

A God 1001

Chapter 1001: Master of Ningguang Pavilion

The Ningguang Pavilion is located at a high altitude next to the majestic and endless Fulong Mountains outside the capital of Dayue, and it is almost flush with the chaotic clouds. High-rise pavilions, long corridors like belts, twists and turns, high eaves, pecking in the air like beaks. The Chong Pavilion is majestic, surrounded by jade fences, with golden beast faces and Caihuan chi-heads.

Princess Yelan brought the saints from the banquet and teleported to this place, only to see that the sky was high and the clouds were cloudy, and under the sky shrouded in the night, the mountains in the distance seemed to be lower and lower. Under the cloud, there is a splendid splendor, the Phoenix Pavilion and the Dragon Tower, which are solemn and noble in the magnificence.

book

Even some well-informed saints who saw this scene for the first time, all praised it.

"What a heavenly palace." Wang Yi secretly praised.

Ningguang Pavilion is actually the property of a * king of Dayue Kingdom. This * king is proficient in business and is also in charge of the business affairs of Dayue Kingdom. She used her life savings to build this Ningguang Pavilion.

Ningguang Pavilion is actually a treasure of a palace of the god-king level, or a fortress similar to the "Capital of Dayue". Every part of the whole body is made of precious materials to perfection, and it can explode even the king of gods. Yes, there was once a powerful god-king adversary who came looking for trouble, and was abruptly smashed by the owner of the Ningguang Pavilion to escape with serious injuries. The value of this floating pavilion can be imagined.

In terms of wealth, the owner of Ningguang Pavilion is only under the lord of Dayue, and is also ranked first in the origin continent.

"Congratulations to Her Royal Highness Princess Yelan, the venue has been arranged for you." A female Chaos Lord came over and said respectfully. This is the confidant of the owner of Ningguang Pavilion. Ordinary guests do not need her to show up at all, and only a very small number of distinguished guests will receive them in person.

Princess Yelan nodded and said to the people behind her: "You go to the venue first, and I will go to see the master of Ningguang Pavilion."

Of course everyone did not dare to question, including Wang Yi, they all followed the envoy of Ningguang Pavilion to the venue.

An exquisite and exquisite pavilion, quiet and beautiful, hidden in the green pines and cypresses, rockery, rocks, exotic flowers and plants, embellished in it.

A white-haired beauty, standing at the railing of the pavilion, overlooking the majestic capital of Dayue in the distance, overlooking the scenery. With an elegant and mysterious smile on his face, he seemed to be leaning on the railing and meditating while admiring the scenery.

She has long white-blond hair, rolled up by black and gold hairpins, parted from the back, down to the calf, and the scarlet tassel hanging down on the forehead echoes the childish color. Wearing a beautiful and gorgeous long dress in gold, white, and black.

"Your Majesty Ningguang." Princess Yelan came and shouted, with a hint of respect in her cordial attitude.

The white-haired beauty turned her head, revealing a pale face, and smiled.

Looking back and smiling Bai Meisheng, even Princess Yelan was slightly lost for a moment.

"It's Yelan." She said affectionately, "Why, are you looking for me for something?"

Princess Yelan respects the God King Ningguang very much. In addition to the status of the God King Ningguang, she and the God King Juyuan have always been the right-hand man of the King of Dayue, but the God King Juyuan is external and the God King Ningguang is internal.

But no one doubted the strength of the God King Ningguang.

The reason why Princess Yelan was able to monitor Dayue was the support of the God King Ningguang. In essence, the God King Ningguang is half of Princess Yelan's superior.

"Your Majesty Ningguang, I want to find something from your Ningguang Pavilion. This is the list." Princess Yelan's divine power condensed into a text message directly in front of the two of them.

God King Ningguang just glanced at it and understood. There are countless treasures in the Ningguang Pavilion, and the God King Ningguang can get the result by just matching this information with his own treasure house.

God King Ningguang said to Princess Yelan: "Many of these things you want are very rare and rare, and some of them can only be found in my private inventory. My treasure inventory is limited, and I can't give you too much. The list of the treasure competition conference has been announced, and for the reputation of Ningguang Pavilion, I can't give it to you in private."

God King Ningguang looked at her and smiled, "I believe that with your means, it shouldn't be difficult to get it."

Princess Yelan also understands that the reputation of Ningguang Pavilion is the most important, and the God King Ningguang will not favor her.

"Battle? I see." Princess Yelan nodded slightly.

She just wants to sell favors to others, but Wang Yi's current value is not enough for her to have a friendship with the God King Ningguang, and a little effort is fine.

"I want a list of treasures for this treasure competition."

"It's here." God King Ningguang stretched out his jade-like finger lightly, and a little bit of starlight flew out, was caught by Princess Yelan, and smiled softly: "This time the treasure competition is still interesting, it appears Some nice stuff, you can take a closer look."

...

The highest hall in the center of Ningguang Pavilion, a large number of powerhouses are gathered at this moment, all of them are here to participate in the famous treasure competition conference of Ningguang Pavilion. One by one, the chaotic masters with great breath are seated in all parties, and Wang Yi and the others are also there. Sitting down in a special box to discuss, Wang Yi chatted with a few Chaos giants he had just met, and Princess Yelan came back.

"I have already asked you the master of Ningguang Pavilion."

Because it was a private matter, the two talked through voice transmission.

"Most of your list can be found in my Dayue State Treasure House and Ningguang Pavilion, but you need a lot of Chaos Crystals." Princess Yelan was frank. "One of them is already on the list of the competition for treasure. You can only buy it at the conference."

Looking at the marked list, Wang Yi was overjoyed and thanked: "Thank you, Her Royal Highness."

Princess Yelan smiled slightly, "You are my guest, and I will naturally help you. If you still need help, you can tell me."

While thanking Wang Yi, he calculated in his heart. He opened the treasure list of this treasure competition and saw what he needed.

Chaos is heartbroken.

"If I get this treasure, plus the help of Princess Yelan, and the exchange from the Wujianlou, I only need two treasures to refine my clone." Wang Yi secretly thought.

This chaotic heart is a miasma, and it must be obtained, and the competition is fair, Wang Yi is full of confidence.

If this treasure is in the hands of some dangerous place, some big power, he will have a headache.

In such an auction treasure place?

It's about money!

In terms of financial resources, Wang Yi is confident that unless there are a few god-kings, no chaotic master can compete with him!

Although the level of the treasure competition is high, the participants are all chaotic masters, and there are occasional * kings, but it is unlikely that they will compete with Wang Yi for a treasure.

It can be said that nine out of ten.

"The competition for treasure is about to begin." He looked down expectantly.

And somewhere in the palace, a skinny old man with three eyes in a gray robe walked in with several Chaos Lords, one of whom was the Marquis of Nandou who had fought with Wang Yi at the Dayue Palace.

"Sir, this is your position." The envoy of Ningguang Pavilion respectfully welcomed them into the venue.

The skinny old man King Yi Cong looked at the upcoming treasure competition in Ningguang Pavilion, and there was a trace of anticipation in his chaotic eyes. "The chaotic heart is a miasma."

Chapter 1002: Treasure Conference

The treasure hunt has begun.

No one appeared to host, but there were splendid nebula vortexes high in the hall, and hazy stars sprinkled down, suddenly, wow! A meteor pulled out a splendid tail and quickly fell, and there was a faint ups and downs of treasures in it, followed by a soft female voice.

"The first treasure is a Yuan embryo, the base price is 10,000 Chaos Crystals, and the price is increased by at least 100 each time."

The treasures auctioned by the Ningguang Pavilion are all treasures.

A very high-quality Yuan embryo, the starting price of 10,000 Chaos Crystal is normal.

Yuan embryos are also classified into different types. For example, the value of ordinary weapons is lower, while the value of the mechanical flow embryo that Wang Yi sold last time is much higher.

There are many chaos masters gathered here, but some of them are located in various places in the origin continent, but they participate synchronously through the virtual space. The purchased items can be transmitted through the Wujianlou, although a handling fee is required.

"Ten thousand Chaos Crystals."

"Twelve thousand Chaos Crystals."

Primordial embryos, such growth treasures, are generally prepared for younger generations, and theoretically they can grow up to the weapons of the * king.

Seeing this primordial embryo, Wang Yi also thought of his own battle blade primordial embryo and soul primal embryo. After instilling the secret pattern, they both became Chaos Master-level weapons.

The stronger the master, the stronger the power of Yuan embryo.

However, Yuan embryo also has its own limitations, that is, it is only suitable for the owner to use, because the secret patterns on it are instilled by the master's secret method, so a god-king grade Yuan embryo weapon, after getting it, not only to see if it is suitable, but also to comprehend it. Only by thoroughly understanding the above secrets can real power be exerted.

Therefore, the weapons of the * king are indeed precious, but if the master of chaos can't be brought into play, what's the use.

And like ordinary weapons, the secret pattern only allows the weapon to exert more power, but there is no such restriction.

The chaotic masters present have a very high vision and an extraordinary status. Although the primordial embryo is precious, it is not much to look at. It depends on the need. price to buy.

In the nebula vortex, meteors fell one by one, and inside were precious treasures that were auctioned off one by one.

This is probably the highest-level treasure transaction Wang Yi personally participated in. The treasures with the lowest reserve price are tens of thousands of Chaos Crystals.

He, Princess Yelan and many Chaos Lords sat on the seats with excellent views in the hall, listening to the conversation of other Chaos Lords, with a calm expression on his face, but his eyes were shining brightly at the bottom of the hall.

In a corner of the venue, the skinny old man King Yi Cong watched the treasure hunt. He, like Wang Yi, had the same goal as a chaotic miasma, and he had no intention of shooting other treasures.

Time passed, and soon, a soft female voice came from the high altitude of the hall.

"The next treasure is the Void Treasure Plate. This is the Void Treasure Plate that can instantly teleport hundreds of millions of light-years away. If you have this treasure in your hand, it is almost equivalent to an extra life, and almost all prohibition methods cannot be used. It directly isolates its power of transmission. It is refined by the God King Chongli of Wujianlou. Everyone should know the name of God King Chongli. The void is only under the master of Wujiezhu, so this treasure made by him. It is also extremely precious, with a base price of 100,000 Chaos Crystals."

There was a burst of discussion in the venue immediately, and many Chaos Masters were attracted, showing fiery eyes, and the noble and elegant Princess Yelan also showed a hint of interest.

King Yi Cong, who had been casually waiting for the chaotic heart fire to come out, also sat up straight and looked over.

"The God King Chongli of Wujianlou? I heard that he is one of the only two disciples of the God King of Wujianlou." Wang Yi also muttered in his heart.

Although this treasure is good, he is not very tempted, because he already has the "Breakthrough Teleportation Technique", and the functions of the two have overlapped.

But Wang Yi doesn't care, but other chaos masters can't. This kind of strange thing can really save his life at a critical moment. Even King Yi Cong's eyes also showed a greedy look.

The Void Spirit Plate floats quietly in the starlight. It is a gold and silver array plate inscribed with countless complex secret patterns. It can sense the vast fluctuations of the void faintly emanating from the array plate. There are also engravings on the back of the array plate. An exquisite and unusual ancient tree pattern, lifelike! It is very similar to the "Void Ancient Tree" circling the dark serpent "Yuanzu" in the Void Abyss.

"150,000 Chaos Crystals." After a little quiet, there was a voice. Raised directly from the reserve price in half.

"180,000." Immediately, the Chaos Lord made a bid without hesitation.

"Twenty thousand!"

...

The price is rising, and there are no less than five chaos masters participating in the competition at the beginning.

Obviously, this "Void Spirit Disk" was popular with many Chaos Lords, and one Chaos Lord made bids, and the scene immediately became hot.

You must know that there are tens of thousands of chaotic masters in Dayue Kingdom alone, and the treasure competition held by Ningguang Pavilion is famous in the entire origin continent. Space bids compete in far-flung places, so when something truly precious like the "Void Spirit Plate" appears, the competition is fierce.

Even King Yi Cong, who had always been calm and indifferent, couldn't help but bid once, but he was soon left behind. He glanced at the hall and thought of the chaos behind him, so he held back and continued to bid.

"300,000 Chaos Crystals." Princess Yelan couldn't help but speak.

Their group of horses did not cover up, and the chaotic masters in the hall recognized that this was the noble Yelan King and Princess Yelan of the Dayue Kingdom.

But so what, in the Ningguang Pavilion, it is not the background identity, but the financial resources.

What's more, there are many forces here that are not under the jurisdiction of the Great Viet Kingdom to participate in the treasure hunt.

So as soon as Princess Yelan finished speaking, someone immediately answered.

"Three hundred and fifty thousand!"

...

In the end, this treasure that made countless chaos masters heart was bought by a big man who competed through virtual space at an astonishing price~www.mtlnovel.com~ Even Princess Yelan couldn't get it. Of course, this may be related to Princess Yelan herself doesn't care much about it.

There must be a lot of life-saving treasures on the body like Princess Yelan with a deep background, and maybe there are similar "Void Spirit Plates". She may buy this kind of treasure to give to her subordinates or younger generations.

Wang Yi witnessed the whole process with his own eyes, and sighed inwardly, "This Ningguang Pavilion Treasure Competition is indeed one of the top treasure fairs in the entire Origin Continent. Heart-wrenching treasure. Ordinary chaos masters see something here, and they may not be able to buy it if they go bankrupt."

The ultimate chaotic realm like Princess Yelan is standing at the pinnacle of the chaotic masters, and the wealth and wealth far exceed the ordinary chaotic masters, and they may not be able to compete for the treasures they fancy.

Afterwards, Wang Yi watched as the treasures were bought by the powerful from all sides, with a leisurely expression on his face, and he regarded it as having fun.

"brush!"

A starlight fell, and the black chaotic air flow in the starlight kept flowing, revolving around a translucent red flame. This flame faintly fluctuated strangely. If the Eternal True God saw the soul, he would be dizzy.

Chapter 1003: Can't compete?

"Chaos heart fire miasma!"

Wang Yi and King Yi Cong's eyes lit up.

Chaos is a miasma, born from the boundless chaotic void, which can be encountered but not sought after.

Its rarity and special effects are enough to make some Chaos Masters break the head.

At this time, the soft female voice had already introduced the "Chaos Heart Fire Miasma" and announced the reserve price.

"200,000 chaotic crystals, and the price increase is not less than 5,000 chaotic crystals each time."

The corner of King Yi Cong's mouth twitched, and just as he was about to speak, he heard a voice coming from a height.

"500,000 Chaos Crystals!"

"Who robbed me?" King Yi Cong was secretly annoyed, this chaotic heart-fired miasma was very useful to him, otherwise he would not have come in person, instead of letting his subordinates do it for him.

He followed the voice and saw the fat old man in white robe sitting next to Princess Yelan, "Is it him?" King Yi Cong recognized it immediately. This was the red man who defeated his subordinates and made him laugh at his opponent, King Mengz. Daoist Gourd, slightly surprised, then sneered. "Just because you are a loose cultivator, do you want to fight with me?" King Yi Cong was narrow-minded, mocked by King Mengz, and his subordinates were beaten and beaten in the face.

"600,000 Chaos Crystals!" King Yi Cong bid.

"Huh?" Wang Yi also noticed the skinny three-eyed old man underneath. "King Yi Cong? Has he also taken a fancy to this chaotic heart?"

Although he was a little surprised, Wang Yi didn't care, what about King Yi Cong? "Seven hundred thousand Chaos Crystals!"

"Eighty thousand!" King Yi Cong sneered.

"Nine hundred thousand!" Wang Yi didn't care.

"one million!"

...

Only the voices of the two of them sounded in the hall, and the other Chaos Masters couldn't get in.

He was originally interested in this chaos, but was also taken aback by the arrogance of the two, and stopped to watch the situation.

Those on-site powerhouses, or the powerhouses in the virtual space venue, were attracted by the bidding of the two super existences, and there were many discussions.

"One million Chaos Crystals, but for King Yi Cong, it's a trivial matter."

"Who is that red-skinned old man? He's so rich."

"I don't know, but to be able to sit next to Princess Yelan should be a big man, maybe an ultimate realm."

... Most of these powerhouses do not know Wang Yi's origin, and they are watching the excitement while discussing.

Wang Yi and King Yi Cong kept making quotations. Under the competition of the two, the price of Chaos Heart Fire quickly climbed to two million Chaos Crystals, which is a number that makes many Chaos Masters speechless.

Even Princess Yelan looked sideways. Of course, she could use the figure of her wealth, but she would also consider it carefully.

But looking at the expression of the fat old man in white robe, he didn't care.

"2.2 million!" King Yi Cong's expression became colder and colder. Originally, he thought that he could easily crush the Taoist red gourd and take down the chaotic heart, but he didn't expect that the other party's wealth was beyond his expectations, but it made him feel a little distressed.

"2.3 million!" Wang Yi reported a higher number without hesitation.

King Yi Cong looked at Wang Yi, and Wang Yi also looked at King Yi Cong and grinned.

King Yi Cong felt a nameless anger rising from his chest. It has been many years, I don't know how long no one dared to provoke him like this, and now, under the eyes of the public, the entire Origin Continent is gathered at this moment. I don't know how many super existences are here, and he is chaotic. In the ultimate state, King Yi Cong of Dayue Kingdom was crushed by a loose cultivator who appeared out of nowhere, and the other party was not even in the ultimate state of chaos.

King Yi Cong said, "2.4 million..." As if they were * for tat, both of them had increased their prices by 100,000.

"Two million and a half million!" Wang Yi wrote lightly, he didn't want to offend a Chaos Ultimate Realm casually, but if he really wanted to offend, he was not afraid, and from various channels and King Yi Cong's performance, this Yi Cong King Cong has a very small mind, and since he has offended him, he just doesn't care about that much.

Could it be that this King Yi Cong can do anything to him?

Now, apart from the king of gods, Wang Yi has nothing to fear!

"Good! Good! Good!" King Yi Cong stood up, sneered three times at Wang Yi, and immediately left with his subordinates without any hesitation. It is no longer interesting to stay here, and people will make jokes, Yi Cong Wang's face was expressionless, but his heart was full of anger.

Many super beings in the hall witnessed this scene, and the discussion became more heated.

"King Yi Cong, he can't compete with this Daoist Red Gourd."

"What is the origin of this Daoist Red Gourd?"

"King Yi Cong has a bad temper. The Daoist Red Gourd dares to slap him in the face like this in public, I'm afraid he won't end well."

"Heaven Comes"

Everyone thought that when this competition for treasure was over, a voice sounded again.

"Three million Chaos Crystals."

The hall was silent.

Wang Yi, who was originally smiling, frowned, looked over, and saw several powerful Chaos Masters sitting on the high platform in the distance. One of them was a handsome and evil man with a blood mark on his eyebrows. He also looked over. She nodded to Princess Yelan.

"King Hongxue." Princess Yelan frowned slightly and said to Wang Yi, "Daoist Red Gourd, be careful, he belongs to the eldest prince."

"Eldest Prince?" Wang Yi was thoughtful. Although he swept the first prince's face before, he didn't think the first prince would target him at the Ningguang Pavilion conference because of this.

Princess Yelan's expression froze, "Yes, the eldest prince is no better than King Yi Cong. If he wants one thing, there are not many who can compete with him in the whole country of Dayue." Princess Yelan is not very optimistic about the next competition for Daoist Red Gourd, In the face of the eldest prince, even she may not be able to compete. Even if the Taoist Red Gourd is rich in the chaotic masters, he is very powerful if he can compare with the king. How can he compete with the eldest prince who is the king of gods? ?

"The eldest prince also wants this chaotic miasma?" Wang Yi looked over.

The man in red, the evil-looking Red Snow King noticed Wang Yi's gaze, and turned his head to look at him. The eyes of the two met, and the corner of the Red Snow King's mouth twitched slightly.

"What? The eldest prince's people also made an offer?"

And King Yi Cong, who had already left the venue, also got the news~www.mtlnovel.com~ was startled for a moment, and then laughed. "I didn't expect the first prince to want to fight for this chaotic heart. Daoist Red Gourd, I want to see how you fight with the first prince." King Yi Cong was in a better mood.

In the central hall of Ningguang Pavilion, no one was optimistic about the Daoist Red Gourd after discovering that it was the first prince who made an offer.

Normally, how can a Chaos Lord compete with the God King, and how dare he compete with the God King.

"Should give up." Many people thought to themselves. "This Daoist Red Gourd is really unlucky. The treasure he saw was also seen by the First Prince."

"Yeah, it's surprising that he can compete with King Yi Cong, but the first prince... how could he ever compete." Many people shook their heads.

The wealth of a * king is far beyond that of chaos, not to mention that the other party is the first prince of the strongest country in the origin continent.

Just when many people felt that the dust had settled, a calm voice sounded.

"Four million Chaos Crystals."

Chapter 1004: banknote capacity

When they heard that voice, the powerhouses present had another surprise.

Because the person who spoke was the Daoist Red Gourd who they thought had given up.

"Daoist Red Gourd, still want to fight with the First Prince?"

"Where did he get the confidence?"

One by one super existence, curiosity arose in their hearts.

A look of surprise crossed the face of the red-clothed man "Red Snow King".

Then a smile appeared on his face.

"Five million Chaos Crystals."

Adding one million directly showed his strong confidence.

Five million chaotic crystals is not a small amount for the king, but it is not worth mentioning for the eldest prince.

"Six million chaotic crystals." Wang Yi did not change his face.

"I want to see how long you can fight." The Red Snow King secretly said in his heart, and then said:

"Seven million Chaos Crystals."

Under the eyes of the pair, the two strong men kept increasing their prices.

The price has soared, making Chaos Lord feel exciting.

What surprised them the most was that this Daoist Red Gourd, who had never heard of it, had no fame, and who had appeared out of nowhere, actually dared to compete with the First Prince.

"Nine million chaotic crystals." After the Red Snow King finished speaking, his brows were already slightly wrinkled.

Although the eldest prince asked him to buy this "Chaos Heart Fire Miasma", the cost is not unlimited.

And he kept increasing the price, but the Taoist Red Gourd was chasing after him.

"Ten million Chaos Crystals." The red-skinned old man in a simple white robe, slightly fat, with two soft tentacles on his forehead, looked very naive. But what he said made everyone's heart skip a beat.

King Yi Cong, who had already returned to the hall, twitched violently under his eyes when he heard this number.

"Ten million Chaos Crystals, this Daoist Red Gourd is really rich!"

"Today is considered to be another encounter, and this trip was not in vain."

"He is really willing. Although Chaos Heart Fire Miasma is precious, it is hard to say whether it is worth 10 million Chaos Crystals."

"I don't know who will end up in the end."

The strong people present were talking.

Princess Yelan was also very surprised at this moment. At first, she only valued the achievements of Daoist Red Gourd in body training before she was attracted to her, but she did not expect that Daoist Red Gourd was so rich. Without blinking, tens of millions of Chaos Crystals were thrown out.

The Red Snow King's eyes became sharp, he was silent for a while, and communicated with the people behind him, and then said: "Eleven million Chaos Crystals."

"Twelve million Chaos Crystals." Daoist Red Gourd smiled.

"Thirteen million Chaos Crystals." The Red Snow King's voice was low.

"Fourteen million Chaos Crystals."

...

The price of Chaos Heart Miasma keeps rising at an astonishing speed.

Ningguang Pavilion.

When the white-haired beauty heard the report from her subordinates, there was a hint of surprise on her face.

"The eldest prince actually fought with a chaotic master because of chaotic hearts?"

She remembered that the list that Princess Yelan had just brought over had Chaos Heart Fire Miasmas.

"Could it be that Princess Yelan and the eldest prince are fighting?" God King Ningguang thought to himself.

As we all know, among the princes and princesses of the Dayue Kingdom, Princess Yelan and the first prince fought the most fiercely, and even affected the power structure of the Dayue Kingdom, and even had the support of the God King behind them.

God King Ningguang is undoubtedly on Princess Yelan's side. The two of them lead the supervision and control the business of Dayue Kingdom. Of course, they have great power.

The eldest prince himself is the * king, and there is also the support of the * king behind him. Like the * king of Juyuan standing on the side of the eldest prince, more than half of the army of the country is also under the jurisdiction of the eldest prince, and his power is not weaker than that of Princess Yelan, and even stronger.

The two represent the two major factions of the Great Viet Kingdom.

The confrontation between the two giants has a huge impact and has always attracted much attention.

The venue for the treasure hunt.

The price of Chaos Heart Fire Miasma has reached 20 million Chaos Crystals, far exceeding its original value.

The atmosphere in the air seemed to be anxious.

The Red Snow King's face was sinking like water.

Twenty million chaotic crystals, even for a * king, is a small number that cannot be ignored, and it is also the bottom line that the first prince just explained to him.

Any treasure has a bottom line of value. If it exceeds this bottom line, it is not worth fighting for it.

But he couldn't understand, a nameless chaotic master, where did so many chaotic crystals come from.

He couldn't help but glanced at the beautiful blue-clothed beauty beside Daoist Red Gourd, and had an idea. "Could it be that Princess Yelan helped?"

"What a Daoist Red Gourd, I didn't expect to be so rich, it really opened my eyes to this king." The Red Snow King spoke slowly. When he said this, everyone present had a hunch in their hearts. Sure enough, the Red Snow King then said: "This time you won, and the treasure belongs to you."

The words of the Red Snow King meant that he had given up this fight, and the result of the ownership of the treasures would be determined.

There was an uproar at the scene.

"The Daoist Red Gourd actually won, and a chaotic master who is not even a prince, actually won the first prince?"

"Twenty million chaotic crystals, my entire net worth is less than one-tenth."

"Too loser!"

"What is the origin of this Daoist Red Gourd?"

One by one, the chaotic masters have their own thoughts in their hearts, but the eyes of Daoist Red Gourd are full of curiosity and exploration.

Princess Yelan was very happy when she saw Daoist Red Gourd deflating her elder brother, and smiled at Wang Yi: "Congratulations, Daoist Red Gourd."

The Chaos Lord next to him, no matter what he was thinking, did he think that the fat old man was stupid, and he also congratulated him.

With a smile on his face, Wang Yi responded one by one, neither arrogant nor impetuous, and his calm attitude made people feel emotional.

"Eldest Prince, we failed, and the treasure was bought by Daoist Red Gourd." At the same time, the Red Snow King repaid the First Prince.

The eldest prince in his mansion was silent. He doesn't have to get the chaotic heart and miasma, otherwise he will definitely not give up and give it to Daoist Red Gourd so easily.

"Interesting, this Daoist Red Gourd really made me admire him. It is said that he has also become Yelan's guest. My sister is still as accurate as ever..." The eldest prince's eyes flickered slightly. "I just don't know if it's the ability of the Daoist Red Gourd, or she is helping behind the scenes."

The treasure is gone, he doesn't care much, but his sister makes him unhappy.

"Among the heirs of Dayue ~www.mtlnovel.com~ there is only one outstanding person, and that is me." The first prince closed his eyes. He was already very good, and he was the only one among his siblings who became a god-king, but his father's eyes were always more on his sister Yelan.

"The Guard is Here"

The eldest prince also knew that this was related to a secret.

"What's the secret of the tenth floor of Yuanshen Palace? Why does my father want us to reach it so much? But he didn't tell us." The eldest prince thought to himself.

There has always been a legend in the Origin Continent that the tenth floor of the Yuanshen Palace in the Origin Continent contains an unparalleled opportunity, and the only one who gets this opportunity is to cross the tenth floor of the Yuanshen Palace.

God King Goujian is so powerful because of this opportunity.

It is like the supreme secret technique "Lie Yuan Technique" left by the mysterious powerhouse "Yuan" that transcends everything. No one has successfully cultivated it. Once the cultivation is successful, it will be the pinnacle of existence among the gods.

However, in history, only God King Goujian and another person have passed through the tenth floor. One has fallen for countless years, but God King Goujian, the only person who knows it, has never revealed any news, and it has become a secret.

Chapter 1005: Tournament aftermath

The victory of the Taoist Red Gourd in the treasure competition also surprised many super beings in the Dayue Kingdom and looked at them with admiration.

King Yi Cong looked in the direction of Daoist Red Gourd, and his three chaotic eyes flashed brilliantly.

"This Daoist Red Gourd is not easy."

He originally wanted to target this Daoist Red Gourd. But now he has changed his mind.

The persimmons are still soft. Although King Yi Cong has a small mind, it does not mean that he acts recklessly.

The more he is, the more cautious he is.

"Easy to take out 20 million chaotic crystals, which is rare in the ultimate chaotic realm. What's more, it is the eldest prince who is fighting with him. He even dares not to give face to the eldest prince, so what is he relying on?" King Cong glanced at the fat old man in white robe sitting on the high place, and quietly pressed down the dangerous idea in his heart. People who can easily take out so many Chaos Crystals don't care much about the appearance of the eldest prince, but let King Yi Cong feel happy. Dread, dare not act rashly.

"Forget it..." King Yi Cong quietly turned and left.

In the Ningguang Pavilion, the white-haired beauty also paid attention to this competition, and at this moment there was a hint of surprise in her beautiful vermilion eyes. "What is the origin of this Daoist Red Gourd?" She became concerned and decided to ask her subordinates to investigate. The origin continent is vast and boundless, and an old monster may appear at some point.

Tianyu City, Tianyu Palace.

Although King Tianyu and Marquis Yanyue did not go to the Ningguang Pavilion Competition for Treasures, they quickly received the news.

King Tianyu and Hou Yanyue sat face to face in the pavilion, next to the obedient Tianyu Xinqu.

"Father, Daoist Red Gourd spent 20 million chaotic crystals at the treasure competition conference to fight the chaotic heart from the first prince." Yanyuehou couldn't help but said.

Tian Yu Xinqu, who didn't know anything next to her, widened her eyes, 20 million Chaos Crystals?

The majestic man in golden clothes "King Tian Yu" nodded lightly. "Twenty million Chaos Crystals is a big deal."

However, although the 20 million chaotic crystals were amazing, what made King Tianyu and Tianyu Yanyue more concerned was the attitude of Daoist Red Gourd towards the First Prince.

If you don't have enough confidence, how dare you compete with a * king at will?

Although Ningguang Pavilion has always been absolutely fair and protects the safety of guests, it is not something that anyone dares to offend a * king rashly.

The king of gods is high.

But because of this, no one knows whether the great god-king will be angry and punished.

"Father, will Daoist Red Gourd offend the eldest prince this time?" Marquis Yanyue asked in a low voice. He doesn't have a deep friendship with Daoist Red Gourd, but Daoist Red Gourd is the apprentice of his daughter's sweetheart. For this alone, he will pay more attention.

The beautiful woman in green clothes, "Tianyu Xinhui", couldn't help but * up her ears to listen.

As the third generation of the Tianyu family, Tianyu Xinhui has many third-generation children, but she is the only one who often appears beside the Tianyu King, which shows that she is indeed very favored.

During the 100 million era when Wang Yi and his apprentice settled in Tianyu City, Tianyu Xinhui often secretly went out to meet Shi Zhongtian under the eyes of the elders of the family. You farm and I farm.

Daoist Red Gourd is the teacher of his sweetheart, and in Tianyu Xinhui's heart, he is half an elder, and Tianyu Xinhui is naturally concerned.

Tianyu King Tan Ran said: "Don't worry, the eldest prince will not act because of this, the chaotic heart is really important, the eldest prince will not let go to others, and no matter what, the red gourd Taoist is in the Ningguang Pavilion. For the sake of the Ningguang God King, the first prince would not do such a thing, let alone the Taoist Red Gourd who has become Princess Yelan's guest, and there are even more scruples behind this. "

Yanyuehou nodded, and Tianyu Xinhui breathed a sigh of relief.

But King Tianyu then said: "The eldest prince respects his identity and won't do anything, but others may not."

Marquis Yanyue frowned, "Father, you mean..."

King Tianyu showed a strange smile, "The wealth and silk are touching, and the Taoist Red Gourd exposes the fact that he has huge wealth. Just because he bought the Chaos Heart Fire Miasma, he spent the Chaos Crystal that surprised the kings, how much he should have. It's enough to make some strong people excited. Although many people have concerns, there are still people who will take risks."

"Isn't Daoist Red Gourd in danger?"

Tian Yu Wang Tandan said: "At the beginning, you should try it out, just see what the red gourd Taoist has. If it's just a battle power, it may be dangerous."

King Tianyu thought for a while, and then said: "Of course, if he stays in Dayue Country, he should be fine."

Wang Yi now has an identity, that is, the guest secretary of Princess Yelan. Although he is not an official person of Dayue Kingdom, he is also involved. If he is attacked, Princess Yelan will not sit idly by. Behind Princess Yelan is the entire Dayue Kingdom. She is still the daughter of the lord of Dayue, and no force dares to take action in Dayue, even the king of gods may not dare.

There is a terrifying God King Goujian in Dayue Kingdom. In the endless years, there has never been a strong person who dared to kill the capital of Dayue Kingdom.

But... if Wang Yi dares to leave the capital of Dayue, it may not be possible.

Not to mention other forces, even the powerhouses of the Great Yue Kingdom, might even attack!

...

Of course Wang Yi didn't know that his performance in the competition for treasure made some people greedy for him, and he didn't care either.

Dare to come? The * king will kill you!

Wang Yi didn't dare to expose the incarnation of the beast at will, because he was not strong enough, and he was afraid of being targeted and strangled by some people.

Don't dare to expose the destruction of the stars, that is because the destruction of the stars is too special. From ancient times to the present, there has been no way to bring the destruction of the stars out of the destruction cave, even the fragments after the explosion. In addition, the power of the destruction of the stars is too great. Using it, I don't know how many God King's eyes will be attracted.

But it's different now. He got the god-king-level puppet creature Wang Xiaomei from Xumi World... "Rain", this is a powerful combat power that is not inferior to the second-level god-king level!

"I Have a Scroll of Ghosts and Gods"

The second level of the God King~www.mtlnovel.com~ is second only to the peak of the God King in the origin continent.

The so-called peak of the * king is actually very impersonal. It mainly refers to the * king Goujian, the grand master of the Jieshan Palace, the master of the infinite, the first holy master of the ancient clan, the supreme primordial life... This is obviously higher than the ordinary * king. The higher level of the second level.

The second level of the * king, the path of practitioners, is at least a fusion of the two veins of the "cultivation path". Both veins have reached the realm of the universe * and merged, and their strength is naturally much stronger than the first level.

But there are also differences in the second level, such as the fusion of three meridians, four meridians, and five meridians, there are more or less differences in strength, although not large.

If it is some relatively powerful second-level * king, it is not impossible to kill the first-level.

Just like God King Goujian, although it is also the second level, but because he broke through the tenth floor of Yuanshen Palace in the chaos realm, he got some special opportunities, and it is terrifyingly strong and can exert a combat power far beyond his own realm. He is the first * king. The second level is far from his opponent.

That is to say, with this special puppet creature of the second level of the god-king, Wang Yi already has enough self-protection ability in the origin continent.

Chapter 1006: bad intentions

"It's time to go back to Tianyu City to pick up the disciples." The slightly chubby old man in a white robe stood outside the magnificent city wall of Dayue Capital, glanced back at the city wall, and turned to leave.

"Wow!" A stream of light quickly went away, and the capital of Dayue was blocked in the void within a trillion light years. Even the chaotic master had to leave this area to tear through the chaotic void.

There are many people here, and Wang Yi doesn't want people to find out that he masters "ultra-long-distance teleportation", so he wants to stay away.

At this moment, I don't know how many eyeliners are staring at Daoist Red Gourd in the dark.

After all, the most eye-catching thing about the treasure competition was this unknown and little background Daoist Red Gourd.

A chaotic ruler of the eighth-level combat power of Yuanshen Palace is nothing in the origin continent.

Only on the ninth floor of Yuanshen Palace can you qualify for the ultimate chaotic realm! In terms of strength, they are all crushed below the eighth floor.

The eighth floor of Yuanshen Palace, for many Chaos Realms, is not impossible to kill.

Like King Tianyu, King Mengzi, King Yi Cong, Lord Cang Li, Master of the Gold Devouring Pagoda, etc... They are all the most powerful in the Chaos Realm, and they are all standing at the extreme of the Chaos Realm. They killed the seventh floor of Yuanshen Palace with instant kills and slaughter! Killing the eighth floor of the Primordial Palace Tower... that is also absolutely suppressed, and it can usually be destroyed with a few more moves. Their status is not much worse than that of ordinary * kings. Even if * kings want to win over them, they have to be given full status treatment. A Chaos Ultimate Realm is more useful than a large group of Chaos Realm giants combined!

In the vast wilderness, in the endlessly high clouds, at this moment, a majestic figure was standing there. I saw this majestic figure with twelve huge curved corners piercing upwards, with blue waves flowing like a lion-like hair on the temples, The whole body is covered with a layer of golden and cyan mixed, forming a strange pattern of scales. On the chest is a huge eye boy, and a smaller eye boy is embedded in the eye boy, repeating endlessly... The hideous and ugly face has no eyes, no nostrils, only a large purple mouth and two huge fangs.

Holding a strange weapon, he stood in the chaotic airflow clouds at the height of the continent of origin. With special means, he looked at the fat old man in white robe who was breaking through the air and leaving the capital of Dayue, and made a low and hoarse voice.

His voice did not seem to come from him, but from all directions.

"The Daoist Red Gourd, a master of the eighth floor of the Primordial Spirit Palace who had no name and no background in the origin continent before, but was rich in great wealth."

"It cost 20 million chaotic crystals to buy Chaos Heart Fire Miasma, and the wealth on his body is at least over 100 million chaotic crystals." The majestic figure looked at the constantly flying target, and the overlapping eyes on his chest emitted a strange light, "Plundering He makes more money than killing a hundred ordinary Chaos Realms."

A normal Chaos Realm giant has a wealth of millions of Chaos Crystals.

The poor, the unhappy, and even less wealthy.

He casually took out 20 million chaotic crystals and bought a treasure. The Taoist Red Gourd, who seemed to have no background, fell into the eyes of many interested people at the Ningguang Pavilion Treasure Competition.

"The God of Chaos" is one of them. As a loner in the ultimate chaotic realm, he did not rely on any major power. Instead, he likes to act alone. That is, he has a strange personality and likes to loot and kill other powerhouses.

For this reason, "The God of Chaos" has also offended certain forces and was chased and killed by the King of God, but the "God of Chaos" is still alive and well, which shows his ability.

"The three demon bodies I cultivated, except for the deity, all have half of my combat power." The God of Chaos secretly said in his heart. "This time my two avatars have rushed over, and it is more than enough to kill a Yuanshen Palace on the eighth floor."

In the void near the capital of Dayue, there is also a figure. It is a hazy figure shrouded in black smoke. The figure is similar to a human shape. There is a long silver snake tail under it. The tail extends into the void, and there is a black flame behind it. huge cape.

"Eldest Prince, let me pay attention to this Daoist Red Gourd, and I will do it when I have a chance." The existence of the flame cloak is also sensing the Daoist Red Gourd who is far away, "When he is out of the capital of Dayue, find a place to start."

The flame cloak has an unfathomable aura, and every move makes the chaotic world tremble, and it is also an extremely terrifying powerhouse.

He looked at Wang Yi who was flying and sneered.

"Do you still want to run after offending the eldest prince?"

The First Prince was not as generous and merciful as he imagined.

If Wang Yi was a real member of the Great Viet Kingdom, he would not dare to do anything casually.

But a mere guest, still relying on his ill-fated younger sister?

In the capital of Dayue, he still had to worry about the impact and knew that it was not easy to do it, but when Wang Yi left the capital of Dayue, he immediately assigned his subordinates to come over and deal with this little pawn.

He is not worried about what background Wang Yi may have behind him. As the top power in the origin continent, he has this kind of confidence!

Wang Yi, who is flying and gradually leaving the capital of Dayue, is not omnipotent, and he does not know that more than one party is making up his mind at this time.

He is also fearless.

Of course, he also guessed that someone should be following him secretly, so if he wants to leave the capital of Dayue, he will find a chance to get rid of it, and then use the "Breakthrough Teleportation" to return to Tianyu City.

The God King's puppet creature "Rain" is in the palace inside his body, but because of this, it is not easy to use the means to investigate, otherwise, except for the God King, the general Chaos Master will not be able to hide the search of the God King powerhouse.

Of course, in this way, I am afraid it is easy to expose the existence of rain.

And just as Wang Yi left the void blockade of the capital of Dayue—

Whoa! There was no warning at all, a phantom flashed, and the void was torn apart~www.mtlnovel.com~ An arm with a purple shell and red muscles on its surface, with terrifying power, instantly arrived in front of Wang Yi and grabbed Wang Yi. Yi. At the same time, there is a misty black light, directly shrouding it, and the entire void seems to be frozen.

"what!

"Feeling the mighty force that seemed to shatter the universe, Wang Yi's eyes widened, revealing an incredible expression.

And the powerhouses who came nearby and were ready to start were also taken aback.

Those who dare to come and kill are the leaders in the Chaos Realm, at least the peak of Fenghou, and even the ultimate Chaos Realm!

But now sensing the power that destroys the sky and destroys the earth, everyone's faces changed drastically, and their hearts trembled.

"That's..." In their eyes, the time and space around Daoist Red Gourd was shrouded in the shadow of a huge beast with fangs and claws. Death was icy cold, and a terrifying aura emanated, and Daoist Red Gourd was the food in the mouth of that terrifying beast.

"Is that the Black Beast God King?" Some knowledgeable Chaos Realm giants cried out.

Black Beast God King! A god-king loner! Never establish any power, that is the real god-king level powerhouse! Unexpectedly, he would suddenly appear here, and he would bully the small and attack a Chaos Master regardless of his identity.

Chapter 1007: 1 arrow to kill the saint

Such a shameless behavior is what the God King of Black Beasts, who doesn't pay attention to face at all, would do it.

Most of the * kings hold their own identities and attach importance to their face. Generally, they cannot do things by bullying the small, let alone attack the humiliating behavior of Chaos Lord.

But the Black Beast God King is different. The Black Beast God King was originally a beast.

Not to mention sneak attack on Chaos Master, he can do anything shameless, he never follows the rules and does whatever he wants.

The mighty shadow realm controls the entire world.

The God King of Black Beasts became the God King with the "Shadow Dao"! Very good at sneak attack! Although the frontal combat power can only be regarded as ordinary among the * kings, it is extremely difficult to deal with.

If he wanted to make a sneak attack, it would be difficult for even a * king to notice.

I saw the Black Beast God King showing a smug smile. "Little guy, you can be proud of being able to die under my strongest clone."

The Black Beast God King did not come here personally.

Although he dared to kill a Chaos Realm near the capital of Dayue, he did not dare to take risks with the deity.

Instead, he sent his strongest clone, a Chaos clone.

Although it is a clone of Chaos Realm, it has more powerful combat power than Chaos Ultimate Realm!

In his opinion, it is extremely easy to solve a chaotic master on the eighth floor of Yuanshen Palace.

It's a pity that he didn't know about the battle that took place in the palace of Dayue Kingdom. He didn't know how tyrannical Wang Yi's body was, comparable to a Chaos Master weapon.

Of course, the chaotic master-level weapons are actually not that great. It is not difficult for the king of gods to destroy them seriously. The ultimate chaos of chaos can also be destroyed, but it takes time.

"Fairy Wood"

However, Wang Yi didn't rely on his body to carry it completely, and with Wang Yi's treasure, it was naturally different.

But why would he carry it?

Whoa! In the shadow space completely dominated by the Black Beast God King, blue rays of light bloom, and an ice-blue flower bone descends from the rays of light.

It hasn't even come fully yet, just as it was born, the invisible rules naturally began to spread, and spread to the outside world, easily tearing apart the shadow space of the avatar of the Black Beast God King. Even the original operating rules of the origin continent were forced to temporarily retreat in front of it.

The God-king has its own rules of the universe, the rules are spread out, and even the supreme rules within the scope will temporarily retreat.

The nine crystal clear leaves, the surface of the icy blue flowers, and the ice and dew water droplets rolling on the leaves are all very real, and the surrounding temperature dropped sharply, and the temperature in the space dropped to the point of trembling in an instant. Ordinary Chaos Realm has to be frozen to death, cold, absolutely icy... This is just that it has come, and the real power has not erupted at all.

The avatar of the Black Beast God King who had rushed over was instantly frozen in by this beautiful ice flower, like a flying insect in amber, completely still.

Wang Yi stared at the ice-blue flowers suspended in front of him, looked at the leaves and the dewdrops on the flower bones, all of which made him feel the mysterious 'beauty' of the rules.

It was a lotus flower made of cold ice, beautiful and intoxicating, but full of death threats.

And with the complete formation of this ice lotus, the temperature in the entire space dropped to an unbelievable level. This ice-blue ice lotus was suspended in mid-air, and it had no other power other than being cold. An ice flower, even if it can resist the cold, will involuntarily tremble with fear. Fear the threat contained in Huaguduo!

"No! No! No!

"The avatar of the Black Beast God King, who was frozen by the ice flower, had a look of shock and anger in his eyes, but he hadn't died yet, and his entire body suddenly burned completely in the next moment.

"Boom!" The powerful divine power was burning wildly, realizing that the Black Beast God King, who was in a desperate situation, was completely crazy.

This clone, which originally possessed the ultimate combat power of Chaos, has reached a level comparable to that of a God King after burning divine power at any cost and casting secret techniques!

But before he could see the hope of getting out of trouble, he saw a beautiful figure shrouded in a blue halo behind the Chaos Lord, who was regarded as an ant.

In his hand he held an ice blue bow like a crescent moon.

An indescribable sense of crisis rose from his heart, making his soul seem to freeze.

"God King? You are..." Before the idea of the Black Beast God King spread, the ice-blue bow had been pulled and released by her master.

The bow was drawn in a full circle, and an arrow was shot.

swoosh—

When the arrow was shot, a huge shadow of the arrow was faintly appeared in the entire sky, covering the entire world, and the shadows disappeared into the ice lotus.

Pong!

The Black Beast God King, who was completely restricted by the ice lotus, couldn't break free, and could only watch the arrow pass through his body...

Unwilling to say: "You are..."

The tremors of Binglianmeng caused a lot of cracks. The next moment, the clones of the Black Beast God King, including Binglian, collapsed and shattered directly.

An arrow with infinite power directly killed the clone of the Black Beast God King who had exploded into the power of the God King.

Then, the figure in the blue halo and the fat old man in the white robe flickered and disappeared.

When the arrow was shot, the capital of Dayue, which is a trillion light years away, was poured with a strong will.

When the Black Beast God King appeared before, most of them found it and didn't care.

Because it was just a chaotic ruler who had nothing to do with Dayue, so long as it wasn't close to Dayue's capital, they wouldn't mind their own business.

But now it's different. The breath of the arrow just now was too terrifying, and it was too terrifying to directly kill the avatar of the Black Beast God King who was about to reach the God King's combat power with a single arrow.

The clone of the Black Beast God King didn't even struggle.

Therefore, no matter what the powerful gods and kings of Dayue Capital were doing, they were all disturbed.

"Wow!"

"Wow!"

In an instant, one after another towering figures appeared on the outskirts of the capital of Dayue with monstrous coercion, and the overwhelming aura swept out, causing the chaotic clouds in the endless sky to surge.

Almost in a blink of an eye, one after another, nearly ten * kings or deities or clones, projections of wills descended~www.mtlnovel.com~ and those around them were hiding everywhere, and the black beast * king was killed by one arrow before. The frightened Chaos Realm also shuddered and hurriedly saluted those great beings in the sky.

"Meet Your Majesty."

"I have seen His Majesty the King of God."

Of course, there are also people who are unwelcome and afraid of being affected by the "Lord of Chaos Demon", and Chiyu has already sneaked away for the first time.

However, the * kings of Dayue Kingdom didn't have time to take care of these little characters at all. They watched and observed the icy space where the residual terrifying fluctuations remained, all with solemn expressions on their faces.

"The clone of the Black Beast God King is dead." A God King spoke first.

"Which god-king was shooting near the capital of Dayue just now?" A white holy deer-body god-king shrouded in endless divine light made an old voice.

"This method, this breath is very unfamiliar, unheard of, I haven't seen it, who do you know?" God King Juyuan among the crowd said, his eyes were looking at God King Ningguang.

Because he is in charge of commerce, Dayue Kingdom is the most well-informed about news and information, and naturally he is the God King Ningguang.

But they were afraid that they would be disappointed, and there were doubts in the eyes of God King Ningguang.

Chapter 1008: The mysterious red gourd Taoist

"The Black Beast God King, in terms of strength, is not too strong compared to me, but his clone is not easy." A stalwart existence wearing a dark armor that seemed to devour the endless light said coldly.

The other beings also nodded.

In the Origin Continent, as long as they are practitioners, as long as they have learned the avatar method, they all have divine power avatars.

But the avatar method has high and low.

Like the clones of many * kings, their strength is only in the midst of chaos.

Those who have reached the eighth-layer strength of Yuanshen Palace are not bad.

It will be difficult to reach the ninth floor of Yuanshen Palace, the ultimate chaotic realm.

As for those who have reached the level of the king of gods, there are very few.

And there are many reasons for this.

Including being affected by the rules of the source world, which are different for each source world.

In other source worlds, only ancient cultivators and those who comprehend the Void Dao have clones.

The world does not have exactly the same life, nor does it naturally have the same source world.

The Origin Continent is one of the most unique among the countless source worlds. In this Fangyuan world, the strong follow the rules of the universe, from the beginning of the true * to nurture the universe, comprehend the laws of the universe's operation, and generally have avatars, although they are subject to the rules of the source world. Restriction, not only the combat power is affected, but also the number is small.

Or, this particularity is also the reason why "Yuan" pays attention and leaves many guidelines.

A * king wearing colorful battle armor, her eyes glowing with a strange color light, swept across the battlefield space just now, not a single inch, as if seeing everything in the universe, she said at this moment: "The arrow just now, even if The Black Beast God King desperately burned his divine power at the last moment, and he had already risen to the level of a God King, but he was still unable to resist and was killed by an arrow. This kind of power is definitely not an ordinary God King. When did the origin continent have such a person? A peerless powerhouse?"

God King Juyuan said in a low voice: "The reason for this is that the avatar of the God King of Black Beasts suddenly descended and attacked and killed the Daoist Red Gourd, which led to the mysterious powerhouse. The key is the Daoist Red Gourd."

"The Daoist Red Gourd..." God King Ningguang frowned and said, "I have investigated, and there was no news about him before he came to Dayue Kingdom."

"All Worlds"

Wang Yi's disguised identity did appear in the Star Fate City of Yanhaiwuge, but he was an ordinary eternal true god.

And he shot in the Star Fate Sect, just for a moment, I'm afraid that the Star Fate Sect Master didn't remember him.

As for the news? Under the order of the Sect Master of Star Fate, there was no leakage.

And the origin of the continent is so big, even if the God King Ningguang is well-informed, he will not be able to know anything that happens at the far end of the continent.

"The most important thing is that an ordinary chaotic master is accompanied by a strange super-master of the * king?" The * king of Juyuan also frowned. Can easily kill the avatar of the Black Beast God King with one blow, or there may be unexpected reasons, but it also proves that the strength is at least the second level of the God King.

This kind of peerless powerhouse has been following Daoist Red Gourd all the time? What is the relationship between the two?

God King Ningguang glanced at these God Kings, "Anyway, since the other party is not making trouble in our country of Dayue, and he is not hostile to us, then he is not our enemy. The identity of the Taoist and the person behind him is enough."

"Yes, we must not make enemies."

The other * kings also nodded slightly.

A mysterious and unfamiliar second-level master of the God King, even the Great Yue Kingdom is not willing to provoke him casually.

"Haha, that black beast * king, who is usually so arrogant, messing around everywhere, bullying the weak, and doing all kinds of evil, now it's all right, and finally hit the iron plate, it's bad luck." A * king sneered.

The stronger the clone, the more difficult it will be to cultivate, and the more severe the loss will be.

The * kings of Dayue Kingdom have no friendship with the black beast * king, and most of them are gloating at the moment.

God King Ningguang looked back at the majestic Dayue Capital, and shook his head in his heart.

There are things that have such a huge impact nearby, but the lord still hasn't appeared, and he doesn't seem to care.

...

In the distance, King Yi Cong's heart skipped a beat.

What he came is just a clone, barely able to dominate the battle power of chaos.

Although he verbally said that he didn't want to provoke Daoist Red Gourd, he still couldn't let it go. He guessed that someone would target Daoist Red Gourd, so when Daoist Red Gourd left, he also sent a clone to follow him secretly, just to see Daoist Red Gourd. Will it be unlucky.

The result was a shocking scene.

The ice-blue lotus that freezes all things, and the arrow that destroys the world.

As strong as the avatar of the Black Beast God King, it also vanished into ashes.

King Yi Cong felt his heart tremble.

He is not an ordinary chaotic master, and he still has eyesight, so he is more aware of the meaning behind the power, and he is not lightly frightened.

"The avatar of the Black Beast God King is gone all of a sudden!"

"That ice-blue figure is definitely a * king...and an existence of the same level as the * king Juyuan!"

King Yi Cong broke out in cold sweat.

Daoist Red Gourd was accompanied by such a terrifying powerhouse, but no one knew.

At this moment, King Yi Cong was extremely grateful that he was cautious and did not act rashly.

...

At the same time, the flame cloak existed, and the eldest prince's subordinates were also pale.

He is different from Daoist Red Gourd. He received an order from the First Prince to kill Daoist Red Gourd.

"Fortunately, I didn't have time, and was preempted by the Black Beast God King." This Chaos Ultimate Realm secretly said in his heart, but he was extremely afraid, and even had a trace of resentment against the First Prince.

He also clearly witnessed the scene of the fall of the avatar of the God of Black Beasts. The avatar of the God of Black Beasts was much stronger than him, and they all died instantly. If it was replaced by himself, the end would definitely only be worse.

You didn't find out the details, so let me kill someone, or kill someone who is protected by the king of God. Isn't this killing me?

Even if I'm your subordinate, you can't cheat me like that.

"What is the origin of this Daoist Red Gourd? There is actually a God King beside him?" At the same time, he was also very curious.

And this is what many people have doubts about.

...

From the continent of origin, far away from the country of Dayue, there are black volcanoes rolling up and down. This is also a world covered by endless black clouds~www.mtlnovel.com~ There is almost no life.

There are dangers here, even the Eternal True God can only move on the periphery and dare not go deep at will.

And some powerhouses who don't know what to do rush in hastily, and they may perish.

In the vast Origin Continent, there are many mysterious and dangerous places. After the Chaos Lord accidentally fell, few people dared to come and take risks.

Sudden...

"Roar!

!"

An angry roar came from the depths of the mountain range, breaking the tranquility of countless years, terrifying fluctuations permeated from the depths, black flames shot up into the sky, and the entire mountain range was instantly burned into nothingness.

"Who? Who? Kill my clone!"

A dark figure as huge as the universe enveloped the entire world, and his breath made the space burn into nothingness.

Endless killing intent boils.

His roar echoed in this vast wasteland of billions of miles.

Chapter 1009: return

In Tianyu City, in the wilderness outside the city, the figure of Wang Yi who used the "Breakthrough Teleportation Technique" came out of the dark space.

"came back."

"I didn't expect that there would be a clone of the God King to ambush me." Thinking of the scene just now, Wang Yi frowned.

He didn't expect it either.

He originally thought that even if it was intercepted, it would only be the ultimate Chaos Realm.

Who would have thought that a greedy black beast * king would appear.

The situation was critical, forcing Wang Yi to let the god-king puppet start a killing spree.

And the strength of "Rain" did not live up to his expectations. It was as powerful as the clone of the Black Beast God King, and it was also killed in one move!

Wang Yi is also speechless, you are a * king, you are not cultivating well in your old nest, but you came to kill me, a chaotic master, for that little treasure.

Of course, Wang Yi would not show mercy and let his puppet creature kill him.

"It's a little troublesome now."

The appearance of the god-king-level puppet creature "Rain" will definitely attract the attention of all parties in the origin continent.

Fortunately, they don't know the true identity of "Rain".

I don't know Wang Yi's true identity.

Moreover, Wang Yi came back too quickly. He left with the "rain", and he used the "Breakthrough Teleportation" to instantly return to Tianyu City.

Just a few breaths of effort.

No matter how fast those God Kings of Dayue Kingdom reacted, they would not be so fast if they wanted to chase.

Wang Yi couldn't help sighing in his heart. "Breakthrough teleportation is too convenient."

However, what he currently masters is the "Breaking World Teleportation Technique", he just doesn't know if there is a higher-level "Great Breaching World Teleportation Technique".

tomato

The teleportation technique of breaking the world can quickly shuttle in a source world.

The big break world teleportation is to leave the source world and go to another source world.

However, the teleportation technique of breaking the world is more demanding, and at least the Void Dao must reach the second level of the universe god.

Wang Yi vaguely remembered that the 'Great Breaching Teleportation' required a full fusion of six meridians to perform.

If you want to be able to carry other beings to teleport in a big way! That is something that can only be done in the Ultimate Realm of the Cosmic God.

...

Wang Yi slightly changed his appearance and breath, and quietly returned to Tianyu City. The Tianyu King and other princes in the Tianyu Palace were not aware of it.

In fact, because he returned too quickly, even the news of the great battle that broke out near the capital of Dayue didn't even spread.

At least the powerhouses in Tianyucheng have not yet received news.

At a picturesque lakeside, Wang Yi found his apprentice who was walking with Tianyu Xihu.

Seeing the apprentice who was in love with Tianyu Xihu, Wang Yi shook his head.

The sudden appearance of the figure shocked both Shi Zhongtian and Tianyu Xihu.

"It's me." Wang Yi regained his original appearance and said to Shi Zhongtian, "I've finished my business, and we'll leave now."

"So fast?" As soon as Shi Zhongtian finished speaking, he saw the teacher's half-smile eyes, and the old face couldn't help turning red.

He has been immersed in the gentle township recently, and he and Tianyu Xinhua are farming and farming, and they are living a happy life.

"Why, don't want to go?" Wang Yi glanced at the disciple.

Tian Yu Xinhua said next to her at the moment: "Zhongtian, let's go with your teacher, we can still meet in the virtual space." There was a hint of reluctance in her eyes.

But although she was reluctant to part with her sweetheart, she did not want to delay his "future".

"Look at you, even a girl is not as good as a girl, and you still want to be the master of chaos." Wang Yi reprimanded.

Shi Zhongtian didn't dare to refute, but his heart dripped, it was you who thought, not me.

He still doesn't think he can become the master of chaos in ten reincarnation eras.

Wang Yi didn't tell him the secret of the Primordial Universe, and let this apprentice train for a while before talking about it.

"Teacher, where are we going now?" Shi Zhongtian asked curiously.

"Go back to Changhong Sect first." Wang Yi pondered. They haven't gone back to see the old friends of Chaos City Lord and Giant Axe for a long time.

Nowadays, in the human race of the Universe Sea, apart from Wang Yi, Luo Feng, Yuanzu, and Hong, the realm surpasses the True God of Void. Giant Axe, Chaos City Lord, Shi Zhongtian, Peng Gong, Xingyue, etc. are still the True God of Void.

Because of the experience of inheritance and guidance, they built a small universe from the time when the master of the universe broke through the true god.

This is the difference between those with heritage guidance and those without.

Like certain talents, such as "Hong", the small universe is even larger than the original ancestor.

Because the original ancestor was already a true * when he was guided by the inheritance, the small universe has almost been fixed in the initial period, and the framework cannot be changed.

The giant axe is also, but he is lucky, perhaps because of the original ancestor's guidance, the small universe is well constructed, breaking through to the Void True God, the small universe is much larger than the ancestor of the Eastern Emperor.

In fact, the indigenous beings like the Sea of Cosmic Universe, such as "Purple Moon Ancestor" and "East Emperor Ancestor", the small universes are not big, but they suffer from the loss of no inheritance.

The human race has inheritance guidance and various precious experiences. From the master of the universe to the true god, naturally there is no need to take a detour.

In the future, he will become the true * of void, and the true * of eternity will be even more certain!

Even if he became a true god, he would be countless times stronger than other beings in the universe who were ignorant and cultivated in the three reincarnation eras.

The human race in the cosmos sea is getting stronger and stronger, and it will be the top of the mountain, and the mountains will be small at a glance.

This is the secret of the real power of the human race of the universe sea!

"Going to Changhong Sect? Speaking of which, I haven't seen Uncle Giant Axe for a long time. I haven't seen the wife of the original ancestor." Shi Zhongtian said with emotion.

Shi Zhongtian is different from them. As soon as he came to the origin continent, he has been in the country of Dayue and did not join everyone.

Of course, it's not a pity, because everyone is in the same universe, and it is very convenient to communicate through various small universes.

"Master Hong is still trapped in the same place?" Shi Zhongtian asked again. "It's been so many reincarnation times, will it be okay?"

Wang Yi did not answer. Hong's location has always been a secret and cannot be traced.

The Origin Continent is too vast, and there are many mysterious places. I don't know if Hong is unlucky or lucky. As soon as he came to the Origin Continent, he was involved in a mysterious space.

"Your Master Hong has his own chance, so you don't need to worry about it." Wang Yi looked at him. "You still think about how to call the Holy Will."

Shi Zhongtian scratched his head. "Teacher~www.mtnovel.com~ Actually, I think the attitude of the Tianyu family and Yanyuehou has changed a lot, or we don't need to be so persistent..."

Before he finished speaking, he was directly taken into the palace by Wang Yi.

Wang Yi was too lazy to reason with him, whether you are the teacher or I am the teacher.

Just go and practice.

After arranging a lot of training content for the apprentice, Wang Yi changed his appearance and breath, and rushed in the direction of the Changhong Sect of the Heavenly Sacrifice Kingdom.

...

When Wang Yi brought his apprentices back to the Heavenly Sacrifice Kingdom, the news that happened near the capital of Dayue Kingdom had spread throughout the continent of origin.

The strongest clone of the Black Beast God King was killed by a powerful and mysterious God King in one move!

Countless forces are shocked!

Chapter 1010: Is the axe dying again?

In the Heavenly Sacrifice Kingdom, the power is the weakest in the kingdom of God, and with the inaction of the lord, the territory is naturally not that big, and it belongs to the relatively small category in many countries.

Recently, Tianji Kingdom has not been very calm. The reason is that there are rumors that the deity of the Lord of Tianji Kingdom is trapped somewhere and cannot get out.

In a huge kingdom of gods, without a real * king, it is inevitable that there will be some pretenders.

Although the Changhong Sect is not directly under the Heavenly Sacrifice Kingdom, it is also affected by its proximity to the Heavenly Sacrifice Mountains.

A colorful rainbow looms across the sky, and beneath it are the undulating mountains.

Inside the sect.

"The chaos has started again." Chaos City Lord, Peng Gong, Xingyue and several other human race powerhouses who came from the cosmos sea gathered together to chat about the recent situation.

The chubby Peng Gong stroked his beard and said, "Since the news that the deity of the Lord of the Heavenly Sacrifice is trapped and cannot be released, the Heavenly Sacrifice Kingdom has been in turmoil."

Xingyue, the daughter of the original ancestor, said: "I also heard about it. Some big forces around it seem to want to take the opportunity to invade the Kingdom of Heaven."

Xingyue has been in Changhong Sect for a long time. Originally, she had a stepmother, so she was not used to it, and she could not let go of Changhong Sect Master.

When she came to the Origin Continent, she was confused, but her father quietly found a stepmother of Chaos Master for herself, came to Changhong Sect, and always avoided Changhong Sect Master.

Fortunately, Yuanzu and Sect Master Changhong also understood her mood and did not force her.

Chaos City Lord said with emotion: "No one thought that such a thing would happen. This time, the Heavenly Sacrifice Kingdom is indeed in big trouble. Fortunately, their king is still here, otherwise the entire Heavenly Sacrifice Kingdom will fall apart, but there is a trend now. ."

Although the lord of Tianji Kingdom is still there, because he is a clone, he cannot leave the capital.

The avatar of the Lord of Heavenly Sacrifice is too weak, and in the old nest of the capital, with the help of various strengths, he can resist the king of gods and keep the capital.

But out of the capital, the lord of Heavenly Sacrifice can only be slaughtered by others.

"Right now, the borders of the Heavenly Sacrifice Country are in flames, and more than one force is fighting the Heavenly Sacrifice Country. I heard that in addition to the Heavenly Sacrifice Country, there seem to be several other countries that are also at war." Peng Gong frowned. "This is a big whirlpool, and our little characters can't do anything, just hope that it won't spread to here."

Although the Changhong Sect did not belong to the Heavenly Sacrifice Kingdom, it was a relatively independent overlord.

But no one can figure out whether those forces will do anything to other forces in the Heavenly Sacrifice Kingdom.

The Heavenly Sacrifice Kingdom is in great trouble and may even be destroyed, causing many people to worry.

The Changhong Sect Master was very happy to see that the Heavenly Sacrifice King was in trouble, but his site was too close to the Heavenly Sacrifice State, and Chiyu couldn't be happy when the disaster happened.

And now, she is actually running around to communicate with other chaotic masters in the Tianji Kingdom, such as Menghuhua and other overlords, trying to avoid this storm.

Whether the Heavenly Sacrifice Kingdom is destroyed or not has little to do with them, the chaotic masters, and they have no ambition to establish a kingdom.

"The Kingdom of Heaven is now caught in the flames of war. The army is fighting, and I don't know how many people will die." Chaos City Lord suddenly showed an anxious expression. "The giant axe did not listen to our persuasion and did not leave the army."

At the beginning, the giant axe joined the army of Tianji Kingdom to hone himself.

In the blink of an eye, for so many years, with the army fighting and fighting, the giant axe is also growing.

Because of the secret care of Sect Master Changhong and some treasures given by Wang Yi, the giant axe has always been fine.

But things are different now!

A large-scale national war is about to break out! The troops dispatched are overwhelming, and there will be super mechanical treasures that make the saints change their colors.

Not to mention the Void True God, even the Eternal True God may not be able to survive in such a terrifying battlefield.

So when they heard the news, the people of Changhong Sect wanted to let the giant axe come back to avoid it.

Although it is shameful to be a deserter and run away from battle, it is better than not knowing when to be cannon fodder.

The military law of the Heavenly Sacrifice Kingdom is strict, especially at this juncture, it is difficult to leave the army, but if it is just a Void True God, there are still many ways to escape.

But... the giant axe is unwilling.

Half of his life was spent in the army, and the giant axe couldn't put down those Paoze brothers in his army, and he didn't want to be a coward.

"Ultimate Chaos"

"The giant axe is too stubborn. Can this kind of life and death matter be stubborn? Even if he stays in the army, it's of no use, but it's a pointless sacrifice." Chaos City Lord patted the table with some hatred of iron. "If only the teacher was here."

Xingyue and Peng Gong looked at each other.

The original ancestor seems to have reached a bottleneck, and the main body is retreating in Wujianlou.

He has an incarnation of divine power sleeping in the Changhong Sect. In order not to consume his mind, he will not wake up except for important matters.

And Sect Master Changhong is the head of a sect after all. In order to cope with the overall situation, there are also many things to deal with.

"I hope the giant axe is okay." Chaos City Lord and others were a little worried.

...

On the other side, in the territory of the Heavenly Sacrifice Kingdom, the open wilderness, rolling mountains and forests, now two forces are fighting frantically, the power spreads in all directions, countless peaks and trees collapsed, some were frozen and smashed, and some were burning with raging flames!

One after another, the legions went on and on, fighting frantically.

The strong men are all leading the way, leading the legion to fight.

All kinds of powerful war machines, all kinds of mechanical treasures, and super war fortresses with incomparably powerful breaths have all erupted with terrifying destructive power. Lost life as easily as a flying ant.

This is a war that has swept across a huge area!

"Kill, destroy these people from the Heavenly Sacrifice Country!" Another country's army came aggressively, and the purpose was obvious.

And the army of Tianji Kingdom is also desperately resisting.

The war was in full swing from the start.

In the battlefield, there is a legion that controls a formation formed by a machine like a black flying dragon and is fighting fiercely with another purple thunderbird machine.

Among them, there is a Void True God with a huge axe and hair scattered like a savage, burning divine power, wielding an axe, and leading his subordinates to fight in blood.

In the endless army, their troop is inconspicuous, and it has little impact on the entire battle situation.

But there are still lives falling.

"Commander~www.mtlnovel.com~ There are too many people in front of us. We can't hold it anymore. Brothers have suffered a lot of casualties. If there is no support, we need to retreat." An anxious voice sounded.

As soon as the giant axe choked to death a Void True God Commander, he heard his deputy, a Void True God Deputy Commander report.

The giant axe looked around the battlefield, and his consciousness was connected to the legion system. When he saw the death list, he felt a pain in his heart. It was just a battle, and many of his comrades who had fought side by side with him for countless years were nowhere to be seen.

In such a battlefield, a devastating attack, many are dead.

The situation on the battlefield gradually became clear, and the Tianji Kingdom began to retreat.

And the remnant army of the giant axe also fled with the crowd.

"boom!"

In the distance, a towering figure like a mountain appeared, and his eyes were full of endless coercion, making people's soul sink into the abyss and look at it from a distance.
