

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 141 -150

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 141-Ignorance “Natalie, I never expected Stephen to be your uncle. Well, it’s quite pathetic that you ultimately need your uncle to protect you!” “Yes, I have an uncle. What about you?” Natalie deliberately taunted over the phone.

How that woman plotted against her before, Natalie was now showing how she could provoke her in the same way.

“I have Ced,” Isabella said with a tone filled with resentment.

Cedric!

Now, he was the only one left.

She had nothing left.

Isabella had never thought about what it would be like to have nothing, and now she understood. Not only did she lose everything, but even seeing the sunlight was now impossible.

This outcome was beyond her previous imagination, and it was absolutely unacceptable.

On the other end of the line, Natalie closed her beautiful eyes for a moment. When she opened them again, a cold glint flashed brightly!

She said, “You have him, so what?” Isabella made it sound like Cedric was something Natalie missed.

Was Isabella so happy that she had retaliated against Natalie through Cedric?

Perhaps in her previous life, that was painful...!

Back then, Natalie had clung to Cedric. She felt a heart-wrenching pain every time she saw them together at various events.

But now, things were different.

Without waiting for Isabella to speak, Natalie continued, “You and your mom are both good at picking up the most disgusting things!” “Natalie, you should go to hell!” As she heard Isabella’s furious voice on the other end of the phone, Natalie’s smile became even more satisfied.

She continued, "As expected, the apple doesn't fall far from the tree!" "Shut up!" "Did I say something wrong? Your mom stole my dad and became a hated mistress. You took away my husband and became a mistress too!" "I said, shut up!" "So being a mistress is like an inherited disease, isn't it?" Natalie mimicked the sarcastic tone Rebecca used to scold her every time.

All these words that were unlikely to come from her mouth were now directed at Isabella.

After all, one had to speak according to the audience.

Isabella's mother had hurt her mother, and now, Isabella was attacking her.

Naturally, Natalie had no kind words for her.

"Natalie, you'll die a miserable death! You hear?!" On the other end of the line, Isabella was driven mad by Natalie's harsh words.

Her mother was a taboo in her heart!

No one could speak ill of her mother, especially not that woman's daughter.

Natalie's insults pushed Isabella into complete madness.

Natalie listened to the curses on the other end of the line as she looked at the flowing traffic below. Her expression was indifferent.

"Your mom jumped off a building, right? Truly, she didn't have a good ending!" "You... you..." Even though a distance separated them, Natalie could feel Isabella's rising anger on the other end of the phone. Natalie tightly pursed her lips, and her gaze turned cold. Just as Natalie was about to say something more, Zane's voice sounded behind her.

"It's been ten minutes!" Natalie turned around and nodded.

Quickly addressing Isabella, she said, "Was it pleasant to hear those humiliating things? If you come at me again, there'll be plenty more where that came from. It won't just be me; the whole world will humiliate you!" She then hung up the phone.

People who had initially left for the meeting room were now gradually returning. Natalie walked back to her seat and sat down, preparing for the next round of meetings.

The new products for this year had complex popular elements, so Natalie was now cautious and focused on listening to the analysis from her team.

Putting aside the intense confrontation with Isabella, Natalie's focus returned to the workplace.

As for the words she had thrown at Isabella...well, Natalie believed Isabella could have chosen to go another path in life. Why linger on past grudges?

Take Natalie, for example.

In the midst of Cedric's indecision, she confidently moved towards her career, starting a new chapter in her life!

Meanwhile, Isabella had completely lost control at the hospital.

"Natalie, you bitch!" Thinking about Natalie's continuous insults and disrespect towards her mother, Isabella's emotions:

surged.

Bang!

Crash!

The sound of various items breaking echoed in the hospital room. The nurse responsible for her rushed over, her face turning pale at the sight.

"Ms. Morgan, what are you doing?" "Get out!" The nurse was shocked.

Get out! Get out...F Isabella had completely lost control.

The nurse, already pale, was further terrified by Isabella's loss of control. She ran out of the room and immediately called Cedric.

Previously, Isabella appeared gentle in front of everyone. She only revealed her true self before Natalie.

This was her true nature!

Natalie had discovered who she was in the end, and her continued insults directed at both Isabella and her mother had exposed everything.

"Ahhhhh!!!" Screams echoed through the hospital room.

Isabella felt an impulse to tear apart the darkness.

She had thought that the pitch-black darkness was only temporary and intended to make Natalie pay a painful price.

However, who would have thought it would be for the rest of her life?

But Natalie...!

As Natalie's current identity flashed through her mind, Isabella could imagine Natalie now standing at the pinnacle like a queen, even without seeing it with her own eyes!

Cedric arrived and saw Isabella looking disheveled, resembling a madwoman.

"What happened?" "Do I have no hope left?" Isabella turned toward Cedric, struggling to see the man before her.

But no matter how hard she tried, there was no trace of light.

Simple things that used to be easy now required all her strength yet remained impossible—the helplessness, the pain!

When he saw her defeated appearance, Cedric frowned. He had never experienced this kind of darkness and didn't know what it felt like.

He once thought he could make her better.

But now... "Ced..." Isabella spoke again, her tone choked. Her attitude softened a bit, making it heart-wrenching.

Cedric tried to respond, but he couldn't find any words at this moment.

Isabella continued, "You know... I was planning to forgive her!" "But you know what? I'm blind for the rest of my life. I've become completely useless, and she... She...!" "What about her?" Cedric's eyes dimmed at the mention of Natalie.

Even though Isabella hadn't finished her sentence, Cedric's heart was already in turmoil.

Without directly answering, Isabella handed her phone to Cedric. "There's a recording inside." Cedric was silent.

Recording?

What kind of recording?

Upon opening it, the words played, "As expected, the apple doesn't fall far from the tree!" *Shut up!" "Did I say something wrong? Your mom stole my dad and became a hated mistress. You took away my husband and became a mistress too!" "I said, shut up!" "So being a mistress is like an inherited disease, isn't it?" The more Cedric heard, the darker his face became.

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 142-Beaten Up “With this, do you think I should still forgive her?” Every word from Isabella sounded heartbroken.

Cedric closed his eyes, and they were even colder when he opened them again.

“I want to sue her!” Isabella said determinedly.

Isabella was alone, and her mother had already been humiliated; she didn’t need to deliberately please anyone anymore!

Seizing this opportunity, she wanted to make her stance clear about Natalie and no longer hide her feelings in front of Cedric.

When Isabella declared her intention to sue Natalie, Cedric narrowed his eyes. He glanced at the disheveled and pitiful Isabella, a hint of compassion flickering in his eyes.

He took a deep breath.

“I will handle this matter.” Cedric finally said.

“I no longer need her apology. I’m sorry, Cedric, this time.... I’m afraid I can’t consider your feelings on this anymore!” Isabella’s tone was gentle but firm. She made it clear that she had been considering Cedric’s position before, but Natalie insulting her mother was the last line.

This time, she wouldn’t compromise.

Undoubtedly, she was forcing Cedric with this approach.

She wouldn’t sue Natalie herself. She didn’t know what Natalie held in her hands that she acted so arrogantly. With that thought in mind, Isabella dared not confront her directly.

But on Cedric’s side... As long as he put his mind to it, he could make Natalie’s life miserable Cedric closed his eyes. “What do you want?

already suffered so much because of her. Does my mother also need to bear her slander as well?” Isabella emphasized the word “mother.

Cedric nodded. “Alright. I understand” After Cedric left, Isabella was alone in the ward.

She smirked and muttered, “Natalie, this is your own doing!” Since Natalie wanted to make Isabella suffer in purgatory, Natalie couldn’t have a good life either!

When Natalie emerged from the meeting, she felt a bit anxious.

“Don’t worry, Ms. Walker. All the design drafts will be ready by tomorrow!” “Yeah, I know.” Natalie nodded.

How could she not be anxious?

The company had invested heavily in promoting the new products, and the schedule was already set.

If the customization couldn’t be finalized, everything....

Earlier, the designs she had chosen with her own eyes were deemed unacceptable by Zane.

She had only been in this industry for a relatively short time and had been relying on her intuition. That was the reason Stephen had sent Zane.

So, she would listen to some of Zane’s advice. Since he had said those two drafts weren’t good without hesitation, then they weren’t!

Just then, her phone buzzed. Natalie checked to see that it was Irwin calling.

She answered, “Hello.” “I’m going to the eastern suburbs tomorrow. Will you come along?” The eastern suburbs?

The work at her studio!

Now, Natalie was a bit overwhelmed. She finally understood that human energy is limited. After she got involved with Sylvan Gems’ matters, she rarely paid attention to the studio.

“Wait a moment. She said to Irwin as she picked up her schedule to check. “Can we do it tomorrow morning?”

“Sure.” “Okay.” “Also...” Just as Natalie was about to hang up, the man on the other end interrupted her.

“What is it?” “I’ll pick you up in a while.” “Okay.” Natalie agreed.

Thinking about her date with Irwin tonight, she felt a bit strange. She had never thought about dating another man while she was with Cedric.

But now, this...!

The afternoon was busy.

After two consecutive meetings, Natalie looked at the time. It was almost time to go, so she left the meeting room.

An employee stopped her as she was about to leave.

“Ms. Walker, Mr. Johnson is waiting for you in the guest room.” Cedric?

Surprise flashed across her face. Natalie understood that Cedric would come looking for her, but she didn't expect him to be so quick. However, she didn't care.

Looking at the time on her wristwatch, she noted that Irwin wouldn't arrive for a while.

“Let's go!” With that, she strode towards the guest room. The glass door opened, and a pungent smell of smoke hit her:

Natalie frowned.

The man heard the movement and looked at her. When he saw her, his eyebrows were furrowed.

You're quite busy now.

He had waited here for two hours after arriving, even attempting to find her in the meeting room midway. But each time, he was intercepted by the assistant.

The work environment here was rigorous, and everyone was serious, indicating strict management.

“If you know I'm busy, just get to the point!” Natalie said as she glanced at her wristwatch.

Looking at how arrogant she was behaving, Cedric's originally anxious heart instantly transformed into a raging fire.

“Natalie!” “It seems whatever your reason for being here isn't that important, hmm?” Natalie dismissed his gritted teeth with disdain and turned towards her office.

In the past, whenever she came to see him in the company and he was busy, he would solemnly say to her, I'm busy. Whatever it is, spit it out!

Now, when it was his turn, he couldn't even do it!

So what did the demanding requirements he had for her before amounted to now?

*Stop!

Just as she took a couple of steps, the man behind her called her.

Natalie stood still, not turning around. The demeanor from her back created a sense of distance, making it impossible to get close, even though Cedric was now right behind her.

“Do you need something else?” Natalie frowned, feeling the man’s icy glare.

Actually, there was no need to ask.

She probably knew why Cedric had come.

After all, Isabella was constantly thinking about how to scheme against her.

So, Natalie didn’t care much today.

Although she lost all her relatives at a young age. Natalie wasn’t an uncultured person. She wouldn’t randomly pour salt into people’s wounds.

“Natalie, do you know you’re acting like some demon now? Cedric spoke in a doubtful tone.

A sharp light flashed in Natalie’s eyes.

“You knew it long ago, didn’t you?”

She was referring to the matter with Isabella’s mother.

...Know what?” “The relationship between Isabella and me!” “What relationship do you have?” Natalie was speechless.

Her mind was blank..

What? Was Cedric here to question her without knowing the relationship between her and Isabella?!

Cedric recalled the recording he had heard in the hospital room, trying to remember its contents.

At that time, all he had heard were Natalie’s insults towards Isabella’s mother, and he hadn’t paid much attention to their relationship.

Now, thinking back, a chill ran down his spine.

“Y–your relationship with her...?” Cedric’s lips trembled, and he couldn’t finish his sentence.

Natalie and Isabella...

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 143-Natalie and Isabella... Chapter 143 Chapter 143 Still in the Mood for a Date Natalie turned around, and the coldness in her eyes now had a hint of mocking as she smiled.

The smile carried no bitterness In fact, it was simply flat and carried no emotions.

"Tell me then, why did you come to find me? To apologize to her? Or for me to clarify things for her?" "I'm curious. How do you plan for me to clarify things? Tell everyone that my mom stole her mother's husband? Or that I stole her man and admit to being the homewrecker?" Cedric narrowed his eyes, and his breathing became somewhat erratic.

Undeniably, at this point in the relationship between her and Isabella, it was impossible for outsiders to judge who was right or wrong.

No, if it came to defending their original family, people would undoubtedly stand on Natalie's side.

Observing Cedric's tight-lipped silence, Natalie's smile widened.

"Or should I tell everyone I have a sister in this world? My dad's illegitimate daughter?" "That this illegitimate daughter was initially seeking revenge on my mom for her mother's death. Then, she found out my mom had already died years ago. Frustrated, she shifted her focus and wanted revenge on me instead?" "She's not seeking revenge on you!" After Natalie spoke, Cedric coldly refuted.

His statement caused a mocking smile to spread on Natalie's lips.

"Hah!" Not seeking revenge on her?

Then, what about what happened in her past life?

Was it Cedric seeking revenge on her, then?

The initial mockery was now intertwined with a chilling atmosphere.

Cedric was shocked by Natalie's words, completely unaware of the complicated relationship between Natalie and Isabella.

But Isabella... "You knew all along, didn't you?" This time, Cedric was the one to ask.

He was inquiring about when Natalie found out about her relationship with Isabella.

Was it from the time Isabella was kidnapped?

“What do you mean?” Natalie could hear the suspicion and coldness in the man’s tone. So her own became even more unpleasant “Do you hate her because her mother stole your father from you back then?” Natalie’s anger was instantly ignited.

He had completely twisted her relationship with Isabella in his thoughts!

“Well, she is indeed more pitiful than me.” Natalie’s thoughts cleared in an instant, and she nodded.

knowingly.

Wasn’t this situation from the beginning like this? Because Isabella had a much worse fate than her, everyone sided with her.

“Natalie, what I want to talk about now is not all these.” Cedric didn’t want to dwell on this point. Natalie’s current attitude made him particularly infuriated.

Natalie looked at him, silently waiting for him to continue.

Cedric continued, “I don’t care about the grievances between you and her, but now, please stop what you’re doing!” Natalie remained silent.

“And post a message apologizing and clear her mother’s name!” “What did I even say about her mother?” She’s your sister!” Slap!

Just as Cedric finished speaking, Natalie’s slap smacked across his face.

Her sister?

Hah!

“So, you want me to write a message to acknowledge that she’s part of my family? You even want me to acknowledge her on behalf of my father? Is that it?” “Isn’t this the reason you’re vengeful against her?!” “Yes, I want to make her suffer!” Everything was suddenly quiet and tense.

Natalie never knew that Cedric’s intelligence was at this level. She glanced at the time and noted that there was little time left to bother with this man.

“I’m busy, so I’m leaving.” “Natalie, she’s your only family in this world.” Cedric said that after Natalie turned around.

At that moment, she stiffened and closed her eyes.

“You’re wrong; I have an uncle, an aunt, a cousin, but just... not her!

Natalie emphasized heavily on the last part of her sentence. The thought of any relationship with Isabella made her feel disgusted.

Watching Natalie leave, Cedric stood in place, unable to come to his senses for a long time.

Even when he heard the recording at the hospital, he never thought there was a direct connection. between Isabella and her.

It was an unexpected connection between them!

Natalie returned to her office, tidied up, and prepared to leave. However, when she opened the office door, Cedric was standing outside, Do you need to take another couple of slaps to remember?" Natalie didn't want to waste any words on Cedric, who she considered intellectually challenged.

In fact, her uncle's concerns were justified now!

Letting go of her feelings for this man was also the right decision! After all, dealing with his irrational behavior towards other women had become too burdensome for her as his wife.

She used to manage well before those gold diggers came into the picture.

But since Isabella appeared, what had she gained?

Especially in her previous life... "Move!" Natalie wanted to leave, but Cedric stood in front of her. She had reached her limit.

The man looked deep into her eyes.

Natalie ran her fingers through her neatly arranged hair. 'Oh my god. Okay, bigshot. Boss. Whatever. Tell me, what exactly do you want? It's impossible to ask me to post that message you asked me to!" She could consider anything else, but she would not compromise on this.

If she acknowledged Isabella's identity and Isabella's mother's position, where did that leave her own mother?

Was Isabella's mother the only one who mattered? What about Natalie's mother?

"Since you know you're her only family in this world, do you know the depth of despair she's currently experiencing?"

Natalie was silent.

“Do you know how much hardship she has endured since childhood?” As Cedric spoke, the air quieted.

Cedric probably didn't realize what a joke he was right now before Natalie.

Do I need to care about how much hardship she has endured?” Was this a joke?

Before Cedric could respond, Natalie grabbed his tie and pulled him closer. Her breath was hot and filled with digger “Cedric, it seems like you're getting increasingly confused!” “You have no grievances with her, so I hope-” “Tell me, what if your father had another child outside of his marriage, hmm? What if you had a half- sibling somewhere out there? Would you treat them well?” Natalie interrupted him directly.

“Natalie!” “Well? Would you?” Would he?

“Forget about whether you think you can handle it. Even your mother wouldn't be able to accept it! It's impossible! So, what right do you have to demand that I care about her?” “When did you start talking without using your brain?” Cedric remained silent.

Without using his brain?

Being told off by Natalie like this, he finally realized how inappropriate his words were. But when he thought about Isabella's current situation in the hospital and her future... She had nothing left in this world, and Natalie... was her only living relative she had.

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 144-Still Intimate “Besides, Isabella has never been kind to me since she arrived at Verde City!” Isabella had destroyed Natalie's family and taken away her happiness!

While doing all this, Isabelle never considered the fact that Natalie was her only relative, right?

Now, Isabelle had a miserable fate with no future. The whole world probably thought Natalie should be responsible for her, right?

“No, she hasn't done anything to you!” Cedric looked at the tense Natalie and continued, “Whether she did or didn't, what's the point of saying these things now?” But Natalie also knew that even if she asked, Isabella would provide another version of what had happened to their mothers!

At this point, it was impossible for Natalie to post a clarifying message for her!

In the end, Natalie gave up.

After exiting Sylvan Gems, Cedric saw Natalie get into Irwin's car.

At that moment... he clenched his fists.

Now, she was...!

The current Natalie gave Cedric the feeling of a bird flying out of a cage. Before this, no one around him noticed her ability to spread her wings, but now she was free.

And she could fly wherever she wanted in this vast world.

Half an hour later, Cedric was once again at the hospital. Isabella was now disheartened. She acted the same regardless of whether people were around her or not.

Feeling Cedric's presence, she smiled bitterly and said, "Look, it seems I'm getting used to the darkness now!

There was pain in her voice, and such words were heartwrenching to hear.

Cedric stood at the door. He didn't speak and simply quietly watched Isabella. Now that Natalie had pointed it out, he realized that he always felt a sense of familiarity when he looked at Isabella. It turned out her nose was similar to Natalie's.

But because he never connected the two of them in his mind... "You're back so soon? She still didn't agree, right?" When she said this, Isabella's tone was cold.

It was evident that Isabella was quite firm on the matter this time!

The determined look on Isabella's face only made Cedric's eyes turn slightly colder.

"Why didn't you tell me about your relationship with her before?" Cedric had sorted out his thoughts during the half-hour journey it took for him to come here.

When Isabella came to Verde City, she didn't tell him about her relationship with Natalie.

How did she coincidentally end up by his side?

It was because of Ivan!

But was it a coincidence that Natalie was his wife?

Despite Isabella showing no flaws on her end, the events that unfolded between him and Natalie were undeniable.

“It’s not like it was a glorious matter. Bringing it up would make my late mother bear the terrible public opinion.” “What’s the story?” He was asking about the relationship between them!

There was a hint of doubt in Cedric’s voice. Even though Isabella couldn’t see anything, she looked in his direction. Because of this, all of Cedric’s inquiries became less aggressive.

Isabella sighed. Her tone was filled with pain as she recounted the grievances between them.

Just as Natalie had suspected... In Isabella’s version, Dominic’s affair turned into him having a beloved woman before marriage.

That woman was Isabella’s mother, Dominic couldn’t go against his family’s wishes and had succumbed. to an arranged marriage.

Even though he got married, he still had contact with the woman he loved, leading to the birth of Isabella +15 ONUS After Selena found out, she caused a scene with Isabella’s mother. The confrontation led to Isabella’s mother being unable to bear the shame and committing suicide.

The rest of the story matched!

The only discrepancy was Dominic’s affair and... Isabella’s plotting against Natalie.

Isabella spoke of this past without blushing or stuttering. It was evident that she had gone through countless rehearsals before.

When Cedric asked, she spoke naturally.

“Now it seems she knew all along! Otherwise, I wouldn’t have become...” Isabella acted as though she had just learned everything!

Even though she didn’t finish the sentence, Cedric understood she was talking about the kidnapping.

Thinking back on the hysteria, Cedric could now sense how much Natalie hated Isabella. novelbin “Ced, even though she’s my sister... Even if she’s my only relative in this world, I can’t forgive her.” “I know she hates my mother’s existence and even my existence... I’m sure she thinks our presence shattered her original family!” “But who robbed my mother of her family?” So, if there was any hatred, it should be on Isabella’s end!

Cedric’s mind was completely in chaos at this moment.

After going around in circles, the conclusion was ultimately....

That they now hate each other.

But comparing them, Natalie seemed to have had better luck from childhood to adulthood than Isabella.

Back then, when her mother found out about my mother's existence, she transferred all of my father's property to her name. As a result, even if she didn't have any relatives around, she grew up without worries, but what about me?

How did she grow up?

Cedric had once investigated.

"What a good mother she had! She took away someone else's family, and even after she died, she still protected her child and let her grow up safely." "But all her goodness was built on the pain of others, you know?" "I didn't hate her before. Even if she had any grudges against me, it didn't matter. You remember what I said, right? But this time is different; she even... my mother...!" Isabella made it seem as though her heart was bleeding!

Thinking carefully, Isabella had never actively demanded anything from Natalie.

Even the apology Natalie was supposed to offer Isabella was a reasonable request.

She...!

Cedric's heart was in chaos at this moment!

The revelations about the relationship between Isabella and Natalie today were even more shocking than knowing Natalie had an uncle.

He closed his eyes, concealing the confusion in them.

In an instant, Cedric and Isabella found themselves on the same side.

Considering her beloved husband was with another woman, everyone expected Natalie to be locked in her room and crying her heart out.

But she wasn't!

Not only did she throw herself into her career, but she also actively responded to her uncle's arrangements and was currently sitting together with Irwin.

Try it!" A bowl of noodles with a side of natto arrived, and Natalie pushed it toward Irwin.

Today, they were eating what Natalie suggested.

Irwin planned to take her to a classy restaurant. However, she said eating something too The man exuded an air of elegance. He was dressed in a suit and sitting in this elegantly decorated small shop, which didn't quite match his image.

The moment they sat down, their visibility skyrocketed!

Some people recognized Natalie. After all, she had been a hot topic recently. But unlike before, no one was pointing fingers at her anymore.

Instead, Natalie's resilient and sunny disposition had a surprising impact on those around her..

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 145-Transformation The smell of natto made Irwin wrinkle his nose in distaste.

Seeing his reluctant look, Natalie cut a small piece and handed it to him with a spoon.

"I also thought it smelled bad when I first ate this. But try it; you won't regret it." The first time she brought Cedric to eat it, he also refused to open his mouth.

However, she failed to bring down the aloof deity in the human world. Instead, she was the one who was brought into his world instead.

"Is this... really edible?" Irwin, who was originally a bit of a neat freak, was having a hard time accepting the smell, let alone thinking of trying the taste!

"Try it, and you'll know!" Natalie said.

Irwin was silent as he looked at Natalie skeptically. Finally, he opened his mouth and took a bite. His actions were swift and decisive, as if it was a matter of life and death.

"How is it?" Natalie looked at Irwin, wanting to see if he would react differently from Cedric After all, when Cedric tasted it, he immediately spat it out.

He was basically unwilling even to give it a chance!

Irwin also wanted to throw up at first.

Yes, the taste was so bad that it made people want to throw up... But when he saw Natalie's eyes sparkle, he forced himself to taste it.

And then, his initial worries disappeared at this moment.

"Well, it's not bad!" Irwin said.

Natalie was silent when she heard Irwin's words, and a touch of bitterness flashed in her eyes, That's right. It wasn't bad.

Would their worlds be completely different now if Cedric had been willing to taste it slightly that time?

After that incident Cedric never wanted to eat the delicacies she recommended.

"What are you doing?" Natalie asked in annoyance when she felt Irwin pinch her face.

"Don't think about anything else when you're with me, okay?" Natalie rubbed her slightly painful cheek.

"You're really taking this seriously, huh?" She was talking about their date.

To Natalie, she was just here to appease her uncle. She knew her situation.

Which wealthy family would want her as their daughter-in-law?

Even if the Frazier family's situation wasn't as simple as she imagined, being part of a wealthy family in itself elevated her status.

There were just some things in life that she shouldn't yearn for, especially if it were a connection with Irwin.

"Why shouldn't I take it seriously?" Irwin asked while eating.

Now that he had gotten used to the taste, he thought it was quite good!

Of course, he would only be able to stomach this occasionally. If he had to eat this every day, he probably... wouldn't!

The flavor was just too strong.

"You mentioned before that it might not be the best choice for me to divorce Cedric!"

"But you still got divorced!" Natalie was speechless.

"So, you should also live a new chapter of your life!" The man's tone was warm and steady. His mature features gave people an inexplicable sense of reassurance.

Natalie lowered her head and ate her food.

A new chapter of her life?

She hadn't really thought about it!

It seemed like the man sensed her thoughts and said, "It was just a divorce, nothing more, You still have "Social biases shouldn't affect you, right?"

Social biases?

Natalie had never thought about these things!

What had happened between her and Cedric was enough to keep her away from entertaining thoughts about her future.

Besides, she was also special.

She still didn't even know if she was in a dream or reality!

To her, this was an unbalanced world. She didn't know if she would suddenly wake up and find herself back in the fire.

How could someone like her have a future?

Did she have the right to talk about the future?

"Natalie!" "Huh?" "You're a woman. You've just lost a husband, not your life!" "But for me, I didn't just lose a husband!" What she lost was herself.

Irwin frowned and put down his utensils. Staring at Natalie intently, the usually sharp and perceptive man seemed to have misunderstood something at this moment.

He asked, "So, you can't let him go?" Couldn't let him go?

Natalie laughed!

There was an inexplicable bitterness in it.

It's not a matter of letting go or not.

"What is it, then?" The man asked with an inquiring look.

It was as if he could make everything straightforward once he heard it.

Natalie originally didn't want to talk about it. But looking at the man's face, she suddenly wanted to speak.

She recounted everything the outside world had been speculating, and what had happened behind the scenes during this time.

The more Irwin heard, the sharper the gaze in his eyes became.

In the end, the man's expression remained serious, but his eyes gained a touch of coldness.

"So, he always believed in that woman?" "Yeah." Natalie felt complicated when Cedric's belief in Isabella was mentioned. Thinking about what Cedric said to her at Sylvan Gems today, she felt like she had wasted many years of her life.

He had made it sound so natural, as if she should accept whatever he said or did.

"In his heart, it's like I won't be hurt at all. Whatever he says goes, and I have to do whatever he wants." "In that case, don't continue to hurt yourself!" What Irwin meant was for Natalie to stop thinking about Cedric, and never consider returning to his side.

It was over between them.

Natalie smiled bitterly. "You're right. I shouldn't have continued to hurt myself." She shouldn't have endured all those years!

When the people in the Johnson family didn't accept her, she shouldn't have compromised and stayed just to endure their treatment.

"How do the people in the Johnson family treat you now?" Irwin asked.

The people in the Johnson family?

All of them should know her identity by now, right? Natalie shook her head. "They're fine at the moment. But who knows?" That was the truth!

Natalie naturally knew what kind of person Rebecca was!

She might look like a seemingly brainless noblewoman, but she was actually quite proud.

Regardless, there was one thing that wouldn't change!

They would have to meet each other head-on, sooner or later.

"Let's go, it's almost time!" Irwin glanced at the time on his wristwatch, not intending to dwell on Natalie's topic. "You're not happy talking about this." Irwin spoke the truth.

Natalie was grateful for his consideration.

As they got up, Irwin extended his hand to Natalie in a gentlemanly manner. Looking at the broad and powerful palm, Natalie hesitated for a moment.

Irwin nudged her softly. “Hmm?” In the end, Natalie placed her small hand in the man’s palm.

In that moment of warmth, her heart, which had been drifting in the sea, seemed to have gained a bit of warmth.

But soon after, she snapped back to reality.

On the other hand, Cedric had left the hospital in a daze. Sitting in the car, he smoked one cigarette after another.

Suddenly, a WhatsApp message popped up, [Bro, did you really divorce your wife?] It was a message from Christopher Turner!

Due to their busy schedules, they hadn’t contacted each other for a long time.

tact h Unexpectedly... They would get back in contact because of public opinion.

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 146-A Series of Sweet Moments “What do you mean?” The message from Christopher irritated Cedric. It wasn’t just him. Anyone who received a message like that from a friend they hadn’t heard in a while would react the same!

Soon, Christopher sent him two videos!

In one of the short cl*ps, Natalie was feeding Irwin. In another, they left the noodle shop hand in hand!

Taking a closer look at the shop, Cedric felt his world collapse instantly!

“Natalie!” It felt like his teeth would turn to dust with how hard he was grinding them.

She... She...!

They had a heated argument just an hour ago.

And ΠOY, an hour later, she was having dinner with Irwin at the place where they had their first date?!

Even though the storefront had been renovated over the years, the big tree in front of the shop was familiar to Cedric.

At this moment, his world completely collapsed and descended into chaos.

Ring, ring!

It was a video call from Christopher.

Cedric closed his eyes tightly. When he opened them, the world was clear again.

He picked up the call to see Christopher's confused expression.

"Did you really divorce her?" "Yeah." You've messed up big time this time. You just got divorced, and now Irwin is taking her away. Isn't that ok in collage, Irwin was a year ahead of them.

In a school where there could only be one king, the silent competition between them was fierce. Although Over time, the two couldn't stand each other. However, they never communicated, so it never escalated. But now this situation... Wasn't it revolting? novelbin How was that possible?

"Where are they now?" "I don't know. I was in the car when I saw them having dinner together, then holding hands as they left" "They looked very intimate. Maybe there'll be a wedding announcement soon! Christopher became increasingly dubious as he continued to speak. Cedric's face visibly darkened "Say, you've been together with Natalie for ten years, right? Why did you divorce now? Is it really because of another woman? Seriously bro Who would dare to date your ex-wife?!" Bang!

Cedric hung up the phone. Ten years?

Their relationship lasted more than ten years. With ten years of emotions torn apart so easily, it seemed like no one in this world would dare to believe in love again!

The video call had already been disconnected by him smashing the phone. At that moment, it was unclear what he was dissatisfied about, but he picked up the phone again!

Opening the video, it showed Natalie smiling and feeding Irwin some black pudding. Irwin's reaction was similar to his years ago.

But in the end, Irwin ate it.

How had he reacted back then?

Even though Natalie forced him to open his mouth, he still couldn't handle the taste and eventually spat it. Ching win nod, those lips seemed to be saying 'not bad.' Was it the food that was good, or was it the person?

As Cedric watched the two video clips, his anger grew. He was already calling Natalie repeatedly, but she didn't answer any of his calls.

"Natalie!" Darkness spread in his eyes.

Countless possible possibilities filled Cedric's mind. Because they came out of the small restaurant holding hands, Cedric wondered... Were they now at a hotel? Or at Irwin's house? Or was she...!

Finally, his call went to voicemail. As he couldn't get through, he called his other assistant, Lucas Smith. Yuvan was mainly handling Isabella's affairs, so Cedric had started to hand off many things to Lucas to handle!.

Lucas quickly picked up. "Yes, Mr. Johnson?" "Find out Natalie's current location for me." "Madam...? Understood!" Lucas clearly sounded surprised, but he quickly concealed it.

Lucas worked quickly!

In just a few minutes, he returned Cedric's call.

"Mr. Johnson, Ms. Walker first had dinner with Mr. Frazier, then went to a concert!" "A concert?" "Yes, it's a rare event with artists coming from abroad!" Irwin loved concerts.

Cedric frowned!

So, she was already getting into character so quickly? Had she started to cater to Irwin's tastes?

The more Cedric thought, the angrier he became.

If possible, he wished he could imprison Natalie! He wanted her to return to Scarlet Villa and live just like before, when she stayed at home and didn't meet anyone.

her life should have been simple, But now, what has it turned into?

The more he thought, the angrier he got.

Just when Cedric was boiling with anger, his phone rang again.

Looking at the number, he noted it was Yuvan.

Subconsciously thinking it was about Isabella, Cedric was somewhat reluctant to pick up.

But he still answered the call. "Hello." "Mr. Johnson, the hospital said Ms. Morgan can be discharged. Where would you like to take her?" Yuvan asked cautiously.

Isabella no longer had the chance to recover her vision, so staying in the hospital was pointless.

The whole place smelled of disinfectant, and people staying there for a long time would feel depressed.

As for where to arrange Isabella... Cedric closed his eyes and thought for a moment before saying. "My mother has prepared a property. Call her and inquire about it." "Yes, sir." Originally, Cedric wanted to mention Scarlet Villa. However, he swallowed back the words when they were at the tip of his tongue.

Natalie wouldn't like it!

Although Natalie no longer lived there, he and Natalie occupied the place from the beginning.

Even though things had come to this point between them, he subconsciously didn't want another woman to go there..

Even if it was Isabella, who had an extraordinary significance in his life.

When Rebecca received the call about Isabella, she also started to have a headache about it!

Previously, the Johnson family were adamant about caring for Isabella because she was Ivan's sister. But for some reason, what happened with Ivan had started to subtly circulate in high society today.

though there was nothing explicit, everyone seemed to know what had happened between Isabella and Now that Isabella was blind, the Johnson family would have a scandal on their hands if this matter wasn't handled properly!

Recently, the Johnson family's image had already suffered considerable damage.

Initially, purchasing a property and settling Isabella there would already be considered enough.

However, now that this matter had spread... It was another story.

A blind person would require meticulous care. The feeling of being backed into a corner with little choice left made Rebecca irritated.

She closed her eyes and said unpleasantly, "Bring her to the manor!" After considering it, she felt that placing Isabella in the Johnson Manor could probably stop those people from saying anything nasty.

"Yes, ma'am." After the call ended, Rebecca's expression was gloomy.

When Yuvan made the call, Christina was by Rebecca's side. She basically heard the entire conversation.

Now, she asked, "Mom, how do you think the news about Isabella spread?"

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 147-Considering Remarriage "Who knows?"
Rebecca replied impatiently.

She picked up the tea in front of her and took a sip. Unfortunately, the faint tea fragrance still couldn't ease the turmoil in her heart.

Christina looked down, and a sinister glint flashed in her eyes.

She said, "Although the public opinion has been buzzing lately, only a few people know the details. Natalie has divorced Cedric now, and she doesn't seem like a meddling person. She's been immersed in work lately. It's unlikely to be Joyce either, right? After all, she wants to Ced." "So, I doubt she wants the Johnson family's reputation to be damaged!" In other words, there was only one person who would benefit from doing this!

Isabella!

Because she was now blind, the Johnson family had to be her support. The more people from the Johnson family caring for her, the better her days will be.

While Christina didn't explicitly say it, Rebecca understood.

"But she doesn't know those people in high society!" Rebecca said, referring to Isabella..

Christina replied, "The hospital Ced owns is where only the rich and powerful can be admitted." "Are you suggesting she did it intentionally to live in the Johnson family?"
Rebecca asked.

"Who can say for sure? Over the years, how many people have wanted to enter the Johnson family? Mom, you also know..." Christina trailed off as Rebecca's face darkened.

Christina continued, "And it's completely hopeless for her eyes. Her only support now is Ced, who has the Johnson family behind him!" Christina's observation was clean and logical.

Isabella's eyes were ruined for the rest of her life.

Rebecca closed her eyes and sighed. "Let her move in here first. We don't have any other options right now. If Isabella were placed outside at this critical juncture, the situation would get out of control."

A calculating look flashed in Christina's eyes, and she nodded. "Yeah. Who do you think would bother doing so much just to make sure we arrange for Isabella to live here with us?" Who had so much time on their hands?

To put it bluntly, the person manipulating this issue behind the scenes would benefit the most.

Rebecca's eyes gleamed sharply.

"After she moves in, keep an eye on her. Don't let her have any time alone with your brother." Got it!

Christina nodded. "Got it!" "Tina." "Yes, Mom?" "Your brother... Well..." When it came to Cedric, Rebecca didn't know what to say at that moment. She was also proud and naturally unwilling to admit that she was wrong about Natalie.

But now, she was truly wrong!

It was more than just being wrong.

The Lambert family's position in Verde City was crucial. But if she had known early on about Natalie's relationship with Stephen, the Johnson family would have been unparalleled abroad.

That would have been much more impressive than a small city like Verde City!

*Anyway, keep an eye on Isabella. Even if she's Ivan's sister, we can't allow any problems in the Johnson.

family!" Even with that sense of gratitude, Rebecca absolutely wouldn't allow anything between Isabella and Cedric.

"Okay, I understand!" Christina said as she concealed her satisfaction.

Isabella... hah!

Natalie and Irwin left the concert together. Irwin's eyes were full of indulgence as he observed her sleepy Appearance.

"If you don't like something, you can tell me directly next time." "Would I dare?" Natalie grumbled.

Before this, Stephen had repeatedly instructed her to attend the concert with Irwin.

He gave her the tickets, so how could she not come?

Now, thinking back, she felt extremely wronged.

Irwin smiled warmly at her response.

“Irwin.” “Hmm?” “The first time I met you, I always felt you were a very serious person.” Unexpectedly, he turned out to be a very warm person!

The man’s smile widened. Elegant and refined were not enough to describe his gentleness.

“So, have I passed your test?” “I think your future wife will be very happy!” She used to think he was too serious, making the atmosphere oppressive when they were in the same space.

People’s interactions couldn’t be completely summarized after just one meeting, just like with Caleb.

“Hehe!” Irwin laughed.

Natalie suddenly turned serious and said, “But I think my uncle’s efforts were in vain.” “How so?” “When things between Cedric and me began, it was also this beautiful!” The first impression was genuinely flawless.

But what happened after?

Irwin’s expression changed. He understood Natalie’s meaning.

A long black windbreaker draped over her shoulders.

“It’s okay, I understand,” he said, not defending himself or speaking ill of Cedric, He left everything up to Natalie.

Natalie smiled at him. “Thank you.” “Shall we go back together?” “Sure.” Natalie didn’t refuse. It was better to clarify some things, as blind rejection didn’t suit them.

b After all, even if they weren’t friends, they were business partners.

Back at Elegance Bay, Natalie got out of the car and turned to Irwin.

“You probably need to give me a ride tomorrow; I didn’t drive back.” “Okay.” The man nodded.

After they had been honest with each other, their interaction felt more relaxed.

“Go on in,” Irwin said like the gentleman he was.

Natalie nodded and walked inside. Based on her intuition, Irwin was indeed a good person. However, she would have to disappoint her uncle’s good intentions!

The moment she entered, Irwin drove off.

Inside, Natalie felt something was off.

The butler, Nigel, approached her and said, “Miss, you’re finally back!” “What’s wrong?” Nigel’s expression was also off. He glanced inside and replied, “Mr. Johnson is here.” Seriously?!

Now Natalie didn’t know what to say.

They had clearly divorced, yet he freely came and went in and out of her life.

Just as Natalie was about to say something, Nigel spoke first, “We couldn’t stop him.” Natalie closed her eyes. “I understand.” When Cedric became overbearing, few could stop him. But was this kind of overbearing behavior She took off her coat and went inside. The man sat on the sofa with a cup of coffee that a servant had prepared for him. He was smoking, and Natalie waved her hand to disperse the smoke.

“Nigell” “Yes, Miss.” “Light up the scented candles, and open the windows!” She disliked the smell of smoke very much.

Seeing how Natalie was ignoring his presence, Cedric’s eyes dimmed.

Natalie tossed her bag onto the sofa. The little pig rubbed against her feet, and she bent down to pick it up before sitting down.

The little creature behaved well in her arms. Looking at the pig in her arms, Cedric’s already unfriendly expression now revealed an indiscernible emotion.

“Go on, then. What do you want?” Natalie was accustomed to his sudden intrusions.

Cedric asked, “Did things between you and Irwin develop so quickly?” Natalie remained silent.

The tone of his question... it sounded like an interrogation.

How could he?

Without waiting for her to speak, he tossed his phone in front of her. On it was the video of her feeding Irwin.

“Did you send someone to stalk me?” she raised an eyebrow and asked.

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 148-Brother-In-Law family are?

“Natalie, do you even know what kind of people the Frazier family are? Do you want to die? Is that why you insist on getting involved with Irwin?” Everyone in Verde City knew that the Frazier family was widely known to be involved in the most complex matters.

Natalie looked at Cedric’s questioning and angry look.

“I’d like to ask myself that too. Did I want to die such a miserable death to have gotten involved with you?” Cedric was speechless.

Here it was again!

It was the same feeling.

Her words felt as if she had gone through torture and died once.

Cedric irritatedly flicked the lighter.

Obviously, he didn’t like the current atmosphere.

He took a deep drag from the cigarette he had just lit and said, “I know you didn’t have a good time at the Johnson family, but back then...” Back then... What?

Cedric was well aware that Natalie was always unhappy when she visited the Johnson Manor. He knew her relationship with the Johnson family was not good, so he rarely brought her back.

However, he didn’t know how often Rebecca had been to Scarlet Villa privately.

Every time she went, Natalie had a hard time!

“What was it back then? Go on!” Didn’t he say the Frazier family was involved in complex matters? Well, she wanted to see if the Johnson family in his heart was as simple as he claimed!

Cedric took a harsh drag of the cigarette, covering his own turmoil. Seeing her feeding Irwin made him angry. Seeing her leaving hand in hand with Irwin made him wish he could tear her apart!

Originally, he just wanted to give her some time and freedom. Now, it seemed he would have to bring her back in, or she would fly further and further away!

But looking at Natalie, who seemed to have completely moved on, made a fierce glint flash in his eyes!

“That’s all in the past... He didn’t want to bring up the Johnson family!

At this moment, Cedric had to admit that he... had not protected Natalie well in the Johnson family.

“Hah... The past? What a joke.” The past!

This man spoke so lightly of it!

“I know you’re angry about Isabella, but Nat...” At this moment, Cedric paused. Natalie looked at him and remained silent for a moment.

“But what?” She wanted to see what Cedric could say at this moment.

Cedric looked away. He swallowed the words on his tongue and instead said, “It’s time to come home!” Natalie was baffled.

What?

“Let’s remarry!” Remarry?

Natalie didn’t mishear, did she?

“Yes, let’s remarry! Do you understand?” At this moment, the man’s tone became firm.

Natalie was speechless.

Remarry?!

Natalie didn’t mishear, and Cedric didn’t misspeak!

In that split second, a voice in his heart was telling him..

No matter what kind of person Natalie appeared to be, he couldn’t let go of her hand.

He couldn’t remain calm when he saw her getting closer to Irwin.

At this moment, everything had ended, and she should return home!

“Cedric... Natalie finally managed to organize her thoughts after a long while. But when she spoke, her voice sounded so far away in her ears. She almost couldn't hear what she was saying.

Looking at the man in front of her, she smiled.

It was a sarcastic and icy smile!

“Who do you think you are? It seems you've never understood the relationship between us! Are you kidding me?!” Natalie felt like she had heard an extremely ridiculous joke.

Either that or she was hallucinating!

“Do I look like I'm joking?” Cedric's gaze was deep.

Yes, Isabella was the catalyst. She was the one who triggered everything in Natalie's previous life.

Even so... Even without those issues, Natalie thought things between her and Cedric would eventually end because of the Johnson family.

“I've already made arrangements for Isabella!” Previously, Cedric had been overly concerned about Isabella's eyes and didn't have much time to deal with the divorce. Now that Isabella's situation had been settled, it was time for him to take her home.

“So?” Cedric said, “Previously, when you were at the Johnson family, I thought you could handle it well. Now it seems... Seeing Natalie's darkening expression, Cedric didn't continue.

What she said was right he knew too little!

He didn't know how tense their relationship became privately, and he always believed she could handle things well.

Taking a deep breath, he said, “Nat.” “I won't remarry you.” Cedric wanted to say more, but Natalie didn't want to hear it. There was nothing left to say between them.

Natalie stood up without looking at him and turned to go upstairs. But she felt a hand on her arm.

“Nat.” “Let go!” Natalie closed her eyes, her tone cold.

Cedric's attitude became more and more resolute as he continued, “You should be well aware that our divorce wasn't serious!” It was only to give Natalie some time to cool off. Who would have thought she would get involved with Irwin so quickly?

Thinking about how it was possible that Natalie might marry Irwin, Cedric's eyes turned icy.

"Nigel, escort the guest out," Natalie said with closed eyes.

"Natalie!" "You want to remarry, right? Fine. Can you promise me one thing? Get Isabella out of Verde City. Can you do that?" Cedric was silent, and Natalie also stopped speaking.

The air between them quieted down. The two silently faced each other in a silent standoff.

Yes, that was what Natalie wanted.

In fact, she didn't want to remarry Cedric. She just wanted to see what kind of presence Isabella was in Cedric's heart.

At this moment, she suddenly remembered that in her previous life, the comparison between her and Isabella was so intense.

She had seen all that Cedric did, seen Isabella's importance to him!

But she never asked.

Now, she wanted to hear from his own mouth..

Between her and Isabella, what were his thoughts?

People, however, tended to find disappointment when there was no need to.

Sure enough, she was disappointed.

'Natalie, she's your sister!' Cedric said seriously as he looked into Natalie's eyes.

At this moment, Natalie's heart turned even colder.

"In that case, there's nothing more to say between us, right?" He had chosen Isabella.

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 149-Jocelyn Lambert In the end, it was Cedric who couldn't let go.

It would be a reasonable solution if he agreed to send Isabella anywhere outside Verde City.

But he didn't.

“She’s blind now. If you ask her to leave Verde City, where can she go? Who will take care of her?” Cedric said as he looked at Natalie.

This statement seemed like an interrogation.

It was also a subtle way of accusing her of cruelty!

Natalie looked at him quietly with a smile on her lips. The laughter in her eyes was so obvious, unfamiliar, and ridiculous.

“Nat...” Seeing her smile like that, Cedric’s heart tightened.

He was about to reach for her hand, but Natalie pushed him away.

Closing her eyes, she said, ‘She’s my sister, right? Even I’m not worried about her well-being. As her brother-in-law, what are you worried about?’ Natalie had used their relations here and.....

With that, the concern and involvement Cedric was displaying for Isabella became even more ridiculous and disgusting.

Cedric’s face changed.

He had never felt that this entanglement was contradictory before, but now... it was so awkward!

“She’s also Ivan’s sister...” The original reason for taking care of Isabella now seemed so flimsy.

Ivan, huh?” “Fine. Go and live the remainder of your life for Ivan’s sake!” After saying that, Natalie ignored Cedric and went upstairs.

Cedric was about to follow, but Nigel stepped in and stopped him.

“Mr. Johnson, our lady is tired. It would be best if you leave!” Cedric silently looked at the butler.

Nigel’s attitude was stern. He looked as if he would fight with all his might to stop Cedric from going up the stairs tonight.

Upstairs, Natalie returned to the bedroom and headed straight for the bathroom. After splashing some water on her face fiercely, she managed to calm herself a bit!

Before, she thought Cedric’s affair was disgusting.

But now, she felt that such involvement was annoying.

Isabella was her sister.

It was like a horrible nightmare, making her feel more uncomfortable than being cursed.

Just then, her phone vibrated!

Natalie picked it up. "Hello." "Nat, it's me." Stephen's voice came from the other end of the line.

Natalie felt a bit better at hearing the older man's voice.

"Uncle." "How's it going with Irwin?" "Very well!" "That's good." Stephen sounded quite pleased upon hearing that Natalie and Irwin were getting along well.

"Back in the day, I got along quite well with Cedric too." Her tone carried a hint of bitterness.

So, what kind of getting along was it with Irwin?

Upon hearing this additional remark, Stephen paused, then said, "Nat, I know you're hurt, but you still need to make an effort to believe in relationships, okay?" Natalie lowered her head, gazing at the reflection in the water. Even in the water, her pale complexion was evident.

"I got it." Starting over was really exhausting, and she didn't express this to Stephen.

Getting along, huh?

Cedric and she had gotten along very well. How many people had envied their relationship?

But in the end?

All they were left with was a tragic outcome!

Cedric couldn't remember how he left Elegance Bay. Looking at the grandiose castle-like place, it felt like Natalie had become a princess.

However, the prince pampering her was not him.

In the car, Cedric smoked one cigarette after another. Finally, he picked up the phone and called Lucas.

"I don't care how you do it. Get Irwin out of Verde City!" Since Natalie couldn't be swayed, he had to start with Irwin "Yes, sir!" Lucas responded solemnly from the other end of the line.

Cedric hung up and rewatched the two video clips Christopher sent him. He watched them repeatedly and observed everything closely. There was clearly no acting involved!

The last bit of comfort in his heart was shattered.

“Nat...” he murmured softly.

Her name, which had once been on his lips day and night, now seemed like a stranger.

No, he wouldn't allow it!

From the first glance, he had decided she would be his.

How could she leave him behind?

The agreement to divorce was merely because she had caused too much trouble. He wanted her to regain her single status and calm down. He had never let go of her hand.

As long as she turned around, he would be right there.

Little did he know....

Cedric was unaware that things between him and Natalie were completely different now. Even their worlds had deviated from their original paths.

Right now, they were not on the same page or even on the same road!

In the following three days, two significant events occurred consecutively in the Johnson family.

The first event was that after Isabella was discharged from the hospital, she directly moved into the Johnson family. After that, Jocelyn arrived at the Johnson Manor with an unpleasant look on her face.

“Aunt, the matter between Cedric and me has been settled, right?” After all, she was the precious daughter of the Lambert family. She spoke in a flat tone. Previously her attitude now had a slightly stronger edge, especially concerning Isabella's situation.

sly gentle, Rebecca was feeling anxious now, especially after Christina's analysis, making her aware of Isabella's cunning nature. With Isabella now living in the Johnson family, she was genuinely concerned about her getting involved with Cedric.

“Of course! We'll arrange your engagement ceremony soon!” Rebecca now just wanted to quickly finalize this matter. She was in a hurry. Previously, she looked down on Natalie and belittled her.

Now, Isabella was in a unique situation. Rebecca felt that anyone was fine as long as it wasn't her!

She pitied Isabella's unfortunate situation and would support her for a lifetime. However, she couldn't let the Johnson family be burdened for a lifetime!

Jocelyn's expression changed.

"No matter how far things have gone between Cedric and me, having Isabella living in the manor now is not appropriate.

Rebecca was silent.

It was more than just inappropriate—it was downright unsuitable!

But Rebecca currently had no other solution.

Rebecca glanced at Jocelyn and pulled herself together. She took a deep breath and said, "I understand where you're coming from, Joyce. But she's a blind person with no one to take care of her if she lives outside. What do you think?" "Whether it's the Johnson or Lambert family, it's easy to ensure that a blind person has a worry-free life forever!" That meant that if the Johnson family didn't handle things properly, then the Lambert family probably wouldn't agree to this matter either.

In fact, Jocelyn was not willing to accept this situation.

are that i if Isabella However, Amelia had forced Jocelyn to handle this matter today. Jocelyn was well aware didn't move out of the Johnson family, her parents would surely find various reasons not to agree to this engagement.

Cedric was a unique existence in Verde City!

Many prestigious families wanted such a marriage, but the Lambert family was different; their family principles were strict.

If they married and Cedric caused trouble later on, the Lambert family would unlikely do anything to him.

also But the problem lies in the fact that not only does the Lambert family have strict principles, but they a love their children dearly.

How could they bear to see one of their own suffer after marriage?

For a man at the pinnacle, the woman who didn't have his heart and still followed him would inevitably suffer.

“Joyce.” “Aunt, I’m sorry! I love Cedric and want to spend my life with him. We cannot have someone between us!” Natalie couldn’t tolerate it.

Jocelyn, even more so, couldn’t tolerate it.

Rebecca’s expression changed. “But that’s…” I take my leave. I’ll wait for your good news!” Without waiting for Rebecca to say anything, Jocelyn

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 150-Plotting Against Jocelyn After Jocelyn left, Christina came downstairs and asked Rebecca, “Mom, what did Joyce want?” “Just keep an eye on Isabella!” Rebecca’s expression wasn’t pleasant. Originally, she intended to settle the matter between Jocelyn and Cedric to prevent any changes from happening.

But now, she could see how the Lambert family was playing this. novelbin She had to admit that Isabella’s presence in the Johnson family did have some impact on this matter!

“I got it, Mom. But what did Joyce mean by that?!”

“Oh, it just needs to be dealt with quickly!” Rebecca said irritably.

In reality, her current thoughts were focused on another person. She closed her eyes, concealing the shrewdness in her eyes.

Just as she was about to say something, the butler hurriedly came in. “Madam, there’s a delivery for you!” “Delivery?” “Yes, ma’am.” “Where is it from?” “It’s from Simeria.” Simeria? From abroad?

Rebecca furrowed her brow even more because she hadn’t been shopping on foreign websites recently, so what was this?

She took the package and opened it. Inside was a thick stack of photos. At a glance, Rebecca’s face changed instantly.

T–this is?” Rebecca stammered. “How can this be?” Her face turned pale. Christina, who was standing beside her, couldn’t believe what she was seeing.

Rebecca looked at Christina, and the two of them exchanged a shocked glance.

The more they saw, the uglier their expressions became.

Smack Rebecca slammed the stack of photos onto the table in front of her. Her face darkened, and her chest heaved.

She couldn't bear to look anymore because the further down they looked, the more obscene it was!

"How shameless of them! How can she talk to me about those things when this... this...!" Rebecca angrily exclaimed.

Thinking about how Jocelyn had acted just now, Rebecca supposed the Lambert family had not idea what kind of person she really was.

If they knew the true nature of their child, would they still dare to be so arrogant?

Christina picked up the photos that had fallen to the floor and looked at them.

"I—it really is Joyce. How can she be so shameless?" In the photo, Jocelyn was happily sitting in the lap of a foreign man. The man's hands were out of the picture, but one could imagine what had happened after the photo was taken.

"Stop looking!" Rebecca snatched the photos away and tore them to pieces. She acted as if those photos represented Jocelyn herself!

That's right. Rebecca really wished she could tear Jocelyn apart.

If it weren't for the Lambert family backing her... Rebecca would indeed do just that!

No matter how angry she was, Rebecca was still considerate of Christina.

her tone Christina was visibly startled by Rebecca's anger, so the latter softened her tone to reassure her, "It will stain your eyes.

Christina replied, "Mom, if you're upset, I won't look!" "How could she be that kind of person?" "Yeah, Joyce looks so gentle and sweet. How could she do such a thing!?" "Gentle my foot! Look at her. She's no different from those flashy harlots!" The more Rebecca thought about it, the angrier she became. With what she had discovered, Rebecca wouldn't have any dealings with the Lambert family anymore.

Although the Lambert family was an important presence in Verde City, she might never find peace in her lifetime if she ended up with a daughter-in-law like this!

Fortunately, the engagement wasn't set in stone yet.

If it had been, it would have been heartbreaking for Rebecca to discover Jocelyn's true colors later on!

"Okay, stop it! Don't be angry anymore!" Christina continuously tried to comfort Rebecca.

Rebecca closed her eyes.

Natalie flashed through her mind.

She had to admit that she regretted her actions!

She had wanted to keep some pride, but now it seemed impossible.

“Mom, what do we do now?” “You know, about Isabella...” Isabella... Speaking of Isabella, Rebecca was even more furious!

Isabella’s ability to enter the Johnson Manor using such means indicated that this woman’s tricks were extraordinary.

Rebecca needed to act quickly.

In any case, Isabella couldn’t be allowed to get involved with Cedric. After all, the future matriarch of the Johnson family couldn’t be someone a blind woman!

“You keep an eye on her; I have a plan!” Rebecca replied curtly.

In matters where she was uncertain of the outcome, she wouldn’t casually reveal her plans.

After all, if it didn’t work out, it would be embarrassing for everyone.

Christina nodded, “Alright, I understand.” But we still have to trust Ced; we don’t necessarily have to resolve everything through a marriage!” However, Rebecca didn’t say anything; she just waved her hand in annoyance.

Christina was naturally willing to trust Cedric’s judgment.

If he could marry Natalie back then and have her stand behind him without any worries, he could surely handle the internal issues of the Johnson family now.

Christina was filled with confidence in the man when she thought of his imposing figure. Cedric was indeed capable.

However, some people, from the beginning, were eager to take shortcuts. Regardless of belief, shortcuts were always tempting!

For example... Rebecca.

Even though she knew Cedric was stronger than before, she... Rebecca left, and Christina had no idea where she went!

The older generation of the Johnson branch families was undoubtedly planning to take action due to Cedric's consecutive losses of two projects worth over a hundred million each.

soon!

Regardless of whether Cedric could truly resolve the internal conflict on his side, Rebecca would definitely seek a shortcut!

Christina also wondered whom Rebecca would choose this time among the wealthy families' daughters.

Jocelyn was truly out of the question!

Just based on this stack of photos, Rebecca couldn't possibly continue to like Jocelyn.

Christina crouched down and picked up a photo. After lightly blowing the dust off it, a satisfied smile spread on her lips.

"Heh!" So what if some people try to enter the Johnson family forcibly?

Regardless of who it was, they would never make it as long as Christina didn't agree to it!

"Miss!" Wanda approached her with a gaze filled with indulgence.

Compared to what the others in the Johnson family were feeling, Christina's mood was exceptionally good.

"Wanda." "Yes, miss!" "Make me some snacks; I feel like eating something," Christina said casually.

Upon hearing that, Wanda nodded immediately.

"Alright. I'll personally make it for you, miss!" "That's good. I like your cooking." Wanda was one of Rebecca's people.

Although there were dedicated kitchen staff at the Johnson Manor, Christina just didn't like the food they prepared.

More often than not, she had a particular fondness for Wanda's cooking.

Wanda worked quickly and made some fruit tarts personally for Christina. She could easily capture Christina's preferences.

In turn, Christina ate three in a row. “Mmm! This is delicious!” “If you like them, please eat more, miss! As they’re all fruit-based, you won’t gain weight from eating them!” “Oh, Wanda. You really do understand me.”
