

A Killer 1021

Chapter 1021: The storm is back

Just as the two of them were talking, suddenly there was a knock on the door.

"Come in." Mu Shuiyao said in a beautiful and gentle voice.

After the door opened with a squeak, only a major staff officer came in.

"Report the second lady, the commander has left for the 39th Army." The major staff officer said there.

Mu Shuiyao frowned when she heard Liu's eyebrows: "Dad went to the 39th Army?"

"Why is he going to the 39th Army?"

As Mu Shuiyao murmured, she raised her head and looked at the major staff officer beside her and asked, "Do you know why the commander went to the 39th Army?"

The major staff officer replied, "It seems to be looking for someone."

"Looking for someone? Who are you looking for?" Mu Shuiyao asked puzzledly.

The major staff officer replied, "I heard that I was looking for a young man who rescued the commander of the 39th Army..."

After listening to the major staff member's words, Mu Shuiyao stood up all at once.

"Nini, follow me."

Nini, who was sitting there, raised her beautiful eyes in confusion and asked, "Auntie, where are you going?"

"Let's go to the 39th Army too." After Mu Shuiyao said so, Nini quickly stood up and said with a smile in her mouth: "Okay."

Then they followed out of the door in front of them, preparing to also leave for the 39th Army.

Since that battle, the current * gatekeepers have been hiding in the residential area.

Because the entire army is still searching in Binjiang City, they can't show up yet.

In the room, because of the devils' cruel killings, there are now considerable conflicts between him, Ouyang Longyan and the Ecstasy.

And the hag mother is healing her injury in that self.

Her slightly closed eyes finally opened slowly. Two days of self-healing has restored her complexion a lot. Although she has been in Li Tianna's domineering clutches, the hag is not too much. Danger.

After opening her eyes, she slowly stood up rickety.

"Hag, how are you?" Ecstasy asked, looking at the hag.

The ghost woman said: "It's almost there."

"Damn Li Tian...Unexpectedly, Kung Fu is so powerful." The ghost woman muttered to herself.

The ecstasy sneered: "What should we do now? The kid escaped? I'm afraid that if we go back and tell the owner the truth, we will all be punished."

"Then catch that kid again." The ghost woman suddenly said sternly.

"Catch it back?"

"Hehe, I'm afraid it's not that easy. Now the entire North China Field Army is looking for us... and according to rumors, that Li Tian has already stayed in the 39th Army Barracks. If we want to break into the barracks, catch that Li Tian. , I'm afraid it's not that easy."

"Do you want to die?" The ghost woman suddenly turned her extremely distorted face and said to the ecstasy who was looking in front of her.

"If the task cannot be completed, you know how the master will deal with us..."

Yes, in the gates of hell, the only result of failure to complete the task is death.

Hearing what the hag said, the ecstasy silenced.

"So, let's break into the barracks?" Ouyang Longyan, who had been silent, finally said.

"Hey, you are right." The ghost mother said.

"I don't think the people in the army need to worry about it. Although they have guns and some people, as long as we do it without knowing it, I believe it will be difficult for them to detect us."

"It seems that there is only one way." Ouyang Longyan sighed silently.

Is it dead if you fail to complete the task? It would be better to fight now, this is Ouyang Longyan's idea at the moment.

"Ouyang Longyan, now you go out to inquire about the 39th Army, then figure out the route, and check the clues of the kid surnamed Li... After the investigation is clear, we will start to do it." Just listen to the ghost woman there. He gave orders to Ouyang Longyan in front of him.

Originally, Ouyang Longyan belonged to the Hell Gate and Hell Gate as the ghost mother-in-law, but the twin old ghosts were indeed extremely powerful, so he didn't have much words at this moment, and walked out slowly with a cold face.

"How are the people of the Underworld? Have you caught the evil god's son?"

In the wilderness, I saw a tall and thin figure standing like a zombie in the freezing cold wind and asked.

His voice was like an unsheathed head, and it sounded like a pierced eardrum in people's ears.

Behind him stood two people, two people who were exactly the same weird.

Whether it is their dress, or dress, and every move they look like exactly the same people.

The two wore a weird red flower costume, which was a weird costume similar to that of ethnic minorities. They looked even more weird. Both of them had double eyelids, collapsed nose bridge, sharp corners of the mouth, and extremely dark skin. A black totem is tattooed on their left arm. The totem looks like a wild wolf in the north, fierce and cruel.

After the two identical people heard the lanky man in front of them, they not only said in unison: "Grab!" They even spoke exactly the same way.

Are these two weird twins?

Yes, they are indeed twins, and they are identical twins even speaking and doing things.

After the two of them answered, they began to laugh, and the two of them showed Bai Sensen's teeth together: "However, the son of the evil * has escaped again." They both continued to say in unison.

"Oh?" The thin tall man standing like a zombie turned his face slowly.

It was a pale sallow face with very small eyes and a goatee.

"Very good." The two words suddenly came out of his mouth.

"If the Mingmen can't complete the mission this time, it's time for us to take action..." He slowly said this sentence.

"Who is the person sent by the Mingmen this time?" Suddenly the tall and thin man continued to ask.

The two identical guys replied in unison: "Twin old ghosts, purple-clothed Ouyang Longyan, and the ecstasy from the Situ family."

"None of these people caught the Cthulhu's son... ridiculous, really ridiculous." The thin tall man suddenly laughed strangely.

"The underworld has always done things like this, procrastinating, the master let us underworld intervene in this matter this time, it seems wise."

"A bunch of wimps!" the tall and thin man like a zombie said suddenly.

After he finished speaking, he suddenly raised his stern eyes and looked at the distant place and said: "Go, we should go to Binjiang City."

The two identical twins at the back nodded in unison, and then their bodies jumped up together. The three of them swept into the distance with swift and unparalleled body skills like black ghosts.

In the dark sky, no one knows who these three people are? Why are you going to Binjiang City?

Chapter 1022: Li Tian's contradiction

Black door.

The most vicious and vicious organization in the gate of hell.

Killing and solving things are often done by people from the black door, no matter how big or small things are.

Some people say that they are a group of beasts, because they have no family, no souls, and some are just cruel killings and blood. They just accept the order, and the above said that they will kill whoever they are asked to kill.

Is this true? No one from outside must know.

But maybe everyone at the gate of * knows it, especially when compared to the underworld in the black gate.

In the gate of hell, you would rather be killed by the enemy than the people of the black gate, because they will make you die more painful and miserable than anyone else.

Now, three figures of unknown origin are coming towards Binjiang City.

These three claim to be the weird people in the Black Gate. What kind of * storm would happen if they arrived in Binjiang City? Maybe no one knows it.

The 39th Army, Brigade.

Li Tian was still detained there, but his treatment was much better than before, because even the door of his room was opened.

Through the outside of the house, Li Tian could see the brilliant sunshine.

He had almost nothing to do this day, so he sat quietly and worked hard to cultivate his energy.

Since his profound gate of life and death was opened up, Li Tian felt that his body seemed to always have endless power, but sometimes his power was so abundant that Li Tian didn't know how to use it. He slowly transferred the vast power of his body to his whole body position, so that he could keep his whole body full of that powerful force.

While Li Tian was practicing, the door of the room was suddenly pushed open.

Then I saw the political commissar Zhou of the 39th Army walk in with a smile.

"Mr. Li..." he called after he walked in.

Li Tian also stood up slowly: "Is there anything political commissar Zhou is asking for me?"

"Let me tell you a good news... Our commander-in-chief is coming soon." Political Commissar Zhou said with a smile.

When Li Tian suddenly heard Zhou's political commissar saying that their commander-in-chief was coming, Li Tian was stunned.

"commander?"

"Is it the commander-in-chief of your North China Field Army?" Li Tian asked almost incredulously.

The political commissar Zhou in front of him nodded with a smile, "Of course it is."

After Li Tian heard the words confirmed by the political commissar this week, his heart suddenly shook, and the shock and excitement he had never experienced before suddenly filled his heart.

he came?

Is he coming?

My grandpa, my grandpa...

Li Tian couldn't tell whether he should be excited or doubtful at the moment.

His entire heartbeat suddenly started to speed up, and even his face instantly became extremely weird.

Political Commissar Zhou on the other side naturally wondered why Li Tian had such a big change in his face when he heard his commander-in-chief was coming. He looked at Li Tiandao in surprise and said, "Mr. Li... ..Mr. Li...what's wrong with you?"

But seeing Li Tian suddenly woke up and said quickly: "It's okay...It's nothing."

"You tell me, why is your commander-in-chief here?" Li Tian asked quickly.

That week, the political commissar felt that Li Tian's question was a bit inexplicable, and frowned and said, "Our 39th Army is under the North China Field Army. Is there any reason for the commander-in-chief to come?"

When Li Tian heard this from Political Commissar Zhou, his whole person was stunned. Yeah, why did he suddenly ask such a stupid question.

"Mr. Li, do you have any questions?" Political Commissar Zhou said, looking at the weird Li Tiandao at the moment.

Li Tian sorted out his mentality there, and then said, "No, I'm fine."

"Just fine!"

"Wait for our commander-in-chief to come...maybe I will meet with you. I hope that when you meet our commander-in-chief, you can explain all the things that saved our brigade commander at that time to the commander-in-chief." Zhou in front of him The political commissar reminded Li Tian.

Li Tian nodded blankly there. He is now thinking about the messy things in his mind. Almost all in his head is unprecedented confusion.

He is about to see his biological grandfather.

But this biological grandfather Li Tian has never seen...for more than 20 years, for more than 20 years, Li Tian never thought he would see his grandfather...

But now he was about to see him suddenly. This happened too suddenly and too unexpectedly. The unexpected Li Tian was almost at a loss.

Should I recognize Grandpa?

This is the biggest problem in Li Tiantian's heart.

"Mr. Li, please prepare first. I will go out first...I will notify you when the commander-in-chief arrives." After political commissar Zhou finished speaking, he quickly retreated.

Li Tian, who left his eyes full of confusion at the moment, stayed in the room completely stupidly.

"Grandpa...Grandpa..." Li Tian suddenly muttered these two words that were unfamiliar to him...

Suddenly a bitter smile appeared at the corner of his mouth.

Can you recognize it? Can you recognize him?

What should I do if I recognize him, but he doesn't?

Who can prove that he is the son of the evil god? Who can prove that he is the grandson of the commander-in-chief of the dignified North China Field Army?

nobody! At least there is no one around Li Tian to prove his identity.

So when Li Tian thought of this place, he stayed there suddenly.

The closest person could not recognize each other, but the only relative could not recognize each other. This was the most painful thing for Li Tian.

He has lived for so long and has never seen his true blood relatives. Since he was a child, he has considered himself a lone star of the gods, with no parents, no aunts, grandparents, and grandpa... Now he finally wants I will see my grandfather right away...what should he do?

He just stayed there, waiting, waiting for the relatives he was about to see.

39th Army Department.

At this moment, the entire army is standing upright, waiting, waiting for the arrival of their commander-in-chief.

Brigadier Wang Zhen outside the gate and more than 30 officers above the non-commissioned officers of the 39th Brigade all stood outside the gate.

"The commander-in-chief is coming soon." Political commissar Zhou, standing next to Brigadier Wang Zhen, suddenly sighed slightly.

"Brigade Commander Wang, don't make the old commander angry anymore...You also know the temper of the old commander." Political Commissar Zhou in front of him reminded Brigadier Wang Zhen.

Wang Zhen's steel body stood upright, and his firm face coldly spit out a few words: "My Wang Zhen is doing things, wrong is wrong, right is right, if the commander wants to punish me and shoot me, my king Zhen never said anything."

"Brigadier Wang, you..." Political Commissar Zhou was also quite helpless with his bull-tempered brigade commander.

Chapter 1023: Meet

Wang Zhen, who was as stubborn as an ox, stood there like elm gada, and he seemed unwilling to listen to the persuasion of the political commissar that week before him.

And what about the political commissar that week? Knowing the temper of his brigade commander, he could only shook his head and sighed there.

A large group of officers are here standing straight and waiting, waiting for the arrival of their commander-in-chief.

From a distance, you can see a team of off-road Hummer military vehicles screaming like tigers.

"The commander-in-chief is here." The whispered words of those soldiers came from the crowd.

At this moment, the officers headed by Wang Zhen stood up straight.

As the convoys drove in mighty, they all stopped in front of the 39th Army barracks with a loud hiss.

"Salute!" Following Wang Zhen's roar, the upper and lower commanders of the 39th Army were all saluting straight there.

Then I saw Mu Yunlong and Commander-in-Chief Mu coming out of the off-road Hummer fleet.

Behind Commander-in-Chief Mu were two general-level division commanders, one was the 55th division commander, the other was the 28th division commander, followed by the company commander of the guard company, the first fierce man of the North China Field Army. Long.

"All salute!" Wang Zhen said again.

Then the upper and lower officers and soldiers of the entire 39th Corps were there to salute the coming Commander Mu.

After they saluted, Commander Na Mus came with the people around him mightily.

There was an iron blue light on Commander Mu's face. When Wang Zhen and the officers here saw the iron blue face of Commander Mu, they all dared not show up one by one.

After Mu Yunlong walked over, he waved his hand directly, and even ignored Wang Zhen and the officers in front of him, and he led his men towards the military camp over there.

Wang Zhen and Political Commissar Zhou, who were behind them, glanced at the commander-in-chief, then hurriedly followed and walked towards the barracks.

Inside the barracks of the 39th Army, the atmosphere was strangely strange at the moment.

I saw that Commander Mu, who had first arrived in the 39th Army, was sitting in the top position, always grimace.

And Wang Zhen who walked in, the political commissar Zhou and the officers around him all stood nodded.

"Wang Zhen!" Following Commander Mu's roar.

Wang Zhen quickly stood out from the crowd.

"Commander," he whispered.

"I ask you, how many officers and soldiers were killed and injured this time in your brigade?" Mu Yunlong's face looked ugly like an angry tiger, staring at Wang Zhen and asked.

Wang Zhen answered truthfully: "11 people died."

"Asshole!"

"Tell me, how did you become the brigade commander? In two days, 11 officers and soldiers were killed and injured for a long time in just two days..." Mu Yunlong roared.

Standing there motionless, Wang Zhen said, "Wang Zhen is at fault! Asking the commander-in-chief to punish..."

"Punishment? Based on your current behavior, I have the qualifications to shoot you." Mu Yunlong's words were murderous.

As the commander-in-chief said that he would shoot Wang Zhen in front of him, the 55th corps commander who was standing next to the commander-in-chief quickly persuaded him:

"Commander-in-chief... Actually, this matter cannot be entirely blamed on Brigadier Wang. I didn't expect that gang of gangsters could be so fierce."

The commander of the 28th Army on the other side also said: "Yes, Commander, although Brigadier Wang killed the soldiers under his hand, this is not something he himself wants. Blame the gang of gangsters for being too cruel."

Hearing the plea of the two masters, Mu Yunlong roared.

What about Wang Zhen? He has never moved from start to finish, and he has always been a man who dares to do what he does.

"Wang Zhen, I won't punish you now... but you will listen to me. I want your 39th Army to catch the gangsters for me."

"I want the gang to know the fate of offending our North China Field Army, have you heard it clearly?" Commander Na Mu roared.

Brigadier Wang Zhen in front of him stood upright: "Listen clearly."

"Speak louder, say it again!"

"Report to the commander-in-chief, I heard clearly." Wang Zhen repeated it again.

This time, Mu Yunlong was satisfied, and then waved his hand and said: "Okay, just listen clearly."

Wang Zhen and a large number of officers under his hand, finally, the hanging heart slowly fell.

"Wang Zhen, I heard that you were in danger the day before yesterday, and you were almost killed?" Mu Yunlong suddenly looked at Wang Zhen and asked.

Wang Zhen quickly replied to his commander: "Report to the commander, this...this is true."

"Someone saved you?" Mu Yunlong asked again.

"Yes."

"If it weren't for him, I don't expect to see the commander-in-chief today." Wang Zhen said truthfully.

Mu Yunlong seemed to be particularly interested and said: "Really?"

"Who is the one who saved you?" Mu Yunlong continued to ask.

"His identity, I am not very clear... I only know his name." Wang Zhendao said.

Mu Yunlong waved his hand slightly: "I am not interested in his name...I just want to see him."

"Tell me, he is there now?" Mu Yunlong asked only.

Wang Zhen quickly replied: "It's in the military office over there."

"If the commander meets, I will send someone to bring him." Wang Zhen said in front of him.

But seeing Mu Yunlong suddenly stood up and said: "No need...I'll go find him."

As Mu Yunlong said, he wanted to find that person himself.

Then Wang Zhen was taken aback, and quickly followed the officer behind him, and the two masters over there and Opteron also followed the commander-in-chief in front of him.

The commander-in-chief of the North China Military Region wants to see Li Tian in person.

Perhaps this is the first time the whole army has seen the commander-in-chief personally request to see that kid... It shocked them and made them feel puzzled. They were really wondering what could make their commander-in-chief do this. Interested in meeting a very ordinary person?

Speaking of it, maybe even the people around him can't believe it, this is Mu Yunlong's intuitive reason.

I don't know why, Mu Yunlong wants to meet that person in his subconscious mind, maybe even he himself doesn't know why this is?

When the commander-in-chief brought a large group of officers around to the gate where Li Tianfang was being held, the two soldiers at the gate were dumbfounded.

Almost forgot to salute.

Of course they would be stupid who had never seen such a domineering situation before, but their commander-in-chief came in person.

"Where is the person?" Mu Yunlong asked in a low voice.

The brigade commander Wang Zhen quickly replied, "It's inside."

Hearing what Wang Zhen said, Mu Yunlong in front of him looked up at the door of the room in front of him.

Chapter 1024: how is this possible

"Well, you all wait for me outside, I want to see him alone." Only Mu Yunlong said.

"Commander... I'm afraid it's wrong... Let us go in with you."

The commander of the 55th Army showed hesitation in that expression, and the commander of the 28th Army next to him was also there to discourage.

"Commander, that kid is a stranger, besides, we don't know how he came from... I think we should let the guards go in with you."

After speaking, he saw the first fierce general of the North China Field Army, Opteron, and took the brunt of the tower.

But seeing Mu Yunlong in front of him laughed loudly.

"Is it necessary?" Mu Yunlong said with great arrogance.

A word made the two teachers around him speechless.

Yes, Mu Yunlong is the commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army, but don't forget that he is a fierce man who has come over the battlefield for a long time. What kind of swordsman has he never seen? Are you still worried about a stranger at this moment?

Amidst Mu commander's rhetoric, he saw him walking towards the door in front of him in strides.

The officers behind them all hurried to the front of the room one by one...and made all the sudden preparations to stay there.

After Mu Yunlong reached the door, he gently opened the door.

Then a pair of Long Jiong's resolute eyes saw him at a glance.

Li Tian.

He was wearing a simple dress, sitting cross-legged there.

When Mu Yunlong saw Li Tian for the first time, he didn't know why, he suddenly felt an unprecedented cordial feeling, which even he himself felt different.

And what about Li Tian sitting in the room? He also heard the sound of opening the door, then opened his eyes, and then saw Mu Yunlong, the commander-in-chief in military uniform in front.

The moment he saw Mu Yunlong, Li Tian was not surprised, because he didn't know that this was the commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army, or his pro-grandfather. He just felt the domineering majesty of the old man with so many military ranks in front of him.

The feeling of majesty is just like the power of a king over the world, which makes people feel breathless.

He slowly stood up and looked at Mu Yunlong in front of him.

"Hello... are you?" Li Tian frowned and asked, looking at Mu Yunlong in front of him.

Just listen to Mu Yunlong's sharp and resolute eyes looking at Li Tian.

"Commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army, Mu Yunlong." A few words came out of his mouth, domineering as a mountain.

When Mu Yunlong suddenly revealed his true identity, Li Tian instantly stayed there.

Then his whole person was stunned there, looking at him in front of him with unbelievable eyes...

"he....."

"he....."

"He is the commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army... he is his own grandfather..."

Li Tian was speechless at this sudden meeting... His heart was beating banging, but his footsteps that had not moved like a mountain suddenly trembled at this moment, agitated, and an extremely excited state of mind suddenly surged. Upset.

Looking at Mu Yunlong in front of him with wide horrified eyes...

"You are... you... are... the commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army? Commander Mu?" Li Tian asked incredulously.

Mu Yunlong said: "What? Don't you still believe it?"

Li Tian looked at his pro-grandfather, and didn't know how to answer right now...just he said in a hesitant voice: "I believe...I believe..."

Relatives, in front of him is himself and so far, the only relative.

But Li Tian didn't know whether he should recognize each other.

He just watched his pro-grandfather and found that his grandpa had gray hair on his sideburns...Although he was once majestic and majestic, it was still difficult to hide the traces of the years, and his face also had the leftovers of the years. Streak marks.

"Grandpa..." Li Tianduo wanted to call out at this moment, telling Mu Yunlong in front of him that he was his grandson, but in the end Li Tian held back.

But what about Mu Yunlong? When I saw Li Tian in such a shock, I thought it was his commander's identity that shocked him, so he said: "Don't be afraid... my child, I just heard that you saved my 39th Army Brigade Commander's name, so I want to see you when I come over."

Li Tian didn't know if he heard Mu Yunlong's words in front of him, and nodded there.

"Where are you from? How come you got here..." Mu Yunlong asked Li Tian, who looked at him in front of him.

Li Tian thought for a while and wanted to answer: "I, I'm from Liaocheng..."

"Liao Cheng?" Mu Yunlong's mind suddenly felt that this place name was very familiar, but he couldn't remember exactly what he had heard there.

"Ok."

"Why did you get to Binjiang City?" Mu Yunlong in front of him continued to ask.

Li Tian said all of his affairs.

Hearing that Mu Yunlong was curious.

"Oh? According to what you said, you just saved Brigadier Wang by accident, right?" Mu Yunlong smiled.

"Well, it is." Li Tiandao.

"Did you just say that you have hatred with those gangsters?" Mu Yunlong frowned.

"Ok."

"What hatred?"

Li Tian thought for a while and said, "Hate of blood."

Listening to Li Tian's reluctance to say, Mu Yunlong didn't ask any more.

"Child, who else is in your family... What did you do before? What do your parents do?" Mu Yunlong looked at Li Tian and asked.

Listening to Mu Yunlong's sudden question, Li Tian's mouth suddenly burst into a bitter smile, laughing helplessly.

Now his pro-grandfather is asking himself? He doesn't even know who his parents are.

Li Tian did not answer, the pain in his heart tortured him there.

"Child, why are you not talking?" Mu Yunlong suddenly asked again.

Li Tian suddenly raised his eyes and looked at Mu Yunlong in front of him: "Musling...my parents are actually very familiar with you...you recognize them."

As Li Tian said this sentence, Mu Yunlong suddenly frowned.

"what did you say?"

Li Tian repeated the words just now again.

"You know my parents... and are quite familiar with them."

Hearing Li Tian's words again, Mu Yunlong suddenly looked carefully at Li Tian in front of him... Suddenly, there was a thump in his heart, because he suddenly felt that Li Tian in front of him looked very much like a person. The one he hated the most.

When Mu Yunlong suddenly thought of this place, he quickly stopped this terrifying thought.

"how is this possible?"

"how can that be possible....."

Mu Yunlong kept admonishing himself.

However, his eyes looked at Li Tian's silhouette and back, only to find that they looked more and more alike, and the more they looked, the more they looked.

"You...you...what's your name?"

Chapter 1025: Grandpa!

"And your...your parents...who are they?" Mu Yunlong finally asked.

With extreme horror in those resolute eyes, he looked at Li Tian in front of him.

When Li Tian saw his "pro-grandpa" look, he knew that he had basically guessed it... so he smiled bitterly and said, "My name is Li and my name is Tian!"

"My father is an evil god... my mother is named Mu Wanqiu."

Froze!

Shocked!

The air seemed to freeze suddenly at this moment.

Quiet, in the dead silence.

Mu Yunlong's resolute eyes were trembling...

For so many years, more than 20 years, he missed the name "Wanqiu" almost all the time, but now he said it out of his mouth.

Mu Yunlong's steel body shuddered at the moment when he heard Li Tian say this... almost as if he fell down.

Looking at Li Tian in front of him with those eyes that were extremely horrified.

Really? Is all this true?

He is... he is... his grandson? Grandson?

Is he Wanqiu's child?

...

Mu Yunlong was a little afraid to accept the facts before him, he was just completely stunned in astonishment.

"You...you...you..." He was speechless after saying three words of you in a row.

Li Tian looked at the old man with white hair on the temples and at his own grandfather, his eyes slowly reddening at this moment.

After all, this was the first relative he saw since the beginning of his memory. After all, this was the first relative by blood he had seen since he had lived so long.

"Grandpa..." Two unfamiliar and trembling words finally came out of Li Tian's mouth.

With tears in his eyes, he looked at Mu Yunlong in front of him.

And Mu Yunlong? When he heard the words Grandpa, his tall and burly body trembled deeply and violently, and his steady, rock-like footsteps suddenly took a step back...

Does he dare to accept this title?

Is this his grandson?

But seeing Mu Yunlong muttered: "You...your...named Li Tian?"

"You... are you really... really... Wanqiu's child?"

Li Tian listened to Mu Yunlong's words, and said with tears: "Well! I am... I am..."

"Oh my God!"

Mu Yunlong's tall and burly body suddenly stopped and took a few large steps back, and the twin dragon's eyes suddenly became slightly red.

How could he think of meeting his grandson under such an opportunity? See your grandson?

"Grandpa!"

When Mu Yunlong heard Li Tian in front of him calling out to himself again, he suddenly started to back away...The reddish eyes trembled violently... Then he did something that no one had expected. As he acted, he suddenly turned his head and opened the door in front of him, his tall body rushing toward the outside.

Does he dare not accept this fact? Still what happened?

Who knows what Mu Yunlong is thinking about in his heart?

What about Li Tian? He recognized his pro-grandfather, but when he did not accept it, a sense of loss that had never happened before rose from his heart. He stood there, motionless, and then slowly reached out and wiped it away. The tears on my cheek...

"commander....."

"Commander in Chief..."

When Mu Yunlong suddenly opened the door and ran out like crazy, the officers at the door were all stunned.

Then he hurried after it worriedly.

"Don't chase me... leave me alone!" Mu Yunlong's trembling voice came from the front.

With the sound of the voice, the division commanders, brigade commanders and chiefs of staff who were worried about Mu Yunlong were all stunned.

"What happened to the commander?" the commander of the 55th Division asked with an extremely ugly expression.

"I don't know either." The teacher of the 28th Division rubbed his hands, looking confused.

All the officers and men of the 39th Army in front of them were all in a daze.

"Wang Zhen, stand up for me." A sudden roar came out of the 55th Division's commander's mouth.

After he exited, Wang Zhen quickly stood at attention.

"Wang Zhen, tell me clearly... Who is the detainee in this room? Why did the commander-in-chief suddenly become like that after meeting the kid?" The commander of the 55th Division looked like he wanted to kill. Wang Zhen glared at him and roared.

Wang Zhen was also depressed for a while, how did he know what happened to this commander-in-chief?

He also stood there depressed, his mouth wobbling not knowing how to answer.

The commander of the 55th Division roared: "Wang Zhen, you will listen to me... If something goes wrong with the commander-in-chief because of the person you are detaining, I will be the first to shoot you.

Listening to the 55th Division's teacher cursing, Wang Zhen's face was green and white.

The commander of the 28th Division said at the moment: "Old Liu, don't scold him..."

"Let's go and see the commander first."

The commander of the 55th Division, known as Lao Liu, gave Wang Zhen a fierce look, and then quickly flicked his sleeves and led his men to chase in the direction where the commander ran away.

Brigadier Wang Zhen, who was confused in front of him, and all the officers of the 39th Army behind him.

"What's the matter? Brigade commander?" An officer standing behind Wang Zhen suddenly asked in a low voice.

Wang Zhen was already full of fire. Hearing this question from his subordinates, he shouted, "How the * do I know?"

Yes, how would he know?

Today's Wang Zhen was unlucky enough. First he was scolded by the commander-in-chief, and then scolded by the teacher. Now he is full of fire and depressed.

The subordinate was so frightened by Wang Zhen's roar that he did not dare to speak, and quickly closed his mouth.

Political commissar Zhou said, "Brigadier Commander, let's go in and ask that kid to see what happened..."

Wang Zhen turned his head, Sen Leng glanced at the room where Li Tian was being held before him, then quickly nodded and said, "Okay!"

Then he quickly opened the door and walked towards Li Tian's room with the political commissar Zhou behind him.

After entering, I saw Li Tian.

But seeing Li Tian staying there stupefied, with a desperate look on his face, as if stupid.

After entering, Wang Zhen was completely speechless when he saw that Li Tian's expression was exactly the same as that of the Commander-in-Chief who had just rushed out.

"Hey, what's the matter with you?"

"What did our commander-in-chief tell you just now? What happened?" Wang Zhen asked all the questions from his mouth.

Chapter 1026: Li Kuafu

After Wang Zhenwen came out, but what about Li Tian? But he didn't even pay attention to him.

He just stood there affectionately, motionless, with unprecedented confusion in his eyes.

"Hey, is our brigade commander asking you something?" Only the political commissar Zhou stared at Li Tian in front of him.

But what about Li Tian? Still ignored him.

Political Commissar Zhou saw that Li Tian was such a big name, and he didn't even take care of himself. He was suddenly angry, and he wanted to blame Li Tian in front of the tower.

But he was suddenly held back by Brigadier Wang Zhen in front of him.

Wang Zhen looked at Li Tian's expression, and then shook his head slightly at the Zhou Political Commissar beside him.

"Forget it, let's not ask, let him calm down first."

Following Wang Zhen's words, the political commissar groaned in his mouth that week, without saying too much, and then walked outside with the commander Wang Zhen in front of him.

They don't know what happened to Li Tian and their commander-in-chief, and they don't even know why their expressions are so weird...Although they are quite puzzled, they still want to wait for Li Tian to get better. Come ask again at some time.

The 39th Army Brigade, in the barracks where the commander-in-chief is staying.

But when I saw the commander of the 55th Division and the 28th Division rushing to the front of the barracks where the commander-in-chief was staying, they saw a team of guards standing motionless.

Headed by the commander-in-chief's first personal guard, the fierce Opteron.

"Optical Dragon, where's the commander-in-chief?" The 55th Division Commander who had rushed over quickly asked worriedly.

Just listen to the replied white dragon: "Report to the commander, the commander-in-chief is now inside the barracks."

"We are going to see the commander-in-chief." The commander of the 55th Division and the commander of the 28th Division had to go in without saying a word.

They just saw the confused expression of the commander-in-chief and his weird appearance. As a soldier, they were of course the most worried, so they all wanted to see what happened to their commander-in-chief.

Just as the two master masters were about to go in hard, they saw the white dragon in front of them hurriedly stop them.

"Two teachers, you can't enter." Hao Long said.

The commander of the 55th Division immediately turned cold, staring at the white dragon in front of him and said, "Why?"

"Who said you can't enter?" The commander of the 28th Army over there was also full of doubts.

I just listened to Opteron hurriedly explaining there, "The two commanders, the commander-in-chief has already spoken, no one can enter."

"Please don't make things difficult for me, the two commanders." Wang Long stood there and said.

Hearing what Opteron said, the two masters stayed there with ugly faces.

"Optical Dragon, did the commander-in-chief tell you what happened?" The commander of the 55th Army looked at the Opteron in front of him and asked.

Opteron shook his head there, saying that he didn't know.

The two masters also said that they didn't know when they heard the white dragon, they could only sigh helplessly and said, "Well..."

"Then we retreat first."

The two commanders who were talking left the barracks in front of them.

What happened to the commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army? Can anyone know what happened?

No one currently knows.

But seeing that in the commander-in-chief's account at this moment, Mu Yunlong was sitting there blankly, and through his broad back, he could see that he was holding something in his hands.

Looking closely, the old Commander Mu Yunlong's hands were holding an emerald green jade bracelet. This bracelet was once Mu Wanqiu's 18th birthday, the current Mu Yunlong brought to his daughter when he returned from South America. Yunlong held the jade bracelet tightly with both hands.

There was a trembling color in his eyes, and he looked deeply at the green bracelet in front of him.

"Wanqiu..." A whispered voice came out from his mouth.

That is his daughter.

More than 20 years have passed, and my daughter has disappeared for more than 20 years. She may have died a long time ago. She had been killed alive by that bastard.

But now in the barracks, is he really Wanqiu's child?

Mu Yunlong was thinking there with a pair of painful eyes.

Yes!

He should be.

His silhouette, his back, are exactly the same as that * bastard...

No wonder when I first saw him, I felt that he was so familiar. It turned out that he was his "pro-grandson" and Wanqiu's biological child.

Before Mu Yunlong and Mu Wanqiu broke off their father-daughter relationship, Mu Wanqiu was pregnant... and the child in his belly is now Li Tian. To be honest, since Li Tian was born until now, he has never been a grandfather. Haven't seen it...

Mu Yunlong himself is a stubborn temper.

But he is an individual after all, a person of flesh and blood and emotion.

Seeing that his own grandson was about to be born, Mu Yunlong was of course extremely happy. Although he said that he really didn't want his daughter to be combined with the evil god, the fact has become a fact and no one can change it. So in the years that followed Mu Yunlong also slowly became accommodating...

When Li Tian was 2 years old, when Mu Wanqiu decided to take Li Tian and Cthulhu back to the North China Field Army to visit his old father, Mu Yunlong was also extremely happy, and even bought a lot for his grandson. Toys, but those toys he never told anyone. No way, he was originally an iron-blooded commander, even if he loved him no matter how much he loved, he would appear indifferent on the surface.

But the final result did not occur to anyone. On Li Tian's 2nd birthday, Cthulhu and his brother were attacked by people at the gate of hell.

It was also because that night, Li Tian's mother and Li Tian's father all disappeared... and Li Tian also disappeared after that night.

When Mu Yunlong, the commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army, heard the bad news that year, he was completely stunned... he immediately sent the army there, but when they arrived, they only saw the sea of flames... There are blood stains on those corpses...

There was nothing, and the fire turned into ashes.

Mu Yunlong looked at the endless sea of flames painfully, his fists tightly clenched, his eyes flushed...

His grandson, his daughter... and the evil * he had always hated all disappeared on that day, maybe they all died.

Recalling these painful and sad past events, Mu Yunlong's tall body trembled.

All this is because of that guy, because of the evil god!

If it weren't for him, how could his daughter be massacred and disappeared? If it weren't for him, how could he have endured more than 20 years of pain...

He was cruel, cruel to the man with the name of evil god.

He is Li Tian's father: Li Kuafu!

A man who once covered the sky with one hand.

Chapter 1027: Relatives

Li Tian's father's real name is Li Kuafu.

Since Li Kuafu became famous, no one remembers his real name, because his evil god's name has already penetrated people's hearts.

But now Mu Yunlong said his son-in-law's name cruelly in his mouth.

After so many years, is he still ruthless?

Yes, Mu Yunlong is still cruel to Li Kuafu.

So just now, the moment Mu Yunlong heard that Li Tian suddenly said his identity, he would be at a loss, he would leave...

Because Li Tian has too many shadows of Li Kuafu on his body.

Only those eyes, like Wanqiu, like his daughter.

Mu Yunlong couldn't tell how he felt in his heart now, whether he should be excited or should...

He had always thought that his grandson was dead. Until some time ago, rumors began to say that the evil god's son was still alive, and he also heard that several masters who followed the evil * back then were born, including the evil sword Duguxie. And the shadow ghost servants.

Originally, Mu Yunlong didn't believe it. After all, it's been so many years... He had long thought that his daughter and his grandson might have been killed in the fire, but he didn't expect that news was spreading more and more. Really, after several investigations by the North China Field Army, it turned out that the rumors were true.

My grandson is really alive.

This made Mu Yunlong excited, so he hurriedly sent his daughter to Jinghai City to find his grandson.

What Mu Yunlong didn't expect was that he would meet Li Tian and his grandson in this situation...

To be honest, this made Mu Yunlong a little unacceptable for a while.

He was still full of excitement and was at a loss. For his grandson, Mu Yunlong hardly knew how to face it.

The 39th Army Brigade, at this moment, I saw that Mu Yaoshui and Nini had also arrived.

It turned out that after hearing that the commander-in-chief came to the 39th army, they hurriedly arrived here.

At this moment, after entering the 39th Army, he found that there was something wrong with the soldiers of the 39th Army, which made Mu Shuiyao very confused.

After asking where the army commander-in-chief was staying, she and Nini quickly walked to the front.

When I got there, I saw the first guard, Opteron, standing in front of the barracks.

"Optical Dragon, where is my dad?" Mu Shuiyao came over and asked.

The white dragon in front of him said, "The commander-in-chief is inside."

"I heard that something happened to my dad?" Mu Shuiyao asked with an ugly expression on his face.

The Haolong hesitated, then looked at Mu Shuiyao in front of him and nodded there.

"What's wrong? What happened?" Mu Shuiyao asked quickly.

Just listen to the Opteron in front of him back and say: "Actually, I don't know very well. I only know that after the commander-in-chief meets the strange young man again, it is strange."

"A strange young man? What kind of young man?" Mu Shuiyao asked with a puzzled look.

"It's the young man who saved the name of the 39th Army Commander before." Wang Long said.

Hearing what Hao Long said, there was a strange look in Mu Shuiyao's beautiful eyes.

"It's him?"

"How can he affect my father?" Mu Shuiyao muttered.

The Opteron next to him also shook his head speechlessly.

"I'll go in and see my father." Mu Shuiyao said.

Opteron originally wanted to stop the second lady in front of him... but then he thought about it and said, "Okay."

So Mu Shuiyao and Na Nini walked in quickly.

Inside the barracks.

"Dad." As soon as Mu Shuiyao walked in, she saw Mu Yunlong sitting there and shouted.

Nini behind her also followed.

But Mu Yunlong seemed to have not heard him, and still sat there blankly.

"Dad, what's wrong? What happened?" Mu Shuiyao stepped forward and asked.

After stepping forward, he saw the emerald green bracelet in Mu Yunlong's hand.

Mu Shuiyao certainly knew that this bracelet was her sister's bracelet. Mu Yunlong kept this bracelet on her body. At this moment, when she saw her father suddenly took out the bracelet and held it tightly in his hand, she was not only taken aback.

"Dad..." She whispered again.

But seeing Mu Yunlong slowly turned his head and looked at his daughter: "You are here."

Hearing what her father said, Mu Shuiyao nodded there, looking at her old father in surprise with her beautiful eyes.

"Dad, what's the matter? I heard...you seem to have something unhappy." Mu Shuiyao asked softly. But seeing Mu Yunlong suddenly laughed, but the laughter was full of weird smell.

"unhappy?"

"No! I'm very happy." Mu Yunlong said.

This moment made Mu Shuiyao and Nini depressed.

"Dad, what is the matter?" Mu Shuiyao asked again.

Mu Yunlong turned his head and looked at Mu Shuiyao in front of him and said: "After I tell you, don't be shocked."

Mu Shuiyao was even more puzzled when she heard what her old father said. She smiled and said, "Okay, I listen to Dad."

"Your nephew found it." A word suddenly came out of Mu Yunlong's mouth.

When Mu Yunlong uttered these words at once, Mu Shuiyao was stunned for a moment, and then looked at his father with all his eyes and said, "Nephew? What nephew?"

"Fool... is your sister's child! Li Tian... Li Tian." Mu Yunlong said.

what?

Gosh?

Mu Shuiyao was stunned at the moment.

"Dad...you mean...you mean...sister's child found?" Mu Shuiyao couldn't believe this fact.

On the other side, Nini also had big beautiful eyes. She was astonished, thinking in her heart: Is she the son of an evil god? Is it him?

"Ok!"

"I always thought he...he...dead, but what I didn't expect was that he was still alive, and, moreover, has grown so much." Mu Yunlong said with emotion suddenly.

His twin dragon eyes also slowly turned ruddy at this moment.

Mu Shuiyao was full of excitement, looking at her father and asking, "Dad, where is Li Tian? Where is my nephew? How old is he? Is he tall? Does he look like his sister?"

Mu Yunlong said excitedly: "Like, very similar! Especially those eyes... exactly like your sister."

Hearing his father say this again, Mu Shuiyao almost jumped up.

Loved ones!

After all, it's the closest person.

"Dad, your grandson finally found...Your grandson finally found..." Mu Shuiyao suddenly exclaimed there.

Mu Yunlong's eyes are also slightly ruddy...

At this moment, they finally found the affection for more than 20 years.

On one side, Nini was carrying a small deer in her heart, jumping and jumping there...

She wished to see the son of the evil * now and see what kind of man he was...

Chapter 1028: Li Tian's suffering

Li Tian had anticipated this result long ago.

It was expected that his Grandpa would not recognize his identity, but after experiencing the pain personally, he realized that some pain was so painful.

Li Tian felt that he had done something wrong. He did not expect that after telling his grandfather his identity, he turned around and left! This made him feel both desperate and sad.

He now feels like a clown, a clown who goes to his family's hot * with a cold face.

Of course he wouldn't know the inner horror that Mu Yunlong endured... he didn't even know what Mu Yunlong really thought.

Li Tian, who stayed in the whole room, filled the whole room with hostility. He hated and hated everything.

Li Tian, who was staying in the room, suddenly heard the sound of the door being opened.

Then I saw several men in military uniforms coming in.

The man at the front gave a mighty aura of a tiger going down the mountain. Li Tian could feel the fierce aura exposed by him alone. This person is definitely not a simple character.

Who is he?

He is naturally not a simple character, he is the fierce man of the North China Field Army who won the total fighting championship for three consecutive times: Opteron!

The first guard of the commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army!

After this Opteron arrived here, he first took a close look at Li Tian in front of him.

Then he frowned suspiciously.

"Mr. Li... Commander-in-Chief invites you to come." A cold word came out of Zhao Long's mouth as he looked at Li Tian in front of him.

Li Tian was startled when he heard the white dragon say this, and said: his grandpa called himself? He finds himself? Did you recognize your identity?

While Li Tian was thinking in his heart, the White Dragon continued: "Mr. Li, if there is nothing wrong, you can leave."

After the cold words came out of his mouth again, he turned and walked outside.

Li Tian thought for a while, and then followed out.

Although he didn't know what his grandpa called himself this time, he still wanted to know whether his grandpa would recognize his identity.

As the Opteron in front walked towards the barracks where the commander-in-chief in front was staying, the Opteron in front seemed to have something to say, but he was enduring it.

After finally walking a few steps, Opteron suddenly turned his head to look at Li Tian in front of him: "Did we meet there?"

Li Tian frowned when he heard Hao Long say this suddenly.

"Have you seen me?" Li Tian had no impression of him, and wondered in his heart, how could I have met you?

"Familiar!" White Dragon spit out two words coldly.

Li Tian watched this weird guy say so, smiled, and didn't answer him.

Then Opteron turned and continued walking forward.

What is he thinking in his heart? Li Tian may not even know.

Yes, Li Tian's face really made that Opteron feel familiar.

Because there is a face that Haolong will never forget in his life, that is, more than 20 years ago, the man named Li Kuafu, in front of the commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army, personally won the North China Field Army's total combat for three consecutive times. The champion of the game, Opteron, was defeated.

Since then, Opteron has never participated in any fighting competition in the army.

He is just like a lonely champion, protecting him by his commander-in-chief all day.

At the moment when he saw Li Tian for the first time, Hao Long almost thought he had seen him... Li Kuafu, so he was shocked, so he said to Li Tian: Did we meet these words?

But Opteron just mentioned it right away, because he knew it was impossible. The Cthulhu had disappeared for so many years, more than 20 years...Although Li Tian was very similar to him, it was not him after all.

After bringing Li Tian to the barracks where the commander-in-chief was staying, Opteron said politely: "Mr. Li, please come inside!"

"The commander-in-chief is waiting for you inside."

When Li Tian heard what Hao Long said, he nodded, and after looking at the barracks in front of him, he stepped inside and walked in.

After Li Tian walked in with a complicated mentality, he found that it was empty inside.

Look carefully, but see Mu Yunlong sitting motionless in the front place.

His twin-long piercing eyes were looking at himself deeply... with profound meaning, Li Tian walked over after seeing Mu Yunlong.

Now his mentality is complicated, he doesn't know what to call him when facing Mu Yunlong.

He just walked over, then stood there, looking at him.

"You are here..." Mu Yunlong said softly.

Li Tian nodded.

"Sit down." Mu Yunlong pointed to the chair on one side and suddenly said.

Li Tian was not too polite, and sat down openly on the side, now his heart has slowly begun to become calm.

Regardless of whether the Mu Yunlong in front of him recognizes his identity, I believe Li Tian can accept it.

He now sat down in front of Mu Yunlong like a stranger.

After Li Tian sat down, the corners of Mu Yunlong's mouth moved as if he wanted to say something... but in the end he held back.

Their grandparents were just sitting there, looking at each other.

"You...how old are you...?" Mu Yunlong suddenly looked at Li Tian and asked.

"25!" Li Tiandao.

Mu Yunlong's eyes trembled, and he murmured: "Yes, it's 25..."

"For so many years...you...how are you doing?" Mu Yunlong said.

A bitter smile suddenly appeared at the corner of Li Tian's mouth, and then he said, "I'm having a good time."

Mu Yunlong was silent for a moment when Li Tian said that he was doing well.

Then slowly raised his head and looked at Li Tian: "My child, for so many years...where did you live? Who took care of you since childhood?"

Li Tian froze for a while, then resisted the emotion he was about to burst out, and said: "No one takes care of me."

"The only thing I have learned over the years is to take care of myself."

Listening to Li Tian's words, Mu Yunlong felt as if he had been stabbed by a needle, hurting.

Looking at Li Tiandao in front of him distressedly: "That...that...then you eat and dress...sick...are these things solved by yourself?"

Li Tian suddenly smiled, smiling sadly.

"I didn't know who my parents were since I was a child... I was left alone in the orphanage since I was a child... You said, if I didn't solve these things by myself... Who can I find?"

Suddenly hearing Li Tian's question, Mu Yunlong's heart shook.

He only now knows the suffering experienced by his own grandson, those sufferings he will never guess... Only one person who has experienced the feeling of loneliness and helplessness, may he understand deeply.

Chapter 1029: Recognize

Looking at his grandson in front of him, Mu Yunlong sighed deeply.

What about Li Tian? Is standing there straight, with a sense of daring that normal people cannot understand,

"Child...I..." Mu Yunlong looked at Li Tiandao in front of him with a slight tremor in his voice.

Li Tian suddenly felt the affection, after all, blood is thicker than water.

"Grandpa..."

Two words suddenly came out of Li Tian's mouth.

These two words are very stressful for Li Tian. He doesn't know if Mu Yunlong will admit it when he calls out the word grandpa again? He now only relied on his sixth sense and the desire to hug relatives in his heart that drove him to say this sentence.

A family sentence.

Mu Yunlong, the commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army, couldn't help trembling.

Then his eyes flushed.

"God... my good grandson."

He admitted.

He finally admitted the identity of his grandson.

With this shout, Mu Yunlong's tall and burly body suddenly hugged Li Tian tightly in his arms.

At this moment, it seems that he is no longer the commander-in-chief of the steel North China Field Army. He is now just an old man, an old man who saw his relatives.

And Li Tian also hugged his grandfather tightly, tears streaming in his eyes.

Li Tian, who had always thought he had no relatives, finally saw his relatives at this moment. How could he not be excited?

Hugging tightly, they finally recognized each other.

"My child, you have suffered for so many years." Mu Yunlong said with a sigh.

Li Tian shook his head.

"No, I am not suffering, I just miss my relatives." He said.

Mu Yunlong gently let go of his hand, and then sighed: "These years, I have been blamed... I have been blamed..."

"I thought you had been killed in that fire..." Mu Yunlong said.

Yes, Mu Yunlong did think that Li Tian was dead, but he did not expect that Li Tian was actually alive. This is the reason why Mu Yunlong is currently taking the blame.

Li Tian smiled.

Li Tian is naturally not very clear about the past that year. All he can hear are those ancient memories and the nightmare in his sleep. As for the rest, he really can't remember anything.

"It's good now, now it's finally good..."

"From today onwards, I, Mu Yunlong, will never make you suffer again and suffer the slightest grievance...As long as your grandpa and I are there, no one in the world dares to move you." Mu Yunlong said boldly.

Li Tian laughed.

He didn't care about his grandfather's status as the commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army, nor did he care about what he helped him. He only cared about this person, this relative.

After recognizing his identity, Commander Mu had never been so excited before, and his face was full of brows asking Li Tian's past.

What about Li Tian? He also told his grandfather all his experiences and everything about Liaocheng's life.

"Tian'er, have you found out your parents' enemies?" Mu Yunlong asked suddenly.

"I found it out." Li Tian's eyes showed a hostile spirit.

Mu Yunlong asked immediately: "Who is it?"

"A terrorist organization called Hellgate."

"This organization once besieged my father and my mother more than 20 years ago..." Li Tiandao.

Mu Yunlong was taken aback when listening to his grandson telling the  gate of the hate organization back then.

Why has he never heard of this  gate organization?

"Hell Gate"? "Mu Yunlong muttered puzzledly.

"There is a messenger behind this gate of hell, and everyone at the gate of  calls him his master. As for who he is? I don't know yet."

"Tian'er, who do you listen to these things?" Only Mu Yunlong asked.

"Listen to Duguxie, there are ghost servants." Li Tiandao.

After Li Tian said the names of Duguxie and the ghost servant, Mu Yunlong said with emotion:

"Oh, it turns out that it is them..."

"Grandpa, I want revenge, and I want those people who participated in the  hatred to exchange their lives one by one." Li Tian said in terror.

Mu Yunlong looked at Li Tian with blood-red eyes in his eyes, and his heart shook.

"it is good!"

"Since you want revenge, grandpa, I won't stop you."

"I have been looking for news about those thieves for so many years, but it's a pity... I don't know who they are until now." Mu Yunlong said.

Of course he also hates those wicked people who forced his daughter's family to ruin.

So now when the word revenge is mentioned, their grandfather and grandson can be said to be the same enemy.

While Mu Yunlong was chatting with Li Tianre, Mu Shuiyao and Nini walked in.

"Dad..." Mu Shuiyao shouted to Mu Yunlong after walking in.

But a pair of beautiful eyes stared at Li Tian...At the same time, she couldn't help but chuckle in her heart, "Father Li Kua..." The three characters almost came out of her mouth.

It was a pity that when she looked at Li Tian carefully again, she found that he was not the evil * in front of him because he was too young.

Li Tian also saw this beautiful Mu Shuiyao at this moment, and looked at Mu Shuiyao in surprise.

"Shui Yao, come here soon... come and see who this is?" Mu Yunlong said with a happily smile.

Mu Shuiyao had never seen his father so happy. To be honest, it was the first time today. At this moment, seeing his father hugging Li Tian affectionately in front of him, his heart could not help beating suddenly.

"He... could he be Tianer?"

"It's my sister's child?" Mu Shuiyao said incredulously.

Mu Yunlong smiled and nodded, "Yes."

"This is your nephew and my grandson."

Mu Shuiyao blinked a pair of beautiful eyes and looked at Li Tian in surprise, and Li Tian almost knew who the beautiful woman in front of him was...

If he guessed well, this is his aunt.

"Auntie." Li Tian said in a jerky voice.

After all, Li Tian still felt a little awkward when calling auntie to such a charming beauty.

What about Mu Shuiyao? Jiao Chu couldn't help shaking slightly when he heard Li Tian calling his aunt.

Then he ran over, and his tender body embraced Li Tian in front of him.

"Tian'er... really my sister's child..."

When such a gentle and beautiful body held Li Tian, all Li Tian smelled in her nose was her charming body fragrance, and her handsome face couldn't help but feel a little embarrassed.

And what about Nini on the other side?

On the other hand, Cherry's mouth was slightly open, looking at that Li Tian... He is the son of the evil god, and he is the man that I have always wanted to see in my heart?

Chapter 1030: Rumors

Nini was thinking like this in her heart. When she looked at Li Tian's handsome face, her little heart suddenly thumped, and even the whole pretty face instantly became hot and hot.

Recognized each other.

Li Tian finally recognized his pro-grandfather and his pro-aunt.

Since Mu Shuiyao saw Li Tian, she looked at Li Tian like a rare treasure.

She felt that besides the shadow of the evil god, Li Tian was more of her sister's temperament.

Especially those eyes are smart and attractive.

What about Li Tian? I also feel happy when there is such a beautiful auntie who looks like a fairy at this time.

"Unexpectedly, God still favors me, Mu Yunlong... finally reunited our family." Mu Yunlong suddenly said with emotion.

Mu Shuiyao on one side also nodded there.

"Yeah, I didn't expect to see Tian'er here."

"Tian'er, didn't you say you went to Jinghai City before? Know? Your grandfather once sent me to bring a lot of people to Jinghai City to find you... It's a pity that you have already left when we arrived." Mu Shui Yao Dao.

Li Tian thought for a while and said, "Oh, yes."

"I followed them to Yongzhou City."

"To Yongzhou? What are you going there for?" Mu Shuiyao asked.

"Find the enemy who harmed my parents." Li Tiandao.

Hearing what Li Tian said, Mu Shuiyao was silent for a while without speaking.

"No matter what, we are finally reunited now."

Mu Yunlong on one side said with a smile.

Reunion is beautiful and happy.

Li Tian had been talking to Mu Yunlong about his deeds almost all day, and Mu Yunlong, who was the grandfather, listened happily. He expressed emotion and distress for all Li Tian's experience.

He found that his grandson had gone through so many rugged frustrations when he came along.

And Mu Yunlong also told Li Tian about his mother's past.

Speaking of Mu Wanqiu, Mu Yunlong's eyes turned red slightly, and slowly took out the emerald green bracelet from his arms and handed it to Li Tian.

"Child, do you see it? This is your mother's favorite bracelet."

Li Tian looked at the emerald green jade bracelet, took it with mixed feelings in his heart, and held it in his hand.

"If Wanqiu is still alive and can still see how old you are, then how happy it would be." Mu Yunlong said with red eyes.

Li Tian also tightly held the jade bracelet in his hand, is he dead or alive to his mother? Maybe no one in the world knows it.

Maybe only the wicked at the gate of * know the truth.

The commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army recognized his grandson!

And that grandson was Li Tian, who saved the life of the 39th Army Commander two days ago.

This incident was undoubtedly dropped into the entire North China Field Army like a blockbuster.

From the commander, division commander, and political commissar of the North China Field Army, down to those company commanders, battalion commanders, and soldiers, all were wondering about this shocking matter.

No one knows what this happened. Why did their commander-in-chief suddenly have a grandson? But they saw the excited and happy expression on Commander Mu's face.

This incident undoubtedly caused a sensation in the entire North China Field Army.

"Oh my god, it turns out that that kid turned out to be the grandson of our commander-in-chief?"

"Yeah, I can't believe it."

"No wonder it was so powerful, no wonder it was able to rescue our brigade commander from such a dangerous place."

...

"Do you know why the commander-in-chief has an extra grandson?"

"I do not know."

"I tell you, it's because our commander-in-chief also has a daughter named Mu Wanqiu."

"Ah? Mu Wanqiu? Isn't it the woman who wandered around the world with the evil god?"

"Yes, although the commander-in-chief said that she would cut off justice and sever the relationship between father and daughter, but after all, his daughter is a daughter."

"Do you mean that this kid now is the son of the evil * who wanted to cover the sky with one hand and defeat the Opteron in the army?"

"Yes, it can't be wrong."

"He must be a descendant of Cthulhu."

...

All the soldiers in the army were discussing this matter.

At this moment, Brigadier Wang Zhen, who came from afar, just arrived here.

"What are you all doing?" Wang Zhen looked at the group of talking soldiers with cold expression.

The soldiers hurriedly closed their mouths one by one and stopped talking.

"Next time, don't let me see you guys talking nonsense here again... If you let me see again... it will be dealt with by military law." Wang Zhen said coldly.

The hot soldier who was still talking about it just now stood up and said, "Yes!"

Then Brigadier Wang Zhen didn't even look at them again, and walked directly to the front place quickly.

"Brigade Commander Wang, you must have heard about it... The kid who saved you turned out to be the grandson of our commander-in-chief." Political commissar Zhou ran over to Wang Zhen with excitement.

Wang Zhen said in his mouth, it seems that he had also heard about it.

"No wonder, no wonder the commander in chief affectionately changed so much after seeing that kid... It turned out that everything turned out to be like this." Political Commissar Zhou said with a smile.

"By the way, brigade commander Wang, the commander of the 55th division, and the commander of the 28th division have all gone to meet the commander-in-chief at this moment, are you going?" Political commissar Zhou looked at Wang Zhen.

Wang Zhen shook his head.

"I dont go!"

"I just want to get those gangsters back." He said.

After speaking, Wang Zhen stepped forward and walked forward. That week, the political commissar glanced at Wang Zhen, but didn't say anything, turned and walked to the other side.

Since Li Tian's identity was confirmed, now the entire North China Field Military Region no matter who is looking at him looks weird.

Because they all know that Li Tian in front of them is the biological grandson of their commander-in-chief.

For those soldiers looking at him with such strange eyes, to be honest, even Li Tian himself felt a strange feeling.

Li Tian is now placed in another barracks, just separated from the commander-in-chief's barracks, very close.

The guards outside are soldiers of the commander-in-chief's guard company.

Li Tian sat quietly in the room, holding his mother's favorite jade bracelet in his hand, thinking about his thoughts.

He missed his mother in his heart.

After thinking for a while, Li Tian stood up slowly and looked at the distant outside.

"Hey, how are my brothers? I wonder if Ningbing and the others are okay?" Li Tian suddenly worried about his brothers.
