

SHE MADE A COMEBACK AS A RENOWNED DOCTOR

Chapter 841: Chapter 841: Planning the Wedding

Alitzel Williams watched the two with a beaming smile.

Wyatt Lewis only felt that Alitzel Williams' smile was full of hidden meanings.

"Not you, Mom..."

"Oh, right." Alitzel Williams added, "From now on, I won't bother with the two of you anymore, to avoid being accused of having too much free time and worrying unnecessarily."

After speaking, Alitzel Williams turned and left with Baby in her arms.

Wyatt Lewis looked thunderstruck, glancing at his useless dad in resentment, "It's all your fault."

Christopher Lewis sipped his tea seriously, taking two big gulps and maintaining a serious face, as if he didn't care at all.

Waylon Lewis raised his eyebrows imperceptibly and followed Alitzel Williams, "Mom."

Alitzel Williams looked at Waylon Lewis, "What's up?"

"Yes."

“You’re not going to speak on their behalf, are you?”

Behind her, Wyatt Lewis’s eyes lit up instantly, pinning all his hopes on his brother and looking at him with hope.

Waylon Lewis glanced at the two of them with a sidelong look and withdrew his gaze calmly, “I don’t have that much time.”

Wyatt Lewis instantly fell from cloud nine to rock bottom.

Fine, he thought his brother would never be that kind-hearted.

“That’s good then. Tell me what’s up.”

“I want to plan a wedding and need your help.” Waylon Lewis said calmly and straightforwardly.

After hearing this, Alitzel Williams looked at Waylon Lewis with cheerful surprise, “This is great. It’s been postponed many times before. I was thinking it definitely needs to happen this year. Did you and Little Hope discuss it together?”

Waylon Lewis shook his head lightly, “She doesn’t know.”

Alitzel Williams couldn’t stop smiling, looking at the newly enlightened Waylon Lewis, finding him more pleasing than Wyatt Lewis, “Do you have any ideas? Quickly tell me.”

Waylon Lewis tightened his lips and spoke, "I want to surprise her, so I don't want her to know for now."

"Yes." Alitzel Williams listened intently and wanted to hear more from Waylon Lewis, but he didn't continue.

Alitzel Williams tugged at her lips, "That's it?"

Waylon Lewis nodded, "Yes."

"Nothing else? Like decorations, the ring, or anything?"

"I will arrange these."

Alitzel Williams tugged at her lips, her face showing a few smiles, "Got it, but keeping Little Hope unaware will be hard. She's the bride; she needs to personally try on the wedding dress and gown."

"Yes, do you have any good ideas?" Waylon Lewis asked seriously.

Alitzel Williams' eyes flashed, seemingly thinking of something, she smiled mysteriously, "You just handle the wedding venue's setup; leave the rest to me. The date isn't set yet, right? I'll discuss it with the old man later and pick a good day."

Alitzel Williams already pictured the wedding venue in her mind, her face couldn't help but smile even brighter, "Oh, the wedding must be grand. It shows our family's importance to Little Hope."

Waylon Lewis's lips curled slightly, nodding, "Yes."

At this time Hope Williams got up, changed her clothes, and came downstairs.

Alitzel Williams slightly turned, looking at Hope Williams energetically, "Little Hope, you're up."

Hope Williams walked over with a smile, seeing Alitzel Williams couldn't stop smiling, she couldn't help asking, "You're so happy, did something good happen?"

Alitzel Williams nodded, "Yes, it's good news, but I can't tell you yet. Waylon is preparing..."

"Cough." Waylon Lewis seemed to cough lightly inadvertently.

Alitzel Williams abruptly closed her mouth, changed the subject, and quickly said, "It's nothing, nothing."

Hope Williams looked at Waylon Lewis questioningly, Waylon Lewis stepped forward and wrapped his arm around Hope Williams' waist, leading her towards the dining room, "It's nothing, let's have breakfast."

"Really nothing?" Hope Williams blinked, feeling something strange, besides Alitzel Williams obviously stopped halfway.

Looking back at Alitzel Williams, Alitzel Williams still had a smile on her face and waved at her, “Go have breakfast. By the way, I invited Isla and Aria to visit our home today.”

Wyatt Lewis’s eyes brightened.

Alitzel Williams glanced at Wyatt Lewis, “Why are you excited? I invited Aria, What’s it got to do with you? Aren’t you going to work? Go quickly.”

Wyatt Lewis, “...”
