Chapter 1 - To be a **** in another world

Quack!

In the gloomy forest, the crows hovered above their heads, making noises.

A young man in ragged clothes, leaning against the root of a big tree in blood, woke up leisurely.

Where is this, am I not playing games in the bedroom? Why did you come here suddenly? “

Yang Feng touched his groggy head, his eyes were confused.

He is a senior who is about to graduate. Like many college students, he has lived a muddle-headed college life. The greatest joy of the day is playing games.

Especially for a fairy-xia fantasy online game, Yang Feng has been playing for four years and can be regarded as a **** player. Until the players in this online game had evacuated, he was still standing there when he was about to close.

In the end, it seems that even the game operator was moved by his perseverance and sent him an email in the system, willing to upgrade his game character to the full level on the last day before closing the server, and enjoy it. Brush the monster once in the game, and just ask him if he wants it.

This kind of good thing, fools are unwilling.

As a poor college student, Yang Feng was stepped on by the rich second generation in real life, and he was abused by RMB players in the game.

Now, although this whole game is no longer played, the server is about to be shut down. But before the server closed, being able to upgrade to the full level was the wish of his senior player.

So he immediately clicked on the link.

As a result, a magical thing happened. As soon as he clicked the mouse, a white light flashed from the screen, and he instantly lost consciousness. When he woke up again, he was already in this inexplicable place.

Taking a deep breath, Yang Feng looked around at the surrounding environment. The lush trees were all trees. He couldn't see the side at a glance, and his brows frowned slightly: The greenery of our school should not be so big, right? Is this a forest park? Or virgin forest? How did I get here? “

Roar!

Suddenly, a roar of the beast shook the entire forest continuously.

Yang Feng was startled, cold sweat broke out. Because he has never heard such a horrible cry in the city, is it possible that he is really in the primeval forest now, or in which safari park?

Thinking of this, Yang Feng almost cried, and in his heart he cursed the person who brought him here while he was in a coma.

Mom sells the batches, who is it, so I am being treated like this, putting Lao Tzu in such a wild animal-infested environment is clearly killing me. What hatred or resentment I have with you, as for what.

But soon, he discovered that he was wrong, and life here is more than just beasts.

簌簌簌...

A group of weeds kept swaying. Yang Feng was startled and turned his head to look, but before he had time to pick up some wooden sticks and branches around him as a defense, a vicious wolf that was tall like a bison and glowed with blue light. Rushed out suddenly.

Yang Feng narrowed his eyes, completely stunned.

Special, is this a wolf or a cow? It has a wolf head, but how can it be so big?

It's over, my life is over!

With a cry in his heart, Yang Feng stiffened with horror, and his tears could not stop in his eyes. He choked up and said: Wolf, Brother Wolf, don't eat me, OK, I'll buy you ham..."

Roar!

There was another long howl, the monster wouldn't listen to his nonsense, and swooped directly, the sharp minions and the big mouth of the blood basin had already bit down on him mercilessly.

No! "

Yang Feng also wailed, his entire face was no longer bloody.

Ding!

Suddenly, a soft moan sounded.

Congratulations to the players, the account is successfully bound, and I wish you a good time! "

What, account number?

Yang Feng was taken aback, his eyes narrowed and opened slightly.

Why, am I still alive? What's the matter with the account?

Looking up, Yang Feng saw the evil wolf still in front of him, constantly biting him. But strangely, he didn't feel any pain, and he didn't have any symptoms of death. The evil wolf could only make a slight red mark on him, and then he immediately recovered.

Yang Feng was puzzled, but soon, a light curtain appeared in front of him, like a character management interface in a game.

Character nickname: Yang Feng

Occupation: Mage

Level: 200-level great god

Yang Feng looked at it carefully, and seemed to understand something.

Could it be that his current body is the body of the game character, is already a full-level mage, a god?

He raised his eyes and glanced over his head. As expected, a golden LV.200 was floating above his head.

Then, Yang Feng looked at the monster in front of him that had just scared him to death. There was also a green sign above his head, LV.1.

Cut, strong in the outside world, a wild monster at the first level, dare to provoke me a 200-level god? You can't brush a few experience things even if you brush the wild, you are looking for death! "

An evil arc was drawn across the corner of his mouth, and Yang Feng instantly gained confidence, and then he stretched out his hands and grabbed the two front paws of the wild wolf at once.

And the evil wolf was still scratching Yang Feng's body excitedly, and wondering how this human body was so hard that it couldn't move. Suddenly, it was caught by Yang Feng and stunned.

Yang Feng's two hands were like two steel claws, no matter how much it was pulled, they couldn't get out.

Uh...what's going on? How can this human being have so much strength?

Confusion appeared in the eyes of the evil wolf, and he raised his head, but he was facing Yang Feng's ridiculous smile.

I just scratched it, now it's me! “ puff!

With a muffled sound, Yang Feng just pulled his hands outwards, and easily pulled the body of that level of strangeness in half, and blood flowed all over the place, which was not much effort than tearing a piece of paper.

Yang Feng glanced at the **** internal organs, and then at his hands, an unparalleled sense of accomplishment came to life.

It turns out that Lao Tzu is so powerful now, such a ferocious beast, I just knocked it off. But this is also normal, who made me two hundred, it is only one.

Although Lao Tzu's profession is a mage, he is not good at melee, but the level difference is so big that even level A can be used to clean monsters, so he doesn't need skills.

Yang Feng's face was full of joy, but soon realized a serious problem.

Is this a crossing? But where did it go? Could it be that Xianxia fantasy game world with his full-level account? “

In this way, I am at full level now, can I dominate the whole server? “

Thinking of this, Yang Feng immediately had a great dream: I want to sweep the world and abuse all the masters and monsters in this game, I want to become the top player in the whole server, I want to become the man of the game king, hahaha ! “

This kind of crazy words, Yang Feng had never even dared to think about it before, after all, a group of renminbi players above his head were there. But now, he is at full level, eh, is he afraid of a ball in this world?

But soon, Yang Feng hesitated again. What if there are other full-level players here?

Master, I finally found you, are you all right! “

However, as he was thinking about it, a slightly surprised voice suddenly came from far and near.

Yang Feng was taken aback and looked up, only to see a sturdy young man hurriedly running over, his eyes full of light when he looked at him.

Yang Feng raised his eyelids and looked at the top of the man's head. Sure enough, his level LV.5 is also marked on his head.

Are there other players here, or are they going to be farmed? Is there a threat to me?

Yang Feng hushed his eyes, looking at him like a prey...
