

A God 971

Chapter 971: Dare to bully my apprentice?

The voice was too familiar, and Shi Zhongtian raised his head in surprise. "teacher!"

A figure suddenly appeared in the void, an old man in a white robe, white hair and a white beard, chubby, with red skin, and two soft tentacles on his head, his eyes almost squinted into a line, and his smile was lovely.

Shi Zhongtian was stunned for a moment, is this the teacher?

When the fat old man appeared, the two eternal true gods who were chasing Shi Zhongtian lost consciousness and were suspended in the air motionless. Don't you recognize the teacher?"

His voice was Wang Yi's.

Only then did Shi Zhongtian react, and he flew over quickly, flew to the fat old man's side, and saluted respectfully, feeling excited. "Teacher, why are you here? How did you know I was here?" In his memory, wasn't the teacher practicing in Wujianlou, why did he suddenly appear here.

Wang Yi smiled slightly. It was very easy to find Shi Zhongtian. After all, he mastered the teleportation technique of breaking the world, and it was only a matter of time to rush to the country of Dayue, and he could also spy on the Quartet through the hole of the "black fog sphere". For him, looking for someone is just a raise of hands.

"I asked the Chaos City Lords who stayed in the Changhong Sect, and I learned that you have been staying in the Tianyu City of the Dayue Kingdom, so I came to see you." Wang Yi didn't want to say more about himself, and instead pointed to the two eternal gods asked: "It seems that you are in trouble."

Shi Zhongtian smiled wryly: "I don't know why, but they were attacked as soon as they left the city."

"Oh?" Wang Yi showed a smile, "Then let me ask you who is targeting you."

The two Eternal True Gods who lost consciousness under the attack of Wang Yi's will were easily affected by their souls and revealed everything they knew. Strong Sacrifice Read Sacrifice

"Marquis of Nanrong Mansion?" Wang Yi looked at the two eternal gods in front of him who were enslaved by their souls and respected.

"Yes, it was the people from the Nanronghou Mansion who contacted us and paid a lot of money and information to let us kill the master's disciple." The Tuo brothers who had become loyal servants knew everything.

However, they do not know the true identity of the person behind the scenes.

Wang Yi turned his eyes to his apprentice, "Have you offended the Marquis of Nanrong Mansion?" It must be the top of the Marquis of Nanrong Mansion to be able to kill two eternal true gods.

Shi Zhongtian was silent for a while, "I don't know the disciples of the Marquis of Nanrong Mansion, but..." His eyes became cold, "The disciples may know why they came to kill me."

Wang Yi chuckled. He didn't care why the Marquis of Nanrong came to kill his apprentice. What he cared about was that someone dared to kill his apprentice.

Although he doesn't say it out loud, Wang Yi is also a guard in his heart.

Wang Yi said: "The one who wants to kill you should not be Nan Ronghou. Otherwise, you are a true * of the void, and you can kill you without looking for a reason. No one can accuse him." The most powerful person in the country of Dayue can be ranked in the top 100! As long as one sentence is natural, someone wants to kill a Void True God who has no background, so it won't take so much trouble to hide his head and show his tail.

"It should be someone from the Marquis of Nanrong Mansion. He wants to deal with you, but he doesn't want people to know that he has anything to do with him, so he probably has some scruples." Wang Yi smiled. "However, if you dare to attack my apprentice, you are bold enough."

"Teacher." Shi Zhongtian couldn't help but feel a little worried when he heard that the teacher wanted to stand up for him.

That is the Marquis of Nanrong, the tens of thousands of Chaos Masters in Dayue Country. Those who can seal princes are the powerhouses among the Chaos Masters. Although his teacher is also the Chaos Master, the breakthrough is not long after all. He is worried about his own reasons. conflict.

After all, Shi Zhongtian is only the true * of the void. After coming to the origin continent, he has been wandering alone. He doesn't know much about the teacher and the real secrets of the high-level origins of the origin continent. domination" thing.

In his eyes, the teacher is the new master of chaos, and he should be no match for the old Chaos Realm like Nan Ronghou.

What's more, this is the country of Dayue, and the consequences of fighting against the Marquis of Nanrong, who have deep-rooted forces and deep connections here, are unpredictable.

Shi Zhongtian did not want the teacher to take risks for his own reasons.

Wang Yi saw this apprentice's thoughts at a glance, and he laughed, "Don't worry, since I've shot, I'll be sure, your teacher, although I'm not the most powerful in the Chaos Realm, but even if the * king wants to kill the teacher. Few can do it, although Nan Ronghou is very powerful, but I can't do anything about the teacher."

Wang Yi said this with confidence, not to mention other things, just the "destroy the stars" on his body, if he really wants to be aggressive, it is not impossible to kill a few * kings.

But in this way, the impact is unpredictable, killing the king of gods in the chaos realm? No one in the origin continent has ever done it. It is estimated that he will become a thorn in the eyes of many * kings. Unless necessary, Wang Yi will not do it.

As for the mere Marquis of Nanrong, that is, the master of Qin Xin of Wujianlou, the master of Dugu and the master of Chu Yuan~www.mtnovel.com~ There is no secret of will, and Wang Yi is confident that he can fight against each other. Weak disadvantage, coupled with "Lie Yuan Technique", sweeping is not a problem. Now Zhang Si

Shi Zhongtian also heard the teacher's self-confidence, and he felt relieved. He knew who his teacher was. Since the teacher said this, he was sure.

"Okay, come with the teacher and see who wants to kill you." Wang Yi took Shi Zhongtian and flew back to Tianyu City without any cover. Of course, Wang Yi still pretended that he was in the realm of the eternal true god. But their whereabouts were not hidden at all, so as soon as they returned to Tianyu City, they were discovered by the eyeliner of Nanronghou Mansion, and then reported to Nanronghou Mansion.

Heavenly City. As a big city that is enough to rank in the top ten in the country of Dayue, in addition to the Tianyu family, the well-deserved largest family. There are also many family forces, even if it is not a princely family, there are no less than a hundred families in other Chaos Realm. After all, the country of Dayue is the largest country in the origin continent. There are too many chaotic masters. Although few can be named princes, the number of families second only to princes is terrifying. control the big lord

If it is in the Imperial City of Dayue Kingdom, a chaotic ruling family is naturally nothing, but in Tianyu City, a mansion is still very respectable. As the real prince of Dayue Kingdom, the Marquis of Nanrong also occupies an important position in the city. The land is vast, the towering buildings seem to be endless, and the momentum is magnificent. In terms of scale, it is worse than the palace of the King of Heaven, and it is almost the same as the mansion of Yanyuehou.

At this moment, in a luxurious mansion in Nanronghou Mansion, a man in a gorgeous black robe heard the reward from his subordinates, but his mood was not very good.

"You said, that Shi Zhongtian came back with an old man of the Eternal True God?" The man frowned.

Chapter 972: door to door

The man in the gorgeous black robe had a cold light in his eyes. "That kid, is it all right? He came back alive? Did the Tuo brothers not make a move... or failed?"

The subordinate said: "I have contacted the Tuo brothers. The Tuo brothers said that they saw an eternal true * beside the other party. Because they didn't know the specific strength of the other party, they didn't do it. more money."

He didn't know that the Tuo brothers had been enslaved by Wang Yi's soul, and all they gave him were fake news.

The man in the gorgeous black robe twitched at the corners of his eyes, and said angrily, "These two * are really greedy. They didn't get things done. They dared to ask me to add money. These robbers really don't have the slightest bit of credibility."

Although he is in the line of blood in Nanronghou Mansion and has some status, he has not been in the management of the family. , It can be said that the money is quite tight, and it is already very distressing to be able to invite the two eternal true gods to take action, and now the Tuo brothers' price of sitting on the ground makes him extremely angry.

"People didn't solve it, and they asked me for money. Is it easy for me to bully me in Nanrong Hou's mansion?" Nan Rongyin gritted his teeth.

Although he was angry, he really couldn't help the Nato brothers.

The Tuo brothers were originally robbers who came and went like the wind. What they did was to kill people and sell goods. Although they did not dare to directly collide with their families, there was no problem in offending him, a son of the Marquis of Nanrong.

No matter how angry Nan Rongyin was, could he still invite the Chaos Realm giant to take action?

When the Chaos Realm giants do not come out, or there are not a large number of Eternal True God masters to besiege, the Tuo brothers are not afraid at all.

"My status is still too low. If I can mobilize the "Black Shadow Guard" of the family, I don't need to be so troublesome, but even my father is not qualified to do so." Nan Rongyin was full of desire.

In Nanronghou Mansion, because of the long and long history and countless family children, children like him who are between the edge of the family and the power layer are actually very painful. They try their best and are eager to go further. The struggle of the family naturally also Very tragic.

"If I can be with the granddaughter of King Tianyu and the only daughter of Marquis Yanyue, with the love of King Tianyu and Marquis Yanyue for Tianyu Xihu, I can immediately get the family's attention, even if I don't rely on Marquis Nanrong. Family, I can get countless benefits from King Tianyu and Marquis Yanyue alone." Nan Rongyin was full of unwillingness.

The Tianyu family is a big tree, except for the * kings of Dayue Kingdom and a very small number of kings. The best partner for family children.

For this reason, Nan Rongyin pursued Tianyu Xihu all the time. He didn't even marry a wife for so many years, and he was very careful about his reputation and image outside.

But he didn't expect that Tianyu Xihu would go out and bring back a wild boy, and the two of them still tended to see each other more and more, making Nan Rongyin anxious.

"Hanging my future, how can I tolerate you!" Nan Rongyin's eyes were cold, and his heart was full of murderous intent.

So this time he found an opportunity and decided to do it. If he didn't do it again, he was afraid that Tianyu Xihu would really be with Shi Zhongtian, although the Tianyu family might not be able to tolerate their young lady marrying an ordinary Void True God, But with the favor of Tianyu King and Yanyuehou for Tianyu Xihu, if they really get together, Nan Rongyin will never have a chance.

"I have waited hundreds of millions of years for Tianyu Xihu, and I must not let you destroy my good deeds."

Although he was very angry about the actions of the Tuo brothers, Nan Rongyin did not dare to let Tianyu Xihu know that Shi Zhongtian's death was related to him, so he could only secretly find outsiders to do it.

"Continue to keep in touch with the Tuo brothers." Nan Rongyin's voice was cold, "In addition, collect all the information about the eternal true * beside Shi Zhongtian, find out what his origins are, keep an eye on them, and it is best to find a way to keep them there. Separate outside the city and let the Tuo brothers do it."

When Nan Rongyin was planning how to continue to let the Tuo brothers do it.

In Tian Yucheng, a chubby old man with red skin, wearing a plain thick white robe walked over, followed by a young man with black and white hair.

The fat old man seemed to be admiring the scenery along the way. In fact, his eyes began to peek through the tiniest hole in the 'black fog sphere'. For those holes, Wang Yi saw countless areas. The farther the area was from him, the farther the holes were from him, and the blurrier he saw.

The entire Tianyu City is under Wang Yi's eyes, including the Tianyu Palace, Yanyuehou Palace, and Wang Yi's goal this time, "Nanronghou Palace".

"There are so many strong people." Wang Yi sighed in his heart. "In this city alone, there are actually dozens of people in the Chaos Realm. It is indeed one of the most prosperous cities in Dayue."

Wang Yi was able to clearly spy on every corner of the Tianyu City, including the interior of the important places protected by the formation, as well as the secret realm and the location of the giants in the chaos realm.

Regardless of the formation, the ban, or various investigative methods, as well as the Chaos Master, none of Wang Yi's spying was found.

This is the power of exploring through the hole in the "black fog sphere"~www.mtlnovel.com~ Wang Yi has already obtained enough information from the Tuo brothers. Although Nan Rongyin tried his best to hide his identity information, he just let Their confidants changed their appearances and came forward to contact them, but the Tuo brothers are not fools. They will also investigate carefully in private. They have lived for countless years, and they will not be casually used as gunmen.

Through investigation and various clues, it was finally confirmed that Nan Rong Yin of the Nan Rong Hou Mansion was the most suspect.

"Marquis of Nanrong Mansion, Nanrong Yin." Wang Yi also saw that in the vast Marquis of Nanrong Mansion, in a luxurious mansion, there were many servants. In one of the halls, there was a man in a gorgeous black robe and his subordinates. A smile appeared on his face. "It's really smooth, I found it so quickly."

"This Nan Rong Yin is the eighth-generation grandson of the Marquis of Nan Rong? But it seems that he is not given much attention in the Marquis of Nan Rong Mansion."

Of course, no matter what, he is still the son of a prince. He is not excluded from the fringes, and he is much stronger than ordinary people.

"Just such a little guy, dare to harm my disciple?" Wang Yi's eyes flashed with a cold light.

"Let's go, apprentice, let's find a place." Wang Yi and Shi Zhongtian came to the private room of a restaurant.

In order to protect the privacy of the guests, the rooms in this restaurant are all isolated and probed by the formation method.

Phew, the space in the room was distorted, and the slightly fat old man in white robe walked into it with the boy and disappeared.

The next moment, Nan Rongyin, who was sitting in his mansion drinking and thinking about how to solve his rival in love, saw the space in front of him distorted, and a slightly fat old man in a white robe walked out with a boy.

Chapter 973: Nan Ronghou is amazing?

As the territory of a feudal lord, Nanronghou Mansion is naturally protected by layers of powerful formations, and the formations are constantly monitored. It stands to reason that even the master of chaos cannot force his way in.

However, the white-robed old man brought a young man in, and he came in like no one else, seeing all kinds of obstacles in the formation as nothing.

Nan Rongyin was sluggish for a moment, then reacted.

Because he saw Shi Zhongtian, how could he not recognize this rival in love.

"Not good." Nan Rongyin wanted to arouse the Houfu's warning.

But Wang Yi made his move faster, and a terrible shock of will swept out, directly knocking Nan Rongyin out. With a wave of Wang Yi's sleeves, he put away the dazed Nan Rongyin. moment.

Then Wang Yi left with Shi Zhongtian.

As soon as the two left, huh, Nan Rongyin's mansion welcomed a gray armored, gloomy middle-aged man. He looked at the empty room, his expression changed, and then a powerful consciousness swept the entire Tianyu The city, but nothing, he appeared above the Nanronghou mansion, and his face was full of anger.

"Who is it? Dare to take away my Nanrong's children?" Because of his anger, the aura emanating from his body became more and more terrifying, and the sky became darkened. Countless beings in the huge Tianyu City felt the huge pressure coming from their heads. apprehensive.

Marquis Nanrong's reaction attracted the attention of many powerhouses in the entire Tianyu City, and one after another consciousness came out of the sky.

"Marquis Nan Rong, what happened? Made you so angry?"

"Brother Nan Rong?"

"Marquis Nan Rong, please calm down, we can sit down and discuss anything if we have anything, and don't use force."

.....

The wind is howling, the weeds in the wilderness are low, and there are some huge beasts lurking in the distance.

The space was distorted, and two figures walked out of the crack.

Shi Zhongtian's expression was still a little dull.

Recalling the whole process before, the teacher just took him like this, and took Nan Rongyin away from the heavily guarded Nanronghou mansion, but the Nanronghou mansion didn't respond at all.

too strong! He couldn't help looking at his teacher with admiration.

"Teacher, you are too powerful, was that super long-distance teleportation just now?" Shi Zhongtian couldn't help asking.

"That's right." Wang Yi smiled slightly. Without explaining to his disciples, the teleportation technique of breaking the world is indeed considered to be ultra-long-distance teleportation.

"Teacher, is it okay for us to trespass at Nan Ronghou's mansion like this?" Shi Zhongtian was a little worried.

Wang Yi said indifferently, "Is the Marquis of Nan Rong great?"

Just a Chaos Master! It's not that his * king has never played, so what?

Wang Yi looked at his apprentice, "Don't worry, your teacher knows it well, no one knows I did it." After being hunted down for so long, Wang Yi is also very experienced and knows how to hide his whereabouts.

Even if the Marquis of Nan Rong was furious, asking others to come back in time or find the murderer was doomed to be a waste of time.

What's more, an eighth-generation grandson is of low importance. It's really uncertain whether Nan Ronghou will care.

Wang Yi released Nan Rongyin, but Nan Rongyin remained dazed, "Do you know him?"

Shi Zhongtian's expression was a bit complicated, "When I was with Xihu, I saw him."

"Xihu? It sounds like a girl's name." Wang Yi looked at his apprentice playfully. It seemed that his apprentice had a story.

Shi Zhongtian was a little embarrassed, "Teacher, let's ask something first."

Next, Wang Yi used his soul to ask Nan Rongyin to explain everything he had done.

"It was indeed he who did it." Wang Yi nodded, "What are you going to do with him, apprentice?"

Shi Zhongtian was also very angry at Nan Rongyin's behavior of asking someone to kill him, and said calmly, "Teacher, I want to kill him."

Under Wang Yi's family, there is no such thing as repaying grievances with virtue.

If anyone sins against me, I will pay it back.

Wang Yi nodded slightly, with a thought, the space shook, Nan Rongyin turned into powder, and then was blown away by the wind and disappeared without a trace. In this world, there is no such person as Nan Rongyin anymore.

"Okay, then you should tell the teacher about your experience after coming to the Origin Continent."

Yanyuehou Mansion.

A fully enclosed valley surrounded by four walls, lush green, with birds chirping and flowers fragrant. There are some exotic flowers and grasses planted everywhere, and the four seasons are like spring. Half leaning on the mountain wall, there are pavilions and pavilions built, which are beautiful, and there are also colorful rainbows hanging in the sky, which is very beautiful.

In the middle of the valley, there is a great hall made of white jade.

"Madam, is Xihu still in the room?" Yanyuehou was talking with a woman in white.

This white-shirted woman has a vaguely similar appearance to Tianyu Xihu, her aura is also an eternal god, she has long hair and a shawl, and there is a crescent between her eyebrows.

She is Tianyu Xihu's biological mother, Langya Wangyue, and she was born in another big family in Dayue Kingdom, "Langya Prince's Mansion". In terms of noble birth, she is not a direct descendant of Tianyu Wang.

Although Marquis Yanyue has many wives and concubines, it is this wife who is most respected and cared for.

Langya Mochizuki shook her head, "This child is still sulking." She looked at the man in front of her again. "How long are you going to keep her locked up this time?"

Marquis Yanyue snorted coldly, "I'm also doing it for her own good. She's still young, and she's been protected too much by us. She has little experience, so how can she know what is sinister."

"Look at the Shi Zhongtian she knows. She already has hundreds of thousands of wives. She still gets close. Others know ~www.mtlnovel.com~ and think my daughter of Yanyuehou is worthless." Yanyuehou thought about it. This is mad.

Tianxianglou is the property of King Tianyu. Tianyu Xihu and Shi Zhongtian had a conversation in Tianxianglou. Because of the orders of Marquis Yanyue, they were overheard by their subordinates, and Marquis Yanyue almost died of anger.

Just such a promiscuous man, who is worthy of his precious daughter?

Although Marquis Yanyue has many wives and concubines, he doesn't want his daughter's husband to do the same.

Of course, he didn't know that Shi Zhongtian came from the sea of cosmos, and his family members and family members in his hometown were not here.

Langya Wangyue frowned, but didn't say anything. Although she didn't want her daughter to suffer, she actually didn't agree with her daughter's relationship.

If the other party is a strong person with excellent background, like Marquis Yanyue, their willingness to oppose will not be so strong.

It's like the king of gods. If Marquis Yanyue's daughter was to be his wife and concubine, Marquis Yanyue would probably feel honored and would not dare to object.

But the other party is just an ordinary Void True God.

"Then what should we do next, Xinhu probably won't want to."

"Lock her up first. She can't continue to see that Shi Zhongtian. She will find opportunities to introduce her daughter to more outstanding princes. She will probably forget that Shi Zhongtian."

Marquis Yanyue discussed with his wife.

"As for that Shi Zhongtian, if he is sensible, he'd better leave Xinhu obediently and stop pestering my daughter, otherwise, hum."

Marquis Yanyue is not a soft-hearted person either.

Chapter 974: Tian Yuyanyue

On the streets of Tianyu City, a pair of master and apprentice came.

It was Wang Yi and his apprentice who left and returned.

"Teacher, this is not necessary, right?" Shi Zhongtian was a little twisted.

After his teacher found out about him, he wanted to visit Yanyuehou Mansion.

But Shi Zhongtian didn't want the teacher to interfere with his feelings.

Wang Yi glanced at the self-assured apprentice, "I went to Yanyuehou Mansion not only for your business."

He came to Dayue Country, looking for apprentices is one aspect, and there is another reason.

"Oh." Only then did Shi Zhongtian understand.

Wang Yi glanced at this apprentice and shook his head inwardly, this apprentice is pretty good at everything, but he can't change his liking for messing with flowers.

"Forget it, let's help the disciple by the way."

"The world of Xumi is about to open. If you want to enter, you have to go through the door of Dayue Kingdom." Wang Yi secretly thought.

Yanyuehou Mansion.

The guard at the gate saw a slightly fat old man in white robe and a black-and-white-haired boy approaching. The young man fell down, just the breath of the Void True God, but the red-skinned, slightly fat old man felt the terrifying and fierce aura, and couldn't help but feel in his heart. Tight, are a little more polite. "You two, this is the Yanyuehou Mansion, what are you doing here?"

"Xiahonghu, with his apprentice Shi Zhongtian, came here to meet the Marquis of Yanyue." Wang Yi said. Daoist Red Gourd is his alias.

"My Marquis doesn't see guests easily." A guard frowned. Although the old man in white robes had a strong aura, they were polite, but they weren't too afraid! After all, they are in the Mansion of Marquis Yanyue, and Lord Marquis is the master of chaos! And it is also a lineage of the top-ranked Tianyu family in Dayue! The ancestor of the Tianyu family is the famous chaotic ultimate giant! They even make friends with the king of gods. Although not all of the Chaos Realm in the family are in one city, there are several together!

"Please report again." Wang Yi said.

"Okay, you can stay here for a while." The guards looked at each other, looking at the strength of the people in front of them, and finally decided to help out.

Wang Yi could not help but sigh with emotion. It is indeed the mansion of the Great Yue Kingdom! If you only maintain the aura of the eternal true god, I am afraid there is not enough reason to be too lazy to help yourself.

Yanyue Houzheng and his wife were walking in the valley with their daughter Tianyu Xinhu, and they were a little surprised when they heard the guard's message. "Shi Zhongtian and his teacher?"

Langya Mochizuki and Tianyu Xinhu also showed strange expressions.

"Yes, that person is extremely powerful. Judging from his aura, he should be the master of chaos. But his subordinates have never seen it before." The guard leader said respectfully.

"His teacher turned out to be the master of chaos?" Yanyuehou was slightly surprised, and then a sneer appeared, "It turns out that he has an extraordinary background, no wonder he dared to provoke my daughter."

He said to his wife and daughter, "I'll go see the guests."

"Go ahead." Langya Wangyue nodded and said, but Tianyu Xinhu hesitated, watching Marquis Yanyue go away, feeling a little confused. "Why did he come here with the teacher?"

Wang Yi and his apprentice Shi Zhongtian waited outside the Hou residence for a while before the guard returned and said to the two, "My Lord Hou has an invitation, please come with me."

"Okay." Wang Yi and Shi Zhongtian followed the guards into the mansion.

"This way." The guard led the way in front, "Don't rush in. There are many forbidden areas in my Yanyuehou mansion, and foreigners are not allowed to enter."

"Understood." Wang Yi disagreed, no matter how powerful the Forbidden Land was, could it be compared to the Void Abyss? Can he stop his teleportation technique? However, his visit to Yanyuehou Mansion this time has his purpose, and he does not intend to conflict with Yanyuehou Mansion. Of course, there is also the idea of helping the apprentices.

The two walked with the guard. The mansion covered a large area. The guard flew slowly, and it took a while to lead the two to a hall.

"Master Marquis, the guests are here." The guard said respectfully.

Wang Yi looked.

A man with long silver hair and a gorgeous silver robe sat on the seat in the hall. His body was shrouded in a faint silver light. At the same time, his dark eyes were filled with abyss-like magic, and he had the temperament of a superior.

"This is the Marquis of Yanyue." Wang Yi secretly said in his heart that Tianyu Yanyue was the seventh son of the Tianyu Prince, but there were many descendants of the Tianyu Prince, but only two of the children reached the Chaos Realm and were named Marquis. It's an amazing thing. After all, there are tens of thousands of Chaos Realms in Dayue Kingdom, and none of them can be named a Marquis.

Of course, being a king is even more amazing. To be a king, in addition to merit, at least one's strength must be in the "Ultimate Chaos Realm", which can be called an almost invincible character in the Chaos Realm.

"Marquis Yanyue's strength is probably the eighth floor of Yuanshen Palace, similar to mine." Wang Yi thought to himself.

Chaos dominates, with strength ranging from the sixth floor to the ninth floor of Yuanshen Palace.

The sixth floor of Yuanshen Palace is the existence of the Chaos Lord at the bottom. Generally, the Chaos Lord who has just broken through is at this level.

The seventh floor of Yuanshen Palace, most of the Chaos Realm are at this level.

On the eighth floor of Yuanshen Palace, only a small part of the Chaos Realm can reach it, which is equivalent to the level of "Fenghou" in Dayue Kingdom.

The ninth floor of Yuanshengong, which is the "Ultimate Chaos Realm", is equivalent to the level of "king" of Dayue Kingdom. In the entire Great Vietnam country, only a few dozen people can reach this level.

The Yuanshen Palace has only ten floors, and only the powerhouses below the * king are tested. Generally, the Chaos Realm can only pass through the ninth floor, and there are only two who can pass through the tenth floor since ancient times!

One of them is the invincible supreme leader of the Dayue Kingdom, "the Lord of the Dayue Kingdom", His Majesty the "Goujian God King"!

As for the other ~www.mtlnovel.com~, it is also a stunning and brilliant generation. She was an unworldly genius of the "Jieshan Palace" at the time of the origin continent, and she was still a woman, but she just broke through the God King, and another person from the Jieshan Palace. When a friend "Tantai Palace Master" went on an adventure to a chaotic secret realm, he unexpectedly fell.

If it didn't fall, maybe there is another extremely powerful * king among the practitioners in the origin continent.

When Wang Yi was observing Yanyuehou, Yanyuehou was also observing the two people who came in.

Shi Zhongtian skipped it directly, focusing on the slightly fat old man in white robe.

"A very unfamiliar chaotic master, none of the chaotic masters I know matches his message at all." Marquis Yanyue secretly said in his heart. But this is also normal. The origin continent is vast and boundless. There are countless strong people and many forces. Some strong people do not like to be famous, they like to hide their names, and there are many people who practice in remote corners.

At this time, the maid of the beautiful void goddess served the wine and fruit one by one.

Marquis Yanyue waved his hand gently: "Go back, you two, if you don't dislike it, please sit down and have a few glasses of water and wine."

"Who would dislike having a few glasses of wine at Yanyuehou Mansion?" Wang Yi smiled and sat down. Shi Zhongtian also followed suit and sat down, feeling a little nervous, after all, this is the Marquis of Yanyue, a high-ranking figure in the country of Dayue. How could he, a Void True God, be able to see. He knew that the other party was completely looking at his teacher's face.

"Mr. Red Gourd's name is very unfamiliar. It seems that the origin continent has never heard of it?" Yanyuehou laughed softly.

"I used to live in seclusion and cultivate, and I seldom walked around the continent of origin. It's normal that Lord Hou has never heard of it." Wang Yi said.

Chapter 975: bet

"Then, Mr. Honghu, if you don't continue to live in seclusion and cultivate, why do you want to go to the door of my Hou's mansion today?" Yanyue Hou said, "Could it be for this apprentice beside you?"

Shi Zhongtian's heart tightened.

He could feel that Marquis Yanyue didn't like him, and he knew why.

"Even if the teacher comes forward, it is probably impossible for Yanyuehou to agree with Xinhu and me." Shi Zhongtian thought to himself.

Wang Yi smiled, "I visited Lord Hou today for other reasons, but my apprentice's affairs are also a reason."

"Hmph." Yanyuehou's face became slightly cold, "You came just in time, let's talk nicely, your apprentices have so many wives and still want to marry my daughter, is it too whimsical, or do you think I am good for Yanyue? Bullying?"

Wang Yi put down the teacup calmly, "Master Hou is serious, my disciple and Master Hou's daughter hit it off right away and developed a relationship, I think, the younger generation should let them decide the best thing for themselves, as for the number of wives... Don't you have many wives too?"

When Shi Zhongtian saw Yanyuehou's face suddenly gloomy, he secretly cried out in his heart, "Teacher, you are so incapable of speaking. Isn't this a blatant slap in the face of Yanyuehou?" Shi Zhongtian felt that it was good that his two masters and apprentices could leave the Hou Mansion safe and sound today.

But Wang Yi didn't seem to see the face of Marquis Yanyue, so he still said to himself: "Master Hou, the reason why you don't approve of my apprentice being with your daughter is because my apprentice's strength is too poor, right?"

Marquis Yanyue snorted coldly, neither agreeing nor disapproving.

In fact, he also felt that Shi Zhongtian's strength was too poor. Even if there was a teacher who dominated Chaos, how could the strength of the Void True God be worthy of his daughter?

He only had children after he became the master of chaos. The children were born with extraordinary bloodlines. The eldest son had already become the Eternal True God, and the younger daughter would have no problem to become the Eternal True God if she hadn't slack in her practice.

In this way, he didn't like Shi Zhongtian at all. On the contrary, Shi Zhongtian's wife was a trivial matter.

As for Shi Zhongtian, who has the background of Chaos Master Teacher? Which of the families that wanted to marry at the time was not a princely family? Really want to talk about the background, which one is not stronger than Shi Zhongtian?

Wang Yi looked at Marquis Yanyue with a gloomy face, and said, "How about I make a bet with Marquis?"

Marquis Yanyue frowned, "What bet?"

Wang Yi pointed at the young man beside him, "Just bet on the speed of my apprentice's breakthrough to decide their marriage."

"Oh?" Yanyuehou finally became interested. "How do you want to bet?"

"My apprentice has become the Eternal True God. I guess the Lord Marquis still doesn't like it, so bet on my apprentice becoming the Lord of Chaos!" Wang Yi laughed.

Shi Zhongtian was a little stunned.

I become the master of chaos? Teacher, are you kidding me?

Yanyuehou was also startled, his expression became weird, looking at the dazed young man, he said strangely: "He? Become the master of chaos?"

"Yes, if my apprentice can become the master of chaos, Lord Hou shouldn't refuse their marriage, right?" Wang Yi smiled.

"Hahahaha..." Marquis Yanyue finally couldn't help laughing as if he had heard some funny joke, and his voice became louder and louder, echoing in the hall.

"Do you think it is possible for your apprentice to become the master of chaos?" Yanyuehou held back a smile and pointed at Shi Zhongtian. It was not that he looked down on Shi Zhongtian, but it was extremely difficult to become the master of chaos. The number of masters is limited, and all of them are one-sided overlords, second only to the king of gods.

"Master Hou, don't underestimate my apprentice, my apprentice has the qualifications of a * king." Wang Yi said seriously.

Shi Zhongtian: "..."

Marquis Yanyue looked at the white-robed old man in front of him and felt that this old guy could really blow.

Become a * king? Why don't you say that he can surpass the King of Dayue, the Master of Infinity, and become the first person in the Origin Continent?

Marquis Yanyue shook his head, "What a big tone, but how can you guarantee that your apprentice can become the master of chaos, and when will it become the master of chaos? Could it be that your apprentice has not succeeded in the 100 million reincarnation era, and my daughter will have to wait?"

Wang Yi smiled and said: "So we set a time. If my apprentice can become the master of chaos in ten reincarnation eras, how about the Hou Ye promise their marriage?"

Yanyuehou was once again shocked by Wang Yi's words.

Ten epochs of reincarnation?

It seems to be a long time, but for the powerhouses of the origin continent, the time to practice once may be more than this number.

"There is no evidence, what if you lose?" Waiting for ten epochs of reincarnation is not a problem for Yanyuehou. Although he did not want his daughter to be with Shi Zhongtian, he said that he would find her a prince's son, but in his heart he didn't really want to. I wish my daughter got married so early.

Without saying a word, Wang Yi waved his sleeves, and with a clatter, a large number of Origin Boundary stones fell down like rain, and stones exuding strange colors piled up into hills.

"Original stone?"

Yanyuehou's pupils shrank.

Wang Yi smiled slightly, "If I lose, these Origin Boundary Stones will belong to you, Lord Hou."

Yanyuehou took a deep breath and calmed down his inner emotions.

many!

It's not that he has never seen the Origin Boundary Stone, but it is the first time he has seen so many Origin Boundary Stone piled up together, and it is still in the form of a bet.

The Marquis of Yanyue asked himself, he could not get so many Origin Boundary Stones even if he went bankrupt, or his father, King Tianyu, could.

With so many Origin Stones, you can hire someone to kill the Chaos Master!

crazy!

Marquis Yanyue couldn't understand~www.mtlnovel.com~ The old man in front of him actually took so many Origin Boundary Stones as a bet, why did he think that his apprentice could become the master of chaos in ten reincarnation epochs?

He is also an outstanding man, but it took an extremely long time to become the master of chaos at the beginning, and it was only with the help of his father, the King of Heaven and the Kingdom of Dayue, that this was achieved.

He really doesn't think Shi Zhongtian can do it, after all, he is the true * of the void now, and the span from the true * of the void to the master of chaos is too great.

Various thoughts flashed through his mind quickly, and Yanyuehou felt mysterious when he saw the old man in front of him.

At least one who can easily take out a large amount of Origin Boundary Stone to support his apprentice is definitely not an ordinary Chaos Master! After all, Marquis Yanyue couldn't do it himself!

Moreover, Marquis Yanyue also determined that the other party values the marriage of his apprentice and his daughter very much, and this is what makes him most comfortable.

There was a smile on Yanyuehou's face, a smile from the heart.

"Okay, this bet, I agree!" Yanyuehou said neatly.

No matter what, he won't lose if he harvests the son-in-law of a Chaos Lord or acquires a lot of precious Origin Stones.

If you don't lose money, why not do it?

The two bosses looked at each other and laughed at the same time.

Of course, there are also people who are Muggles, such as Shi Zhongtian.

He looked pitifully at his smiling teacher.

Well, the voice transmission said: "Teacher, I think, I may not reach the Chaos Lord so quickly in ten reincarnation epochs..."

The smile on Wang Yi's face remained unchanged, and the voice transmission replied: "Don't worry, the teacher will help you."

For some reason, Shi Zhongtian shuddered coldly when he saw the teacher's loving smile.

Chapter 976: The invincible future of mankind

The bet proposed by Wang Yi is not just a whim or a mere trick.

He is really sure.

However, he also felt that this apprentice was too comfortable and not enough to live up to after he came to the Origin Continent, and wanted to polish him well and prevent him from indulging in Wenrou Township all the time.

Seeing his apprentice's bitter face, Wang Yi held back his smile and said, "Don't worry, as long as you listen to the teacher's arrangement, you can make sure that the beauty you can hold will return." He said sharply, "But if you embarrass me, don't fight hard for it. , then don't blame the teacher for clearing the door."

"Yes, teacher." Shi Zhongtian said obediently, although he still felt unreliable, but in order to compete for the teacher's face and the person he likes, what else can he do, he can only go all the way to the dark.

At the same time, a long-lost fighting spirit also ignited in his heart, and he decided to practice hard.

Wang Yi watched the disciple's fighting spirit with satisfaction, but he was thinking about other things.

Since Wang Yi came to the Origin Continent, his will has reached the level of being a saint, and he has also entered the "Lie Yuan Technique".

Then he discovered that the two cosmic seas were so far apart that even if there was a cosmic channel as a shortcut, they could not be reached.

Wang Yi speculated that it was estimated that he would have to wait until he reached the will of a god-king and then use the "Legend of Origin Technique" before it was possible to take over other primitive universes.

This is because of the help of those cosmic channels. Without channels, no matter how strong the will is, it is useless.

But in this way, after following the original ancestor, Wang Yi has the possibility of taking over the original universe, and even Luo Feng can do it when he reaches the level of a * king.

When they seize the primordial universe of other cosmos seas, they can do one thing... Erase the will of the primordial universe, and give the blank primordial universe to others.

This is not impossible, according to Wang Yi's estimation, but it must at least be called a holy will! Otherwise, it is impossible to control another huge primitive universe across the distant time and space.

Because Wang Yi and the others have already cleared the road of winning the house, the latecomers do not need to fight against the original will of the primordial universe. After Wang Yi and the others quit, they only need to become the masters, and they can get a primordial universe for nothing!

In the past, this was an incredible thing, because the previous 3,000-latitude cosmic sea was located in different space-time latitudes, separated, and restricted by the supreme rule.

A being who came out of the universe sea, went to the origin continent, at most, he could only take away the original universe of his hometown universe sea.

You can't take a house in the sea of cosmos, otherwise it will be suppressed by the original will of the original universe.

And, under the restrictions of the supreme rules, you can only seize one Primordial Universe at the same time.

But Wang Yi and the others are separated from the sea of cosmos to seize the original universe of the other sea of cosmos, so there is no such problem, and their real bodies are still in the origin continent, and the original will of the original universe is helpless to them.

This is a grand plan conceived by Wang Yi and discussed with Luo Feng.

In fact, only he and Luo Feng can achieve the will of the god-king level, and they can do it with the help of the heaven-defying secret technique, "The Primordial Technique".

"However, at least it has to be called the will of the holy level, otherwise, the blank primordial universe will not be able to win, and the strong people of our human race are still too few and too few." Wang Yi secretly thought.

So he plans to do his best to develop and improve the number of life powerhouses in his small universe.

No longer restricted, invest resources at any cost, and carry out the craziest cultivation.

And let the other universes of the human race also strive to develop and cultivate strong people.

This is an extremely frenetic time for the creatures of the small universe.

The cosmic management organization "Hunyuan Tiangong", which had been restricting resources and quotas for a long time, suddenly changed its style of painting and sprinkled countless resources, smashing those world masters and immortals.

World Lord breaks through immortality? allow!

Immortal to the Venerable? allow!

The Venerable Universe becomes the Lord of the Universe? no problem!

As long as it is the master of the universe who can break through, all breakthroughs will be made!

True God, you can have as many as you want, there is no qualification requirement, no more restrictions!

Therefore, during this period of time, the number of true gods in Wang Yi's small universe showed an explosive growth, and a large number of masters of the universe who were accumulated in the first three reincarnation eras but could not get the source supply of the universe for various reasons and could not break through have broken through to true gods!

The true gods of Wang Yi's mini-universe suddenly reached thousands! And it's still growing!

After all, Wang Yi's small universe is trillions of light-years in diameter! It can accommodate an exaggerated number of true gods. Even cultivating 180,000 true gods will not have any pressure.

In Wang Yi's small universe, tens of thousands of universe masters have been born over the years. These universe masters have different aptitudes, but they will all cultivate true gods in the future.

Then, it doesn't matter much about cultivating talent, because next they will focus on tempering their will to prepare for the loss of the original universe.

As long as the time is long enough, a sufficient number of true gods can always give birth to some void true gods, and even the existence of the will to sanctify, but that requires a very long process.

In addition to Wang Yi's small universe, there are also a large number of true gods in other human holy land universes!

Luo Feng and Yuanzu all know that this is about the future of the ethnic group! All excited!

As long as there is one more detachment from reincarnation, there may be one more strong man who will take over the original universe in the future, which is almost equal to one more * king.

All the primordial universes of the 3,000-latitude Universe Sea have been won~www.mtlnovel.com~ That is the 3,000 God King!

How many God Kings have there been in the entire origin continent for countless years?

In the future of the human race, the number of * kings may exceed the sum of the entire origin continent!

This is an extremely grand plan! Only the human race has the possibility of implementation!

Because, they have two monsters who have mastered the Element Technique! And, in this era, the three thousand latitude cosmic seas are connected by channels!

But, it takes a very long time. Wang Yi also doesn't know if he can achieve his plan.

And Wang Yi is not worried that other cosmic seas will be born and take over the existence of the original universe, because this is very unlikely.

Normally speaking, in a hundred reincarnation eras, there may not be a local life that is detached from reincarnation, and then they have to go to the origin continent to obtain the original secret of seizing the house, and then find a way to improve their will... There are many difficulties in this, see Zi Zi. The ancestors of the Moon Holy Land have not succeeded for so many years. They know that it is not difficult to achieve the conditions.

This plan, only Wang Yi, Luo Feng, Hong, Yuanzu and other strongest people in the human race are aware of it, not even the Chaos City Lord and Giant Axe of the Void True God.

And Wang Yi felt that his apprentice's will has reached the peak of the eternal true god. If he trains hard, he has a good chance of reaching the will of a saint. With his help, he will seize the original universe, not to mention the master of chaos, even the king of gods is not impossible. .

This is also the reason why Wang Yi said that his apprentice has the qualifications of a * king.

Of course, there are two important conditions here. The first is that Wang Yi must achieve the will of a * king.

Second, Shi Zhongtian's will has to reach the level of sanctification of will, and the two are indispensable.

Chapter 977: Sumeru World

After the exchange just now, the atmosphere in the hall became much calmer. With such a master teacher of chaos, at least Yanyuehou didn't despise Shi Zhongtian so much.

"Master Hou, in fact, I have something else to ask for this time." Wang Yi said.

"you say."

Wang Yi looked at the Marquis of Yanyue, "I heard that the world of Xumi in Dayue Kingdom is about to open, I want to go in."

After hearing Wang Yi's words, Marquis Yanyue, who had a calm expression at first, couldn't help but look at him deeply. "It turns out that Mr. Red Gourd is also here for the Xumi World."

"Also?" Wang Yi frowned slightly.

The Marquis of Yanyue said lightly: "To tell you the truth, before you, a number of chaotic masters have come to me, just for the sake of Xumi World, after all, there are too many people wanting to enter the Xumi World, our King of Dayue. Hou Zhong wants to enter, and other kingdoms also want to enter, but it is not easy."

Wang Yi nodded slightly, the world of Xumi is a very special world, with all kinds of mysteries, which are extremely helpful to the master of chaos, so it is normal for everyone to pay attention.

The Kingdom of Dayue can attract many chaotic masters to join, and it also provides a lot of benefits.

Of course, the easiest thing to gain is the power of Dayue itself. Do other powers want to come? OK, just pay more! The competition in the country itself is very fierce, and if you want to give you a piece of the pie, of course you have to come up with conditions to impress them.

However, Wang Yi is also determined to win this time into the world of Xumi.

After all, there are treasures that he needs to refine the clone in the world of Xumi, and he has to collect it himself.

Because of Wang Yi's previous performance, the Marquis of Yanyue did not dare to underestimate him, the master of chaos with a mysterious origin. At this moment, he patiently explained: "Since you want to enter the world of Sumeru, you should also know the rules. In the world of Sumeru, there is only me. Only owned by the country of Dayue, the world of Sumeru is opened every once in a while, allowing many chaotic masters to enter, but the number of people entering is limited and must pass the screening."

Wang Yi nodded, he knew that.

Yanyuehou looked at Wang Yi and said, "Although it is important to open the world of Xumi, the lord of Dayue will not pay attention to these trivial matters. According to the historical rules, if you want to enter the world of Xumi, you must get the recommendation of our king of Dayue. Recommended The more people there are, the higher the ranking, the more likely it is to enter the world of Sumeru."

"Except for a very small number of His Majesty God Kings, there are a total of 48 kings and 752 marquises in our country of Dayue!"

Marquis Yanyue smiled slightly, "Of course, His Majesty the God King has a special status. If you want to recommend someone to enter, you don't need to compete. You can recommend up to three people to enter the world of Xumi. If other princes want to recommend others to enter, it will be more troublesome."

"Each of us has one vote, and each of us has three votes for the king!"

"And each time, there are only thirty-six people who enter the world of Xumi at most. If these thirty-six people are added to the places occupied by His Majesty the King of God, there are generally less than twenty places left."

"Less than 20 places will be decided by the votes of our 800 princes! Those with the most votes can get a place to enter." Marquis Yanyue sighed.

Wang Yi nodded. The eight hundred princes of the Dayue Kingdom have a higher status than those dominated by a large number of ordinary chaos. They are the cornerstones of the normal affairs of the Dayue Kingdom, and His Majesty the Divine King is of course in charge of the high-level command. Not even at all!

For example, the lord of Dayue has been in seclusion and handed over all state affairs to his confidants.

Many strong people are all practicing, and they don't want to be distracted by the world. This is one of the reasons why the King of Dayue is so powerful.

"Eight hundred princes, 48 princes, 752 princes, add up to 896 votes." Yanyue Hou said with a smile, "If you want to enter, you must get enough support from princes. After all, the number of places is limited, and many princes want to enter! They want to enter! Compared with outsiders, they have been in contact with each other before, and it is much easier to get support! It is difficult for outsiders to compete!"

Marquis Yanyue's tone changed, "However, there are some princes who have already entered and are not interested in it, or who do not go for various reasons, their votes are not impossible to win, it depends on whether Mr. Honghu can impress him. their stuff."

Wang Yi understood, "Then please ask Yanyuehou to help me with this, and lead the way. Whether it is successful or not, I will have it in return."

"Haha, I have a good relationship with Mr. Honghu, of course I will help you with this." Yanyuehou laughed.

Wang Yi smiled slightly, Marquis of Yanyue would agree to help so easily, and it is estimated that it was still based on the origin of the stone just now. He felt that Wang Yi was quite powerful, and decided to form a good relationship. This is also Wang Yi's purpose.

The Marquis of Yanyue promised to help Wang Yi contact the princes of Dayue, but whether the princes could agree to vote for him depends on how Wang Yi talked with them.

When leaving from Yanyuehou Mansion, Wang Yi also noticed a mother and daughter hidden in the far corner.

Looking at one of the women in green looking at the love-hate relationship in her apprentice's eyes, Wang Yi knew that this should be the daughter of the Marquis Yanyue who was emotionally entangled with her apprentice.

"This stupid apprentice has a woman's predestined relationship."

Wang Yi decided in his heart to set a more severe training plan for his apprentice after returning home!

Jade is not cut, not a device.

If you don't fight, you won't be successful!

Yanyuehou Mansion~www.mtlnovel.com~ Marquis, seeing that you are in a good mood, did you decide to marry Xinhui to that Stone Zhongtian? "Langya Mochizuki asked.

"How is that possible!" Yan Yuehou, who had a smile on his face at first, immediately raised his face, "That Shi Zhongtian wants to marry my daughter, it's not that easy!"

"I think that Shi Zhongtian also has a heart for his daughter. His teacher is the master of chaos, his background is sloppy and worthy of our Houfu, and his daughter also likes him, why don't we..." Langya Wangyue still felt sorry for her daughter. Compared to letting her daughter marry a princely son who she doesn't like is unhappy and unhappy for a lifetime, she thinks that Shi Zhongtian is good.

Their mansion doesn't need to rely on marriage to maintain their power, and her daughter can go to whoever she likes.

Marquis Yanyue glanced outside the house, and when he saw his daughter was still standing there looking out of the house, he didn't get angry. He said angrily: "What do you know, the teacher of that stinky boy made a bet with me before that his apprentice would become the master of chaos in ten reincarnation eras, and then I would marry my daughter to him."

"Ah? This..." Langya Mochizuki was taken aback. Lian said, "You agree to this bet, Lord Marquis?"

Marquis Yanyue touched his chin and said with a sneer, "It's not me who suffers from the benefits of being delivered to the door. Of course I agree. I'll wait to see when that kid becomes the master of chaos, and then I'll see him laugh."

"What if he doesn't make it?" Seeing her husband's triumphant appearance, Langya Mochizuki was a little speechless. Daughter's life-long event, how can it be child's play.

"Well...if it doesn't work." Looking at the lonely figure of his daughter, Yan Yuehou finally softened his heart, "Let's talk about it then!"

Chapter 978: King of Heaven

The Marquis of Yanyue did not immediately go to help Wang Yi as a lobbyist and contact those princes, but came to the Tianyu Palace, the home of the Tianyu family.

In the depths of the Tianyu family's clan, there is a golden mountain with a sword-like appearance that goes straight into the sky. It exudes an endlessly sharp aura. From a distance, it makes people feel chills.

"Father." Marquis Yanyue in a silver robe shouted to a man in golden clothes sitting cross-legged on the mountain peak.

The man in golden clothes opened his eyes, and the sky and the earth suddenly became dark. There seemed to be a sound of gold and iron clashing in the space. stand up.

The man in golden clothes looked at his son, and the fierce and domineering aura dissipated immediately, as if he had become an ordinary person, and said with a smile, "Yanyue, what are you doing here with me?"

"Exactly, I just got some ice nuts from Zuiyu old man recently. Come and eat with me."

The man in golden clothes waved his hand, and two red gold jade plates appeared in front of him, each with a bunch of thumb-sized crystal berries, round and moving, like pearls.

The Marquis of Yanyue sat down obediently and looked curiously at the berries on the jade plate in front of him, "This is the fruit of the precious tree of King Drunk Yu? I heard that it only bears fruit once in several epochs of reincarnation."

In fact, the Marquis of Yanyue had also heard that the Ice Spirit Fruit was something unique to the King Drunk Yu, who was quite unique in the Kingdom of Dayue. Pick up one, eat it, and praise it. "This fruit is delicious and sweet, and the fruit contains extremely pure power of the source of the law. If practitioners often swallow it, it will also be beneficial to practice."

"Haha..." The golden-clothed man was obviously in a good mood, "This fruit is precious in the eyes of outsiders, but it's just like this in the Chaos Realm like me. It doesn't help my cultivation, just eat it fresh."

"Okay, tell me, what are you doing here to find me?"

Marquis Yanyue said: "Father, today there is a Chaos Master coming to my mansion..."

He recounted the experience of Wang Yi's mentoring and apprentice visit from beginning to end.

The man in golden clothes listened quietly.

"A strange master of chaos, with a wealth of wealth, not only bet with you about the girl Xihu, but also wants to enter the world of Xumi?"

The eyes of King Tianyu suddenly turned golden, and he looked somewhere in Tianyu City, and suddenly found Wang Yi and his apprentice who were walking on a bustling street in Tianyu City. His eyes glowed with golden light, just as he was about to look more closely, that The fat old man in white robe who was looking down at the goods suddenly turned around and smiled slightly in his direction.

King Tianyu's heart trembled slightly, and the expression on his face also changed a little.

"Father?" Marquis Yanyue couldn't help asking.

King Tianyu said: "Yanyue, the old man you met today is not simple, even I can't see it through."

Yanyuehou was shocked. Can't even see through his father?

His father was the king of Dayue Kingdom, a powerhouse in the ultimate chaos realm.

King Tianyu shook his head, "His strength, at least not under yours, there are indeed many hidden masters in the Origin Continent, and there is one more silently."

"The Daoist Red Gourd? Never heard of it." King Tianyu thought.

He just judged that Wang Yi's strength was quite high, but he didn't think he had reached his level. Therefore, although he paid attention to it, he did not take it too seriously.

There are not many princes in the entire Dayue Kingdom who are really in his eyes, and the only one he needs to look up to is the king of gods.

"This Daoist Red Gourd actually took out so many Origin Boundary Stones and bet you that his apprentice will break through the Chaos Realm in ten reincarnation epochs?" The man in golden clothes suddenly asked again.

"Yes, father."

"It seems that this Daoist Red Gourd is also an interesting person." King Tianyu smiled slightly. "Since people are so sincere, we can't be rude. If he wants to enter the Xumi world, then my Tianyu family will help as much as possible. Give him the votes of the Tianyu family."

In the Tianyu family, there are several Chaos Realm people. In addition to one titled king and two Fenghou, there are other Chaos Realm powerhouses who are not from the family. The Tianyu family line alone is very powerful.

Marquis Yanyue nodded, the entire Tianyu family, the highest decision maker, was naturally the ancestor of the family, "King Tianyu".

When he spoke, no one in the Tianyu family could object.

King Tianyu said again: "But this time he wants to enter the world of Xumi, it is not so easy."

Yanyuehou was startled. "why?"

King Tianyu glanced at Marquis Yanyue, "It's no secret, the number of places in the Xumi world has always been fixed at 36, and they are selected by me and other 800 princes, but the kings of the gods directly choose three each time. The power of man to enter the world of Sumeru."

Marquis Yanyue nodded, His Majesty the God King is naturally different from ordinary princes.

King Tianyu said: "But there are many god-kings in our country. If each god-king sends three people to enter next time, the quota will not be enough, and the other princes will not have to vote. Therefore, in the old days of Xumi In the selection of candidates in the world, the people nominated by His Majesty God Kings cannot exceed two-thirds of the total number of people, and at least twelve places must be reserved for others."

"Actually, His Majesty the God King himself doesn't need a quota~www.mtlnovel.com~ I don't need a quota in the world of Xumi, but their descendants, their clansmen, and sometimes they are even accepted by others. I will also fight for places."

King Tianyu looked at his son, "This time, unfortunately, there are 24 places for His Majesty the God Kings. It is estimated that it is not enough, and we have to grab the remaining 12."

Yanyuehou understood.

His Majesty the God-kings have the right to directly occupy two-thirds of the Xumi World. This is their power, and no one can grab it from them.

But the king of gods had to abide by the rules.

If they still want the remaining places, they have to take it from those princes.

With the influence of the god-king, few princes dared not give them face.

After all, it was just an opportunity to enter the world of Sumeru. Not this time, and next time, there is no need to offend the terrible God King.

"What a coincidence." Marquis Yanyue also sighed. In the past, those * kings did not necessarily need many places. Generally, about 20 people were reserved for the princes to decide the candidates. This time, it was actually rare that more than two-thirds of them were directly accounted for.

King Tianyu said: "So, even if we help the Daoist Red Gourd, unless he can get more votes from those princes, he has little hope of entering the world of Sumeru. After all, as far as I know, there are Many kings want this title." King Tianyu shook his head, obviously not very optimistic.

Marquis Yanyue looked at his calm-faced father and couldn't help but ask, "Father, how many places are left to compete for?"

King Tianyu said: "Excluding the ones taken by His Majesty the God Kings, there are at most seven. The Taoist Red Gourd is not a member of my Dayue Kingdom, so I say that there is little hope."

Chapter 979: Princess Yelan

The Marquis of Yanyue also informed Wang Yi of the news.

And kindly persuaded him to come back to compete for the place in Sumeru World next time.

But Wang Yi disagreed. "Isn't there still seven places left?"

Marquis Yanyue looked at the chubby old man in white robe speechlessly, "Do you know how many princes participated in the competition this time? As far as I know, there are more than ten princes alone, not to mention those princes... Let's talk about it, five of the twelve places that our princes can decide must be taken by the god-kings. A large number of princes will support their candidates, so many people will vote for them, and there are not many votes left. Well, it would be good to have three hundred votes left."

"And those princes also know that they can't compete for the king of gods, so they will focus on the remaining places, and they will also win the support of other neutral princes."

"Three hundred votes, seven places, that is to say, you need at least thirty votes to have a chance to get a place. But even if you add the 5 votes given to you by my Tianyu family, you are still 25 votes short, what do you think? Competing with those princes who have a huge network of connections?" Yanyuehou said.

Wang Yi smiled and said, "You have to try it to find out." If it can't impress people, it must be because the price is not enough, and this time Wang Yi will not give up easily.

"Then try it." Yanyuehou shook his head, he was really not optimistic.

Wang Yi suddenly said: "You said that those who were appointed kings should not need to enter the world of Xumi?"

Marquis Yanyue said: "Yes, the world of Xumi has been opened many times. The kings of Dayue Kingdom want to enter a lot of opportunities, and they are not much help, so they are usually vying for places for younger disciples or subordinates. After all, There are still many chaotic masters in Dayue, and sometimes some powerful people outside the country will enter the world of Sumeru through relationships."

The Xumi World of Dayue Kingdom is not limited to the entry of local forces. If you have the ability, you can get those princes to recommend you and get a place, and you can naturally enter.

Wang Yi nodded, all kinds of thoughts turned around in his mind.

The virtual space of the Great Viet Kingdom.

The virtual space of Dayue Kingdom does not cover the entire origin continent like Wujianlou, but it can be logged in in most areas of Dayue Country.

A vast land is dotted with cities, and one of the most splendid and ancient cities corresponds to the capital of the country of Dayue, which originated from the continent.

Just in the area of the virtual space, it is more than 100 million light-years, and it is extremely vast.

"Any one is immortal." Wang Yi, a fat old man in a white robe and red skin, and Yan Yuehou, a handsome man in a gorgeous silver robe, were sitting in the sky and were pulled by a majestic dragon with huge wings and stars. roaming over the city in a luxury car.

Wang Yi looked down at the magnificent scenery below through the misty clouds and mist, with some emotion.

The Origin Continent is indeed the place with the most profound background that the Origin World has nurtured. The worst life here is that it is immortal in adulthood. It is easy to reach the cosmos master, and it is more difficult to become the master of the universe with a little tempering.

Looking at this ancient city that has been standing here for many years, Wang Yi's first impression is that it is strictly hierarchical!

Below the true god, you cannot fly in the city, you can only walk slowly.

Above the Void True God, it can only fly in a higher place in the city.

Only chaotic masters like them, or those with special status, can roam freely in the sky.

Because of the troublesome contact in reality, Wang Yi and the others used virtual space to quickly meet those princes who were in the country of Dayue and even the origin of the continent.

Well, the virtual space of Dayue Kingdom can also be connected with the virtual space of Wujianlou or even other countries, but it is more troublesome.

But no matter what, it is much more convenient than real communication.

The tallest building in this ancient city, a large hall on the top floor of a skyscraper with a height of about 10,000 light-years, is enough to put down a galaxy. In such a large hall, there is a beautiful lake, like a mirror on the lake. A quaint and elegant round table with four huge jade seats.

Wang Yi, Marquis of Yanyue, sat with the other two princes who had made an appointment to meet.

A man wearing a limestone battle suit, a strange golden cloak, and a snake pattern on his skin, his eyes without eyeballs are like two black holes, and his whole body is also shrouded in endless black shadows, rubbing his fingers.

The other is a figure that emits light, but the real form of the other party is originally a star-like existence, and the figure is just for the convenience of communication.

The four Chaos Realm powerhouses sat facing each other.

"We understand what Yanyuehou means." The serpentine man with eyes like a black hole swirl smiled slightly, his voice was hollow, and he could not hear any emotion. "Brother Red Gourd, he wants to enter the world of Xumi, right? From the face of Marquis Yanyue, it's not that we can't be busy, but..."

Marquis Yanyue said, "Marquis Smoke Snake, of course we won't let you gang in vain."

"We're not greedy either, just follow the old rules." The Yan Snake said.

Marquis Yanyue and Wang Yi communicated privately, "Brother Honghu, what do you think?"

The places in the Xumi World seem to be precious~www.mtnovel.com~, but if you only get the votes of the princes, the value is actually limited.

After all, the number of votes of the princes does not mean that you will definitely get this spot, and it will only be useful if you add up a lot of them. A few alone are not useful.

If the asking price is too harsh...then no one wants to ask for it. In other words, it is not the powerful foreign powers from Dayue who are willing to pay a higher price. For example, the local people from Dayue are all about friendship and friendship.

For example, if you vote for me today, I will help you next time.

It's like the Tianyu family, who thought that Wang Yi could make friends, and the princes of the family gave him the votes as a personal favor.

"Okay." Wang Yi nodded. If he didn't have Yanyuehou, a well-known local snake, it would be even more troublesome for him to trade with these princes.

"Huh?" Suddenly Yan Snake Hou and another Fenghou's expressions changed slightly.

"Marquis Yanyue, I'm sorry, I can't give you the tickets this time." Marquis Yanshe stood up. Another Fenghou also got up.

"What's wrong?" Marquis Yanyue frowned, he just said yes, but now he regrets it?

"I'm sorry, our ticket is going to Princess Yelan, you know, we can't offend that person." After Yan Snake finished speaking, he left with the Fenghou.

"Princess Yelan?" Marquis Yanyue's expression changed slightly.

...

The virtual space of Dayue Kingdom, the capital of the country, is a towering palace shrouded in starlight.

A woman in blue clothes, white cloak, neat short blue hair, and green eyes, like a ghost, is unpredictable, sitting lazily on the main seat, her eyes looking down.

Dozens of princes were sitting below, among them the two princes of Yan Snake who had just left from Wang Yi and the others, with very respectful expressions.

Chapter 980: extra money

"Princess Yelan?" Wang Yi looked at Marquis Yanyue, who was in deep thought.

"Yeah." Marquis Yanyue nodded, "She is the child of our country lord, and she is very favored by the country lord. She is trusted by the country lord and has the supervisory position to supervise the entire country of Dayue. Eight hundred princes do not have any. One does not fear her, although she is a princess, she still has the name "King Yelan"."

"Our great lord has not many children under his knees. Only one prince is the king of gods, the others are the masters of chaos, and only Princess Yelan is the king."

"Among the 48 kings, her strength can be ranked in the top three, much more powerful than my father. In terms of power and status, I am afraid that some * kings are not comparable to her." Yanyuehou sighed.

Wang Yi was silent. The most favored daughter of the King of Dayues? 48 Wang Zhong ranked the top three, and there is still a supervisory position? That's really great.

Like some kings, they don't necessarily care about the king of gods, but they have to be afraid of Princess Yelan who has supervisory power.

Even the king of gods is quite polite to this princess, afraid that she will cause trouble.

Because in Dayue Kingdom, is there anyone with a background bigger than Princess Yelan?

In the entire continent of origin, it is recognized that the most adept at killing, almost invincible, and the most domineering is the King of Dayue, God King Goujian.

He killed more * kings alone than Wujianlou and Jieshan Palace combined!

With such a big backer, Princess Yelan certainly wouldn't be afraid of anyone.

The Marquis of Yanyue glanced at Wang Yi, "You are really unlucky, this time Princess Yelan also went off to compete for the spot. With her power and prestige, many princes will tend to her, even if they say hello, those god-kings will give her face and give her a place, I just don't know how many places this princess will take away this time."

Wang Yi also felt a little pressure.

The number of places in Sumeru World is fixed and has never been increased.

What the God King took away could not be contested at all, there were only seven left.

Now the famous Princess Yelan came over to take the few places.

It is conceivable that the competition for the remaining places will be more intense.

"The total number of votes of the princes is less than 900 votes, and the number of votes that those * kings and Princess Yelan have occupied, I am afraid it will exceed 700 votes." Yanyue Hou analyzed, "It depends on Princess Yelan. How many places have been taken away, if there are only two or three, then you still have a chance, if you take four or five, then you should wait for the next time."

Wang Yi was silent for a while, and said, "Master Hou, help me find out which princes are most likely to win more votes."

Marquis Yanyue couldn't help turning his head to look at him, "Do you want to talk to those princes who participated in the competition, and let them turn to support you and pass the votes to you?"

"That's right." Wang Yi was very calm.

God King, Princess Yelan, he, an outsider, wanted to talk to them about the quota, which was a bit too ostentatious and not easy to talk about.

But those princes, Wang Yi still has the confidence to impress them.

In terms of wealth, many * kings can't compare to him.

Marquis Yanyue didn't know where Wang Yi's confidence came from, but he still agreed to help him.

...

The virtual space, suspended on an island in the clouds, stood like a scaled life of a golden mountain. It has no eyes, only a golden eye child mark composed of countless golden secret patterns on the eyebrows, there is a kind of trembling, A feeling of involuntary surrender.

It stood there, and the surrounding space oscillated faintly, and occasionally a golden fire light burst out around its body.

"Marquis Yanyue, you invited me to be a guest here today, what is the matter?" The golden scaled life made a low voice like the whistling of the sea breeze.

"King Mengz." Marquis Yanyue saluted slightly. "Let me introduce you, this is a friend I just met, Daoist Red Gourd." In fact, Marquis Yanyue no longer resists his daughter being with Shi Zhongtian, so Shi Zhongtian's teacher will be his own in the future. It's not without reason that he would be so helpful.

"King Mengz." Wang Yi also smiled and bowed slightly. "Although I have been cultivating, I have long heard of King Mengz's name. I am really honored to see him today."

"Haha, you can talk. Although I am familiar with King Tianyu, his son rarely seeks me out. It seems that this time it is because of you." King Mengz's golden secret-patterned eye boy stared at the king. Yi watched for a while, then nodded slightly, "Tell me, you come to me, what's the matter."

Wang Yi said: "Actually, the matter is very simple. I want you, King Mengz, to help me get a place in the world of Xumi. I don't know what conditions do you need, King Mengz, to help me?"

"Huh?" King Mengzi smiled strangely, glanced at Marquis Yanyue, and then said to Wang Yi dandany: "This time in the world of Xumi, my juniors and subordinates have to enter, and my own quota is not enough, why? Want to help you? And why do you think I'll help you?"

Marquis Yanyue shook his head beside him. Indeed, King Mengz's status and strength were extremely powerful. How could he be moved by ordinary conditions.

"Three thousand source boundary stones." Wang Yi smiled. "King Mengz, what do you think about this condition? As long as you help me, I can pay a deposit of 1,000 Origin Boundary Stones first. No matter whether it is successful or not, this deposit does not need to be returned to me."

Marquis Yanyue couldn't help but be stunned.

The net worth of many chaotic masters is only a few thousand source stones. It depends on the strength of the chaotic masters and the way and ability to earn wealth. For example, Yanyuehou is much richer than the general chaos masters~www.mtlnovel.com~ Because he It is the lord of the Dayue Kingdom, and there is another Lao Tzu who is a king.

As the ultimate chaotic king, the King of Heaven, with a little bit of wealth, far exceeds that of ordinary chaotic masters.

"It seems that you are quite rich, but the mere 3,000 Origin Boundary Stones just want to impress me, do you underestimate me?" King Mengz sneered while rubbing his rough and hard chin.

Although there are many Three Thousand Source Boundary Stones, he is one of the 48 kings of the Dayue Kingdom, a powerhouse in the ultimate chaos realm, of course he doesn't pay much attention to him.

Wang Yi said nonchalantly, "The conditions are just for negotiation. If the three thousand Origin Boundary Stones are not satisfied, what about the five thousand?"

Marquis Yanyue couldn't help but said, "Brother Red Gourd, this quota is not worth so much, you can wait for the next time." To spend 5,000 Origin Boundary Stones for a quota to enter the Xumi World? Such a waste! Three thousand Yanyuehou felt that it was not worth it.

"Hmm..." King Muntz moved slightly. Although he is a king, but he earns 5,000 Origin Boundary Stones? It also takes a lot of time.

"10,000!" Wang Yi made a direct statement.

Slightly quiet.

Marquis Yanyue stood up and said, "Brother Honghu, actually my family can..."

"It is good!"

I agreed!

"Before he finished speaking, King Muntz slapped him aside and said first.

"Help you get a place, no problem! My apprentices, friends, acquaintances, and those who originally supported me can all vote for you!"

King Monz was all smiles.

The opportunity to enter the world of Sumeru, this time is not enough, there will be another time.

But the chance to earn 10,000 Origin Boundary Stones by raising your hand is only this time.

"Then it's a pleasure to cooperate." Wang Yi also showed a smile.
