Chapter 1061: Magic Falcon Tribe

This is a boundless forest, with tall giant trees rising from the ground, and a black sun shining on the top, exuding magnificent waves.

On the giant tree, there are countless members of the Magic Falcon tribe with eagle heads and black wings.

The Magic Falcon tribe is an extremely powerful tribe in Shiguo, so...

"Young Master, get up quickly, it's our turn to patrol."

"Where am I?"

Qin Hu sat up in a daze, feeling his body was cold, and there was still a strong wind blowing outside, and suddenly felt strange.

"Oh, young master, why are you confused? We are in the barracks. It's our turn to stand guard at this time. No matter what, the military law will deal with it. Now the old master can't protect you anymore."

"what?"

Qin Hu opened his eyes and saw that he was staying in a tent right now, and in front of him was a soldier in leather armor.

Just when he was about to open his mouth to ask something, he suddenly had a splitting headache, and a huge flow of information rushed into his mind. After a few seconds, he knew that he had crossed.

He has transmigrated from a modern special soldier to a young master named Qin Hu, who is the head of the seven villains in the capital!

And this era called the Dayu Dynasty never existed in history.

Qin Hu's ancestor was one of the twenty-eight marquises of the four founders of Dayu. Three months ago, his father died of illness, and Qin Hu became the new champion marquis.

Qin Hu was spoiled by his parents since he was a child. He didn't like reading or practicing martial arts.

When he grew up, the family wanted him to take care of him, so they arranged a marriage. The woman was the eldest lady of Chen Guogong's family, named Chen Ruoli, a well-known lady, beautiful and intelligent.

This Qin Hu is vicious and vicious towards others, but he regards this beautiful and beautiful fiancée as a treasure.

But the incident happened to this childhood sweetheart, Miss Chen.

According to Qin Hu's memory, that day he brought his fiancée into the palace to pay homage to Princess Chang'an. The princess and Chen Ruoli had been friends since they were young, so they arranged a banquet.

But then Qin Hu drank the fragments, and when he woke up, he had already arrived at the prison of the inner guard. He was told that he was drunk and flirted with the princess with the intention of doing something wrong.

What's even more strange is that Chen Ruoli actually wrote a letter to impeach her fiancé Qin Hu for seventy-two crimes, all of which are well-founded.

Qin Hu was like five thunderbolts, he couldn't believe his ears...

The imperial decree came down soon, saying that because of Qin Hu's ancestor's meritorious service, the death penalty can be avoided, and the living crime cannot be escaped.

But after arriving in Youzhou, he was quickly arranged to be on the front line—the front line of the Pioneer Tent.

After going through these things in Qin Hu's mind, he basically figured it out. This should be a trap.

Because Chen Guogong had long wanted to divorce him.

The Qin family and the Chen family were originally a political marriage, and they both wanted to become stronger and bigger. However, the later Qin Hu was almost useless except for being a dandy, and it can be said that he completely disgraced the champion Hou's family.

You must know that the champions of all generations are heroes and have unparalleled influence in the army, but in this generation, there is a waste who has never been on the battlefield.

<https://>

When the old Hou Ye was alive, Chen Guogong returned face, but when the old Hou Ye died, Chen Guogong turned his face ruthlessly, and even staged a scene of retiring from the mourning hall.

But Qin Hu loves Chen Ruoli deeply, and refuses to allow him to live or die, but Chen Ruoli has long hated him as a wicked young man.

So a catastrophe came!

As for Princess Chang'an, it's even simpler. She is the cousin of Qin Hu's cousin. As long as Qin Hu dies, the huge family property of the Champion Hou's Mansion will naturally fall to this cousin.

These several forces, each taking what they need, are colluding together, so they quickly united...

Sure enough, once he entered the Hou family, it was as deep as the sea, and there were so many people who wanted him to die.

"Qin An, do you think we should find a place to carry our backs?"

Under the bright moonlight, the rough north wind with harsh whistling whistled across the open field, extinguishing several torches, like countless flying knives cutting people's skin.

"No way, Young Master, you will be dealt with by military law."

Qin Hu and Qin An shrank their heads and feet against the wind, ran out of the camp, and ran forward stepping on the thick snow.

The thin Qin An was thrown over by the strong wind without paying attention.

Seeing them coming out, the two sentinels who changed defense looked at each other and smiled slyly. They took two handfuls of snow and put out the bonfire for heating, and then got into the tent.

Damn, even the little soldiers were bribed, trying to freeze me to death!

This is a small camp with about twenty tents, surrounded by horse-drawn carriages, not even the antlers of horses and antlers lined up on the outside, and the surrounding area is even more flat, with no danger to defend.

According to the memories of Qin Hu's previous life, about two hundred people were stationed here, they were the vanguard battalion of Li Qin, General of the Yu Dynasty.

The target of Li Qin's 20,000 troops this time is Liaodong Kingdom, Yu Dynasty's old enemy on the border.

"Ahem, young master, do you think we can go back alive?" Qin An curled up on the snow, his lips and face were blue, and he spoke weakly, as if he would die at any moment.

Qin Hu sighed in his heart, Qin An was purely implicated by himself, and if things continued like this, the two of them would surely die.

Those who wanted him to die didn't beat him to death in court, but beat him to death in the barracks.

But Qin Hu is definitely not someone who just sits and waits to die. This is clearly a matter of being framed, and he can't let it go.

Life is an endless struggle to survive, just wait, I will not only survive, but also return to the capital to settle accounts with you.

"Qin An, how many bank notes did we bring when we went out?"

"I don't have any banknotes anymore. I only have twenty taels of silver on me. The imperial decree says that we will be exiled and distributed, and our property will be banned."

Qin An is only 16 years old this year. He is Qin Hu's close bookboy.

In fact, Qin Hu was not much better. These days, the Pioneer Battalion marched 30 miles a day. The work they did was to open roads and build bridges when encountering water, chop firewood, dig ditches and carry water, and build camps.

And what would it be like for these two thin-skinned and tender-skinned guys to stay with hundreds of big and three thick Qiu Ba every day?

It must be the most tiring job, the worst meal, the worst beating, and the most angry...

Qin Hu estimated that his predecessor might have been tortured to death.

It can be regarded as what he deserved.

It's just this suffering, he must bear it now~www.mtnovel.com~ If he can't bear it, he will die too.

"give me."

Qin Hu thought it over, he must try to save Qin An's life first, and then think of other ways.

In fact, it is not difficult to save one's life. The easiest way is to bribe people. As the saying goes, wealth can lead to magic. Although this method is primitive, it will always work.

But in this situation, it is impossible for him to bribe senior officials, because no one dares to get involved with him. Besides, there is no money.

So he thought of a person in his mind, Centurion Li Xiaokun.

Chapter 1062: dead suffocated

In the Magic Falcon tribe, Wang Yi, who transformed into an ordinary eagle-headed tribe with invisible forms and phases, spied on the three masters of chaos in the palace.

"Samsara Sea?" Wang Yi nodded slightly. "It turns out that Ba Jian's main body is in the Sea of Samsara, which is good news."

Judging from this, Ba Jian's will must have...

"Young Master, get up quickly, it's our turn to patrol."

Chapter 1063: time flies

One hit kills, Wang Yi flees away instantly, under the boundary-breaking teleportation technique, the huge origin continent is also very close to the sky, and the cannibal monarchs who came later but couldn't find the murderer were furious.

No matter which faction, the Chaos Master is the backbone, and the number is limited. Every time one dies, it is a loss.

What's more, what Wang Yi did was unethical. He killed the three leaders of the Demon Falcon tribe with their souls.

In the continent of origin, there is no such thing as reversing the resurrection of time and space. This is the authority given by the original universe. The * king can resurrect the life created in his own universe, but he cannot resurrect the life conceived in the continent of origin. Even if he resurrects, he can only resurrect eternity. The true * cannot resurrect the ruler of chaos, and the life bred by the * king's own universe can only reach the eternal true * at most, and it is more difficult to break through than outside.

"Bajian and the others were all killed by their souls, and not a single clone was left behind."

"I'm not surprised that Pu Meng and Qingxi were killed, but Bajian is on the eighth floor of Yuanshen Palace, and his will has reached the level of a * king. If you want to kill him with your soul, ordinary people can't do it."

"Can kill them in such a short time, so that they can't resist, is it the * king who is good at soul attacks?"

The three monarchs of Shiguang discussed.

They never imagined that it was only a master of chaos who shot, but he mastered the "Lieyuanshu" against the sky.

After Wang Yi left the Food Kingdom, he appeared outside the Sea of Samsara.

Ba Jian dominated their conversation, which aroused his thoughts and came here on purpose.

Looking at the endless sea, he wanted to spy, but shook his head after a while.

In the Sea of Samsara, shrouded by a mysterious force, the void was blocked. Even Wang Yi, who had seen through the essence of the void, wanted to investigate through the holes of the black mist particles, but found that the holes behind the black mist particles were blocked by a kind of force. Blocked, unable to see the situation behind, became blind.

Here, neither the boundary-breaking teleportation technique nor the ultra-long-distance teleportation technique has any effect.

If you want to investigate, you can only use the simplest and most brutal method, that is to explore with eyes and divine power.

Wang Yi stood on the shore, looking at the * tide looming at the end of the distance, he could feel the surging will.

The number of powerful people who died here in history is unknown, and the number of * kings buried here may not be counted with two hands. When the * king falls, his will will not die, forming a storm of will. Without enough will, even the master of chaos will not be able to break in.

"The Sea of Reincarnation really deserves to be one of the most mysterious and dangerous places in the Origin Continent. Even the God King keeps it a secret." Wang Yi murmured.

He tried everything, and the boundary-breaking teleportation technique, which has always been invincible, failed here.

Sensing the violent and ferocious will across the sea, Wang Yi's eyes showed a dignified look.

He didn't mean to go in and hone his will.

When the will reaches his level, he has to comprehend it by himself and realize the spiritual transformation.

The first-time saint-level will will reach the limit, or it can be tempered.

But the limit is reached, as if the world lord has reached the ninth level, there is no way to advance, and only a thorough understanding of a series of laws can break through.

Simple training is useless.

Wang Yi finally took a deep look at the vast and boundless sea, turned and left.

Tianyu Valley.

Near the Araki faction is the residence of Wang Yi, the ruler of Tianju Valley.

The puppet servant "Xiaoqi" who sits here is quietly sitting in the garden of the mansion and taking care of the flowers and plants. At her feet, Wang Yi's two pets, Chi Chuan and Motuo Tortoise, lie lazily on the grass and stare at each other, but I don't know if it is After being taught a lesson by Xiao Qi, he didn't even intend to move.

Suddenly the space distorted, and Wang Yi walked out.

"Master, you're back." Xiao Qi showed joy.

"Yeah." Wang Yi nodded, looked at the two pets crawling over to please them, kicked them twice, and reprimanded them a few times, telling them not to be so lazy. have a dream.

Wang Yi said to Xiao Qi, a woman in Tsing Yi, who was serving at the side: "Tianjugu is here for you. I will leave an incarnation to sleep. If there is something, I will come right away." A lot of energy wasted.

Now, he has fulfilled his promise with the green-eyed woman "Jiuqi".

Xiao Qi took the order, and then said regretfully: "It's a pity that the master didn't enslave the three masters of the food kingdom this time. This can be regarded as a combat power." She also knew about Wang Yi's going out.

"Slavery is not that simple." Wang Yi shook his head.

Although he made the three leaders of the Demon Falcon tribe unconscious, once they were enslaved, they would inevitably encounter resistance.

Just like the Zerg queen who was sleeping on the earth back then, she woke up after being enslaved by Luo Feng.

Behind the Magic Falcon tribe is a food kingdom, and he doesn't want to be discovered by the three monarchs of the food kingdom.

"Master, do we want to develop power here? This place is far away from all forces, and it is difficult for them to intervene. It is very suitable for us to build power." Xiao Qi's eyes sparkled.

Wang Yi knew that she would never forget the state of Wu, and always wanted to restore the country for Wu.

However, it is not so easy to restore the country. When Wu was destroyed, the land was taken away by various forces. Moreover, once Wu's enemy, Tianmu, found the remnants of Wu, it would definitely destroy them at any cost.

The chaotic place seems to be a place of no concern, but fish and dragons are mixed, and all parties are involved in it. An ordinary force may be behind a kingdom of God.

Since ancient times, no force has been able to single-handedly cover the sky in the chaotic land, and no * king has established power in the chaotic land. They all go to other places. This is an unspoken rule that has not been disclosed by all parties~www.mtlnovel.com~ No one dares to challenge this rule.

The reason why the land of chaos is the most chaotic place in the Origin Continent is that in addition to practitioners, there are also indigenous and primitive life forms here.

It is very simple for Wang Yi to unify Tianyu Valley, but if he wants to grow stronger, he will inevitably conflict with other forces, and may even provoke a powerful force. However, Wang Yi has the intelligence support of Wujianlou, so it is not very difficult to avoid this problem. It's just a little troublesome.

Seeing Xiaoqi's expectant expression, Wang Yi thought about it for a while, but finally did not object.

Although he knew that as long as he ordered, Xiao Qi could not disobey.

Or it is also a good thing to let this puppet life that has been lonely for a long time do something here.

As for whether he can establish influence in a chaotic place, Wang Yi actually doesn't care.

In the Continent of Origin, the strength of a power depends entirely on the top powerhouses.

A * king can easily establish a huge power.

Without strength, no matter how large the territory is, it is all vain.

In the past, the aborigines who occupied a dominant position in the continent of origin and had unlimited scenery are not being driven to the bitter cold place by the practitioners to drink the northwest wind.

Wang Yi knew in his heart that strength is the foundation, and everything else is a castle in the air.

So after dealing with the matter of Tianju Valley, he went back to Wujian Building to continue his meditation.

The death of the three masters of chaos in Shiguo caused some disturbances among the various forces in Origin Continent, but they soon calmed down again.

Except Shiguo, who was furiously trying to find the murderer, no one cared about the deaths of several Chaos Lords.

Time goes by, 100 million epochs and 100 million epochs, the waves of time are extremely inconspicuous on the ancient sea of the continent of origin...

Chapter 1064: Luo Feng breaks through!

"Lord Jiujiang."

On the shore of the island in the lake, a group of eternal true gods are respectfully begging Wang Yi for advice.

Hundreds of billions of epochs have passed. During this period of time, those geniuses also communicated with each other. After discovering that those practitioners who had been taught by the master of Jiujiang had made great progress, Wang Yi's here also went from being neglected to becoming more and more...

"Young Master, get up quickly, it's our turn to patrol."

Cosmos Sea has passed almost three eras of reincarnation since the universe, the holy place where human beings were born, is now in the fourth era of reincarnation.

Qin Hu's ancestor was one of the twenty-eight marquises of the four founders of Dayu. Three months ago, his father died of illness, and Qin Hu became the new champion marquis.

Qin Hu was spoiled by his parents since he was a child. He didn't like reading or practicing martial arts.

When he grew up, the family wanted him to take care of him, so they arranged a marriage. The woman was the eldest lady of Chen Guogong's family, named Chen Ruoli, a well-known lady, beautiful and intelligent.

This Qin Hu is vicious and vicious towards others, but he regards this beautiful and beautiful fiancée as a treasure.

But the incident happened to this childhood sweetheart, Miss Chen.

According to Qin Hu's memory, that day he brought his fiancée into the palace to pay homage to Princess Chang'an. The princess and Chen Ruoli had been friends since they were young, so they arranged a banquet.

But then Qin Hu drank the fragments, and when he woke up, he had already arrived at the prison of the inner guard. He was told that he was drunk and flirted with the princess with the intention of doing something wrong.

What's even more strange is that Chen Ruoli actually wrote a letter to impeach her fiancé Qin Hu for seventy-two crimes, all of which are well-founded.

Qin Hu was like five thunderbolts, he couldn't believe his ears...

The imperial decree came down soon, saying that because of Qin Hu's ancestor's meritorious service, the death penalty can be avoided, and the living crime cannot be escaped.

But after arriving in Youzhou, he was quickly arranged to be on the front line—the front line of the Pioneer Tent.

After going through these things in Qin Hu's mind, he basically figured it out. This should be a trap.

Because Chen Guogong had long wanted to divorce him.

The Qin family and the Chen family were originally a political marriage, and they both wanted to become stronger and bigger. However, the later Qin Hu was almost useless except for being a dandy, and it can be said that he completely disgraced the champion Hou's family.

You must know that the champions of all generations are heroes and have unparalleled influence in the army, but in this generation, there is a waste who has never been on the battlefield.

When the old Hou Ye was alive, Chen Guogong returned face, but when the old Hou Ye died, Chen Guogong turned his face ruthlessly, and even staged a scene of retiring from the mourning hall.

But Qin Hu loves Chen Ruoli deeply, and refuses to allow him to live or die, but Chen Ruoli has long hated him as a wicked young man.

So a catastrophe came!

As for Princess Chang'an, it's even simpler. She is the cousin of Qin Hu's cousin. As long as Qin Hu dies, the huge family property of the Champion Hou's Mansion will naturally fall to this cousin.

These several forces, each taking what they need, are colluding together, so they quickly united...

Sure enough, once he entered the Hou family, it was as deep as the sea, and there were so many people who wanted him to die.

"Qin An, do you think we should find a place to carry our backs?"

Under the bright moonlight, the rough north wind with harsh whistling whistled across the open field, extinguishing several torches, like countless flying knives cutting people's skin.

"No way, Young Master, you will be dealt with by military law."

Qin Hu and Qin An shrank their heads and feet against the wind, ran out of the camp, and ran forward stepping on the thick snow.

The thin Qin An was thrown over by the strong wind without paying attention.

Seeing them coming out, the two sentinels who changed defense looked at each other and smiled slyly. They took two handfuls of snow and put out the bonfire for heating, and then got into the tent.

Damn, even the little soldiers were bribed, trying to freeze me to death!

This is a small camp with about twenty tents, surrounded by horse-drawn carriages, not even the antlers of horses and antlers lined up on the outside, and the surrounding area is even more flat, with no danger to defend.

According to the memories of Qin Hu's previous life, about two hundred people were stationed here, they were the vanguard battalion of Li Qin, General of the Yu Dynasty.

The target of Li Qin's 20,000 troops this time is Liaodong Kingdom, Yu Dynasty's old enemy on the border.

"Ahem, young master, do you think we can go back alive?" Qin An curled up on the snow, his lips and face were blue, and he spoke weakly, as if he would die at any moment.

Qin Hu sighed in his heart, Qin An was purely implicated by himself, and if things continued like this, the two of them would surely die.

Those who wanted him to die didn't beat him to death in court, but beat him to death in the barracks.

But Qin Hu is definitely not someone who just sits and waits to die. This is clearly a matter of being framed, and he can't let it go.

Life is an endless struggle to survive, just wait, I will not only survive, but also return to the capital to settle accounts with you.

"Qin An, how many bank notes did we bring when we went out?"

"I don't have any banknotes anymore. I only have twenty taels of silver on me. The imperial decree says that we will be exiled and distributed, and our property will be banned."

Qin An is only 16 years old this year. He is Qin Hu's close bookboy.

In fact, Qin Hu is not much better. These days, the Pioneer Battalion marched 30 miles a day ~www.mtlnovel.com~ The job they did was to open roads and build bridges when encountering water in the mountains, chop firewood for fire, dig ditches to carry water, and build camps.

And what would it be like for these two thin-skinned and tender-skinned guys to stay with hundreds of big and three thick Qiu Ba every day?

It must be the most tiring job, the worst meal, the worst beating, and the most angry...

Qin Hu estimated that his predecessor might have been tortured to death.

It can be regarded as what he deserved.

It's just this suffering, he must bear it now, if he can't bear it, he will die too.

"give me."

Qin Hu thought it over, he must try to save Qin An's life first, and then think of other ways.

In fact, it is not difficult to save one's life. The easiest way is to bribe people. As the saying goes, wealth can lead to magic. Although this method is primitive, it will always work.

But in this situation, it is impossible for him to bribe senior officials, because no one dares to get involved with him. Besides, there is no money.

So he thought of a person in his mind, Centurion Li Xiaokun.

The news that the ancestor of the Milky Way broke through again has spread throughout the cosmic sea, and countless strong men of the cosmic sea traveled hundreds of millions of miles through the latitude cosmic passage to watch this rare event.

As for the human race? There were already thunderous cheers.

The universe of the Holy Land of the Galaxy is constantly expanding, starting from a diameter of 100 billion light years...

"Young Master, get up quickly, it's our turn to patrol."

"Where am I?"

Qin Hu sat up in a daze, feeling his body was cold, and there was still a strong wind blowing outside, and suddenly felt strange.

"Oh, young master, why are you confused? We are in the barracks. It's our turn to stand guard at this time. No matter what, the military law will deal with it. Now the old master can't protect you anymore."

"what?"

Qin Hu opened his eyes and saw that he was staying in a tent right now, and in front of him was a soldier in leather armor.

Just when he was about to open his mouth to ask something, he suddenly had a splitting headache, and a huge flow of information rushed into his mind. After a few seconds, he knew that he had crossed.

When the old Hou Ye was alive, Chen Guogong returned face, but when the old Hou Ye died, Chen Guogong turned his face ruthlessly, and even staged a scene of retiring from the mourning hall.

But Qin Hu loves Chen Ruoli deeply, and refuses to allow him to live or die, but Chen Ruoli has long hated him as a wicked young man.

So a catastrophe came!

As for Princess Chang'an, it's even simpler. She is the cousin of Qin Hu's cousin. As long as Qin Hu dies, the huge family property of the Champion Hou's Mansion will naturally fall to this cousin.

These several forces, each taking what they need, are colluding together, so they quickly united...

Sure enough, once he entered the Hou family, it was as deep as the sea, and there were so many people who wanted him to die.

"Qin An, do you think we should find a place to carry our backs?"

Under the bright moonlight, the rough north wind, with its piercing whistle, swept across the open field, extinguishing several torches, like countless flying knives cutting people's skin.

"No way, Young Master, you will be dealt with by military law."

Qin Hu and Qin An shrank their heads and feet against the wind, ran out of the camp, and ran forward stepping on the thick snow.

The thin Qin An was thrown over by the strong wind without paying attention.

Seeing them coming out, the two sentinels who changed defense looked at each other and smiled slyly. They took two handfuls of snow and put out the bonfire for heating, and then got into the tent.

Damn, even the little soldiers were bribed, trying to freeze me to death!

This is a small camp, with about twenty tents, surrounded by horse-drawn carriages, not even the antlers of the horses and antlers lined up on the outside, and the surrounding area is even more flat, with no danger to defend.

According to the memories of Qin Hu's previous life, about two hundred people were stationed here, they were the vanguard battalion of Li Qin, General of the Yu Dynasty.

The target of Li Qin's 20,000 troops this time is Liaodong Kingdom, Yu Dynasty's old enemy on the border.

"Ahem, young master, do you think we can go back alive?" Qin An curled up on the snow, his lips and face were blue, and he spoke weakly, as if he would die at any moment.

Qin Hu sighed in his heart, Qin An was purely implicated by himself, and if things continued like this, the two of them would surely die.

Those who wanted him to die didn't beat him to death in court, but beat him to death in the barracks.

But Qin Hu is definitely not someone who just sits and waits to die. This is clearly a matter of being framed, and he can't let it go.

Life is an endless struggle to survive, just wait, I will not only survive, but also return to the capital to settle accounts with you.

"Qin An, how many bank notes did we bring when we went out?"

"I don't have any banknotes anymore. I only have twenty taels of silver on me. The imperial decree says that we will be exiled and distributed, and our property will be banned."

Qin An is only 16 years old this year. He is Qin Hu's close bookboy.

In fact, Qin Hu is not much better. These days, the Pioneer Battalion is marching 30 miles a day. The job they do is to open roads and build bridges when encountering water, chop firewood, dig ditches and carry water~www.mtlnovel.com~ to build camps.

And what would it be like for these two thin-skinned and tender-skinned guys to stay with hundreds of big and three thick Qiu Ba every day?

It must be the most tiring job, the worst meal, the worst beating, and the most angry...

Qin Hu estimated that his predecessor might have been tortured to death.

It can be regarded as what he deserved.

It's just this suffering, he must bear it now, if he can't bear it, he will die too.

"give me."

Qin Hu thought it over, he must try to save Qin An's life first, and then think of other ways.

In fact, it is not difficult to save one's life. The easiest way is to bribe people. As the saying goes, wealth can lead to magic. Although this method is primitive, it will always work.

But in this situation, it is impossible for him to bribe senior officials, because no one dares to get involved with him. Besides, there is no money.

So he thought of a person in his mind, Centurion Li Xiaokun.

Chapter 1070: end

Hong looked around and found that no one seemed to notice this place, so he realized the extraordinaryness of the person in front of him.

"Senior?" Hong respectfully asked.

There was a smile in the weird man's eyes: "My name is Demon."

When Hong heard this, he was immediately startled. He has been in the Origin Continent for so long, and he has no idea about the top of the Origin Continent...

"Young Master, get up quickly, it's our turn to patrol."

"Where am I?"

Qin Hu sat up in a daze, feeling his body was cold, and there was still a strong wind blowing outside, and suddenly felt strange.

"Oh, young master, why are you confused? We are in the barracks. It's our turn to stand guard at this time. No matter what, the military law will deal with it. Now the old master can't protect you anymore."

"what?"

Qin Hu opened his eyes and saw that he was staying in a tent right now, and in front of him was a soldier in leather armor.

Just when he was about to open his mouth to ask something, he suddenly had a splitting headache, and a huge flow of information rushed into his mind. After a few seconds, he knew that he had crossed.

He has transmigrated from a modern special soldier to a young master named Qin Hu, who is the head of the seven villains in the capital!

And this era called the Dayu Dynasty never existed in history.

Qin Hu's ancestor was one of the twenty-eight marquises of the four founders of Dayu. Three months ago, his father died of illness, and Qin Hu became the new champion marquis.

Qin Hu was spoiled by his parents since he was a child. He didn't like reading or practicing martial arts.

When he grew up, the family wanted him to take care of him, so they arranged a marriage. The woman was the eldest lady of Chen Guogong's family, named Chen Ruoli, a well-known lady, beautiful and intelligent.

This Qin Hu is vicious and vicious towards others, but he regards this beautiful and beautiful fiancée as a treasure.

But the incident happened to this childhood sweetheart, Miss Chen.

According to Qin Hu's memory, that day he brought his fiancée into the palace to pay homage to Princess Chang'an. The princess and Chen Ruoli had been friends since they were young, so they arranged a banquet.

But then Qin Hu drank the fragments, and when he woke up, he had already arrived at the prison of the inner guard. He was told that he was drunk and flirted with the princess with the intention of doing something wrong.

What's even more strange is that Chen Ruoli actually wrote a letter to impeach her fiancé Qin Hu for seventy-two crimes, all of which are well-founded.

Qin Hu was like five thunderbolts, he couldn't believe his ears...

The imperial decree came down soon, saying that because of Qin Hu's ancestor's meritorious service, the death penalty can be avoided, and the living crime cannot be escaped.

But after arriving in Youzhou, he was quickly arranged to be on the front line—the front line of the Pioneer Tent.

After going through these things in Qin Hu's mind, he basically figured it out. This should be a trap.

Because Chen Guogong had long wanted to divorce him.

The Qin family and the Chen family were originally a political marriage, and they both wanted to become stronger and bigger. However, the later Qin Hu was almost useless except for being a dandy, and it can be said that he completely disgraced the champion Hou's family.

You must know that the champions of all generations are heroes and have unparalleled influence in the army, but in this generation, there is a waste who has never been on the battlefield.
