

A Ghost 611

Chapter 611 A Prophecy From The Queen Of Elves

As the gods moved on their own plans and schemes, there were also many schemers in the mortal world, threats after threats. From the Vampires to the Frost Queen, to the farther foes wielding the power of the Evil God Fragments, and ultimately those that desire to bring the Calamities to destroy it all...

An Era of Calamity is approaching.

Within the vastness of the world, a large will seemed to begin to grow weaker. The world's will, the embodiment of the will of Yggdrasil sensed the power of the Calamities awakening across the world. Darkness has begun to spread.

Yggdrasil's Will continued growing larger, spreading across the world as she sensed the darkness that was approaching. The gods she had created, the Aesir, had turned themselves against her and their siblings, the titans, and dragons, and desired the entire world for themselves.

And that included their own mother, the World Tree herself.

"This will be the darkest age that will ever come to this world..."

A long-eared person, an elf, heard her words from afar.

Her beautiful blonde hair and her shiny emerald eyes shone brightly in surprise.

And so did a small, round shaped Treant on its spirit form.

Meanwhile, within Alfheim, a prophet capable of talking with the Yggdrasil Tree also heard her words.

"My children... you must gather your forces..."

"You must... protect your lands, and your people..."

"The gods... they're not your benefactors..."

"An Era of Calamity is approaching..."

"There is little hope left... Yet there's a dot, a small light I can see amidst this darkness..."

"Interestingly enough, it is a light made of the same darkness that will torment my strength and this world..."

"What an ironic twist of Fate."

"Find this otherworldly soul, and help her..."

"My strength... is fading away..."

The elf prophet finished hearing her words, as his eyes were left in shock.

Many of the other elves around him were expectant of his words.

But she simply couldn't say any!

The gods were not their allies?

The light amidst this darkness was... a being made of darkness itself?

And that person was also an otherworldly soul, a reincarnated person!

Above all, her voice... filled with so much fear.

"The World Tree is weakening... We must prepare for the Era of Calamity!" The beautiful elf woman said, her green hair waving gracefully. "I must first write what I've been told... And then, gather the Elders!"

The elves of Alfheim panicked, the words of the Yggdrasil Tree were filled with uncertainty.

As the protectors of nature and the ones closest to it, Elves always believed the words of the World Tree on their totality.

And they were always 100% accurate... after all, only the World Tree was capable of gazing through the fate of this world.

The Elders of Alfheim heard such words from the prophet, their faces twisting in confusion and despair.

"The Darkest Era of Calamity yet?!"

"What... can we even do now?"

"Our strength, is it enough?"

"So the World Tree said the true hero is the Hero of Darkness, and it is a woman, no less?"

"And what about the other heroes?"

The Elders, elves that have lived for thousands of years panicked.

However, a tall figure in the middle of the conference room quickly calmed them down with her voice.

"That's enough."

The Elders quickly stopped discussing, as they glanced at her beauty.

Amongst all elves, she was the most beautiful and fairest of maidens.

Long, rainbow hair, shiny golden eyes, long ears, and a beautiful, motherly figure.

What differentiated her the most from the other elves was that she was very tall, being over three meters of height, towering above all other elves.

And of course... her beautiful butterfly-like wings, rainbow in color. These wings were a sign of her being of the purest bloodline, direct descendants of the Vanir Gods, Freyr and Freyja.

"Lady Titania..."

Her name was Titania, the Queen of all Elves.

In the continent of Alfheim, Elves lived in large tribes, but they only had one single sovereign, the holder of the divine bloodline of the Vanir, the queen of elves, Titania.

"We've heard her words. There is no point in discussing things that won't change. Let us do as our mother says, and let's prepare for the darkest of times to come. Train the soldiers, conquer as many dungeons as we can, prepare our forces. And... seek the Heroine of Darkness, the one last hope our mother has deemed as our only possible savior amidst such darkest of times."

Her words were absolute, all elves lowered their heads before her divine presence.

"Very well..."

"We apologize for this..."

"We shall think about the future and what we must do."

"Thank you for your enlightenment, Queen Titania."

Titania nodded, as she smiled faintly.

Despite her smile, which filled with hope the Elders, deep inside, she felt conflicted.

"(Why, mother? Why is the Savior a Hero that wields the power of darkness and death? I simply... don't understand.)" She sighed internally. "(However, I am not someone that will doubt your words... I will bring her to my domain and see who she truly is.)"

As the Elders left, Titania looked across the open window within the enormous and beautiful palace where she lived alongside her subjects.

She glanced into the beautiful moonlight of the night sky. The stars shone the brightest this night. She felt conflicted and saddened, at the same time as worried.

"The Gods... are not our benefactors? What about the Vanir Gods, Lord Freyr and Lady Freyja? Are they your enemy as well, mother?"

She sighed. The words given were not completely clear. There were too many gods out there, deeming them all as "not benefactors" was very harsh. But perhaps the World Tree had no other way to word it.

"I can feel it... The Seed of Yggdrasil and the third wielder of the Vanir's Bloodline, both have awakened..." Titania looked into the distance, her eyes gazing through hundreds of kilometers into the continent of Midgard. "And interestingly enough, the Hero of Darkness must be with them..."

(Maria POV)

"This will be the darkest age that will ever come to this world..."

"My children... you must gather your forces..."

"You must... protect your lands, and your people..."

"The gods... they're not your benefactors..."

"An Era of Calamity is approaching..."

"There is little hope left... Yet there's a dot, a small light I can see amidst this darkness..."

"Interestingly enough, it is a light made of the same darkness that will torment my strength and this world..."

"What an ironic twist of Fate."

"Find this otherworldly soul, and help her..."

"My strength... is fading away..."

Emeraldine finished talking, as she sighed.

Just now, we came back from our dungeon journey and we were enjoying some nice dinner.

I had just now given Emeraldine, Partner, and Lucifer their respective boost items that Hel handled to me, the [Crystalized Vampiric Bat Tyrant's Blood (A Grade)], [Fafnir's Blood Elixir (A Grade)], and [Spirit Queen's Essence Phial (A Grade)].

[Crystalized Vampiric Bat Tyrant's Blood (A Grade)]

The crystalized blood of a powerful Vampiric Bat Tyrant, a powerful Blood-type Monster that dwells the underworld. Their blood is said to be incredibly precious and filled with Blood Attribute Essence. Usually said to be capable of increasing the power of the Physique of someone, however, it is extremely poisonous. If consumed by a Vampire, they will attain incredible power.

[Fafnir's Blood Elixir (A Grade)]

An Elixir crafted using the small drop of blood of the Evil Dragon of Greed, Fafnir, who dwells within Svartalfheim mixed with many other herbs and ingredients harvested in the Underworld. It possess an incredible Draconic Strength that might grant Draconic Bloodlines to those that drink it or kill them in the process if they're weak enough. If drank by an Ancient Dragon, their power might skyrocket.

[Spirit Queen's Essence Phial (A Grade)]

A beautiful Phial made out of divine power holding the liquified concentration of the Spirit Queen's Essence, containing the power of spirits and elements within the world. The Spirit Queen is a beautiful maiden that dwells within the Spiritual Realm, a Realm between the Mortals and Gods. She governs over all Spirits, and it is said she's the pillar of this world's elements. Said to enchant the magic power of those with elven bloodline, however, it might also cause mana overload and kill them in the process if they are weak. Special ones might inherit a greater power than just an enchantment to magic power.

These three items were given to my beloved ones. I know, it sounded scary to me as well when it said that it could kill them! But when I began to doubt, I received another message from Hel saying it was okay, as they were specifically made for them... I cannot trust her too much, but this time I tried to trust her! And yeah, it more than worked, all three of them were boosted through the roof!

Although none evolved or anything of the like, they had attained new skills and their stats skyrocketed. Lucifer gained new abilities related with Fafnir, with his dragon form becoming stronger as well as his dragon breath. Meanwhile, Partner became even more vampiric, and now had the power to shapeshift! Lastly, Emeraldine became even more brighter than ever, she was a walking lamp. And above all, her eyes turned rainbow for a bit, and she began saying all sorts of weird words!

We were rather shocked while having dinner... once she finished talking, she quickly wrote down everything in a notebook and then read it back to us. Root also said he heard the same voice talking inside his head for some reason... Ah, by the way, he's now around Level 30 out of 60.

"So that's it, huh?" I wondered. "I... don't get it."

"Me neither... But I think it was the voice of the World Tree." Emeraldine said.

"T-The World Tree?! " Aquamarine asked.

"Wait, is this true?" Ruby wondered.

The two were with us, of course. Alongside Helga and the other dwarves too. There was no way I wasn't going to invite them to have dinner at this fancy woman's house.

"Yeah, I also heard the same thing gyugyuh!" Root said, while sitting over the table. He was enjoying himself some pie and cake. Of course, he was within his Spirit Embodiment form, small and round. His real body size is too big to even fit in the house.

"Root seems connected as well, as he has consumed Yggdrasil's Sap." I said to the two. "He's a special lil' guy."

"I see..." Ruby muttered. "I... This means the Era of Calamity is coming closer. We have to get ready, Aquamarine."

"Indeed... I didn't expect this to come so sooner though. We'll have to prepare even more. Producing more golems, our greatest asset, should be prioritized as well." The old lady said.

"So this world is finally reaching such an Age..." Lucifer sighed. "Things are only going to get worse from this point..."

"Come on don't be a party pooper, brother." Sighed Brunhild.

"A-Ah, right, sorry..." Lucifer sighed.

"Don't be sorry, I guess you're right." I said. "We need to prepare for the inevitable now... Of course, once we're done with the dungeon we have to conquer after this one."

I ended deciding to not take over the swamp dungeon because it was very nice to us. I left it be for now, as it was harmless and seemed to know about the dwarves and I think it was rather content to have a symbiotic relationship between the dungeon's resources and the magic power the dwarves brought.

"Yeah, and then there's the whole problem with the Frost Queen... This is not easy to deal with." Sighed Ruby. "I'll be working hard to help you guys as much as I can. By using the resources of your dungeon, we can also convince more of my siblings to invest into defenses and the creation of more golems."

"That would be ideal." Said Aquamarine.

"Well, now, everyone, let's enjoy dinner for now. We've had a long day. Let's rest afterwards."

Chapter 613 Lovely Night 1 (R18)

After everything that was talked and discussed, I decided to quickly go to my room within the manor with Lucifer, Partner, and Emeraldine. After everything that happened we needed to relax for a bit. Nyx quickly fell asleep, and we left her in the twins' room so she could rest well without being bothered by... our nightly activities.

Well, it was pretty easy that we needed to unwind a bit. Emeraldine was slightly stressed by what she heard back then, and I wanted to make her feel comfortable. I thought snuggling would have been enough, but she seemed to have other plans...

"A-Ah~ W-Wait, Emeraldine...Y-You're sucking so deep!"

"Mmmh~!"

Emeraldine was viciously sucking my lower lips with her warm tongue, which stretched all the way inside. She was tasting my insides as if they were a delicious gourmet treat.

"Y-You don't like it...?"

Emeraldine quickly let go of me, as I finally had a time to take a break and relax in the bed.

"Hahhh... Oh god... You're way too good at oral sex..." I sighed in relief.

"Hm~ I'll take it as if you liked it then~ You said I could do anything I wanted, right~?" Emeraldine asked with a slightly perverted smile.

"Y-Yes but..." I muttered, feeling slightly overwhelmed. I guess when I wasn't drunk, I became slightly shier.

She quickly began to gently stretch my lower lips, as my pussy opened wide in front of her. She sexily licked her lips, giving me another big lick before sucking it hard once more.

"Ooooooh~ Ohh gods! Ahhhh~!"

As I was moaning like a bitch, Partner was smiling teasingly.

"Ufufu~ Ahh, these have gotten bigger since you evolved, Master~ Let me give you a hand~!" Partner said teasingly, as she started to lick the tip of one of my breasts, while teasing the other one with her fingers and long red nails.

"Aahhh~ W-Wait... Ooh...!"

"Hmmm~"

Partner quickly began sucking on my breast as if she was a baby, while tightly pressing the other. The sensation of pleasure was something a ghost like me shouldn't even feel, but it was all so real it was making me explode in orgasms.

Gosh, why am I so sensitive with these things?!

With Emeraldine devouring me down there and Partner sucking on my breasts, the constant jolts of pleasure reaching the depths of my soul were killing me.

"Ahhh... L-Lucy... Come on, don't be shy."

However, I quickly got more and more into the mood as my body started to heat up, Lucifer felt slightly left out, but I quickly called him to my side.

"Here, show it to me, I want to suck it on for you honey."

"A-Are you sure?"

"Yes, give it to me."

Lucifer shyly took off his dick, big and warm. Such a delicious rod quickly got me even more into the mood, while my two other wives pleased the rest of my body, I quickly started to lick my husband's cock.

"Hmmm~"

I've done this more times than I can remember, mostly because I got so drunk I did a lot of nasty things to him. I've developed a fetish of sucking on his hard cock already, and the more I saw him moan in pleasure, the more I got harder, including Partner and Emeraldine's teasing.

"Haahhh~ Y-You're sucking so hard...!"

The salty and warm dick of my dragon husband filled my mouth, I continued sucking him off. The taste filling my mouth as it made me go numb. The more I saw him I pleasure, the more I liked him. I continued doing it rapidly, until his hips started moving on their own.

"F-Fuck! T-This thing you humans do feels so good...!"

As a dragon, he had never done such things with his wife before.

I am quite glad I was able to bring him new pleasures~

His cock was almost addictive to suck, I continued doing so until his hips shook once more, and then...

"I-I'm cumming...!"

He tried to pull it out, but I didn't let him, opening my mouth wide as he came all inside of my mouth, covering my tongue with his delicious and creamy dragon seed.

"Hhahhh~ Y-You're drinking it?"

"Hhmm~ I love it."

I cleansed his whole cock until it was pinking clean.

"Hahh..."

He fell to the bed almost devastated. Although his majestic rod continued being erect.

Leaving him satisfied, I quickly decided to do the same with my other two maidens.

"Alright, who's next?" I asked with a smile.

"Let Emeraldine do it for now, Master, she wants to relax, right?" Partner asked with a teasing smile.

"R-Really?" She asked timidly, as she had just finished on giving me oral.

"Yes, come here my love, I am going to make you feel really good. All your worries are going to fade away." I said with a seductive smile.

Emeraldine quickly moved to my side, as we kissed passionately for a little while before she gave me her lower lips, resting over the bed, her long and beautiful legs stretched as I began tasting her delicious pussy.

It was so sweet and slightly salty~ I loved every second of it, it was addicting, as she continued letting out more and more of her juices, her warmth interior was welcoming as well. I playfully used my fingers with some lotion to penetrate her beautiful butt, making her have double the pleasure.

"Hahh~ M-Maria! AHHH~! OOOH~!"

Her moans had always been very loud, she's a nasty girl that likes to moan very loudly.

As I gave Emeraldine the time of her life, Partner sneaked into my butt and began licking it all viciously, sucking on my asshole and vagina together.

She was such a sneaky girl...

"Hey Lucy, are you tired?" Asked Partner with a teasing smile. "I guess you're too old for round two? Look at this, it is waiting for you~"

Partner showed Lucifer my butt, opening my pussy for him.

"Ah!"

Lucifer's dick quickly grew erect in a single second, he immediately went for it.

I am surprised how cooperative these two have become...

Chapter 614 Lovely Night 2 (R18)

"Maria... I'm going in..."

Lucifer charmingly said, as he quickly got behind me and started rubbing his cock on my wet pussy.

"Whenever you want honey."

"Ahhh... Such sweet words only makes me harder..."

His cock slowly began to slide all the way inside of my pussy, reaching deep. It was so hard and warm. I quickly began pressing my hips on his own, shaking them rapidly as the delicious sensation of his cock spearheading through my insides made me go numb in pleasure.

Plap! Plap! Plap!

The sound of my cheeks hitting Lucifer's hips echoed across the room. The entire place was getting more heated as my vision got slightly dizzier, I began sweating a lot despite my physiology, as Lucifer started gently smacking my cheeks, that only turned me on even more.

Meanwhile, as that happened, Emeraldine was already climaxing, my tongue quickly overpowered her senses and made her cum in an instant, filling my mouth with her delicious ambrosia. I drank it all, and then gave her a good kiss in her beautiful and round butt.

"Oooh~ Ahhh~ I-I came..." She sighed in relief.

"You sure did my love." I told her, giving her a few more French kisses before Partner viciously stole my lips and tongue, beginning to kiss me now.

"Master I want you to suck it there too~" She said like a good, obedient girl.

"Alright~ I'll reward you for being such a nice girl today. I'll treat you really well..." I smiled back at her, as she gave me her delicious pussy served on a plate.

I instantly began sucking it on with all my strength, all while Lucifer continued pounding me hard from behind. This sensation was too good, a combination of pleasures that can only be attained by having several sexual partners in bed! Such a bliss is to have a harem!

Unlike Emeraldine's sweet pussy, Partner was more salty, and tasted slightly like liquor. The smell of her sweat all over made the intensity even greater. We fought a lot today, so she was filled with it.

I quickly began licking her up without stopping, she moved her legs around timidly as I made her mine. She moaned softly, little moans like the chirps of a small bird.

"Ahh ~ Oohh~ Nnggh~ T-That's... there!"

She quickly pushed my head down with her hand, as I reached even deeper, all while I fingered her asshole with my fingers, the perfect combination technique!

Plap! Plap! Plap!

As that happened, Lucifer was gritting his teeth as he moaned softly, pounding my pussy until the very end.

"Oooh~ Honey you're so good, keep fucking me hard~!" I told him, incentivizing him to fuck me even harder.

"Nnngh! F-Fine! If you really want it hard!"

PLAP! PLAP! PLAP!

He tightly grasped butt as he began pounding even harder, the sound of our sweaty flesh hitting one another reverberated across the room, making the situation even more sexy and fucking hot.

"Ahhh! Master, I love you!" Partner began to moan loudly as I sucked her off while touching grasping her nipples and playing with them. "Oof~ Ahh... I-I am at my limit already...!"

"You moan so much, are you a little whore~?" Emeraldine asked Partner. "I'll make you shut up for a bit..."

Emeraldine quickly showed up at her side, giving her a kiss in her lips out of the blue and shutting her up.

"Hmmm~ Hahh... H-Hey...! Why did you kiss me?" Partner blushed a bit.

"You didn't like it?" Emeraldine smiled back.

"W-Well, I did- Ahhh~!" Partner moaned one last time, as she came all inside of my mouth. "Nnngh~ Ooohh~!"

Once she finished, I quickly pulled out my mouth and tongue, as I started kissing the two of them in turns, the two were so vicious tonight they started kissing me at the same time, sticking their tongues out and sucking on my own. This was too hot... Another benefit of harem!

"I-I'm cumming! S-Should I pull out?"

Lucifer was about to climax, as he politely asked me this.

"No~! Cum all the way inside baby, cum inside of me! Let it all out!"

"S-Shit...! Fine, if you want it so badly, have it your way!"

Lucifer slapped my ass cheeks one last time, as his hot dick let it all out inside of my pussy. I felt his deliciously warm seed filling me up, making me go numb out of the pleasure. I came as well right at that time, falling into the bed out of exhaustion and pleasure.

He slowly pulled out his hard cock, as a small river of his white seed came out of my pussy, it was too hot. I loved it when he came inside, honestly...

"Hahh... Up to round two?" I asked everyone again, my exhaustion was gone in an instant. One of the benefits of being so strong through stats!

Like that, we kept fucking like rabbits for hour, letting all the stress and exhaustion we had accumulated. Lucifer grabbed me roughly and fucked me hard, kissing me passionately while we did some mating press, bending me to his will like the powerful dragon he is. Partner rubbed her pussy on mine several times, while Emeraldine sucked on my tits. It was so much sex I passed out at the end, with everyone included. Lucifer fell unconscious first though, after an hour he can't go on anymore, fufu.

When I opened my eyes, the sunlight was coming from the window, it was already morning... I felt slightly tired still but having so much fun last night really cleared my mind. I sighed in relief, finding my three beloveds sleeping around the bed. I gave each one a kiss as they slowly woke up.

"Let's go take a bath in the hot springs, we can relax there and... maybe have a bit more sex if you want to." I winked at the three.

They immediately jumped off the bed.

"Alright!" Emeraldine got ready in an instant.

"My ideal type of breakfast!" Partner agreed.

Chapter 615 Strange Skills

"Let's go take a bath in the hot springs, we can relax there and... maybe have a bit more sex if you want to." I winked at the three.

They immediately jumped off the bed.

"Alright!" Emeraldine got ready in an instant.

"My ideal type of breakfast!" Partner agreed.

"Let me carry you, my queen." Lucifer charmingly said.

Lucifer carried me with his arms, as the four of us ran to the hot springs in the manor, and had yet another good time there, while washing ourselves with the relaxing and warm waters... Nothing better than this before going into a dangerous dungeon~!

After such a relaxing morning, I felt renewed, the warm waters really did a nice job at relaxing the muscles of my soul... or whatever helps me move them around.

Ding!

[The Goddess of the Underworld and Death is amused by your sexual libido.]

[She says you're a sex beast.]

EH?! Did this woman just watched me have sex? Hey, you damn pervert! If you do that again I won't become your apostle anymore!

Ding!

[The Goddess of the Underworld and Death] says that she didn't actually saw you do anything.]

[But she can tell you had a lot of sex.]

[However, to appease your growing frustrations, she decided to gift you something in goodwill.]

Eh? This bitch...

Ding!

[You acquired the [Sex Beast: Lv1] Title Skill]

[You learned the [Lovemaking: Lv1] Skill]

[You acquired [Succubus' Elixir Of Love (A Grade)] x1 and [Underworld Snail's Lube (A Grade)] x1!]

[The Goddess of the Underworld and Death says these are gifts her father brought to her, but that she didn't really need.]

[She hopes you can find a better use to them.]

This is ridiculous...

She's really mocking me, isn't she?

Well, I'll take the skills and the items...

But I won't be grateful for it!

[Succubus' Elixir Of Love (A Grade)]

A special elixir made by Succubus, a tribe of Majin that live in the depths of the Underworld and come visit mortals at night sometimes. Any of their bodily fluids is a strong aphrodisiac. This Elixir is made out of their sweat and blood, hence its pink color. A small sip of this elixir will awaken a powerful sexual libido in anybody. However, great exhaustion comes afterwards, or even death if the recipient is not physically strong enough.

[Underworld Snail's Lube (A Grade)]

The slime produced by a special type of small, cute snail that lives all over the Underworld. It is very sticky and amazing for the skin, leaving it soft. It helps at burns, irritation, and of course, it allows easier penetration, amongst many other things. Can loosen even the tightest of holes.

Ugh, the descriptions are so cringy...

But they're useful, I shall use them on their due time.

I stealthily saved the items inside my inventory, as I looked into the new Skills I got.

They might be sex-related but perhaps there's some other bonus that helps in battle or something?

[Sex Beast: Lv1]

A Title granted to someone that had sexual intercourse for over six hours without stopping. It facilitates sexual intercourse, heating up the body whenever the deed is about to start. It also increases vitality and reduces exhaustion. Bonuses increase per skill level.

Additionally, it grants a buff to the user and any sexual partner once the deed is done, which boosts their Stats by +10% for 10 Hours with each Skill Level.

[Lovemaking: Lv1]

Some people might think that having sex with another person is nothing special, but for many, it is considered a beautiful art where the bodies of people are unified beautifully. Instead of sex, it is often referred as Lovemaking.

This Skill enhances the user's techniques while doing Lovemaking, and grants knowledge about sexual positions and special sensitive spots to make their partner feel happier and more loved.

Additionally, HP and MP can be healed through Lovemaking, quantity increases with each Skill Level by a small amount. And it is possible to share energies between the user and their partner through intercourse, with a chance to increase stats and magical power permanently by exchanging energy.

I think I read about this back then in my previous life. It was called... Dual Cultivation, or something. I guess this might be quite similar. The ability to get stronger through such acts while also having a chance to boost our power permanently by exchanging energies with one another, how interesting.

But still! These Skills are a bit... embarrassing to have.

I better not reveal the existence of them to anybody... Though I wonder if sex workers get these types of Skills? I guess the Soul Books are not only to get fighting skills, but you can also even get stuff like this to facilitate intercourse.

I wonder if there are other types of skills related to it out there... Maybe something like [Bondage] or whatever... Ah, well, I better not think about it more than this.

Anyways, once we walked out of the bathroom, we got all dressed up and went to check on Nyx and the twins. The little baby dragon girl was already wake, biting on her brother's tail.

"Nom, nom, nom...!"

"Ouch, Nyx stop it! I don't have a tough tail like your daddy!"

Takeshi was enduring it quite well... He's a good kid.

"Mama!"

However, the moment we entered the room, Nyx jumped straight towards me, reaching my chest and snuggling her face in between my breasts.

"Did you miss your mama? You only slept a single night without being at our side, dear." I sighed.

"Mama! Hungry..." She said with beautiful eyes. "Nom!"

And then she bite my tit...

"Ouch! O-Okay, I'll bring you some meat, alright? Let's go have breakfast downstairs! D-Don't bite me there! Ouch! Ah, is this how it feels to give milk to a baby?" I cried.

"I don't think they bite so hard..." Emeraldine giggled.

"Nyx don't bite so hard. You have to do it gently! Maybe suck it a bit." Partner said.

"Partner don't go teaching my daughter those things!" Lucifer reprimanded her, as he quickly grabbed Nyx and let her bite his tail.

She quickly calmed down after that, miraculously.

"She really likes your tail..."

Chapter 616 The Best Of Dwarven Technology

Once we managed to get to breakfast, we relaxed and ate to our heart's contents. Aquamarine and Ruby came quickly after, alongside Helga and the dwarves. They seemed to have been preparing something themselves, and didn't merely wanted us to do everything for them, as they wanted to provide their help.

"We are ready." Aquamarine nodded.

"I am glad we managed to get them just in time." Ruby sighed.

"Huh? What did you get?" I wondered.

"Heh, come outside to see!" Helga quickly led me outside.

And then, the dwarves showed us what they had brought.

It was a row of a dozen enormous golems made of hard, magic-imbued steel and enchanted with holy light magic. They shone brightly with silver and golden colors, and were tall, resembling old school robots with big, round heads without necks.

They also held enormous weapons with them, including giant riddles, missile launchers, and more. There was also one of them packed with weapons all over its body, which Helga quickly jumped over the top of it.

"W-What?" Lucifer reacted in surprise.

"Golems?" Emeraldine wondered.

"S-So many!" Partner was fascinated.

"They're so cool!" Takeshi was impressed.

"Can we use them?!" Laura was excited to be able use them.

"I mean, you could try but I am fairly sure you're stronger than them, so it would be a bit useless." Laughed Aquamarine. "These amazing golems are our latest season ones. Ruby and I invested some of our money to get these done the moment you said you wanted to carry on clearing the Sealed Miasma Dungeon."

"Wait, really? But you didn't had to..." I said in surprise. "This feels like overdoing it... Also, sorry if I sound harsh, but wouldn't it be better if you guys don't come to begin with?"

"Heh, and that's where you're underestimating us." Helga smiled. "These amazing golems are not your run of the mill simple golems, they come with the [Transformation] Ability, the [Metal Assimilation] Ability, and the [Combination] Ability!" Helga laughed. "These are the latest models we've made! Pure dwarven technology!"

I had never heard of such types of Abilities! But I guess much like bombs, golems can also come with their own abilities, right? I guess it makes sense. But I think I understand Helga. I can get why they're different.

They can transform to adapt to many situations, absorb metals to become stronger and also repair themselves if broken, and then combine if they need even more power.

I suppose these dwarves are too stubborn to be left behind. A squadron of 13 Dwarves using the last model golems will end up joining us.

"And they come equipped with special, highly valuable materials. We added several Holy Stones to them, which allow these golems to use Abilities such as [Holy Aura], [Healing Light], [Holy Beam], amongst others. They need charging their mana frequently, but the dwarves can also supply their own Mana." Ruby smiled.

"We've equipped them with tons of accessories that increase their Maximum Mana capacity." Said Aquamarine. "Also, in yesterday's raid to the dungeon, all of them leveled up a lot, most of them are comparable to B- Rank now, with enough equipment added to their bodies."

Amazing... I never thought the Dwarven Squadron would get this strong this quickly... I guess I've been underestimating their willpower this entire time. They are just amazing... And gosh, I want some golems myself! I think only the highest ranked undead compared to their prowess.

"Amazing, with those spells, they're perfectly suited to enter that miasma-filled dungeon." Said Emeraldine. "I guess going in also requires the golems to protect from the miasma itself."

"They're like the living armors you made, master." Partner said.

"She's right, what will happen to Emeraldine and Partner if we go in as we are?" Lucifer wondered. "Also, Brunhild, do you feel confident you can withstand the miasma?"

"Don't worry about it, I had devised a Spell for this, I imbued it into several accessories through alchemy, using some of our newest materials for their creation." I told everyone with a confident smile.

"Oh, where are they?" Wondered Emeraldine.

"...I have yet to make them though." I laughed a bit.

Everyone looked at me while narrowing their eyes.

"I-I was going to do them soon! Don't get angry now..." I laughed nervously. "Anyways, we are already strong enough, we can withstand miasma more easily. I can also just conjure the spell on you guys directly for the same effect. The accessories will simply keep it on continuously."

"Yeah, I mean, I can withstand miasma just well. I got the Corruption Resistance Skill some time ago... I think because I've had too much sex with master." Partner rubbed her chin. "After all her very being is covered on miasma and stuff..."

"Huh, I see..." Aquamarine smiled at me.

"So that's how it is..." Ruby said as well.

"Huh... That's quite the sneaky way to get resistance to miasma." Helga analyzed.

"Indeed, a very interesting way, gahahahaha!" Blackard and the other dwarves laughed their lungs out.

"Ugh, Partner don't talk about private stuff so openly!" I reprimanded her.

"A-Ah, sorry!" Partner apologized. "I got a bit carried away... Ahahah..."

But she's actually right now that I think about it... My entire body produces miasma yet it is not harmful to them, for some reason. The more closer we are and the more used they get to my presence, the more they develop a resistance to it.

Then Emeraldine and Partner already hold the [Corruption Resistance] Skill, which is the one related with Miasma-type damage. Looking at their status, the skill itself is already Level 3 in the two of them!

...Damn, I guess what we did last night was really worth it, huh?

Nonetheless, the golems that Aquamarine and Ruby spent millions of coins into commissioning were ideal for the raid. I thought we could handle it ourselves, but the more aid we have, the better.

I cannot bring my top Undead with me because I left them all protecting my place, at most I can bring armies of lesser undead, but they can only buy time against overpowered foes such as powerful Dungeon Bosses.

And damn, I guess what we did last night was really worth it, huh?

Chapter 617 Time To Make Some Special Items

Nonetheless, the golems that Aquamarine and Ruby spent millions of coins into commissioning were ideal for the raid. I thought we could handle it ourselves, but the more aid we have, the better. I cannot bring my top Undead with me because I left them all protecting my place, at most I can bring armies of lesser undead, but they can only buy time against overpowered foes such as powerful Dungeon Bosses. And I believe the very monsters we'll find there might be several times stronger than the Abyssal Ants we fought back then.

It'll be a lot of bloodshed and danger; we'll need as much support as we can. Only one of us currently wields enough light element power to purify the miasma properly, Emeraldine. But now, we've got 14 powerful golems, as strong as B++ Rank monsters at our side, and all of them come packed with Holy Light Elemental Stones and Runes.

We couldn't had asked for something better.

"This is amazing, nonetheless. Thanks a lot for thinking so far ahead..." I sighed in relief. "But how much did you spent?" I wondered.

"Each Golem costed roughly 25 million gold." Said Aquamarine. "I've used over half my total capital saved through my whole life to help you."

"I did my part as well." Ruby nodded. "Let's call it an investment. If we are truly capable of clearing this dungeon, then it'll be possible that we can attain yet another high ranked dungeon where we could plant resources inside. If everything goes well, of course."

"I see, an investment..." I nodded. "Alright then, for now I'll go make some preparations, potions, and items I need as well. Girls, come with me."

Like that, I quickly walked back to our room and summoned the Alchemy Cauldron out, activating it while I browsed through the many materials I got. I had devised a special spell named [Underworld's Abyssal Veil]. It combines my Abyssal Barrier with the power of Death itself to repel Miasma.

However, its duration is only at most ten minutes, and then it explodes and dissipates, letting the one being protected exposed to Miasma once more. However, such a weakness wouldn't exist if I simply add this Spell to an item, for example, a very powerful Ring or Bracelet, right?

The spell becomes an ability of the item now, and its effects stay on as long as Mana is supplied. The ring will simply absorb Mana from the user. It absorbs a lot though, but those that are going to wear it have tons of it anyways, and even if they lack, I'll simply share my own Mana with them if necessary, it is way easier than keeping the spell up every ten minutes.

However, for the creation of an item that can hold up to such a powerful spell, I'll need top tier materials, so I'll be using most of the materials I got from the monsters in yesterday's dungeon raid. And of course, above that, I'll be using the Spirit Treasures inside of my Soul Scape too.

Tyr, within my Soul Scape, finished taking out some branches from the Tree of Death, and flower petals from the flowers as well. These are high quality materials as well, which I can freely harvest from within my own soul! ...Although they regrow very slowly, each petal I took from the flowers will take roughly two weeks. And the branches from the tree? Over a month... it is certainly not a fast production of materials to say the least, but it works and is good enough anyways.

Aside from those materials, there were a few other items I had. The ones I got from the reward clear... They are items that can be used, not just sole materials. But I'll leave them for later, they have specific uses that might come in handy, especially the materials I ended getting from the random item boxes from the normal boss as well.

But for now, it would also be better if I can dismantle this thing... I have the entire Hydra's corpse inside my Inventory and never dismantled it, so let's do this right now.

"Dismantle."

FLASH!

The sole item [Hydra's Carcass] quickly dismantled, turning into hundreds of separate materials.

Ding!

[You acquired the [Hydra's Nine Elemental Heads] x9, [Hydra's Crushed Brain] x30, [Hydra's Magic Reflecting Scales] x60, [Hydra's Powerful Bones] x100, [Hydra's flesh] x50, [Elemental Draconic Heart Core] x1, [Exquisite Quality Magic Crystal] x1, [...]

Hah... I knew this monster was amazingly valuable, but the materials it gave me are utterly insane. And the best part is that they all come imbued with incredible quantities of magic power. And are of very high quality! With this alone, I can easily make the rings and bracelets I want.

Not only I want some for Emeraldine and Partner, who are the ones affected (as I, Lucifer, Nyx, and the twins are immune to it) but also for Brunhild whose flames can pierce through miasma and protect her, but not totally, and all the dwarves too as a countermeasure. So at the end, I need to make roughly... 17 Rings and Bracelets.

But why rings and bracelets at the same time? Well, to stabilize the entire spell. With a ring alone should be enough, but the ring risks being broken if too much Miasma is there at the end. So to stabilize it, another powerful accessory will share the burden. At the same time, both accessories will be interconnected through Soul Connection Magic, yeah, I'll be putting tiny soul fragments from my very soul into each accessory, just to make them stronger.

It'll end becoming cursed equipment if I do that, but it will be a "good" curse that protects their wielders and devour and repels miasma at the same time, what's better than that? I quickly placed the materials over the entire floor, as Emeraldine and Partner, the beautiful Alchemist Teacher and the cute Alchemist Assistant were flabbergasted by the amount of materials.

Bones, enormous eyeballs, scales, magic crystals, fins, slime, and even cores, I was using a lot of everything we got yesterday.

"Alright girls, let's get started."

Chapter 618 Mixing Spirit Treasures With Alchemy

Because we don't have the time to go mine for materials at the mountains, it'll have to do using all these amazing materials dropped from strong monsters, and the few other ores and crystals I've stored for these types of moments. Of course, making a total of 34 accessories one by one is completely unrealistic.

So I'll simply use my little trick later, for now, what I need is to simply make the first two, in their most perfect form. But making one after the other is also tiring, so I'll simply make both at the same time. This is a technique Emeraldine taught me some time ago named "Dual Alchemy" the ability to create two different items simultaneously.

However, for this to actually work, both items but correlate with one another. Luckily, these two accessories will use almost the same materials, but their shape and internal structure will be different from one another so they can complement with each other as they're worn by their wearers.

Anyways, this is the list of monster materials available, it's a ton of them.

[Acidic Slime Ooze] x55, [Acid Swamp Slime Shattered Core Piece] x82, [Acidic Fragrance Bottle] x7]

[Salamander's Oily Skin] x46, [Salamander's Soft Venomous Meat and Bones] x66, [Giant Salamander's Eyeballs] x22, [Swamp Salamander's Gooney Mucus] x9]

[Poisonous Frog's Venom-Producing Organs] x64, [Venomous Tongue Weapon] x45, [Poisonous Frogs Eyeballs] x37, [Poisonous Frogs Meat and Bones] x83]

[Anglerfish Meat and Bones] x27, [Giant Anglerfish Bait] x21, [Spear Fish's Skull] x31, [Arrow Fish Meat and Bones] x43, [Poison-Resistance Anglerfish Scales] x77]

[Ruler of the Swamp's Eyes] x2, [Ruler of the Swamp's Element Resistant Scales] x20, [Ruler of the Swamp's Meat and Bones] x40, [Water Bending Organs] x5, [Poison Producing Glands] x4, [Ruler of the Swamp's Aquatic Heart Core] x1

[Hydra's Nine Elemental Heads] x9, [Hydra's Crushed Brain] x30, [Hydra's Magic Reflecting Scales] x60, [Hydra's Powerful Bones] x100, [Hydra's flesh] x50, [Elemental Draconic Heart Core] x1, [Exquisite Quality Magic Crystal] x1

I've also decided to use other monster materials I have stored from before, such as the shells of the Abyssal Ants, and other lesser magic metals and crystals, and the like that they mined for us, which I retrieved from them two days ago... Hm, I hope Lancelot is taking good care of those hardworking little guys.

And aside from this, of course, the main dish!

[Withering Trees of Death Branches (A Grade)]

A Lesser Spirit Treasure that contains the Element of Death. It resembles a withering tree with purple leaves. It is dry and can survive without water or sunlight. Its branches contain the power of Death itself at large quantities, must be handled with care, or it could drain the vitality of those that touch them.

[Red Flowers of Blood Petals (A Grade)]

A Lesser Spirit Treasure made of many red-colored flowers resembling red roses containing the Element of Blood. Its petals are precious materials imbued with the power of Blood, which have a high affinity with darkness and death elements and is often capable of "tying" them together through alchemy and synthesis processes.

[Purple Flowers of Poison Petals (A Grade)]

A Lesser Spirit Treasure made of many purple-colored flowers resembling purple roses containing the Element of Poison. Its petals are precious materials imbued with the power of Poison, but also with Death. Their structure allows them to easily absorb deadly poisons and even miasma. However, merely touching them could kill a normal person through a deadly poison.

[Black Flowers of Darkness Petals (A Grade)]

A Lesser Spirit Treasure made of many black-colored flowers resembling black roses containing the Element of Darkness. Its petals are precious materials imbued with the power of Darkness, but also with Death. The power of darkness it contains is so vast it can easily absorb such power, and it is said that it could even steal the shadows of people if they touch these petals.

These incredible items are my trump card in making these materials, and I've got over forty of each one more than enough for the 37 accessories I'll be making today. They're amazing as they embody the elements I want the best, while the other monster materials will work as the pillars that become the very matter of the equipment.

Of course, I've also got some Silver, Bronze, and Copper Magic Ore for the basic structure, but even then, we'll need them all. Something very interesting I've noticed when doing alchemy is that materials used often are compressed together, so even if you add a lot of heavy materials, the result, once fully refined, might be small.

I had already written the recipes, so I simply told Emeraldine and Partner about it and showed them the recipes I made using all the materials available.

"A-Amazing, you made this yourself, Maria? You've already surpassed me... I don't think I could ever devise such complicated recipes in a whim like you did..." Emeraldine was left out of words.

"It's a tiny bit complicated but I think I get it." Partner nodded. "So what should we do to help?"

The two seemed pumped up.

"I'll begin telling you what to add one after the other, and the synthesis steps we do, alright? These special Spirit Treasure materials will be handled by me, so don't worry about them." I reassured them.

"Alright." Emeraldine nodded.

"Then let's begin!" Partner said.

"Good, that's the spirit!" I said with a smile. "Let's start with the first things, the base of the preparation. Add Silver, Bronze, and Copper Ores imbued with Darkness and Death Magic directly into the boiling pot."

"These ores... they're black!" Said Emeraldine.

"Yeah, you changed them?" Wondered Partner.

"Yeah, I did it using some alchemy. Synthesizing my own magic element into materials imbue them with such an element, virtually converting them into elemental magic materials. I can only do this with my main elements though..." I said.

"Amazing... Alright." Emeraldine nodded, as she and Partner added the materials as I told them.

"And now... the three of us...!"

"[Synthesis]!"

FLAAASH!

Chapter 619 Creating Brand-New Ores

FLAAASH!

Once we did Synthesis together, the materials converged together, and from within, several chunks of black ore emerged, overflowing with a black aura similar to miasma, yet they weren't hurting anybody by being near like Demonite usually does.

Ding!

[You've created [Umbratite Ore Chunk (B+ Grade)] x50!]

[You gained 5000 Alchemy Skill Proficiency]

[You gained 500000 EXP]

[Umbratite Ore Chunk (B+ Grade)] x50

A special black metal as dark as the umbra itself. It is specially made by melding several metals together and combining them with the elemental infusion of Shadows and Death. Despite its dangerous appearance, it is a metal that can absorb Miasma naturally, and therefore cleanse areas from it, making them less toxic. The metal repurposes the Miasma into Mana, which it utilizes to grow. Highly resistant to magic attacks, it is also greatly flexible and moldable.

Ooh, I made it! I made a new metal!

"I made a new Metal, holy smokes!" I said in surprise.

"Umbratite, it has amazing properties as well!" Emeraldine was surprised.

"But only fifty chunks? We used way more materials to make it!" Partner complained.

"Yeah I guess you're right, that's why we can't quite mass produce it yet unless we have a ton of the other materials. But this is more than good enough for what I want to make anyways." I nodded in affirmation. "With this as the base, let's begin the rest of the synthesis process then!"

Like that, we started adding other materials such as the [Acidic Slime Ooze] and [Acid Swamp Slime Shattered Core Piece]. The acidic substances allowed the ore to leave out impurities while we shaped it through the cauldron's process of extraction and fusion of materials and essences.

When that was done with, we began adding [Salamander's Oily Skin], [Salamander's Soft Venomous Meat and Bones], [Giant Salamander's Eyeballs], and some of the [Swamp Salamander's Gooey Mucus] to meld it together and polish it completely.

Later, [Poisonous Frog's Venom-Producing Organs], [Venomous Tongue Weapon], and [Poisonous Frogs Eyeballs] were added to give the metal we were shaping the power to absorb toxic and venomous substances more easily.

Once done with that, we added [Giant Anglerfish Bait], [Spear Fish's Skull], [Arrow Fish Bones], and [Poison-Resistance Anglerfish Scales] to reinforce the previously mentioned effects and the endurance of the metal chunk.

At this point, the metal had already taken shape into a ring as I mixed my Forging Skill as well, taking out the metal from the Alchemy Cauldron and smacking it with a hammer to shape it slowly and precisely. Once it was done, it has become a beautiful Black Umbra Ring and Bracelet, but their abilities were subpar still.

We had to step further into what we wanted to do, so we began with the second piece that would complete these items, the Miasmic Catalyst. For that, we used our highest-grade materials, deciding to create a gigantic Miasmic Catalyst which we could chop down to extract the pieces we needed later.

"And this is where the Spirit Treasure Materials come..." I began adding all the ones I got into the cauldron, boiling them through Synthesis once more and using Brewing and Mixing as well for good measure. I also added Demonite too.

"Now girls, add all the [Ruler of the Swamp's Eyes], [Ruler of the Swamp's Element Resistant Scales], [Ruler of the Swamp's Meat and Bones], [Poison Producing Glands], and the single [Ruler of the Swamp's Aquatic Heart Core] all while I conjure Synthesis and Mixing continuously." I said.

Partner and Emeraldine swiftly did as I guided them, as the girls immediately saw the powerful materials and their magical essences converging together beautifully into something greater.

After that, they added [Hydra's Nine Elemental Heads], [Hydra's Crushed Brain], [Hydra's Magic Reflecting Scales], [Hydra's Powerful Bones], [Hydra's flesh], and tons of Good Quality Magic Crystals. We used most of our ingredients, though I saved half of them still for more items I want to make later.

"Now, together...!"

"[Dual Synthesis]!"

FLAAAASH!

With our strength together, we infused our magic into the Magic Cauldron. The materials essence converged together slowly, turning into an enormous and crystalized, purple-colored jewel emanating a deadly, venomous aura.

Ding!

[You've created [Venom Black Draconitite (A+ Grade)] x1!]

[You gained 10000 Alchemy Skill Proficiency]

[You gained 1000000 EXP]

[The Alchemy Skill Level has increased to Level 4!]

[The Novice Alchemist Recipe Book Skill Level has increased to Level 4!]

[Venom Black Draconitite (A+ Grade)] x1

A special jewel formed through the crystallization of several elemental essences and materials extracted from powerful monsters. It contains Darkness, Death, and Poison element the most, alongside having its core filled with a slight amount of Draconic Essence, extracted from a Dragon-type Monster Scales. It is imbued with large quantities of Magic and can absorb all kinds of toxins quite easily to reinforce itself. Might be capable of unleashing magic attacks if used as a material for staffs, accessories, and weapons.

And here it was, the last piece of the puzzle. With this, the ring and the bracelet would easily resonate with one another and be able to better absorb miasma while not risking breaking due to excessive absorption of energy.

"Amazing, this is incredible, we've made something at A+ Grade?!" Emeraldine was left perplexed.

"And that's not everything either now, let's begin the creation of the actual item I wanted to make..." I smiled evilly.

I quickly cut down some chunks of this crystal using my pickaxe and then threw them inside the Ring and the Bracelet, this was the last step, fusing both materials together to make the items I had envisioned!

"Now, the last time, girls! [Dual Synthesis]!"

FLAAASH!

With that, an enormous arc of purple and black light emerged from the Cauldron, covering the ceiling rapidly. The materials converged beautifully, the small jewel chunk reached the top of the ring and bracelet, spreading countless purple and black runes across their bodies.

The accessories floated in midair, emerging from the Cauldrons almost magically... It was finally done.

Chapter 620 Draconitite Miasmic Umbra Ring And Bracelet

[All Your Stats have increased!]

[You gained Bonus System Points.]

Hehe, not only I made them but I leveled up! I checked their status and it said what I was hoping for. These two work together in tandem and can absorb Miasma easily. However, once I register this version into the Alchemist Recipe Book, I'll upgrade it even further for myself.

I cannot give the upgraded version I want to make to anyone else as it will be for me only, it will have a dangerous power only a ghost like me could handle, so this is why I made the "base version" first, this one, which will then be registered, so the later version I'll upgrade afterwards can be a I really want.

And this is the skill...

[Novice Alchemist Recipe Book: Lv4]

A Skill that only incredibly talented Alchemist can learn. It grants access to a special Book that can materialize out of thin air, where an alchemist is capable of accessing a series of recipes that are unlocked over time and the Skill Level, it also grants detailed information about Materials which are then registered in the book.

Through the book and the required set of special Skills, Synthesis can be done anywhere. Additionally, new Recipes can be created using certain materials and by experimenting around. [Instant Creation] recipes cannot be modified. However, the Empty Slot can be modified and made into any recipe of the user's choice. Once it is decided, it cannot be modified later.

Available Recipes for [Instant Creation]:

Level 4: [Alchemical Catalyst (Unique Grade)], [Elixir Base (Unique Grade)], [Empty Slot], [Empty Slot]

I have already registered the Lightning Bomb on it, so I can easily create them as long as I've got the materials inside my Inventory, which I do. However, this time we'll try to register equipment items, let's see if it's possible...

Ding!

[You've registered [Draconitite Miasmic Umbra Ring (Unique Grade)] and [Draconitite Miasmic Umbra Bracelet (Unique Grade)] into the [Novice Alchemist Recipe Book] Skill!]

[You can now use Instant Creation to create the items as long as you have the necessary Materials.]

[However, awarded EXP and Skill Proficiency compared to the first time will be greatly decreased.]

Wow, I guess there's no limits in this regard, eh? So it's done. And the penalty of EXP and Skill Proficiency makes sense, I am no longer manually making them so I guess I don't really gather much experience from doing them at all.

"Uwah, the ring and the bracelet... they look so stylishly gothic!" Partner seemed to love them.

"Indeed..." Emeraldine said. "But I don't know they're my style... I like brighter things, usually. Nonetheless, I'll wear them anyways."

"Don't worry, I have thought about making you girls some custom-made accessories using these rings as the base. Though I need compatible materials for that, so I cannot start right away." I sighed. "I'll begin upgrading mine for now as I've got all materials available, but for now, let's make the rings and bracelets for everyone first."

Woah, another level up!

And... that's as much as I can make for now. All the materials I had are gone now! I don't think I can make Umbratite anytime soon unless I stock up on more precious magic metals, and the Draconite Crystal has been chopped to almost a few tiny shards I've saved to upgrade the ring, which I was doing right about now, as Emeraldine and Partner went to distribute the accessories.

Oh, I guess it is a nice time to check on this Skill first:
