Chapter 1011: Heavenly Sacrifice

When Wang Yi returned to Changhong Sect, he found that the atmosphere was not right, and only then did he realize that the incarnation of the giant axe had lost consciousness.

"The body of the giant axe should have been hit by a soul attack on the battlefield and fell into a dizzy sleep." Chaos City Lord saw Wang Yi as if he saw a savior.

Wang Yi also knew what happened.

"Has the Heavenly Sacrifice Kingdom become such a mess?"

Seeing everyone's anxious appearance, he said, "Don't worry, I'll set off right away to see what's going on and bring the giant axe back."

"Then I'll trouble you, giant axe, sigh..." The incarnation of the primordial divine power, who also awakened, sighed.

It's not that he can't understand the feeling of the giant axe not abandoning his comrades in arms, but how can such a matter of life and death be useless.

Luo Feng's face was slightly solemn, and he looked at Wang Yi. "We are far away from the Heavenly Sacrifice Kingdom, beyond the reach of the whip. It is up to you to rescue the giant axe."

Neither of them knew that Wang Yi had the ability to teleport over long distances.

As the life and death of the giant axe was a matter of concern, Wang Yi did not delay. After leaving his apprentice behind, he set off immediately.

The Kingdom of Heaven is now caught in the flames of war.

Those cities where the Eternal True God and Chaos Lord sit were attacked by enemy forces one by one, and the war was raging.

"Haha, I won again."

"There is no * king in the kingdom of heaven, and few masters of chaos dare to fight, they are simply vulnerable."

"As soon as the general made his move, none of those little brats could run away."

On a majestic gigantic spaceship floating in the clouds like a black whale, a group of "Chaoyan Kingdom" powerhouses gathered to celebrate.

Sitting on the main seat is a dark-gold armor shrouded in a black cloak embroidered with stars and stars. He has eight arms and a pair of red child holes on his face. The super strong man smiled slightly, and Yun Danfeng said softly: "The purpose of sending troops this time is to occupy the territory of the Tianji Kingdom. If it wasn't for training the soldiers and tempering the soldiers, they would have been destroyed long ago. In the previous war, some of the war machines of the Tianji Kingdom were just a little troublesome. It's nothing to wait."

These powerhouses of Chaoyan Kingdom are very excited, they can make a contribution to attacking the Heavenly Sacrifice Kingdom, and they are the first-line troops.

This time, Chaoyan Kingdom sent a large number of legions, led by several Chaos Lords, to attack the important places in Heavenly Sacrifice Kingdom.

Like those ordinary cities, it is enough for the subordinates to solve them themselves. What the army has to solve is the main force of the Heavenly Sacrifice Kingdom and the cities where the Chaos Lord sits.

"That's right." The general thought of something and ordered, "The Heavenly Sacrifice Army that I captured on the battlefield before, it is useless to stay in the army, let's throw them all to the Wolfshou Mountain to mine, that's fine. Waste is used."

In the previous war, the situation was certain, the Chaos Lord would take action, a soul sweep, and the army of the Heavenly Sacrifice Kingdom, which had been defeated and had no soul defense, was easily captured alive. Only a few escaped by chance.

It's not a good thing to not kill them.

"Yes." The people below said respectfully.

...

The defeated soldiers of the Tianji Kingdom were escorted to Langshou Mountain in Chaoyan Kingdom, where they went to work as coolies to mine.

The Chaoyan Kingdom's army continued to attack the city of Tianji Kingdom, and the war continued to spread.

Wolfshou Mountain, the environment is harsh, the prisoners who are escorted here, their supernatural powers are banned, and they work as coolies day and night to mine mines. If there is no change, their lives will be tortured to death as coolies.

Not long after Wang Yi came out, he got the news that the giant axe had awakened. Knowing that the 'giant axe' is currently being held on the Wolfshou Mountain in Chaoyan Kingdom.

Wang Yi immediately teleported over a long distance to the territory of Chaoyan Kingdom.

The Origin Continent is not easy to travel, even for the chaotic masters, but not long after the giant axe woke up, Wang Yi quickly appeared near the Langshou Mountain in Chaoyan Kingdom.

"Wow." Near the huge blood-colored mountain that resembled the head of a giant wolf, a man in a red robe quietly appeared. "Wolf Head Mountain." The man looked at the blood-colored mountain exuding endless evil spirits in the distance. Wolfshou Mountain is very vast, much larger than a small universe. The whole body emits evil spirits from the inside to the outside, and the evil spirits form a sea of blood-colored clouds above the head, and a large fortress is built on it to guard.

"Wolfshou Mountain is a mine with a long history. There were not many practitioners in the earliest origin continent. It was occupied by a certain group of primitive life." Wang Yi's eyes flashed, recalling the information, "The environment here is harsh enough to make the universe The body of the lord was shattered, coupled with the influence of the source of evil energy, the 'blood heart ore' bred in the mountain is quite precious, and it is very difficult to dig and mine. After this place was occupied by the 'Chaoyan Kingdom', a fort was built. For the "Chaoyan Kingdom", the blood The heart mine has always been valued, so the protection is not bad, the fortress completely covers the mine veins, and the miners are all inside the fortress."

Wang Yi hid in the void and observed the huge fortress from a distance. This fortress can completely withstand the attack of the Chaos Lord. There are also huge turrets that can explode Chaos Lord-level attacks. The invisible formations and secret patterns are spread all over the place. Block the entire void and isolate all outside exploration.

However, Wang Yi spied on the opposite side through the hole in the black fog sphere of the essence of the void, and these isolation formations could not stop him at all.

Wolfshou Mountain, in the fortress of this mine, is extremely heavily guarded, with layers of guards, one after another, there are many guards of True God and Void True God, who are guarding and supervising those miners whose divine power has been banned. The leader of the Eternal True God General, but of course he cannot personally guard the mine, often enjoy it in other places, and leave things to his subordinates.

No matter how powerful, the true god, the true * of the void, or the true * of eternity, entering here is the life of a coolie.

"Dig, dig fast, if you don't dig enough, you will all be punished. If you don't want to die, give me some speed."

A void true * commander led a team of true * guards with a cold face, and took a whip to beat a true * who could not escape. No.

The giant axe and other Tianji army who were captured alive were brought here, and their faces were ugly when they saw this scene.

"You! Come here, go over there!" Several True God guards came to them and shouted. "This is your brand. It will record your workload. Remember, 10,000 Era must be dug enough. Otherwise, hum..."

"Commander..." Several true gods around him looked at the giant axe that had been following.

"Let's live first." The giant axe's expression was calm, and he picked up the mining tools~www.mtlnovel.com~ After being captured, all the treasures and weapons on their bodies were taken away, and now there is nothing left.

However, compared with these desperate Heavenly Sacrifice Kingdom troops, he still had hope in his heart.

The space inside the mine is huge, and the fork roads are staggered and connected.

There is blood-colored fog everywhere, like purgatory.

"However, there are so many people." The giant axe with loose hair and the subordinates who got along with each other day and night walked in the passage, and at a glance, countless miners were working here.

The miners of this channel alone are at least over 100 million.

You must know that the Lord of the Universe cannot withstand the environment here, and the miners are at least true gods.

"It's really uncomfortable." The giant axe couldn't help frowning when he felt the feeling of the divine body being cut by the knife, and the soul that was constantly affected by the evil spirit.

A true god, I don't know how long I can last here.

Chapter 1012: seek revenge

In the passage, the giant axe is mining with his brothers.

Seeing those miners who had been suffering here for a long time, described as haggard and insensitive, the giant axe shook his head secretly.

This is not an easy thing. Wolfshou Mountain will set mining requirements according to their strength, and they will be squeezed to the limit. Day and night, when there is almost no rest, they may not be able to complete it with a little rest, and they will be severely punished. Severe punishment, like whipping, is still the least.

The more you owe, the heavier the penalty.

Even if it is really lazy, it will take away the soul and torture forever.

Even so... but even if the task is completed on time, it may not necessarily survive.

The environment here is harmful to the body and soul. Those overseers are fine, and there are protective measures, but they are not so polite to these miner slaves.

Even if they are not forced to die, they will slowly be tortured to death by the environment over time.

"My brothers, I must take them away alive." Giant Axe thought silently in his heart.

Inside Wolfshou Mountain.

In a huge hall, there is a chaotic passage, a team of guards are on duty under the leadership of the commander, and everyone is very relaxed.

After all, this is the territory of Chaoyan Kingdom, and Langshou Mountain is an important fortress. The defense is extremely solid, and there is no fear of accidents.

Since ancient times, there has been no incident of outsiders attacking the Wolfshou Mountain fortress.

The guards who have been stationed here all the year round are chatting boringly.

"Today I saw a lot of prisoners from the army of the Heavenly Sacrifice Kingdom."

"I heard that Tianji Kingdom has been retreating under the attack of our army, and other places except the capital will not be able to keep it."

nice romance

"I really envy those guys who go to the battlefield and can make meritorious deeds."

The guards had envious expressions on their faces.

The national war is still such an advantageous situation, but a good opportunity for meritorious service is rare, but they cannot go to the battlefield.

The eight-claws, the cyan crocodile-shaped Void True God and Alien Beast Commander sneered: "On the battlefield, but people are going to die, don't think about it, but I heard that our legion also died a lot of people, I The few legions I knew were all wiped out."

The other sergeants were taken aback. "Is it so tragic?"

They don't talk about national wars, because they have been stationed here for countless years and have never gone out, and they have never even experienced a larger conflict.

The Void True God commander said with emotion: "After all, it is a national war. You can imagine that endless machines form overwhelming legions to fight each other, and the power is comparable to the super war machine dominated by Chaos. In the battlefield like the vast ocean, it is the Void True God. , they are all just cannon fodder, it is not bad that the eternal true * can save his life, I don't know how many dead true gods, I am afraid there are more than our miners in Langshou Mountain combined..."

Hearing what the commander said, the sergeants looked at each other in dismay.

"Huh?" Suddenly the Void True God Commander felt a sense of chaotic passage in the square behind him, and shouted: "Someone is coming, pay attention."

Because the origin continent is too big, it is difficult to travel. In order to increase their control, the forces of all parties have built some fixed chaotic channels at all costs to connect the capital and the important places!

There is also one inside Wolfshou Mountain. Of course, this kind of thing can only be used by one's own forces, unlike the "ultra-long-distance teleportation" that can go anywhere, and it is not as convenient and fast as the Wujianlou all over the continent.

"Boom." A group of people flew out from the chaotic vortex, and a powerful breath spread out, and the Void True God commander saw at a glance that a large group of Void True Gods were headed by an Eternal True God.

"I've seen adults." The cyan crocodile animal quickly lowered its head. My heart is dripping. "Can bring so many Void True Gods through the transmission channel, which general is this?"

In various countries, the generals who lead the army are called generals, and their status is much higher than that of the general eternal gods.

Just like the princes of the Dayue Kingdom, the status is higher than that of the ordinary chaos masters.

The Eternal True God looked cold and looked down at him. "Where's your general?"

...

In a splendid palace in Wolfshou Mountain, a strong man with a fat head and big ears was playing with a few beautiful women, and he got a report from his subordinates.

"Banai, what are you doing on my site?" On the luxurious seat, a fat and strong man with thick black hair like a wild beast didn't care about his naked upper body. He was holding two elf-like beauties in his arms while groping. On one side, he glanced at the Eternal True God opposite.

Although the opposite is not small, he also has backers, and it is not a system at all, and the strength and status are similar, and there is no need for awe.

"Oyink, my brother is dead." The Eternal True God said solemnly, and the fat and strong man was slightly startled.

"He died on the battlefield, at the hands of the despicable Tianji people!" Eternal True God's eyes were full of anger. "He's with you now, I don't have any requests, Oyink, give him to me, I owe you a favor."

He and his brother are not of the same legion, and the battlefield is not the same.

After learning of his brother's death, he tried every means to rush over to avenge his brother.

"Your enemy is..."

"Just a Void True God, I have his information!" Banai said coldly.

The fat and strong man Oyink let go of the beautiful woman in his arms and touched his chin, "According to the rules, every miner in Wolfshou Mountain cannot leave at will..."

Although he is the master of Wolfshou Mountain, he is also under intelligent monitoring to prevent these managers from acting arbitrarily outside.

"I won't take him away." Banai's voice was cold, looking at Oynke. "I just want to take revenge. It's not difficult for you, Okein... You shouldn't refuse, right?"

"Oh, this is much simpler." Oyink smiled, a mere slave of the Void True God, and it was not up to him to decide what to do with it.

...

In the mine tunnel, the giant axe was working hard with a group of brothers to mine, and suddenly a team of guards flew over.

"You, come with us." The leader of the Void True God swept his gaze and landed on the giant axe. After a drink, the two True God soldiers behind him flew up and grabbed the giant axe.

"grown ups."

"The subordinates of the commander ~www.mtlnovel.com~ Giant Axe were shocked.

"Sir, you are..." Giant Axe was shocked. I have a bad feeling.

"Humph." The Void True God didn't mean to explain, and with a wave of his hand, he left with the giant axe and his subordinates.

In order to punish those miners who committed crimes, there are prisons dedicated to torture in Wolfshou Mountain.

"Oyink, you have a lot of punishment here." Banai and Oyink, two eternal gods, stood together, and he glanced around with satisfaction.

"Haha, after all, life here is very boring, and it's only interesting to torture those miners." The fat black-haired man smiled casually.

"Yeah." Banai nodded slightly, with a hint of anticipation in his eyes. Soon, he would be able to meet the enemy who killed his brother. He must torture him well and make him regret coming into this world.

Chapter 1013: save people

Completely made of special alloys, the black prison room with all kinds of weird tools and machinery is filled with a strong smell of blood.

"My lord, people have been caught." The Void True God Commander respectfully said.

Banai and Oink looked over at the same time.

When he saw the savage-like strong man with messy hair and bare feet, coldness appeared in Banai's eyes.

And the giant axe also looked at the two powerhouses in front of him. From the powerful breath alone, he could be sure that these were the two eternal true gods, especially one of them. His eyes like choosing someone to devour him made him uneasy.

"Banney, it's him, right?" Oink looked at Banay.

Banai's voice was cold, "That's right, it's him."

"Tsk ts, what a poor fellow." Hearing the cruelty in the other's voice, Oink looked at the giant axe with pity, as if he had foreseen the tragic end of the Void True God.

However, what does this have to do with him, he is just doing him a favor, he doesn't care about the life or death of a miner.

Banai walked to the giant axe, stared at him, and suddenly said, "Do you know who I am?"

The giant axe shook his head honestly. "I don't know."

Banai laughed, and suddenly slapped it out with a palm, and the surging power slapped the giant axe out, hitting the hard wall, and the divine body was torn apart.

Because the divine power was banned, the giant axe couldn't even use the divine power to restore the divine body.

Banai's expression turned gloomy, "My brother, it's at your hands, do you understand?"

Although he is the true God of Eternity, his brother is the true God of Void.

Who would have thought that he would be killed by a powerful giant axe on the battlefield.

Countless years of brotherhood made him hate the giant axe to the core.

"Heh..." The fat black-haired man next to him watched all this with great interest.

The giant axe wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth, raised his head and grinned, "I killed so many bastards, who knows which one."

Banai was stunned for a moment, and then he sneered, showing his fangs. "Okay, you have the kind, if you want to pretend to be a tough guy, I'll satisfy you."

Seeing the performance of the giant axe, Oink also secretly shook his head. "He was so stubborn when he was about to die, and it completely angered Banai. It seems that he is going to be miserable."

Banai became angry and said to a few of his subordinates: "He handed it over to you, torment him well, I want to see him regretting and begging for mercy."

"Yes, my lord." Several true gods of the void were respectful, and these were all subordinates who were good at torturing people borrowed by Banai from Oyink.

"King Kong Is Not Bad Dazhai Master"

Banai and Oyink sat there and picked up the wine glasses, while several gloomy Void True Gods surrounded the giant axe and let out a shuddering laughter.

"Hehe, boy, you have offended us adults, wait for the pain." A white and translucent bug with ferocious mouthparts made an uncomfortable sound. "Even if you want to die happily, it's impossible, I will slowly torture you, want to know how I torture you? Hehe... I will swallow you, and then digest you a little bit, you will experience yourself being eaten The feeling of falling, but it won't let you really die, don't worry, this is just the beginning..."

Hearing such a terrifying punishment, no matter how firm the will of the giant axe was, it could not help but change slightly.

"And me." Another woman wearing a black robe flashed a strange color in her eyes, "I will let you sink into a dream, and let you experience the most terrifying and desperate nightmares, reincarnation again and again, I hope your The soul can persist for a long time, don't let the soul fly away so quickly, it will be boring..."

"And me and me..." It seems that in order to show in front of their superiors, each and every one of the Void True Gods is rushing to describe the way they tortured the giant axe, one is more scary than the other.

Banai said to Oink, who was beside him, with satisfaction: "You have quite a lot of talents."

"Haha, it's just a little gadget, it made you laugh." Oink patted his big belly and laughed loudly. He looked at the giant axe, "But that guy doesn't seem to be very afraid."

Banai snorted coldly, "It's just a strong support." He looked over there and said, "Torture him well for me, whoever does a good job will be rewarded heavily." His beloved brother died in the hands of the giant axe. , If he didn't torture the giant axe to death, it would be hard to dispel the hatred in his heart.

Hearing the words of the adults, those Void True Gods were even more excited, scrambling to torture the giant axe.

And Banai and Oink looked on with a smile.

The giant axe had a calm expression, but a group of panicked hearts.

The divine incarnation of Changhong Sect said to others: "I was taken to prison, and someone wanted to torture me."

Chaos City Lord, Yuan Zu and others were all angry. "What? So bold?"

Luo Feng looked at Wang Yi, Wang Yi nodded slightly and said, "It's okay, I've already arrived."

Outside Wolfshou Mountain, a red-robed black-haired man stood high in the sky, looking at the huge fortress of Wolfshou Mountain from a distance. I also saw those Void True Gods who were ready to torture the great axe.

"I don't know whether to live or die." A cold look appeared in his eyes, and when he thought about it, he boomed~~ The void in front of him was suddenly twisted and faintly able to glimpse the other side. Then the space shifted and changed, and the figure disappeared from the place.

The space was distorted, and Wang Yi appeared in the space of the Wolfshou Mountain fortress.

"Who?" The two strongest eternal true gods in the fort, Banai and Oyink, turned their heads and saw the strange red-robed black-haired man who suddenly appeared, and they couldn't help but change their faces in horror!

This is Wolfshou Mountain, a fortress carefully built by the country, and its defense is so strong that it is impossible for the chaotic master to break in at will.

To be able to ignore the layers of prohibition and protection, and to appear here easily, can only be a super existence, and you know with your toes that they can't provoke them.

Banai and Oink's first reaction was not to meet the enemy, but to flee.

But it was too late. Since Wang Yi had already appeared in front of them, how could he let them escape.

Of course, he has already covered up his appearance and disguised his breath, and he is not afraid of being recognized as the ruler of Jiujiang from Wujianlou.

For the two eternal gods~www.mtnovel.com~ Wang Yi just glanced at them, and the overwhelming will fell on their heads like a Mount Tai. , but even the Chaos Lord can't resist Wang Yi's willpower attack, let alone two eternal true gods?

"Boom!" The eyes of the two eternal true gods were sluggish, and their souls were instantly annihilated.

And those Void True Gods in the prison lost their lives in an instant.

Wang Yi was annoyed by their vicious methods and ruthless actions, so he simply sent them on the road.

Seeing Wang Yi appear, he killed the Eternal True God and the Void True God in an instant, and the giant axe showed a surprised expression on his face.

However, he immediately thought of his comrades who were also trapped here.

"And my brothers and friends..."

Wang Yi nodded. "Don't worry, I'll take them all away."

Chapter 1014: Hong's chance

The Wolfshou Mountain Fortress is run by an intelligent host.

When Wang Yi easily broke through the layers of protection and appeared suddenly, and instantly killed those eternal true gods and void true gods, the intelligence of the fortress also reacted.

Fortress Intelligence immediately sent an alert to 'Chaoyan Kingdom', and at the same time opened the fortress's formation, ready to trap this strange powerhouse.

As long as he was trapped for a few breaths of time, the super existence of 'Chaoyan Kingdom' would be teleported over immediately.

But... since Wang Yi can easily break through the outer protection of the fortress, how can he be easily trapped by it.

Most of the defensive means of the fort are aimed at foreign enemies, and there is a lack of sufficient defensive measures inside.

After all, the enemy can break into the fortress, and there is no point in setting up more defenses.

"call!"

The teleportation technique that breaks the boundary makes Wang Yi feel like walking on the ground here.

From one place to another instantly.

Before the fortress had used a few means, Wang Yi had already ended the rescue operation.

In this way, Wang Yi took the giant axe and his brothers, easily left the fortress, and fluttered away.

Fortress Intelligence watched from start to finish, but was powerless.

But after Wang Yi and the others left, the powerhouse of Chaoyan Kingdom arrived long overdue.

After a thorough investigation, they wondered that the other party had only rescued some of the defeated captives of the Tianji Kingdom, and the strongest one was the Void True God, who had no meaning to the Wolfshou Mountain at all, leaving them puzzled.

...

Changhong Sect.

As soon as Wang Yi and others came back, the Chaos City Lord and others came to greet them.

Yuanzu sternly trained the giant axe before saying: "If it wasn't for Wang Yi, you would still be suffering now, remember not to be impulsive in the future."

In front of the original ancestor, the domineering giant axe was like a child in front of the parents.

The giant axe rubbed his head and smiled.

"Wang Yi, thank you very much." Yuanzu said to Wang Yi.

"It's a small matter." Wang Yi said.

Yuanzu asked about the process, and warned the giant axe: "Your comrades-in-arms and subordinates are too conspicuous. You should be careful not to expose them in the future. If you are known by Chao Yanguo, it will be another trouble."

The giant axe said angrily: "Yes, I know."

The giant axe came back, and everyone breathed a sigh of relief and gathered to drink together.

"We're almost all of the people from the Origin Continent, and we're just missing Hong." Luo Feng said.

Unlike the original history, Luo Feng and Hong did not become brothers, but the two still had a deep friendship.

"Hong... He's still in that space, and he hasn't been in touch for a long time," someone said.

Hong, since he came to the Origin Continent, has been trapped in a mysterious space, and he broke through to the Eternal True God early. It can be seen that he also got a lot of opportunities.

But everyone also knows that opportunities and crises coexist.

"I hope Hong can return safely."

Everyone also felt unbelievable. The origin continent is so big, and the passage of Hong Chuang's reincarnation is random, but he fell into a mysterious space inexplicably as soon as he arrived, and people couldn't help feeling his luck.

"How are you cultivating now?" Wang Yi looked at Luo Feng and Yuanzu.

Luo Feng and Yuanzu looked at each other.

"I'm going to create an eighteenth-order sword technique." Luo Feng said.

Luo Feng found that he had always had an excellent talent in swordsmanship, so he has been taking this path.

The original ancestor said: "I plan to break through the chaotic master before the end of this reincarnation era."

Everyone present looked at the original ancestor.

"Teacher, are you going to break through?" Chaos City Lord was extremely surprised.

The crowd was also delighted.

Unlike Wang Yi's breakthrough, the original ancestor has a more special meaning to the Chaos City Lord.

"Oh?" Wang Yi raised his eyebrows slightly. "Are you sure?"

Yuanzu shook his head, "It's just a little bit of a look, just try it out, it's hard to say whether it's successful or not."

Wang Yi nodded slightly, no matter whether Luo Feng created the eighteenth-order sword technique or the original ancestor's attempt, in fact, they have already approached the threshold of the master of chaos.

However, it is not easy to cross this threshold.

Speaking of breakthroughs, Wang Yi suddenly thought of a long-forgotten person.

"That old fellow on the mountain, I don't know what happened."

In a certain way, the mountain-climbers are kind to the people of the earth. Now Wang Yi's strength is not good enough. Even if the god-king-level puppet "Rain" is added, it can't kill the mountain-climbers' great enemy. You can help the mountain guest to take revenge against the food country, which is also considered a favor.

...

The origin continent, an unknown mysterious time and space.

"Hong", who was missed by everyone, was sitting cross-legged on the boundless dark ground at this moment, with the spear stuck in front of him, his eyes closed, and he seemed to fall into a deep sleep.

In the darkness, there seemed to be pairs of invisible eyes looking at him, and strange voices came from the darkness in all directions.

And "Hong" kept his eyes closed.

After an unknown amount of time, Hong's body trembled slightly.

The entire dark world trembled with it.

Sudden.

A light, an indescribable light, bloomed from Hong.

As soon as the light appeared, it was like the rising sun, and wherever it went, all the darkness disappeared.

Endless light fills the whole world, and Hong is the source of light.

Hong finally opened his eyes, and those eyes were enlightened.

"I thought I had to break through the Chaos Lord to leave here, but I didn't expect it to be such a test method."

"Unbelievable, let me reincarnate in different worlds a total of 9,999 times. Every time there is a test, if all pass, it is considered a success. If I fail once, I can't pass the test."

And every test is very perverted!

For example, there is the universe sea independently fighting against the terrifying disasters similar to "world beasts"!

Hong was filled with emotion. He was able to pass, and he felt that it was luck.

"The master of this world... doesn't seem to be the native life of the origin continent?"

He looked forward, and a golden temple appeared on the ground where the darkness had been dispelled.

There is an infinite power looming over the whole world.

The temple seems to be independent of all time and space, even the supreme rules of the origin continent are blocked.

Even the God King, the Master of Wujie, the King of Dayue, and even "Yuanzu" couldn't see it here.

Only the recognized life can see this temple.

But Hong didn't feel its specific power...because the gap was too big.

It seems that low-latitude life can see a corner of the high-latitude world, even if it wants to "feel" it.

"The Palace of Living Beings." Hong's eyes showed a hint of anticipation and deep curiosity.

"According to what I said before the test, I can choose one of the benefits of this temple~www.mtnovel.com~ I just don't know what it will give me."

Hong thought, and flew towards the Golden Temple.

...

Infinite Chaotic Source space.

This is somewhere in the distant higher world, there are three Chaotic Origin beings.

One of them is a burly strong man with white and silver scales all over his body. There are twelve silver horns on the top of his head, and he has a white and silver scaled tail.

The other is an old man with colorful clothes and a very informal appearance.

The last one was an existence whose half of his face was dark as ink and evil, and the other half of his face was as white as jade and holy and flawless, but perfectly blended together.

At this moment, "he" suddenly snorted and turned his head to look somewhere in the Chaotic Origin space.

Chapter 1015: All living beings

"Brother Zhao?" asked the burly strong man who was covered in white-silver scales, with twelve silver-pointed horns on top of his head and a tail with white-silver scales.

The old man also looked over.

They are all Chaotic Sources, and there are not many things that can make them pay attention.

Half of the face is holy, and half of the evil powerhouse has a smile on his face.

He looked at the old man in colorful clothes.

"Yuan, I stayed in the palace of the source world that you cultivated, and someone entered."

"Oh." The old man suddenly said, "It's the Palace of Living Beings, which little guy is so lucky."

"The Palace of All Living Beings?"

He knew that the two in front of him were different from him, especially when it came to dealing with weak and small beings. In his opinion, as long as one companion was born, no matter how many deaths, it was nothing. On the other hand, "Yuan" and "Zhao" are much kinder. I think every weak life should be given a chance.

In particular, the oldest chaotic source lord "Yuan" advocates sheltering the territory of the source world as much as possible, protecting those weak beings, and cultivating latecomers.

"The source world, which was born naturally, is now my sheltered area." Yuan nodded and said, where he left some training methods, including "Yuanshen Palace" mainly aimed at the chaotic masters and below, "Reincarnation Sea" is aimed at God Kings The above, and the "Lie Yuan Technique" is for those peerless geniuses who are truly blessed...

In fact, the "Lie Yuan Technique" is also prepared for the life of this source world.

What made him happy was that not long ago, he sensed that the "Lie Yuan Technique" he had left behind had been passed down.

"Speaking of which, in that world, I also found a talented junior, and gave me some pointers." The burly strong man with white and silver scales smiled slightly.

Compared with these broad-minded peers, most of the time he only cares about his descendants. Of course, he is only the best among them. He will give pointers when he has the opportunity to reach the "Ultimate Realm" and escape the destruction of the source world.

As for the countless other weaklings, he would not care.

"That source world is really interesting and has great potential."

"I remember that in this reincarnation era, a little guy named "Gu" in the ultimate realm was taken out."

The era of reincarnation that Chaotic source powerhouses speak of is the reincarnation of the source world.

The three powerful beings who are considered great in the infinite Chaotic Source space were talking.

The three powerhouses all sheltered a vast area to protect those Origin Worlds from being destroyed, but the Origin World itself was shattered? They don't care. The catastrophe and rebirth of the source world is a normal process, not a 'catastrophe'.

"'The heart is infinite and the heart is inclusive'? What an interesting little guy." The holy and evil coexisting powerhouse looked at a place in the Chaotic Origin space, as if he could see the golden temple across infinite time and space, and a smile appeared in his eyes. meaning.

"I have a lot of things left, it depends on what you choose."

Golden Temple.

"Palace of all living beings? Your master is called the emperor of all living beings?" Hong looked at the little golden monkey in front of him.

The little golden monkey grabbed his cheeks and said proudly: "Yes, my master is the greatest existence, the king of all things, the master of all living beings."

"This is the palace where my master stayed. For countless years, you are the first person to come in, feel honored, little guy!" The little monkey hadn't spoken to anyone for many years, talking to himself and chattering endlessly.

In fact, many beings have come into the mysterious place for countless years, but only Hong is the one who can complete the test and come here.

It glanced at Hong who was full of curiosity, "This world is very big, it's bigger than you can imagine, there are countless source worlds like your hometown, chaos realm, cosmic realm... Oh, that's what you said. The God King, also known as the God of the Universe, if you can escape the cage and leave this place...or have the opportunity to hear the prestige of my master."

"Although I really want to tell you about it, but now your realm is too low, you are not even in the Chaos realm, it is not good for you to tell you too much. You should first choose the benefits from the rewards left by my master."

The little golden monkey shook his head. "Of course, you have to be able to survive the catastrophe in the source world."

"The source world is shattered?" Hong looked at the little golden monkey.

"Plants and trees have withered and prosperous." The little golden monkey said patiently. "Stars, there are also births and annihilations! It is the universe of your source world, which is also opened and destroyed. Then the source world... naturally also has birth and destruction."

"The original source world... the origin continent is the same as the universe. There is also destruction and new life." Hong felt shocked.

"Haha... I'm surprised to see how you look like a turtle." The little golden monkey covered his stomach and laughed.

Hong blinked, this golden monkey is quite proud.

But from the description of the little golden monkey, he could also feel that the owner of this golden palace seemed to have a great background.

"My master is a very kind and great being." said the little golden monkey, "He is willing to leave a chance for you weak and incomparably weak beings. If you are lucky and choose the right one, you can also help you reach the ultimate * of the universe. The realm, the ultimate realm of the Cosmic God, can survive the catastrophic destruction of the source world... Of course, according to the master's instructions, you can only choose one, you must choose it yourself, I will not give you any hints, nor will I interfere."

"Look at those high platforms. Each high platform has different rewards. You can go up and choose one of them. After the selection, I will send you out. Whether you can still come in in the future depends on the chance." The little golden monkey pointed to the back. .

Hong looked at the high stone platforms in the palace behind the little golden monkey.

He couldn't help but be cautious, knowing in his heart that this might be the biggest opportunity in his life.

Hong Fei went over and flew around the high platforms to observe. Each high platform gave him a different feeling.

"The Exotic Land Reclamation of Vegetable Skeletons"

"Which one to choose?" Hong frowned slightly.

The little golden monkey looked at him with a smile and didn't rush.

After thinking for a moment, Hong finally made a decision. Following his inner feelings, he flew to a high platform and landed on it.

"clatter."

When Hong fell up, the next moment, "Wow!" The entire high platform burst into dazzling light, although dazzling but soft, a mysterious power flowed into Hong's body, changing his body and soul.

"Yi, actually chose this~www.mtlnovel.com~ The little golden monkey was slightly surprised and grunted. "What a lucky little guy, it seems that he will go further than I expected. "

The master of the Golden Temple, although there are all kinds of opportunities left behind, and the opportunities are also very powerful, but the most powerful ones are still a few.

And what Hong chose was one of the strongest.

It has to be said that his luck is indeed against the sky.

And Hong is also immersed in a wonderful mood at the moment.

He felt that the essence of his body and soul was undergoing earth-shaking changes.

This is a very miraculous change. Although Hong feels it, he cannot understand it at all.

But he also understands that this change is of great benefit to him.

And in the haze, he also seemed to see a figure of light and darkness, holy and evil coexisting looking at him.

Chapter 1016: Chaos Continent

Just like Luo Feng, the son of destiny, obtained the "Star Pagoda" and the "Original Technique", Hong's opportunity in the Palace of Living Beings also had a huge impact on his future cultivation path.

At least, in the eyes of the little golden monkey, this little guy who is not even in the Chaos Realm will definitely have no problem becoming a Cosmic God in the future, and it is not impossible for the Cosmic God to be in the ultimate realm.

After Hong's body and soul were transformed by the mysterious power, his whole person was faintly different.

"Little guy, how do you feel?" The little golden monkey grinned.

"Thank you, senior." Hong Gong saluted.

"Hahaha..." The little golden monkey raised his head on his hips and laughed.

Then he said: "This is all an opportunity my master left you, relying on your efforts, it has nothing to do with me."

It looked at Hong, "Since you have been gifted by your master, it's time to leave." The little golden monkey grinned, "I look forward to seeing you again in the future, work hard, boy, and reach the cosmos before the catastrophe. Extreme."

Hong Gang was about to speak, when a powerful space force enveloped him and sent him out.

The little golden monkey looked at the empty palace and smacked its mouth.

"I'm the only one left, forget it, go back to sleep."

...

Hong was enveloped by the power of space. He only felt that the space was changing, and his eyes were dazzled, and he appeared above a huge mountain surrounded by chaotic airflow.

A stern man in black was standing in the vast chaotic void, and there was only a mountain about 100,000 light-years in size underneath, and Hong could also feel that there was no life on the mountain.

And Hong can also see that there are still some mountain peaks in the chaotic airflow in the far away place, and the rocks are looming.

Hong looked around, thoughtful. "Here, it seems to be the chaotic void on the edge of the origin continent?"

The origin continent is surrounded by endless chaotic airflow, and outside the origin continent is the endless chaotic void, but the chaotic void is not empty, there are also naturally born chaotic lands, and even man-made chaotic lands and universes!

The chaotic land is enough for the life inside to multiply and survive, but its protection is relatively weak. The universe, all outsiders are forbidden to enter. But the chaotic land is not forbidden.

Like some powerful forces in the origin continent, such as the "Mingxian Islands", one of the top forces of practitioners, is composed of some huge chaotic land. The area of a land can even exceed the original universe! multiply countless lives.

It's just that the origin continent is the center of the origin world. The entire chaotic void adds up, and the powerhouses and life are far less than the origin continent.

Hong vigilantly observed the surrounding, chaotic void, there are a lot of dangers, such as his eternal true god, can only be said to be able to protect himself in the chaotic void.

"I'm out now, so let's meet Wang Yi and Luo Feng first." Hong thought to himself.

However, he has to confirm his position first, the chaotic void is vast and boundless, and if you rush in casually, it is not impossible for him to get lost in the chaotic void.

Hong identified the direction and teleported towards the rocky area of the mountain.

Generally, where there are many peaks and rocks like this, chaotic land may appear.

brush! brush! The man in black teleports every 100,000 light-years, and the small universe domain is also shrouded in this range. To prevent accidents, they use the domain to probe and then teleport in advance.

Hong stopped suddenly, looked in a certain direction, his eyes lit up.

"Well, there is life?"

In the Chaos Void, life is rarely seen. The beings that can be sensed and discovered far away are generally 'Void creatures'.

Void creatures are creatures born in the chaotic void. They have different shapes, and there are even extremely rare human-like void creatures. Void creatures can be born in such a harsh environment, and they are inherently powerful! Generally, as long as you are an adult, you can reach the strength of a 'true god', and your body is particularly adapted to survive in the chaotic void.

However, because they are born too powerful, it is very difficult for them to improve. After all, they are strong because of their innate ability. Most of them don't know how to practice. Even if they get the method of practice, it is difficult to improve.

Of course, they also have a title called "primitive life", but in fact, void creatures are just one of countless primitive lives.

Huh, Hong also got the inheritance and treasures from the Duandong River given by Wang Yi. In addition, he practiced and tempered in a mysterious place for countless years, and was transformed by the mysterious power of the Palace of Living Beings. His strength has reached the pinnacle of the Eternal True God!

Even compared with the disciples of Wujianlou Ziyi, they are not too much, and their future potential is far above them.

In terms of will alone, he is already a "top-level saint"!

Hong teleported over and hid behind a huge rock. Looking from a distance, he found that there was a huge land in the distance of the chaotic void.

"The land of chaos." Hong's eyes lit up.

However, he also saw that on land, two parties were fighting.

One of them is human beings, beasts, metals, energy, plants... all kinds of spiritual beings, although they have different shapes, but the divine aura on them is very obvious, at least they are all true gods, and there are void true gods, eternal true gods, and the number of them. Also many.

On the opposite side, their enemies are a group of strange-looking Void creatures, and the chaotic Void breath on their bodies is particularly obvious.

Although the number of these void creatures is small, at least they are all at the level of the true * of the void, and they are fighting against the chaotic land dwellers under the leadership of the more powerful eternal true * level.

"These void creatures are here again."

"Damn, kill, kill them!"

The two sides fought fiercely, and casualties continued to appear.

Hong looked at the war breaking out in the distance and thought. "Is this a war between chaotic land dwellers and void creatures?"

It seems that the void creatures are invading the Chaos Land, and the native life of the Chaos Land is resisting.

This kind of thing is very common in Chaos Void.

Seeing the intense battle between the two sides, Hong looked around and found no void creatures that surpassed the Eternal True God.

There seems to be no Chaos Realm on both sides.

In fact, in the Chaos Void, the Chaos Realm is still very rare.

It is already a big force to have a Chaos Realm sitting in town.

Hong did not hesitate too much, and shot directly.

An extraordinarily large void creature, it has stripes of colorful tentacles, densely packed tentacles, each of which is very long. There are huge heads in the center of the body, each head has a single horn, a single eye and a big mouth~www.mtnovel.com~roar~~" Hundreds of heads roared in unison, and the surrounding people roared. The void was shattered, and apart from the fragmentation, countless shock waves were formed in the distance, and many true gods were affected and injured, even the true gods of the void would be severely injured.

It shook its head proudly, rolled its tentacles at will, and rolled the broken corpses of the dead true gods into its mouth and chewed.

This is the more common void creature "Hundreds of Roars" in the chaotic void.

And this exceptionally powerful "Hundred Roars" is even more of an eternal true god. With his talent and strength, he can sweep a group of eternal true gods, which is very terrifying. It is also because of it that these chaotic land dwellers are so embarrassed.

It likes to come to these chaotic land from time to time to devour these delicacies. In its view, these weak people should be devoured by them.

Sudden.

Chi, a black spear suddenly emerged from nothingness and stabbed one of the heads of "Hundreds of Roars".

Chapter 1017: Lanshuang Continent

Three thousand latitudes of the universe sea, the universe of human territory.

The powerhouses of the human race finally learned from Hong that he had come out.

Wang Yi was greatly surprised.

"Where are you?"

"I'm outside the Origin Continent, a chaotic land called Lanshuang Continent," Hong said.

He was helping the chaotic land dwellers to solve the invasion of the void creatures, and he was respected by them and learned a lot of local information.

This Lanshuang Continent is no smaller than the original universe, with countless lives and eternal gods. However, it does not know the existence of the origin continent, and even because of the vast danger of the chaotic void, it rarely communicates with the chaotic land next to it. Very nerve-racking.

"Lanshuang Continent? I haven't heard of it, I'll check it first." Wang Yi said.

In the vast chaotic void, the chaotic land is as numerous as the stars in the sky, and there are births and disappearances every once in a while.

"Then please." Hong Dao, he has no choice. If he is alone, even if he rushes back from the chaotic land closest to the origin continent, he doesn't know how many years it will take, let alone where he is. Lanshuang Continent.

Most importantly, without a map and no direction, it's easy to get lost in the chaotic void.

Even if he is not lost, there are many dangers in the chaotic void, and it is not something he can handle as an eternal true god.

Therefore, with his stable personality, of course, he would ask someone who is familiar and capable to help him.

Now the only one who can help him is Wang Yi.

After receiving Hong's request for help, Wang Yi began to inquire about relevant information in Wujianlou.

"There are so many chaotic lands outside the continent of origin?" I don't know if I don't check it, and I'm shocked when I check it.

If the entire Origin Continent has complete information and information, it is of course the most powerful Wujianlou all over the continent.

But Wujianlou doesn't know how many chaotic lands there are in the chaotic void.

The Wujianlou records are all famous forces, such as the "Mingxian Islands", a powerful force composed of huge chaotic landmasses.

As for the countless chaotic land, unless there is a special value, such as what secret realm exists, what powerhouse lives, or as a route sign on the way... Otherwise, it will not be counted.

During the investigation, Wang Yi discovered another interesting thing.

"Huh? Mingxian Islands is at war with Tianmu Kingdom?"

Among the many powerful countries in the origin continent, the 'Tianmu Kingdom' is a country that is stronger and older than the food country. The lord of the Tianmu Kingdom is called the 'Purple Wood God King'.

The Tianmu Kingdom was once destroyed, and the Purple Wood God King fled into the cosmos sea, went deep into the cosmos sea, enslaved a world beast and returned to the origin continent, and then destroyed the enemy.

But behind the destruction of the Tianmu Kingdom, it is said that there is the shadow of the Mingxian Islands.

Mingxian Islands, but the top power of the cultivators in the origin continent, second only to the three peak powers!

This kind of power is the second level of God King, and it is the top power! Each is powerful! Even if the three peak forces want to destroy them, it will not be easy.

Although the Purple Wood God King of Tianmu Kingdom and his servant world beasts are both at the second level of God King, they are only evenly matched with Mingxian Islands!

The two sides have been at war since then, and there have even been situations where the gods and kings fought, and a god-king fell on the Mingxian Islands. As for the master of chaos, it has fallen a lot.

So... the two sides are in an endless relationship!

"Isn't Tianmu Kingdom destroyed by Wu Kingdom, where my teacher is located? How could it be related to Mingxian Islands?" Wang Yi was surprised.

But it's not surprising to think about it, it's been too long, and it's normal that there are too many secrets behind it and I don't know.

Or only the monarch of the Wu Kingdom and the Purple Wood God King of the Tianmu Kingdom know the situation.

Wang Yi is still very concerned about Tianmu Kingdom. After all, he has inherited the Wu Kingdom, and Tianmu Kingdom is destined to be his enemy in the future.

And if Tianmu Kingdom found out that he was a descendant of Wu Kingdom, he would not let him go.

The two sides are doomed to not coexist.

It's just that he is not strong enough to deal with the powerful Purple Wood God King and his world beasts.

"The Purple Wood God King should have been only the first level of God King at the beginning, maybe it is similar to the mountain guest." Wang Yi sighed, "But relying on the beast, not only will it make a comeback and become powerful, but also can fight against the top forces like Mingxian Islands already."

Wang Yi thought of the unfortunate mountain traveler again.

The Purple Wood God King was destroyed, and he went deep into the universe to enslave the beasts, and he succeeded.

And the mountain guest was destroyed by the country and entered the universe sea to enslave the beasts, but he failed, and he was forced to reincarnate.

Both are * kings, the purple wood * king should not have the treasures of the * king palace, they are all aimed at, why the results are different, why can the purple wood * king escape the catastrophe under the power of the original universe mobilizing the entire universe sea, or sit Shanke is facing a different situation? What is the reason behind this?

Wang Yi took the "Mingxian Islands" to heart. The enemy of the enemy is sometimes a friend. In the future, he will deal with Tianmu Kingdom, or use it.

...

Wang Yi checked the Wujianlou intelligence materials and found that there was no record of the chaotic land of Lanshuang Continent.

It is estimated that it is too remote. Ordinary chaotic land like this is everywhere outside the continent of origin. If the distance is too far, it may not be discovered at all.

It's like the residents of Lanshuang Continent have never heard of the Origin Continent.

"It's troublesome now." Wang Yi frowned.

The chaotic void is vast and boundless, and trying to find a strange chaotic land among the many chaotic lands in the vast world is undoubtedly a needle in a haystack.

This made Wang Yi think that the two remaining materials that he lacked in his cultivation avatar were the same.

One of them is in the chaotic void, a certain void creature, but because the other party is drifting everywhere, ghosts and ghosts, and whereabouts are mysterious, he has never been found.

Anyway, the news that it appeared recently is already tens of thousands of reincarnation epochs.

As for the other one, although he knows his whereabouts, it is more troublesome, mainly because it belongs to a certain god-king, and this god-king happened to be the lobbyist who asked the owner of the Gold-Eating Tower of Wujianlou to be a lobbyist and wanted to get the "Seven Stars" in Wang Yi's hands. The one from "Sea Source Liquid"!

"Anti-God Evil God"

Wang Yi refused without hesitation at the time, and he could be regarded as hating this person.

In addition, not long before Wang Yi broke through the chaotic master, he visited the powerful everywhere in the Infernal Continent, this one also did not show up to receive!

Based on the temperament of this person that Wang Yi has learned from various aspects~www.mtnovel.com~ is asking for it by himself, it is estimated that it is still unlikely that he will trade with him.

Fortunately, Wang Yi wasn't too anxious about the "Seven Star Sea Origin Liquid" cultivation clone, so he kept dragging it.

"In the Origin Continent, it is very easy to cultivate a clone. As long as there is a method, even the master of chaos has a clone." Wang Yi couldn't help but secretly said. This is because of the unique cultivation system of Fangyuan World, the Origin Continent.

However, there are downsides.

If it is in the "World Heart Continent" created by Yuan, a "rich country lord", who is only the second-level realm of the universe * of the void, integrates the eight meridians, cultivates the avatar technique to the third level, and can have a full Ten thousand clones, although there are up to nine combat powers, they are terrifying.

This method is much more powerful than the origin continent.

In the entire Origin Continent, no one currently has such a sky-defying avatar method, and the strongest Qingyang God King in this regard has only three avatars.

Chapter 1018: Purple Wood God King

Originating from the continent, there is an ancient and powerful country in the extreme west region, "Tianmu Kingdom".

Tianmu Kingdom, because there are beasts that control the country, the beasts are extremely powerful, and few people dare to provoke them.

Except for the top power "Mingxian Islands".

That time, in order to deal with the Mingxian Islands, the beast secretly made a move, which led to the fall of a * king in the Mingxian Islands, and because it was too secretive, the Mingxian Islands was even more reluctant to let people know. I didn't get any news. Only a few peak forces with relatively well-informed information knew about it. Ordinary * kings like "Zanshan Ke" didn't even receive news. World Beast' has not shot.

And the war between Tianmu Kingdom and Mingxian Islands is usually limited to below the "Master of Chaos", and it exists in the form of a secret battle.

For example, assassinating the opponent's genius, uniting with other forces to oppress the opponent's forces, robbing the opponent's resources, and even offering a reward to the opponent's powerhouse's life in Wujianlou, there are all kinds of conspiracy methods.

After all, such huge forces as "Mingxian Islands" and "Tianmu Kingdom", unless a decisive battle of life and death, generally will not break out a full-scale war directly.

The capital of the Tianmu Kingdom, such a giant city built by a * king is generally called a cosmic city, a city of gods and kings. It is vast and magnificent, and countless creatures live here.

In the sky above the city, there are ninety-nine 'suns' that are incomparably huge and thousands of times larger than the true god's small universe.

In fact, these ninety-nine "suns" are also an important part of the national capital's defense. Each sun can explode an attack comparable to that of the Chaos Lord, and the ninety-nine combined can form an attack comparable to that of a * king.

The foundation of such a big power's nest will take painstaking efforts to build a solid foundation, so as to ensure the long-term stability of a big power.

Otherwise, your old nest will be thrown away every once in a while, and it will always be destroyed by others. What is the development of it?

And the ruler of the "Tianmu Kingdom", the Purple Wood God King, relies on the old nest and the beasts, and even fears nothing.

However, if Tianmu Kingdom hadn't broken its head, it would still not dare to provoke the three peak forces of Wujianlou, Dayue Kingdom, and Jieshan Palace.

In the center of the huge city is a lake with a diameter of trillions of light years. If the lake is carefully distinguished, it is an extremely pure cosmic source energy. It is an energy higher than ordinary divine power. Only a * king can extract it, just like chaos. Just like the Lord can condense chaotic crystals, this vast energy lake alone cannot be created by ordinary * kings.

In the lake, there are black silhouettes exuding an aura of destruction, which are powerful beasts.

Countless head realm beasts were quietly distributed all over the lake, not a single sound came out, but they were faintly full of suppressed and destructive aura.

The aura of destruction condensed by countless beasts, even the * king would feel the pressure.

The Eternal True God can't get close to here, even if Chaos dominates, he will be frightened.

And in the lake grows a luxuriant golden tree, with mysterious patterns appearing on every leaf that looks like gold.

The golden divine tree, which is hundreds of millions of light-years tall, quietly exudes golden radiance. It is eternal and great, and its mighty power is countless times dazzling than the ninety-nine suns overhead, but those rays of light only cover the lake, and once it reaches the edge, Bizarrely disappeared out of thin air.

This golden sacred tree is the highest belief in the minds of the people of Tianmu Kingdom, the body of the Purple Wood God King.

Legend has it that in the past, the body of the Purple Wood God King was a purple sacred tree. It was not until the return of the enslaved world beast that he went a step further and became the second layer of the God King before turning golden, but his name "Purple Wood God King" has never been change.

With two terrifying beings of the second level of * kings, and one of them is an even more terrifying beast, Tianmu Kingdom can be said to be completely superior to the surrounding forces, and Tianmu Kingdom is also proud of having such a strong person in its own country.

There are also towering palaces surrounded by chaotic airflow next to the lake. There are powerful Void True Gods and Eternal True God Guards patrolling in silver and gold standard armors.

They looked at the golden sacred tree in the middle of the lake, full of admiration and admiration.

Every warrior of Tianmu Kingdom is loyal to his monarch from the bottom of his heart, and is willing to die for His Majesty the Supreme God King at any time.

And those majestic palaces surrounded by chaotic airflow are all the chaotic masters of Tianmu Kingdom, although they are far inferior to the three peak forces, there are hundreds of them. Because of the strength of Tianmu Kingdom, for a long time, Chaos Lords have been joining them.

In the most majestic and tall golden palace in the center, a gorgeous purple king robe, long golden hair like a waterfall flows all the way to the ground of the throne, the handsome man and woman are difficult to distinguish, and the purple wood * king with purple patterns on his cheeks sits on the high throne. On the top, the dazzling golden eyes were as deep as the abyss. The "King of Beasts" Theodore, a man in black armor, stood beside him with a calm expression, and at the bottom of the steps, he was a master of Chaos Realm with a very respectful expression.

"Your Majesty." A chaotic powerhouse in the front spoke with an angry tone. "That Mingxian Islands is getting more and more excessive. Another stronghold of our origin continent was destroyed, and the clones dominated by Ejin were all killed. Although the loss is not large, it is a nakedness to our Tianmu Kingdom. Your provocation, Your Majesty, I suggest sending the strong to take revenge on the Mingxian Islands."

Tianmu Kingdom, although its territory is fixed, it is difficult to expand, but it will also establish some strongholds in other parts of the origin continent, and even support local forces, either overtly or covertly, to enhance its own power and influence.

Every faction is doing this kind of thing, and the most extreme is the Wujianlou, which is open all over the continent.

It's just because of the special nature of Wujianlou, the declaration of no hegemony, and the fact that it is too powerful, other forces have acquiesced.

And like Tianmu Kingdom, without the invincible strength of Wujianlou, it is more restrained and subtle, and if it is not too public, blatant, or affects the situation, the local forces will generally turn a blind eye.

Everyone is the same anyway.

However, Tianmu Kingdom wanted to develop, and Mingxian Islands, who had a holiday with him, was unwilling.

The predecessor of Tianmu Kingdom was destroyed. It is said that it was related to Mingxian Islands~www.mtlnovel.com~ a * king of Mingxian Islands, and later died under the cooperation of Zimu God King and his world beast.

The two sides have long been in deep hatred and will never die!

Since it is an enemy, of course, we must find ways to weaken it!

So... an important stronghold outside Tianmu Kingdom was destroyed.

Although the loss is not big, this is a naked slap in the face of Tianmu Kingdom.

Although most of the disputes between Tianmu Kingdom and Mingxian Islands have been going on secretly, there are still many forces in the origin continent who know about it.

If Tianmu Kingdom swallowed its anger, what face would it have?

"Mingxian Islands..." The Purple Wood God King on the high throne had cold and deep eyes.

"One day, I will kill you!"

Chapter 1019: Thirty-fourth

"One day, I will kill you!"

Destroying Dongtian, inside the Tongtian Tower, a strange white eight-clawed creature shouted at the * tortoise opposite.

This is the pet that Wang Yi first came to the mainland of origin to take in. It is an alien beast with four hooves, three tails and eight claws. It looks a bit like a crocodile, but has white fur and black eyes.

And the tortoise with a black carapace and a naive head opposite it is the life that hatched from the 'mago egg' that was signed in at the place where the giant tortoise lives in Mishenze.

A true * and a void true god, both of which are Wang Yi's pets. They stay together every day, look down and see each other, and often fight, but poor Chi Li is usually the one who is beaten.

Finally, it couldn't bear it anymore, and decided to resist, turn over and overthrow the cruel and inhumane rule of the evil "Dark Lord" in the pet world.

"Snapped!"

It was slapped lightly by the * tortoise's paw, and fell to the bottom of the mountain.

"Mo Tuo" opened his mouth and yawned, then turned around and slowly crawled towards Lao Chao Lake.

Turtles have three great pleasures, eating, sleeping, and playing in the pool.

Chi Li, who was lying at the bottom of the mountain, blinked and saw that the big tortoise had left, and jumped up and cursed again, but he was aggressive and his voice was very small.

A woman dressed in green clothes with two crystal blue jade horns on her forehead, the puppet life butler "Xiao Qi" walked by, lifted Chi Li up, and Chi Li immediately closed her mouth.

It is clear that this terrifying woman will not be used to herself, and she will be beaten if she is too verbose.

"Xiao Qi" lowered his head, glanced at the honest Chi Li, and shook his head secretly in his heart. I don't know if this pet raised by His Royal Highness has a brain problem. Rolling all over the place.

Or, is this what His Highness once said, "hitting is kissing, and scolding is love"?

Thinking of His Highness, "Xiao Qi" is full of expectations. The new owner is the best peerless genius she has ever seen, and she has the great help of "world beast". In the future, she will help the old master to take revenge and rebuild the Wu Kingdom. No longer a fantasy.

"Little Seven" looked towards the mountain, where His Highness was practicing.

On the top of the mountain, a world beast in a gray robe incarnate "Wang Yi" is cultivating.

For so long, Wang Yi has stepped into the Chaos Realm in several ways, such as the Dao of Flame, Dao of Destruction, Dao of Void, Body Refinement Flow... It's just the Dao of Illusory Realm, which is a little worse.

And because of the opportunity in the abyss of the void, Wang Yi's perception of the Tao of the Void made a sudden leap, and he suddenly reached the point where he was almost on par with the strongest "Dao of Destruction".

Wang Yi was looking down at a stone in his hand. It was a simple and unadorned gray stone with an ordinary appearance, without a trace of breath, just like a really ordinary stone. But how could the things sent by the Master Wujian be ordinary.

It's just that it's already much smaller than when the previous Master Wujian gave him away. That's because of Wang Yi's continuous refining during this period of time.

The stone of the void is formed by the condensed essence of the origin of the Dao of the Void. It comes from the origin space of the origin continent. There are countless "daos" in the origin space. Some of them are combined with the origin to condense some essence. It is inaccessible and difficult to collect, so every source stone is extremely precious.

Refining it, when comprehending the void, will be easier. For the chaotic master who takes the Void Dao, it is definitely a precious cultivation treasure.

Previously, when Wang Yi's deity was wandering in the abyss of the void and comprehending the Tao of the Void, the incarnation of the world beast was also destroying the "Void Stone" to refine the "Void Stone", speeding up the auxiliary cultivation and improving the efficiency of comprehension.

With the "Stone of the Void" and the blossoming of the "Enlightenment Tree", Wang Yi's speed of progress in the Void Dao was so terrifying that he even comprehended the first picture of "The Way of the Void" in one fell swoop.

"Unfortunately, the Void Stone is a consumable item, and it's gone when it's used up." Wang Yi regretted slightly. "And the enlightenment tree only blooms once in ten trillion epochs, and can only last for one hundred thousand epochs each time."

For the powerhouses whose practice time in seclusion is calculated in the "era of reincarnation", this time is too short.

In addition to the incarnation of the world beast, Wang Yi now has a clone, which has 80% of the battle power of the main body.

However, this avatar has been closing the cave to practice in the Wuji Universe Headquarters Continent.

Eggs don't go in one basket.

Just because the main body is going to take risks, some important treasures, such as the Tower of Heaven, and the undead blood, are all left in the incarnation of the beast.

The ability to disguise with the transformation of the incarnation of the beast is naturally quite safe.

More importantly, Wang Yi and the incarnation of the beast are not the same soul, but the same consciousness.

This is the most important.

No matter how powerful the powerhouse is, for example, attacking Wang Yi through soul attack, or he can kill the soul of him and his clone.

However, it is useless to the incarnation of the beast.

Because the two are not the same soul.

Even if the God King wanted to trace it through the causal connection, he would not be able to sense any direct relationship between the two. Not to mention that two unrelated lives are actually the same person.

In the eyes of the world beast, the incarnation of the world beast is a pure world beast.

In the eyes of practitioners, Wang Yi is a real practitioner.

Wang Yi never understood how the panel did it, and even he felt that the Lord of Chaotic Source might not be able to do it.

"Dao of Destruction, how to go further?" While comprehending the "Dao of Void", the incarnation of the beast spent more time comprehending the "Dao of Destruction".

For the beasts, the Dao of Destruction is the path that is naturally suitable for them!

Or the beasts will also cultivate other roads, but the road of destruction is their strongest aspect from beginning to end.

Wang Yi raised his head, and his consciousness entered the sea of Origin Law of Tongtian Tower.

When Wang Yi's realm reached the realm of chaos, the sea of laws of the Tongtian Tower changed...

There is chaos.

"There are no roads."

Wang Yi looked at the chaos, thoughtful.

In fact, after reaching the realm of the Eternal True God, Wang Yi has discovered that, apart from the obvious origin of the Ten Principles, the further back the Tower of Babel goes, the more complex the display it gives.

In the end, there is only the effect of improving the speed of comprehension, and no specific path is pointed out.

"Do you want me to walk out of my own path?"

Wang Yi looked up at the depths of chaos, and there seemed to be a rudimentary form of the universe looming in the depths.

It seems to be bigger and more perfect than the original universe, but more abstract.

Wang Yi, the level of secret magic is now at the peak of the twentieth order.

Relying on tricks, he created [Destroy the Void], which was barely considered a 21st-order secret technique.

But his real realm is still the top of the twentieth order.

Converted to the number of layers of the Tongtian Tower, it is thirty-four layers.

Even in the realm of Chaos Domination, the Tower of Babel still has a clear hierarchy.

According to Wang Yi's understanding.

The 29th tower of the Babel Tower, the 18th order, is the threshold of chaos master.

The 30th layer of the Babel Tower, which is the top of the 18th order, the normal chaos master will reach this realm, which is equivalent to the elementary chaos master.

31st weight, 19th order.

The 32nd layer, the 19th-order top, is the master of medium chaos.

Tier 33, Tier 20~www.mtlnovel.com~ Tier 34, Top Tier 20, Master of Advanced Chaos. That is Wang Yi's current level.

35th weight, 21st order.

The 36th layer, the top 21st order, chaos dominates the limit.

At this point, he has the ability to break through the ninth floor of Yuanshen Palace, which is the "Ultimate Realm of Chaos".

Going forward, it is the 37th layer, the 22nd-order secret technique level, which belongs to the threshold of the * king.

As for how to divide it later, it is estimated that it will not be clear until Wang Yi becomes the king of gods.

After all, the entire Babel Tower seems to have as many as 49 floors!

His mysterious teacher, who had told him when they separated, would leave him a gift at the end.

Wang Yi was very curious about what that was.

Chapter 1020: Chaos Ship

In Lanshuang Continent, Hong, who goes by the pseudonym "Dong Bo", was warmly invited by the aborigines after helping the aborigines to repel the invasion of the void creatures. In order to thank Hong for their help, they held a grand banquet.

"Master Xie Dongbo!"

"If it wasn't for Lord Dongbo, our people wouldn't know how many people would die!"

"Lord Dongbo's divine power is unparalleled in the world. When I think about it now, it really shocks me."

Several of the most prestigious Eternal True God leaders of the aborigines accompanied Hong, and the other Eternal True Gods and Void True Gods were also present, all of them were enthusiastic and praised constantly.

This is not surprising. Although Void creatures rarely attack, every time they attack, they will cause great damage to the chaotic land. The aborigines are killed and injured countless times.

And this time, because of the intervention of this mysterious powerhouse "Dong Bo", the strongest leaders of the Void Creatures who came to attack were all left behind. Don't dare to appear near the Lanshuang Continent.

Such kindness, coupled with the powerful strength of "Hong", even if the strongest leader among them is far inferior, they naturally admire and respect.

As the most distinguished guest today, Hong sat on the main seat, dressed in black, with a stern face, aloof temperament, and a peerless master.

He glanced around at these aborigines. The aborigines of Lanshuang Continent were also divided into factions. For example, the first position on the left of Hong was the monarch of the first empire of Lanshuang Continent, "Dark Moon Empire", Yue Rushuang, The Eternal True God has high strength. The first one sitting on the right is the sect master of the largest sect "White Night Sect" in Lanshuang Continent, "Zhong Sui", who is also the Eternal True God with high strength. A high-level executive of a well-known faction in the Lanshuang Continent?

These forces usually intrigue in the Lanshuang Continent, but they will unite as one against the invasion of the void creatures.

After all, everyone knows that Void creatures are terrifying, their lips are dead and their teeth are cold, and they still know the truth that there is no egg under the nest.

Hong accompanies these strong men to chat occasionally, and learns the nearby information from their mouths.

The more he spoke, the more he frowned.

How should I put it, the information on Lanshuang Continent is relatively closed, and it is limited to a few chaotic continents nearby, no matter how far it is? They don't know, after all, they don't even know the origin continent, which shows how remote this place is.

"Big Brother Dongbo, you have just come to the Chaos Land, or you should stay at the Imperial Palace and rest for a while." The monarch of the Dark Moon Empire is a female Eternal True God with an extremely stunning appearance. She wears a gorgeous dark purple robe and is beautiful. His face was full of evil spirits, but his attitude towards Hong was very respectful, with a hint of admiration.

Hong's figure of killing "Hundreds of Roars" at that time really surprised her.

The sect master of the "White Night Sect" "Zhong Sui", who looked like a thin old man next to him, laughed and said, "Your Majesty Rushuang, although your palace is good, there are still so many members of your husband, children and family living there. Lord Dongbo lives there, I'm afraid inconvenient, come to my Yeya Island, my Yeya Island has a beautiful environment and a large place, which is just right for Lord Dongbo to live."

He was secretly disdainful in his heart, and when he saw that he was strong, he shamelessly called him "Big Brother". We all dared to call him an adult.

One of the eternal true gods at the banquet laughed and said: "If Lord Dongbo is willing to come to my Sandy Mountain, that is the glory of all of us..."

After seeing the strength of "Hong", every faction tried every means to make friends with this great master and get closer.

After all, with the strength of "Hong", since it can sweep a group of void creatures and placed it on this chaotic land, it is completely unmatched, and one can sweep all the forces.

If "Hong" can be allowed to join them, then the other forces will have to bow their heads and surrender.

Hong also saw through the minds of these forces, and just smiled, he had no intention of participating in the struggle of these forces, even if he could easily be the king and hegemon here.

But knowing the vastness of the Origin Continent, and knowing from the "Palace of All Living Beings" that the Origin Continent has a wider world, how could he be confined to such a small chaotic land, where there are not even a few eternal true gods?

Wouldn't that be embarrassing yourself? Self-deprecating?

Wouldn't it be better to go to the Origin Continent if you really want to make a contribution and become a king?

"None of these forces know the route to the Origin Continent." Hong sighed inwardly.

Yue Rushuang, who was sitting on the seat, peeped at Hong's expression. She also knew that this mysterious master who appeared suddenly came from another place because of an accident. After thinking about it, she suddenly said: "Dong Bo If Big Brother thinks of other places further afield, he may be able to use the Chaos Flying Boat."

"Chaos flying boat?" Hong asked with interest.

"Yes." Yue Rushuang nodded and said: "Our Lanshuang Continent is located in a remote chaotic void, and there are not even a few residents gathering points nearby. Compared with other chaotic continents, it is not strong, but I heard that it is far from us. The farthest chaotic land here, the place called "Tia Continent", has been exposed to more situations from the outside world. A chaotic flying boat that travels through the chaotic void occasionally passes by them. "

"That continent of origin, I guess they will be more clear."

"A chaotic flying boat that travels through the chaotic void to do business." Hong Lai became interested and asked Yue Rushuang more carefully.

And Yue Rushuang answered truthfully.

It's just that when she just became an eternal true * a long time ago, she heard it from a passing eternal god, and she didn't know much about it.

When the powerhouses in the banquet saw Yue Rushuang and Hong talking, they felt envious and regretful in their hearts.

However, Chaos Flying Boat... Most of them have never heard of it.

After Hong learned the information about the Chaos Flying Boat from Yue Rushuang, he thought about it in his heart.

Those who can have the confidence to walk in the chaotic void have an unusual background.

At least there must be a Chaos Master.

Of course, the chaotic flying boat may just be a powerful spaceship, and it does not necessarily have much power in itself~www.mtlnovel.com~ After all, the chaotic void is vast and boundless, it is still very difficult to meet a chaotic master, as long as you are familiar with the environmental route, When walking, it is naturally a lot safer. When doing trivial things like buying and selling, the noble master of chaos will not necessarily do it himself.

As Hong knows, like some mechanical treasures, it can even resist the attack of the Chaos Lord, and the flying speed has reached an astonishing level.

"Chaos flying boat, able to travel in the chaotic void, should also know the route back to the origin continent, but I don't know, as long as I can get the location information from them, it is enough..." Hong secretly said, as long as he got the specific location, he would You can ask Wang Yi to come directly and take him back.

"It seems that my hope of returning to the Continent of Origin is on the Continent of Natia."
