

The visitor stood in mid-air and saw the situation in the hall.

His complexion suddenly changed, and he yelled angrily, "You have so much courage! Who dared to attack the prince in the palace, who gave you the courage."

Lin Moyu narrowed his eyes slightly, exuding more dangerous breath.

Level 70, not unkillled.

Dongfang Yao ran out quickly and shouted, "Uncle Six, I misunderstood."

If she doesn't stop it, the situation may really get out of hand.

Lin Moyu's army of the undead is not just playing around.

If there is a real ght, most of the palace will be demolished.

And even if Lin Mo stood up and let them kill him, even if his father came, he would not dare to kill him.

Otherwise, the mad god Baishen would de nitely demolish the entire palace.

Seeing Dongfang Yao intervening, Lin Moyu knew that this ght would not last.

Lin Moyu put away his skills and stopped doing anything.

Dongfang Shun, who was lying on the ground, nally breathed a sigh of relief.

He struggled with the lingering pain and shouted loudly, "Uncle Six, kill him quickly, kill him quickly!"

When the voice fell, Dongfang Shun suddenly let out another scream.

This time it hurt more than before, he curled up into a ball, rolling on the ground.

The sixth uncle in the two populations glared at Lin Moyu, and shouted in a low voice, "Bold."

Dongfang Yao said anxiously, "Uncle Six, he deserves it."

Dongfang Yao hurriedly said to Lin Moyu again, "This is my sixth uncle, Dongfangmu."

She was afraid that if the two fought, it would really be out of control.

Dongfangmu was a little dazed, he never thought that Dongfang Yao would say such a thing.

What is the identity of the young 02 in front of him? Dongfang Shun is Dongfang Yao's brother.

Although he is not a real brother, he is still a prince after all.

Members of the royal family should stick together, how could she protect outsiders instead.

Lin Moyu didn't continue to attack, and the soul ame was still beating in his palm, as if he would strike at any moment.

Dongfang Shun felt a little better again, this time he didn't dare to scream anymore.

He looked at Lin Moyu with hatred and fear in his eyes.

This guy is scary, never seen anything like it.

Do it without saying a word, and the skills are so weird.

Someone came over again, one by one, the sky was full of people in a blink of an eye.

They are all members of the royal family, and without exception, they are all top professionals over level 70.

The huge aura rushed straight into the sky, covering the entire palace.

Their arrival gave Dongfang Shun enough con dence, and he yelled again, "You are nished, do you know who I am? I am a prince, if you dare to do something to me, what are you?"

The voice fell, and he fell to the ground screaming again, wailing endlessly.

Dongfang Yao slapped her head, "I really don't have a long memory."

"Bold!"

"court death!"

Several people roared angrily, but Dongfang Yao stood in front of Lin Moyu, so they couldn't do anything.

Dongfang Yao said, "His name is Lin Moyu, he is the disciple of Mad God and White God, and he is a general."

As soon as these words came out, everyone was stunned.

This young man turned out to be a divine general.

Only then did they notice that there was a purple sergeant badge on Lin Moyu's shoulder.

They didn't pay attention before, but now they saw that their faces changed drastically.

Moreover, he is also the disciple of Mad God and White God.

Any identity is taken out, it is amazing enough.

Especially the identity of a god general is enough to be on an equal footing with a god-level powerhouse.

God will shoot. . .

They are not so bold yet, even if they are members of the royal family, they cannot afford the consequences.

They fell down quickly, and Dongfang Yao also hurriedly told what happened just now.

Everyone greeted Lin Moyu with a very good attitude.

Someone glanced at Dongfangmu, "It's courting death to say that the general is a cat or a dog.

"The god general should not be insulted, even if the king is here, he must be polite to the god general."

"What are you? You have no military achievements, no contributions, and you are a prince. Who gave you the courage to insult the general!"

The people here are all the elders of Dongfangmu, and most of them have also been in the army.

Know what place God will be in the army.

If it is said, something happened to Lin Moyu here today.

Not to mention Bai and Yan Kuangsheng.

In less than a day, the army will come back from the Yuan battle eld.

They don't care what royal family you are or not. In the eyes of soldiers, the gods are the gods.

Dongfang Shun trembled under the accusation, not daring to refute.

Who made him have no eyes and a disobedient mouth.

The export hurts others, and the unlucky one is himself.

Dongfang Yao also looked at her elder brother in the clan coldly, this guy did more than fail.

If it weren't for Lin Moyu's restraint, if he was killed all at once, I really don't know how it would end.

Dongfang Yao laughed along, "Lin Moyu, I was really sorry just now."

She called Lin Moyu's name directly, hoping to use this method to build a relationship and make the two look more familiar.

After all, the two had chatted a few times, so they could barely be regarded as mediocre friends.

Lin Moyu said, "What I said just now, do you agree?"

Lin Moyu didn't take Dongfangshun's matter to heart.

In his eyes, Dongshi Shunle is just an insigni cant villain.

Lin Moyu doesn't care about princes or princes.

At the same time, he didn't take advantage of this incident to raise the price.

Now he just wants to enter the instance of Electric Element, complete the sub-level upgrade, and get what he should get.

Dongfang Yao was overjoyed and said repeatedly, "Of course I agree, of course I agree."

Lin Moyu didn't say a word of unnecessary waste, turned around and directly entered the copy.

Seeing Lin Moyu go in, Dongfang Yao breathed a sigh of relief.

Everyone present was very curious about what Dongfang Yao agreed to Lin Moyu.

Dongfang Yao also talked about the deal between herself and Lin Moyu.

"Uncles, Yaoer's decision, in your opinion, is it right or wrong?"

Several people said without hesitation, "If Lin Moyu can really upgrade the dungeon, it doesn't matter if you let him do it a few more times.

"That's right, the copy was originally placed here, and it can't be broken."

"What did that guy Dongfang Shun think? He hurt people indiscriminately. Fortunately, Lin Shenjiang didn't care about him, otherwise there would be no reason to kill him directly."

A few people think so.

Even if Lin Moyu really killed Dongfang Shun, how dare they kill Lin Moyu?

Not to mention killing Lin Moyu, they might not even dare to injure him.

Because this matter was caused by Dongfang's unscrupulous words.

God will not be humiliated, not casual words, but engraved in the hearts of every soldier.

Anyone who has served in the army and been on the battle eld will keep this sentence in mind.

It was a divine general who supported the peaceful life of the human race.

Someone suggested, "I think the proprietor Shun's life is so smooth, he should be allowed to go to the army for training.

"Well, he's also level 45, so it's not bad to go to the army for training."

"Then it's settled, even though our royal family doesn't have much power in the army, it's okay to send someone in.

"But what if he dies on the battle eld?"

"What should I do? If you die, you die. The lives of our royal family members are more precious than others? Others can die, but we can't? Don't forget the ancestral precepts."

"The life is so good now, I think that in the future, we royal children should all go to the 400 army."

These guys started to negotiate, and the scope of the discussion was getting bigger and bigger.

Dongfang Yao was stunned listening to it, this matter seemed to be developing in an uncontrollable direction.

And the culprit of all this is Dongfang Shun.

It is estimated that Dongfang Shun will be hated by most of the royal children.

If it weren't for his indiscriminate words, some royal children who were eating and waiting to die would not have a very happy life.

Now that the good times are over, the army doesn't care if you're a son of the royal family or not.

They treat everyone equally.

Dongfang Yao knew this very well, she herself had been in the army for a while.

The copy of the electric element is called [Lightning Valley], which is a sea of thunder and lightning.

Lin Moyu has seen all kinds of lightning.

The thunderclouds in the sky smashed down the lightning bolts.

There are also thunder and lightning that turn into a sea of thunder and stop on the ground like clouds and mist.

There are also balls of lightning, rolling around on the ground.

After Lin Moyu entered the dungeon, all kinds of such lightning came to the door.

Lin Moyu was attacked by dozens of lightning bolts at once, and the bone armor on his body was very strong to block the lightning.

Through the information given by Dongfang Yao, Lin Moyu knew in his heart that the lightning attacks on him were all electric monsters.

The monster oating in the air is called [Lightning Cloud].

The sea of thunder is composed of a large number of [thunder spirits].

Rolling around on the ground is called [ball lightning].

Among them, [Spherical Lightning] has the greatest attack power, and the bone armor has the most intense reaction.

They are all between 46 and 47 levels.

Lin Moyu didn't attack them, and let them attack him.

He thought about the information Dongfang Yao gave him.

The royal family has tried all kinds of methods, how can I upgrade the copy.
