

National Transfer: Necromancer! I Am A Disaster

C 359

In the sea of thunder clouds and electricity, dense lightning strikes Lin Moyu.

The electric light flickered outside the skeleton armor, and Lin Moyu's whole body was emitting blue electric light.

The lightning attack is not weak, especially after the dungeon has been upgraded to hell difficulty.

Through the reaction of the skeleton armor, Lin Moyu can basically judge the strength of the lightning attack.

Now he has a clear understanding of each profession.

Only a level 50 knight with extreme defense and at least two healers can get the beads from the sea.

Lin Moyu walked to the middle of the sea of thunder, reached out and held the beads.

The moment Lei Hai held the bead, Lei Hai went into a riot.

Countless thunder lights poured in from all directions and got into the beads.

In the blink of an eye, the sea of kung fu thunder disappeared, and the beads emitted azure light.

The bead has thunder light beating inside and looks extremely beautiful from the outside.

[Lightning Gem: Permanently immune to 50% damage from electric elements, and has a chance to obtain an electric skill. ]

Lin Moyu took a deep breath and activated the lightning gem.

The whole body turned into an electric man again, and a large amount of lightning fell on the surrounding ground, blasting out small potholes one after another.

He doesn't expect extravagantly for electricity-type skills, and it's not bad to be able to increase immunity to electricity elements by 50%.

A minute later, the electric light surrounding Lin Moyu's body did not weaken at all, but became stronger and stronger.

Immediately afterwards, all the lightning gathered behind Lin Moyu, forming a pair of huge wings.

[Acquired Skill: Lightning Wings]

[Lightning Wings: It has the ability to fly within 1 minute, and the cooling time is 10 minutes. ]

The thunder light disappeared, and Lin Moyu's face showed bursts of surprise.

I didn't expect to actually master a new skill.

Lightning Wings, sounds pretty good.

Although it can only fly for 1 minute, it can fly anyway.

"I don't know how fast it is!"

With a heartbeat, 203's skills were activated.

Accompanied by a crackling electric sound, lightning wings with a width of more than five meters appeared behind Lin Moyu.

Afterwards, Lin Moyu flew out suddenly without seeing how the wings vibrated.

Looking at the land that has shrunk, there are still traces left by the collapse of the valley.

Kilometers in a blink of an eye, directly like teleportation.

fast, too fast!

Kilometer distance, less than cough.

At this speed, Lin Moyu feels that he can hit and run as he wants.

The duration of 1 minute is enough for him to run a hundred and eighty kilometers.

Another rewarding experience.

With surprises, Lin Moyu galloped in the air on the wings of lightning, enjoying the thrill of flying fast.

In the dungeon, thunderclouds were densely covered with lightning, and Lin Moyu shuttled back and forth among the thunderclouds.

The Lightning Wings on the back gleamed with alternating currents.

At this moment, Lin Moyu descended into the world like a god of thunder, which made people tremble.

After 1 minute, the skill disappears, and Lin Moyu descends from the sky.

The Lightning Wing also disappeared without a trace.

For some unknown reason, the comprehensive boost talent did not have a bonus effect on Lightning Wings.

Still only able to fly for a minute.

Judging from the previous situation, the comprehensive increase talent has a bonus effect on most skills, and only a few skills have no bonus.

For example, the strong soldier skills formed by the original runes, and the blessing of light brought by the light gems, did not bring corresponding increases.

If it is said that this skill cannot be increased because of the additional gems.

But the highly poisonous gems have increased again.

very strange.

The reason, Lin Moyu was puzzled.

In the end, I can only think about it and let nature take its course.

A swamp lay ahead.

Thunder Swamp!

The swamps are like ponds of different sizes, densely distributed in front of you.

Between the swamp and the swamp, there is a winding road with nine twists and turns.

In the swamp, thunder and light crisscrossed, making mud splash.

Whether it is on the road or in the swamp, there are a lot of monsters.

【Razer Lizard (Hell-level elite monster)】

【Level: 47】

【Power: 40000】

【Agility: 20000】

[:40000]

【Physique: 50000】

[Skill: Lightning Attack]

[Characteristics: Electric element damage reduced by 50%, physical damage reduced by 50%, speed enhancement]

They are no longer pure electric element monsters, and they are no longer completely immune to physical damage.

For Lin Moyu, the Skeleton Berserker and Skeleton Marksman can make a difference.

As for these attributes of monsters, for Lin Moyu, they are not too much.

The undead army rushed into the lightning swamp, and the berserkers took all the monsters on the road.

The Archmage and Marksman deal with the monsters in the swamp.

This swamp is about ten kilometers deep, and when he was in the air earlier, he could fly over this swamp.

But Lin Moyu didn't do that, if he flew directly there, he would definitely miss something.

Previous experience told him that the Thunder Gem is not included in this Elemental Dungeon.

There should also be a key, and an item that can awaken the thunder god.

As for the crystal fragments of lightning elements, you only need to kill the last boss to get them, and you don't need to search for them deliberately.

Lin Moyu's heart is like a mirror, especially the key and the awakening object of the thunder god, which can only be obtained once.

He was not 100% sure that he would get these two items the first time.

That's why he made this request, and no one else is allowed to come in until he is happy.

Along the road among the swamps, Lin Moyu looked around while advancing.

No detail was overlooked.

Soon, the undead army reached the center of the swamp.

Here there is a huge Leize, bigger than all the other little marshes.

In the center of Lei Ze, thunderclouds are densely covered and lightning keeps falling on a certain point in the center.

Lin Moyu saw a grass through the lightning.

Taking a closer look, Lin Moyu found that it was not the grass that was struck by lightning.

Rather, the (accb) grass itself is releasing thunder and lightning, forming a thundercloud.

The moment Lin Moyu saw it, Lin Moyu thought of the Vulcan flower in the instance of [Fire Temple].

"found it."

With a heartbeat, the lightning wings that had been cooled down instantly unfolded.

A pair of wings appeared behind with lightning, leading Lin Moyu to rush towards Xiaocao.

In the blink of an eye, Lin Moyu had reached the sky above the grass, and reached out to grab it.

Terrifying thunder light soared into the sky, a giant hand protruded from the thunder light, and slapped heavily on Lin Moyu's body.

Lin Moyu had expected it a long time ago, it is normal for monsters to guard the grass.

The giant palm came with thunder, and Lin Moyu's lightning wings trembled slightly, and his speed suddenly accelerated to avoid it.

Then he quickly changed his position in mid-air, bypassed the giant palm, and grabbed the grass with one hand.

The grass in his hand flashed with terrifying thunder and crackled.

The bone armor is shining brightly, even through the bone armor, Lin Moyu can feel the power of the thunder.

Even if it is a knight, I am afraid that he will be seriously injured on the spot.

But if you think about it, it is impossible for other teams to imagine doing this. They must kill the owner who is guarding the grass first, and then get the grass.

The moment Lin Moyu picked up the grass, Lei Ze exploded.

Lin Moyu held onto the grass and rushed towards the sky quickly.

Countless lightning bolts and soil rushed out of Lei Ze to the sky.

A giant hand stuck out from the soil and grabbed Lin Moyu.

The giant palm is entwined by lightning, and its speed is fast.

The Lightning Wings vibrated rapidly, and Lin Moyu accelerated again.

The giant palm failed to catch Lin Moyu for the second time, and then a giant beast burst out.

The appearance of the monster is similar to that of an orangutan, and it is more than 10 meters tall, which is extremely huge.

Especially around, it is very slender, and it can be further stretched when attacking, longer than the body.

Lin Moyu stopped in mid-air after dodging two attacks.

The lightning light from the grass in his hand was fading rapidly, and in a blink of an eye, the lightning disappeared completely, turning into an ordinary-looking grass.

[Electric Grass: Can be used to awaken the God of Thunder]

"Yes, the key is missing."

Lin Moyu smiled in his heart, put the electric grass in his pocket, and looked at the monster that jumped out of Lei Ze.

Detection is like a breeze.

【Lightning Ape (Hell-level Boss)】

【Level: 48】

【Power: 60000】

【Agility: 40000】

：10000】

[Physique: 60000]

[Skills: Lightning Wings, Thunder Palm]

[Characteristics: Electric element damage reduced by 50%, physical damage reduced by 50%, speed enhancement, vitality enhancement. ]

"He can also use Lightning Wings." Lin Moyu snorted lightly, feeling a little surprised, but then he didn't take it to heart.

The total attribute of Lightning Ape is only 170,000.

Everything is far inferior to the skeleton berserker.

But Lin Moyu knew that if a skeleton berserker were to challenge it, the final loser would be the skeleton berserker.

As a hell-level leader, its vitality is too strong.

Although the offense and defense are not as good as the skeleton berserker, but its strong vitality can make it last longer.

The Lightning Ape glared at Lin Moyu and let out a roar.

Amid the angry roar, a pair of wings appeared behind the Lightning Ape.

In the next second, it shot straight into the sky, appeared next to Lin Moyu in an instant, and slapped it on the head with a giant palm with lightning.

The Lightning Wing trembled slightly, and Lin Moyu quickly avoided it. Although the bone armor was enough to prevent him from being hurt, Lin Moyu didn't want to bear it.

No longer as passive and habitual as before.

Today's Lin Moyu, the battle has become quite active and flexible.

While avoiding, the skeletons have already started to fight back.

The archmage's elements exploded, and the marksman's sharp arrows fell on the Lightning Ape one after another.

Lin Moyu points his finger, skill: Curse of Aging!

At the same time, the fire light in the palm is beating, skill: soul flame!

The Lightning Ape screamed and fell from the air.

The soul flame launched at full strength made it enjoy unbearable pain.

The skeleton berserker was already staring at the ground, and jumped up before it landed.

The huge ax in his hand was glowing red, and he chopped it down fiercely. .
