

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 711

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 711-Bianca's eyes were serious as she looked at Yvette and set down her cup.

Yvette met Bianca's gaze with a sense of bitter resentment in her eyes. "Do you know why they want me to marry Austin?"

"Why?"

Yvette had just divorced Alto! Would her family really marry her off to Austin like this?

Seriously?!

Everyone in Simeria knew that Yvette used to be the Entes family's fourth lady. They could recognize her on sight!

Yet now... What were they thinking?!

"Because you're still here!" Yvette exclaimed.

Bianca fell silent.

"My father's original plan was for Irene and Zane to get together! But you came back and completely disrupted his plan!"

"Do you think he would help someone for no reason? Bianca, how far will you hurt him before you stop?!" novelbin "Or do you really not understand how critical the situation is for Zane right now?"

Yvette glared at Bianca as though Bianca was the one responsible for the current situation.

Yes!

Before Bianca returned, Irene and Zane used to appear together at various events.

What about Bianca?

She must have been just a powerless foreign woman.

So everyone in Simeria thought that the Stewart family and Zane would succeed! And the Stewart family also focused all their attention on Zane.

Why did Yvette divorce Alto? She had done it to obstruct the Stewart family from supporting Alto and to break ties with him completely!

That way, Zane would have a better chance of succeeding.

Bianca looked at Yvette and said, "Did you forget? I came back from Yuloria because of you!"

As soon as Bianca finished speaking, Yvette's already unpleasant face instantly turned pale.

She looked at Bianca nervously!

She opened her mouth to say something but at this moment...!

She couldn't say anything.

"You probably thought your family would choose you since I wasn't around, but they chose Irene!"

Yvette kept going on about how she had done all these things for Zane.

But did she really care about anything that didn't concern her?

Yvette's heart ached painfully as she glared at Bianca.

"You must feel upset because your cousin is with Zane, right?"

Yvette never expected that her family would do this...!

After Bianca left Simeria, the Stewart family had arranged for Irene to be with Zane instead of Yvette!

And now, what were they doing?

They wanted her to get together with Austin?!

In the end, her family never gave Yvette a chance.

Bianca looked at her and said, "You've been trying desperately to be by Zane's side, yet you've repeatedly disappointed. Don't you understand by now?"

Yvette trembled as she looked at Bianca. She wanted to say something, but she couldn't find the words!

"It's no longer possible for you and Zane to be together!"

The Stewart family dared not gamble on this matter. More importantly, everyone in the Stewart family has noticed Zane's attitude towards Yvette during this period.

Ultimately, it was Zane himself who had crushed any chances there was for him and Yvette to get back together... right?

Yvette fell silent.

When she heard that there was no longer any possibility between her and Zane, she trembled even more violently.

She glared at Bianca!

“No!”

“Go back. Stop bothering him,” Bianca said.

“Bianca!” Yvette’s tone grew solemn.

Although she was unwilling to admit it at this moment, Yvette also realized something.

In fact, all the opportunities had been destroyed. She had completely severed ties with Alto!

However, the Stewart family still acted the same.

Why?

Why didn’t they choose her, even if it meant they had to use Irene?

At that time, she thought it was because of her relationship with Alto.

However, Yvette seemed to understand when her father told her about the family’s decision to marry her to Austin.

It was because of Zane’s attitude towards her.

It was because of Zane’s attitude that made her father...!

Yvette looked at Bianca as she trembled and screamed, “I want to see him!”

Yes, she wanted to see Zane.

She couldn’t believe that things would turn out like this now. She didn’t want things to be like this!

She wanted to see Zane. She wanted to ask him why he treated her like this.

The once aloof fourth lady of the Entes family was now emotionally out of control in this villa.

She wanted to see Zane.

For these years, no one knew how much she had suffered when Zane wasn't in Simeria.

And now...!

Zane was back.

She was prepared to start anew with him, but she never expected that they would be unable to progress further.

And it was all because of Zane.

He had cut off all the possibilities between them.

"Since he didn't take your calls, it means he doesn't want to see you," Bianca replied calmly.

And Yvette, whose emotions weren't great to begin with, felt like she was about to collapse at Bianca's words.

At this moment, despair surged in her eyes.

Looking at Bianca, she exclaimed determinedly, "I need to see Zane!"

She needed to see Zane.

Yvette couldn't be with Austin!

However, she was always powerless when it came to her family's decision.

For these years, by Alto's side, she constantly thought about ending it all.

She finally managed to end everything completely when Zane came back, but now...!

Why?

Why wouldn't he see her?

Facing Yvette's loss of control, Bianca just calmly said, "Go back."

Go back!

Everything was supposed to be over. Why bother clinging on? Even if Yvette insisted, it wouldn't make a difference, would it?

Yvette fell silent and trembled violently.

At this moment, the hatred churning in her eyes wasn't just directed at Bianca but also at everything happening now!

That sense of powerlessness completely enveloped her.

As she stood up, Bianca said, "Why didn't you choose to leave?"

Everything now seemed like a tragedy to Yvette. She had even made Bianca leave Simeria before this.

So, that was why Bianca now wondered.

Why didn't Yvette consider leaving herself?

Zane's attitude towards her has been like this for so long. Hadn't she seen it clearly yet? Why persist like this?!

And when Bianca asked about leaving, Yvette said, "Do you think I didn't want to?"

If Yvette could leave, she would have done so before she was with Alto.

Bianca wasn't from Simeria, so naturally, there were many things she didn't know.

As a daughter of a major family, how could it be easy to leave?

Yvette left.

The air around her was utterly cold...!

Bianca sat there silently for a long time before she sighed.

Yvette was such a despicable woman!

But in Bianca's eyes, she was actually very pitiful, even tragic...!

A Divorce After My Rebirth Chapter 712-Neil entered and glanced at Bianca.

When Bianca noticed him, she asked, "Neil, how many more people do you think will come today?"

How many more people?

Bianca had obviously asked this question to assess the situation.

Neil replied, "As long as there's no news from Lord Zane, various situations are possible."

In other words, Neil was telling Bianca to stay alert and be cautious!

Bianca closed her eyes. At that moment, she hid the turmoil in her heart.

Things had gotten really complicated!

If she could, she really didn't want to face this. Whose fault was it that she got into this predicament?

Malcolm!

When she thought of her current situation, Malcolm's name instantly crossed Bianca's mind.

Then, she thought of the news Yvette brought today.

"Neil, do you think it would be beneficial for him if I left now?"

Thinking of the Stewart family's current decision, Bianca's heart was even more on edge. She was undoubtedly worried about Zane.

Neil frowned at her words.

"Since you came back, Lord Zane hasn't had any contact with Ms. Stewart."

"Is that so?"

If that was the case, then what Yvette said...!

But before Bianca could finish her thought, Neil continued, "Lord Zane has always been sensitive. Not having any dealings with the Stewart family suggests he might have seen something."

"And not letting you leave at this critical moment is probably to keep you in this position and prevent others from coveting it."

"Really?"

"Of course!"

Bianca had to admit that Neil's words sounded plausible. During her time in Yuloria, there was no shortage of families coveting the Entes family's seventh lady position.

The Stewart family was one of them.

Initially, Bianca was concerned about the Stewart family's support for Zane. But after hearing what Yvette had said today, Bianca understood that the Stewart family's patriarch's character was absolutely questionable!

When she thought like this, it dispelled her previous thoughts.

"In that case, I won't leave."

Right now, the Stewart family wasn't the only one who wanted her to leave.

If Zane had gotten the Stewart family's support, he would also be bound to them!

Bianca had to admit that Zane was quite clear about this point.

The Entes family was going through a crucial period, and this allowed Zane to see through the hearts of many people in Simeria more clearly. – On Bianca's side, things had already reached a point of no return.

Meanwhile, things weren't going well on Natalie's side either. Clyde had recalled all the people looking for Zane. Natalie was taken aback when she found out.

"Did you do it because you found something?" Natalie asked anxiously, looking at Clyde.

However, Clyde gave her a deep look without directly answering Natalie's question.

He simply said, "You shouldn't be concerned about this matter."

"But what about Zane..."

"Do you know why you haven't grown taller?"

"Huh?"

"Because you worry too much!"

Natalie fell silent.

Wait, was this the time to care about why she hadn't grown taller?!

Zane was missing!

At this moment, Natalie had no idea what to say.

“So, what’s the news about Zane?”

“Nothing!”

“N-nothing?”

Clyde had recalled his people because there was no news?!

When she heard Clyde’s words, Natalie couldn’t stay calm.

What was happening?!

It was difficult to breath...!

Their eyes met, and Natalie asked, “Then, why...?”

“Nat!”

“Huh?”

“If you don’t want to be involved with the Entes family, don’t ask about anything related to them from now on.”

At this moment, Clyde’s tone was unusually serious.

Natalie was stunned.

Don’t ask...?

Natalie could ignore everything else, but Bianca...!

It seemed like Clyde could read her mind as he said, “When have dealings with the Entes family ever been simple?”

Indeed, they were never simple.

Natalie fell silent.

“Bianca is also a part of the Entes family now.”

“...” Natalie was speechless.

Bianca... was a part of the Entes family.

Why...?!

Natalie instantly paled upon hearing that Bianca was now a part of the Entes family.

“Have you seen today’s news from the Stewart family?”

“Yes,” Natalie replied heavily.

It was precisely because she had seen it that she felt Simeria was truly unprecedentedly gloomy, as if shrouded in a layer of mist that made everything seem unclear.

Suddenly, Natalie felt arms wrap around her shoulders. When Clyde pulled her into his arms, she could feel the heavy atmosphere around them.

It gave the impression that something significant was about to happen.

They stood silently for a long time before Natalie asked, “Have they found the Entes family seal?”

That was right!

The seal!

Currently, whether it was the seal or the documents, they were extremely sensitive existences for the Entes family.

That was the most unsettling aspect.

When Natalie mentioned the seal, Clyde’s embrace tightened, and he said, “It should appear soon, barring any unexpected issues.”

Soon...!

Natalie knew just how important that seal was to the Entes family.

In the end, Clyde left. Stephen was also gone, leaving only Heather and Natalie at Lotus Villa. Luna was also present after returning from her early education class.

The child bounced around, appearing particularly lively, showing her fondness for her classes.

After all, Luna was a child. No matter how reluctant she was to attend classes before, preferring to stay by Heather and Natalie’s side, she started going without complaint once she made friends.

Amy, the nanny who went to the early education center with Luna, respectfully approached and greeted Natalie. "Miss."

Natalie asked, "How was Luna today?"

"Don't worry, Miss. Miss Luna enjoys being with her friends very much now."

"That's good."

When talking about Luna, there was an undeniable gentleness in Natalie's eyes.

However, Amy continued, "But there was a strange person at the entrance just now."

"A strange person?"

"Yes, they suddenly rushed forward. Luckily, one of the other servants, Sharon, reacted quickly."

They suddenly rushed forward?

When Natalie heard this, her heart rose to her throat. Even though Amy assured her that Luna was fine, it had still happened in Lotus Villa.

Natalie's breathing became somewhat rapid.

Then, she said, "Have Sharon come over."

"Understood."

As Amy left, Sharon soon appeared before Natalie. Natalie looked at her and asked, "Where's the person who was at the entrance?"

"We've driven them away."

Natalie fell silent.

Even though the person had been driven away, Natalie still felt uncomfortable about the situation!

"Who was it?"

"It was the person who came to see Madam earlier...!"

As Sharon finished speaking, the air instantly became still.
