

A Bunch 941

Chapter 941 What an ugly troll...

Huaxia city was bound to be crowded on this day, and it was also bound to be busy. Elder Long presided over the staff to come out early in the morning to maintain order.

Elder Long did not resist the sudden rush of work. After all, Huaxia City's first dividend was built up by this group of high-level players. When they ate other people's dividends, they would giggle, he could not just give them a hand when they needed his help, right?

Moreover, this was also a chance to gain a good impression of him. He wanted to let these powerful lord-tier players know that his subordinate cities were very helpful to them... ..

This could also deepen the status of their future cooperation.

Hence, the day before he accepted the mission, Elder Long had warned those workers to be efficient, capable, and friendly. They must not bring in the bad habits of working in the system.

There was no one to blame here. Those who dared to show off would dare to beat you up and call you daddy.

In fact, this warning did not seem to be useful to everyone. For example, Li Goudan saw Pu Yunchuan arguing with a group of registration staff. His voice was like a lion coming out of its cage!

Li Goudan was stunned. He looked for Isabelle and asked, "What's going on? Why is brother Chuan so irritable?"

Isabelle frowned as well. "There's something wrong with these workers' heads. They made such a simple procedure extremely complicated and made things difficult for them. For example, if the signature isn't standardized, if the stamp isn't standardized, they'll have to start all over again. The key is that the paper they prepared is so small, and even Pu Yunchuan's big hands can't regulate it. I said that I'll sign and stamp it, but they said that the Lord must come personally. Are they looking for trouble?"

Li Goudan: "..."

Of course, he was just looking for trouble. Which idiot was making things difficult for him. It seemed like brother Chuan's temper was still as good as ever. If it was him, he would have already beaten him up...

At this moment, the troll hidden in Pu Yunchuan's faction saw Li Goudan and his pupils constricted. He naturally remembered Li Goudan and his gang, who he had almost led... ..

Li Goudan also looked over as if he had sensed something. He glanced at the troll and suddenly felt that it was somewhat familiar.

"What's Wrong?" Isabelle followed Li Goudan's gaze and asked.

The troll's heart trembled, and he thought to himself, no way? Could it be that this little fellow recognized me? What kind of joke is this? It's just a grade-4 wind demon. Even though he's slightly more talented, he shouldn't be able to recognize me, right?

Thinking that it was impossible, his heart was filled with wariness. He secretly glanced at the elemental structure around him, secretly calculating how he would be able to silence him the moment he was recognized.

Li Goudan: "This troll is so ugly. Where did you get it?"

Troll: "..."

Isabelle: "Newly joined..."

"Interesting..." that voice sounded again in Li Goudan's mind.

"What are you trying to say?" Li Goudan frowned.

Isabelle: "? ? ?"

"Ahem... I'm not talking about you..." Li Goudan immediately covered his head. It was so inconvenient to suddenly find a different guy in his body. So how did those people in novels get used to having an old grandpa?

"You don't have to pay attention to me..." Rem's voice sounded faintly. "I just saw some interesting things and just sighed."

"Are you crazy..." Li Goudan muttered to himself.

In the face of Li Goudan's anger, Rem didn't care at all. Of course, she wouldn't tell Li Goudan that she recognized the origins of the trolls. On the contrary, she was quite happy.

This Little Lord's experience was too shallow. If she retreated so imprudently, would those strange aborigines be able to come to the base camp so easily?

An old monster who had lived for God knows how many years had sneaked into the territory of such a lucky little lord. She didn't know what would happen, but when she thought about it, it was quite interesting.

Reme naturally hoped that Li Goudan's faction would collapse. In her eyes, there were so many high-quality elves here, including Li Goudan. They should be included in the elven council to receive the best training for the Elven race. It was ridiculous for him to be a level-6 little lord. How could he not eat such a big cake. ...

"Goudan! !"

Suddenly, a familiar voice sounded. Goudan Li hurriedly turned around, and his mood instantly improved. He replied, "You're here too, Goudan!"

The person who had come was one of the two goudan factions, Goudan Wang.

Behind him was the gang of the little cabbage faction. At this moment, little cabbage looked like a dried cabbage. She looked very listless.

Li Goudan asked, "Why is your smile uglier than your tears?"

Wang Goudan: "I'm going bankrupt, Woah Goudan. You have to support me..."

Li Goudan:"..."

Alice couldn't be bothered with these two clowns. Having a clown like little cabbage at home was enough to give her a headache... ..

She just wanted to quickly enter the city and arrange the population before looking for the overlord to see how to stop the damage...

But why did the staff and Isabelle start arguing with that silly man?

Alice was speechless. What kind of nonsense was this? Time was precious now, okay?

While she was speechless, she looked around in boredom. Suddenly, a familiar face made her expression slightly stiff.

How did that Guy sneak in?

"What's wrong, great-grandmother?"

Others might not have noticed Alice's subtle expression, but Isabelle, the descendant who had always been vigilant against her, was different. She had never let her guard down from the moment Alice appeared.

Therefore, she quickly saw the strange-looking troll through Alice's eyes.

Alice frowned. "Where did you get that troll? It's so ugly..."

Isabelle:"..."

One of the Trolls:"..."

"What are you doing?" Just as Isabelle's face darkened, a loud shout suddenly caught everyone's attention.

The staff member whose face was full of spittle from Pu Yunchuan quickly went over to complain. The Green Titan in the military uniform looked at Pu Yunchuan sternly after listening to his complaints.

"These are?" Li Goudan had not returned to Huaxia City for a long time. For a moment, he could not figure out the background of the other party. Since when did the Green Titan in the base start to wear modern military uniforms? Wasn't it popular to show off their muscles in the past?

Of course, it was also related to the fact that the Green Titan was more of a waste material. Most of the people who carried bricks could not bear to spend money on clothes. A pair of leather pants that could shrink was enough.

"Huaxia City Guard..." Wang Goudan whispered, "They were established recently, and they were all trained by the military!"

“Oh?” Li Goudan narrowed her eyes slightly. She was born in a family, so she was very sensitive to the fact that these people seemed to come with ill intentions...

“Comrade!” The leading officer walked toward Pu Yunchuan with a serious face. “You have seriously disturbed public order. Please come with us!”

Pu Yunchuan: “...”

Chapter 942: Is there such a big difference?

“Pu Yunchuan was taken away?” In the dog egg restaurant, father Wang, who was exercising, was stunned when he heard his daughter’s report. “Really?”

“Yes, he’s very arrogant...” the two dog eggs nodded as they ate their father’s braised noodles.

“F * CK, are you just going to watch him get captured?” Father Wang was stunned.

“Hehe... .. Do you need our help?” Li Goudan laughed, “What level are those guards at? Although Pu Yunchuan is a lord, he can be ranked in the top ten of the Combat Power Rankings. If Pu Yunchuan wants to resist those guards who aren’t even level two, even ten times the number of people would be like sending food to him. Pu Yunchuan was the one who didn’t want to act rashly. Since he didn’t want us to take the lead, why should we “Speaking of which, what’s the situation with these guards? They’re a little arrogant...” Li Goudan asked curiously.

“They’ve been arrogant for more than a day or two...” his father picked up a piece of tobacco from a cabbage faction, Mei Mei took a puff and said, “Since a month ago, these guards have been very tough, especially when it comes to old players.”

“No Way?” Li Goudan was stunned. “Where did they get the confidence?”

Dogdad said, “These guards are all descendants of the military. Most of them are the second generation of the military. All of them are arrogant and think that the old players are just lucky. In the past, because of the special abilities of the players, they couldn’t imagine that you and Goudan could still give them fear when they were in the dragon team. But now that they think that the platform is the same, they gradually don’t put the old players in their eyes.”

“If they don’t care, then they don’t care...” Goudan Li curled his lips. “We don’t interfere with each other’s business. It’s obvious that they’re trying to make things difficult for us today.”

“Aren’t they trying to suppress the limelight of the high-level players?” Goudan Li sneered. “Those high-level lords have turned from grassroots to local emperors. How can these second-generation players stand it? Now that they have an opportunity, they naturally want to suppress them.”

“Suppress? Are they even worthy?” Hearing this, Li Goudan laughed in anger. “Are they really bringing their old tricks here? Why don’t they take a look at the local situation? Is this a place where they have the final say?”

As he said this, Li Goudan felt that even the noodles were no longer delicious. He ate a few more mouthfuls carelessly, and his heart was really stifled. In the end, he could not help but slam his chopsticks on the table. "I'm not eating anymore. Let's Go!"

Wang Goudan: "Where Are We Going?"

Li Goudan: "To stir up trouble! !"

"Name?"

"Pu Yunchuan..."

"Don't all of you old players have a screen name? What's your screen name?"

"G, you're too beautiful..."

"Yo, you're so trendy. Why aren't you called Big Bowl of Lasagna?"

This teasing tone made Pu Yunchuan's heart sink. Why did this fellow's tone sound so demanding? What does it have to do with you?

"Why did you attack a public servant?"

"Which eye of yours saw me attack a public servant?" Pu Yunchuan was instantly amused. "You can't just open your mouth and say it, right? It was just an argument, and it was already an attack when it reached your mouth. Besides, if I really did attack, do you think that your staff members would still be alive?"

"Yo-ho, pretty tough, is this considered a threat of force?" The green titan sneered: "What do you want to say? You want to say that you can punch us to death at any time, right? You hit one try!"

Not far away, in another office, several Titans in high-class military uniforms are watching PU Yunchuan through intelligent virtual surveillance.

"Is this really a good idea?" The person in charge of the data team, a female developer who looked to be in her early thirties, asked with a frown. She clearly felt that there was something wrong with the actions of these military officers.

"Captain Liu, isn't it inappropriate to intentionally provoke a great lord player like Pu Yunchuan? Let's just report it to elder Li, shall we?"

"What's there to report?" The captain surnamed Liu snorted coldly, "Should we still do it in the past?" In the past, when I didn't know, I thought that they were some incredible geniuses. Elder Li even set up a dragon group to worship them. In the end, they're not even considered cultivators. They're just a bunch of internet addicts who got lucky. Heh, I've long been fed up with them. Each and every one of them has the rank of lieutenant general. They're commanding US True Warriors, forces, and lords. Heh Heh, they don't even look at their own morals to see if they're worthy!"

The person in charge of the data team frowned even more when he heard this. From a month ago, it seemed like the guards had started to say that these great lords were just a bunch of losers who got lucky.

It was very abnormal for such a typical hatred of the rich to appear in the army. It was obvious that someone was inciting something!

“Grandpa, did you do this on purpose today?”

Lei Xue heard frowned: “Why did the leader let those people get the position? I remember that he is not very tired of the family children?”

“Even if he was annoyed, it’s useless...”. Elder lei laughed, “You don’t understand the current situation in the army. These military families have been deeply rooted for hundreds of years. How could the leader say that he can change them?” “? Although the leader strongly promoted the children of the common people, in many branches and regions, the leader’s hand can not reach out. This leads to the common people joining the army wanting to rise, and they still have to rely on the children of the family. Without a background, not going has always been a common problem.”

“This time, galaxy is a brand new platform. The leader naturally wants to create a clean and relatively fair environment, but he also wants to use the military to monopolize the warrior route. Naturally, he will also bring over the bad habits over there. Don’t look at it as a new platform. The leader repeatedly emphasized that everyone has a chance, but many soldiers subconsciously still believe that only the children of their families have a future. This led to many people following the lead of the so-and-so second generation. When recommending the captain, many people also strongly recommended Liu Guosheng. This is also the problem of the leader.”

Hearing this, Lei Xue’s expression eased up slightly. “Then what does leader plan to do?”

“For the time being, he’s letting Liu Guosheng do whatever he wants. No, he should be entrusted with a heavy responsibility. He’s even given the responsibility of being the captain of the guards to Liu Guosheng...”

“Leader wants to create a conflict on purpose?”Lei Xue immediately understood the plans of the higher-ups.

Elder lei narrowed his eyes and said, “Based on Liu Guosheng’s arrogant character, he will definitely look down on those old players who have gained power. The old players will naturally retaliate against Liu Guosheng’s provocation on purpose. I reckon that leader wants to wait for Liu Guosheng to be defeated before coming over to mediate. At the same time, he wants to strike down his arrogance. He also wants to let the commoners see clearly that the so-called family members are actually not very popular here.”

“Uh...” Lei Xue Didn’t show any sign of agreement. Instead, she sighed. “Elder Jiang has never been to the New Territories.”

“Huh?” Elder Lei was stunned. He didn’t understand why his granddaughter would suddenly mention elder Jiang.

“What I mean is that the data analysts, including elder Jiang, don’t fully understand this place...”. “...”. Lei Xue sighed and said, “Leader means that if there is a conflict, he will mediate it himself and suppress Liu Guosheng’s prestige. Then, he will re-establish his ambition as a commoner. However, he miscalculated the gap between the old players and the new players because once there is a conflict, he won’t have a chance to mediate it. He will only be crushed unilaterally!”

“How can that be?” Elder Lei was stunned. “Didn’t they say that the combat power of the veteran players is very outstanding? They wouldn’t be crushed by one side, right?”

“That’s even more impossible!” Elder Lei stood up and said, “This time, the army has secretly recruited over 100,000 people into galaxy. The leader has spent a lot of resources. Currently, there are over 5,000 level 2 players available in the city. All of them are quite strong. Moreover, they were born in the military, so their combat awareness is far stronger than ordinary players, right? Even if those high-level players were higher leveled, they wouldn’t be as strong as you said, right?”

“That’s why I said that you guys didn’t do a detailed analysis of the data from the beginning...” snow thunder sighed. “Grandpa played the legend of Mir 2 before, right?”

“Eh? Cough, occasionally...”

“How many players do you think it would take to defeat a player who is a dragon slayer and a Black Emperor?”

Elder Lei’s face froze. “Is... is there such a big gap?”

Lei Xue curled her lips and recalled Li Goudan’s battle prowess in Iceland. She sighed. “Maybe it’s more than that...”

Chapter 943: Counterattack (I)

“Hello, please sign the confirmation document and the resource list!” In the northern region of Huaxia City, the Waiter’s voice became colder and more arrogant. It was completely different from the gentle and humble attitude he had at the start, he looked like an impatient person at the top-tier medical window.

Facing these legendary Lord players, she was no longer as curious as before. Especially after the second Lord, Pu Yunchuan, was taken away this morning, she no longer held any high regard for these lords.

Just as the commander had said, they were just a bunch of losers who got lucky. No matter how lucky a loser was, he was still a loser, and he was not worthy of being mentioned in public.

“Such a small piece of paper? Don’t you have a bigger one?” The Green Titan Lord was speechless.

“Do I have to specially make one for you?”The attendant rolled her eyes.

“Where do I sign?”The Green Titan Lord felt a burst of anger in her heart as she asked in a muffled voice.

“Here, here, and here, you have to sign and place your bets. Remember not to sign incorrectly. The paper is very tight right now, and it’s very expensive. Don’t think that just because you’re a Lord that you don’t mind. If you make a mistake, you’ll have to pay for the cost of the new booklet.”

“How much is this booklet?”The other party asked curiously.

“Two hundred points...”

“Two hundred points for such a paper booklet?”Green Titan was instantly stunned. He remembered that when he moved the bricks in the past, he would have to work hard for at least a week to earn two hundred points, right?

However, the other party did not bother with her expression.

Seeing the other party’s bird-like appearance, the Titan player felt even more depressed. She felt like she was dreaming about registering at a tertiary grade a hospital. In the end, she had no choice but to take out her pen.

“Hey, Hey, Hey, what are you doing?”

“Signing...”Green Titan was speechless.

“What’s with that big lump of yours?”

The receptionist said, “Are you crazy? You used such a big pen to write on such a small piece of paper? Is it enough for you to write?”

When the player heard this, he was furious. At this time, did you know that the booklet was small?

The receptionist said, “Use this to write!”

“This...”Titan looked at the pen that was about the size of his nose hair and his face turned green, “How do I Write This?”

“If you can’t write it, then stand aside. Don’t delay the people behind!”The receptionist waved his hand impatiently, “I’ve really spoiled you...”

“What? You still want to make a move?”The receptionist, who was already familiar with the road, showed no fear, “Try it?”

“Just you wait...”the Titan player was furious and walked to the side angrily.

“Tsk...” another one was angered away, the receptionist revealed a smug smile. They had already been doing this for the entire morning. Some of the more sensible lords had already sent their developers over to deliver resources in secret. The higher-ups were encouraging them to do this.

The higher-ups wanted to suppress these arrogant lord players and let them understand one thing. Now that Huaxia City had been taken over by the officials, no matter if you were a dragon or a tiger, you had to lie down with your legs crossed!

“Excuse me, do you want to sign here?” Just as the receptionist was feeling pleased with herself, a gentle female voice sounded. The receptionist frowned and looked up. It was not the previous Titan Lord, it was an extremely beautiful girl.

“Sorry, these things have to be signed by your Lord personally!” The receptionist used the words that she used to make things difficult for them.

“Huh?” The receptionist frowned and looked at the other party. Then, she checked the information: Ice Crown, Lord of East Sea Cloud City, Grade A!

After seeing the information, the receptionist’s expression became even more unsightly. Such an ordinary girl, because she was one step ahead of him, not only could she choose a good-looking elf as she pleased, but she could also become an a-rank Lord. It was indeed a F * cking place...

And because she was one step late, she had to choose a developer that the authorities were unwilling to choose, and she could only continue being an official ape...

However, although she was unhappy, the plan above was mainly aimed at the popularized Titan lord. She could not think of a way to make things difficult for the other party at the moment, she could only throw the manual impatiently. “Hurry up and sign it. The people behind are still waiting...”

“Can you hurry up? I told you that the people behind are still waiting!” The receptionist said impatiently.

“We have to check it carefully...” ice cap smiled and said.

“Aren’t you developers able to see everything at a glance?” The receptionist sneered, “Hurry up and sign it, don’t waste time. This is an intelligent verification, there won’t be any mistakes.”

Of course, it was impossible. Those Green Titan Lords from before couldn’t sign for a long time. Those who didn’t want to cause trouble handed over some resources and passed it over. Did this woman think that just because she wasn’t a titan, she could pass it over without giving any benefits? What kind of joke was this?

Ice Cap signed the document according to the instructions and handed it back. The receptionist looked at the other party signing the document obediently. Thinking of the resources that were secretly stored, a satisfied smile appeared on her face. She could be considered a sensible person.

“Alright... Remember to restrain the people below to abide by the city rules after entering. Otherwise, they will be conceited later on!”

“Alright...”ice cap smiled. “Then, please sign the checklist for our staff. I remember that this is the rule of the intelligent reminder, right?”

“You are quite careful...”the receptionist narrowed her eyes. She originally wanted to wait until she entered the city before using the check list to continue making things difficult for her, but she did not expect the other party to mention it first.

Forget it, he was a thoughtful guy. Since he had already handed in the materials, he would not continue to make things difficult for her... “...”. What was this?

The receptionist was stunned. She suddenly saw a seven to eight-meter-tall giant man carrying a large book-like object over. With a bang, it was placed on the ground, causing the entire ground to tremble.

“The name list!”Bing Guan smiled.

“You... Your Name List is so Big?”The receptionist was stunned.

“Oh...”Bing Guan still smiled gently. “The aborigines over there are slightly bigger after the genetic surgery. They habitually use this kind of name list. Please forgive me...”

“UH...”the receptionist was stunned for a moment before she continued to be stunned. “Then where should I sign?”

The receptionist took a deep breath and was about to take a pen to sign when Bing Guan suddenly said, “Hey, hey, Hey, what are you doing?”

“Didn’t you ask me to sign?”The receptionist frowned.

The receptionist was stunned. Why was this line so familiar?

“Then what do you want?”

“Use this pen!”Ice Cap snapped his fingers. The whale man next to him removed a one-meter-long iron rod from his pen and inserted it into the ground with a bang, causing the ground to shake again.

“There are a total of 48 pages. Please fill them out seriously, sir...”. Ice Cap’s voice suddenly turned cold. “By the way, our paper is also very expensive. It is made from brand-new materials. A page costs tens of thousands of points. Please be careful when you write it, sir. If it is damaged, you will have to pay according to the price!”

“Ha...”the receptionist immediately realized that this guy was obviously here to cause trouble.

He immediately picked up the walkie-talkie. “Captain Li, Captain Li, someone is here to cause trouble. Please come over!”

Captain Li, who had received the news, was immediately energized. He had been waiting for the troublemaker for a long time, and now that it had finally arrived, he quickly called over forty teammates under his control and ran in the direction of the receptionist.

“What’s the situation?” As soon as he arrived, captain li shouted loudly.

“Captain Li, they...” before the receptionist could finish her sentence, Bing Guan stepped forward and interrupted, “So many people? Why? Are they going to make a move?”

Captain Li: “? ?”

Bing Guan: “Doggie! !”

Doggie, who had been waiting for a long time and was completely impatient, finally stood up and slowly put on his leather gloves... ..

Chapter 944: Counterattack (Part Two)

In the chief captain’s room:

Liu Guosheng was happily drinking his afternoon tea with a very satisfied expression on his face. The desserts and tea leaves made from high-quality ingredients in the new world instantly gave him a different sense of high-quality.

In the past, although he was a second generation and was used to eating high-quality ingredients, most of those things were high-quality packaged by brands, for example, red wine from the top red wine region, Kobe beef from the Red Sun Country that blew up the sky, some super rare caviar, and so on. Most of the time, those things tasted similar to ingredients of the same attribute, especially drinks. It was really difficult for ordinary people to tell the difference between a top-class red wine and a bottle of red wine with good craftsmanship that cost a few hundred yuan. At the very least, Liu Guosheng himself could not tell the difference, the reason why he liked to eat it was because his status required this kind of luxury item as a foil.

However, it was different here. The so-called high-grade ingredients here were really high-grade in the literal sense. There was no brand premium, it was incomparably pure!

The taste of level one beef and level three beef was worlds apart. The tea leaves grown in the high-grade land tasted better than the low-grade tea leaves. That kind of identification came from the most primitive aspects of the body, the taste and nutrition, this was the true definition of high-grade. A high-grade that could be judged by an ordinary body was completely different from those luxury goods that were guaranteed by the brands to be sold at a premium of various cultural values!

In such a world, it was only meaningful if one had power and influence. Liu Guosheng was enjoying the fragrant grade 3 tea leaves as he thought so contentedly in his heart... ..

“Captain! !”

Suddenly, a panicked voice broke Liu Guosheng’s pleasant mood. However, Liu Guosheng was not angry. He had long expected this. In his eyes, these people were equivalent to nouveau riche, this time, there would definitely be people who could not help but turn against him. This was the kind of person he had been waiting for.

Originally, he had wanted to make an example of Pu Yunchuan, but he did not expect that guy to be so calm. He was still worried, but he really dozed off.

Although he was very excited in his heart, on the surface, Liu Guosheng had a stern look on his face. "What's the situation? Why are you so flustered?"

"Head captain, someone is causing trouble in the North District, and they are fighting!" A Green Titan soldier in military uniform rushed in and reported.

"Good!" Liu Guosheng's spirits were lifted.

The Soldier: "???"

"Ahem... I mean, they are simply rampant!" Liu Guosheng coughed lightly and asked in a low voice, "Do you know the background of the person who is causing trouble?"

"I will..." the soldier quickly nodded. "Dr. Jiang from the data department gave us the data. It's a suzerain called the ice crown!"

"Ice Crown..." Liu Guosheng began to recall the information he had memorized previously, he had some impression of this name. The people in the data department had given her a very high evaluation. They thought that her influence and potential were very high. Even now, after having an independent battleship, her overall strength was ranked ninth by the star ocean authorities.

Although her reputation was not as good as Pu Yunchuan and little cabbage, she was still a good target to make an example out of... ..

Therefore, Liu Guosheng perked up and stood up. "What's the situation now? Did you call for backup?"

"Yes...". The soldier's face was a little pale. "Team Li brought people to the scene at the first moment, and they even brought more than 40 team members, but they were all defeated ... Then, they called Team Huang, Team Luo, and team gong. There were a total of more than 200 brothers..." "..."

"In the end? Still not taken down?" Liu Guosheng frowned.

"Yes..."

More than 200 people were still not taken down? He remembered that each faction only had 10 recruitment slots at the beginning, right? Excluding the necessary developers, it was already a lot to have three ordinary fighters, but they could not take down?

"How many people are there on the other side? Did that guy send the Aborigines under him?" Liu Guosheng quickly asked.

If that was the case, it would be even better. Inciting the native soldiers to attack the city guards was simply a rebellion. Their nature was completely different from each other. Players could not be killed easily. Could it be that the native soldiers could not?

The pressure of killing players was definitely great, but it was different for those native soldiers. If they were killed, then they were killed. This way, the deterrence would be even greater!

Thinking of this, Liu Guo Sheng's heart became even more excited...

"One person..."the soldier replied carefully.

"Oh, no wonder. Since we used the words of the Aboriginals... er... What did you say?"Liu Guo Sheng was instantly stunned. "One person?"

"En... one person..."the soldier also felt that it was somewhat unbelievable.

"Two hundred people fighting one person without fighting one person?"Liu Guo Sheng asked in a daze.

"That person's identity isn't ordinary..."the soldier hurriedly said, "It's Lord Green Sparrow!"

"Green Sparrow?"Liu Guosheng immediately frowned. "Is that the legendary Dragon Team No. 1?"

"Yes!"The soldier hurriedly nodded. "She's the one who once struck fear into the hearts of the Kagura Legion in the ironbar... not only that, Lord Green Sparrow is ranked seventh on the starsea battle heavenly ranking, and the players all say that she's the number one elven wind demon!"

"Number one? Bullsh * T!"Liu Guosang immediately snorted when he heard that. "The reason why she was able to be so awe-inspiring before was because the platform was different. She used such a high-tech gene to fight the people of the Kagura Legion. What's the difference between this and a dimensional reduction attack? "Now that we're all on the same platform, do you really think that she has three heads and six arms? "It's just that she came a little earlier and her level was a little higher. Ask captain Huo and Captain Zeng to bring all the city north guards over. I'd like to see how good she is at fighting! _! _

_ _ _ _ _

"Elder Li!"

Inside the Huaxia City Protection Center, elder Jiang's son rushed toward elder Li's office. At this moment, he looked a little anxious.

"What's Wrong?"Elder Li put down the document in his hand and looked at little jiang curiously.

Little Jiang was elder Jiang's son. He had inherited his father's strict and steady style, and he rarely acted so rashly.

"Something happened in the north of the city..."little jiang quickly said, "The Lord Players had a conflict with Liu Guosheng's subordinates!"

"Isn't this expected?"Elder Li laughed. "With his actions, it would be weird if there wasn't a conflict. What happened in the end?"

"One-sided!"Little Jiang shook her head.

"Oh?"Elder Li's expression immediately became serious. "Did Liu Guosheng go overboard? Did he get the High Lords to unite?"

"One Lord..."elder li frowned, "Did Liu Guosheng kill the chicken to warn the monkeys? Did the High Lords not help?"

This was a little troublesome. The leader wanted to make Liu Guosheng suffer a little, but he did not expect the players to be so weak. If that was the case, they would have to use other methods... ..

Little Jiang sighed, "Elder Li, it seems like we have underestimated the strength of the high-level players. The current Huaxia City Protection Army does not have the ability to fight against the high-level players..."

"Huh?"Elder Li realized that he had misunderstood. He was shocked, "Could it be that Liu Guo Sheng could not handle one lord faction?"

"It's just one person!"Little Jiang said solemnly, "Liu Guosheng has mobilized more than ten team leaders and more than 2,000 level 2 guards, but he was defeated by Qing que alone!"

Elder Li:"! !"

Chapter 945: Strong!

"D * mn, Gou Dan is so strong?"

At the scene in the north of the city, after seeing the 2,000 th guard fall to the ground after being struck by Li Gou Dan, little cabbage was stunned.

Now that the north of the city had become so big, elder Li and the others were not the only ones to receive the news. Many High Lord ranked players had also been attracted, including the big shot on the Heaven Board.

Among the crowd, a player who seemed to be familiar with emperor liver came forward and said, "Big Shot, are the top ten players all so fierce? There should be at least one to two thousand of them, right? Can One person pick them?"

Emperor liver looked at the battlefield in a daze. At this moment, after Li Goudan finished killing the last person, he rubbed his arm and casually found a place to sit down. Then, he took out a bottle of nutrient solution from his spatial bag and drank it.

More than 2,000 Titans were lying on the ground next to him. They piled up like a mountain of garbage, giving a strong impact to the scene!

Emperor liver swallowed a mouthful of saliva and turned to look at Leng Xing, "Brother, can you do it?"

He came when Li Goudan was in the middle of fighting. He had witnessed the second half of the battle, but after seeing it, his heart was full of questions.

The top ten players on the Heaven Board were basically all level 5 players. The gap between Level 5 players and level 2 players was, of course, huge. However, it was very difficult to fight against 1,000 players.

The most direct reason was that one's physical strength could not sustain such a group fight!

Usually, in a close combat situation, regardless of whether the number of people attacking you was 1,000 or 10,000, there were only a few people who could truly attack you together. Even on flat ground, there were only six or seven people who could beat you up, because space was always limited, you couldn't just jump over the first floor and fight a bull from a mountain, right?

Therefore, if an advanced combat power could deal with six or seven people attacking you at the same time, in theory, you could fight an unlimited number of people. However, that was only a theory. After all, one-on-one battles consumed a lot of stamina, you had to calculate the situation of the people attacking you from all directions, and then calculate a reasonable parry route and counterattack route.

Even if an advanced player did this many times, it would still consume a considerable amount of mental energy. Moreover, your attacks had to be very effective, and you had to be able to finish off your opponent as quickly as possible. Hence, in most battles, if you wanted to win, your attacks would have to be very heavy, it was best to deal a fatal blow in order to save energy efficiently.

However, this time, Li Goudan was facing an army of guards. Naturally, he could not be heavy-handed. Hence, every time Li Goudan attacked, he struck at the right time. Not only could he make his opponent lose their combat power, but he would not kill or even cripple his opponent.

This was a test of control. Of course, this kind of thing was an advantage for the high-agility elves, but that was only when there were a small number of them, or when the quality of one's life and vitality was very poor, however, it was already very exaggerated for him to be able to maintain such a large number of level 2 Green Titans.

Cold Star believed that he could not do it. According to Eggface Li's fighting style, he could at most fight 500 of them. After 500 of them, regardless of whether it was the mental or physical exhaustion, it would be very serious, this was also the fundamental reason why many big shot players could not rely on one person to open an unrivalled game on the prairie. If everyone was like Li Goudan, why would they need an Aboriginal army?

So, how did this guy maintain his stamina?

This made Leng Xing somewhat curious. Chen Yutong, who was ranked third on the Heaven Roll, also had a curious look on his face. He quietly approached Leng Xing and asked, "Could it be because of the nutrient solution in Goudan's hands?"

Leng Xing shook his head. "It takes time for the nutrient solution to recover physical strength, and it requires the body to rest to coordinate with it. It's not like the red and blue bottles in the game. Do you think that drinking a mouthful of it will fill up your health?"

Chen Yutong:"..."

That seemed to be the case...

But if it was not the nutrient solution, then what was the reason? Judging from Li Goudan's movements, the gap between her and before was not big. She did not look like she had evolved to level six, but how did she maintain her physical strength?

Li Goudan sat in the crowd. After taking a sip of the nutrient solution, he glanced at the receptionist who was signing carefully in the distance. At this moment, the receptionist was holding a fountain pen that was about the same height as him, she signed the big booklet with great difficulty. When she saw Li Goudan glancing at her, her face immediately turned pale. Her hand trembled, and with a snap, the fountain pen in her hand tore a crack on the fragile piece of paper.

"Take it easy, sir...". Li Goudan sat among the Titans and stared at him coldly. "10,000 points per page. I remember that the salary of a level one developer like you in the city is about 800 points? You already owe us 60,000 points. Without interest, you'll have to work for seven years!"

Hearing that, the receptionist's face turned pale. However, looking at the Titans on the ground, she did not dare to refute him...

When Li Goudan saw the timid look on the receptionist's face, her mood instantly improved. Especially when she saw the shocked expressions on the faces of the old players, her mood became even better.

She did not expect herself to be so fierce?

According to her original calculations, she should be able to fight at most 500 Titans. Her source plan was to have Leng Xing or someone else replace her when her stamina ran out later on. However, she did not expect herself to be able to fight from the beginning to the end alone... Moreover, she did not feel tired at all until now... ..

She did not take any drugs... why was she so fierce?

Thinking of this, Li Goudan suddenly thought of the guy in his body. After hesitating for a moment, he asked softly in his heart, "It can't Be You, right?"

REME: "Heh... what do you think?"

Damn...

Li Goudan's heart was instantly filled with joy. This old man still had the basic functions of an old man. Immediately, he said in a flattering manner in his heart, "Big Brother is awesome. I knew that I would be invincible if I were to hang out with you..."

When Rem heard this, he sneered and replied in his hometown dialect, "You're a dog, right? You changed your face so quickly?"

Li Goudan: "No, I've always respected Big Brother."

REM: "I'll believe you if you say so..."

Li Goudan:"..."

Do you have to be so fluent in your Sichuan dialect?

Just as Li Goudan was having a rich conversation in his heart, a group of people appeared in the distance again. This time, there were not many people, only forty to fifty of them. Other than a large number of Titan Guards, there were also a few developers in white coats, judging from the on their clothes, they should be from the data center. The leader was a titan in a high-grade military uniform. A group of people walked quickly towards them.

Everyone looked over and sneered in their hearts. Finally, someone came to speak, ha... ..

As expected, only those who were strong enough had the right to have a conversation. This was a principle that had never changed since the beginning of time...

The person who came was naturally Liu Guosheng, the one who planned this incident. He looked at the Titan Guards lying on the ground and felt a chill in his heart. Although he had heard about this result before coming here... But seeing Li Goudan sitting alone in the middle of the Titan army, he was still so scared that his legs were trembling... ..

What the F * ck... did he have to be so perverted?

“Green... Lord Green Sparrow?” Liu Guosheng walked closer and changed his previous tough attitude. He said with a smile, “What are you doing...”

“Who are you?” Li Goudan glanced at him coldly and said.

“I’m Liu Guosheng!” Liu Guosheng said with a familiar look, “When you were in the dragon team, I was one of the people in charge of the logistics liaison. Do you remember me, Sir?”

“Oh...”. “I remember you a little. Wang Ye seemed to have told me that a very pretentious second generation actually joined the city protection army.” “Hehe, your uniform looks a little different. You’re not the leader, are you?”

“Haha...”. “...”. You’re so funny... Liu Guosheng wiped the cold sweat off his forehead and smiled apologetically. “I’m here to clear up the misunderstanding, right?” “? I’ve only just heard that these B * stards have done all sorts of disgraceful things. I’ve always stressed that they shouldn’t get into conflict with the veteran players ... ..”

As soon as these words were said, the Titan guards who had been knocked down to the ground and had regained some consciousness immediately felt a chill in their hearts.

“This is also a misunderstanding?” Gou Dan took out a list of resources from the space and smiled, “I heard from the receptionist that this is the intention of the higher-ups. When she said ‘higher-ups’, was she referring to you, or was she referring to the higher-ups?”

“Misunderstanding... . Misunderstanding!” Liu Guosheng naturally did not dare to continue to throw the pot up, hurriedly explained: “It was my mistake. I didn’t take into account the differences in the genome when I moved to another place. As a result, I was distorted and used by the people below. I will definitely deal with this matter severely later. No one who committed the crime can escape. You See...”.

“Ha...”. “...”Li Goudan sneered, “Captain Liu, do you think we are fools?” “... you are a titan yourself. Tell me that you didn’t think of this.” “... you have been in office for almost a month.” “... Don’t tell me that the documents you signed here are all on this scale?”

As he said that, Li Goudan’s two fingers lightly shook. The list turned into a silver light and stabbed into the ground that was less than a few centimeters away from Liu Guosheng. Liu Guosheng was so scared that he took a few steps back.

“Captain Liu, please give me a demonstration...”Goudan li said faintly, “If you can use your two big hands and the nose brush you provided to officially sign on it, then we’ll forget about today’s matter... if you can’t...”

“You... What do you want?”Liu Guo Sheng said with a panicked expression.

Goudan faintly glanced at the other party, then pointed at the huge manual behind him and said, “I’ll clip you inside to be a specimen!”

Chapter 946: elder Li’s quick wit

“How dare you! !”Liu Guosheng’s face was pale. “How dare you kill people?”

“Heh...”. “...”. “...”Goudan Li sneered. “You were born in the army, right? How could you ask such a question? Did you not investigate the situation before doing these things? Do you think that every lord-tier player who could colonize here has the current power? Ask them which one of them doesn’t have 10,000 lives? You actually think that we won’t kill people? Are you trying to provoke us with such a mentality?”

Liu Guosheng’s face turned pale when he heard this. He stuttered, “I... I...”

Li Goudan sneered, “Or do you really think this is a game? Then let me tell you, not only do I dare to kill people, but I can also kill you until you can’t even resurrect. Do you believe me?”

Bang...

Liu Guosheng could no longer bear the other party’s imposing manner. His psychological and physical defenses collapsed, and Liu Guosheng collapsed to the ground with a dazed look on his face. He stuttered, “You... Don’t do anything...”

The next second, a disgusting smell came. Everyone looked over and immediately saw a pool of yellow liquid quickly forming a small pool under Liu Guosheng’s handsome military pants...

F * ck, we were actually bullied by such a person for an entire morning. It was really F * cking embarrassing... ..

The Titans who were lying on the ground looked at their own commander’s embarrassing appearance and immediately closed their eyes in shame. They could not help but think to themselves, F * ck, I actually worked under such a person?

Li Goudan was also stunned. He thought to himself, "It can't be, this Goudan was just casually saying it. He even came to pee in his pants..." "..." How could he become a high-ranking officer like this? "Oh F * ck, how did he do it?"

While everyone was sighing, the sound of hurried footsteps came from afar again. This time, there were even fewer people. There were only ten or twenty of them, but all of them were wearing high-ranking officers' uniforms. The people in the lead were also very familiar. It was elder Li.

"Jiayi!" After elder Li rushed over, he looked at the mountain of Titan Guards. His heart trembled. When Little Jiang reported, he was still somewhat skeptical. However, he did not expect that with a slight hesitation, there would be a few thousand of them from a few hundred...

The difference in levels between players could actually be so huge with the same gene body?

"What are you messing around for?" Elder Li glared at Li Jiayi and said.

Facing an old acquaintance like elder Li, Li Goudan finally couldn't bear it anymore. He stood up obediently and pouted, "How am I fooling around? It's clearly your subordinates fooling around!"

Elder Li immediately heaved a sigh of relief when he saw Li Jiayi's attitude. This time, it was green sparrow who went up against a thousand enemies. It was truly a blessing in disguise...

After seeing that Li Jiayi didn't pursue the matter forcefully, elder Li immediately looked at the group of Titan soldiers who were lying on the ground pretending to be dead and said sternly, "You're a disgrace. Are you still pretending to be dead? Get Up for your father! !"

These words were full of vigor. Coupled with the fact that elder Li was able to make Li Goudan give up his position in the first instance, he looked completely different from his own silly captain. Only then did the group of guards have the face to slowly get up, and under elder Li's stern gaze, they lined up the troops.

Looking at this group of soldiers who could still stand up straight, elder Li heaved a sigh of relief once again. He thought to himself, 'fortunately, I wasn't complimented by that Guy Goudan in my bones...'.

Thus, he said calmly, "Tell me your thoughts. How do you feel about being beaten to such a state by a little girl?"

The guards immediately lowered their heads in shame. A few of them couldn't help but retort in anger, "Sir, this isn't fair. They came before us, so naturally, they're better than us."

"You even know about fairness?" Elder Li looked at the person who retorted with a smile. "You guys, a few thousand men, ganging up on one person. Is this fair again?"

The Guards: "..."

Looking at the crowd, they fell silent, elder Li sighed and said, "They came before you guys and gained a few more years of experience. I can understand that they are more powerful than you guys, but it is precisely because they started late that you guys should face yourselves more seriously and chase up to them. Look at what you guys have been doing these past few days? Against internal intrigue and infighting, instead of walking the right path, you guys have been all sorts of flattery, forming cliques, and using your power to oppress others. Now do you see the result? Without strength, those privileges in your hands are nothing! ! !”

The moment these words were said, the many Lord ranked players felt relieved, while the guards felt extremely aggrieved. However, although they felt aggrieved, they vaguely understood something.

Looking at everyone’s expressions.., elder li continued, “The most precious thing the city Lord gave you is the free training room policy. As long as you are outside of working hours, you have enough space to improve yourselves. Everyone’s resources and platforms are the same. Do you need to form cliques? Do you need to curry favor with the powerful? Is it useful to curry favor with them?”As he said that, elder Li pointed at Liu Guosheng who was sitting on the ground and peeing in fear!

When the guards heard that, they clenched their fists tightly. Their Hearts were boiling. For a moment, they were questioning themselves, “That’s right. It’s clearly a platform with such an opportunity. Why are we still going down the same path?”? They could clearly be as strong as those old players. All they needed to do was to keep their heads down and work hard. Why would they waste their time to curry favor with those second-generation players?

Times had changed! !

Liu Guosheng, who was slumped on the ground, saw that he had been taken as a negative example, and his heart immediately sank. He directly spat out a mouthful of blood and fainted.

Elder Li looked at the other party with disgust and said indifferently, “Take this shameful thing away and apply to the higher-ups to permanently revoke his Huaxia City resident status!”

These words made the hearts of those second-generation children in the crowd jump... “...”. They couldn’t help but think to themselves, “Could it be that they have joined forces to deliberately mess with us?”?

After dealing with Liu Guosheng, elder Li raised his head to look at the guards, “You are all seedlings that the city lord has given high hopes to. The reason why he let you walk the path of a warrior with military experience is that he hopes that you can catch up and surpass these old players. The city Lord has also given you sufficient resources. On such a stage full of miracles, you have the city lord who fully supports you. If you still want to walk the same path as before, that can only prove that you will be someone else’s lackey for the rest of your life!”

“Elder Li...”the leading soldiers blushed when they heard that. “We... We also... didn’t want to do that.”

“Why do you still do that if you don’t want to do it?”Elder li said coldly, “Everyone has the same training resources, and they all have the same teacher to guide them. If you are of a higher rank, you will be a higher-level officer. If you can train to the level of green sparrow, I can give my position to you. Who Do you need to suck up to? “You even gave your own resources to trash like Liu Guosheng. Are you stupid or crazy?”

“We... We...”the guards were ashamed, but their hearts were burning with a raging flame. At this moment, they wanted nothing more than to immediately return to the training room and return every second they had wasted.

The second generation of the guards who relied on the people around them to live extremely well suddenly realized that their good days were coming to an end!

Chapter 947: Purge (1)

“Old Li, you’ve done well!”

In the Huaxia City Lord’s base, when old long heard Little Jiang’s report, he felt a lingering fear in his heart.

If they did not handle this matter properly, the reputation of the Huaxia City’s officials would plummet!

The original plan was for the individual lords to resist. They would use Liu Guosheng to suppress them, and before the other high-level lords attacked, he and Old Li would personally intervene. This way, they could suppress Liu Guosheng’s family’s second generation, at the same time, they could show all the new players the strength of the government. At the very least, they could tell them that Huaxia city had the ability to punish the high lords.

However, reality was a huge blow to their faces. Even elder long did not expect that on the same platform, there would be such a huge difference between people. If they did not handle the data correctly, Huaxia City’s reputation would drop to zero.

It could only be said that it was fortunate that it was Qing que who stood up and defeated the guards. It was also fortunate that it was elder Li who stood up.

Qing que’s retreat and elder Li’s quick-wittedness could be considered to have shifted the humiliation away. It became a speech to encourage the lower class and also to suppress the second-generation forces.

Elder Li also sighed and drank a mouthful of tea. To be honest, if the person sitting there today was someone who did not want to sell him off, such as the higher ranked cold star, then today would really be over... ..

“By the way...”elder li said speechlessly, “Didn’t your daughter-in-law give you a standard? I remember that she’s the one ranked first on the Heaven Roll, right?”

Elder long also frowned when he heard that. Feng Doudou had to bear a part of the responsibility for Little Jiang’s misjudgment. She, who was publicly acknowledged as the number one in combat strength, had told him that as long as he gathered six hundred level-two Green Titan., if he could take down any powerhouse on the Heaven Roll, he would at least be able to beat him until he ran away.

However, that didn’t seem to be the case...

“Sigh, forget it. I’ll go back and ask...”elder long sighed and said in the end, “It’s all thanks to you today. At least the goal of suppressing Liu Guosheng’s faction has been achieved.”

Elder li nodded, because on the way here, he had already seen many changes in the soldiers.

In one of the guards' dormitories, four Green Titans sat together in a daze. They were silent for about half an hour.

After a long while, the smallest one stood up. "Don't just stand there. A few of the captains are seriously injured. Captain Liu is also calling us over. Also, it's time to hand in this month's tribute..."

When everyone heard this, their expressions instantly became even colder. The so-called tribute was the rule set by the second generation in the beginning. First, they would gather resources to create strong individuals. Then, he would give back to everyone. It sounded grand and grand, however, many people knew what was going on. Would he really give back to us when he reached a higher level? If he didn't exploit us even more severely, then Amitabha would do it.

But why would they be willing to be exploited. No one was born to be lowly. It was just that the general environment was like this. They would just drift along with the flow... ..

After a few hundred years of development in the d-ball Federation, many countries' internal channels of advancement had been cut off, especially in places like the military. If you didn't mingle with the descendants of your family, you wouldn't even be able to drink the soup, many unconvinced military ranks had been promoted to colonel, but none of them lacked a major. This was the current ecology.

Under such a situation, who would dare believe that the higher-ups would treat everyone fairly on the new platform? If they didn't hand over their resources now, they would be isolated and suppressed, unable to stand out for the rest of their lives.

"Bang!"

Suddenly, just as a few people were about to silently get up and go to Captain Liu's place, the tallest one directly smashed the study table in the dormitory into pieces with a punch!

"What are you doing, Gang Zi? Are you out of your mind?" A few of their teammates immediately frowned as they looked at the guy who smashed the desk.

"Why?" The eyes of the player called Gang Zi turned red. "When we first came here, everyone wanted to be like those players from team dragon and become an enviable powerhouse. Now that a few months have passed, how are we any different from before? "Should we be exploited or exploited? Should we be treated like dogs or dogs? Haven't you seen it clearly today? "She's a girl who's not even 20 years old, yet we still have to be treated like dogs. Like elder Li said, are we crazy or stupid?"

"Then..." the guy who took the lead to ask them to hand over the money was stunned for a moment and said, "Don't tell me... we're not going to hand it over?"

"Hand it over my ass!" ! Gang Zi said with a fierce expression, "The workers are also men who have fought with real guns and knives in D ball. How are they inferior to the first batch of players? "If that guy surnamed Liu can really pressure me for my whole life, I'll accept it. Anyway, the workers won't Be Dogs Anymore!"

"You... Don't be impulsive, Gang Zi..." the short guy was just about to think about his rights when he found that his two roommates who had just stood up and were about to leave had also sat back down.

"You guys... Too?"

“Qiangzi...” one of his roommates sighed. “Gangzi is right. If a man wants to die, he has to face the sky. If he doesn’t die, he will live for tens of thousands of years. Why should he suffer that kind of anger?”

“That’s right...” The other guy also said, “That guy surnamed Liu has been reincarnated into a better family. The road is wider than ours. Who asked his father to be so awesome? But if he wants to narrow our road, I don’t think so. This platform is our only chance to make a name for ourselves. Are you still willing to do what you did before?”

“You guys...” the short man saw that everyone was in a dilemma. After hesitating for a long time, he finally said, “I’d better go over and take a look first...” as he said that, he walked out with a guilty conscience.

As he said that, he snorted and walked out of the room. When Gang Zi saw that, he spat, “Lackey...”

“Don’t say that...” another person said, “Qiang Zi is just a little timid. He’s different from us. His family depends on his meager salary. He has a lot of worries...”

“Yeah...” another person on the side also said, “It’s not easy...”

On the other side, Liu Guosheng, who was lying in his office, looked at the sky with a gloomy face. The sky was gradually turning dark, but the people who gathered here were far from meeting his expectations.

Elder Li had already announced that he was fired, but as long as more than half of the guards still came to support him, he still had a chance to turn the tables!

However, the truth was very bone-chilling. Up until now, there were less than 200 people... ..

“Brother Sheng...” behind Liu Guosheng, a man in a high-grade military uniform said in a low voice, “Do you want me to send a message to urge them again?”

“Send my * s!” Liu Guosheng said angrily, “Do you think those people are Deaf or blind? How can they not see our message? They didn’t come because they were hesitating. If you send another message now, won’t it mean that we are anxious?”

“But...” that person hesitated for a while and then said, “If we wait any longer, the city lord might send people over...”

“He doesn’t dare...” Liu Guosheng’s face was gloomy as he said, “What force is behind us?” ? He wants to kill us all at once ? He thinks too highly of himself. The troops are still not under the command of that long guy. As long as we are willing, we can make more than half of the soldiers not listen to our orders. Do you think he really dares to completely fall out with us?”

These ruthless words made the hundreds of soldiers who chose to come over and continue the attack heave a sigh of relief in their hearts. They thought to themselves, “Looks like I’m still wise after all.”

Just as they were thinking about it, a clear and cold voice suddenly sounded, “Is that so?”

When everyone heard this, they looked over in shock. Liu Guosheng also looked over. When he saw who it was, his expression immediately darkened. He gritted his teeth and said, "Feng Doudou..."

Chapter 948: Purge (Part Two)

"Feng Doudou... What are you doing here?"

Liu Guosheng's face was gloomy. He didn't expect the higher-ups to actually call Feng Doudou over. This guy was a famous lackey. He was obviously so powerful, but he was still willing to be a little wife. It was simply unreasonable... ..

Feng Doudou glanced at him coldly. "I heard from the Discipline Department that you should leave three times already. You didn't leave, but you actually started gathering people. So, I came over to take a look..."

Feng Doudou's voice was very cold. When she spoke, it was like the wind blowing in an ice cellar. Many people weren't used to her tone. However, when she was at home, she was a different person. She had been married for more than ten years, she was still her husband's Fangirl.

Liu Guosheng stared at her gloomily for a few seconds and said grimly, "What? I'm not leaving, and captain Feng wants to personally chase me away?"

Feng Doudou tilted his head. "Do you think I'm here to have tea with you?"

"Feng Doudou, don't Go Too Far!" A man in a high-class military uniform walked up to Liu Guosheng with a cold expression. "Today, when elder Li spoke, we were giving him face. Do you really think he can say whatever he wants? You can try it today!"

"Okay..." Feng Doudou nodded slightly. In the next second, his figure appeared in front of the officer like a ghost. Without any reaction, he slapped that person away.

With a bang, the tall Titan flew vertically toward the wall behind him. In the next second, his entire body exploded, turning into a shocking mess of flesh and blood on the wall!

Everyone's expressions changed as they retreated in unison. The senior team leaders behind Liu Guosheng retreated in shock. Liu Guosheng also retreated, but his expression was stern as he said, "You dare to kill someone?"

"How can you say something so stupid a second time?" Feng Doudou was speechless. "As expected, the essence of a human is a repeater."

As she said this, she slowly walked forward. Liu Guosheng's face immediately turned pale with fright. "Stop her!"

The surrounding soldiers looked at each other in dismay. A few of them who dared to make the first move immediately stopped after being stared at by Feng Doudou.

What a joke. Qing que, who was ranked seventh, was able to single-handedly defeat two thousand guards. There were less than two hundred people here. Against Feng Doudou, who was ranked first on the Heaven Roll, one could imagine the outcome.

The key was that Feng Doudou was still so ruthless. Although Qing Que's words were ruthless, she clearly had her limits today. And this Feng Doudou was simply a madman... ..

At this moment, Feng Doudou really wanted these soldiers to be loyal and protect their master. This was because she was in a very bad mood right now and couldn't wait for them to swarm over and beat her up to her heart's content.

Her prediction was wrong. After her father-in-law went back and complained to her husband, she was also harshly reprimanded by her husband. Right now, she had nowhere to vent her anger.

"Go, you bunch of trash..." when Liu Guosheng saw Feng Doudou getting closer and closer, he immediately lost his rationality. When the soldiers behind him heard the word 'trash', their faces flushed red, and their hearts were extremely cold toward Liu Guosheng.

Many people, including that hadron earlier, were regretting their actions. Why didn't they just follow the example of their roommates?

"Feng... Feng Doudou, you... Don't act recklessly." Seeing that he couldn't command the soldiers, Liu Guosheng finally shrugged. ...

Feng Doudou walked in front of him coldly. "Cherish the time when you have a chance to resurrect, because soon, you won't have the qualifications..."

"You..."

Kacha! !

Without waiting for the other party to speak, Feng Doudou, who was too lazy to continue talking, directly broke Liu Guosheng's neck. When everyone saw Liu Guosheng's huge head being twisted 180 degrees, their hearts instantly chilled.

"Everyone, remember the demerit once, and your salary will be penalized for three months!" After finishing off Liu Guosheng, Feng Doudou raised his head and stared coldly at the pale-faced soldiers. "I really don't know what you guys are thinking, using the resources you deserve to consecrate this kind of trash? "If you are suppressed by this trash for a lifetime, even if I give you a huge platform, it will be like that for the rest of your life!"

Everyone: "..."

"Think about it..." Feng Doudou said faintly, "What is the most important thing here? A few years ago, be it me or Qing que, they were just ordinary people..."

After saying this, she didn't pay attention to the crowd anymore and directly walked out. The soldiers who still chose to submit looked at Feng Doudou's back and clenched their fists tightly.

“Isn’t this going too far?” In the city Lord’s room, elder Li said with some hesitation, “Liu Guosheng is backed by elder Bai, a first-class veteran military family. If they really fall out, it will easily cause unrest.”

“Unrest?” Elder long chuckled. “Do you think that ordinary soldiers are sincerely convinced to follow those family members? “It’s just that the channels have been blocked. They all think that only by relying on family members can one have a future. Once this idea is broken, do you really think that those old guys have a lot of appeal?”

“Besides, as long as we can completely control the tens of thousands of soldiers that are currently living in Huaxia City, what’s the point of those old guys holding the local military power?”

Hearing this, elder Li immediately nodded. If they could completely control the tens of thousands of soldiers in the city, then the troops on Planet D would no longer be a threat. At least in terms of raw strength, the city lord could directly suppress the worst-case scenario.

Then, just like what the city Lord said, when the concept of having a bright future only by relying on the descendants of the family clans was broken, those old military families would not have much appeal. Naturally, there would be an endless stream of low-level soldiers who would not listen to them, they would choose to believe in the fair platform provided by Huaxia City!

Thus, elder Li did not dwell on the matter of Liu Guosheng. He wanted to discuss with the city lord how to motivate the soldiers and give them better benefits to make them return to their families. However, just as he was about to do so, a person suddenly barged into the city Lord’s office.

Elder Li and the city Lord looked up and were stunned. “Old Lei?”

The person who came was Lei Xue’s grandfather. Behind him, a developer who was sweating profusely said apologetically, “I’m sorry, City Lord. Elder Lei said that there was an urgent matter. I couldn’t stop him.”

Elder long helplessly waved his hand at the developer. “Go Down...”

After the developer’s secretary left, elder Li looked at elder lei curiously. “What a rare guest, Old Lei!”

Ever since he came to Huaxia City, elder Lei was the one who had the most leisure time. He ran all day, strolled around the scenery, and ate some delicious food. After his teeth and body recovered, he seemed to be completely immersed in enjoying life. But elder Li was so envious... ..

“Something happened!” Elder Lei said with a grim expression.

“Look at how anxious you are...” elder Li imitated the calm look of the city lord from before. “Liu Guosheng, that small matter, is it worth it for you to do this?”

“Liu Guosheng? The one who was killed by the Feng Girl?” Elder Lei was stunned for a moment, and then he immediately spat, “Ptui, does he deserve to make a trip?”

Elder Li was immediately puzzled. “Then what’s the matter?”

Elder lei: “Didn’t they announce that the teleportation would be completely shut down before twelve o’clock? Xiaoxue helped the statistics department to compile a list of people, and then she realized that there was one person missing!”

“One person missing?”The city Lord was stunned. “Who is it?”

Elder lei: “Elder Liu’s grandson: Liu Shiyu!”

Chapter 949: emergency (Part One)

“Liu Shiyu?”The castellan thought back to his grandson, elder Liu. It was this guy who had successfully attracted their attention to the power of Luofu. At that time, the Liu family had been very prosperous.

Although they had been keeping a low profile recently, the Liu family had still given him face, allowing him to give his descendants a chance to be an outdoor lord.

This was all because Liu Shiyu had bribed Luofu and the officials had given Huazhong an advantage.

“He hasn’t returned? Has He been forgotten?”The city Lord felt that it was unbelievable, liu Shiyu was one of the best among the first batch of veteran players. Although his current results were inferior to great lords like Pu Yunchuan and little cabbage, he was not as talented as green sparrow, cold star, and Feng Doudou.

However, his overall skill level was outstanding. His personal strength had always been close to the Heaven Board. After joining Pu Yunchuan’s faction, he had successfully obtained a decent amount of shares. Moreover, his popularity was heaven-defying. Currently, most of the veteran players had a good relationship with him, he should not be forgotten.

Elder Lei shook his head. “According to the final report, AI has repeatedly reminded Shiyu to hurry to the teleportation point. However, he still hasn’t responded. He gives off the feeling that something has happened...”

The City Lord was silent for a few seconds before asking, “What about elder Liu? What do you think?”

He still had to rope in elder Liu and elder Lei, who were direct families. After all, they had always supported him on the spot so that he could firmly take over the position of Huaxia City’s City Lord, moreover, these two families were very useful against elder Bai and those old military families in the later stages.

It was necessary to show concern and comfort.

“Elder Liu still looks very calm, but...”elder Lei didn’t continue for a moment, as an old friend, he knew very well that elder Liu must be in a very bad mood right now. Among the three generations of his Liu family’s grandchildren, Shiyu was the most promising one. If such a grandson were to die, the family’s future plans would be greatly affected.

In the Lord’s room, Xi Ye, who had received the news, frowned deeply. “Liu Shiyu didn’t come back? Are you sure that nothing happened to him?”He still had a very good impression of this little fellow. After all, he was also the one who had used the first shot of the Luo Fu plan back then...

AI: "His life force and body sense are normal. He must have been delayed by something..."

"Nonsense..." Xi ye frowned slightly. "Where are his coordinates?"

AI: "Kate City..."

"Kate City?" Xi Ye thought for a moment before a faint sound rang out. This seemed to be a city in the southern part of the Steel Arms Empire. It was controlled by rainy girl and melon-less through the aristocrat acting plan. Why would this guy go there for no reason?

Anyway, time is tight to find the person back to line, he a person accident is small, in case of those guys caught, it is easy to expose the Mars coordinates!

— — — —

In the city of Kate, Brother Dog rode the latest breed of dragon horse, hurried toward the Castellan Castle of Kate City.

He hurried here to pick up his guardian daughter, Sunny, and his training knight, David, to go back to Mars, but time was running out.

He could not be blamed for his slow efficiency. A few days ago, due to the arrival of the academy, all the teleportation points in the new world were temporarily closed, resulting in the inability to use teleportation between cities.

At first, Brother Dog did not pay much attention to it and thought that it would recover in a few days. However, he did not expect that the higher-ups would suddenly issue an order to retreat. Although Brother Dog did not know the inside story, he knew that something big must have happened, how could he be at ease leaving Sunny, the little girl who could not be resurrected, in the New World? Naturally, he had to take her with him. Even if he had to force her, he had to do so.

However, the crux of the matter was that the retreat this time only opened up a portal to Mars, but not to the city. He also tried to get the AI to reopen the portal, but the AI directly rejected him because it did not have enough authority.

There was a reason for the AI's refusal. The reason for the evacuation this time was that the principal had personally brought the space faculty instructors to cover up the traces of the teleportation. They were afraid that someone would track them down..., covering up the traces of the space was not a simple task. It required a lot of effort. Even a powerhouse like the principal had a tiring day. Naturally, he could not open up a line for Brother Dog alone.

Of course, Brother Dog did not know the inside story. He could only use the traditional method to rush back. He rode on the latest high-level dragon horse produced by Gondolin. With one horse and one spear, he forcefully passed through the map of Black Goat and rushed back before twelve o'clock!

Looking at the system time, there were less than ten minutes left. Brother Dog hurriedly rushed towards the castle without stopping!

"Who's there!"

When the castle guards saw a huge green giant riding a huge horse covered in dragon scales, all of them immediately became alert.

“The Beasts are attacking? Quick, close the city gates!”

At this time, time was of the essence. Brother Dog did not have the mood to explain anything to these guys. He raised his spear and jumped onto the horse, using his powerful strength to smash the city gates into pieces with his spear before the soldiers closed the gates.

The dozen or so soldiers who had arrived at the city gate were sent flying. They stared at Brother Dog who had disappeared into the dust with their mouths Agape.

“What are you still standing there for? Send the signal. A monster has entered the city. Get the guards to protect the Count!”

On the other side, in less than a minute, inside the castle, the count, who was doing something shameful with the newly-found singer girl, was kicked open by the soldiers.

The earl instantly softened. “Paul? You... you... What are you doing?”

“My Lord!” The newcomer was a tall, middle-aged knight. He glanced at the singer who was hiding behind the castellan and frowned slightly, he quickly said, “My lord, come with me quickly. A monster has broken in from the outside. The soldiers can’t stop him at all!”

“What? ?” The Count’s heart skipped a beat, although everywhere in the imperial city had fallen, and there was a monster tide outside, he was still far away and had yet to feel the urgency of getting close to it. When he heard that the monster had come in, apart from being shocked, he also felt that it was a little unreal.

“Where is the monster?”

Paul said, “Fortunately, the monster went to the West Pavilion as soon as it entered the door. If it went straight to you, Sir Count, I’m afraid no one could stop him with the terrifying power he displayed!”

“Count, don’t waste time. If the monster comes here later, it’ll be over!”

“Okay, okay, okay!” Paul nodded repeatedly, but then he suddenly remembered something. “Who lives in the West Pavilion?”

Paul said, “It’s the second lady...”

“Sunny...” the count nodded repeatedly. “It’s okay, it’s okay...”

On the other side, Seer, who was about to pick up brother dog himself, was stopped by the headmaster when he arrived at the transfer point.

“You can’t go!” The headmaster said very seriously!

Chapter 950: God Damn the Moon!

“You can’t go!”

The headmaster who suddenly appeared at the teleportation point gave Xi ye a fright. “Why are you here?”

The headmaster replied, “Your AI was also requesting me to bring people over. This old man is also preparing to set off. After all, the dolls here are all rare and good seedlings. Although this old man isn’t very interested in those idiots who train their muscles, I can’t bear it. I’m preparing to go over and take a look. It Won’t take much effort anyway...”. “... “...”

Xi Ye was delighted. “It’s great that you think this way, headmaster. Let’s leave now.”

“Huh?”Xi Ye was stunned, but then she thought of something. “This... So Soon?”

At this moment, in the Earl’s Mansion of Kate City, Brother Dog rode his mutated dragon horse all the way to the west courtyard of the Earl’s mansion. He quickly found Sunny’s location based on his memory.

He found that the closer he was to Sunny’s small courtyard, the fewer soldiers there were in the Earl’s mansion. In the end, there was almost no one to stop him. This made brother dog startled.

He knew that sunny was not well-liked in the Earl’s mansion, but he did not expect her to be so disliked. After all, she was a direct descendant. Did she not even bother to send some knights over to try and save her?

This made brother dog feel that it was a wise move to bring sunny with him.

Meanwhile, Sunny, who had no idea what was going on outside, was still preparing to wash up and rest in Sunny’s room. She had been sleeping late these days, and Sim had been getting more and more motivated since he came back safely a few days ago, sunny was greatly comforted that he actually knew that she was going out to look for work. However, she did not have much money to reward him, so she planned to make a good cotton-padded coat for him to use in winter.

After making the last piece of the sleeve, Sunny looked at her masterpiece with satisfaction, then carefully put away the cotton-padded coat. She was already thinking about the silly smile on Sim’s face when he received the sweater.

“Miss Sunny! !”

Just when she was about to rest, the door was pushed open, and sunny stood up in shock, “Uncle David? What Happened?”

The person who came was the Guardian Knight that her mother had assigned to her before her death, David.

“Hurry up, Miss, something big has happened!”

David looked panicked. He did not explain much and hurried over. He picked sunny up and was about to leave. This sudden action made sunny know that something big had really happened. She did not ask much, she hugged David's neck with both hands obediently.

David was the person who had taken care of her since she was young. In her heart, he was like a family member. He was also the last warmth that her mother had left for her. In her heart, she completely trusted him.

The Missy's docility without asking the reason made David's heart warm, but it also made his heart ache. If that damn count had treated the second Missy as a daughter, he would not have been the only one to escort her today.

Even if he had more people to help take the young lady away, he would be able to sacrifice himself to lure the monster away and buy time for the young lady. But now, he could only pray that the monster's target was not the young lady.

But just as he brought sunny to the exit of the back garden, his lucky heart sank to the bottom of the valley.

At the entrance of the back garden, under the moonlight, a four-meter-tall draconic horse was covered in black scales. Its pitch-black pupils were faintly emitting blue flames. On the horse, a mighty orc in armor was mounted on the horse, its aura was extremely powerful, and David felt an incomparable pressure even though he was ten meters away.

David's heart was cold. Based on his instincts on the battlefield, he judged that this orc was at least at the level of a general. It was likely that he and miss would not be able to escape today.

Sorry Madam...

David silently pulled out his sword and said to sunny, "Run towards the path, don't turn back!"

Sunny shook her head desperately.

Seeing this, David used a stern tone that he had never used before and shouted, "Listen to me! !"

Sunny looked at David with a wronged expression. In the end, her eyes reddened as she jumped off David's back and ran towards the back.

Seeing this, Brother Dog hurriedly jumped off his horse and took two steps forward to stop him. Seeing this, David's eyelids twitched. This big guy was really here for the young lady!

Thinking of this, his heart was filled with despair. If it was just a coincidence, some noble orcs would not bother to chase after a weak human woman. The young lady might still have a chance to survive, but now... ..

Thinking of this, David roared in anger. His sword left his body and turned into a streak of snow light as he slashed at Brother Dog.

Brother Dog caught his opponent's slash with his bare hands and pulled David over to his shoulder. He said in a low voice, "Don't mess with Uncle David..."

David, who had been subdued in one move, was about to fight to the death when this sudden low voice stunned him.

Uncle David?

Since when did I have such a big nephew?

Brother Dog ignored David's stunned mood and caught up with sunny in a few steps. He also picked her up.

Brother Dog, who had just reached level five, was now about six meters tall. As he trained in heavy weapons such as long spears and broadswords, his palms were abnormally large. He directly pulled sunny up like a kitten.

She had heard that the women who had been taken away by the orcs ended up either being killed to eat meat or given to the disgusting goblins to breed. In the end, they were killed to eat meat.

When she thought of this ending, Sunny's heart almost collapsed. She was not greedy. There was a small garden with cherry trees that she liked, three meals for her, and David and Sim who were willing to be close to her, she was very satisfied.

But could she not maintain this kind of life?

Sunny felt so wronged that she wanted to cry, but then she heard the huge monster say in a low voice, "Don't be afraid..."

Sunny was stunned. She looked at the monster in a daze, and a trace of doubt rose in her despairing heart.

Is He talking to me?

David, who was being carried behind her, was also stunned. He clearly saw that the monster was very careful when it grabbed the lady. It was not rude at all. Instead, it was very careful and used the thickest piece of meat on its palm to support the lady, it was as if it was afraid of hurting the other party.

This guy... What did he mean?

Before the two of them could react, brother dog rushed towards his horse. He did not have time to explain to the two of them slowly. There was less than a quarter of an hour before 12 o'clock.

Hopefully, the system did not shut down in advance! !

After getting on the horse, he used his memory to quickly rush to the teleportation point that rainless melon had set up in Kate City. However, just as the horse rushed out, he heard the notification sound from the AI.

"Respected player G, you are too beautiful. All teleportation points have been closed!"

"F * CK, are you playing with me?" Brother Dog said sternly.

Ai: "Due to some special reasons, not only will the teleportation point be closed, it will also be temporarily erased. Please protect yourself well and do not be captured alive by the enemy. I strongly suggest that you kill yourself and return to the city. Otherwise, there is no guarantee that you will have a chance to return to the base safely. The Lord has already approved it. After your rebirth, you will be given a special subsidy..." "..." "..."

Brother Dog was stunned. "What?"

"You still have 30 seconds to consider. After 30 seconds, the AI will directly cut off the connection with you!"

Brother Dog's heart instantly turned cold as he thought to himself, as expected, something big has happened!

Almost without any consideration, he directly shook his head and said, "I can't commit suicide!"

It was fine to do it all over again, but once he left, what would happen to Sunny and the others. From the AI's tone, it seemed that this matter was not to be taken lightly... ..

"Then, please protect yourself, do not easily shift your position and try to avoid being exposed. We will send out reinforcements as soon as possible. Please take note, once the enemy is discovered by the enemy, please immediately commit suicide and restart. If you die in the hands of the enemy or are captured alive by the enemy, the consequences will be very serious!"

"What does the enemy mean?" Brother Dog hurriedly asked.

However, there was no reply from the AI. Brother Dog's heart turned cold. It seemed that the AI had been disconnected. Just as he was thinking about what to do, all kinds of noises suddenly came from the street.

"Look, look, there are two moons in the sky..."

"Yes, yes, yellow moons, it's so rare!"

Brother Dog looked up curiously when he heard that. Then, his whole body shook and he took a deep breath... ..

What the F * CK, is that a moon? That's an eye! !
