

Chapter 356 God Will Not Be Humiliated

One of the five element dungeons, the electricity element dungeon.

Fire, water, wind, electricity, light.

A copy of the five elements.

It is the only three in the dungeon hall.

Only light and electricity cannot be found.

By chance, Lin Moyu entered the abyss world, and finally entered the copy of the light element.

Only a copy of the electric element remains, but its whereabouts are unknown.

Unexpectedly, it took no effort to get it, and the copy of the electric element was right under the nose.

"Unexpectedly, the copy of the electric element is in your hands." Lin Moyu smiled lightly.

Dongfang Yao said, "Decades ago, the seniors in the family came across a copy of the electric element by chance and brought it back."

The copy of the five elements has a unique legend.

Facts have proved that the legend is not groundless.

Dongfang Yao asked, "General Lin, can you be promoted?"

"The requirements for upgrading the dungeon are different, I can only say try it." Lin Moyu still didn't agree.

Dongfang Yao said, "That's natural. We have obtained the dungeon for decades, and we have raided it thousands of times. This is the dungeon information, please take a look."

After receiving the dungeon information "427" handed over by Dongfang Yao, he quickly scanned it, and already knew the specific strategy process of the dungeon.

The royal family has smashed this dungeon, studied every detail, but still can't upgrade the dungeon.

They tried all kinds of methods, but all were useless.

This time Dongfang Yao was also in the dungeon hall, and saw that Lin Moyu easily upgraded the water element dungeon, and later heard that the fire element and wind element dungeons were also upgraded by Lin Moyu.

Only then did I come up with this idea, and I asked Lin Moyu to help.

After reading the materials, Lin Moyu probably had a guess in his mind.

Dongfang Yao continued, "You can ask for any conditions, as long as I can do it, I will definitely agree."

Lin Moyu said, "My request is very simple. If the dungeon is upgraded, I have to brush the dungeon several times. No one else is allowed to enter this dungeon until I have swiped enough."

Indeed, it's not an excessive request, it's just a little weird.

The brush copy obviously does not interfere with each other, why does Lin Moyu do this.

But Dongfang Yao didn't ask any more questions, it was just this request, which she could absolutely agree to.

Just as he was about to answer, a low voice came from behind, "No, my copy of the royal family, when will it be the outsider's turn to decide."

Dongfang Yao's complexion changed slightly, and she saw a handsome young man striding forward.

He looked about ten years older than Dongfang Yao, dressed luxuriously, and had an extraordinary bearing.

Although Lin Moyu can't see his real level, he can probably judge that it should be around level 45.

Ten years older than Dongfang Yao, only level 49. . .

This person is far inferior to Dongfang Yao.

Not only is their qualifications inferior, but their speaking skills are even worse.

Dongfang Yao frowned slightly, and immediately said, "This is my second brother Dongfang Shun!"

Lin Moyu understood the identity of the other party, a member of the royal family, a prince.

Dongfang Shun walked over, and didn't look at Lin Moyu directly, "Where is the cat and dog, talking nonsense here. When will it be the turn of this kind of guy to be the minister of our royal family." 1

"Yaoyao, when did you date such a dubious person?"

Dongfang Yao's face changed drastically, this sentence offended Lin Moyu badly.

Dangerous breath flashed in Lin Moyu's eyes.

Some people call themselves a cat and a dog. . . dubious. . .

God will not be humiliated.

In the spiritual world, the domain god stone is slowly rotating, and traces of murderous air flow out, appearing in the outside world.

murderous look!

Dongfang Yao had a keen sense and instantly realized something was wrong.

There was a flash of fire in front of him, and a ball of flame appeared on Lin Moyu's palm.

A dangerous and terrifying aura rushed over in an instant.

"don't want!"

Dongfang Yao shouted loudly, it was already too late.

A flame fell, and Dongfang Shun let out a terrifying scream.

The whole person curled up on the ground, covered his hands, and screamed.

Lin Moyu didn't use all his strength, he only used a little spirit to control the damage of the soul flame.

Otherwise, if it is not done well, he will be killed in one go.

This is no fun.

In the past, he couldn't control the power of his skills, but after Shen Xiata's trial, now Lin Moyu can control his skills as he likes.

In twenty days, thousands of battles were fought, and the harvest was quite astonishing.

The flame jumped again, and Dongfang let out another scream.

Not big, right pain.

Dongfang Yao wanted to ask for love, but when she met Lin Moyu's gaze, she couldn't help shivering.

Lin Moyu's gaze was still indifferent and calm, but this kind of calm was different from the usual one, and there was no emotion at all.

Lin Moyu told Dongfang Yao with his eyes: shut up and don't talk.

Murderous aura filled the air, the flame in the palm of his hand beat again, and Dongfang still screamed in pain.

Lin Moyu controls the skill, neither kills him nor makes him pass out, it's pure torture.

Dongfang Yao wanted Lin Moyu to stop, but didn't know how to speak.

Her relationship with Lin Moyu is not so good.

Besides, what is Lin Moyu's identity, a majestic god general, an existence on an equal footing with god-level powerhouses.

To be called a cat or a dog by others, neither three nor four.

Lin Moyu didn't kill him all at once, which was considered polite.

Seeing that Lin Moyu didn't intend to kill him, Dongfang Yao thought about it and decided to ignore it.

Whoever makes him talk nonsense, it's good to suffer a little.

The screams echoed in the palace, and finally attracted the attention of others.

A team of palace guards rushed over immediately.

Seeing the person lying on the ground, his face changed drastically.

The leading knight immediately drew his weapon and rushed towards Lin Moyu.

"Stop!" Dongfang Yao shouted angrily.

She took another step slower.

Lin Moyu has pointed forward a little.

Ability: Bone Fangs!

Level 40 bone fangs, increased by 50 times, a total of 2,000 pieces, each of which roared away with terrifying penetrating power.

The spiritual attribute has increased by 4 times compared to level 39. Although the bone fang skill has only been improved by one level, its power has been increased by at least 3 times..

The light in the main hall is bright, white and dazzling.

The face of the rushing knight changed drastically, and at this moment he felt the threat of death.

Not only is he going to die, but those teammates behind him may also die.

Skill: Group Defense!

The knight instinctively propped up his defensive skills.

He didn't understand that he was already at level 50, but facing an opponent who was only at level 40, he would feel this way.

The assistants behind him quickly bless him and increase the temperature of his skills.

The skeletal fangs made the protective cover constantly deformed, almost shattered.

The knight gritted his teeth and persisted, and finally survived.

Before he could breathe a sigh of relief, his eyes lit up again, and another batch of bones and fangs flew towards him.

"Why so big!"

His face changed, and he could only hold on to the protective shield desperately.

Lin Moyu's attack was only one time, within one second, Lin Moyu directly activated three waves of bone fangs.

Three times a second is his current casting limit.

The knight only blocked the first wave of bone fangs, but couldn't stop the second wave.

The defense was shattered, and he erected the shield in front of him, his whole body glowing.

The ultimate defense has been expanded, and the shield has become huge at the same time.

Skill: Shield giant!

The huge shield coupled with the ultimate defense firmly protected the teammates behind him.

At this time, the two mages behind him had aimed at Lin Moyu and started to cast their skills.

Lin Moyu chuckled disdainfully, and two flames burst out from his hands at the same time.

Skill: Soul Flame!

double hair!

With two screams, the skills of the two mages were interrupted before they could be released.

These two blows were obviously heavier than before, and the two mages fell to the ground, already unconscious.

Lin Moyu rushed out to the knight in two steps and pointed at the shield.

Ability: Bone Fangs!

4.6 bang bang bang.

Three shots per second, another three waves of bone fangs.

Only this time, all the skeletal fangs exploded at one point.

The limit defense was broken in an instant, and the knight flew out with a scream, and fell to the ground unconscious.

The team of five who rushed over, the knight supporting the healer and the two mages, stood there blankly with the supporting and healing.

The battle ended too quickly, from the time they rushed to the end, it took only three seconds before and after.

Dongfang Yao was already stunned.

Is Lin Moyu's fighting skills really something that humans can do?

It is not only pleasing to the eye, but also smooth and smooth.

It's really too strong.

When Lin Moyu turned around, the flames danced again.

The member of the royal family who had just slowed down for two seconds screamed again.

Lin Moyu didn't forget him, Lin Moyu held a grudge.

Dongfang Yao's eyelids twitched, thinking that she must not offend Lin Moyu in the future.

The battle here attracted more people's attention, a huge aura swept over, and some people flew over.

Flying in the sky, a top professional over level 70. .
