

A Ghost 701

Chapter 701 Intense Clash Between Giants!

An explosion of infernal flames engulfed Frost entire body, quickly beginning to melt his Divine Ice Armor. After being told he was a coward by Lucifer, he couldn't bear the shame and ended recklessly charging into the flames by relying on the shield. Even with the Divine Shield of Uller's protection, such amount of flames were too lethal, his ice was melting everywhere and rapidly.

BOOOOOOMMMMMMM....!

"Unnnnggh...! Hahah... Now was that a cowardly move, Dragon King?!" Frost confronted Lucifer as the giant black scaled dragon slowly stood up, his entire body engulfed on infernal blue flames as his scythe too these flames as well, becoming an even more lethal weapon.

"I guess you're a fool if you fell for such a taunt..." Lucifer said, as his regeneration abilities could only get him so far, many of his wounds were taking a while to regenerate, including a few broken ribs. Nonetheless, he was mightier than to just let some broken bones stop him from fighting.

"I wouldn't have had it any other way!" Laughed Frost, charging forward as his slime tentacles emerged all around his body, while his surface body constantly regenerated his Divine Ice Armor, his tentacles suddenly shaped as gigantic ice-made fists and began pummeling Lucifer with all his strength!

"Nnnnggh...! You damn piece of shit!" Lucifer roared furiously. His flames suddenly encompassing his hands as he grew a second pair of arms through his Polymorph Magic and then began hitting back at Frost's fists, as blazing and frost fists impacted one another, the shockwaves of these massive impacts began making the entire surroundings tremble and shatter apart.

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLAAASH!

"RAAAAAHHHHH!!!" Lucifer loaded all the flames he could into his scythe and then swung them horizontally, swinging through the hard Divine Ice Armor of Frost while his shield was at the other side, managing to slice through his incredibly hard shell and finding his true body beneath it!

SLAAAAAASH!

"NNNGHHH...!"

Frost groaned in agony as his gigantic armor suddenly began melting and shattering apart. His gigantic slime body quickly escaped from the scene while holding his weapons, he had taken some damage but was still fine.

"You're not going ANYWHERE! {Divine Draconic Arts}: {Infernal Dragon Meteors}!"

FLUOOOOOSH!

Suddenly, Lucifer's entire body began to increase its heat to completely insane levels, as his blazing scales started exploding out of his body and being redirected as blazing falling meteors against his foe!

FLASH! FLASH! FLASH! FLASH! FLASH!

"Hahahah, to be expected of such a powerful foe!" Laughed Frost, as he quickly created six enormous arms made of Divine Ice and started fighting back against Lucifer, who was now unleashing an inferno of countless falling blazing meteors.

BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOOM!

The entire battlefield was covered on ice and flames as both titans fought with great intensity. Lucifer's blazing claws fell over Frost constantly, while the slime continued to regenerate his damage easily while conjuring icicle spears everywhere and even more and more storms of ice swords.

But while this was happening, where the heck was Partner at?

"Hahahaha! It seems that our difference in power is quite obvious, Dragon King!" Frost laughed. Even after having exposed his true body, he was clearly superior in both movement, regeneration, and overall magical power than Lucifer, who was already incredibly tired by overusing the power of the Draconic Records. "After all, I am an S Rank Monster while you have yet to attain such an evolution, have you not?!"

"TSK...!" Lucifer knew it was true. He had yet to evolve into an S Rank, as he was still within the A Rank Realm. Although his many skills and ridiculously high stats as a dragon were what gave him an overwhelming advantage against most foes, he was still not within the Realm of Frost, but very close.

If only... if only he could level up faster. However, Dragons leveled up incredibly slow compared to other living beings, even Maria leveled up faster as well.

Nonetheless, it wasn't as if he and his companions had not defeated S Rank threats before even without being S Rank, but it had taken considerable effort and Maria's overwhelming Unique Skills to attain such victory.

And of course, more than just one fighter...

"PARTNER, WHERE THE HECK ARE YOU?!" Lucifer roared, punching Frost with everything he had as he unleashed his last blazing meteors against him!

BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM!

"NNNGGHH...!" Frost groaned; his body was being once more melted yet he easily regenerated due to being a Slime. Even more, he could easily absorb the snow and the ice left behind around him to regenerate even faster.

Lucifer has been aiming at his core this entire time yet he was unable to hit it at any time. The sneaky bastard of Frost was constantly moving his core around his body, making it an increasingly hard thing to hit.

"HAHAHAHAH...! Although your powers are amazing, it seems you've finally reached your limits, Dragon King!" Frost laughed, as Lucifer suddenly vomited blood, his entire mind felt dizzy and his body was paralyzed. "Nnngh... I-I've overused the Draconic Records powers...?! And where is Partner at?!"

"Heh, it appears your companion has completely abandoned you!" Laughed Frost. "How sad, after you two shared a fight together... It is truly a pitiful thing. Now, Dragon King. I've taken a liking on you. Join me and the Frost Queen, this is an opportunity I won't ever give to you again!"

Lucifer looked back at the Slime's Helmet made of ice, the only thing similar to a face Frost had. He smiled defiantly, his eyes blazing with fury. He raised his hand, seemingly as if he was about to accept his offer...

more angered, losing his composure.

Yet at the last moment, he gave him his middle finger.

"Fuck off."

"What... did you said?!"

Frost did not expect this. Through his entire life he had never faced such a defiant and insolent man before. He began growing more and more angered, losing his composure.

And lowering his guard.

FLAAASH!

And in that moment, a gigantic spear made of blood and darkness fell from the skies, piercing through his armor, body, and... Slime Core.

CRAAAASH!

"UNGGH...?! I-IMPOSSIBLE...! YOU?!"

Frost was shocked when he found a gorgeous Vampire Lady in the skies.

Chapter 702 Just Do It!

Frost quickly realized he was now the one that was played with! Lucifer fought all alone against him so he could give him the false sense of security, that there wasn't going to be anybody around him anymore.

All while Partner was secretly recovering her energies, assimilating the new Blood Powers she acquired from drinking Lucifer's blood at long last, and then preparing a precise, and deadly blow against his Slime Core when he least expected it.

At the very last moment, Lucifer managed to create this opportunity, and like a stealthy sniper in the shadows, Partner took the opportunity and pierced his Slime Core, shattering it into pieces.

CRAAAASH!

"UNNGGH... Impossible... YOU?!" Frost looked into the skies, finding Partner smiling evilly. "Y-You... Unnggh...!"

Frost was unable to keep himself stable. His entire body started to lose control and began separating and dying off, while his shattered core started leaking a blue liquid, slowly dying off as well.

"Did you miss me?" Wondered Partner, sitting over Lucifer's large head.

"No, but did you had to wait until the very last moment?" Lucifer sighed.

"If I didn't it might have not worked! We had one shot." Partner said with a smile. "Now, little slime, it's over for you."

Frost couldn't believe he was getting killed so easily and shamelessly like this. It made him feel shameful, irritated, and frustrated with himself. He was unable to change his Fate once more, the Fate of a pathetic King without Kingdom.

"Now, perish!" Lucifer roared, as he unleashed a Blazing Dragon Breath over Frost's entire body, burning and melting it all.

"GRYYYYAAAAAAGHHHHH...! NO... NOOOOOOO!"

As Frost cried in agony and frustration, suddenly, the shield he held wrapped around his body reacted. A powerful divine aura surged from within, as his last pieces of slime body and his shattered core, alongside his soul, were melded into the Divine Shield of Uller!

FLAAAAASH!

"What the?!" Partner panicked. "Burn that thing before it's too late!"

"I barely have Mana now!" Lucifer panicked, throwing more and more fire.

But it seemed futile!

FLUOOOSH!

The power of the Divine Shield not only managed to save Frost somehow, but it fused with his remaining body and created something brand new. The Divine Shield of Uller melted together with his body, forming a molten metal body similar to one of Maria's minions, Mercury, who was protecting Maria's Village.

A Metal Slime!

The flames no longer affected him like before, being barely anything against his metallic body. And the previous damage he sustained easily healed, as his entire new body was recreated...

"This power... Ahhhh! My Queen has given me a second chance! I will not waste it!!!"

RUMBLE!

His body kept growing bigger and bigger, as a gigantic Metal Slime covered on countless blue circuits all around his body emerged. His body now had several blue cores all around him, which seemed to be his former core which had been shattered into pieces.

Not only that, but now that he was made completely of metal and not the frail slime, he had become a truly frightening monster amongst monsters. Mercury that was merely B Rank was already insanely strong and resilient... but what about an S Rank Divine Metal Slime?

"Now I can truly take the form that truly embodies me! Hahhaahahah! Face my new self, Dragon King, Vampire Woman!"

Frost's entire body grew into an immense size of over four hundred meters, he now resembled a metallic golem covered in armor resembling a castle, and atop his helmet head there was a gigantic golden crown. No, if Maria was here, she would have easily identified this as some sort of sick ass mecha.

"{Divine Metal Creation}: {King's Silver Blade}!"

FLAAASH!

In mere seconds, Frost materialized using his own body a gigantic sword that could cut an entire mountain by itself, which emanated a powerful freezing aura combined with the divinity of the Divine Artifact he had fused with.

"Now confront me once more! Let us see where this fight truly goes to!" Frost laughed, completely turning the tables on his favor through the unfair powerup of his Divine Artifact, something both Lucifer and Partner didn't had.

SLAAAAASH!

Frost swung his sword furiously against the two of them, as a massive Aura Slash reached the two of them, strong enough to easily slice through a mountain itself!

"{Vampiric Blood Arts}: {Abyssal Blood Barrier}!"

"{Divine Draconic Arts}: {Orichalcum Scales}!"

FLUOOOSH!

Partner generated a gigantic barrier utilizing her Abyssal Darkness and her Vampiric Blood Energy together to protect Lucifer, while Lucifer grabbed her with his big arms and used his last energy to reinforce his scales before receiving the impact both of them were unable to evade due to its insane speed.

BOOOOOOOOMMMM!!

CRAAASH!

The barrier shattered into pieces faster than the two of them expected, as Partner saw Lucifer throw her into the air before his entire body was sliced into two from his torso!

BAAAAM!

"L-Lucifer!" Partner panicked, as her darkness and blood energy began trembling and then slowly beginning to grow larger and larger as she grew madder.

"Unnnnggh... Being cut into two halves never felt this painful..." Lucifer muttered, cut into two halves, he still was a "pseudo undead" meaning that even such a lethal wound wouldn't kill him. Even when his gusts were out and everything else.

"{Blood Patch}! {Blood Threads}!" Partner utilized her Blood Magic to rapidly patch up Lucifer's two halves, using his own blood as an adhesive and closing the wounds with threads made of blood as well.

FLUOSH!

"T-Thank you, but without a proper elixir or something, I can't really recover my energy fast. I am now just a walking wall at most." Lucifer muttered. "Drink... drink more of my blood, you can do that, right?!"

"But... If I drink too much." Partner cried.

"Just do it!" Lucifer roared.

"HAHAHAHA! Are you fighting once more?! For being allies, you two really don't get along..." Frost appeared before the two, his enormous and metallic tall body seemed simply invincible. "Now...!"

He pointed his sword at them.

"PERISH!"

SLAAAAASH!

Chapter 703 Partner Going All-Out!

BAAAAAMMMM!!!

Frost's slash attack suddenly impacted something else than Lucifer and Partner. The blood that Partner had absorbed once more boosted her powers to her limits, and even, perhaps beyond that. Her Darkness and Blood Aura started to grow insanely big, shaping itself as a gigantic Blood Dragon, opening its enormous jaws and intercepting the attack coming from Frost's sword with amazing precision!

CRAAAASH!

The attack suddenly shattered and disappeared into pieces, as Partner looked at the titan made of steel with a furious gaze. Her entire body was suddenly covered on red tattoos, most of them coming down her eyes into the rest of her body.

Her strength was growing exponentially, and her Black and Red Aura changed, no longer simply resembling a mass of power but taking the form of a swarm of thousands of bats and a ferocious dragon made of blood protecting her.

"What the...?! What power is this now?! I have never seen any Vampire use this..." Frost was surprised. He had seen a dozen Vampires since he was revived, as they were actively working with his Queen to aid her in her endeavors.

This power was something not even Partner truly understood, but it was merely the development of her own powers as a Vampiress. The ability to suck the blood of a foe, absorb it, and make it her strength had suddenly developed further due to the amazingly high quality of dragon blood she drank from Lucifer, and at very high quantities as well.

"P-Partner..." Lucifer was shocked.

"I guess I should had drank your blood much sooner." Partner sighed. "I hate to admit it but the amount of power it gave me is tremendous, and I've drank several hundred liters now... Heh."

Partner's eyes began glowing like those of a ferocious dragoness, as two black horns grew from her forehead temporarily. Her nails grew into sharp claws and some of her tattoos around her arms became red scales.

Crimson flames began flickering from her mouth, as her teeth became sharp and ferocious looking. Her entire hair became completely red, waving around.

"I don't know how much I can keep this up, it seems limited, but I have to take him down while I can..." Partner thought, immediately flying directly towards Frost while leaving Lucifer behind, knowing full well he might die for real if he fights the metallic titan once more.

FLUOOOSH!

Her Vampiric Aura suddenly transformed as it generated two enormous Dragon Wings of red color, which she moved rapidly to fly at an incredibly fast speed, reaching her target in just a second.

"Fuck off you damn bastard!!" Partner roared furiously, as she raised her spears and began attacking Frost with everything she had. Her Vampiric Aura continued moving and dancing around, growing larger and more menacingly in the shape of a ferocious Blood Dragon.

Partner recalled Maria's fist techniques and how she faintly taught them to her. She quickly started to merge the concept of piercing a foe's soul using Magic Power and imbued it into her two Spears, channeling even more power as her twin spear arts began to evolve in the middle of the battle.

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLAAASH!

Her attacks were rapid and precise, but Frost was enormously resilient. Even as Partner had already shattered three out of his dozens of cores, he was still moving rather easily, evading her hits at times by shapeshifting his liquid body and other times, surprising her with sneak attacks.

"Take this!"

FLAAASH!

His entire body suddenly shapeshifted and generated hundreds of sharp, hardened metallic spikes attempting to pierce Partner's entire body with them, she barely managed to intercept them and parried their blows back using her spears and her Vampiric Aura, but a few of them still managed to pierce her skin and flesh.

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLAASH!

"Unnggh...! {Vampiric Blood Arts}: {Rapid Regeneration}! {Boiling Blood}! {Blood Pump}!"

However, Partner was hardier than the ancient king though, while being pierced by the spikes she took advantage of her vampiric regeneration and simply resisted the pain, forcing her way down into his metallic body, which had opened and showed several cores.

By utilizing Boiling blood and Blood Pump together, she made her blood boil rapidly, spending more Blood Energy but enhancing her physical strength several times over, even if temporarily, with this...!

CLASH! CLASH! CLAAASH!

"Unnnnggh...! You damn VAMPIRE!" Frost suddenly panicked as he realized Partner's plan, attempting to stop her by shapeshifting his body rapidly...

However, it was a bit too late.

"{Abyssal Vampiric Spear Arts}: {Twin Blood Dragon}!"

FLUOOOOSH!

Her two spears and her Vampiric Aura converged together, alongside the strength Partner gained from drinking Lucifer's blood, and as she unleashed a tremendous attack, two enormous blood dragons were summoned alongside her new and improvised technique, impacting against Frost's internal body and shattering several cores all at once!

CRAAAAAASSHHHHH!!!

"AAGGGH...! T-This is...!"

BAAAM!

His gigantic body fell down into the ground, completely surprised by Partner's last resort. She quickly fell down over the snow as well, gasping for air, her transformation quickly began to dissipate, as she felt like her entire body had become paralyzed.

"Ugh... I've used all my strength now... Fuck." Partner muttered.

TRUUUUMMM...!

And Frost had yet to fall. His entire body slowly began reforming himself, standing still and glancing down at his two foes, who were already at the verge of death.

"It does seem like you've overused all your powers and strengths. The difference, once more, is very obvious... S Rank Monsters simply cannot lose against A Ranks." Laughed Frost.

"Yeah, you're right."

"That's right, so- Huh?!"

Frost quickly realized the voice that answered his words were not someone he had been fighting recently, but someone completely different that came from... the sky?!

FLAAAASH!

A woman made entirely out of black and golden lightning began descending from the skies, her eyes blazing with golden and red light as her entire body, dressed on black clouds emanated a powerful divinity slightly akin to Thor, the God of Thunder himself!

"W-Wha...?! Who are you?!"

"I am the S Rank Monster that's going to beat your ass."

Chapter 704 A Thunderous Fusion

Although Frost was unable to recognize her, the half-dead Partner and Lucifer immediately did. Even as different as she looked right now, she was still their beloved Maria, their wife and love of their lives. But why was she so different and... electrifying?!

"Maria?! You're here?! Did you beat that witch?!" Asked Lucifer while trying to slowly stand up.

"It's you! But... not completely?" Partner noticed that Maria's presence seemed "incomplete" it wasn't the complete package.

"Yep, let's say I separated myself." Maria giggled while lightning emerged out of her body with each of her words.

Thanks to her brand-new Divine Privilege, Divided Egos, Maria was now able to divide herself based on either Divinities she possessed or Body-type Skills. And amongst every living being or unliving being in this world, Maria possessed the most "Body-type" Skills, at five!

This meant she was able to embody each of such Skills and divide herself five times all at once! Of course, dividing herself meant dividing her powers and limiting each Ego. Though, with the Privilege abilities, even the divided egos received insanely high stat boosts.

And right now, Maria's Ego was that of her brand new Body Skill she acquired after devouring Thor's Divine Spirit Vessel, the [Divine Thunder Spirit Body] Skill!

"So Zero was defeated?!" Said Frost. "You're Maria, isn't it? Have you finally come to help your allies? I was about to slay them- well, I can still do it!"

Frost didn't wait for Maria's answer as he generated dozens of Blades made out of his own metallic body and then fired them at an incredibly rapid speed towards his foes, aiming to impale them both a hundred times and have them die agonizingly!

FLAAASH!

However, Maria's speed was much, much faster than those projectiles. Thanks to being the Ego of her [Divine Thunder Spirit Body] Skill, she was completely made out of lightning and could concentrate in this element alone without having all her other powers get in the way.

This made it so instead of being weaker than her former self, she was able to improve the specializations of each Body-type Skill to a completely new level!

ZAAAP!

In less than a second, Partner and Lucifer disappeared from the snow-covered battlefield as Frost's projectiles only hit the snow and nothing else.

"T-That speed... It felt as if she had become Thor himself!" Thought Frost, panicking as he finally managed to find her once more, a few hundreds of meters behind him.

"M-Maria... You look different... Are you alright?" Lucifer muttered.

"Are you okay? Where is Emeraldine?" Wondered Partner.

"Hehe, you two are always worried about me, just look at yourselves!" Sighed Maria, quickly unpacking two Elixirs and feeding them to the two.

FLUOSH!

Their bodies quickly began to recover their health and mana, as the two felt much better. They were special elixirs, especially made for Lucifer and Partner she made on her way here.

"Hahhh... Thank you, but how can we even kill that thing? You're fast but...!" Lucifer said.

"Yeah, for once I agree with the grumpy old dragon." Partner sighed.

"You're both right. This form of mine is not as strong as my true form. In fact I might not truly be as strong as an S Rank, probably S-?" Wondered Maria.

"Then how are we even winning against this bastard?!" Partner panicked. "Maybe we have to run away and think about a strategy later."

"Yeah, we should-" Lucifer agreed.

"Wait a bit! I am a Spirit, right? So let's do this the right way! [Divine Spirit Soul Connection]! [Spirit Fusion]!" Maria said, as she quickly activated both of these powerful Skills. Her entire body transformed into pure spiritual energy, which fused into both Lucifer and Partner in mere seconds.

"T-This power... what is this feeling?!" Lucifer was shocked.

"Woaaaah!" Partner panicked.

FLAAAAAASH!!!

ZAAP! ZAAP! ZAAAP!

"UNNGGH?! What the...?!" Frost panicked, as he saw Maria unleash an incredibly bright lightning shockwave everywhere. "Hah! Whatever you're planning, it simply won't work! I am much stronger than before after fusing with that Divine Artifact, in fact, the cores I have can multiply as I wish! I've only been humoring you two because I admire your tenacity, but this is over, and I might avenge Zero while I am at it!"

Frost had enough of these two, as he charged forward by shaping his lower half like the body of a gigantic metallic horse, making him resemble a mechanic minotaur. His two arms transformed into gigantic swords, as he swung them furiously against the trio, with enough power to destroy a whole city.

"PERISH!"

CLAAAAAAAAASSHHHHHHH!!!!

CRACKLE...!

TRUUUUUMMMM...!

However, instead of being greeted with all three of them shredded into pieces, Frost was as both of them had suddenly transformed and changed! Using their hands alone, they stopped both of his swords, and even began shattering them apart.

"WHAT?!" Frost was so flabbergasted he couldn't keep himself balanced, having to step back, only for his arms to be pulled down by Partner and Lucifer and then shattered apart!

CRAAAASH!

"AAGGH...! Y-You bastards! What sort of trick have you two pulled out now?!" Frost roared furiously, noticing that Maria was no longer present there. "Wait, don't tell me she...!"

"You're calling our new form asspulls when you suddenly revived out of nowhere with your damn divine shield?" Partner said while being furious. Her appearance had once more changed.

This time her hair was golden colored, emanating sharp thunderous electricity all around herself. Her eyes were now purple colored, while her entire dress had become a combination between lightning and black clouds. Her two spears have now disappeared as well, as they fused with Lucifer's scythe into a powerful divine weapon.

"I can't believe this was possible..." Lucifer said with a smile.

His body had suddenly turned golden and purple, reflecting the color of the lightning of Maria's Body. His wings became sharp like thunder and his tail gained a lightning-shaped spear tip. His powerful phantasmal scythe had merged with Partner's twin spears.

And the divine weapon they created was...

Chapter 705 A Devastating End!

Within both Lucifer and Partner's sight, brand new system notifications appeared, something that they had never seen before as they only possessed what everybody in this world had, Soul Books. Maria had something much, much powerful named a System, and this was finally the first time they were seeing it.

Ding!

[You have successfully undergone [Divine Spirit Soul Connection] and [Spirit Fusion] with [Moon Vampire Duchess: Partner (A++ Rank)] and [Three-Eyed Death Dragon King: Lucifer (A++ Rank)]!]

[As a result of the fusion, all of your stats have temporarily converged together, additionally, many bonuses increasing these stats even further have been activated!]

[However, due to the instability of this fusion, the limit time has decreased to 5 Minutes]

Alongside their wondrous fusion that made all three of them suddenly connect with one another amazingly, their Magical Weapons converged together through divine power, as Partner's spears fused with Lucifer's phantasmal scythe. transforming into a gigantic golden hammer!

Ding!

[The power of the Divine Weapons have reacted to the combined souls, temporarily fusing into the Special Divine Relic {Divine Titan Hammer of Thunderous Might: Thor}]!

[The power of the Special Divine Relic is reacting to the fused souls magic and divine essences!]

"T-That hammer, where did it come from?!" Frost panicked even more as he stepped back. He quickly realized that gigantic golden hammer contained the same, if not even more power than the divine artifact he had fused with.

"This hammer? Well, it is the combination of our strength and bonds, something a little shit like you would never be able to understand." Partner answered, while Maria's cockiness was reflected into her even cockier voice.

"Yeah, that's right." Lucifer said. "You say you were a King, right? Yet your Kingdom no longer exists, the people that served you does not exist anymore either. You're just a monster trying to kill innocents, stop glorifying your shitty crusade."

"Y-You don't understand a single thing!" Frost roared. "YOUUUUUU!!!"

Frost recklessly charged forward with all his anger and fury erupting from his body. His Aura of Divinity and Winter began to expand everywhere, as he generated both weapons made of frost and also weapons made of metal, pointing them and then firing them at Lucifer and Partner at the same time!

"What do YOU even know about my life?! About my KINGDOM?!" Frost roared with fury

CLAASH! CLAASH! CLAAASH! CLAAAASH!

However, none of his hits even landed, Partner and Lucifer moved at an incredibly fast lightning speed that easily overpowered the reflections and speed of the Metal Slime.

"I don't know a single thing, but I am fairly sure you're not doing what a King should do anymore, and you are no longer a King either! You have nobody to protect, you have nobody to care for, and you're only fighting for your own selfishness! {Thunderous Dragon Fists}!" Lucifer roared, as his enormous dragon fists clashed against Frosts face and the rest of his torso!

BAAM! BAAM! BAAM! BAAAM! BAAAM!

"Uuuuagggh...!" Frost groaned in agony as his body started splattering and not unifying with each of Lucifer's fist attacks, all while he felt... pain! How come his metallic body could feel pain?! "No... this pain is... from my soul?!" He thought, only panicking even more.

FLAAAASH!

And right behind him, Partner appeared, fusing her Blood Energy with the Lightning provided by Maria and then transforming it all into a spiraling Thunderstorm, firing it at Frost all at once!

"You are just a pawn of an insane woman!" Partner roared. "{Thunderous Blood Tempest}!"

FLUOOOOOOSH!

BOOOOOOMMMMMM!!!!

The crimson lightning took over his entire body and started to melt him alive, his body started splattering more and more everywhere, as he began to lose several quantities of mass, his body started to grow smaller as a result.

"Unnnggh...! T-This...! I won't fall here... Not... NOW! RAAAAHHH!!!"

Frost went more and more insane. His entire body lost his former shape as he suddenly turned into an aberrant being, countless blue eyes and tentacles emerged everywhere around his body, which he then covered on sharp blades, axes, and shields to protect and fight back!

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLAAASH!

However, the more he fought, the more weaker he felt. Partner and Lucifer were constantly fighting against him, while using the gigantic hammer of lightning to strike enormous hits against his body.

BAAAM! BAAAM! BAAAM! BAAAM!

The hammer was almighty, although slow, it was demolishing him like nothing, and with Lucifer and Partners constant attacks while wielding it, he was being pushed to his limits...

"I won't fall now... FOR MY KINGDOM! FOR MY... KINGDOOOOOMMMMMM!!!!" Frost roared, his entire body which was now much smaller than before unleashed all the power he had left, opening an aberrant jaw filled with razor sharp fangs and unleashing a gigantic beam of pure divine power!

TRUUUUUUUMMMMMM...!

"Your Kingdom is not here anymore, and unlike the people I once cared for, nobody remembers you either." Lucifer said. "You were a nobody."

"Begone! I am tired of fighting you!" Partner roared, being more honest than ever before as Lucifer and her grabbed the gigantic hammer and then unleashed all their power within it, impacting the enormous beam of divinity coming from Frost and then pushing it right into his aberrant mouth, where they hit him with everything they had!

BOOOOOOOOUMMMMMMMM...!

"GRUUUAAAAGGGGHHHH....!"

Frost began to slowly disintegrate against the massive lightning attack. His soul as well was too damaged, as he started to fade away. His fury and frustration slowly started to disappear, and on his last moments, he recalled his kingdom once more.

He suddenly remembered that his Kingdom fell for his own fault. And that he was not a lover. He saw the anger of the people, their suffering, the hunger they felt due to his own corruption. He remembered his name as well, the name of a King that had destroyed his entire Kingdom due to his own negligence and lack of empathy for his subjects.

Frost... was never truly a good King. In fact, that's what he wished to be on his previous life's dying moments. It was all an illusion on his insane mind.

"Hah... Hahah... Such a fitting end for trash like me..."

Chapter 706 Fire Dragon Against Frost Dragon!

After Frost's defeat, Partner and Lucifer quickly went back to their normal forms, and so did Maria's Ego which appeared in front of them slightly smaller. It seems that overusing her own powers also made her reduce her own size temporarily, but nothing like a few Mana Potions couldn't resolve.

"Are you two alright now?" Maria wondered.

"Yeah, I am fine... Hahh..." Lucifer quickly went back to his humanoid form.

"Uuughh... I am so hungry... That damn monster was really such a tough nut to crack! And the worst is that he didn't even leave a bit of meat or blood behind to eat!" Partner angrily said.

"Hahaha, here." Maria said, opening her inventory and quickly offering Partner a big sandwich made using monster meat from the Swamp Dungeon, alongside a bottle of new blood she got from Zero's corpse. "This should fill your stomach for the moment."

"Ahh, this sandwich is so tasty, and this blood so rich! Where did you get it?!" Partner was surprised.

"Ah, it's the blood from that witch." Maria laughed.

"Ooooh!" Partner said. "I can tell, it is recovering my magic power super-fast. Couldn't expect less from witch's blood!"

"I hate to be the say this but we should hurry. We've taken care of the two big shots but I sensed a powerful presence infiltrating the Dwarven Kingdom when we started confronting the two monsters here." Lucifer said. "I am worried about my sister and the kids..."

"Yeah, my Egos are going there as we speak." Maria said. "But more help is always good. Let's go."

Maria quickly expanded her entire body and grabbed both of them within her lightning form, quickly zapping into the Kingdom of Dwarves at an insanely fast speed. Of course, only after she grabbed all the "drops" that Frost left behind, such as all of that high quality liquid metal slime and his shattered crystal cores.

However, as they flew, both Partner and Lucifer began to glow brightly, as divine power began emerging from their very souls...

"Why are you two glowing so much?!" Maria panicked.

"Oh?! Ah! I didn't noticed! I reached max level!" Partner said.

"Me too... This means we're finally evolving?!" Lucifer said.

"Eeeeh?! Already?!" Maria was surprised but welcomed this powerup.

(Some Minutes Ago...)

The twins made their way to aid Brunhild and Nyx in their fight against the gigantic Ice Dragon that had showed up, making quick work of the monsters they found on their path, blowing them into bits and finally reaching the battlefield by following Nyx that was flying on top of the skies about to reach her aunt.

However, Takeshi and Laura were still discussing a bit. Takeshi seemed slightly angered that Laura was trying to control him, but Laura was simply worried.

to protect the city, so I just followed you because of that, not to stop you." Laura said.

"Mama appeared using one of her Phantom Clones and said we had to protect the city, so I just followed you because of that, not to stop you." Laura said.

"I-Is that so...? See? I was right in going to fight then!" Takeshi said childishly.

"You still shouldn't had recklessly ran! What if I wouldn't had been there to protect you from the monsters?" Laura sighed.

"You didn't protected me! I protected myself..." Takeshi said while getting slightly irritated.

"Nyx should have already arrived. We can't see her on top of the sky anymore- Huh?!" Laura was suddenly shocked, as she saw something out of her mind.

CLAAASH! BOOOOM! TRUUUUMMM...!

It was a gigantic battle between two ferocious dragons! One was blazing with infernal flames. Her body was slightly worn down, as her red scales were losing their former red color and she was slowly turning white.

Meanwhile her opponent, which might be even older than her, seemed completely pristine, covered on silver and blue scales, and resembling an ice statue of insanely high quality.

They easily recognized Brunhild but had no idea who that blue and silver colored dragon could be, and how strong it could be to be capable of withstanding Brunhild's blazing firepower so easily!

"Nyx! Come here!" Laura called for Nyx, as the little girl was watching the battle in the skies.

"Waura!" Nyx flew back to the twins and was hugged by Laura.

"Why did you escape like this Nyx?!" Laura was worried, hugging her tightly. "And just what's going on right now?!"

"Big dragon... showed up... Volkanion... or something." Nyx tried to recall the Ice Dragon name, failing quite miserably at that.

"An Ice Dragon showed up?! That Frost Queen got an army of monsters with her..." Takeshi muttered. "Is Brunhild struggling though? She doesn't look like she's winning..."

"I don't know, but we have to help her out somehow..." Laura said. Pointing her hand at the Ice Dragon and firing a tiny pebble at it. "{Detonation}!"

BOOOOOOMMMM!!!

Laura's attack reached the gigantic Ice Dragon's head, exploding and hurting his eye slightly. It quickly made him realize the one he was fighting had allies.

"NNGGGRRHHH...! So you've cowardly brought allies to support you!" The ferocious Dragon said. "Coward! To think I even held a bit of respect for you because you were my kin!"

The Divine Ice Dragon charged straight towards Brunhild, striking her with countless blows using his front arms, slashing apart her scales and covering her body with deadly wounds, while her flames erupted continuously as she intercepted some blows and gave back a few punches, until she managed to punch the pretty dragon's ice crystal-covered face!

"{Infernal Dragon Meteor Fist}!"

B A A A A M M M M!!!

"UNNNGGHH?!"

Her opponent fell into the ground, rolling over the debris and suddenly looking at her with his malformed face. His divine aura began growing bigger and bigger as he grew more furious.

"Y-You dare hurt my beautiful and flawless face?! You insolent mortal!"

"That's what bastards like you get when they mess with me and my family, a fist in the face! Now come and get some more, I've got way more of these where that came from."

Chapter 707 Brunhild's Fiery Might!

"{Infernal Dragon Meteor Fist}!"

BAAAAAMMMM!!!

"UNNNGGHH?!"

Her opponent fell into the ground, rolling over the debris and suddenly looking at her with his malformed face. His divine aura began growing bigger and bigger as he grew more furious. Valkoinen was utterly shocked by what had occurred!

Despite him having the clear upper hand, he let his own cockiness and lack of fighting experience get the better of him, giving the chance for Brunhild to fuck him up with a massive punch in the face. Takeshi, Laura, and the little Nyx were all cheering for their aunt.

"YOUUUU...!"

The Ancient Ice Dragon's Divine Aura began surging more and more from within his body, freezing his surroundings even more. If it wasn't because Root had been protecting the whole city by growing all over it using his branches and roots, the entire city and even the castle would have been frozen by Valkoinen's powers.

"Y-You dare hurt my beautiful and flawless face?! You insolent mortal!" Valkoinen couldn't contain his fury.

"That's what bastards like you get when they mess with me and my family, a fist in the face! Now come and get some more, I've got way more of these where that came from." Brunhild boldly provoked Valkoinen, despite her being already almost at her limit.

an intelligent S Rank Divine Dragon with the ability to wield Divine Aura, Divine Domains, and Divine Magic.

The fight against a Divine Dragon was something that she couldn't properly handle. Unlike a mindless S Rank Monster, Valkoinen was an intelligent S Rank Divine Dragon with the ability to wield Divine Aura, Divine Domains, and Divine Magic.

Brunhild might be very strong, at Rank A+++, but she had yet to get through the threshold of S Rank, which only Maria had done so in their entire party so far. It was such an overwhelming wall because not only she needed ridiculous quantities of EXP she hasn't been able to gather even after all this time, but because it also required a Dragon to learn and comprehend their divinity, something Brunhild had been unable to do so, sadly.

"Heh... HAHAAHAHA!" Laughed Valkoinen, glaring at Brunhild. "You're bold... TOO BOLD! Fine, if you want to die by my hands so badly... So be it."

The Divine Ice Dragon suddenly materialized hundreds of gigantic, over thirty-meter-big spears made of ice, pointing them all at Brunhild.

"{Frozen Dragon Spear Rain}"

FLASH! FLASH! FLASH! FLASH!

Hundreds of gigantic frozen spears made of ice, capable of completely devastating the whole city started all rushing towards Brunhild and her surroundings.

"T-That attack... Dammit!!!" Brunhild roared ferociously, charging her entire body with flames to her very limits. Her old scales began blazing and turning bright red in color, while several of them started erupting with divine flames. "{Draconic Arts}: {Dragon Meteor Rain}!"

FLASH! FLASH! FLASH! FLASH!

Brunhild's one body started erupting with gigantic spheres of flames and lava, forming hundreds of small meteors that started to clash against Valkoinen's magic ice spears, countless explosions started spreading everywhere.

BOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOOM!

"RAAAHHHHH!!!! I WON'T LET YOU DESTROY THIS CITY, VALKOINEN!" Brunhild roared ferociously.
"After all... I MADE A PROMISE!"

Within her mind, the memories of that time she met the ancestor of the dwarves living in this city now went through her mind. A young man that had brought with him a dozen of dwarven families that escaped their own villages, devastated by the Holy Church of the Light God due to not being humans.

She promised to protect them, to give them shelter. This was not a promise she could forget now; this was something she must do. Because not only has she been watching over them all this time as their guardian, but made such a precious promise with someone she loved.

Brunhild gritted her sharp jaws as her eyes began flickering with stronger and stronger divine flames, her entire body was burning so much the floor around her was beginning to melt.

"(I have to get him out of this place before he destroys things even more...!)" Brunhild thought, seeing how Root was struggling to protect the city, Valkoinen's attacks were freezing his branches even as strong as they were, and it was taking a toll on the Treant to keep regenerating.

"Hahahah.... HAHAHAHA! For how long you can keep you, Brunhild?!" Laughed Valkoinen, as he continued conjuring more and more frozen spears, almost endlessly! How much Mana did this bastard even had?!

"TCH... It is now... OR NEVER!" Brunhild roared, putting into her very heart the memories of her family and also of the one she loved the most to give herself the courage. Her entire body continued rising its temperature, until every single frozen spear started melting the moment they came into contact with her Infernal Draconic Aura. "RAAAAAHHHHH...!"

Brunhild's wings suddenly erupted, unleashing an enormous quantity of flames and helping her move at an incredible speed, reaching Valkoinen in just a few seconds, her two arms blazing with infernal flames as she tackled him with all her strength with a heavy, body slam!

"{Infernal Draconic Eruption}!"

BOOOOOOOMMMMMMM....!

"GUUUUAAAGGGH...?! T-THIS... AAAGGGGH...!"

Valkoinen was shocked as Brunhild's impact was much more than he expected. Her flames started melting his scales and all of his magic was turned useless! He was thrown out of the city and then fell into the snow-covered mountains, shattering the floor below Brunhild constantly, crushing her bones and shattering all her scales, her face began growing disfigured with each blow, yet she him and making the entire mountain tremble.

CRAAAAAASHHHHHH...!

"G-GAAAGGH...!"

Valkoinen suddenly vomited blood in agony and shock, as he saw Brunhild's entire body blazing with so much fury he never expected this mortal dragon to reach such heights.

"Y-You damn Fire Dragon!!!" Valkoinen roared furiously, his claws suddenly grew into giant fists made of ice as he started punching Brunhild constantly, crushing her bones and shattering all her scales, her face began growing disfigured with each blow, yet she didn't let him go from her blazing embrace.

CRAASH! CRAASH! CRAAASH! CRAAAASH!

"LET GO OF MEEEEEE...!" Valkoinen cried in agony and fury.

"RAAAAAHHHHHHHH...!" Brunhild had lost all reason as she began to erupt like a volcano. "No... NOT UNTIL I FINISH YOUUUUU...!"

BOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM...!

Chapter 708 Vakoinen's Overwhelming Strength

Brunhild exploded with all her blazing power, so many flames and heat came out of her body that her Magic Core shattered slightly due to the immense pressure she put herself in. Her entire body gave in, as she started to feel her age more than ever. However, seeing Valkoinen burning alive was more than enough reward for such a sacrifice.

If only that was the case.

FLUOSH!

His Divine Domain suddenly compressed and gathered around his body, immediately negating Brunhild's blazing explosion and flames, and healing his body slowly. A smirk emerged on his lips, as Brunhild's face distorted in disbelief.

"You seem incapable of realizing what is your place in this world."

CRAAASH!

A gigantic sword blade pierced Brunhild's stomach, making her vomit blood, her entire body had already given up, and she was already at the verge of death... This was but a parting gift from Valkoinen.

"Unnggh... Gaaah..."

BAAM!

Brunhild fell to the snow-covered floor, gasping for air, her eyes were filled with pain and disbelief as she had done it all yet... it barely amounted to some decent damage at most.

"H-How...?" Brunhild cried. "Unnggh... I..."

Valkoinen smiled, quickly grasping the blade incrusting on Brunhild's stomach, which was slowly freezing her insides and killing her.

"How you ask? Divine Dragons are a completely different breed than you Ancient Dragons. We possess divine regeneration abilities, and even our scales can reflect most magic! My Divine Domain easily cancelled your flames, and by my hand, you will now die." Valkoinen smiled. "A commendable effort, but your life ends now, Brunhild!"

Valkoinen created a sharp spear made of ice, pointing it at her face.

"PERISH!"

The spear quickly fell down over Brunhild's head, about to pierce her brains and kill her on the spot.

CLAAAAASSSHHHH!!!!

However, before Valkoinen could ever hit her brains, his spear and the sword inside of Brunhild's stomach all shattered into tiny pieces. The Divine Dragon noticed a thin metallic thread wrapped around them, which extended for hundreds of meters and shattered them all into pieces easily!

At the end of that metallic thread, there was a fishing hook...

"What?!" Valkoinen reacted in utter shock.

BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOOM!

"Unnggh...!"

However, it didn't end there, several tiny pebbles were launched at his face, which quickly exploded into destructive blazing explosions with ease, one after the other, forcing the Divine Dragon to step back in surprise.

His gaze landed into two children over the snow, they were so small he could barely notice them with his enormous body. However, there was something else as well... Something phantasmal lurking around his very shadows.

FLUOOOOSH!

"UNGH?!"

A gigantic legion of Phantom Dragon suddenly emerged out of his own Shadows, as Valkoinen was shocked to see them wrapping around his tail and legs, forcing him to stop his movements, and then... Exploding!

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM! BOOOOM!!!

"Aagh! W-What in the world?! Who dares interrupt my fight when I am about to take down my prey?!" Roared Valkoinen, confronting the three children that had emerged to stop him and protect their aunt Brunhild.

"Over here idiot!" Takeshi said with a cocky smile.

"We are really doing this..." Laura sighed.

"I won't let you kill my auntie!" Nyx angrily said, emerging out of Valkoinen's shadows alongside an army of hundreds of Phantom Dragons she summoned.

"No... Children... You cannot win... Please run... Run!" Brunhild cried, barely alive.

Suddenly, several roots and branches emerged from underground, wrapping around her body and dragging her away from where she was, Valkoinen was incapable of stopping her, as more attacks came from these three children.

"Don't you dare run away!!!" Valkoinen roared furiously, only for his entire body to be showered in more attacks. Giant blazing explosions from Laura's Explosive Pebbles and Nyx's Phantom Dragons, alongside Takeshi's Fishing Rod's thread wrapping around his legs.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM!

Although the explosions were weak and barely hurt his scales, Valkoinen felt stressed that he was being ganged on by mere children, whatever they were, how could they dare interrupt him when he was about to take down Brunhild, and even more, drag her away from him?!

"If you truly think you can stop me, then you've underestimated me..." Valkoinen said with a ferocious voice, his Divine Domain of Blizzards and Frost started to spread around his body rapidly, freezing everything and generating countless frozen spikes on the floor, while at the same time, with the enormous pressure and its shockwave, making the entire mountain tremble and sending the children attacking him into the air.

TRUUUUUUMMMMMM...!

FLUOOSH!

"Unnnnggh... Isn't it a bit too strong?!" Laura was surprised.

"This bastard defeated Brunhild, of course he's strong. But it's not like we've got any other option... Onyx!" Takeshi suddenly summoned a gigantic black phoenix that emerged out of the children's shadows.

FLUOSH!

"CRAAAHHH!" Onyx cried angrily, quickly attacking Valkoinen back with several beams made of shadows, and even generating a gigantic spear made of water.

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! BOOOM!

"Rubbish." Valkoinen said mercilessly, swinging his tail and crushing Onyx into the floor, the giant bird had all of its bones shattered and it vomited blood, stopping to move.

CRAAAAASSSHHH!

"CRYAAAKKHHH...!"

"ONYX!" The children panicked, only to see the bird slowly beginning to transform into shadows and disappear, only for it to emerge once more right there. Black flames flickering around it.

"A Phoenix, huh?" Wondered Valkoinen while squinting his eyes. "But one too weak to pose a threat!"

"CRYAAKH!"

The angered Onyx suddenly conjured a gigantic Black Flames Fireball, throwing it directly at Valkoinen!

BOOOOOOMMM!!!!

"Heh, too weak."

However, it was nothing to a Divine Dragon, Valkoinen pointed his hands at the bird and then with a mere order...

"{Frozen Cage}"

FLAAASH!

CLANK!

A ray of freezing ice reached the bird much faster than the children could stop him, freezing the bird on an eternal ice cube, which fell into the ground.

"And this is how you deal with Phoenixes." He laughed. "I am impressed there was even one alive, these creatures used to be hunted by us dragons in the past... Well, now are you going to move, or are you still going to pretend you stand a chance and stand on my way?" Valkoinen groaned, pointing his claws at the three children.

Chapter 709 A Baptizm Of Fire

The Divine Ice Dragon was more merciful than he seemed to look like. As long as they didn't stand on his way, he was still willing to spare the lives of these children. He simply came to do his task and then be gone. He didn't care about anything else.

"I am impressed there was even one alive, these creatures used to be hunted by us dragons in the past... Well, now are you going to move, or are you still going to pretend you stand a chance and stand on my way?" Valkoinen groaned, pointing his claws at the three children.

Laura, Takeshi, and Nyx glanced at one another, trying to buy time by making Valkoinen wait for their response. At the same time as this was happening, Brunhild was dragged back to the city, as the holes made in the walls were quickly covered by Root's branches.

Hundreds of tiny Spirits the Treant summoned using his Spirit Nest Skill appeared around Brunhild, who was still somehow hanging on her life by a thin thread, they flew into her large wound and started to slowly heal her, while supplying her with life energy.

Root's branches and roots began spreading around her body, covering her completely from anything and even inserting themselves into her skin and wounds, imbuing life energy and mana into her dying body.

"Gyuuuhh... Please don't die, Brunhild!"

Brunhild could faintly hear the voice of the Treant Maria had tamed and made into their new ally. However, her mind was dizzy and her consciousness was slowly fading away.

"Ahhh... Am I going to die?" She thought.

For a moment, her consciousness started submerging into an endless darkness. She had done her everything yet it was nothing against that monster, but at the very least, she did manage to stop the city's destruction, even if a little.

"I'm sorry, dear... I was unable to protect your home any longer..." She whispered to herself. "I may... soon die."

FLAAAAASSSHH!

However, as Brunhild submerged more and more into the darkness of death, a flash of bright light suddenly emerged, guiding her soul somewhere else instead... a world dominated and filled with tall and powerful dragons.

"This is... the Draconic Records? If I am here, I must have surely died..." Brunhild sighed.

"You have yet to die, my child." The voice of an all-powerful dragon echoed, a gigantic, titanic being covered on flames and lustrous red scales, crowned with dozens of sharp black horns.

"You are... The Primordial Mother of the Fire Dragons..." Brunhild was shocked.

This wasn't the first time she had entered the Draconic Records, as she had done it before. However, this was the very first time she was able to interact with the dragons inside, and with nobody else than he mother of all the Fire Dragons, Muspel.

"There is a way to save you, my child. But it shall be perilous and painful." The Dragon said. "However, are you ready?"

"What... must I do, all-mother?" Brunhild wondered.

FLUOOOSH!

Suddenly, the flames of the Primordial Dragon of Fire Dragons emerged, like an endless sea of flames, it engulfed Brunhild, burning her soul.

"To help you forcefully breakthrough your next form, which will automatically heal your body, we must merge the Primordial Divine Flames we Divine Fire Dragons possess with your Soul. It shall be painful, and agonizing, as your soul shall be burned so much that it will end up merging with the flames. Once the merge is complete, your soul will no longer be that of a mortal, but that of a divine dragon." Muspel explained. "This is a method I had never tried before, so there's a chance... that you may not make it, and your soul may end up being completely consumed by the flames instead. However, this is the only chance you have to survive... and win against Valkoinen."

Brunhild nodded, her eyes blazing with conviction.

"I will do it. I will do it to gain the power I need, all-mother!" Brunhild said, stepping into the sea of flames boldly, without even hesitating.

FLU O O O SH!

"Nnnnggh... Aaaagh! T-This pain... It is worse than my flesh being boiled alive...!" Brunhild groaned.

"Hoh, so bold." Smiled Muspel. "You have the heart of a Fire Dragon, my daughter. Now endure! The process has already begun!"

The flames slowly started to merge with Brunhild's soul, while at the same time burning it. It was a process that was beyond the Soul Book and leveling up, a process that could help Brunhild skip such a process, but that was much more dangerous. To purify her soul, to destroy it and remake it out of these flames... It was like a complete rebirth.

"For Lucifer... And everyone else... For the children and that city... I have to hurry!" Brunhild roared, opening her jaws and beginning to swallow the burning infernal flames, burning her insides and the very core of her soul to hasten the process.

"Child! Stop! What are you doing?!" Even Muspel panicked.

"All-mother, I cannot sit still! I must hurry... NNGGHH...! AAAGGH! E-Even if I must suffer through this inferno, this is nothing compared... to what my brother and everyone else outside is going through! RAAAAAHHHHH...!" Brunhild roared, absorbing, and devouring the flames more and more.

Her soul began changing and transforming much quicker than expected, Muspel herself was taken aback by her child's willpower.

"I have to go back... QUICKLY!" Brunhild roared.

Meanwhile, Valkoinen patience had finally run out. The three children were unwilling to cooperate, nor to move aside from his path.

"If your response is just 'no' then there's no point in talking anymore." Valkoinen said. "I've been holding back this entire time, but if you desire death by my hands, so be it, children! I won't spare any more mercy!"

His almighty Divine Frost Dragon's Aura started spreading around, growing stronger with every second!

Chapter 710 The Young Warriors Against Valkoinen

Valkoinen charged divine power into his tail, as he swung it like a whip against the children, shaking the ground around him and generating countless shockwaves that threw away all the snow on the surroundings, while shattering the floor.

CRASH! CRASH! CRASH! CRAASH!

Takeshi and Laura were swiftly saved by Nyx, as she materialized her Aura into two big claws and grabbed them both, flying away from the scene before everything else were to be destroyed.

"Huh, you can fly- Wait, you're a dragon! What sort of dragon... are you?!" Valkoinen wondered, finally realizing the identity of the small little half-dragon girl with black scales and the power to summon Dragon Phantoms.

"Nyx! And I am papa's daughter! I won't let you destroy the city!" Nyx angrily said, suddenly generating a dozen of gigantic spheres of darkness all at once. "{Dark Star}!"

The Dark Stars fell like rain over Valkoinen, which suddenly surprised him. Despite being merely a little and young girl, the power she contained within her... slightly reminded him of the Frost Queen, and to make things worse, when she went serious...

BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOOMMM!!!

Her magic was actually strong enough to shatter his scales and leave him covered in wounds!

"AGH! I have lowered my guard, that girl's a Calamity!" Valkoinen panicked. "I cannot let you live if that's the case! {Endless Blizzard}!!!"

Valkoinen raised his arms as he summoned a gigantic spiraling blizzard in mere seconds, resembling an enormous, all-encompassing tornado.

FLUOOOOOOOSSSHHHH!

The surroundings started to freeze in mere seconds as the blizzard immediately took over the three children, engulfing them on slicing winds and millions of sharp shards made of ice!

However...

"{Tsunami}!"

Takeshi summoned an enormous downpour of water using his Fisherman Ability, which has evolved to not only help him use the rod, but also the ability to control water and summon it.

SPLAAAAAASSSHHHH!!!!

Although the water started to freeze instantly, it was still good, aiding the children on escaping the spiraling blizzard tornado they were trapped in!

"Dammit, come back here!" Valkoinen roared furiously, waving his wings, and rapidly flying towards Nyx, his primary target. "{Divine Dragon Frozen Fist}!"

Two enormous fists made of ice emerged in mere seconds at each of his arms, as he crushed the giant wall of ice Takeshi made by summoning a whole tsunami and then getting it frozen instantly, shattering it into pieces and finding the trio right at the other side!

CRAAAASH!

"Hah, gotcha- huh?!"

However, what he saw was a completely different scene! Laura's powers were beginning to surge from her body. The chaotic darkness within her core combined with her unique skill and her fire magic affinity suddenly created a new power, something she had been practicing in secret.

An enormous fist made of flames punched Valkoinen's face, throwing him off the air and into the ground. The punch wasn't just that, as the very moment it hit his face, it exploded so strongly it flew off his scales and some of his teeth at the same time.

BOOOOOOMMMMMM...!

"UUUAAGGH...!"

CLAAASH!

"W-What was that?!"

Valkoinen sat down glancing at the skies, Laura was closing her eyes as she concentrated. This was a unique power of the twins, the ability to control Miasma and the Power of the Evil God they inherited from their Demonite Cores, made from the crystallization of the Evil God Fragment's secretions.

"{Infernal Explosive Demon}!" Laura said, her powers beginning to grow more and more. Takeshi and Nyx were honestly surprised of this! "You're not going to touch them! I won't allow you, as their big sister...!"

The gigantic demon made of dark red flames began to move, immediately reaching Valkoinen and attacking with a gigantic barrage of fist attacks, which generated constant explosions around the surroundings, melting all the snow and shattering the floor even more, the entire mountain was trembling!

BOOM! BOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOOM! BOOOOMMMM!!!!

"UUUAAGGGH...!" Valkoinen roared in agony, this explosive power was much more intense than Brunhild's flames, although it lacked her firepower, it made up for it with the constant explosive attacks. This was like the very materialization of Laura's powers.

Of course, if it wasn't for her [Twin Connection] Skill, which allowed her to create a connection with someone and share 100% of their stats and skills with one another, it wouldn't be possible. And just recently, after she evolved, such Unique Skill had evolved to accept up to three connections at once.

The fusion between Takeshi, Laura, and Nyx's Stats and Skills brought up this power that Laura had been practicing this entire time. As the big sister of the two, she simply couldn't be a weakling. She had to use every power and capability she held to her advantage.

"YOUUUUU...! How come you possess the power of the Evil God?!" Roared Valkoinen in anger and frustration. "WELL... NO MATTER!"

FLAAAASH!

He quickly began tanking Laura's attacks as he flew into the skies and directed his fists towards the gigantic demon, piercing it with countless punches and slowly beginning to make its flames fade away! However, he had to bear with taking tremendous damage from all the explosions.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOOOMMMM!!!!

"GRAAAAAAAHHH!" Valkoinen opened his jaws. "PERISH!"

TRUUUUUUMMMMMMM...!

A gigantic Divine Dragon Breath emerged out of his open jaws, completely devastating the gigantic demon made of explosive flames and then reaching up to Laura, Takeshi, and Nyx.

CLAAAASSSSHHHHHHH...!

However, a gigantic hand made of shadows and explosive flames surged out of Nyx's very aura and blocked the beam, combining with hundreds of Phantom Dragons together, it began growing bigger and bigger!

"Nyx will fight too! Nyx not coward!" She said, opening her jaws as a powerful suction force started absorbing Valkoinen's attack. "{Phantasmal Stomach}!"

FLUOOOOSH!

"HUH?! M-MY ATTACK IS BEING SWALLOWED?!" Valkoinen opened his jaws wide as he saw Nyx devour his powerful attack.

"Burp..." Nyx said while patting his belly. "That was awful!"

"Y-YOUUUUU...!" Valkoinen was beginning to feel like a clown by struggling against a band of children. "That's it! No more holding back!!!"

TRUUUMMM...!

His Divine Aura began growing wider and wider, shaping itself into a ferocious-looking gigantic ice dragon with three heads and several arms, wings, and tails... This was a power Divine Dragons could develop, an insane power that allowed them to be compared to Gods once.

"{Divine Dragon Aura}!"
