Chapter 81: 81: by the way, is madam Wang Goudan of the Guilong group around?

Inside the Martian base, Seer smiled in relief as she watched the beams of light appear one after another. The first few batches of players had returned safely, and the mission was as smooth as the intelligent deduction, the players had found the antibodies in the cities where the intelligent deduction might have appeared, and sent them to the local medical center.

However, the team led by Rainless Melon had yet to return. According to the intelligence, the team that was most likely to bump into an extraordinary had yet to return. This caused Seer, who was initially relieved, to become slightly nervous. After a few hours, the intelligence reported that Rainless Melon had failed the quest and requested to be teleported. Seer was slightly surprised.

Although he did not know the reason, he was still satisfied when he heard that the three intruders had been recalled. In any case, the remaining four cities had already completed the quest successfully. Controlling the virus was only a matter of time.., as long as he could retrieve the players, he would be considered to have completed more than half of the mission.

In the end, as a few rays of light flashed past, Seer took a look and felt that something was missing.

BoxNovel.com

Right... that piece of SH * t was missing.

"Where's Grandpa Lu?" Seer hurriedly asked.

Rainy Melon's face turned black when she heard this. She did not know how to answer. What could she do when she met such a teammate?

However, the next second, AI prompted, "Mission completed. Now, the reward for the first party's points is announced!"

"Huh?" All the players in the party were stunned. They thought to themselves, didn't the mission fail?

"Player Rainless Melon is a good commander. The additional reward is 500 points, but in the end, she gave up on the mission. The reward for completing the mission without completing the mission is 500 points in total. Player Wang Goudan killed seven special ninjas, one captain-level special ninja, one extraordinary captain, the reward is 3,100 points. Player Li Goudan killed two extraordinary members: the reward is 600 points...". "..."

"F * ck, these human-headed dogs! !" The little fairy who returned empty-handed was furious. Not only did she not receive any points, but she also had to pay an extra 100 points for the weapon rental. She felt like she was F * cking a dog.

"Player, my ancestor Lu Benwei did not use cheats. At the last moment, he completed the mission alone. He will receive all the points according to the party's human-headed record. Reward points: 4,000! !"

All the players: "Holy Sh * t! !"

“How did he complete the mission?” Raingirl, WUGUA, frowned.

While they were talking, a light flashed and the players immediately saw Grandpa Lu who completed the mission alone.

“Eh...” Xi ye rubbed his chin with a strange look on his face. “Why... is he so much smaller?”

The other players were also dumbfounded. In fact, when they saw Grandpa Lu and the others, they wanted to ask. That guy was originally a pile of green SH * t the size of a human, but when they saw him in the dungeon, he was only the size of a basketball. Now it looks like ping-pong... . .

“Ge Lao Zi’s...” Grandpa Lu teleported back with a dispirited look on his face. “That big black brother’s cigarette smell is really overbearing! !”

Players:”...”

Now, news reports: many countries in South Africa have made breakthroughs in the study of antibodies to the virus and have begun mass production of the serum. Experts from all countries have also sent out exchanges to apply for this antibody sample. The virus storm may be completely quelled in two months...

According to the latest intelligence, the North American embassy in Wakanda was attacked by a mob. North America claimed that this was a premeditated frame, resulting in the deaths of many important people in North America and causing them great losses, they will definitely investigate to the end, and will never let go of any criminal who tries to harm the safety of the North American people!

The Wakanda Medical Center was attacked, and many top medical experts were killed. The director-general would personally go to the funeral and award the victims with the highest honor medal in the country to commemorate their contribution in the fight against the virus, he strongly said that he would investigate the murderer and would definitely not tolerate such atrocities!

According to rumors, on the day of the explosion of the North American embassy in Wakanda, a Phoenix appeared in the sky above the city...

“A Phoenix?” At the meeting table of the North American Intelligence Bureau, a few big shots were listening to Joseph’s report with disbelief on their faces.

It was obvious that from Joseph’s description, the fire phoenix rescued the antibodies, and then the second team of the extraordinary army was completely annihilated. There was definitely another supernatural force behind it.

But who was it?

Could it be that it could create the illusion of the Fire Phoenix?

Even now, they still did not believe that the legendary creature was real.

The white man sitting at the center of the conference table said in a deep voice, “The most likely ones are the Kagura faction and the Huazhong faction. The day before Serena was killed, she reported that she had captured a biological weapon sample that was suspected to be from the Huazhong faction. The weapon’s performance is superior, far superior to the tyrant that we spent ten years to create.”

“How is that possible?”The other generals in military uniforms frowned. In the field of genetic research, North America had always been at the forefront of the world. Other countries would not even be able to eat dust, it was unacceptable for them to say that Huazhong had created a biological weapon that was superior to their latest achievements.

“Serena should not be lying. She said that her performance was superior to that of a tyrant, so there must really be such a sample. No matter how Huazhong did it, we have to take the sample!”

Everyone fell silent. If Joseph said that the second team was completely wiped out, then naturally, the sample must have been taken as well. This result made them feel even more uncomfortable.

“I heard that the Kagura faction was also involved in taking the sample. Could they be the ones who did it?”

“It’s highly unlikely...”. The leader in the middle shook his head and said, “Kagura is our old enemy. We know each other quite well. It’s highly unlikely that they want to completely wipe out the second team, which is the greatest counter to their Kagura Legion. On the contrary.. “...”. The central China organization, which had no intelligence at all, was even more likely... After a short pause, he continued, “In Serena’s report that day, apart from the description of the Green Giant’s specimen, she also mentioned something else. She said that there seemed to be a creature similar to the fire Phoenix that neutralized a wave of missile attacks from South Africa!”

“Neutralized missiles?”Everyone was instantly horrified. This was an incredible piece of information. Joseph had just said that there was indeed a fire phoenix that had appeared.

“What... What kind of scale can it cancel out?”The few white men on the left who looked like military officers immediately said.

Everyone knew how useful modern war missiles were. Long-range attacks were the most threatening means of attack for big countries. Until now, no country could complete a 100% missile interception. Experts also said that it would be difficult to break through this point technically, but what if... ? . There are supernatural forces that can do this?

Many bigwigs could not sit still, this is a fatal news, if a country has this ability, the world structure is afraid to be broken! !

The face of the white man in the middle was as gloomy as water. He said coldly, “So the most important question now is to find out how far Huazhong has reached in this area! ! !”

Inside the Huazhong Embassy in Wakanda:

“Welcome, Welcome. Is there anything you would like to tell us about your personal visit, President?” After the president of Huazhong received the visiting President into the VIP room and personally brewed a pot of tea, he asked politely.

“I’m here to thank you!” The president smiled and said in fluent huazhong, “I’ve heard from the leaders of the other Allied countries that all the medical centers in these few cities were delivered by the Huazhong Dragon Group. On behalf of the South African Union, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude for your kindness to South Africa!”

What the hell? The curator’s eyelids twitched and he was dumbfounded. He thought to himself, is this black brother drunk? Even the dragon team came.

“Especially today. You guys did a great job. To be honest, today is the happiest day since I took office. You guys did what I’ve always wanted to do. I’ve always wanted to blow up that eyesore in North America!”

Damn! The curator was stunned and quickly said, “Is there a misunderstanding?”

Hua Zhong could not take the blame.

Seeing the other party’s expression, the curator was stunned, then, he came to a realization and said, “Oh, I understand. Your country’s way of doing things is to keep a low profile, right?” Hahaha, I understand, I understand. I won’t divulge this cooperation. But to be honest, you guys should have shown such strength long ago. Why hide it? “Look at how arrogant the five major mercenary groups are internationally.”

“That... I want to say it...” the curator didn’t know how to respond.

“Oh right, is your country’s dragon team leader, Rainy, Wugua, and Ms. Wang Goudan, still in Wakanda? If possible, I want to express my gratitude to them personally.”

The curator: “...”

Chapter 82: 82: The Lord’s troubles...

“Dragon Group?” In the Huazhong Base, the old military officer who received the report from the Ambassador of the Wakanda Embassy was also baffled. Beside him, an old man with the same military rank as him was looking at him with a strange expression.

The old military officer came back to his senses and saw his old partner’s expression. He was immediately stunned and said, “What are you doing?”

“Old Li, you’re quite shady. Although it might be a top-secret national secret, I haven’t received any news about it after so many years. You’re quite the chief executive officer!”

“What nonsense?” The old commander called Old Li immediately waved his hand and said, “Don’t tell me you really believe in that Dragon Group?”

BoxNovel.com

"I do. Why Not?" The short old man nodded and said seriously, "Our great-grandfather told us before that there's an ancient and mysterious supernatural organization in China called the Dragon Group. I've always felt that my position hasn't reached that stage, so I don't know about this secret..." "..."

"Nonsense!" Old Li rolled his eyes immediately. "The great-grandfather also said that there are twelve zodiac guardians and the Gourd Baby."

"Really?"

"Nonsense, look at that name. Rain girl without melon? Wang Goudan? Is it a proper name? It's obviously a prank, okay?"

"Then who is it?"

"WHO KNOWS!" Old Li sat on the office chair and sighed. "Maybe those old monsters have nothing to do and left the mountain?"

"Go to South Africa? Are you kidding me?"

"Then I don't know..." Elder Li said, "You know the situation in Huazhong. Back then, Li Shiming of the eastern Tang Empire established a bad man to recruit talents from all over the world. When thousands of nations came to the imperial court, he was very glorious. However, later on, his Li family turned hostile and refused to recognize him. They were afraid that the mutants would threaten the throne, so they killed all the young talents sent by the major forces. As a result, the major forces retaliated by helping to start a riot, which greatly weakened the strength of the Tang Empire!"

"After that incident, the various major powers no longer trusted the imperial court. Even after the Song dynasty's Zhao family visited several times, they refused to see them. Even after they were invaded by foreign forces, they did not make a move..."

The old man beside him said faintly, "At that time, the overall situation was like that. The country was weak. Even if a few inhuman forces made a move, they would not be able to save the situation. These years, the country has become stronger. Didn't they just help us to deal with the supernatural forces from the outside?"

Old Li shook his head. "It's because of your thinking. You want to use them and ostracize them. That's why they refused to be used by US. They only reluctantly signed the agreement to protect the country. Otherwise, with our country's inhuman background, the five international mercenary groups are nothing!"

"What else do I have to do? I just need to lick the bottom of their shoes. Aren't they all arrogant?"

"Alright, Alright. It's been so many years, and they still have the same bad temper, just like old Liu."

The short old man who mentioned Old Liu's bad temper just now suddenly said, "Old Liu seems to be having a birthday party. Are You Going?"

"I might not be able to go..." Old Li shook his head and said, "I'm afraid this matter won't be simple. We have to investigate it carefully. If someone intentionally uses our reputation to do something, I've prepared a gift. When the time comes, ask he hua to send it over. You can also help me send my regards."

The short old man nodded when he heard that. It was not a big problem to ask the eldest son to represent the gift, so he smiled and said, "Then busy man, you're busy. I Won't accompany you. I'm Old and will be leaving soon. It's a good time to go to Old Liu's house to take a look. Do you have any outstanding juniors?"

"Take a look at what? Grandson-in-law?" Old Li teased.

The short old man did not avoid it at all. "So What? We can't compare to your family's thriving descendants. Other than that useless son, we only have this one precious granddaughter. We have to choose carefully. How can we be at ease to go into the coffin?"

"Nonsense again!" Old Li shook his head in annoyance and then said, "But I heard that Liu Wenhao, the son of the Liu family's eldest, Sihwa, has a very good reputation among the younger generation."

"That child?" The short old man shook his head in dissatisfaction. "I've seen him before. He's young and has deep thoughts. I don't like him."

"TCH, it doesn't matter whether you like him or not. It's fine as long as your granddaughter likes him, right?"

"I don't like it. My granddaughter doesn't like it!"

"Hey... You Old Fart..."

Mars:

After the mission was completed, the base resumed its daily life. As usual, the players worked hard to earn points and sweat for the first piece of silver scale breastplate.

The grassland of the base was constantly expanding, but it still couldn't keep up with the demands of grazing. Logically speaking, it should be time to start the modification plan for Mars.

However, a problem that troubled seer appeared. The original plan to transform Mars had to first stabilize the magnetic field. Only by doing so would the water in the Martian rock layer not be lost to the universe, only then would he have a chance to create the ocean and atmosphere.

As for how to interfere with the detection signals of the d-sphere satellite and the detection of the astronomical telescope, he had corresponding countermeasures. The signal aspect had the intelligence to invade and interfere, the astronomical telescope could create an illusion bubble outside the atmosphere, maintaining the illusion of the previous scene. Although his training in illusion was average, it was not a big problem to deceive the naked eye of a level-0 creature.

The key problem now was that he could not stabilize the magnetic field!

Originally, this thing was not difficult for him. He had bought a large magnetic field device before his first shopping trip, but the intelligence had been performing calculations for several days, and he still could not find a suitable place to place the device, this made seer very depressed.

The energy on Mars was still quite stable. Why would such a situation happen?

The AI's reply was that there was an unknown energy interference, which made him depressed. Where did the unknown energy come from?

Now, not only was the repayment of the loan imminent, but he also had no clue about the agreement with wine god Lord to provide 500 tons of energy crystals every year. With the little manpower he had now, and the amount of ore he had mined in a year., the amount of mixed crystals would probably not even reach one-tenth. When that time came, he would have to pay the penalty for breaching the contract. He could not delay the renovation schedule any longer!

He had to build an environment so that more players could come in. Only when he had sufficient manpower could he solve the current financial crisis.

However, the disadvantages also made him very troublesome. If a large number of players crowded in, it would lead to a serious shortage of educational resources. In the name of the game, if they kept mining and producing for a long time, a large number of players might get tired of it, it might even lead to the loss of players. After all, it was in the name of the game. Although there was a contract, in order not to be exposed, it would definitely not be forced to go online.

Under such circumstances, if the reputation of the game was destroyed again, it would be a loss that was not worth it...

However, he had no choice. What else could he do?

Sigh, he did not care about that. He had first modified Mars.

Thinking of this, he asked the AI, "Have you not found a suitable place yet?"

The AI said, "The magnetic field is chaotic. There is a very strange energy that is interfering with the magnetic field. Please send more people to search for the source of this energy. Otherwise, it will be very difficult to complete the magnetic field establishment!"

"Tsk... where are so many people sent out?" Seer's eyelids twitched. The observation ability of the Green Titan was average. The Ranger and wind demon would definitely be more suitable for the detection of this kind of work, but there were only so many elves in the base who had transformed.

Just as he was troubled, a wind demon suddenly flew over from outside the base. Seer saw it from afar. He gently raised his palm, and a gentle arcane power slowly caught it.

"What's going on? Why are you in such a Sorry State?" Seer frowned.

He knew this wind demon. It was Li Goudan, who had just returned from the mission. He was a wind demon and ranger, and was highly valued by the wind demon mentor. He was also the best among all the wind demons in all aspects of training.

"Lord... There's a monster! What a huge monster!" Li Goudan said anxiously.

"A monster?" Xi Ye was stunned. How was that possible? He had already explored this planet countless times. It was impossible for other creatures to be hidden on this planet. Moreover, in this kind of environment, there should not be any creatures, not even single-celled creatures.

"Tell me in detail..."

Chapter 83: 83: What Happened

Two days ago, after the completion of the mission, the game relaxed a little and a large group of players flooded in, causing the originally small base to become much more crowded.

As Grandpa Lu's post repeatedly emphasized the importance of the early job selection, many players who entered the game lamented that the scene of the base was realistic, but they did not sign the contract as foolishly as the first group of players.

Instead, they turned into newbies and pestered the old players who came in and out of the base to ask them all kinds of questions about the advantages and disadvantages of the race.

There were all kinds of strange questions. For example, the cute girl wanted to ask what the female model of the Green Titan was like? Would she bare her breasts? Would the muscular female Green Titan look very strange?

BoxNovel.com

"No, it's very sexy. If you don't believe me, look at me."The one who replied was the only female player of the Green Titan: The Little Fairy with athlete's foot. She heard that her answer had persuaded a lot of players who wanted to play female Titan to turn to the ELF camp.

Could the Titan really only carry bricks? Was it tiring to carry bricks? Wouldn't it seem boring to carry bricks all the time? Meng Xin continued to ask.

"How could it be? How happy is it to carry bricks? Let me tell you, carrying bricks is the most interesting. I've already carried them for seventy hours. Don't Stop Me. I'm not going offline. I'm not crazy. I want to carry 100,000 a day. Wahahaha! !"The reply was from the liver emperor who had returned to the base to repair his limbs and owed 500 points!

What is your greatest pleasure in the day, developer players?

Developer Player A: doing questions.

Developer Player B: doing a lot of questions.

Apart from the regular classes in the posts, how many hidden classes are open to elven players? What are their characteristics? What were their advantages and disadvantages compared to the regular classes?

Grandpa Lu, who had already returned to the size of a basketball, glided past with a bar of soap in his hand...

In any case, similar players had created a trend, causing many players in the base to be hesitant about the race. After all, they heard that it was a life-long race system. Even if they died, they would not be able to make a new choice, so everyone became very cautious.

However, the environment on Mars could not allow these players to walk out. Although there was a magnetic field outside the base, Seer, who had not undergone any modification surgery, would not dare to let them out without a backup brain. If they were trampled to death by a passing star rhinoceros, it would be a real accident...

Hence, the small base was filled with people. It was like a market. Lord seer usually had a lot of trouble entering and leaving, and he would be secretly blocked from time to time. Seer was so angry that he gave serious warnings many times, but it was useless.

Seer suddenly realized that the modification of Mars could not be delayed any longer!

Hence, a new notice was released. The Lord offered a high reward for finding the source of the abnormal energy. Those who found the source would be rewarded with 10,000 points!

As soon as this notice was released, the group of players instantly felt as if they had been injected with stimulants. They held the detector given by the Lord and wandered around all day. 10,000 points! The silver scale breastplate was right in front of their eyes!

What Li Goudan valued was the set of exquisite chain armor and scimitar forged by da Bao from the blacksmith shop. Each set cost a total of more than 14,000 points. Her reward from the previous mission was 3,000 points. If she found the source again this time.., then she would be the first boss in the entire server to have a complete set of exquisite equipment!

When she thought of this, Goudan was exceptionally excited. She had been working hard for the past two days to find the source of the so-called supernatural energy. As a wind demon that could fly, she had a great advantage in this mission.

This was also the first time she flew out of the magnetic field to carefully observe the map of Mars. To be honest, the map of this game was really F * cking huge. Sometimes, she wondered if it was really set up on a scale of one to one? How much memory would be wasted?

The topography of Mars was very similar to the video in the science and education column, but it was more realistic. Flying in the air and looking at this desolate planet, then looking back at the base that was full of vitality, a strange feeling welled up in her heart. She suddenly had the feeling that this was her home...

Doggie couldn't help but think, in the future, would there be a special territory on Mars that belonged to her. It belonged to her, and could be passed down from generation to generation, rather than spending more than half of her salary and paying an expensive rent...

Just as she was thinking, she suddenly saw a strange scene. She saw a group of dogs, yes! It was the dead dogs that everyone in the base wanted to cook with.

They ran out of the base so far in groups.

And those dogs seemed to be digging something...

With this thought in mind, the dogs moved closer. Then, a strange scene happened. The group of dogs suddenly stopped moving when they sensed her arrival. Then, they looked at her with a strange expression.

At that moment, she felt that the dogs were like people wearing dog skin. Their expressions were even richer than those in cartoons... "...". It was really hard to imagine that a dog face could make such a strange expression!

It was as if they were doing something bad and had been discovered by her... ..

"What are you doing?" Eggface asked faintly.

The dogs said, "Just walking around..."

"Oh..." eggface nodded, but then his body froze, and he looked up at them in disbelief...

The... dog spoke?

"Stop! !" Xi Ye interrupted eggface's retort, "Are you sure the dog spoke?"

He couldn't help but feel excited. Normally, star beasts that weren't intelligent creatures would need to be at least level 5 to learn a language, and they would need to be guided by a beast tamer or find a high level alchemist to adjust their potions.

However, there were a few star beasts in the universe that had this kind of talent, but all of them were high-level species.

But didn't the dog seller say that they were a hybrid species. Could it be... .. The gene mixture had evolved into a high-level species?

F * ck! Then it seemed like he had profited greatly from this!

"Lord, that's not the point!" The AI said seriously.

"Oh!" Xi Ye quickly said, "Then... What's with the monster you mentioned just now?"

"A very, very big monster!" Li Goudan said in horror, "At that time, when I was a little dazed by the dog's words, a huge flesh tentacle flew over from the sand. Fortunately, I reacted quickly and flew into the sky, but it was because I flew into the sky that I saw..." "..."

"What did you see?" Xi Ye asked.

"The sand on the entire ground is rolling!" Wang Goudan's expression was one of lingering fear, he muttered, "I can only see it with the naked eye. Under the sand, the monster's body is squirming. I can't tell what it looks like, but I feel..." At this point, she suddenly turned her head and said, "Lord, could it be that there are such monsters under Our Planet?"

Having a monster was a good thing for players, but for some reason, Li Goudan felt uneasy, as if his life was in danger.

Xi Ye also frowned. When they first set up their first base, he and AI had spent an entire year exploring this planet. They had already confirmed that there were no other creatures on this planet, even if there were leaks.., it was impossible that he had not noticed the monster with such a large body like this player had mentioned.

This was a fatal problem. The main base had all the players' backup brains. Once it was destroyed, the GAMEOVER would really happen!

Seer realized the seriousness of the problem and quickly said seriously, "Bring me to the scene to take a look!"

Chapter 84: 84: Major Incident

The problem... was even more serious than expected! ! !

Xi Ye followed Wang Goudan's instructions and arrived at the location he had mentioned. After scouting around, a chill instantly spread through her entire body. She stood rooted to the spot for a long time, unable to regain her senses!

There were obviously signs of a huge creature moving in the sand. Moreover, the sand on the marks had obviously turned purple, and it was emitting a disgusting stench.

Xi Ye almost instantly knew what was going on.

BoxNovel.com

It had been corroded!

There were only two types of energy in this world that could corrode inorganic matter, one was the undead energy, the other... . Was the void energy!

Damn it! !

How did he come across such a thing? ?

Xi Ye felt her heart sink to the bottom, this was a freaking cold rhythm! !

"Lord Leader!" Al said very seriously, "We have discovered the void energy, we suggest we immediately report it to the Universe Federation!"

Report it? Xi Ye's handsome face under the helmet frowned...

If he reported it to the federation, he really wouldn't be able to turn the tables... ..

Now that he had declared Mars as the ruling planet, Planet D wasn't even included in his sphere of influence. It wasn't that he didn't want to write it, you had to use data to talk about colonizing a planet, it wasn't that if you saw that planet, that planet would be yours., if there were no intelligent life forms, you could set up a base and report the basic data, then you would be able to apply for your sphere of influence. However, if there were intelligent life forms, you would have to complete all colonization before you would be qualified to say that the planet was yours!

If the federation were to report the discovery of an ownerless life star, there would not be many big shots who would come and snatch it. Once his treasure vault was exposed, there would be no reason for other powerful lords to come and claim it directly. That was because it did not belong to him at all!

Such a thing could never happen!

However, if they did not report it...

Xi Ye frowned deeply. The invasion of void creatures was not something a newbie lord could deal with. Even if it was an ordinary void crack, it would at least require a dragon-level expert to suppress it.

With his current resources, it was obviously impossible for him to give up the Mars base that he had just established... ..

Could it be... he could only use that...

“Lord Leader?”The AI reminded again, “Please report to the Federation immediately!”

“No Report!”Xi Ye ordered after a few seconds of silence.

“Lord Leader!”The AI said seriously, “Condoning the expansion of the void rift violates the safety laws of the Universe Federation, Please consider carefully! !”

“I don’t intend to allow it!”Xi Ye said coldly, “If I can solve it myself, why bother the Federation?”

Ai: “Solve it yourself? Are You F * cking kidding me?”

Xi Ye: “Hm?”

This didn’t seem like something the AI should say...

Ai: “Cough... I mean, are you sure, Lord? The Void Rift is at least a void devourer, if one’s luck is a little bad, it might be a watcher...”

Xi Ye lowered her head in silence.

The Federation had a strict classification of void lifeforms. The ones that could open the void rift were at least devourers, and the corresponding levels were dragon-level lifeforms on the federation’s side!

However, void lifeforms had extremely powerful individual combat abilities. There were very few in the federation that could fight against the void alone. Apart from a few geniuses, in terms of normal combat strength, it was at least five to one in the same level, in other words, it would take at least five dragon-class creatures to be able to take down a void devourer.

Moreover, it would be best if they were complementary combat classes!

Meanwhile, those who were stronger than the devourer were the watchers mentioned by the system. void creatures like this rarely appeared, but once they did, it would be a calamity-level disaster..., they could almost instantly corrupt a planet and use it as a base to rapidly spread to the surroundings!

Whenever Monsters of this level were discovered, the federation would forcefully recruit the nearby lords to participate in the battle. No faction was allowed to refuse, because once they were allowed to develop, there would soon be endless void life, it would infect the surrounding galaxies like a virus. It could be said that it was the enemy of the entire universe!

Ai: “Ai’s advice, there are thousands of paths, safety first, overacting, and two lines of Tears for Family!”

“Shut up!”Xi Ye rolled her eyes. “Immediately force the players who have not signed the contract to log off and close the channel. All the players who have signed the contract will gather at the base. Assign a team to probe from here as the starting line, and try to find out the infected area and the location of the crack in the Void!”

AI started to carry out the order silently. Obviously, its lord was still hoping for a fluke. The size of the infected area in the void determined the level of the players who descended into the void. However, even if it was the lowest level devourer.., it was not something that a level 5 lord could deal with!

“Seal the player’s backup brain safely and prepare to teleport to the backup planet base at any time!” Seer gave a second order.

It seemed like it was really planning to go all the way down! The AI thought to itself.

Before establishing a base on Mars, to be on the safe side, the Seer Lord had once established a backup base on Titan in the Solar System. That planet originally had better basic conditions, with a complete atmosphere and water content, the gravity was about 1.5 times that of planet d. the magnetic field was stable and had a complete ecology. Many primitive creatures had already formed.

That planet was originally more suitable to be the first base. After all, it was quite far from Planet D. with the current development of Planet D, it would take at least a hundred years to land on that planet. Moreover, due to the distance, the telescope could not observe the specific situation inside.

However, due to the large amount of high-quality energy ores on Mars, Seer took a certain risk and chose Mars as the first administrative planet, while Titan was the backup galaxy.

Who would have thought that they would have to use that backup plan so soon...

But this was the void...

Once this thing started to infect the planet, it would quickly spread to the surrounding galaxies. Escaping to the backup base was just a matter of survival. The outcome could not be changed at all!

From the AI’s point of view, the Lord’s actions were simply deceiving itself!

Looks like I have to change the host to find a way out. I thought I had followed a lucky lord, but I didn’t expect to be so unlucky!

“Players, please pay attention. A major BUG has been discovered in this game. The working group has decided to carry out a temporary version update today. The system will force players who have not signed a contract to log off one minute later. The channel will be temporarily closed. The date of opening the channel will be announced later!”

“What’s going on with me?” The players who were still struggling to decide whether to move bricks or farm suddenly became anxious. They had waited for two months before they were able to queue up. They wanted me to go offline? Then, would the players who have not signed a contract have to queue up again later? No, give me a chance. Can’t I sign it now?

Many players immediately cried out in pain. However, the system still coldly teleported all the players who had not signed a contract back one minute later and closed the channel.

The players who were sent back to the game cabin stared blankly at the notification that the game channel was temporarily closed and immediately cursed.

They immediately logged into the only game zone of Dawn's evaluation and began to post abuse!

[this is a trash game, damn you, I'll pay attention to you in the future, I'm your grandson!]

-LSB- damn it, you kicked me out after waiting for three months? if the government doesn't give an explanation, I'll fight you to the death for the rest of my life! ! !]

[F * CK, since you dare to kick me, do you know who I am? Do you believe that I won't let you pass the examination?]

Such words instantly appeared on thousands of posts in the game zone, making the players who were still waiting in line baffled. The game zone instantly became a mess.

At the same time, in the game, a group of players who had signed a contract were dumbfounded.

What's going on?

A new version?

But why are we still in the new version?

"Dear players, please pay attention!" Ai's cold voice suddenly sounded in the base. "This game is about to face its first epic-level event: the Void invasion. In view of your contributions to the base, all players who signed a contract for this event can participate and receive corresponding reward points after the event. Because the scene of this event is too grand, it's not convenient for too many people to be online at the same time. Therefore, this time, players who have not signed a contract are temporarily sent back to ensure the stability of the server. After all, it's a small studio, and they don't have the money to buy a large server. Please understand."

Player A: "D * mn, thank God I'm about to sign the contract..."

Player B: "You don't have the money to buy a server? is the system serious? Just your map alone wouldn't be able to operate without dozens of top-tier servers, right?"

Player C: "D * MN, it's a big event. This is so cool. I finally don't have to see other people write about the details of this mission!"

Looking at the excited players, rainy girl had an ominous expression on her face as she quietly walked into the Lord's office... ..

Chapter 85: 85: Did She believe you?

As the only person in the base who was allowed to enter the Lord's room at any time, rainy melon looked anxiously at the moment she entered. "Lord, may I ask what exactly is going on?"

Void invasion. She felt that something was not right when she heard this name. She knew the real situation of this game. Mars was the main base. Even if they wanted to create a big incident, they would definitely try to stay as far away from this place as possible, right? After all, the backup brains of the players were all here!

Seer sat in the chair and looked at the gloomy-looking rain girl, melon-less. She nodded to herself. To be able to react so quickly, she was indeed the best developer under her.

According to the AI, Rain Girl, melon-less, had a unique talent in learning. Whether it was mecha control skills, arcane classification, prophecy spells, and many other basic subjects, they were all growing at an amazing speed, even among the highly-qualified people of Planet D, she was one of the outstanding ones. Seer had been secretly grooming her as the backbone.

BoxNovel.com

Seer did not intend to hide the truth from the interrogation. He said directly, "The base is facing an unprecedented crisis. Some players have discovered traces of void energy. That is to say, somewhere on a planet, a void crack has appeared!"

"Void? What is that?" Rainy girl asked immediately.

"The most vicious species in the universe!" Seer said in a low voice. "No one knows how those monsters were born. Some people say that they are creatures from another dimension. Some people also say that they are terrifying living weapons specially created by ancient mighty beings to deal with the ancient dragon race. However, no matter what, these creatures are the common enemies of the entire race of the universe. Once they appear in our dimensional space, they will kill every living thing they see and infect everything. No living thing can coexist with them, not even the undead."

Rainless melon's expression turned even uglier when she heard this result. She quickly asked, "Then, do we have a backup plan?"

Xi Ye nodded. She did not feel disgusted by the other party's question. It was only human nature to consider victory before defeat.

Then, she said, "We have a backup base on Titan. We can send the backup data of the players' brains over at any time."

"Oh..." seeing that there was a way out, rainy girl felt slightly relieved.

"But...". Seer immediately gave her a heavy hammer. "If we can't solve the void rift now, once the void infects this planet, it will only take three months for billions of terrifying void creatures to be born here. And once the scale is formed, D sphere will probably not last even half an hour.""

"That thing can jump out of the Planet?" Rainy Witch Wugua was instantly horrified... ..

Originally, if their lives were not greatly affected and the Liege's losses on Mars, she would not have felt so strongly as a part-time worker. But if those so-called monsters could jump out of Mars..., that was another matter.

With her current brain reaction, she could naturally understand what the liege meant. If she could jump out of Mars and kill Sphere D in three months, she would naturally be able to jump out of sphere D in a few months and devour their backup titan...

In other words... It was just a matter of time...

"Liege... is there no other way?" Rainless asked cautiously. "For example... asking for help from the faction behind you?"

Xi Ye looked deeply at her. "The Federation's law states that every deity Liege has the obligation to support and annihilate the void faction, but it also states that every deity has the right to colonize the civilization of the ownerless faction!"

Rainmaiden WUGUA asked, "My Liege, what do you mean?"

"Isn't the meaning obvious?" Xi Ye crossed her delicate fingers, she said faintly, "Once we request for reinforcements, the federation will prioritize mobilizing the deity faction closest to this place. As for sphere D, I have yet to complete my colonization, so it belongs to the Masterless Star!"

As soon as these words were said, Rainless quickly analyzed the information that the Lord had revealed in his short words!

One: there are more than one lord. Xi Ye is only one of them, and it's likely that he's the kind that has just started.

Two: there was a problem of competition between the Lords, and Xi Ye was currently weak. Once her position was exposed, she might have no choice but to give up everything.

Three: once reinforcements were called for, Planet D might face a powerful alien overlord with a complete military force. It would not be like this, where she would happily think that she was playing a game.

At this moment, she still did not know the potential of Planet D's people, and her expression became hesitant.

"May I ask, my lord... if it's another Lord's colonization, how do they usually treat the aborigines?" Rainy girl asked directly after thinking for a while.

Xi Ye looked at her. Actually, he really wanted to describe the other lords as cruel as tyrants, but that would seem exaggerated, so he said lightly, "It depends on the lord's personality..."

"It also depends on the aptitude of the Aborigines, right?" Rainy girl, Wugua, suddenly laughed.

Xi Ye's eyes tensed up, and he sighed in his heart. Sometimes, it was not a good thing for subordinates to be too smart.

"Sort of..." Xi ye answered reluctantly.

"Then, what about the aptitude of the people of Planet D?" Rainy Girl, Wugua, asked.

"It's Alright..." Xi ye said neither too lightly nor too heavily.

Rain girl lowered her head, thinking about something.

Seer said faintly, "Of course, that's for other people who haven't entered the game yet..."

Rain girl was stunned when she heard that. She suddenly remembered the contract.

"It seems that you've noticed it...". "The contract you signed is for life. This contract is protected by the federal law. That is to say, even if planet D is colonized by other lords, the 10,000 people who have entered the game and modified can only follow me!" Seer said with a smile

Rain woman and no melon:"..."

F*ck...! ... treacherous and shameless. As expected, none of the bosses are good people!

"Don't show that expression either," Xi ye said faintly. "Although following me is not as secure as those great lords, it has more prospects. Any lord that can solve the problem of the void has at least a hundred colonized galaxies under their command. The backbone of their faction has basically formed a stable scale. Even if the people of Planet D are rather talented, there is naturally a limit to what can be given to you under the circumstances of giving priority to the elderly. This is the so-called first come, first served principle in your Chinese civilization, but this lord is different. This lord... "... Only you guys!"

Rain girl was speechless."..."

She looked at him with a complicated expression and sighed slightly. This guy's tone was very similar to those small bosses who did not have the capital to trick university students into starting a business together. However, following someone to start a business was a very insecure thing to do, because not only did she have to bet on the boss's talent, but she also had to bet on the boss's integrity!

To be honest, she did not really want to follow this seemingly insecure guy down the road. There were many incidents in the history of D ball that proved that the bosses who started from poverty were mostly unkind and unkind, most of them could share hardships but could not share joys. Most of them were willing to work together.

But who asked them to have less social experience? Who would have thought that they could be tricked into signing a contract to sell their bodies just by playing a game?

This society was really complicated...

After a moment of silence, she asked again, "If we can find the location of the so-called crack, Lord, how confident are you that you can resolve the current situation?"

"100% ! !!" Xi Ye said in a serious tone.

"I understand!" Rainless melon nodded and said, "I'll go down and prepare the search plan first!"

Looking at rainless melon who had retreated, Xi ye quietly asked ai, "Hey... Do you think she believes it?"

Ai replied, "I don't know. I don't believe a single punctuation mark anyway. Lord, where did you get the courage to say 100% ? This AI really didn't see you as someone who could brag so seriously!"

Seer replied, "Shut up! !!"

Chapter 86: 86: "History belongs to the players."

"The six of you, follow the route I've pointed out and conduct a flight survey. Try to fly higher and more conspicuous. It's best to fly at the highest point of the detector."

“Uh... Why?”The six wind demons who received the mission were stunned.

“Why are there so many whys? Just do it. I’ll force you to deduct your points!”Rainless melon glared at them.

Now that she was in charge of most of the matters in the base and the calculation of points, she had a lot of authority. In addition to the online rumors that she had been accepted by the studio, the players had unknowingly gotten used to her giving orders.

BoxNovel.com

“Alright Boss!”A few wind demons immediately tactfully flew towards the direction of the mission!

Looking at the wind demons that were gradually turning into black dots, rainy melon’s expression became solemn.

AI asked, “Why not send all the wind demons at once?”

Seer also looked at the other party. It could be said that they were in a race against time. If they were an hour late, the situation might have become even worse.

Void creatures needed the foreshadowing of void energy, and the more powerful the void creatures were, the more void energy they needed to support them.

No one knew how it worked. In any case, the longer time passed, the more territories were corroded, and the more void creatures were born. The void was a typical sacrificial lifeform, and multiple low-level lifeforms could summon a higher-level void, this also caused a rift to form. If it could be detected and extinguished in time, more casualties would often be avoided.

Hence, extinguishing the void crack had always been a game of seizing time. When the other party was making plans to probe, Seer had already instructed the AI to send her the complete information, why would this child still give such an order?

Rainy Girl’s eyes drooped slightly when she heard this, and she said in a low voice, “I just want to test how bad the situation is. I hope it’s not what I think it is.”

“Oh?”The intelligent voice was confused. What made it even more confused was that the usually impatient lord was unusually calm and did not say a word from the beginning to the end.

Rainless melon suddenly looked up and said, “Lord, if we lose this battle, can we temporarily move my family to the backup star after we retreat, the kind that doesn’t sign the contract...”

Xi Ye raised her head and looked at her deeply.

Rainless melon smiled. “I have a younger brother. He’s smart and handsome. As his older sister, you should at least think of a way out for him, right?”

Xi Ye: “Alright...”

This was the first time Xi Ye had spoken since rainless melon commanded.

However, just as she said the word ‘alright’, ai suddenly exclaimed, “Six wind demons...”.

“Are they all dead?” Rain Girl, Wu Gua, pushed up her glasses and asked.

“You seem to have expected this?” Xi Ye asked calmly.

“Not really. I was just testing them out...”. Rain girl, Wu Gua Sighed. “According to the information provided by AI, the Void is a highly intelligent creature. I was thinking that since it is a highly intelligent creature, would it be able to defend against our detection if it knew of our existence in advance?”

Xi Ye paused for a moment and nodded. “Continue!”

“The six wind demons flew out in six different directions and none of them returned. This proves that not only do they have air units, they are also surrounding the base. However, they are able to surround us without attacking us. This proves that they have not formed a force of that scale yet. The reason they are spreading out their forces to surround us, I guess... “... I just don’t want us to find the location of the crack!”

“Very good!” Xi Ye nodded in satisfaction. “Then what are you going to do?”

“The information is insufficient. The enemy is in the dark while I am in the light. I can only use a stupid method...”

At this moment, the players in the main hall of the base gathered together and discussed animatedly.

[f * ck, what exactly is this epic event? It looks so serious.]

[that’s right, it’s Chinese Valentine’s Day today. My girlfriend is still waiting for my arrangements tonight.]

[F * ck, have you lost your mind carrying bricks? Where did you get a girlfriend? Who Pees Yellow? Come over and help me.]

[if you have a girlfriend, get lost. F * ck, this is an epic event exclusive to US single nobles.]

[oh, it’s Chinese Valentine’s Day again, my future wife. I advise you to be kind tonight!]

These guys... So Carefree!

A few instructors looked at the players speechlessly. Compared to the players who were looking forward to it, their expressions were as ugly as if their parents had died. They had only been working for a few days, and their first month’s salary had yet to arrive., they had already encountered a void invasion. Are you kidding me?

Chief instructor Zanda had a complicated expression on his face. The Lord had allowed him to teleport his pregnant wife to the reserve base at the first possible moment, and he had also allowed himself to teleport there at any time. In the case that the situation was over, he could even terminate the contract.

It had to be said that the other party had done a good job in keeping his promise. However, in such a situation, he was even more embarrassed to accompany his wife. Taking such a high salary, he still had to do something., at the very least, he had to run away at the last moment, right?

Sigh... .. Such a good job was gone just like that. Thinking about it, Zanda felt that it was a pity. In fact, these days, he had been living a very good life. The salary was high, the work pressure was not great, and if he had nothing to do, he could even smoke some players to relieve his boredom.., he felt much more comfortable than when he had been in the arena.

It would be difficult for him to find such a good job in the future.

When Zanda thought of this, he did not think that a lord would be able to survive this calamity. In his heart, that Void Rift thing was definitely not something a level 5 lord could stop, it was highly likely that he would not be able to survive until reinforcements arrived.

Of course... If he knew that seer did not want to call for reinforcements, he would have run away long ago... ..

While he was sighing, the crowd suddenly became chaotic. Zanda looked up and saw the Lord wearing the mighty helmet walking out with heavy steps!

[coming, coming, the Lord is coming!] The players were all excited.

“Cough... now let’s talk about the assignment!”The Lord said seriously, “The name list for the exploration team has been set. As for the specific team, AI will tell you later.”

“Let me tell you about the characteristics of this mission. This is the first epic-level mission in galaxy. It is related to the next version and the new version. The content of the event is: Void invasion. Your mission is to find the invasion entrance before the void forces completely erupt. If you don’t find it within the stipulated time, then unfortunately, the base that we have worked hard to build for three months will be destroyed in an instant. In contrast, your points will be reduced to zero because of this. In other words, the things that you have accumulated after moving bricks for a quarter will be completely lost with the failure of this mission. Facing the new players, you won’t have any advantage in the future.”

The moment he said that, there was an uproar!

“F * CK, isn’t this too ridiculous? Who the F * ck thought of this?”

“That’s right, a dog scheming to die! ! !”

“Quiet!”

The moment the Big Boss who was in charge of the points opened his mouth, many players were shocked even if they were dissatisfied. They became a little more obedient.

“Cough cough...”. Seer coughed lightly and said, “The planning team has their own considerations. We don’t want to be like other traditional games where all the storylines are fixed. We have decided to hand over the direction of the big storyline to the players. This time, it will be the same every time. If this mission succeeds and you manage to resist the invasion of the void, then the base will remain. It will enter a stage of rapid development. Soon, you will walk out of Mars and face the Sea of stars. If your mission fails and the base is destroyed, then we can only flee to a more remote planet and start all over again!”

“This... “This is the charm of the galaxy. We will not be like those pickle games, where the players repeat the same thing over and over again. Instead, we will let the players create history and create opportunities. A civilization will be established because of you, and the fall of a civilization will also be because of you. Come on, warriors, go to the blacksmith shop and pick up your weapons. From now on, Go and create history that belongs to you “! ! !”

The players were shocked as they felt their blood rush to their hearts. That’s right, that’s what makes it interesting. If it was like the previous pickle games, where everything was fixed., regardless of whether we paddled or risked our lives, the result would be the same. It didn’t even matter if there were players or not. Just watching the CG was enough. Wouldn’t it be better to play solo?

“Long live the Lord! !” Someone shouted at the beginning.

Instantly, the entire hall was in an uproar!

“Long live the Lord! ! ! !”

In the hall, the pride that belonged to the players spread out, causing the instructors to be dumbfounded. They did not know why these guys suddenly seemed to be on stimulants. They felt that they did not understand anything at all...

Rainy Girl, Wu Gua, stood behind Seer in a daze. After a long while, she quietly asked Ai, “Hey, I say, do you think... Our boss is a smart person?”

“Sometimes... right...” Ai was also a little uncertain. ...

Chapter 87: 87: “I can let them die without worry...”.

Seer had bought the weapons in bulk when she returned to the federation last time. She had ordered the wholesale items according to the size of the traditional Green Titan. When they were placed in a blacksmith’s shop, they would be polished and polished by the black iron dwarves she had hired.

She had originally planned to use them to cheat another wave of players of their points later on. However, the current situation clearly did not allow it.

“Wow, this weapon is good!” One of the Green Titans held a 1.5-meter-long broadsword, looking at the chilling light and the exquisite hilt decoration, his eyes immediately lit up. “I thought it was a kitchen knife, a rotten wooden stick, or something like that. I didn’t expect the weapon given by the quest to be so kind? It’s so rare, eh... “...” . I say, don’t tell me this thing also requires rent?”

Berserker giant first place: The Little Fairy with athlete’s foot had confidently participated in the quest the last time, but she didn’t even earn anything. Instead, she owed 100 points in rent, which was widely spread in the base, causing many players to be on guard.

BoxNovel.com

The panda-man Dabao, who was in charge of distributing the weapon, yawned and said, “This time, the weapon is provided by Lord Seer. It’s completely free. After the quest is completed, this weapon will be recorded as one of the rewards for all players.”.

“Damn, so generous? Reward? One of the rewards?” The players immediately became excited.

“Look at how happy you country bumpkins are...”. Dabao’s fat black and white face was filled with disdain. “It’s just a wholesale product. It’s not a good thing. Although the material is passable, it’s not handmade after all. The details and practicality are completely incomparable to what a brilliant blacksmith can forge. That thing won’t be used for long. In the future, it’s better to just carry bricks obediently. It’s best to come to my place to have it custom-made.”

Player A: “F * ck you, Master Bao. Can’t you let us be happy for two more seconds?”

Player B: “That’s right, that’s right. That thing of yours is so expensive. How long do we have to move bricks before we can afford it?”

“You get what you pay for... you’ll find out in the future. Some things are expensive for a reason!” Da Bao put on airs, gnawing on the newly grown thorn melon in the base, he said impatiently, “Hurry up, don’t dawdle. I still have to run after distributing the items.”

“Master Bao? You’re not joining the battle?” Many players were stunned. They had always thought that npcs would help them fight together.

“Join my ass!” Dabao almost jumped up when he heard that. “That’s the void. Master Bao’s body is very expensive. It’s not easy for me to gain so much weight just to let those damn things spoil me!”

“Mess...” the players were speechless.

“By the way, master Bao, what is that Void Thing?”

“The most disgusting and Shameless Thing!” Da Bao bit off the thorn melon in his hand, he said fiercely, “It’s a beast that can eat more than us panda people. It eats everything. It Won’t let go of the hammers that are made of iron. It will turn everything into something that even us panda people can’t Eat!”

The players: “...”

They didn’t understand what he was talking about, but... .. It sounded like that thing was very scary...

“Well... you will see it soon.” Dabao looked at the players with a hint of pity in his eyes. “Believe me, after seeing it once, you will never want to see it again in the future.”

“What the hell is that?” In the base, the six wind goblin players who had regained consciousness through the backup had transformed back to the appearance of the elf ball after transplanting the clones. They looked like they still had lingering fear on their faces, they looked like a bunch of frightened fat jello.

“What’s going on? What’s going on?” A bunch of unshapeshifted elf balls rushed over. They didn’t have any combat power, so they naturally couldn’t participate in this exploration mission. They immediately felt a little regretful.

Seeing that their compatriots had returned, the group of jellies quickly squeezed into a pile and asked, “What did you see?”

Seer was also at the side, looking over immediately.

The six newly resurrected elves' bodies were stiff. They could not speak for a long time, as if they had encountered something extremely terrifying. In the face of everyone's curiosity, they could not recover their senses.

Seer shook her head slowly when she saw this. She thought to herself, 'my mental fortitude is still too weak.'

It made sense when she thought about it. After all, she was a fledgling who had never experienced real blood. It was normal for her to have such a reaction when facing such a terrifying creature. Some of the descendants of large families would not fare much better when they encountered the void for the first time.

It seemed like if they wanted to build a military force, they would have to think of a way to find a second colonization star and give them a battlefield and platform to train on. However, they could not avoid this matter.., would these players become psychologically scarred from this and become afraid of battle?

Xi Ye was instantly worried. Not only that, she thought to herself, 'there's still a long way to go...'

At this moment, as a lord, she should give them some encouragement and let them walk out from the shadows.

Thinking of this, Xi Ye thought for a while and coughed lightly, "My people... Don't be afraid. You're already very brave. After all, what you're facing is..."

"This is too F * cking exciting! !"

Just as Xi Ye was consoling them, the player who had been in a daze suddenly said something like this. Xi Ye almost choked to death.

"How is it? How is it?"The surrounding players were immediately curious.

"Let me tell you guys. Those monsters are F * cking amazing. I flew so high and almost killed them with a javelin!"

Was this something worth bragging about? Seer looked at the other party speechlessly.

"And then, and then?"

"And then...". ... and then I tried my best to fly as fast as I could, flying as fast as I could. Those monsters were chasing closely behind me. Let me tell you guys, as soon as I increased my speed, I passed all the hills and complicated terrain that I usually didn't dare to fly on in one go. That scene was really exciting. It was many times more exciting than those single-player fighter plane games. I really just felt that if you made a slight mistake, you would crash into those mountain rocks and turn into meat paste with a snap!"

After pausing for a moment, he continued, "I was told that I have the talent of a pilot. Damn it. When I applied for the exam, that officer said that my aptitude was not up to par and I was rejected. F * ck his grandpa. The facts have proven that I have a very high aptitude!"

“That’s right!” Another player who had just resurrected at the side chimed in, “It’s a life and death situation. The thrill of escaping is too interesting. By the way, how did you die?”

“Me?” The player who started the conversation recalled and clapped his hands, “After I was stabbed by that spear, I slowly turned purple. Then, a strange noise kept coming from my head. It kept telling me to give up struggling, giving up struggling. It was so weird. Then, my body became weaker and weaker. In the end, when I ran out of strength, I was forced to land and my head was twisted off by those monsters.”

“Eh... It’s So Bloody?” The Elven players quickly asked.

“It’s true. I saw it myself. I wasn’t dead when my head was ripped off. I saw my neck bleeding so much!”

Seer:” ...”

“What About You? How did you die?”

“I was chased by a monster that I couldn’t see its face clearly. The monster was so fast that I couldn’t shake it off no matter how I flew. In the end, I was about to fly back to the base’s magnetic field when I was grabbed down from a hill and eaten alive!”

“Sigh, I think we should do this next time. We have to be careful of that javelin thrower. If I didn’t get hit in the beginning, I think I can still walk them for another two hours...”

“That’s right, that’s right...”

The corners of Seer’s eyes kept twitching under his helmet. It seemed like he was overthinking things. These players were really well-behaved... ... ! It seems that they can rest assured to die! ! !

Chapter 88: 88: Guesses

Apart from the basic troops that stayed behind to guard the base, the troops that went out to scout accounted for more than half of the total players, and the majority of them were Green Titan players.

Currently, the base was short of shapeshifting elves, and there were too few agility units. Each team even seemed to be very nervous about assigning a ranger or wind demon.

However, for scouting, agility units were essential. Therefore, the 4,000 Green Titans were divided into eight directions, with 500 people in each direction. They were also divided into ten teams, and each team was equipped with two developers and one agility unit.

According to rainy girl’s instructions, they moved slowly in a fan-shaped formation. They were not too anxious. Even the wind demons of the flying units maintained a certain distance from the team that they could support at any time.

BoxNovel.com

Crack... ! ... It would definitely not be too far from their base. ! Rainy Girl, who was the commander-in-chief in the base, thought so.

If they were too far away, there was no need to alert the enemy by locking down the flying units in their base. It was obviously a temporary reaction of the so-called void forces after Li Goudan discovered the traces the last time.

Since the traces could be found not too far from the base, they would naturally not be too far from it. As for why the other party did not choose to stay away from their base in the first place, rainy girl had two guesses in her heart, the first was that the so-called rift in the void could not choose its location as it pleased.

That was understandable. If it could choose its location as it pleased, according to the Liege's description of how terrifying such creatures were, the universe would have been overrun long ago.

According to this theory, the sudden appearance of the crack here was most likely an accident.

As for the second one... There was someone on the inside!

When she was studying Arcana, her teacher had told her that advanced arcanists could build a portal and teleport people directly to a coordinate mark hundreds of thousands of light years away!

Her level could not understand the principle, but she had asked about the basic casting conditions, which was to mark the Arcana mark at the teleportation location in advance, and advanced arcanists could even cooperate with each other, each of them marked the arcane imprints of others tens of thousands of light years away from each other.

According to this theory, rainy melon had also wondered if someone in the base had marked the mark of the void, which led to this incident?

In fact, the Lord Seer had also suspected this matter, and the first suspect was the pack of dogs that Li Goudan had reported to him.

Almost on the same day, Seer dissected two of them, but did not find any void energy or void characteristics.

He also indicated that the arcane mage instructor in the base had performed deep hypnosis, but still could not get anything out of these dead dogs.

In the end, he could only conclude that these dead dogs were just ordinary stray dogs, but they just happened to appear at the place where the Void was active that day.

As for why they could speak in human language... .. Perhaps it was just as the Overlord had thought..? ... It was just an accidental high-level stringed dog, right?

However, rainy girl, Wu Gua, still had some doubts. From time to time, she would glance at the stringed dogs that were locked in cages behind her.

"Look at the mud, You Idiot!"The few dogs immediately spoke in human language.

The corner of rainy girl's mouth twitched. Looking at these dead dogs that had extremely human expressions, she really wanted to capture a few of them like the Overlord and dissect them!

"Report to the seventh squad from the southeast. We've found traces of monsters!"

The sudden voice interrupted Rainless Melon's malice towards the dead dogs behind her. She turned to the communicator and said, "Report the location and the surrounding geographical environment!"

"About ten kilometers away from the base, we're passing through a mountainous area. The monster attacked our Air Force unit and is flying towards the mountainous area!"

"Ignore it!" Raingirl Wugua quickly said, "Continue walking towards the main road and do not enter the complex terrain. The energy of the crack will be unstable and it is unlikely that it will appear in the complex terrain. Otherwise, there would have been a landslide."

"Understood!"

As they hung up, the communicators of dozens of small squads began to emit sounds. They were also the news of the attack.

Rainless Melon's eyes flashed with a bright light as she thought to herself, 'as expected...'

Then, with the strength of a single person, she quickly processed the feedback of the dozens of squads, making the group of dogs behind her feel inexplicably strange.

Boss Dog looked at Rainless Melon's back with a gloomy expression. He thought to himself, 'a high-quality developer is a troublesome thing. Should I find an opportunity to bite her to death?'

"Damn, what was that?" In the southeast team that reported the first position, a group of Green Titans stared blankly at the feathers on the ground, and the strange cry of the monster on the other side of the mountain.

Just now, when they were marching in formation, the only flying unit in the sky, Li Goudan, suddenly let out a shrill scream. Then, everyone saw a purple monster flying in the sky, it had wings that looked exactly like the wind demon's, but it was doing something extremely terrifying. It grabbed Li Goudan's neck and fiercely bit down. Blood splattered everywhere, but because it was flying too high.., the group of people did not have long-range skills, so they did not know how to help. They could only stare blankly.

"F * ck... This game... its background is quite big. It can even pass the trial..."

A group of players were stunned. They watched as the monster dragged Li Goudan to a hill a few hundred meters away. A beast-like claw grabbed Li Goudan, who was still twitching and asking them for help, with a provocative look on his face.

To be honest, the monster's appearance was not bad. Its appearance and body shape were not like those deformed monsters in horror movies, which caused people to feel nauseous for the sake of nausea, resulting in fear and rejection, on the contrary, the monster's body shape was very perfect. Although it was not in human form, its smooth muscle lines and body shape were evolving in an extremely perfect manner. It had the wings of a wind demon on its back, its body had the muscle lines of a Green Titan. When the two were put together, they were unusually in sync.

However, the players were still stimulated by an inexplicable chill, causing goosebumps to rise all over their bodies. It was not because of its appearance, but the primitive malice that made them feel as if they had encountered a natural enemy, causing them to feel a physical rejection!

“Hey, what a hot-tempered person! !” One of the Green Titans raised the long spear in his hand and threw it at Li Goudan, the strength of the spear was astonishing. The long spear instantly turned into a sharp beam and shot straight at Li Goudan. Under the low gravity, the friction was reduced, but the force of the throw was also greater, and the speed was also more astonishing!

However, the monster was even faster. It dodged the throw very nimbly and let out a strange laugh in the air. It deliberately circled around Li Goudan, who was on the verge of death. The provocation was getting more and more intense.

The group of players immediately became jealous. They wanted to rush up and tear the thing apart, but were stopped by the developer who was commanding the team.

“Stop! !” The developer glanced at the void monster in the distance. According to the image captured just now, the intelligence provided the information.

This was a level 3 void monster called a predator. It could rapidly evolve the outstanding characteristics of other creatures by preying on other creatures. Its growth rate was extremely fast, but because it evolved too fast, the lifespan of this creature was extremely low, the lifespan of a rapidly dividing cell while evolving was usually only a few days. This was very similar to the Mayfly D.

This kind of thing was usually used by the Void to quickly kill and collect living weapons made from indigenous genes. The cost was low, and it could be said that it was one of the species that needed the least void energy among the level 3 void creatures.

However, even so, there was only one such monster that came to attack them. Just as Big Boss Rain had said, the void force had not yet formed a scale, and they were short of manpower!

Thinking of this, he immediately said after receiving the order, “Ignore that monster. She can fly, but you guys can’t catch up. Continue moving toward the main road!”

“But... are we just going to ignore her like this?” The many Green Titan players looked at Li Goudan, who was moaning in pain.

“We can’t save her!” The developer player shook his head coldly. “If you chase after her, she will continue to fly with the hostages. Without long-range units, there is nothing to do but waste time.”

“Uh...” the players felt ashamed. However, what the other party said made sense. How could they, a group of melee units, catch up to a flying monster? If they chased after it, wouldn’t they be kite-flying like dogs?

“Let’s go, let’s go. Let’s hurry up and complete the mission as soon as possible. I don’t want to lose all my points.”

“That’s right... We slipped away!”

“Holy Sh * T... You Bunch of SH * T... Save me...” in the distance, Li Goudan saw that a group of players had actually turned around and slipped away towards the main road. Seeing that they were about to die, he was almost angered to death by this scene.

Bang! !

However, in the end, he was trampled to pieces by the monster. The Predator looked at the large group of players who ignored him as they walked forward, and his expression instantly became extremely gloomy.

Chapter 89: 89: discovered position!

“Is there any movement ahead?” In the northwest direction, a Ranger leading a team suddenly stopped in his tracks. The developer, who was hiding at the back, immediately asked. When the other players heard this, they also became vigilant.

After all, the other teams had already reported that they had been attacked.

The Ranger at the front looked around vigilantly. He had indeed felt that something was wrong. After leaving the magnetic field, the gravity had become much lighter. Although he had done this kind of training before, he was still not used to it, as a result, he was not sure if he had been overly sensitive just now.

Suddenly, a strange laugh was heard. This ranger player, who was bald at a young age, raised his hand and shot an arrow without even thinking.

His movements were fluid and smooth. From drawing the arrow, drawing the bow, aiming, and shooting, the entire movement was completed in one go. With a jump, the arrow shot out like a streak of cold light.

However, in an instant, the cold light stopped abruptly. A delicate purple arm grabbed the arrow, and a provocative smile appeared on her extremely beautiful face.

The players immediately spat out two mouthfuls of hot air from their nostrils like cows. This was because they saw that the woman who received the arrow not only looked beautiful, but her figure was also off the charts. It was the kind of woman who did not even have a number.

“F * ck... This standard... OH hehehehe!” The players immediately had a pig-like expression on their faces.

“Little girl, you sure are jumping up and down!” The Ranger player who was caught by the other party’s empty-handed arrow could not stand the other party’s provocative smile, especially when he saw such a provocative scene, hence, the man’s Pride made him provoke the other party by beckoning with his finger. This was because he saw that the other party was also holding a large bow in her right hand!

The purple-skinned woman smiled faintly. The arrow in her hand turned purple. Following which, like the Ranger, she bent down and pulled the bow. Her posture was extremely graceful, causing the players to immediately let out Wolf howls.

Bang!

An arrow that was not inferior to the young bald man's just now flew over. The bald man let out a long howl, and a sense of masculinity instantly surged into his heart. He imitated the other party and caught the other party's arrow.

"Good!" The players behind immediately applauded and cheered!

The developers in the crowd twitched their faces and rolled their eyes at these guys who controlled their brains with hormones!

Then, they wiped the blood from their noses...

"Brother, your hand..." just as the cheers were getting louder and bald youth was feeling smug for a few seconds, a player suddenly said in horror.

"Eh?" The bald young man was stunned for a moment. Then, he looked at the hand he used to grab the arrow. The hand was quickly infected by the purple color and began to rot.

"Damn, what's going on?" The situation scared the bald man so much that he quickly threw away the arrow in his hand. However, he was still unable to stop the rot from spreading.

The woman on the opposite side laughed and raised her hand to shoot another arrow. The Green Titan player on the side reacted quickly. He swept the long spear in his hand and blocked the arrow accurately with a bang!

However, a strange scene also appeared. The tip of the spear actually began to show a wisp of purple. Although it was not as fast as the infection on the bald man's arm, it was still slowly spreading in all directions.

"F * ck... This thing is a little poisonous!" The Green Titan was so scared that he almost let go of the spear in his hand.

"Quickly cut off his arm!" The developer player hurriedly commanded.

The Green Titan player at the side quickly raised the broadsword in his hand and cut off the bald man's arm. The arm fell to the ground and turned into a pool of purple liquid in a few seconds. It was still slowly corroding the surrounding sand!

The players were instantly horrified! !

"Ai, What's the situation?" The developer hurriedly asked.

Ai: "The infected, the carrier of the negative energy of the void race. They can condense the power of infection onto their weapons. It's a very troublesome species. The void energy is a terrifying power that can infect inorganic objects. Therefore, when dealing with such monsters, they will usually be equipped with specific rune weapons. Fortunately, the level of the infected is not high. Otherwise, the weapons in your hands would not be able to be used at all!"

"F * ck..." the developer looked at the spear in the Green Titan's hand. It was indeed infected, but its speed was very slow, and it could still be used.

Thinking of this, he not only ridiculed, "No wonder they said they wanted to close the rift before void established itself. If they delayed for a period of time and let the other party explode their troops, not to mention the strength of both sides, their equipment would be a level lower. If the other party slashed a few times, your weapon would be useless..." Then what was the point of fighting?

"Where are you going, little girl! !"The few Green Titans in front saw the other party retreat and immediately wanted to chase after her.

The developer quickly stopped them, "Stop chasing, this is a harmonious game, you guys can't do what you want to do..."

The Titans:"..."

The developer Boss really knew how to read people's minds... "...". The Many Titans not only thought to themselves.

The developer looked at the spot where the other party had deliberately retreated and narrowed his eyes slightly. Indeed, it was just as the boss had thought. This void force did not have enough troops. They only wanted to lure us to the complicated terrain to buy time!

Thinking of this, he immediately continued to give orders, "Continue to maintain the formation and advance. Those who carry bricks, protect the vulnerable units. The reward points are right in front of us!"

"Oh!"

When the players heard the reward points, they immediately responded. Suddenly, at this moment, they felt the sky darken. With quick reactions, they looked over and saw a huge flying rock falling from the sky like a small mountain.

The Many Titans instantly scattered agilely, but there were also a few who could not dodge in time and were instantly smashed into meat paste.

This time, it was like an earthquake. The players only felt the sky shaking and the earth shaking. Not only were they in trouble, the other players in the Northwest Division also heard the loud noise!

"What the hell is going on?"

Many Titan players relied on their thick skin to block the flying rocks in the sky. With great difficulty, they looked over and saw a monster that looked to be at least ten meters tall not far away. It had two huge arms and was rubbing the huge rock, immediately, another flying rock came crashing over!

The flying rocks were like bullets in the sky. They were extremely destructive in the flat ground without any cover. The team of more than fifty Titan players was instantly baptized by a wave of flying rocks and lost nearly half of them!

Then, they saw a black mass of strange insects spewing purple liquid that blotted out the sky and covered the earth!

The developer who was lying on the ground hiding at the back quickly asked the headquarters for help, "Boss, we suspect that the location of the crack has been discovered. Please hurry up and provide assistance!"

At the same time, Rainy Melon, who was in charge of the commander-in-chief of the base, tensed up and quickly said, "AI, immediately transmit the image information of the developer of the seventh team in the northwest!"

Before they set off, every developer had a transmission chip installed in their pupils so that they could capture the image information at the first moment.

After AI received the request, it immediately projected the image information on the other side.

Rainy melon stared at the image closely, trying to capture every detail.

The overwhelming number of monsters, the huge trebuchets, and the scale of the attack did indeed look like they were heavily defended... .. But... ..

Rainless melon frowned. She felt that something was amiss.

After thinking for two seconds, she quickly asked, "AI, report the information of the two types of monsters."

Ai: "The screen shows that the large number of insect monsters are void-level rank-0 giant-mouthed bugs. They possess corrosive spray and corpse explosion skills, which are usually used by the void faction's low-energy explosive soldiers. However, these creatures are very fragile and are very afraid of large-scale destructive weapons. Their value is actually not high. That massive trebuchets is a void-level rank-5 creature, the dreadbaboon. It possesses extremely strong arm force, but its close-combat strength is average. Moreover, it is not very agile. It is usually used to siege intermediate void beasts."

"Level 0?" Rainy girl was stunned, then, she asked, "How much does it cost to make these big-mouthed insects? What I mean is, if... well, just like what you said before about the plunderer, how many big-mouthed insects can you make with the energy of one plunderer?"

Ai: "About 500..."

"500..." rainy girl looked at the screen. Although these big-mouthed insects seemed to be densely packed, in fact, there were only tens of thousands of them. To put it bluntly, it was only the energy of 20 plunderers... ..

With this energy, why would they make such a thing. The AI had already said that the cost-effectiveness ratio was not high, and there was also that trebuchet monster. Its attack style was too loud, as if it was afraid that its side would not know about them... ..

Hence, it asked again, "Is that Dreadbaboon considered to have a high cost-effectiveness ratio among the level-five void beasts?"

The AI said, "It depends. However, if the flat terrain is used to protect the cracks, the effect of the magic snake and the void crypt are actually greater."

“Understood!” Rainmaiden wugua nodded and said, “Calculate which team is the farthest from the northwest seventh team’s coordinates?”

AI: “Southeast Third Team!”

Rainmaiden wugua immediately picked up the communication device and said, “Southeast third team, report the situation over there!”

“Boss, there’s no situation. It’s very quiet. There are no traces of the void along the way. I think we should be heading in the wrong direction, right?”

“Stand by!” Rainmaiden wugua immediately walked towards the Lord’s room after giving the order.

“Boss... What should we do?” In the isolation cage, a group of star swallowing dogs saw Rainmaiden Wugua mention the southeast third team and their faces tensed up. They hurriedly asked.

Boss dog slightly looked at Rainmaiden Wugua who was about to leave. A fierce light flashed in his eyes. At this distance, he and his group could rush out and kill her. After all, the developers did not have much combat power in the early stages!

But in the end, they shook their heads and lay down.

“Boss?” The dogs saw their boss’s expression and immediately said anxiously.

“Forget it, that cage was opened on purpose. It’s probably a trap...” boss dog shook his head and said.

“Who cares if it’s a trap or not? Sacrificing yourself for the glory of the Void, Boss!”

“There are plenty of opportunities to sacrifice yourself. What’s the Rush?” Boss dog lay down and said faintly, “When that Lord descends, won’t existences like us be assimilated? What’s there to be anxious about?”

Hearing this, the dogs were stunned. They looked at each other, not knowing what to say.

“If we can stay here for a while longer, then so be it. After all, we don’t have much time left. So what if they find the crack where that Lord is? “How can a level 5 lord close the crack that a Lord Watcher opened?”

“But boss, are we not going to do anything?”

“Who said that?” A hint of excitement flashed across Boss Dog’s eyes. “When it gets chaotic outside, we’ll go to the cafeteria and get the beef jerky. I saw it this morning. There are two fresh star rhinos, a soup pot, and a lot of cow bones!”

“Oh, OH, Long live boss! !”

Chapter 90: 90: The Lord’s Trump Card!

“Where are those dogs? Are they not moving?” Rainy melon asked with a frown as she walked out of the command room.

Ai replied, "No... it seems like they really aren't from the Void."

Rainy melon lowered her head and remained silent for two seconds before saying, "Tell the elves that are lying in ambush to wait outside!"

As she spoke, she quickly walked towards the Lord's room.

As soon as she entered the room, she saw Seer Lord hurriedly put on his helmet. Rainless melon was stunned for a moment. She remembered that the Lord's sister had said that he was extremely beautiful during the first mission!

She was a little curious. How good-looking was this lord that he would wear such a heavy helmet all day long?

"Oh, you're here? Did you make any progress?" After seer put on the helmet, he let out a sigh of relief as if he had almost caused a big disaster. Then, he pretended to be the Lord and asked in a low voice.

Rainless melon pursed her lips and said, "Lord... I think we've found the location of the traces."

"Which direction?" Xi Ye asked immediately.

"Southeast, 27 o'clock, the direction of the Southeast Division's third team!"

Xi Ye said, "But the AI just reported that there was a large-scale attack in the northwest direction!"

"That's a cover-up!" Rainless melon said seriously, "The movement is too exaggerated, and it seems to be hiding something."

"Then why are you sure that it's in the southeast?"

Rain Girl, Wu Gua, said, "If that's a cover-up, the farthest direction from there is the most likely location."

"The most likely location..." Xi ye tapped her desk lightly with her finger. After a moment of silence, she said, "How confident are you?"

"Not very confident..." Rain Girl, Wu Gua, shook her head and said, "Some things are hard to say. Maybe they deliberately made such a big commotion just to make you think that they're bluffing, but in fact, the location is right there "? No one can say for sure, right?"

Xi Ye:"..."

"But, my liege, there are some things that need to be decided. We are just analysts. You are the Liege, so the final decision on what to do will be up to you. After all, this is a big pot of life and death. We can't let a lackey like me take the blame, right?"

Xi Ye:"..."

What he said made sense, he actually did not know how to retort.

After thinking for a few seconds, xi Ye immediately ordered AI, "Pass down the order, the northwest troops immediately reinforce the seventh squad, and act as if they are going to break through, but in reality, they are mainly stalling for time. Other than the southeast squad, the rest of the troops will continue to advance and explore. If they find anything, immediately report it to me. Gather the Green Titans that remain in the base and follow me to the Southeast!"

AI: "Yes Lord!"

Rain Maiden Wu Gua was stunned. She was surprised by the Lord's decisiveness. This seemingly ordinary order was actually all-encompassing. He wanted to use the troops in the northwest to restrict the enemy's firepower, which was also used for acting, he wanted the troops in other directions to continue moving forward to increase their fault tolerance rate. He did not hesitate to believe in his own judgment and chose to personally make a move to seize every second.

If I were in charge, it would almost be like this, but I might hesitate for a while because I think too much.

"Is it by this lord's cleverness to be surprised again?" Seer suddenly faint way.

"Eh?" Rain woman without melon a Leng, Secret Way: What Ghost? . And... ? . Why do you say again?

Seer: "In the future do not speak ill of this lord in front of intelligence, you know, intelligence is only loyal to this lord one!"

Rain girl: "Oh..."

"F * ck... Why does it feel weird?" In the southeast direction, the party that was ordered to stand by suddenly felt a strange chill.

There was clearly nothing around them. The Sun was in the sky, and it was bright in broad daylight. However, suddenly, everyone felt as if they were at the entrance of an endless dark abyss. They only felt an indescribable sense of terror, every hair on their bodies stiffened.

"What's going on?" The players looked around vigilantly, but they saw everything. However, the sense of terror was getting stronger and stronger, making it more and more difficult for them to endure.

"No, no, I have to leave!" One of the players suddenly shook his head and said, "This malice... my mother must have come back early. Seeing that I'm not doing my homework and playing the game, she must be looking for a feather duster!"

All the players: "..."

Player A: "D * mn, isn't the game cabin for adults to play? Even when you're doing your homework, you still come. Classmate, what grade are you in?"

Player B: "You don't understand, right? Rich people can privately modify it, but it will cost hundreds of thousands of dollars. This little brother looks like a rich man. A rich man actually uses a feather duster to beat people up?"

Player C: "Then what else can we use? A feather duster?"

The developers in the crowd immediately sighed and thought to themselves: the atmosphere is completely gone... :. This bunch of clowns!

Suddenly, while the crowd was joking around, they seemed to have calmed down a little from the fear. However, they heard an extremely sharp and ear-piercing sound. The sound was like scratching on a blackboard and then magnifying it by tens of times, everyone felt as if their skin was about to fall off!

Following which, a strange phenomenon appeared. The sky that was originally in the sky was suddenly torn apart, giving people the feeling that the sky was like a piece of paper. Following which, everyone saw a huge eyeball that almost filled the sky!

“What the hell? What the hell is that?”

All of the players were instantly horrified. The moment they saw that eye, they felt as if the only thing in the world was that eye. Every cell in their bodies felt as if they were being melted by fear.

“Oh my God, how are we supposed to fight this boss... ?” One of the players muttered.

“It seems that we’ve been discovered...” a cloaked figure had appeared before the large eyeball. It was hard to tell if the cloaked figure was human or not. In any case, beneath the cloaked figure was a distorted void.

“This ant-like lord is quite clever...” the cloaked figure spoke in pure elven language.

“However, so what if a level 5 little lord like you discovered it?”

If seer heard this voice, she would definitely recognize it as the cute flower spirit that had sold him the dog.

“It’s actually here...” just as the players were in despair, a deep and dignified voice sounded from behind them.

Suddenly, a gentle energy released them from their incomparably terrified state. The players were stunned for a moment, and when they regained their senses, they looked over, however, they discovered that the silly lord, who usually lost his temper over small matters, was currently wearing his black armor as he slowly made his way towards the abyssal rift.

Meanwhile, the players that came to support him did not dare to advance any further.

When rainy melon saw that terrifying eyeball, she, who had a certain foundation in divination, instantly saw the scene in the future!

The sky was completely torn apart, followed by a terrifying energy that instantly devoured the planet. The mountains formed by the accumulation of flesh and blood were covered with wriggling cluster tentacles, as if they were unceasing destruction, the scene that was countless times more terrifying than Asura Hell made her feel as if she had reached the peak!

Waking up from that scene in horror, rainy girl was drenched in cold sweat. Looking at the back of the Lord who was slowly walking over, she could not help but think to herself, can he solve this? No matter how she looked at it, he was still an instant kill!

“Suzerain...” Ai’s voice trembled slightly. “This... I’m afraid it’s...”

“Ah, there’s no doubt about it!” Xi Ye raised her head slightly and looked at that huge eyeball, she sighed. “I didn’t expect a small suzerain like me to encounter a natural disaster of this level. What is this? Is this the retribution for being too lucky?”

“That... Lord Watcher...” Xi ye sighed, “Is that what you call him over there? Is it convenient for you to reveal his name?”

“This guy...” flower spirit who was wearing a space cloak frowned, thinking to herself, he’s very skilled, does he know what he’s facing?

Watcher, the most terrifying natural disaster level alien in the universe, without 10 star level experts, he couldn’t even seal the crack, he was an existence that even the first level lords of the universe would be shocked by!

The gigantic and terrifying existence in the void didn’t reply. It just quietly looked at this existence that was countless times smaller than an ant to it.

It didn’t understand how such a small existence could actually muster up the courage to speak to it without running for its life? On what basis?

But it wouldn’t answer that question just because it was a little curious. In its opinion, even that star-grade elf that was cooperating with the outside didn’t deserve to speak to it.

As an existence at the top of the food chain in the Void World, it had its own pride. In this universe, there were very few people who were worthy of listening to its every word...

“Not speaking?” Xi Ye sighed faintly. “That’s true... an existence like you would naturally disdain to talk to a level-five little lord like me. Unfortunately, I can’t know your name...”

“What on Earth is this fellow doing?” Hua Ling frowned slightly. Her mission was to cut off this little deity’s request for help without leaving a trace. And if this little deity chose to teleport., she would use a method to seal off the dimensional space.

Of course, she couldn’t directly make a move, lest she leave behind a trace and collude with the Void to plot against the deity race. This was an unpardonable crime in the federation! !

“This fellow, I’m afraid that he has broken a jar and thrown it away, right?” The AI ridiculed slightly. In its heart, it was calculating how to possess the body of the next host after breaking away from this lord.

The human from D Sphere was quite talented, but the void next door that had erupted with such a level of power would definitely be finished. It seemed that they could only hide temporarily and wait for the Federation to encircle and annihilate them before deciding who to follow.

Just as they were thinking about it, with a bang, the crack in the sky grew bigger and bigger. It was obvious that the monitor had increased its horsepower after being provoked by this level 5 little lord, preparing to come out ahead of time.

Sigh... then it’s time for me to slip away...

That was what the AI thought.

However, all of a sudden, faced with this pressure that was comparable to the collapse of the heavens, seer sighed slightly and said, "There's no other way..."

Seer did not retreat. Instead, she walked towards the void that seemed to be able to swallow everything. Her hands slowly took off her helmet!
