Chapter 1071: Called by the Infernal Landlord

The most promising peerless geniuses in the Origin Conference, Hong Li left, and Luo Feng broke through the Chaos Master, leaving behind a "Yuan", and there is no suspense in the result.

Just like "Boran" who was in the peak talent battle back then, the talent is the first in the contemporary era, unparalleled and overwhelming.

Hara is the same, other geniuses though...

"Young Master, get up quickly, it's our turn to patrol."

"Where am I?"

Qin Hu sat up in a daze, feeling his body was cold, and there was still a strong wind blowing outside, and suddenly felt strange.

"Oh, young master, why are you confused? We are in the barracks. It's our turn to stand guard at this time. No matter what, the military law will deal with it. Now the old master can't protect you anymore."

"what?"

Qin Hu opened his eyes and saw that he was staying in a tent right now, and in front of him was a soldier in leather armor.

Just when he was about to open his mouth to ask something, he suddenly had a splitting headache, and a huge flow of information rushed into his mind. After a few seconds, he knew that he had crossed.

He has transmigrated from a modern special soldier to a young master named Qin Hu, who is the head of the seven villains in the capital!

And this era called the Dayu Dynasty never existed in history.

Qin Hu's ancestor was one of the twenty-eight marquises of the four founders of Dayu. Three months ago, his father died of illness, and Qin Hu became the new champion marquis.

Qin Hu was spoiled by his parents since he was a child. He didn't like reading or practicing martial arts.

When he grew up, the family wanted him to take care of him, so they arranged a marriage. The woman was the eldest lady of Chen Guogong's family, named Chen Ruoli, a well-known lady, beautiful and intelligent.

This Qin Hu is vicious and vicious towards others, but he regards this beautiful and beautiful fiancée as a treasure.

But the incident happened to this childhood sweetheart, Miss Chen.

According to Qin Hu's memory, that day he brought his fiancée into the palace to pay homage to Princess Chang'an. The princess and Chen Ruoli had been friends since they were young, so they arranged a banquet.

But then Qin Hu drank the fragments, and when he woke up, he had already arrived at the prison of the inner guard. He was told that he was drunk and flirted with the princess with the intention of doing something wrong.

What's even more strange is that Chen Ruoli actually wrote a letter to impeach her fiancé Qin Hu for seventy-two crimes, all of which are well-founded.

Qin Hu was like five thunderbolts, he couldn't believe his ears...

The imperial decree came down soon, saying that because of Qin Hu's ancestor's meritorious service, the death penalty can be avoided, and the living crime cannot be escaped.

But after arriving in Youzhou, he was quickly arranged to be on the front line—the front line of the Pioneer Tent.

After going through these things in Qin Hu's mind, he basically figured it out. This should be a trap.

Because Chen Guogong had long wanted to divorce him.

The Qin family and the Chen family were originally a political marriage, and they both wanted to become stronger and bigger. However, the later Qin Hu was almost useless except for being a dandy, and it can be said that he completely disgraced the champion Hou's family.

You must know that the champions of all generations are heroes and have unparalleled influence in the army, but in this generation, there is a waste who has never been on the battlefield.

When the old Hou Ye was alive, Chen Guogong returned face, but when the old Hou Ye died, Chen Guogong turned his face ruthlessly, and even staged a scene of retiring from the mourning hall.

But Qin Hu loves Chen Ruoli deeply, and refuses to allow him to live or die, but Chen Ruoli has long hated him as a wicked young man.

So a catastrophe came!

As for Princess Chang'an, it's even simpler. She is the cousin of Qin Hu's cousin. As long as Qin Hu dies, the huge family property of the Champion Hou's Mansion will naturally fall to this cousin.

These several forces, each taking what they need, are colluding together, so they quickly united...

Sure enough, once he entered the Hou family, it was as deep as the sea, and there were so many people who wanted him to die.

"Qin An, do you think we should find a place to carry our backs?"

Under the bright moonlight, the rough north wind with harsh whistling whistled across the open field, extinguishing several torches, like countless flying knives cutting people's skin.

"No way, Young Master, you will be dealt with by military law."

Qin Hu and Qin An shrank their heads and feet against the wind, ran out of the camp, and ran forward stepping on the thick snow.

The thin Qin An was thrown over by the strong wind without paying attention.

Seeing them coming out, the two sentinels who changed defense looked at each other and smiled slyly. They took two handfuls of snow and put out the bonfire for heating, and then got into the tent.

Damn, even the little soldiers were bribed, trying to freeze me to death!

This is a small camp with about twenty tents, surrounded by horse-drawn carriages, not even the antlers of horses and antlers lined up on the outside, and the surrounding area is even more flat, with no danger to defend.

According to the memories of Qin Hu's previous life, about two hundred people were stationed here, they were the vanguard battalion of Li Qin, General of the Yu Dynasty.

The target of Li Qin's 20,000 troops this time is Liaodong Kingdom, Yu Dynasty's old enemy on the border.

"Ahem, young master, do you think we can go back alive?" Qin An curled up on the snow, his lips and face were blue, and he spoke weakly, as if he would die at any moment.

Qin Hu sighed in his heart, Qin An was purely implicated by himself, and if things continued like this, the two of them would surely die.

Those who wanted him to die didn't beat him to death in court, but beat him to death in the barracks.

But Qin Hu is definitely not someone who just sits and waits to die. This is clearly a matter of being framed, and he can't let it go.

Life is an endless struggle to survive, just wait, I will not only survive, but also return to the capital to settle accounts with you.

"Qin An, how many bank notes did we bring when we went out?"

"I don't have any banknotes anymore. I only have twenty taels of silver on me. The imperial decree says that we will be exiled and distributed, and our property will be banned."

Qin An is only 16 years old this year. He is Qin Hu's close bookboy.

In fact, Qin Hu was not much better. The Pioneer Battalion marched 30 miles a day for the past few days. The job they did was to open roads and build bridges when encountering water, chop firewood, dig ditches and carry water, and build camps.

And what would it be like for these two thin-skinned and tender-skinned guys to stay with hundreds of big and three thick Qiu Ba every day?

It must be the most tiring job, the worst meal, the worst beating, and the most angry...

Qin Hu estimated that his predecessor might have been tortured to death.

It can be regarded as what he deserved.

It's just this suffering, he must bear it now~www.mtnovel.com~ If he can't bear it, he will die too.

"give me."

Qin Hu thought it over, he must try to save Qin An's life first, and then think of other ways.

In fact, it is not difficult to save one's life. The easiest way is to bribe people. As the saying goes, wealth can lead to magic. Although this method is primitive, it will always work.

But in this situation, it is impossible for him to bribe senior officials, because no one dares to get involved with him. Besides, there is no money.

So he thought of a person in his mind, Centurion Li Xiaokun.

Chapter 1072: Dew trapped?

God King Zhongli just came on a whim. He learned about Wang Yi from other fellow disciples. He didn't get the will of Wujian, he just came to have a look and then left.

Wang Yi and Master Cangli walked into the gate of the pagoda, and every step they took seemed to pass through a space, which felt very strange.

Finally they came to a light...

"Young Master, get up quickly, it's our turn to patrol."

"Where am I?"

Qin Hu sat up in a daze, feeling his body was cold, and there was still a strong wind blowing outside, and suddenly felt strange.

Wang Yi thought about it, and finally said honestly: "The junior has realized the first picture."

Before the master Wujian could speak, Master Cangli had already said: "You said you comprehended the first picture of "Void Proliferation Dao?"

Master Cangli's eyes widened, a little in disbelief, but he knew clearly that "Void Expansion Dao...

Ordinary people would be overjoyed to get a peerless secret technique for nothing, after all, practicing secret technique is the thing that can improve one's strength the most. But Wang Yi was different. He thanked the teacher for putting away the secret method, and he sighed in his heart.

You have to have a god-level willpower to cultivate...

Master Cangli and Wang Yi flew out from the gate of the Void Tower.

"Senior brother, what is the head of the Foreign Affairs Office?" Wang Yi asked curiously.

The master of Cangli with a fluttering white beard smiled and said, "Junior Brother, there are various departments and organizations in our Wujian Building.

This Qin Hu is vicious and vicious towards others, but he regards this beautiful and beautiful fiancée as a treasure.

But the incident happened to this childhood sweetheart, Miss Chen.

According to Qin Hu's memory, that day he brought his fiancée into the palace to pay homage to Princess Chang'an. The princess and Chen Ruoli had been friends since they were young, so they arranged a banquet.

But then Qin Hu drank the fragments, and when he woke up, he had already arrived at the prison of the inner guard. He was told that he was drunk and flirted with the princess with the intention of doing something wrong.

What's even more strange is that Chen Ruoli actually wrote a letter to impeach her fiancé Qin Hu for seventy-two crimes, all of which are well-founded.

Qin Hu was like five thunderbolts, he couldn't believe his ears...

The imperial decree came down soon, saying that because of Qin Hu's ancestor's meritorious service, the death penalty can be avoided, and the living crime cannot be escaped.

But after arriving in Youzhou, he was quickly arranged to be on the front line—the front line of the Pioneer Tent.

After going through these things in Qin Hu's mind, he basically figured it out. This should be a trap.

Because Chen Guogong had long wanted to divorce him.

The Qin family and the Chen family were originally a political marriage, and they both wanted to become stronger and bigger. However, Qin Hu later was almost useless except for being a dude.

You must know that the champions of all generations are heroes and have unparalleled influence in the army, but in this generation, there is a waste who has never been on the battlefield.

When the old Hou Ye was alive, Chen Guogong returned face, but when the old Hou Ye died, Chen Guogong turned his face ruthlessly, and even staged a scene of retiring from the mourning hall.

But Qin Hu loves Chen Ruoli deeply, and refuses to allow him to live or die, but Chen Ruoli has long hated him as a wicked young man.

So a catastrophe came!

As for Princess Chang'an, it's even simpler. She is the cousin of Qin Hu's cousin. As long as Qin Hu dies, the huge family property of the Champion Hou's Mansion will naturally fall to this cousin.

These several forces, each taking what they need, are colluding together, so they quickly united...

Sure enough, once he entered the Hou family, it was as deep as the sea, and there were so many people who wanted him to die.

"Qin An, do you think we should find a place to carry our backs?"

Under the bright moonlight, the rough north wind, with its piercing whistle, swept across the open field, extinguishing several torches, like countless flying knives cutting people's skin.

"No way, Young Master, you will be dealt with by military law."

Qin Hu and Qin An shrank their heads and feet against the wind, ran out of the camp, and ran forward stepping on the thick snow.

The thin Qin An was thrown over by the strong wind without paying attention.

Seeing them coming out, the two sentinels who changed defense looked at each other and smiled slyly. They took two handfuls of snow and put out the bonfire for heating, and then got into the tent.

Damn, even the little soldiers were bribed, trying to freeze me to death!

This is a small camp, with about twenty tents, surrounded by horse-drawn carriages, not even the antlers of the horses and antlers lined up on the outside, and the surrounding area is even more flat, with no danger to defend.

According to the memories of Qin Hu's previous life, about two hundred people were stationed here, they were the vanguard battalion of Li Qin, General of the Yu Dynasty.

The target of Li Qin's 20,000 troops this time is Liaodong Kingdom, Yu Dynasty's old enemy on the border.

"Ahem, young master, do you think we can go back alive?" Qin An curled up on the snow, his lips and face were blue, and he spoke weakly, as if he would die at any moment.

Qin Hu sighed in his heart, Qin An was purely implicated by himself, and if things continued like this, the two of them would surely die.

Those who wanted him to die didn't beat him to death in court, but beat him to death in the barracks.

But Qin Hu is definitely not someone who just sits and waits to die. This is clearly a matter of being framed, and he can't let it go.

Life is an endless struggle to survive, just wait, I will not only survive, but also return to the capital to settle accounts with you.

"Qin An, how many bank notes did we bring when we went out?"

"I don't have any banknotes anymore. I only have twenty taels of silver on me. The imperial decree says that we will be exiled and distributed, and our property will be banned."

Qin An is only 16 years old this year. He is Qin Hu's close bookboy.

In fact, Qin Hu was not much better. These days, the Pioneer Battalion marched 30 miles a day. The work they did was to open roads and build bridges when encountering water, chop firewood, dig ditches and carry water, and build camps.

And what would it be like for these two thin-skinned and tender-skinned guys to stay with hundreds of big and three thick Qiu Ba every day?

It must be the most tiring job, the worst meal, the worst beating, and the most angry...

Qin Hu estimated that his predecessor might have been tortured to death.

It can be regarded as what he deserved.

Qin Hu thought it over, he must try to save Qin An's life first, and then think of other ways.

In fact, it is not difficult to save one's life. The easiest way is to bribe people. As the saying goes, wealth can lead to magic. Although this method is primitive, it will always work.

But in this situation, it is impossible for him to bribe senior officials, because no one dares to get involved with him. Besides, there is no money.

So he thought of a person in his mind, Centurion Li Xiaokun.

Those secret lines vividly displayed the mystery of the Void Dao in front of Wang Yi, making him fascinated by it.

Although practice is miraculous. But the source world is equally miraculous, giving birth to this kind of creature with the mystery of the void.

"Junior Brother, Junior Brother." Master Cangli woke up Wang Yi who was in a state of comprehension.

"Young Master, get up quickly, it's our turn to patrol."

"Where am I?"

Qin Hu sat up in a daze, feeling his body was cold, and there was still a strong wind blowing outside, and suddenly felt strange.

"Oh, young master, why are you confused? We are in the barracks. It's our turn to stand guard at this time. No matter what, the military law will deal with it. Now the old master can't protect you anymore."

Qin Hu opened his eyes and saw that he was staying in a tent right now, and in front of him was a soldier in leather armor.

Just when he was about to open his mouth to ask something, he suddenly had a splitting headache, and a huge flow of information rushed into his mind. After a few seconds, he knew that he had crossed.
