"Crack." Under his control, Aratakito released his hand, and the strange beetle in his hand fell out.

Then, Arakito, who was in a coma, woke up.

"Master Gu?" Arakito saw Wang Yi standing in front of him, and couldn't help being shocked.

Wang Yi ignored him and picked up the beetle that fell on the ground.

The news that Tianhuang Mountain was about to be born quickly spread throughout the Origin Continent.

Because there are too many forces who have obtained the information, it is impossible to block it.

So for a while, the whole world knew about it.

Practitioners know it, so they are naturally excited and fanatical.

The original life knew it, and it also made up its mind...

"Brother An? We only met in the afternoon, and we met again at midnight, by fate!" Wang Xuan hurriedly greeted him, and finally knew who he was.

Soon, a pitch-black owl flew into the closed space of the high spiritual world, stared at Wang Xuan and knew that he was a newcomer.

"Brother Hong Teng?" Wang Xuan asked.

Sure enough, it was him, manifesting a slightly dark face, and said, "I always like Qin Cheng, the * who bullies senior brother the most?"

Wang Xuan is speechless, is he notorious?

Then, a coquettish red lotus floated in, this time it was easier to identify, it should be Qi Miao, and it was her, and thanked the mechanical pig after entering: "An Hong, thank you, I really like the Atlas of Yuanshen. "

"Okay, don't irritate him," said the sparrow.

Then, he turned his head to look at Wang Xuan, and said: "Although they are all of us, like-minded, but the heart of guarding against others is indispensable. Next time you come in, put it in the spiritual treasure. If there is a change, there will be a change." Enough confidence to protect yourself."

Wang Xuan had already seen that paper cats, mechanical pigs, red lotuses, etc. were all top treasures, which could entrust the primordial spirit and burst out extremely powerful power.

"There are still a few people who have traveled far or are in retreat, so they may not be able to participate." Yanque said.

Here are all powerful figures who have broken the limit twice, and also represent the top wizards in the Pingtian Starfield. They have all become immortals and are stranded in the present world.

Yanque said: "Well, this is the newcomer Qin Cheng, the famous freshman thorn, so I don't need to introduce more? He helped some of you win the scriptures, and also made some of you go bankrupt, hehe."

The mechanical pig's eyes widened immediately, and An Hong was very dissatisfied.

In fact, as long as the ancient clan arranges all the masters of chaos in the clan to the holy mountain or be protected by the royal court, they can spend this period of time safely, and just wait for the 900 million era to pass.

However, this will only drive the practitioners crazy, causing even more terrifying existences, and it is not impossible to even attack the royal court directly.

Neither the ancient race nor the cultivators wanted a full-scale war to break out at this time.

Dare to attack the indigenous tribe at will? Kill a tribe without a Chaos Overlord? I'm afraid that I won't be chased to death by the indigenous * king!
