not be able to capture his figure.

But this girl had captured him! !

He could clearly see that he had not been able to escape from the other party’s sight from beginning to end... ...

This girl was not simple...

After thinking for a while, he decided to be more steady. His corpse-like face squeezed out a sinister smile as he looked at the other party. “Little girl, do you want to Go First?”

Li Goudan looked at him and nodded, “Alright...”

As soon as he said that, the mummy-like man realized that Li Goudan had disappeared from his sight. This sudden change made his nerves jump. His heart was on high alert as he thought to himself, “This woman is indeed not a good person!”!

However, before he could make a move, he saw a white palm grabbing towards his face. The speed was unbelievably fast, as if he had skipped time. He did not even have time to move his feet!

Boom! !

With a loud boom, everyone stared blankly at the ground that had been forcefully caved in, as well as Frank, who had been directly smashed into meat paste by the palm. The scene instantly became so quiet that one could hear a pin drop... ...

Li Goudan stood up and used the other party’s clothes to wipe off the flesh and blood on his hands. He slowly raised his head to look at old fordring and the rest, “Can we talk properly now?”

Chapter 709: Crystal Palace of Terror (Part One)

“Can we talk properly now?”

The Quiet Hall echoed with the clear voice of a young girl. Everyone held their breath, obviously still in a state of paralysis...

Frank... died just like that?

Is this a joke?

Could it be that this woman also had some powerful artifacts? Or perhaps she has some unknown means?

BoxNovel.com

Some people began to think of reasons for this incredible scene, but the next second, they felt that the reason they found was not very reasonable. The strange artifacts that were traded did indeed have the effect of increasing strength, but there was a limit to everything. It did not mean that a piglet could kill a tiger with those artifacts. If you had an artifact that wanted to kill a tiger, you would at least have to be a wolf... ..

Moreover, Frank himself had one or two of the best tools... ..

“It’s not impossible...” some people began to discuss in a low voice. “If you have a lethal tool, it’s not impossible to use the right opportunity...”

These words made everyone nod slightly. At least this kind of explanation was acceptable, but no matter what, this girl had the strength to kill a legend in one blow, at this time, no one looked at her as if they were looking at a little sheep.

Fordring stared blankly at Frank who was beaten into a meat patty. He and the surrounding legends looked at each other with shock. Obviously, they understood Frank’s strength better than the people downstairs, therefore, they didn’t quite agree with those words, they knew that among the many legends, Frank was the one who was the least likely to be killed by a special item in one hit.

Because Frank’s advantage was his speed...

Ghost Frank’s nickname was to describe his speed, which was the same as that of light and shadow... ..

The few bigwigs sitting at the table could clearly see that Frank did not lose because of the difference in strength, but because of his speed. The other party had taken the initiative to attack from a few meters away. Even if there was an item that could kill him in one hit... Logically speaking, with Frank’s speed advantage, he should be able to dodge, but he didn’t... ..

This was definitely not Frank deliberately not dodging, because none of the big shots present could clearly see how Frank had been killed!

In other words, if they were to face that girl, their outcome should be similar...

Thinking of this, the big shots' hearts sank...

After a long time, Fordring finally opened his mouth and asked, "Little girl, aren't You a little ruthless?"

"Am I?" Li Goudan tilted his head and asked, "He was malicious to me in the first place, right? If I didn't resist, how would my outcome be better?"

Everyone immediately fell silent. This was the truth. Those who were familiar with Frank's character knew how violent this guy was. That little girl was weak and powerless, and if she fell into his hands, her fate would definitely be worse than death...

"Then what about you? Are you here with good intentions or bad intentions?" Among the legendary big shots upstairs, a Guy whose face was green and black and looked like a living corpse asked. His voice was hoarse as if he had not drunk water for more than ten days, making people feel a chill run down their spines...

Everyone looked at the subtle expression in Li Goudan's eyes. The Big Shot who spoke was a character who was almost as difficult to deal with as Frank in the legends. His nickname was Randolph the green corpse...

This was an extremely unruly person who dared to challenge old Fodin when he was still in his golden period. But now, his word 'you' was filled with fear towards this girl.

"This Goudan isn't that boring..." Li Goudan touched his nose and said, "I'm here to find a teammate..."

"Find a teammate?" Fodin looked at him and then said, "You're here for that ship too?"

Li Goudan: "Yes..."

Fordring's spirits were lifted as he asked, "Do you know anything about that ship?"

In his heart, he was trying to guess what kind of relationship this new guy had with the person who opened the Crystal Palace, even if he had some information.

"I don't know..." Li Goudan shook his head. "That's why I'm here to look for a teammate. If you know something, why am I here to look for you? Are We Close?"

Everyone: "..."

Fordring frowned slightly. He wasn't angry at the tone of the other party's words. Instead, he felt a little regretful that the other party didn't have any information. He then asked, "Then what do you mean?"

Li Goudan: "Let's go and take a look. What can we discuss about wasting time here?"

The big red-bearded man upstairs immediately grinned when he heard that. "This little girl is to my liking. It's just a waste of time here. Since we have information anyway, how can we know what the rules are if we don't go and take a look?"

Fordring rolled his eyes at him and said, "I just said that it's not that I'm not going. I just have to make sufficient preparations. First, I have to solve the hidden danger of the evil spirits."

Li Goudan: "Didn't this Goudan just say the solution?"

Fordring sighed helplessly. "There are so many people here. Who should I get to test them one by one? It's fine if there's a big difference in strength, but how do you test those with similar strength? If you lose control accidentally, you'll lose your life."

Li Goudan grinned, "This Goudan will test you!"

"You?" Everyone's eyelids twitched, and their expressions became unfriendly. Fordring sneered, "Miss, are you planning to test all of us alone?"

"That's what I mean..." Li Goudan replied with a chuckle.

The legends above were stunned at first, but then they laughed in anger. Even Old Fordring couldn't help but sneer, "Miss, after defeating Frank, do you feel that you have no opponents here?"

"Eh?" Li Goudan stared blankly, then looked carefully at old Fordring and the others: "I don't see... . You and he have too big difference... .."

Everyone:"..."

The Thunder Snow when a group of people hears here can not help but shake the facial expression to twitch, so the words that want to beat this guy really dare to say ah, this and here are all spicy chicken what is the difference?

"And then?" Lei Xue asked carefully.

Kurland laughed bitterly when he heard this. "And then she beat us up one by one..."

Everyone:"..."

The corners of Lei Xue's mouth twitched. For a moment, she didn't know how to respond. Before she came to Luofu, the intelligence department had given her relevant information on Li Jiayi, the style of this member of the Dragon Group No. 1 from the BA tie to the Kunlun martial arts practice didn't seem to have much of a difference. She could solve problems by fighting, but she definitely didn't have many cowards.

This style was a little brainless, but who asked her to be able to fight?

"You have hundreds of people, but you haven't fought her?" Johnny couldn't help but ask.

Before coming here, Candy Bean had told him that the captain was very good at fighting, but he hadn't expected him to be so good at fighting. He was confident that he wouldn't be at a disadvantage against a legend, but a dozen or so legends and almost a hundred gold-rank were still a bit too exaggerated. The lords in the base were not that good at fighting either...

"And then? What's the arrangement after the fight?" Snow asked.

Kurland's mouth twitched. He clearly had some complaints about the description of the fight being over, but in the end, he did not say it out loud. He knew that now was not the time to talk about this, thus, he continued, "After that, she arranged for half of us to follow her into the Crystal Palace, and the other half to stay outside to receive her..."

The corners of everyone's eyes twitched, and they thought to themselves, what a simple and crude arrangement...

However, Lei xue frowned and said, "But you guys came back. Why?"

Hearing this, Kurland's expression became a little solemn. "Because after that half of them entered the Crystal Palace, there wasn't a single sound..."

Lei Xue: "So you guys gave up?"

Kurland: "It's not that we gave up too quickly, but the situation was too strange. We originally agreed to meet up in three hours regardless of the results of the exploration... but they didn't come out when the agreed time was..."

"But they wouldn't give up just like that, right?" Wang ye asked.

Kurland was silent for a moment before finally saying, "We have to give up. That Crystal Palace... has begun to take the initiative to eat people..."

"Ah?"

Chapter 710: The Terrifying Crystal Palace (Part 2)

"Cannibalism... What does that mean?"

All the members of the dog egg in the warehouse were stunned on the spot. They even forgot to swallow the salty soup that was barely not bad. As they were stunned, the soup flowed down from the corner of their mouths... ..

"It literally means..." Kurland sighed as he looked at the expressions of Lei Xue and the others. Obviously, if he hadn't seen it with his own eyes, if someone else were to tell him, he would probably have the same expression.

"The Crystal Palace came to life not long after your captain went in..."

"Came to life?" Lei Xue asked blankly. She could understand this word even if they were separated. However, when they were put together, she did not understand. What did it mean for a building to come to life?

BoxNovel.com

"Not only did it come to life, it also ate people!" Kurland's expression was a little ugly. He originally had many Silver Knights under him. However, because his reaction was a little slow, they were all eaten by that damn thing!

"Please Wait..." Lei Xue covered her head, feeling that something was not right. Why did it sound like a ghost story? was this the meaning of a haunted house eating people?

Rumble...

Suddenly, when Lei Xue asked again, the entire ground suddenly shook.

Everyone was stunned again.

Lei Xue was stunned, thinking to herself, could it be an earthquake?

Kurland was stunned. He had been here for more than ten years and had never heard of an earthquake happening here. He could not help but think of the Crystal Palace that had come to life during the day. An indescribable chill rose in his heart.

“Mr. Kurland?” Lei Xue looked at his pale face and asked curiously. From his expression, it seemed that this was not a good thing...

Kurland did not reply. Instead, he stood up and said to the few people beside him, “Follow me out to take a look.”

The group of people put down the dough in their hands, picked up their weapons, and followed without hesitation. Only Lei Xue and the others were left inside, looking at each other inexplicably.

“Sir Lei Xue, should we... go out to take a look too?” Johnny could not help but ask.

Lei Xue hesitated for a second, then nodded and said, “You go out with US and take a look. Wilson is here to maintain order. Remember, don’t let our people mess up!”

Now that they had just met up with another group of people, no one could say whether the other group of people had mixed in with the monsters before. Once chaos broke out, it was easy to give those monsters a chance.

As for Wilson and Johnny, the former was obviously more stable in handling matters... ..

Wilson nodded when he heard that. He looked at Lei Xue and thought to himself, ‘she’s able to remain calm at a time like this. Lord Lei Xue is indeed not simple. Lord Candy seems to have a reason for asking her group of people to listen to her decisions whenever something happens.’

After Lei Xue gave her instructions, she did not hesitate and immediately led Wang Ye and Johnny out with quick steps.

When they were out of the warehouse, the ground shook even more violently. From time to time, the sound of buildings collapsing could be heard. Lei Xue frowned and felt more and more uneasy, the shaking should not be a serious earthquake. How could it cause the buildings to collapse?

When they were outside, they saw Kurland and the others standing on the roof of the warehouse. They did not look good.

“Boss... boss... that damn thing... it actually walked over!” One of the Gold-tier Knights stammered.

Snow looked at Johnny. Johnny nodded knowingly. He grabbed snow and lightly jumped to the top of the warehouse.

Kurland took a glance at Johnny. This movement technique was as light as lifting weights. It did not make a sound when he jumped up with a person. The control of his strength was quite steady. It was completely different from those who relied on potions to forcefully take it up, he was a difficult character to deal with.

In the past, they would definitely be filled with fear. However, they did not think so at this moment. In such a situation, having an expert beside them would give them more protection.

Johnny and the other two finally saw the cause of the disturbance after jumping up high. After seeing the thing clearly, the three of them drew in a cold breath on the spot.

What the hell was that?

About a thousand meters away, they saw a huge monster of the opposite sex wreaking havoc there. The monster looked extremely strange and was covered in disgusting flesh membranes. Thousands of flesh tentacles that looked like octopuses were waving and squirming, there were also countless sharp teeth on the flesh membrane. They could smell the stench of those teeth even from a thousand meters away.

However, upon closer inspection, they discovered that behind the disgusting flesh membrane was actually a huge crystal palace. The elegant beauty of the Crystal Palace and the sick rotten flesh membrane outside formed a strong contrast. It was like an angel being infected with a rotten curse... ..

“So this is what it means for the Crystal Palace to come back to life?” Wang Ye could not help but grumble, “How is this coming back to life? It’s clearly a zombie, right?”

“It’s eating buildings!” After seeing the monster’s actions clearly, Lei Xue said in a strange manner.

She could not help but feel a little strange. A human zombie turned into a cannibal, and a house turned into a zombie and ate a house?

It was really logical...

“Boss...” a knight beside him said with a trembling voice, “That... That’s Lord Dolan’s territory. Should we... Go and support him?”

Hearing that, Kurland’s eyelids twitched. Dolan was one of the legendary experts in this city, and his personality was similar to Old Fordin’s. Both of them insisted on the justice of the Knights themselves. After Fordin and the others entered., dolan was almost the number one expert outside. Regardless of whether it was the forces under him or the strength of the leader himself, they were all far above him. What could he use to support others?

Moreover, so many people had died in there today. What the F * ck was he willing to deal with this damn thing! !

Snow seemed to have seen through Kurland’s thoughts and said faintly, “Whether we support or not is the same. It looks like they will come sooner or later!”

Kurland’s eyelids twitched when he heard that. “Not necessarily, right?”

There were so many forks there. Why would they definitely come to his place?

Lei Xue fixed her gaze on the other party and said, “My vision is better, and I can see more clearly. That House seems to only eat unsealed buildings, and the closest unsealed building to that place is our place...”

Kurland:” ...”

“At worst, we can just give up here!” Kurland said hatefully. He didn’t want to go against that thing head-on... ..

“If we give up, then what?” Lei Xue said in a low voice, “Your flour factory and sausage factory are gone, how can we guarantee their survival?”

“We’ll just have to think of a new way!”

“What if it eats all the unsealed buildings?”

Kurland: “...”

Lei Xue: “Without Light, without a stove, how can we protect those shadows in the Dark Streets? You have so many subordinates. How can you survive without food?”

Kurland: “We can’t just send ourselves to our deaths!”

“It doesn’t necessarily mean that we’re sending ourselves to our deaths...” Lei Xue shook her head.

Kurland sneered when he heard that. “Don’t forget, even that powerful captain of yours died in there. Do you have someone more powerful than her?”

Johnny lowered his head, while Wang Ye’s face turned pale and his heart became colder. He really wanted to avoid this topic. After all, the palace had become like that. Li Goudan and the others would probably be killed in there.

Fortunately, he knew that this place could be reborn...

Lei Xue narrowed her eyes and looked at the Crystal Palace in the distance. “Our captain might not be killed in there!”

“What did you say?”
