

A Killer 1011

Chapter 1011: death

And Ouyang Longyan who was ready to kill and the ecstasy made the terrifying murderous aura on his body slowly faded at this moment...The mouth couldn't help but let out a sigh of relief, and Ouyang Longyan gently slapped himself The soft sword in his hand continued to hide in the sleeve.

"A false alarm..." the hag said grimly, and then she was about to reach out and gently close the door.

"Yeah, I almost saw a flaw by those guys." The devil said there too.

As for Li Tian in the big closet, the sweat he was holding in his heart at this moment can be regarded as finally getting a breath... His heart is secretly, fortunately those soldiers who have gone in time...If not, I am afraid there will be more here now. Several * corpses.

Besides, after the four soldiers went out, they saw Wang Zhen, the brigade commander of the 38th Army who had just stepped up from the elevator.

Behind Wang Zhen were two guards with vigorous posture.

"Brigade commander!" The four soldiers who came out couldn't help saluting when they saw that the brigade commander was coming in person.

Wang Zhen coldly glanced at the four soldiers, and immediately asked, "How is the investigation?"

"Report to the brigade commander...now there are no suspicious clues found outside." The four soldiers standing attentively replied.

"Check it out for me, check it carefully, even if you search the entire Binjiang City for me, you must find out those murderers as soon as possible!" Wang Zhen shouted suddenly.

The four soldiers in front of him said: "Yes!"

After this "yes" word, the soldier in front of him was preparing to go and continue searching, and suddenly the intercom in the arms of the brigade commander rang.

"Brigadier... we found a clue."

Suddenly heard the excitement of being a soldier coming from the walkie-talkie.

"What clue? Did you find it?" Brigadier Wang Zhen asked Haoran to the walkie-talkie.

"We found the gangster's Land Rover... it's in the parking lot of the building," the intercom repeated.

"Land Rover?"

When Wang Zhen heard this, his brows frowned, and his heart suddenly lined up: Since the gangster's Land Rover car is parked in this building, there is no doubt that the gangster must be inside this building.

"Have you found out the origin of the Land Rover? Are there any criminals in that room?" Wang Zhen roared into the walkie-talkie.

"Checking..."

"Hurry up!" Wang Zhen said,

Hearing that the subordinates here already knew the clues, Wang Zhen was of course extremely excited. He couldn't wait to slash those gangsters with a thousand swords now.

At the moment, the soldiers next to them were waiting there with their guns in their hands, waiting for news from the people below.

They must avenge their dead brother and catch the bloodthirsty gangsters.

"Report to the brigade commander to find out..." Just listen to the excitement of the soldiers downstairs suddenly coming from the walkie-talkie.

"The gangster is in that room?" Wang Zhen asked loudly.

"Look at the registration information of the Housekeeping Department. It is on the 16th floor...Room 1608." The soldiers report below said.

"16th floor?"

"Room 1608?"

Wang Zhen was depressed for a moment, then turned to look at the floor in front of him, and was taken aback for a moment.

"Isn't this the 16th floor?" Wang Zhen suddenly pulled out the black and bright cold pistol from his arms.

The soldiers in front of them also suddenly gripped the automatic rifles in their hands, and swept the door number in front of them coldly.

"It's this..."

"It turned out to be this one." Suddenly the soldiers pointed to the door of the room not far in front and said.

Wang Zhen also saw Room 1608 at this moment.

"what happened?"

"Report to the brigade commander, we searched this room just now..." the soldiers replied with weird faces.

"Have you checked?" Wang Zhen said in surprise.

Those few soldiers looked at me, I looked at you, and then said: "Although there are a few people in the room... but they don't look like it."

"Asshole, don't the gangster look like him, would he have his name carved on his face?"

"Don't worry about so much for now... rush in and grab the people... first check it out," Wang Zhen ordered.

"Yes!"

After these soldiers responded, they quickly rushed towards this room 1608.

On the left and right of the door are two soldiers with automatic rifles, followed by the other three soldiers with cold guns in their hands.

The two soldiers at the door, after looking at each other at this time, one of them suddenly raised his foot, and then slammed his foot on the door of the room in front of him.

boom

"Don't move..."

Then two extremely orderly soldiers rushed in with the black and cold automatic rifles in their hands.

But when they rushed in, the room suddenly became empty...

nobody?

"Where is the person?" Wang Zhen at the back walked towards this side with a pistol in his hand.

The first two soldiers in the front also looked around carefully, holding the automatic rifles tightly in their hands.

"No, there are 4 people here just now... one of them is an old lady, there is a child about 10 years old... and two other men... But now? What about the people?" He walked toward this side with the gun, while muttering.

Just as they were surprised here, a gloomy voice suddenly echoed throughout the room.

"Are you talking about me?"

The moment a terrifying and cold voice suddenly rang in the entire room... the soldiers, as well as the 38th brigade commander Wang Zhen, were also taken aback.

"Who?"

With a word of mouth, all the fingers of those soldiers clasped the trigger.

But after hearing a bang, the door of room 1608 that was originally opened, turned it shut at this moment.

A strange and terrifying aura suddenly appeared in the entire room...

The moment the soldiers saw that the door of the room closed automatically, they were stunned... Before they completely turned around and fully reacted, suddenly a small black figure was like an electric light. The speed suddenly swept over their heads.

Gosh!

It turned out that he was hiding at the top of the room, at the top...

With this strange shadow coming.

Just listen to a flutter.

A scream suddenly came from the front of the soldier's mouth... and then he saw that a huge blood hole had been cut out of his body.

Scarlet blood was ejected from his body...

With a scream, the whole person fell directly to the ground and died.

"shooting!"

With a roar, Wang Zhen immediately ordered that...

Chapter 1012: Blood and courage

All of the bullets shot at the little figure, the little ghost figure, surprisingly fast...all the bullets hit the wall in the room, and some hit the ceiling...

The crackling sound of being shattered by bullets reverberated throughout the room, but it didn't hit the little weird figure.

The roar of bullets... At the moment of shooting, a sword, a sword more venomous than a viper, pierced towards the other two soldiers who were shooting.

His sword is too fast...too poisonous.

So when the two soldiers saw this soft sword, their eyes widened, but their hands couldn't react.

When the sharply sharp poisonous sword pierced into their bodies, their bodies felt cold at this moment, suffocating cold.

The sword didn't stay too much, the sword came out, and blood splashed.

The two soldiers who used to shoot with guns were stabbed in the throat by his vicious sword, and even the groaning in their mouths didn't have time to breathe, and they fell directly to the ground and died tragically.

Seeing the tragic death of his comrades, there were three remaining soldiers, and at this moment he quickly turned the gun head.

Dududu, a shuttle bullet shot at the sword-holding Ouyang Longyan.

Ouyang Longyan dodged himself, and the bullet followed him closely.

"I killed you bastards..."

These soldiers who charged to kill the enemy and gallop the battlefield, but at this moment, when facing the terrifying master of the gate of hell... they seemed a little futile and a little wasted.

One is because the space is too small. Second, because they have never faced such a horror before.

I saw these iron-blooded soldiers shooting through the room with guns. The sound of bullets and the sound of broken objects filled the entire space.

"The brigade commander... it's dangerous, you first withdraw."

One of the guards standing behind the 38th brigade commander held a pistol in one hand and said to Wang Zhen.

But Wang Zhen is willing to leave. Although he is expensive as a brigade commander, he is a brave man. He has survived in the * battlefield before. Can he still be afraid of a few gangsters now?

"Keep away from me...I want all these * today to die for me." Wang Zhen pushed away the guard next to him and shot the room with a pistol.

The guard had no choice but to protect his brigade commander.

boom

A soldier here was shooting, but a black object suddenly flew over and hit the bridge of his nose. With a cry of pain, he was hit and fell to the ground. Nosebleeds flow.

The remaining companions around him wanted to help him... I wanted to pull him up, but unfortunately I saw a wrinkled old monster, who came to him in a very fast speed... Then a skinny and zombie's paw caught him all at once. Up his throat...

The five fingers clicked vigorously, and the soldier had no signs, and the throat tube was suddenly crushed to death.

"Asshole." Wang Zhen was extremely annoyed and shot at the wrinkled and ugly hag with a pistol like crazy.

The hag mother grabbed the dead soldier corpse in front of her, blocking the bullet.

Bang bang bang

All of the bullets were shot on the dead soldier... The hag woman held the soldier in front of her in one hand, and she glanced at Wang Zhen with a pair of cold eyes.

"Brigade commander...We must retreat." The guards beside him guarded the brigade commander and said quickly.

Five soldiers have died in the room... Now only this guard and Brigadier Wang Zhen are left... But none of the other gangsters have been killed. If you continue to confront each other, the consequences are only One way, death.

As the guard finished speaking...

The hag who was holding the corpse for cover suddenly smiled grimly: "Want to run?"

As her unpleasant voice sounded... Then, seeing her body, he rushed towards the captain of the 38th brigade.

The guard next to him swears to protect his brigade commander to the death, shooting pistols in his hands.

Unfortunately, she didn't hit the hag.

I saw the ghost woman suddenly grabbed the dead body in her hand and threw it forward...Then her rickety body quickly grabbed the guard with the cover of the corpse.

The guard's eyes widened...The gun in his hand had just fired twice...in the air...

But at this moment there is already a skinny ghost hand grabbing on his arm.

With a click, his arm was broken by the hag and the root.

Ah... a  cry came out of his mouth, and then the other hand of the hag pierced his chest.

The sharp nails pierced his heart alive like a knife.

Blood flowed from her arm, red blood.

There was a smile on her wrinkled and sullen face... a grinning smile.

The guard who was stabbed into the heart alive... the body was choking violently... his mouth was still yelling: "Brigade... brigade... brigade commander..."

The moment the last two words came out of his mouth, his body fell to the ground and died.

He didn't even close his eyes when he died.

Watching his soldiers fall down one by one, and seeing his personal guards die so tragically, that brigade commander of the 38th Army, Wang Zhen, was mad.

"You bastards."

Accompanied by his roar, the pistol in his hand shot out roaring bullets.

But how could he shoot that hag...

With the bullet shooting... finally the pistol made a click, click, and click sound.

There are no bullets! !

At this moment when there were no bullets, suddenly the swift figure of the ghost woman stopped, and then jumped out from the other sides. Ouyang Longyan and the devils, as well as the four fierce people who ecstasied them, were all there. Looking at him with killing eyes.

And what about Brigadier Wang Zhen? Holding an empty gun without bullets... His eyes looked at the four people in front of him with an angry and terrified look.

"kill him."

"kill him."

Suddenly, a ghastly voice came from the mouth of the devil and the seducer over there.

They now have nowhere to go, they can only kill Wang Zhen in front of them.

With a vicious smile on her face, the ghost woman who was on the side glanced at Wang Zhen: "It seems that he is still an official?"

"Well, and also a colonel brigadier."

"Hey, he should be unlucky in our hands." The hag said with a sad smile.

"Let me kill him." The devil screamed, and his short body flew towards Wang Zhenji.

Wang Zhen's counter of the 38th Group Army's brigade commander, of course, was not covered. Seeing this devil came, his fists suddenly clenched.

"I fight with you." He roared, and Lihuo punched out his fist.

But it was easily evaded by the devils.

Then the devil slammed his other hand into the dragon's grasp, grabbed Wang Zhen's elbow, kicked with one foot quickly, and banged Wang Zhen's chin.

Wang Zhen, who threw a big body, was knocked to the ground by the little devil.

Seeing Wang Zhen being knocked to the ground, the hag smiled weirdly.

What about Wang Zhen? With blood on the corner of his mouth, he slowly struggled to get up from the ground... He was a soldier, a man of iron and steel, even if he died, he would die with dignity and integrity.

Chapter 1013: Li Tian shot

"It's kind of like a soldier, with backbone." The hag said in a strange voice.

While talking, he was ready to attack Brigadier Wang Zhen.

With blood on the corners of Wang Zhen's mouth, his eyes full of anger, he roared, "If you want to kill, kill... Then he is so nonsense."

"Okay, then I will fulfill you."

After speaking, the hag woman's skinny and zombie-like claws suddenly greeted her, and then she grabbed Wang Zhen's Tianling Gai.

This catch was terrifying and cold, if it were caught on Wang Zhen's Heavenly Spirit cover, it would definitely be dead.

Wang Zhen felt the breath of death and closed his eyes slightly.

Unexpectedly, I would die here... in the hands of such a gang of gangsters who don't even know the identity of the enemy? Wang Zhen regretted... the moment he closed his eyes, a bitter smile appeared at the corner of his mouth.

At the moment when Wang Zhen was about to die, suddenly no one had thought that the large wardrobe on the side suddenly burst into a bang!

The loud trembling sound made the hag's thin hands shook... paused.

And even the ecstasy around him, Ouyang Longyan and the devil didn't know what happened.

They turned their heads together to see...

The big wardrobe? Why is there a sudden explosion sound?

Just when their eyes turned around, they saw him in horror!

Li Tian.

It turns out that Li Tian in the big closet has always been in the most awake state. Of course he knows the most about every action outside, but...their sounds of murder and conversation, Li Tian listened to all of his ears, when he Hearing that at the end, when a brigade commander of the North China Field Army was about to be killed, he finally couldn't help his mind to save others. He wanted to come out... He wanted to break through the evil spirit of his lower body...

After Li Tian gathered the energy of his whole body, he finally broke through the evil spirit of his lower body, and at this moment, he used internal force to shatter the large wardrobe.

At the moment when Li Tian suddenly appeared, he completely shocked the twin old ghost, Ouyang Longyan and the ecstasy.

"he?"

"It's him?"

"how is this possible....."

At this moment of horror, Li Tian suddenly rushed toward the hag in a whirlwind, and the hag made a weird scream...The five-fingered thin hand stretched out to stop Li Tian.

Li Tianshen was in the air with his palms down, and the dark devil palm aura suddenly attacked the hag like a black cloud, and the hag's complexion instantly changed...

What a terrifying hand, what a murderous hand.

Just when the hag was shocked, with a bang, the hag's rickety body was blown away by Li Tian's clutches... the thin body slammed onto a coffee table on the side with a heavy thump. The huge coffee table was smashed to pieces, but what about the hag herself? The blood spurted out of my mouth...

"Mother-in-law..." After seeing her badly injured by Li Tian, the devil screamed and hurriedly helped the hag-in-law.

And here, Ouyang Longyan and the Ecstatic Envoy were relatively stunned for about two seconds, and then they attacked Li Tian from left to right at the same time.

The super master, quickly attacked absolutely, and attacked that Li Tian at the same time.

What about Li Tian? After one move severely injured the unsuspecting hag, her body suddenly rotated, and the clutches of her hand came out again.

The black palm was accompanied by the fierce wind, and he slapped at the Ouyang Longyan and the seducer.

Even though Ouyang Longyan and the Ecstasy were all first-class masters, they were shocked for a while when faced with Li Tian's sudden vast grasp of the clutches...

Where have they seen such a terrible hand? So fierce?

The two of them retreated quickly, facing the black and overwhelming palm of the sky, they could only retreat.

At the moment when Li Tian forced the two masters back with one move, Li Tian didn't take advantage of the victory to chase the two men in front of him, but suddenly swish to the completely shocked Wang Zhen.

"go."

"Get out of here."

As he roared out, then he suddenly grabbed Wang Zhen, who was already sluggish in front of him, and swiftly grabbed the door.

"Kill them!"

"Kill them... don't let them run." The miserable and weird cry of the hag woman came from the room, and the ecstasy and Ouyang Longyan also chased them out quickly.

Li Tian took Wang Zhen and sprinted all the way...When he was about to reach the elevator entrance, he suddenly saw that the soldiers in front had rushed up.

It turned out that these soldiers downstairs, after hearing the gunshots from above, began to rush towards the 16th floor.

When he saw their brigade commander with another guy he didn't know, he was taken aback for a moment: it was the brigade commander...

No, why is there a strange man beside the brigade commander!

"Don't move..."

All the spearheads were aimed at Li Tian in front of him. At this moment, the soldiers were afraid that their brigade commander was in danger.

Li Tian was at a loss. Looking at so many black muzzles, he really didn't move any more.

"Put down your guns, put down all your guns." Wang Zhen, who was standing next to Li Tian, suddenly roared, waving his hand while speaking.

All those soldiers were taken aback, and then quickly put down their guns one by one.

"He is a good man... the one who saved me!"

"The gangster is in the front place." Wang Zhen said, pointing to the back.

When the soldiers heard what the brigade commander said, they said, "Yes!"

Then he quickly ran forward...

Seeing the soldiers rushing forward one by one, Li Tiancai was relieved.

Where is Wang Zhen next to him? He glanced at Li Tian weirdly.

"Thank you....."

He just said these two words coldly, and then quickly pulled out the walkie-talkie in his waist.

"Fetch me the commander of the 39th Army Group Army Meng and the commander Wu..."

"Let the order go on, and quickly resist the Binjiang Mansion within 20 minutes... Remember, bring me people... Bring the troops here."

Listening to the words of the brigade commander Wang Zhen, Li Tian frowned slightly. It was obvious that he saw that the  brigade commander was completely angry.

Wang Zhen, who has been on the battlefield, has never been insulted like today... and he almost lost his life. How can he not be angry? How can you not be angry?

After issuing an order in the walkie-talkie, he pulled out the gun on the other side of his waist, preparing to return to the past to fight the people at the gate of hell.

Li Tian grabbed Wang Zhen at this moment.

"What are you doing?" Wang Zhen suddenly turned his head and looked at Li Tian in front of him with blood red eyes.

Li Tiandao: "You still don't want to pass..."

"Your people are not their opponents at all." Li Tian said sincerely.

Chapter 1014: Rumors

Yes, the large forces have not come here yet...

With the 78 soldiers that Wang Zhen is now carrying, it is completely impossible to deal with the people at the gate of hell. If you go there, there will be only death and a dead end. That's why Li Tian stopped Wang Zhen. Unwilling to let him die in vain.

But what about Wang Zhen? At this moment, he was angry, how could he listen to Li Tian's dissuasion!

Flicking his arm violently, he said coldly: "I, Wang Zhen, vowed today to catch these bastards... let them pay for it."

"I don't believe it, can these desperadoes still fly their wings to the sky."

After shouting, Wang Zhen didn't listen to Li Tian's dissuasion at all, and was ready to go back.

Just after taking two steps, there were gunshots and screams in front of him... the sound filled the corridor.

The messy gunfire along with the stern scream appeared terrible and miserable in the entire space.

Then Li Tianyi heard such gunshots, looked at Wang Zhen who rushed over, sighed, and followed.

He was afraid that the reckless brigade commander would lose his life again.

The masters in the front gate of  are simply not what they can handle now...

After Li Tian followed, Wang Zhen suddenly stayed there.

Li Tian walked over and took a look, oh my god...the ground was full of blood and corpses, it was the few soldiers who had been in the army just now, but now their people were dead, all turned into  corpses.

No one is alive.

Seeing such a  situation, even Li Tian couldn't help but bang in his heart.

What about Wang Zhen? The whole person's body couldn't help trembling in that trembling, his eyes were red...

"Asshole!!!" A roar that resounded throughout the world came out from Wang Zhen's mouth.

He never thought that his subordinates who were just alive just now turned into corpses and died.

He hates, he is angry.

But what can be done? Who told him not to listen to Li Tian just now?

The window of 1608 was open, and there was nothing in the room except these  corpses.

The twin old ghost is gone, Ouyang Longyan is gone... even the ecstasy has disappeared.

Except for the endless blood stains and the dead bodies in the pool of blood, there was no one in the entire empty room.

gone?

Yes, the man at the gate of  has escaped.

Obviously they escaped from this window just now.

This is the 16th floor.

Li Tian stood at the window on the 16th floor and glanced down... the sidewalk and the vehicles below were like tiny ants.

"How did they get away?"

"Could it be that you jumped down from the 16th floor?"

Impossible, how is it possible!

Even if they are first-class masters, it is impossible to choose to jump, because jumping will undoubtedly be death, but now the people at the gate of * have indeed disappeared? why?

After taking a closer look at the outside environment, Li Tian finally saw an open window on the 14th floor below.

After seeing this situation, Li Tian instantly understood in his heart.

It turns out that they at the gate of * did not jump from here, but climbed the wall to the 14th floor, and then they might have gone down from the 14th floor.

Li Tian wanted to tell Wang Zhen this situation, but when he turned his head and saw Wang Zhen's sad and confused expression, he held back.

And Li Tian also knew that even if he told Wang Zhen the truth now, it was too late.

Based on the actions of the * gatekeeper, it is estimated that he has already left this building...even if someone blocked them, I am afraid they can't stop them.

In a * battle, 11 North China field troops died.

When the two regiments of the North China Field Army Command arrived with troops within 10 minutes, they were all stunned after seeing the * ground and the tragic deaths of their soldiers. Up.

No one knows what * scenes have happened here, let alone how much disaster their North China Field Army has encountered this time.

Wang Zhen, commander of the 39th Army of the North China Field Army, was also quickly taken by medical soldiers to treat his injuries.

Li Tian was left in the North China Field Army.

It is not so much detention as it is detention.

Because Li Tian's identity was mysterious, and he appeared in the room of the gangsters inexplicably...Although he saved the brigade commander of the 39th Army, his identity will still be investigated for a while.

Li Tian is now stranded in a closed room.

Li Tianan sat quietly in the room, closing his eyes slightly...

The evil spirit of his body has now been completely eliminated by him, and his body has been restored to freedom again. At present, he does not care too much about the detention of himself by the North China Military Region.

After all, anyone who encounters such a thing must check the situation.

So now Li Tian stays here very quietly.

However, the entire 39th Army was rumoring about him.

"It is said that the kid in custody saved our brigade commander by himself... and the martial arts is very powerful."

"Really? Really? What's the origin of that kid?"

"I don't know, I just know that he seems to be in a room with the gangsters."

"Huh? Isn't that kid also a gangster?"

"Impossible, if he is, how can he save our brigade commander?"

"Then... Then who is he? How can he be with those vicious villains?"

"This... I don't know!"

"But this kid is really good."

...

The two soldiers standing outside were all talking about Li Tian's deeds, although they had never seen Li Tian's actual hands-on situation, nor had they seen how Li Tian rescued their brigade commander. However, Li Tian's rescue of people has been spread throughout the 39th Army.

From the group commanders, battalion commanders, and soldiers down, almost everyone was talking about Li Tian.

Having said that, when I saw two soldiers standing at the door talking, suddenly a man in green uniform and glasses came over.

"Political commissar." The soldiers standing at the two gates immediately saluted after seeing the man wearing glasses.

It turned out that this person was the political commissar of the 39th Army Brigade, his surname was Zhou, and his name was Zhengguo.

But after seeing this week's political commissar outside the room, he said, "Are the guests inside?"

"Report to the political commissar, still there!"

"Okay, open the door... let me see him." Political Commissar Zhou said.

The two soldiers standing in front of him said: "Yes!"

Chapter 1015: It's a quagmire, quack!

Then he quickly opened the door in front of him. The moment the door opened, who was the detained person inside?

Li Tian.

At this moment, after Li Tian heard that the door was pushed open, he slowly opened his eyes and looked at the person in front of him.

The political commissar Zhou who walked in with glasses was also looking at Li Tian curiously.

"Are you the young man who saved our brigade commander?" Just listened to Zhou Political Commissar, who looked up and down in front of Li Tiandao after he walked in.

Li Tian just nodded faintly, and didn't say much.

Political Commissar Zhou saw Li Tian nod and smiled slightly.

"Let me first represent our 39th military brigade, the whole brigade, thank you, thank you for saving our brigade commander." Political Commissar Zhou respectfully bowed to Li Tian as he said.

He is truly grateful to Li Tian.

Li Tian also felt the sincerity of the other party and said, "You're welcome."

After bowing that week, the political commissar straightened up.

"I don't know what do you think about our brigade arranging you here?" Only the political commissar Zhou suddenly said with a smile.

Of course Li Tian could hear what he meant.

Of course he knew that he was under house arrest by the army here. Although he did not say that he was wearing shackles on his hands and feet, his behavior now is undoubtedly exactly the same as putting on shackles.

Just listen to Li Tian thinking about it and saying: "I understand what you are doing..."

"For a stranger, this treatment is undoubtedly right."

That week, the political commissar did not expect that Li Tian's heart would be so open-minded, and immediately glanced at Li Tian again, with a look of approval in his eyes.

"Thank you for your understanding..."

"What we do is to act according to the rules. If there is something offending or under-care, please tell us." Political Commissar Zhou said.

"Well, thank you." Li Tiandao.

"There is something, we still have to investigate clearly..." Political Commissar Zhou suddenly changed the subject.

"Go ahead, what's the matter."

"It's about you... and about the gang of gangsters who poisoned our soldiers?" Political Commissar Zhou said, looking at Li Tian's eyes.

Li Tian had long known that people in this army would definitely ask himself these things, and he was not surprised at the moment.

Just said faintly: "What do you want to know?"

"We want to know who the gang of vicious gangsters are... Why are they fighting us? And who are you? Why did you stay in the same room with that gangster?" Political Commissar Zhou asked.

Li Tian suddenly smiled.

Facing Li Tian's smile, the political commissar was quite questioned that week.

Just listen to Li Tiandao: "In fact, to tell the truth, you are just an accident to the vicious group..."

"Accident?" Political commissar Zhou was a little confused.

Li Tiandao: "Yes, it was an accident."

"Because those gangsters are not here to deal with you at all, they are totally unintentional about the massacre of your soldiers... Their goal is not your North China Field Army at all."

After Li Tian said this all at once, the political commissar was suddenly depressed that week.

What is the target is not them?

After thinking about it, Political Commissar Zhou suddenly frowned and said, "Then who are their goals?"

"It's me!" Two words came out of Li Tian's mouth just like that.

After Li Tian talked about himself all of a sudden, the political commissar that week was shocked.

"you?"

With a face full of confusion, he didn't understand Li Tian's words more and more.

He only heard Li Tian explain there, "Yes."

"Let's put it this way, the reason why I'm with them is because they kidnapped me and they were going to take me to a mysterious place. But I didn't expect to meet your soldiers from the North China Field Army halfway through. They wanted Searching the car, that group of gangsters didn't want your soldiers to find out that I was kidnapped, so they shot out to kill your soldiers... You should know what happened later." Li Tian said it was true. The situation was explained to the political commissar in front of him.

After the political commissar listened, he was completely stunned.

He never thought that everything in the original turned out to be an accident, and the most critical person turned out to be him in front of him?

The political commissar that week was silent for a long while after finally understanding the cause of the incident.

After silence, he suddenly raised his head and looked at Li Tiandao and said, "Then who are you? Why did the gang kidnap you?"

Li Tian heard him ask this, and said: "I'm just an ordinary person."

"Ordinary people?"

"Ordinary people probably don't have such a high level of martial arts, right? Ordinary people probably won't be kidnapped by such characters?" Political Commissar Zhou said, looking at Li Tiandao, with a questioning expression on his face.

Li Tian didn't talk too much, because he didn't want to tell all these irrelevant people.

For these troops, it is exactly the same whether Li Tian told them.

"Why didn't you speak?" The political commissar looked at Li Tian and asked that week.

Li Tiandao: "I have said what I should say."

That week, the political commissar snorted and looked very unhappy, but after all, Li Tian in front of him saved their brigade commander, so he didn't force it to ask.

After thinking for a while, Political Commissar Zhou said: "Since you don't want to talk about yourself, then you can tell us about the gangsters... These * have now killed 11 lives in our North China Field Army... this blood debt. , We have to get it back."

Hearing what political commissar Zhou said, Li Tian suddenly said, "I hope your army will stop intervening in this matter."

"Never ask about the gangsters anymore."

When Li Tian suddenly said this, the political commissar suddenly became annoyed that week.

"Asshole, what are you talking about?"

"Do you mean that our North China Field Army can't reach those bastards?"

Li Tiandao: "No."

"That is not what i mean."

"The only thing I can tell you right now is that the group of people you are going to deal with are absolutely extraordinary characters... Their whereabouts are erratic, and their methods are extremely cruel and vicious,... Although your North China Field Army is capable of dealing with them , It's just that the result will cause you great casualties when the time comes."

"What I said is the truth."

When Li Tian said these words, the face of the political commissar that week became ugly and weird.

There is no doubt that what Li Tian said is indeed the truth. Judging from the two incidents, the other gang of gangsters are indeed extremely vicious, and their brigade has killed and injured 11 soldiers. ,

But what about those gangsters? There have been no casualties so far.

If it is true that even if the North China Field Army finally caught the gangsters, but killed and injured more soldiers, would it be worthwhile or not?

Simple accounts are counted by anyone. Political Commissar Zhou is a smart man, so he is depressed now.

"There is still a situation in the world." Li Tian slowly said a sentence, which is what he most sincerely wants to advise the North China Field Army.

Chapter 1016: Dead body

What a quack, quack.

When Li Tian finished saying this, the political commissar of that week stood there quietly with a weird face, looking at Li Tian in front of him with a rather embarrassed face.

He could feel that these words Li Tian said were true.

"Who are you? And why did those people kidnap you?" Political Commissar Zhou suddenly asked a crucial topic.

Regardless of the extremely powerful gangsters in front of them, or Li Tian in front of them, they all have a sense of mystery for the soldiers of the North China Field Army, so the political commissar Zhou must investigate clearly.

Li Tian paused slightly when he heard this question from Political Commissar Zhou.

Then slowly said: "Who am I? I'm afraid you don't know if you say it, so let's not say it."

Yes, Li Tian didn't want to reveal his identity.

He thinks that he is very small, so he didn't know the soldier when he said it. Although he knew in his heart that the commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army was his grandfather, can he say it?

I think my grandfather abandoned his mother and his father back then. Maybe now he will also abandon him... In that case, why should Li Tian be cold-faced and demanding?

For so many years, he has gone through the storms and waves alone, and no matter how much suffering he has suffered, how can he be favored in front of him?

So he didn't want to talk about himself, let alone talk about his relatives with the commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army.

Listening to Li Tian's words, the political commissar looked very unhappy that week.

"Then you should always talk about your first and last name?"

"My surname is Li, and I have a single name." Li Tian finally said his name.

That week, the political commissar glanced at Li Tian and muttered silently: "Li Tian...Li Tian."

After repeating his name twice, political commissar Zhou did not express too much meaning. He turned to Li Tiandao and said, "Well, I will ask here for the time being today..."

"You have a good rest here... If you have any needs, you can tell the people outside and they will try their best to satisfy you."

Li Tian nodded silently.

After Political Commissar Zhou finished speaking, he turned around and walked out of the house in front of him.

After going out, the room was locked again from the outside, and it seemed that they still wanted to imprison Li Tian here.

"Brigade commander, I asked about the situation." Inside the military hospital of the North China Field Army, the political commissar Zhou was there and said to Wang Zhendao, the commander of the 38th Army.

Although Wang Zhen was still wearing a white coat at the moment, his spirit was exceptionally good.

"Listen to that kid, it seems that he was kidnapped by that gang of gangsters, and our exchange of fire with that gang of gangsters seems to be a purely accidental situation..."

Political Commissar Zhou told Wang Zhen and Wang Zhen about all the situation mentioned by Li Tian just now.

After listening to Wang Zhen, he suddenly said, "Then what does he mean?"

"What he meant was that he didn't want to let people from our military area intervene." Political Commissar Zhou said.

"Asshole."

"how is this possible?"

"That group of  killed so many of our brothers? How can I not intervene? How can I not catch those  with my own hands!!" Wang Zhen suddenly roared like a tiger.

How can he not be angry?

I only heard political commissar Zhou frowned and said, "But the brigade commander, I think his words have some truth."

"Those gangsters are extremely hateful, but they can't be underestimated."

"Our current casualties are big enough... but we haven't caught a gangster yet. If this matter is made known to the Commander-in-Chief, I'm afraid... I'm afraid..." Political Commissar Zhou did not finish the remaining words, but Wang Zhen But naturally understand what terrible consequences will be,

He certainly knows the temper of their commander-in-chief best.

He is an old commander who loves himself very much.

If he were to know that his subordinates had reached 11 deaths within two days, I am afraid that the position of the 38th Army Brigadier Wang Zhen would be difficult to keep...not to mention his position as the brigade commander. And together with the teacher above will suffer.

After thinking about the terrible consequences, Wang Zhen fell silent.

Although he was silent, his body was shaking with anger, and a pair of angry fists were clenched tightly.

"Brothers are dead..."

"My brothers died so many..."

Suddenly a scarlet flame of revenge appeared in the eyes of Brigadier Wang Zhen.

He hates, hates those bastards.

"No! I want revenge, I want revenge for my brothers." Wang Zhen suddenly roared.

"Brigade commander, but..." That week the political commissar also wanted to discourage Wang Zhen in front of him.

But Wang Zhen gave him a cold stare.

"Even if I lose my position as the brigade commander, I will avenge my brothers...I must find those  for this blood debt."

"Send my order, let me know, and let Head Meng give me full martial law on the entire Binjiang City. If necessary, I will sound the emergency alarm. I don't believe that I can't catch those  in Binjiang City."

Military orders are like mountains.

Even if there are 10,000 political commissars in front of Zhou who are unwilling, since the brigade commander has ordered, he can only do it.

He said: "Yes." After the word, he quickly stepped back and began to deploy.

As for Wang Zhen, there was a blood-red color of revenge in his eyes, and his fists were clenched tightly. This time, he vowed to fight.

The ghost mother was seriously injured by Li Tian.

The people at the gate of * were also frustrated by Li Tian's sudden appearance.

They couldn't believe that Li Tian would suddenly jump out at that moment...so this time the people at the gate of * were very embarrassed.

And also escaped hastily.

Fortunately, there was an open window on the 14th floor. Otherwise, no matter how powerful the people at the gate of * were, they might not be able to withstand the coming army.

Now I see it in a residential area in Binjiang City.

The first thing I saw was an ordinary resident's room. The door was tightly closed. Even the security door outside was tightly locked.

But there was a sound from inside.

Going through the security door and carefully looking at the situation inside, the first thing you see is blood, scarlet blood.

Looking again, I saw two bodies.

Two corpses of ordinary residents, a man and a woman.

Men are around 30 years old at most, and women look like 2526.

died.

Two * corpses were placed at the door.

Their deaths were miserable and ugly. The man was cut through his chest with a sharp-toothed weapon, while the woman's throat tube was crushed.

There was also a cradle beside the two corpses. Inside the cradle was a baby child who had just turned 23 years old, crying, with a pitiful voice.

Chapter 1017: human nature

Who killed the young couple?

Who is so cruel?

While the baby in the cradle was still crying, suddenly a gloomy and unpleasant voice rang.

"Damn...I'll kill this nasty little beast."

As the words were spoken, but seeing that the little scary figure had swished beside the cradle, a white and tender hand suddenly caught the crying child in the swaddle.

Devils.

It turned out to be a person from the gate of hell.

It turns out that the people at the gate of * escaped from the building and came to the residential area. They dared not stay in hotels and guesthouses again for fear of being found by the North China Field Army soldiers, so they could only hide in these residential areas at this moment. The two young corpses at the door were slaughtered after they arrived. Now they slaughtered the young men and women and wanted to slaughter their children under 3 years old.

When the devil raised the child viciously with one hand, and was about to viciously fall to the ground to death, Ouyang Longyan over there suddenly let out a soft sword.

"Stop... don't kill him."

As his voice roared out, the deadly soft sword in his hand suddenly stabbed at the devil.

When the devil heard the attack from the sword behind him, he suddenly shrank, and he didn't care about throwing the child again, and then jumped over.

"Ouyang Longyan, what are you doing? Are you looking for death?" Suddenly after the devil dodged, a * killing light burst out from his eyes, staring at that Ouyang Longyan with hatred.

Ouyang Longyan's cold face was trembling slightly, and the soft sword in his hand was held there motionless, the sword pointed to the devil.

"Don't kill that kid..." the words came out of his mouth.

After the devil heard Ouyang Longyan say this, he suddenly laughed miserably and strangely.

Suddenly glanced at the child in his arms, and laughed treacherously.

"Unexpectedly... I really didn't expect that Ouyang Longyan still has feelings... so benevolent?" He said as he already had enough energy.

The sword energy of Ouyang Longyan's body is also rapidly skyrocketing.

"If you kill that child today, I will kill you even if Ouyang Longyan is not dead."

The situation suddenly changed.

When Ouyang Longyan said these words, the devil glanced at the hag-wife with gloomy eyes.

Because of the serious injury, the old wrinkled face was pale and ugly. She glanced at Ouyang Longyan with a vicious expression. She found that Ouyang Longyan was not like a joke, but like Laizhen. of.

After looking at that Ouyang Longyan, the ghost mother turned her gaze to the Ecstasy.

As he looked at the Ecstasy, the Ecstasy moved two steps towards Ouyang Longyan.

"Guizi, let go of that child... A child who can't even speak, there is no need to kill him cruelly... Besides, you have killed his parents... Just let this child go. "The Ecstasy suddenly said slowly.

When the ecstasy also spoke out, the devil's eyes were full of unwillingness and anger.

He wanted to pinch the child in front of him to death.

"Devil... let go of that child." Finally, the clever hag said to persuade the devil.

Because she knew in her heart that if the devil killed the child today, I am afraid Ouyang Longyan would really fight the devil, but she was seriously injured and could not help the devil... Besides, the ecstasy over there didn't seem to want to help herself. So the hag can only do this in the end.

Although she was angry in her heart, she endured it.

The twin old ghosts are always the cruelest, but today they cannot compromise...because she was badly injured.

In the end, under the compromise of the hag-in-law, the devils reluctantly put down the crying child in his hand.

"Well, I won't kill him today."

After the devil finished speaking, he then violently threw the child towards Ouyang Longyan from his hand.

Ouyang Longyan turned around, and then directly and firmly caught the crying child in the air.

After he caught it, he held the child in his arms. It was strange to say that after the child was hugged by Ouyang Longyan, he stopped crying immediately.

Even though the devil was resentful, it didn't help at the moment. He couldn't really fight Ouyang Longyan today, right?

Ouyang Longyan finally chose to take the poor orphan to a place outside... and after finding a place to put it down, he left.

He can't help it.

As the gate of hell, he can only do this, and now they are still desperate.

In the room, the ghost mother had been seriously injured by Li Tian's devil's palm, her face was extremely pale, she closed her eyes slightly, and was working to heal herself.

It was a long time before she opened her eyes and gasped slightly.

The devil next to him looked at the ghost woman and asked, "How is it?"

Granny ghost said with a pale face and said: "Fortunately...My meridians are not damaged too much."

"That * kid... If I were to catch him again, I will dig out his heart." Guizi said evilly.

As for the ghost woman, she didn't say anything.

"Ghost, don't you mean that Li Tian can't avoid your evil spirit possession?"

"Why is he suddenly able to move?" Ecstasy asked suddenly, looking at the hag.

When the hag heard this, the hag yelled.

That old face full of wrinkles became ugly and ugly, she didn't know how it was? Then how could Li Tian break through her evil spirit possession?

impossible.

How could he break through his Yin Sha possession?

Could it be said that the son of the evil * really has a physical strength that has reached the point of shocking the world? Has reached the point where he can break through the horror of his own evil spirit possession?

"I don't know." The hag said in a hoarse voice.

The ecstasy sneered.

"Ghost, it seems that you still underestimate the son of the evil god."

"Shut up to me..." the hag said suddenly and trembling all over her body.

"Although the kid escaped by chance... but I swear I will catch him again. I will peel off his skin and I will get his heart out." She said cruelly.

The ecstasy said: "Ghost, now the son of the evil * has escaped... and the entire Binjiang City is now completely under martial law. What shall we do? Also, how shall we explain to the master when we go back?"

The ghost woman said with an ugly face: "You don't need to worry about this, I will explain it to the master."

The ecstasy sneered: "That's good."

Chapter 1018: Wait

Li Tian is still being detained by the North China Field Army Military District.

However, although the North China Field Army detained Li Tian, the three meals were extremely rich.

Anyway, Li Tian had nothing else to do now, and he didn't have to worry about it, so he just stayed there.

On this day, the room was pushed aside.

I saw two soldiers in military uniforms walking in.

After seeing Li Tian, they respectfully said: "Mr. Li... our brigade commander has a request."

Li Tianyi heard that he was their brigade commander, so he nodded and followed the soldier in front of him out of the room.

After walking out, I saw 67 men with epaulettes on their shoulders standing outside the 39th Army.

The foremost among them was the brigade commander of the 39th Army, Wang Zhen.

Next to him were the political commissar of that week, two regiment leaders, and regiment staff.

After seeing Li Tian, they all had strange gazes in their eyes.

"This is the kid who saved our brigade commander?"

"um, yes."

"He? Is he so good?"

"This...this...is really not clear."

...

There came the voice of the soldiers talking slightly. Because the voice was relatively small, Li Tian did not hear it.

"Report to the brigade commander, Mr. Li has brought it." I only listened to the soldiers standing right there.

Wang Zhenchong, the soldier under his hand, waved his hand slightly and fixed his eyes on Li Tian's face.

The resolute eyes stared at Li Tian unblinkingly.

As for Li Tian, he saw Wang Zhen for the first time since the accident that day.

"How is it? How about living well?" This was the first sentence that Wang Zhen said when he came up.

Li Tian smiled faintly: "It's good."

"I heard that your name is Li Tian, isn't it?" Wang Zhen asked again.

"Yeah." Li Tian replied.

"Thank you, thank you for saving my life last time." Wang Zhen suddenly blocked his subordinates and thanked Li Tian.

Li Tian smiled slightly and said lightly: "You are welcome."

"I, Wang Zhen, have never owed anyone else in my life, but I owe you a life today...If you want to, I, Wang Zhen, will definitely give it back to you." Just listen to Wang Zhen's domineering words.

Li Tian felt that Wang Zhen was a bit too stubborn, and smiled awkwardly.

"Although I owe you my life, I will continue to do what I should do!"

"I am a soldier, I hope you can understand." Wang Zhen continued.

Li Tian nodded.

"Now I'm going to ask you... Who are those gangsters? What is their relationship with you? I hope you can tell me everything from one to five to ten." Wang Zhen only asked in a serious tone.

Li Tian had learned in the past two days that their military had imposed martial law on Binjiang City, and also knew that brigade commander Wang Zhen was really angry and vowed to arrest the people at the gate of hell.

So this meeting can only say: "I and those people are enemies."

"The enemy?" Wang Zhen was taken aback for a moment, and he seemed a little puzzled.

"Yes, they are my enemies, so they will catch me." Li Tiandao.

Wang Zhen naturally knew what was left.

Hearing what Li Tian said, Wang Zhen said, "Then can you tell me who these people are? Why are they here?"

"they?"

"I guess you haven't heard of their names... They belong to a terrorist organization called Hell Gate." Li Tian told the truth.

what?

The gate of hell?

When Li Tian said the three words of the mysterious organization of the Hell Gate, the officers behind Wang Zhen showed weird looks on their faces.

"The gate of hell?" Wang Zhen repeated silently.

"Why have I never heard of such an organization in society?" Wang Zhen said.

Li Tian smiled: "It is normal to have never heard of it. It is because of this terrifying organization that few people know about it."

"But the people in this organization are indeed extremely powerful, they are all top-notch masters."

"People like the people you dealt with the day before yesterday are the masters in the gate of hell." Li Tiandao.

The gate of hell? The gate of hell?

The officers behind Wang Zhen were all talking silently there. Of course, people in their army had never heard of such an organization in society. It was the first time I heard Li Tian mentioned this gate of * at this moment, so now Shock is also normal.

"I don't care how many masters there are in this organization... and no matter how powerful they are, I only know that they killed my soldiers, and I will pay for them with their lives." Wang Zhen suddenly said with blood red eyes.

"Now I just want to ask you, how can I find these thieves?" Wang Zhen looked at Li Tian and asked.

Li Tian thought for a while and said, "If I'm right, the people at the gate of * are still in Binjiang City... and they are definitely hidden."

"It is not easy to find them in a while." Li Tiandao.

Of course Wang Zhen understands this. Binjiang City is so big...Although they have a lot of people in their army, they seem to be insignificant in the huge Binjiang City.

In the vast crowd, searching for the gang of thieves like this is probably not an easy task.

"Then what to do?"

"The only way now, I'm afraid I have to wait..." Li Tiandao.

Hearing the word "wait" from Li Tian's mouth, Wang Zhen in front of him and the officers around him were slightly puzzled.

"Wait? What do you mean?" Wang Zhen asked.

Just listen to Li Tiandao: "I mean waiting for them to come by themselves."

"How is it possible? How could they be so stupid that they came to die?" Wang Zhen expressed deep doubts about Li Tian's words.

But Li Tian said: "They will come, you believe me."

"Why? Why are you so sure?" Wang Zhen really didn't understand Li Tian's meaning.

"Because of me." Li Tian said suddenly.

"you?"

When Li Tian said it was because of himself, Wang Zhen in front of him and the officers behind were even more puzzled.

"Yes, because of me."

"They will definitely come to me again... and I'm staying in your military district now... so they will definitely come here." Li Tian said vowedly.

When they heard that it was because of Li Tian, the soldiers all looked at Li Tian in doubt.

Even at this moment, Wang Zhen looked at Li Tian curiously.

"Why are you so sure that they will come to you? What if they don't come?" Just listen to Wang Zhendao in front of you.

Li Tiandao: "Because of hatred!"

"Because they and I share an unshakable hatred, so they will come... they will come to kill me."

Chapter 1019: The fury of the commander-in-chief

They don't know what kind of hatred Li Tian and the people at the gate of * really have, and they don't understand why Li Tian is so sure that people at the gate of * must come to him. They are all looking at him with a pair of surprised eyes. Hold him.

"Brigade Commander Wang, what I have to do now is to make you believe me!" Li Tian said slowly looking at the Commander Wang Zhen.

Wang Zhen looked at Li Tian in front of him, affectionately and strangely.

What should he do? Believe or not? The stunned gazes on the faces of the officers behind them made Wang Zhen unsure of the attention.

Finally, after Wang Zhen thought about it, he suddenly raised his head and looked at Li Tian in front of him: "If I believe you, what should I do?"

"You don't have to do anything, you continue to do your things, and they will naturally come to me." Li Tian said with a smile.

"Brigade commander..." The political commissar Zhou next to him seemed puzzled at how his brigade commander believed Li Tian, and spoke there.

But before he said what he said, the brigade commander Wang Zhen suddenly waved his hand there.

"Okay, I believe you this time." A word came out of Wang Zhen's mouth.

"But if the gangsters don't come to you this time... then don't blame me for turning my face and denying people." Wang Zhen said with a cold face.

Li Tian smiled and said, "Well, good."

In this way, Li Tian and Wang Zhen Lv Chang of the 39th Army made such an agreement.

Li Tian asked Wang Zhen to continue to do what he was supposed to do. The army searched in Binjiang City, but he continued to stay in the 39th Army Barracks.

It was just that he asked Wang Zhen to do him a small favor, which was to quickly spread the fact that he remained in the 39th Military Region.

Now everyone in Binjiang City knows about Li Tian's presence in the 39th Army.

"Brigadier Commander, how can you believe what that kid said? We don't know anything about him yet, and we don't even know who he is. Believing him now is...it's a bit too sloppy." In the room, the political commissar of that week looked at Brigadier Wang Zhen with a puzzled look and asked.

After political commissar Zhou said so, Wang Zhen suddenly said, "Then tell me, what should I do now?"

Listening to Brigadier Wang Zhen's question, the political commissar suddenly frowned that week.

Yes, even if they don't believe Li Tian's words, what should they do? Don't you continue to search in Binjiang City?

"Although the kid surnamed Li is really mysterious, we really don't know anything about him, but at least I know one thing, that is that my life was saved by him, and according to my observation that day, the gangsters He is indeed locked in a big closet. As for what kind of hatred they have between them, I don't want to know, and I don't have the time to understand. Now I just hope that he can help me and catch those * quickly." Wang Zhen clenched his fists tightly and said.

"Furthermore, now we don't know the whereabouts of those gangsters, and we don't even know who they are. If we don't act in this way, I'm afraid our brother will be killed or injured again."

After listening to Brigadier Wang Zhen saying this again, the political commissar finally stopped speaking that week.

Yes, what Brigadier Wang Zhen said is not bad, even if they don't do what Li Tian said now, what else? In the boundless city of Binjiang, how could it be so easy for them to find the people at the gate of hell, and helplessly they now have only compromise.

"Report to the commander, the 39th Army has called urgently. At present, our army has suffered 11 casualties in Binjiang City."

Inside the Binjiang International Building, I saw a man in military uniform reporting military information to Mu Yunlong sitting in a chair.

"What? Eleven people? Eleven people died?" Mu Yunlong couldn't believe his ears, and suddenly stood up from his seat.

There was a deep disbelief in those eyes, and he looked at the officer in front of him in shock.

"Yes, commander." The officer said there.

After hearing the shocking and terrifying news again, Mu Yunlong suddenly roared.

"Where is Wang Zhen? Where is Wang Zhen now?"

"Why did he become this brigade commander... how did he do it? So many soldiers died... 11 soldiers died in two days?" Mu Yunlong couldn't believe the truth before him.

How could he have killed 11 soldiers in his army in a short period of time, and he was furious.

He wished to kill Wang Zhen, the brigade commander of the 39th Army, with one shot.

Seeing the commander-in-chief roaring, the officer reporting on the military situation said quickly: "Commander-in-chief, please calm down!"

"Things are not as simple as the commander thought... In fact, brigade commander Wang Zhen has done his best." The man in front of him who reported on military affairs said kind words to Wang Zhen.

"It is understood that the 39th Army found a vicious trail in the Binjiang Building. Brigadier Wang Zhen personally led people to search. But what I did not expect was that the gangsters were extremely powerful. They not only killed many of our soldiers, but almost even Wang Zhen. The brigade commander was also slaughtered."

As he said so in front of him, the old Commander Mu Yunlong was completely shocked there, with a fist clenched tightly.

"Have you found out? Who are those gangsters?"

The officer who reported on the military situation paused and said, "Now...not yet!"

"Asshole."

"The dignified 39th Brigade of the North China Field Army can't deal with a few viciousness? A joke, a big joke." Mu Yunlong paced the whole room with anger.

Opteron, a staid man standing quietly behind the commander-in-chief, suddenly took a step forward at this moment.

"Commander-in-chief, those gangsters are by no means ordinary characters. Last time I have noticed that those who hurt our soldiers are definitely top-notch masters."

"Such people, if they want to deal with our soldiers in a small space, it is easy to start, so the commander-in-chief please think twice." Opteron said slowly.

As the first guard next to Mu Yunlong, the words spoken by Opteron were naturally extremely powerful, and they were indeed truthful.

Although the North China Field Army has many people and soldiers, don't forget that it is not a battlefield now.

The nights they faced as soldiers were unprecedented masters of the world, so it is not uncommon to be beaten like this for a while, not to mention that they met such a powerful master?

After hearing what Hao Long said, Mu Yunlong suppressed the anger in his heart.

"Then what is Wang Zhen going to do now?" He asked coldly.

The officer reporting the military situation hurriedly said: "Brigadier Wang Zhen has now ordered his regiment headquarters to impose martial law on the entire Binjiang City and start a large-scale search..."

Chapter 1020: Rivers and lakes

"Commander, there is something I don't know if I should tell the commander or not." The guy reporting the military situation said hesitated.

"What's the matter? Say?" Just listen to Mu Yunlong.

The officer who reported on the military situation quickly said, "Yes."

"The last time Brigadier Wang Zhen was in danger, he was saved by one person, and the most important thing is that that person was not a soldier of our North China Field Army, but a stranger."

When the guy reporting the military situation suddenly mentioned the word "stranger", Mu Yunlong was slightly startled.

"That kid heard that he was quite powerful. After he rescued Brigadier Wang Zhen with his bare hands, he heard that he also severely injured one of the gangsters... and then he escaped with Brigadier Wang Zhen." The guy reporting the military situation in front of him continued. Say.

"Now the whole 39th Army is spreading the story of that kid."

After listening to Mu Yunlong, he said: "That strange boy saved Wang Zhen?"

"Yes!"

"What does that strange boy do?" Mu Yunlong asked suddenly.

"It's still unclear, but according to the information I got, people in the 39th Army said that the strange boy was kidnapped by the gang before... Later, he escaped without knowing what happened, and he was saved by chance. Commander Wang Zhen."

When the guy reporting the military situation said so, Commander Mu's expression changed again.

"Where is that person now?" Commander Mu asked.

"It's in the 39th Army Headquarters."

Listening to the subordinates in front of him that the "stranger" was still in the 39th Army Department Mu Yunlong stood up directly from his seat.

"Prepare the car, I'm going to the 39th Army." Mu Yunlong said immediately.

Following his voice, the guy reporting the military area intelligence quickly said, "Yes!"

Then together with the first guard, Opteron, followed Commander Mu and walked towards the outside. It seemed that they were really ready to leave for the 39th Army to visit Li Tian. I really didn't know when Mu Yunlong was seeing Li. How will he react after days.

"Auntie, what kind of arena is like?"

In an exquisite room, but I saw that Nini asked her aunt who raised her beautiful eyes and stared at her.

She is beautiful, and her aunt is even more beautiful, and the beauty seems indispensable.

Thousands of waist thin body, tender neck and pink cheeks, like a fairy.

It's just that her face is too charming, and she seems to be charming with a smile.

Mu Shuiyao.

Hearing his niece asking such an extremely interesting question, Mu Shuiyao smiled slightly, showing two shallow dimples on his cheeks, and then bared his teeth and said: "Jianghu is actually a place...and many people All walking inside, intrigue and intrigue, this is the world."

"But why do many people say that Jianghu characters are great?" Nini continued to ask.

"Because everyone in the arena must protect themselves, so they must learn some skills."

"If you don't study, you will be bullied...by others." Mu Shuiyao said softly.

Nini blinked her beautiful eyes for a moment, then laughed.

"Oh, I seem to understand." Nini laughed.

"Then the evil * was also a person in the rivers and lakes?" Nini asked with her delicate chin in her delicate hands.

Mu Shuiyao suddenly laughed when she heard the name "Cthulhu", but her smile was filled with sadness.

"um, yes."

"He is not only a person in the rivers and lakes, but also a person in the rivers and lakes that no one dares to provoke, not because of anything else, just because he is an evil god." Mu Shuiyao said.

Nini thoughtfully thought about it: "Then why would he still be murdered? Why would anyone dare to hurt him twenty years ago?"

"Nini, I think you should be very clear about this sentence."

"You have to know that often if a person stands too high, it will arouse people's envy, and the jealous person will try to harm him. That's why he was killed." Mu Shuiyao said.

"Hey, it seems that it is not a good thing for a person to reach the top." Nini sighed.

Mu Shuiyao smiled softly.

"I'm thinking, since Cthulhu was so powerful back then, his son should be very good too." Nini said, with a look of expectation in her eyes.

It seemed as if he had already seen the son of the evil * in his eyes.

Mu Shuiyao said slightly, "Do you really want to see the son of the evil god?"

Nini kept nodding her head there, with a touch of excitement on Qiao's face: "Yes, I want to."

"I want to know what kind of character he is."

Mu Shuiyao said: "Yes, I will, I believe I will see him soon."

"Auntie, I don't know if I should ask about something." Nini suddenly raised her beautiful eyes and asked.

"Let's talk." Mu Shuiyao said.

"Did Aunt Wanqiu regret choosing Cthulhu?" Nini said.

The "Aunt Wanqiu" she said was naturally the eldest daughter of Mu Yunlong, Mu Wanqiu! It is also Mu Shuiyao's sister in front of him.

When Mu Wanqiu was mentioned, Mu Shuiyao's pretty face changed slightly in an instant, and a strange change appeared in her beautiful eyes.

But soon disappeared.

She stepped over, thought for a while, and then said: "Why do you ask?"

"Because I think Grandpa Mu seems to be still holding a grudge against what happened back then."

"Hey, Aunt Wanqiu likes Cthulhu all her life, why did Grandpa Mu stop it?" Nini felt very puzzled.

When Mu Shuiyao heard Nini say this, her tone changed suddenly.

"Nini, this is an adult's business, you better stop asking."

Listening to her aunt's tone suddenly became severe, Nini hurriedly closed her red little mouth.

"Sorry, aunt, I shouldn't ask that."

Mu Shuiyao looked at Nini in front of him and said: "Nini, what you said is not important in front of me, but don't say it in front of your Grandpa Mu... Your Grandpa Mu is always sad about this for so many years. ..."

Listening to her aunt's words, Nini nodded slowly there.

"You have to know that if it weren't for the evil god, my sister would not have disappeared... nor would he die." Mu Shuiyao said with a sudden heartache.

"All this is because of the evil god...because he is too mad, because he has offended too many enemies."

Although Nanini didn't know what happened to the evil * back then, but at the moment when she heard her aunt complaining about the evil * back then, there was not only a strange feeling in her heart.

There is a hero in every girl's mind, maybe the "Cthulhu" in Nini's mind is her hero.

Now that the evil * has disappeared, Nini slowly transformed the hero in her mind into Li Tian.

She wanted to see that Li Tian now and see what kind of character he was?
