Chapter 991: The Story After Death (Part Two)

Alice remembered that it was a memory that she never wanted to go to a meeting. During the Empire period, as the only female legendary Duke, she was placed in the Tower of heroes. She originally thought that her life was enough.

From a slave to the top level of the empire, what had she not experienced in life? The experience of a lifetime was not in vain. Even though in the end, she was schemed against by the seemingly wise Emperor, Jiawen the first, and died in the most glorious moment without knowing why.

But even before she died, she did not complain too much.

With her intelligence, she had long seen that the King was afraid of her. She had also calculated that if she did not rebel, there was almost no chance of a good ending. But at that time, she really did not care much. She felt that she was already doing very well, if she took another step forward, even if she succeeded in usurping the throne and became the empress, it would feel like nothing more. It was really not that interesting.

This thought continued until after she died!

No matter which civilization had never believed that death was the end of life. Even if it was the barbaric orcs, there was a rumor circulating within them that after death, their souls would return to the totem god and establish the longevity heaven.

There was no disease, no pain, no hunger. There was no need to work or struggle to survive. They could live happily forever.

Alice didn't believe in this. She always thought that it was just a story that creatures didn't want to accept the cruelty of death.

So the story had everything they wanted, because in reality, they had all experienced disease, pain, hunger, and endless labor...

So they wanted a chance to start from scratch, so they had a twisted theory of the underworld.

But at the moment of her death, to be honest, she was still looking forward to it. Compared to the time before her death, when Gavin I kept talking about how she had designed herself to succeed, she wanted to hurry up and die to test her conjecture about death.

Would death really be completely unconscious, or would there really be a world that could accept their consciousness? What kind of world would the latter be?

If it's the former, what does it feel like to be completely unconscious?

Either way, she was actually looking forward to that moment, which was better than listening to this annoying guy gloat over his dying body... .

I've been loyal to this thing for most of my life. It's...

From death to the recovery of consciousness almost only a moment, there is no process, what soul catcher, the gate of the underworld, the road to immortality, she did not see anything. Just shows up out of the blue in a gray place... .

It made her feel that she might not be dead, but that some magic had sent her to an unknown place... ..

But she didn't think so many days later, because she was sure that the world she was in couldn't have such a place where she couldn't walk for half a year.

And even if she was a legend, it was impossible for her to be alive and kicking without eating for half a year...

She felt... .. She should really be dead...

"Is there nothing in the place where the dead stay?" Little cabbage asked curiously. "You haven't met anyone in half a year?"

"Half a year?" Alice chuckled. "I haven't met anyone in 300 years. I haven't met anything, only a gray area. I don't even know how I survived for 300 years..."

Little cabbage felt her scalp tingle. 300 years. In a place where there was nothing, there were no people, no living things, no cell phones, no douyin, and no starting point. God, how could she survive for 300 years? Even three hours was not enough for her!

Thinking of this, little cabbage leaned on Alice and asked, "What's that Gray Thing? Is it sand?"

"It's not sand, it's body fluid..." Alice replied calmly.

"What fluid?" Little cabbage was immediately choked.

Alice said, "In the world of death, water is solid, fire is liquid. There are many things that you can't imagine. The reason why there's no one in the place I'm at is because that place was once the body fluid of an ancient creature that was absorbed by the world of death. That creature was too powerful, so that area was contaminated. All substances were covered, and it was easy for people to get lost in there. That's why I didn't see any other undead in there."

"F * ck..." little cabbage was stunned. The body fluid that flowed out of something after it died could cover an area that could allow a person to walk for three hundred years? How Big Was That Thing?

"Then what happened after you walked out? Did you meet anyone?" Little cabbage quickly asked.

"After you walked out?" Aisley's eyes were filled with memories.

That year, after she had mastered the laws many times, she finally walked out of that damned place. Just as she walked out, she heard a wave of sighs.

"It's been a long time since I've seen a new undead walking out of this place!"

It had been too long since she had heard a voice. Even though the other party's voice was so hoarse that it made her feel extremely uncomfortable, Alice still felt a sense of familiarity as she looked at that person excitedly.

It was a man who was extremely beautiful. Alice swore that she had never met such a good-looking person in her entire life. She had kept three thousand male pets in the empire, and the men she had chosen had seen everything from pretty boys to little wolfdogs, she had also looked for orcs when she was hunting for novelty, but she had never met an object that could combine beauty and masculinity so perfectly. Just by looking at it, she was attracted to it.

The man chuckled. "Newbie, how did you come out?"

Alice came back to her senses and looked at the man. She asked curiously, "How did you know that I'm a Newbie?"

"It tastes different..."the man grinned and said, "The stale smell is not strong enough. You should be a fresh undead within 500 Years..."

Alice said, "Fresh Undead? This thing has a long shelf life..."

"Let's Talk About You, newbie. How did you come out of it after 500 years?"

Alice said, "300 years!"

"Oh?"The other party looked at her and then nodded. "You're unlucky. An average person would never be able to walk out of that place..."

Alice: "I didn't meet anyone else in there."

"Because they're all dead!"

Alice: "Aren't we already dead?"

"It's different...". The other party smiled and said, "Here, if you don't want to die, you won't die. But when you really want to die, this world will completely accept you. So in theory, you can live forever here. But under your feet, all the material formation comes from those people who can't help but want to die!"

Alice:"..."

"Who is that person?"Little cabbage asked curiously.

Alice: "He is a very powerful person. He has lived for years beyond your imagination. No matter if it is the D sphere where you are or Mars now, he has not lived as long as him!"

"Wow! !"Little Cabbage's eyes instantly widened. "Then do you still have contact with him?"

Alice heard it and looked at little cabbage. "Yes!"

Chapter 992: kidnapped again...

“Cabbage? What’s wrong? Doesn’t the meat smell good?”

That night, at the bonfire banquet, Wang Goudan was happily holding two half-meter-tall skewers of meat. Just as he was about to find a cool place to enjoy them, he suddenly saw a dazed little cabbage sitting not far away.

Goudan walked up curiously, only to find that the other party was holding a piece of star Rhino thigh meat in a daze, so he asked curiously.

“Ah?” Little cabbage was stunned for a moment, then looked at the thigh in his hand and nodded. “It’s very fragrant! Father Dog’s cooking is really getting better and better!”

“That’s true!” Gou Dan smiled proudly, but then he said, “Since it’s fragrant, why don’t you eat it? I remember that you snatched this meat half an hour ago, right? According to your usual appetite, shouldn’t it take at most three minutes?”

“Is that so...” little cabbage replied absent-mindedly, but his eyes were obviously lost in thought... ..

“Hehe!” Eggface immediately waved the meat skewer in front of little cabbage in dissatisfaction. “Don’t ignore me even if you ignore the food...”

Little cabbage was stunned for a moment, then he revealed an embarrassed smile.

“Did something happen?” Eggface sat down at the side and asked curiously.

“Yes...” cabbage lowered her head, recalling the conversation Alice had with her during the day.

“Do you still have contact with him?”

“Yes!”

What did “Yes” mean?

Cabbage had a complicated look in her eyes. She was just asking casually, but she did not expect to get such an answer. In an instant, she did not know how to continue asking.

Back then, in order to accept Alice, she had learned a lot about the undead from the Liege. She learned that it was unlikely to come out of that world after entering it.

Alice said that she was in contact with someone else...

How was she in contact? Was it like a phone call between life and death?

Thinking about it, it was unlikely.

But if that was not the case, then how was she in contact with the other party?

Was she really a person who had no other choice but to rely on her?

She... did she come with a Purpose?

Bai Cai's mind was in a mess, and her heart was empty. She could feel that Alice was very good to her. Ever since she was young, she didn't have many friends because she was sloppy, so she was a person who was good to her from the bottom of her heart, she was very sensitive, which was why she became closer to Alice in her daily life.

Unlike those people in the orc tribe, those people respected themselves, respected their magical power, and could bring them the power to feed themselves, but Alice was different. She treated herself purely well. That feeling was different from how she felt as a person... ..

But what if it wasn't Pure?

Little cabbage pursed her lips, unable to calm herself down. She didn't dare to continue the conversation from yesterday, because she was afraid, afraid that she would get the result that she didn't want to know the most...

After thinking for a long time, little cabbage realized that she seemed to have ignored Goudan again, so she quickly came back to her senses and wanted to apologize, but when she looked up, she realized that Goudan had already disappeared.

It was not just Goudan. She realized that the originally lively bonfire party had also gone silent. This made Bai Cai momentarily stunned, and she thought gloomily, "No Way? Could it be that the moment I went into a daze, the party had already ended?"

"What is she thinking about?" A dull voice suddenly rang out in the silent night. The voice was as hoarse and dull as metal, and Bai Cai frowned when she heard it.

"Maybe she's thinking about whether she missed the whole banquet or something..." an indifferent voice responded to the metallic voice.

This indifferent voice made little cabbage tremble. It was Alice's voice... ..

"Oh? Is she so natural?"

"Yes..."

"You really know her well..."

Alice was silent for a while before she finally said, "It's not difficult to figure out a person who doesn't have complicated thoughts, is it?"

"Ha..." the unpleasant voice snorted but did not continue speaking. Instead, it took the lead and walked forward.

Little cabbage slowly raised her head and looked at the person who was talking to Alice.

It was a tall Tauren. Unlike ordinary Tauren, it had a few disgusting bumps on its body, like rotting flesh that had degenerated.

She was certain that this was not a proper Tauren, and that a proper Tauren should not make her hair stand on end.

"Go..." Alice looked back faintly at the small cabbage road.

Bok choy looked around, do not know when, she has arrived at the new territories crack position, she suddenly realized... . Turns out it's not the bonfire party that's over, but I'm a long way from the bonfire party... ..

It turned out that... he had been kidnapped again...

-----

Little cabbage had gone missing!

This news quickly spread throughout the great lord incident the next day. In order not to cause panic, the Huaxia city officials had discussed with the various lords and decided to seal off the news!

However, the disappearance of people one after another was something that could not be tolerated, especially for those Lord players. If a great lord like little cabbage could go missing for no reason, what about them?

The sense of crisis immediately made all the lord-tier players nervous, and they all joined in the investigation.

As the players also wanted to find the reason as soon as possible, they became very cooperative in the face of the official inquiry.

Elder long led the entire data team and began to investigate the entire incident.

"According to AI, little cabbage, Luo Xiaojia, suddenly left the scene during the banquet and walked toward the location of the crack in the new world without any warning. The entire process was not monitored by anyone else. However, when she approached the crack, a strange magnetic field suddenly appeared there, causing Ai to lose the surveillance footage..." "..."

"He walked over on his own?" Candy Bean and the other developers frowned as they watched the video. Little cabbage looked absent-minded and his eyes were unfocused, as if he was unconscious.

"Could he have been hypnotized?"

"Hypnotized again?"

Many of the developers had solemn expressions on their faces.

This was because when they watched the entire video, there were no outsiders around. Little cabbage was directly hypnotized and walked away. This method was so strange that it gave people goosebumps.

If the other party had the ability to hypnotize a high-level player like the cabbages from a distance, did that mean that they could do the same to them?

It also meant that no one would be safe now!

When they thought of this, the developers who had quick reactions all had gloomy expressions.

"It might not be a long-distance hypnosis..." among the many developers, Lei Xue was the first to raise an objection. "Perhaps the hypnotist is among the crowd, but we haven't discovered it yet."

"Why do you have this idea?" Elder long looked at Lei Xue and asked.

“Because of that banquet...” lei xue said seriously, “If the other party has the ability to hypnotize little cabbages long-distance, they can hypnotize little cabbages to leave at any time. Why did they deliberately choose the lively bonfire banquet?”

“I think that maybe it’s because only in such a lively scene can the hypnotist take advantage of the lively scene to come into contact with little cabbages and perform hypnosis!”

Chapter 993: a tense atmosphere...

After the incident with rainy without melon, many players became very wary of this illusion that could 100% hypnotize others. After all, even the highest-level developer in the base could hypnotize them, this hidden person was too terrifying.

However, previously, it could be said that the person behind the scenes used Li Goudan’s close relationship with rainy without melon to cause her to be caught off guard, which was why she was so easily tricked.

However, now that there was no one to build a bridge, taking away a person for no reason was very terrifying. This not only proved that the person who took rainy girl, rainy girl, had not left, but also possessed the ability to hypnotize others at any time without any warning.

This was too terrifying!

However, after Lei Xue mentioned it, all the developers’ hearts were jolted... ..

Yes, perhaps it was not that bad. Perhaps that person’s ability was not that strong. Otherwise, he would not have been so secretive. It was very likely that the other party had used this banquet... When the people were mixed together, they quietly approached little cabbage. When she wasn’t on guard, they hypnotized her... ..

Of course, this was the best guess. Lei Xue’s statement was just a thought, and there was no absolute evidence. Because it was also possible that the other party just happened to choose to make a move on the day of the banquet. In fact, it had nothing to do with this banquet... ..

However, having a thought to give them a foundation was always good.

Hence, the group of people began to carefully analyze AI’s entire surveillance of the barbecue banquet.

Very quickly, they discovered that Wang Goudan seemed to have talked to Bai Cai for a while before Bai Cai left. Not long after Wang Goudan left, Bai Cai left the banquet hall in a sleepwalking posture... ..

Wang Goudan looked at everyone’s eyes and immediately shrank back. “What are you doing? You Don’t suspect me, do you?”

“Then why did you look for Bai Cai Yesterday?” Candy Bean was the first to ask.

“Can’t you just set up the Halon gate array?” Wang Goudan immediately jumped up. “I have a very good relationship with Bai Cai, okay? Do We need a reason to talk in this kind of relationship?”

“Don’t get excited...”lei xue continued, “We don’t suspect that you did anything, but we think that you might have been used...”

“Bullsh * T!”Wang goudan immediately retorted, “This Goudan is wise and mighty, who can use me?”

The liver emperor faintly said, “I remember that the last person who kidnapped boss Rainie was also Goudan... it’s a bit of a coincidence...”

“Hey! !”Wang Goudan said with a dark face, “It’s just that their online names are similar. Her surname is Li and my surname is Wang. It’s not even close, okay? Can you take the blame for this?”

“But you’re very close to Li Goudan...”

“You say that you’re not close to Li Goudan...”Wang Goudan glared at the liver emperor.

The liver emperor said, “What I mean is that you’re closer to him... maybe you were also affected when Li Goudan was hypnotized...”

Wang Goudan immediately heard the silence, the dragon saw the situation hurriedly said: “Please niborgen teacher to come!”

-----

“There is no trace of illusion... .”Niebogen will wang Goudan carefully checked, shook his head.

“Are you sure?”Longlao asked quickly.

Niborgen glared at him, but he did not lose his temper. If it were anyone else, he would have already left. However, facing the Huaxia City Lord who promised him 800 student slots, nibogen still could not muster up his courage.

Moreover, he also wanted to find out who was behind this. The developers who had been kidnapped were all very outstanding existences. Whether it was the child named Guo Xiaoyun or the child named Luo Xiaojia, they were both unpolished gems among unpolished gems, he was also a little anxious to be taken away quietly like this.

Although there were quite a number of high-quality seedlings here, these things wouldn’t make people feel ordinary just because there were more of them. Every single one of them was a treasure, okay? How could he tolerate someone kidnapping someone right under his nose?

Thus, he took the initiative and said, “He must have received some kind of hint. I’ve already been to the scene. The illusion left behind there is very clear. It’s a level-eight hypnosis spell, and its methods are crude. It looks like he’s not an expert in illusions. Compared to the almost traceless illusion from before, I’m guessing it’s not the same person...” . “...”

Everyone:”! ! !”

It wasn’t the same person?

These words made everyone take a deep breath. Just how many strange things had gotten into this base?

“Could it be the newly recruited Aborigines?” A developer asked doubtfully.

“It’s very possible...” Gondolin’s ran Xiaojuan said, “Back then, I was against bringing the temporarily recruited Aborigines back to the main base, but my boss didn’t accept this suggestion.”

Pu Yunchuan, who was named, was instantly embarrassed and scratched his head in embarrassment.

In fact, Isabelle had suggested the same thing, but he chose to go his own way because he didn’t want to abandon his own people. If he found out that the guy who sneaked in was really from his faction, he would be taking the blame.

“Then let’s investigate the Aborigines!” Candy suggested, “Although the amount of work might be huge, it’s also for the safety of everyone in galaxy. What do you think?”

“I’m meaningless!” Pu Yunchuan was the first to express his opinion.

The other lords didn’t hesitate when they saw this. After all, no one wanted to have an existence that could hypnotize them away at any time in their own forces... ..

“That’s fine!” Elder long made a decision when he saw this. “I’ll ask all the guards to help you with the investigation...” then, he looked at niborgen and said, “Mr. niborgen, can you ask the instructors of your academy to help you?”

Everyone immediately looked over.

It was best to have the help of the corresponding experts to help with the investigation of the illusion Masters. Seeing this, Niborgen didn’t hesitate and nodded quickly. “I’ll go back and make the arrangements immediately!”

This was a good opportunity to show off the ability of the control system. Many of the developers under these High Lords hadn’t chosen a course yet, moreover, the quality and level of the developers under them were considered excellent among the developers, and they were more valuable than many level 1 novice developers.

Moreover, even if the developers were still unwilling to practice the control-type, as long as they properly displayed their abilities and let these lord players know the role of the control-type arcanists., they could also discourage this faction from underestimating the illusionists.

At the very least, the Lord players should try to recruit some excellent illusionists in the future. With the market, they would have an endless supply of students. Otherwise, it would be impossible for them to rely on the special treatment of the Huaxia City Lord for their entire lives, right?

“However, there are only seven instructors in the Academy’s Illusion Element. If we want to investigate the millions of aboriginals, it will take some time. In order to prevent such accidents from happening again, I hope that these aboriginals can be temporarily monitored!” Elder Dragon suggested.

The lords frowned slightly, but in the end, they still nodded. After all, there was nothing they could do about this kind of thing...

However, just as everything was finalized, Isabelle, who had been silent all this time, suddenly spoke up.

“Why don’t I see Alice?”

Chapter 994: reflexes...

“Yeah, where’s Alice?” Everyone was stunned.

The decision-maker of the cabbages tribe, the top native talent that everyone was envious of, the person who single-handedly promoted the cabbages tribe to the number one faction and had always been far ahead, and now, after the disappearance of cabbages, he actually didn’t show up?

“I know, I know...” Wang Goudan suddenly raised his hand and said, “During the banquet, Alice was looking for cabbages, and after I saw that she couldn’t find them, she left the banquet hall...”

Everyone immediately fell silent. Could it be that they had disappeared together?

A glimmer of light flashed in Isabelle’s eyes when she heard that. From the beginning, she vaguely felt that something was wrong with Alice...

“Ai doesn’t have any surveillance on Alice?”

AI: “Currently, only Alice brought Luo Xiaojia to the banquet and the scenes of her looking for the other party. As for the rift in the new world, the magnetic field is already chaotic, so it can’t provide any effective images...”

“Is that so...” Isabelle said faintly, “Can you give me all the surveillance footage of Alice in the Mars Base?”

As soon as she said that, everyone’s expressions became strange. Even the slow Wang Goudan was a little stunned. After a while, he asked carefully, “You... aren’t suspecting Alice, right?”

Ice Cap also frowned. “I went to the cabbage tribe to discuss business a few times. Although I’m not familiar with Alice, I feel that she should be very loyal to the cabbage tribe, right?”

Loyal?

Isabelle smiled coldly in her heart and did not reply. This word had never appeared in the dictionary of her ancestors.

However, she could not say it out loud. Some people would think that she was being selfish.

Hence, she said lightly, “I’m just looking for a breakthrough. After all, it was Alice who brought up the banquet, wasn’t it?”

Everyone was stunned. Before they could speak, Wang Goudan said, “This isn’t a reason, right? Alice is very good to cabbage. She often asks me to organize banquets...”

“Is that so...” Isabelle nodded. “I didn’t say that it was her fault. Maybe some native came into contact with her and knew that there was a banquet last night, so he set up everything?”

As soon as he said that, Goudan was speechless, even though she felt that the other party was still targeting Alice.

-----
“You don’t really think that Alice did it, do you?” Pu Yunchuan asked curiously on the way back.

“It’s just a habit...” Isabelle said lightly, “And that guy is suspicious...”

“UH... is that so...” Pu Yunchuan covered his head. Isabelle seemed to have a lot of resentment toward her ancestor.

“I’m curious...”. “Why do you all think that Alice is not a bad person?” Isabelle suddenly said “... you should know that she used to be the undead of a hostile force “... “... didn’t your two cousins die under her hands?”

Didn’t they die under your hands?

Pu Yunchuan wanted to complain in his heart, but he didn’t dare to say it out loud. His wife seemed to be in a bad mood.

But in the end, he still thought about it and said, “I don’t know if she is a good person, but she seems to be really good to little cabbage...”

Isabelle’s pupils slightly drooped. “You think she’s good, that’s all. Many old politicians can’t tell when that person is acting, let alone a naive person like little cabbage...”

“Is that so...” Pu Yunchuan did not explain further and chose to agree, but Isabelle was not happy.

Because she could feel that Pu Yunchuan actually did not agree with her.

Including Wang Goudan just the same, seems to believe that Alice would not do that to cabbage.

Even... .. Even I feel that way sometimes... ..

You Can’t fake some of the details. Alice is so close to the cabbage, anyone can see it. It’s like... .. To his own children... ..

But this person, obviously does not have the kinship consciousness! !

Isabelle slowly closed her eyes and thought of a group of children who were said to have Alice’s blood in them, trapped in a place where they had to rely on each other’s flesh and blood to survive. It’s the devil inside of you... ..

“Your health seems to be getting worse. Don’t you need to find a replacement?” Alice said as she looked ahead at the Tauren, who was covered in sarcomas.

“It’s not as bad as you think...”. “...”. “It just looks a little scary...”. “This body is very healthy. It has a strength of level three. It should have undergone genetic surgery. It should be able to hold on for a while. However, it’s time to try to find an endurance product.”

Alice looked around. “Something’s not right...”

“You finally found it?” The undead laughed.

Alice said, "Yeah... There's not a single living thing. Something must have happened around here, but there's not a single corpse. Isn't that a little too exaggerated?"

The undead smiled and poked the sky with its thick hooves. Then, Alice was surprised to see that the undead's fingers seemed to be poking through a layer of glass, and the space around them began to crack like a spider web.

With a crisp bang, the surrounding scene suddenly changed. Everything that had been green before had completely changed. The wilted plants had a strange scarlet color, and the corpses that filled the mountains and plains were rotting all around, white bones piled up like hell.

Seeing this, Alice subconsciously used her hands to gently cover little cabbage's eyes.

Seeing this, the undead laughed and said, "You really care about this little fellow, but it's useless for a flower spirit like her, who is sensitive to life force, to cover her eyes. On the contrary, the resentment around her will be more obvious after she loses her vision."

Hearing this, Alice was stunned, and then she looked at little cabbage. Sure enough, even though her eyes were covered, her whole body could not stop trembling, and her face was extremely pale.

Alice withdrew her hands and said to the undead calmly, "It's just a conditioned reflex..."

"Interesting..." the undead looked at Alice's cold face and said with a smile, "In order to make her think that you care about her, you forcefully practiced this kind of conditioned reflex? What a scary guy..."

Obviously, the undead knew Alice very well. Having been in contact with her for a thousand years, he knew very well that Alice was a cold-blooded person. In the death realm, he had seen this kind of skill countless times. If this guy was born in the abyss., he would definitely be the most valued follower of the Master of Deception!

Little cabbage looked at Alice and pursed his lips. He did not say anything. That cold gaze of hers was so unfamiliar...

It was just a reflex... Everything in the past... ...

Little cabbage recalled countless images in his mind. There were images of Alice subconsciously wiping the stains from the corners of her mouth, the images of her subconsciously fixing her bangs, and the images of her subconsciously worrying about her actions... ...

Everything... ... Was it all a reflex that she had forcefully practiced?

"Did that guy on Li Goudan create this illusion?" Alice looked around.

"I don't think so..." the undead suddenly stopped and looked ahead with a serious expression.

"What's Wrong?" Alice asked curiously.

"Ahead... There's a small town..."

Chapter 995: the truth about the town...

After walking for about 20 kilometers, Bai Cai and the others finally saw the town that the other party had mentioned. This made Bai Cai look at the Minotaur even more strangely.

The planet was round. No matter how good one's eyesight was, they shouldn't be able to see things that were 20 kilometers away, right? If they could see so far through the obstacles, wouldn't that mean that he could always spy on them when they were in the Martian base?

Was this the person Alice was talking about?

While little cabbage was thinking about this, Alice was looking at the brightly lit town with a serious expression, just like bullhead.

She could hear the noise from far away. It was obviously a very lively town... ..

This was very strange. Along the way, the corpses on the roadside had never stopped. There were mountains of corpses and seas of blood outside, and the laughter in the town was abnormal no matter how she looked at it... ..

Alice looked at the ox head. She instinctively felt that she should not go in.

However, the ox head did not say anything and silently walked in. Alice was stunned for a moment, but in the end, she did not say anything and followed along with little cabbage.

The moment they entered the town, just like Li Goudan and the others, their eyes lit up. They were used to seeing the lifeless appearance outside. Seeing such a lively scene all of a sudden, their mood was much better.

Although they felt that it was strange, they couldn't help but feel that this place was too real.

It was just like when rainy girl, Wu Gua, was observing this place. She clearly knew that there was a problem here, but she was still affected by the extremely realistic pedestrians' various states. She still doubted her own judgment.

When Little Bai Cai saw this scene, her pale face finally turned a little rosy. She looked around timidly.

"Oh... Such a beautiful little girl..."

A gentle voice suddenly sounded, "Oh, God bless me, I can actually meet two such beautiful angels in my life. The God must be hinting that I will enter Heaven after I die..."

Little cabbage looked over curiously when she heard the voice. The one who spoke was an uncle who sold fish, and a shy boy followed beside him. He glanced at little cabbage evasively before quickly lowering his head.

The shyness of the young man made Bai Cai feel relieved.

"Two Beautiful Angels?" Alice smiled. "Are you sure, Boss?"

"Oh... damn it, my eyes are playing tricks on me. I didn't expect to see another one here. Ah, beautiful lady, it's a lifetime honor to meet you..."

The uncle looked at Alice with a burning gaze. Compared to the beautiful Bai Cai, Alice's style as a black elf could stimulate the hormones of the opposite sex more... ..

Alice tilted her head and looked at him carefully. The shyness of the boy and the Philistine expression of the uncle were so delicate that no faults could be found. wasn't it a little too exaggerated to say that this was an illusion?

Could an illusion be done to such an extent?

"Aren't you surprised that we followed an orc?" Alice asked with a smile.

"What's there to be surprised about?" The uncle shook his head and smiled. "There are simply too many orcs who have escaped recently. Look over there..."

Alice heard the words slightly sideways to look, and then saw a few strong orcs not far away actually help to move goods, suddenly the corner of the mouth slightly twitch.

"Where's Molando?"

"I don't know... . "the fisherman shook his head. "I only know that a black army has appeared. The land that those people walk past will turn scarlet red. I also heard that those terrifying people can split open a city with a single sword. A few days ago, that group of people headed towards Molundo. After that, there began to be orcs fleeing in succession. I heard from them that something very terrifying has also appeared on the plains... " " " "

That's a lot of information...

Alice narrowed her eyes and was about to ask the Tauren behind her again, but she said impatiently, "You said you saw a woman as beautiful as her. Do you know where they went?"

"This..." the fisherman was confused. He did remember that a very beautiful woman came here to buy fish a few days ago, but the strange thing was that he had no memory of where such a beautiful woman went. ...

Why was it like this?

"Think carefully..." the Minotaur's voice had a demonic quality to it, he slowly said in a guiding tone, "Think carefully, who else was there other than that beautiful woman? "Such a beautiful woman should receive a lot of attention in the town, right? "Where did she go? How come you have no news at all?"

"Yeah..." the fish seller's expression became more and more confused, as if he had been hypnotized. Just as he was about to say something, little cabbage suddenly said, "You're not a real person, are you? Uncle?"

The minotaur's pupils constricted when he heard this, and he turned around to glare at little cabbage.

The surrounding scene also became silent because of little cabbage's words. Little Cabbage's words seemed to have activated some switch, causing the entire town's rhythm to stop.

"Eh..." little cabbage suddenly looked innocent. "What's the situation?"

Alice looked around and frowned. "This is?"

The minotaur sighed and snapped his fingers lightly. Immediately, the entire space seemed to have spiderweb-like cracks as it appeared outside. As the cracks increased, the scene shattered with a bang, when he returned to his senses, he looked around to see what kind of lively town he was in?

It was basically a wilderness. The details of the real town, such as the moss on the city walls, the cracks on the ground, and the decay of the small wooden houses, were really just an illusion, meanwhile, the people who were setting up stalls, selling vegetables, and performing acrobatics in the surroundings also changed their colors. They looked like a 70% transparent shadow with a dull expression on their faces. They looked like zombies.

“These are...” Alice’s eyelids twitched when she saw the scene around her.

“Undead...” the ox-head said faintly.

“Undead? How can...” Alice narrowed her eyes, unable to understand.

“Soul-fixing spell...”. The ox-head explained, “Some alchemists who study the undead invented alchemy. They can use some materials like magnets to temporarily immobilize the undead in a certain area. They can even directly create powerful undead into earth-bound spirits. However, this is a forbidden spell, and it is not allowed in the Federation.”

“There’s such a spell?” Alice’s face darkened. As an undead, she instinctively felt threatened after learning about this spell, but then she asked curiously, “But why did you do it? These undead aren’t that strong, right?”

The minotaur said, “It’s just to set up this illusion...”

“Illusion?”

The minotaur said, “The reason why you saw the expressions on those people’s faces was because the caster hypnotized these undead, making them think that they were still alive, and that they were still a normal living person, so they acted very naturally.”

“I see...” Alice lowered her head and looked at the lake fish that was struggling to swim in the air. Even dead fish could be hypnotized. The illusion was actually so terrifying.

“The opponent used this illusion to probe the information of this world...” the Minotaur said faintly, “He’s an expert, a very powerful illusionist. The person we’re looking for probably bumped into that guy!”

Alice: “...”

Chapter 996: accidental collision...

“Is it... that foreign force?” Alice looked at the strange night sky... ..

Bull Head was silent for a few seconds and said hesitantly, “The possibility is not high. This illusionist’s level is very high, much higher than the instructor who is proficient in illusions in your base. This level of illusionist is not something that can be cultivated by ordinary forces... “...”

He vaguely observed the two forces outside the starry sky with his blood eye. One was a major force of mechanics, and the other was a major force of biology. Although the force was not small.., but if it was not a pure arcanist force, it would be very difficult to train such a high-level illusionist.

Unless it was an outside hire, but even if it was an outside hire, it should not be able to hire such a level. A guy who could use forbidden spells and hypnotize the souls of the dead should be an ace in a major force. Although the two little guys outside had good potential.., they were still a distance away from a great lord.

However, it was hard to say. Some lords had special backgrounds, so they might be able to hire someone of this level. No matter what, it would be troublesome if an illusionist of this level was around. Moreover, it was very likely that the person called Li Goudan would fall into the other party's hands... ..

Seeing the Tauren's serious expression, Alice couldn't help but frown as well. Why is things getting more and more complicated? 'Is it something new?'

On the other hand, little cabbage was looking at the undead curiously. Her eyes were blinking as she thought, 'interesting... ??' 'So this is the undead? 'Is it the same after I die... ?'. 'it looks so silly...'. ...

"Then what should we do now?" Alice asked with a frown.

"Let's follow them and take a look..."the Tauren looked into the distance. "But we've just broken their illusion. That person should have already noticed us. We have to be careful when tracking them so as not to fall into their trap..."

To be honest, the last person in the universe you want to go after is the illusionist, who knows what gifts he'll give you on the way... . .

"If that man is as good as you say..."Alice said quietly, "Is it necessary for us to go after him?"

The ox-head smiled and said, "That may not be true... the guy on Li Goudan is not someone to be trifled with..."

-----

"What a mistake! ! !"

At this moment, hundreds of miles away in the woods, a graceful figure was sitting at a spring and washing her wounds. If the female knight were here, she would have recognized her at first sight, that's the illusionist who turned her inside out: Maya!

She seemed to be in a terrible condition, pale and bloodless, with a gash the size of a fist in her chest.

That was because one could see a steady stream of vines crawling out of the wound, crazily sucking her blood and Qi. Every time the vines grew out, Maya would use her arcane power to destroy them, however, every time the vines were destroyed, they would violently twitch, causing her wound to get deeper and deeper!

This wound was suddenly attacked by the silly-looking female wind demoness.

She had never imagined that a level 5 lesser wind demon would have such a powerful undead hidden within its body. If it had been an ordinary undead, she would have let it go, even if it had been a great lord, she also did not think that the other party would be able to use a level 5 lesser wind demon to injure her.

However, she had never imagined that the undead was actually a secret treasure master!

There was always a limit to the use of a tool. The stronger the tool, the higher the requirement for the user. Only a secret treasure master's tool would only recognize its owner. The owner could activate the secret treasure through an advance payment!

A titan-level secret treasure, the elf race? who was that guy?

Just as she was thinking about it, dense tree sprouts grew out of her body uncontrollably. The pain made her grin. Then, she looked at the spring water beside her anxiously and thought to herself, is it not done yet?

Finally, under her expectant gaze, the originally clear spring water slowly turned into a sparkling purple color.

Seeing that the color had taken shape, Maya reached her hand into her wound, and a black-red flame instantly ignited. The flame quickly circulated through her body along her meridians, quickly igniting her blood!

As the flame burned, Maya could not help but let out a painful wail. The blood in her body quickly dried up, and her organs were also burned to the point of atrophy. Her entire skin bag seemed to have shrunk in half and collapsed, a few seconds later, she turned from an extremely beautiful succubus into a dried corpse!

But then, the dried corpse struggled to crawl into the purple spring. As its body entered the purple spring, the withered body actually began to recover in front of the naked eye!

As her body recovered, Maya's eyes also began to recover, and a cold smile appeared on her face.

I didn't expect to be schemed against one day, is really a vast world...

This just keeps getting better and better. This planet...

"F * ck, I Just So Awesome, you see? See?" In the other direction, Li Goudan jubilant exultation way.

"Are You Awesome?" Guo Xiaoyun couldn't help rolling her eyes.

The situation at that time was indeed very dangerous. A high-level illusionist who was far beyond her imagination had captured them. Perhaps a simple hypnosis would be able to uncover the secrets of her eighteen generations of ancestors.

However, at that critical moment, the guy who was hiding on Li Goudan made a move.

The scene was so spectacular that it was completely beyond Guo Xiaoyun's imagination.

She looked at the ring on Li Goudan's hand, and her eyes were slightly shining. It was hard to imagine that this ring, which looked no different from dozens of street stalls, had such power!

When that guy used it, she felt an incomparably vast energy from the side. It was so great that she felt that if the energy exploded, the planet under her feet might not even be able to withstand it!

However, that energy was injected into the mysterious woman's body in an extremely subtle way, giving people the feeling that it was like a nuclear bomb being stuffed into a person's stomach.

It was extremely strange, but the key point was that the mysterious woman was still able to withstand this shocking power. She only suffered a fist-sized wound before she was sent flying.

It shocked Guo Xiaoyun's worldview quite a bit...

What kind of monsters were they?

"Can that ring still be used?" Guo Xiaoyun asked a crucial question.

In this place where danger lurked everywhere and there were unknown big shots everywhere, Li Goudan's ring could be considered a life-saving trump card!

Goudan immediately put on a bitter face when he heard that. Just now, the guy in his body had warned him before he went into hibernation that the ring was not something that he could use right now. The consequences of forcefully using it would be very serious!

Guo Xiaoyun's face darkened when she saw that. It seemed that she had thought too much.

But then she asked, "What's the situation of the guy in Your Body Now?"

She could clearly feel that after repelling the mysterious woman, the aura in Li Goudan's body had weakened a lot. He had a feeling that he was about to disappear.

"It's tough. He probably won't wake up for the time being..." Li Goudan thought for a while and made a judgment.

"It doesn't seem like it's a bad thing..." Guo Xiaoyun nodded, since the person in Li Goudan's body had abducted the two of them, he definitely did not want them to reunite with the Lord. With her ability, it was unlikely that the two of them would want to go against her.

But after this unexpected collision, it might be an opportunity... ..

Chapter 997: Looks Like the experiment has failed! !

"What's Wrong?"

After walking out of the illusory cloud lake town for about half a day, Alice and the others came to a mountain. They seemed to have smelled something, and the Tauren's speed was getting faster and faster.

Alice looked at his back curiously, and she quickly followed him while carrying the little cabbage who had begun to doze off.

Suddenly, a strange fragrance came, making Alice's pores relax, and she felt like she was floating in the air.

Was it an illusion?

Alice looked around nervously. While she was nervous, the little cabbage that was sleeping on her back suddenly jumped down from her back and hurriedly ran forward.

"Wait for the Cabbage!" Alice's expression tensed, and she quickly followed him.

Alice was a level four black elf who majored in agility. However, she did not expect that Bai Cai, who had never trained in physical fitness, would not lose to her in terms of agility.

This made it extremely difficult for her to chase after him. She could not help but think to herself, 'what's going on?' 'is this guy sleepwalking faster than a rabbit?'

This was because she could clearly see that Bai Cai's eyes were closed. It was obvious that he was not in a very clear state.

The two of them scurried to the mountainside one after the other, and then they saw a foggy place where the tall Minotaur stopped!

"What's the situation?" Alice quickly went forward and asked.

The Minotaur looked at the pool of purple spring water in front of him and clicked his tongue in wonder. "I didn't expect to meet this thing here..."

"What's This?" Alice looked at the pool of purple spring water and vaguely felt that there was an extremely large amount of vitality in the spring water!

"Moon well water!"

"Moon well water?" Alice frowned. "What is it?"

"A kind of secret spring water of Life!" The Ox's eyes were full of greed. "There are only two races in the world that have this kind of secret technique. One is the royal family of the Star Elves, and the second is the royal family of the Succubus. The Purple Moon Stone looks like it belongs to the succubus race. That illusionist actually belongs to the royal family of the Succubus. Interesting, interesting!"

Alice looked around vigilantly.

"No need to look. She ran away!" The minotaur sneered.

"How do you know?" Alice asked curiously.

"My Eye of blood demon is the nemesis of illusions. If she was still here, she wouldn't be able to defeat me...". The minotaur said faintly, "This thing is a holy item for training and healing. It's obviously not practical to use it for training in this kind of environment. There's only one possibility. The other party is seriously injured and using the moon well water to heal!"

"Seriously injured?" Alice narrowed her eyes. "Didn't you say that this illusionist is very powerful?"

“That depends on who you meet...”the Minotaur sneered. “If that guy on Li Goudan isn’t careful, not to mention a top-notch illusionist, even a great lord would be able to flip over a tourist...”

“Are you sure you want to find trouble with such a powerful guy?”Alice stared at her and asked.

The minotaur said, “There is a limit to how much power a symbiotic fellow can unleash. If you plan it well, there is nothing impossible...”

The Minotaur looked at the spring greedily. In the end, it resisted the urge to lie down in it. It only used the spring water to wipe its body at the downstream of the spring.

As the spring water dripped on its body, the disgusting warts on its body began to shrink visibly. The festering wounds also began to recover slowly. In less than a few seconds, its already festering body quickly recovered.

Not only did the rotting flesh disappear and grow new flesh, even black hair grew out visibly, covering its entire body. In an instant, a majestic life force was emitted from the Tauren’s body, following that was the crackling sound of its bones. Under the stimulation of its life force, the already tall Tauren’s skeleton immediately expanded. With its strong muscles, it forcefully transformed into a five to six meter tall Tauren!

“This...”Alice swallowed her saliva. She could feel that the Tauren had leveled up... ..

As if he was drunk, little cabbage desperately tried to run towards the spring, but Alice grabbed him tightly.

“Not bad...”after a long while, the Tauren looked at his body with satisfaction. His shiny fur made him look energetic, completely different from the sick cow from before.

“What’s going on?”Alice could not help but ask.

“Throw the child in!”The Minotaur ordered Alice.

Alice’s pupils constricted when she heard that, but she did not hesitate at all and directly threw the cabbage in!

As the water splashed, the cabbage lay in the spring with a satisfied look on its face. It seemed to enjoy it very much, but the enjoyment only lasted for a few seconds before it began to distort. Then, blue veins popped out all over its body, her chubby face became extremely ferocious!

“What’s wrong with her?”Alice asked with a frown.

The Minotaur looked at Alice with interest. He found that although Alice was frowning, she was not nervous. Her eyes were very indifferent, and the muscles all over her body were acting very normally.

What an interesting guy...

The minotaur could not help but sigh again. Although he had seen it countless times, he still admired this guy’s cold-blooded ability.

This time in the base, he could clearly see through the blood demon eye that Alice was extremely attentive towards this little flower spirit. The way she acted and cared for her made it so that no one could see any flaws. It was as if she was treating her own child.

But now, seeing that child in such pain, yet her eyes could be so cold to such an extent, it was even scarier than some professional demons. This fellow... ..

"I want her to try to absorb the spring water of life. After all, I haven't done the experiment of a purebred elf absorbing the spring water of a Succubus!"

"Experiment?" Alice's frown deepened. She walked up quickly, as if she wanted to scoop up the cabbage.

"You'd better not do that..." the Tauren's eyes were cold. "People who disturb my experiment usually don't end up well!"

Alice stopped in her tracks and turned to look at the Minotaur. "What are you thinking about? You know she can't get into trouble. If something happens to her, how am I going to explain it when I go back?"

"There's no need to explain..." "..." "..." the minotaur smiled and said, "I've pretty much figured out the situation inside the Martian base. It's not a big problem whether you go back or not. As long as we can prevent the secrets there from being discovered by other forces, there won't be any problems..." "..." "..."

"Is that so?" Alice said coldly, "If she was toyed to death and resurrected in the base, wouldn't we be exposed?"

"She won't resurrect..." The Minotaur looked at the sky faintly and said, "This alchemy dragon has already infiltrated Gaia in this world. The rules here have been rewritten. We're actually in Andrew's domain. In other Lord's domains, unless a Lord uses his domain power to protect her, it's impossible for her to be successfully accepted back by the contract."

Alice was silent for a while, and then she asked, "Then, what is the success rate of your experiment?"

The Tauren smiled and was about to answer, but suddenly, with a bang, the cabbage exploded and turned into a pool of blood, covering the ground!

"Oh..." the Tauren shook his head. "It seems that the experiment failed!"

Alice: "..."

Chapter 998: The element of rampage...

"Is there any new news these days?" In the third city, Song Zaiyi, who was finishing correcting official documents, stretched for a rare moment and strolled over to William's Department to ask.

William played the role of intelligence analysis in his team. His position had not changed since the city was established, and he preferred this profession.

However, many of his subordinates were unhappy about letting a foreigner play such an important role, but Song Zai seemed to trust William a lot.

Seeing that song Zai had the time to come over and ask for intelligence, William was slightly stunned, but he immediately said, "There's quite a lot of news. Which part do you want to hear?"

"You can pick and choose. I'm quite free today..." song Zai made himself a cup of tea and sat on the sofa next to him.

Ever since the city Lord players were temporarily transferred back from the New World, the city residents had lost their motivation to sprint and became much more relaxed. Whether it was work or study, many of the city residents had to work for three days and fish for two days. This caused him, the city lord, to become a little more relaxed recently. When he had nothing to do, he could even listen in on a few summoner classes that he was interested in... ..

As for the city residents' temporary slackness, song didn't really care about it. People had to be responsible for their own choices. This was his current philosophy. Now that the new world was closed and the situation was unknown, it didn't mean that it wouldn't be open in the future, it also didn't mean that the alien faction wouldn't be able to find a better way out in the future.

If he didn't take advantage of this opportunity to prepare himself, he wouldn't be able to grasp it when a new opportunity presented itself. In his opinion, he deserved it!

Of course, there were some people in the city who appeared to be very hardworking. Even without the New World Passage, they were very diligent in their studies, training, and work!

Unfortunately, most of these people were Huazhong players...

This made song care and could not help but sigh...

In his heart, he wondered if the reason why Huazhong players were so talented was because they were too diligent and were favored by God? What did Huazhong Say. Oh... ! ... Heaven rewarded hard work!

"Then tell me about the situation you're facing... " "..." William Sighed and flipped through the documents. "Meester is now using the American media to promote the human rights and democracy of the fifth city. He's even trying to blacken the other four cities, especially us and Huaxia City. From the public opinion data, our situation is very unfavorable..." "..."

Song Zai Yi Smiled, an expression of not caring at all. The Western media had always been like this, distorting black and white. The key was that their cultural output had resulted in their influence in the world to be very strong, he had guessed that Meester would definitely make full use of this card.

"What about the universe country, they didn't follow the Black Wave?"

"Naturally there were..." William smiled as he took out a stack of documents and threw it to song Zai Yi. Song Zai Yi took it and took a look, on the title was written: The Eternal Sinner Song Zai Yi, he is currently destroying a once in a lifetime opportunity for the Chinese! !

This title immediately caused song Zaiyi's eyelids to Twitch. The skills of the domestic media were really not reduced at all... ..

Looking at the content, the words were sharp and clear. The words were full of words that expressed the trust of the universe's countrymen in song Zaiyi, giving him the greatest opportunity. However, he had become a traitor and a sinner of his country., using the power given to him by his countrymen to nourish enemies and outsiders, the Outsiders here clearly pointed to song Zaiyi's biggest partner right now: the Central China government.

If it wasn't for the fact that he knew how he managed to succeed in the election, he wouldn't be able to help but feel ashamed... ..

However the truth was, during the election, out of the universe country's 60 million population, 24 million of them had the right to participate in the referendum. However, in the end, the total number of people who voted for him was only 1.4 million, not even 1/10 of them... ..

On the contrary, the media reported that the outsider who supported his enemy had voted for him over 40 million, accounting for 65% of his total votes!

Just thinking about it was very interesting, the majority of the people abroad had a good impression and confidence towards him, the former leader of the universe country, whereas the people within the country were all criticizing him... ..

Just thinking about it made song zai feel that this world was really magical...

William smiled, "You have a headache?"

"What's there to have a headache about?" Song zai laughed coldly, "A bunch of boring people, what era is this? Still using the same old tricks from the past! Hehe... .. Do you really think that the current city leader can be defeated just by digging up some dirt and stirring up some public opinion "? Why Don't you take a look at what happened to Arthur the last time!"

William silently looked at the other party and didn't reply. Even though the other party's words were filled with disdain and ridicule towards such methods, he still felt a trace of disappointment from his old friend's eyes.

He knew that it was Song Yi's heartache and disappointment at the ignorance of his own people being manipulated by public opinion... ..

Actually, William couldn't understand what the people of the universe country were thinking. This country could be said to be the easiest group of countries he had ever seen to be led by the nose by public opinion. No matter how much this leader had sacrificed to this country., no matter how much he had sacrificed to them, as long as a little bit of dirt was dug out, the people of this country would immediately forget his sacrifice. It was as if they had a life and death grudge and wanted to force him into a dead end.

The key was that the dirt might not be true. Before the truth was known, the public was unwilling to believe the person who had worked hard for them and spent his life to change the country. But they were willing to believe the testimony of a person they had never known, and the media, whose bottom was obviously crooked... ..

This really made William Speechless. He could not figure out what the reason was. Could it be that the entertainment style of that country was too heavy, and everyone treated politicians as celebrities?

“Let’s not talk about this anymore. Let’s get down to business...”William calmed himself down and continued, “There’s a problem with the cooperation in Huaxia City.”

“What problem?”This topic obviously aroused song Zaiyi’s real interest.

“Didn’t we apply to hire a few big elves from Huaxia City? I guess Huaxia City won’t be able to cash those things for the time being...”

“Huh?”Song zaiyi frowned.

Unlike the second city, Song Zaiyi’s third city was a Naga civilization. Before the development of aquatic products, agriculture was almost empty, and they could only use normal technology to grow them. The efficiency was extremely low. If they were to develop normally., they needed to import a large amount of fresh food to ensure the daily nutrition of the people in the city.

However, if they relied entirely on imports, the economic pressure would be too great. Song Zaiyi wanted to at least be able to produce some basic food in his city and reduce the amount of imports.

In order to increase the efficiency of his farming, song Zaiyi directly looked for elder dragon, hoping that the other party could help him build a bridge and rent some land farmers and ready-made elemental elves from the Lord Players.

Elder Dragon agreed very quickly and even found the cabbage faction that had the best agricultural development for him. The great elves that he was promised to rent to him were all of the best quality in the current base. This greatly improved their third city’s short-term agricultural ability, if they operated well, they could save a large amount of import costs.

Song Zaiyi had been waiting for this batch of elemental elves to come over to start a temporary agricultural base, but now he was told that there was a problem?

This made him, who was originally relaxed, anxious. “What’s the problem?”

“I heard that the elemental went berserk...”William said in a low voice.

“Berserk?”Song was stunned, “What’s the situation?”

William narrowed his eyes and lowered his voice, “According to our intelligence, that Lord player named little cabbage seems to be in trouble...”

Chapter 999: More Valuable Than This planet!

“Sorry to trouble you...”

In the western part of Huaxia City, the square was in a mess. Elder Long was very humble as he welcomed the teachers of the academy.

The teachers were all wearing black robes that were unique to the plastic energy department. They looked much more serious than the teachers of other departments, but in fact., the teachers of the plastic energy department had always been more strict than the teachers of the other departments.

As a department that directly studied pure energy, although they had been criticized by their peers for being rough, this department was also the most violent of all the arcanists!

Because of this, the Wizards of the Plastic Energy Department were sexier and more rigorous. Because the higher the level of the Wizards of the Plastic Energy Department, the greater the damage they would cause, and the more stringent they needed to be to control the destructive force, because for them.., a small mistake would cause the most irreversible damage in physics. Therefore, in the common accidents, the summoning element was the most difficult to solve, but the shapeshifting element was often the most undesirable. Because their accidents were usually directly destructive... ..

When the teachers of the shapeshifting element department learned that there was an elemental rampage in the base, they rushed to the scene without any hesitation, because they knew that even if the children in the base were not high-level.., however, if the pure energy went out of control, the damage it would cause would probably be huge on the planet. And this kind of damage, for a Lord who did not have a strong foundation to begin with, was sometimes very fatal.

The instructors who had already regarded this place as the future of the school naturally did not wish for such a thing to happen... ..

The dean of the Plastic Energy Department was called Karl Heinemann. He was a tall old man with a build comparable to that of the Titans. His face was sallow, and it was obvious that he was not easy to get along with.

As a matter of fact, when elder long came over to greet them humbly, Karl just nodded slightly and brushed past elder long, heading straight to the scene of the accident.

Elder Long, who had missed, was slightly stunned, but he did not care. He had seen many of these kind of practical old scientists, and he did not like to waste every minute and second of his time on insignificant courtesy.

Moreover, the current situation didn't allow for such politeness. Of course, such people were often the most useless in the circle of central China.

"What pure elements!" Karl looked up at the elemental sprite wreaking havoc, and his pupils slightly shrank, he looked at the female instructor, Connor, who often went to little cabbage's house to recruit her, and said, "Are you sure this little flower sprite hasn't received any professional training from the Plastic Energy Department?"

"It should be..." connor nodded and said, "I've tested it many times, and she has indeed always done this instinctively..."

"Is that so..." Carl's eyes narrowed slightly. He had only seen such pure elemental bodies trained by instinct in some history books that recorded the most glorious era of the elf civilization. ...

"Have all the people inside evacuated?" Carl turned around and asked elder dragon who had rushed over.

Elder dragon hurriedly nodded. "I've confirmed it three times. All of them have evacuated!"

Carl nodded slightly. From the efficiency of his work, this administrator seemed to be quite decent... ..

Therefore, he didn't say anything more. He spread his hands and quickly drew a huge alchemy array in the air. Everyone saw an energy shield that looked like a bubble quickly wrapping up the disaster area.

"Level 14 energy shield?" Beside him, Connor was slightly stunned. Wasn't this scale looking down on the other party a little too much? It was just some level 6 elemental bodies.

Carl: "This situation's preliminary judgment is that the contract host has undergone a huge change, resulting in an inexplicable energy surge. The scale of the energy transmitted through the contract isn't small. It's at level 12. Taking into account the risk of fission or fusion, level 14 energy shield is already a conservative estimate!"

Level 12?

Hearing this, Connor was slightly stunned. How could a level 6 flower spirit transfer level 12 energy?

"Now is not the time to dwell on the specific reason!" Carl interrupted all the teachers' shock. "The energy shield has been activated. You guys go in and stabilize those elemental bodies immediately. Remember, if you are not forced to purify them, control them and capture them alive. They have a high research value now."

"Research value?" Connor was even more confused.

"If I'm not wrong..." Karl narrowed his eyes and looked at the elemental bodies that had gone out of control in the energy shield. "This kind of situation has only happened in the ancient times... HMM?"

Suddenly, Karl's expression changed, as if something that he could not understand had happened!

"What is it, Dean?" Connor quickly asked.

Carl did not answer her. Instead, he looked at a corner of the energy shield. Everyone quickly followed and saw a three to four-meter-tall canine creature biting the energy shield, its body rapidly expanded!

"That is..." the teachers were slightly shocked...

"Rhubarb?" Wang Goudan who was at the periphery saw that thing clearly and immediately screamed, "It's the little cabbage family's rhubarb! !"

Carl quickly looked at Elder Long. His expression was obviously asking, "Didn't you say that all the creatures had evacuated?"?

Elder Long's expression was also awkward, but it was not his fault. They had evacuated according to the name list. Who would care about a dog?

"That thing is absorbing the energy shield?" A plastic energy department instructor at the side felt that it was somewhat unbelievable!

Carl's face was also solemn. That dog was indeed absorbing the energy shield, and its efficiency was not low. In just a few dozen seconds, about a third of the energy shield had been absorbed by it!

"Little girl, did you just say that this dog is the flower spirit's?"

Wang Goudan hurriedly nodded. "It's the cabbage's rhubarb. This fat dog often comes to our shop to steal food. My father often uses a stick to chase after it and beat it up. Even if it turns into ashes, I would recognize it!"

Everyone:"..."

Hearing that, Carl narrowed his eyes slightly. If it was an ordinary special creature, for the sake of the current situation, he might have used a tactic to directly finish off the other party. But if it was the flower spirit's contract beast, then it would be different!

That little flower spirit must have encountered something that caused such an unstable situation. If she killed her contract beast, it would very likely make the current unstable her even worse off, if the little flower spirit's situation was as he had expected, then she would be an extremely precious existence. No matter what, he had to prioritize protecting her.

Thinking of this, Carl immediately removed his protective barrier!

"Lord Dean?"The surrounding instructors were instantly shocked by this action. According to what the other party had said, if these berserk elemental bodies were level 12 existences, if they were not properly controlled, this planet might be destroyed.., the dean actually removed the protective barrier at this time?

"That little flower spirit is more valuable than this planet!"Carl replied indifferently.

Everyone:"! !"

Chapter 1000: Elven royalty (1) !

Carl's words stunned elder long. A person was more valuable than a planet?

Elder long quickly analyzed the meaning of this sentence in his mind. Did It mean that some of the people from Planet D already had such a status in the hearts of these aliens?

"Wow, rhubarb runs so fast! !"Wang Goudan's attention was clearly focused on some very strange places.

The faces of some of the surrounding players could not help but Twitch, but they were indeed a little surprised. There was no lack of level 4 high-level elven players who had rushed over here, but with their excellent eyesight, they realized that they could not even see the shadow of rhubarb.

Carl had obviously noticed this as well, he said to elder long, "The condition of that contracted beast should be very unstable. Perhaps it will cause a greater disturbance, and it will not be good if it hurts the residents here. You should quickly go and find the instructors of the other academies. It would be best if the instructors of the control system came to deal with this matter."

The tone of the order caused the guards behind elder long to frown slightly. However, elder Long's attitude was very cooperative as he said, "Alright, I understand. Do you have anything else to remind me of?"

Karl's expression was slightly gentle as he nodded and said, "Tell them to control that contracted beast. Remember to remind them to be gentle and not to hurt that contracted beast."

"Understood!" Elder long nodded. Without further ado, he quickly led his men and left the scene.

----

"Lord leader, isn't their attitude a little too much? It's not like he's the one who did it!" The guard immediately complained.

Elder long looked at him sternly and said, "It's not like he's the one who did it. We're asking him to help out of obligation. The orders are also for the safety of the residents of Huaxia City. Why? Do We still need him to be respectful towards us?"

Hearing this, the guard was embarrassed.

"Too arrogant is a phrase you should use to reflect on yourself, reflect on why asking for help will you come up with other people should accommodate us? If you can't think straight, what happened to the Green Sparrow will happen again, do you understand?"

The guard lowered his head with a complicated look on his face.

At this time, by the people as a threat of rhubarb is running towards the crack in space!

"Ha ha, master, can't you save me some trouble? You can eat yourself up if you go out for supper. Can you be more reliable?"

"And what's the situation with this energy?" Big Huang's face was full of confusion. Even in that magical place in the Void realm, it had never heard of any energy that could allow it to directly skip levels and grow, and there were almost no major side effects... ..

Sigh, forget it. Anyway, the most important thing was to find this stupid master first!

Thus, while Elder Long was still in a hurry to seek help from the instructor of the school's confusion department, Big Yellow had already run out of Mars and was sprinting towards a certain place in the New World!

..

"There's actually such a thing! !"

At that moment, far away in the New World, the ox head that had kidnapped little cabbage was looking at the light that filled the sky in a daze. In the light, a child that looked like a baby was slowly wriggling, and the outline of little cabbage was clearly between its brows.

Under the illumination of the light, the originally scarlet red land visibly recovered and returned to the healthy color of the forest. The violent elements in the surroundings also became friendly, and all the elements within hundreds of kilometers gathered together and cheered, it was as if the entire world was rejoicing at the rebirth of little cabbage!

“This is... What?” Alice, who was at the side, was full of surprise.

“Royalty!” Ox-head took a deep breath and said in disbelief, “I didn’t expect this. I tried my best to overestimate her potential. This Little Lord has found a great treasure house!”

“Royalty?” Alice looked at ox-head.

The minotaur said, “In the Universe Federation, the Elven race is a large race. However, among the few large races in this universe, the most noble and top-tier bloodlines have already been wiped out. This includes the wood elves used in your base. Currently, the Wood Elf genes are very cheap. However, that’s not because these genes are bad. On the contrary, it’s because these genes are too good, causing the genetic code to be unable to be broken through for countless eras. They can only be used to duplicate the DNA and spread it around the universe with an extremely low storage rate. That’s why it’s cheap.”

“However, the wood elves are extremely noble in nature. They were once one of the three royal families of the ancient elves. At that time, the Star Elves, who had the highest status in the elf civilization, were only the bloodline of nobles. It is said that the royal family of the wood elves could communicate with a Gaia at birth and have the talent to make all souls submit to them. Many scholars who study biology do not believe this incredible legend. However, I never thought that I would see a living example one day!”

Alice: “...”

“Good, good! !” The minotaur clapped his hands excitedly. Alice looked at him. She rarely saw this guy so excited. He was even more excited than the last time he was able to escape from the realm of death!

Alice: “So, with this kind of moon well water, you can turn the ELF players in the Mars base into the so-called royalty?”

“I don’t think so!” Ox head shook his head and said, “The wood elf genes extracted by the universe federation are all copied from the DNA left behind by the ancient wood elves. And because of the long history, it’s almost impossible for you to know the identity of the owner of the DNA. Maybe it’s a noble or a slave. These things are uncertain, but the royal family genes are definitely one in a million. You, Little Flower Spirit, are very lucky. A low-level lord who spent a few dollars to buy the flowing water genes can actually buy the royal family genes. It can only be said that the heavens won’t stop her...”. “...”

“Oh?” Alice looked at the cabbage in the light and said calmly, “Is that so...”

Bullhead looked at Alice. He originally wanted to use this little flower spirit to test Alice. Although this little flower spirit was very precious, there were many precious children in that place, he felt that it was quite worthwhile to use a person to test someone he valued.

However, he still felt that he did not get anything out of the test. When the little flower spirit exploded into a pool of blood, although the other party was a little excited, there was not much emotion in his eyes.

The test result was almost perfect...

But now, there was an unexpected surprise...

Ox-head was instantly in a great mood, and he immediately looked at the sky.

At this time, the orange-yellow pupil hanging in the sky had begun to stare at little cabbage. Its huge pupil was full of hunger and thirst!

Ox-head smiled coldly and took out a black cloak from the dimension. He walked quickly to little cabbage and covered it with the black cloak!

Immediately, he, Alice, and little cabbage, who had been shining brightly, disappeared without a trace. All the elements that had been cheering suddenly stopped, the huge pupil in the air also shrank.

Because in that instant, the shining elf seemed to have disappeared, in a real sense. The entire world, including Gaia, had lost the sense of little cabbage in that instant!

In the distance, big yellow, who was desperately running towards little cabbage, also stopped in its tracks. Its eyes widened in confusion, and it tried its best to sniff and sniff!

It had a contract with the cabbage, and even space could not isolate its senses. In this one minute, it was completely cut off!
