

A Ghost 871

Chapter 871 A Desperate Battle!

871 A Desperate Battle!

Nyx unleashed her devastating breath attack, blasting through the aberrant Vampire, who had turned himself into a monstrous beast made of countless tentacles!

BOOOOMMM!

The beast, however, survived the blast, unlike the previous Vampiric Monster that Nyx had destroyed, the huge hole in the tentacled aberration slowly started to regenerate, and it didn't bring its end either!

"Y-YOOU...! You're dangerous! If you already killed one of us, I MUST KILL YOU!"

The aberration quickly started moving its dozens of tentacles, pushing its whole body towards Nyx, its gigantic jaws opening wide, firing several beams of Corrupted Spiritual Energy and Blood Energy!

"It seems to be a bit tougher than the last one...!" Nyx quickly grabbed Celes and Nia with her hands, putting them over her shoulders and flying away from the beam attacks, barely evading a few, while her strong scales were able to protect her from most of the attacks she ended taking.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM! "UGH...!" Nyx groaned. "My scales are about to crack; I have to attack with some magic too!" Her Shadows and Phantasmal Magic Energies gathered around her, as she conjured her Magic Skills one after another, attempting to attack back her foe to stop his constant annoying blows.

"{Void Shadow Spear}! {Death Spear}!"

Spears made of concentrated Darkness with hints of Void Element materialized, alongside Spears made completely out of pure Death and Phantom Energies, descending rapidly towards the tentacled abomination!

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! The attacks pierced his body several times, covering him on explosions, the damage wasn't really that bad, but his regeneration speed helped him get through them! Nyx gritted her jaws angrily after seeing her magic not be as effective with someone like him.

"Heheh... Ugh! Your magic's not bad, child. But you will NEVER win in a fight of magic against me!" The monstrous vampire laughed, his many tentacles all conjuring magic on their own, dozens of magic circles, much stronger and more complex than Nyx were summoned! "Now I'll show you what magic truly is! {Vampiric Blood Shadow Magic}: {Crimson Abyss Blood Spears}!"

FLASH! FLASH! FLASH! The attack made of magic spears was much more potent than Nyx's attacks, faster and quicker, and above all, they could even chase her around! She had to constantly conjure barriers with her powers, while blocking the explosions.

However, whenever a spear pierced her body, she would feel her HP and MP being slowly drained, they had Vampiric effects, and the Vampire's plans were very clear now, he wanted to slowly weaken Nyx, overpowering her with his regeneration and magic so he could defeat her once she had no longer any energy to resist!

Nyx had several passive skills that boosted her self-regeneration and the toughness of her body as well, so she knew she wouldn't go as easy as he wanted... And she had several trump cards she had yet to use as well!

"You're annoying! {Ancient Death Dragon Domain}!"

She flew down into the floor, unleashing a powerful domain that filled her surroundings with darkness and phantasmal energies, further beginning to boost her powers and weaken her foe!

Ding!

[You have activated the [Ancient Death Dragon Domain: Lv8] Skill, a powerful Domain of Death and Darkness has been summoned around your surroundings!]

[The Darkness, Phantasmal, and Draconic Energies being produced are slowly boosting your strength, increasing your Stats by +100% as long as you stay within the Domain, with an additional +1% every second for a max of +500%!]

[Additionally, your HP and MP have begun recovering eight times faster, and your Darkness, Death, Phantom, Shadow, and Dragon Type Skills and Magic Power have increased by an additional +250%, while their MP Cost has reduced by -30%!]

[Duration: 30 Minutes.]

"A Domain?!" The Vampire was shocked. "Hah, even with that, you're nothing!"

The monster rushed towards Nyx without even thinking about it too deeply, instantly noticing something weird, as the System Messages showed him what was happening!

Ding!

[The {Ancient Death Dragon Domain} has begun to negatively affect you as an enemy of the conjurer.]

[All your Stats have decreased by -30% while you step in this Domain, and your HP and MP Regeneration Speed have decreased by half!]

"W-What...?!" He muttered; his countless crimson eyes filled with utter rage!

"RAAAHHH!"

Nyx quickly rushed forward, swinging her tail against him, and pushing him away several meters, her claws blazing with darkness and phantasmal energies!

"This is for bullying my friend!" She roared. "{Phantasmal Death Claws}!"

Her arms suddenly divided into dozens of gigantic draconic claws, as she activated her [Phantasmal Limbs] Skill, a special ability she inherited from Maria, which was usually unique to only ghosts!

"GRAAAHHH...!"

The tentacled aberration utilized his tentacles and magic to protect himself and block some of the attacks, yet he found himself thrown into a corner, his tentacles being constantly cut down to pieces faster than he could regenerate them!

"YOU DAMN...!"

He opened his jaws, unleashing a devastating Breath Attack similar to Nyx! Did he copy her ability somehow?!

BOOOOMMM!

"UGH...!"

Nyx was forced to step back, prioritizing the protection of Nia and Celes, she used her big wings to protect them like shields, giving an opening for her opponent to strike!

"DON'T YOU EVER THINK YOU CAN COMPARE TO THE GREAT ME!"

The aberration's tentacles suddenly toughened into metallic spears, piercing Nyx's entire body and finally managing to break through her scales, leaving her filled with bleeding holes!

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! "AAARRGHH...!"

Nyx was careless, and ended paying the price for that, as she was overwhelmed, thrown into the ground, barely managing to secure Nia and Celes safety by protecting them with her big claws, gasping for air.

"UGH..." Her wounds were not regenerating either, as she stated to vomit blood. "T-That was tougher... than I thought."

"NYX!" Celes saw her friend in such a state, panicking as he ran towards her, trying to heal her wounds.

"DO YOU THINK I'LL LET YOU DO THAT?!"

However, their foe was not done yet, suddenly teleporting behind them through his Shadow Sneak Skill, his countless tentacles rushing down towards Nyx one last time!

"This time, I'LL FUCKING KILL YOU BOTH!"

"No...!" Celes cried. "NOOO!"

Tears flowed from his eyes, as his powers erupted, answering his emotions!

SPLAAASH!

A huge tsunami emerged, engulfing their foe!

Chapter 872 Overpowered Children

872 Overpowered Children

SPLAAASH!

"UGH...! Water again?! Do you think it'll do much to me, you pathetic child?!" The Vampire roared. "UTTERLY PATHETIC!"

"I-It's no longer just water!" Celes cried, trying to imagine his magic techniques in different shapes, forming his water... and then imitating Nyx's shape! "{Sea Dragon}!"

FLUOSH!

"HUH?! GUH?!"

The monstrous Vampire suddenly found himself being tightly caught in the ever-spiraling waters of a Sea Dragon! The small tsunami that Celes summoned suddenly taking a draconic shape, imitating Nyx's appearance!

"ROOOAARRR!"

"Wow!" Nyx said in surprise, as her wounds were purified by Celes, and regenerated through her natural abilities. "That's amazing, Celes!"

"I can't... contain him for much longer!" Celes was gasping for air. "Okay, got it!" Nyx nodded. "Leave him to me! I won't lose a second time!"

Nyx quickly leaped into action, flapping her wings rapidly and catching the Vampire with her claws, slashing at his face, piercing his body with her tail, and kicking him several times, all while blasting him with yet another breath attack!

However, this time, it wasn't just the normal one... It was a special Breath Attack she acquired after her recent evolution!

"{Abyssal Chaos Dragon Breath}!"

The power of the almighty element of Chaos were summoned within Nyx's jaws, her throat unleashed an almighty black and purple-colored beam, piercing through her foe's flesh once more!

BOOOMMM!

"GRYAAAAHHH...!"

The Vampire suffered severe damage, his body falling down once more, splattering blood and guts everywhere, though it slowly began to regenerate once more!

"I can't believe you... YOU WOULD DARE...!"

The old Vampire was furious, his tentacles quickly shapeshifting into countless snake-like heads, opening their huge maws, and attacking Nyx with sharp bite attacks!

However, in that very moment, Celes unleashed the last bits of Mana he had left, pointing his small hands at his foe!

"{Oceanic Tridents}!"

Once more utilizing his imagination and visualization, he took this one step further, imagining dozens of tridents made of spiraling water at very high pressures, clashing against their foe's tentacles, blasting them into pieces one after another!

BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM!

"UAAAARGH!" The Vampire gave out a pathetic shriek. "T-That brat's magic got all strong out of nowhere?! Did he just learned how to utilize it better?! Was he always this strong?!" However, before he could even finish his words, Nyx was right in front of him, gathering over her hands an enormous abyssal darkness, imbued with the void itself!

"Take this! It's your goodbye present!" Nyx roared, her words holding some of the charisma of her mother Maria within them. "{Abyssal Dark Star}!"

The sphere of Darkness and Void hit the aberrant vampire at point-blank, consuming his entire body!

"T-This... can't be...!" He screamed. "S-STOP! I CAN SURELY... FIGHT... MORE...!"

With all the sheer willpower he had left, the vampire started trying to crawl outside of the void consuming him, his tentacles opening red eyes, firing beams of blood energy against Nyx and Celes!

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM! Celes knew that Nyx had her scales broken, so she couldn't easily take the hits! He quickly conjured a huge barrier of water, exhausting his Mana completely.

"D-Do it Nyx, finish him off! Quickly!" Celes cried.

"Celes...!" Nyx said in surprise.

"Let me do something too...!" Nia suddenly ran towards Nyx. "I need to at least hit him once! Or I won't be able to call myself a mother!"

"Auntie Nia!" Nyx was surprised. "Okay! In that case... {Phantasmal Dragons Summon}!"

Nyx suddenly summoned hundreds of Phantasmal Dragons in that split of a second, surprising Celes and Nia. But that didn't end in just that, they flew towards her and Nia, fusing with Nia's spear and Nyx's powers!

"{Phantasmal Dragon Fusion Magic}: {Abyssal Phantom Spear of Death: Thanatos}!"

FLASH!

A huge spear made of phantasmal and death energy was born, resembling nothing like it was before! It contained tremendous power, but its existence was only brief!

"T-This power...!" Nia was amazed by what little Nyx was truly capable of! "L-Let's do this!"

"RAAAAAH!"

Nyx and Nia rushed forwards, piercing through the tentacled vampire's beams until the gigantic spear struck down his body as he was still stuck within the Void!

CLAAASH!

"GRYYAAAAHHHHHH...!"

He could only scream, no longer even being capable of speaking as not only his body, but his soul were pierced by this phantasmal spear! Crack, crack...!

Tiny cracks became dozens, and dozens hundreds! Crack, CRACK!

Hundreds became thousands, and then...!

CRAAASH!

His soul was completely destroyed!

"I-I was... defeated...?!" The vampire thought. "Was... all my life... for me to die against some damn... brats?"

The Vampire died pathetically; his foes didn't even knew his name!

"PHEW..."

Nyx quickly turned back into her small form, sitting over the black floor, and sighing in relief, Nia and Celes did something similar, finally feeling relieved things ended...

"W-We somehow pulled it off..." Celes said. "Hahaha... Y-You're amazing, Nyx!"

"Nah, you're amazing Celes!" Nyx giggled, smiling back at the boy.

Celes blushed a bit once Nyx went back to her usual appearance, his mother quickly noticed that her little baby son had a small crush.

"Heheh, I would love to celebrate, but we don't even know where we are..." Nia sighed. "Nyx, do you have any idea yourself?"

"Hmm... I do remember that it felt like a huge sphere..." Nyx said. "No, many spheres, connected together!" She opened a small bag she had, a Dimensional Bag her mother had made for her, that could contain a few things, a tiny Inventory, and started eating a huge roasted cow leg she saved there as a snack. "Want some food?" She offered them some sandwiches.

"Spheres..." Nia wondered. "So it is like... s-some sort of dimensional domain? Such a powerful thing... What sort of magicians could have ever built such a thing?"

"Maybe... the baddies!" Celes said, munching on the sandwich. "The... those guys, who were their names?"

"Vampires? The Warlocks or... Wait, the Warlocks must have been! They looked like evil magicians, that's what Warlocks usually are, right?" Nyx asked.

"Y-Yeah, that's right!" Celes nodded.

"The Warlocks of the Underground, that dangerous magician organization... So they were Vampires all along!" Nia gasped. "W-We need to somehow go help everyone else...!"

"Yeah, let's go!" Nyx nodded, finishing her meal. "I'm feeling full now!"

She carried the two over her wide back in her dragon form, flying across the void.

Chapter 873 Maria's Power

873 Maria's Power

(Maria's POV)

Finding myself within a strange void that I couldn't quite decipher on its totality, I was swiftly greeted by a mysterious fellow, a tall man, assuming him to be a Vampire by the blood aura he exuded, wearing a full black suit, covered on a black cloak, and wearing a plague doctor mask.

I noticed some strange protuberances within his back, as if he had something below his jacket. Whatever it was, I'll soon know it is, because I'm going to absolutely wreck his ass.

"Those clothes, don't tell me you're part of the clowns from the Warlocks?" I asked, standing still calmly. "Clowns?" Asked the man, he seemed to have a hateful cocky voice. "I would prefer if you called us enlightened, or even talented people!" He laughed. "Milady, I will show you that you should had never tried to mess around with our territory. We, Warlocks of the Underworld, are an organization not to be messed around, even if you're S Ranks..."

"Hoh, bring it on, jackass." I laughed it off. "You really think you're some big deal because you made this domain up? I'm going to shatter it."

"You're quite talkative." He said. "Let's see if your actions can amount to your words."

FLAAASH!

Suddenly, I saw a burst of blue lighting emerging from his back, his entire body gained a crimson-colored lightning after that, as he rushed towards me at an incredibly fast speed.

"Lightning, huh?"

CLAAASH!!!

His claws emerged out of his black robes, the impact of his attack sending out a shockwave of electricity that quickly burned down a bit of my dress. However, I had successfully blocked his blow.

"Hey, this dress was quite hard to make, you know?" I asked him with a smile. "Y-You took that hit head on?" He wondered.

"Ah, you're surprised? I thought you were stronger than S Ranks?" I laughed.

BAAAMMM!

Without hesitation, I kicked his stomach and flung him into the skies, he immediately vomited blood, his mask covered by the crimson color, I felt his guts splattering inside and his bones breaking.

"GUHHH...?!" He groaned, quickly pointing his hands down, his black cloak slowly beginning to tear itself apart. "No, it is my bad! I should had not underestimated you, mi lady! {Crimson Lightning Catastrophe}!"

FLUOOOSH!

His lightning powers gathered around his hands as he unleashed them down towards me, dozens of lightning strikes attempting to completely burn me to a crisp clashed against me!

CRASH!

"Hoh, not bad! It tickles a bit, hahaha!" I couldn't help but laugh at the scene. "You know? Divine Lightning hurts way more than this!"

"W-What...?!" He muttered. "Did she said divine lightning?!" Ding!

[The [Divine Thunder Spirit Body: Lv3] Skill has activated automatically upon contact with strong Lightning Strikes.]

[You have naturally begun to resist and absorb the Lightning!]

[You learned the [Lightning Absorption: Lv1] Skill!]

"Unless your lightning can become as strong as that of a God, I doubt it would hurt me as much." I smiled. "And thanks to you I even got a new Skill, thanks a lot!"

I quickly gathered my Moonlight Energy, generating a huge moon-shaped mirror in front of me, the lightning was instantly absorbed, as the mirror reflected the energies back towards my attacker, now empowered by Moonlight and Chaos Elements!

"What the...?!"

BOOOMMM!!!

His entire body was blasted into the skies, as he quickly fell, set ablaze, clashing into the floor... His clothes were half-burn, revealing his strange body.

"I knew you weren't normal, but oh boy, you sure aren't normal."

"Urgh... Haha... HAHAAH!"

He slowly started standing back up, having tanked that hit must have hurt a bit, but he sure was a durable bastard. Maybe it had to do with his body, which looked to have been made up of several body parts stitched together.

I had seen Vampires turn into creatures before, possessing innate powers or utilizing Demonite Heart Cores, but they usually still had their normal base appearances.

These Warlock guys... were different, I doubt this guy is the only one with modifications on his body. Despite being vampires that take pride into their "perfect" bodies, they seem to have the obsession with modifying themselves, fusing monster parts into their bodies.

"Haahhh... You sure are something else!" He laughed, revealing his torso to me.

His two arms resembled those of a huge and muscular bipedal beast, with tiger-like stripes. Did he stole the arms of a poor beastmen, or some bipedal tiger monster?

His face was still covered on his mask, but I could notice that he had two different colored eyes, horns, and on his back, six glass tubes imbued with colorful crystals inside, which seemed to be directly connected with the rest of his body.

"So you acquired that lightning power from those tubes?" I wondered. "You've really made of yourself quite the freak show, but I'm glad you experimented on yourself instead of using guinea pigs..."

"Oh, for sure, I've used hundreds of them. Adults are easier to use, children... break too quickly." He laughed, his six tubes glowing with different colors.

Not only lightning emerged from his hands, but also emerald winds, and crimson flames, which he started to combine, imbuing a part of them into his body, while the other became a mighty, multi-colored aura.

"{Triple Element Manipulation Technique}: {Lightning, Wind, and Fire Strengthening Aura}!"

FLAAASH!

He rushed towards me at lightning speed again, his fists blazing with flames and winds, unleashing a tornado of flames upon contact! Not only once, but several times, each of his attacks become stronger and faster.

BAAM! BAAM! BAAM! BAAM! BAAAM!

Above all, explosions of flames, lightning, and winds emerged from his attacks, generating tremendous shockwaves, all while his muscles kept growing larger, enhancing his strength and speed even further.

I dedicated myself to evade his attacks for a couple of seconds, that until he suddenly gathered his elemental energies, summoning a huge palm-shaped gathering of elements!

"Don't underestimate me, you failure of a witch!" He roared. "{Elemental Triad's Palm}!"

BAAAMMM!!!

"Failure of a witch?" I asked, smoke covering my entire body. "It's not like I asked to get betrayed, beheaded, and turned into a ghost to begin with!"

My leg suddenly sparked with black lightning, as I rapidly kicked his face, breaking his mask and pushing him away!

CLAAASH!

Chapter 874 A Ghost That Fights With Her Fists

874 A Ghost That Fights With Her Fists

"URGH...! How strong are you?!" The man complained, as if it was my fault he was a weak ass chimera!

Well, it was mostly thanks to my Eldritch Body Skill, among other things. That skill negates all damage as long as it is not divine or demonic.

He possess some demonic power, so he could inflict some damage... but most of it depends on his tubes over there, which possess no such qualities. "I don't know, can you take a guess yourself?" I covered my entire body on lightning, appearing right above him, in just a split of a second. My fists beginning to gather my Mana and a multitude of other energies I could create!

"{Demonic Ghostly Fist Technique}: {Skeleton Arms of the Abyss}!"

My Aura erupted from my body, converging the powers of Death and Phantasmal energies as two titanic skeleton arms materialized, as I moved my hands, they moved with me, clashing against my foe with tremendous strength.

And I didn't summoned a single pair, the maximum amount I could summon was six!

"Let's combine these with this! {Demonic Ghostly Fist Technique}: {Life Draining Phantasmal Chain Attack}!"

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! Each strike took a bit of his life away, and also his energies, as the Vampire felt like he was being speared by a thousand spears, but it was just the skeleton's fingers piercing his body.

"UUAAARRGGHH...! M-MY LIFE!"

"Yeah, did you finally guessed how strong I am, jackass?" I laughed like I was the real villain here. "{Soul Shattering Spear Hand}!"

All six of my gigantic skeleton arms unified their strikes, shaping themselves into sharp spears and piercing his body at the same time, his stomach opening and splattering his guts all over the place!

BAAAMMM!!!

"UUAAGH...!"

He vomited blood everywhere, his body looking like it was crushed by the foot of an elephant. He was gasping for air, his natural regeneration slowly beginning to put him together again.

"That fighting technique... Just what was that?" He asked, looking at me into the eyes, his face was... quite not bad, he had a handsome face, maybe he could had been someone incredible in the past, but turned into a Vampire to seek more power. "This technique, you ask?" I wondered, caressing the skeleton arms as I giggled. "It is part of my own creation, I thought that... Why should I limit myself to magic? Especially because you seem to be someone with a modified body capable of absorbing spells too, so I tried out something more... physical."

"A-A ghost that can fight physically like a martial arts master..." He coughed blood while laughing. "That's... nobody told me you were... Cough... And how did you realized my body's powers?!"

"Do I have to answer all your questions, dumbass?" I rushed down towards him, my legs flaring with phantasmal flames and black lightning. "Because I don't think so. {Black Lightning Kicks}!"

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! "UUAARGHHH...!"

He constantly groaned in agony as I kicked him countless times, his body beginning to tear apart, only for new tendrils and fleshy tentacles to emerge from his wounds.

His glass tubes shattered, but the jewels were incrustated into his body, and once the glass was broken, they grew unstable, imbuing him with even more power.

"RAAAHHH!"

He roared back at me, his elemental powers surging like an explosion, managing to push me back, and deal some damage, my HP decreased quite a little...

"There's still so much left to experiment! Do you think I will simply... PERISH HERE?!" He roared. "Once I'm done with you, I will take your remains and add them into my body... HEHEHE...! I will become the strongest Vampire!"

"Disgusting." I sighed, waving my hand. "{Abyssal Palm of Death}"

TRUUUMMM...!

A gigantic palm made of pure death energy materialized above him, this was a new technique I created, a derivation of Selene's Palm, but without the cost of Moonlight Energy, and with the Element of Abyss and Chaos instead!

CRAAASH!!

"RAAAH!"

However, he somehow resisted its almighty power, his entire body constantly growing larger, until he got as big as ten meters, his fists blazing with elemental explosions, he looked like an ugly version of the hulk.

He blew up my attack, swiftly reaching me and unleashing a barrage of attacks. I decided to concentrate and take this a bit more seriously as intercepted his blows with my many skeleton arms and my phantasmal hands, activating dozens of Ghostly Fist Techniques while doing so!

"{Phantasmal Fist} {Soul Piercing Punch} {Reaper Uppercut}!"

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH!

His entire body was covered on punches, and even his soul started to flicker and waver in agony as many cracks spread across, followed by a mighty uppercut in the chin, frustrating him even more.

"{Skeleton's Claws} {Soul Devouring Finger} {Meridian Destroyer}!"

SLASH! BOOM! CLASH!

Skeleton Claws slashed his body, spear-like finger strikes devoured his soul slowly, several attacks destroyed his meridians, making his muscles paralyzed temporarily.

"{Infernal Spectral Fist} {Divinity Shattering Death Claws} {Skeleton Arms of the Abyss}!"

BAAM! CLASH! SLASH!

Blazing fists made of spectral energies covered him with phantasmal flames, his magic was shattered into pieces by claws made of pure death energy, and my skeleton arms kept slashing away at his self-regenerating limbs, he was losing his mind.

"{Life Draining Phantasmal Chain Attack} {Abyssal Palm of Death} {Soul Shattering Spear Hand}!"

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!!

And then, a chain attack of dozens of phantasmal fist strikes descended upon his body, followed by several palms of death crushing him down, and then my skeleton arms shaped into spears, piercing his body even further!

"AAARRRGGGHHH...! {Multi-Elemental Manipulation}: {Divine Elemental Nova}!"

SPLAAAT!

"Ugh, what a mess." I sighed. "Maybe I went a bit overboard there, I shouldn't had killed him so much, now I won't be able to ask him questions completely..." I said, eating his soul fragments to get some of his memories. "Oh? I see..."

On his desperation, he raised his hands, fusing all his elemental energies and summoning a titanic star of elements, throwing it directly at me!

"DIEEEE!"

BOOOMMM!!!

The entire attack consumed me completely...

"Hah... HAHAAHAHA!" He started to laugh. "Nobody has ever lived after I unleash my strongest technique! You're done for- Eh?"

"Wow, now that was a nice meal." I smiled, my chest had a gigantic hole, which was just finishing to absorb all the tasty elemental energy. "Pure elemental energy like this is sure easy to absorb!"

"H-Huh?" He was completely in disbelief. "Oh, and you're already dead." I smiled.

"WHAT?!"

His entire body suddenly started to distort itself, his soul beginning to shatter apart completely. All the attacks he took were still damaging him constantly, and his soul and body were already on its limits.

Before he could even ask another question, he exploded into pieces, soul and body included...

SPLAAAT!

"Ugh, what a mess." I sighed. "Maybe I went a bit overboard there, I shouldn't had killed him so much, now I won't be able to ask him questions completely..." I said, eating his soul fragments to get some of his memories. "Oh? I see..."

After seeing his memories, although fragmented, I kind of finally learned what was happening here. This entire Domain was composed of a multitude of pocket dimensions in the shape of spheres.

It is indeed like a Void, because it is being powered by something that can conjure the power of that element, and more... It was a Fragment of the body of the Oasis Spirit, corrupted by the Dark Pest! Because the Oasis Spirit was a Divine Being, even her body parts can harbor tremendous power, further corrupted by the Dark Pest, it can even exceed the power of Evil God Fragment secretions.

"Huh, well, time to destroy their plan." I laughed. "Let's do a speedrun, shall we?" I giggled, talking to the bastard's lifeless head, and then throwing it back inside my Inventory.

Chapter 875 Laura, Takeshi, And Tear Against A Shadowy Vampiress

875 Laura, Takeshi, And Tear Against A Shadowy Vampiress

"{Miasmic Spirit Clone Technique}: {Mirroring Shadow Assassins}" FLASH! FLASH! FLASH! In front of Takeshi, Laura, and Tear, the female warlock that had appeared suddenly expanded her Miasmic Aura everywhere, her appearance dividing itself as dozens of clones materialized.

"Oh, I get it now, she can duplicate." Takeshi nodded. "And it's not just illusions, they must be physical manifestations."

"So that's why she's so confident?!" Laura asked angrily. "I'm gonna blow up a new hole on her."

"You two don't get too ahead of yourselves, if possible, stay behind me." Tear said. "You're not S Rank yet after all!"

Tear's necklace began glowing a bit, as her powers started slowly manifesting. The assassin Vampiress in front of them laughed, as she quickly rushed towards them!

"Fufu, this is going to be fun, tearing all of you apart, that is!"

The Vampiress rushed with her over thirty clones towards the trio, their movements just as swift and precise as hers, while they also held two sharp black daggers made out of their own components, moving their weapons in the same fashion as she did too!

SLASH! SLASH! SLASH! "Not another step further!" Tear roared. "{Divine Frost Queen Magic}: {Freezing Domain}!"

Their attacks were precise and their movements fast, they surrounded Tear, as she unleashed her Frost Magic, constantly freezing their legs and shattering, only for her to notice them quickly regenerating them back!

"What?!"

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH!

Six of them attacked her at once, their powerful strikes constantly pushed her back, even though she was wearing a strong Divine Ice Armor, it was already gaining a few cracks!

"You're really persistent!" Tear roared furiously. "{Divine Frost Queen Magic}: {Frost Giant's Fists}!"

She unleashed her Divine Aura at full power, as a freezing power materialized into gigantic fists made of ice, clashing against three of the six clones attacking her!

BAAAM! BAAAM! BAAAM!

Their bodies were splattered into the floor and frozen, shattered apart, and then frozen and shattered even further, Tear had to make sure to grind them to dust, all while she evaded the blows of other clones while protecting herself using Frost Barriers!

"Ah! The children!" However, Tear felt immediate fear as she glanced at Takeshi and Laura, who were surrounded by over a dozen Clones, and the real vampire to boot!

Takeshi was keeping some in place using his fishing rod's metallic thread and his strong water magic, while Laura let them reach her only to touch them and blow them up into pieces, because they somehow didn't count as living beings, as long as her hands got to them, they could be destroyed with one shot!

However, the assassin learned of Laura's Unique Skill very quickly, overwhelming her with fast attacks from a distance, while slowly separating Takeshi from her, as he was too busy dealing with a dozen clones himself!

"I got you!" Laughed the Vampiress. "{Dark Assassination Arts}: {One Thousand Cuts}!"

She reached the back of Laura faster than anybody could have imagined, Tear and Takeshi attempting to go help her, only for the clones to stop them!

SLASH! SLASH! SLASH! A storm of a thousand consecutive slashing blows reached Laura in a single attack, pushing her back, and constantly covering her entire body with many cuts! She was wearing a strong armor Maria had created for her, but there were many crevices where the slashing attacks could still reach her, which were necessary parts so she could move better with the armor!

"Your armor's strong, but there are too many openings!" Laughed the Vampiress, overwhelming her!

"UGH! AAAGGH...!" Laura screamed in agony, bleeding all over, but managing to touch the Vampiress' dagger once it pierced her shoulder! "{DETONATION}!"

FLAAASH!

The dagger glowed with bright red and orange energy, beginning to shatter and then...!

"HUH?!"

BOOOMMM!

A huge explosion consumed the Vampiress entire body, burning half her body as she vomited blood and smoke equally.

"GRAAAHHH!"

She quickly ran away, covering herself in shadows and hiding behind her clones! Laura fell into the ground, gasping for air as her entire body was bleeding over!

"LAURA!"

Takeshi cried, trying to reach her, only for the clones to keep pestering him!

"Dammit! MOVE!"

At the same time, Tear roared, unleashing more of her energies, which she was trying to be careful on using to not run out of Mana.

Because she no longer had the crown, her Mana capacity had decreased exponentially, and she could only reach so far before running out of it due to her Spells being so pricy in that regard!

09:23

Because she no longer had the crown, her Mana capacity had decreased exponentially, and she could only reach so far before running out of it due to her Spells being so pricy in that regard!

"Agh! Screw it!" She cried. "{Divine Frost Queen Magic}: {Fimbulwinter}!"

Tear roared, filled with fury as she unleashed one of her strongest spells, an enormous storm of freezing winds emerged from her hands, covering the dozens of clones around her and Laura, freezing them on the spot!

The gigantic Frost Giant Fists crushed them to dust, as she ran and evaded several blows, reaching Laura seconds before a dagger were to reach her head!

"{Winter Walls}!"

TRUUUMMM...!

Several walls made of frost materialized around them, protecting them temporarily. Tear quickly took out a potion and feed it to Laura.

"I told you that you didn't had to be reckless!" Tear said.

"I broke one of her daggers..." Laura smiled. "She got all roasted too, the burns made from my flames cannot be easily regenerated either, she took a blow she won't be able to recover from easily!"

"Laura..." Tear realized how battle-hardened the girl was. She had joined Maria's group rather recently, so she had no idea how much experience everyone in the party had gathered.

But it seemed that she had underestimated them just because they were much younger than her... She was also once a reckless young girl, and that was perhaps the reason why she committed the mistakes she did.

She was most likely attributing such mistakes to any youth, fearing that Laura and Takeshi would commit a mistake they would regret for the rest of their lives...

"Sorry for doubting you, but still, don't let her attack you so easily- Ah, Takeshi!" Tear glanced at Takeshi, worried, only to open her eyes wide. "T-That's...?!"

"{Ocean's Domain}!"

FLUOSH!

An enormous domain of oceans materialized around Takeshi, drowning over twenty clones inside!

"I did good on holding back until there were a lot around me!"

Even Takeshi was much more than Tear thought.

"Now... {Sea Serpents}! Keep them there!" Takeshi roared. The waters quickly shaped into dozens of sea serpents, wrapping around the clones, and keeping them trapped within their water-made bodies!

FLUOSH!

"Now, Tear, freeze them!" Takeshi said. "I can't hold them for too long!"

"I see, he wants me to freeze them so we can destroy them more easily!" Tear thought. "After all, they cannot drown and will keep on trying to free themselves."

Tear left Laura within the barrier she made, appearing in front of Takeshi, and freezing the Ocean Domain, the clones trapped in the waters were quickly turned into frozen statues!

"{Fishing Rod Technique}: {Metallic Thread Serpent}!"

Takeshi's fishing rod's thread quickly grew several times larger, its hook turning into the head of a huge metallic serpent, catching the frozen bodies and wrapping around them, shattering them apart one after another, while Tear's Frost Giant Fists pulverized them!

CRASH! CRASH! CRASH! "Tch...! You bastards!" The Vampiress roared, emerging from the shadows again, more and more clones kept pouring from her Miasmic Aura. "Don't think this is over yet!"

Chapter 876 Incredible Teamwork!

876 Incredible Teamwork!

The Vampiress' clone army emerged from the shadows, attacking Laura's barriers of frost, the clones ganging on it and constantly attacking it, countless cracks spreading through it already!

"Dammit, this bitch can't even take a rest for a bit?!" Laura thought, quickly gathering her explosive fire magic around her hands, and merging it with her chaos magic. "I might be quite fragile compared to Takeshi or Tear, but my magics pretty damn explosive!"

BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM!

She touched the barriers willingly, exploding them one after another, the explosions easily blowing up a dozen clones, as she started gathering more blazing explosive flames around her, combining them together and forming a giant creature behind her back!

"What is that?!" The Vampiress muttered.

"Say hi to my buddy!" Laura smiled almost maniacally. "{Abyssal Chaos Explosion Demon Summon}!"

FLUOSH!

"GRUOOOHHHHH...!"

The gigantic being, made out of explosive black, red, and purple flames materialized around her, as huge as twenty meters, its very presence seemed overwhelming!

"{Explosive Demon Claws}!"

"RAAAAH!"

Without even waiting for a response from her malefic attacker, Laura unleashed a barrage of claw attacks, blowing up many clones, the power of her special Explosion Demon Summon was that she could unleash explosions farther away and with strong physical might added into it!

BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM!

She barely bought enough time for Tear and Takeshi to get close to her, only for the Vampiress to emerge behind her once more, sneaking on her through her Shadow Sneak Skill, a very common skill among Vampires. Laura's demon was too busy dealing with all the clones!

"You're dead, BRAT!" The Vampiress roared, half her face was burned and had yet to regenerate. "{Dark Assassination Arts}: {Armor Breaker}! {Heart Piercer}!"

Her only dagger suddenly gathered blood and dark energies, clashing against Laura's armor, and shattering it with a single, mighty blow!

Crack, crack.... CRAAASH!

However, that wasn't all, as she swiftly moved her dagger towards the girl's heart, attempting to pierce it and kill her with a single hit!

"You weak mortals die so easily with this!"

SLAAASH!

"GUH...?!" Laura vomited a mouthful of blood, her sharp red eyes glaring at the woman in front of her with utter hate and frustration!

"Heh! Serves you right!" The Vampiress laughed... However, Laura simply smiled, showing the Vampiress her sharp fangs... And then touching her clothes.

"You know that my heart is not there, right?" Laura laughed. "I'm a chimera..."

"Huh?!"

BOOOMMM!!!

Laura detonated the Vampiress blouse and her armor into pieces, blowing her away as flames took over her entire body!

Her body rolled over the ground, as she constantly screamed in agony!

"GRYYYYAAAAHHH! MY BODY! IT BURNS SO MUCH!"

She desperately started tearing apart her burning clothes as Laura fell to her knees again, Tear and Takeshi catching up with her as they demolished the clones rushing towards them.

"You reckless girl, did you do that again?!" Tear was about to cry in frustration.

"Don't worry, I can heal a wound like this easily." Laura imbued Miasmic Energies into her chest, the wound stitching itself together. "After all, those clones got a lot of miasma we can absorb."

"You're right!" Takeshi nodded.

"We should finish her off while we can though, hurry!" Tear said, leading the trio towards the struggling Vampiress.

"Not a single STEP!!!"

However, the Vampiress revealed her true powers... and form as the countless of clones emerging from her Miasmic Aura started to meld into a black liquid, fusing with her body!

TRUUUMMM...!

Her appearance quickly changed, resembling a hue black wolf, with four crimson-colored eyes and a long, sharp tail. Her size over three meters, yet the power she emanated was otherworldly!

"You've pushed me this far; I have to recognize your efforts..." She laughed, showing her sharp fangs.

"But it'll only last for this long! I'll tear your flesh apart! GRAAAH!!!"

FLAAASH!

With a speed the trio didn't expect, the black wolf reached them, moving across the endless shadows of this dark space, appearing around them, constantly moving around, trying to make confuse them!

"RAAAHH!"

Suddenly, after disappearing once, she reappeared through the shadows, her gigantic jaw reaching Tear's leg, and strongly biting through it!

CRAAASH!

"URGH?!" Tear groaned in agony, but quickly gritted her teeth, gathering her freezing powers into her fists. "Don't think you can just do that easily!"

BAAAM! BAAAM! BAAAM!

Three powerful punches hit the wolf, as she quickly escaped, only for her aura to expand, countless wolf-like heads appearing around them!

"And don't think I can just bite!"

Each jaw fired powerful beams of darkness against them, constantly appearing and disappearing! Tear and Takeshi lifted barriers of ice and oceanic water, defending the trio while Laura was constantly gathering her powers into her Demon, who frantically crushed the heads one after another!

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! "I wonder... Who's the real one~"

The wolf laughed, suddenly emerging from above! Laura quickly targeted her, firing a huge fireball into her face!

BOOOMMM!!!

However, the wolf disappeared, revealing another jaw right below her, trying to bite her leg off with a single bite, something that it couldn't do with Tear as she was a physically strong Ice Giant, but totally possible for Laura's much smaller and weaker body!

"YOU!"

Takeshi noticed it earlier, his fishing rod wrapping around the wolf's jaws seconds before it could snap his sister's leg, and then cutting the wolf into pieces!

BOOOOMM!!!

"Another dummy?!"

As Takeshi said that three more jaws appeared, one biting Tear's right arm, which she pulverized with a frost fist, the second reached Takeshi, biting his fishing rod and dragging him into the floor, and the third... targeted Laura, the one the Vampiress hated the most, appearing right beneath her, trying to devour her completely!

"RAAAAH!"

"Of course you'll target me, you hate me after all."

However, Laura, in that very moment, dropped a dozen stones she had touched beforehand, which she had saved in her pocket as "pocket bombs"!

"GULP?! GUH...?!"

The Vampiress realized too late what she ended swallowing her, seconds before her entire body...

"Y-YOU DAMN...!"

BOOOOMMM!

With an agonizing shriek, she was torn to pieces, blowing up from the inside out!

The trio was left paralyzed after the sudden death of the headache-inducing vampire woman, dropping into the floor, and sighing in relief.

"Hahhh... Laura, you really earned yourself a trophy, well done." Takeshi laughed.

"You were amazing, yeah..." Tear said.

"I wouldn't had been able to get this far without your help..." Laura smiled. "Now... where the heck are we?!"

The trio quickly stood back up, their wounds healing with their advanced magic spells they had learned from Emeraldine, who taught them all how to create diverse spells by magic circle and rune creation.

Even frost spells that could heal ice giants existed, and Takeshi and Laura were able to heal their wounds with the leftover miasma in the surroundings.

"I think we're trapped in some sort of... domain, a dimension or something." Tear said. "It is dangerous... But we need to break out of this, somehow..." She sighed, caressing her necklace's jewel, Veredorr's Soul Crystal, which she did whenever she felt nervous.

"I can sense the connections, rivers of miasma, chaos, and void connecting into a pseudo dimensional barrier..." Laura said, touching something invisible. "Takeshi, help me break this too."

"Alright!" Takeshi nodded.

"Wait, you have to just break it?!" Tear was shocked, seconds before...

CRAAASH!

Chapter 877 A Group Of Strong Children

877 A Group Of Strong Children

"Come on, let's play a game, we are all of the same age, right?!"

"Yes, please, don't be afraid of us!"

FLAAASH!

Fabian and his friends found themselves cornered by two child-like vampires, covered on black robes, and with huge crow-like wings behind their backs.

As they flew around them to intimidate them, they constantly released a black and white mist everywhere, confusing them further.

"What with this mist?!" Spectra asked, looking around.

"Don't breath it!" Fabian said, quickly conjuring several spears of Demonite. "Don't get any closer!"

FLASH! FLASH! FLASH! FLASH!

The spears made of Demonite flew across the skies at a fast speed, reaching the two flying vampires. However, the two swung their hands, revealing bird-like claws on them, blocking the spears, and shattering them on contact!

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH!

"Pfff, too weak!"

"Do you truly believe you can stand a chance a with such weak magic?!"

"My spears are being broken so easily?!" Fabian thought, gritting his teeth. "Fabian, watch out!"

Suddenly, Spectra emerged right next to Fabian, pushing him away as the mist surrounding them shaped into a gigantic claw, attempting to grab him!

CRAAASH!

"S-Shit!" Garon cried.

"Fabian! Spectra!" Beery ran towards the two.

"Wait, Beery, be careful!" Nick ran to help his friend.

FLUOSH!

However, the mist changed its shape once more, countless tentacles materialized out of it, white and misty in form, but physical, wrapping themselves around the small Beery!

"Uuaagh!"

Beery was quickly dragged into the mist's depths, the two flying vampires laughed, without even going to kill the children themselves, they simply wanted to see them suffer, slowly.

"No!" Fabian cried.

"Beery! They got him!" Spectra panicked.

"Wait!" Garon roared.

"Hehehehe! One gone!"

"I wonder who's next!"

The two Vampires laughed mischievously, as Nick couldn't take their "jokes" any longer, his entire body overflowing with his Miasmic Powers.

"Y-YOU! GIVE BACK BEERY!" Nick roared, hitting the ground, his body exuding a deadly poisonous gas around him, which he quickly started to shape similarly to the mist! "Two can play the same game!"

The Poisonous Gas he exuded shaped into several snake-like forms, slightly materializing themselves into temporarily physical forms, clashing against the tentacles dragging Beery away!

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH!

"SHAAAH!"

The two Vampires were surprised that Nick from all other children was somehow capable of destroying their strange Mist Magic, growing furious, they amplified their attacks.

"Do you think you can go against our magic?!"

"We'll teach you a lesson you'll never forget!"

The two held hands as they raised their arms into the air, the Mist quickly gathered above them, and then took a strange shape!

"{Abyssal Mist Magic}: {Darkness Mist Spirit}!"

FLUOSH!

The white mist turned into black mist, shaping into the form of a huge humanoid demon-like being, rushing down and clashing against Nick's snakes made of poison, beheading them, and destroying them easily with its giant fists!

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLAAASH!

"Eeep!" Beery was constantly running away from the battle between mist-like beings, until the Mist Demon Spirit reached him, his two fists fusing into a huge sword!

"Uwaaagh!"

The young boy cried, pointing his tiny hands at the Demon, countless amounts of plants emerging from within them almost endlessly! Vines, mushrooms, branches, and sharp roots, stopping the summoned monster temporarily!

FLAAASH!

"GRUUHHH?!"

The Mist Demon was forced to step back, giving time for Garon and Fabian to attack it from the back! Garon unleashed an enormous blazing aura, his fists blazing with flames, while Fabian started gathering his powers into a single, bit projectile!

"{Ifrit's Volcanic Explosive Fist}!"

"{Great Demonite Abyssal Spear}!"

Garon gathered all his powers into his right arm, as a gigantic fist made of volcanic lava, flames, and magma materialized, clashing against the Mist Demon, and making it overflow with blazing flames!

At the same time, Fabian's strongest spell descended, in the shape of a huge black spear made of black Demonite, piercing the Mist Spirit's chest!

CRAAASH!

Both powerful attacks managed to destabilize the Spiritual Demonic creature, its entire magical structure falling and exploding into mist, dissipating!

POOF!

"W-We did it!" Fabian gasped for air. "Beery! Is he okay?!"

"I'm fine!" Beery sighed. "Ugh, but what are we going to do about those two? They're a bit too tricky to deal with!"

"Ahh, they're spreading Mist again?! Give us a break, will you?" Nick complained, the two Vampires laughed.

"We can't give you a break, that'll be too boring, you know?"

"It's more fun when we continue playing, forever!"

The two bizarre child-like Vampires kept spreading their mist everywhere, hiding behind the Mist as the domain they created started to change.

"Let's do something more fun, sis!"

"Sure thing, bro!"

"{Abyssal Mist Magic}: {Demonic Mist Spirit Hands}!"

The two "twins" gathered their power once more, as the children in front of them saw them combine the Mist together into countless of hands, with red eyes into them...

FLUOOOSH!

"W-What now?!" Spectra cried.

The hands quickly started descending towards them, attacking with strong punches that sent tremors down into the ground each time they clashed into the floor!

BAAAM! BAAAM! BAAAM!

"Dammit!" Fabian could only evade and escape the attacks, nobody in the group was strong enough to take these hits head-on, not even their strongest physical fighter, Garon.

"Just run, keep evading!" Said Nick. "{Miasmic Poison Gas Magic}: {Swirling Poison Tornado}!"

Nick gathered his strength, unleashing a powerful tornado of poisonous, purple-colored gases, clashing against three of these hands, but there were dozens of them! BOOOMMM!!

"Fufu, how about we spice things up a bit?"

"Now! Fire!"

The twins laughed, as the hands' red eyes suddenly started glowing bright red, gathering their energies, and firing deadly lasers of blood energy against the children, countless explosions raining down on them!

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM! "{Phantom Magic}: {Phantasmal Barrier}!"

Spectra fused with her phantasmal energies, trying to imitate what Nyx or Maria could do, and unleashing a wide barrier of phantasmal energies, which somehow managed to tank a few hits...

Before shattering!

CRAAASH!

"It's useless~"

"You're too weak!"

"I thought that because they defeated one of those paladin chimeras, they were a big shot, but I was wrong."

"Yeah, right? Hahaha!"

"You bastards...!" Fabian grew more and more furious, his Miasmic Powers beginning to overflow from his body.

Suddenly, his horns started to grow larger, made out of Demonite...

Chapter 878 Deadly Twins

878 Deadly Twins

Although they were handling things just fine, they lacked experience, and their foe was much more unpredictable than they imagined, the Demonic Mist Spirit Hands were stronger as well, and harbored many clones of themselves, moving everywhere, attacking strongly both physically and magically, and above all, they were unpredictable and fast!

Due to their lack of fighting experience and the proper usage of their abilities, Fabian and his friends were getting quickly overwhelmed! The Paladin that turned into a hydra beast back then was easier to handle as it was just a mindless beast at the end, easy to corner and cut down to pieces slowly.

But this was much different. The Demonic Mist Spirit Hands hovered above Fabian and Spectra, their eyes beginning to glow bright red, preparing another deadly shower of lasers!

"It's useless~"

"You're too weak!"

"I thought that because they defeated one of those paladin chimeras, they were a big shot, but I was wrong."

"Yeah, right? Hahaha!"

The twin Vampires mocked them, making Fabian quickly lose his temper, this combined with the stress, frustration, and exhaustion of overusing his abilities made him grow madder than he ever thought he could get.

"You bastards...!" His Miasmic Powers began to overflow from his body, and suddenly, his horns started to grow larger, made out of Demonite. An untapped power within him was beginning to awaken!

FLUOOOSH!

A miasmic and powerful aura erupted from his body, as a third red eye opened over his forehead, and dark and purple scales made out of Demonite grew on his legs and hands, while his nails became huge and sharp claws made of Demonite too!

Ding!

[The Power within your {Demonite Heart Core}'s {Miasmic Ability} has begun to fully awaken...!]

[The power of the {Miasmic Ability}: {Demonite Control} has become {Demonite Demon}!]

[All Stats have temporarily increased by +200%, you can now create Demonite with half the MP Cost!]

[However, your sanity is slowly being consumed by the Miasma overflowing across your body...]

"GRRAAAAH!"

With a furious roar, Fabian rushed forward, seconds before the red lasers were to reach him and Spectra! Their friends ended being separated from them once more, too far away to help as well.

"Fabian?!"

Spectra was surprised as she saw him change, pouncing forwards at full speed, his sharp claws overflowing with dark and miasmic powers, as he swung them furiously.

SLAAASH! SLAAASH! SLAAASH!

Each slash summoned hundreds of small Demonite Spears, which flew towards his target. Aside from the slashing attacks themselves, these spears pierced through the Demonic Mist Spirit Hands, making them explode into mist constantly!

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM! BOOM! "What?! He got stronger out of nowhere!"

"Has that child awakened their Miasmic Ability?!"

The twins naturally knew about Miasmic Abilities, special, very strong Abilities developed by those that survive the transplant of a Demonite Heart Core, or similar abilities.

After all, their own {Demonic Mist Manipulation} was also a Miasmic Ability, but it was much more connected with the Fragments of the Corrupted Oasis Spirit's body rather than the Evil God, hence why it was connected with Mist, produced from water.

"Hmph, don't get ahead of yourself!"

"A brat like you can't beat us!"

The twins roared, pointing their hands at Fabian as they combined dozens of Demonic Mist Spirit Hands together into a two enormous arms!

"{Abyssal Mist Magic}: {Demonic Mist Fusion: Demonic Mist Spirit King's Arms}!"

TRUUUMMM...! TRUUUMMM...!

Both of those gigantic arms rushed down towards Fabian, as they fired countless of red beams against him!

"RAAARRGH!"

However, Fabian let the Miasma consume his judgement, it was his first time transforming, incapable of controlling himself!

He swung his claws, clashing against the powerful beams, redirecting them away or letting his own claws explode into pieces, quickly regenerating back.

The more he regenerated, the more Demonite grew all over his body. Spectra and her friends watched in horror as his entire body was growing black, purple, and red crystals all over, completely changing how he even looked like.

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH!

"RAAAH!"

He continued fighting, destroying the arms' beams until their giant fingers attempted to crush him!

BAAAMMM!!!

However...!

SLASH! SLASH! SLASH!

Countless of slashing attacks covered the entire demonic mist hand, cutting its fingers apart as Fabian crawled out of it, his body falling into pieces and revealing his bleeding skin underneath.

"Wait, Fabian! Don't be reckless! You're pushing yourself too hard!"

Spectra and her friends reunited and ran to help Fabian, as the second arm was coming directly towards him, crushing him once more!

BAAAMMM!!!

"GYAAGH...!"

This time, he didn't had enough strength to resist, his stats by themselves were fairly low as he wasn't a strong as any of Maria's family members yet, even with all the buffs, there was much he could do alone...

Several spears made of Demonite materialized, piercing the entire arm covering Fabian as he tried to free himself, but the arm was still holding on, the piercing blows seemed to not affect it as much as cutting it and separating it into pieces.

"You sure are a persistent ant, just die already."

"Your ability was interesting but... you're just a stupid brat anyways!"

The twin vampires laughed maliciously, suddenly empowering the two Demonic Arms, regenerating them, and making them hold Fabian in midair, slowly beginning to crush him! His Demonite Scales began shattering into pieces, piercing his skin, and making him bleed...

"FABIAN!"

Spectra and her friends cried, rushing to his aid, but the twins smiled, suddenly, several spears of blood reached them from behind!

"EH?!"

"We specialize on Mist Magic but... we can also do some Blood Magic."

"We're vampires after all, dumbasses~"

"No...!"

Spectra tried to create barriers, but they were shattered instantly, the projectiles swiftly reaching her, about to impale her and her friends!

TRUUUMMM...!

However, in that split of a second, the twin Vampires noticed a weird disturbance on the Void of the Domain, two gigantic claws pierced through it, shattering the invisible walls dividing each Domain!

CRAAASH!

"ROOAAARRR!"

And a gigantic black dragon emerged from within, carrying two people on her back!

By swinging her gigantic wings rapidly, a tempest of dark winds redirected the blood spears away, saving Spectra and her friends, all while she swung her long spear-tipped tail, cutting both arms trapping Fabian!

SLAAASH!

"W-Who is that?!" Spectra cried in surprise.

"N-Nyx...?!" Fabian opened his eyes slowly.

"I made it in time!" Nyx smiled.

Chapter 879 Nyx To The Rescue!

879 Nyx To The Rescue!

SLAAASH!

Nyx furiously slashed both of the Demonic Mist Arms into pieces with her tail, catching Fabian on her big hands and barely managing to keep him alive enough time for Celes to run towards him and heal his wounds!

"{S-Spiritual Recovery Water}!"

SPLAAASH!

A lot of cold water covered Fabian's hurt body, healing him from his wounds rather rapidly, and helping him open his eyes again.

"N-Nyx...?" He muttered, surprised she had appeared, and on her dragon form no less.

"I made it in time!" Nyx smiled, showing her intimidating sharp fangs.

"She's Nyx?!" Spectra and the rest of Fabian's friends reacted in the same, surprised manner.

They didn't exactly have seen her transform before, so they were greatly shocked to find out this huge black dragon was her!

"Oh, she brought Celes and Nia! I'm glad they're fine!" Beery sighed in relief.

"Celes healed Fabian too... Did he develop healing magic? Amazing!" Garon said.

"Hey, you two! Are you scared now? You better be!" Nick smiled with a cocky smile. "Our super strong dragon friend's here! You're screwed!"

"Y-You...!"

"A damn oversized lizard..."

"Dares interrupt our fun game?!"

"Unforgivable!"

The Vampire twins grew madder, their eyes glowing bright red beneath their masks, as their crow-like wings started growing larger, suddenly revealing countless red eyes across them.

"Did you had to say that?!" Spectra slammed Nick's head with her hand. "Now you made them get serious!"

"Eep! S-Sorry!" Nick cried.

"More weird monster vampires..." Nyx looked into the skies, as the twins started spreading more and more of their white mist, which suddenly took a different color, becoming pitch black instead.

"You're baddies too for hurting my friends!" Said Nyx angrily, letting Celes and Nia step down, putting them and her friends behind her big dragon body.

"Nyx, are you sure you're going to fight again?" Nia was worried. "You've fought too much!"

"Don't worry auntie Nia, Celes healed me!" Nyx smiled, confident.

"Baddies you say?!"

"YOU are the baddies here!"

The Vampire Twins roared furiously, the mist quickly covering each of their bodies, as they grew giant arms and wings, with several eyes, all made of mist!

"{Abyssal Mist Magic}: {Demonic Mist Spirit King's Armor}!"

FLAAASH!

"They got armor made of Mist?! Does that even work?" Nick wondered, gathering his poisonous winds around his hands to generate a huge attack.

"Well, it sure does look intimidating though!" Garon said, his body beginning to flare with flames.

"Let's give Nyx a bit of our help if we ever can!" Spectra said, her phantasmal aura shaping into the form of a giant white ghost lady. "Protect Fabian, Celes, and his mom!"

"Okay!" Beery nodded, his roots and vines spreading from his legs into his surroundings. "You guys..." Fabian muttered, still feeling tired. "Ugh..."

"D-Don't talk too much for now, big brother! You're too tired! Rest!" Celes said, still healing him.

"You sure have good friends." Nia smiled.

"I-I do..." Fabian smiled faintly. "Alright, if you're helping, assist me on getting to them! I'll pull them down from the sky!" Nyx said, her powers overflowing from her body!

FLUOSH!

"Alright!" Spectra and her friends nodded.

The overconfidence of the brats made the twins even angrier, without waiting their words to finish, they attacked. The four gigantic demonic mist arms descended, suddenly summoning giant weapons to attack with, a sword and an axe.

"You won't have a chance to get to us anyways! Just die, oversized ugly lizard!"

The twins said at the same time, attacking Nyx and her friends. The two weapons descended rapidly, with slashes that devastated everything, reaching Nyx!

"Ugly lizard?! I'm a cute dragon!" Nyx furiously flew into the skies, her entire body overflowing with Phantasmal Flames as she spread out her arms, summoning dozens of phantom dragons alongside her!

"{Phantasmal Dragon Fusion Magic}: {Abyssal Phantasmal Dragon God Claws}!"

Two gigantic dragon arms emerged out of her own arms, made out of phantasmal energy from condensed phantom dragons. Both arms quickly blocked one of the weapons, the huge axe, but the sword kept descending!

Spectra's hair fused with her phantasmal aura, allowing her to make it grow to incredible sizes, reaching all the way into the skies and wrapping itself around the sword!

"{Fire Demon Magic}: {Ifrit's Explosive Horns}!"

Garon summoned the gigantic head of a blazing volcanic demon, materializing above him as it flew into the skies, clashing against the sword with its two giant horns, blazing with flames!

"{Miasmic Poison Gas Magic}: {Swirling Poison Tornado}!"

Nick conjured the same spell from before, but this time, it was two! Two enormous tornadoes made of miasmic poison reached the huge sword, and then turned into snakes, coiling around it.

"{Miasmic Plant Magic}: {Corrupted Gaia's Fist}!!!"

And unexpectedly, Beery summoned his very first offensive magic, combining countless black and dark plants together into a gigantic ascending fist, clashing against the sword!

CRAAASH!

The combined attacks of everyone plus Beery made the sword begin to slowly gain countless cracks!

Crack, crack... CRACK!

"Nice!"

Nyx used this opportunity right away, swallowing air and then unleashing a devastating breath attack while holding back the giant axe in that split of a second!

"{Abyssal Chaos Breath}!!!"

TRUUUM!

The beam not only shattered the sword but it blew off the entire gigantic demonic mist arm, reaching the axe she was holding back and damaging it severely too!

BOOOMMM!!

But that wasn't all, as Nyx' giant Phantasmal Dragon God's Claws swung rapidly, combining their power with her another of her Skills!

"{Phantasmal Death Claws} + {Obsidian Demonite Crystal Scale Armor} = {Obsidian Demonite Crystal Phantom Death Claws}!"

By combining the effects of two Skills at once, Nyx learned a new ability, encompassing the claws of phantom with black crystals, making them much stronger!

"RAAAHHHH!!!"

CLAAASH! CLAAASH!

Both attacks not only destroyed the axe, but reached all the way into the twins, their eyes opening wide, the two desperately using their gigantic wings to defend!

"{Phantom Detonation}!!"

However, Nyx knew that, easily making the two claws detonate, exploding right in front of their wings and faces!

BOOOM! BOOOM!

"W-What...?!"

"URGH...!"

The twins suddenly saw their wings disintegrate in mere seconds, Nyx appearing right in front of them at lightning speed!

"ROOOAAARRR!"

And with another dragon breath... she blew them up into bits!

TRUUUM!

Chapter 880 Lucifer's Wrath

880 Lucifer's Wrath

The twins couldn't easily defend from a point-blank breath attack, their small bodies disintegrating completely before they could even muster another word of frustration...

Their game was over much faster than they could have imagined!

"S-She did it..." Fabian slowly stood up, feeling better. "You guys did it too!"

"Fabian! Are you okay?!" Spectra ran to see him.

"Y-Yeah, don't worry about me, I'm fine!" Laughed Fabian. "But you guys were awesome there!"

"We wouldn't had been able to do anything without Nyx carrying the whole operation." Nick said. "She's the real deal here."

"We couldn't compete with those vampires at all..." Garon seemed slightly disappointed on himself.

FLASH!

Nyx quickly turned back into her smaller, humanoid form, and descending from the skies, landing in front of her many friends.

"What are you saying, you guys? You were super awesome there! Thanks for helping me! Without you, I wouldn't had been able to defeat them so quickly." Nyx smiled gently.

Maria and Lucifer's daughter was sure adorable, and her personality always cheered everyone up, this wasn't the exception, everyone quickly felt more at ease with her around.

"Hehehe, well, I'll take the compliment!" Beery said with a cocky smile.

"Beery from all people?!" Nick asked in shock. "Fine, I guess we helped a bit."

"Thank you for helping anyways, Nyx!" Spectra hugged Nyx tightly. "But how did you get here? And where are we exactly?"

"Nyx, did you helped Celes and Nia out?" Garon asked with a smile. "I don't know where we are and... Yeah, I helped them!" Nyx nodded. "Nyx did said she saw as if we were in some sort of domain, children." Nia said, joining the conversation with Celes and Fabian. "The culprits are most likely the organization that is also cooperating with the Saintess, the Warlocks of the Underworld, Vampires... but a weird family of them that experiment on their own bodies to gain "enlightenment" or something... They were originally aiming for my son."

"I-I see..." Garon sighed. "Well, it's good that we're all together, our chances of survival increase!"

"Yeah!" Beery nodded happily.

"But where should we go now?" Nick wondered.

"Hmmm..." Nyx started wondering about it. "I can sense some sort of disturbance over there... Maybe that's another wall leading somewhere else!"

"Then we should go there and help anybody in there too!" Fabian said, feeling much better.

"Are you feeling okay? Don't you need to rest a bit?" Spectra asked.

"Yeah man you went completely all-out there..." Nick said. "What was that?"

"I-I don't know but... I felt like a power within me was constantly consuming me." Fabian sighed. "I couldn't control that power and almost killed myself though.."

"You'll learn how to use it eventually!" Nyx was very positive as usual. "For now, eat something and then we go help others!" She offered sandwiches and fruits to everyone.

"Food!"

Everyone quickly started eating happily, the more mana and energies they used, the more tired and hungry they got, so this was ideal.

Once they finished eating, everyone moved aboard Nyx's huge draconic back on her dragon form, as she flew into the dark skies, piercing through the void once more!

CLAAASH!

Meanwhile, Lucifer and Jonathan, an unlikely duo, found themselves trapped too, trying to comprehend their situation. "This space is some sort of highly advanced domain... It is fueled with many energy sources and a single, strong core... But it's all... Void?" Lucifer analyzed things rather well. "Wait, Void? Can the Evil God Fragments generate something like a small dimension? Or is it the same component that the Chimera Paladins had in their hearts...?"

"Over there! Look!" Jonathan heroically said, pointing at something, distracting Lucifer from his thoughts.

"Tch, what is it now?! Can't you keep your mouth shut for five seconds, little hero?" Lucifer said angrily, suddenly noticing what Jonathan was pointing at. "Huh?!"

Something strange slowly dragged itself out of the shadows, an old man covered in black cloaks, which slowly was lifted off the ground, revealing itself to be attached to a long scaly neck, belonging to a much larger, and stranger body behind.

"Hehehehe... The soul of a strong human and a majin... Our Great Lord will surely be pleased!" The monstrous creature spoke.

Lucifer, with his sharp eyes, quickly noticed that the being's real body was behind the darkness, resembling a gigantic, decaying dragon body. Anger quickly started swelling within his heart as he recalled how his previous wife, Crystal, was treated by the Evil God Fragment.

Was the component of this aberrant old man also some poor dragon that got tortured and turned into some sort of monstrosity?! He couldn't accept it!

"You're behind this, huh?" Lucifer asked, his claws beginning to conjure Abyssal Death Flames. "I'll burn you to ashes and then ask your soul what you're trying to do. And don't you dare escape, I'm going to follow you to the depths of Helheim if necessary!"

FLAAASH!

"W-Wait, Lucifer, don't jump the shark!" Jonathan followed him from behind, as Lucifer rapidly clashed against the bizarre being!

"You're much faster than I imagined, gyehehehe!" The old man laughed, his bald head shining brightly beneath the light produced by Lucifer's flames, as his red eyes glowed brightly, the rest of his body moving before his mental commands. "{Miasmic Dragon Claws}!"

CLAAASH!

A gigantic draconic claw reached Lucifer, he barely was able to react with his own much smaller claws on his humanoid appearance, the claws had black and purple scales on them, Lucifer quickly recognized them!

"Violet?!" He muttered. "YOU BASTARD!"

Lucifer erupted on mighty Abyssal Death Flames, conjuring a gigantic spear of flames, and firing it towards the old man's head!

CRAAASH!

"Lucifer!" Jonathan ran towards Lucifer, noticing something strange!

TRUUM...!

A gigantic eye appeared above the skies, slowly beginning to descend, revealing that it belonged to a huge, deformed draconic head...

The gigantic red eye gathered energies on a split of a second, unleashing a devastating beam of pure blood energy directly over Lucifer's entire body!

BOOOOMMM!!!
