

Alpha Dimitri By LS Barbosa Chapter 8

Chapter 8

Dimitri:

I waited in the bedroom, glaring at the door as Charlotte walked inside before a low growl echoed through the walls of the bedroom, reminding her of my presence as her Alpha. She froze for a second, looking down at her feet as she did before taking a deep breath.

Her chest rose and fell for a few seconds before she looked up at me.

“What was the meaning of what you did?” I asked, glaring at her and she frowned as she looked up at me. Her heart raced, and she glared at me, her eyes hardening more than I thought that they ever could.

“I did what you were supposed to do when you found out that she was carrying your child, and I would have finished the task had it not been for your beta stopping me from killing the fucking kid.” She said, making my blood boil. I growled before walking toward her. I grabbed her by her arms, and she growled back at me. “YOU refused to have a baby with me. YOU went ahead telling me that the consequences were going to be fatal, and yet, you have a baby with an omega who is nothing but a fucking bastard...”

“If I am having this baby with her, it is because SHE is fated as my damn Luna, but that does NOT mean that I am going to keep the baby with her, nor does it mean that I am going to allow her to raise the child. However, IF you are the one to have MY baby, then I would not be able to claim his as my fucking legitimate child. Do you fucking understand that now?” I snapped, glaring at the woman whose heart raced as she processed my words. She clenched her fist a few times, and I growled. “Should I get that drilled in your head? Or are you going to fucking understand that yourself, Charlotte?”

“I am not going to understand anything until I see it for myself, do you understand me, Dimitri? Do you understand that I am NOT going to allow you to ruin our relationship and everything that we have spent years fighting to protect? Or should I get that in your head one way or a fucking other?” She asked, snapping at me. I had to fight back growing aggressive with the woman who seemed to be forgetting that she is in the presence of her Alpha.

“You have three seconds to fucking get out of the room. Otherwise, things are going to get more aggressive than I can control, and I am going to be sure...”

“Go ahead and grow aggressive, Dimitri.” She said, challenging me. “Today it is you growing aggressive for her sake, and tomorrow you will be throwing me out because you are going to be choosing her. Well, guess what? I am not going to be waiting for that to happen. You are going to have to choose me or her, and believe me Dimitri, I will fucking leave if you choose her because I do NOT want to end up on the street when you happen to suddenly fall in love...”

I cupped her cheeks, connecting my lips with hers as I stopped her from completing her sentence, catching her off guard as I did. It took her a few seconds to kiss me back, but she was quick to wrap her arms around my neck, deepening the kiss, and I wrapped my arms around her waist, lifting her in my arms as she wrapped her legs around my waist.

I walked toward the bed, and her heart raced against her chest and I gently laid her down before hovering over her body. I rested my forehead against hers, and her eyes met mine for a second before I kissed her forehead, letting my lips linger there for a few seconds before pulling away to connect my lips with hers. Her heart raced, and she wrapped her legs around my torso as I grinded against her.

Our clothes were off in a few minutes, and I positioned myself against her entrance before pushing the head inside her. She went to wrap her arms around my back, but I grabbed her hands, holding them over her head as I pulled out of her before thrusting back inside her in a force that had her head hitting the headrest. She cried out in both pleasure and pain and I kissed her neck.

“Dimitri...”

“This is going to be a reminder to you not to cross certain limits with me again,” I said, stopping completely. Her heart raced, and she looked at me, adjusting to the feeling of me being inside her. “And if you EVER think for a second that I am going to be choosing anyone over you, I am going to be reminding you this way. But if you ever think of putting up threats, then I am going to be sure that you regret it in ways that you don’t think

“Dimitri, I...”

“No, you are going to listen, and I am going to speak.” I said, glaring at her as I loosened my hands around hers. Her eyes were fixed on mine, and she nodded, waiting for what I was going to say. “You are not going to hurt Aurora, do you fucking understand me? Until this baby is born, you are going to be watching your every move around her. YOU are going to be taking care of her, and I do not care if that sparks jealousy int you or if you act upon it. Do you want her to clean your bathroom? Then she is going to wash your shit if you ask her to. But she is going to give birth to this child, healthy, and strong, and when I get rid of her, the child is yours to keep. And I give you my fucking word that you and I are going to be creating the family that we always wanted.”

“What if we can’t...?”

“You will leave the details up to me.” I said, looking her in the eye. “You just do what I am asking you to do, and I am going to be sure that everything that we always wanted happens. Until then, you are going to promise me that you are going to be on your best behavior. We have elders coming and the last thing that any of us want is for them to suspect anything happening, is that understood, Charlotte?”

She stayed quiet for a few seconds before cupping my cheeks to connect her lips with mine in a gentle kiss.

“As long as you stay as far away from her as possible, then I am more than willing to compensate.” She said, making me raise an eyebrow at her bargain. “But I can’t handle the idea of you being around her while she has that thing growing inside her. I am sorry, but I am not going to be able to take it nor would I be able to accept such facts, if we can make that deal, then I give you my word; I am not going to hurt this child as it grows inside her stomach.”

“And if I do approach her?” I asked, raising an eyebrow at the woman who turned us around with my cock still inside her. She laid on my chest before running her finger on my chest gently.

“Then I am not responsible for what is to happen, Alpha Dimitri...”
