Chapter 801 spending a lot of money to poach people!

“Song cares what that Kid Said?” Elder lei asked in surprise at Feng Doudou’s report.

“Yes... that’s what he said...” Feng Doudou nodded.

“This kid... he still has his personality!” Elder lei muttered.

“What’s with that envious tone of yours?” Elder lei rolled his eyes and asked.

“Ahem... when have I ever been envious?” Elder Lei said guiltily.

BoxNovel.com

In fact, it wasn’t as if the people present hadn’t been attacked by internet trolls before. However, the atmosphere was particular about the group. They wouldn’t abandon or give up. This was a basic principle. Even if there were some insensible people, they couldn’t just give up on them like song Zaiyi did.

They looked at the four old men sitting there. They were elder Liu, elder Lei, elder Bai, and elder Li. The first three of them were the candidates for this election.

He was quite satisfied with this result. Although these people were also family elders, they were not extreme family idealists like elder song and the others. Their style of doing things had a bottom line. When it was a major event, they would always put their interests first. If any of them came to power, they should not end up in the family business. ... Come on

Of course, we have to guard against it, so it’s better to be on our own. . .

“ahem...” Old Li cleared his throat and said, “time is of the essence. Shall we get down to business?”

Li is more depressed now, the invitee actually did not him. Thanks to his good relationship with luofu, he has benefited the old men at home. What’s the matter. ...

However, even though they were depressed, they still had to talk about serious matters. “First, it’s about the outflow of our population...”

When this topic was brought up, everyone’s faces immediately turned serious...

Now, the outflow of population could almost be stopped. After all, the right to choose freely was the rule of this election. The whole world did not object, so they naturally could not object.

Speaking of benefits, they naturally did not want the population to outflow. After all, their family members had such good qualifications, so they naturally hoped that they could continue to develop within the radiation range.

However, they also knew that this was a strong way to kill off people’s desires. They could not get support for this. The first batch of population recruitment only had 200,000 people. Moreover, there were already 50,000 players. The population was more than one billion, if they could not give out quotas in the short term, the population would naturally flow out. If other people could give them more quotas, they naturally could not miss it, right? After all, no one wanted to enter galaxy first?

“Regarding this, let’s think about our strategy...” “We are different from the other candidates. What I mean is that we don’t need to consider the votes of other people. Therefore, we mainly focus on the benefits of the players. We should try our best to attract the public first and give priority to the cities. This is the point.” “...”. “Is everyone okay with that?”

Everyone nodded when they heard that. Based on their characteristics, completely favoring people had no effect on their campaign for the top position. This was because it was their exclusive city, even if the foreigners did not support them at all, the city Lord’s spot was still chosen from the few of them old men. Foreigners could not snatch it away, so the popular votes of the foreigners were meaningless to them.

As for attracting people... .. Hehe, why would they bother to attract foreigners when they have such good qualifications? We have a billion people and we can’t even digest them. It would be great if they could not find a way to drive those foreigners out... ..

“Let’s talk about the candidates for cooperation then...” seeing that everyone had reached an agreement, they nodded and moved on to the next topic. “The current situation is like this. The candidates are divided into two groups. One group, led by Angor and song zaiyi, wants to cooperate with us and get our support. The other group has been trying to control the media since yesterday.”

Everyone tilted their heads. They were not surprised by the news at all. Apparently, they had gotten used to it over the years. Normal operations, normal operations.

“What’s the argument this time?” Elder lei asked in amusement.

“...” elder lei smiled and said, “It says that if the passage is opened, it will greatly affect the competition space of the other races in the world. It even says that if there is no balance, there will only be players left in galaxy!”

“Does anyone believe such words?”

“Why does no one believe it? What is this?”

“I’m very curious...” . Elder Bai, who had been silent the whole time, suddenly interjected, “This kind of extreme show is to attract the brainless, but the situation this time is completely different from the past. If they say this, doesn’t it mean that they have completely given up on 1.4 billion people?” “? Isn’t the price a little too high?”

Everyone also revealed a puzzled look. It had already been more than a day or two, after all..? They also knew that putting on a show was just putting on a show, and benefits could not be abandoned. Some things were truly fragrant, and that was the way of the king. In the past, they had not been willing to give up on this consumer market, but now they were willing to give up on a high-quality population?

1.4 billion people. Not to mention the votes, just our people’s qualifications alone could help you to gain a lot of points in the selection of the Qualifications Department. Giving up just like that? What’s the use of your city Lord being a show if you can’t even be a city lord?

“How is that possible?” He sneered and said, “Do you think Mistral is that stupid? He released another explanation right after the speech, saying that people don’t include them!”

“Eh?” Elder Lei was stunned. “What is this thing?”

He sneered and said, “His comment is that the players are so xenophobic, but he believes that most of the people are actually sober and rational. Therefore, from now on, as long as they are willing to join and support, they will be given preferential treatment. The preferential treatment is not small, and they will fully recruit high-quality people with bachelor’s degree and above!”

“Really?” Everyone was a little stunned...

“Take a look for yourself...” the newly released hug was thrown over.

Everyone quickly gathered together and looked at it carefully. After looking at it, they all sucked in a breath of cold air. “Holy Sh * t! He’s going all out to poach us!”

Chapter 802 Helpless!

According to intelligence, just yesterday, Mister passed the US Congress to amend the Immigration Act. The act to recruit people from central China will be introduced as a temporary immigration special act, and it will take effect immediately!

According to the Act: the US will fully open the central China Immigration Channel to all people with undergraduate degrees and above. The US authorities will conduct a basic academic and quality inspection on the applicants, those who meet the needs will immediately arrange immigration procedures and be rewarded with a number of benefits.

The benefits include: a 200-square-meter villa in high-end communities in San Francisco, New York, Houston, Los Angeles, San Diego, Seattle, Orlando, Boston, and other places, a luxury car worth 50,000 US dollars. Guaranteed high-paying jobs with an estimated annual salary of more than 150,000 US dollars. Doctorates or senior researchers, doctors, and engineers can have a guaranteed annual salary of 300,000 US dollars, during the period of no work, guaranteed three years’ minimum wage, 80% of the guaranteed monthly salary!

If you are willing to go to second-tier cities: such as Miami, Portland, and other places, you can increase your annual salary and the size of your villa.

Once you pass the assessment, you can also bring a maximum of 10 direct relatives, including wives, children, parents, first uncle, second uncle, and so on... ..

Requirements: Pure Huazhong Bloodline, not including foreigners of Huazhong nationality. For example, black people from the Guangdong and Guangxi regions, with a bachelor’s degree or above, preferably a science and engineering major. Be careful, this immigration recruitment also does not include mixed-race people, pure Huazhong People!

Moreover, all Huazhong people who immigrated here must only vote for the American candidate with their own public opinion!

Of course, the treaty was not so straightforward. It used a lot of euphemistic rhetoric, but this was roughly what it meant. After reading the policy, Old Lei and the others were dumbstruck. They felt that their worldview had been refreshed once again.

First, they called for a boycott of central China, but now they could poach people without any cost? Where was their face?

The treaty and the words were also contradictory. First, they said that they wanted to accept the Chinese who were not poisoned, but this condition..? Was it to accept?

Was it to invite their ancestors?

“By the way... They are appealing to the people to boycott central China while offering such good immigration conditions... won't the Chinese people protest?” Elder Lei asked with a strange look.

“They protest. They say it's democracy, but when has it ever been useful to protest? “And they have an explanation, right?” The leader smiled bitterly. “They say that the treaty is to accept the Chinese who have western democratic ideas, and they offer such good conditions because they are absorbing high-end talents. This is far more than the treatment that the high-end talents in America enjoy.”

“Bullsh * T...”. Old Lei laughed and said, “The whole condition is to graduate with an undergraduate degree in science and engineering. The recruitment of agents and sales agents in our small counties are all undergraduate requirements. When did they become high-end talents in the United States?” “? and an annual salary of 150,000 US dollars.” “? Even a software engineer who graduated from Stanford might not have this kind of treatment.” “? and forget about this, what the Hell Is Bringing Relatives?” ? You can bring at most ten ? Since when did first and second uncles become immediate relatives?”

“That's right...”. “...” elder Liu also interrupted, “Since they are Huazhong people who accept advanced ideas, why do they have to show that they are pure-blooded? Why don't they recruit our Huazhong people of foreign descent? They don't even recruit mixed-race people. Could it be that these people can't even save their ideas? “If they want our Huazhong's body, just say it. Isn't it tiring to do this kind of operation?”

“Alright...” elder Bai said in a deep voice, “It's not the first time those people have double standards. The key is how to prevent the population from being deceived. You have to know that people are all realistic. Under such conditions, there are many people who are willing to go!”

The people around immediately fell silent. In fact, it was really so. Thinking about it carefully, a million-year salary, and even a house and a car, how many people would not be tempted by such treatment?

“How can that be?” Elder Liu frowned and said, “Ordinary people are not stupid. They should all know that once Xing Hai is implemented on a large scale, the financial market will immediately be restructured. The conditions offered by the United States now will have little meaning in the future. What villas in the first-tier cities of the United States, a million-year salary, wait for two years, they will all be waste paper! Moreover, would the US financial system be able to survive? Everyone would send villas, luxury cars, and 100 million people. Even if he sold his ass, he wouldn't be able to fulfill these promises!”

“But the key is that it can’t be implemented on a large scale right now!” Elder Bai said seriously, “This time, the population recruitment of galaxy, together with Huaxia City, will only recruit 1.2 million people at most in six cities. In other words, most people will not be able to enter and become galaxy players for the time being. To ordinary people, the conditions in the real world are still very tempting. After all, most of the working salaries in society are still below 10,000 per month, and there are a lot of undergraduate students who can’t pay their mortgage!”

Pausing for a moment, he continued, “Besides, the Americans are so generous because they know that the U.S. dollar and the villa will soon depreciate in value, okay? “They are planning to use the value of the present to exchange for the future, using the present benefits to buy off the future potential of the Huazhong people. These capitalists are very calculative. I can guarantee that after the Huazhong people are deceived, not only will they exchange for the promise, but the private capitalists will even give them more. However, the Huazhong people must repay them with some conditions after they enter the galaxy!”

“This...” elder Li was also stunned. “Will ordinary people agree to it? Will they sell their future in exchange for short-term benefits?”

“Why not?” Elder Bai rolled his eyes at him and said, “Do you think everyone is so rational? “Those high-interest online loans on the market can be repaid in the rest of their lives. Some people are even forced to lose their families. Isn’t that a trap for a lot of people?”? “For many people now, the things in the Sea of stars may still be very far away from them, but this villa and the US dollars are real. I bet that with my one-year pension, a lot of people will apply for immigration starting tomorrow!”

“This...”

The old men immediately looked at each other, although they didn’t want to admit it... .. But it seemed that it might really be so... ..

“What an evil capital method!” Elder Liu couldn’t help but snort.

“How do you think we should deal with it, chief?” Elder Lei asked.

The chief hesitated for a moment, and finally sighed, “Let’s try to use the media to explain the power relations first...”

“UH... is this useful?” Elder Li was stunned.

“It should be useful to those who can listen...” the chief sighed and said, “The density and finances of our country, even if we want to sacrifice our current assets to win over the people like the United States, it’s impossible. The national situation is like this, we can only...”

Everyone immediately understood what the other party wanted to say. To a certain extent, the meaning of the leader seemed to be the same as what Song cared about. Right now, the only thing that could be protected were those who were relatively rational and those who listened to his advice.

If those people who were blinded by the short-term interests of the media still didn’t listen to what he said, then there was really no other way. They couldn’t force the country to shut down, right?

In the end, the path of life is still a choice to make!

Chapter 803: Civil Affairs (Part One) !

Ever since the news of Galaxy was released, civil society had been in an uproar. From the absurdity at the beginning to the heated discussion later on, all kinds of analyses and predictions were available.

For example, which city had more advantages, what was the future of civilization, which of the current candidates would be more reliable, and so on.

However, among the many topics, there was a forum in City C that used to be a program ape, but now it was a new one, with a bunch of coders exclaiming about life.

[sigh, I really didn't expect this. I thought that I just jumped from one job to another, but I didn't expect to find a new life. Now that the former supervisor calls me every day, it makes me so confused. I don't even know why he calls me at this time? Is he planning to pay me back the half-month salary that he owes me?]

[I also said that my previous boss also called me every day. At that time, he was unwilling to give me a raise even though my salary was increased by 500. He even threatened me that once I jumped ship, the company would permanently blacklist me. It scared me so much that I almost gave in. F * ck, it's a good thing that I'm Stubborn!]

[that's why your boss also contributed to getting into Xing Hai! Didn't you thank him?]

[thank you, I even sent him a text to express my gratitude. Otherwise, how would he know that I'm a Galaxy Player Now?]? [hahaha, but I think we should forget about meeting each other. There's no need to thank him for his great kindness. The boss has been in business for so many years, so he should still understand that he's doing so well...]. [...]

[I'm envious of you, upstairs. Why didn't this fall on me? Are you still lacking people there?]

[it's not easy now. Those lord-tier players seem to have realized that we can't use the cooperation quota recklessly. Now, the recruitment criteria are all those top experts from the Chinese Academy of Sciences...]

[sigh, I actually have a chance. F * ck, my skin is cheap too. My Supervisor really gave me a raise of 200 to stay. I deserve to work for others for the rest of my life...]

[F * CK, 200? Bro, you really have no face!]

[in the past, it was easy to deal with my boss and colleagues. I could just blacklist them. Now, I'm annoyed by those relatives who come to my house every day. I can't help them either. I'm still worrying about how to get my parents in. How can I take care of them?]

[that's right, that's right. My mom also asks me to think of ways to get my uncle and the others in. Oh My God, do you really think your son is a God? I haven't even settled your old seat yet, really...]

The forum started with developers who had been recruited by the Lord players to cooperate with each other. Later, it became a place where almost all the players in city C discussed their family issues.

Since the release of player information, many players have encountered this problem.

At this time in a private room, Pu Yunchuan looked at the mobile phone forum, and looked at the private room to his circle of people, eyes flashed a helpless color.

He could not help but think to himself, looks like I'm not the only one experiencing this...

He actually came home this time to explain the situation to his mother and take her to enjoy life in the astral plane. He did not expect to be bumped into by his former boss. Without any explanation, he forced him to have dinner with him, he even called his former colleagues who were on good terms with him over.

Faced with a large group of people fawning over him, Pu Yunchuan didn't know what to say for a moment.

He was actually quite troublesome about this kind of thing, so he didn't reveal his identity as a player at the beginning. However, he was too successful in galaxy, and his private information had long been exposed by other players and posted on the Internet.

As a result, there had been some inexplicable people visiting his home recently. According to his mother, even the mayor of City C came to visit his father every day for a drink. The reason was actually very legitimate, saying that they were relatives walking around.

Pu Yunchuan was stunned at this point. Since when were we related to the mayor?

"Why not?" Pu Yunchuan's mother rolled her eyes at him and said, "The current governor is the nephew of your grandmother's second brother-in-law! He didn't move around much in the past, but now that you've become successful, these unorthodox relatives will naturally become relatives!"

Pu Yunchuan: "..."

His mother really understood...

Social Society!

Thus, he turned around and wanted to go out and hide for a while to prevent those so-called relatives from finding him. However, he did not expect to be caught by the supervisor who had been squatting outside his house for a few days. As expected, Isabelle was right, it was a stupid idea to come back personally!

"Yunchuan!" In the private room, the supervisor poured some wine for Pu Yunchuan with a smile and said, "I was thinking a few days ago that you really have no conscience. Even if you leave your job, we have been colleagues for so many years. How can you not keep in touch for one or two years? "So you went to do something big!"

"That's right, Brother Chuan. You Don't remember us after such a great thing?" The people around quickly joined in the jeering.

Pu Yunchuan laughed as he drank his wine and said, "I thought we weren't allowed to reveal this in the past..."

"What about now?" The supervisor heard this and quickly said, "I've heard that you're doing quite well over there. You're the mayor of a city, and now our country's leader has to rely on the election to get to the top."

"My city is different..." Pu Yunchuan laughed and said, "Players can do it if they work a little harder. You can do it after you go in!"

"Hey, Brother Chuan is being modest..." the former leader of the technical team quickly toasted him. "I'm afraid that it's difficult for ordinary people to achieve your achievements. After all, you're a person who can do great things!"

"I've passed, I've passed..." Pu Yunchuan quickly said, "You don't know what I look like, leader? I'm just a loser. I'm not a person who can do great things? I'm just lucky. There are a lot of opportunities over there now. Everyone here will definitely be better than me in the future!" As he said that, he stood up and toasted everyone!

When the supervisor and the others heard that, they looked at each other and felt that this guy was indeed different from the past. He was impervious and had some standards!

Just as they were thinking of how to open up the situation, a quiet-looking girl beside them saw that the big shots had finally stopped talking, she carefully asked, "Senior Chuan, is that place really as good as the Internet says it is? I look at the pictures of the cities, and they are so beautiful! There are also five other cities that are just like the special effects cities in the Movies!"

Seeing that someone was sincerely asking about galaxy, Pu Yunchuan's gaze softened a lot. He still had some impression of this girl. Her name was Hou Jiaojiao, a two-dimensional otaku girl with a little bit of fantasy, she was a very rare female code farmer who was not polluted by the social atmosphere.

However, there were actually quite a lot of such situations. Most of the girls in the code farmer industry were kind and naturally dumb. Of course, there were also a lot of shortcomings, such as love to eat instant noodles, not love to do housework, sloppiness, not washing feet... ..

"Most of the situations exposed on the internet are still very realistic..." Pu Yunchuan answered seriously, "Especially the structure of the city. When Huaxia City only had a template, many of us didn't believe that the city could be so beautiful, but in fact, it can be done. So, don't look at the other five big cities only having a concept map, but believe me, when the city is built in the future, it will be almost the same as a concept map, or even better!"

"Really?" At first, Hou Jiaojiao's eyes lit up in surprise, but then, she seemed to be in a dilemma. "Such a good place, I don't know if I can go..." "Why can't I Go?" Pu Yunchuan smiled and said, "Now everyone has a chance."

"But the competition is so strong..." Hou Jiaojiao said in distress, "I just looked at the data published on the official website. Our Huaxia City has already applied for more than 70 million people, but Huaxia city only accepted 150,000..."

“UH...”. Pu Yunchuan smiled awkwardly. “That’s the situation for now, but I think you should have a chance. You prefer to specialize in technology. Although you didn’t take the postgraduate entrance exam, you can actually consider being a developer. The chances of a developer being accepted are much higher. If you feel that Huaxia City is competitive, you can consider the other five big cities. We, the people of Huaxia, are still very competitive!”

“Speaking of the cities outside...”. A colleague beside him suddenly said, “Did you guys see the notice issued by America ? As long as We Chinese people go there, we can deliver houses and cars, and we can also get an annual salary of 150,000 US dollars, and our engineers are even higher. Do you think we should go to America to develop?”

“I’ve heard that news too. I feel that it’s a little fake. Isn’t it a little exaggerated?” Someone beside him said.

“Fake what? The notice issued by worldwatch has already passed the Parliament Bill. How can it be fake? I’ve already said it. If we go, we’ll receive 200,000 USD. If we go, we’ll become millionaires!”

“D * mn, we really are. I never thought that one day we would be licked like this by the US government.”

Everyone immediately started discussing fervently. Pu Yunchuan smiled and did not say anything. He just drank his wine quietly.

When the supervisor saw this, he immediately asked, “Yunchuan, what do you think of this matter?”

Pu Yunchuan was actually too lazy to care about this matter. However, when he saw that a few young men, including the naturally slow-witted Hou Jiaojiao, also revealed a trace of fervor, he ultimately decided to remind them. As for whether they would listen or not, that was someone else’s matter... ..

Thus, he put down his wine glass and said faintly, “In this world, where can there be a free lunch? For others to suddenly be so friendly, they naturally have their own motives. You guys are only thinking about those benefits, haven’t you thought about what you will give up?”

Chapter 804 the situation among the people (middle)

Everyone was stunned. There was no such thing as a free lunch in the world. In fact, most people understood this principle, but understanding it did not mean that they would be rational. This was a common problem of most people.

Pu Yunchuan said to himself, “According to the latest policy announced by that side, for citizens who are willing to join them, a 200-square-meter villa in a high-end community such as a first-tier city, a luxury car worth 50,000 US dollars, and a guaranteed high-paid job, the annual salary is expected to be more than 150,000 US dollars. Doctors or senior researchers, doctors, and engineers can have a guaranteed annual salary of 300,000 US dollars. During the period when they are not working, they can be guaranteed a three-year minimum wage, and they can receive 80% of the guaranteed monthly salary... ..” “Do you really think it’s normal to give such benefits for free?”

Everyone remained silent, only Hou Jiaojiao said in a low voice, “Senior is right. Such benefits are indeed not very likely. They are probably trying to trick us into not paying them. Anyway, when we join their nationality, they will be able to do whatever they want.”

“That’s not...” Pu Yunchuan sighed. Now, under the influence of Isabelle, Pu Yunchuan had gained a lot of knowledge in politics, and he was much more open-minded than before.

“Unless their brains are soaked in water. If they dare to publicly renege on the bill like this, their country will be thoroughly disgraced. You have to know that the competition this time is intense. They are not the only ones who want to rope in the players from central China. If they want to burn the bridge after crossing the river, they have to at least confirm that there is no hope for the city election. Moreover, the five major cities this time are not the end point. Mars is so big, how can there be only five cities in the future? “In the future, as the number of players increases, the number of cities will also increase. Now that our reputation has been tarnished, we won’t even be able to get a ticket in the future. I’m afraid that only the once-famous number one player in D Ball, Chuan Jianguo, would dare to do such a thing.”

Everyone:” ...”

“The promised benefits will not be small...” Pu Yunchuan continued to analyze, “Even if their official finance and banks risk their lives, they will still be able to hold on for this wave. And I’m afraid that it won’t end there. When we get there, those private capital groups will definitely offer more favorable conditions, especially those players who have already confirmed that they can enter the game. Not to mention the villas and luxury cars, they might even be willing to share some of their shares with you!”

As soon as he said this, everyone’s faces turned red and their breathing became rapid.

Looking at everyone’s appearance., pu Yunchuan sighed and said, “But everything has a price. Giving such a high discount will definitely require you to create more value. For example, after joining the US, you can only vote for the American candidate. This is one of the conditions. This will cause your fate to be tied to the American candidate. Once they fail to board the ship, you can only sink the bottom of the ship with them.”

“The second is the deprivation after entering the game. There will definitely be a treaty in this area. Right now, the benefits given to you in D will be as good as the exploitation in the game. This is because after you are bound to them, you will no longer have the right to make your own choices. Just this one item is like fish on a chopping board. You should weigh carefully which is more important!”

After listening to Pu Yunchuan’s analysis, everyone fell silent, after a long while, someone carefully said, “But... “...” . “But we might not be able to enter the game. The competition for city admission this time is so big that the things that can be seen after entering the game can not be touched. However, the benefits in America are real. As long as we go there, there will be...””

Pu Yunchuan did not try to persuade him. From the moment the World Federation chose to accept the Sea of stars, all the financial systems established by the current federation were destined to depreciate rapidly until they finally collapsed completely, it was impossible for his colleagues not to see it, but what else could he say if he didn’t care. After all, they’re not the only ones in the world who choose to give up the future now... ...

“Yun Chuan...” The supervisor, who had been silent for a long time, finally spoke, “If it’s possible, we don’t want to leave our hometown and take such a risk, but...” ... “But the chances of staying here are too slim. Yun Chuan, you’re doing so well over there now, can you help us?”

They had finally gotten to the main topic...

Everyone looked at Pu Yunchuan without blinking.

Pu Yunchuan also looked at the crowd, his heart filled with complicated feelings. Among the colleagues in front of him, the longest he had worked with was about five to six years.

But in terms of relationship, to be honest, it was just average. In today's society, how much affection could there be between colleagues. If you're great, I'll give you a few hundred Yuan when you're having a happy occasion...

Moreover, this supervisor, he had worked under him for so many years and had never experienced the other party's care. According to seniority, he should have been promoted a long time ago, but in order to promote his trusted aides, the supervisor had chosen someone else over him, this kind of thing was very common in the workplace, and Pu Yunchuan could understand it. If he did not allow others to be close to him, did people think that he was distant?

But understanding was understanding, but it did not mean that he agreed. After all, he was a victim of benefits, how could he agree? It was already over if everyone smiled and parted ways. He really could not understand the kind of relationship he had with the other party. Where did he get the confidence that he would help him?

Seeing that Pu Yunchuan did not reply and was looking at him curiously, the supervisor's face immediately revealed a trace of embarrassment. He also knew that he and Pu Yunchuan actually did not have that kind of relationship, but... "...". He only had this layer of relationship. Even if the hope was slim, he still had to give it a try.

Thus, he braced himself and said, "Yunchuan... we have worked together for many years. Now that you are doing so well over there, please lend us a hand. This favor, we brothers will remember it for the rest of Your Life!"

After hearing this, Pu Yunchuan understood that the other party did not have anything to offer. To put it bluntly, he was just licking his face to beg for it... ..

Hence, he smiled and said, "Look at what the director is saying... It's as if I don't help you, you guys will hold a grudge against me for the rest of my life..."

Uh...

The director's face immediately stiffened and he quickly laughed dryly, "What are you talking about? Yunchuan, you really know how to joke. If you can't help, there will definitely be difficulties. How can there be a reason to hold a grudge if you don't Help!"

"Oh, Haha, I'm relieved to hear that from boss. I was afraid that you guys would blame me, hahahaha!" Pu Yunchuan immediately laughed while holding his head.

Everyone's faces stiffened when they heard that. It was obvious that he did not intend to help them.

The supervisor's heart sank as he quickly said, "Yunchuan, this matter is of great importance. You... you really can't lift a finger?"

"I really can't lift a finger..." Pu Yunchuan shook his head. "The ten slots for each Lord are fixed. I've long used up all of them. This time, in order to get two extra slots for my parents, I've spent a lot of effort. A bunch of my relatives visit my parents every day to persuade them. I also have a headache!"

Everyone instantly understood what the other party meant. My relatives haven't even taken care of them yet. Where are you guys going?

Everyone's hearts instantly turned cold!

"Boss, is he really not going to give us any face at all?"

After Pu Yunchuan left, a young man with thick eyebrows and big eyes asked with a frown.

Many people silently glanced at this person. This guy was the one who had snatched Pu Yunchuan's position as project manager back then... ..

"Now his identity is different..." the supervisor said faintly, "Isn't it a matter of mood whether you give him face or not?"

"A villain gets what he wants! !" The young man immediately said.

"Goldie, didn't you say that you saw the governor of City C bringing gifts to Pu Yunchuan's house the other day? Did you take a photo?"

"Yes, I took a photo!" Goldie said quickly.

"Find a public relations team and post the photo online. The content will be written like this..." as he said that, he started to create a rumor.

The surrounding colleagues were silent when they saw this. Some were gloating, while others felt that it was inappropriate and frowned.

Hou jiaojiao also frowned and said, "Director, even if he doesn't help, is there a need to offend him?"

"What are you afraid of?" The director sneered and said, "If he doesn't help, we are going to America anyway. What can he do to us then?" "He just got lucky. Don't look at how he's doing now. He's just a loser. He won't be able to go far in the future!"

Hou Jiaojiao was silent when she heard that. Was it really just luck that could say that kind of analysis? In terms of judgment alone, that senior PU Yunchuan was much better than this well-dressed fellow in front of her.

I Can't go to America with this bunch of idiots. Thinking of this, she looked at the phone. She remembered that she had left a senior's wechat message...

Chapter 805 Folk Situation (Part Two)

Pu Yunchuan did not go home immediately. Instead, he found a noodle shop and ordered a bowl of noodles. He was not in the mood to enjoy the noodles at the restaurant just now, he did not go home and ask his mother to cook noodles for him because he did not want to get in touch with his relative who had suddenly appeared.

He needed some time to ease his mood. In C City, no matter how tired he was, a bowl of noodles and a bottle of fat otaku happy water could not solve his mood.

After chewing the pure red soup spicy noodles, he immediately took a sip of iced coke into his mouth and diluted the taste of the spicy garlic with the sweet taste of soda. It felt great.

Although the material was a little bad, when he went back, he would find an opportunity to discuss with the little cabbage. He would ask her family to try to get some high-end agricultural products like wheat and make some better flour, he had to let City C's little noodles, this good thing, flourish in the New World!

Just as he was enjoying the meal, his phone suddenly rang. Pu Yunchuan picked up his phone and realized that it was a voice call from wechat. Pu Yunchuan looked at the name and saw that it was Hou Jiaojiao. He frowned and picked up the call.

“Senior, can we meet in private?” Hou Jiaojiao’s straightforward voice came from the phone.

Pu Yunchuan frowned even more. “What’s the matter?”

Although he had a good impression of this little girl, they did not have much of a relationship. If she wanted to ask for a spot on her own, there was nothing he could do to help. What a joke. The value of a spot was not something an ordinary person could imagine, many lords wanted to increase the number of spots to gather more developers to strengthen their technological competitiveness.

Even if it was private, they would at least want to get their parents and family members in.

However, in order to prevent such a situation from happening, the main base would not allow it. Only he, little cabbage, and the other great lords were temporarily given a few extra slots based on the base’s contribution points.

In the future, the Lords would have additional slots. This would depend on the new castellan’s policy.

This was also the key to balancing the lords in the future. The castellan would decide on the population, while the Lords would absorb resources and develop at a high speed. In order to increase the competitiveness of the new players, they would have to rely on each other, the reliable new castellan would definitely not give too many benefits to the current Lord players.

This was what Isabelle had analyzed for herself. She also agreed with this point of view. Even during the public beta, the number of slots available to the Lords would be limited.

In such a situation, it was either someone who was extremely important to him or someone who was extremely helpful to his faction. Otherwise, an ordinary Lord would not be able to give away the slots!

He jiaojiao obviously did not meet both of the criteria!

“Senior, please rest assured...” just as Pu Yunchuan frowned, Hou Jiaojiao hurriedly explained on the other end of the phone, “I’m not here to ask for the slots. I just want to ask you a few questions. Is Senior Free Now?”

Pu Yunchuan was stunned when he heard that. The other party directly said that he did not want a spot, which made him curious, then nodded: “Oh, there is still some time, I am in the west street old woman stall noodles here to eat noodles, you want to ask what now come over, you alone?”

“Yes, just me...”

“Um... well, come straight over, I’ll wait here for you...”

At this time, as the information was released, Pu Yunchuan was not the only high-end player who was troubled by his relatives and friends. Many players, especially lord players, were facing pressure from their neighbors and relatives.

Including, of course, Li Goudan’s family.

But because Li Goudan is still sailing at this time did not come back, pressure came to Li Goudan mother: Zhang Minjun here.

At this moment, Zhang Minjun was sitting quietly on the sofa in the villa, while the aggressive Li family members were sitting opposite her.

“Minjun...” Old Master Li was the first to speak. “It’s fine if Jiayi isn’t sensible in such an important matter, but how can you help her hide it from us?”

Old Master Li originally thought that Luofu was just a simple immortal cultivation sect, but it turned out that it wasn’t at all. New Worlds, new technologies, new energy sources... all of them were existences that made capitalists go crazy, especially the genetic technology that could extend one’s lifespan, when elder Li found out about all this, his eyes immediately turned red!

“The higher-ups don’t allow it...” Zhang Minjun replied lazily.

In fact, she had been busy with tailoring training recently and had rarely returned to the Li family. This time, she had only returned to take advantage of the open beta to bring her parents in. Who would have thought that the moment she came out, she would be blocked by the Li family members who had been crouching for a long time... ..

Facing elder Li’s questioning.., zhang Minjun smiled and said, “The old man should also know that in this kind of situation, the players of galaxy must have been forced to keep it a secret. This is not only limited to Jiayi, but the child of the Liu family also didn’t say it in advance, right? “But our Jiayi has fought for the family many times, right? “The granddaughter of the eldest uncle’s family, the son of the eldest sister-in-law’s family, and a few other juniors of the Li family. Although they were accepted in the name of Luo Fu’s intern disciples, they were still accepted. Now, they can be officially promoted to Huaxia City players right away.”

“What kind of favor is this?” Some of the Li family’s disciples immediately disapproved. “If we knew about this, wouldn’t our Li family have already gone in?”

Zhang Minjun looked at the other party with amusement. "Is that so? Now that the news has been announced, why aren't you guys rushing into Galaxy?"

"UH..." many of the disciples immediately choked. ...

Seeing that the other party was speechless, Zhang Minjun sneered and said, "Back then, it was closed beta status. Many people on the Internet already knew about this game, so they didn't have to wait in line obediently? "Three years after this game was released, many people waited in line for three years. Until now, there are still a lot of people who didn't get in. Otherwise, how did the market get 500 million people to wait in line?" "Now, there's no need to talk about it. Huaxia city already has 90 million slots, and less than 150,000 people have been accepted. Do you really think that everyone can get in, so why do you have to come here and talk to me?"

Hearing this, the Li family's momentum instantly froze. What the other party said was actually true. If everyone could get in after the open beta, how would they have the time to waste on this woman? They had long gone into the game to seize the market.

Although the Huazhong candidate's policy hadn't been announced yet, according to the calculations of the old man and the others, the scope of the influence of capital in this population recruitment was probably extremely limited, this was also why the Li family would once again collectively look for this woman whom they originally didn't want to lower their heads to.

"Sister-in-law...". At this moment, the Li family's leader, third Li, who replaced Li Yichen, said, "Don't listen to that Brat Zhihui's nonsense. We all know that Jiayi must have fought for the Li family's interests, but..." "...". "We just feel that with Jiayi's current power, she should be able to help the Li family even more."

"I can't help..." Zhang Minjun shook her head. "Jiayi isn't a lord-tier player. In the astral world, she's a worker who joined a lord-tier force. Asking for a few slots from the higher-ups is already the limit of what she can do."

"This..." the Li family members looked at each other, but elder Li, who had been silent all this time, suddenly said, "Daughter-in-law, if Jiayi doesn't have a spot, what about you?"

"Oh?" Zhang Minjun suddenly raised her eyebrows. "Why does the old man think I have a spot? How long have I been in there?"

Elder Li smiled when he heard that. "I heard from my subordinates that my two in-laws have booked tickets to come here. You asked them to come, right? Your wife asked your parents and your younger brother to come at this time. Could it be that she just wanted to reminisce about old times? Do you have a quota or... .. Do you want to use Jia Yi's quota to help your family?"

Zhang Minjun's smile gradually faded when she heard that. She didn't expect the old man to be so subtle. In order to not let others know, she called her parents and younger brother with new mobile phones and new cards, she didn't expect the old man to find out.

That's right... she had a quota!

Chapter 806 Zhang Minjun's family history!

That's right, Zhang Minjun had a spot on her own!

When her daughter brought her into galaxy, she was also very confused when she first came to the new world. Her daughter had once wanted her to start a new life. After a period of consideration and understanding of the situation in that world, she decided to return to her old profession and become a fashion designer. With the help of her daughter's funding, she opened the first tailor shop in the New World.

However, at that time, she only wanted to live a new life and do what she wanted to do. She did not expect her career to be so big in such a short period of time.

Due to her original design talent, the blessing of the Elven bloodline, and the cultural accumulation of the elven race in design, she instantly had countless inspirations. It also made her tailor shop business almost unrivaled in the new world.

After all, at that time, no player had considered starting from a lifestyle class. Everyone wanted to be a single adventurer or a lord who owned his own land.

In this almost non-competitive environment, Zhang Minjun consolidated her foundation and opened her first clothing shop in the Gondolin City of Pu Yunchuan, earning herself a lot of early-stage points.

Later on, as her business was getting better and better, she began to recruit apprentices to share her workload. However, the natives of the New Territories were far inferior to the Orthodox players in terms of learning ability. This made many high-end designs, especially in the area of enchantment.., no one had been able to share it with her.

Of course, this also caused the cloth armor and clothes that were used for the early-stage enchantment to become extremely expensive. It also allowed her to earn a lot of early-stage funds.

In the middle stages, Zhang Minjun, who had the idea of opening a chain store, finally turned her attention to the players. Hence, she posted notices in the main base to recruit clothing designers, enchanted apprentices, and so on.

In the notice, she proposed that players who were willing to sign a contract could receive her free nurturing. She would spend her own funds to train players to go to the main base's master tailors to learn the basic tailoring and enchantment skills, then, she would provide the materials to train their skills, and all of this would be provided free of charge.

However, the prerequisite was to sign a labor contract that was as long as a hundred years. She had to work regularly for the tailoring chain store that she had set up. There were mainly two types of people, the Enchanter and the designer. The Enchanter would work for her three days a week, she was responsible for enchanting the designer's products. She had to complete a certain amount of work. Of course, these work were also paid, and the pay she gave was very reasonable.

The second was the designer. The designer had to take on some specific orders for her every month to meet the design requirements of some clients, and a certain amount of design orders had to be received every month, only in her spare time could she do other things like take risks.

And the treaty was flexible. For example, if you wanted to make more money in this field, you could apply to get more design orders, and the Enchanter could apply to do more enchanting work in the shop for a week.

Of course, if you were keen on taking risks or becoming a Lord, you could also spend money to regain your freedom later on. The initial price was set at three times the training fee!

Did it sound familiar? It was a bit like the current Huaxia City's Lifestyle Profession Training System? That's right, this system was started by Zhang Minjun.

Even she herself did not know that this system would directly become popular in the headquarters later on. Moreover, it was used by little cabbage and others to suppress overseas players!

With this system, she allowed the majority of the elven players to break away from the difficult period of not being able to move bricks and earn points. She opened up a part-time job for lifestyle players, allowing her to have a large number of tailor designers and enchanters, this also allowed her business to rapidly expand throughout the new world. It also allowed her tailor shop to spread throughout the various lords. Almost now, when one mentioned the tailor shop, the first thing everyone thought of was the Dogball tailor shop.

Now, in a certain information that exposed the big shots in the New World, Zhang Minjun, as the big boss of the tailor world, her evaluation would definitely not be inferior to those great lord players. She was considered a rising capitalist.

According to the data provided by the developer of the main base, Zhang Minjun's existence not only allowed the players to increase their production efficiency, but it also solved the employment of many women in the New World, moreover, the tax she provided was only below that of the five Lord ranked players.

When Zhang Minjun personally applied for the quota, seer happily gave her special privileges. Now, like the other lords, she had ten invitation slots.

With the quota, she naturally had to take care of her family. Hence, she immediately contacted her parents and brother in the distance. She did not expect that the Li family would stop her and question her?

Zhang Minjun immediately sneered in her heart.

Back then, after she married into a wealthy family, because she was not welcomed, it was difficult for her to even move forward. Not to mention using the resources of a wealthy wife to take care of her family. Her parents also understood her very well, all these years, she had never asked her to do anything for her family.

Even when her younger brother went abroad to study and was forced to mortgage his house to get a loan due to lack of money, he did not call her to ask for help. If it was not for her younger brother whispering to her during the new year..., she did not know that her family had reached such a stage.

But at that time, she still could not help her family because the family's economic privileges were not in her hands. And even if it was in her hands, using her husband's money to subsidize her family was always a little unjustifiable, especially when she was not favored.

The price of marrying into a wealthy family made her lose the opportunity to be filial. This was also something that she had regretted for many years. Now that she finally had some achievements of her own.., when she could finally stiffen her back and take care of her family members, this group of Li family members became enthusiastic.

Looking at this group of Li family members who were questioning her righteously.., zhang Minjun sneered at old master Li and said, "It's rare that old master is so concerned about me. You even know the movements of my family members clearly. TSK TSK, why didn't I know that Old Master was so considerate in the past?"

Old Master Li choked when he heard that. How would he care about the situation of the poor in-laws in the past?

"Sister-in-law, let's get down to business..." old third Li quickly said.

"Ha..."Zhang Minjun nodded. "Well, let's get down to business. You guys guessed right. I do have a spot!"

As soon as these words were said, the Li family members immediately burst into an uproar. A sharp female voice of the Li family immediately rose. "Thank goodness Old Master is wise. Otherwise, I would really let you take the spot to your mother's house!"

Zhang Minjun looked at the girl who spoke with amusement. That person was the daughter of the third brother of the old master, Li Caixia. Looking at the other party's confident words, she could not help but laugh out loud.

"What are you laughing at?"Li Caixia said angrily.

"I'm laughing at you for being Shameless!"Zhang Minjun faced the Li family and straightened her back for the first time, she said with a smile, "My quota, I, Zhang Minjun, earned a quota in that world! Is there anything wrong with me taking it to give to my parents? How did it become something that you said would benefit my parents? Does this quota have anything to do with your Li Family?"

Chapter 807 You Won't deny this, right?

Zhang Minjun had always given the impression that she was very weak in the Li family. Otherwise, she wouldn't have dared to bully the housekeeper. This caused many people in the Li family to secretly look down on her even after what happened last time, they thought that she was just lucky to have a good daughter like Li Jiayi.

After the information was released, they even scoffed at Li Jiayi's brilliance. They thought that both mother and daughter were lucky, especially Li Jiayi. As the first batch of players to enter the game.., in the end, she ended up working for someone else? There were a total of 10,000 players in the early stages of the game. There were hundreds of lord-tier players. She, Li Jiayi, could not even get one for her family. Just like her mother, she was not presentable.

If the quota had been given to her in the beginning, why would there be any problems with those brats now?

With this psychological advantage, they were actually very aggressive this time. However, they did not expect this woman to be so strong today. Li Laosan looked at his sister-in-law, last time, when Jiayi helped her stand up for her, she was still so weak. However, now, her imposing manner was so strong that the Li family members could not even breathe!

This should be the effect of that genetic bloodline, right?

Damn dog shit luck!

“Sister-in-law, that’s not what you said. If you say it’s your quota, who can verify it?”Third Li said coldly, “You only had the chance to enter through Jia Yi. Now You’re telling me that you don’t have a quota for Jia Yi? Who Do you think will believe it?”

“That’s right!”The group of Li family members immediately nodded in agreement.

“What does it matter if you believe it or not?”Zhang Minjun looked at the other party in amusement. “Even if this spot is Jiayi’s, do you think she will listen to me or to you?”

“You...”the Li family members were instantly angered... ..

“How can you be so Shameless?”Li Caixia, who had just been rebuked, suddenly bared her teeth and brandished her claws. “You took my Li family’s things and gave them to your family, yet you still claim that they are yours. You Slut, you really...”

Slap! !

Just as Li Caixia was about to curse out loud, a crisp clapping sound interrupted her. Everyone was stunned, including Li Caixia, who had just been slapped, because no one had expected that the person who had slapped her would actually be old master Li.

“Old Master, what are you doing?”Zhang Minjun’s expression did not change as she looked at the other party. She smiled and said, “It’s not like it’s only been a day or two since you’ve been insensible. Why must you discipline me in front of so many people today?”

“You...”Li Caixia covered her face and was about to scold him when old master Li suddenly used his walking stick. “Shut Up! !”

The crowd fell silent again with a puzzled look on their faces. Only Zhang Minjun looked like she was watching a show.

Old Master Li Sighed and looked at his daughter-in-law with a complicated expression. He recalled the cautious and even treading on thin ice look of this woman when she first entered the family.

At that time, his first thought was: After all, she was born in a small family. She was small-minded, and it was difficult for her to climb the social ladder.

It was also at that time that he determined that Zhang Minjun was not suitable to be the wife of the person in charge. In addition, he had not given birth to a male son for the Li family, so he did not like her even more.

However, he did not expect that after so many years, he had actually made a mistake!

This time, in order to ensure that his information was as equal as possible, he secretly hired a professional analysis team to collect and analyze the information released by Galaxy.

It was also because of the information that he had collected that he actually understood in his heart that his daughter-in-law and Li Jiayi's granddaughter were doing better in galaxy than he had imagined!

According to the information that he had gathered, there was a player in galaxy who had also made a professional ranking, which included the ranking of the ten great lords, the ranking of the ten great crocodiles, and the ranking of the ten great strength value players!

Needless to say, Li Jiayi was ranked seventh among the ten great strength value players, and the Wind Demon was first. Although she was not a Lord player, such an achievement was definitely not as useless as those Li family juniors thought... ..

And his daughter-in-law's achievement today was even more unexpected.

The ten great crocodiles ranking was based on the valuation of commercial assets. There were executives from the Lord's forces, as well as pure businessmen who started their own businesses. The ranking was based on the valuation of the industries held by the other party.

The top five rankings were: Alice, Isabelle, Daddy Dog, Little Fairy, Zhang Minjun...

His daughter-in-law was actually in the top five. She monopolized the tailoring business in the New World and was the leader of the job nurturing model.

According to the player, Zhang Minjun had worked with the top 50 lords. She already had over 100 tailoring shops under her. She had over 1,000 enchanters and tailors under her, she was the second largest tycoon in the non-lords' private capital. She was second only to dogdad, who had opened restaurants all over the New World.

Zhang Minjun had only spent a year and a half to do all of this.

Moreover, Zhang Minjun herself was now recognized as the strongest enchanter and designer. The products she personally produced were worth thousands of gold. She could already produce a level 4 high-magic product. A finished product would cost over 1,000 points in an auction.

Whether it was her own design talent or the business skills she displayed in 'galaxy', it was enough to prove that this daughter-in-law of hers was not the little woman she had thought of in the past!

After gathering all this information, elder Li's mood could be described as extremely complicated. If he had not viewed his daughter-in-law as a perverted person and instead treated her as Yichen's good wife to be nurtured, with her talent.., even if the incident in galaxy did not happen, she would definitely be the Li family's helper who could hold up the fort!

How did things end up like this?

"Minjun..." after a moment of silence, elder Li finally asked, "How many places do you have?"

Zhang Minjun was stunned for a moment before she looked at the other party curiously. The other party's question was very interesting. He directly asked her how many places she had and did not seem to suspect that the source of that spot was really Jiayi, as mentioned by third elder Li.

Thinking of this, she took a deep look at the old man and finally smiled. "It seems that the old man has put in a lot of effort this time. Not only did he spend all his energy to care about my family, but he also investigated my situation quite a bit..."

Everyone was stunned when they heard this. What did this mean. Could it be...

Old Man Li smiled bitterly and said, "It's this old man who made a mistake once..."

When he said this, all the members of the Li family were stunned...

Zhang Minjun also smiled. If she could get this old master to admit defeat like this, it would not be in vain for her to use her real name in 'Sea of stars'.

"I'm the same as the Lord. There are a total of ten cooperation spots..." Zhang Minjun said leisurely in an extremely carefree mood, "Apart from my parents, I plan to bring my brother's family of three to the Sea of stars..."

Everyone's eyes instantly turned red when they heard that. Their faces were filled with heartache and anxiety. They felt heartache for the five spots that had been wasted by outsiders. They were anxious about how they would divide the remaining five spots among themselves?

Zhang Minjun found it funny when she saw these people's expressions. Why did these people still believe that the spots should be theirs until now?

"Say, you, it's fine if you give them to your parents, but why did you even bring your younger brother's family of three? Do you still want to include your uncle's relatives?"

Li Caixia could not help but scream.

"I don't know if I will give it to my eldest uncle and his family..." Zhang Minjun smiled as she looked at this young lady with a twisted face. "But I won't give it to you anyway..."

"You..." Li Caixia's face turned pale. The surrounding Li family members quickly distanced themselves from her!

Looking at those useless descendants of his, Old Master Li shook his head secretly. After taking a deep breath, he said in a low voice, "What are you willing to give up those five spots? Daughter-in-law?"

"I have to ask Old Master..." Zhang Minjun said with a smile, "Old Master, what do you have that I can take out these five spots? You Can't just call me daughter-in-law and I'll take them out, right?"

The members of the Li family looked at Old Master in a daze. From the looks of it, could that spot really belong to Zhang Minjun? Suddenly, they felt a little guilty and looked at Old Master Li.

Because they didn't know what else the Li family could use to exchange for quotas and shares? Money? The position of the Li family's eldest wife? ... These things seemed to have already been exchanged when they were negotiating with that little girl Jiayi...

In the face of the eager expressions of the juniors, the corners of the old man's mouth twitched. What kind of things had he taught these years?

In the end, he sighed and said, "Daughter-in-law, if I use the other half of the Li family's shares to exchange for your spot, are you willing?"

Zhang Minjun was amused. "Old Master is also a businessman. Do you think you are willing to exchange for your spot?"

Now that she had thrown out one spot, there were definitely countless capitalists who were willing to exchange their family's shares for it. Why did she choose the dying Li Family? And she wanted to exchange for five in one go?

Everyone was instantly furious. Third brother Li said angrily, "Sister-in-law, what exactly do you want?"

"What do I want?" Zhang Minjun was even more amused when she heard that. "Isn't it because you guys blocked me out of nowhere? I'm just here to pick up my parents, okay? If there's nothing else, please make way. I have to go to the airport to pick them up."

"You... you... you don't want to leave today don't say clearly!" Li Caixia sternly way.

"On what basis?" Zhang Minjun looks at each other to smile way: "On what basis you this group of old weak and disabled?" Or your bodyguards outside? I thought... You Didn't come here without doing your homework? Don't know what a player stands for? Do you want me to show you the basic difference between a normal person and a player?"

"You..." third brother Li immediately retreated and pointed at the other party. "Do you still dare to make a move?"

Zhang Minjun smiled and looked at the other party without saying anything. When everyone saw this, they all retreated and thought to themselves, "This crazy woman won't really dare to make a move, right?"

Of course she would dare to make a move. Zhang Minjun looked at the Li family members with malicious intentions. She had wanted to beat up this group of Li family members for a long time!

"Daughter-in-law!" Just when the situation was about to develop in that direction, elder Li finally spoke.

He looked at Zhang Minjun and said with a serious face, "What if it's Jia Yi's request?"

"Oh?" Zhang Minjun was instantly stunned. She looked at elder Li and said, "What does elder Li Mean?"

Elder Li said in a low voice, "Although everything you have now is your own hard work, it was Jia Yi who sent you to that platform back then, right? I know... Jiayi is close to you, but she has half of the Li family's blood in her body. You Won't deny this favor, right?"

Zhang Minjun's smile instantly disappeared when she heard that...

Chapter 808 Grandpa Lu's Guide: top players (Part One)

"Grandpa Li sure knows how to talk..." Zhang Minjun said faintly.

Indeed, Grandpa Li was right. No matter how close Jia Yi was to her, she still had half of the Li family's blood in her body, and it was thanks to Jia Yi that she was able to enter the galaxy and develop to this stage, it was all thanks to Jia Yi that she was able to pull herself into that threshold.

Among the Li family members, he owed the most to his daughter.

"Old Man, do you want Jiayi to come and take my five spots?" Zhang Minjun looked at Old Man Li and asked.

"I can't help it..." old man Li smiled bitterly and said, "There are not many things that our Li family can take out to impress our daughter-in-law."

BoxNovel.com

"Okay!" Zhang Minjun nodded. "If you can persuade Jiayi to come to me to take the spots, I will give it to her. Also, I won't interfere with Jiayi's choice. Everything is based on her own ideas!"

"Sister-in-law, can you guarantee it?" Third Li asked excitedly.

Zhang Minjun did not even bother to glance at him. She said coldly, "What do you have? What do I need to guarantee you?"

Third Li choked. Elder Li, who was at the side, nodded. "It's a deal!"

Zhang Minjun did not say anything more when she heard that. She called the new housekeeper, who had brought her luggage, and followed her outside. Because of her threat just now, many members of the Li family quickly made way for her... ..

After Zhang Minjun left, a group of Li family members surrounded old master Li. Old Third Li hesitated for a moment before finally asking, "Old master, that quota... is it really sister-in-law's own?"

Looking at everyone's expressions, old Li sighed in disappointment. "I say, you guys are so concerned about this matter, but you're not even willing to do your homework? There's so much information on the internet? Didn't you think of collecting it?"

With that, he threw the information out of the bag and walked away angrily.

A group of Li family staring blankly at the snowflake-like paper, a few seconds later hurriedly scrambled to pick up the scattered information, together to watch.

See above the careless write: Lu Grandpa Guide!

Hello, everyone, hard-working Grandpa Lu to update the latest strategy for you, Ha Ha, the recent results are still satisfied, thank you to see the support of the official.

Alright, let's talk about the current situation first. The mayor's election is currently the hottest topic. However, since the policies of many candidates have yet to be announced.., first of all, there is still no news about the Huaxia City's election. Only the candidates have been announced. As for the candidates from the five overseas cities, not even one-third of them have come up with policies, and none of them are popular with rankings, for example, mister, Arthur, West Germany's Angor, universe country's song

Caiyi, and the three countries' Amir, these well-known celebrity candidates had yet to make any moves, therefore, Grandpa Lu probably updated a lot of people and they did not find it very interesting.

So, today, let's talk about the internal situation of galaxy.

The five newly built cities all only had one main base. In the future, the situation would mainly depend on how the city Lord would govern. It was hard to predict now, so let's focus on Huaxia City.

Unlike the other five major new cities, in three years, Huaxia City's influence had basically taken shape. Most of the first batch of players had obtained a huge advantage. Today, Grandpa Lu would be teaching everyone about it, the existence of these big shots.

First, the Combat Power chapter that everyone was concerned about!

Most of the new players would enter the Sea of stars because they wanted to become passionate adventurers, right? They must also be very concerned about the combat power between races!

Which Race is more powerful? Which combat class in the race is more powerful? It must be something that many passionate players are concerned about. There are many different opinions on this topic. Grandpa, I Can't give you an answer based on my opinion. Since that's the case, let's use the current facts to speak, let's use the ranking board to Analyze This!

First, let's announce the top 10. Among the top 10 players, the Green Titan and the ELF players each took up half of the total. It sounded like they were evenly matched. However, everyone should not look away. Out of 50,000 players, the Green Titan players took up 30,000 while the elves only had 15,000 players, moreover, the new players took up around 10,000. In other words, among the older players, the ELF players actually only had a few thousand people. However, these few thousand people took up more than 70 seats in the top 100 of the Combat Gang!

Did this mean that the elven players were much more powerful?

This was not the case. In a one-on-one battle, the elven players who focused on agility had a slight advantage over the powerful Green Titan players. However, if it was on the battlefield or in a group fight.., the Green Titan players definitely had an overwhelming advantage. This was something that had been tested before.

Hence, if you wanted to become a Lord, you could consider the Green Titan if you wanted to go on the battlefield and wipe out thousands of soldiers. If you wanted to be an adventurer, a player who enjoyed the life of a solo adventure, the flexible elves would be more suitable for you.

Next, it was time to announce the top ten big shots for everyone to recognize their faces.

First of all, it was ranked 10th: Emperor of the liver. He was an old player. In the past, he had fallen below the 30th rank. After that, because he had joined the little cabbage tribe, he became a partner and received a huge amount of resources. He quickly rushed back, his job class was a gunner. He was very famous in the northern golden tribe. He was an existence at the level of the little cabbage tribe's wargod.

Ranked 9th: Pu Yunchuan. He was also an old player. The actual lord of Gondolin had found a good wife in the other world. He had single-handedly planned a garrison city for him and became the second Lord, hence, he was one of the few big shots who were ranked on both the combat power rankings and the Lord Rankings. (so have you seen how useful a good wife can be?) The combat class was also a gunfighter!

Ranked eighth: the little fairy with athlete's foot, a real estate tycoon, one of the top ten tycoons. Half of the land projects in Huaxia City were contracted by her, and she had the highest quality team of architects in galaxy under her, many lords in Jiancheng City had come to her for business, rich ladies who had started their own businesses. However, I heard that it was settled by that old man, Dogdad. The merger of the two tycoons, real estate, and food, I simply couldn't imagine it... ! Combat Class: Pugilist!

Ranked seventh: Li Goudan. She might not be familiar with this fellow who had yet to enter the game, but most of you should have heard of her other titles. Green Sparrow, Dragon Group: No1, the number one person in central China, Yang Wei! That's right, the number one person in the dragon group who had killed all the foreign extraordinaires in Ba tie was this person. Her original name was Li Jiayi. It was said that she was also a rich second generation, and was known as the person with the best talent in galaxy, this was because she had only spent three months from No. 53 to No. 7. Her combat class was elf: Wind Demon. She was currently the number one player in Wind Demon, and her mother was Zhang Minjun, who was ranked fifth among the ten biggest crocodiles. She was a super big shot who monopolized the tailoring industry in the New World. With such high talent and the support of such a powerful mother, it was hard to imagine what would happen in the future. It was said that she was still single... ..

Ranked sixth: Xu Xian Dare * Snake (I didn't dare to write sensitive words, I've been blocked for the past two days...) unknown adventurer player, it was said that he was the guy who earned the highest exploration points in the black goat map. He loved to explore the mysterious realm and was very handsome. He looked a little like the Goldie in LOL. Combat class: Ranger, the strongest Archer in galaxy!

Ranked fifth: Yun Ji Mu. She was a low-level player. She only joined the game about a year and a half after the game started. Her previous identity was the ace disciple of Yunshan immortal cultivation. Now, her class was dark-skinned. Dark-skinned was a class exclusive to Huaxia City, it was a little strange. Moreover, the early stages were more resource-intensive. It was not recommended for grassroots players to choose. Other than her own talent in immortal cultivation, she also had an awesome boyfriend, in fact, her boyfriend was not that awesome. It was her boyfriend's dad, who was the founder of dog egg restaurant. He was currently ranked third among the top ten crocodiles, dog dad.

Ranked fourth: little cabbage. She was the only level 5 developer in the base. It was said that she was almost level 6. Originally, she was not on the Combat Power List. After all, level did not mean everything in a battle. In the end, there was a banquet to snatch meat, I heard that she used her spiritual energy to fight over 70 players, including Emperor liver.

If it wasn't for the lack of specific data, it wouldn't be impossible for this big shot to be ranked first. After all, level was the king... ..

Rank 3: Chen Yutong. Her combat class was fantasy thorn. She was ranked first in terms of control skills with cold star. However, due to the difference in strength, she couldn't defeat cold star every time she fought. She was a pure combat class.., he was one of the representatives of Lone Wolf players.

Ranked second: Cold Star. His combat class was a full-time player. He was the only player who had mastered all of his weapon skills to date. He had even mastered his dagger to level-4 specialization. He was definitely a control-type monster, there was no one who could beat the Green Titan in the base. His control skills were even better than many high-agility elves. (hence, it has been proven that to an expert, any race can become a monster!)

Next, the first ranked player was announced. This person was very interesting. She was one of the few high-level players who directly stood for the position of candidate. Now, she was known as the leader's personal bodyguard. That's right., she was the one who killed a great British Knight: Feng Doudou.

As for why she directly stood for the position of leader. Next, Grandpa will give you a shocking melon...

Chapter 809 Grandpa Lu's Guide to the top players (Part 2)

At this moment, Feng Doudou, who was holding a large bucket of octopus balls in his arms, was walking back with a satisfied look on his face.

Many passers-by looked at her. It was not because they were attracted to her, but because she was not using her DNA. Instead, they were attracted to the fish balls in her hands.

The aroma of the fish ball was very attractive. Many high-end people could not help but drool. They thought, where did you buy the fish ball? It smelled so good?

The fish ball was not bought around, but a new product from Gouda seafood restaurant. As soon as it was launched, she bought two buckets. Considering the huge consumption of the elf body, she decided to eat it in her original body, a bucket of fish balls could last for a day. This way, she wouldn't be tempted to spend her half-month's income on Gouda's food.

Carrying the fish balls, Feng Doudou strolled into an old courtyard in the suburbs. In the courtyard, a stiff-faced middle-aged man was seriously educating a group of juniors. At this moment, Feng Doudou walked in, the group of youngsters was immediately attracted over and looked at him with a complicated expression.

The middle-aged man, who was originally reprimanding the juniors, turned around when he saw this and immediately relaxed. He smiled and said, "Doudou, you're back?"

After taking a closer look, one would realize that this middle-aged man looked very similar to the leader. Even his stern and stiff aura was exactly the same.

"Yes, I'm back, Hubby!" Feng Doudou's eyes narrowed into a line as he smiled.

"Cough..." the middle-aged man's face turned slightly red when he heard Feng Doudou call him that. He coughed lightly and said, "Where's Dad?"

"I had something to discuss with elder lei, so he told me to come back first..." Feng Doudou smiled and waved the fish ball bucket in his hand. "Hubby, the new fish ball from dog egg restaurant. I waited in line for a long time to buy it. Do you want to try it?"

The juniors immediately lowered their heads to hold back their laughter. The middle-aged man coughed awkwardly and said, "There are so many children here. What does it look like?"

Feng Doudou didn't care. "They aren't my children!"

The juniors' expressions became even more conflicted. Only one of the girls didn't hold back her laughter. She looked at Feng Doudou and bit her lips tightly.

"Xin 'er, what are you doing? Can't you call for help?" The middle-aged man said with a straight face.

The girl who was called Xin 'er struggled for a long time before she finally called out softly like a mosquito, "Mom..."

"Hey!" Feng Doudou immediately replied with a smile.

The girl immediately puffed up her face and looked at this woman who was about her age. She felt a wave of bitterness in her heart.

"Come, give me a string of fish balls to eat!" Feng Doudou said with a smile as he handed over a bunch of fish balls.

Hearing this, the girl became even angrier. Do you think I, a three-year-old puppy, AM using snacks to tease you? You even gave me a string of fish balls?

However, the fragrance was too tempting. Although she was extremely reluctant, her body took it very obediently...

She bit down hard and said in her heart, I don't want to embarrass my father in public!

MMM... it's so delicious! ! ! !

"Doudou... ." The middle-aged man suddenly spoke: "You see the latest Grandpa Lu Post, your information has been published."

"Oh?" Feng Dou Dou immediately smiled and narrowed his eyes. "Really, let me see!"

At this time, Lu's guide was updating the information of the Big Melon:

Feng Doudou, Yanjing native, 21 years old, graduated from Huazhong First Academy of Fine Arts. The original name of the game was shadow, one of the most mysterious players before the open beta, whose identity had never been known before, but the professional BUG had forced him to transform into a ghost, her fighting style was extremely strange. Even Cold Star, who was known for his skills, had lost to her several times. She was widely recognized as the number one battle player.

She was also the representative of the current adventurer Lone Wolf player.

Wasn't everyone curious about why such a character would take the initiative to join our leader? Was she willing to be a personal bodyguard?

Haha, this had to start from her real identity. She was the eldest daughter-in-law of the current leader!

Perhaps many people will ask, isn't the eldest son of the great chief almost 50 years old? Feng Doudou just announced that he was only 21 years old.

HMM... .. You didn't see wrongly, but have you forgotten that long Huasheng is a university teacher of the first Academy of Fine Arts, so... That's right, this is a teacher-student relationship between an old cow and a young grass...

As far as I know, even long Huasheng's daughter is one year older than Feng Doudou. I really don't know how that young lady will feel when she calls her stepmother...

However, don't think that Long Huasheng is an old shameless person. On the contrary, as far as I know, this lord is an extremely serious person. After his wife passed away in the early years, he has never married and has a clean conscience, he was a big shot with excellent moral character in the academic world.

As for why he crashed his car in his later years, it was because Feng Doudou was too intrepid. It was said that she directly drugged professor long, causing others to lose their virginity in their later years. However, that Lord was an extremely orthodox person. Our Doudou had agreed to take responsibility for him as soon as she cried and made a scene... ..

Wasn't that too melodramatic? But that was the truth. Therefore, a man should know how to take care of himself, see? Even in their old age, there were still young girls crying and making a scene, and even trying to marry you. Now that this young wife was the number one player on the star ocean battle rankings, were the singles in front of the screen angry?

Alright, let's get back to the main topic. Everyone, don't be in a hurry to close the screen. Cough, cough... I said that this matter wasn't just to provoke you. Provoking you was just one of the purposes, but the main purpose was to point out a clear path for everyone.

As the daughter-in-law of the great leader, Feng Doudou would definitely be his father-in-law. If the great leader was elected as the city lord of Huaxia City, with Feng Doudou as the number one battle player., then, the political situation of Huaxia City might be more stable than expected, because the city's official resources might be biased towards Feng Doudou.

Her battle class was already very special. Now, without any resources, she would definitely be able to take the number one position on the player battle rankings. If she had the support of the official city, it would probably be a very long time., she would definitely become the number one expert.

Moreover, with the deterrence of a high-level combat player, a Huaxia City Lord could establish an armed force. Let Me Make a bold prediction. If a great leader was elected., huaxia city's official force would probably be the highest among the six major cities, and it would also have the greatest influence on players. It wouldn't be much worse than the current situation in central China.

However, there were some benefits to this. After all, a powerful official power was definitely more useful than a casual official power. As for the atmosphere that was slightly more relaxed and freer, everyone could consider the other five major cities.

Alright, that's all for today's introduction of the player leaderboards. Tomorrow, I'll update the detailed analysis of the Lord ranked and giant crocodile leaderboards. Compared to the purely combat leaderboards, the formation of lord ranked and capital giant crocodile forces would be more technical, there will also be a textbook-level demonstration for your future entry into the galaxy.

So Grandpa I will be very careful for you to analyze their willingness to succeed and the right place at the right time, so today, please like, monthly tickets, subscription support!

[F * * k, this melon... I never thought... Feng Dou dou, the fierce man who killed Enzos is actually an uncle lover, terrible, I've decided to grow a beard from today on!]

[hehe, the one above, what does this have to do with a beard? It depends on the face!]

[F * ck, why can't I do such a good thing? I'm also a university teacher, why can't I encounter such a scene? I don't need to drug you, as long as you take the Initiative!]

[F * ck, the one above, a scum. I'm Done!]

[speaking of which, I'm very interested in the Lord's chapter. Right now, everyone is bragging about how the Lord's players are doing. What exactly do they know? What advantages do they have? I really want to know.]

[that's right, that's right. This dog Grandpa is broken and soft. Can he finish it all in one go?]

Chapter 810 Grandpa Lu's Guide: The Big Players (Part Two)

As the day of the "Galaxy" election drew closer and closer, the majority of the queuing citizens became more and more anxious. They all fantasized about how they would start their new lives after entering the New World, they were also anxious about whether they would be able to enter at the first opportunity.

This kind of torturous waiting was even more torturous than waiting for some authors to update their chapters. It was this factor that caused any content published by the game players on the Internet to attract the attention of ordinary people.

As the king of traffic, Grandpa Lu's every guide drew the hearts of the masses, because the guides he had previously published were very practical and were what many people who had not entered the game wanted to know.

For example, the updated Big Boss chapter, many people also wanted to know the specific situation of the current high-end players.

In the eagerly awaited update, Grandpa Lu's guide also arrived on time.

BoxNovel.com

Everyone had been waiting for a long time. Today, Grandpa came to update everyone with the latest blockbuster chapter. He suggested that everyone take a small notebook and memorize it, because these people were now the real grandpa MA, temporarily the top composition of the pyramid, their growth history would be the reality textbook after you entered galaxy. Due to the limited space, the blockbuster chapter only introduced the top five, so without further ado, they went straight to the main topic.

No. 5 on the Giant Alligator Board: Zhang Minjun, the current number one tailor in galaxy, the leader of the fashion industry, and the founder of the enchantment industry. This big shot has not been in galaxy for a long time, only one and a half years, they were the real latecomers, so don't lose confidence just because you entered the game late. This was a new platform. Opportunities were everywhere, and there was still plenty of room for improvement!

Zhang Minjun was an elf, but she did not like to choose to go out and adventure after reaching level 2 like the majority of the players. Instead, she started her specialty in this New World: Fashion Design!

With the support of her daughter, she chose to train the tailoring and enchantment skills here. At that time, very few players chose this path.

The reason was simple. Most players could only earn money by moving bricks and mining in the beginning. For example, Elven players, who did not have the strength to move bricks in the early stages, did not even have the qualifications to do so. They could only rely on grazing cows and sheep in the pastures, or, they could earn points by taking care of plants for new experiments in the various gardens. The amount of points they could earn was so small that it was difficult to even use them to pay for their daily training.

Many players could not wait to go to the new world after level 2. At that time, almost no player would choose to spend their limited funds to learn forging, enchantment, tailoring, cooking, and other life skills.

However, Zhang Minjun chose to do so, and with her talent in design, she was able to learn this area like a fish in water, and because of her daughter's first angel investment, she successfully opened her first tailor shop in the Golden District of Gondolin.

And because of all this, she quickly accumulated her first bucket of gold. And she was not satisfied with the current situation. In order to expand the scale, she opened a free reservation system to attract players, it was the first time that the current lifestyle job market had a targeted system. It could be said that it was a big shot that changed the era!

And now, 80% of the tailor designers and 90% of the enchanters in galaxy were under her tutelage. They had signed a contract with her for at least 100 years, almost monopolizing the enchantment industry, as a result, many big shots had to cooperate with her in order to make high-end cold weapons. It was said that she was the wife of the head of the Li Group and held 50% of the shares of the group. She was a strong woman, the facts proved that big shots were big shots everywhere!

No4: The Little Fairy with athlete's foot: Huaxia City's number one real estate big shot. Now, half of Huaxia City's construction industry and 70% of Huaxia City's Lord's construction industry were covered by this big shot, just because she held the highest quality construction team in galaxy, many people might ask her how her team came to be. Just listen to this Grandpa's detailed explanation...

Back when players first invaded the astral plane, in order to plunder the basic population, the base would even reward you with points for plundering the population. At that time, everyone was still concerned about the food issue, the land farmers with rich farming experience in the population type became the most sought after. At the highest point, a land farmer could be exchanged for one million federation coins in the real world!

However, this big shot took a different path. The population that she plundered was the engineering corps of the Steel Martial Empire at that time. In the beginning, many people even laughed at her for making a big mistake, however, they did not expect that in just two months, the value of the engineering corps would soar greatly because of the start of the city construction plan!

However, this big shot didn't choose to sell her population to kill the goose that lays the golden eggs when the price of the military engineer skyrocketed. Instead, she chose to further optimize it. She took out a large sum of credits to fully train her team, she let her military engineer group learn the latest construction techniques and crafts in galaxy, and trained the talented natives inside to become high-quality carving masters, Material Masters, and Architecture Masters! Those who were not talented had also become skilled middle-level craftsmen under her training at all costs. This also allowed her to build the strongest ace engineering corps in galaxy!

Now, she was like Zhang Minjun, starting to train players to learn the life skills of architectural masters or carving masters for free, and continued to maintain the entry of high-end engineers, she also continuously encouraged the descendants of those engineers to continue their father's business, taking pride in the construction industry and providing a large number of preferential policies and benefits. It was simply a construction industry empire that would last for thousands of generations!

NO3: Dogdad, the number one restaurant owner in Huaxia City, the founder of the Dogegg restaurant chain, is also a family member. He is the father of our galaxy's number one mascot, Wang Dogegg. This father's cooking skills are superb, after learning the culinary skills of galaxy, he walked further and further on the road to becoming a master chef. In terms of personal skills, even the person in charge of teaching chefs in the headquarter was no match for him.

Now, he had opened his own training class to train high-level chefs for free. However, the prerequisite was that he had to sign a long-term contract like Zhang Minjun, and he had to work in his restaurant chain for a fixed time every week.

It was said that after his training class mode was activated, the Lord of the main base, Seer, was already thinking of kicking out the original chef... ..

A moment of silence for him...

Then, there was not much to say about the history of dog father's rise. In the catering industry, taste was king. With his superb cooking skills, he had caught up with the era when the ingredients were greatly upgraded. It could be said that he was blessed by the heavens, therefore, men who were good at cooking wouldn't do too badly. Did those men in front of the screen who only knew how to cook egg fried rice understand?

No2: Isabelle, don't be scared when you hear this name. You'll think that it's a foreign player who just came in and suddenly became a giant crocodile. There's no such thing. This Isabelle is a native of the new territories, she was poached by our second great Lord Pu Yunchuan's discerning eyes and became his wife. From then on, she started her BUG-like life.

As for how Isabel helped Pu Yunchuan become the second great lord, we will talk about it in the Lord's chapter in the future. By the way, the reason for the delay in updating the Lord's chapter is because of insider news, the strength of many hidden lords has just been calculated by the developer team. For example, the new force: Ice Crown Lord should be in the top five. This caused Grandpa to have to modify the content of the post, he planned to wait for the developer's research data to come out before updating it for everyone.

Back to the main topic. As the nominal castellan of Gondorin, Isabelle was also the leader of the biological gene surgery market. After controlling Gondorin and getting her first pot of gold, she suggested that Pu Yunchuan Open the path of an extreme biological civilization. Now, it was even more focused on the gene surgery market. Facts proved that her path was extremely correct!

Everyone, don't think that only the people of Planet D need genetic surgery. If you want to strengthen your own people in outer space and earn more benefits for you, you have to spend a lot of money to improve their quality, here, other than upgrading their professional skills like little fairy, there was also an increase in their own foundation, which was their life level.

High-level life forms not only had stronger combat abilities, but their learning ability was also stronger. Considering the future opening of the universe era, the genetic surgery market was definitely one of the markets with the most potential in the future, and now, Pu Yunchuan, who mastered the most advanced biological gene surgery, was the current leader of this industry. This example told us not to look down on the local Aborigines, many times, if you dug carefully, you might be able to find a talent that you could not imagine!

No1: Little Cabbage, the first lord of Galaxy player is also the first giant crocodile player. In the field of commerce, now in the field of materials, agriculture, and cold weapon forging, she is the leader of the leaders, the leader of the leaders, it is said that her territory contributes one-third of the total tax revenue of the base!

Regarding this guy's origin history, I can only describe it as fantasy. Many times, I feel that this guy has a protagonist template? It is the legendary child of the plane in the novel!

Do you dare to believe that she became the first lord of the sea player only because she got lost and was snatched away by the natives, and finally was worshipped as a chieftain? Can you believe that she found Alice, who was recognized as the first military counselor, and was kidnapped because she got lost. Then, she became her henchman? Can you believe that she ate, slept, and ate every day at home and became the first level 5 player in galaxy?

This example tells us that we should find a way to enter galaxy. If such a lazy and stupid guy could become the first player, what else is impossible in this world? Even if you are a loser and have no ability in front of the screen, what if you are also an extremely lucky person? You might even be able to reach the peak of your life!

Okay, the Big Brother Chapter has been updated to here for the time being. The Lord's chapter will be presented to everyone after the city election. I heard that the extremely popular celebrity candidates have already arrived in central China and are discussing cooperation projects, i believe that the policy will be announced soon, after Grandpa Lu will continue to update the latest situation for you, I hope you continue to pay attention to, thank you!

-LSB- daGrandpandpa's last paragraph is really the authentic poison chicken soup, poison i almost did not catch my breath!]

Yes, it reminds me of the old saying that all roads lead to Rome, but some people were born in Rome

[after hearing what Grandpa said, the chances of a new city are still high. Look, the new city has no infrastructure and no population. In order to get these, the new city Lord will definitely encourage everyone to plunder the population reward points. The chances are obviously higher than that of Huaxia City.]

[it can't be said that way. Huaxia city's scale is mature, and its development is stable. In addition, the politicians of this country will come to power, so they will definitely focus on stability. There is a mature life skills training system here, which will allow us to enter the new world earlier. The chances are also not small. After all, the colonies outside are the bigger stage, and the new city is just the novice stage.]

[what the person above said makes sense. Who knows what kind of magical policies those foreigners will have when they come to power. It is indeed a little unstable. Huaxia city is still better. I have already signed up for Huaxia City as my preferred city. The competition is high. At most, I will wait a little longer.]

On the other side, after reading the strategy, the Li family was silent for a long time, and then one after another toward the place where Old Li left... ...
