Chapter 71: boss, a whole bone! !

“Oh, dear Lord Vellin, what would you like to eat today?” Friendly Reminder: a fresh star rhinoceros has just been purchased. If you are interested, please make a decision as soon as possible. Otherwise, when Lord Dabao arrives, you might not even be able to see a single strand of cow hair... : ...”

Having just arrived at the dining hall, Vellin immediately felt a wave of shame upon hearing this. The person who spoke was the dining hall’s chef, Mr. Wilson. His entire body was covered in carapace, and he looked like a big red crab. His identity was the same as well., he was a branch of the Naga clan’s marine race and had a very good reputation in the federation for his culinary skills.

And the Lord Dabao that boss crab spoke of was the high-level blacksmith that the Lord had hired with a high salary: Dabao. Storm liquor!

It was said that he had the bronze clan’s top blacksmithing skills, but he was really too gluttonous. There were rumors that he had already eaten up all of his wages for the next 200 years in advance. It seemed that he was prepared to stay here for the rest of his life... ..

Facing such a person who had broken all the rules, Vivian did not dare to bet on the authenticity of the boss’s words. She quickly smiled and said, “Then give me a piece of Rhino Steak!”

Although the base had opened a canteen, because of the serious shortage of ingredients, the few instructors had come several times and found that there was no stock. It was that guy who had done it for a long time... .. Did he eat the beef according to the head?

“Yes, sir. What part of the meat do you want to eat?”

“Inside the waist... tenderloin...” Vivian smiled sweetly. As a girl, she still liked to eat things that were tender and smooth with less muscle.

“How well-done?”

“30% ...”

“Boss, have you eaten yet?” A lazy voice came, which made Vivian, who had just ordered food, stunned.

She was very familiar with this voice. It was one of the nine students who had just transformed a few days ago. It was called: Muay Thai warning. How could this child afford the canteen?

Now that the first batch of livestock had yet to mature, there were very few meat ingredients that could enter the canteen. The Lord had decreed that if one wanted to eat hot food, especially meat, they had to pay for it themselves. Furthermore, the prices were extremely expensive., even with a monthly salary of tens of thousands, Vivian only dared to come here occasionally for a taste. She remembered that these people did not have any wages for the time being, right?

The boss seemed to see through her doubts, he said in a low voice, "The Aborigines can spend money based on points, but the price is very low. Now, your tutor courses are not cheap. Most players with points are reluctant to come and eat them, but he is different. They have less green spirit courses."

"But does he have points?" Vivian remembered that this child seemed to be very diligent in earning points.

"Yes, this kid is helping others train dogs now. He's earned quite a lot."

"Helping others train dogs?" Vivian was stunned. She had been troubled by those dead dogs for the past two days. She thought that the students should be the same as her, but in the end, someone had already started the business of helping others train dogs?

Then, she looked up and saw five or six well-behaved star-swallowing dogs behind the thin and handsome elven man. They only lowered their heads and twitched their ears, their extremely obedient appearance made it hard for her to believe that the ones in front of her were the same breed as the ones in her house that had almost driven her crazy!

She had originally thought that she had mastered the Level-4 listening skill and had a rough understanding of beast taming techniques. That was why she had volunteered to apply for two samples to find a way to tame them so that she could teach her students. If it worked.., from now on, she might as well take on the role of the Green Spirit's elementary teacher and take the opportunity to apply for a raise from the Lord. In the end, only now did she realize that the job of a Beast Tamer was not good!

Thinking about how her beautiful dormitory had been gnawed into a thousand holes, she felt so wronged that she wanted to cry.

Her teacher was right. One should not be too greedy...

However, the scene in front of her made her unable to accept it. How did the other party do it?

In her opinion, this breed was extremely strange. Not only was it strong in offense and weak in obedience, but its attributes were also extremely strange. It could eat anything. A two-legged chicken or a four-legged table, as long as the hardness was suitable.., there was nothing that they would not dare to chew on, especially yesterday. When she heard the creaking sound of the cages closing them at night, she felt a chill run down her spine. She hurriedly got up to take a look. Then, she saw the two dogs pretending to be asleep, however, there were deep teeth marks on the cages!

When she thought about the possibility of such things running out of the cages at night, she was extremely terrified. Even though they looked so small, they could already chew through a metal cage. That meant that they were not far from biting people, right?

In fact, she had planned to go to the lord this afternoon to apply to get rid of that batch of dangerous creatures. However, she did not expect to see such a scene. She was instantly curious and hurriedly waved her hand, "Muay Thai student, here..."

"Eh? The teacher is here too." The green spirit player smiled warmly and slowly walked over, the few dogs behind her obediently followed behind her, not daring to take a step forward. They were completely different from the two beasts that were like wild horses that had been pulled out of their reins earlier, which made her click her tongue in wonder!

“Student, these dogs of yours are...”

“Oh...”the player sat back down and smiled. “Classmates don’t know how to train dogs. I heard that the dorms were gnawed away. I happen to know a little, so I asked for it.”

“Good training. How did you do it?”

“Listen to you, teacher. Communicate well!”The player said with a smile.

“Is that so...”the corner of Vivian’s eyes twitched. She had used these words to brush off the students two days ago. She did not expect them to be returned in just two days.

However, there was nothing she could do. She really could not find a way. She was a level four listening spell, but she could not understand what these dead dogs usually said. She had a vague feeling that these dogs’ backgrounds were not simple, this was also the reason why she had decided to apply to the lord this afternoon to get rid of them. At the very least, she could not let the newly transformed students keep them. It was too dangerous.

However, the scene before her made her doubt her judgment. She was about to ask again when another voice came from outside. “Hey, Big Brother, there you are. It’s so easy to find you!”

Vivian looked up. She knew this person too. He was one of the newest green spirits: warning for the rest of his life.

“Big Brother, How’s My Dog Training Going?”The player jogged over and asked politely.

“Oh... it’s almost done. I can take him back today.”The player of the famous Muay Thai style nodded lightly with a big boss-like demeanor.

“Oh, is that so?”When the player heard this, he moved closer to one of the dogs. However, he saw that the dog was like a normal pug dog. It quickly moved closer and rubbed against the leg of the player’s pants. Looking at it, Vivian’s jaw almost dropped to the ground.

“Aiya, Big Brother, that’s amazing. How did you do it?”The player immediately worshipped him!

Muay Thai: “The most important thing is to communicate more.”

“I’ve communicated. It’s useless. The listening skill that the teacher taught me is useless. I can’t understand what they’re saying, and they can’t understand what I’m saying either...”

Vivian’s face instantly darkened. To say that what she taught was useless in front of the teacher, wasn’t that not very good, classmate?

“No, no, no, no...”Muay Thai shook his head. “You’re wrong. The listening skills taught by the teacher are indeed useless. We really don’t understand what they’re saying, but according to my observation, these dogs can understand what we’re saying.”

Vivian’s pupils contracted slightly. She did not care that the other party continued to repeat the useless words that she had taught, but paid attention to his last sentence. In fact, she also had this vague feeling. Sometimes, the eyes of these star-swallowing dogs did not give her the feeling that they were in their infancy. They were... ! Very Smart!

This was also the most fundamental reason why she felt that these creatures were dangerous. This student had sharp observation skills. Was he not afraid after knowing this?

"Then it can understand what I'm saying. Why doesn't it listen to what I say?" The rest of her life was instantly dumbfounded.

Muay Thai: "I look down on you."

Yu Sheng: "..."

"Classmate... Your words are a little piercing..." Virien couldn't help but cover her head.

"It's really a teacher!" Muay Thai quickly said, "My dad said that if you want to tame those smart things, you must establish your dignity. Don't let them look down on you. Otherwise, it will become more difficult to teach them."

"Then... how do you establish your dignity?" Virien said in a daze.

"Beat them... What's more powerful than beating them?"

It turned out that it was the result of beating them. This method was not advocated in the beast taming world. Virien coughed lightly and said, "Classmate, this method may lead to the beast taming to take revenge when they grow up."

"Revenge?" Muay Thai turned around and looked at the dogs. "Will it?"

The dogs shook their heads desperately. "WUUUUUU!"

Merlin: "..."

"But brother, I've tried. These dogs are very wild. They dare to move their mouths when I make a move, and they even bite me!"

Muay Thai rolled his eyes at him and said, "If they bite you, then beat them to death. You can't even beat such a small dog?"

"I can beat them..." Yu Sheng frowned and said, "But they are so small. What if I beat them to death too hard?"

"Don't worry. I've tried it before. This group of people who need to be taught a lesson are very tough. They can't be killed easily, and..." At this point, Muay Thai glanced at the dogs. "So what if they're killed? What's the use of keeping the dog that bit its owner?"

The dogs' eyes were filled with fear, and they all lied on the ground and pretended to be obedient.

"Big Brother, I understand!" The player's face suddenly brightened. He said to his dog, "Wangcai, we..." he seemed to feel that his tone was a little too gentle, immediately after, his expression stiffened as he said fiercely, "Damn dog, what are you still standing there for? Why aren't you leaving?"

"Woof Woof Woof Woof..." upon seeing this, the star swallowing dog from Wangcai hurriedly ran towards its master as if it had been relieved of a heavy burden. It rubbed its legs and pretended to be obedient, causing Virien's eyelids to twitch wildly behind him.

“Remember the details that I taught you!” Muay Thai instructed.

“I understand, Big Brother. Before I leave, the dog must leave. I can only eat meat and dogs can only eat bones. If I can only eat bones, then dogs can only eat shit, right, Big Brother?”

“Mm... that’s about it...” Muay Thai nodded in satisfaction.

When Wang Cai heard this, he obediently hid behind his master and wagged his tail, looking very obedient.

The other dogs gathered together and looked at the back of the man and the dog as they left, muttering.

One of the black and white dogs said to the one in the middle: “The main idea was: boss, sixth brother has fallen. Look, he actually has no bottom line to kneel down to such a low-level creature!”

The one in the middle lowered its head and muttered, “It’s just a strategic surrender, but we’ve wronged it. We also have to learn a bit, so that we can get out of the current predicament and return to our original owner...” ... Bah It turned out that the stupid consecrator’s side informed the brothers and sisters behind them not to act too ostentatiously and keep a low profile. When the passage is opened and the Lord Watcher arrives, we will definitely be able to get back the humiliation we suffered in the past two days by a hundred or a thousand times. We will temporarily suffer some grievances, all for the glory of the Void clan

“Here you go, little brother. Here’s the bone you asked for!” Boss crab smiled and took out a big tube bone. “Or do you want to give it to them like yesterday?”

“Um...” Muay Thai nodded slightly. “They did well today. I Won’t give this bone twice. Just throw it at them.”

“Woof! ! Boss, did you hear that? A whole bone! !”

“What a loser. Listen, I’m the boss. The bone marrow must be mine! ! !”

Chapter 72: Dungeon Run, Dungeon Run

Welcome player: G, you’re too beautiful to return. Your points are less than 100. I suggest you carry more bricks in case you need them!

I’m hot. My points are gone again. Why do I feel like I’m getting further and further away from that silver scale breastplate from the blacksmith’s shop!

Pu Yunchuan grumbled in his heart. He stretched lazily and sat up from the bed in the dormitory. His points were really too insufficient now, they needed points for applying for classes, points for training attributes, and even needed to pay for renting a multi-purpose classroom for this mission’s training. This production team was obviously squeezing their points to force them to move bricks. This dog ploy... ! It was really too much!

He did not dare to look at the new products from the canteen, blacksmith shop, and tailor shop. He knew that he would not be able to afford the things inside even if he looked at them. Not only did he sigh in his heart, "When will this moving of bricks end?"

BoxNovel.com

After thinking for a while, he adjusted his stats: Player G, you are too beautiful, race: Green Titan, health level: Level 2, class: miner part-time warrior, accumulated points: 86.

Stats panel: Strength 3.8, agility 1.2, spirit, 0.5, vitality: 4.6.

His vitality had improved again. Pu Yunchuan was slightly gratified when he saw this stat. Two days ago, emperor of the liver and the others had suddenly disappeared. The data on the leaderboard had not changed in the past few days. Now, they had fallen to fifth place, while he had improved by leaps and bounds, his basic stats were now second only to the little fairy with athlete's Foot!

However, he did not know whether it was an illusion or not. These few days, as his attributes increased, he felt that his vitality in real life had slowly improved. He did not even need to breathe when he went up the stairs, and he was even more energetic when he twisted the bottle of drinks. He actually did not even need to get up at night!

As expected... . RPG games were more friendly to the prostate than nurturing games.

Dear players, you have participated in the rescue mission initiated by the Lord, two hours from the start of the mission, please go to the multi-functional training room on standby!

Wait for me! Pu Yunchuan rolled his eyes, there is no time to move two hours of bricks?

Before the task please keep good condition, has already restricted the player your work application!

"Labor..."

"How come?" Rain woman no melon looked at the late Pu Yunchuan can not help but frown.

Pu Yunchuan rushed to the meeting place, but found a group of people had been ready, suddenly mouth corner a corner, thought: really motherly spirit, it is only six o'clock in the morning!

"Attention everyone, let me tell you the details of the mission!" Rainless melon coughed lightly and said sternly when she saw that everyone had arrived, "The source of this mission is planned for three days. Please note that there are no log-off points during the mission period. I'll say it again, there are no log-off points during the mission period. If there is something urgent that is inconvenient to mention now, we still have time to change the candidates!"

All the players immediately stood at attention. None of them had any intention of quitting. This was a rare opportunity, and there were thousands of players who were eager to go on quests. Of course, they would not miss this opportunity.

After receiving the news that they had skipped work, they had skipped class. As for the reason for asking for leave? Did they need a reason to ask for leave? Weren't they all reasons for going to the southwest to escape the summer heat in the summer, returning to the south to spend the winter in the winter if the winter was too cold in the winter, and going home to pinch pork when the pigs had grown up?

How could work be more important than the game?

But the only worry was... .. Would he die suddenly after three days in a row.

Someone bravely raised this question.

Rainless nudged her goofy glasses and said seriously, "The game studio has already communicated with me about this. This game uses the latest deep hypnosis technology, which can relax the brain while also allowing the body to have a deep sleep-like rest. I'm sure you've felt it yourself. Usually, the game lasts more than ten or twenty hours, but it's actually not that tiring after logging off, is it?"

Eh... .. That sounded like it... .. All the players thought so.

Player A: I Knew It! Last time, I carried bricks for two days in the game and sent water for eight hours after I went offline, but nothing happened!

Player B: Wow, Big Boss Rain Girl, you can even directly contact the studio? Worship Big Boss!

Player C: as expected of Big Boss Brainiac. It seems that the graduation job has been reserved. He is one of the dog masterminds of this game studio, right?

Player D: Are you kidding? He is a genius. Of course, he is following the path of the technology department. Big Brother, please take a photo. After this, we have also gone through dungeons together. We are the four pillars of life!

Pu Yunchuan was stunned... .. The four pillars of life: ? Does that include going through dungeons together?

That's right. His grandfather's generation was wiped out. There were three pillars of life and one was missing.

"But, didn't brother dog almost die from sudden death?" Someone asked doubtfully.

Rainmaiden Wu Gua: "Ahem...". "... he logged in and logged out too frequently, so I'm warning all players, please arrange your normal log-in and log-out times properly. Frequent logging-in and logging-out in virtual reality games is already too taxing on the body. It's not only this game that has this BUG."

Player A: Wow, did you hear that? The Boss said that this was a game. It seemed like the job was really booked.

All the players: The Boss is awesome!

Rainless melon did not deny the rumors. After all, their guess was not biased. She was indeed an insider. In fact, everyone here was an insider. It was just that I was in charge of fooling you and you guys were in charge of carrying bricks.

"Now let's talk about grouping. There are a total of forty people on this mission. They are divided into five groups. Each group has three members: one developer, three Green Titan (one weapon warrior, one berserker), one Elf Archer, one Elf Ranger, one guardian or shadow, one stone spirit or wood spirit."

“Each of you will be equipped with a special communication device and a virtual map. Your weapons and equipment will be provided by the boss of the blacksmith shop, da Bao. “Storm spirits will be provided and the rent will be charged by the hour. Please take good care of the high-quality weapons in your hands. Once they are lost or damaged, your pitiful points will not be able to compensate you...”.

The players:“...”

“The mission here is divided into five groups to enter five different cities. Simulate the scene of the D Ball South African plague. The mission target is the human vaccine that has already been produced. Send it safely to the medical centers of the major cities and help extract the serum to complete the mission. After the mission is completed, points will be awarded according to the performance of the members of each group!”

“Developers, please take note. If a teammate dies, please immediately use the Lord to rent your interspatial ring to retrieve the corpse. If there is no time, immediately destroy it! !”

The Green Titan players were stunned, thinking to themselves, “Damn, why do we need to retrieve the corpse?”? We’re not elves.

Rain girl saw everyone’s confusion and immediately explained, “Retrieve the corpse. If it’s handled properly, everyone can revive perfectly. They won’t have to start all over again just because their bodies are damaged.”

“Oh, I see! !”All the players nodded, but only one group of developers had a strange expression on their faces.

“Members of the other group, please take note. Our Group has a temporary mission in addition to the basic mission!”

“What temporary mission?”The other members of the first group were stunned.

Rainmaiden, no melon: “It’s to support the three idiot players who trespassed into the mission, emperor liver, Brother Dog, and Grandpa Lu!”

In their hearts, they were praying that the three idiot players would not be captured by some force to be studied, or else their mission would be really troublesome!

The players who did not know what was going on started discussing when they heard this.

[oh, I was wondering where these three big shots went these past few days. So they entered the dungeon without permission!]

-LSB- damn, so it can be like thAs. as expected of a high-level playlf.lif i had known earliir, i would have gone with them that dTheythey said that they were going to the septic tank to search for treasurl. i thought they were crazy.]

[septic tank? I knew it. When I went to the septic tank to explore that day, I said that the glowing passage was the dungeon passage. You guys didn’t believe me! ! !]

Really? The players were instantly tempted.

“It’s fake!” Rainless Melon’s face was full of black lines. “That’s just a septic tank. The glowing passage is a fecal converter. I say, don’t imagine strange things in your minds, okay? No matter how evil the planning team is, they wouldn’t put the dungeon passage in the septic tank, right?”

[Wow, Big Boss has spoken. Is it believable?]

Rainless melon: “Are you guys going to start the dungeon or not?”

“We’re going to start the dungeon!” The players quickly said, “We’re just waiting for your order, Big Boss. Start the dungeon!”

73: Chapter 73: Cooperation!

At night, the emperor of the liver and the others were arranged to stay in the same room. The room was moved out by the workers, and there was only one bed. The original plan was for them to make three dozen bunks on the floor, and the girl they saved would sleep on the bed... However, the girl held on tightly to the emperor of the liver and refused to let go. She looked like she depended on him for everything. In the end, there was no choice but to let her grandfather sleep on the bed...

Late at night, it was already four to five in the morning. The emperor of the liver, who was extremely tired, could not fall asleep no matter what.

These two men and one woman slept on the floor. The other one fell asleep while snoring. The woman next to her intentionally or unintentionally teased her. This development, this development, did it have to be so exciting?

A dog ploy. If this goes on, you can’t blame this emperor for being 404! !

So I fell for this trick? The female ninja smiled secretly, wondering if she should tempt them. If she could gain their trust, it didn’t seem like it was impossible. Suddenly, a faint voice sounded, “What are you trying to do?”

Emperor liver suddenly... “...”. He looked up and saw a green spiral object in the darkness. Its eyes were as bright as cat’s eye stones, staring at the two of them like a ghost.

“Damn, why aren’t you asleep yet?” The emperor of the liver’s anger instantly disappeared without a trace as if he had poured a bucket of ice water on it!

“I can’t sleep, I just want to see what a beast like you wants to do. You’re still a child!” Grandpa Lu said righteously!

The emperor of the liver was instantly speechless...

The female ninja secretly heaved a sigh of relief. Fortunately, she was interrupted.

Sparse...

“What’s that sound?”The liver emperor frowned.

“Don’t change the topic!”Grandpa Lu stared at the sound for a whole night. He had finally succeeded in catching the chicken, so how could he let it go? Just when he was about to let it go for an hour or two, he suddenly heard the sound.

It felt like a lot of bugs were crawling, which made him very uncomfortable. It gave Grandpa Lu Goosebumps on his smooth surface!

“What the hell am I going to do?”Grandpa Lu immediately shrank back.

“MOTHERF * cker, are you pretending to be asleep too?”Emperor liver immediately said.

Brother Dog ignored him and focused his attention on the door. He could feel that the sound was so fast!

Boom! !

Suddenly, the wooden door shattered and a black shadow suddenly jumped in.

Brother Dog’s reaction was fast. Almost instantly, all the muscles in his body bulged, and the cement ground on the spot instantly sank. He charged at his opponent like a cannonball!

Brother Dog was faster, and his opponent was even faster. The black shadow nimbly dodged Brother Dog’s pounce, and its body moved around the ceiling and walls of the room in a ghostly manner.

“What the Hell Is This? A big cockroach?”Grandpa Lu was so scared that he directly hid behind the liver emperor.

What kind of speed was this? The female ninja also stuck close to the liver emperor. She couldn’t see the other party’s trajectory at all. She thought to herself, “I’m afraid even my captain doesn’t have this speed, right?”?

The liver emperor spread his arms and protected Grandpa Lu and the other girls like a hen. He kept staring at the black shadow with a serious expression. Grandpa Lu couldn’t see it clearly, but he could vaguely see it. That... .. It seemed to be a person!

“TSK! !”The black shadow kept scurrying around. Seeing that it couldn’t avoid the other party’s sight, it let out a ‘tsk’and suddenly darted out of the window!

Seeing this, Brother Dog also broke out of the wall. The loud noise startled everyone in the factory. They all turned on the lights and complained. However, when they opened the window and saw the situation outside, they all turned off the lights and shut the windows. They were shivering in the corner of the window!

They saw that outside the factory, they were surrounded by a group of blue giants. Under the moonlight, they could see clearly that those giants had green faces and sharp teeth. They were extremely ferocious, like evil ghosts. At a glance, it was obvious that they were not good people, old Zhang was also hiding at the foot of the wall, trembling as he held his Thomson.

Reality proved that superheroes could not be taken in. After watching so many movies, why did they not learn anything?

Brother Dog broke out of the wall and looked outside with a serious face. Only then did he see clearly under the moonlight what that Black Guy was.

On closer look, he actually looked like a normal human. He had a black popular pigtail tied around his head. He was dark, thin, and had a wretched face. The only difference was that he had two insect-like tentacles on his head.

“Ya’er, Doggie, you were right. You really brought the monster here!” Emperor liver, who had followed him out, also felt that the situation was a little serious!

He was actually here? ! The female ninja looked at the black man from afar and quickly retreated back into the house. She had seen that look on the organization’s dangerous list. It was the 13th most dangerous person on the global mercenary group’s danger index: Cockroach Man, Mi Hao!

If it was him, that unimaginable speed just now would be understandable!

In the army of extraordinaires, most of them used insect genes. These tiny creatures that were limited by their size could often erupt with extremely terrifying power after gene transplants.

For example, the cockroach man in front of them. Although this kind of creature was disgusting, its explosive power was actually shocking. Many people had seen its explosive power. After a perfect transplant, if it were a human, it could have a terrifying speed of 320 kilometers per hour!

“Oh? Is this the guy who killed Number Six?” Blade observed them through a telescope from afar.

“His body is much smaller. Does that body really have such terrifying strength?” Beside Blade, a man in a suit and a mask said in a hoarse voice!

“We’ll know after we try!” Captain Blade clapped his hands and pressed on the signal device. The eyes of the Giants were emitting a terrifying light that was as cold as ice. The battle was about to start!

“Damn, what are these things?” Grandpa Lu, who had never seen such a mighty giant, was immediately shocked.

Emperor liver: “They are the trash monsters that I told you about before. Your Brother Dog punched them one by one!”

“Oh, that’s Good!” Grandpa Lu immediately felt relieved

“Good my ass!” Brother Dog rolled his eyes. The monster from before was not weak, alright? His jaw was still hurting after taking a punch. It would be a little risky to hit more than ten of them.

“Roar! ! !”

Suddenly, the giant closest to the door roared and rushed in like a war chariot!

“Cover the back, liver! !” Brother Dog roared and also rushed forward!

Boom! !

The blue and Green Giants collided fiercely. A strong wind was sent flying from the flat ground. Immediately, sand and stones flew and the entire factory shook!

The cockroach took advantage of the moment when the two giants were fighting each other to circle behind Brother Dog in a ghostly manner. He pulled out the dagger at his waist and slashed at brother dog's Achilles tendon!

Ding Ding Ding Ding!

Four Sparks flew out. The meter felt that the dagger in his hand was almost blown away. He jumped back to the side of the giant outside and looked at his torn thumb and the gap on the dagger in disbelief!

This was an alloy dagger. were the tendons so hard? What Monster?

Then, she waved at the giant behind her. The other two giants twisted their necks and made cracking sounds. They looked like they were ready to make a move!

You Can't be trapped!

Brother Dog's heart tightened when he saw this. His mind quickly recalled the instructor's practical training. It was like encountering an opponent with equal strength, especially when there were several such opponents. You must not be trapped by one of them, otherwise, if there were more people, one would be crushed. Once the momentum was blocked, one would not have the chance to turn the tables!

Oh! !

Brother Dog roared and his body suddenly pushed forward. The huge force pushed the giant back. In a flash, Brother Dog's right hand, which had already accumulated strength, suddenly poked at the neck of the giant. A cracking sound could be heard, the giant's tibia instantly shattered, and its head instantly collapsed at a strange angle. Its eyes were bloodshot, and it fell to the ground with a bang!

"Just one hit..." even mi hao, who had always despised these giants for being clumsy, was shocked. He was present during the test of this thing, and dozens of grenades were nothing to him.

"Body art! !" A man in a suit who was observing the battle situation through binoculars in the distance said solemnly!

"Ah!" Blade nodded his head with a serious expression. During the test of the tyrant product, regardless of whether it was strength, explosive power, or the degree of control, it was very satisfactory to the people above. The only thing that was lacking was the stiffness of the limbs, the test subjects were all top-notch special forces soldiers. The stiffness of the limbs caused the special forces soldiers to be unable to use the combat arts that they were good at, resulting in a single attack style and extremely inflexible!

At that time, she had suggested that this kind of thing might be invincible on the battlefield, but if they encountered a species of the same level, they would definitely fall into a huge disadvantage!

However, the higher-ups did not care at that time, because the company had never thought that there was a second force in the world that could produce a product that could rival their company!

But they did not expect it to really appear, and the other party had completely overcome the problem that their side could not overcome!

Compared to tyrant, although the giant's body was much smaller, its strength was not inferior to tyrant's, or even stronger. The most important thing was its flexible limbs, and its flexibility was almost not affected at all, it was obvious that its performance was much better than their products!

"How is this possible... which faction did this?" Blade muttered. Then, he put away the night vision goggles in his hand and said coldly to the back, "Have you seen enough? Everyone!"

"TSK TSK, as expected of Lord Blade, the trump card of an extraordinary!" A faint female voice sounded. The space above the tree trunk in the distance distorted, and a petite figure appeared there.

Then, a man in a windbreaker walked out from the forest. It was Takashima, who had escaped previously.

"You found a helper so quickly?" Blade smiled coldly, but she was still very cautious. There were two team leaders, and there might even be a third hidden among them. Even she had no choice but to be cautious.

Could the monster in front of them have been produced by Kagura? What kind of joke was this? Did they have such technology? Why didn't they have any information at all?

"Don't overthink it... We don't have that technology!" Takashima muttered as he lit a cigarette.

"And you know what I'm Thinking?" Blade sneered.

Takashima didn't continue to broach the topic. Instead, he turned his head and pointed behind him. "I saw one lying in the forest just now. TSK TSK, I was beaten up so badly. Speaking of which, your stuff isn't cheap, right?"

"What do you mean?" Blade said coldly.

"I mean, why don't we work together!" Takao said straightforwardly. "There are a total of two green guys inside. How about we split them one by one?"

These words made blade fall silent. The Man in a suit beside him knew that his boss was tempted!

However, it was understandable. The two green giants inside were obviously better than their company's products. If they could capture the samples alive, even if all the tyrants lost here today, boss could make up for it!

As expected... ... After a moment of silence, Blade finally nodded and said, "Alright! !"

74: Chapter 74: arrested

“Wow, one punch at a time. Brother Dog is awesome!” Grandpa Lu heaved a sigh of relief and felt his blood boil. He thought to himself, “What a violent race that men yearn for. Why did I choose an elf with such a cheap hand?”?

However, it was also good. If he didn’t choose an elf, he would be busy moving bricks all day and wouldn’t have time to write a post. If he didn’t write a post, he wouldn’t be able to get his current hidden class. He didn’t know what kind of fighting style this Phoenix would have in the future!

“Huazhong Language?” When the cockroach man Mi Hao heard Grandpa Lu’s cheering expression from afar, he was instantly stunned. He thought to himself, could this thing be produced by the Huazhong Faction?

How is this possible? Does the Huazhong faction have this kind of technology?

BoxNovel.com

Speaking of which, what the hell is that pile of shit thing?

Just as he was thinking about it, another tyrant’s neck was twisted and it fell to the ground. Mi Hao’s eyelids twitched when he saw this. This guy was actually able to kill ten tyrants when they surrounded him. After fighting for half an hour, he didn’t show any signs of physical decline, from the looks of it, the more he fought, the braver he became. Just what kind of monster was this?

No, I can’t continue to watch like this. Otherwise, these tyrant’s might die here today!

Thinking of this, he quickly observed his surroundings and didn’t continue to watch Brother Dog’s battle. He had observed for half an hour just now and also took the opportunity to attack several vulnerable parts of the opponent. There was no effect at all, it seemed that it was impossible to find a flaw in this monster’s body.

With this in mind, he quickly saw the pile of SH * t that had uttered just now...

Perhaps...

Mi Hao was already an old extraordinaire. The appearance of the other party definitely wasn’t as natural as the Kagura Legion’s cultivation. It was definitely a genetic modification.., since it was a genetic modification, they should have implanted a chip in their brain in order to prevent genetic violence. The person who controlled the chip should also be nearby.

Was it him?

Mi Hao looked at Grandpa Lu with a faint light flashing in his eyes.

Grandpa Lu, who was far away, suddenly felt a chill all over his body. He felt an obvious malice attacking him. Without thinking, he quickly moved behind the emperor of the liver. “Big Brother, protect me!”

“Now you know how to Call Me Big Brother?” The emperor of the liver sneered. Suddenly, he stretched out his hand and grabbed the strange speed of Mi Hao!

“What...” Mi Hao’s face was full of disbelief. He couldn’t believe that he was caught like this!

Weren’t these two guys unable to keep up with his speed in the beginning?

“Your eyes have finally gotten used to your speed, this annoying Bug!” Emperor liver sneered.

In the past, when he was practicing spear techniques in the base, the instructor had taught him that sometimes, he would encounter some opponents whose speed was far faster than his. At this time, don't panic and use the breathing technique to slowly calm down. With his awareness of battle.., he would be able to capture the other party.

This saying felt a little like writing about wuxia. At first, Emperor Liver did not believe it, but he did not expect it to really work. Wasn't this game experience a little too good?

“Hey... brother, calm down, let's talk...” mi said with a flustered look.

“Speak Chinese, I don't understand your English!” Emperor liver said fiercely.

“A programming ape can't understand English?” Grandpa Lu said disdainfully.

“Who told you that a programming ape can understand English?” Emperor liver said angrily, “You amateurs are just like those who told us to fix computers. Who said that we programming apes have to speak foreign languages and fix computers?”

Grandpa Lu:”...”

“F * ck you, hurry up and squish him to death to come over and help!” Brother Dog shouted from afar!

Brother Dog was very frustrated with the fight. From the beginning when he had killed one of them with a single punch, these guys became very cautious later on. All of their vitals had shrunk, making it very difficult for him to kill them with a single blow. Without any weapons.., facing this group of tough guys, he was really unable to move!

If he had known earlier, he would have brought weapons. If he had the labor spear in hand, this group of SCUM would have at most ten seconds!

“Alright, Alright, right away, right away!” The emperor of the liver laughed. He had not gone to help just now to prevent this cockroach-like fellow from touching the back row. Although Grandpa Lu's back row did not seem to be of much use for the time being.., but at least he was the one who had tricked him into coming here. He could not let the dog lead him, could he?

Bang!

Just as he was about to close his eyes and crush this cockroach-like fellow who spoke English to death, a dazzling blue light suddenly lit up. The next second, the wrist that he had grabbed onto the cockroach-like fellow suddenly exploded!

Immediately, blood gushed out violently. Emperor liver was stunned for a moment before a sharp pain struck him!

F * ck! ! !

With a single word, the tremors caused the forest hundreds of meters away to tremble. Brother Dog who was in front of him heard the scream and turned around to look. Not only was he stunned, F * ck, how did this guy's hand break?

Mi Hao flipped out from the broken palm and quickly ran in the direction of his teammates!

Seeing this, brother Gou wanted to help, but he was held back by a few tyrants in front of him. He was so angry that he grabbed a tyrant's head and hit it!

At this time, Mi Hao, who had survived the disaster, waved to the distance while running and said, "Well done, electric eel!" Then he didn't forget to turn back and give him a middle finger!

But when he turned back, he found that the Hulk whose hand had been broken had red eyes and was rolling over like a war chariot.

That burst of speed caused mi hao's scalp to go numb. He quickly used all his strength, but he was still closely followed by the other party!

Is this a joke? Running so fast with such a large body?

Mi Hao cried out bitterly in his heart and hurriedly said into the walkie-talkie, "Hey Brother, quickly give him another shot and hit his head! !"

"I really want to..." the man in a suit holding a sniper rifle on the tree frowned. How could he hit him with such speed!

However, wasn't that Guy a little too freakish? His bullets carried a few million volts of electricity, yet they weren't affected at all?

"They're coming!" Blade coldly said to the two Kagura captains behind him. "It's up to you!"

"Okay!" The petite woman stretched her body and slowly walked forward. She wasn't afraid at all when faced with the imposing Emperor Liver, who was like a war chariot. She parried the attack on the spot and made a strange starting position!

"Who is that?" Emperor Liver, who was rushing over, frowned. However, he did not think too much about it. The pain of his broken arm coupled with his opponent's provocation had completely aroused the blood in his genes. As long as he felt enmity.., for a moment, he did not care that his opponent was only a girl who looked like she was in her teens. Without any hesitation, he threw a punch!

Relying on the momentum of his running, Emperor Liver's punch was extremely shocking. Before the punch even reached him, the strong wind had already blown his life in pain!

Faced with this powerful punch, the small woman's pupils constricted, and the veins on her petite arms suddenly bulged. In an instant, they were more than twice as thick as before. She turned her body slightly to avoid the attack, and then her right hand nimbly pulled and blocked, using the opponent's strength, Emperor Liver's entire body was actually sent flying!

"I, Teck!" When the Mi Hao saw this scene, she looked at the small woman with a horrified expression!

Blade narrowed his eyes and muttered, "I've seen it so many times, but I still find it amazing. This oriental body technique!" Then he immediately said to the man in the suit beside him, "Do it!"

The man beside him nodded. Taking advantage of the moment when Emperor Liver fell, the black glove on his hand emitted a faint blue light, and a huge electric current flowed through the glove into the sniper rifle in his hand!

Bang!

With one shot, the spiral bullet strengthened by the electric current instantly shattered the tendon of the liver emperor's right foot!

F * ck...

The liver emperor was instantly angered to the point of cursing. His right hand, which was still intact, propped up on the ground. Just as he was about to get up, he suddenly felt a weight on his back. He saw that the little woman had unknowingly leaped onto his back and stabbed fiercely at his spine, in an instant, the emperor of the liver felt a tingling sensation spread from his back to his entire body. The force exerted by his right hand and left foot disappeared without a trace, and his body fell heavily onto the ground again!

Bang!

There was another gunshot, and the tendons of the emperor of the liver's left foot also shattered!

The emperor of the liver was in extreme pain, but at the same time, his heart skipped a beat. He thought to himself, it's over. I really can't turn over this time!

Blade looked at the emperor of the liver, who was already unable to stand up, and gestured for his subordinates to capture him. Suddenly, countless vines appeared on the ground and bound the emperor of the liver tightly!

Blade was startled when he saw this. He saw a person crawl out from the trunk of a large tree. It felt as if someone had crawled out from the tree while swimming, making him feel strange.

"What do you mean?" A cold glint flashed in Blade's eyes. She recognized that this was the captain of the first team of the Kagura Legion: Divine Tree!

"Don't be nervous, Lord Blade!" The masked man who had crawled out of the tree said in a hoarse voice, "Our Kagura has always kept our promises. However, your company's reputation is relatively mediocre!"

"And then?" Blade said coldly.

"This one belongs to us. On the other hand, we'll leave Captain Springwater behind to help you capture the other one alive. What do you think?"

Blade was slightly silent when he heard that. At this moment, the other party had three captain-level characters. Without the crab on his side, it was hard to say if they were going to fight. Moreover, judging from the monstrous ability displayed by the Hulk just now..., without the help of that short guy, it would indeed be very difficult to capture him alive!

She was also a decisive person. After thinking through the situation, she did not hesitate and directly nodded her head and said coldly, "You guys better not play any more tricks!"

At this moment, the emperor of the liver, who had been hiding in the ground and was about to be wrapped up by the tree vines, weakly looked at the tree vines around him. He not only complained, "Hurry up and let me die and be reborn. F * ck, when I go back and call brother Qi, ...". "See if I don't form a group and beat you up ten times...".

'Aiya... it hurts, it hurts, it hurts.'

75: Chapter 75: players descend!

The Sun Rose, and the rare clear sky was not covered by the gray industrial exhaust. The air became much fresher after the rain, but the mood of the soldiers was completely in inverse proportion to the clear sky.

Each of them had a gloomy face as they cleaned up the battlefield without saying a word. The so-called battlefield was just a small-scale breeding farm. They had received orders last night to launch heavy fire on this place, when they rushed to the battlefield, they realized that this was a civilian factory. Although the order was to kill the unknown organisms here, they did not care about the civilians in the factory, which made many soldiers unable to understand. At this time, cleaning up the corpses in the factory., looking at the horrified expressions on the faces of their compatriots in the ruins, all of them immediately looked away guiltily!

"Is the commander crazy?" A black man cursed. He was one of the two black men whom Grandpa Lu and the others had met before. The other Prado also looked at the ruins with a complicated expression.

However, he did not curse like his teammates. Instead, he appeared to be very silent because he had a vague feeling that this matter was not simple.

BoxNovel.com

With such a level of firepower coverage and the application of a long-range missile, it did not seem like he was going to rescue the antibodies...

Moreover, he did not see the so-called unknown creatures. The ones who died were all his weaker compatriots. Thinking of this, he silently helped his teammates pull those compatriots out of the ruins. Many of them had already been burned to ashes, they were completely unrecognizable, but at least he could not let them rot.

Suddenly, Prado's stiff face, which had been digging the ruins, suddenly shook. He then carefully looked around. Seeing that no one was paying attention to this place, he hurriedly used a piece of charred wood to cover what he saw in front of him!

Then, he said to the black man who was closest to him, "Hey Brother, you go over there and help. I can come here alone."

The Brawny man was stunned for a moment before he nodded. He did not want to continue looking at the bodies of his compatriots. It would be good to have someone to do it for him.

After his companions had gone far away, Prado carefully opened up the wooden board from before and looked at the person who was curled up in the corner of the ruins.

It was the little girl that the nun had asked for their help from before. Moreover, she was still alive!

The little girl looked at Prado in horror as she hugged the unconscious Grandpa Lu tightly. At this moment, Grandpa Lu was much smaller than before. He was only the size of a basketball, but his shape was still spiral-shaped.

“Shhh...”Prado made a gesture to the little girl to keep quiet. The little girl also recognized that he was the person that the nun had asked for help from before, and immediately nodded like a chick pecking at rice.

Grandpa Lu seemed to have sensed something. He weakly raised his eyelids and glanced at Prado, then slowly closed his eyes again!

He was very sleepy now, so sleepy that he wanted to sleep himself to death. He only remembered that last night, Emperor Liver’s wrist was broken by an unknown attack. He rushed out in a fluster and never came back, then with a group of unknown people to join the battle, surrounded by the tyrant of the dog brother also fell into a bitter battle!

And then a million missiles come down, and the girl gets stabbed in the back, and then what happens...
... It doesn’t remember...

It’s like... . Vaguely remember, I finally flew up... ..

Sigh, I’m so sleepy. Who cares? If the mission fails, so be it. At worst, I’ll just start all over again. I really can’t stand it...

“Hey, soldier, how are things over there? Are there any survivors?”A black soldier with the rank of second lieutenant shouted at Prado from afar.

Prado shrugged when he heard that. “Sir, how can there be any survivors in this situation...”

As soon as he finished speaking, a face-smacking scene appeared. An old man suddenly emerged from the ruins a few meters away, and was immediately pointed at by four or five soldiers.

The old man hurriedly said, “Don’t shoot, I’m a Chinese, I’m a Chinese! !”

“Sir...”the soldiers below looked back at their captain with hesitation.

The second lieutenant hesitated as well. The Huazhong people had a high status in the world. If they were dug up and killed by their army, it would be a major diplomatic incident.

Thinking of this, he ordered, “Lock them up first. Wait for me to ask the General!”

“Yes, Sir!”

After giving the order, the second lieutenant looked at Prado. “See, soldier? Nothing is impossible. You must check carefully!”

“Yes, Sir!”Prado quickly bowed with an expression of “I’m sorry, sir!”Prado nodded in satisfaction and turned to leave.

After Prado left, he began to think about how to move the little girl away safely!

That's right. He had no intention of reporting this matter to the higher-ups. He could already tell that there was definitely something wrong with that general!

His actions along the way were too strange. First, he didn't announce the matter of the antibodies. Then, after suffering heavy losses, he didn't report it to the higher-ups. He also didn't have any intention of requesting for assistance along the way, as if he was afraid that others would find out!

After that, the infamous Kagura Legion joined him. In addition to this public massacre, he was almost certain that there was something wrong with this general! !

Even if he didn't accidentally find this little girl this time, he had actually planned to find an opportunity to leave the team and report her to the headquarters. Now that the antibodies were lucky enough to survive, he didn't dare let that fat general find out! He had to personally escort her to Wakanda!

"Behave yourself! !" A few soldiers not far away said fiercely to old Zhang.

Prado looked at the other party with pity. He had already guessed the fate of this Huazhong Old Man, but he could not help him. The most important thing now was that the antibody could not be lost.

Thinking of this, he put aside the old man's begging expression and said to the few soldiers, "You guys take him out. I'll clean up the back..."

"Well..." the soldiers looked at each other. Most of them were familiar with Prado and nodded after a moment of hesitation. After all, no one wanted to stay in this place where they had committed crimes for even a second longer.

"Captain!" Inside the general's tent, the fat black general looked humbly at the people in the tent. Three captains and a bunch of ninjas. This was the first time she had seen this lineup since she joined the organization.

"If we go back on our words and plot against Blade's group, will the extraordinary Army take revenge crazily?" The one who spoke was Takashima. It was obvious that he did not agree with the plan behind it.

The bald divine tree sneered and said hoarsely, "We did not go back on our words, Takashima-kun. We did leave Captain Springwater behind to help him subdue the Giants. Furthermore, the ones who released the missiles were the military forces of Wakanda. What does that have to do with us?"

Takashima:"..."

The short captain, Springwater, frowned and said, "Unfortunately, the other Green Giant was retrieved by them in the end."

"It can still be retrieved under that kind of firepower..." divine tree also frowned.

Springwater shook his head and said, "It's not like that. Under normal circumstances, when the second wave of missiles came, Blade had already planned to give up on retrieving them. But for some reason, something seems to have neutralized that wave of missile attacks!"

"Neutralized missiles?" Shen Mu's eyelids twitched, and he hurriedly asked, "Did you see what it was?"

"It seems... to be a bird..." spring water said somewhat uncertainly.

"Bird?" Shen Mu was somewhat stunned.

"You can ask the little sister beside Takao..." spring water smiled and said, "I remember that bird flew over from her."

The female ninja next to Takashima heard the words immediately pale back a step, Takashima is holding her face to comfort: "Don't be afraid... . Say, what is the situation?"

"Well... . So, um... "I didn't expect it either!" The girl said with a sobbing tone. "I just saw Captain Springwater dealing with the Hulk and thought that captain said this kind of genetic product usually has a controller, so I wanted to help "...". "I thought that strange-shaped thing was a controller." "..."

"Strange-shaped... like what?" Kamiki asked.

"Like SH * T..." The female ninja replied weakly.

Everyone: "..."

"Cough..." Takashima coughed lightly. "That's not important. The important thing is, are you sure that it was that thing that neutralized the missile?"

"Yes..." the female ninja nodded, after I ambushed it, its entire body exploded with mist. Then, it transformed into a Firebird and flew into the sky. To be honest, if it hadn't neutralized that wave of missiles, I might not have been able to react in time and die from the explosion!

After saying that, it lowered its head with a complicated expression. No one knew what it was thinking. Takashima, who was at the side, caressed her beautiful hair lovingly.

Meanwhile, divine tree had a solemn expression on his face. "...". He had actually developed a biological weapon that could neutralize missiles. What kind of joke was this. This bunch of SH * t was always flaunting their humanity. Heh... "... !"! They were indeed hypocritical!

"If that sample can be recovered..." divine tree muttered.

Suddenly, someone outside reported, "General!"

The fat general frowned and said, "Come in!"

When the soldier came in and saw such a large group of yellow-skinned people, he was momentarily stunned.

"Speak!" The fat general said impatiently.

In order to prevent the Beyonder Army from taking revenge on him, he was about to give up his identity. He had already applied for it. After he dealt with Prado's tails, he would return to the organization.

Ten Years... She was tired of staying in this damned place and was too lazy to explain. Since she had to deal with the tails, she would deal with one as well as two. There was no difference to her.

The soldier gulped and said in a daze, "Outside... that old man from Huazhong was saved by someone!"

“What?”The ninjas were shocked!

“What’s the situation?”The fat general quickly asked.

“A group of... Very Strange People!”The soldier reported, “They can... speak tribal language, and they requested to see you, General!”

Everyone:” ...”

76: Chapter 76: Is This... The Huazhong Dragon Group?

“Hey, uncle, tell me more... about that Hulk and the reincarnators!”Beside the river, a girl wearing goggles asked with a smile as she bent old Zhang’s arm.

The cute and playful girl next door looked like she had just grown up, but old Zhang could not relax at all because a group of strange-looking guys beside him told him that this little girl was not an ordinary person!

Not only was old Zhang Stiff and did not dare to move, but the soldiers with guns were also nervous and did not dare to move. If one looked carefully, they would discover that the guns in the hands of the hundreds of soldiers had all been neatly cut off. and the most important thing was.., no one could see clearly how these people did it!

Just the two hulks from before were enough to shock them. Now, there were three of them and a large group of other people who looked inexplicable. Was this the real-life version of the Avenger Alliance?

BoxNovel.com

“F * ck! There’s also a crocodile. You Scared Me!”A Hulk walked over from the riverside while cursing. He swung the unknown organization in his hand with a sinister expression.

The bespectacled girl rolled her eyes at her. “What are you doing? I’m asking a question...”

“ER... Hehe!”The female giant smiled embarrassedly. “I didn’t mean to do it, raindrop. I was just playing with water out of boredom. Suddenly, a crocodile jumped out and tried to bite me. I was so scared that I slapped it to death!”

In the distance, the members of the Kagura Legion were using binoculars to observe these people from afar, takashima said coldly, “Let’s retreat quickly. It seems that the people from central China must have realized that something happened to their members as well. We need to retreat before they track us down!”

However, the short, ponytailed captain spring water didn’t think so. She was very confident that she had successfully captured the two hulks, so she suggested, “How about... another round?”

Takashima frowned. “It’s too risky. There are quite a few people there!”

“We have quite a few people too!” Spring water said coldly. “Moreover, this is a good opportunity. In the past few hundred years, there has never been an extraordinary human in Huazhong who made a sound internationally. I didn’t expect them to be so well-hidden. It’s not easy for them to show their faces this time. If we don’t take this opportunity to capture a few more samples to study, how are we going to deal with them in the future?”

“Captain Springwater is right!” Kamiki agreed. “Previously, the performance of the Hulk was too outstanding. It’s very likely that Huazhong has grasped even more advanced genetic technology than North America. Only now are we being discovered that we are already on the defensive, especially that species that can cancel out missiles...” “...” “This country is so ambitious to create such a terrifying thing without making a sound. I also suggest that we capture more samples so that the higher-ups can be prepared!”

“But...” Takashima frowned. “We might not be able to defeat them!”

Spring water frowned. She had always disliked Takashima’s overly steady style. How could he achieve great things by making a fuss first? She really didn’t know why the previous captain of the 4th Division would recommend him as the new captain.

As the old captain, Shen Mu understood Takashima better. He also admired Takashima’s steadiness. This was also why the organization trusted him with the task of training new members. Moreover, the other party’s concerns weren’t unreasonable. If they couldn’t defeat him..., perhaps the specimen they had just captured would have to be handed back.

Thinking of this, divine tree said, “Takashima’s concerns are reasonable. For the sake of safety, I’ll stay here and guard the specimen. You guys lead a team to test it out. If there’s a chance, capture them alive, even if it means killing them and bringing back their corpses. Other than the three of us captains, the rest here are all experienced ninjas. If we can’t defeat them, at least we’ll be able to escape unscathed. What do you think, Captain Takashima?”

Takao hesitated for a moment before finally nodding. Indeed... “...”. It would be best if there was a chance to obtain more samples. Huazhong had indeed hidden himself too deeply. Now that he had fallen into a passive position, it would be impossible for him not to take some risks if he wanted to turn the situation around and gain the upper hand!

Just as the few of them were discussing how to attack the others, Te Ren, who was in charge of observing the group through the binoculars, suddenly trembled.

Shen Mu, who was standing by the side, was keenly aware that something was wrong with him. He frowned and asked, “What’s Wrong?”

“That woman and the one with wings...” the subordinate hesitated for a moment before saying, “She’s... So Beautiful!”

The group of ninjas:” ...”

Chun Shui said with a sinister tone, “You mean to say that your captain, I . . . Am Not Beautiful?”

“Pretty, of course I’m Pretty!” The team member was very tactful and quickly laughed. However, he was suddenly stunned and his expression immediately froze.

“What’s Wrong Now?” Spring water frowned. “Did that beauty surprise you again?”

“No...” the subordinate’s voice became serious. “That woman... seems to be looking at us!”

“What a joke!” Spring water frowned. “She’s a few kilometers away!” As he said that, he grabbed the binoculars and looked up. He was immediately stunned!

“What’s Wrong?” When Divine Tree saw Spring Water’s expression, he immediately felt that something had happened and hurriedly asked.

“She’s gone... they...” Spring water said incredulously.

“Oh no!” Divine Tree was immediately alarmed. He waved his hand and said, “Retreat!”

Just as he took a step back, he felt his neck being blocked by an icy cold object. Shen Mu was shocked! !

Although he was a ninja who specialized in the mystical escape technique and not like Chun Shui and the others who specialized in physical techniques, he was still a ninja. It was a little too exaggerated for him to not notice that the knife was pressed against his neck?

“Yo, isn’t this the simulated Africa? Why are there a bunch of Japanese here?” The woman laughed lightly. Her voice was as clear and pleasant as a oriole.

However, the ninjas felt a chill in their hearts. When did the other party come over? None of the ninjas present felt anything. If the other party had attacked directly, who would have been able to react?

Spring water’s eyes also flashed with a cold glint as she thought to herself, “This fellow can not be left alive! !”!

“Little girl... You’re being too arrogant!” Divine Tree’s voice was hoarse, but there was still lingering fear in his heart. If the other party had attacked directly just now, he might have really died here!

Ninjutsu: substitution technique!

“Eh?” The Elf player holding the dagger was stunned. When he saw the living person in his hand turn into a piece of wood, he said in astonishment, “Damn, even this can be done. Fire Shadow?”

Attack!

Spring water was drunk!

The muscles on the legs of the surrounding special ninjas instantly bulged. Just as they were about to move, a few cold lights flashed by. The special ninjas could faintly feel a chill assaulting them. Then, their pupils constricted, and they instantly felt that the world had slowed down, and then, they strangely saw their own bodies!

When Chun Shui saw this, she revealed a look of shock and scurried backward like a rabbit!

Was this a joke? What kind of speed was that?

As the person with the best physical skills in the organization, she actually couldn’t see the trajectory at all. Even that cockroach from the extraordinary army couldn’t do it, right?

In the blink of an eye, the seven special ninjas of their team, nearly half of the organization's strength, were instantly beheaded!

And it was only one person under the noses of their three team leaders! !

At this moment, the three of them no longer had any thoughts of snatching the samples. All they wanted to do was to retreat quickly! !

"Retreat!" The divine tree shouted loudly. Countless vines on the ground suddenly pierced through the soil, raising a cloud of dust in an attempt to cover Takashima and Chunshui's retreat. However, Takashima, who was closest to them, realized that the divine tree's wooden shield could not affect the opponent's rhythm at all, it was as if the opponent had eyes on the soles of her feet. Every time, she managed to dodge the vines that came out from the earth perfectly. Moreover, the dust in the air did not seem to affect her steps in chasing after him. She seemed to be able to capture him!

Takashima tried his best to retreat, but he realized that the opponent was still faster than him despite the interference. In just a few seconds, she had already cut to his side. It was only then that Takashima could clearly see that the opponent had her eyes closed!

Then how did she catch his movements?

Sound?

That was impossible. He had practiced his footsteps for so many years. Even if he stepped on a withered leaf, there would be no sound. Moreover, the divine tree's cover had caused the surrounding sounds to become so chaotic. How could he possibly hear his footsteps?

Then how did she catch him?

Takashima did not have time to investigate. The other party had already arrived in front of him. Takashima had no choice but to counterattack. The muscles on his hands expanded and immediately transformed into the deformed hands that he had when he fought with the blade. With his experience of hundreds of battles., his eyes couldn't keep up with the opponent's speed, but he still relied on his accurate prediction to suddenly grab at the opponent.

But in that instant, the incomparably handsome young lady's figure suddenly stopped. That astonishing speed and that fast inertia instantly stopped, causing Takashima's eyelids to Twitch!

This was no longer just speed!

[agility] was a term that often appeared in the game, but in reality, there was also such a saying. The so-called agility did not refer to speed, but to the control between the fastest speed and zero speed, this was definitely not something that could be achieved through simple modifications, it had to go through a lot of tempering!

Takao instantly understood that with just this terrifying agility, his group of people today had not suffered unjustly!

As expected, after the other party accurately judged the position of his attack, they instantly stopped and dodged his attack. At that instant, they exerted their strength and instantly moved behind him in a trajectory that he could not see clearly.

In an instant, Takashima's body stiffened. Just like the special ninjas under him, his nerves were completely unable to react!

Takashima's expression was complicated. He had never thought that one day he would die so defenceless!

The moment his head fell, he saw it. At that moment, it was as if the entire world was slowing down. He had finally seen the beautiful girl who had killed him clearly.

Ah... .. It was just as that Brat Fuchuan had said. She was really beautiful... ..

However, she still had her eyes closed. The sharp dagger in her hand did not have a single trace of blood. At that moment, the girl was no longer paying attention to him. Instead, she lowered her head as if she was listening to something. Suddenly, Takashima saw.., a strange gust of wind flashed through the sand on the left, and the girl's beautiful lips curled up slightly. In the next second, she disappeared on the spot!

So... she was able to track me by that?

Just by relying on the abnormal speed of the air flow, she was able to catch the enemy?

This is... The Huazhong Dragon Group?

Takashima's head that had fallen to the ground smiled bitterly. So that's how it was. No wonder captain was so strong but couldn't come back. So she was facing this kind of thing?

I'm sorry, Captain... .. You said to marry your daughter to me... .. I think.. .. I Can't wait for her to grow up!

Chapter 77: 77: Danger is approaching

On the other side, when Chun Shui saw the girl chasing after the High Island, she decisively fled in the opposite direction. She completely forgot about the words that she had said to capture the specimen in the beginning!

What a joke. Just one person had nearly wiped them out. How was she supposed to capture it? She might not be able to keep the specimen of the divine tree. She had to at least bring the news back alive. She had to tell the higher-ups that Hua Zhong had secretly prepared something terrifying!

But just as she was about to escape the forest, she suddenly saw a green-skinned hunk squatting beside a large tree!

"Yo, twin ponytails!"The hulk was carrying a large spear, he slowly stood up. "I can't bear to do this. However, Big Boss Rain said that your heads cost 500 points each. Even a Loli would only be able to cheat you once!"

BoxNovel.com

"Divine tree..."spring water looked ahead in a daze, behind the big man, the divine tree whose half of its body had turned into a tree had its chest almost shattered into pieces. It was completely hollow and hung there. It was obvious that it was already dead, meanwhile, the Hulk that they had previously captured alive had already been rescued.

Emperor liver looked at the woman weakly. A vicious expression appeared on his face. "Be careful of this woman. Her methods are very strange."

The other Green Titan laughed when he heard that. "She told you three to act cool and not listen to class, and you came here to open a book?" The instructor said that Titan, who specialized in weapons, had not had the time to learn unarmed combat skills. It would be very disadvantageous if an expert who knew combat skills did not bring any weapons. If those assassin-type elven women in the base fought with their bare hands, they would be able to defeat several of us, but it would be different if they had weapons!"

As he said that, he stretched his back and placed a long spear on the ground. He smiled and said, "Look carefully at the first place. There is a difference between us having weapons and not having weapons!"

Spring water narrowed her eyes and looked at them. She quickly calculated in her heart that she could not retreat in this situation. If she were to retreat and meet that woman from before, she would have even less hope of escaping. This guy in front of her... ! ... It seemed that she could still deal with him!

She had to force a breakthrough! !

Spring water only hesitated for two seconds before she made her decision. Then, she decisively dived over!

As the captain of the Kagura Legion with the strongest group skills, her agility was also astonishingly high. When she was at full power, her instantaneous speed was no less than that of an extraordinary's cockroach person.

Although such a state wouldn't last for long, it was a very suitable method to use for sudden bursts. She had practiced for a long time in order to find an opportunity to kill that cockroach person and blade one day.

Facing spring water's speed, the Green Titan player was neither fast nor slow. Her breathing was unusually smooth. According to the method taught by the instructor, she used her battle instinct to sense the opponent's position.

Then, the spear in her hand suddenly turned into a silver light and stabbed towards spring water.

Spring water's expression was shocked. She thought to herself, so fast!

How could such a heavy guy have such a fast burst of power when using a weapon?

She almost didn't have time to see the speed of the robbery!

But fortunately, she could still deal with the range!

At that moment, she slipped, and her body moved 90 degrees backward to avoid the cold light. The muscles in her hands expanded, and she crossed the barrel of the spear, trying to make use of the opponent's strength to let the spear slip from her hand.

But just as her hands touched the barrel of the spear, she suddenly felt a huge elastic force push her hand away, and her ten fingers were broken in an instant!

A sharp pain hit her, causing her to break out in cold sweat. She thought of what the teacher who taught her physical skills had said... ..

Snatching a white blade with bare hands was usually only targeted at those who did not know how to use force. In Hua Zhong, there were some old martial masters who could flexibly use force in their weapons. They were proficient in the use of shock, sticky, disarm, hair, and other kinds of delicate force.

If one encountered such a martial master, if one were to snatch a white blade with bare hands, others could instantly cripple one's hands!

This was what her master had told her when she had just finished her apprenticeship. However, she had never encountered such an expert in her ten plus years of cultivation. Gradually, she had also let down her guard. However, she had never thought that she would meet such an expert at such a critical juncture.

Such a terrifying monster was also proficient in ancient martial arts techniques. Just what kind of monster had Hua Zhong created over these years?

Spring water's face was filled with despair. Her ten fingers had been broken when she had been careless just now, and she had lost her balance due to the force. At this moment, there was no room for her to dodge. As an expert who had been through hundreds of battles., she had almost expected her ending!

Sure enough, in the next second, the long spear suddenly pressed down. Spring water, who had lost her balance and was unable to dodge, could only barely raise her hands to block it.

The result could be imagined. Under the situation where the strength of both sides was not equal, the result of blocking it head-on would be that she would be turned into minced meat by her own spear!

Emperor liver was somewhat dumbstruck as he looked at that puddle of stuff. He felt a little disgusted, but at the same time, he felt a little incredulous. He asked curiously, "This... he was killed just like that?"

"Then what else do you want?" That player rolled his eyes and said, "With this level of skill, he's far inferior to those elf assassins in the base. You actually fell at the hands of such a guy. You're really Shameless!"

"Labor and management is not armed!" The liver emperor immediately angrily retorted.

But secretly thought: this with weapons and without weapons gap, is really not the general big ah...

The player did not pay attention to the liver emperor, but happy said: "Two Heads, a thousand points, Tut Tut, top I moved three months brick, happy! !"

Liver Emperor: "..."

Mars base:

Seer was rarely free. He flipped through his mailbox, wanting to see if there was any useful news.

But soon, he saw a piece of news that made him very upset.

Respected Lord: Seer:.. Lord arindia, you have borrowed 10 billion deity coins from our club and will repay the first installment on the 6th of this month. The repayment amount is: 476 million deity coins, and the interest is... The service fee is.. ... The principal will be repaid in 360 installments. The current principal repayment is...

Please repay the loan on time so as not to affect your credit record!

Due to your good aptitude and the huge amount of money you've spent recently, the Guild has decided to allow you another sum of money. If you need it, you can apply for it by clicking the button at the bottom, it's an honor to serve you!

"One month... i... I have to pay back over 400 million!" Xi Ye stuttered.

AI: Don't you understand what 35% interest means?

"Uh..." Xi ye knocked on her helmet, feeling a little embarrassed, she sighed, "Since things have come to this, there's nothing we can do. It seems like we have to speed up the progress of the mining factory and sell the first batch of energy crystals as soon as possible. It's best if we can pay off the loan in advance. The interest is too scary!"

AI replied, "My Lord, your idea is not bad. However, although Mars is rich in minerals, your population is limited. Even if you let the Green Titan under you dig until they die 24 hours a day, they won't be able to gather the numbers that you want!"

Seer was also a little troubled when he heard that. It was indeed troublesome to use manual labor instead of mining cars for the energy ores. However, it was not realistic to expand the base's resources to recruit players now. Moreover, if the expansion was too fast.., d ball would definitely discover something fishy. This went against his original intention. Before he had a certain amount of military power, he did not want to expose his own faction.

If possible, he did not even want to expose his own faction. Clearly, these players worked extremely hard when they thought that he was a player. However, once they realized that he was a part-time worker.., they would show their ugly faces like rain girl and melon-less, demanding wages!

This was not possible!

Sigh... .. It would be great if there was a second relatively backward indigenous planet that could plunder some population... ..

Just as Seer was having a headache over loans and population, he did not know that an even greater crisis had quietly arrived in the depths of the base.

As more and more of that batch of dog eggs hatched, more and more void energy began to appear deep beneath Mars... ..

Chapter 78: 78: The Sorrow of a small country

In the desert, the female ninja that Takashima had been protecting was running as fast as she could. In fact, when some soldiers reported that a group of strange people had saved the Huazhong Old Man, the Captain told her to leave first.

However, halfway through, the emergency beeper that Takashima had given her vibrated. She only heard one word: run!

What kind of crisis makes your captain lose his cool like that?

His side is three captain level characters, and with the top of the organization is the ninja, the captain did not even have time to explain a word, only a word run!

BoxNovel.com

But she did not look back, she could not waste the captain's good intentions, she had to go back, go back to report above, Huazhong hiding such a Terrible Legion!

On the other side... The Army of terror...

"Wahahaha, you three trash. This bunch of trash can capture you alive. Aiya, Aiya, both of your arms and legs have been broken. How Tragic, Wahahaha!"The little fairy laughed hysterically, taking pleasure in others' misfortune.

"I didn't bring any weapons, okay? Plus, someone is secretly using a hidden spear!"Emperor liver retorted unhappily. Then, he saw that the little fairy and the other two Green Titans were holding a weapon, shining brightly, it was extremely dazzling, so he asked, "Your weapons are so shiny, where did you get them?"

"Of course it's a blacksmith's shop, where else could it come from?"The little fairy who had athlete's foot rolled her eyes and replied.

"Blacksmith's shop? I only dare to observe from afar, how can you afford a blacksmith's shop? Are you kidding me? !"Emperor liver had a look of disbelief!

He knew how expensive the weapons forged by da Bao in the blacksmith's shop were. Any dagger would cost more than 10,000 points. Now that there was no open point exchange, players could not use federation currency to exchange virtual points offline, it was impossible for anyone to afford it.

"Rented!"All the players rolled their eyes. "100 points a day!"

"So Dark! !"Emperor liver was stunned.

"It's your first day knowing our Lord?"Rain Girl, Wu Gua, said angrily, "Did he start exploiting us on the first day? He even has to pay for the cooked food in the canteen. He's literally the reincarnation of Zhou Peel!"

The players were stunned and thought to themselves, 'rain girl has a deep grudge...'

"Alright, stop arguing. I'll help you teleport back now!"Rain girl then asked the wind demon ranger next to her, "That... Li Goudan, did you track him? Hurry up, the rent is expensive!"

“Li... Goudan...” emperor liver’s eyelids twitched. Looking at the incomparably handsome wind demon calling this name, he felt that it was very funny. Speaking of which, why did the girl choose this online name.

The wind demon accurately walked to the place where the little girl and Grandpa Lu were hiding before the farm ruins. After looking at it for a while, it said, “The traces show that the antibodies are still alive and have the smell of elves. Grandpa Lu should be with the antibodies.”

“Then which direction did they go? How long did they walk for?” Rain girl asked anxiously.

Goudan took out a bottle of phosphorous powder from his feathers upon hearing this. After sprinkling it on that area, the soil of the footprints changed color visibly, Li Goudan picked up the soil and sniffed it. “It’s been less than seven hours since we left. We took the eastern route and headed in the opposite direction to the nearest Zinba. We should be heading towards Wakanda!”

“What about a teammate?” Rain girl frowned.

“It should be another force...” Li Goudan looked at the location where brother Goudan was captured, through the analysis of the traces at the scene, he said, “That group of people left around five o’clock in the morning. From the traces of the fight, the other party also has a heavyweight combat unit, and there’s more than one. Moreover, they have powerful snipers that can destroy the limbs of the Green Titan. We need to pay attention to the direction...” “...”

Li Goudan looked to the east and frowned. “It seems to be heading toward Wakanda as well.”

“How could this be?” Rain Girl Wu gua frowned slightly. If it was another group of forces, from the analysis of their teammates, it was likely that the extraordinary corps with certain genetic technology was a heavy life form, from the intelligence, only the extraordinary corps could have such a thing among the five major mercenary corps. Moreover, other than the so-called heavy life units, there was a high probability that Zinba, not far away, was the extraordinary mercenary Corps’ headquarters in South Africa, the force that took brother dog away was most likely them!

But if it was the extraordinary army, why didn’t they go to Zimba after capturing Brother Dog?

Rainy Girl’s melon-less brain quickly searched through all the information available in her mind. Although Zimba was the extraordinary Army’s headquarters, on the surface, Zimba was on bad terms with the Federation and North America. It had been under economic sanctions for several years, almost every North American president would add a year to the sanctions. Zimba’s currency had also been suppressed to the point that many people liked to complain about it.

Since the establishment of the Federation, Zimba had never had a North American embassy. At the very least, on the surface, it could not have a regular North American army. If brother dog was taken away from there, it would be a private shipment, and most of it would be carried by air, as long as they were able to track him down, they would be able to open fire!

However, Wakanda was different. Wakanda had established good relations with the outside world. Many countries in the federation had embassies, and North America was no exception. If they took that route, they could use the country’s surface forces as a cover.

Furthermore, due to the recent outbreak of the virus and riots, all countries had used the reason of evacuating their own citizens to send aircraft carriers over. They used their countries to take the maritime route, even if it was a supernatural force, they would not dare to openly attack the North American army, right?

That was what the other party was thinking, right? Rainmaiden wugua gently tapped her fingers as her brain calculated the other possibilities.

The result was: although there was a possibility that other forces might have captured brother dog, the probability was less than 10% . Undoubtedly, the probability of the idea just now was the highest. In addition, the antibodies were also heading towards Wakanda, after hesitating for a few seconds, rainy ordered, "Go to Wakanda! !"

At Wakanda Medical Center, Dr. Felix and his team were calculating the latest data of the experiment. However, the results of the failure made them feel discouraged again.

The situation was getting more and more tense, and the riots were getting more and more serious. If this continued, there might be big trouble!

While he was busy, the communication device in the laboratory rang again.

Dr. Phil frowned and thought to himself, could it be that the director, who had nothing to do all day, is here again?

To be urged without any results, many scientists would feel even more annoyed, so they hung up the communication device impatiently.

But after a few seconds, the communication device rang again. Dr. Phil's face immediately darkened. It was not over yet, was it?

But then he felt that something was not right. In the past, although the chief was annoying, he would not disturb his work. Usually, even if he came, he would wait for his work to be done before asking about his progress, today was not his usual style.

Thinking of this, Philip hesitated for a few seconds before finally picking up the communication device.

"Dr. Phil?" An excited voice came from the other end of the communication device.

It was Varian from the quarantine department... Phil quickly recognized the owner of the voice and frowned. "I'm Dr. Phil. What's the matter?"

"Antibodies... antibodies have appeared! !"

"What?" Phil was stunned, and then he immediately showed an excited look!

"Don't be afraid, Little Anna..." outside the isolation room of the medical center, Prado comforted the nervous little black girl. "They're all good people..."

The little girl was still holding Grandpa Lu tightly in her pocket, looking at everyone pitifully.

“Little Anna, you have to be brave. The nun said that you have the mission to save our country. It’s a gift from God. You have to learn to be strong...”

At the mention of the nun, Little Anna’s eyes calmed down a little. Prado slowly took the bag containing Grandpa Lu. “Leave this with me for now. When you come out, I will return it to you.”

“Ugh...”the little girl was obviously not happy.

The people around looked at the thin little girl with both excitement and pity. They thought to themselves, “God bless, things are finally turning around!”

However, in the crowd, there was a nurse wearing a mask. She was looking at Little Anna from a distance, and her eyes were glowing with a faint green light!

“What did you say?”The black man in the General Office of Wakanda suddenly stood up from his office chair. His fat body trembled with excitement. His face was full of excitement as he said, “Antibodies have appeared?”

“Yes!”The secretary reported: “Is the Northwest Formation Fourth Legion Staff Sergeant: Prado brought back, and he also reported that the Northwest Fourth Legion General Michelle Problem!”

“Michelle?”The chief pondered for a moment. He remembered that Fatty. He was a very responsible soldier. Could it be that he had also been corrupted?

“What about the test results?”The chief was still more concerned about this important question.

The secretary said, “The serum has been mentioned and further tests are being carried out. However, the Doctor said that the possibility is very high because the preliminary test showed that the blood cells of the little girl are indeed resistant to the virus!”

“Oh, God bless! !”The director paced back and forth excitedly, and then he said, “Prepare the car, I want to go over and take a look personally!”

“But director, you still have a meeting in the afternoon...”

“What kind of meeting is there at this time? Inform the other side that the meeting is canceled at the last minute! !”

“Yes, director...”

At the same time, in the North American embassy on the other side, Blade’s group was gathering together, and the chief diplomat of the embassy was among them.

“Huazhong actually developed such a technology? His intentions are deplorable!”The white diplomat said grimly.

“The Tyrant lost seven of them, but fortunately, we managed to capture a sample!” Blade said coldly. “However, the Kagura Legion also managed to capture a sample. We have to quickly...” as he spoke., suddenly, Blade’s expression froze, and he immediately switched on the team’s communication device.

“What’s the matter? HMM? Antibodies?”

“What’s the situation?” The white man became sensitive when he heard the word “Antibodies.”.

BLADE: “Poison Shadow said that a soldier from the medical center just sent the antibodies. It’s a seven-year-old girl, and it seems to be true.”

“Then why are you hesitating? Ask her to directly snatch it!”

“Is it appropriate?” Blade frowned.

“What’s not appropriate?” The white man sneered. “Without evidence, would Wakanda still dare to surround us? You have to know... our fleet is at the port!”

PS: (speaking of the loan issue, perhaps everyone will think that it’s incredible to borrow ten billion to repay two trillion, but the truth is, even if you calculate it according to the normal interest rate of four or five percent, you still have to pay it back dozens of times over the 300-year loan.). ...). Forget it, let’s change it to 30 years. 35% to 300 years is indeed too exaggerated. As for the high interest rate... [the protagonist’s brain has shit students, think about us. We have only borrowed for 20 years, and we have to pay back nearly the same interest as the principal. Nowadays, online loans are very popular, and most of them are 3-5% interest, or even higher. Even with this kind of interest rate, there are still a large number of people who use loans to support their loans. After borrowing tens of thousands of dollars for only one or two years, they have to pay back 200,000 to 300,000 yuan in debt because of tearing down the east wall to make up for the west wall. Are there few people like this?] The protagonist was only tricked into borrowing a wave of usury, and he was confident that he could pay off the loan in a short period of time. This was much better than most people in the real world who were willing to take out loans to buy apples with a salary of two to three thousand Yuan and refused to face their own reality? ?

In addition, I advise you to never touch online loans, especially those who use loans to support their loans. There are many people who borrow tens of thousands to repay hundreds of thousands. And the worst thing is that many online loans now do not allow you to repay in advance! It is to make you eat enough interest, so don’t laugh at the protagonist’s stupidity. In reality, no one cheats him and takes the initiative to borrow even more stupid than the protagonist of this book, Ya! !)

Chapter 79: 79: translation

“F * ck, who did this! !” The chief had just arrived at the entrance of the Medical Center when he heard a furious roar coming from inside!

He immediately felt uneasy and quickly walked inside!

The medical center was in a mess. There were blood stains and bullet marks everywhere. It was obvious that an intense battle had taken place. Moreover, some people died horribly, as if they had been melted.., seeing this scene, the chief's eyelids twitched. He quickly walked to the black man who was jumping in the middle of the tunnel and asked anxiously, "General Yerfa, what's the situation now?"

That black man was the commander of the troops stationed at the Wakanda Center. At this moment, his forehead was full of veins and his eyes were red, as if he was a wild beast that was about to devour someone.

BoxNovel.com

Seeing that the chief had come, YERFA finally calmed down a little. However, his voice was still irritable as he said, "F * ck, they're all dead. The doctors and doctors are all dead. The antibodies have also been taken away!"

"Taken away? Who Did It?"The President's heart tightened. This transition from heaven to hell was something that even the president of his country could not bear!

"Who else could have done it?"Yale FA was flustered and exasperated. "In such a situation, who else could it be other than that group of mixed mercenaries from the North Americans? I'll bring people to take down that group of B * Stards'embassy right now!"

"Do you have evidence?"The chief said gloomily. "Just based on this alone, there's no way to blame the other party. You have to know that on the surface, North America doesn't even acknowledge the existence of an army of Extraordinaires!"

"Evidence? Why are you still talking about evidence at this time?"Yale FA said angrily. "The other party stepped on his face and snatched him away in front of you. Now that the antibodies have been snatched away, are we just going to watch?"

The president's face was as gloomy as water, but what could he do? Should he really allow Yale FA to bring people to raid their embassy? He knew in his heart what the consequences would be.

It was not the first time that that country had stirred up trouble, but who did not dare to be angry and not dare to speak up. A few countries would at most dare to speak up... ..

"Calm down first... Let's go back and discuss our countermeasures!"

"What's there to discuss!"Yale said angrily, "When you discuss, there won't be a single strand of antibody left. Don't tell me you want to be a coward at a time like this? You're a coward. Why would I support a guy like you in the first place?"

"So what if you're not a coward? Are you really going to start a war with them? Are We qualified?"The chief retorted angrily.

"I'm sorry... Excuse Me!"Just as the two big shots were quarreling with each other, and the surrounding soldiers were looking at each other as they retreated to the side, a gentle voice suddenly sounded.

The two of them were stunned. At this time, there was actually someone who dared to interrupt?

But then they were stunned. No... .. this person wasn't speaking tribal language, nor was it English. It seemed like... .. ! ... It was Huazhong language!

Everyone was stunned. The surrounding soldiers only realized that a woman dressed in black with a strange material had suddenly appeared in front of the two important figures!

All the soldiers immediately raised their guns. The chief commander waved his hand to signal the soldiers not to be nervous. Since the other party was able to approach them silently, if they wanted to make a move, they would have done so long ago.

“Who are you?”The chief commander asked in fluent Huazhong.

The woman smiled and said, “Member of the fourth team of the Huazhong Dragon Team: Wang Goudan sends his regards to you.”

“Gou... Dan?”The chief commander said with a frown. This word did not sound very pleasant to the ear. Perhaps it had a deeper meaning. ? After all, the language of that country was broad and profound.

“Are you here to represent Central China?”The director took a deep breath and asked.

Why would central China’s forces suddenly come over? Could it be that they wanted to help them fight the Americans head-on. But they had never heard of any supernatural forces in central China... ..

The woman smiled but didn’t say anything. Obviously, she didn’t have the intention of answering directly.

Seeing that the other party didn’t answer directly, the director asked again, “How do we cooperate?”

“You help us hold off the embassy troops, and we’ll help you get the antibodies back! !”

At this point, the embassy basement, who would have thought that this would be a prison-like place.

The little girl shriveled at the foot of the wall, trembling, and Prado, pale as a ghost, was pierced in the waist and abdomen, and thrown into the dungeon after a simple treatment, at this time, the blood had dyed the bandages red!

“Does it hurt?”The little girl asked weakly.

Prado forced a smile weakly and looked at the other inmates in the dungeon.

One was Brother Dog, who had lost four limbs, and the other was Grandpa Lu, who had a hole opened. Outside the dungeon door, MI HAO, the cockroach with two fleshy tentacles, was staring at them coldly in the dark corner.

“Is it very painful?”The little girl poked Grandpa Lu, who had been moaning, and asked carefully.

“Ouch, it hurts, don’t Poke It!”Grandpa Lu quickly said.

“Is he saying that it hurts?”The little girl turned around and asked Prado.

Prado was stunned. “Don’t you know Chinese?”

“Only a little... my father taught me...”the little girl’s expression froze when she mentioned her father, and then her eyes turned red, and she couldn’t help but cry again.

“Why are you crying again?” Prado asked anxiously.

The little girl sobbed, “The nun said that God chose me and that’s why they suffered so much. But what sins did father, mother, sister, and Uncle Ludala have? Do they have to die just because I was chosen? I don’t want to be chosen. I’m clearly the dumbest in the tribe. Why did she choose me? “Uncle, do you think sister sister sister sister is lying to me? “Is there really a God in the world? “If there is, why would it do that? Is it deliberately messing with us?”

Prado was stunned for a moment. As he was not good with words, he did not know how to answer. He could only sigh deeply.

He actually did not believe in any Bullsh * t God. If there really was such a thing, his believers should not have suffered this kind of suffering!

Seeing this, Grandpa Lu quickly came up and asked, “What did you say? Did you make her cry again?”

Prado rolled his eyes, but in the end, he still translated what the girl said to Grandpa Lu.

“Oh... I see... the little girl’s parents died of the virus?” Grandpa Lu looked at the pitiful girl, his heart ached, and he thought to himself, the game is too realistic, so it’s hard to treat them like npcs.

“Comfort her. I’m not much of a talker...” said Prado.

“Me?” Lu grandfather Leng for a moment, then nodded: “OK, I say, you help me translate!”

Prado heard the words nodded, he actually learned Chinese well, normal communication translation is no problem.

“Little girl, listen to me, if you think that God has forsaken you, don’t open your mouth, don’t wet it, you’re on an island, all the way, Hey, Hey, Hey, Hey, Hey, Hey, Hey, Hey, Hey. ... Solid Board ... Haha Board ... One day, you’ll become... ... a moth with wings, flying wherever you want. At that time, God or Jesus won’t be able to control you. If you want to be a pussy, then be a Pussy!”

Brother Dog:” ...”

“Hey, brother, don’t be so surprised. Translate it!” Grandpa Lu said to the stunned Prado unhappily.

Prado was dumbfounded and said embarrassedly, “I . . . Didn’t quite understand what you said. How about... You Say it again?”

“F * ck your grandpa. You Asked Me to repeat it again after I said so much?”

“Which foreigner can translate your words? Besides, what kind of F * cking Consolation is this?” A female voice suddenly came from outside, which only shocked Grandpa Lu and brother Gou who were in the prison!

“Big Boss Raindrop? ? ?” Grandpa Lu was excited. “You’re finally here!”

“Of course I’m here to save you!” The person who came was raindrop wugua, followed by the wind demon Li Goudan. Meanwhile, the cockroach, Mi Hao, had been pinned to the wall by a few feathers at some point in time, no sound could be heard at all.

Raindrop WUGUA pushed up her goofy glasses and said curiously, "I remember that your ancestors were not HG people? Who Did you learn this from? The emperor of the liver?"

"SOB, SOB, sob!" "You guys are finally here. You guys don't know that this plot of the dungeon is too torturous. These npcs were actually captured alive first. Look at Brother Dog. He was beaten to such a state that he couldn't even die even if he wanted to. How Pitiful...". "..."

"..."brother dog

"Okay!" Rainy girl pouted. "Take the little girl. Let's go quickly. We can't hold out much longer outside..."

"Outside? What is it?" Grandpa Lu was stunned.

"Well..."

Chapter 80: 80: Mission Accomplished

"Are you crazy? What are you trying to do?" The white diplomat Joseph walked out arrogantly. He was not afraid even in the face of a fully armed black army. He did not believe that these primitive people would really shoot, this was the confidence of a big country!

"Respected Mr. Ambassador!" The director personally walked out from the crowd, with a smile, he said, "I'm really sorry, because we discovered that a thief had stolen our country's important secrets. During the chase, we discovered that the thief had escaped into your country's embassy. Please cooperate with us and don't let the thief escape!"

"What thief? Are you trying to say that we're protecting criminals?" Joseph sneered.

"I don't have that intention, Mr. Ambassador, but that thief is extremely vicious and has many lives in his hands. We are also worried that he will cause damage to your embassy."

BoxNovel.com

"Then you don't have to worry about it!" Joseph frowned.

"So, the ambassador admitted that the person is with you?" The director continued to smile

"You are slandering us!" Joseph pretended to be angry, "Please stop your actions that are hurting the friendship between the two countries!" He paused for a moment and said arrogantly, "Also, please withdraw the army immediately. We still have to escort our people back to our country safely. If you continue to act like this, we will take justifiable defensive measures to ensure the safety of our people!" "!"

Facing the naked threat, the chief's face gradually turned cold as he said in a deep voice, "I'm sorry, that thief stole our country's important secrets. If you don't cooperate, none of you can leave today! ! !"

Joseph was stunned. Was this black man crazy? So Tough?

This tough attitude made him a little confused. If he really ordered the rear to open fire, he was not qualified to do so. Wakanda was a new major country in South Africa. It was the leader of the 16 countries of the South African Union, and its status was very high, moreover, it had a lot of trade with their country, but the policy had never made him hostile to this country.

If this was because of his momentary arrogance that led to irreparable consequences... ..

Joseph's back immediately broke out in a cold sweat, but the people in the embassy could not be handed over. Not to mention the significance of the newly captured specimens, just the antibodies alone, this plague incident was decided by the higher-ups, there were a lot of benefits behind it, so the antibodies definitely could not be handed back to them.

Thinking of this, he turned his head with a cold face. He retreated to the embassy entrance and took out his communicator, "Serena, get rid of that antibody!"

There was no reply from the communicator.

Joseph's face darkened, and he continued, "Serena? ? ?"

At this moment, inside the base, Serena... Which was blade, was looking at the black-clothed woman not far away with a bloody body.

At this moment, she really did not have the energy to reply to that arrogant white diplomat.

"You're quite powerful, you..."the player on the other side said seriously, "The difficulty of this game dungeon isn't high. You're not the strongest monster, are you?"

"You... Who Are You?"Blade asked weakly as she wiped the blood off her face.

Ever since she debuted, she had always been rated as the trump card of the extraordinary army. Whether it was the Kagura Army or the Knights of the Round Table, they had always been extremely fearful of her. She did not dare to say that she was the strongest, but at least she was facing the strongest.., it wasn't possible that she wouldn't be able to retaliate at all, right?

Her speed, skills, equipment, and all of them had been completely destroyed. Just who was this fellow?

At this moment, many of her arteries had been severed, and her lungs had been pierced. It was difficult for her to pronounce her words. As she spoke, she intentionally or unintentionally looked towards the basement.

"Don't look at other places. Your teammates should be in trouble right now... no one will come to save you."

A hint of determination flashed in Blade's eyes. "More than one of you came? Who Are you people?"

"The Huazhong Dragon Group, Wang Goudan!"The Elven woman laughed wickedly.

"The Huazhong Dragon Group... There really is such a thing..."blade sneered and kept coughing. His consciousness became more and more blurry.

There was a rumor among the extraordinaires that the Huazhong District was a forbidden area for extraordinaires. In the two hundred years since the establishment of the state, no extraordinary who trespassed there could come back alive. The outside world had always heard that there was a group of top extraordinaires in the Huazhong District.

However, there was no information on the exact faction. Just the name of the central China Dragon Group was spread through a web novel in central China. Many people did not believe it, and neither did she... ..

But she did not expect it to be true... .. And so ridiculously strong!

It seemed that the specimens could not be retrieved... ! ... however, they must not be allowed to escape unscathed! ! !

With this thought in mind, she used the illusion of covering her chest wound to suddenly press down on the controller hidden there.

With a loud rumble, the entire outer perimeter of the embassy was actually instantly sealed by layers of alloy doors.

Rainy Melon, who was in the basement, was stunned. She hurriedly asked the AI, "What's the situation?"

"Heavy bombs detected to be activated. The surroundings have been sealed by the composite metal doors. The AI has made a judgment. Immediately abandon the mission and return to the base!"

"F * ck!" Wang Goudan kicked the blade away.

The blade, whose sternum had been broken, smiled coldly. He could not take the specimens away alive, but as long as he blew them up here, his country might still have a chance to recover their corpses!

"Even a high-quality weapon can't destroy it?" Rainy Girl said with a frown.

Wang Goudan had cut the wall twice, and the high-quality Dagger's sharpness had created many cracks, but the thickness made her shake her head. "It's too thick, at least for a short time. The Green Titan might be able to do it."

Rainy girl looked at the only Green Titan in the dungeon when she heard that, but all four of its limbs were broken. Obviously, giving him a high-quality weapon wouldn't help them now.

"29 seconds until the explosion!" The AI prompted.

"Request to abandon the mission, return immediately! !" Rain girl said decisively, "Everyone gather!"

"This... return just like that?" Grandpa Lu was stunned. He looked at Little Anna and Prado and said in surprise, "Then... What about them?"

"They can't be taken away..." rain girl said coldly, "They are just npcs, don't mind them. They will respawn the next time you come."

"Ugh..." Grandpa Lu was stunned and didn't know what to say.

On the way to Wakanda, the two of them spent more than ten hours with each other. The scene of the little girl hugging herself along the way, even if she was thirsty, was still vivid in her mind.

But now, this place was about to explode. You're just telling me about an NPC, and the plot is so real. After the respawn, will it still be little Anna who feeds me water?

Along with the special device that raindrop placed in their hands, a few rays of light shone on the players one after another. The sound of an intelligent notification immediately rang out: Player's coordinates have been determined. Please stay where you are and do not move! The teleportation will begin in five seconds. Attention, please do not move, or it will cause the teleportation to fail!

Looking at the few rays of light shining on them, Prado instantly realized that they were going to leave. His heart immediately became anxious. He hurriedly picked up little Anna and said, "Please, at least take her away. I beg you!"

He, who had always been at a loss for words, suddenly knelt down and kowtowed with little Anna in his arms. He had heard that this was the most important etiquette to beg someone in central China. The harder he kowtowed, the more sincere he became.

As a result, his forehead was soon covered in blood. Little Anna followed suit and kowtowed seriously. Just like Prado, she kowtowed with a head full of blood.

Grandpa Lu was stunned. His whole body froze on the spot, and his two balls couldn't bear it anymore. He looked at rainy, who couldn't bear it any longer. She was more touched than anyone else, she knew that these people were real people, but she was also calmer than anyone else. She knew that this wasn't a game. If these people died here and their bodies were used for research, the consequences would be very serious!

Their fates were already tied to the one on Mars.

Both glory and loss!

Countdown... five... four!

"Hey, wait..." Grandpa Lu looked at raingirl and begged for help. "Big Brother, think of something else!"

Raingirl turned her head away and avoided Grandpa Lu's gaze.

"What the F * ck are you hiding from? I'm asking you a question! !" Grandpa Lu said angrily.

"Ha... ha... ha..."

A soft voice suddenly sounded when Grandpa Lu was flustered and exasperated. Grandpa Lu froze again and slowly turned his head, only to see a bloody but smiling face.

"I've always been on an isolated island, an isolated island... Grandpa, are you not going to leave?" The little girl asked expectantly.

Grandpa Lu: "..."

This child did not know what she was about to face. Was she kowtowing because she was afraid that she would leave?

Grandpa Lu's nose turned sour, and he felt his vision blurring.

Rain girl saw this and knew that she was going to suffer. She quickly said, "Don't get excited. They're just npcs..."

“F * ck your npcs!” Grandpa Lu suddenly roared, “Grandpa, I’m playing a game, I want you to F * cking Beep Beep ! ! !” As he said that, he jumped out of the teleportation beam.

When Little Anna saw this, she hugged her grandfather. Rain Girl’s pupils shrank, and she thought to herself, ‘f * ck!’

However, she did not dare to move recklessly at that moment. A few rays of light shrank, and the players immediately turned into molecular particles and disappeared from where they stood.

Prado looked at the people who had disappeared in a daze. Then, he looked at Little Anna, who was hugging Grandpa Lu. He did not know what to say for a moment. ...

However, when he saw little Anna’s happy expression, Prado sighed slightly. He lit a cigarette and thought to himself, ‘that’s it.’

“Brother...” Grandpa Lu tried his best to move closer to Prado. “Catch me a bite of that as well...”

..

At that moment, the two forces were going head-to-head against each other. Even though the black people had the absolute advantage in numbers, they still felt guilty when they faced the North American soldiers who numbered less than a hundred.

Joseph looked at the communication device that was still not answering his call. His face immediately turned gloomy. Just as he was about to return to the embassy directly, a loud rumble suddenly sounded. The outer perimeter of the embassy immediately shook, scaring the forces on both sides so much that they almost went off fire!

“Don’t shoot!” The commander-in-chief hurriedly stopped the commotion of the army. Then, he looked at Joseph in the distance with a serious expression. “Mr. Ambassador, please explain what’s going on.”

Joseph’s face was pale. He naturally knew what the embassy was meant by being sealed. He immediately understood that something must have happened inside, forcing blade to do so. However, this meant that not only was the embassy going to be gone.., the extraordinaires and the remaining eight tyrants inside would all have to die here!

“Disperse! Immediately disperse! ! !” Joseph hurriedly shouted at the soldiers who were protecting the civilians! ! !

“Damn it! !” The chief commander was extremely shrewd. He immediately realized what these people were trying to do. In order to prevent the antibodies from falling into their hands, they actually went to such an extent?

Could profit really distort human nature to such an extent?

With no other choice, he could only order the soldiers to retreat. In less than a minute, just as he had expected, following a thunderous boom, a flame soared into the sky!

What a pity for those friends in central China. No matter what, he should go and thank them... “...”. The chief thought so.

But in the next second, a soldier suddenly pointed to the sky and said, “Look, what is that?”

The chief was stunned. He raised his head and saw a huge firebird circling in the sky amidst the soaring flames. That form was like a phoenix from a fairy tale! !
