

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 211 - 250

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 211-Innocent Bystanders Implicated Natalie didn't know how she managed to return to Auro Studio.

At this moment, Karina was still there. Upon seeing Natalie's pale face, she checked the time on her wristwatch and remarked, "You should be on your way to the airport now. Why are you here?" novelbin "Do you really think I can leave?" Natalie asked Karina.

Cedric had ruthlessly instigated everything this time. Now, Natalie suspected the incident in the eastern suburbs was his doing "Are you referring to Mr. Johnson...?"

"No, it wasn't him. I probably can't leave the city myself now." The eastern suburbs incident and what happened at Sylvan Gems were both major issues, The relevant departments wouldn't let her leave Verde City easily. At least, not until these two matters are completely resolved.

They wouldn't let her leave.

Karina said, "Let's go. I'll take you. We have to give it a try!" Having worked within Regal Horizons International for such a long time, Karina naturally understood that the current situation was very unfavorable for Natalie.

Leaving now would be the best arrangement for her.

Natalie looked at Karina. After seeing the determination in her eyes, she eventually nodded. She picked up the drawings designed for Apex Global's project and a calculator in the office and got into the car with Karina.

As they drove, Natalie meticulously checked every detail, even small lines, on the drawings. She had always attached great importance to the cooperation with Apex Global, and she personally did this design draft She believed there was no problem with it.

But now...!

"How is it going?" Karina asked.

"I'm still checking!" To avoid any mistakes, Natalie was extremely careful in her examination, even more so this time.

Karina looked at her deep frown and said, "Such accidents may not necessarily be due to an issue with your design. Don't stress too much!" I i "How can I not be stressed?" Natalie was not just stressed; her entire being was tense, fearing that there might be a problem somewhere.

Karina said, "Do you think this might be related to Mr. Johnson?" "Regardless of whether it's him or not, I first need to confirm that it's not a problem on my end." "Okay." Natalie was telling the truth.

Before accusing others, one must ensure that there are no issues on their own end. She checked every detail with extreme precision.

After thorough inspection....

"It's not a problem on my end." Her calculations were also precise.

As long as the measurements on the construction site were accurate, it meant the problem did not lie in the design draft but somewhere else.

an issue with the But could there be an issue with the material provided by Irwin's group?

Or did Cedric really have the ability to manipulate things within Irwin's company?

To the extent that To the extent that such a major incident occurred on-site?

Natalie couldn't help but feel her heart tighten.

Cedric's attitude this time seemed to genuinely wish for her death. Although he had previously threatened to throw her into prison, it never carried the current level of hatred.

If she had to describe his actions in the past as anger, now it was bone-deep hatred!

After they arrived at the airport, Natalie found herself confined to Verde City as she had expected.

When she inquired about the reasons from relevant personnel, the only response she got was, "It's orders Now, Natalie could only stay in Verde City.

Cedric seemed to be doing nothing for the moment, yet these two incidents were enough for her to deal with.

In the car, Natalie's lips curled into a bitter smile.

"Human it seems, shouldn't climb too fast..." In the past, she had been high and mighty, providing Cedric with the perfect opportunity to strike.

When she had nothing in Verde City before, those people practically wanted to drive her out.

But now?

They wanted her to be locked inside Verde City and face their attacks!

“Don’t think too much. I will explain this to Mr. Jarvis. Someone clearly set up everything to target you!” Karina tried to reassure her.

“Alright.” Natalie could also see that this situation was entirely aimed at her.

Although investigations took time, the process was making her quite uncomfortable at the moment.

Karina took Natalie to Elegance Bay. In the luxurious villa that stood like a city fortress, Nigel greeted her upon her return.

“You should rest for a while. Breakfast is being prepared in the kitchen and will be sent to your room shortly.” “Send it to the study,” Natalie said.

She couldn’t find any peace to sleep now. The world was truly in chaos. Both Sylvan Gems and Auro Studio are having problems now, and on her side... she had to admit that she was having a hard time.

Tired, she returned to the study. Just as she entered the room, her phone vibrated.

It was Cedric.

‘Hello.’ “Are you sure you won’t do anything for Tina’s situation?” Natalie closed her eyes.

Thinking about the incidents in the Eastern Suburbs and Sylvan Gems being Cedric’s doing, she couldn’t help but feel a chilling anger emanating from her.

Her tone concealed restrained fury. “Before I settle everything in my hands, just do whatever you want with her!” Although it wasn’t explicitly stated, there was an implicit agreement to mutually let go.

“Is that so?” “Cedric, whether my matters are related to me or not and how much responsibility I’ll bear, all of that is still under investigation. Whether it’ll fall on me or not is uncertain.” Fut Christina is different. Those were all bo doings. I want to see how she can extricate herself this time!

Those were all ironclad evidence!

Cedric’s call now clearly indicated he couldn’t bail out Christina.

It was a serious suspicion.

What was going on?

If it were some trivial matter, Natalie wouldn't mind. But now, it was different. It involved loss of life, and she wanted to see how capable Christina was in facing such irrefutable evidence.

People in this world weren't all as pig-headed as the Johnson family!

"It seems like you haven't changed your stubbornness until now." The call was abruptly disconnected.

Natalie's I Stubborn?

lips curved into a cold smile when she heard the dial tone in her ear.

The once gentle, knowledgeable Mrs. Johnson had indeed become persistently unyielding.

The world fell silent!

Natalie rubbed her throbbing forehead. When daylight broke, Natalie hadn't slept all night.

Breakfast was prepared, and Nigel had it delivered to the study. She only took a few bites as she had lost her appetite.

Stephen called.

"Uncle." "Karina already told me what happened." Stephen's tone on the phone wasn't too pleasant.

The situation she got herself into this time seemed to be causing quite a headache.

"It's not a problem with my design, Natalie said.

"Yeah, I know." Her design had been selected as the best among all the other selections; how could it be faulty?

Stephen continued, "I've already halted all of Cedric's projects over here."

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 212-His Love Cedric's projects abroad?!

Natalie hadn't been aware of those before but realized how deep Cedric's roots had gone since this incident.

In just one day, such a thing happened on her side. Natalie genuinely worried about Stephen's situation.

She couldn't help but ask, "You won't have any problems on your end, right?" "No." "Has Cedric done anything to you?" "No." Hearing this, Natalie breathed a sigh of relief.

Despite being in a state of mutual destruction, she was genuinely concerned about Stephen.

With Cedric's intense hatred towards her, no one knew what crazy actions he might take.

Christina's situation this time was unexpected.

She was always cautious, but this time...!

The bank records and the timing matched up. During the questioning, she claimed to be running errands for her mother and herself, but she couldn't produce any evidence.

Consequently, her inconsistent statements raised suspicion.

Inside the detention center, Christina shouted frantically, "I want to see my lawyer. I want to see my brother!" "Ms. Johnson!" "I don't know anything. I don't know anything." At this moment, Christina finally realized that, in this critical situation, the only thing she could say was that she didn't know.

"But you signed all these documents." Christina was silent.

"You have to take responsibility for what you said!" "I don't know anything. I don't know anything!" Now, no matter what the police said, Christina only repeated this sentence.

Waiting had become her only option.

She knew that Cedric wouldn't ignore her like this, and she also believed that Rebecca would not let her stay here.

So, she just needed to wait!

Christina was now in trouble.

Rebecca arrived early at the detention center the following day, but she wasn't allowed to see Christina.

After Natalie's call last night, many reporters had gathered here. They started speculating when they saw Rebecca.

Being investigative-minded, they quickly dug up that Christina was inside. The entire Verde City knew now that Christina was inside, and they were speculating why.

The situation escalated rapidly, intertwining Christina's and Natalie's affairs. Observant people could see that a conflict had erupted within the Johnson family.

Even though Natalie has divorced Cedric, some people would inevitably link everything together when such incidents occur.

At Radiant Tower, Cedric slammed the computer on his desk to the floor.

He was filled with rage, a fury that seemed capable of consuming everything.

Lucas and Yuvan were wailing on the side.

"Where is she?" Natalie!

One had to admit, she was indeed bold!

Now, she was involved in all sorts of troubles, and even the relevant authorities wouldn't let her leave Verde City!

But precisely at this moment, she pulled Christina into the mess.

The popularity she originally garnered from Sylvan Gems was now halved as Christina was also in the spotlight!

Who was Christina?

Everyone in Verde City tacitly understood that she was the adopted daughter of the Johnson family. She was observed by many eyes and envied by many. She was just an adopted daughter, yet she received endless favors from the Johnson family.

Lucas noticed Yuvan's lack of reaction and stepped forward.

"When it was almost dawn, Ms. Walker went to the airport. Now she's at the studio." Zane was handling Sylvan Gems' affairs.

Many things were still under investigation, and the truth would take time. Sylvan Gems' matter couldn't be rushed, but the situation at the studio was different.

With the significant incident in the eastern suburbs, she was under immense pressure. If this matter was indeed related to her, the challenges ahead would be substantial.

Natalie understood clearly which side held more weight in this situation.

“How’s the eastern suburbs?” Cedric inquired.

Upon hearing this question, Lucas’ eyes dimmed. He replied, “Ms. Frazier was there last night.” Cedric fell silent, and the air around turned cold. However, a mocking smile appeared at the corner of his mouth.

Yesterday, Irwin had challenged him, claiming that he would interfere in Natalie’s affairs.

Cedric wanted to see how he would manage it during this critical moment!

Just as Cedric was contemplating, his phone vibrated.

It was a call from Rebecca.

Answering the call, he said, “Hello.” “Ced, what’s going on? Why are such statements circulating? Tina isn’t that kind of person.” 3/5 Rebecca sounded anxious.

Clearly, she didn’t expect that when she went to check on Christina in the morning and planned to bring her back, such a thing would happen.

Cedric had seen the news.

He told Rebecca, “I’ll handle it. You go back first.” “But Tina...” Rebecca’s voice was filled with concern.

Before Cedric could speak, she continued, “You know, ever since Tina arrived at the Johnson family, I’ve always indulged and pampered her.” Cedric stayed silent.

“This time... she was still thinking that if t Last night, she was still thinking that if the matter wasn’t related to Christina, it could serve as a lesson for Christina consistently going against Natalie.

If it was connected, then surely...! novelbin But now, with things reaching this point and Cedric unable to resolve the situation, she became anxious.

After all, Tina was a child she had raised. While others were trying to console her, she grew increasingly infuria Yet, when waiting alone for Christina, she couldn’t bear it.

“I understand.” “Make sure to resolve it quickly! It’s been a whole night...” were mainly about t At other times, Rebecca’s concerns were mainly about the impact on the Johnson family.

However, she now genuinely felt heartbroken for Christina.

Regardless, she would have to wait until Christina returned before discussing it. Having her in that place was genuinely worrisome.

She felt tense all over. After hanging up the phone, a fierce glint flashed in Cedric's eyes.

"Yuyan!" "Yes, Mr. Johnson." Yuvan respectfully stepped forward.

-1/5 Cedric glanced at him with sharp eyes.

"Earlier, Bianca was deeply involved in a lawsuit that even implicated her chastity. Do you know how to handle it?" "Yes." "Go!" "Yes, sir!" Yuvan nodded, respectfully turning away. At that moment, a chilling light flickered in his eyes.

When only Cedric and Lucas remained, Lucas approached Cedric. He was slightly stunned at what he had just witnessed.

"Sir, Ms. Sanders is just Ms. Walker's friend. She's-" "Innocent?" Cedric interrupted Lucas before he could finish his sentence.

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 213-Chaotic Scene Lucas looked at the chilling aura surrounding Cedric.

The words "innocent" seemed stuck in his throat.

At this moment, in the entire Verde City, anyone connected to Natalie in Cedric's eyes probably wasn't innocent.

However, Lucas was personally investigating Natalie's affairs, and no loopholes could be found.

Therefore, the possibility of reconciliation between Cedric and Natalie, in Lucas's view... was thoroughly impossible!

Natalie was working tirelessly at the Auro Studio, dealing with the major issue arising from the east.

suburb project.

Previously, she had managed to secure many clients due to her uncle's influence and Irwin's reputation..

Now, they were all calling to terminate their contracts.

Karina was handling it entirely.

After careful verification, Natalie found that the problem in the eastern suburbs didn't originate from her end.

She slumped in her chair, feeling completely drained. When Karina entered, she saw Natalie's pale complexion and handed her a cup of coffee.

'Drink some.' "What's the current situation?" Natalie asked.

Karina looked at her with a troubled expression and shook her head. "It's not looking particularly good.

right now." "Many ongoing projects have requested termination." "Let them," Natalie said, "Now was not the not the time to to hold on.

Karina nodded. "Yeah. That's about how it is now." Termination!

The once thriving studio, overnight, became desolate due to the east suburbs project. The investigation.

at the east suburbs site was ongoing.

Natalie hoped it had nothing to do with her!

If it really was related... She dared not continue thinking about the consequences.

First and foremost, it would involve Irwin.

Just then, her phone vibrated. Natalie glanced at Karina. Karina nodded and left the room.

Alone in the office, Natalie looked at the number and answered, "Are you satisfied now?" It was Cedric!

Undoubtedly, Natalie was currently the target of Cedric's wrath. His venting... in Natalie's eyes, had absolutely no limits.

He seemed to be pushing her into a dead end.

Cedric said, "Are you going to the police station to give a statement, or shall I help you?" "Hmph!" Natalie snorted.

Go to the police to explain on Christina's behalf?

She wouldn't go!

Originally, he wouldn't stop going after her for Isabella's matter.

Now that Christina had finally fallen into that pile of evidence, how could she easily let go?

At this time, regardless of the method, she wanted to viciously make sure that Christina stayed Involved!

The evidence was irrefutable, and Cedric had no choice.

This was exactly what she wanted to see.

“Natalie!” “Cedric, I really don’t have words for you! She’s been inside for a day, and you still believe I framed her?” 2/5 “Isn’t it?” The man’s tone was full of sarcasm and disgust. Natalie shivered.

“No. She did all of those things. Since she did it, she must now pay the price for everything she did!” *Natalie, you disappoint me so much.” “No, you’re the one who made me despair!” Yes, this man had once made her despair.

Now, when he said she disappointed him, she found it so ironic.

There was no hysteria from her previous life, no more despair.

Cedric was determined to crush her, and she was ready to face it. She waited to see this man completely heartbroken, and she waited for him... to die miserably!

“How about making Bianca pay a price for you?” “What are you saying?” “She should have been taken away by people from the relevant department by now.”<sup>1</sup> Natalie froze, and a chill crawled up her spine. She trembled angrily, unable to say anything at the moment.

‘She’s being taken in for improper conduct as the lawyer for the opposing party. It serves her right...’ “Bianca isn’t that kind of person!” Cedric was framing Bianca!

“Cedric, how can your methods be so despicable?” “Compared to you, I’m far behind!” “I haven’t done anything!” “With such a scandal, Bianca’s life as a lawyer should be over, right?” Natalie felt like even the blood in her veins had turned to ice. She felt ashen, once again experiencing the sensation of being choked.

“Cedric!” Unce Tina comes out, Bianca will be safe! If Tina doesn’t come out, Bianca will stay with her inside, understand?!” Natalie was burning with anger at this moment.

Bianca!

Anyone who knew Natalie even a bit knew what kind of presence Bianca was in her world. Natalie wouldn’t allow Bianca to suffer even a bit. Every time she faced difficulties, Bianca was selfless and novelbin unwavering by her side.

Now, Cedric was using Bianca to threaten her.

Undoubtedly, Natalie believed in Bianca. She believed that Bianca wasn't that kind of person.

For Christina's sake, Cedric had turned into a true madman.

"Cedric!" "You love Christina a lot, don't you?" He loved her enough to do such despicable things!

He shouldn't have gotten married! He shouldn't have liked any other woman!

If he had married that adopted daughter, wouldn't everything be fine?!

"It so happens that she loves you very much. It would have been great if you married her! That way, you wouldn't hurt me, and she wouldn't have hurt anyone else!" Yes, that was how Natalie would summarize the entire situation!

By marrying another woman, Cedric had brought disaster to someone's daughter. And if Christina married someone else, she would only bring harm to somebody's son!

"Natalie, are you being disrespectful right now?" "No, I'm stating facts." "You love Christina more than anyone else!" anyone else! "A woman like you doesn't deserve to talk about love!" Cedric was engulfed in danger. His every word was full of disgust.

He loved this woman!

How could he love this woman?!

Hadn't he given her enough in these years?

Why did she mention Christina now?!

So what?!

"So, is this the reason you targeted her?" Natalie was speechless!

Cedric's thought process was so twisted!

Natalie didn't say anything more and directly hung up the phone. In her view, there was no need to say anything more to Cedric now.

She had explained what needed to be explained more than once.

This wasn't the first time! At this moment, Natalie made a call to a private detective as she sat in her office in Auro Studio.

The call was answered almost immediately. "Yes, Ms. Walker?" "I won't be looking for that person anymore." 1 "Are you sure?" "I'll pay the money as agreed, but you can stop now." Yes, she wouldn't be looking for the person anymore.

At this moment, Natalie understood clearly. It didn't matter what was presented to Cedric. Christina could probably commit murder in front of him, and he would still claim that Christina was kind.

He would say she didn't do it on purpose!.

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 214-Suspicious Cedric believed in Christina.

He believed in the sister he had grown up with since childhood... So why bother investigating those things?

What was the point of finding evidence and presenting it?

Blanca was currently paying the price for everything.

After hanging up the phone, she called Zane again and gave him instructions. It was also about Christina, the same thing she had told the private detective.

There was no need to continue digging deeper.

She wasn't disappointed.

She wasn't hopeless.

This was her letting go.

She understood.

She understood that Cedric wouldn't believe in anything she said.

He only believed in Christina, not Natalie.

She wasn't trusted!

Not only was she not trusted, but using her methods to defend herself would also implicate those around her.

Cedric's obsession with his sister was almost disturbing.

Natalie personally went to the police station. After that was done, she went to collect Bianca from where the authorities were holding her Bianca didn't look too good.

Undoubtedly, she also knew that what happened today was Cedric's doing.

"Natalie, I'm telling you that scumbag is simply a lunatic! If you dare to forgive him In the future, I'll kill 1/5 Bianca was truly angry.

Cedric was more than a simple scumbag to her right now. He was so despicable that he couldn't be more disgusting.

Natalie handed a bottle of water to Bianca and said, "Things between him and me ended a long time ago. He's irrelevant to me. What's there to forgive or not since he's irrelevant?" "You..." Bianca looked at Natalie in shock.

Irrelevant?

nt to be in Instead of thinking about whether to forgive him or not, Natalie didn't want to be involved with him at all?!

At this moment, Natalie seemed like someone who saw through everything. She felt like someone from a different world.

Once, her love for Cedric was so deep.

And now...!

There was no love or hate. Natalie just wanted him to be... irrelevant?

"Nat, I'm..." "I'm sorry." "What do you currently think of him?" "He's a rival!" Yes, a rival!

In her world now, Cedric was like a rival, just like those business rivals. novelbin Between them, there was no ten years of emotion, no deep love, and certainly no relationship.

Now Natalie treated Cedric as a business rival.

All the attacks he made against her were malicious actions from a rival in the business world.

"R-rival?!" Bianca looked at Natalie.

Bianca understood Natalie's words. Their confrontation now was Cedric brutally tearing her apart. In Bianca was initially angry!

She was worried that after experiencing all this, Natalie might still forgive Cedric. In her eyes, Cedric was not worth forgiving. Women who were with him would suffer a lot.

She was concerned about Natalie.

But now, seeing Natalie letting go of and seeing through everything.

“What about Christina?” Bianca asked.

In her view, she wouldn't be satisfied until she gave Christina a severe beating.

After all, Christina had done so many malicious things to Natalie.

“Dealing with her in the most normal way is impossible now,” Natalie sighed.

She had given him ironclad evidence, but Cedric hadn't believed her.

She had given it to the police, but Cedric had used Bianca to threaten her.

So, using regular procedures for Christina was out of the question, But Natalie couldn't just let go of the past grievances either!

“What do you mean?” ‘Rest assured, I have a way.

Since she couldn't make Christina pay for her actions in the usual way, Natalie would find another way.

Natalie wasn't a pushover. She wouldn't take this lying down.

Bianca looked at the petite Natalie, feeling like she was looking at a queen.

She sighed and said, “Seeing you like this, I can finally feel at ease.” She could see that Natalie had let go of Cedric and that she wasn't being a pushover!

Blanca truly felt at ease.

“Bia!” “Yeah?” “My uncle has a law firm under his name in Simeria. Go there!” “Natalie!” “Verde City is just a small, stupid city. What kind of development prospects does it offer you? Whether it's your career advancement or income, it's too limited!” After all, it was an economy based on the market.

Blanca looked at Natalie. At this moment, she understood that Natalie, after going through this incident, completely saw Cedric as a lunatic!

Their grievances wouldn't end so easily.

That was why she was supporting Bianca in leaving.

“I've arranged everything there. You should leave now, okay?” “I'm not leaving!” Bianca shook her head. “If you don't leave, I won't leave!” Although she knew that Natalie had let go of Cedric emotionally, nob*dy knew what Cedric would do.

Blanca was a bit worried about Natalie. She was worried that Natalie might....

After all, Cedric was unpredictable. They had seen what kind of person he was. Besides, Christina and Isabella would certainly have their own tricks.

“You’re so small and petite! I really don’t feel at ease leaving you alone here. What if they wear you down?” “What nonsense are you talking about? Do you think we’ll trade blows or something? What’s with you pointing out my petite height?”

The previously tense atmosphere lightened because of Bianca’s words, and Natalie was on the verge of laughing.

“In any case, I’m not leaving.” “I’ll also leave once the matters with Apex Global and Sylvan Gems are resolved, okay?” Natalie glanced at Bianca. “We can meet in Simeria after that. What do you think?” But for now, Blanca had to leave.

She sensed Natalie’s persistence and, not wanting to make things difficult for her, ultimately nodded.

But she couldn’t help but add, “Promise me that you will absolutely not get back together with Cedric!” “Alright, sure. Rest assured, that won’t happen.” Get back together with Cedric?!

She had died once, and dying once should be enough to learn a lesson, right?

If she didn’t, that would mean she was a stupid person.

She didn’t want to be stupid again!

Blanca finally agreed to leave.

No other arrangements were made. Natalie directly sent her to the airport and handed her a plane ticket.

Only then did Natalie feel a bit reassured.

Watching Bianca’s plane take off, Natalie made a call to Stephen. He assured her everything would be arranged immediately, and she felt at ease Bianca had left.

In terms of friendship, Natalie didn’t have much to worry about now.

When she came out of the airport, she saw Cedric walking in elegantly. Yuvan and Lucas followed behind him.

His appearance stole the hearts of many women....

When their eyes met, Natalie turned her head slightly, adopting a distant attitude as if she didn't recognize him.

Cedric's eyes dimmed, and the already cold aura around him became even more chilling.

This was how Natalie acted now.

When she saw him, it was as if they were strangers...!

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 215-Interrogation Natalie emerged from the airport, completely unaffected by Cedric.

After receiving a call from Zane, she drove straight to Sylvan Gems.

Rebecca greeted her as she entered the lobby of Sylvan Gems.

"Nat." Despite the recent turmoil, Rebecca still managed to address her with the familiar nickname, showing her deep understanding of the situation.

The receptionist nervously stepped forward, "Ms. Walker, Madam Johnson insisted on waiting for you." Not knowing Natalie's current work hours made it a bit awkward for the receptionist when Rebecca insisted on waiting.

After all, Rebecca was part of the Johnson family. Despite the recent controversies, most people dared not be disrespectful.

Natalie waved her hand, signaling the receptionist to leave.

Turning to Rebecca, Natalie's tone was icy as she asked, "What do you want with me?" "It's about Tina, I know she..." Rebecca stumbled when talking about Christina. "Nat, your previous discord with Tina in the family was because of me. The child is innocent!" "She's still probably unused to treating you differently. I'm sure you know how hard habits are to break, right? Please, don't hold it against her, okay?" Natalie looked at Rebecca impassively. Undoubtedly, Rebecca genuinely cared for Christina. Christina's initial stability in the Johnson family was thanks to Rebecca's affection.

Christina was just an adopted daughter, but she led a truly comfortable life.

This caused many people to envy her.

But Christina didn't cherish her blessings.

When Natalie was still in the Johnson family, she felt uneasy mentioning this matter, as it would affect everyone's mood.

But now... "She has already gone back." "G-gone back?" "Yes." "In that case, I apologize on her behalf. Please don't let these matters cause discord between you and Ced!" Rebecca was genuinely hardworking. Amidst the current external turmoil, she could withstand such internal pressure to talk to Natalie.

It was no wonder Elizabeth liked her. Such a daughter-in-law who handled things so well was indeed at treasure.

Natalie replied, "There's no need for apologies. But there's one thing I want to correct." "What is it?" "The discord between Christina and me was never because of you." "What do you mean?" Rebecca didn't understand Natalie's words for a moment.

Natalie smiled mockingly. "Despite raising her, it seems you have no idea about the thoughts of a young girl." Rebecca's face changed slightly at the words.

Something uncomfortable clawed at her chest.

Natalie added meaningfully, "What she wants isn't simply to be your daughter." After speaking, Natalie didn't care about Rebecca's reaction and walked away. Rebecca stood there, her mind in chaos for a moment before suddenly clearing up.

It had to be said that a person might be confused, but they wouldn't stay confused forever unless they chose to be.

Rebecca was not an idiot. With Natalie's words, her mind became filled with various thoughts—Natalie, Jocelyn, and Isabella.

Was Christina connected to all of the incidents concerning them?

d her eyes.

Suddenly, her face turned pale, and a flash of anger crossed her 7/5 Natalie stood at the elevator, watching Rebecca leave angrily.

A cold and sinister smile appeared on her l*ps.

Hah... Christina!

Natalie had always known what Rebecca's limits were.

If Christina insisted on making Natalie's life miserable, Natalie would make sure they were both going through the same misery!

Rebecca was a traditional woman, and Christina's thoughts were undoubtedly something she wouldn't approve of.

Her standards for a daughter-in-law wouldn't change just because she had personally raised Christina.

Besides, Christina was her adopted daughter.

She definitely wouldn't approve!

Christina returned to the Johnson Manor. When Wanda saw her, she immediately started fussing. She had made food for Christina and reheated the food multiple times, hoping Christina would have something warm to eat when she returned.

"Miss, are you cold? I'm sure you're hungry, right?!" "Wanda!" Seeing Wanda, Christina's eyes were teary. It seemed that she had been really anxious throughout the night.

For the first time, she felt like she had a close brush with death.

"Oh, it's good that you're back. That's good!" Wanda embraced Christina with concern.

For the first time, Christina didn't refuse the maid's touch. With Rebecca absent, she seemed to need an embrace now, regardless of who it was:

"Shh, it's okay!" Wanda continued to comfort Christina in her arms.

When Rebecca returned, she saw Wanda comforting Christina in such a manner.

From her perspective....

She suddenly realized how similar Christina and Wanda's side profile looked. Even their eyes seemed...!

Wanda and Christina had always been around her, but she had never seen them from such a similar angle.

But now... Her heart skipped a beat.

A shiver ran down her spine, but she quickly shook her head, forcefully suppressing this thought.

It was impossible; these were the people she knew best!

Rebecca went inside.

Christina saw her and left Wanda's arms, calling out with a hint of grievance, "Mom!" She was genuinely aggrieved.

Although she had experienced many ups and downs by Rebecca's side over the years, last night....

No matter what she said, Christina couldn't escape the feeling of being trapped. Whenever she thought about those repeated questions, her heart tightened.

Christina had to admit that Natalie was truly ruthless this time. It was a move Christina had never anticipated, and she almost couldn't turn the situation around.

Christina had no idea that if it weren't for Cedric, she might not have been able to escape that situation.

The evidence Natalie submitted this time was exceptionally solid.

If Cedric hadn't threatened Natalie with Bianca, Christina wouldn't have been able to come out for quite a long time.

"Madam." Wanda saw Rebecca return suddenly and was shocked. She nervously approached and explained, "Miss was frightened!" "Hmm. You're dismissed for now," Rebecca said in a serious tone.

Previously, she was so anxious.

Now, her expression toward Christina was stern.

After Natalie's reminder, on her way back, she tried to follow Christina's relationships with the women related to Cedric, Isabella... Jocelyn! Natalie!

Undoubtedly, Christina had extremely unfavorable relationships with them. Why were they unfavorable? Previously, Christina could explain that she didn't like Natalie because of Rebecca. Isabella was the same.

But what about Jocelyn? What about those women from the past? She remembered that Christina had personally handed her a lot of related information.

She initially found those socialites appealing, but in the end, her attitude changed because of what Christina showed her, In this recent incident... It was about Jocelyn.

Now, Rebecca even doubted the authenticity of those things. She wondered about the true nature of her adopted daughter, whom she had raised with her own hands.

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 216-Confronting Christina Rebecca had always believed that she understood Christina well enough.

But now, she began to reevaluate.

“Mom, why are you looking at me like that? Christina’s heart tightened as she observed Rebecca’s expression.

Rebecca stared at Christina with a searching gaze, silent and unmoving Christina felt increasingly uneasy and said, ‘As for Natalie, I... M–Morn, it was her! S–she forced me!’ Christina was genuinely panicking.

Rebecca was usually serious at times, but now there was a gravity in her scrutiny that seemed to question Christina’s very soul.

Ever since Natalie’s identity was exposed, Rebecca repeatedly warned her not to trouble Natalie and to avoid conflicts.

Christina had been taken away by the police this time because someone affiliated with Natalie had dug up her account.

Although she had registered it recently, she never expected it would be automatically linked through the phone she was using.

Christina had to admit Natalie was no longer the pushover she used to be.

Christina was surrounded by capable individuals, and there was nothing she didn’t know. Her concern now was the person abroad...! If she had know earlier that this would happen, she would have handled it.

more cleanly.

What would happen if Natalie’s people found that person? What would happen to Christina?!

Christina had been unable to contact that person now. There was still an outstanding payment owed to him, but he probably already saw what happened to the other two and escaped. He probably didn’t want the money and didn’t even dare to call Christina anymore.

What she was afraid now... was if Natalie’s people found him, everything would be exposed!

As she gazed at Rebecca, her heart tightened even more.

“Mom.” She extended her hand, attempting to feign a playful demeanor, The sharpness in Rebecca’s eyes Intensified.

Christina pleaded, “I was wrong, I truly was.” Rebecca, her tone now sharp, questioned, “Why? Why did you do it?” Christina was at a loss for words Suddenly faced with the question, she didn't know how to answer. Previously, Rebecca only needed to instruct, and Christina would obey.

Rebecca disliked Natalie and had Christina watch Isabella.

Therefore, there was no need for explanations for those things.

But now... "Well? Tou me!" Witnessing Christina's struggle to find words, Rebecca raised her voice in anger.

In truth, Rebecca felt a sense of panic too. She was anxious about Christina turning out as Natalie had warned.

If that were true... No, s No, she couldn't accept it.

Absolutely not.

"It was Natalie. She provoked me first, Mom... How could I endure her saying I'm just an adopted daughter? How could I endure her insults towards me and you?" "I have always regarded you as my biological mother, and she actually..." When she said this, Christina started crying!

That pitiful look was like a child who fought back and did something wrong. It made people feel very distressed when they saw her.

Wanda rushed over from behind.

"Madam, what are you doing? Miss has been frightened all night. Please don't treat her like this!" Rebecca shot Wanda a stern look.

Wanda swallowed nervously. "You know, the former young mistress often appeared docile in public but "Wanda, don't say anything. It's my fault. It's all my fault! Christina grabbed Wanda, preventing her from saying more.

In doing so, she appeared even more pitiful.

Rebecca was not as easily swayed as before. Unlike in the past, witnessing Christina's distress didn't soften her heart.

Once a person harbored suspicions, they found eradicating those seeds of doubt challenging.

"Wanda, leavel" Her words were icy and stern.

Wanda wanted to say more for Christina's sake, but Rebecca remained cold, allowing no room for further discussion. Reluctantly, Wanda cast a concerned glance at Christina before leaving.

Now, with only Christina and Rebecca left in the hall, Christina looked pitifully at Rebecca. Whenever she displayed this kind of vulnerability in the past, Rebecca would undoubtedly feel sympathy.

However, this time... She didn't!

Rebecca simply stared at Christina in silence, unperturbed.

Christina called out, "Mom!" Rebecca's tone grew even colder. "Tina, tell me honestly, what are your feelings towards your brother?" "Huh?" Rebecca's sudden question caught Christina off guard. Clearly, she hadn't expected this inquiry. From last night until now, her inner turmoil hadn't subsided.

In such moments, rationality inevitably faltered.

"Well?" Seeing Christina's lack of response, Rebecca's gaze became sharper. She cherished her adopted daughter; from the moment the child arrived, she worried about how the girl would adjust to a new life.

Hence, her care for Christina was meticulous.

However, this affection had its limits. While she once entertained thoughts of arranging a marriage for Christina, when the time came to select 11 own biological daughters.

The union would benefit the Johnson family, and she also wanted Christina to lead a good life.

After all, Rebecca had raised her from childhood. However, this didn't mean that Rebecca would accept Christina as her daughter-in-law, that was something she absolutely couldn't tolerate.

When Wanda had mentioned it earlier, Rebecca had scolded her.

Now, with Natalie's reminder, she realized that she might not truly understand Christina's inner feelings.

"He's a good brother!" "Do you like him?" Rebecca continued to inquire.

Christina looked at Rebecca in confusion, unaware of why she asked such a question.

At this moment, her heart pounded loudly.

Rebecca continued, “Do you love him?” “Mom!” “Tell me!” Rebecca’s tone softened slightly, creating an illusion in Christina’s heart at that moment—a misconception that there might be a possibility between herself and Cedric.

Rebecca’s eyes seemed to have a bewitching quality, encouraging Christina to confess her innermost feelings Christina looked at her without saying anything.

“Tell me, do you love him?” Seeing Christina hesitate, Rebecca already had an answer in her heart. Nevertheless, she persisted, patiently asking. Christina looked at Rebecca, unable to see through her thoughts at this moment. However, under Rebecca’s encouraging gaze, she nodded.

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 217-At Christina’s nod, Rebecca’s expression turned cold. Her face lost the softness and warmth she had a moment ago.

She abruptly shoved away Christina’s hand.

“Mom?!” Christina looked at Rebecca in disbelief, bewildered by the sudden change in her mother, who had just been fine moments ago.

Rebecca’s eyes were sharp.

“Who do you think you are, huh?” she snapped.

“Mom? What are you saying?” Christina’s heart clenched, unable to believe that her mother, who had always held her in high regard, would suddenly turn so cold.

Rebecca had never treated Christina this way before. Even though she had treated Natalie like this countless times, but every time she faced her..

There had been nothing but loving eyes!

But now...!

What did it mean?

“Mom! Slap!

As Christina finished speaking, Rebecca directly slapped her across This unexpected turn of events caught everyone off guard. This the face.

Wanda had been hiding nearby, and she rushed out upon hearing the commotion, “Madam, what are you doing?!” Wanda was frightened when she saw Rebecca slap Christina.

“Ms. Christina didn’t sleep all night; she’s had quite a scare. You’ll frighten her like this!”
“This damned thing! This wretched thing Rebecca cursed, glaring at Christina.

She wanted to punish her severely. She wanted to make her suffer!

Her mind was in chaos, and all her thoughts were jumbled. The idea that Christina might have such thoughts was something she couldn’t accept.

It was even possible that everything before this was orchestrated by Christina.

When Rebecca thought about that, she...!

“Madam, look carefully. That’s Ms. Christina, not the young mistress!” Wanda believed Rebecca must have gone mad.

Why else would she suddenly treat Christina this way?

Before this, she wouldn’t have acted like this.

She would only behave this way toward Natalie.

Rebecca shoved Wanda away, pointing at Christina as she shouted, “That’s your brother! Don’t you understand?!” Christina remained silent.

“I raised you not to disgrace the Johnson family. Get out!” Rebecca was furious. How could she tolerate this under her nose?

Christina was genuinely scared now. She finally realizes the extent of Rebecca’s anger.

With tearful eyes, she exclaimed, “Is it wrong for me to love my brother?” “You... How dare you say that?!” “Madam!” “I consider him as a brother. I want him to have a good life. Is that wrong? Mom, why are you treating me like this?” The scene was chaotic, and confusion reigned.

While chaos reigned in the Johnson Manor, the same happened in Sylvan Gems.

Natalie was also caught up in the turmoil, looking harassed.

Although everyone’s lives were difficult at the moment, Christina’s situation was more perilous.

After all, her biggest support over the years had been Rebecca, followed by Cedric Today, Natalie had planted seeds of suspicion in Rebecca’s heart. Even if Christina managed to worm her way out of it like a cunning fox, the seeds of doubt in Rebecca’s heart would make her days more difficult.

After all, people could sense insincerity when genuine feelings were lacking.

A sudden bang interrupted the atmosphere as Zane entered.

The sound of the door opening startled Natalie. She looked toward the entrance and saw Zane with a serious expression.

“Ms. Walker!” What’s it situation?” “The results are out.” Results? Did he mean the results of the jewelry materials?

“What is it?” Natalie’s tone tightened.

Zane approached and handed her a folder. His eyes carried an unprecedented coldness and chill.

Natalie’s heart skipped a beat. Judging by Zane’s expression, she could tell that this matter was closely related to her.

Her heart tensed as she opened the folder and took a look. With just one glance, her eyes widened.

The heading read ‘Confirmation of Material Replacement,’ and at the end... was her signature?!

“What does this mean?” “It’s the confirmation of the problematic jewelry exposed this time. The production date is a week after you signed it.” Natalie’s face turned pale. As she scrutinized the document in her hand, she confirmed that it indeed bore her signature.

This meant she had signed this document.

– ¶ Looking at Zane, she said, “I never signed such a document.” Her tone carried a hint of numbness, and she was speaking the truth. She truly hadn’t signed such a document.

But then... this document...!

“Is this your handwriting?” Zane asked with a serious expression.

Was it her handwriting?

The answer was yes!

The problem, however, lay in the fact that she hadn’t signed such a document!

Looking at the replacement of materials inside, it was like night and day. It could be said that the replaced materials were wholesale on the market. They were of the lowest quality, if not downright inferior!

Forget about agreeing to the replacement; she wouldn't even listen to anyone suggesting using these inferior materials!

"Those in the factory were also puzzled as to why you would sign such a document, but the jewelry did indeed come from our factory," Zane explained.

"What does this mean now?" Natalie asked.

"Sylvan Gems is facing quite substantial trouble now!" Zane said with a grave tone.

The jewelry sets Sylvan Gems released every year were limited editions!

Not only were the quantities limited, but each set was priced at millions or tens of millions.

Now, with materials like these, it was as if they were worth nothing!

Moreover, the document bore her signature, and with such high-profile items, the consequences were immense.

The key was that she was that the signature on the document was hers, and she couldn't evade responsibility in the related investigations.

"I'm sure I didn't sign this. Please look into it!" Natalie told Zane.

Zane nodded, "We already have relevant personnel looking into it!"

When Zane received the document, he also didn't quite believe that Natalie would sign such a document.

Therefore, he quickly arranged for an investigation to discover what happened.

4/5 The origin of the person who delivered the document was the crux of the matter, "Alright, you can go for now," Natalie nodded, running her hands over her face. At this moment, her mental state was on the verge of collapse!

On one side, there was the eastern suburb project. On the other, Sylvan Gems faced yet another issue.

Zane left the office. Natalie was now alone. She picked up her phone and dialed Cedric's number.

He answered quickly, "Hello." "It was you, wasn't it?" Her tone was icy.

"Yes," Cedric admitted.

He admitted it!!

It was really him, all of it!.

Ch, Cedric! Cedric! novelbin Natalie took a deep breath, trying to forcefully suppress the heaviness in her chest. Her vision blurred for a moment.

"You really spare no effort for her, huh?" she said.

"You'll have to pay the price for the things you've done, right?" A price?

One that he set?!

Natalie hung up the phone. If she continued, she might truly want to tear Cedric apart.

He... was too ruthless!.

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 218-He's Really Crazy Although Natalie had long witnessed Cedric's methods, she was still caught off guard this time.

Previously, she knew Cedric dealt with opponents ruthlessly. But now, this level of manipulation was directed at her!

She... If not for her uncle's protection, she probably wouldn't be able to break free.

But she underestimated Cedric's ruthlessness towards her.

When that man turned ruthless, he was no different from a madman.

At Radiant Tower, a man stood tall by the French windows, overlooking the traffic below like a king.

His thin lips were tightly pressed, radiating an icy demeanor. Yuvan stood not far behind him, and when he received a message on his phone, a shadow flickered in his eyes.

"Mr. Johnson!" "Ms. Morgan was injured," Yuvan said.

Cedric's tone was tight as he asked, "What happened?" Isabella was going through the prime of her life, but now, such an incident occurred...!

Her brother Ivan died because of him, and now, she had become a sacrifice in his marriage.

In just one day, Cedric had Yuvan investigate women who had come into contact with him even slightly.

There was no real connection between them, but they had all received money or threats in various ways.

Natalie... Hmph!

She seemed knowledgeable and reasonable, gentle and decent.

That woman...!

“Because she couldn’t see, she bumped into the door frame when she exited the bathroom. She fell to the ground, hit her head on the wash basin, and bled a lot.” 1/5
“That serious?” “Yes, sir.” Cedric turned around, grabbed his coat, and headed out. Yuvan quickly followed behind him.

In the Johnson Manor, Christina was as cunning as Natalie had expected.

Under her craftiness, she claimed to love Cedric as a brother!

She had always treated him like a real brother, just like the love she had for Rebecca. Therefore, she wished her brother well.

She didn’t want those dirty women near Cedric She simply ensured the screening process was foolproof.

Rebecca’s anger subsided.

“Madam, I told you Ms. Christina wouldn’t do such a thing!” Wanda tried to console.

Rebecca looked at Christina kneeling on the ground. Her expression softened slightly.

“Tina.” “Yes, Mom!” “You’re my daughter. Don’t entertain any improper thoughts. Understand?” A daughter.

Nel a poten Not a potential daughter–in–law.

That was Rebecca’s limit.

Christina was frightened and dared not challenge Rebecca after the scare.

She quickly nodded, "Yes, I understand." Seeing her obedient appearance, Rebecca felt a little more at ease.

Rebecca genuinely didn't want to see it happen.

If Christina had any feelings for Cedric... Undoubtedly, that would be heartbreaking for her.

2/5 Although Christina appeared obedient now, the seeds of distrust had been planted in Rebecca's heart.

"Get up." Rebecca said in a softened tone, yet there was still a hint of seriousness.

Something had changed, indeed.

Christina rose from the floor and immediately nestled into Rebecca's embrace. Such actions left the person fond of her feeling helpless.

Rebecca stroked her hair and sighed, "Oh, you... "Mom, I really didn't do anything. Who told you that? How could I have feelings for my brother?" Christina complained with a tone full of grievances.

Rebecca replied, "It doesn't matter who said it." "No more of this nonsense against Natalie. Understood?" Natalie!

Even with the chaos outside, Rebecca was still protecting Natalie. She undoubtedly valued the power behind her, Regal Horizons International!

Regal Horizons International... was a formidable existence.

It was an entity revered by many businesses.

And Natalie... was the future heir and manager of Regal Horizons International.

So, what did those outside disputes have to do with her?

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 219-Still an Explanation A chill flashed in Cedric's eyes.

"She doesn't acknowledge you as her sister. Why bother contending feelings at this point?"

His tone seemed also somewhat cold. It was evident Natalie was, and he couldn't accept her anymore.

that he had at trashy setermined what kind of person Isabella sensed the emotion in his tone. Although she felt a teenusenssoc satisfaction, she still looked pained on the surface.

“But she is my sister after all.” Her tone was filled with sorrow, seemed seemed that 11 pespite all Natalie had done during this period, Isabela was ill percco up for her.

Netalle had insulted Isabella’s mother as a mistress on the phone, a severe inundation Then when Isabella was thoroughly exposed as her sister, Natalie still refused to acontwisacge hes Natalie was truly ruthless..

Now looking at isabella, who continued to defend Natalie, everyone couldnt hela hur bed dory for her.

Enough both say anything more, hmm? Cedric said.

isabela warned to say something more, but Cedric’s phone rang.

Taking it out and seeing it was a call from Rebecca, he thought it might be related to the situation with Christine. He answered.

“Did Tina rectum Bedore Rebecca could speak, Cedric said.

“Are you in Sapphice Rebecca didn’t answer Cedric’s question and instead asked.

Yeah.

“Are you planning to take sacella/back to Verde City?

Verde City was not far from Saccrure. With fast driving, it would only take a couple of hours.

Even so, Rebecca didn’t want sacellis in Verce City.

Being in Sapphire was still some distance sway “Yeah.” Cedric didn’t explain his actions, That was how he had always been!

“Then where do you plan to let her stay? The Johnson Manor?” At this moment, anger surged within Rebecca.

If Isabella moved into the Johnson Manor, it would have a significant impact. Her relationship with Natalie had just been thoroughly exposed.

If Isabella moved into the Johnson Manor now and it was leaked out... That would undoubtedly have a very negative impact!

“Scarlet Villa!” Rebecca was speechless!

Already angered, she almost blacked out when she heard Cedric say this. However, she still held on tightly.

After half a second, she roared, ‘Have you gone crazy?!’ Scarlet Villa was where he had lived with Natalie before. Now he wanted to take Isabella to Scarlet Villa?i What would people say?!

Hearing the squeaking sound of the wheelchair, Cedric turned to look at Isabella and said, “There are more people there, and they can take better care of her.” “Cedric, can you please understand? This isn’t just about taking care or not. Do you know...” “I’m hanging up!” Cedric interrupted Rebecca before she could finish her sentence and disconnected the call.

Isabella asked, “Was that a call from Madam Johnson?” “Yeah.” “She doesn’t quite approve of me going back. Her tone still carried a sense of difficulty.

There was no hint of provocation when Isabella said those words.

Cedric frowned, “You don’t need to worry about others, hmm?” THE Isabella took his hand, “That’s your mother!” “Yeah, the same applies, Cedric said deliberately.

Isabella’s concerns were distressing. In Cedric’s eyes, she should be enjoying her prime, yet she endured these hardships and constantly considered others.

Isabella wanted to say more, but the man’s tone softened, “Be good and stop talking, okay?” Isabella swallowed back the words she was about to say. Instead, she smiled.

“Okay, I’ll listen to your Seeing her smile, Cedric’s expression also softened.

Later on, Yuvan and the butler here discussed some matters and reported Isabella’s situation to Cedric.

Naturally, Cedric learned about the difficulties Isabella had faced with Rebecca earlier.

A storm flashed in his eyes—it was a boundless disappointment.

After all, Isabella was Ivan’s sister.

He never expected his mother to treat her this way...!

Karina arrived at Sylvan Gems.

She brought the results of the investigation about the eastern suburbs project, and it turned out to be a problem with the blueprints!

An issue with the dimensions in the blueprints caused the collapse of the building.

“But it had just started, and it was so short...” Natalie trailed off.

Undoubtedly, Cedric was behind this acute construction site incident!

It was Cedric!

She even foolishly calculated her own blueprints.

“The blueprints were switched! Karina said, placing the fake blueprints in front of Natalie.

From the exterior, they looked identical. However, the internal measurements had clearly been manipulated.

Anyone involved in building construction knew that precision in dimension measurements was crucial when it came to large structures, especially those with significant height.

Designers must be familiar with and even precisely master these data, leaving no room for error.

Natalie looked at the fake blueprints with a cold smirk.

“I need you to do something.” “What?” “It’s regarding Christina!” Natalie said after a moment’s thought.

Although Natalie was trapped in these matters, she had to remain calm.

Christina had managed to escape in such a manner.

Without a doubt, she would swagger in front of her, and Natalie didn’t want to see that face.

With just a glance, Karina understood Natalie’s meaning and nodded. “Alright, I’ll handle it.” “Go now.” Karina nodded and. With a somewhat worried look in her eyes, she wanted to say something. Ultimately, she stayed silent before standing up and leaving.

For Natalie, the current situation was like a swamp.

The material replacement at Sylvan Gems and the forged signature on the form had made her a target.

and Sylvan Gems suffered significant consequences.

Many orders had been returned.

Meanwhile, the blueprints for the eastern suburbs project were switched, and her signature and seal were on them.

She was trapped on all sides.

Undoubtedly, what Natalie needed the most was Stephen's protection right now.

However, Inconveniently, the traps surged toward Natalie like a tide at this time. The eastern suburbs project, Sylvan Gems, and now... even her uncle were involved.

A DNA report had appeared online, showing that Natalie had no blood relation to Stephen!

4/5 So, how did she become Stephen's niece? How did she take the position of CEO at the Sylvan Gems, a branch of Regal Horizons International?

There were two possibilities: One, she was a fraud! Two, there was indeed an unspeakable relationship between her and Stephen.

The comments section exploded.

Some said that even though she was the former young mistress of the Johnson family, the Johnson.

family never accepted her. novelbin It was possible that she engaged in deception or an improper relationship for her own status. Some even dug up photos of her exuding a queenly demeanor to attack her.

Sylvan Gems was also in chaos!

Many senior designers at the Auro Studio resigned, and Natalie's directive was clear: Let them go!

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 220-Exploding Temper Cedric's tactics were fierce. In just a few days, he had violently brought her down from her high position and crushed her ruthlessly.

Natalie watched the overwhelming online attacks, feeling a chilling sensation throughout her b*dy.

With an imposing aura, she rushed to Radiant Tower but was intercepted by Yuvan.

"Ms. Walker, Mr. Johnson said he doesn't want to see you." Slap!

Yuvan's words were cut short as Natalie slapped him. In an instant, Yuvan's expression darkened, and his novelbin gaze toward Natalie turned sharp.

"Oh, someone who's been pulled down from the position of Sylvan Gems' CEO has bitten back, huh?" An unsympathetic voice chimed in.

Queenie appeared, holding a white porcelain cup. She stood next to Yuvan, observing Natalie with a sarcastic look.

Slap! Slap!

Natalie delivered two slaps to Queenie's face. The white cup crashed to the ground, and coffee spilled everywhere.

Onlookers, who were initially reveling in Natalie's misfortune, quickly averted their gazes, pretending to focus on their own tasks.

There was no denying Natalie's explosive temper.

"You... hit me?" "I'm hitting someone like you who doesn't know how the world works." Natalie's tone was cold and filled with anger. Her frustration was already simmering.

Cedric's people had approached and provided her with an outlet for her pent-up anger. Unable to restrain herself, Natalie vented all her frustrations on these individuals.

Due to Isabella's connection, Queenie had already held a dislike for Natalie. Now, witnessing Natalie's fiery temper, she stood up, ready to charge at Natalie.

However, Yuvan quickly restrained her.

1/5 "Enough!" "Let go of me!" Queenie insisted.

Yuvan looked at her with a sharp gaze. Though reluctant, Queenie dared not confront Yuvan, who was a senior executive assistant.

She shot a fierce glare at Natalie.

Although she couldn't retaliate physically, she couldn't resist delivering a verbal jab to Natalie.

"What are you proud of? Bella's now living in Scarlet Villa! You tried to gain an advantage through improper means, and now you've lost what you originally possessed! Your foreign uncle probably doesn't care about you anymore, right?" "Queenie!" "Mr. Sullivan!" "Get lost!" Yuvan forcefully shook off Queenie's hand.

Although her face was full of resentment, Queenie swallowed back the words that were on the tip of her tongue and left angrily.

Natalie stood there, feeling an icy chill all over her b*dy. Despite her complete disappointment in Cedric, the absence of any expectations, and the conclusive end of everything, hearing that isabella had moved into Scarlet Villa still struck her like a blow to the gut.

“Is she really at Scarlet Villa? Natalie asked Yuvan.

Yuvan replied, “His affairs are no longer something you can inquire about.” It was a statement asserting that Natalie had no right to interfere.

Indeed, now she had no right to interfere.

“You’re right. I have no relationship with him anymore. There’s no need to ask further,” Natalie coldly retorted.

She headed towards Cedric’s office. Yuvan intercepted her again and stood in front of Natalie.

She raised an eyebrow and asked, “Isn’t one slap enough?” “Mr. Johnson doesn’t want to see you!” With these words, a chill ran down everyone’s spine.

25 At that moment, Natalie held a fruit knife against Yuvan’s neck. The people around gasped as the knife gleamed in the light.

With just a swift movement, Yuvan’s life might be in jeopardy.

However, Yuvan spoke in a tone even colder than before without batting an eye, “Do you really need to resort to this?” Natalie responded, “What, you think I wouldn’t do it?” “No, you wouldn’t. It’s not worth it for someone like me,” Yuvan said calmly and confidently.

His certainty made Natalie smile. She looked at him and said, “Why wouldn’t it be worth it? You’re one of Cedric’s people, and I can’t stand any of them!” “It’s not worth it,” Yuvan reiterated, unfazed. “For someone like me, it’s not worth it.” ... it won’t be His resolute demeanor amused Natalie. She stared at him and said, “You’re not worth it, but it won’t worth it to be admitted to the hospital for my sake either, right?” Yuvan remained silent.

In the next moment, Yuvan felt a sharp pain in his arm. Yuvan gasped as he instinctively covered his arm, looking at Natalie with colder eyes Natalie wiped away the blood on her cheek with a graceful movement.

Her tone was mysterious and all-seeing as she said, "Whatever happens between you and her, it's better to keep it hidden. Consider this an early warning H "Otherwise, next time...!" Natalie trailed off.

If he dared cross the line again...!

Yuvan could see how serious and ruthless she was.

People present couldn't help but think that Natalie had gone mad.

Cedric now wished she would just die, and by hurting those close to him, she had irreparably damaged their relationship.

Little did he know that when she saw the online article about herself and her uncle, along with the Cedric had driven her to madness!

With a resounding crash, Natalie kicked open the office door. She stood in the doorway with her petite figure. She faced the man sitting in the grand chair, exuding both nobility and coldness, Their icy gazes clashed as Natalie stepped inside. She slammed the fruit knife onto Cedric's desk.

"What's the matter? Have I finally pushed you too far?" he asked as he stared at her coldly.

Natalie said, "Cedric, do you think everything will finally be over if you die?" "Do you think you can do it?" His eyes were even colder, Natalie looked at the man's clear and cold face with indifference.

Could she do it?

She asked herself the same question. If she could, she truly wished to plunge this knife into Cedric's heart.

She grabbed the cigarette box and lighter from the desk. Then, she walked to the nearby sofa, pulled out a cigarette, and lit it.

Inhaling deeply, she said, "You promised not to touch my uncle.

"I didn't touch him." "I already said once that you rely on him!" 1 Natalie looked at Cedric ONA So, the DNA test was fake?

It was him...? 1 It was him!

On her way here, Natalie connected all the dots.

It was all Cedric's doing.

At that moment, she closed her eyes to conceal the storm within them. Cedric's methods were undeniably ruthless, but she never thought of submitting to him.

Submit to this man?

In her previous life, she had submitted to him countless times But what was the result?!

Darkness accompanied her to the end!

Upon her arrival, she had been full of anger. She had even hit Yuvan and Queenie at the door..

Yet, when she truly faced Cedric, she became calm..

her angry.

This man wasn't even worthy of making her angry.

After taking a fierce puff, she pressed the cigarette butt into the ashtray. The words she had prepared to scold him remained unspoken. She stood up and walked toward the door.

"Stop!" Watching Natalie's proud figure, Cedric felt his blood boiling.

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 221

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 221-Graceful Confrontation It was hard to imagine that this woman could remain so proud and upright despite all her malicious deeds.

She She even stood at the peak of life and flaunted her power and dominance.

Natalie stopped and turned around. There was a smirk that could kill on her lips.

"You've done so much just to make me beg, right? To see me submit to you!?" |

"Cedric, I can stand in the spotlight at the summit, and naturally, I can gracefully face the fall. So all your scheming to drag me into the mud won't show you what you want!" Her words were calm, and she spoke like a queen. It felt as if she were elevated and untouchable.

Yet, the person orchestrating all of this was still lurking in the shadows.

Natalie walked away.

Her proud figure was something she had been born with. She wouldn't let anyone suppress her and succeed!

After exiting Radiant Tower, Natalie called Stephen. Since something significant had happened, Stephen would undoubtedly be aware of it.

However, he hadn't called her.

The call automatically disconnected.

There was no response from Stephen's end.

Natalie's heart tightened.

She sat on the sidewalk, feeling lost. In her mind, flashes of the final scenes from her previous life kept reappearing. She even pondered on the meaning of her rebirth.

Though she had been full of pride before Cedric, deep down, alone, she had to admit her own misery.

It might not be as drastic as her previous life, where she had her vision taken away or burned alive in Scarlet Villa, 165 But now...!

Watching Cedric target her with the most ruthless and venomous methods, her heart tightened even more.

Escape...!

That was her most instinctive thought now. Cedric was too crazy. He wouldn't believe it even with irrefutable evidence in front of him.

And his protection of Isabella has also reached a maniacal level!

To be retaliated against by such a madman undoubtedly made it feel like she was walking on a knife's edge...!

She even started to wonder if staying in Verde City at this moment was burning her life away. Was it fundamentally contradicting the chance given to her by fate?

Perhaps the chance given to her by fate was to rid her world of Cedric.

But in an instant... Natalie dismissed all these thoughts. The chance she got was just a struggle against destiny.

Could she escape if she tried?

She couldn't!

She had burdens to carry in Verde City, and she couldn't simply leave just like that.

Natalie got into her car. She originally meant to go to Sylvan Gems but ended up at Apex Global.

She didn't know why. In her extreme confusion, her hands steered her here. She then remembered she had to give Irwin an explanation!

The receptionist still greeted her respectfully. However, when she reached the CEO's office, Dylan's expression changed upon seeing her.

He quickly intercepted her and said, "Ms. Walker, things aren't looking good right now. It's better if you don't see him!" "That wasn't my blueprint!" "Saying these things now is pointless. Mr. Frazier doesn't want to hear them," Dylan said.

275 This sentence plunged Natalie's heart into the abyss.

Irwin wouldn't want to hear it?

She didn't blame him!

A huge accident had happened in the eastern suburbs, and the only relative he was close to in the Frazier family had already.

All because of that project!

At this moment, Natalie also realized that Irwin probably wouldn't want to see her.

Natalie looked at Dylan. He was probably the only person who could speak for her in front of Irwin now.

"Then, I won't go in to see him." "Alright," Dylan nodded.

He knew Natalie's temper and genuinely feared that if she got angry, she might force her way in, which wouldn't be good for her.

But Natalie couldn't help asking "How is he doing now?"

"Not very well! He's been single-mindedly focused on work! But the project in the eastern suburbs is his taboo now!" The implication was that, regardless of the situation in the eastern suburbs, no one dared to mention it in front of Irwin.

Natalie's face turned pale.

"In that case, can you tell him something for me if you get the chance?" "...Alright!" Dylan dared not promise her, but he also knew it wasn't easy to pacify this lady.

Natalie said, "I compared the blueprints brought back from the scene with my own. It's clear that someone swapped the ones brought back!" "...What?" When Natalie mentioned that the blueprints had been swapped, Dylan couldn't react.

He considered the project in the eastern suburbs, now at Apex Global, as a topic that couldn't even be discussed. "Let's talk over here." Dylan glanced around and led Natalie to a meeting room. In the meeting room, Natalie explained the matter with the blueprints. As soon as the incident came to light, she quickly conducted an inspection!

Too impatient to wait for an official examination, she had her people go to the scene to get the relevant construction drawings and compare them, confirming that the blueprints had indeed been swapped.

The identity of the culprit who swapped the blueprints wasn't hard to guess.

Dylan listened with his heart pounding. His expression became solemn.

"Wait for me here for a moment." he said.

After saying that, he left the meeting room.

Natalie knew Dylan was going to see Irwin.

As Dylan had said....

If this issue was a problem with her blueprints, then all the connections between her and Irwin would cease since Stella was involved.

After a few minutes, Dylan returned. Natalie approached him and asked, "How did it go? Is Irwin willing to see me?" Natalie thought Irwin was a very rational person who could achieve calm analysis in the face of any situation. So, she didn't doubt he would do the same in this situation. But she was wrong.

Irwin could be rational at any time, but not when it came to the only relative, Stella.

Stella, the sister left to him by his mother—the most important person to him in the Frazier family.

Natalie looked at Dylan with hope, but Dylan shook his head and said, "Mr. Frazier has stated that, regardless of the outcome, the relevant departments will investigate!" The hope that had ignited in Natalie was completely extinguished at this moment.

So... Irwin didn't believe her now?

She closed her eyes, her breath somewhat unsteady, "I have no grievances with him. I wouldn't hurt him, "Ms. Walker, at this point, Mr. Frazier doesn't even want to mention the eastern suburbs project!" The issue lied there.

Whenever the eastern suburbs project was brought up, Irwin completely lost his rationality!

While that may be the case, Natalie couldn't help but feel disappointed.

"You should go back for now, alright?" "Yeah." Natalie wanted to see Irwin, but here with Irwin, she couldn't handle things the way she did with Cedric. Even though she didn't design the blueprint... Stella really died because of her!.

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 222-Who's In Trouble Natalie didn't know how she managed to leave Apex Global. Sitting in the car, she felt like a lost child.

Just then, her phone vibrated.

She picked it up and noted it was an internal call from Auro Studio. Honestly, whenever she saw calls from the internal line or from people like Zane and Karina, she couldn't help but tense.

That was because they constantly reminded her of the dilemma she was facing.

Even though this was her second change at life, in the face of such a situation, she... felt lost!

Answering the call, she said, "Hello!" "Can you come to the studio now?" Karina's voice sounded urgent, making Natalie's heart jump to her throat.

"What's going on?" "It's the Premier Garden project!" Premier Garden Corporation?

The project with Caleb Spencer?

"What happened?" "They need the designs urgently. You know how it is now, all our designers are..." Karina trailed off.

Natalie understood. If Premier Garden Corporation needed it, Natalie had to handle it personally.

In this short time, many good designers had left the studio, and the remaining interns were not enough to support such a large project.

"I got it," N "I got it," Natalie said.

She hung up the phone. The traffic/outside seemed chaotic, but the moment she closed her eyes and reopened them, clarity enveloped her.

She was Natalie Walker!

Yes, Natalie Walker!

She was a woman who was given a second change in life. Now, Cedric was determined to completely crush her for Isabella and watch her beg in misery.

That was all the more reason she couldn't afford to fall.

Starting the car, she drove in the direction of Premier Garden Corporation.

When she arrived at Premier Garden Corporation, she saw Caleb's tall figure coming out of the magnificent office building, followed by the consistently cold and stone-faced assistant.

Natalie jogged up. "Mr. Spencer!" The man heard her voice. He halted and looked in her direction.

"You shouldn't be here at this time, should you?" Caleb said, a hint of a smile playing at the corner of his eyes as he observed her catching her breath.

It was rare to see someone smiling at her these days. As for her, she couldn't even muster up a smile in response anymore.

She simply said, "Are you busy now? I'd like to delay you for a few minutes regarding the project." "Let's go." Caleb nodded and turned to walk back.

Natalie kept up!

the man's strides.

In the office, the secretary poured Natalie a glass of water. Natalie took a sip, then downed half the cup.

Whenever her inner turmoil surfaced, she liked to drink water. It seemed that only in those moments could she temporarily alleviate the pressure on her heart.

Now, the man sat across from her with crossed arms.

"Terminate the collaboration?" Caleb's tone was somewhat serious.

Natalie put down the cup and nodded. "You've seen the public opinion outside. Now, whoever associates.

with me is in trouble." Hadn't that shown with Irwin?

Many clients had reached out to terminate their collaborations with Auro Studios, and Natalie didn't try to hold on at all.

She knew that Cedric was now standing on the opposite side. He practically wanted to kill her, and Irwin was implicated because of her.

2/5 She didn't want Premier Garden Corporation to be the same!

"Are you suggesting that your designs were the cause of the problem at the eastern suburbs site?" Caleb said sharply, and there was a vague undertone in his words.

Natalie shook her head. "No." "No?" "No. It wasn't a problem with my designs." "Then, was there a problem with the materials for Sylvan Gems? Did you use your authority for personal gain?" The man seemed to be interrogating her, but there was an obvious element of disbelief.

Natalie looked at Caleb and asked, "Are you asking me to... explain?" He shrugged. "Not really." "But I want to hear it personally from you. Did you, or did you not?" he insisted.

Natalie asked, "If I tell you, will you believe me?" Would he?

There weren't many people around her who believed her now! Except for Bianca, who wasn't involved in Natalie's line of work, others wouldn't believe her.

Cedric, who should believe in her the most, didn't.

What more to say about others?

Yet, Caleb...!

At this moment, he unexpectedly said just one word, "Yes!" Natalie was speechless.

It was just one word, but it made her feel like tears were rushing to her eyes. However, she forcefully suppressed them!

"You can cry. You have the right to cry!" The man's sharp gaze seemed to penetrate her.

However, Natalie didn't cry. She had always been strong! Given a second chance at life by fate, It wasn't "Don't blame Irwin either," Caleb said as he reached out for his coffee.

The moment he stirred it with a spoon, the rich aroma filled the air, dissipating a bit of exhaustion. Without waiting for Natalie to speak, Caleb continued, "After all, Stella is a significant existence to him!" "You probably don't understand his situation in the Frazier family. Stella was the one who brought him home, you know?" At those words, Natalie's heart tightened.

The Frazier family was a large family. The patriarch had several wives, and Irwin's mother always lived outside because she wasn't well-liked.

Due to his mother's unpleasant nature, Irwin's position in the Frazier family was awkward. He had spent a considerable amount of time living outside with his mother.

Natalie knew all of this.

What she hadn't expected was that Irwin was finally able to return to the Frazier family because of Stella. Natalie speculated that Stella had played a significant role in helping Irwin gain control over the Frazier family.

In the Frazier family, Stella was his only warmth. She was a sister unlike any other to him.

"Thank you." Natalie didn't know what else to say at this moment, so she expressed her gratitude to Caleb.

With this, she understood even more that regardless of whether the blueprints were her design or not, things between her and Irwin....

"Irv has always been rational. Give him some time." Caleb said this as if there was something between.

Natalie and Irwin.

In the past, Natalie might have argued against such words.

But now, she didn't.

"Well, I guess our collaboration is settled, right?"

"I get that you're tied up with what's happening in Sylvan Gems and the eastern suburbs project, but... Natalie, are you afraid of Cedric now?" Afraid?

4/5 What a joke!

"No!" "You have too much pride, you know? It makes people want to soften it." Caleb said mysteriously.

Natalie looked at him.

Caleb continued, "I didn't expect you to come here to terminate our contract." "You..." "Ask yourself. Who else in Verde City can help you now?" Natalie was silent.

Who?

No one!

Cedric was relentlessly attacking her like a madman, and even her uncle... As Cedric said, he wouldn't touch her uncle's side.

But orchestrating the crazy act of deceiving the Chairman of Regal Horizons International, and even involving DNA, was a ruthless way to cut off her relationship with Stephen.

As he said, it was to sever her reliance.

"Irwin is definitely too preoccup.

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 223-Where Are Your Moral Limits?

After exiting Premier Garden Corporation, Natalie went directly to Radiant Tower.

Yuvan... had already been admitted to the hospital. So, when people saw Natalie in her frosty demeanor, they avoided her and dared not approach her.

Undaunted, Queenie intercepted her.

Slap!

Before she could say anything, Natalie slapped her, sending her into the corner.

Such explosive temper indicated that anyone approaching her now would face a similar fate.

Queenie was somewhat dazed from the slap. She angrily got up and screamed, "Natalie, stop right there!" Bang!

Natalie forcefully pushed a chair in her path, kicked open the office door, and entered with even more fiery rage than when she arrived.

Cedric's office was currently holding a high-level meeting. The loud noise drew everyone's attention.

When Cedric saw her again, a hint of gloom flashed in his eyes.

He glanced at his wristwatch and said, "You're all dismissed." "Yes, sir!" Everyone stood up and quickly left.

Natalie entered the office and slammed the door shut with a loud crash.

She was furious.

After hearing Caleb talk about the importance of Stella to Irwin and realizing that the eastern suburbs project was Cedric's scheme, she approached the man.

Her petite figure exuded an oppressive aura.

Her small hand viciously grasped the man's collar.

"Cedric, don't you think you've crossed the moral limits with your actions?" Heh, do you have the right to talk about morality with me?" The man looked at her with cold mockery in his eyes.

Natalie tightened her grip.

Suddenly, she felt a strong urge to just strangle this man to death and get it over with.

"You knew how important Stella was to him, didn't you?" In her heart, a voice told her that Cedric had done everything intentionally!

He knew everything, the significance of Stella to Irwin, and he made sure something happened to Stella as he desired.

She still couldn't meet Irwin in person.

"He confidently said that he would interfere in your affairs. But what's this? Seems like you can't even see him in person now, huh?" Slap!

Natalie slapped Cedric across the face.

It was him!!

He was the one behind the trouble in the eastern suburbs project!

He was also behind what had happened in Sylvan Gems!

Everything was him!

"If you have any issues, come at me! Why involve my business partners?" "He's not just an ordinary business partner to you! He's the one you were supposed to accompany back to Simeria for the New Year. Natalie, do you think I'm a fool?" Clang!

As she finished speaking, Natalie, fueled by anger, grabbed a water cup from the desk and threw it at Cedric.

The water in the cup spilled all over Cedric, leaving him in a sorry state.

Natalie didn't want to hate him!

In her eyes, hating this man meant there was a connection between them.

But now, for Stella, for Irwin... she hated him! She hated that this man indiscriminately implicated innocent people.

715 As he wished, any relationship between her and Irwin was now gone. And the connection between him and her... had also ended, but with an added layer of Natalie's hatred.

The man casually wiped the water off his b*dy. He stood up and stared at her coldly.

"Your uncle hasn't done anything yet. It seems he doesn't quite believe the DNA report.

"Why would he believe? When I was abroad, we went to get a DNA test together!"
novelbin "Don't worry, whether he believes it or not doesn't matter, Cedric said with cold indifference.

He was talking to Natalie at this moment like he was facing a complete stranger or even an enemy.

Natalie asked, "What else do you want?" "Natalie, as I said, you'll pay the price for your actions. Your biggest reliance is Stephen," "I wonder how does it feel to be crushed by him? He's not someone easy to deal with. He has interfered with many of my overseas projects." Natalie looked at Cedric's expression, never feeling so hysterical before.

Slap!!

She rushed forward and slapped the man across the face. She wished she could just kill Cedric and end everything now in the most direct and simple way!

The man pushed her away. Her petite figure couldn't withstand Cedric's strength and crashed into the office desk.

The pain in her lower back made her instantly regain her composure.

"Cedric, you're not human!" "Stephen will soon crush you, hmm?" The man said in a sinister tone, Natalie stared at him, seething with hatred. Even in her current predicament, she still had no intention of submitting to this man.

“Cedric, you better let me get ahold of your weakness. Otherwise... don’t expect me to give up easily!” “Also, do you think everyone is as foolish as you? I’m afraid my uncle will disappoint you!” After saying this, Natalie turned around.

Her proud figure made people wish to crush and trample her in the mud. He had once cherished her so much despite her arrogance.

Yet now...!

Natalie left Radiant Tower, Pain radiated from her lower back and abdomen. It hurt so much that she felt a suffocating sensation. She was sweating coldly as she sat in the car.

Just then, Bianca called her. Natalie answered instantly.

“Bia!” “Nat, how are you now?” Bianca’s concerned voice came from the phone, accompanied by a sense of urgency. Every time something happened to her, Bianca was undoubtedly the most anxious.

Natalie gritted her teeth against the pain in her abdomen. “Don’t worry, I can handle it.” “You don’t need to pretend in front of me.” Natalie replied, “Yes, my esteemed lawyer, who can deceive you?” Bianca was a lawyer, a divorce lawyer, to be precise. As she was in the field of law, Bianca was most aware of the troubles Natalie was caught up in now. 1 If these two major things she has committed were confirmed, what awaited her would be prison time!

The severity of the situation could be deduced from Natalie’s inability to leave Verde City.

“By the way, I need to tell you something.” “What is it?” “It’s about your cousin, Winona.” As soon as Natalie heard Winona’s name, her heart skipped a beat once again.

“What happened to her?” With Cedric targeting her everywhere now, many things were beyond her guard. The man was capable of anything.

But at the same time, Natalie comforted herself, believing Cedric shouldn’t reach into Simeria.

However, Bianca’s words made her heart clenched tightly.

“Your sister’s boyfriend is in trouble.” “What?” “We don’t know the details yet.” Natalie was silent. Her mind was blank.

“This... I haven’t heard anything about this!” “Your uncle is going crazy today, and Winona is completely out of control.” Natalie was speechless.

It was no wonder her uncle didn't answer the phone; it turned out there was such a big issue!

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 224-Something's Wrong with Me Cedric...
Cedric...!

At this moment, Natalie kept repeating this name in her mind.

That was the man from her previous life who had cost her everything.

In this life, was she so powerless that she could do nothing as he turned her world upside down?!

"Nat? Nat, are you okay?" Bianca's voice on the phone became increasingly worried as Natalie remained silent.

Especially now since she saw Stephen hovering over Winona so much. Winona wasn't in a good situation right now.

Natalie's condition was not good either.

Sweat kept dripping from her forehead, and a warm sensation beneath her suggested something was not right. She took a deep breath and quickly said to Bianca, "I'm okay, don't worry. I'll hang up for now." Without waiting for Bianca to respond, Natalie hung up the phone.

A stabbing pain emanated from her lower abdomen.

She hadn't expected that the impact in Cedric's office a while ago would cause such intense pain. She suspected she had hit something Trembling, she dialed Karina's number.

The call was quickly answered, and Karina sounded urgent, "Ms. Walker!" Karina had been working late at Auro Studio these days, indicating the significant impact of the East Suburb project on the studio.

"Karina, come out right away!" s wrong?

"Something's wrong with me," Natalie said with a trembling voice.

It was as if she had used up all her strength to say those words. Once she finished speaking, she lost consciousness.

The phone slipped out of her grasp and onto the car floor.

On the other end, Karina sensed that something was wrong. “Ms. Walker? Ms. Walker!” Her tone became more urgent.

Then, footsteps were heard on the other end!

Meanwhile, Irwin sat on the office sofa at Apex Global. His clothes were slightly disheveled.

Sitting opposite him was Jonathan Frazier, his father. Despite his age, the old man possessed an imposing presence.

“You need to leave the country immediately,” Jonathan closed his eyes and said with authority.

Irwin gave him a sharp look!

When these two were together, to call them father and son...!

They looked more like enemies than strangers, and their relationship seemed even worse than that of complete strangers.

“Irwin, I’m deeply saddened by Stella’s situation. I don’t want anything to happen to you at this critical juncture,” Jonathan said.

Seeing the hatred hidden within Irwin’s eyes at the mention of Stella, Jonathan’s words were tinged with exasperation as he gazed at his son.

The situation in the eastern suburb had become too significant. Everything pointed to the blueprints, which made Natalie undoubtedly involved.

However, Irwin was also the legal representative, which meant he would also bear certain responsibilities.

“I’m well aware.” Jonathan’s slightly softened tone received only a brief acknowledgment from Irwin.

As the words fell, the atmosphere in the office suddenly chilled. The softness in Jonathan’s eyes turned into sternness.

“It’s not up to you!” Having said that, he rose from his seat. The air around him was cold.

After looking at Irwin, who was deeply inhaling the smoke, he said, “I know you can crush the Johnson family.” “How do you think it would sound, huh? To do so for a woman that Cedric doesn’t want?” Jonathan’s every word was sharp, revealing his dissatisfaction with Natalie. From the beginning, when Irwin and Natalie became too close, he didn't allow it.

Even though that woman had some ability, she needed Cedric's permission to do anything w with it!

So what if she had an uncle?!

This was Verde City!

"You don't need to concern yourself," Irwin stood up. He flicked the cigarette butt into the ashtray and casually picked up his coat from the sofa, ready to leave.

But just as he took two steps, Jonathan angrily rebuked from behind him, "Irwin! The Johnson family is not as simple as you see them!" Irwin remained silent.

"How many playboys are there among the elite families? Cedric has been with that woman for ten years.

Do you think you can intervene in their relationship?" "Right now, they seem to be in a predicament, but a wild beast always finds a way to break free. Do you understand?" Bang!

The furious slamming of the door was Irwin's response.

Jonathan closed his eyes as he looked at the tightly closed office door. When he opened them again, there was a sharp glint in his eyes.

"Lenny!" "Yes, sir!" Lenny, who had been standing respectfully by the French window, approached.

Jonathan said, "Did you see?" "Yes, sir!" "He can't stay in the country right now." "Understood!" Lenny nodded.

Although the Frazier family's reputation was not the best, Natalie was still a divorcee.

Jonathan was strict about certain things! Every wife he had taken was pure and clean when he married them.

and Stephen Natalie had significant career accomplishments, was her uncle. Those reasons could barely allow the Frazier family to accept her, but Jonathan was different from Rebecca.

After all, Natalie completely followed in Cedric's footsteps. They caused so much commotion, and they were so shameless!

Both of them were immature and childish!

Outside, rumors spread that Natalie was not Stephen's niece. There were even documents exposed to confirm it.

However, neither Natalie nor Stephen responded to these allegations.

Even the public relations team from Regal Horizons International remained silent.

In Radiant Tower, Cedric observed Stephen's movements.

The older man would have undoubtedly already realized what had happened. Something had even happened with Winona.

Cedric originally thought Stephen would immediately tear Natalie apart, but unexpectedly, Stephen was currently by Winona's side with no response whatsoever.

"What does he have in mind regarding Natalie's situation?" Cedric asked with a sharp tone.

Yuvan shook his head, "Nothing." Nothing?

A cold gleam appeared in his eyes.

Stephen was truly unfathomable. Was it possible that there was something more complicated between him and Natalie? Was the so-called niece identity just a cover? Did they guess right from the beginning?

Bang!

His fist slammed onto the desk, instantly cracking it.

Yuvan was silent.

Looking at Cedric, who exuded a chilling aura, Yuvan's eyes also darkened.

to He then said, "Ms. Morgan called just now and said to join her for dinner tonight." Isabella!

when ask was mentioned, the chill in Cedric's eyes intensified. This coldness was clearly directed at Natalie— everything had happened because

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 225-In the hospital room, the scent of disinfectant filled the air as Natalie regained consciousness.

Karina was by her side, holding a laptop with several files scattered on a small table, indicating how busy she had been.

“Why didn’t you get someone from Elegance Bay to stay with me instead?” Natalie asked with a hint of guilt as she observed how busy Karina was.

Upon hearing this, Karina looked towards her. As soon as she saw Natalie waking up, she immediately set aside her laptop and files.

“You’re awake! How do you feel?” “My stomach still hurts a bit, Natalie replied..

“I’ll call the doctor right away,” Karina said, rushing out of the room.

HIS Natalie wasn’t sure where she had hit herself that caused such intense pain. Soon after, Karina returned with a doctor and two nurses “Hello, Ms. Walker,” the doctor greeted, recognizing Natalie, as she had become a topic of discussion in Verde City recently.

“What’s wrong with me?” Natalie couldn’t see her own pale face or bloodless lips. When she spoke, her lower abdomen ached.

The doctor got straight to the point and said, “You’re pregnant.” Natalie’s mind went blank with that revelation. She tried to say something, but words failed her at this moment. She just stared blankly at the doctor, unable to react for quite some time.

While the doctor continued to speak, she couldn’t hear anything. On the other hand, Karina diligently noted down the doctor’s instructions.

After the doctor left, Karina and Natalie were the only ones left in the room. It took a long time for Natalie to regain her senses..

She looked at Karina and asked, “Pregnant?” When she spoke, her voice trembled.

1/5 Karina nodded. “Yes.” “Don’t worry, I’ve instructed them not to leak any information, I even had the doctor sign a confidentiality agreement.” Karina didn’t know Natalie’s intentions, especially with the current strained relationship between her and Cedric. As a member of Stephen’s team, she handled everything meticulously and systematically as she had been trained to.

Bay to Natalie also understood why Karina was guarding her here and didn’t get someone from Elegance Bay to come.

In this situation, the fewer people who knew, the better.

“Thank you.” Natalie’s mind continued to buzz, and the world remained blank.

Closing her eyes momentarily, she tried to conceal the pain in her eyes.

Cedric...!

"Karima!" "Yes?" "Arrange for the hospital to schedule the surgery for me," Natalie spoke without hesitation.

At this moment, she had no room for any hesitation.

In her previous life, she foolishly took so many kinds of medicine for that man. And what was the result?

Despite finally conceiving, she and the child ended up perishing in a sea of flames.

In this life...!

The animosity between them was irreconcilable, and the arrival of this child wouldn't bring happiness but would only make things more tragic than her previous life.

She knew what kind of place the Johnson family was, and she had seen all their hypocritical faces!

Karina's expression changed slightly, clearly not expecting Natalie to be so resolute in this matter.

"Are you sure you've thought it through?" Karina asked.

"There's nothing to think about." Natalie closed her eyes. At this moment, she felt pain all over her body. It was the kind of burning sensation one would experience when engulfed in flames..

Even someone who had suffered a scalding burn with hot water would understand that feeling!

She... had been burned to ashes in a raging fire.

Every inch of Every inch of her wounds brought excruciating pain. It was a heartbreaking agony that accompanied her final moments of consciousness.

She didn't want any connection with Cedric, The unexpected arrival of this child... Although this decision was cruel, she couldn't bear the thought of the child's fate!

She couldn't bear to see the child suffering before her eyes while she was helpless to do anything.

Given her current situation, whether it was Sylvan Gems or the project in the eastern suburbs, she won't be able to easily extricate herself.

Leaving Verde City, especially with the child, was also not possible.

In such circumstances...!

Without thinking, she knew the kind of challenges the arrival of this child would bring.

She wouldn't be able to bear it!

"Should we inform Mr. Jarvis first?" Karina suggested, noticing Natalie's distress.

She was worried that Natalie might regret her decision after overcoming the current difficulties.

Thinking of Stephen, Natalie smiled bitterly.

"Don't tell my uncle for now, okay?" Stephen was currently infuriated over Winona's situation. Natalie didn't want to bother him with her and Cedric's affairs.

Besides, she knew that so far, whether it was Sylvan Gems or the project in the eastern suburbs, nothing had directly affected her.

This was largely due to her uncle's significant role. So far, the investigations had been meticulous. However, she was aware that Cedric's actions would "Karina."
"Yes?"

"Between Cedric and me, there's absolutely no possibility. Do you understand?" Karina knew! From the hysterics happening between them now, it was clear that a reconciliation was practically impossible.

Natalie continued, "If a mother can't provide a child with a complete family but instead lets them face all kinds of strange gazes in this world... rather than letting the child grow up in an unhealthy environment, it's better... not to bring them into this world!" As Natalie spoke these words, her tone was filled with pain.

The child...!

Once the child truly arrived in this world, there would always be a connection between them no matter how far things went between her and Cedric, And she didn't want to... Furthermore, she didn't want to compromise anything for the child in the future.

Between her and Cedric, it felt like they had entered a state of despair. This kind of crisis wouldn't change because of a child.

Thus, the one who would endure the pain of their separation was the child!

The one who would suffer the most in an unhealthy family was also the child!

“Alright, I understand,” Karina nodded.

When she saw Natalie decisively opt for the surgery just now, she thought Natalie was ruthless. However, after understanding her concerns, she realized Natalie’s helplessness and the deep resentment toward Cedric in her heart.

Such a resentment... It was already Impossible for the two of them to get back together, and harboring such resentment would indeed be harmful to the child!

Natalie wouldn’t be able to provide a healthy life to the child.

In that case, it would be better not to bring the child into the world.

15 If she did, it would only hurt the child.

“I’ll arrange everything” Natalie nodded. When Karina left the room, the smell of disinfectant almost made her lose all awareness.

She placed her hand gently on involved with Cedric ag her abdomen. After waking up to her second chance in life and getting involved with Cedric again, this was the first time she felt heartache.

Her heart ached for this child.

“I’m truly sorry,” she murmured softly, gently caressing her abdomen.

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 226-Taking Care of You Forever Once, Natalie had eagerly anticipated having a child. She had longed to give Cedric a child.

But now...!

Her determination was resolute!

She wasn’t a qualified mother, and this situation made her see Cedric’s madness completely!

In the face of that man’s madness, she had no confidence in protecting this child.

At Scarlet Villa, Isabella and Cedric sat at the dinner table. Cedric was currently on a call.

He was heard saying on the phone, Stephen can't attend to her right now!" "Yes, everything has been arranged!" After finishing the call, he hung up.

When Isabella heard Cedric mention Stephen, she knew that the call was about Natalie.

Despite feeling some relief, there was also tension within her. She had to admit that Cedric was truly ruthless!

This level of ruthlessness completely disregarded the ten years he had with Natalie.

The situation would be irreversible no matter who got involved in such ruthlessness.

She picked up a cup and drank half the glass of juice, allowing herself a moment to calm down.

"Don't drink so much juice, or you won't be able to eat!" The man's tone was gentle, devoid of the cold.

sternness from the previous phone call.

Isabella put down the cup, trying to conceal her emotions on her face.

She picked up the utensils. As the servant behind her reached out to help, she said, "I'll do it myself!" "Let them take care of you." Cedric's eyes dimmed slightly. However, when he spoke to Isabella, his tone remained gentle.

A faint smile appeared on Isabella's lips. Such a smile was like that of an angel, pure and heartwarming.

No one would want to harm her, Cedric thought. How could Natalie bear to?

Isabella said, "I have to live my whole life in the darkness. I still have to learn to be independent!" This statement was even more heart-wrenching.

Cedric felt a pang in his chest.

"I know you're with me now, Ced. But I still have to learn to care for myself when you're not around, right? I can't let myself be miserable in the darkness, you know?" She said it calmly and gently. It made people feel like she was sad rather than the hysteria she had shown when talking about Natalie earlier.

Cedric picked up his red wine and took a sip, feeling a bit suffocated in his chest. For some reason, Isabella's state made his heart ache.

But it was only a fleeting moment in his chest.

What he thought of more was... Natalie!

Thinking of that woman, a sharp and ruthless glint appeared in his eyes.

When he spoke again, his tone remained gentle, "Don't worry, I'll take care of you for a lifetime!" *

A lifetime?

At the mention of these words, Isabella's heart tightened.

To be honest, when she initially approached Cedric, her goal was simply to bring down Natalie. She wanted to see Natalie fall from grace and into the mud below!

She hated Natalie, but she had never thought of taking over everything from her. She hadn't even.

considered possessing Natalie's man.

But now...!

Feeling the man's warmth in the complete darkness made an uncontrollable longing grow in her heart.

It felt like being with Cedric wouldn't be so bad. She had never thought about it before, but now, Isabella harbored a covetous desire for possession!

She never thought of letting Natalie die, but... what about letting her live to see Isabella and Cedric together? a Wouldn't that be uncomfortable for her?!

That woman once had everything that should have belonged to Isabella. She lived a carefree life that Isabelle should have had!

But was falling from the position of Mrs. Johnson enough?

What about Cedric?!

When he uttered the words 'a lifetime, his heart felt even more suffocated!

When did it start?!

The 'lifetime' he once promised belonged to her!

Back then, they had pledged a lifetime to each other. Who would have thought that in a short ten years, they would come to this point?!

“A lifetime is too heavy. It may seem fine now, but I’m blind! I’m disabled, and I will burden you!” Isabella said gently. (1 Cedric was silent.

The suffocating feeling dissipated because of Isabella’s mention of being a burden. His rationality returned instantly at her words.

Damn it, he... he still couldn’t help but think of that damned woman!

“Ced, don’t quarrel with Nat, okay? I hope you’ll have a good life.” “Isabella!” “I’m serious. After all, she and you have been together for ten years. What do you think?” Ten years?!

Cedric’s anger soared to the skies! Thinking of the ten years between him and Natalie, he felt like a fool!

That woman’s gentle appearance had deceived him!

He wished he could throw her into hell.

Isabella.” “Hmm?” “I will arrange an engagement for you very soon!

“With whom?” “Me!” Isabella was silent, but her heart bubbled joyfully!

However, she put on a serious look and said, “This will have an impact on you, especially since everyone.

already knows about my relationship with Nat.” “I know what I’m doing!” “But...” “Just be good and listen to me, okay?” Cedric forcefully interrupted.

Isabella’s hesitant expression only solidified his determination. Ivan lost his life because of him! Because of his wife’s jealousy, Isabella ended up in this state!

He had to take care of her for a lifetime. With how Rebecca was acting, could he trust anyone else?

Isabella was still young, and life’s journey was long. Apart from himself, anyone else walking with her on this journey wouldn’t be good enough!

Natalie was no longer by his side!

The ten years of emotions made Cedric lose confidence in all relationships.

Taking care of Isabella was his responsibility.

Cedric acted swiftly.

True to his word, he had the company announce the engagement between him and Isabella on the same night. The ceremony would be scheduled for half a month later.

When this news broke, the entire Verde City exploded!

Needless to say, things were chaotic in the Johnson Manor, “Is this rebellious boy out of his mind?” TRE 475 Elizabeth, who always had a good sleeping routine, couldn’t sleep tonight after learning the news!

Rebecca’s complexion now looked even worse.

As for Christina, it was beyond words!

In her mind, all she could think of were Isabella’s words—her dislike for Cedric and disgust for everything related to Natalie.

And now they were getting engaged?!

She couldn’t believe this was Cedric’s idea alone! Isabella must have seduced him somehow!

“Grandma, perhaps there’s a misunderstanding in this matter.” “Misunderstanding? It’s already so late in the night! Who would dare spread such news recklessly if it weren’t for his approval?!” Indeed. Who would dare?

So, this matter was undoubtedly true.

Christina stiffened! Her heart tightened...!

It was at this moment that she realized Isabella was truly extraordinary!

That woman had such a deep, hidden side to her!

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 227-Aborting the Child Rebecca swiftly stood up from the sofa and walked out.

Elizabeth exclaimed, “Where are you going?” “Scarlet Villa!” Rebecca said and left.

Elizabeth was speechless.

Glancing at Christina, who was equally stunned, she scolded, “Why aren’t you following her immediately?!” It was already late in the night, and Elizabeth was anxious. Cedric’s relationship with the family already wasn’t great because of Natalie, And now, all this trouble because of a woman named Isabella!

It was undoubtedly causing great anxiety for everyone!

Christina quickly followed her out...!

Karina acted swiftly. She approached Natalie and said, "Everything has been arranged!" "Your health isn't very good. The hospital will prescribe some medicine to temporarily regulate your b*dy. They've scheduled the surgery for half a month later!" At this moment, Natalie was looking at her phone. Karina's words hardly elicited a response from her.

She was staring blankly at it!

Karina stepped forward and glanced at Natalie's phone. When she saw the news on it, her eyes couldn't help but widen!

She pressed her warm palms on Natalie's shoulder and patted her gently, attempting to say something to comfort her!

But nothing could comfort Natalie at this moment. She nearly miscarried at Radiant Tower due to Cedric's actions!

Even though this child was unwelcome from the start....

But now, Cedric announced his engagement to Isabella while Natalie was in the hospital.

Who was Isabella? She was her sister!

And now, Cedric was openly taking care of Isabella in this manner for the rest of her life!

Cedric not only ignored Natalie's dignity but also ground the face of the Johnson family into the dirt!

"Alright." Natalie nodded at Karina. She was acting very calm. It seemed as if she saw through everything, so there was no ripple in her heart when facing all this.

"Can we do it any sooner?" Cedric and Isabella's engagement ceremony would happen at the same time as her surgery, and Natalie found it repulsive.

"Ms. Walker!" "Let's do it tomorrow. Yes, tomorrow morning!" "Ms. Walker!" "Go ahead and get it arranged." "But..." Karina wanted to say something more, but Natalie's face was resolute at this moment. Karina swallowed the words on the tip of her tongue.

Natalie faced everything with indifference.

Karina nodded and left again.

In the hospital room, Natalie was left alone once more.

Just then, her phone vibrated.

She picked it up and glanced at it.

It was Irwin.

Natalie's heart clenched painfully!

She immediately answered, "Mr. Frazier!" "Where are you?" Irwin's voice on the phone sounded serious, but oddly, this seriousness brought half a moment of reassurance to Natalie's heart.

"I'm at the hospital." "Are you sick?" The tone on the other end of the phone was somewhat unsteady.

Listening to the fluctuations in the man's tone, Natalie thought of why she was in the hospital at the moment. There were just some things that were difficult to talk about!

She took a deep breath and said, "Just a minor ailment!" Ultimately, she didn't have the courage to tell Irwin about her pregnancy.

For her, it was more embarrassing than any other privacy "I'll come to see your "Don't!" As soon as Natalie heard that Irwin wanted to come to her, she immediately refused without hesitation.

At this moment, even facing Irwin made her feel embarrassed.

Thinking about the time Irwin spent abroad, she... was really careless. Just thinking about those moments with Cedric made her feel nauseous!

She even...!

Perhaps in her past life, she always wanted a child. So, she had no concept of contraception, leading to the present situation!

"Where are you? I'll come to see you." Natalie said softly without waiting for the man on the other end of the phone to speak.

"I'm in Elegance Bay." "Okay, I'll be back right away." She hung up the phone and stood up.

There was still some pain in her lower abdomen, but it wasn't the same intense pain she experienced at Radiant Tower.

This pain was bearable.

Changing into her own clothes and putting on her coat, Karina returned just in time to see Natalie dressed neatly.

Are you She was surprised, out?" "Yes "But you can't leave the hospital now; you have to stay here." "The doctor said the earliest he can schedule the surgery is next week. I'm sure you're aware of the condition of your b*dy!" sin During this time, Natalie had been busy with work. Both physically and mentally, she was in extreme fatigue!

Now that Karina was back with a large bag of medicine. She clearly intended to use it to help Natalie.

regulate her b*dy.

Natalie looked at Karina, then at the medicine in her hand, and a bitter smile appeared on her l*ps.

"Being involved with him really damages both b*dy and mind!" One slight misstep, and she had almost lost her life.

With Cedric, she could lose anything, just not her heart!

Giving him her heart would only end badly for her!

That was the clearest thing in Natalie's mind..

"What about you..." Karina looked at Natalie with concern.

Natalie glanced at the time on her wristwatch and said, "I'm just going out for a while." *Then I'll call Leon, or should I accompany you?" While saying this, Karina subconsciously glanced at the pile of documents.

Natalie knew that she couldn't handle much on her side now, and Karina was shouldering many things.

She said, "Ask Leon to come over!" She knew that if she didn't let Leon accompany her tonight, Karina wouldn't easily let her leave the Given her current situation and the circumstances surrounding her, having Leon by her side did indeed have its advantages.

At this moment, Rebecca and Christina had already stormed into Scarlet Villa.

And Cedric... was th too!

His expression wasn't too pleasant when he saw them approaching.

“Have you gone mad?” Upon seeing Cedric, Rebecca didn’t hold back. She directly threw her phone at Cedric, and the device hit him on his forehead!

Isabella had already gone upstairs. After the release of such news, Cedric anticipated the current situation, so he instructed Isabella to go upstairs and advised her not to come down, no matter what happened.

“Mom, I’ll go check on Isabella, Christina said softly to Rebecca after seeing Cedric’s frosty expression.

Neither Rebecca nor Cedric said anything. After all, in Cedric’s heart, Christina was very obedient.

Christina went upstairs.

Rebecca’s anger was surging like a tidal wave. She looked at Cedric and said, “This is the place your married Natalie!” “Letting Isabella move into this place is one thing, but what? Now you even want to marry her here?!” Rebecca wasn’t exactly defending Natalie.

She just felt that this would have an immensely significant impact on the Johnson family.

She had only accepted Natalie because of her connection to Stephen. Even though there were rumors.

circulating outside, neither Natalie nor Stephen had come out to say anything.

Before this, Rebecca wouldn’t have any comments about it!

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 228-All or Nothing After all, Natalie had suffered enough.

So, before Cedric tried to establish such a relationship with Isabella... Rebecca wouldn’t agree!

Even if Natalie wasn’t Stephen’s niece, Rebecca would still never agree to Isabella being her daughter– in- law!

“She’s Ivan’s only sister in this world.” “But there’s no need for you to dedicate your whole life to taking care of her!” Rebecca’s tone became solemn.

Ivan’s sister?!

It was like a curse.

It lingered around the Johnson family and couldn't be shaken off no matter what they did!!

Indeed, looking at it now, wasn't it true?

"What other feelings do you want?" Cedric mocked, looking at Rebecca.

His gaze made Rebecca instantly uneasy. "What do you mean?" The implication was that, after the incident with Natalie, he started to despise even the notion of feelings.

After all, the ten years of emotions with Natalie proved to be unreliable.

So now... Was he implying that, without Natalie, it didn't matter who he spent his days with?

Therefore, he would take care of Isabella?

Natalie was the root cause of his losing confidence in relationships, and Isabella was his responsibility.

He didn't love Isabella, but he had to take responsibility!

However, Rebecca couldn't fathom this change.

Cedric loved Natalie, but he had to let go?!

"Ced." When Rebecca spoke again, there was no tension in her tone, only exasperation.

"Maybe there's a misunderstanding about Nat's situation. Look at her now..." "I don't know when it started, but you've been so protective of her!" Cedric interrupted, and Rebecca fell 175 Wasn't this what she had always wanted before?

Now, Rebecca's heart was truly in turmoil. If she had known earlier that rejecting Natalie would ultimately result in having Isabella as a blind daughter-in-law, she would have made sure Natalie and Cedric got along well!

No matter what she said, she now only wanted Cedric and Natalie to get along well!

No, they would never get along, not with Isabella between them!

At this moment, Rebecca not only regretted her decision but also realized that Isabella was not a simple person.

"We'll take good care of Isabella! Rebecca said with a slightly firm tone.

“Hah!” Cedric laughed mockingly, clearly aware of the situation when Rebecca deliberately kept Isabella away.

from him.

“I did it because...” Rebecca struggled to explain.

The gratitude she felt for Ivan, thanks to his sister, had been completely shattered.

“If possible, I really wish I had been the one to die for you back then. I wish I had died instead, okay?!” If it were her, there would be no Ivan, and certainly no Isabella!

Upstairs, Christina looked at Isabella sitting in a wheelchair. A hint of malice flashed in her eyes.

“You really have a way, huh?” “You’re not a reliable partner! Isabella said with determination.

Christina’s already unpleasant expression now darkened completely.

She said viciously, “Aren’t you afraid that I’ll tell Ced all about what you did to your sister?” “Go ahead,” Isabella replied indifferently.

Christina fell silent. At this moment, Isabella acted as if she didn’t care about anything. It was as if nothing mattered to her.

2/5 With fearless tones, Isabella continued, “Right now, I’m blind, penniless, and have nothing. What kind of storm can I stir up?” “You... I “Or do you want to tell your brother I schemed against Natalie? Did I calculate everything with my own eyes? That I planned on living a lifetime of darkness?” Christina remained silent.

So ruthless!

She wasn’t a good person, but at this moment, she couldn’t help but admit that Isabella was truly ruthless, both to others and herself.

Isabella didn’t have a good ending now, as she would spend her whole life in darkness.

Was that why she was clinging to Cedric?

“I’ve already said that I’ll ensure you have a worry-free life forever. You can have anything you want,” Christina said in a restrained tone.

If she could, she really wanted to tear Isabella apart!

They could have gotten along well! But Natalie, who Christina couldn't get rid of, ruined everything. Yes... Before, Christina had secretly dealt with any woman who got close to Cedric. Only Natalie seemed like a solid presence. No matter what methods she used, she couldn't drive her away from Cedric, so she panicked.

Now, it was even worse.

Natalie was gone, but in her place was a more difficult presence to deal with!

The mocking smile on Isabella's lips was even more scornful.

She said, "Christina, I've seen the fates of those people. Compared to you, your brother is more reliable." By Cedric's side, she could enjoy the warmth of that man for a lifetime. She could also receive good care.

That was a truly worry-free living, right?

"As for Natalie now, I don't need to do anything more. Your brother will take care of "Are you burning the bridges now that you've gotten what you want?" Christina hissed.

3/5 She was close to screaming in Isabella's face!

"Compared to you, what I've done is nothing. How many bridges have you burned?"
"You..." "What do you think? Between you and me, who does your brother trust more?"
"What do you mean?" why not give it a try?" "You..." For the first time, Christina felt the terror of this woman. Even a simple smile on her lips seemed to carry the terrifying aura of hell.

Downstairs, Rebecca was desperately trying to persuade Cedric. Suddenly, a miserable scream echoed throughout the house.

"Ahhh...!" This scream instantly interrupted the two. Cedric was sitting on the sofa. He immediately shot up the stairs when he heard the scream!

Rebecca's heart tightened as she quickly followed after him.

"N-no! I-it wasn't me, Ced...!" Christina's voice of panicked explanation followed. The scene was chaotic. Isabella lay on the ground, her wheelchair toppled to the side. The disorderly aftermath revealed the intensity of the situation just now.

Cedric shot Christina a fierce glare and walked swiftly toward Isabella. He picked her up from the ground.

At this moment, Isabella was pale and shivering in Cedric's arms. She had clearly been quite frightened.

Christina watched Isabella's exaggerated act and felt the urge to tear her apart. However, seeing the severity on Cedric's face, she trembled, and any words she intended to say were forcibly swallowed.

Looking at Rebecca with a look of grievance, Christina said, "Mom!" This was the first time... Yes, the first time Christina was on the receiving end of such a look from Cedric.

He was the man she admired, and this gaze was more unbearable than being tortured!

After giving Isabella a fierce look, she ran out crying!

Scarlet Villa was now in complete chaos.

Meanwhile, Natalie had arrived at Elegance Bay. Instead of going straight to her place, she went to Irwin's residence!novelbin.

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 229-Paying the Price no one come to At this moment, she stood at the doorstep. She pressed the doorbell repeatedly, but no answer.

Looking at the dark villa with no lights, she realized that Irwin probably hadn't arrived yet.

As the cold wind blew, she felt a chill running through her b*dy. Taking out her phone, she dialed Irwin's number.

Beep!

The phone rang continuously until it automatically hung up, and still no one answered.

Natalie adjusted her coat. Suddenly, there was a weight on her shoulder. It was Leon!

"It's quite cold." A black windbreaker draped over her, and he said, "It's quite cold." The man didn't say much, and Natalie nodded without refusing. She was indeed feeling cold; perhaps it was due to changes in her b*dy.

During this period, she would shiver at the slightest breeze.

In her previous life, Scarlet Villa went up in flames shortly after she learned about her pregnancy. Looking back now, she had already forgotten what it felt like for a woman to be pregnant.

But now, she could feel the changes in her b*dy.

Natalie called repeatedly, but Irwin didn't answer. Natalie stood at his villa gate for a full two hours. Her b*dy was getting stiff from the cold, and the man she had an appointment with hadn't returned.

Leon stayed by her side, watching her shiver even with his coat wrapped around her.

He rarely spoke but finally couldn't help but say, "Let's go back, alright?" "Leon!" "Yes, ma'am" "Find out where he is!" Natalie's voice trembled, partly from the cold.

Irwin was not someone who would break his word. If they had an appointment, he wouldn't just fail to return.

US Leon nodded. He took out his phone, and made a call. After waiting for about five minutes, the Information came.

v gaze.

Leon glanced at his phone and then looked at Natalie with a heavy "Miss, half an hour ago, Mr. Frazier was forcibly put on a plane by Master Frazier's people." Natalie was silent.

He went abroad?!

Natalie's face turned pale, and she closed her eyes. At this moment, her already cold b*dy seemed to freeze completely.

With the situation in the eastern suburbs, it was clear that things were more complicated than she thought, Looking at Leon, she said in a trembling voice, "I understand." It was good that he left. Cedric was acting like a madman now, and she was involved in both the incidents in Sylvan Gems and the eastern suburbs.

Now, Isabella had moved into Scarlet Villa, and she was getting engaged to Cedric Each of these seemed like the actions of a lunatic!

Natalie didn't know how to describe Cedric anymore; she only wished to have no connection with him.

She turned around to get into the car. When Leon started the car, he couldn't help but glance at Natalie.

"Did you ever explain things to Mr. Johnson?" People on Natalie's side knew exactly who Natalie was. Regardless of the public opinion, they understood.

the truth.

Leon's responsibility was solely to protect Natalie. He never casually asked questions or made comments about her affairs, but everything happening in Verde City and on Natalie herself was undoubtedly orchestrated by Cedric.

In a short period, Cedric had created a complex trap for Natalie, making it difficult for her to escape.

Explain?

Natalie bitterly smiled. "I've explained too much, and I've become numb. Investigate anything anymore."

The man wouldn't believe her, and she couldn't be bothered to investigate anything anymore.

Why didn't she investigate Christina?

Because of Isabella!

If Isabella was causing trouble with Cedric now, Christina definitely wouldn't let it go.

In Natalie's eyes, the Johnson family was like a home's nest. She could already guess that it had been kicked, and people were tearing each other apart!

Given enough time, the truth would surface. By then, Cedric's world would have nothing to do with her.

Rather than personally dealing with those people for him, she'd rather leave it to him to enjoy the rest of his life!

She wished for Cedric's world to burn to ashes!

By the time she returned to her own villa, it was already past ten.

Leon had informed the kitchen in advance, so some warm dishes were prepared for Natalie. They had prepared some light dishes that were easy on the stomach.

Natalie took a sip of the soup, and her stomach churned uncomfortably. Seeing Natalie's discomfort, Nigel approached with concern.

"Is it not to your liking?" "It's fine." Natalie shook her head.

She knew why she felt uncomfortable. The taste she had never experienced in her past life was now vividly felt in this life.

After making an effort to take another sip, she couldn't bear it any longer.

She rushed to the bathroom and threw up “Blargh...Ugh...!” novelbin una She threw up almost all the soup she had drank. She felt extremely bloated.

At this moment, Natalie also felt the greatness of being a mother. To give birth to a child... women had to sacrifice so much.

Men couldn't comprehend the hardships women experienced—Just like the taste she was experiencing ΠΟΥ 3/5 Her previous self probably never thought she would ever experience this!

She suddenly thought of her mother...!

Did her mother endure so much pain to give birth to her?

Her mind gradually cleared.

The more sober she became, the more she hated her father...!

Why did women have to go through all this?

The hatred she had for her father, for Isabella's mother, for Isabella... There was no words to describe her feelings!

Natalie didn't know how she came out of the bathroom.

“Leon!” “Yes, ma'am.” Leon respectfully approached.

Natalie looked at him with a somewhat bad complexion and said, “Come with me to the study.” “Yes, ma'am.” A lot of commotion and rumors about her and Stephen were circulating outside. Even so, the people in Elegance Bay always treated Natalie with utmost respect.

They didn't form opinions based on external rumors. This place was Natalie's sanctuary.

Cedric had once said that Natalie's home was wherever he was. However, that home was now occupied by another woman.

The notion of a home was shattered when Isabella moved into Scarlet Villa.

Now, this place was Natalie's home.

In the study, Natalie glanced at Leon and said, “Do you have relevant resources?” “Miss, what do you mean?” “I want to investigate someone,” It was regarding the matter she had assigned to a private detective earlier. Originally, when Cedric didn't Now, after the recent incident in the bathroom, she found a renewed purpose in pursuing it.

The things related to Christina must also be connected to Isabella!

She... was blind and has paid the price for her misdeeds!

However, Natalie had overlooked one thing before.

Isabella came for revenge against her mother. In that case, how could she easily let it go?

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 230-Taken Away "Alright!" Leon took note of the information Natalie provided and nodded. It seemed that Leon had the necessary resources.

As Leon turned to leave, there was a knock on the study door.

"Who is it?" "It's me." Nigel's voice came from outside.

Leon glanced at Natalie, who placed the relevant materials into a drawer.

"What's the matter?" "There are some guests downstairs. They claim to be here regarding the eastern suburbs project." Natalie and Leon exchanged glances.

Regarding the eastern suburbs project?

Downstairs, Natalie saw the people in uniform and knew the situation was truly pointing in her direction.

Jonathan had taken away Irwin, and now, her movements were further restricted due to the events in the eastern suburbs and with Sylvan Gems.

"Ms. Walker, we need to conduct a detailed investigation for the eastern suburbs project. Would you please come with us?" The leader of the group spoke politely.

Though polite, Natalie understood. If she went with them tonight, it might not be so easy for her to return to this place.

Karina had rushed over when she got the news. When she saw this group of people, her expression changed.

"Ms. Walker!" She approached urgently..

Natalie glanced at Karina with hope in her eyes, However, Karina said, "We can't reach Mr. Jarvis." Natalie's heart sank. She knew all of her uncle's time and energy was tied up with Winona right now.

With Sylvan Gems facing issues and the troubles in the eastern suburbs, she feared she wouldn't be able to. Taking a deep breath, she said, "Alright." "Ms. Walker!" "Try your best to contact the chairman." "Understood." Karina nodded.

Karina didn't want Natalie to go with these people. Not only was she the founder of Auro Studio, but she was also the CEO of Sylvan Gems.

The key issue was that both Auro Studio and Sylvan Gems were facing problems.

As Natalie walked away, Leon followed behind her. For some unknown reason, these people didn't stop him. Logically, if they asked Natalie to come along for an investigation, then nobody should accompany her.

However, there was no obstruction!

In Verde City, the rain always carried the chilly scent of soil.

Natalie sat in the car with Leon by her side, looking at the bustling city outside.

"Why did you follow me?" She hadn't noticed earlier, but now she realized Leon was by her side. Knowing that what she was about to face wouldn't be resolved quickly, Leon didn't need to accompany her.

However, Leon explained, "Mr. Jarvis has said that in crucial moments, I should stay by your side!" Especially with the current situation unfolding in Verde City, it was now much more serious than before.

In such circumstances, Leon needed to be with Natalie at all times, regardless of what needed to be said.

Natalie fell silent.

Cedric had won.

Yes, this time, he had won.

The few relatives she finally had in this lifetime were driven away instantly by that man. It had created a situation where everyone related to her was implicated, Natalie was taken away.

Although Zane and Karina managed to suppress related information, Sylvan Gems' internal circles were aware.

So, Cedric would also be aware of it. Naturally, the Johnson family knew as well.

Rebecca was already irritated over Isabella's affairs, and now she was shocked to hear about Natalie.

While Christina felt some joy, her predominant emotion was hatred towards Isabella.

Christina firmly believed that Isabella wasn't such a straightforward person, and Natalie's current predicament was undoubtedly related to her.

"Miss, please eat something." Wanda suggested to Christina.

The day had passed. Though it was nighttime, Wanda had prepared noodles for her. Normally, Christina would have a good appetite when in a good mood, but now, she had none.

"I'm not hungry. Take it away." Christina waved her hand.

Right now, she didn't even want to talk.

"Miss, you need to have a healthy b*dy to have energy, don't you think? Wanda remarked.

Christina remained silent." Wanda continued, "It's just an engagement. Even his marriage wasn't stable. This engagement won't amount to anything substantial." Christina glanced at Wanda, her expression still serious. "Don't say such things in the future." Rebecca wouldn't allow her to have any feelings for Cedric. Though she resisted, Christina didn't dare: defy Rebecca's orders.

After all, if Rebecca treated her poorly, her position in the Johnson family would be even worse.

"Miss, are you still hiding things from me? I know what's on your mind. There's nothing wrong with liking someone. Isn't that so?" Seeing Christina's softened expression, Wanda continued.

Christina was already feeling aggrieved. Then, she recalled Cedric's fierce gaze towards her.

He...!

For Isabella, he had...!

Even when Natalie was around in the past, and something happened between them, Cedric would never treat Christina this way.

But now...!

“There, there. It’ll be fine. Take it slow, okay?” “Compared to Isabella, the madam surely prefers you!” Wanda said.

This statement caused Christina’s eyes to brighten.

“What do you mean?” “You’re very smart, Miss, right?” In Wanda’s eyes, Christina and Cedric were a well-matched pair!

It wasn’t like they originally had any blood relation. Even if they were truly together, what could those people say?

Whether it was Christina or Wanda, they both felt that Rebecca was too old-fashioned and traditional in this regard, and there was no need to oppose it.

“Thank you, Wanda,” Christina said, feeling touched by Wanda’s strong support.

Over the years, her affection for Cedric had always been a secret.

When humans were not allowed something, they tended to want more.

Wasn’t this her case?

Her love for Cedric over the years had grown wildly. It was like wild grass, completely uncontrollable.

The more they were not allowed, the more she couldn’t control her feelings.

When she watched those women openly approach Cedric, Christina could only stew quietly in her jealousy and secretly do things that couldn’t bear the light of day.

Those women could openly gaze at Cedric with eyes full of love, but Christina... couldn’t!

Later on, he got together with Natalie.

For seven long years, no matter what methods she used, she couldn’t get rid of that woman.

That woman enjoyed all Cedric’s tenderness, and Christina... watched as their relationship got better and better.

Eventually, Natalie even married him.

Even so, Cedric hadn’t been as protective after they had gotten married!

Now, he had divorced Natalie!

But why was he getting involved with Isabella?!

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 231

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 231-Whose Heart Was Tormented Overnight?

It wasn't easy to break Cedric's love for Natalie.

It was hard enough to pry him away from her, and Christina had done everything in her power to do so!

And then, Isabella appeared!

She was even more formidable, and Christina didn't see any hope for herself at that time.

Thinking about all these things, Christina's heart clenched painfully!

For so many years... She hadn't had any support!

Elizabeth acted like no one was worthy of her grandson. Rebecca was even worse. She made it seem as if no one in the world was suitable for Cedric. And yet, Rebecca now seemed obsessed over getting Natalie back together with Cedric just because she was the successor of Regal Horizons International!

Even with the earth-shattering news going around, Rebecca could easily attribute it to internal conflicts within the group.

It did nothing to waver Rebecca's obsession and change of attitude towards Natalie. Now that Wanda had expressed her support, Christina felt like she had seen light in the darkness for the first time.

"Love is something that just happens! So what if you like Master Cedric? It's not wrong, right?" "Yeah!" Yes. There was nothing wrong with liking someone.

Loving itself was not wrong.

"Eat some noodles, okay?" Wanda bled in concern after she noticed Christina's mood improving. This time, Christina didn't refuse and ate all the noodles. She was really hungry. The internal conflicts in the Johnson family were so severe that having a good meal was a luxury.

"Madam Rebecca really cares for you. Even with so much happening, she's still preparing a birthday party for you!" Wanda said with a smile.

But when Wanda mentioned the birthday party, Christina's expression changed.

1/5 Her birthday was only a week away!

She had boasted in front of those people that she would wear a set of Sylvan Gems jewelry this year!

But now, considering Sylvan Gems' reputation, she wouldn't be embarrassed.

With that thought in mind, Christina immediately felt better.

Natalie was questioned the entire night.

She said the blueprints were swapped, and even sent someone to Auro Studio to find the original blueprints!

The blueprints were found, but no one could prove whether these two sets of blueprints were really swapped.

Karina, of course, couldn't provide that evidence!

"In that case, you have to investigate on your end," Natalie said.

All night, she answered too many questions.

She was tired of answering The other party has also lost patience, Ms. Walker, I don't think you understand the situation yet. The building constructed based on your blueprints collapsed, and lives were lost!!

"We hope you can approach this matter with a serious attitude!" "I'm serious about this!" Natalie exclaimed.

Natalie's expression was extremely serious as she looked at the person before her.

"What I said is all facts!" Yes, everything she said was a fact!

She had been serious the entire time.

But she had no evidence!

"Can I see my lawyer now?" Natalie asked.

At this moment, her complexion was somewhat pale. There was no hint of color on her lips, indicating that her current situation is really bad.

The other party said, "We'll wait a bit longer before looking for a lawyer. What do you think, Ms. Walker?" "Then, can I see my assistant?" A sharp pain emanated from her lower abdomen It constantly reminded her that there was little life inside her and that pregnant women cannot endure such long nights.

Now, she was really in pain.

“You can’t see them for now,” the other party said Natalie closed her eyes and tried to relax.

In her previous life, she had done a lot of research on pregnancy. Pregnant women couldn’t be emotionally tensed. Otherwise, it was easy for problems to occur.

And now, she couldn’t afford any problems.

“What about the people who came with me?” “They’re waiting for you outside!” Leon could accompany her here but couldn’t enter with her.

Natalie tried very hard to relax her emotions.

But unfortunately, the pain in her lower abdomen was getting worse..

Cold sweat broke out on her forehead.

The other party finally noticed that something was wrong with her. “Ms. Walker, are you okay?” “I... need to go to the hospital” She was in pain. When she spoke,/her voice trembled.

Helplessly covering her lower abdomen, she almost curled up in the chair.

At this moment, everything was in pain!

Then, there was a damp feeling underneath her.

3/8 Having experienced so much, she naturally knew what that meant.

“Ugh...” She groaned, and her face was as white as paper.

The scene instantly descended into chaos, and she... completely lost consciousness.

Compared to the chaos on Natalie’s side, it was a quiet morning at Scarlet Villa.

Cedric and Isabella were sitting at the dining table amidst the chirping of birds and the warmth of sunlight.

After a night of rain, the weather outside was excellent, and the air was fresh.

“After breakfast, someone will take you out for a stroll,” Cedric said gently to Isabella.

“No need, it’s too much trouble!” Her words caused a cold glint to flash in Cedric’s eyes. Those present felt a slight tension when they looked at the man.

trouble at servac “Ms. Morgan, it’s no all,” a said urgently.

Hearing the urgency in the servant’s tone, Isabella smiled slightly and said, “Alright!” Her words made everyone present breathe a sigh of relief.

God knows! She was not easy to serve because their master cared too much. Their work was even more.

challenging than serving Natalie before this.

Cedric glanced at the woman bathed in sunlight across from him and said, “Someone will come in the morning to have you try on a gown.

At his words, Isabella paused in her actions. She looked at the man across from her, and her tone, while still gentle, became more serious.

“Have you really thought it through?

“It doesn’t matter if I’ve thought it through or not. I said I’d take care of you for a lifetime!” For a lifetime!

He would take care of her for a lifetime! However, the care he offered her was different than what she understood. Isabella was well aware that though Cedric had given her such a solemn promise, it was because... of Ivan!

4/5 Without Ivan, she was nothing in front of him!

The atmosphere became somewhat heavy.

Cedric didn’t understand.

Even though it was his responsibility, he felt a sudden tightness in his heart when he said it.

Suppressing his emotions, he stood up and said. “I’m going to the company first, okay?” “So soon? You haven’t eaten anything!” “I’m fine!” After speaking, the man left without waiting for Isabella to say anything.

The hurried footsteps made it seem like he was fleeing from here.

Although Isabella’s face remained gentle, her heart sank at this moment.

Cedric, oh Cedric!

In his heart, actually...!

Because she wasn't Natalie, he had gone to work as if he was running away!

In the car, Cedric impatiently adjusted his tie.

Lucas was the one driving this morning.

Cedric asked, "She stayed inside all night?" Lucas hesitated for a moment.

"Yes." Cedric was silent.

There was a heavy feeling in his heart, and it felt like he was suffocating.

Then, he heard that voice again—the voice that was hysterical deep within his heart.

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 232-Nothing Worse Than an Uncaring Heart The voice was like a restrained soul. It had been unnoticeable once or twice, but now it was more prominent It was so clear that it seemed he could hear it.

He had heard it countless times.

It was obvious Natalie should pay a price for her actions! She deserved it!

But every time he did something to her, that voice deep within his heart would constantly interfere.

It made him endlessly annoyed.

"Go and take a look," he finally said coldly.

"You mean Ms. Walker?" Lucas asked.

"Yes." As he spoke, he took out a cigarette from the pack and lit it. He took a couple of deep drags, and only then did it ease the oppressive and irritable feeling in his heart.

Lucas made a U-turn, and the car turned onto the road leading to the police station, Just then, Cedric's phone vibrated.

He pressed the half-smoked cigarette into the car's ashtray and picked up the phone. He glanced at the number, and his eyes narrowed.

He massaged his throbbing forehead.

Answering the call, he said, "Hello." "To be influenced by two women, huh? You're such a disappointment." The voice on the other end was old yet sharp.

Even through the phone, that sharpness carried a thick sense of danger.

A dangerous glint flashed in Cedric's eyes.

Before he could speak, the voice on the other end was even sharper and more authoritative, "It's been ten years; it's time to come back!" "I didn't agree back then, and I won't now." Cedric finally spoke, his tone as cold and dangerous as the other side.

Silence filled the air.

The two were in an invisible confrontation, though a distance separated them.

A bit later, the old voice on the phone changed and sounded deep and sinister.

"It seems I have to personally deal with those two women!" "You dare?!" "Ced..." The atmosphere between the two turned icy.

Cedric's chest heaved in anger, and veins pulsated on his forehead. For so many years... he thought they had no connection anymore.

However, he was wrong.

"I'm hanging up.

Without waiting for the other end to say anything. Cedric hung up His expression was already cold before the call, but now it was worse.

"Turn around!" He commanded Lucas in a cold voice.

Lucas was momentarily stunned.

Undoubtedly, he didn't understand the meaning of Cedric's phone call just now. The call hadn't been on speaker, so Lucas naturally didn't know what that call meant for Cedric.

In the confined space, a chilling atmosphere lingered.

After a while, Cedric said to Lucas, "Tell them that no one can bail out Nataller" Each word was said with ruthless cruelty.

Lucas stiffened. He opened his mouth to say something, but he didn't say anything after a slight hesitation.

After all, the feelings of the two over the past ten years were not something outsiders could comment on.

When Cedric appeared again at Radiant Tower, he radiated a hostile aura as he walked in.

All the employees were on edge.

On Natalie's side, the situation earlier in the morning was quite urgent. Fortunately, there was a backup infirmary.

In the infirmary, Leon was by her side.

The man who had gone to Elegance Bay to take her in was also there with a serious look on his face.

The man's sharp eyes glinted. "You're pregnant?" "Yes, I only found out yesterday." She had known all along when she couldn't leave the airport that it was only a matter of time these days, but she didn't expect it to happen so quickly.

In this place she had no idea what was going on outside.

The man said, "Even so, we still need to investigate what happened. We'll just adjust the interrogation methods." "Thank you." Natalie's tone was somewhat bitter when she said this.

Her heart ached.

She hadn't expected that the torment she endured all night would end because of this child.

In no time, the relevant personnel from Sylvan Gems' side came. In Natalie's view, the situation in the eastern suburbs was complicated enough!

She had thought, based on her previous judgments, that the eastern suburbs' situation was serious.

But what she didn't expect was that Sylvan Gems' situation was the real deal—conclusive evidence and witnesses!

It made it impossible for her to deny anything.

left her with It was a tightly woven net that had been carefully crafted. The moment it enveloped her, it left nowhere to escape!

Now, it didn't matter if she confessed or not. With all the evidence available, she would be detained while awaiting trial!

“Karina is already handling your bail. Don’t say anything now. Leave it all to the lawyer!” Leon reassured 3/5 After all, they knew she was pregnant now, so she could go through this legal procedure.

Natalie’s mind was in chaos. She was unable to hear anything clearly.

Her mind was blank!

She had been hysteric toward Cedric before. Now... she was completely powerless to escape this situation!

While calming herself down, she repeatedly asked herself... Should she resist? Or... follow his wishes?

In her previous life, she was helpless in the darkness!

So, what about this life? After being carefree for a while, could she still not escape his grasp?

Especially looking at the people around her... Cedric was gradually setting them up because of her, especially on Winona’s end...!

Nothing was worse than an uncaring heart.

That was probably the best way to describe Natalie right now. She had given up and didn’t care about.

Cedric’s heart... or her own!

Everything for her seemed destined.

But stubbornly, she didn’t believe in fate!

“I don’t acknowledge those so-called pieces of evidence!” Her response was just a simple sentence! That already made her stance clear.

She originally had nothing to do with these matters, but Cedric Insisted on pushing her to the edge. Even if she died, she wouldn’t admit defeat in front of him!

She wouldn’t beg for even half a word from him, no matter how he oppressed her, So what if she was powerless to resist?!

Even if she only had her willpower left, she would struggle to the end!

Looking at the relevant medical personnel, Natalie was unprecedentedly calm as she asked, "I don't want She knew that she might not be able to leave this place as easily as Leon had suggested in the short term.

But she couldn't delay too long when it came to the child. The longer she delayed it, the greater the chance the child would come into the world.

And she and Cedric had reached a point where having the child was out of the question.

The doctor was stunned.

"Don't you know that being pregnant is actually beneficial for you now?" the medical staff said seriously, looking at her.

After all, many people would be eager to get pregnant in order to escape the situation she was in. novelbin But even in such a situation, Natalie actually wanted to get rid of the child?!

This was something many would beg for but would never obtain!

A touch of sadness and pain flashed in Natalie's eyes. Her hands were tightly clenched together, and she was extremely pale.

She couldn't stop trembling.

"Beneficial, huh..." She chuckled, and there was a bitter irony in her tone.

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 233-Wishing for Her Death The medical staff and Leon frowned as they looked at Natalie.

Leon stepped forward and said in a low voice, "Let's discuss everything once we're out of here." Undoubtedly, now that Irwin had left Verde City and they couldn't reach Stephen, Cedric would be wishing for her death.

The only way for her to escape was through this child.

That was how important the child was to Natalie's survival right now Would Natalie not know the significance of the child?

She never planned to use or involve anyone throughout her life, in this life or her previous one.

It was also the same now.

So, of course, she understood the child's importance!

“Leon, you don’t understand,” Natalie said to Leon, her tone calm yet mysterious.

As a mother, being unable to protect her child was the greatest punishment for a woman.

How could she resort to any means to use her child?

More importantly, if she left here because of the child, Cedric would surely find out.

She... didn’t want to create more trouble.

Cedric was insane.

Who knew what he would do when he found out?

He was determined to keep her in here this time. Natalie thought... that Cedric wouldn’t change his mind just because of the child.

“But Mr. Jarvis...” Leon trailed off, but Natalie understood without him finishing the sentence.

Stephen had been unreachable, and he was in Simeria. He was too far, and he didn’t have the time or about her.

au to worr But asking her to use this child... She couldn’t do it!

Without responding to Leon, she bluntly asked the medical staff, “What procedures do I need to follow?” Looking at Natalie’s stubborn and determined face, Leon realized that since returning to Stephen’s side.

this was the first time she had shown such assertiveness.

This firm attitude meant that nothing he said now would change her mind... When the medical staff looked at Natalie, her initial sternness softened somewhat. There was even a touch of pity in her eyes.

To what extent had this woman been hurt by a man that she wouldn’t even consider using the child of that man?

“Aboveboard procedures are somewhat complicated. If you’re determined to proceed, I’ll help you with the paperwork,” the medical staff said.

Natalie nodded. “Thank you.” www novelbin The medical staff stared at Natalie for a long while before turning and leaving the room.

Only Natalie and Leon remained in the infirmary. Leon looked at Natalie's pale face, wanting to say something.

Then the phone rang Leon glanced at the number and picked it up.

"Karina." Whatever was said on the other end made Leon look at Natalie even more concerned. After a brief conversation, he hung up.

There was not just concern in his eyes when he looked at Natalie. There was also a deep sense of solemnness "What happened?" Natalie asked.

Leon hesitated, but he finally said, "Karina said they rejected the lawyer's bail request." "The request they submitted about me carrying a child?" Natalie asked.

"Yes." I Natalie, who had refused to use the child, was now rejected even though she was pregnant. It indicated.

that something was wrong in the situation.

Undoubtedly, it was Cedric. Cedric had Intervened in this matter and refused her bail. He hadn't thought about letting her out again after bringing her to this place.

2:5 Natalie had to admit that he was truly ruthless.

She fell silent. This silence emitted an unconscious sense of desolation throughout her b*dy despite Natalie repeatedly claiming she didn't care.

But now, that man had completely disregarded their past, destroying her to this extent for Isabella and Christina... Who could bear it?

Leon approached and handed Natalie a cup of water, "Have a drink." "Thank you." Natalie took the water absentmindedly. Hastily taking a sip, she choked.

She tried to close her mouth to swallow, but it was as if she was trying to swallow something extremely bitter.

It seemed that only enduring this kind of physical discomfort could relieve the stifling pain in her chest.

After arriving at the company, Cedric stayed alone in the office for a long time.

When Lucas came in with meeting materials, the thick smell of smoke in the room made people dizzy.

Cedric pressed the cigarette butt into the ashtray and suddenly asked, "Is everything arranged for Bella?" "Was there something to arrange?" Lucas asked and stiffened.

Obviously, he didn't understand what Cedric was saying. When Cedric received that call in the car, Lucas felt that something was obviously wrong.

After that, Cedric ordered him to ensure that Natalie didn't get bailed out.

So, what arrangements were there to make for Isabella? Cedric hadn't said anything!

And now Cedric remembered that while he was preoccupied needed protection the most..

with Natalie, he neglected the person who Rubbing his forehead, he pinched the throbbing spot between his eyebrows.

"Assign Kyle to stay with Bella." "Sir?" Lucas looked at Cedric in shock.

Kyle Lester?!

He was currently in Meridiana. He hadn't returned to Verde City in years, indicating that he wouldn't come back unless absolutely necessary.

Even during the turmoil in the Johnson family years ago, Cedric didn't call Kyle back to protect him.

However, now he wanted Kyle to come back and stay by Isabella's side?!

"Did something happen?" Lucas asked without waiting for Cedric to respond.

Requesting Kyle's return indicated that the phone call today was not a small matter.

Something big must have occurred.

It was only now that Lucas understood that Cedric's decision to keep Natalie inside might not be as simple as he had initially thought.

But Kyle... "Stop talking nonsense. Just get him back!" The man's voice was loud, and there was a chilly undertone to it.

Lucas looked at Cedric. He wanted to say something but ultimately kept his words to himself when he saw the icy look in Cedric's eyes.

Something significant had happened, that was Lucas's current understanding.

Even with the pregnancy, Natalie was denied bail. Further, there was still no contact with Stephen, which had never happened before.

Could it be that Stephen believed Cedric's identification report?

Did he think Natalie wasn't his niece and decided to ignore everything?

But that was unlikely, knowing Karina and Leon's understanding of Stephen, they wouldn't expect him to remain silent if it were just about the identification report.

Either Stephen wanted Natalie to leave Sylvan Gems, or he planned to take action against her.

However, nothing happened so far, which left people puzzled.

Natalie was caught in a vortex of unknown situations, and she found herself in a dire situation.

All the evidence against her from Sylvan Gems had gone through screening in a short time.

Whether it was witness testimony or physical evidence, everything pointed towards Natalie.

Currently, aside from Leon, even Karina couldn't see her.

After another round of questioning, Leon looked at Natalie with concern.

"How are you feeling?"

"I'm fine." Although she claimed to be fine, her complexion revealed the burden she carried.

Without waiting for Leon to speak, Natalie said, "I can't communicate with the outside world now, right?"

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 234- Wishing for Her Death The medical staff and Leon frowned as they looked at Natalie.

Leon stepped forward and said in a low voice, "Let's discuss everything once we're out of here." Undoubtedly, now that Irwin had left Verde City and they couldn't reach Stephen, Cedric would be wishing for her death.

The only way for her to escape was through this child.

That was how important the child was to Natalie's survival right now. Would Natalie not know the significance of the child?

She never planned to use or involve anyone throughout her life, in this life or her previous one.

It was also the same now.

So, of course, she understood the child's importance!

"Leon, you don't understand," Natalie said to Leon, her tone calm yet mysterious.

As a mother, being unable to protect her child was the greatest punishment for a woman.

How could she resort to any means to use her child?

More importantly, if she left here because of the child, Cedric would surely find out.

She... didn't want to create more trouble.

Cedric was insane.

Who knew what he would do when he found out?

He was determined to keep her in here this time. Natalie thought... that Cedric wouldn't change his mind just because of the child.

"But Mr. Jarvis..." Leon trailed off, but Natalie understood without him finishing the sentence.

Stephen had been unreachable, and he was in Simeria. He was too far, and he didn't have the time or about her.

au to worry But asking her to use this child... She couldn't do it!

Without responding to Leon, she bluntly asked the medical staff, "What procedures do I need to follow?" Looking at Natalie's stubborn and determined face, Leon realized that since returning to Stephen's side.

this was the first time she had shown such assertiveness.

This firm attitude meant that nothing he said now would change her mind... When the medical staff looked at Natalie, her initial sternness softened somewhat. There was even a touch of pity in her eyes.

To what extent had this woman been hurt by a man that she wouldn't even consider using the child of that man?

"Aboveboard procedures are somewhat complicated. If you're determined to proceed, I'll help you with the paperwork," the medical staff said.

Natalie nodded. "Thank you." www novelbin The medical staff stared at Natalie for a long while before turning and leaving the room.

Only Natalie and Leon remained in the infirmary. Leon looked at Natalie's pale face, wanting to say something.

Then the phone rang Leon glanced at the number and picked it up.

"Karina." Whatever was said on the other end made Leon look at Natalie even more concerned. After a brief conversation, he hung up.

There was not just concern in his eyes when he looked at Natalie. There was also a deep sense of solemnness "What happened?" Natalie asked.

Leon hesitated, but he finally said, "Karina said they rejected the lawyer's bail request." "The request they submitted about me carrying a child?" Natalie asked.

"Yes." I Natalie, who had refused to use the child, was now rejected even though she was pregnant. It indicated.

that something was wrong in the situation.

Undoubtedly, it was Cedric. Cedric had Intervened in this matter and refused her bail. He hadn't thought about letting her out again after bringing her to this place.

2:5 Natalie had to admit that he was truly ruthless.

She fell silent. This silence emitted an unconscious sense of desolation throughout her b*dy despite Natalie repeatedly claiming she didn't care.

But now, that man had completely disregarded their past, destroying her to this extent for Isabella and Christina... Who could bear it?

Leon approached and handed Natalie a cup of water, "Have a drink." "Thank you." Natalie took the water absentmindedly. Hastily taking a sip, she choked.

She tried to close her mouth to swallow, but it was as if she was trying to swallow something extremely bitter.

It seemed that only enduring this kind of physical discomfort could relieve the stifling pain in her chest.

After arriving at the company, Cedric stayed alone in the office for a long time.

When Lucas came in with meeting materials, the thick smell of smoke in the room made people dizzy.

Cedric pressed the cigarette butt into the ashtray and suddenly asked, "Is everything arranged for Bella?" "Was there something to arrange?" Lucas asked and stiffened.

Obviously, he didn't understand what Cedric was saying. When Cedric received that call in the car, Lucas felt that something was obviously wrong.

After that, Cedric ordered him to ensure that Natalie didn't get bailed out.

So, what arrangements were there to make for Isabella? Cedric hadn't said anything!

And now Cedric remembered that while he was preoccupied needed protection the most..

with Natalie, he neglected the person who Rubbing his forehead, he pinched the throbbing spot between his eyebrows.

"Assign Kyle to stay with Bella." "Sir?" Lucas looked at Cedric in shock.

Kyle Lester?!

He was currently in Meridiana. He hadn't returned to Verde City in years, indicating that he wouldn't come back unless absolutely necessary.

Even during the turmoil in the Johnson family years ago, Cedric didn't call Kyle back to protect him.

However, now he wanted Kyle to come back and stay by Isabella's side?!

"Did something happen?" Lucas asked without waiting for Cedric to respond.

Requesting Kyle's return indicated that the phone call today was not a small matter.

Something big must have occurred.

It was only now that Lucas understood that Cedric's decision to keep Natalie inside might not be as simple as he had initially thought.

But Kyle... "Stop talking nonsense. Just get him back!" The man's voice was loud, and there was a chilly undertone to it.

Lucas looked at Cedric. He wanted to say something but ultimately kept his words to himself when he saw the icy look in Cedric's eyes.

Something significant had happened, that was Lucas's current understanding.

Even with the pregnancy, Natalie was denied bail. Further, there was still no contact with Stephen, which had never happened before.

Could it be that Stephen believed Cedric's identification report?

Did he think Natalie wasn't his niece and decided to ignore everything?

But that was unlikely, Knowing Karina and Leon's understanding of Stephen, they wouldn't expect him to remain silent if it were just about the identification report.

Either Stephen wanted Natalie to leave Sylvan Gems, or he planned to take action against her.

However, nothing happened so far, which left people puzzled.

Natalie was caught in a vortex of unknown situations, and she found herself in a dire situation.

All the evidence against her from Sylvan Gems had gone through screening in a short time.

Whether it was witness testimony or physical evidence, everything pointed towards Natalie.

Currently, aside from Leon, even Karina couldn't see her.

After another round of questioning. Leon looked at Natalie with concern.

"How are you feeling?"

"I'm fine." Although she claimed to be fine, her complexion revealed the burden she carried.

Without waiting for Leon to speak, Natalie said, "I can't communicate with the outside world now, right?" Chapter 234 Chapter 234 Won't Give In Leon looked at her. From the silence in her eyes, he could sense her unspoken resilience and stubbornness.

She wouldn't surrender, even if the whole world abandoned her now.

She would continue to do what she needed to do.

Cedric had pushed her to this point for Isabella and Christina, intending to keep her imprisoned forever.

Yet, she refused to admit defeat.

"What do you want to do? I'll take care of it for you," Leon didn't directly answer her question, but the implication was evident.

She couldn't have any contact with the outside world right now.

Natalie didn't know why Leon was an exception.

"Just call Zane and tell him to carefully compare the previous documents," she said.

"Yes, ma'am." "Also, tell him to go to the relevant agency to check the signing time on my handwriting with the time.

below!" Despite the interrogations, Natalie remained clear-headed about what she needed to do.

She would continue denying those so-called evidence. She would investigate it on her own!

Cedric had won. He had isolated her and made it impossible for her to escape.

Still, she wouldn't yield to his wishes.

"I understand," Leon said with a nod.

Hearing Natalie speak like this eased his concerns. The silence when he mentioned Cedric preventing her from getting bail had worried him before, fearing she might lose hope.

As Leon was about to leave, Natalie stopped him.

"Wait." "What's wrong?" "What's the situation with my uncle now?" They couldn't reach him, and Natalie felt something was off. Since the identification report, her relationship with her uncle had become strange.

She was sure that Stephen was definitely not neglecting her.

Her surroundings now seemed shrouded in mystery, and she couldn't see through it.

Leon frowned and said, "It doesn't seem to be going well on his end." From what Leon knew of Stephen, the latter had never faced significant challenges in his life. Suddenly, such a significant event occurred, and it involved his own daughter.

Stephen had single-handedly built Simeria's business empire yet had failed to protect his daughter's sweetheart. How could he not be in pain?

Hearing that Stephen wasn't well, She felt heartbroken.

infall ellent.

And this only added to her resentment towards Cedric.

In the evening after work, Cedric initially didn't want to leave the company. But after receiving a call from Scarlet Villa, he hurriedly went back.

Lucas drove, and Cedric urged him to run several red lights on the way.

When the butler saw Cedric return, he approached with a solemn and respectful expression, "Sir, you're back." "Where is he?" The butler had mentioned someone on the phone when he called Cedric.

"The person has escaped." "Is she okay?" "Fortunately, Lily was with her, so nothing major happened." "What did security say about this?" 14 200 Cedric's tone became increasingly stern, and there was danger in it.

*Security says it was a thief." A thief?!

A sharp glint flashed in Cedric's eyes as the butler finished speaking. Scarlet Villa's security system was tight—how could an ordinary thief get in?

How easy for them to say such a thing, huh?

Thinking about the morning call, a cold light flashed in Cedric's eyes.

The butler continued, "Ms. Morgan was frightened and hasn't come out of her room until now." Hearing this, Cedric glanced at the stairs, his hostility intensifying. In the end, he didn't say anything and went upstairs.

Lucas was still gathering information with the butler. In just one day, there were many incidents around Cedric.

When Cedric decided to bring back Kyle, Lucas felt something was amiss. Now, with this incident, even though he was mentally prepared, he couldn't help but stiffen and be on guard.

Cedric went upstairs and arrived at Isabella's room. Lily was there, and she breathed a sigh of relief when she saw him.

"Sir, you finally came back." "What happened?" "Ced." Before Cedric could speak, Isabella called out to him. Her voice was weak and filled with fear.

It was evident that Isabella was truly scared.

Hearing her voice, Cedric walked forward. Lily quickly stepped aside, giving space to Isabella and Cedric.

"I'm here." Cedric's voice was incredibly gentle as he held Isabella's slightly cold hand in his warm palm. When he felt her trembling, a dangerous glint flashed in his eyes.

3/5 "The person wasn't a thief. He definitely wasn't a thief," Isabella uttered incoherently, clutching Cedric's hand as if grabbing a life-saving straw.

Cedric reassured, "I'll look into it." "He didn't ask anything and just...."

Isabella's face turned pale at the memory of the person's intentions.

Cedric tightly held her hand and soothingly whispered, "It's okay." But in the next moment, before he could react, Isabella had already nestled into his embrace..

He instantly stiffened, and instinctively, he wanted to push her away.

However, considering their current relationship and the responsibilities he was about to fulfill, his raised hand hovered in the air and ultimately encircled Isabella's delicate waist.

"It's okay, I'm here." "Ced, I'm so scared. Even though I couldn't see, I could feel the danger from that person!" Since she truly lost her sight, her perception of the surroundings became particularly acute. So, her feelings wouldn't be wrong.

At this moment, she felt helpless and frightened.

However, Cedric seized a crucial point—she couldn't see.

Why couldn't she see?

Because of Natalie.

A cold light flashed in Cedric's eyes when he thought about why Isabella had lost her sight, and his grip around her tightened.

After finally calming Isabella and making her fall asleep, Cedric came out and went straight to the study.

where Lucas was waiting.

"Have you found out?" Cedric got straight to the point.

Lucas looked serious and handed Cedric screenshots from the security footage. The figure was securely It was definitely not the thief described by the security.

"You can leave," Cedric said after looking at the photos. His eyes were stone cold.

Lucas nodded and turned to leave. However, just as he reached the door, Cedric stopped him.

“What’s happening on Stephen’s side? Any actions regarding Natalie?” “No, all his focus is on Ms. Jarvis.” “Okay.” Walker “One of Ms. Walker’s assistants, Zane, is conducting a signature comparison for her.” “A signature comparison?” “Yes, sir.” “Heh... So, she’s not giving up yet.” A cold light flickered in his eyes, and his tone became sharper and more sinister.

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 235-A Strange Birthday Party Cedric took a sip of water before turning his cold and piercing gaze on Lucas.

“Do you know what to do?” “Yes, sir.” Lucas understood once he heard Cedric’s tone. He turned and left, leaving Cedric alone in the study.

Cedric looked blankly at the wall for a while.

Stephen... was completely ignoring Natalie?

His inaction seemed anything but simple.

“Natalie...” he murmured softly.

At this moment, Cedric also realized that Natalie had changed completely since divorcing him, even in personality.

But whether she confessed or not, she had to stay inside now!

Time passed swiftly, and it was soon time for Christina’s birthday banquet. During this period, some felt like time was dragging on, while others felt like they were living in a dream.

This applied to Christina, Isabella... and Natalie!

Although somewhat disappointed in Christina, Rebecca ensured her birthday banquet would be extravagant.

Inside her room, Christina was dressed like a delicate doll as Wanda attended to her. Wanda’s eyes were filled with indulgence as she looked at Christina.

“Miss, Master Cedric is here.” There was a hint of gravity in Wanda’s tone when she spoke.

Christina turned around and asked, “What’s wrong with you?” Seeing Wanda’s unusual expression, Christina reached out and took Wanda’s hand. For some reason, she could smell a very familiar scent on Wanda.

Wanda touched her hair and said, "Ms. Morgan is also here." Christina's expression stiffened for a moment at the mention of Isabella.

Then, she paled.

Memories flashed in her mind. Back at Scarlet Villa, when Isabella manipulated her... It was the first time Cedric protected someone else.

Isabella did have some tricks up her sleeves!

"How dare she!" When Isabella was mentioned, Christina's initial good mood was completely gone. For years, her birthday had been celebrated with her grandmother, mother, and brother, When Natalie appeared, she always felt uncomfortable.

Now that she had finally driven Natalie away, Isabella showed up!

More importantly, Isabella dared to manipulate even her!

"Miss." "I don't want to see her!" Christina said petulantly..

Christina was upset just thinking about that woman.

Isabella had deceived her so miserably and also took Cedric away from her.

How could she not be upset?

Seeing Christina's stubborn attitude, Wanda comforted her, "It's your birthday banquet. Don't embarrass yourself because of her," "Wanda." "Right now, she is important to Master Cedric." Wanda spoke directly, preparing Christina mentally. After all, if Wanda hadn't told her now, Christina would likely have caused a scene when she saw Isabella at the banquet.

Isabella was much more formidable than Natalie, and now Cedric was somewhat protective of her.

Christina's tantrums wouldn't do any good for her.

"Hmph, that bitch!" for brothers Christina was furious. She knew very well that Isabella was important to And because of this importance, Christina wished she could tear her to pieces!

A sinister look flashed in her eyes.

So what?

Christina had managed to drive even Natalie away.

What could a blind woman like Isabella do?

Christina was very upset, and Wanda had to comfort her for quite a while. When they went downstairs.

Christina's heart was in chaos when she saw Cedric keep Isabella by his side.

"Mom," Coming to Rebecca's side, she affectionately took Rebecca's arm.

Rebecca's expression finally eased a bit after seeing Christina. Today's birthday banquet was probably the most displeasing event for Rebecca in these years, even more so than when Natalie was around.

Her son showed up with this blind woman, and all the guests were aristocrats from wealthy families.

When they looked at her, those noble ladies' eyes were filled with hidden mockery.

"You're the star today. Go and greet the guests properly, okay?"

"Of course!" Christina let go of Rebecca's arm and went to greet everyone. Then, seemingly nonchalantly, she walked toward Cedric and Isabella.

Cedric was chatting with an elder. Even so, he was holding onto Isabella.

The protective gesture made Christina insanely jealous.

"You've always had good taste; it's just a pity for this young lady," an elderly uncle said to Cedric.

The way he looked at Isabella carried a hint of pity.

However, due to the previous conflicts between Natalie and Isabella, most people's gazes towards.

Isabella were not friendly.

This brought some comfort to Christina.

When Cedric heard the words 'pity, he patted Isabella's hand gently.

3/5 Isabella said, "I'm fine." "Are you tired?" Cedric asked with concern.

"No. I'm fine," Isabella replied.

The two made a harmonious image, standing together. Except for Isabella's eyes, she looked beautiful from any angle.

Christina approached with a warm and gracious smile, "Ced." Christina was a bit nervous when she approached then, especially considering what happened at Scarlet Villa. She hadn't seen Cedric since then.

Fortunately, on her birthday, Cedric didn't show any displeasure.

"Yeah," he replied casually.

Christina didn't mind his indifferent reaction and boldly approached, linking arms with Isabella.

"Bella, you're finally here.

Their intimate appearance made it hard for anyone to detect their previous discord.

Upon seeing the broken necklace in Isabella's hand, Christina exclaimed, "This necklace is broken?!" "Yeah, I accidentally broke it just now." Isabella didn't say she had accidentally broken the necklace on Cedric's suit button just now.

Acting unusually generous, Christina said, "Ced, let me take Isabella to my room to pick a new one." Upon hearing this, Isabella subconsciously tightened her grip on Cedric's arm. She naturally knew that Christina inviting her alone was definitely not a good sign.

There were many people today, and she didn't want to put herself in a disadvantageous position.

So, she had made up her mind not to be alone with Christina before she came. And because of the incident at Scarlet Villa, Cedric was naturally not at ease with Christina taking Isabella away.

"No need for that," Cedric spoke before Isabella could. He glanced at Isabella and said, "This is fine." "It doesn't quite match!" Christina said, looking at Isabella's neck.

She smiled, 'Isabella's neck is fair and long. It would look even better with a necklace. How about you' Seeing Christina speak like this, Cedric subconsciously looked at Isabella's neck. He had to admit that with Isabella's deep V-neck dress today, she did need a necklace, "Sure. Wait for me here," Cedric said to Isabella.

With so many people around, Cedric was sure Christina wouldn't dare to do anything suspicious. It was clear that Isabella thought the same.

Everything was fine as long as they weren't alone, especially since Lucas was still here.

Cedric left, and Christina's grip on Isabel a's arm tightened.

To onlookers who were near them, they seemed like very good friends.

However, Christina's lowered voice carried a hint of malice when she spoke.

"Do you think that I can't do anything just because you're avoiding me?"

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 241

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 241-Difficult Times In the past, what Christina most desired was to see her brother at home. She eagerly awaited the holidays when she could reunite with him during school breaks Later, when he married Natalie, she still hoped he would come back often.

However, these past few days have felt like an eternity for her.

Natalie was dead.

Although the firefighters eventually rescued her from the blaze, it was reported that she didn't survive an hour after being saved.

Stephen came to take her away for cremation, Christina harbored a deep hatred for Natalie, resenting her significant role in Cedric's world.

Yet, even so, it was hard to muster up any feelings of happiness right now.

Because the man she loved... had a debt to settle with her for the sake of that dead woman.

Christina had never been so afraid to face Cedric.

She feared that he might confront her for that woman's sake. She worried that the cruelty he once directed at Natalie would now be turned against her.

Would that cruelty slowly accumulate and be focused on her?

"Miss, have some oranges; they're very sweet." Wanda stood behind Christina, holding the fruit. Her voice was soft and gentle.

Christina hadn't eaten much these past two days despite her previous fondness for the snacks Wanda used to make for her.

However, these two days... No matter how much effort she put into it, Christina never took a single bite.

"I don't want to eat!" Christina lacked patience at this moment, and she was irritated by Wanda's kindness.

"Miss, how can you not eat? You'll collapse if you continue like this." "I wish I had burned in that fire instead," Christina said bitterly.

Yes. Once a person was dead, that was the end. It was those who lived that suffered! The living was.

constantly tormented and experiencing unpleasant feelings After she said that, Wanda was shocked.

"No! Miss, what are you saying? Don't say such ominous things." The idea of death made Wanda uneasy.

She knew exactly what was on Christina's mind.

So she advised. 'Miss, why worry about such things? Now that the woman is dead, would Master Cedric still treat you differently because of a dead person?' Christina was silent.

That woman was dead!

Turning back to Wanda, she looked at her with a complex and uncertain expression.

"Wanda, do you know what that card he saw means for Natalie and me?" It signified the exchange of their previous positions.

It meant that since Cedric had been cruel to Natalie before, he would now feel guilty and pained towards her.

It also meant that Christina would be facing Cedric's wrath.

Wanda didn't care about these implications; she just felt sorry for the currently tormented Christina, "What does it mean? Miss, you have Madam Rebecca and Madam Elizabeth Did you forget that?" "But I want him!" Christina said, expressing her heartache.

She could do without anyone from the Johnson family, but losing Cedric was something she couldn't bear.

He was the love of her life. As the thought of possibly losing Cedric this time crossed her mind, she regretted that she had asked Cedric to go to her room to fetch the necklace just to spite Isabella.

Wanda looked at the pain in Christina's eyes and set the fruit plate aside to embrace her.

She said, "Shh, I know." "Wanda, I can't lose him," Christina said with tears streaming down her face.

Wanda patted her shoulder.

"Yes, I know. Shh, it's okay. I know, hmm?" At that moment, despite the loving tone in Wanda's voice, a glint of determination flashed in her eyes as if she had made some significant decision.

As Wanda's warm arms circled around her, Christina broke down completely, crying like a child.

"Wanda" At the hospital, Rebecca had only gone to the restroom for a moment. When she returned, Cedric was nowhere to be found.

Her heart skipped a beat, especially when she saw the hospital gown on the bed, confirming that Cedric had left.

"Lucas? Lucas! Rebecca called for Lucas, but he was also nowhere to be seen. Undoubtedly, he had left.

Frantically pulling out her phone, she quickly dialed a number, and Wanda's voice came from the other end.

"Hello?" "It's me." "Madam Rebecca," Wanda greeted.

Rebecca urgently said, "Hurry, get Tina to my mother!" "What happened?" Wanda tensed when she heard Rebecca's words.

Rebecca felt that something big was about to happen.

She knew her son too well, He had been so ruthless to Natale regarding Isabella's matter. Now that Natalie was gone, he couldn't contain his emotions.

So, he would likely find someone to vent his frustrations on... And that someone was undoubtedly Christina!

She even dared to assume that If it weren't for the fire at the detention center that night, he might have 35 +158745 After all, there had been such a ruthless glint in his eyes!

"Cedric might have gone back," Rebecca said.

Hearing that Cedric might be heading back and the fact that Rebecca had urgently called her to bring Christina to Elizabeth, Wanda knew that things involving Natalie weren't that straightforward.

"Yes, of course, I understand," Wanda said and hung up the phone.

Wanda turned around and saw Christina sitting on the sofa by the French window. Hurriedly, she stepped forward.

"Miss." "What's wrong?" "Let's go to Madam Elizabeth first." Saying this, Wanda pulled Christina up from the soft sofa.

As Christina saw the solemn expression on Wanda's face, her heart began to pound.

She couldn't help but ask stiffly. "What's going on?" Wanda replied, "Let's go first, okay?" Rebecca sounded so urgent on the phone, so Cedric should be on his way back now. Elizabeth liked tranquility, so walking from the annex building she was in would take several minutes.

Christina was anxious and uneasy as she let Wanda lead her out.

But then, they heard the sound of a car door slamming in the courtyard, The two exchanged glances.

The fondness and joy that used to fill Christina's eyes when she knew Cedric was coming back were nowhere to be seen now.

In the past, every time she learned that Cedric was returning, she would happily rush to greet him joyfully.

But now...!

"Through the back door." Hearing that Cedric had already gotten out of the car, Wanda quickly pulled Christina towards the kitchen.

Thinking about the danger emanating from Cedric that night, they didn't dare face him at this moment.

Christina also didn't want to see Cedric right now.

Isabella had done those things with her!

Why should all the blame fall on only Christina?

But now, it was too late for regrets.

The only solution was to wait for Cedric to calm down in time. Natalie's incident had just occurred, and facing Cedric now seemed unfavorable for Christina in every way.

However, just as Wanda was pulling Christina to the kitchen door, a cold and sinister voice came from behind, "Christina!"

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 242

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 242-Completely Finished Christina and Wanda turned stiffly to see Cedric standing chillingly in the hallway.

Behind him, in addition to Lucas, was also... the police?!

Christina and Wanda exchanged a look.

Fear filled Christina's eyes, and her mind was completely in turmoil.

"Ced, what's this? Christina nervously asked For the past two days, she had imagined countless times what it would be like when she and Cedric met again.

Perhaps there would be intense interrogations, disappointed confrontations, and his cold indifference.

However, she never expected this!

She never thought that when they met again, he would directly bring the police with him!

What pained her even more at this moment was Cedric's cold indifference. He looked at her with icy eyes devoid of warmth. It was as if their shared childhood was just her own dream, and he... didn't care at any all.

A police officer had approached her.

He politely said, "Ms. Johnson, we received Mr. Johnson's report stating that you're related to the recent investigation of Ms. Morgan's kidnapping. Please come with us. We have some questions about the relevant details." "No, it wasn't me," Christina said as she trembled.

Her face was pale at this moment, and she looked towards Cedric, At the moment their eyes met, all she saw was coldness.

"Ced, how can you not believe me? 1-1 wouldn't hurt Bella..." "How could I harm someone?" Every word from Christing was filled with pain.

Wanda realized the situation at this moment, and she looked anxiously at Cedric, “Master Cedric, you know what kind of person Miss is, right? She wouldn’t harm anyone!” He actually reported this to the police!

He didn’t even give Christina a chance to explain. He was treating Christina just like he treated Natalie back then.

In fact, he was even harsher than with Natalie!

When dealing with Natalie, he gave her chances again and again, grinding her down and offering her opportunities.

But those so-called opportunities were ultimately disrupted by Christina and Isabella, making him unable to distinguish truth from falsehood..

In the end, he was utterly disappointed in Natalie.

But now, he was being so ruthless!

He didn’t even want to give Christina a chance to explain. He didn’t want to negotiate with her and just brought the police to her door.

“Ms. Johnson, please come with us.” The police officer was impatient with how Christina was trying to delay them. His tone became even more serious and cold.

Christina’s gaze remained on Cedric, Her eyes were filled with tears and grievance.

“Ced...” She called softly, her tone carrying endless pain and resentment.

Whenever Cedric saw her in such a state in the past, he would surely soften.

At that time, regardless of what happened between her and Natalie, he would unconditionally stand by her side.

However, now... He remained cold, without a hint of emotion or warmth.

“Ms. Johnson.” “Master Cedric!” Wanda hurriedly approached and threw herself at Cedric’s feet. Tears streamed down her face as she said, “Please believe Miss! She’s not that cruel.” “And who are you?” Cedric’s icy voice made everyone shiver.

Summoning all her courage, Wanda met Cedric’s eyes. But his gaze was sharp, as if he could see through everything.

All the hidden secrets from the past were now laid bare in his eyes.

“I didn’t know you had such a close relationship with her that you would kneel for her, Wandal” Cedric’s words left Wanda even paler, and a trace of guilt flashed in her eyes.

“Master Cedric…” Wanda’s voice shook uncontrollably when she spoke, especially under Cedric’s penetrating gaze.

Christina cried, “Ced, how can you not believe me?!” Especially when Cedric mentioned Wanda kneeling for her, her heart couldn’t help but skip a beat for some reason.

Through tear-filled eyes, she looked at Cedric, desperately hoping he would trust her unconditionally as he used to.

No matter what mistakes she made, he would always accept her without conditions.

But now… Cedric coldly stated, “The righteous need not fear investigation. Why waste time here? If you’re innocent, why not cooperate with the investigation?” Investigation?!

Christina never knew how heavy the word could be.

All traces of their involvement had been wiped clean after everything had been settled. If not for that card, nothing would have been exposed!

Despite their previous confidence, the moment they were to be ‘investigated, uncertainty began to creep into Christina’s heart.

Natalie hadn’t done those things, and yet she ended up burned inside the detention center.

Moreover, Christina had done those things! Could she really clear herself?!

“Ms. Johnson!” The police officer’s voice grew stern.

Rebecca rushed back and saw what was happening. At the same time, Elizabeth also arrived from the annex building. Seeing the police involved, they were both shocked.

“Cedric,” Rebecca was sweating profusely as she came to Cedric’s side. “How can you treat Tina like this?”

Seeing the situation, Elizabeth also hurriedly approached Cedric. “What’s going on here? Family matters should be resolved behind closed doors. Why involve the police?” Elizabeth was a traditional woman who disliked airing family disputes. With all the recent commotion in the Johnson family, she didn’t want any more scandals.

Now, even the police were involved!

Putting aside whether Elizabeth and the family really cared about Christina, she was still the Johnson family's adopted daughter. They had no other daughters, and Christina still had her uses.

If Christina were to be taken away by the police today, it would become the joke of the entire Verde City.

Christina's life would also be considered ruined!

However, in Cedric's eyes, Rebecca and Elizabeth's attitude had completely turned into their defense of Christina.

A bitter and sorrowful smile played on Cedric's lips.

"Indeed, as she said, you never treated her as family!" Rebecca and Elizabeth's expressions changed at Cedric's words. They naturally knew he was referring to Natalie.

They had never truly accepted Natalie and had even tormented and abused her.

But now that she was dead, they wouldn't want to lose Christina because of a deceased person.

"Ced!" "Mom, Grandma, I'm afraid I can't be a good girl and stay by your side anymore." Every word Christina spoke was filled with grief.

Rebecca's heart ached.

Elizabeth's face turned cold. "Ced!" "Inspector, I'll leave the rest to you," Cedric declared.

He ignored everyone and left.

Chaos erupted in the Johnson family at this moment.

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 243

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 243-Forgive No One "Ced! Ced, please believe me! Let me explain!" Christina cried in despair.

The emotional scene hadn't even begun, and Cedric efficiently put an end to it.

Rebecca and Elizabeth were frantic as they saw Cedric about to leave.

“Mom, Grandma!” Christina was genuinely alarmed as she was forcibly taken away. The situation made her realize that this time, it wasn’t just about cooperating with an investigation.

Cedric had done this!

He had brought the police today, indicating he hadn’t been idle these past few days.

Whatever he knew about her wasn’t as simple as just finding out about the card!

Thinking of the possibilities, despair overwhelmed Christina’s face.

Rebecca and Elizabeth were pale as they watched the scene unfold, but Wanda had the most intense reaction.

“Ms. Christina! Miss!” I “Don’t take her away, It was me! I was the one who did it! I did everything!” Wanda tried to grab Christina, but someone pulled her away.

She fell heavily on the cold floor, full of despair.

Christina cried out, “I’m innocent! It wasn’t me! Ced, listen to my explanation! Mom! Grandma! Save me!” She struggled incessantly, but it was futile against the police, who forcefully took her into the car.

Her hands touched the cold iron bars, and Christina felt utter hopelessness.

Wanda rushed out, slipping in the rain. “Ms. Christina! Miss!” Rebecca and Elizabeth came out and saw the despairing scene they had never imagined would happen with Christina.

No, Christina couldn’t leave this place!

She didn’t want to leave this warm home. She couldn’t bear never coming back.

She was afraid. She was truly afraid!

“Mom! Grandma!” Holding onto the iron bars tightly, she desperately tried to get out of the cold police car.

It was over.

The thought flashed in Christina’s mind at this moment.

Cedric had never been this ruthless to her before.

When he saw her crying, there would be reluctance in his eyes.

But today.....

He had been so heartless.

And she knew what kind of person Cedric was, having grown up with him. Once he turned ruthless, no one could resist.

Finally, it happened.

She never thought that one day, all the cruelty Cedric had shown to Natalie would be inflicted on her.

She never thought Natalie would die; she just wanted to drive her away.

And she never expected that after Natalie's death, Cedric would be so ruthless to her.

Fear and despair enveloped Christina completely, and her whole world turned dark.

On his end, Cedric had left the Johnson Manor, utterly indifferent to Christina's miserable fate.

All of this... she deserved it.

Yes, she deserved it!

The rain in Verde City was always cold.

Cedric stood in the chilly rain, looking at the perfectly intact Scarlet Villa.

His eyes flickered with overwhelming sorrow.

"Mr. Johnson, let's go inside." 215 Lucas was freezing, and Cedric was dressed even more lightly than him. Standing in the rain like this would make him sick.

Cedric seemed not to hear Lucas's words. He simply stood quietly at the door, staring at everything.

familiar.

Everything here was so intact.

Where was the slightest trace of the destruction from his previous life?

Two lives....

The trajectory of fate and time had changed, but....

Natalie's ending hadn't changed.

How heartbreaking was that?

*Lucas," novelbin "Yes, sir." "Why was she cremated?" Could it be that she endured the same pain as in their previous life?

In their previous life, the fire here was completely extinguished, and Natalie was rescued.

Although she survived, she had severe burns all over her b*dy.

She never woke up.

She was pregnant at that time...!

Thinking about all those things, Cedric's throat tightened. The pain in his heart suffocated him!

Lucas sensed his heavy breathing and took a deep breath before saying, "Sir, maybe... It's better not to know." Having been with Cedric for so long, Lucas couldn't bear to see him like this. The more Cedric knew about Natalie's final moments, the more painful it would be.

"Call Stefan over!" Cedric said sternly.

When Lucas heard that Cedric wanted to see Stefan, he knew... Cedric would want to know every detail about Natalie.

35 Lucas also woke up to reality.

Now that he knew the whole truth, Cedric wouldn't let it go easily if he wasn't told every detail.

"Sir!" "Speak!" His one word was full of harshness Lucas tensed up. He lowered his head and said, "Ms. Walker was indeed alive when she was rescued!" eyes tur Cedric's eyes turned stormy.

So, she had been alive then?

Lucas continued without waiting for him to speak, "But she didn't last an hour. Mr. Jarvis didn't even see her alive for the last time.

Stephen had come in the end, but he didn't manage to see Natalie one last time before she died.

Just who was being punished in this situation?

Lucas looked at Cedric. With just one glance, he could see the slight trembling of the man's shoulders.

Sen Me Writer was taken into "And, custody, they said she..." Lucas paused here, clearly reluctant to continue. Even when he learned about those details back then, he was shocked and could imagine how despaired Cedric would be upon learning everything.

"She what?" Cedric asked in a hoarse voice.

She had been alive and had endured the same scorching pain as she did in their previous life.

She used to be a girl who cried like a child when scalded steam.

Cedric couldn't bear to think further.

His heart throbbed painfully, and tears welled up in his eyes.

Thinking of the pain Natalie had endured for two lifetimes, Cedric wanted to kill himself so badly!!

Lucas lowered his head and finally said, 'Ms. Walker was already pregnant when she went in, so... she died with the child!' Boom!

Cedric felt like his world was collapsing!

Nat... Nat!

His Nat... And their child. 1 Cedric fell to the ground heavily. He curled up on the damp ground, his chest heaving painfully.

Lucas quickly stepped forward. "Sir...!" "Leave!" Cedric roared, His world was filled w His world was filled with only despair at this moment.

She had left again.

She had left in such pain, taking their child with her.

How desperate she must have been at that time?

She loved children so much. She had wanted to have a child with him so much!

When the fire spread to her, how could she bear the pain of being unable to protect even the child?

talic Natalie was present so vividly in his heart when he thought about all of these things.

He knew exactly what she had felt inside.

Her trust in him had fallen entirely into the abyss of despair.

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 244-Driving Isabella Away The dark clouds in the sky were blown away by the wind. The clear sky after the light rain carried a dampness along with the sunshine.

However, this ray of light could no longer reach Cedric's heart.

At this moment in Scarlet Villa, Cedric sat hollow-eyed in the hall. Opposite him sat Isabella, equally heavy-hearted.

With everything that had happened, their wedding was naturally no longer possible. No one had expected Natalie to leave the world in such a tragic way.

Although Isabella wished for Natalie's death, she had never actually wanted her to die.

She just wanted Natalie to pay the price for taking everything from her since childhood. The price she wanted Natalie to pay was spending the rest of her life in prison. She wanted Natalie to watch as she slowly reclaimed what was hers and continued to possess Natalie's man. She wanted Natalie to endure the torment and suffering.

However, seeing her dead just like that... Isabella felt no joy.

People couldn't afford to give away their hearts. Whoever handed over their heart truly lost. Isabella had lost now, and because of that loss, she felt heartache.

She didn't want to leave.

But she couldn't bring herself to say those words.

"Will I still be able to see you in the future?" She asked calmly, as if devoid of any emotions.

Natalie was dead.

Isabella was a clever woman, and she understood better than anyone what Natalie's death meant to Cedric the moment he learned the truth.

Her informant had already told her of Christina's late.

Even in the Johnson family, no one, not even Rebecca and Elizabeth together, could protect Christina.

It showed that if Cedric decided to act against Isabella, even that person wouldn't be able to protect her.

Isabella was thankful that she had severed all ties with Christina before this happened. Otherwise, the outcome for her and Christina would have been equally bleak.

Cedric stood at the doorway. His silhouette exuded an endless chill and desolation when Isabella asked her question.

"I've arranged everything for you," Cedric said.

He didn't directly answer her question, but the way he acted... Isabella could see it.

2/5 Her clenched fists turned white, revealing the emotions within her.

As Cedric took another step forward, Isabella spoke again "Ced, I'll give you time. But... please don't be too cruel to me, okay?" "Bella..." "My sister is gone. I regret to say that I no longer have any family in this world," So, they were both lonely.

Cedric didn't respond to Isabella's words.

He simply walked away.

Soon enough, Lily had packed everything for Isabella.

"Miss, let's go." novelbin Lily felt some sympathy for Isabella. In the prime of her life, she had lost her sight, and now her wedding with Cedric was also ruined.

What would she do in the future?

Isabella smiled bitterly, and this smile made everyone present feel a twinge of sympathy.

Apart from Cedric's responsibility towards her, she was now a person without any prospects.

The woman's life was already difficult, and with the unexpected turn of events, it became even more pitiful.

"I just adapted to the structure of this place, and now I have to leave," Isabella said sadly.

Being blind, adapting to the structure of a place was not easy. Going to a new environment and adjusting to everything there—compared to an average person, she needed much more time.

How many more changes would there be in her life?

Just as Isabella left, the butler received a call from Cedric, instructing him to restore everything in Scarlet Villa to the way it was when Natalie was there.

Everything related to Isabella was to be cleared away without a trace.

“Hurry, get everything moving!” the butler directed the servants.

3/5 Since Isabella came in, the things that originally belonged to Natalie have been cleared away to the basement by Cedric for reasons unknown. They were fortunate that when Cedric ordered them to throw everything into the basement, they didn't take the initiative to throw everything away.

Who could have expected such a drastic change in the Johnson family and Scarlet Villa?

The truth was out, and Natalie... was gone!

While Isabella was in the car, she received a call from abroad. One was saying. They conversed in low tones, so Lily and others couldn't hear exactly what the other person said. They only felt that Isabella's aura was colder than before. Then they heard Isabella respectfully say, “I understand.” She sounded like she was restraining herself. There was a hint of resistance in her posture, yet she didn't dare to confront the person on the other end. After leaving Scarlet Villa, Cedric went straight to the company. A lot had happened recently, but he knew that Jonathan wouldn't force a direct confrontation with him. But Irwin was different. Stella meant a lot to him. Although Jonathan had sent Irwin out of the country, Irwin would return soon. “Mr. Johnson,” Lucas greeted in concern as Cedric walked in. The affairs of Sylvan Gems and the eastern suburbs were currently under investigation. Everything had been pinned on Natalie before. Now that she was gone, it was still a cause for concern, especially with Cedric knowing everything. “What is it?” Cedric asked. “Mr. Frazier's people are still investigating the eastern suburbs matter,” Lucas said with some concern. Although Irwin had been sent away, it wouldn't be easy to sweep the matter regarding the eastern suburbs under the rug so easily. Moreover, when Cedric initially intervened in the eastern suburbs, it wasn't directed at Irwin but because of the connection between the eastern suburbs and Natalie. Instead of directly responding to Lucas's words, Cedric said, “Inform the HR department to dismiss Yuvan.”

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 245-Like a Wandering Corpse Upon hearing this, Lucas was momentarily stunned.

Dismiss Yuvan?

That was a little expected, considering Yuvan had been close to Isabella.

To say that Natalie's matters weren't entirely related to Isabella... was impossible.

It was also unlikely that Isabella was utterly uninvolved in everything Christina had done.

Cedric's intentions for sparing Isabella while dealing harshly with Christina remained unclear.

Isabella had only moved out of Scarlet Villa, and Cedric hadn't taken any action against her.

Was it due to insufficient evidence, or were there other reasons?

Even Lucas, who was closest to Cedric, didn't understand.

"Mr. Johnson, where are you going?" In Lucas's contemplation, Cedric had gotten up and casually grabbed his coat before heading towards the exit.

Cedric stopped at the doorway without turning around. There was an endless sense of melancholy.

around him. Even from a distance, Lucas could feel the heaviness in Cedric's heart.

Closing his eyes, Cedric took a deep breath and said, "Don't stop Natalie's or Irwin's people." Zane, whom Natalie had asked to do a handwriting analysis, and Irwin's people who were looking into the eastern suburbs... In short, Cedric was ordering the withdrawal of all personnel that had been dispatched when he asked.

Lucas to obstruct everything!

Lucas was shocked, and he looked at Cedric with disbelief.

"Sir..." Did Cedric know exactly what he was saying?!

If Natalie's or Irwin's people found something, they would turn Radiant Tower upside down!

Even Cedric himself might pay the price for it. Didn't he care about that?!

However, Lucas sensed the desolation in Cedric's departing figure and instantly understood.

Cedric had lost everything.

He had wrongly accused Natalie and even destroyed her with his own hands, leaving her to reside in hell.

together but He had felt so deeply about their ten years together, but those memories now pained him like nothing. before.

And now, there was a deep regret.

Cedric didn't want to do anything anymore.

When Natalie was still alive, she had been looking for evidence related to the eastern suburbs and Sylvan Gems, At that time, Cedric wanted to throw her into prison. She wanted to find evidence to counterattack, leaving it to the final showdown to determine who would be defeated and sent inside.

In the end, she lost and was taken into custody.

And now, Cedric had lost as well.

He indifferently awaited the punishment that belonged to him, no longer making any resistance.

One day later, the sky was filled with dark clouds and distant thunder, hinting at an impending storm.

The atmosphere was heavy at Simeria's Ice City Cemetery, affecting everyone's hearts.

Soon, large raindrops began to fall, along with muffled thunder.

Kyle stepped forward, holding an umbrella.

"Mr. Johnson, let's go back," Kyle said solemnly.

They had used quite a few connections to come here. Soon, Stephen would probably find out about their presence.

Yet, Cedric seemed to ignore Kyle's words. He stared at Natalie's serene smile on the tombstone's picture.

The inscription only had two words: Natalie Walker.

Just those two words.

There was no mention of her being anyone's wife or daughter. She was buried here alone, 7:5 Just as she had come into life, she had also left it cleanly.

Only her name remained behind in this world.

The way she had cleanly cut off her connection to this world left a somewhat bitter feeling in Cedric's chest.

There were fresh bouquets in front of the grave, indicating that someone visited her every day after the funeral.

Cedric tossed aside the flowers, replacing them with his own in the center.

She didn't like those flowers She loved lavender She loved lavender, not chrysanthemums.

Kyle had never seen Cedric this childish before, but he remained silent.

Cedric broke the silence and said, "Kyle." "Yes, sir?" "Prepare to move the grave." "W-what?" Move the grave?

Natalie had just been buried; wouldn't that be inappropriate?

Would it not disturb her final resting place?

Cedric touched the photo on the tombstone.

The rain and wind fell on his face, the wetness made the raindrops and his tears indistinguishable. It seemed that only on rainy days like these could a man shed tears freely.

"People say that fallen leaves return to their roots. She's from Verde City," Cedric continued.

She grew up there, went to school there, and her home was also in Verde City.

So, why bury her in Simeria?

It was a simple and calm statement, yet it touched even Kyle, usually as unyielding as a stone.

Fallen leaves return to their roots.

That was why Cedric specifically came to Ice City Cemetery to bring Natalie back home..

She loved children so much and cherished their Scarlet Villa. Hence, he wanted to bring her and the child back home.

“Yes, sir.” Kyle swallowed his objections.

Cedric merely wanted to bring his wife and child back home, and there was nothing wrong with that.

He didn’t need to explain anything to anyone.

After all the breakdowns, what remained now was Cedric’s calmness. He carried out everything with rationality, but everyone around him could see that this calmness was a desperate facade.

It was as if he was fulfilling a mission or doing something final.

What would happen afterward?

No one knew!

When Stephen received word about Cedric’s actions, he rushed to stop him.

The older man regarded Cedric with cold eyes and said, “Why treat her like this? You won’t even leave her. in peace after her death?!” Stephen’s tone was particularly cold.

Cedric didn’t look at Stephen. He probably didn’t have the courage to.

He had done so many evil things to Natalie while she had been alive.

It had affected the people around her—Stephen, Irwin, Winona... He had done more evil deeds than in his previous life.

In his last life, he had hurt only Natalie..

In this life, he didn’t even spare the people around her.

Faced with the sharpness in Stephen’s eyes, Cedric dryly replied, “She was afraid of loneliness.” “You’re wrong, she wasn’t afraid of loneliness. She was afraid of you!” Cedric remained silent, the air around him turning colder.

When did it start?

When did Natalie begin to fear him?

Indeed, compared to loneliness, he was the most terrifying person in her world.

He ruined her in two lifetimes. He condemned her to the fate of being burned alive each time.

Wasn't he scarier than loneliness?

Yet, even so, what did it matter?

He still intended to bring her home.

Seeing Cedric's insistence, Stephen chose not to continue arguing with him. However, he wasn't so lenient when it came to the matter involving Winona.

Now that Cedric had stopped interfering with everything in Verde City, things were going smoothly for Natalie and Irwin's people.

Stephen believed that soon everything would be revealed!

With all the paperwork completed, the cemetery staff opened Natalie's grave.

They respectfully handed Cedric the small urn covered with a white cloth containing her ashes.

"Mr. Johnson, you can leave with Ms. Walker now." Cedric looked at the small urn held by the staff. There was also a photo of Natalie on it.

How could they treat his Nat like this?

How could they confine her to such a small box?

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 246- I'll Take You Home Trembling hands accepted the small box, and in the next moment, he pulled it tightly into his embrace..

Holding her tightly, he tried hard to feel her heartbeat.

However, there was nothing She was gone.

He was unable to feel it anymore, just like in his previous life.

Even after she had been saved from the fire, she couldn't open her eyes.

"Nat..." Holding the small box tightly, the pain in his chest suffocated him.

Why? Why did fate give him a chance, but it had to start from this moment, from... a time that was similar to his previous life.

He was powerless as he watched the flames before him, and the moment of despair began for him.

Why didn't they give him a place to start that could prevent all tragedies? Why did they make him endure such pain again?

Cedric's heart resented heaven in hysterics.

If only he had been given one step earlier... If it was the day before the fire... If he had gotten his memories earlier, then these tragedies wouldn't have...!!

It was too late.

Unfortunately, it was too late..

Two lives.

Things changed, people changed, but the tragic outcome remained unchanged.

"I'll take you home," Cedric said with a choked voice after a long time.

Home.

Finally, they were going home.

When Stephen arrived at Red Wine Estate, the doctor was dressing Natalie's wounds.

At a glance, he saw the hideous scars on her arm and neck and only a slight injury on her face.

But even so, Natalie had endured a lot of pain these past two days.

"Ouch!" When the cotton soaked in medicine touched the wounds and the doctor gently cleaned them with tweezers, Natalie hissed sharply.

Since her rebirth....

She had been a strong person, but tears overflowed uncontrollably at this moment. The man in a white coat looked at her with a gentle expression. He stopped to relieve her from the pain for a while. Then he spoke gently, "Sorry, it hurts a bit. Bear with it." "Yeah," Natalie gritted her teeth.

But the next moment, a neatly folded tourniquet was handed to her.

"Your lips are bleeding." The implication was that if she couldn't bear the pain, she could bite on it.

Natalie looked closer at the man in front of her for the first time.

“Thank you.” Taking the neatly folded tourniquet, she bit into it, but it still couldn’t alleviate the pain in her b*dy.

The man treating her was Jason Summers, the best burn specialist in Simeria.

Rumors had it that after he treated a patient’s burns and they underwent plastic surgery, the chance of complete recovery was extremely high.

He was also the fourth son of the Summers family.

Due to his dislike of business, he went against his father’s financial profession and chose to study medicine from a young age.

Moreover, there were more than twenty hospitals in Simeria. He was a solitary person and never did □ The fact Jason was here and treating her showed how much effort Stephen had spent to find him.

“Ugh!” Natalie groaned in pain once again.

Cold sweat had already formed on her forehead.

Jason was a silent and reserved person. Because he had seen so many patients, he knew that some pain had to be endured.

But at this moment, a trace of darkness appeared in his eyes as he watched Natalie’s petite b*dy.

continuously shiver.

He said, ‘You probably need to endure this pain for about a week’ Natalie was silent.

A week?

Just listening to it made one’s chest tighten, and besides, this kind of pain wasn’t just for a few minutes!

Due to the large burn area and the fact that she couldn’t use many medicines now, the pain she had to endure was even greater “Why don’t you want to use anesthesia? The man handled her wounds while chatting casually, trying to divert her attention.

And when asked why she didn’t want to use anesthesia, Natalie’s heart trembled.

The sweat on her forehead slid down again. Closing her eyes, she took a deep breath and said, "Although I didn't want the child in my stomach, I think..." At this point, Natalie paused. Evidently, she felt that she sounded ridiculous.

Even if it was ridiculous, so what?

"For the pain, I can bear as much as I can for the childr After saying this, she felt the man stiffen.

She didn't want to continue this heavy topic.

What kind of existence was the child to her?

She liked the child very much.

She loved them very much, but what could she do?

She couldn't keep this child.

She wasn't a good mother, but she wanted to try to be a mother who protected her child.

Even if it was just for a short month, a week, even a day...!

She hoped that during the time the child was in her b*dy, they could suffer a little less.

"There are many ways to handle things in this world. You don't have to solve it in such a painful way." The man said in a deep and profound tone.

However, Natalie was stunned by Jason's words.

There were many ways to handle things?

Was that really true?

For the child between her and Cedric, could there be other ways to deal with removing the child?

The two looked at each other in silence, and Jason carefully applied medicine to Natalie.

Natalie's thoughts drifted away as if there was no pain on her wounds.

Until the end, she didn't groan in pain again.

After it was over, Jason gave her a few more instructions before he left. The medical assistant who followed him quickly packed up and followed.

Natalie looked towards the door and saw Stephen and Jason talking. Then, Jason nodded respectfully and left.

Stephen looked at Natalie, who was already half-asleep.

Since being brought back, her body had been exceptionally weak. She basically spent most of her time in a deep sleep.

Seeing her awake at this moment, Stephen entered. In just a short period, Stephen seemed to have lost a lot of weight, but it didn't diminish the noble and elegant aura he carried.

"Your aunt made some light soup for you. Jason said that paying attention to nutrition will help you.

recover faster." "Uncle." When Natalie heard her uncle say this, tears welled up in her eyes.

It was true that Stephen had personally brought her back.

However, during this time, she had been unconscious due to so she had never faced severe pain in Stephen so clearly.

She hadn't expected Stephen to come to Verde City to pick her up!

Before, when Cedric had caused her to be taken into custody, Stephen had never appeared.

But Stephen had rescued her from that big fire.

"Back then, did you want to die?" The man looked at her sharply.

At his words, Natalie remained silent, not responding. Then she lowered her head...!

Her silence added a heavier atmosphere to the entire room.

Stephen's tone also became more somber. "By doing this, how do you think everyone around you would.

feel? Or do you think it's worth it for such a person?" "Uncle... Natalie said in a heavy tone.

Tears swirled in her eyes as she tried to force them back. But the tears escaped and fell onto the bedsheet.

No one knew how desperate she was in the midst of that raging fire, and no one knew that at that moment, she had no thoughts about whether it was for Cedric.

She had accepted her fate.

The scalding heat and the moment the intense flames burned her skin reminded her of the outcome of her previous life.

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 247-Affection After Death Those terrifying memories made her fear fire, and even more fearful... was fate and the inevitable end of fate.

She struggled so hard against fate and refused to bow down, but in the end, she couldn't change the outcome.

It was so ni "You've disappointed me greatly this time!" Stephen said these words angrily and walked away.

Natalie sat on the bed, stunned.

For a long time, she couldn't recover from Stephen's disappointment.

Those words felt like stones ruthlessly smashing into her heart, causing her rationality to retreat continuously Not long after, Heather came in carrying soup.

When she saw Heather, there was a suffocating feeling in Natalie's chest. She opened her mouth to say something, but nothing came out.

Heather approached and said, "You still have serious injuries on your b*dy, and this kind of mood is not conducive to recovery." "Aunt." Natalie choked out the words.

She wasn't living in the Jarvis family's main residence, Lotus Villa, right now. Instead, she was in Red Wine Estate.

Winona's fiance had an accident, and they should blame or even hate Natalie.

Why were they by her side at this moment?

Natalie tried hard to look into Heather's eyes, hoping to see something, but... she saw nothing.

Heather scooped up a spoonful of soup, blew on it, and then placed the spoon on Natalie's l*ps.

“Drink” “Aunt?” Natalie wanted to ask something but didn’t know where to start.

From Heather’s tired and sorrowful eyes, she could see that something had really happened to Winona.

If so, how could Stephen and Heather still...?

Before she could figure it out, Heather said, “Nat, some things are not as you see them. Your main focus now is to recover from your injuries.” “Aunt, Winnie...” “Don’t mention her!” Before Natalie could finish her sentence, she was angrily interrupted by Heather.

Natalie was startled by the rebuke.

There was a hint of bitterness in Heather’s eyes, then she calmly regained her composure, as if that outburst had never happened.

Natalie was speechless In the three months they spent together, Heather had always been gentle. She had never seen such a malicious look in her eyes.

So, why was that glimpse of malice just now?

Was it directed at her?

It was possible.

Heather should blame her!

After all, Winona’s fiance, Joshua Sharp, had died. If he hadn’t, Winona would be married right now.

But because of Cedric’s revenge on Natalie... “I’m so sorry!” Natalie finally said, However, Heather did not respond to her apology. She just quietly fed her soup.

The atmosphere between the two became somewhat tense.

Especially the touch of malice in Heather’s eyes just now seemed to push a once gentle woman to the point where she almost wanted to harm someone!

When she thought of this, a self-deprecating feeling arose in Natalie’s heart.

Even if her aunt were to stab her now, or if the soup she was being fed was really poison, she would willingly drink it.

Her journey of rebirth this time was so terrifying and miserable. She had dragged everyone around her down and led herself to such a miserable state.

Once the bowl was empty, Heather got up and turned to leave. When she reached the door, she turned back and looked at Natalie.

“Nat, in the future, you’re the only child we have left in the Jarvis family!” Natalie was silent.

Only her?!

What did that mean?!

Natalie wanted to ask, but Heather had already stepped out. Her words left Natalie in a state of confusion.

What did being the only child left in the Jarvis family mean?

What happened to Winona?

Had something also happened to her?

Thinking of this possibility, Natalie’s eyes widened, and her face drained of all blood.

On the other side, Cedric finally returned to Verde City with the urn.

Kyle followed Cedric, thinking that after Cedric brought Natalie back to Verde City, he would find a place to bury her.

However, that didn’t happen!

Cedric directly brought the urn back to Scarlet Villa.

The entire Scarlet Villa was in a state of panic!

After all, accompanying the urn like this made people shudder at the thought.

Rebecca received the news and hurried over. Cedric was having a meal, and Natalie’s urn sat to his right.

Rebecca almost fainted from anger when she saw this.

“Are you crazy?!” She approached the dining table and raised her hand to knock over that ominous thing.

3VS When Natalie was still alive, it had already been troublesome enough. Now that she was dead... it was. still unsettling!

However, Cedric caught her wrist in a forceful grip.

“She’s dead, and you’re still laying your hand on her like you usually do?” Cedric looked at Rebecca with cold, sharp eyes.

Such a gaze made Rebecca pause.

Her heart was pounding.

What did he mean by that? Was that a question, or was it a resentful complaint?

Originally, she had the intention of accepting Natali. But who would have thought there would be so many complications behind this?

Especially now that she was dead.

Facing Cedric’s sharp and icy eyes, Rebecca tried to steady her mind and maintain a calm tone.

“Ced, she’s already dead. Do you want her to haunt you for the rest of your life?”
Enough!

It was really enough.

After so many years, couldn’t he let go even after her death?!

Do they still have to eat and sleep together even after death?

What the hell was this?

If this got out, what would people think?

Cedric gently released Rebecca’s wrist and said, “She was married to me for several years, and you hurt her for several years. Can’t you let her go now?” Rebecca was silent.

At his words, her face turned pale!

Cedric was stating it so plainly, mentioning how she had hurt Natalie for years without accusing her directly.

However, his tone hurt more than any accusations he could have thrown at her.

“Ced, it was because...” “Enough!” Cedric ruthlessly interrupted Rebecca’s words.

Undoubtedly, Cedric didn’t want to hear anything now.

it was meaningless now.

Rebecca felt her heart ache.

No one knew how much pain she felt as a mother, especially seeing Cedric having a meal with Natalie's ashes, There was definitely no mother in the world who would want to see her son like this.

"I know Natalie was important to you, but she's already dead. Can't you let her rest in peace?!" From being angry, Rebecca now felt nothing but helplessness and heartache when she saw Cedric's cold and distant expression Cedric seemed as if he hadn't heard Rebecca's words at all. He indifferently placed Natalie's ashes on his left side.

His careful actions showed that he was putting all his efforts into protecting her.

Rebecca's heart felt a chill as she watched his movements.

"People say the dead should rest in peace-" "She's afraid of loneliness!" Cedric immediately cut off Rebecca's words.

Rebecca was speechless, and her already pale face became even whiter.

So, was he going to accompany Natalie in this way?

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 248-Christina Has Gone Mad Rebecca was currently overwhelmed.

Initially, she was already frustrated when Christina was taken away.

Now, with Cedric acting like this, it added to her distress.

The rumors surrounding the Johnson family are spreading like wildfire, especially concerning their adopted daughter.

"Ced, Tina can't stay inside. Her presence there has a certain impact on our family," Rebecca said urgently.

In influential circles, reputation was closely tied to businesses. Rebecca's words are an attempt to persuade Cedric to let Christina go. She knew that Cedric was the one to have handed over the evidence.

However, Cedric seemed to ignore her words. He calmly lifted a glass of red wine and took a sip.

Rebecca became more anxious. "Although she's not your biological sister, she grew up with you. How can you do this for the sake of an- "She wasn't an outsider!" Cedric looked at his mother again, his eyes filled with disappointment and sorrow.

See?

Every time Rebecca mentioned Natalie, he could basically guess what she was going to say.

An outsider?

Hah...!

So, how did his mother treat this outsider when he wasn't around Natalie?

Rebecca was momentarily stunned. When she saw the pain in Cedric's eyes, she finally realized that she of him. couldn't treat Natalie so casually in front "I wasn't going to say that." "Then what was she? How did you see her?"

Two sharp questions left Rebecca speechless.

She wanted to ask more, but seeing Cedric's expression, all words were stuck in her throat.

Onginally, she wanted to plead for Christina. But looking at Cedric's current state, she knew there was not However, his living with Natalie's ashes at Scarlet Villa was something Rebecca couldn't accept.

"In any case, you should let her rest in peace!" She had to think of some other way to deal with what happened with Christina.

But regarding her son, she wasn't going to watch him sink into despair.

This time, Cedric doesn't argue. He simply said, "Yes, she will" Rebecca should have been happy with this answer. However, Cedric's words sounded like he had let go of everything.

just letting go of Natalie, but also letting go of himself.

Was this indicating that he was going to follow Natalie?

"Ced..." When Rebecca thought of this, her voice started trembling No, it couldn't be!

Cedric remained silent, quietly eating his food. It was as if Natalie was still sitting there, elegantly enjoying her meal just like before.

Ever since he moved to Scarlet Villa, Cedric had always sat in that seat with Natalie by his side.

Occasionally, he would place some of Natalie's favorite dishes on her plate.

Just like now.

He removed the fat from a piece of pork and left only the lean meat on Natalie's empty plate.

Rebecca felt numb watching this. She realized that there was no point in saying anything to Cedric at this moment.

Eventually, she turned and reluctantly left.

Christina was currently being held in the central detention center, undergoing continuous interrogations.

Despite the relentless questioning, she insisted that Isabella gave her the card.

During this time, Isabella was also brought in. However, unlike Christina, Isabella was released within two 15 BON. On the other hand, Christina hadn't been able to leave since she entered.

"I want to see my brother." That had been Christina's most frequent request these days. She just wanted to see Cedric. However, the response she received was cold.

"All the evidence has been verified now. Your request is meaningless." "I want to see my brother." Christina looked at the person in front of her with madness in her eyes.

She had gone mad, finally driven to madness. When the person said that all the evidence had been verified, her days of perseverance were completely shattered.

No matter what she did over the years or whenever people around her began to suspect her, she always found a way to escape without being doubted.

How many times had she thrown dirt on Natalie? She even wanted to forget every single incident she had done!

She would always remember how she successfully broke Natalie each time. She had always been flawless in her planning.

Clearly, everyone was on her side.

So why?

Why were these people interrogating her day and night?

Why didn't Cedric come to see her yet?

Even her mother, who used to adore her, hadn't come!

"I didn't do it! It wasn't me!" That was the only thing Christina could say after all the questioning.

She was smart and knew that until someone from the Johnson family arrived, denying everything was the best strategy.

Don't answer any questions directly.

"Ms. Johnson, what we're asking is..." "Don't ask anymore! I don't know anything!" Christina screams in despair.

She refused to speak or say anything. She believed that the Johnson family would come for her.

They must be angry now. But once their anger subsided, they would come to take her away.

Christina didn't believe that the Johnson family would abandon her.

But thinking about how Isabella was now being protected by Cedric, even though Isabella participated in everything she did... Why was Christina the only one undergoing this interrogation?

What about Isabella?!

Christina clenched her teeth even tighter when she thought about Isabella, refusing to admit anything.

The waiting was the longest and most agonizing.

Christina didn't know how she managed to last inside the detention center.

Once, in the face of irrefutable evidence, Natalie still had room for resistance. She was inside, but there were many people outside helping her.

However, Christina had been inside for a full two weeks. Not a single person had come to see her.

No one has cast a glance at her.

She didn't even know if someone outside was helping her like they did for Natalie. Would the Johnson family help her this time? Did Cedric still trust her?

The longer the time went on, the more she lost confidence in this.

A person without confidence was destined to gradually descend into despair.

Finally... After half a month, someone came to see her.

She thought Cedric had forgiven her and finally agreed to take her out.

However, to her surprise, the person she saw in the reception room was not Cedric or Rebecca but... Wanda!

It was just a servant from the Johnson family.

“Wanda?” Christina looked at Wanda and glanced behind her. There was endless disappointment in her eyes.

Seeing Christina looking so gaunt, Wanda’s eyes were filled with pity.

“Oh, Ms. Christina. You’ve suffered so much.” Wanda, whose hair had turned considerably white, looked extremely haggard at this moment. Christina ignored all of this and coldly asked in a disgruntled tone, “Where’s my mom?”

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 249-No One Wanted Her Anymore As soon as Christina asked about Rebecca, a hint of displeasure flashed in Wanda’s eyes.

Rebecca was a sore subject for Wanda, but she managed to keep her anger hidden from Christina.

She replied, “Madam has been busy lately.” “What about my brother?” Christina sneered..

This laughter could either be mocking herself or ridiculing everything she had before.

Busy? What could be more important than her?

Wanda looked at Christina and said in a restrained tone, “Master Cedric’s recent condition is also a cause for concern “What’s wrong with my brother?” Christina panicked when she heard something was wrong with Cedric. She genuinely liked her brother. even loved him.

So, she might not care about the others in the Johnson family, but she worried whenever she heard that Cedric wasn’t doing well.

Seeing Christina’s concern for Cedric, Wanda couldn’t hold back her anger anymore.

“How can they just ignore you?” This was the person who truly cared about the Johnson family!

Wanda was furious.

Christina remained silent. novelbin “Madam has been busy with company matters lately. Master Cedric, he... When it came to Cedric, Wanda hesitated.

Christina grew impatient at the silence and urged, “What is It? Tell me!” God knew she had been unable to get any news from the outside world during this tedious and agonizing time.

The thing she most wanted to hear in this dull and tormenting period was news about Cedric, Wanda looked at Christina a few moments longer before finally saying. “That woman is dead.” Dead.

Christina already knew this.

So, what did Wanda mean?

“Master Cedric carries that woman’s ashes with him every day at Scarlet Villa. He doesn’t step out of the villa, and the company is being neglected.” “Madam is too busy with the company to think about you. But you grew up in the Johnson family. You’ve called them grandmother, mother, and brother for so many years. How can they just ignore you like this?!” Wanda became angrier as she spoke.

When Christina was brought in this time, Wanda thought it wouldn’t be a big deal. Rebecca would certainly not ignore her.

However, in this short period, she witnessed the true colors of human relationships, To Rebecca, Christina was merely a leisurely pet, a plaything to showcase her kindness. When things.

really went wrong, she wasn’t that important.

As for Cedric, all his attention was on that dead woman now.

While Wanda continued her rant, Christina’s mind buzzed, and she couldn’t hear anything.

All she could think about was Cedric spending every day with Natalie’s ashes at Scarlet Villa.

Was that woman so important to him?

She was dead. Yet, he carried her ashes with him?!

“Ms. Christina? Miss?” After talking for a while, Wanda noticed that Christina wasn’t listening, and her complexion was turning paler.

Hearing Wanda's voice, Christina snapped back to reality. She looked at Wanda, and overflowing tears.

replaced the coldness in her eyes.

Startled by the tears in Christina's eyes, Wanda asked, "Miss, what's wrong?" "You said he carries Natalie's ashes with him every day at Scarlet Villa?"

Every word was filled with pain.

As Christina asked this question, it seemed as if she couldn't hear her own voice.

Was Natalie so important to him?

Was she important enough for him to disregard everything else? Even the company?

When talking about this matter, Wanda became even more furious..

"Exactly! She's dead yet still occupies the position by his side." Christina fell silent and didn't respond.

No one knew how desperate she felt at this moment. When she schemed against Natalie in the past, she once thought Natalie was just like those other women with how Cedric treated her.

If she drove her away, it would be done.

However, Natalie lingered for years, mainly because she was too skillful it caused Christina much irritation.

a Since she had such skills, Christina decided to compete with her. So, like a madwoman, she relentlessly accused Natalie, preventing her from having peace.

Finally, Christina won Cedric threw Natalie into prison. That meant Natalie's place in Cedric's heart was nothing more than that.

But now, hearing Wanda say that Cedric carried Natalie's ashes every day at Scarlet Villa, neglecting the company and everything else, she finally realized that Natalie was different from those other women.

She truly occupied a significant portion of Cedric's heart.

"Hahaha... Hahah! Hahaha..." Christina laughed hysterically.

Christina had lost.

She had completely lost.

The outcome of the battle came unexpectedly, catching everyone off guard.

Who could have thought that Christina would truly lose like this?

She suddenly burst into maniacal laughter, startling Wanda.

34 “Miss, what are you doing?” Wanda asked.

“You can leave,” Christina said, suppressing her laughter. In her eyes, there was a touch of desolation.

“Miss.” “Thank you. It turns out you’re the one who cares about me the most in the Johnson family,” Christina said with a mysterious look fixed on Wanda.

In the end, who could have imagined that the first person from the Johnson family to visit her would be Wanda?

She lost not only to Natalie but also to herself. She was too confident, thinking that the Johnson family was truly her home and those were her family members.

In reality, it was not her home. Those were not her family members, and Cedric... had no place for her in his heart.

Ever since she fell in love, she had been calculating and scheming against every person close to Cedric.

She had even plotted Natalie’s demise.

“Miss, you need to pull yourself together. Madam will be done with her busy schedule soon, and she’ll come to pick you up,” Wanda said with concern.

However, Christina seemed to ignore her words and said, “Whether I go out or not, it doesn’t matter anymore.” “What are you talking about? How can you think like this?” Wanda became anxious after hearing Christina’s words.

Christina remained silent, her eyes filled with sorrow. After pursuing him for half her life, she finally woke up to the realization that if it wasn’t meant to be, it wasn’t meant to be.

Even if she schemed someone to death, it wouldn’t make him hers.

She had realized this a bit late, but not too late.

Without Cedric in her world, what meaning was left in her life?

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 250-The Person Behind Isabella After Wanda left, Christina didn't know how she returned to her cell.

She felt a bit dazed, her mind overwhelmed by everything that happened at Scarlet Villa. She had gone mad with jealousy, a jealousy she never thought she would feel towards a dead person.

But she was jealous.

"Hehe, I lost!" She mocked herself, laughing until tears streamed down her face.

No wonder nob*dy bothered to check on her during this time; they were all busy with their own priorities.

Rebecca's love was always selfish. Even though she adopted her, she never held Christina in high regard.

Her kindness was only because Christina looked good and had some uses.

Now that Christina was locked up and couldn't be of any use, she had undoubtedly become infamous outside. To Rebecca, Christina was useless now.

As for Cedric... She had pinned all her hopes on him. But now, he had shattered all those hopes.

She had truly lost.

During the next interrogation, Christina said, "I want to see Isabella. Finally, she changed her tune.. Previously, she insisted on seeing Cedric and Rebecca the most, but now... she wanted to see Isabella.

When she said this, her face was expressionless. It seemed like everything had returned to calm after the world had turned upside down.

Her emotions were no longer as agitated as before.

The people questioning her exchanged glances and eventually granted her request.

Two hours later, Isabella arrived.

In the reception room, Isabella waved her hand near her nose somewhat disdainfully. Even if she couldn't see, she could smell Christina's wretched state.

Christina was disturbed by Isabella's actions. She was the one who looked disheveled now, but Isabella....

This was the first time Christina had seen Isabella since she had been brought in.

Isabella still looked clean and pure. Regardless of gender, anyone seeing her in this state couldn't help but feel pity. Yet, now she was using this appearance to show disdain for Christina?

It was truly laughable.

"Tell me, how did you manage it?" Christina looked at the blindfolded Isabella and asked sharply.

She didn't believe that Cedric would still protect Isabella as before.

He felt so deeply for Natalie that he would even throw Christina in here to rot. Christina had grown up with him!

It was impossible that Cedric still trusted Isabella!

So, why was Isabella still doing so well?

"I don't know what you're talking about," Isabella said with a light smile, a tone filled with victorious satisfaction.

Christina's expression instantly darkened.

Satisfaction? Such an expression had always been exclusive to her.

How could Isabella show such a feeling and direct it at her?

"Do you have someone backing you?" Christina tentatively asked, her voice beginning to tremble in this probing inquiry.

Even before Isabella could respond, she had already started believing her own statement.

There must be someone!

Yes, Isabella must have someone behind her, or else... she couldn't possibly appear so radiant in front of her now.

Smirking at Christina's question, Isabella's smile widened.

"I really don't understand what you're saying." "Isabella!" "If you've called me just to say these things, I think it's meaningless and a waste of our time." "You were clearly involved in everything. How can you wash your hands of it so cleanly? There must be someone backing your Christina said confidently.

Yes, there must be someone behind Isabella! As she looked at the woman in front of her, who had once cooperated with her, she thought Isabella was. Yet, Isabella had gradually surpassed her. She had driven Natalie into the abyss and replaced everyone else in Cedric's life.

Christina had once looked down on this woman, thinking she was just a useful tool.

Now, looking at Isabella, Christina's eyes were filled with fear, especially with that strange smile on her lips.

"You..." Christina's face turned pale. She wanted to say something, but nothing came out. At this moment, she even forgot why she had asked to see Isabella.

Isabella stood up, adjusting her white dress with a hand, every movement exuding grace. This elegance seemed as if she had received special training in a high position.

Where was the roughness that one would expect from growing up in difficult circumstances? Especially with her unabashed elegance, it was as if she was deliberately and quietly admitting that all the things she had said before were lies!

"Isabella, you'll have a miserable end!" Christina finally stammered after a long time.

She deceived everyone.

What was her purpose?

Deception shrouded Christina. She was filled with anger and resentment, yet it was all in vain.

She couldn't understand Isabella's motives.

Why did this woman hate Natalie so much? Did she genuinely fall in love with Cedric now, or did she have ulterior motives?

Various thoughts swirled around Christina, leaving her in turmoil.

"I'm just a blind person. What can I do?" Isabella stood not far away with a strange smile on her lips.

Her words plunged Christina into despair.

Christina claimed Isabella was involved in everything, but Isabella... was just a blind person.

What could she possibly participate in?

Even if she presented all the evidence, people would likely think she was scheming against a blind person.

1/4 “You better pray you’ve hidden all your trails well; otherwise, your fate will be worse than mine!” Christina said menacingly.

So frightening... This woman was so frightening. However, Isabella responded only with a mysterious smile. She said nothing more before turning around and Билеа novelbin. Watching her retreating figure, Christina shivered.

She needed to see Cedric. She must see Cedric. She had to tell Cedric that Isabella had someone backing her... That woman was filthy! They shouldn’t be together!

“Ms Johnson, this way, please!” “I want to see my brother. I want to see Cedric!” Christina shouted as if insane.

rable Regardless of the punishment she received or the miserable outcome she faced, no matter how they abandoned her, she loved Cedric.

She would not allow such a harmful woman to be near him!

She was wrong, truly wrong.

If he wanted to love Natalie, let him love Natalie.

But how could he let a malicious woman like Isabella stay by his side?