

ALIEN GOD SYSTEM

Chapter 5 - Flame Knife

Yo, it's Master Yang Feng! “

Raising his eyes and squinting at him, Blackbeard's eyes were full of mockery: Why, you came back from the Night Demon Forest alive, did you bring the fairy grass back that day? Otherwise, you will pay me your daughter-in-law! “

I didn't bring the Tianxiancao back, and I didn't plan to pay for my daughter-in-law. How about you take my life? “

Following a leisurely pace, Yang Feng laughed and walked forward.

Black beard curled his lips indifferently: Master Yang Feng, do you think your life is very valuable? I'm not interested in it! “

Is that so, why are you doing everything possible to lie to me to die in the Night Demon Forest? “

What... what do you mean? “

His body suddenly stagnated, and the black beard's face changed.

Yang Yuchan frowned and asked in surprise: Brother, you said you were tricked into the Night Demon Forest by Blackbeard? What's going on? “

Without answering her, Yang Feng just stared at the black beard, his eyes gleaming with the spirit of wisdom: first you bought my friends and friends, cheated me to your wishful gambling shop, won all my money, and paid I borrowed an extra five hundred Xuanjing from me, making me unable to repay. “

That is your voluntary! “

Yes, I volunteered, but you also induced it! “

The evil spirit smiled, and Yang Feng continued: It's just such a large number, you know I can't afford it, why should you lend it to me to gamble? You open a gambling shop to make money, not a shantang, and there should be a limit for borrowing. Being able to lend the borrower money beyond his ability to repay at one time shows that you actually have other ideas, right? “

He sighed lightly, and Black Beard took a deep look at him, both surprised and surprised.

How did this kid suddenly become so smart?

Seeing this look in his eyes, Yang Feng knew what he was thinking, and he laughed again: I thought you were plotting our family property, but it was not until you forced me to write an IOU for taking my wife to pay off the debt. You are coveting my wife's beauty. “

It's just that your operation later made me a little bit confused. You said that there is a legendary fairy grass in the night demon forest, as long as you bring it, you can forgive my five hundred Xuanjing debts. You know that I can't do it, and you tricked me into going, obviously you just let me die, right? But you have got what you want, why do you want me to die? “

Whatever you say, are you paying the debt or paying someone? “Obviously, he was seen through his mind, and Blackbeard didn't struggle with this issue anymore, and immediately turned off the topic.

Yang Feng smiled and said noncommittal: Didn't I just say that, I don't have money, and it's impossible to hand over someone. How about another game? “ bet? What do you want to bet on? “

I will fight with you. If I win, everyone in the Yang family will be willing to be slaves, and all the property fields will belong to your Blackbeard. But if you lose, all of your Blackbeard owners and all the industries under your name will also belong to me, how about? “

No, brother, you can't beat him! “

As soon as this statement came out, Yang Yuchan suddenly became anxious and screamed.

Yang Feng smiled evilly, made a gesture of silence to her, raised his eyebrows and said: Don't worry, big sister, nothing will happen. “

Blackbeard looked at him, but he was silent for a moment.

Yang Feng had just broken through the warrior, and he had already received the news. But this kid is a fighter in the early stage of the first stage, what confidence does he dare to challenge him in the late stage of the second stage?

Isn't there any ghost in this?

Why, you dare not? “

With his mouth curled in disdain, Yang Feng saw that he hadn't spoken for a long time, and he immediately sneered and said with contempt: You are still a casino operator. You can't even handle such an easy gambling game. I think you still open a casino. Home coax your wife and children, don't come out to be embarrassed. “

Whoever says I dare not, just gamble! “

Being so excited by Yang Feng, Black Beard immediately agreed, but after thinking about it for a while, he said: But you are too far from me, I will not bully you, I will send a hand to fight with you! “

With that, Blackbeard called a little brother from the crowd behind him.

This is a lean man, who doesn't seem to have much power, but he is a solid fighter in the middle stage of the first order, one level higher than Yang Feng's early stage.

Yang Yuchan's brows suddenly frowned. Although there is only one level difference between the two, the difference in strength is more than doubled. How can Yang Feng, a rookie who has just broken through the realm of fighters, win?

But Yang Feng didn't take it seriously, and he nodded lightly and said: Okay, this is what you said, don't let it go if you lose! "

Never scumbag! "

Take my knife! "

Yang Feng yelled, and a servant in the house immediately handed a three-foot-long knife. The thin man on the opposite side also immediately took out a sharp spear and looked at him intently.

Blackbeard glanced at Yang Feng, then waited for the changes.

He wanted to take a closer look at what kind of medicine was sold in the gourd, a famous dude in Longhu Town.

Yang Yuchan and Yang Xiaoyi looked at each other. Seeing that the persuasion was fruitless, they were both ready to act. If Yang Feng loses, they will take action immediately, and they must not let the black beard hurt their Yang family's only heir.

The dignified atmosphere gradually spread in the yard. Although both sides sent a weakest representative, they both prepared to fight.

Blackbeard saw everything in his eyes, and smiled coldly: So now, the gambling on the Ruyi Gambling House and all the family properties of the Yang family has officially begun, and I am willing to lose! " puff!

However, as soon as the voice fell, a firelight suddenly appeared, and then a thin figure fell to the ground weakly, with blood foaming continuously in his mouth. A seven-inch long incision in front of him was already charred and exuding black smoke.

Everything happened in a flash. Before everyone had time to see what was going on, the battle was over, and Yang Feng was victorious.

Blackbeard's face twitched, completely dumbfounded.

This is... a combat technique?

how is this possible? Isn't this kid just breaking through the early stage of a warrior? How can there be time to develop combat skills so quickly?

Yang Yuchan and Yang Xiaoyi also stood in a daze, with an incredible color on their faces. The body that was just about to do it froze completely.

They couldn't believe it. The flame knife passed to this kid just a moment ago, he learned so quickly, in less than half an hour, it was incredible.

No matter how talented the cultivator is, there is no such genius, not to mention that he is still a waste material who broke through the warrior realm at the age of sixteen.

Everything seemed like an illusion. At this moment, Yang Yuchan and Yang Xiaoyi didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

Only after Yang Feng slashed his opponent, he danced with joy: Yeah, I won, I have a brother, and I can gather the power of faith! “

The reason why Yang Feng made this bet with Blackbeard just now was to harvest them all into his own subordinates so that the power of faith from these subordinates could fill his mana.

Ding Dong!

At this time, the sound of the system sounded, Yang Feng's eyelids twitched, and he hurried to listen.

Congratulations to the player, defeating a second-level monster will get 200 experience points. You can upgrade with eight hundred experience, come on!
