

A Ghost 771

Chapter 771 Fighting Against Two Divine Frost Dragons

Both Divine Frost Dragons opened their gigantic jaws the moment they smiled, charging Divine Power and Mana within their throats, and deciding to start with two devastating Dragon Breath Attacks at once.

FLAAAASH FLAAAASH!

BOOOOOOMMMM!!! BOOOOOOMMMM!!!

Explosions of freezing, draconic breath spread out everywhere. Maria and company were slightly surprised as they started with the strongest techniques they had at the beginning, instead of playing around like a certain Vampiress.

T R U U U M M M....!

RUMBLE!

The mountain where they were standing on began to crumble apart, shattering into pieces and beginning to fall into the ground below.

"Jonathan!" Maria said, quickly spreading her shadows and grabbing Jonathan with them. Among them, Jonathan was the only that couldn't fly naturally.

"Thank you, Maria." He sighed in relief. "This landscape is really not fit for me..."

"Take this." Maria smiled, quickly utilizing her powers to imbue a ring with a flying magic spell that consumed her own Mana instead of Jonathan, so he could fly without worries.

"A ring?!" Jonathan suddenly felt flattered... "B-But Maria, this is not the place for a proposal...!"

"Ugh, dummy, just wear the damn ring!" Maria sighed, putting the ring on Jonathan before a gigantic dragon claw were to attempt to pierce them.

S L A A A S H!

"Aaah, you're fast." Gjoll laughed, as his claws were unable to slash through Maria and Jonathan.

"I can fly now..." Jonathan said in surprise. "O-Oh, so this was why..."

"Yeah, now concentrate!" Maria said.

"Right!" Jonathan nodded.

"You two will be a good offering to my queen!" Gjoll roared. "I'll bring both of your heads to her!"

"Oh yeah? How about you bring her this fist?!" Maria smiled maliciously, channeling her tremendous power, and immediately transforming. This time not by fusing with anybody, but by merely combining her Moon Titan Body Skills with her Gorgon's Transformation and Abyssal Demon Transformation Skills, all at once!

FLAAAASH!

"Huh?! W-What is this power?!" Gjoll was shocked, as Maria's small ghostly body instantly turned into a titaness.

Beautiful, made up of dark purple and pink colored moonlight energy which shone with countless bright stars. Her long, purple, and black hair reached her ankles, and it was made of ferocious snakes, poison, and death.

Covering her beautiful moonlight body, a black and demonic armor with the decorations of many bug-like monstrosities emerged, made of demonic power, chaos, and darkness.

Ding!

[You have combined the effects of the [Gorgon's Transformation: Lv9], [Abyssal Demon Transformation: Lv6], [Divine Moonlight Titan Body: Lv2], and [Divine Moonlight Titan Soul: Lv2] Skills to transform into your [Ultimate Form]!]

[All of your Stats have temporarily increased by +1000%, your Death, Darkness, Chaos, Poison, and Moonlight Elemental Damage has increased by +10000%, and Skill Damage has increased by +500%!]

[However, your Mana is constantly being drained, and so is your Moonlight Essence!]

"[Demonic Ghostly Fist Technique]: [Infernal Spectral Fist]! [Divinity Shattering Death Claws]!" Maria roared, harboring the power of her own unique Fist Techniques, as her gigantic fists reached an incredible level of power, clashing against Gjoll by channeling her Death Element to the max!

CLAASH! CLAASH! CLAASH! CLAAASH! CLAAASH! CRAAAAASSSHHH!!!

Each of her fists were like meteors crushing through Gjoll's hardest defenses. The worst part was that these Level 6 techniques even had the power to hurt the Divine Dragon's soul directly, and even weaken his own Divinity!

"Unnnngghhh?!" Gjoll groaned in agony, even when he was trying to go all out, Maria had simply surprised him beyond comprehension! "GRAAAAAGGH...!"

FLAAAASH!

BAAAAAAMMM...!

RUMBLE!

The gigantic Frost Divine Dragon fell into a mountain, shattering it apart with his gigantic, heavy body. Jonathan glanced at Maria's powerful appearance while swallowing saliva. Maria had just fist-wrestled a Divine Dragon no less and sent her straight down a mountain.

"A-Amazing, is this your truest form, Maria?" Jonathan wondered.

"Heh, more or less." Maria smiled. "Though it takes a lot of energy to maintain."

"B-Brother...!" Leiptr cried in surprise. "That Maria...! Just how strong is she?! Even when we saw her fights, it wasn't enough! She was hiding even more strength..."

"Oi, don't you think you're ignoring somebody?!" Lucifer roared, descending towards Leiptr and unleashing a barrage of Dragon Fists, as his entire body exuded Abyssal Death Flames everywhere.

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOOM!

Countless explosions made up of Abyssal Death Flames spread across the skies, as Leiptr moved with his serpentine body rapidly, like a bullet! He evaded all hits majestically, and swiftly attacked Lucifer back with his tail, which had a sharp spear-like end.

"[Divine Frost Dragon's Spear Tail Arts]: [One Thousand Skadi's Thrusts]!"

CRASH! CRASH! CRASH! CRASH! CRASH! CRAAAASSHH!!!

"Unnggh?!" Lucifer couldn't properly defend against so many hits at once, his gigantic and bulky body being pierced by Leiptr attacks several times!

His sleek body seemed to give the assumption he wasn't that strong, but it was a terrible misconception! Leiptr could use his long, sharp body as a deadly spear to impale his foes mercilessly.

FRRSSHHH...!

However, Leiptr quickly realized that mere brute force wasn't going to do it, as the flesh of Lucifer quickly began to regenerate despite his freezing aura supposedly freezing his wounds and causing frostbite.

"Huh? You-"

CRAAAASH!

Lucifer's jaws opened before Leiptr could react, covered on deadly Abyssal Death Flames, and biting down into his tail, fiercely tearing apart his flesh and scales!

"If you're too fast for me to catch, then I'll keep you on your damn place! Attack me all you want, you bastard!!!" Lucifer groaned while having his jaws filled with Leiptr's flesh, scales, and blood.

"GRAAAAAARRRGH! Y-YOUUUU...!" Leiptr roared in fury, opening his jaws, and unleashing a Dragon Breath Attack over Lucifer's head!

BOOOOOOMMMMM!!!

Lucifer, however, tanked the breath attack, even as his head was covered in wounds and frost his several arms quickly unleashed a barrage of slashing claw attacks, and then a kick hit Leiptr's face!

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! BAAAAAMM...!

"Unnggh...!"

CRAAAAASSHHH...!

Leiptr landed over another mountain, which quickly began crumbling down.

TRUUUMMM...!

Chapter 772 The Clash Continues!

Gjoll quickly stood up from having fell from Maria's blows. His body slowly regenerating the wounds. He glared at her from below, gritting his teeth. Deep down, he started to wonder if she had already surpassed even the power of demigods such as Divine Dragons such as them...

"Just how strong as this woman become? She seems excellent at hiding it, though..." He muttered. "My Divine Weapon, hear my call. The one made from my own flesh, blood, and scales! [Gjoll, the Winter-Bringing Hammer]!"

FLUOOOOSH!

In a mere second, Gjoll summoned a gigantic divine hammer out of his own flesh, blood, and even his scales and soul! This was a power that Divine Dragons held, to materialize their own bodies into divine weapons when they reached a certain level of strength and age.

"[Heaven's Fall]!" Jonathan emerged from above him, as the slow and bulky dragon watched as his Divine Sword shone with the radiance and brilliance of the sun itself, the skies opened in a second, as an all-powerful, divine ray of light descended upon him.

FLAAAAAASH!

"Hah! As if a bit of light could ever harm me!" Laughed Gjoll, jumping into the skies and confronting the descending ray of pure light which came with the slashing power of Jonathan's sword.

"RAAAAAHHH!"

He swung his gigantic hammer against the light, as it was instantly deflected back into the skies, an enormous explosion spread across the clouds the moment he reflected such a powerful attack!

BOOOOOOOMMMM!!!

"W-What?! He reflected one of my strongest moves..." Jonathan felt surprised, as his body quickly gained an enhancement on his defenses before the massive dragon's hammer were to hit him.

CLAAASH! CLAAASH! CLAAAASH!

He used his Divine Sword to intercept the blows barely, while Maria quickly flew down towards the two of them, having suddenly grown another pair of arms which she used to wield her two powerful Weapons, the [Abyssal Necrolord's Accursed Demon Blade] and the [Demonic Infernal Titan's Grand Atlas Halberd], both weapons exuding a powerful, deadly demonic aura that combined with her own Divinities and Skills, and also her own Divine Lightning Body Skill!

"[Accursed Abyssal Nightmare Blade Arts]: [Abyssal Ascension]! [Barbaric Dark Axe Arts]: [Demonic Slash]!"

Two attacks at once reached Gjoll, one that unleashed an ascending sword attack that brought upon the enormous fury and demonic phantasmal power of Helheim itself into the world of the living, and a powerful slash that pierced through flesh and soul.

SLAAAASH! SLAAAASH! SLAAAASH! CLAAAAASSSHH!!!

"Unnnghh...! AAAGGH...!" Gjoll groaned, constantly using his massive hammer to intercept the consecutive and deadly blows that could even pierce through his hard defenses! "Not enough!" He laughed, however, as his Aura exuded a powerful amount of Magical Power.

"[Divine Blizzard Magic]: [Fimbulwinter]!"

FLUOOOOOSH!

An enormous storm of blizzard winds were unleashed, pushing Maria and Jonathan away with great force. The blizzard held millions of small piercing icicle spears as well, constantly dealing damage!

"Did you thought a few punches would be enough?!" Roared the Dragon, flying towards Maria, and pointing his hammer down at her. "Well, you're terribly wrong!!!"

CLAAAAAAASSSHHH!!!

An enormous blow was unleashed, clashing against Maria, and throwing her down into the mountains below, several mountains shattered into pieces, crumbling apart, one after the other.

BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM! TRUUUUMMM...!

"You bastard! [Divine Sunshine Blade Arts]: [Heavenly Sun's Judgement]!" Jonathan roared with fury, swinging his gigantic Divine Sword and unleashing a massive slash of pure divine power against the giant dragon.

"RUBBISH!" Laughed Gjoll, swinging his gigantic hammer against Jonathan's attacks!

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLAASH! CLAASH! CLAAASH! CRAAAASH!

"Unngh...! AKH!" Jonathan was being quickly overwhelmed, the size difference was already immense, and he was being thrown around like a ragdoll!

"Oi, you're fighting me." Maria said, appearing behind Gjoll as her gigantic hands reached his face before he could counterattack, the same techniques used beforehand pierced his scales and crushed one of his eyes!

BOOM! BOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOOMMM!!!

"U-UNNGGH...!" Gjoll groaned in agony as he was pushed back by Maria. Even when he had thrown her down like nothing, she came back a second after! She was incredibly formidable, he had to admit it. "You're formidable, however...!"

FLAAAASH!

"However what?!"

"HUH?!"

Maria had immediately teleported in front of him through her Shadow Teleportation Skill, as her body grew dozens of more arms and fists, unleashing a barrage of deadly blows against Gjoll's entire body, while her two powerful Divine Weapons unleashed black lightning attacks that pierced his scales!

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLAAASH! CLAAAAASSHH!!!

"GRAAAAAAGGGHHH...!" Gjoll groaned, his body was in a single second once more covered on deadly wounds, bleeding all over! The ferocious Frost Dragon glared at Maria with shock, only for her to continue her onslaught without stopping.

"[Selene's Palm of Judgement]!" She roared, as a gigantic palm made of pure divine and moonlight energy fell from above, pushing down the gigantic dragon into the mountains below!

BOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM...!

"I-IMPOSSIBLE...! I keep being overwhelmed!" Gjoll muttered, vomiting blood in surprise. "Have I misinterpreted her strength?! Me?! But I didn't wanted to look down on her yet... I've been surprised anyways...!"

The Ancient Divine Frost Dragon was left in awe, glancing at Maria gracefully and powerfully overwhelm him made him remember the times he fought against many powerful Titans in the past.

"She's... truly a Titan! Perhaps the last Titan in this world..." He muttered, standing back up only for Maria and Jonathan to emerge from above!

"[Qliphoth Tree Magic]: [Abyssal Life Draining Roots] [Decaying Spores of Death]!" Maria roared, as a powerful and mysterious Magic Gjoll had neve seen before was summoned.

FLUOOSH!

Hundreds of black tree roots began to grow around his arms and legs, tightly keeping him in place while absorbing his life and mana constantly! At the same time, poisonous and toxic spores emerged out of Maria's body, cursing him, and weakening him severely.

"COUGH... UGH...! T-These roots! What sort of magic is this?! It feels like Nature Magic, yet it is Death Magic?!" Gjoll said in amusement.

"[Divine Starlight Blade Arts]: [Starfall Slash]!" Jonathan, however had also not gone completely all-out, as he unleashed his newest Skill, Divine Starlight Blade Arts, which allowed him not only to channel the power of the Sun as a star, but the many stars within the night sky!

SLASH! SLASH! SLASH! SLASH! SLASH! SLASH! SLAAASH!

Gjoll was utterly overwhelmed as each of Jonathan's attacks was like a falling star!

"T-THIS IS... A MERE HUMAN...?! UUUAAGGGH...!"

CRAAAAAASSSHHH!

Chapter 773 The Divine Dragons Struggle

After being overwhelmed by Maria, Jonathan quickly followed up with a deadly attack against Gjoll!

"[Divine Starlight Blade Arts]: [Starfall Slash]!" Jonathan roared. Going completely all-out, he unleashed his newest Skill, Divine Starlight Blade Arts, which allowed him not only to channel the power of the Sun as a star, but the many stars within the night sky!

SLASH! SLASH! SLASH! SLASH! SLASH! SLASH! SLAAASH!

Gjoll was utterly overwhelmed as each of Jonathan's attacks was like a falling star! Exploding into bright, divine light, which pierced his already opened wounds while the roots and spores that Maria exuded constantly weakened him even more.

The Divine Frost Dragon couldn't take any more hits, instantly being completely overwhelmed, yet filled with rage over his own arrogance, a mere human was overwhelming him!

"T-THIS IS... A MERE HUMAN...?! UUUAAGGGH...!"

CRAAAAAASSSHHH!

His gigantic body crashed over the mountains below, shattering them all apart one after the other. At the same time, Maria descended towards his body while imbuing her Divine Powers into her two swords and merging them as one, long black spear imbued with the power of black lightning, death, chaos, darkness, and poison.

FLAAASH!

Ding!

[The Power of your Divine Skills and Divinity has reacted with your Weapons, temporarily creating the Divine Relic: [Divinity Piercing Spear of Absolute Death: Laevateinn]!]

[Duration: 5 Minutes.]

"Gjoll, I also used to be a mere human!" Maria smiled, descending towards the titanic dragon using her gigantic body and the enormous black spear pointing down at the dragon's chest!

"UGH...!" Gjoll groaned, desperately trying to get up and fight back, moving his gigantic hammer and clashing against Maria's spear!

CLAAAAAASSSSHHHH!!!!

The enormous impact between both powerful Divine Relics generated all-powerful shockwaves of pure Divinity, which spread across the skies and the surrounding mountains. Dozens of them began shattering apart by the mere, all-powerful impact.

"Y-You can even create Divine Relics like we dragons and titans could...!" Gjoll muttered. "Incredible... You're... you're truly a monster!"

Ancient Divine Dragons and Titans possessed a special power, which Gods actually didn't properly had, the power to turn their own flesh, blood, and souls into a weapon. Every Divine Dragon and Titan that was strong enough held their own unique Relics, some of them, such as those that Skadi left behind here, were also made from her own body.

The ancient Aesir stole the weapons from them and modified them using their divine powers, this is how Aesir such as Odin acquired their legendary weapons, such as Gungnir, which was actually made from Ymir's spine.

"Well, I've been recognized by Ymir as his daughter, so turns out I am a Titaness, lizard!" Laughed Maria villainously, as she swung her spear countless times at once, while her dozens of arms and fists reached the giant dragon like falling meteors!

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLAAASH! BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM!

"UUUAAGGGH....!" Gjoll couldn't take any more. Maria continued punching him and piercing his body with her powerful spear, and his divinity and strength were constantly fading away.

It was as if by merely being in front of this woman, his Health and Mana were being slowly absorbed by her. And not even his Divine Power was safe from her existence.

"Could she... truly be capable of killing them...?" Gjoll wondered. "The Aesir...?!"

Meanwhile, in the other side of the battlefield, enormous Yggdrasil trees were constantly popping up out of the arrows Emeraldine fired, as her healing magic kept Lucifer and Partner healthy as they fought the ferocious and powerful Leiptr.

"[Divine Spirit Arrow Arts]: [Divine Yggdrasil Arrows]!"

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM! BOOM! BOOOOMMM!!!

Each arrow that pierced his scaled body would explode into trees, spreading their roots across his body and decreasing Leiptr's stats constantly. The serpentine dragon was fast, but Emeraldine's amazing precision and speed was almost equal to his!

"Unngh...! These damn trees are sucking my life force and slowing me down...!" Leiptr thought. "You damn ELF! PERISH! ROOOOOAAAARRRRR!" Leiptr roared furiously, opening his gigantic jaws and channeling Divine Power and Mana, a tremendous ray of utter destruction emerged from within!

TRUUUUUUUUUMMMMM...!

However, Partner stepped forward in front of Emeraldine, smiling devilishly as her aura of blood and darkness gathered around her into a powerful barrier!

"[Demonic Vampiric Blood Arts]: [Gluttony Shield]!"

BOOOOOOOOMMMMM...!

FLUOOOOSH!

The Dragon Breath Attack was instantly absorbed by the barrier, spiraling around and then disappearing as if it were a sink! This was one of Partner's new Arts, although she couldn't overuse it due to its elevated cost, it was quite handy.

"W-What sort of magic is that?!" Leiptr was shocked.

"Oi, you're fighting me." A voice echoed behind him.

"AH?!" Leiptr was unable to react, even with his Divine Relic on hand, the Heaven-Piercing Silver Spear: Leiptr, he was still pushed down like a ragdoll by an enormous body slam coming from Lucifer!

CRAAAAAAASSSHHH!!!

"U-Uughh...." Leiptr muttered, vomiting blood. "To be overwhelmed by mere mortals... And a Dragon that had long ago died pathetically... I cannot take this disgrace any longer...!"

Leiptr roared, immediately jumping back to action, and activating his Divine Draconic Aura, surging with tremendous, all-encompassing power! His wounds slowly began to heal much faster, and his speed was enhanced even further.

FLASH! FLASH! FLASH! FLASH! FLAAASH!

He moved across the skies like a flash of silver light, with his spear on hand, he finally attacked after confusing his foes, reaching Lucifer, of course!

"Take this!"

CLAAAAASH!!!

A powerful piercing attack reached Lucifer's chest, piercing through his Divine Dragon Heart and into his spine, an explosion of frost immediately began to cover his body!

"UUNNGGHH...?!" Lucifer groaned, vomiting blood as his heart was pierced!

"LUCIFER!" Partner roared, rushing towards Leiptr, and enhancing her strength through the roof. "Get off that stupid lizard, you stupid snake!!! [Demonic Blood Spear Arts]: [Void Piercing Thrust]!!!"

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CRAAAAASSH!!!

Partner unleashed an utterly destructive barrage of piercing thrusts using her two demonic spears, enchanted by her Demonic and vampiric auras!

"GRUUAAAGGH...!" Leiptr groaned in agony, forced to pull back as he flew into the skies once more!

FLAAAASH!

However, hundreds of Spiritual Arrows pierced through his body even as he moved at a super-sonic speed, Emeraldine's attacks once more overwhelmed him!

BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM!

Chapter 774 The Defeat Of The Two Mighty Dragons

After overwhelming Lucifer with a surprise attack into his weak point, the Dragon Heart, Leiptr was greeted with a furious Partner.

"Get off that stupid lizard, you stupid snake!!! [Demonic Blood Spear Arts]: [Void Piercing Thrust]!!!"

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH!

Partner unleashed an utterly destructive barrage of piercing thrusts using her two demonic spears, enchanted by her Demonic and vampiric auras! Her attacks were so strong they even pierced across space itself, shattering the void and reaching Leiptr's body even from afar, as if they were skipping space!

CRAAAAASSH!!!

"GRUUAAGGH...!" Leiptr groaned in agony, blood splattering from his entire body, forced to pull back as he flew into the skies once more!

FLAAAASH!

"Hahhh... W-What in the world?! How come that false Vampire is so strong?!" Leiptr thought. "She should be even weaker than that woman from before... Huh?!"

FLASH! FLASH! FLASH! FLASH! FLASH!

However, before Leiptr could even think straight and recover his wounds properly, hundreds of Spiritual Arrows pierced through his body even as he moved at a super-sonic speed, Emeraldine's attacks once more overwhelmed him!

BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM!

The arrows exploded into explosions of Light and Nature, burning his flesh and making miniature Yggdrasil Trees grow in between his wounds, stopping his self-regeneration and draining away his blood and vitality...

"And that damn elf... She's simply ridiculous!" Leiptr thought. "I had battled the children of the Vanir before, but they were nothing but ants with their feeble spirit magics... Yet I had never fought an Elf that has ascended to this state of divinity... And is she...?! It can't be! Yggdrasil herself is within her own body and magic?! What... does this even means?! Are we battling... the will of the world itself?!"

Leiptr began to realize that his battle was even contradicting the world itself, if someone like Emeraldine, the vessel of Yggdrasil, was trying to fight him and stop him... Self-doubt clouded his mind, which the trio he was fighting used to their advantage.

"Thinking about love, snake?!" Asked Lucifer, roaring furiously as he charged against him. Suddenly summoning a gigantic Scythe made of Phantasmal Flames, which then transformed into a black scythe made out of Abyssal Death Flames.

"You again?!" Leiptr muttered, intercepting Lucifer's attacks using his silver-colored spear, flashes of silver color and black colored explosions spread across the skies, the clouds were constantly dissipating before either clash.

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLAAASH!

"How come you're so energetic after I pierced your Dragon Heart?!" Asked Leiptr. "Shouldn't that be your worst weakness?"

"Weakness?!" Laughed Lucifer while smiling. "I have no such weaknesses, you snake! I was killed, and risen back from the dead by Maria! I became her Undead, I could regenerate any wound, and even as I was split into pieces, I could continue surviving, and thriving... Until you can somehow reach my soul... You'll not be able to easily overwhelm me! [Chaotic Catastrophe]!"

FLAAASH!

Lucifer's index finger managed to touch Leiptr's arm, as a flash of black light emerged from within, distorting space itself as a huge, chaotic explosion surged out of thin air!

BOOOOOOOOMMMM!!!! think you should take a look at

"AAAAAARRGGH...! RAAAAHHH...!" Leiptr screamed in agony as his left arm exploded into pieces. "H-How could you?! Such destructive magic... A Dragon capable of wielding the element of Chaos?!"

"And not just that!" Laughed Lucifer. "[Eternal Domain of Hel]! [Death Dragon Familiar Summon]! Catch him, my familiars!"

FLUOOOOOSH!

A domain of pure death emerged around Leiptr, trapping him within a pseudo realm of temporary existence, embodying the very dread and atmosphere as Helheim itself.

"The domain of Helheim?!" Leiptr muttered. "Not even we could do this...! And- Ugh?!" He quickly realized there were hundreds of smaller Dragons made out of phantasmal energy and Abyssal Death Flames slowly attempting to weaken him and slow him down. "BEGONE!"

FLAAASH!

Unleashing a deadly Dragon Breath Attack, Leiptr vaporized them one after another, but due to the time he had to spend destroying them, that gave enough time for the three foes he was confronting all at once to attack him!

"You're a bit too relaxed!" Lucifer roared, swinging his gigantic scythe and attacking Leiptr with a barrage of slashing blows into his soul, weakening him, lowering his stats, cursing his soul, and even damaging it!

SLASH! SLASH! SLASH! SLASH! SLAAASH!

"Hey, don't forget about me, okay~?" Partner giggled maliciously, her two Spears suddenly became a gigantic blood crimson spear imbued with all her powers, each of its piercing blows left literal holes over Leiptr's own flesh, where blood constantly came out, and was instantly absorbed by Partner!

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH!

"This is the path we choose, even if we have to fight demigods such as you, we won't falter!" Emeraldine roared bravely. Firing a hundred more arrows imbued with the power of the Divine Spirits she possessed, each Arrow reached the giant serpentine dragon, exploding all over his body, and spreading more and more roots across his wounds!

BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM!

"NNGGHHAAAAAAAHH...!" Leiptr screamed in utter agony as he fell from the skies, completely defeated. "Unngh... T-This is... Why? Why do I feel... regret?!"

Leiptr and Gjoll were thinking the same thing as they were being overwhelmed by their foes. It still felt, even with their loyalty, that they had been fighting those that didn't had to be fought. Both despaired as they recognized their incredible strength.

Yet at the same time, they felt incredibly saddened, as their power was not enough to defend their Queen, despite everything they did...

"That's enough, Gjoll!" Maria roared, as her spear, Laevateinn, pierced through the chest of the titanic and bulky dragon, piercing his dragon heart and then, making it explode inside of his own chest.

CRAAAAAAASSSHHHH!!!

"UUUGRAAAARRGGHH....!" Gjoll gave an agonizing last roar of pain, as he vomited blood. "Unngh... It is my lost... I recognize your strength, mortals..." Gjoll muttered, as he fell from the skies alongside his brother.

BAAAAMMM...!

Both of their bodies fell together, over the same mountain. And just as Maria had promised, the white mountains were now stained red with their blood.

"These guys were a real piece of work... Phew." Maria sighed in relief, turning back to her ghostly form.

POOF!

"Indeed... Sorry for not being able to help as much." Jonathan sighed. "I would had never been able to defeat them myself..."

"Don't sweat it Jonathan." Maria sighed. "Your help is already good enough-"

"Mama not fair! I wanted to fight those big dragons too!" Arachne appeared from within Maria's shadows. "I got EXP anyways but it feels unfair..."

"I know, I'm sorry dear, but you've gotta wait and be patient." Maria smiled. "For now, let's go see those grumpy dragons..."

Maria, Jonathan, and Arachne flew back down, regrouping with Lucifer, Partner, and Emeraldine.

"Hey, not fair! Why did you had to fight alongside him again?! Ugh!" Partner was getting more and more jealous. Maria could barely handle her tantrum. "Fight at my side next, okay?"

"Sigh..." Maria sighed, giving her a head pat. "You did well, Partner." And then gave her a lovely kiss in her soft and red lips. "You're really special, I love you." "I think you should take a look at

"Uwaaahhh~" Partner started blushing while steam was coming from her pointy ears. That's all it took to calm her tantrums. "Y-Yesh~ I wuv you too~ Heheh~"

"T-That's... are we next in the line?" Lucifer wondered, fidgeting around.

"Hahaha, I don't think we should be kissing while we are in the middle of a dungeon..." Emeraldine sighed. "Partner needed that to calm down, she's too grumpy sometimes."

"Yeah, sorry, when we're back home, I'll give everyone lots of love." Maria sighed. "Now... into more important matters, you two. [Transfiguration of Death]!"

Maria swiftly grabbed the Divine Souls of the two Divine Dragons, Gjoll and Leiptr, and put them back into their bodies, before she healed them using Death Restoration.

FLAAAAASH!

Their souls and bodies became one once more, becoming a never seen before Undead Divine Frost Dragons! Gjoll and Leiptr were back once more...

"Ungh?! W-What is this sensation?! Ahh... D-Didn't we die?!" Gjoll wondered in shock. "W-Wait, it can't be! You turned us into Undead?!"

"So that's what it is..." Leiptr sighed. "I can't believe you would go this far... Maria."

"Sorry, but we explicitly didn't shattered your souls because we didn't wanted you gone." Maria giggled. "Now, will you let us explain to you what we wanted to do?"

"Explain?" Gjoll sighed. "Well... I feel like I cannot even harm you anymore. So fine, talk away..."

"What do you want to explain?" Leiter said angrily, crossing his arms.

Although Undead were usually very obedient, these were much different. The reason was because they were still Divine Beings, demigods, to say the least. Due to this reason, their will was even capable of resisting Maria's control over her Undead, granting them a pseudo independence.

Yet, still, it felt as if they were still forbidden from harming her, though they could still not obey her at all and just go away from her.

Nonetheless, through the battle, the two siblings developed a lot of respect to them, their bravery, strength, and wits surprised them to no extent.

Deep down, both wished to hear what Maria wanted to say.

"We don't want to kill Tear." Maria sighed. "We'll slap her really good and take away that crown from her head. And we'll try to bring her back to her normal state."

"Y-You don't want to kill her?!" Gjoll asked. "Yet what you desire to do is still equal to stripping her of all her strength and authority..."

"But still... you wish her wellbeing?" Leiptr wondered.

"Indeed." Maria sighed.

"This is what I was trying to say before!" Veredorr facepalmed. "Why do you guys don't listen?! Also Maria you seemed deadest on just killing them..."

"I mean, the EXP was necessary." Maria giggled. "And I knew I could turn them into our side like this anyways... Now, will you join us? Tear has gone insane, if this continues, she'll kill even more innocents... Are you sure you want to die in that hill?"

"No..." Gjoll sighed.

"Brother!" Leiptr was surprised. "But-"

"Leiptr! Stop pretending that this is fine..." Gjoll sighed. "Our gratefulness for Tear is the greatest we have, yet, we both know that her dreams are not really good for her, what she desires... her wicked goals, we can't just let her become a monster that not even herself will be able to forgive."

"That's... Well, you're not wrong." Leiptr sighed. "I just... I want to protect her, I don't want anything bad to happen to her. I don't want her to be harmed...!"

"Then let's just go with them and help her! Let's take away that wicked crown she has, and turn her back into the real self that we've never seen before... The Real Tear that this ghost talked about." Gjoll said with a smile.

"The real Tear..." Leiptr sighed. "W-Well, fine! But I still haven't forgiven you for killing Valkoinen!"

"Hahaha, that's fair." Maria giggled. "Alright! It's done! Now, let's have a little meal, I'm hungry! Want some roasted meat you guys?"

"E-Eh? Sure..." Gjoll felt strange.

"T-This is not the time for feasting!" Leiptr angrily barked.

Chapter 776 Growing Stronger

After raising Gjoll and Leiptr into Undead Divine Frost Dragons and making us our allies, we decided to take a small break before moving on. Just ten minutes of filling ourselves with some delicious food to recover Mana, Stamina, and Even Soul Energy. For that, I decided to add some new ingredients, Divine Dragon Meat! Indeed, I sneakily had taken some of their meat off before I raised them into Undead and chopped it nicely before adding it to a stew.

I know it might be weird, so I didn't feed it to those two, I gave them some roasted Giant Wolves and Frost Snakes instead. But as for us? We'll be enjoying their last gift, all while I change my Job Class and Subclass to gain more power.

<Job Class Options>

[Night Devouring Specter: ★★★ (Mythical Grade)] [Cost: 3.000.000 System Points]

[Wrathful Berserk Titan: ★★★ (Mythical Grade)] [Cost: 4.000.000 System Points]

[Abyssal Unholy Saintess: ★★★ (Mythical Grade)] [Cost: 6.000.000 System Points]

<Subclass Options>

[Shadow Sculptor: ★★★ (Mythical Grade)] [Cost: 3.000.000 System Points]

[Ancient Relic Blacksmith: ★★★ (Mythical Grade)] [Cost: 4.000.000 System Points]

[Necromancer Alchemist: ★★★ (Mythical Grade)] [Cost: 6.000.000 System Points]

These new Job Class and Subclass have finally reached 3 Stars! And they become Mythical Grade. I can tell why they're mythical straight away, all those names sound pretty amazing. Their cost has increased a lot too.

Abyssal Unholy Saintess alludes to a specializes on death magic, I wonder? And then there's Necromancer Alchemist, which is probably something I had already figured out, the fusion between necromancy and alchemy.

Though, to be honest, I don't want any of the most expensive ones, not because they don't sound awesome, but because I've already specialized on magic and alchemy and necromancy all my life as a ghost! I want something new, and my physical strength is what's new.

Developing it with new abilities is important, especially because all of those powers came in clutch against these powerful dragons, magic alone couldn't have helped me win this time, but its harmony with my transformation skills and physical skills did.

And in the Subclasses... Necromancer Alchemist sounds too boring and basic, so we'll take a path I haven't taken before, something that I haven't ever heard of, which seems that it could help me awaken the power within my own shadows.

Ding!

[You've exchanged 4.000.000 System Points.]

[Your Job Class has Ranked Up to the [Wrathful Berserk Titan: ★★★ (Mythical Grade)] Job Class!]

[Your HP, Attack, Defense, and Agility have increased by +100000]

[All of your Physical Skills and Body Skills have gained one Bonus Level.]

[You've exchanged 3.000.000 System Points.]

[Your Subclass has Ranked Up to the [Shadow Sculptor: ★★★ (Mythical Grade)] Subclass!]

[Your MP and Magic has increased by +70000]

[Your Aether has increased by +100]

[All of your Magic Support and Crafting Related Skills have gained one Bonus Level.]

[The power of the Wrathful Berserk Titan Job Class is influencing your understanding of the Physical Might of Titans you wield! You've now learned new Techniques.]

[The power of the Shadow Sculptor Subclass has increased your understanding of your own shadows and the element of darkness, combined with the ability to craft and create, you're now capable of doing many new things with your shadows... They're not only just mere shadows, but a material you can now use.]

[Your Job Class and Subclass Level Cap has increased to Level 100!]

FLAAAASH!

The moment I Ranked Up Job Class and Subclass, I felt much stronger. And also, most of my Skills except personal Skills and Titles ended leveling up! Job Class and Subclass change not only brought insane stat boosts but also tons of bonus Skill Levels, all at the cost of ridiculous quantities of System Points, though I'm earning a lot now that I'm beating down S Rank monsters.

Ding!

[The [Qliphoth Tree Magic: Lv1] Skill has increased to Level 2!]

[Qliphoth Tree Magic: Lv2]

The power of the Demonic Tree of Death dwells within your soul and body. You can now summon their all-powerful strength to battle through powerful spells that bring forth the opposite of Yggdrasil. Absorb the lives of your foes, drain their souls, devour their magic, poison their flesh, and make them decay, it is your choice.

Additionally, Enhances Darkness, Death, and Poison Attribute Magic Power and Effects by +250%, with an additional +25% with each Skill Level, and decreases their Mana Cost by -30%.

Available Spells:

Level 1: [Abyssal Life Draining Roots] [Decaying Spores of Death]

Level 2: [Dark Leaves of Soul Tearing] [Netherworld's Bark Armor]

Level 3: ???

Oh nice, two new Spells of this crazy broken Magic I discovered all by my own! Qliphoth Tree Magic is the combination of me comprehending Yggdrasil Magic and twisting it into becoming the opposite of Life, Harmony, Nature, and Light, encompassing Death, Chaos, Darkness, and Poison instead.

And the tree even exists, instead of being a hypothetical tree once spoken by ancient wisemen and librarians, as it inhabits within my Soul Scape, which, thanks to the crazy bonus of +100 Spirit, has grown much stronger now.

Dark Leaves of Soul Tearing helped me summon black colored leaves out of my own body, which I could manipulate with dark winds spells to generate slicing tornadoes. These leaves can slice through souls easily, and are perfect to weaken foes, as each cut in the soul becomes a curse that decreases stat a tiny bit.

Lastly, Netherworld's Bark Armor is ideal, as it helps me grow an armor made of black bark from the death tree itself all over my body, helping me at taking hits. It also drains the HP and MP of anything that hits it.

Overall, these are pretty sweet Spells! Though there's tons of Skills at Level 10, should I upgrade some? I remember that eating one of the Death Trees fruits helped me evolve a single Skill at random.

Ding!

[Your Soul Scape has developed greatly, all of your Spirit Treasures have Ranked Up!]

[The [Demonic Tree of Death: Qliphoth] has created another [Demonic Death Fruit]!]

[The [Moon Gazing Giant Lily] has generated more [Moonlight Crystals]!]

Nice, let's harvest these resources while we can!

Chapter 777 The Evolution Of The Abyssal Body Skill

Ding!

[Your Soul Scape has developed greatly, all of your Spirit Treasures have Ranked Up!]

[The [Demonic Tree of Death: Qliphoth] has created another [Demonic Death Fruit]!]

[The [Moon Gazing Giant Lily] has generated more [Moonlight Crystals]!]

As I changed Job Class and Subclass, I suddenly and out of nowhere earned 100 Spirit Stat, which greatly enhanced the quality and power of my Soul Scape. My Spirit Treasures all gained +2 Ranks of quality, and those that produce important resources produced even more as a result of the surplus of Divine Power.

So for now, let's eat this big and delicious fruit!

"Nom! Nom!" I bite on it happily while Partner looked at me curiously.

"Master, what is that tasty fruit?" She wondered.

"O-Oh... N-Nothing! Hahah..." I was a bit greedy, but I wanted to eat it myself, heh.

Ding!

[You have consumed the [Demonic Death Fruit (A++ Grade)]!]

[Your Stats have increased!]

[+20000 MP]

[+22000 Magic]

[+24 Aether]

Wait, what?! So much power now? I remember the first fruit gave me even less! How is this possible?! Wait... Is it because the tree gained two ranks of quality? So the higher the quality, the more power the fruits will give to me...

Well, the description does says that it eventually stops giving me stats, but at the very least for now, I'll be enjoying these bonuses happily.

"So you ate another fruit!" Tyr said to my mind through telepathy. "This one has much more energy though. It seems that it might actually be a reliable source of stats and power for a while until you can no longer earn stats from them. Unlike you said before, heh."

"I guess so..." I laughed. "Though for now- Oh?"

Ding!

[The Skill [Abyssal Body: Lv10] has evolved to [Eldritch Body: Lv1]!]

[Eldritch Body: Lv1]

Your body has become "eldritch" something that cannot be completely discerned, nor completely understood, yet that harbors the very essence of the abyss itself. You're the embodiment of darkness, the abyss, and everything within the "outside", the void. I think you should take a look at

Your body cannot be easily shaken by the laws and powers of the mortal world. And so you take no damage from any non-divine or demonic attack directed towards you. Your body's regeneration speed permanently increases by +1000%. Darkness, Shadows, Poison, Chaos, Void, Space, and other related Elemental Attributes gain a +500% boost to their total power, and a decrease of -50% of their MP consumption, you can also absorb 50% of the damage taken if it is from these elements.

By activating this Body's special power, and constantly drain your own MP and Spiritual Energies, you can increase all Stats by +500%, HP Regeneration Speed by +400%, Magic Damage by +300%, and your mere presence will cause a tremendous fear on those that cannot comprehend your existence, lowering all their Stats by -50%. Additionally, 30% of any damage will be bounced back to the foe, and foes take constant damage the more they hit your body directly.

With each Skill Level, these effects increase exponentially.

FLAAAAASH!

The moment the Abyssal Body Skill evolved, I felt my entire body twisting and transforming. As if my very being was being completely reborn. It didn't felt painful, nor anything at all other than... complete bliss.

It felt as if I was breaking out of a shell of some sort, as if I was being freed from the shackles of my previous existence. I was... it felt like my body slowly was ascending to something beyond the mortal realm.

Yet this power harmoniously lived with all my other Body Skills, as if I was becoming many things all at once... And, at the same time, it felt like it was an incomplete change.

It stopped too abruptly! I was almost there and then... I couldn't.

I guess this is a barrier I cannot easily pierce through yet, I need to get even stronger.

"Y-You... Did you just become a goddess?!" Tyr wondered.

"Eh? Me?" I wondered. "Do I look like one~?"

"Ah, never mind. You have yet to ascend. But that fruit... it gave you an unparalleled power enough to help you partially ascend! If you eat more, you'll eventually break through that barrier." Tyr said.

"Though, not even by ascending you'll compared to the big shots like my father, Odin... Nor Hel, or her siblings, even less her father, Loki. But well, you'll get there."

"Wow thanks for being such a party pooper, let me enjoy my power up for once, dumbass." I sighed, feeling disappointed.

"O-Oi! Treat me better! I was the God of War and Judgment!" He angrily barked, but I ignored the ball of darkness for now, as I joined the rest of my party on the feast while checking on the Moonlight Crystals I had.

I had around fifty by now, enough to fully recover my Moonlight Energy once... If I really need it. Naturally it has recovered by around 50% of all I lost on our last battle against the dragons.

This energy is like my own divine power in a way, it what helps me the most in breaking through the barrier between us and pseudo divine beings, such as "demigods", the Divine Dragons out there.

It is an essential part of my Lesser Divinity I acquired, so in theory, Tyr was right, I've been a Demigoddess, a really weak one since I evolved into my Selene Form. But to exert such power on its totality, I need the Moonlight Essence, so it is a precious resource I cannot waste around.

Maybe later, once I have more time, I'll craft more Accessories with Moonlight Crystals to increase my recovery speed even more, I'll need more rings, earrings, a crown, how about a dress made of jewels? Maybe even boots, necklace, a choker, everything I can.

"Hmmm~ This meat is so tasty and filled with Divine Power!" Said Partner. "Where did you get this, master?"

"Yeah, it is really good..." Said Emeraldine. "Is it from some monster in the army we fought before?"

"E-Err... Yeaah, that's right." I nodded.

It is better if I dont reveal the meat is from the dragons standing right next to us.

Chapter 778 Against The Frost Queen Calamity

Within the top of the Tower of Skadi, the Frost Queen gritted her teeth in fury and frustration, feeling the betrayal of her two dragons the most. She saw how they became Maria's Undead and decided to serve her and stop Tear from becoming a monster.

"H-How dare they?!" She roared in anger. "More and more betrayals... It feels like I simply cannot trust anybody... Mother, you're the only one here I can trust now, you're the only... the only one."

"Yes, dear..." Her mother, a tall and muscular Ice Giantess sighed, exuding a Divine Aura equal to an Ancient Titan. "Leave them to me. I will crush them for you... This world will belong to you, Tear. And those dragons, I will destroy them, pulverize them, for their betrayal..."

"Fufufu~ Such a thrilling development..." Giggled the Vampiress voice. "I can't wait for what's coming next~ The final showdown and the exhilarating climax is here! Oh, where did I left this bottle of blood I had stashed somewhere?"

Although they couldn't see her, they heard her malicious voice echoing around. The Vampiress that had been helping Tear for a while stayed here, planning something.

"Can I count on your help, Vampiress?" Tear asked.

"But of course!" Laughed the Vampiress. "I'll help... when you least expect it, dear Tear~"

"You better do..." The Frost Queen said, her sharp eyes glowing bright blue. "Or I won't let you escape this domain unscathed."

"Oooh~ So scary!" Laughed the Vampiress.

"They're coming..." The Frost Queen's mother said, as she stepped forward, standing right in front of the tower's gates.

(Maria's POV)

Once we were done eating our revitalizing meal, we decided to move on. According to Gjoll and Leiptr, this was the last floor where the throne room and the treasury were located. Across these gates, Tear and her mother will be there too, alongside the Vampire woman that attacked us before with those reanimated Origin Souls.

"We'll be fighting three powerful foes at once..." I sighed. "Are you all prepared? We'll have to go completely all out, and even then, there's nothing saying we'll actually win..."

"I'm ready to give up my life for you." Jonathan smiled.

"Is there any need to ask?" Laughed Partner. "Let's just crush them! I'll make sure to drink that Vampire woman's blood and Rank Up."

"We're more than ready!" Emeraldine said with a bright smile. "I'll make sure to protect everyone with my barriers and arrows."

"With two new friends here, I feel even more confident." Lucifer smiled. "Gjoll, Leiptr, I'll be counting on you two. Please help us restraint Tear so we can take away the crown."

"We shall." Gjoll nodded. "We'll free her from the curse, and return her to the girl she once was."

"Sigh... I suppose we're doing this now." Leiptr sighed. "Tear's mother won't be easy to defeat, even less that mysterious Vampiress. Be prepared for the worst, not even us know their full power."

"Especially her mother..." Said Gjoll.

"You said... Tear's mother?" Veredorr wondered, surging from within my shadows. "But that's..."

"What's wrong?" I asked.

"Tear Mother shouldn't... be alive." Veredorr sighed. "She has been long dead... Even before her brother was killed by those humans..."

"W-Wait, what?" I asked in surprise. I think you should take a look at

"Eh?! Then who's that?! Wait! Maybe the vampire revived her mom?" Asked Partner.

"That's... I don't know." Veredorr sighed. "I am assuming Gjoll and Leiptr don't know either."

"Yeah, she's always been there." Said Gjoll.

"If it isn't her mother... Who is she?" Leiptr asked.

"We'll have to figure that out by our own then." Emeraldine sighed.

"Yeah... There's no helping it." Lucifer nodded.

"Then let's not waste more time..." I sighed. "Arachne, when I finally call you, come out, alright? Do your best once the time comes!"

"Okay mama!" Arachne nodded.

Despite her adorable personality and childish behavior, she was someone that had higher stats than all of us here. She's our greatest trump card.

"Let's go then." I nodded, stepping in and opening the gates.

C r e a a a a a k k k k...!

As we opened the gates, we were greeted by a beautiful and regal throne room, made of divine ice everywhere, and decorated beautifully.

In front of us, a giantess of over ten meters of height greeted us, with a beautiful and gallant appearance, filled with strong and stoic muscles, exuding divine power equal to ancient titans.

And in the back, there was a beautiful ice giantess, sitting over a throne made of ice, wearing a shiny, silver-colored crown covered on divine blue jewels.

Her aura was the strongest, exuding a ridiculous amount of Divine Power...

We are finally here, at long last.

"Welcome, Maria, and everyone else..." She smiled. "I am pleased to see you here, you've come directly to me and helped me skip all the trouble of chasing you around, hehe~ Right, mother? Oh, and Gjoll, Leiptr, I am really, really disappointed on you. You damn scaled dogs... To think you would ally her from all things! I guess you didn't even deserved my attention."

"My Queen, you've been inflicted with a curse! We've come to free you!" Gjoll said.

"Maria has given us a second chance to make things right now!" Leiptr nodded.

"Tch..." The Frost Queen glared at the two with utter disgust. "Shut up, you useless garbage."

"Tear... TEAR! Are you there?! Please, come back to your senses! It's me! Veredorr!" Veredorr surged from within my shadows, confronting her bravely.

"Veredorr?" Tear wondered. "Another garbage I don't care about... Mother, how about you clean this trash in front of me?"

"If you dare come here to harm my precious daughter... I'll crush you! You too, traitorous dragons!" Her "mother" roared, her Divine Aura growing higher and higher, so strong it seemed to overpower us. "R A A A H H H!!!"

And she instantly started with a fight, no more talk!

C R A A A A A S S S H H!!!

Chapter 779 An Intense Confrontation

Tear's "mother" gigantic frost axe swung down, unleashing a tempest of blizzards and ice everywhere. Even the Divine Frost Dragon Undead were affected by this ice, most likely because they lost part of their Divinities once they turned into Undead.

FLUOOOOOOOOSSSSHH!!!

"W-What with this power?!" Lucifer groaned. "It's insane...!" Lucifer noticed how his entire body was beginning to freeze over. The power of this tempestuous blizzard was incredible.

And that was all coming from a single, gigantic axe that seemed to have been made out of pure Divine Ice, yet it exuded the might of a Titan, giving incredible power to its wielder...

Leiptr and Gjoll, the two Ancient Divine Frost Dragons, knew very well where this power was coming from, after all, this was an Axe that even they had recognized as an incredible relic stashed within Skadi's treasury.

"T-That's... the Divine Relic once wielded by Fárbauti, the Divine Glacial Frost Axe!" Leiptr said. "It is the Axe once wielded by Loki's true father, the Ancient Warrior of the Ice Titans...!"

"It is said that it can bring down the mighty blizzards of the Ancient Realm of Niflheim!" Gjoll said in shock. "I knew this fight would be hard because of that damned weapon!"

The two Undead Divine Frost Dragons stepped forward, however, despite the enormous, all-encompassing blizzard, and utilized their powerful Divine Auras to attempt to overpower such might!

"RAAAAAHHHH!!!" Both roared at the same time. However, the blizzard was only barely weakened, their prowess couldn't compare to the might of a Legendary Relic.

This relic was created using the bones of Ymir, alongside his blood, and the Divine Frost from the Realm of Niflheim before it were to be merged with the rest of the Realms to create the world of Yggdrasil everyone knew now after the war between the Aesir and the Jotun.

Ding!

[The power of the Ancient Divine Relic [Divine Glacial Frost Axe] is exuding its truest, fullest Authority! The might of Ymir and Fárbauti are combining together to summon the [Nifl's Eternal Blizzard]!]

[Below this Blizzard, all enemy Stats decrease by -70%, their Divine Authorities are greatly weakened, and they take constant Damage to their HP with each second.]

[There is no escape from the might of the Ancient Jotun.]

"It is useless!" Roared Tear's mother. "You will be judged by your treason, you damned dragons! My daughter gave you freedom and promised you a world where you could live happily! Yet what do you do?! YOU BETRAY HER!"

FLUOOOOOOSH!

Tear's mother manipulated the endless blizzards and divine power together, forming two enormous titanic hands and pushing them down towards Gjoll and Leiptr, pushing them down into the floor!

BAAAAAAMM...! BAAAAAMMM...!

"Uuuggh...! Ungh?! T-This might...?!" Gjoll muttered. "Leiptr!"

"Uuuggh...! W-We can't fight against this power...! It is as if our own divinities were instantly cancelled by this much superior power of frost..." Leiptr was shocked. "M-Maria, you have to run away, this relic still holds the might of Ymir himself!"

However, Maria ignored their words, and simply laughed. She stepped forward fearlessly, her aura surging constantly. All the elements she possessed merged together into her body, as she continued growing larger and larger...

"Huh, alright. I guess you're not just a small fry." Maria smiled, quickly beginning to transform, and exuding her own Aura of power through her newly acquired Eldritch Body Skill and her many other combined powers and Skills.

FLAAAAAASH!

Ding!

[You have combined the effects of the [Gorgon's Transformation: Lv10], [Abyssal Demon Transformation: Lv7], [Divine Moonlight Titan Body: Lv3], [Divine Moonlight Titan Soul: Lv3], [Qliphoth Tree Magic: Lv2] and [Eldritch Body: Lv1] Skills to transform into your [Ultimate Form]!] I think you should take a look at

[All of your Stats have temporarily increased by +1000%, your Death, Darkness, Chaos, Poison, and Moonlight Elemental Damage has increased by +10000%, and Skill Damage has increased by +500%!]

[However, your Mana is constantly being drained, and so is your Moonlight Essence!]

Maria's small ghostly body instantly turned into a titaness. Gorgeous, made up of dark purple and pink colored moonlight energy which shone with countless bright stars. Her long, purple, and black hair reached her ankles, and it was made of ferocious snakes, poison, and death.

Covering her beautiful moonlight body, a black and demonic armor with the decorations of many bug-like monstrosities emerged, made of demonic power, chaos, darkness, and the Netherworld Bark capable of draining Life and Mana from those that attacked it.

All combined with the mighty aura of her new body, the Eldritch Body, capable of boosting her prowess even more as she activated its powers, constantly draining away her Mana even more.

Ding!

[The power of your [Eldritch Aura] has been activated!]

[All Stats have increased by +500%, HP Regeneration Speed has increased by +400%, and Magic Damage by +300%!]

[Your mere presence is causing a tremendous fear on those that cannot comprehend your existence, lowering all their Stats by -50%!]

[Additionally, 30% of any damage will be bounced back to the foe, and foes take constant damage the more they hit your body directly.]

[However, your MP and Spiritual Energy are being drained constantly and rapidly!]

TRUUUUUUMMM...!

Her aura of pure darkness and outer might reached Tear's mother in an instant, as Maria shaped her own shadows and darkness aura through the power of her new Subclass, the [Shadow Sculptor]!

FLUOOOOSH!

"Unnnggh?! T-This aura...! W-What is this?! You're really Maria?! I-Impossible! How strong... are you?!" Screamed Tear's mother, as the shadow tentacles wrapped around her legs, combined with the roots of the death tree, draining her energy away! "AAAGGH...! SCRAM!"

He axe swung consecutively, slicing apart the shadows, only for them to regenerate instantly at the same time as Maria braved the blizzard, rushing across its overpowering might.

"[Gate of the Underworld]!"

FLAAAAASH!

Her Mana and Divine Power gathered together in front of her, as a gigantic gate leading to the very Underworld opened, absorbing the entire blizzard in mere seconds!

"W-What?!" The Frost Queen groaned in shock, as the mighty blizzard was instantly cancelled by Maria's genius idea!

"RAAAAAHHHH!!!" At the same time, Gjoll and Leiptr, led by Lucifer, attacked Tear's mother with all three of their Divine Weapons at hand!

CLAAASH! CLAAASH! CLAAAAAASSHH!!!

"Unnnggh...! Y-YOU PERSISTENT LIZARDS...!" Tear's mother furiously roared, forced to step back as she was surrounded by the three Divine Dragons.

Chapter 780 Against Tear's "Mother"

Once Maria managed to temporarily cancel the power of the blizzard by redirecting it to the all-absorbing Gate of the Netherworld, the three dragons charged instantly, attacking with ferocious might.

Lucifer used the power of his Scythe made of Abyssal Death Flames, while Gjoll and Leiptr unleashed the mighty strength of their two weapons, the Hammer Gjoll and the Spear Leiptr!

CLAAASH! CLAAASH! CLAAAAAASSSHH!!!

The three powerful blows managed to throw the mighty Ice Giantess away from her spot, her angered face distorting in pure fury as she saw the traitors working together with her daughter's enemy.

"Unnggh...! Y-YOU PERSISTENT LIZARDS...!" Tear's mother furiously roared, forced to step back as she was surrounded by the three Divine Dragons.

But that wasn't all...

"[Demonic Ghostly Fist Technique]: [Infernal Spectral Fist]! [Divinity Shattering Death Claws]!" Maria appeared right behind Tear's mother, harboring the power of her own unique Fist Techniques, as her gigantic fists reached an incredible level of power and speed, clashing against Tear's mother by channeling her Death Element to the max!

CLAASH! CLAASH! CLAASH! CLAAASH! CLAAASH! CRAAAAAASSSHH!!!

Each of her fists were like meteors crushing through Tear's mother hardest defenses. The worst part was that these Level 7 techniques even had the power to hurt her powerful Titan Skin, a protection similar to Divine Dragons scales which Titans possessed.

BAAAAAAMMMM...!

Tear's mother was thrown like a ragdoll, falling over the ground and shattering the floor countless times, she quickly stood back up, several magic circles appearing around her.

"I won't give up! I won't let you harm my daughter!" She screamed in anger. "[Divine Frost Titan Magic]: [Skadi's Divine Frost Weapon Armory]!"

FLASH! FLASH! FLASH! FLASH! FLASH! FLASH! FLASH!

The magic circles summoned hundreds of huge weapons made of ice, as they were launched towards Maria and her allies, their very impact over any surface made them explode, freezing anything they reached!

BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOOM! BOOOOM!

"D-Dammit! My body! AAARRGGH...!" Gjoll screamed, as he was being frozen constantly. "I-I am a Frost Dragon yet I'm being frozen?! UUGGH...!"

"BROTHER!!!" Leiptr screamed, rushing toward his brother to save him, only to be frozen by countless explosions of divine frost. "UNNNGGH...! AAARGH...!"

Both of the brave Divine Frost Dragons ended being frozen solid, resembling statues in the shape of giant dragons.

"[Yggdrasil's Divine Barrier]!" Emeraldine cried, hitting the floor with her hands as roots of Yggdrasil spread everywhere, a gigantic barrier of divine spiritual energy formed, protecting everyone barely on time.

"Gjoll and Leiptr...!" Lucifer muttered, seeing the two dragons completely frozen. "This ice can even freeze frost dragons...!"

"They got what they deserved!" Laughed Tear with a pleasant smile. "Now they will be forever encased into two beautiful statues! Their souls will never be freed from their cages! This is what you deserve, you utter garbage! GYAHAAAAH!"

"This is the divine judgement of my daughter..." Said her mother. "Whoever dares betray her shall meet a similar end! And those that oppose her... Shall have their heads sliced by my Axe!!!" Her mother roared, rushing forwards.

F L A A A S H!

In a mere second, she reached Lucifer, swinging her axe against him while firing countless Divine Frost Projectiles!

"DIE!"

CLAASH! CLAASH! CLAASH! CLAASH! CRAAAASH!

"Unnggh...! Sorry lady, but I am already dead!" Laughed Lucifer, his body tanking the hits as he slowly began to freeze over, his powerful flames melting the ice slowly as he unleashed a storm of chaos and abyssal flames against her. "[Abyssal Death Flames Chaos Catastrophe]!!!"

FLUOOOOSH!

BOOOOOOOMMMM...!

The smoke dissipated as the Titaness only grew... bigger! Her power constantly surging more and more as she drained it all from the Axe.

"Pitiful!" She roared, kicking Lucifer away with a furious gigantic blow!

CRAAAASH!!!

"UGAAAGGH...!"

BAAAAAAMMM...!

Lucifer's enormous body landed over the blood with a loud bang, the floor and the walls shattering apart and constantly falling into the floor.

"I'll finish you off first!" She roared mightily, rushing towards Lucifer with her axe.

"Oh no, you won't!" Partner laughed, reaching her from behind alongside Jonathan! Both were being boosted by Emeraldine's Yggdrasil Magic, enhancing their stats even more.

"Huh?!" Tear's mother was surprised as the two reached her in an instant.

Partner swung her two powerful Spears together, channeling her Demonic Energies and her Vampire power into them together at the same time, generating two spirals of darkness and blood energy at the same time, in each of her spears!

"[Vampiric Blood Abyss Vortex]!"

TRUUUUUUMMMMM...!

Meanwhile, Jonathan charged the newly acquired power of his Starlight Blade Arts, unleashing countless slashing attacks that resembled falling stars, impacting over Tear's mother body constantly!

SLASH! SLASH! SLASH! SLASH! SLASH! SLAAAASH!

"UUUGGH...!" Tear's mother groaned in agony as she was pushed away by their combined might! The two of them were not "small fries" as she had thought previously.

CRAAAAASSHH...!

"Y-You two are quite the mighty warriors... However!" She roared, boosting her power even more with the Divine Relic. "You won't-"

FLAAASH!

However, behind her, Maria suddenly appeared, teleporting directly into her very shadows!

"Surprise." She smiled, her fists and weapons reached her like an endless barrage of blows, from behind! Not even her hardened Titan's skin was able to resist all the blows at the same time.

CRASH! CRASH! CRASH! CRASH! CRASH! CRAAAAASSSHH!!!

"UNGH...! AAAAGGH..! Y-YOUUU...!"

BAAAAMM...!

Her body was pushed down into the floor, as Tear's mother used her own Battle Axe to defend herself against Maria's blows.

Crack... crack!

Until Maria suddenly noticed something strange... Her arms constantly gained scratches, until a small crack appeared on them, and a piece of ice fell from there.

"W-What?!" For a moment, Maria was taken aback, which Tear's mother used to kick her in the face and throw her down.

CRAAAAASSSHH!

"Ungh...!" Maria quickly stood back up, her body expanding into a swarm of bugs, snakes, and black tentacles as she tried to grab Tear's mother arms and legs. "You're... You're an Ice Golem, aren't you?!"

"Huh?!!" Tear's mother heard such words, feeling shocked herself.
