

A Ghost 1021

Chapter 1021 New Fusion Skill

The amount of Skills I possessed easily surpassed a hundred by now, perhaps. And just as I had evolved and ate those two Gods, I got even more Skills as well! Honestly the list never ends. It was a relief I unlocked something new once the System became a Divine System. And it was a special Soul Grimoire function named Skill Fusion Forge!

"Michael, can I access the Skill Fusion Forge?" I asked him.

"Of course, you may enter at any time. It is a special pocket realm you now possess; it is contained within my own core." Michael said. "How about you get inside, and I show you how it works?"

FLASH!

Suddenly, a red colored portal appeared in front of me, I quickly entered it, reaching a completely different place. It resembled an ancient, yet majestic forge, with blazing red flames and a huge golden hammer. There was also an anvil, and the room was no bigger than thirty meters. There was a sealed door behind and open windows, which led to an empty dark area.

Ding!

[You have entered the [Skill Fusion Forge]! In this special facility, you can freely combine Skills that have reached Max Level by spending System Points.]

[As of now, your [Skill Fusion Forge] Rank is 1! To increase the amount of Skills you can combine together, lower the Level requirements, and increase the power of the resulting Fused Skill, you must spend System Points to upgrade it.]

[Skill Fusion Forge: Rank 1]

A Special Divine System Function and Soul Grimoire Ability.

Allows for the entrance to a small, personalized forge where the user can combine Skills using System Points.

The amount of Skills that can be combined at the same time, the Level requirements, and the power of the resulting Skills will increase as the Rank of the Skill Fusion Forge does.

Current Effects:

Rank 1: Can Combine Up to 2 Skills At Level 10. +10% Resulting Skill's Power and Effects.

Rank 2: Can Combine Up to 3 Skills At Level 9 or higher. +20% Resulting Skill's Power and Effects.

Rank 3: Cost: 100.000.000 System Points.

Rank 4: Cost: 150.000.000 System Points.

Rank 5: Cost: 200.000.000 System Points.

"As you can see, the maximum Rank is 5." He said. "And it'll cost you... 500.000.000 System Points to get it all! Pretty cheap. You just have to kill a few more Gods, hahaha!"

"Shut up, that's not cheap at all, Michael. You're just messing with me at this point." I sighed. "Well, let's unlock the Rank 2 at least, I can afford that, yeah."

"Very well."

[You have exchanged 50.000.000 System Points!]

[The [Skill Fusion Forge: Rank 1] has Ranked Up to Rank 2!]

[The Effects have been upgraded!]

Current Effects:

Rank 1: Can Combine Up to 2 Skills At Level 10. +10% Resulting Skill's Power and Effects.

Rank 2: Can Combine Up to 3 Skills At Level 8 or higher. +20% Resulting Skill's Power and Effects.

"Perfect, three Skills is much better! Though I wish the upgrades came with some System Point discount..." I groaned.

"Well, that can't be done. The System Points are essential for the entire Skill Fusion to happen." Michael said. "Now, how about you combine something? You have many Skills at Level 10 now."

"Can I combine just any Skill? Even Title Skills?" I wondered.

"Yes, no matter the category they belong to, you can combine them together." He nodded.

"Interesting... Let's see." I sat down in front of the forge and looked at my Status. "What should I fuse to try this out? Hmm, ah, how about these?"

[You have selected the [Gorgon's Transformation: Lv10] [Abyssal Demon Transformation: Lv10] [Divine Moonlight Titan Body: Lv10] Skills for the Skill Fusion Forge!]

[Do you wish to begin the Skill Fusion process?] [Skill Fusion Cost: 30.000.000 System Points]

<Yes> <No>

I often used these three skills together to attain my "ultimate" form, which combined all my transformations together. It was a form I used even against Oceania. Now, I can finally combine all three of these Skills and attain such form permanently as a Skill!

"Yes."

I pressed the button, as I felt the System Points emerge as energy from my body. All three skills appeared as bubbles, which started burning in the divine flames of the forge, and then, as if my body moved automatically, I grasped the hammer and started hitting the bubbles.

Sparks of red flames constantly came out with each strike, as the bubbles started to meld together as I kept them close to one another, slowly, and through a process of smelting and hitting with the hammer, all three bubbles came together into a single, larger, and red and black colored one.

FLAAASH!

The bubble flew into my chest, as I felt a brand-new power coursing through my body, a Skill that I wanted to see, yet I didn't expect to end up being something slightly different too.

Ding!

[You have exchanged 30.000.000 System Points.]

[You have successfully combined the [Gorgon's Transformation: Lv10] [Abyssal Demon Transformation: Lv10] [Divine Moonlight Titan Body: Lv10] Skills into the Fusion Skill: [Divine Death Beast Transformation: Guardian Of The Underworld, Anubis: Lv1]!]

"W-What the hell? What kind of Skill is this?!" I cried in surprise. "Do I get to become a dog now?"

"It seems you didn't understand what Skill Fusion truly is. You're not just combining the effects of different skills into a larger Skill. You're using the Concepts behind Skills and merging them into a stronger Skill, but that might not necessarily carry the same effects as its ingredients." Michael explained to me.

"I see, oh well. It's not like I'll need them that much. And thanks to the powers imbued into my very soul, I can easily channel their forms as well." I smiled, as I quickly transformed into a Titan of Moonlight, and also into a mass of countless giant snakes, or even a demonic bug creature. "Though, it is a bit more tiring to use it without a Skill guiding me. Anyways, let's see what this Skill can do."

"[Divine Death Beast Transformation: Guardian Of The Underworld, Anubis]!"

FLUOSH!

I activated the Skill before even looking at its description, just to see what happens.

Chapter 1022 [Guardian Of The Underworld, Anubis]

My body changed its form as I saw an endless cloud of darkness and phantasmal essence spreading further around. It quickly started turning deep red and blue, changing between these two dark colors as red demonic energy spread through my veins, at the same time as moonlight essence materialized into the form of a metallic golden balance in my hands, and a sharp, long golden scythe in the other.

My usual humanoid form was gone, as I now stood over five meters tall, my body had become much slender, and covered on black fur, while wearing an Egyptian dress of white, gold, and black colors. My face felt longer, I had the head of a delicate jackal, including the long, pointy ears and the sharp eyes. My fingers became beast-like and large, looking like sharp and deadly claws.

Looking at the reflection in a mirror made of moonlight energy, I had completely changed, becoming something similar to the description of "Anubis" I knew about. I even gained a long, fluffy black tail. I had truly become some sort of Divine Beast Goddess of Death.

And it showed, my very presence filled the entire forge with a cloud of Death, countless souls suddenly surging from them, groaning and roaring, as if ready for anything. With just a thought, hundreds of Undead attempted to crawl out of this endlessly expanding mist, I had to stop them before they were to flood the entire forge.

"How amusing, do you see the potential of Skill Fusion now?" Asked Michael. "I did tell you that once you evolved, the power of the System would increase tremendously, you would gain additional abilities from it. This, is one of them."

"Do the other Players of the Tower don't get this?" I wondered.

"Of course not! Although it might be possible for them to combine Skill sometimes, with special items or the help of Gods." He said. "But nobody can do it as freely as you."

"So this Unique Skill really makes me more unique than I ever imagined, even when compared to the Tower Rankers, and the powerful Gods that live in each World connected to the Tower..." I said.

"Precisely." He nodded. "Now, do you want to combine more Skills? You got a lot more to combine and lots of System Points, I would say to just go ham and get as strong as you can."

"I know you love tempting me with using my system points, but no, not for now." I stopped myself from getting a bit too greedy. "I have obtained a lot of new Skills already; I want to get used to them first. Also this new Fusion Skill feels much more complex than just a transformation. Let me see the description a bit."

[Divine Death Beast Transformation: Guardian Of The Underworld, Anubis: Lv1]

A Divine Skill born from the fusion between the [Gorgon's Transformation] [Abyssal Demon Transformation], and [Divine Moonlight Titan Body] Skills.

Channel the Divine Power of Death within you and combine it with Four Divine Essences, Moonlight, Void, Chaos, and Demon to become a Divine Death Beast, the Guardian of the Underworld, Anubis.

When transformed, your MP, Divine Power, and all four other Energies are constantly drained. Your MP, Magic, Aether, and Divine Power Stats increase by +1000%, while your HP, Attack, Defense, and Agility increases by +500%, with an additional +30% boost with each Skill Level for both buffs. Your appearance will also change, naturally giving you the abilities of a Divine Canine Beast God.

In this form, you will gain access to Unique Divine Abilities, which trigger automatically as you transform, further boosting your powers as both a Necromancer and a Goddess of Death. The power of such Unique Divine Abilities increases by +100% with each Skill Level, and their Energy Requirements decrease by -5% with each Skill Level.

Available Unique Divine Abilities:

[Demonic Abyssal Fog Cloud Of Death]: Summons a Cloud containing Chaos, Void, Death, Moonlight, and Demonic Elements swirling together, which will summon any Soul or Undead you possess and temporarily transform them into [Divine Tomb Guardians], whose Stats will increase by +300%. Whenever an Undead dies, it can revive through the fog endlessly. You can use the Souls contained within it to further enchant your Undead as well as your own Stats, temporarily.

[Divine Death Relic: Anubis' Balance and Scythe]: Invoke the materialization of Anubis Divine Powers, summoning a Balance and Scythe. The Balance will judge the souls of your foes, inflicting a variety of debuffs based on their sins and how heavy their souls are. The scythe can ignore all physical armor and deal direct Soul Damage of up to 1000% to a foe, damage and effects of both Relics increase based in Souls you use to enchant them temporarily.

[Abyssal Black Death Void]: Harness the power of Anubis' Darkest powers, combining them with your Mana, Divine Power, and the Four Essences into a powerful Demonic Divine Spell that creates an all-consuming black hole, which can deal up to 2000% damage in a wide area, the more Souls you use to enchant Undead or your Divine Relic, the highest the damage becomes. Cooldown: 1 Minute.

"Oh yeah, this is definitely an insane Skill!" I gasped. "Nice!"

I felt accomplished after seeing such an insane ability. And it felt even more rewarding to know it was made out of the Skills I acquired from each of my previous Evolutions. It felt like my powers were finally coming together, as I forged a path I've never thought about before.

"I'll have to test this later against some monsters or something..." I quickly turned back to normal. "I've noticed though, are these Skill Fusions the same as the Skill Merges that happened when I ate those Death Fruits?"

"No, that was related to Skill Evolution, these Skill Fusions are much better, as you can decide what you want to combine. Even if completely unrelated with one another." Michael explained.

"I see... Alright, I'm going for now."

I quickly opened my eyes in the outside world, finding some of my family and friends awake at this hour.

"Look who's awake already." Emeraldine looked at me, who was cuddling at my side.

"Good morning." Lucifer was already up and clothed.

"Hmm..." However, Jonathan was still sleeping, butt-naked right at my left side. "Five more minutes..."

Chapter 1023 A Good Morning

"Good morning to you all..." I yawned. "Ah, did I oversleep?"

"A bit too much perhaps." Emeraldine giggled. "Jonathan hasn't woken up yet."

"Oh, where's Partner?" I wondered, as I covered Jonathan's body with the blanket.

"She went to buy some groceries for breakfast, she was apparently eager to cook you something." Lucifer said. "Nyx and the others are inside of other rooms, we're currently in the second manor close to the palace, just to refresh your memory a bit."

"A-Ah, I see... We really went a bit ham last night, isn't it?" I giggled a bit.

"Ham? I would say you went completely insane... But I also have fault for that." Sighed Lucifer. "Well, all of us perhaps."

"Ahahaha, well, let's just not overthink about it." Emeraldine stood up from the bed, barely wearing her underwear, her blonde hair was all messy. "Phew, shall we go take a shower, Maria?"

"A-Ah, sure, the boys can take a shower together." I nodded. "Hey Jonathan, wake up already sleepyhead." I kissed his little nose, as he slowly opened his bright blue eyes.

"Hm? Ah, Maria... Ugh..." He groaned, suddenly feeling nauseas. "H-How much did we drank last night? My head... it hurts..."

"Emeraldine, can you heal him?" I asked her.

"Haha! Well, sure." Emeraldine smiled, touching Jonathan's head and imbuing him with a divine healing aura, it made him feel much better.

"Thank you Emeraldine, you're my savior." Sighed Jonathan in relief. "Since that fight that I've felt rather dizzy too, not just the alcohol."

"It might be because the God that granted you the Divine Protection you have is now dead." I explained. "I killed Baldr and ate him."

"R-Right... That happened." Jonathan sighed. "Although I feel strange because the divine protection became hollow, its powers remain somehow."

"You should probably try to slowly assimilate that power. Divine Protections are Divinity Fragments. If you can assimilate it, even a human like you could probably break his limits and further evolve." I said. "Or perhaps, develop a Divine Flame."

"Divine Flame..." Jonathan said. "Right, Eustace said something about it, right?"

"Divine Flames are the advanced form of a Divine Ember, a Divinity that grows and blazes within your soul. The more you develop it, the further your growth will get." Lucifer knew some of that as well. "I already have a Divine Ember in development. I am surprised someone as strong as you have none, Jonathan."

"As strong as me? Haha, you're flattering me, Lucifer. I am nothing compared to your strength." Laughed Jonathan. However his humble act only made my dragon husband angrier.

"Bastard, stop pretending you're weak. You're only going to insult me with such stupid words." Lucifer groaned, gritting his sharp teeth. "You think I like you being strong?! I am Maria's first man, so naturally I must be the strongest! I won't let you ever catch you! I will keep growing even faster than you!" He was still a bit jealous, as always.

"E-Eh? You don't need to get so angry..." Jonathan sighed. "And technically, I am Maria's first man because I was her boyfriend when she was alive..." His often soft and gentle gaze became sharp as he glanced back at Lucifer's eyes.

"You bastard... That doesn't count!" Lucifer groaned.

"Now, now, please don't fight over such trifling things, okay?" I sighed. "I'll go take a shower. Jonathan you can take one after me I guess. Lucifer, once Partner comes back can you make breakfast with her? Also, go wake up the kids and everyone else please."

"...Alright." Sighed Lucifer. "Also there's another bathroom on the first floor, so you can go shower there, human." He glared at Jonathan.

"Thank you." Jonathan nodded, quickly getting dressed and walking away.

I hadn't noticed but Jonathan was also a bit fierce, huh? Their rivalry was becoming rather strong now. Anyways, as I took a warm bath with Emeraldine, I decided to look at my new Skills, there was at least ten of them now.

[Void-Born Outer Being Embodiment: Lv3]

A Divine Skill given to someone that has been baptized and reborn within the Void itself.

You were baptized by a powerful Outer Being, those that live outside of the Worlds of the Tower and have become therefore Boundless. But that is not everything. Your very existence has evolved, changed, reconstructed itself into a being that prevails within Chaos and the Void.

Your ghostly soul has been destroyed and remade anew, your soul and your body are finally one and the same, and you, therefore, have regained your Spark of Life, becoming a living being, yet also an undead.

All previous Undead weaknesses you possessed have been removed, while keeping all Undead abilities that were beneficial and above the living.

Increases the Affinity, Power, and Effects of the Elements and Spells of the following Attributes: Void, Chaos, Death, Darkness, Shadows, Phantom, Poison, Moonlight, Space, Blood, Illusions, Dreams, Nightmares, and Destruction by +1000%, with an additional +100% with each Skill Level. Decreases the Energy consumption of using Spells, Abilities, Skills, and Divinities of such elements by -50%. Passively increases All Stats by +400% (invisible buff, can be turned on and off).

Your form can transform as you please, but by spending Mana, you can quickly unleash your [Truest Form], boosting the previous effects of this Skill by an additional +1000%, while also increasing all Stats by 600%, and all Skill Levels by +5 (can surpass maximum level), temporarily. You also generate a powerful [Death Black Void Energy Mantle] within your entire body, covering you like an armor that decreases all Damage Taken, of all Elements, by -50%.

With each Skill Level, the growth of all Skills and Abilities further increases by +10%.

An amazing Skill right off the bat, and one with a hefty description as well! This one pretty much gives me everything I could ever want and more. And I can feel its power right away, I mean, it is pretty much the representation of what I've evolved into.

And that form I used to kill Baldr, was my [Truest Form], which I need constant usage of Mana to unleash, and it is very Mana Hungry at that. It drains faster than I can regenerate it, meaning that I only have roughly ten minutes of this [Truest Form] before I need to rest some time until my Mana recovers to 100% again.

Chapter 1024 New Divine Skills

The Void-Born Skill was already amazing, It was what pretty much allowed me to defeat Baldr with ease. The boost to my stats and everything else makes it a completely overwhelming ability, and a mighty trump card I plan to use many times from now on. Well, there's also my Anubis Transformation whenever I can't use this right away too.

Anyways, there's these other Skills, especially the Divinity and Body-type Skills I acquired from both Evolving and devouring two Gods. Though, I was still wondering why I hadn't unlocked my Divine Concept yet. If I evolved I already reached 100% comprehension, yet there was no Skill about it, and somehow I also had no clue what it was. Well, I'll figure it out later anyways.

[Divinity: Void & Chaos: Lv1]

A Unique Skill that only Shub-Niggurath, the Void-Born Mistress Of Tenebrous Stars, can obtain. It grants a powerful Divinity of Void and Chaos, which allows the wielder of this Skill to absorb Void and Chaos Essences directly from the any source or environment, or even a target, and gain tremendous power that can break through the laws of worlds. This Divinity includes the following Abilities:

[Void & Chaos Essence Assimilation] allows the automatic gathering of Void and Chaos Essence, which can be used to conjure Divine Chaotic Void Magic and related Skills, together with this Skill, the use can absorb up to 10.000 units of Moonlight Essence per hour. This amount increases by +10.000 with each Skill Level. This Essence can be used to further cultivate the user's Divine Flames and Physique, increasing their power, and therefore All Stats and Skill Levels over time.

[Chaotic Void Divinity Aura Armor] allows the usage of the Void and Chaos Essence on their most Divine form, encompassing the user completely as a powerful and tough armor of black and gray energy that can easily distort any attack directed to the user. When this Divinity Aura Armor is activated, 1.000 Void and Chaos Essence are drained every second. However, you gain [Immunity] to any non-divinity-fueled attack, and you can further decrease damage from divinity-fueled attacks by 50%. 15% of the damage blocked by the armor will be absorbed as MP and Spirit Energy.

[Primordial Chaotic Void Divine Weapon Creation] allows the usage of Void and Chaos Essences to combine materials and existing weapons into temporary Divine Weapons of Void and Chaos containing tremendous power. Each weapon created consumes 1.000 Void and Chaos Essence units per second. However, they gain [God Slaying] effect, capable of hurting and piercing the Divine Aura Armor of other Gods and deal direct damage to their Divine Bodies or Divine Souls. Consecutive blows will increase Damage dealt by +100%, for a maximum of +2000% Damage, and 15% of the Damage dealt will be restored as HP.

With each Skill Level, all Ability Power and Effects increase by +25%, and their Energy Cost decreases by -5%.

To obtain new Abilities within the Divinity, higher tiers of Divinity are required.

Woah this was incredible! So this is a more developed Divinity Skill! I also have my Lesser Divinity Skill of Moonlight, the one I got when I evolved into Selene, the Moon Titan. However, that one didn't have as many amazing abilities as this one. It was pretty much just the ability to absorb and manipulate Moonlight. And also something about moon phases. That one Skill is Level 8.

But anyways, yeah, I did use this Skill when I fought Baldr, the reason he dealt no damage to me wasn't just because of my evolution and higher stats, there was also a special power, this armor shielded most of the damage I could have taken with ease. And I was also able to turn the tentacles of my head, which are also my hair, into Divine Weapons almost instinctively.

At that time I was really furious and desperate to kill him and stop him from hurting anybody else anymore, so I did go completely batshit insane.

Anyways, these two other Skills are from Oceania and Baldr respectively...

[Divine Ocean Goddess Body: Lv3]

A Unique Skill that only powerful Deities of Water and Ocean Element can develop. Once activated, encompasses and transforms your entire body into a Divine flowing Oceanic Water, which spirals, swirls, and moves as you please. With more Mana added, your body can continuously grow larger and shape into all forms.

When transformed using this Skill, grants a temporary [Divinity Aura of Oceans], which increases Movement Speed, Vitality, Regeneration Speed, Magic Attack Power, Mana, and Water and Ice Attribute Magic Power by +400%, with an additional +35% with each Skill Level. Additionally, allows the ability for your body to endlessly divide into [Chimeric Ocean Paladins], which will become mighty chimeric soldiers with 30% of your total stats, lasting as long as you have Mana to supply, who will possess their former abilities and skills.

Oceania's Body Skill wasn't bad at all! And I could even summon his damned Paladins out of my own liquid body? Now that's weird. They'll even have their former appearances and skills and abilities, how interesting. It is kind of like necromancy in a way, isn't it?

[Divine Sunlight God Body: Lv3]

A Unique Skill that only powerful Deities of Sunlight Element can develop. Once activated, encompasses and transforms your entire body into a Divine Radiant Sunlight, which can be expanded, shapeshifted, and transformed in any way possible. With more Mana added, your body can continuously grow larger and shape into all forms.

When transformed using this Skill, grants a temporary [Divinity Aura of Sunlight], which increases Movement Speed, Reaction Speed, Attack Speed, Agility, Dexterity, Thinking Speed, and Light and Fire Attribute Magic Power by +400%, with an additional +35% with each Skill Level. Additionally, allows the ability to summon out of your radiant sunlight body the [Baldr's Harmony Of Sunshine Weapons], which will summon a near endless rain of weapons made of Solidified Divinity of Sunlight, which can deal up to +1500% Damage to foes, ignoring 30% of their defenses and exploding into even more devastating Sunlight Magic. Constantly consumes Mana to summon.

Ooh, Baldr's Skill wasn't so bad either, it comes with a deadly attacking ability instead of summoning! Not bad, will be using these for sure.

Chapter 1025 Even More Skills

Moving on to other Skills, this one in specific was what I used to instantly shift through space and pierce through Baldr's Divine Domain with ease.

[Void Shifting Spatial Movement: Lv3]

A Powerful Divine Movement Skill that only Outer Entities can acquire.

By spending 500 Void Essence per second and large quantities of MP, grants the ability to easily trespass the boundaries of space by becoming one with the void and abusing your [Boundless] powers. The Tower nor any of the World's Laws can stop you, giving you the ability to move through all physical matter and even distance itself as if you were swimming through water.

The amount of distance you can move through this Skill is of 100 meters at base, with an additional +100 meters with each Skill Level. Additionally, increases the power of Void Attribute Magic Power by +250%, with an additional +30% with each Skill Level and increases all Stats by +100% with an additional +20% with each Skill Level while shifting and moving through space.

Simple and to the point, this amazing ability allowed me to basically teleport and even destroy most spatial boundaries with ease. Although I am fairly sure I will still need that spaceship that the Pharaoh and his people were building to reach heaven and then finally kill Odin, if the fool doesn't come down himself, that's it.

Moving on, there's three more Magic Skills I acquired, all three of them are really powerful, and give me the ability to manipulate elements I couldn't. Well, only the last two, which were inherited from Oceania and Baldr, who are now in my belly.

[All-Consuming Void: Lv3]

A Powerful Divine Magic Skill that only the mighty Outer Beings, who are Boundless and capable of manipulating the forces of the Void itself can conjure.

By amassing thousands of Void Essence, Chaos Essence, and Mana, you can unleash a destructive explosion of pure darkness, which will instantly absorb and consume anything it touches. Depending in the amount of Void Essence, Chaos Essence, and Mana used to conjure it, the power of this Void will increase drastically, by up to 2000% Damage, which can ignore up to -50% of Magical Defenses and absorb 10% of the damage dealt as more MP and Void Essence.

Once conjured in an area, [Space-Eating Void Tentacles] will be conjured, which will continue to spread as they consume all matter and life in the vicinity, constantly dealing damage to anything they attack of up to 500%, ignoring 20% of their Total Defenses and having the ability to inflict [Madness], [Paralysis], and [Soul Poison] on any foe they touch.

This is the signature divine skill of my current evolution, and let me tell you, its simple yet amazing! And I've been amassing so much Void Essence thanks to all my Spirit Treasures that I don't really need to worry about that running out any time soon. And because I ate so many Evil God Fragments, Chaos Essence is also not a problem either!

Unlike with Moonlight Energy, which I had to start accumulating only in the moment I evolved, these two essences were already within me way before I evolved into this form and acquired these skills that required it the most.

[Chaotic Void Ocean Waves: Lv3]

A Divine Magic Skill inherited from having devoured the Divinity of an Ocean Goddess, now corrupted with your Void and Chaos Elements.

By spending large quantities of Mana, you can summon powerful chaotic void sea waves, in the form of black and gray liquid, which has no ability to reflect light. Anything that touches these ocean waves will be instantly weakened. Their stats will decrease by a maximum of -50%, and their Skills Power and Effects will decrease by -40%, while one random ability of them will be instantly sealed for the duration of the debuffs, which can last as long as 10 Minutes.

Damage dealt is done over time as the Void and Chaos Oceanic Waves will consume the matter they touch like a deadly poison, dealing 25% damage based on your Magic Stat per second to any foe. You can further control these waters in all forms, and even freeze it to produce Chaotic Void Ice, although to further master this effect, more practice is needed.

Increases Debuff Duration per Level by +1 Minute. Increases Corrosive Damage Per Second by +10% per Level. And increases all other Void and Chaos Attribute Magic Damage from this Skill and other Skills or related Spells by an additional +25% with each Skill Level.

Not bad at all! This sounds like a refreshing splash on anybody that deserves it really well. Weakening them severely by lowering their stats, weakening their skills, and even sealing one random skill sound really useful.

[Umbral Death Blight: Lv3]

A Divine Magic Skill inherited from having devoured the Divinity of a Sunlight God, now corrupted with your Darkness and Death Elements.

By spending large quantities of Mana, you can summon a powerful and all-consuming black light, corrupted with the death element. It encompasses both the spectrum of light and darkness, while being imbued with phantasmal flames.

By shaping this magic into deadly projectiles or powerful weapons, you can deal up to +1250% Damage, which increases by 100% with each successful hit on a foe, ignore up to 50% of their magic damage, and capable of spreading into even larger and deadlier explosions.

Once one of the attacks hits and then causes an explosion, [Umbral Phantasmal Light Flames] will spread on all foes surrounding the explosion, dealing 10% damage based on Magic Stat per second and burning through their Soul Ether rapidly, while draining their MP and Divine Powers for a maximum of 10 Minutes.

Additionally, whenever you kill a foe with this Skill, there's a 50% chance for them to raise as [Umbral Blight Undead Ghosts], inheriting 90% of their total stats and all their original skills and abilities.

Increases the damage dealt by a further +30% with each Skill Level. Increases Debuff Duration per Level by +1 Minute. Increases Phantom Flames Damage Per Second by +5% per Level. And increases all other Darkness and Death Attribute Magic Damage from this Skill and other Skills or related Spells by an additional +25% with each Skill Level.

And this is the last Skill... Both offense, damage over time, and even undead creation all packed into a single Skill! This is insane.

Chapter 1026 OP Titles

We atmosphere of the town was quite lively, and as I looked at the list of Skills, our group was being constantly praised and greeted wherever we went to. I guess these people had been left with an immense amount of gratitude after everything we did for them, huh? Not like I mind that! Give me all your gratitude, hehe.

Anyways, let's check the last Title Skills, those are always interesting to see.

[Mistress of Umbral Stars: Shub-Niggurath: Lv1]

A Divine Title Skill only granted to the newly born Outer Goddess of Void, Chaos, Death, Darkness, Poison, and Moonlight, the Mistress Of Umbral Stars, Shub-Niggurath.

Your existence is that of a Boundless being, an Outer Entity that exists outside the Tower, yet you are inside of its worlds, making you their greatest menace. You have been baptized with the name Shub-Niggurath, the name that another Outer Being once wielded, that is now long dead.

By merely holding this Title, your Boundless Status is greatly enhanced. You can more easily learn Magic, Skills, Divinities, and Abilities related with the Elements you possess a great affinity with. Alongside that, you gain great affinity with the Element of Space, allowing you to easily comprehend and understand its elemental essence.

Additionally, whenever you're conjuring any Skill or Spell related to these Elements, all your Stats increase by +300% and the Regeneration Speed of your MP and all other Elemental Essences increases by +500% for 5 Minutes. These effects increase by +25% with each Skill Level.

Lastly, by combining all of your Transformation Skills together and activating them at the same time, you can unleash your [Truest Form: Mistress of the Umbral Stars: Shub-Niggurath] and transform into an even more monstrous and aberrant Outer Goddess form, which combines all the transformation and body-type skills bonuses and abilities, with an additional +500% boost. Duration: 30 Minutes. Can only be used once a day.

Aah! This is godly! I had no idea I had yet another transformation hidden here! And it seems to be the most ultimate of them all. I should definitely try that out against some fool later. If I can ever find any now. I bet the Gods are pissing themselves out of fear right now. Wouldn't blame them. I don't think they would gladly jump in front of me now that they saw two of their precious Gods die in an instant.

Now, moving on...

[Devourer Of Gods: Lv1]

A Divine Title Skill granted to aberrant entities that have devoured Gods without being Gods themselves yet. You achieved this feat before becoming an Outer Goddess, therefore, the Skill was awarded anyways.

You're a monstrous being, something that defies laws, reality, and even the almighty tower. You can devour Gods and absorb their Divinities, Divine Powers, and Divine Essence with ease. The more you eat, the more powerful you will become. You can even steal their Divine Thrones and take over their positions. You're Boundless.

Increases Damage Dealt Against Gods, their Avatars, and any Divine, Angelic, Spiritual, Holy, and Light Attribute foe by +500%, with an additional +25% with each Skill Level. And you can ignore up to 50% of their total defenses when fighting them. Each of your blows will also decrease their stats by -1%, with a maximum decrease to all stats of -50%.

Additionally, you can more easily absorb Gods and any other related Divine Being Stats, Divinities, Abilities, Skills, and more, boosting their absorption and assimilation rate by +1000%.

One word, deadly.

This was a nice Title to have! With this I can smack them even harder. Though it feels way too good, isn't it? Why am I so favored by these entities? And why did I become an Outer Goddess? I am fairly sure I was still a normal girl before.

I know my upbringing, abilities, and so on are very strange and that they twisted my very being into becoming something even more malicious and powerful. Probably it was just the right circumstances in the right time? A series of consequences formed by all the things that have happened so far.

That ultimately gave birth to someone with my unique soul, which became enough of a potential vessel to their powers. It seems they really want to destroy the Tower, whoever they are.

Although it seems like they could be the best allies I could ever hope to have, I can't just trust them right away. I don't know if they have ulterior motives as well!

"And we're here." I said, as we found ourselves in front of the palace once more.

"Welcome back, Lady Maria and her family!" The soldiers happily greeted us, inviting us inside.

We walked happily to greet many of the allied nobles, which had been jailed just some days ago until we freed them, they did all matter of small talk I wasn't really interested into, so I just kept walking until we finally found Celes and Nia.

They were both wearing very fancy noble clothes, which looked like beautiful and colorful Arabic robes and dresses decorated with golden accessories. Celes resembled a little prince while Nia a queen. And it was well deserved!

Charles has been treating them really well, I've noticed. I mean, he better does, they're now so strong they could easily destroy the whole city if they wanted. Though, of course, they wouldn't do that. They're the city's guardians instead.

"Ahhh! Auntie Maria!" Celes waved his hand. "Hi! You're back! Ah, Nyx! Everyone!" He looked to be rather lonely and a bit tired, so he got immediately happy when we arrived. He has started studying with some of the professors of the city.

"Oh, you're back, what joy! Come in!" Nia smiled adorably, inviting us inside. I had to admit she looked very sexy in those clothes... Her wide hips and really big breasts can be seen really well in them, and her face, as I had mentioned before, was also gorgeous. She was such a beauty of the deserts! It is a pity that if I ever try to court her my wives are going to kill me most likely.

"T-Thank you! You look so gorgeous today, Nia." I still gave her a compliment. She blushed adorably at that.

"I-Is that so, Lady Maria? T-Thank you so much." She smiled cutely. "You also look as lovely as always!"

However, the intense gazes of Partner and Emeraldine quickly weighed down over my shoulders...

Chapter 1027 With Great Power Comes Not Giving A Fuck

Dancers started dancing around the hall, as the wealthy nobles laughed and shared drinks. I didn't particularly liked being with them, but they were at least not corrupt types of nobles, so at least they were okay. The dancers were also just actual dancers whose professions were entertainment, and not enslaved girls, so that was okay too. And they were pretty hot and amazing at dancing, so they were quite the eye candy to divert my gaze from the ugly old men.

The music was really good though, and the liquor, combined with all the tasty food was even better. The atmosphere became lighter as we celebrated our last day in here before departing on the last city of the Goldsand Confederation, and its largest and wealthiest too, which lies by the sea that connects the continent of Midgard with the Continent of Alfheim, where we get a lot of imported things from there. Emerald Fountain.

But for now, we just enjoyed the drinks and the food. Celes was really happy with Nyx and his friends. Fabian and his pals, Silva, even the twins, and even Tear had grown really attached to the brat. I had also grown quite attached to him, but I not to the extent of sobbing over it. Well, I'm sure he'll be fine.

With the powers he awakened and everything else, he'll surely become a great guardian of this city, and if possible, perhaps even its ruler over time. I am sure the people will grow to love someone caring and strong like him. His magic is also very flexible, offensive, defensive, and healing magic, so he'll be able to heal most people as he develops his powers.

After setting up several barriers and shadow teleportation points, if someone ever dares attack this place, I'll immediately know and come to help. I've also left Phantom Clones and many Undead, just in case desert monsters decide to attack the city now.

Nonetheless, I could notice how my daughter would miss him, she was still very talkative and all, but clearly looked a bit sad. She was trying her best to pretend to be okay though, she's good at doing that at least, huh?

Poor baby girl, I wish we could bring them along for her, but I suppose this is it. I do feel a bit sad myself too, okay, maybe a bit too much? I spent a surprising amount of time and effort here. More than I imagined this "quick trip" would become. I even slain two gods in here, alongside a Saintess, and even evolved.

Yep, a lot happened.

"C-Come on Master, eat this. I cut it down for you." Partner was blushing while offering me some meat with her fork. She was wearing a really sexy red dress; her legs were so big and were rubbing against mine. And her even bigger breasts were almost resting over my arms because of how tightly stuck to me she was. Honestly, her attempts at seducing me were too adorable!

"Nom! Hmm! Sho good!" I smiled, eating what she offered me as if I was a baby. Being spoiled like this wasn't so bad from time to time, right? "But this cute vampire girl over here is even cutter." I started playfully kissing her neck. "Mooch, mooch~"

"A-Ah, master! Hahah! T-That tickles, come on~!" She moaned a bit, completely acting cute instead of her usual snarky self.

"Sorry~ I just can't have enough of this beauty sometimes." I giggled, as I gave her a kiss on her soft lips. "Hmm, tastes like liquor." I licked my lips after that.

"Y-You...! I'm trying to behave like a lady, and you constantly tease me, master!" She complained, pouting adorably.

"Hahahah! My bad, my bad~" I giggled.

"Here, I served you more wine, dear." Emeraldine smiled gently at my side. Unlike Partner, she wasn't pretending to be a cute lady, she had always been a motherly and adorable girl. "Drink up and just relax! We've gone through a lot."

"I suppose." I drank some of the wine. "But you should eat as well. Come on, let me feed you some of this and that... Oh, let me make you a sandwich. Do you want so juice, honey?"

"A-Ah, sure!" Emeraldine giggled a bit. "Don't spoil me so much, geez..."

"Anything for my cutie Emeraldine~" I said as I happily served my queen.

"H-Hey! Aren't you giving her too much attention?" Partner, the jealous little vampire, complained.

"What? Want another kiss then?" I giggled.

"N-No... I mean, maybe. But also give me food and stuff!" Partner complained.

"Hahaha, okay, okay~ Just be honest." I smiled, kissing her cheeks as I served her a plate full of recently cooked food that was being made around the table. My phantom clones brought it easily for us.

"Eat up then, let's enjoy the evening, my two beauties." I rested my arms around the two of them as they felt rather joyous and relaxed. As we ate and drank liquor, we started kissing a lot. But at this point we stopped caring about the world around us and just enjoyed the moment.

However, I also did some conversations, just for the sake of it. Charles and his wife talked a lot about the future of the city, but I was barely paying attention. The two of them spoke so formally and with clear fear in their eyes that I could barely make sense of what they talked about. I guess they saw me as an even more terrifying figure than a god after they saw me kill two of them.

"S-So, if possible, we would like to keep a good relationship between our town and your family, Lady Maria... I-I have also heard you have a village of your own! If there is anything they need, please feel free to ask...!"

As he spoke, I was currently sucking on Partner's tongue, tasting the wine she just drank.

"Hmm~ Ah, what? What did you say? I didn't hear you." I looked back at him, his face was growing paler as I was giving off a divine aura without realizing.

"T-That you just... err, you have our utmost support." He suddenly bowed down to me.

"Ah, yeah, whatever. Come here now, I am not done." I kept sucking on my Partner's delicious tongue and then Emeraldine started kissing me later.

Indeed, with great power comes... not giving a fuck.

Chapter 1028 An Unexpected Confession

The party continued for a while and over time I got more talkative, I just wasn't in the mood. But after a few more conversations, I was able to get a lot of rewards and prizes out of this old man, mostly a lot of money and resources I quickly decided to teleport back to my village using the Shadow Teleportation Points I left outside.

Everything was doing fine and peacefully back there. My strong Undead and Brunhild were protecting the entire area really well, and the alliance with the Dwarven Nation has become quite good. Some dwarves started moving inside of my village a "pioneer" and had started working below the tutelage of the blacksmith twins.

Aside from that, the rumors of the Demon King's son appearing also spread into the nearby areas, some of the descendants of Majin that survived and have been mostly hiding or living in the dwarven country had begun migrating to my village too. Nothing too much, but there's at least 50 more people now. Root easily made more houses for everyone, while his body continued growing larger and larger at the center of the city, protecting everything with a barrier of spiritual energy, further combined with the other barrier in the walls.

My Undead also wandered the surroundings constantly, hunting down any threats. They had already cooperated with the dwarves on slaying three more bandit groups around the snow lands, which were slowly melting and becoming cold grasslands instead. There were also more explorations into far away dungeons with my Undead, proving good results as they continued grinding EXP for themselves, and more resources for the village.

And about my Dungeons? Well, they're continuously generating more resources as well, and I am constantly filling my pockets with money, which I then invest into improving my village and making everything even more comfortable, by mostly buying a lot of construction materials from the dwarves.

As the day was getting late and night was slowly arriving, the people of the party started to move back home. Although our friends looked that they would stay for the rest of the night. Lucifer and Jonathan had also become more talkative with one another. Somehow these two were becoming bros pretty quickly, despite Lucifer's asocial tendencies.

"Zzzz..."

"Muh..."

And well, my two beauties, unexpectedly, ended falling asleep. It wasn't because of the liquor or anything in the food either. They seemed to have a lot of accumulated exhaustion and stress, so they ended quickly falling asleep. It made me pity them a bit, I should let them rest while they can, to be honest.

"Hey guys, I'll bring these two sleepy heads to bed." I said.

"Alright, will you come back?" Lucifer wondered.

"Yeah! Just wait for me." I winked at them, as I walked away.

"I have some sweets I saved for you, Maria!" Jonathan said.

"Thank you honey~" I giggled, as I moved back to the bedroom to leave the two sleepyheads there.

"There you go. You two better rest well." I smiled, giving them kisses on their foreheads and then walking outside.

And then I saw someone there, a beautiful mature lady with a voluptuous body, dark brown, toasty skin, sharp emerald-colored eyes, and long brown hair. She was wearing a gorgeous and colorful dress, her body decorated with golden accessories, and her makeup only made her look sexier than ever before.

"N-Nia?" I wondered, tilting my head. "Did you need something?"

I didn't expect her to come looking for me. Through the day we chatted a bit lot, she got very talkative. We've been helping her all this time since we meet her at the beginning of our journey in this city. Back then she looked so weak and exhausted, just asking for water to feed Celes with.

But now she had changed so much, she looked like such a strong and proud woman, tall, slightly muscular after all those level ups, even her Aura of Mana was powerful, flowing like a tornado around her even when most people didn't notice it. My eyes could notice it.

She had gained a lot of confidence and became a much stronger woman... And that only made her hotter.

"A-Ah, well..." She started fidgeting as she slowly walked to my side. "M-My whole life has given a sudden turn since I met you, Lady Maria. My son... Wouldn't be alive right now if it wasn't for your help. And I would remain as a miserable woman, perhaps even weaker than before, or maybe already dead too."

As she spoke, she got closer and closer to me, to the point I could feel her breath in front of me. She looked up to my eyes, with her beautiful emerald-colored eyes.

"If it wasn't for your help, I wouldn't be what I became now. Someone strong, respected, that can now protect her child..." She said. "I never knew I had this strength, you helped me blossom it. You and your endless generosity, your beautiful heart, and your wonderful honesty." She was looking for me very intensively.

"N-Nia... Well, I did it because I am quite the goody-two-shoes sometimes." I sighed. "Can't be helped, right? I have the strength, so of course I won't leave a person dying when I see them asking me for help. Maybe some selfish fools that think they know better would say that doing such a thing is stupid, but I don't care. I've always just done whatever I want."

"A-And that's why you're so wonderful..." She sighed, looking down. "Lady Maria, I... Back then, I never thought I would ever fall in love with someone else before. Even less with a woman, I never thought I liked them to begin with, until I met you. A-And well... This is hard to explain. P-Perhaps I shouldn't? I know it might be awkward for you-"

"So you're saying you love me, huh?" I walked forwards, quickly embracing her in a hug, our faces very close to one another. Damn, she smelled so sweet. "Do you know that I am a monster, right? I am not human, I am a creature, a monster that eats gods." I slowly moved my hands towards her hips, grasping them tightly.

"Ah~" She gave a small moan, looking at me while blushing and breathing heavily. "I-I know what you are, yet to me, you're... someone so beautiful and grand, I can't help but, well, like you."

"Is that so?" I licked my lips. "I have an idea then~"

Chapter 1029 Nia's Lewd Side (R18) 1

As I embraced her with my hands, I asked her an important question, if she was okay with what I was. I wasn't a human after all, and there was no point in hiding what I was anymore. I was a monster, a ghost, a creature of void. I ate gods, I was aberrant, even. So she had to know very well what she was getting into, before even offering herself to me like this.

Our lips were growing very close as I asked her that important question, her face was growing even redder. Despite being a widow, this woman acted like an unexperienced virgin girl.

"Are you okay with me being what I am?" I asked her, lightly rising her chin with my index finger. I slowly moved my hand down, touching her cheeks.

"Ahhh~ Y-Yes, I am okay, Lady Maria..." She said. "I want to repay you for everything you've done to help me... Y-You said today I was beautiful, and you've been looking at me with such intense eyes lately. It would make me so happy if you... Well... I-I..."

"Alright." I smiled, licking my lips. I decided to play along with her words. "You're right, I've done too much for you. You owe me a lot. And you're going to pay me for it, right?"

"If I can, with this body of mine... I might have been the wife of my husband once. But my dear is long gone, and all these years, I've felt so lonely..." She sighed. "So please, if you truly like me... I-I wouldn't mind you... doing whatever you want to my body, Lady Maria. If you're going away tomorrow, at least tonight. I want to be yours..."

Dammit, how does she even expect me to keep my cool after saying all of that?!

"I never thought you were like this, Nia. Always so composed and trying to help little Celes~" I giggled. "At the end of the day, you're still a woman, hm? We've been together all this time, and I've grown to admire you and like you a lot..." I massaged her cheeks with my hands as she continued to breathe heavily, her lips only separated from mine by just a few centimeters.

"R-Really? I am just a humble mother..." She sighed. "Am I really... do you truly like me?"

"Of course..." I giggled. "Now, if you truly want to do anything I want you to do, stick your tongue out. Quickly~"

"L-Like this?" She asked timidly, sticking her tongue out, it was small and cute.

"Yes, like that~ Just like that." I nodded, as I started licking her tongue with my own. She felt slightly startled, as I tasted her delicious little tongue. Our lips quickly closed after that, kissing passionately like two lesbian sluts.

Her lips were so soft and her tongue so juicy, it was hard to resist the advances of such a hot milf, to be honest. I gave in immediately the moment she started acting all obedient with me, I have a hard time with women when they get like this...

"Hmm~ Hahh... Maria... Lady Maria... You kiss me with so much passion, like my husband never did." She moaned, gasping for air as I held her captive with my arms.

"Is that so? Then I'll make sure to pleasure like he never did too. We'll make sure you forget about that man, and you only have eyes for me from now on." I smiled, licking my lips.

I quickly carried her like a princess to an unoccupied room nearby and locked it, gently carrying her to the large bed while we kissed, she was growing hornier by the second. Her kisses becoming sloppier, as she happily sucked on my tongue and continued kissing my lips.

I could hardly resist her anymore, her beautiful toasty brown skin was too sexy, I quickly sat by her side on the bed, slowly taking away her clothes. There were many robes around her which were part of the culture of this place's clothing.

"Aahh, Maria, you're being so eager...!" She moaned, as I quickly managed to unleash her big breasts.

They bounced the moment I freed them from the tight robes wrapped around them. they were much larger than I imagined, at least thrice as bigger! And so beautiful, brown, chocolate colored, and with her areola being of a clearer brown color, her nipples were naturally very erect. She was completely in heat.

"Damn, these are huge!" I laughed a bit. "So big... Hmm~ I love it."

Her breasts were at least as big as the largest melons I've seen, and they surpassed both Partner and Emeraldine! I already thought my Emeraldine's breasts were the biggest, while Partner's ones are rather modest, but Nia was surpassing them both. Maybe because she was a mother and had to breastfeed her child?

Like a complete degenerate, I rubbed my face in between her two breasts, as she giggled a bit playfully, caressing my head as she let me eat her breasts to my heart's content, sucking on her delicious and big nipples, and squeezing them with my hands.

"Aahhh~ You're sucking them so eagerly, Maria...!" She moaned. "Ngh...! Y-You really like them, huh? I noticed how much you... stared at them, fufu~"

"I love them~! They're so big, I love big boobies." I admitted, sucking hers one after another, taking turns between the two.

At the same time, I used my multiple phantasmal hands to grab her legs and lift them up, slowly beginning to unclothe her even further, and taking away her underwear in a flash.

"W-What are you...?!" She panicked, blushing as she saw all these translucent hands appear.

"Didn't I tell you I wasn't a human, dear? Now let me show you what good pleasure is all about." I giggled, as I started fingering her while sucking on her breasts, and it wasn't a gentle one, no, I was being rough. Three fingers inside right away.

"Aahhh~ Oooh, fuck~!" She started moaning right away, like the good slut she was!

"Good, moan just like that, you slutty widow." I kissed and licked her neck, before kissing her passionately again.

If I was going to go away tomorrow, I was going to make sure to enjoy her thoroughly tonight.

Chapter 1030 Nia's Lewd Side (R18) 2

I got a bit beastly with poor little Nia. She was so horny and thirsty for me that I could hardly resist and did all kinds of lewd things to her. Not only did I pleasure her in many parts using my variety of phantasmal limbs, but I also continuously made her cum. Just to see her moan in pleasure and scream like a slut. I loved it, I was becoming a bit sadistic I think. May or might not be because of my evolution.

"Ahhh~ Please... No more of that... Maria... P-Please suck my... my pussy...!" She moaned, asking me something rather bold.

"Oooh? You ask someone as powerful as almighty as me, someone that has slain gods, to suck your pussy?!" I laughed, as I spread her legs and took out all four fingers I was using to pleasure. "Such a cocky little slut~ Do you not even know your place?"

"Hmmm... Hahhh... P-Please, I love you so much... Please, just this once. I want to feel your delicious, warm tongue, and your lips..." She moaned, asking me, begging me.

"Okay, fine!" I smiled, as I approached my face towards her own. "Open your mouth and drink my spit, then I'll do it."

"Y-Yes...!" She opened her mouth wide, as I let my saliva come out of my tongue and fall inside of her throat, she obediently drank it as if it were an elixir of the gods. "How is it?"

"Delicious, I love it..." She said. "Everything about you... I love it... S-So please!"

"Okay, fine. You dirty slut." I smiled, rising her big, fat thighs. I grasped them and even gave them a small playful bite, just because they were so thick and delicious looking. "Hmm, such a beautiful butthole you got, all pink~" I gave her a kiss down there before moving upwards. "But this is the main dish, right~? Hmm~ Bon Appetit!"

I gently spread her two beautiful pussy lips wide open, revealing a rosy blossoming flower, her hot pussy and her clit were exposed widely, I quickly devoured them with my mouth, sucking and kissing them like they were a panacea. And damn was it tasty, it had a slight saltiness, but also some sweetness. Hmm, this was a good pussy, good flavor overall!

"Aahh~ Hahhh~! Oooggh~!" She kept moaning in pleasure as I sucked her out like a mad beast.

She was so hot and sexy I could barely hold myself, as I started fingering her butthole and spreading it open too. I took turns, sucking her juicy pussy and then her slightly dry asshole, slowly opening it up into a larger entrance. She was dying of pleasure, constantly meaning, until she couldn't hold back anymore and came right inside my mouth.

"F-Fuck! I'm cumming, Lady Maria~!"

Her juices came right inside of my mouth, as I reflectively drank it all instantly. Savoring it, it was really delicious, a soft sweet taste, with some slightly bitter liquor after taste, very sticky, so good. I love eating pussy sometimes, honestly.

"Hahh... By the gods... Oooh..."

She was still moaning in ecstasy, and the night had yet to even end. I wanted to try out something before anything else though.

"How was it, hm?"

"Too good... My husband, he never ever sucked my pussy... It was so good... I am in love; I love you so much... Please let's get married..."

She was talking a lot of incoherencies, but I found her really adorable, nonetheless.

"Fufu, you're so bold asking all these things." I caressed her beautiful face. "But I guess you're slightly worthy of becoming my personal slut~ Hm? How about that instead?"

"S-Sure..." She nodded obediently. "Anything..." She looked truly in love, it made me felt slightly bad.

"Aw, okay, okay, let's get married one day in the future, whatever..." I sighed, kissing her and hugging her while I felt her sweaty and naked body over my naked body. "But you know? I am not done yet. I got something I want to try first, you'll become my test subject, alright?"

"S-Something else?" She wondered, looking slightly tired. "W- What is- WOAH!"

She gasped in shock as she saw something long and thick grow right above where my pussy was located. It wasn't just a phantasmal limb, but it quickly took the form of a fleshy appendage, with two spherical ones hanging at the end of them.

Indeed, I grew a dick.

"So, after evolving, I think I can do even more things now~" I laughed while looking at her face in shock. "So can you let me try this, please? Before I do it to my cuties, I want to see how it works."

"Y-You have a cock... H-How is this possible?!" She asked.

"I don't know, that's how my body is. Formless, I can take any shape, any form, any limb, any organ, I can replicate them to perfection." I smiled. "I can be many things... So? Will you let me fuck you with this for a bit?"

"F-Fuck... Y-Yes, please!" She started getting even hornier. "Fuck me! G-Go ahead! You simply became even better now, lady Maria!" The slut spread her pussy, eager to get fucked.

"Alright!" I smiled, slowly touching her hot pussy with my dick.

Oh, this was a new sensation entirely. Like... countless of bolts of pleasure rushing through it... This dick was so hard and warm, I slowly shoved my cock inside her hungry pussy, it went down so easily, she was really spread out.

"Oh fuck... Yes, this is not bad at all!" I smiled, as I quickly embraced Nia, who was moaning like a crazy slut, and then kissed her so she stopped her little show. "Enough! I haven't even shoved it all the way, now shut up and let me fuck you, slut!"

"Y-Yes! I'm so sorry~! Pleas punish me with your cock, Lady Maria! Breed me!"

She loved the roleplay, moaning in pleasure as I started shoving my dick in and out rapidly. The sound of our sweaty bodies hitting one another echoed around the chambers. This was the best! The sensations of her warm, hot and juicy pussy tightly rubbing and embracing my cock was simply phenomenal.

Plap! Plap! Plap! Plap!

Once I started, I couldn't stop. I put her into a mating press position and then dug in like a crazy bitch. I couldn't stop at all! I kept fucking her deeper and harder, gritting my teeth as I finally felt something coming out, an explosion of pleasure encompassing my entire being.

"Oooh, get pregnant, slut!"

I came inside of her eager and hungry widow pussy, filling her cum with the hottest juices I've ever spilled, this was my cum. I could even produce seed! Maybe now I can get my Emeraldine and Partner pregnant too! Nice.

"Hahhh~ Oooh... S-So good... Hahhh... I am yours... I am yours completely, now, Lady Maria..." She moaned, as I slowly pulled out my fat cock out of her pussy, a fountain of hot cum coming out, creamy and steamy. "So much cum... W-Will I get pregnant for sure?" She wondered.

"Maybe? We'll have to see. If that ever happens, then you just tell me, and I'll take responsibility of it~" I giggled. "For now, let's just enjoy the night, alright? I'm going to fuck your asshole, get on all fours, now!"

"Y-Yes!" She moaned obediently, quickly showing me her fat ass and spreading her buttohole with her hands. "L-Like this?"

"Oh yeah, just like that~ You're such an obedient slut, Nia..."

Oh boy, I was going to enjoy her really well...
