Necromancer: I Am A Disaster

- Chapter 21: Will You Stop Being So Stingy

Chapter 21: Will You Stop Being So Stingy

21 - Will You Stop Being So Stingy

"Why is it so cold?"

Ning Yiyi sat down in front of the bonfire and extended her small hands toward the fire.

Now that the pursuers have been dealt with, Ning Yiyi relaxed.

Lin Moyu is aware that the low temperature here is due to the Skeletal Warriors.

He promptly had the Skeletal Warrior disperse.

Having learned that Lin Moyu doesn't like to speak, Ning Yiyi just started talking on her own.

"I found a treasure chest in Carmen Beastman Army Dungeon at Shaohai City."

"As you may know, treasure chests appear randomly. I just so happened to discover one."

"After opening the treasure chest, I obtained the intermediate skill scroll."

"But who would have thought that I was being watched."

"They wanted to steal my intermediate skill scroll. Although this thing is not worth much, but there's no way I would just hand it over. After all, it wasn't easy to obtain."

"Consequently, they chased after me, and I ran away."

"I ran for two days, from Shaohai City to Xihai City. They stuck to me like a piece of gum."

To Ning Yiyi, even the intermediate skill scroll, which costs 10 million gold coins, isn't worth much.

It is unknown which family this young lady is from. But one thing is certain, it is extremely well off.

Lin Moyu looked at Ning Yiyi, waiting for her to finish talking, and then said softly, "You almost died."

Ning Yiyi said, "Don't worry, I won't die. If I receive fatal damage, I will be automatically teleported away."

"But I still have to thank you. If it weren't for you, although I wouldn't have died, I would surely have been injured."

"As you should know, getting injured is very painful. I am most afraid of pain."

Lin Moyu felt like his worries were superfluous.

After all, she has a treasure that will save her at a critical juncture.

Ning Yiyi extended her hand, "I have given you an intermediate skill scroll. Do you have anything to eat? I'm still hungry."

Lin Moyu took out a few steamed buns. These buns are spoils he obtained just now, and there are more than 10 of them.

Ning Yiyi shook her small head, "I don't want steamed buns, I want sweet potatoes."

Lin Moyu chuckled involuntarily, then replaced the steamed buns with sweet potatoes.

"This isn't half bad. I don't want to eat anything taken from the dead." Ning Yiyi took the sweet potatoes and ate them contentedly.

Are the sweet potatoes that good?

Judging by the way Ning Yiyi is eating, they seem to be really delicious.

"Dummy Lin, have you come to level grind? Based on your level, you probably haven't entered an academy yet, have you?" Ning Yiyi asked while eating.

Lin Moyu nodded and said, "I haven't."

Ning Yiyi has already gotten accustomed to Lin Moyu's speaking habits, "So which academy do you plan to join?"

"Xiajing Academy." Lin Moyu said softly.

"Mhm, Xiajing Academy is pretty good." When she heard the name Xiajing Academy, Ning Yiyi didn't seem to be surprised.

In her opinion, with Lin Moyu's combat power, joining Xiajing Academy shouldn't be an issue.

After all, there is no one who can easily kill level 20 class users at level 10, let alone three at the same time.

If even Lin Moyu can't get into Xiajing Academy, then probably no one else can.

Ning Yiyi suddenly thought of something, and her eyes shone, "If you go to Xiajing Academy, you must challenge Shenxia Tower."

"The first time you challenge the tower, the rewards will be doubled. You have to give your best and charge ahead, clearing as many floors as possible."

"In this way, you will get more points. In Xiajing Academy, points are more useful than gold coins."

"And there is also Chuangshen Institute, an institute of Xiajing Academy. If possible, you must join it."

Ning Yiyi seems to know a lot about Xiajing Academy, and she talked incessantly about Xiajing Academy to Lin Moyu.

After listening to her, Lin Moyu drew a rough outline of Xiajing Academy in his mind.

99% of the time, Ning Yiyi was the one speaking, while Lin Moyu only listened and occasionally responded.

Ning Yiyi's voice died away at some point.

Lin Moyu took out a piece of clothing and used it to cover Ning Yiyi, then started meditating.

The following day, sunshine sprinkled down.

When his spirit force was completely restored, Lin Moyu woke up from meditation.

Ning Yiyi looked at him, blinking her big eyes.

"Do you still have sweet potatoes?"

Ning Yiyi smiled and extended her hands.

Lin Moyu took out a sweet potato and handed it to her.

"That's not enough. I want more."

Lin Moyu took out another.

"Will you stop being so stingy? It's just sweet potatoes. Give me more."

"Right, as a man, you should be generous. Take out everything you have."

Lin Moyu brought 20-plus sweet potatoes, and he had given almost all of them to Ning Yiyi. He doesn't have any left.

"You really don't have anymore?" Ning Yiyi was not convinced, looking like she is itching to check Lin Moyu's storage space.

Lin Moyu nodded, "I really don't."

Ning Yiyi finally let Lin Moyu be, "Okay, I believe you."

"Alright, I'll take my leaving now. I'm going to do level grinding. See you again later."

"Hurry up and raise your level, so that you can take me level grinding in the future."

Ning Yiyi left without delay, taking the sweet potatoes and the piece of clothing that she used as a blanket with her.

After Ning Yiyi left, Lin Moyu said to himself, "I will take you level grinding in the future."

Although an entire night has passed, the Goblin-type monsters still haven't reappeared.

The monster respawn period exceeded Lin Moyu's expectations.

His feels like his hunting speed is too fast.

The woods exude a faint scent of blood.

There are three corpses lying on the ground.

Lin Moyu looked at the corpses and quietly used the skill he learned yesterday.

Corpse Explosion.

Accompanied by a blare, a large tract of trees was blown apart.

A large pit with a diameter of 20 meters appeared in the ground.

Its depth exceeds 10 meters.

The power is quite impressive.

Lin Moyu found that Corpse Explosion is an omnidirectional attack.

"If it is used in the midair, this skill's destructive power may even be a bit greater."

He detonated the corpse of the Mage just now.

Next, he ordered a Skeletal Warrior to throw the corpse of the Archer into the air.

He activated the skill while the corpse was in midair.

There was another blare. The power of this explosion was greater than that of the previous one, confirming his speculation.

If a corpse is detonated in midair, it will generate greater destructive power.

However, Corpse Explosion has a shortcoming. It can easily injure people on his side.

Although Lin Moyu and the Skeletal Warriors won't be injured, but the same is not true for anyone else that is with him.

Chapter 22: Corpse-Erasing Godly Skill

22 - Corpse-Erasing Godly Skill

Another blare sounded in the forest, as the Knight's corpse detonated.

All traces of the three people disappeared, not even leaving residue behind.

Corpse Explosion is a first-rate godly skill used for erasing corpses and eliminating all evidence.

Lin Moyu headed toward Xihai Mine as planned.

It is the den of the Goblins.

As he approached Xihai Mine, the level of the Goblins gradually increased.

Level 12 Goblin Warriors.

Level 13 Goblin Archers appeared one after another.

But when they faced the Skeletal Warriors, who possess out of the ordinary attributes, the Goblins fell like grass to the scythe.

After a night of meditation, his spirit force was fully restored. Lin Moyu summoned another four Skeletal Warriors.

At this point, the number of Skeletal Warriors has reached 48.

As Summon Skeletal Warrior reached level 10, the Iron Skeletal Warriors changed into Bronze Skeletal Warriors.

The burden on spirit force has also increased.

In order to summon a Skeletal Warrior, 70 points of spirit force are required now.

Lin Moyu's spirit force is only 300.

Not unlike before, he can only summon four skeletons at a time.

However, Lin Moyu is already very satisfied.

One day, the summon space will be full. He is not in a hurry.

As he approached Xihai Mine Dungeon, more people began to appear.

The monsters on the way leading to the dungeon have basically been cleared.

Lin Moyu soon saw the entrance of the dungeon.

A vortex similar to that of the novice dungeon, but even larger.

The vortex of the novice dungeon was at most half a meter in diameter.

The entrance of Xihai Mine Dungeon is one meter in diameter.

The vortex emits a bloodthirsty aura continuously.

The faint-hearted will feel fear just by sensing this aura.

"Ordinary rank difficulty. A party of three is looking for a Healer."

"Ordinary rank difficulty. We have a Mage and a Healer. We're looking for a Knight."

"Mine Dungeon Elite Party, nightmare rank difficulty. We have a Knight, a Mage, and an Assassin. We lack a Healer and a control-type support."

"Must Pass Nightmare Rank Difficulty Party lacks Knights and Healers, a party of five lacking four members.

...

At the entrance of the dungeon, there are many people shouting, searching for party members.

There are also many people who appear to be discussing things.

Lin Moyu walked toward the entrance of the dungeon with a Skeletal Warrior by his side.

He put away all the other Skeletal Warriors.

Even when the skeletons are in the summon space, the passive skill is still in effect.

Lin Moyu is not worried about his safety.

Click!

Click!

The Skeletal Warrior makes eerie clicking sounds as it walks.

The Skeletal Warrior, with soul fire pulsating in its head, is accompanied by cold wind, lowering the surrounding temperature by several degrees.

The Skeletal Warrior looks quite scary. Unsurprisingly, Lin Moyu's arrival caused a lot of panic.

Many people retreated, making way for Lin Moyu.

Lin Moyu reached the entrance of the dungeon and checked its information.

It is a real dungeon, not a place intended to train novices like the novice dungeon.

The level of the mine dungeon is not high, and it only has ordinary rank difficulty and nightmare rank difficulty.

In ordinary rank difficulty, there are already elite monsters, which are several times stronger than the monsters outside.

In nightmare rank difficulty, there are enhanced elite monsters, which are even stronger.

To tackle ordinary rank difficulty, a party of three -- a tank, a damage dealer, and a healer -- is the norm.

As for nightmare rank difficulty, a party of five, including two supports and two damage dealers, is required.

This showcased the difference in the degrees of difficulty.

The Skeletal Warrior stood quietly next to Lin Moyu.

Finally, someone mustered their courage and spoke to Lin Moyu, "Young man, are you a Summoner?"

Lin Moyu didn't respond.

Detection fell on him and the Skeletal Warrior.

The Skeletal Warrior's hollow eyes suddenly emitted red light, and it looked toward the man who released Detection.

This startled the man, and he stepped back.

Detection failed, providing no information.

Lin Moyu has the Cloaking Badge he received from Ning Yiyi on him.

If someone whose level doesn't exceed his by 10 levels uses Detection on him, they won't be able to glean any information from him.

Lin Moyu didn't let the Skeletal Warrior attack. After all, it was just Detection.

"Young man, would you like to do dungeon grinding together with us? We still lack a damage dealer."

"You should be a Summoner. A Summoner's damage dealing is pretty good. Do you want to go together with us?"

"We are an elite party, and we are going for nightmare rank difficulty. If equipment are dropped, we will distribute them equally."

Having realized that Lin Moyu is not a simple character, one person after another invited him to join their party.

However, Lin Moyu still didn't respond.

After reviewing the dungeon's information, he chose nightmare rank difficulty.

[Please confirm that you want to choose nightmare rank difficulty]

"I confirm!"

Lin Moyu was teleported into the dungeon.

"He entered the dungeon."

"He entered the dungeon by himself."

"No way. He went solo. That really arrogant."

"That's not necessarily the case. What if he has what it takes? After all, it is not like no one has ever gone solo before."

"My friend, you just used Detection of him, didn't you? What information have you obtained? What is his level? And what of his class?"

"Right, his summon is an undead. I've never seen such a thing before."

The person who used Detection was a bit embarrassed, "I couldn't obtain any information. He should have a Cloaking Badge."

"I see. Then let's wait and see if he can come out alive."

"Maybe he's just a show-off. He'll probably chicken out and run with his tail between the legs."

Outside the dungeon, many people showed amused expressions.

Due to overconfidence, many people enter dungeons by themselves every year and end up dying.

The mine dungeon, just like its name implies, is a dungeon with a mine terrain.

The dungeon is filled with a stifling atmosphere and a strong smell of blood.

Lin Moyu is located in front of a huge iron gate. Opening the iron gate equates to the official opening of the dungeon.

Behind the iron gate, a monster over two meters tall roared. It has discovered Lin Moyu.

So long as he opens the iron gate, it will rush over and tear him to pieces.

Chapter 23: Unupgraded Skill; Beyond The Scope of Knowledge

23 - Unupgraded Skill; Beyond The Scope of Knowledge

Outside the iron gate, Lin Moyu used Detection.

Goblin Mine Guard (enhanced elite monster)

[Level: 14]

[Strength: 800]

[Agility: 400]

[Spirit: 200]

[Physique: 1,000]

[Skill: Dazing Attack]

As expected of an enhanced elite monster, its attributes are several times higher than that of ordinary monsters.

With its strength and physique, it is a monster with high offense and high defense.

Level 14 Knight-type class users, whose attributes range from 300 to 400, are far from being a match for the enhanced elite monster in front of him.

If they don't form a party, ordinary class users can't tackle the nightmare level dungeon.

However, with these attributes, the Goblin Mine Guard can't compare to his Skeletal Warriors.

Lin Moyu released his Skeletal Warriors from the summon space. The room was filled with Skeletal Warriors in the blink of an eye.

He then opened the gate, officially entering the dungeon.

The Goblin Mine Guard let out an excited roar and rushed over.

What greeted it were the blades of the Skeletal Warrior.

It is tall and muscular, much taller than the Skeletal Warriors.

At the same time, its agility and intelligence are low.

When the blades of the Skeletal Warrior fell on it, they instantly caused terrifying wounds.

With its attributes, the Goblin Mine Guard stands no chance against a single Skeletal Warrior.

Not to mention that it is currently being besieged by a number of them.

At least five or six Skeletal Warriors hacked at it.

In just two seconds, the Goblin Mine Guard collapsed along with a blood-curdling scream.

[Killed level 14 Goblin Mine Guard, EXP +4,200]

Upon receiving the notification, a hint of excitement welled up inside Lin Moyu.

The EXP provided by the Goblin Mine Guard is about 10 times higher than that of monsters of the same level outside the dungeon.

Killing one monster here is equivalent to killing 10 outside.

And it takes only one or two seconds, which isn't much slower than outside.

That is to say, his leveling speed will naturally be faster here.

Thinking that he should look for the right way, Lin Moyu immediately issued a command.

The Skeletal Warriors rushed into the dungeon's tunnels along with clicking sounds.

As if an unstoppable army, they killed everything standing in their way.

[Killed level 14 Goblin Mine Guard, EXP +4,200]

[Obtained bone x5]

[Killed level 14 Goblin Mine Guard, EXP +4,200]

[Obtain leather x6]

Notifications appeared one by one.

EXP began to grow rapidly, and materials accumulated continuously.

A detailed map of the dungeons quickly formed in Lin Moyu's mind.

The mine dungeon, as its name suggests, is a mine.

There are many tunnels in the dungeon, extending in different directions.

No matter which tunnel one chooses, they will eventually reach a dead end.

In general, other parties will choose a tunnel and explore it.

But not Lin Moyu. He sent his Skeletal Warriors to explore the tunnels.

They went into every nook and cranny and killed all monsters they could find.

After just five minutes of entering the dungeon, light appeared on his body, indicating that he leveled up.

"Level 11 at last."

After leveling up, his spirit force was completely restored. Lin Moyu promptly summoned another four Skeletal Warriors to join the team.

The number of Skeletal Warriors swelled up to 56.

[Name: Lin Moyu]

[Class: Necromancer (unique)]

[Level: 11 (0.00%)]

[Strength: 120]

[Agility: 120]

[Spirit: 40/400]

[Physique: 120]

[Equipment: None]

[Summon space: 56/110, Skeletal Warriors (56)]

[Talents: Comprehensive Amplification (level 2, unique)]

[Passive skills: Damage Transfer]

[Active skills: Soul Blaze (level 11), Summon Skeletal Warrior (level 11), Corpse Explosion (level 1)]

[Comprehensive Amplification (level 2): strengthens the effects of all skills by 20 times.]

[Damage Transfer: all damage taken by the host will be borne by the summons.]

[Soul Blaze (level 11): deals damage to target's soul; its power depends on your spirit force and the skill's level.]

[Summon Skeletal Warrior (level 11): summons a Bronze Skeletal Warrior.]

[Corpse Explosion (level 1), detonate a corpse and deal 10% of the corpse's health as damage to enemies within a radius of one meter.]

Lin Moyu looked over his attributes.

"After level 10, the growth rate of the basic attributes has increased."

"Strength, agility, and physique used to increase by 10 points per level. Now it is 20 points."

"Spirit force has increased by 100 points."

"As my level rises, the growth rate of my attributes will continue to increase."

After checking his basic attributes, Lin Moyu understood this principle.

The skills were upgraded once again. The four attributes of the Skeletal Warriors have reached 3,400 points.

The basic attributes have increased by 20 points and further amplified by 20 times, resulting in an increase of 400 points.

These changes came as no surprise to Lin Moyu.

The newly acquired Corpse Explosion skill was still level 1, showing no changes.

"But why?"

Lin Moyu was puzzled. Why were Soul Blaze and Summon Skeletal Warrior upgraded?

Yet Corpse Explosion remained unchanged.

He couldn't figure it out.

This situation exceeds the scope of his knowledge.

"If Ning Yiyi were here, she might have known."

Lin Moyu thought of Ning Yiyi, a cute girl who enjoys mischief and can talk without end.

She possesses much more knowledge than him.

If she were here, he could ask her.

Temporarily putting aside his misgivings, he continued to move toward the depths of the dungeon.

There are eight tunnels in the mine dungeon, and they are interconnected, looking like a maze.

However, these tunnels will eventually converge together.

Lin Moyu evenly distributed the Skeletal Warriors to each tunnel, not letting go of any monsters.

His EXP increased by massive chunks, steadily pushing his level upward.

Hunting in here is much more efficient than outside.

When he walked out of a tunnel, the monsters inside have been all cleared.

[Level: 11 (32.22%)]

Almost one-third of EXP has been filled.

Only a little over half an hour has passed. This hunting is extremely efficient.

Chapter 24: Mine Wolf King, Elite Leader

24 - Mine Wolf King, Elite Leader

After passing through the maze-like tunnels, Lin Moyu entered the latter half of the dungeon. There is a huge 1,000-meter-long tunnel extending in front of him.

On both sides of the tunnel, there are rooms.

There are huge iron gates in front of the rooms, which makes them look like prisons from afar. Beast cries come from the rooms and echo in the huge tunnel. In addition to the smell of blood, there are other unsavory smells in the air.

A huge monster is blocking in the middle of the path.

This monster looks like a wolf, and despite lying on the ground, it is more than one meter tall. If it were to stand up, it would be more than three meters tall.

It is more than five meters in length.

Detection fell on the monster like a gentle breeze.

[Mine Wolf King (elite leader)]

[Level: 15]

[Strength: 2,000]

[Agility: 2,000]

[Spirit: 1,000]

[Physique: 2,500]

[Skills: Roar]

Lin Moyu encountered a leader rank monster for the first time, and it's an elite leader to boot.

Although it still can't compare to the Skeletal Warriors in terms of attributes, but it is much stronger than other monsters.

"The attributes of this leader have already reached this degree. The attributes of the dungeon boss must be even higher."

"However, it shouldn't exceed the attributes of the Skeletal Warriors, or else no one would be able to raid this dungeon."

For the nightmare rank dungeon, such a degree is normal.

In general, to have the ability to raid the nightmare rank dungeon, the level of class users must be higher than that of the dungeon. If it is an elite party composed of five people, their average level might have to be level 17 or 18.

And their equipment and skills must be of a certain standard.

Otherwise, it would be impossible to raid the nightmare rank dungeon.

There has never been anyone like Lin Moyu who could go solo in the nightmare rank dungeon at level 10.

Disturbed by Detection, the Mine Wolf King awakened from its slumber.

It slowly stood up. Its huge wolf body exceeded a height of five meters.

Lin Moyu and the Skeletal Warriors are not even as tall as its legs.

Crimson wolf eyes looked at Lin Moyu, emitting a bloodthirsty aura.

An overwhelming sense of oppression surged.

"Advance!"

Lin Moyu issued an order.

The 56 skeletons rushed toward the Mine Wolf King lightning-fast.

The Mine Wolf King roared and unleashed its skill.

An intense shockwave erupted from its mouth.

More than 30 Skeletal Warriors, which were charging at the front, were flung away.

The walls on both sides of the tunnel vibrated, and rock fragments dropped.

When Lin Moyu, who was standing tens of meters away, sensed the shockwave, a hint of surprise appeared on his face.

This skill is an AOE offensive skill that can fling opponents away.

This is the first time he has seen Skeletal Warriors being flung away.

The Skeletal Warriors that were sent flying fell on the ground or hit the rock walls, cutting a sorry figure.

Lin Moyu's expression didn't contain any worry.

He could feel that the Skeletal Warriors were just sent flying.

The actual damage they suffered wasn't great.

With 3,400 points of physique, the defense of the Skeletal Warriors is awesome.

The Skeletal Warriors quickly got up and charged toward the Mine Wolf King again.

The slight cracks that appeared on their bodies as a result of the shockwave quickly closed and disappeared in the blink of an eye.

Their soul fire was as vigorous as ever.

"Use your skill!"

Berserk Strike!

The Skeletal Warriors, who were not flung away, arrived in front of the Mine Wolf King and brandished their blades, which glimmered with a red hue.

As blood splattered and skin and flesh sundered, bone-deep wounds appeared.

The Mine Wolf King howled miserably.

Many Skeletal Warriors leaped up high, lunged at the Mine Wolf King, and unleashed their skill, and their blades shimmered with a red hue.

This scene is similar to what Lin Moyu saw when he awakened his class.

This was how the Skeletal Warriors hacked the Dragon to death.

The Mine Wolf King is not as massive or powerful as the Dragon.

The Skeletal Warriors, whose combat power is higher than that of the Mine Wolf King, dealt considerable damage with each blade strike.

The Mine Wolf King rolled on the ground and collided with the rock walls with its huge body again and again, attempting to shake off the Skeletal Warriors on its body.

The Skeletal Warriors firmly grasped its flesh, making it difficult to shake them off.

The Skeletal Warriors on the ground pursued it relentlessly and hacked at its legs.

Large blades landed on bone, making metallic sounds, and the Mine Wolf King howled miserably.

It slammed its claws into Skeletal Warriors, and a massive force broke out and knocked the Skeletal Warriors away.

The Skeletal Warriors were not seriously injured. They ran back in an instant.

It also used its mouth to bite the Skeletal Warriors, but its teeth broke.

With a physique of 3,400 points, the Skeletal Warriors are incredibly sturdy.

"What's the use of having a large body? It will die all the same."

As he watched this scene, Lin Moyu's heart stirred.

Although a huge body brings a stronger sense of oppression and greater power.

But it is also a weakness.

So long as the defense is not strong enough, it is impossible to withstand the attacks of the Skeletal Warriors.

The outcome can well be imagined.

After just a few seconds, the Mine Wolf King was on the brink of death.

Roar!

Another fierce roar sounded.

The Mine Wolf King activated its skill for the second time.

It went all out and pushed the Roar skill to the limit.

The shockwave surged and flung away all the Skeletal Warriors on its body.

Even the Skeletal Warriors around it were knocked away.

"The power of the skill is pretty average, but its ability to fling opponents away is pretty good.

Lin Moyu watched the Skeletal Warriors flying through the air, an expressionless look on his face.

Although the skill looks quite impressive, but in fact, the Skeletal Warriors didn't receive much damage.

Sure enough, after they fell on the ground, the Skeletal Warriors rolled once, then ran toward the Mine Wolf King once more.

The Mine Wolf King suddenly turned around and ran deeper into the tunnel, limping.

"It ran away?"

Chapter 25: Instant Kill! The Currently Strongest AOE Offensive Skill

25 - Instant Kill! The Currently Strongest AOE Offensive Skill

Lin Moyu was struck dumb. A dungeon leader can unexpectedly run away.

As it ran, the Mine Wolf King issued howls.

As if responding to its call, wolf howls rose in the tunnel.

Something isn't right!

Lin Moyu felt that something was wrong. As a result, instead of instructing the Skeletal Warriors to give chase, he had them retreat to his side.

Creak!

Creak!

The iron gates on both sides of the tunnel opened, and bloodthirsty wolves walked out.

[Mine Wolf]

[Level: 14]

[Strength: 600]

[Agility: 600]

[Spirit: 200]

[Physique: 1,000]

[Skills: Bite]

Detection revealed the information of the wolves.

Their attributes are nothing special. In fact, they are even weaker than Goblin Mine Guards.

But they are many in number, at least 100.

With so many wolves surging forward, the pressure is enough to make one's scalp feel numb.

Yet Lin Moyu was not scared.

Although they are many, but due to their lacking attributes, the Mine Wolves are far from being enough to deal with his Skeletal Warriors.

However, a question popped up in his mind.

How do other parties deal with the wolves.

He doesn't believe that a party of just five class users can contend against so many wolves.

After looking around and seeing the tunnel behind him, he immediately understood.

The tunnel's entrance isn't large, only enough for one person to pass at a time.

So as long as a Knight can hold the tunnel and Healer supports treat them.

And then Mages use AOE skills to attack.

Then it will at most take some time to eliminate the Mine Wolves.

Lin Moyu's guess was correct. This is indeed how other parties usually do things.

However, he missed one thing, that is, other parties won't encounter so many Mine Wolves.

In general, there will be a dozen-plus Mine Wolves.

This discrepancy is related to him clearing all the monsters in the previous tunnels.

This is his first visit to the mine dungeon, so Lin Moyu is not aware of this.

There was no such knowledge in the books.

But then again, even if he knew, he would clear all the monsters all the same.

There is no way Lin Moyu would let so much EXP slip past his fingers.

As for the difficulty?

When it comes to him, it's not worth speaking off.

Since entering the dungeon, he has only given a few commands.

He hasn't even broken a sweat.

In his eyes, the many Mine Wolves are just a wealth of EXP.

The Skeletal Warriors positioned themselves around Lin Moyu, firmly protecting him.

The Mine Wolves rushed over and collided with the Skeletal Warriors one after another.

The Mine Wolves are extremely fierce, continuously biting at the Skeletal Warriors.

At the same time, blade-like claws fell on the Skeletal Warriors.

Unfortunately, with their offensive power, this is not enough to inflict significant damage to the Skeletal Warriors.

Lin Moyu waited until all the Mine Wolves arrived.

He then willed, and five skeletons attacked a Mine Wolf together.

Blood and flesh flew in the air.

The five skeletons each brandished their blade once. In merely two seconds, the Mine Wolf howled miserably, then collapsed on the ground.

[Killed level 14 Mine Wolf, EXP +2,800]

[Obtained fur x3]

Lin Moyu's lips curled up. At the same time, his palm shone brightly.

Corpse Explosion!

With a loud bang, the corpse of the Mine Wolf detonated.

10% of the Mine Wolf's health as damage.

A radius of one meter.

Amplified by 20 times through his talent.

Within a radius of 20 meters, all enemies must bear 200% of the corpse's health points as damage.

This is equivalent to the wolves having to bear 200% of their health as damage.

Not a single wolf could bear it.

Instant kill!

[Killed level 14 Mine Wolf, EXP +2,800]

[Obtained fur x2]

[Killed level 14 Mine Wolf, EXP +2,800]

[Obtained fur x3]

[Killed level 14 Mine Wolf, EXP +2,800]

[Obtained fur x4]

In an instant, a flood of notifications popped up.

EXP soared like a rocket.

In the blink of an eye, EXP rose from 32% to 72%.

With one attack, he gained 40% of EXP. This speed is astonishingly fast.

Lin Moyu was at a loss for words. The Corpse Explosion skill is too powerful.

It is comparable to forbidden spells of Mages.

At least at the present level, this skill is without equal.

At this moment, the Mine Wolf King limped back, its eyes filled with fear.

How come the underlings died in an instant?

What is the deal with the explosion?

With its intelligence, it couldn't make heads or tails of it.

By happenstance, there are several corpses of Mine Wolves at its feet.

"I'm all for equality. Have a taste as well."

Lin Moyu's gaze turned cold, and his palm shimmered.

Corpse Explosion!

Boom boom boom!

Three consecutive explosions sounded, as three corpses detonated.

Blood-curdling howls rose. The Mine Wolf King was covered in blood.

A large part of its body was missing flesh, leaving white bones exposed.

The bones were even broken in some places.

Wu~

The Mine Wolf King issued a final mournful cry.

Its huge body shook several times, and it collapsed on the ground with a bang.

It was severely injured to begin with, and could no longer withstand such severe damage.

[Killed level 15 Mine Wolf King, EXP +15,000]

[Obtained Mine Wolf King's fang]

[Obtained elementary monster core]

"Only 15,000 points of EXP. It's not really cost-effective."

The Mine Wolf King is really strong, yet it only provides 15,000 points of EXP. Its cost-effectiveness is indeed low.

This is equivalent to the EXP provided by five Mine Wolves.

However, when it comes to leader monsters, what matters is not EXP, but the items they drop.

The Mine Wolf King's fangs are a material used to manufacture weapons, and their price in the trade office is not low.

Monster cores can be used to make jewelry that increase attributes, and they are also considerably valuable.

Monster cores can only be dropped by leader rank or boss rank monsters, and they don't drop always.

This makes it so the price of monster cores remains high.

Chapter 26: Goblin King; Frightening Blade Strike

26 - Goblin King; Frightening Blade Strike

As he walked through the tunnel, a nauseating stench assaulted his face.

Lin Moyu couldn't help but cover his nose.

Along the tunnel's length of 1,000 meters, all iron gates were opened, empty inside.

All wolves have been eliminated.

There is a huge mining pit at the end of the tunnel.

The mining pit, which is more than 1,000 meters in diameter, looks like a bottomless pit.

There is a passage winding around the mining pit, filled with many Goblin-type monsters.

They wear armor and hold a large blade.

Two per team, they are patrolling back and forth in the passage.

[Goblin Elite Warrior (enhanced elite monster)]

[Level: 15]

[Strength: 900]

[Agility: 800]

[Spirit: 400]

[Physique: 900]

Their attributes are much lower than those of a leader, none exceeding 1,000 points. In Lin Moyu's eyes, they are nothing much.

Lin Moyu waved his hand, and the skeleton army rushed into the mining pit.

Faced with the torrent of Skeletal Warriors, the enhanced elite monsters were rendered powerless, and were killed one after another.

[Killed level 15 Goblin Elite Warrior, EXP +4,500]

[Obtained beast bone x6]

Notifications popped up continuously.

Following Lin Moyu's order, the monsters in the mining pit were quickly cleared.

Although the enhanced elite monsters are very strong, but at the same time, they provide a large amount of EXP and bountiful materials.

They are high quality monsters.

Compared to ordinary monsters outside, hunting the monsters here is much more cost-effective.

"In the future, when I go solo in a hell rank dungeon, I should be able to obtain even more EXP."

If someone learned of Lin Moyu's thoughts, they would probably feel like spitting in his face.

In the history of humanity, no one has ever soloed a hell rank dungeon.

Some amazing individuals have soloed nightmare rank dungeons, and their achievements have been recorded in the annals of history.

Going solo in a hell rank dungeon is simply a joke.

People have tried it before, but they have never returned. They have all died.

Lin Moyu walked along the passage unobstructed. The monsters along the way have all been cleared.

When he reached the bottom of the mining pit, his EXP reached 99%.

He is only one step away from leveling up.

At this time, in the entire dungeon, only the final boss remained.

"So long as it is killed, I should be able to reach level 12."

It has been just over an hour since Lin Moyu entered the dungeon, yet he already reached this stage and gained more than one level.

This efficiency has exceeded his expectations by far.

If he raids the nightmare rank dungeon a few more times, let alone reaching level 16, it won't be hard to reach level 18 or level 19.

By then, entering Xiajing Academy will be a breeze.

"Sister, we will meet again soon."

Thinking of Lin Mohan, Lin Moyu revealed a seldom smile.

The boss of the mine dungeon sits in the center of the mine pit.

As it inhaled and exhaled through its large maw, its breathing thundered in the empty mining pit.

With every breath, a strong current of air was raised.

Lin Moyu nearly lost his balance due to this.

The boss is completely oblivious of what is happening around it.

It looks as if it were meditating.

However, it is just sleeping.

Detection surged like a gentle breeze.

[Goblin King (boss monster)]

[Level: 16]

[Strength: 3,000]

[Agility: 1,500]

[Spirit: 1,500]

[Physique: 3,000]

[Skills: Flame Spout, Swipe, Shock.]

Its attributes are not much different from those of the Mine Wolf King, with strength and physique being a bit higher.

Lin Moyu even feels that his Skeletal Warriors can fight it one-on-one.

The Detection skill awakened it, and it slowly opened its eyes and looked at Lin Moyu.

Then, accompanied by a roar, it leaped up.

It brandished a giant blade in its hand and chopped down at Lin Moyu.

As the blade, which is accompanied by fearsome wind pressure, fell, Lin Moyu didn't try to dodge.

His eyes were calm, even containing a hint of derision.

The seemingly terrifying blade strike lurched to a halt 10 centimeters away from Lin Moyu.

It's as if there were an invisible force that makes it impossible for the blade to continue forward.

Damage Transfer.

All attacks born by Lin Moyu will be transferred to his summons.

Lin Moyu suddenly wrinkled his eyebrows.

That's because he felt that all his Skeletal Warriors were injured.

The soul fire of the Skeletal Warriors throbbed violently, and the sheen emanating from their bodies dimmed by one-third.

At the same time, fine cracks appeared on their bones.

"How can this be?"

Lin Moyu was startled, feeling confused.

He is rarely surprised. Even when he was faced with the huge blade, he didn't even blink his eyes.

Last night when he killed three people, despite being his first time killing someone, he was also quite calm.

In his eyes, killing people is no different from killing monsters.

It is not that he is cold-blooded.

But his sister Lin Mohan once told him to stay calm and collected no matter the situation.

In times of danger, only by staying calm will you be able to survive.

He quickly retreated, while the Skeletal Warriors rushed toward the Goblin King, protecting him.

Berserk Strike!

Skeletal Warriors used their skill one after another, and powerful attacks fell on the Goblin King and dealt tremendous damage.

The Goblin King's flesh was lacerated in a flash.

Due to the onslaught, the Goblin King shifted targets and began attacking the Skeletal Warriors.

Lin Moyu retreated, then contemplated what just happened.

The effect of Damage Transfer is to transfer the damage he received to his summons.

The damage is evenly distributed among all his summons.

He suddenly understood.

The reason why the Skeletal Warriors were injured, and seriously injured to boot.

This is chiefly because the attributes are too low.

With only 120 points of physique, defense is too weak.

Faced with the Goblin King's 3,000 points of strength, the damage born should be great.

The damage that is transferred is calculated with Lin Moyu's attributes as the basis, disregarding the defense of the Skeletal Warriors.

All this damage was transferred to the Skeletal Warriors, which is why they were this injured.

If the blade had landed on a Skeletal Warrior instead, the damage the Skeletal Warrior would sustain would have been much lighter.

"It turns out I am the only weakness of my summon army."

"It seems that I will have to build up my physique in the future."

"The stronger my defense gets, the stronger my summon army will be."

Chapter 27: Greatest Weakness

27 - Greatest Weakness

Lin Moyu thoroughly understood the situation.

The greatest weakness of the skeleton army, who has Lin Moyu as the core, is he himself.

If there is a powerful enemy, they can ignore the pestering of the Skeletal Warriors and instead focus on Lin Moyu, putting him in danger.

After all, Damage Transfer is not omnipotent.

Since he became aware of this weakness, Lin Moyu will naturally look for ways to make up for it.

The Goblin King's flesh was torn, and blood splattered like raindrops.

The Goblin King is six or seven meters tall. There are Skeletal Warriors on its shoulders, back, chest, and even head.

The Goblin King emitted a dazzling light from all over its body and leaped up abruptly, and then landed heavily on the ground.

With a loud bang, the Skeletal Warriors on its body were flung away.

Even the Skeletal Warriors on the ground were knocked away.

Skill: Shock!

Next, the Goblin King emitted light from its eyes, opened its big maw, and spewed out fire.

The fire burned the Skeletal Warriors.

Lin Moyu felt the health of four Skeletal Warriors rapidly decrease, and they were soon on the verge of death.

He willed, and the four Skeletal Warriors were immediately placed back into the summon space.

The Goblin King continued to spew out fire, preventing the Skeletal Warriors from getting close to it.

"I must interrupt his skill."

A flame emerged on Lin Moyu's palm.

Soul Blaze!

The flame silently landed on the Goblin King's head.

The Goblin King immediately unleashed blood-curdling screams, interrupting Flame Spout.

Soul Blaze ignores defense and directly deals spirit damage.

Its power depends on the skill's level and the caster's spirit force.

Although Lin Moyu's spirit force is only 400 points and the skill's level is only level 11, but after his talent's 20-fold amplification, Soul Blaze's power is not to be underestimated.

The Skeletal Warriors quickly surrounded the Goblin King and unleashed a flurry of attacks.

Lin Moyu continuously used Soul Blaze in order to prevent the Goblin King from using its skills.

After a minute, the Goblin King collapsed on the ground.

[Killed Goblin King, EXP +40,000]

[Obtained bronze rank weapon, Goblin King's Dagger.]

[Obtained bronze rank protective equipment, Robe of Knowledge.]

[Obtained Goblin King's core.]

At the same time as the notifications popped up, light appeared on Lin Moyu's body, indicating that he has leveled up.

Level 12 at last.

It has been over an hour since he entered the nightmare rank dungeon, yet he has raised his level by more than one level.

This is very efficient.

Lin Moyu examined his harvest.

[Goblin King's Dagger: bronze rank, strength +10, agility +10, increases the power of Assassin-type skills by 3%, usable after level 12.]

[Robe of Knowledge: bronze rank protective equipment, spirit +10, physique +10, decreases the cooldown period of Mage-type skills by 5%, usable after level 12.]

The dagger is of no use to Lin Moyu, so he directly put it away, to be sold later.

"My class is Necromancer, which should be classified as a Mage-type class."

"However, different from typical Mage-type skills, my skills have no cooldown period, making the robe's decrease of cooldown period seem useless."

"But the 10 points increase of spirit and physique is acceptable."

After all, since it is just a level 12 equipment, he can't ask too much of it.

Lin Moyu immediately put on the Robe of Knowledge, and both his spirit and physique increased by 10 points.

In addition to equipment, there was also the Goblin King's core.

The Goblin King's core is larger and more beautiful than that of lower-level monsters.

It is red as a ruby and feels warm to the touch.

Obviously, this core is rather unusual.

If he takes the core to the trade office, Lin Moyu can get 100,000 gold coins for it.

Lin Moyu was pleasantly surprised.

The core is more valuable than both pieces of equipment.

After he leveled up, Lin Moyu's spirit force was fully restored.

He promptly summoned another four Skeletal Warriors.

The skill Summon Skeletal Warrior has been upgraded to level 12, pushing the summon cost to 110 points of spirit force.

Although his spirit force has reached 510 points, but he can still only summon four skeletons.

The four attributes of the Bronze Skeletal Warriors, who have reached level 12, have risen to 3,800 points, and their numbers expanded to 60.

With this force, Lin Moyu can freely cruise in this dungeon.

While he was in a pretty good mood, Lin Moyu walked into the dungeon's exit.

Lin Moyu suddenly appeared outside the dungeon's entrance.

His appearance immediately drew everyone's attention.

What truly attracted everyone's attention was the Skeletal Warrior following beside him.

The Skeletal Warrior is really special.

Due to its cold and wicked aura and its terrifying appearance, the faint-hearted unconsciously turn their heads, not daring to look over.

"He came out."

"Didn't expect him to come out alive."

"Did he really solo the dungeon?"

"Very few people can solo dungeons. I think this kid is still wet behind the ears..."

"No way. Everyone, take a look at his clothing, doesn't it look like the Robe of Knowledge?"

"It's true. It's really the Robe of Knowledge."

"Incredible. A big shot capable of soloing the dungeon is right in front of my eyes."

Lin Moyu didn't care about comments of the crowd.

The dungeon has entered a cooldown period. It will take 12 hours before he can enter the dungeon once more.

After raiding the dungeon once, he was no longer interested in hunting wild monsters.

They give too little EXP. Even if he hunts a dozen wild monsters, they won't be a match for one dungeon monster.

Furthermore, looking for monsters in the wilderness is too troublesome.

The 12-hour cooldown period is just right for meditation to restore spirit force, and can also be used to summarize the results of the dungeon raid.

Lin Moyu silently walked to a deserted place and sat down.

The Skeletal Warrior stood loyally next to Lin Moyu, guarding him.

This dungeon raid was of great significance to him.

The most important thing is that it made him understand where his weakness lies.

He also understood the application of his skills.

Corpse Explosion, when used properly, is an unparalleled AOE offensive skill.

Soul Blaze can be used to interrupt the skills of enemies. Spirit attacks, that ignore defense, are extremely powerful, and even nightmare rank bosses can't withstand them.

Lin Moyu summarized and sorted out his experiences.

Chapter 28: Dynasty Guild; Goblin King's Ring

28 - Dynasty Guild; Goblin King's Ring

Lin Moyu meditated in a sitting position, a Skeletal Warrior standing guard by his side.

At the entrance of the dungeon, there are over 10 people, yet no one dares to approach him.

The main reason is that Lin Moyu's Skeletal Warrior is really scary.

The sight of the Skeletal Warrior makes people tremble with fear.

It is better this way, since no one will disturb him.

Lin Moyu is waiting for the cooldown period to pass. In 12 hours, he can enter the dungeon again.

Spirit force is gradually restored during meditation.

When he enters the dungeon next time, he will be able to summon another four Skeletal Warriors.

When night fell, Lin Moyu was finished meditating. His spirit force was almost completely restored.

A bunch of bonfires sprang up at the entrance of the dungeon, with many people gathered around the bonfires, roasting meat.

The aroma of meat filled the air. After seasoning was applied, the aroma became even more enticing.

These people often go into the wilderness, each quite experienced and well-prepared.

Unlike Lin Moyu, who only brought some sweet potatoes.

Lin Moyu's stomach protested, and he wanted to take out some sweet potatoes to eat.

But then discovered that the sweet potatoes were gone. He remembered that he has given them all to Ning Yiyi.

Thinking of the mischievous and cute Ning Yiyi, Lin Moyu couldn't help but reveal a slight smile.

He took out some steamed buns and started eating them.

"Brother, would you like to come over and eat together with us?"

Someone waved at Lin Moyu. At their bonfire, some unknown meat is being roasted. A delicious smell is coming from that side.

The person who called out to Lin Moyu is a young man in his twenties.

Judging by his appearance, he should be a support.

Lin Moyu shook his head, politely declining the other party's good will.

The young man didn't insist, and instead focused on eating his roasted meat.

"Wang Yi, why did you call him?"

"Right. He's a weirdo who hasn't said a word since he got here."

"In addition, the undead summon by his side is a bit scary."

The young man called Wang Yi has a different opinion, "I think he is quite normal. He just doesn't like to talk, that's all."

"Besides, although he doesn't talk, he has never provoked anyone."

"I think he isn't as difficult to get along with as you guys think."

Wang Yi cut off a large piece of the roasted meat and placed it on a plate, and then walked up to Lin Moyu, "Brother, have some meat. You shouldn't eat just steamed buns."

Lin Moyu looked at him and didn't say anything.

Wang Yi smiled kindly, placed the plate in front of Lin Moyu, and then walked away.

Detection indicates that there are no problems with the roasted meat.

Lin Moyu unhurriedly picked up the roasted meat and took a bite.

The roasted meat tastes pretty good and smells rather appetizing.

Back at his bonfire, Wang Yi held up a piece of meat, a sunny smile on his face.

Lin Moyu felt as if the other party's smile is similar to Gao Yang's.

After filling his stomach, Lin Moyu entered the state of meditation once again.

With the Skeletal Warrior by his side, he doesn't have to worry about his safety.

When the 12-hour cooldown period was finally over, Lin Moyu's spirit force was fully restored.

"I should be able to reach level 13 this time."

He got up and saw a crowd of people standing at the entrance of the dungeon.

Two groups of people appear to be in a standoff.

One of the groups is blocking the entrance of the dungeon, not allowing anyone to get close.

They wear uniform clothing and hold excellent weapons in their hands, looking like an army.

The people confronting them are the ones who had been originally outside the dungeon.

Although the second group has many people, but they look disorganized. They can't match the other party in terms of momentum.

"Dynasty Guild is too much."

"Why won't you guys let us into the dungeon?"

"That's right. What gives you the right to stop us? The dungeon doesn't belong to you."

"Us entering the dungeon won't affect you guys."

Many people raised protests.

A Mage with a staff emerged from Dynasty Guild's group, "Our junior guild leader is on a mission in the dungeon. You are not allowed to enter the dungeon before he completes his mission."

"What does it have to do with us!"

"Dynasty Guild is too overbearing."

Class users protested one after another, but no one dared to take action.

The main reason is that Dynasty Guild is too strong. They don't dare to provoke it.

Wang Yi is also among the group of protesters, the sunny smile on his face gone, replaced by anger.

Lin Moyu walked up to Wang Yi, "What's going on?"

Wang Yi didn't expect Lin Moyu to talk to him.

The surprised Wang Yi whispered, "The junior guild leader of Dynasty Guild wants to complete a mission in the dungeon, and so they won't let us in."

Lin Moyu's eyes filled with doubt.

What mission requires the dungeon to be sealed off?

Wang Yi saw the confusion in Lin Moyu's eyes, "They want the Goblin King's core. The drop rate of this core is low. It will only drop in the nightmare rank dungeon, and only once every 100 days at that."

"You should have seen this mission in the trade office. In fact, it was posted by Dynasty Guild."

"However, no one has completed this mission yet."

"This is ridiculous. The Goblin King's core is no ordinary core, but a precious core worth at least 300,000 gold coins. Yet they want to obtain it for 100,000. There's no way anyone would sell it to them."

"Today is the 100th day since the last time it dropped. This is why Dynasty Guild has stepped in itself."

That's quite the coincidence.

The 'Goblin King's core', which is as dazzling as a ruby, is in Lin Moyu's storage space.

This Dynasty Guild will surely return empty-handed.

Lin Moyu originally planned to go back in two days and sell the Goblin King's core for 100,000 gold coins.

But after listening to Wang Yi's words, he realized that the Goblin King's core is special.

"What is its use?" Lin Mo whispered.

"Alchemists can process the Goblin King's core into the Goblin King's Ring."

"The Goblin King's Ring raises all attributes by 10 and raises all skills by one level, and is usable above level 15. It is known as the most formidable accessory for class users below level 40."

With such properties, the Goblin King's Ring is indeed awesome.

The ability to enhance all skills by one level is particularly amazing. For novice class users, it is a miraculous item.

Wang Yi continued, "It is said that the junior guild leader of Dynasty Guild wants to enter Xiajing Academy, and is dead-set on obtaining this piece of equipment."

"In Dynasty Guild, there is no shortage of Alchemists. They have already gathered the other materials. What they lack now is the Goblin King's core."

After listening to Wang Yi, Lin Moyu smiled lightly and walked toward the entrance of the dungeon.

He doesn't care about no Dynasty Guild. Anyway, if they hinder his level grinding, he won't stand for it.

Chapter 29: If You Won't Move Aside, Then Die

29 - If You Won't Move Aside, Then Die!

"Hey, what are you doing?"

"Come back. Dynasty Guild is not to be provoked."

"Come back. You're going to lose your life."

Wang Yi was very nervous, trying to pull Lin Moyu back.

Lin Moyu turned a deaf ear and walked away stubbornly.

The people who were protesting suddenly stopped and looked at Lin Moyu.

Lin Moyu, accompanied by a skeleton, walked toward the dungeon. The skeleton made clicking sounds as it walked.

"What do you think you're doing?"

The Mage at the head of Dynasty Guild's group stared coldly at Lin Moyu.

Behind him, a dozen-plus members of Dynasty Guild turned their gazes toward Lin Moyu.

These people are all above level 20, each exuding extraordinary pressure.

There are Knights, Warriors, Mages, Archers, and more.

They formed a comprehensive combat party.

They are well-equipped, and their equipment -- from weapons to armor to accessories -- is all bronze rank.

It is because of this that, despite there being many protesters, no one dared to take action.

Whether it's level, party, equipment, or skills, the protesters can't measure up to the opponent.

Since they are weaker, they can only protest verbally.

Lin Moyu stopped in front of the Mage and said indifferently, "Step aside."

The Mage of Dynasty Guild looked as if he heard a funny joke, "Young man, are you drunk? Go home."

Lin Moyu carried on, "If you stand in my way, I will kill you."

Lin Moyu spoke seriously.

He really wasn't joking.

He has to enter the dungeon to do level grinding. This is related to his admission to Xiajing Academy. If anyone stands in his way, he will really kill them.

The Mage cast Detection on Lin Moyu.

Then, he sneered, "Lin Moyu. You're just a level 12 brat, yet here you are spouting nonsense. Didn't your parents teach you how to behave?"

"Necromancer. I have never heard of this class before. Is it a new class?"

"Undead summon, interesting."

"Considering that we are both Mages, I'll spare you this time. Now scram."

The opponent's level exceeds Lin Moyu's by more than 10 levels. As such, the Cloaking Badge doesn't work on him.

At this time, everyone present learned Lin Moyu's level.

He's just level 12!

And he can go solo in the dungeon.

No way!

Previously, he might not even have been level 12.

Some people realized that Lin Moyu's class may be awesome.

Lin Moyu also used Detection.

Since the Mage isn't wearing a Cloaking Badge, Lin Moyu was able to see the other party's class.

[Zhao Ji, level 25, Mage]

Unlike Xia Xue's Elemental Mage, he is just an ordinary Mage, an intermediate class user.

Although the Mage has reached level 25, but Lin Moyu didn't take him seriously.

Zhao Ji smiled grimly. The other members of Dynasty Guild behind him revealed a shade of ridicule.

"Level 12 brat, you're still wet behind the ears. Go home and suck on your mother's tit some more."

"This is not a place where you should be. Take care not to lose your life."

"Just go hunt some monsters in the wilderness. The dungeon is occupied for the time being."

The person who protested earlier said to Lin Moyu from behind, "Young man, come back. Dynasty Guild isn't amenable to reason. They won't hesitate to kill people."

Wang Yi said loudly, "Brother, come back. Let's enter the dungeon after they have left."

Lin Moyu ignored the voices coming at him from different directions. His voice gradually turned cold, "For the last time, move aside, or die."

Zhao Ji felt his blood run cold from Lin Moyu's words and couldn't help but shiver.

Lin Moyu's gaze made him feel a chill in his heart.

It's as if in Lin Moyu's eyes, he is not a person, but a monster.

But then he reacted, "You punk, you must be tired of living! Take another step and you're dead!"

Lin Moyu looked at Zhao Ji, and the corners of his mouth stirred slightly.

"Kill!"

He casually spat out a word.

The Skeletal Warrior rushed out like a bolt of lightning, appeared in front of the Mage in the blink of an eye, and brandished its blade.

A playful expression sprouted on Zhao Ji's face. At the same time, a light blue Shield appeared around him.

"Level 12 brat, even if I stand still, you won't be able to break my Shield."

The Skeletal Warrior's blade fell on the Shield, and the Shield deformed severely, almost reaching the point of breaking.

Zhao Ji's countenance changed in an instant.

For its attack to be this powerful, what kind of summon is this?

Shield can withstand at least five attacks from Warriors of the same level.

But in front of the Skeletal Warrior, it will break in the second strike at most.

"Use your skill!"

Lin Moyu willed, and the blade of the Skeletal Warrior suddenly burst out with dazzling red light.

Berserk Strike.

Zhao Ji was scared stiff. He never expected that the summon would also be able to use a skill.

He had a premonition of death. Under this skill, not only will the Shield break, but he himself will also die.

Fire Ring of Repulsion!

Zhao Ji released his skill, and a ring of fire erupted and instantly pushed the Skeletal Warrior several meters away.

The skill of the Skeletal Warrior was interrupted.

"What are you spacing out for! Attack!"

Zhao Ji felt like he just walked through the gate of hell, his face pale. He shouted.

A Knight immediately launched the Charge skill, and raised his shield high. He crossed a dozen-plus meters in an instant and knocked into the Skeletal Warrior.

Bang!

Along with a miserable scream, the Knight was sent flying.

The Skeletal Warrior remained in place.

In terms of strength, the Skeletal Warrior had an overwhelming victory.

Unless it's a skill like Fire Ring of Repulsion, that forcibly flings opponents away, it's all about who has greater strength.

The Skeletal Warrior charged forward and, according to Lin Moyu's command, went after Zhao Ji.

Zhao Ji quickly retreated and reinforced his shield. At the same time, he shouted, "Kill the Summoner."

The best way to deal with a Summoner is not to kill their summons, but to kill the Summoner themself.

So long as the Summoner dies, the summon will naturally disappear.

Thump!

Two Archers release their arrows simultaneously.

The arrows split into three in the air and turned into streams of light that shot toward Lin Moyu.

"Be careful!"

"Dodge!"

Someone shouted from behind.

Lin Moyu didn't dodge. His expression didn't even register any changes.

Chapter 30: Why Are There So Many

30 - Why Are There So Many?

A black vortex appeared in front of Lin Moyu, and two Skeletal Warriors appeared and blocked the two arrows shooting at him.

When the arrows collided with the Skeletal Warriors, metallic sounds rose, yet they failed to cause any damage.

Then the two Skeletal Warriors rushed toward the two Archers.

"He has more than one summon."

Zhao Ji's countenance changed again and became unsightly.

He didn't expect Lin Moyu to have more than one summon.

However, it is normal for some Summoners to have multiple summons.

In their guild, there is a Summoner who has four summons.

"Block it!"

Zhao Ji shouted, and Knights and Warriors rushed to in front of him and blocked the Skeletal Warrior in his stead.

With his life no longer in danger, Zhao Ji raised his stave, pointed at Lin Moyu, and rapidly chanted an incantation.

"Dance of the Fire Snake!"

Two seconds later, a fire snake flew out of his stave and headed straight for Lin Moyu.

"Crap, this is a skill that can only be learned by level 20 Mages, and it's a very rare skill to boot."

"It is the strongest offensive skill a Mage can cast before the second class awakening. Lin Moyu is in trouble."

"It is said that less than one-third of Mages can master this skill."

Some people behind worried about Lin Moyu.

Lin Moyu still didn't move. A vortex appeared in front of him again.

A total of 20 Skeletal Warriors came out this time.

20 pairs of soul fire throbbed in the dark night.

Dance of the Fire Snake slammed into them and exploded with a rumble and brilliant flames.

The 20 Skeletal Warriors rushed out of the flames and lunged at the members of Dynasty Guild.

Zhao Ji's countenance turned ugly, "Why are there so many of them?"

Three Skeletal Warriors was already enough to surprise him. He didn't expect for there to be another 20.

The current number of the Skeletal Warriors has exceeded that of the members of Dynasty Guild that are here.

"Enter formation! Prepare for battle!"

Zhao Ji is rather experienced. He didn't panic because of this.

Dynasty Guild is a guild with extensive experience.

These class users, who have gone through the baptisms of numerous battles, have excellent coordination.

They quickly assembled.

The Knights were at the forefront, followed by Warriors, Archers, and Mages and then supports at the rear.

In Zhao Ji's eyes, although these summons are strong, but they can't measure up to his party.

Hunting the Skeletal Warriors will only take some time.

The party of a dozen-plus people huddled together.

Supports quickly applied status buffs to everyone.

Strength Enhancement, Agility Enhancement, Spirit Enhancement.

Speed Boost, Shield, Berserker's Soul.

Every possible status buff was applied.

In just 30 seconds, the class users were fully buffed.

This reflects their excellent cooperation.

Confidence reappeared on Zhao Ji's face.

Although they are surrounded by Skeletal Warriors, but this is not the first time they have encountered such a situation.

He firmly believes they will have the last laugh.

Lin Moyu raised his hand, then lowered his head and said to Wang Yi and others behind him, "Get back."

At this point, there is no one who wouldn't listen to him.

No one could have imagined that he would be able to contend against a dozen-plus members of Dynasty Guild by himself.

Everyone stepped back at once. In the blink of an eye, they were already dozens of meters away.

When Zhao Ji saw this, he felt puzzled, but didn't delve more into the matter.

At this moment, he suddenly saw a flash of fire in front of him, followed by a cry of agony from an Archer.

The Archer's health rapidly decreased, putting him on the verge of death in an instant.

A Heal promptly fell on the Archer, quickly pulling him away from the brink of death.

Lin Moyu used Soul Blaze, yet failed to kill the Archer in an instant.

The other party's Healers reacted quickly and treated the Archer.

Zhao Ji broke out in a cold sweat, then thought of Lin Moyu's class.

Lin Moyu isn't just a Summoner, but a Necromancer.

In addition to being a Summoner, he is also a Mage.

"Healers, stay alert, don't delay using Heal. The opponent has offensive magic skills."

Zhao Ji commanded loudly, making everyone in the party even more nervous.

Who could have imagined that a dozen-plus people would be besieged by one person.

"Concentrate on attacking a single person."

Lin Moyu looked at the Knight at the very periphery fighting Skeletal Warriors.

This Knight is in a bind at this time, as he has to withstand attacks from a dozen-plus Skeletal Warriors by himself.

The pressure he has to bear at this time is even greater than that of the nightmare rank dungeon boss.

Although Heal landed on him continuously, but he still felt immense pain. He felt like he will croak over any time now.

Following Lin Moyu's command, even more blades fell on him.

Then a flame appeared on his head.

The Knight started Extreme Defense out of instinct.

Light shimmered on him, and the pressure he was subjected to decreased by a lot.

However, Soul Blaze ignored his defense and launched a direct attack to his soul.

Despite having unleashed Extreme Defense, he still released blood-curdling screams.

Fortunately, the Healers reacted quickly and threw Heal at him one after another.

Under the ceaseless attacks of the Skeletal Warriors, the light of Extreme Defense faded rapidly.

Extreme Defense, which should have lasted at least 40 seconds, only lasted 20 seconds.

At the moment when Extreme Defense disappeared, Lin Moyu issued a new command.

"Use your skill!"

At the same time, he used Soul Blaze again.

Soul Blaze caused the knight to scream in agony.

At the same time, a dozen-plus strikes landed on the Knight.

The Healers didn't have time to treat him, and the Knight was killed in an instant.

A gap in the party was opened, and Zhao Ji's countenance changed greatly. "Run!"

Lin Moyu shook his head. It was already too late.

A Skeletal Warrior threw the Knight's corpse into the air.

Corpse Explosion!

There was a blare.

The Knight's corpse detonated.

The explosion had tremendous power.

With the Knight's corpse as the center, within a radius of 20 meters, all enemies were dealt 200% of the Knight's health as damage.

Among the different classes, Knights possess very high health.

The damage dealt by two times his health was tremendous.

Zhao Ji only heard a blare, and then his consciousness snapped.

Everyone was killed in an instant!

As if a bolt of lightning, Corpse Explosion destroyed everything.

There were only a dozen-plus tattered corpses left on the ground.

None of the members of Dynasty Guild survived.

A large number of items were scattered on the ground.

Without even looking, Lin Moyu collected them all.
