

A Killer 1041

Chapter 1041: kill

After preparing the car for the commander-in-chief, Mu Yunlong took the guards around him and hurried towards Binjiang City.

There are three military Hummers in total, plus an off-road military vehicle.

Sitting in one of the Hummer military vehicles was the extremely ugly Mu Yunlong.

He is now worried about Li Tian.

Sitting next to him was his number one guard, Opteron, looking at the so worried Commander-in-Chief, he thought for a while: "Commander-in-Chief, don't worry about it, I believe he will be fine."

Hearing what Hao Long said, Mu Yunlong groaned.

"If something goes wrong in Tian'er... I want Wang Zhen, this kid, to give me food and go around." Mu Yunlong said.

"I think he should be sure of why he did this."

"Don't forget, Wang Zhen, the brigade commander of the 39th Army, was the one who rescued him back then." Gao Long said.

Hearing what Hao Long said, Mu Yunlong felt a little comfort in his heart.

But after all, in his eyes, Li Tian seemed to be a child forever.

"Besides, he is still the son of Cthulhu." White Dragon said finally.

When the word Cthulhu was mentioned, an ugly look suddenly appeared on Mu Yunlong's face.

And that Opteron also became eccentric affectionately.

"I hope Tian'er won't have any trouble..." Mu Yunlong sighed finally.

Along the way, four cars drove quickly towards Binjiang City. What is the situation in Binjiang City now? No one knows yet.

The hotel where Li Tian lives is called Yuelai Hotel.

It's not very big, it's not a star, at best it's a medium hotel.

The entire hotel has 8 floors, and Li Tian lives on the 6th floor, Room 602.

Li Tian is staying in this hotel now. To tell the truth, he doesn't know if he was discovered by the * gate.

He can only act on his own feelings.

Because only by him can he lure those people from the gate of * to show up, he knew in his heart that the people at the gate of * wanted him alone.

Time passed by, and it was noon in a blink of an eye, and Li Tian still stayed in his room.

Because there was no meal in the morning, Li Tian called the reception desk through the phone in the room at this time and ordered something to eat.

Li Tian, who was sitting in the room waiting for food, heard the knocking on the door of the room.

Li Tian didn't care, he thought it was the hotel staff who delivered the meal.

So I went to open the door.

When the door was opened, a cold suffocating poisonous sword suddenly pierced his throat.

Although the attack was too hasty and too overbearing.

But now Li Tian, who had already increased his strength to this level, could still avoid it.

Seeing this sword pierced his throat from the gap in the door, Li Tian's footsteps quickly retreated, then his right foot flew up and kicked the opponent's wrist... After being kicked by Li Tian on the wrist, that sword Suddenly the fragrance was off, and it pierced in the air with a whoosh!

Then the whole door rumbling was directly shattered by the fierce force.

A lightning-like black shadow suddenly attacked below him like a round ball.

Li Tian didn't need to look at it, he knew that this was the evil devil.

At the moment, the lower body technique flashed, and then the palms split downward, and the thick palm strength directly shook the devil's body backwards. ,

Faced with the vicious attack by Yu Juelun just now, Li Tian also avoided.

At the same time he avoided the past, suddenly the other two dark shadows also arrived in the room at the same time.

The ecstasy, the hag, the two devils who had just killed the attack, and Ouyang Longyan.

Li Tian looked at these four people and suddenly laughed.

"Here...the one that should have finally come."

But what about them at the gate of hell? One by one looked at Li Tian like prey.

"Smelly boy, can't you think that you can escape my evil spirit possession magic?" Suddenly, only the ghost woman took the lead.

Li Tian looked at this ugly old monster and snorted coldly, "Old monster, do you think your Yin Shao possession can really subdue me?"

"Even if you have escaped once, do you still want to escape a second time." The hag said with a murderous expression on her face suddenly.

A black mist suddenly appeared above her skinny old hand.

Li Tian knew that this old monster was going to use that evil spirit again, and he didn't dare to be careless at this moment.

"You really don't know how to live or die, don't you know that we are looking for you? How dare you come out?" The ecstasy over there suddenly looked at Li Tiandao.

Li Tian suddenly laughed.

"Is it?"

"What? Do you think you can leave here alive today?" Ecstasy said in a cold voice.

Unexpectedly, Li Tian smiled and said, "That's not necessarily!"

Hearing Li Tian said so confidently, the ecstasy made his face ugly questioned.

The little devil standing next to him in the front, holding a black toothed blade in his hand, looked at Li Tian with a pair of black eyeballs, and said fiercely, "Don't talk too much to this bastard. Cut off his head."

This devil seemed to hate Li Tian quite a bit. As he finished speaking, the whole short body suddenly stood up, and then the black toothed blade in his hand drew a deadly arc in the air, and a blow cut directly towards Li Tian's neck was cut off.

Li Tian looked at the devil who was in the air, snorted coldly in his mouth, pinched the tactics with his right hand, accumulated vigor, and the majestic vigor suddenly surged out of his body.

Swishing breaking through the air, pointed at the devil and shot.

Xuantian's fingers, which roared like a bullet, were really extremely powerful.

Every finger seems to penetrate the human body.

Although the devil was very cruel, but faced with Li Tian's Xuantian fingering, he was powerless, his body was inverted, and he forcibly returned the domineering one.

The devilish screams falling on the ground...

He was originally very small and could only fight Li Tian up close, but at this moment, he was forced by Li Tian's Xuantian * to be unable to get close to Li Tian's body. Therefore, his angry eyes seemed to be bleeding, crazy Shouting.

"Good fingering!" Even the hag had to praise her.

"Such fingering, my old lady has never seen it in her life." She grinned sullenly.

The devil on the other side, with blood-red eyes and trembling body, was holding the hag's hand: "Kill him...Kill him...I must cut off his head..." Weird and terrifying words It came out tremblingly from his mouth.

Chapter 1042: Fatal moment

The Xuantian * practiced by Li Tian is so profound.

This is the ancient martial arts on the heavenly book pill scroll, of course, it shocked the people at the gate of hell.

Even the ecstasy and Ouyang Longyan couldn't help being horrified when they saw Li Tian's Xuantian fingering. With such sharp and domineering fingerings, if they shoot themselves, I'm afraid they can't even escape. Go over.

What's more, what a powerful internal force is needed to use such a domineering force!

Could it be said that Li Tian is so young and already possesses such a domineering internal energy? It's incredible.

"I think let's solve this kid as soon as possible...so there are too many nights and dreams." Only listen to the Ecstasy said coldly.

Ouyang Longyan nodded indifferently.

Of course, the ghost woman will not refute, because she has already seen that the strength of Li Tian in front of her has completely exceeded their imagination. If Li Tian is not taken, they may have more and more behind. Is it troublesome?

Just when they were preparing to deal with Li Tian, Li Tian had already touched his body to transmit signals.

It was a signaling device that was as big as a walkie-talkie hanging from his waist.

After Li Tian touched the red button, the plainclothes soldiers of the 39th Army Division who were ambushing around the hotel immediately contacted the signal.

"action!"

With a roar, he rushed to the entire hotel.

And Wang Zhen, the brigade commander of the 39th Army Division, also saw the red signal sent by Li Tian, and almost jumped with excitement.

"Follow me!"

Following Wang Zhen's roar, the soldiers behind him who were hiding around the hotel immediately rushed out with him.

"You guard the front door for me, Captain Xu, you lead the team to guard the back door... and the underground parking lot. Keep them all guarded by me. Remember, no one is allowed to let me go, have you heard?"

After Wang Zhen arrived at the door of the hotel quickly, he ordered.

After the commander Xu, who was wearing camouflage uniform, received the command from the brigade commander, he said "Yes!" Then he led his men to the back door and the parking lot.

"Remember, don't let the gangster run away for me... If anyone lets the  run away this time, military law will deal with it!"

After Wang Zhen gave another order, he led a team of people and ran directly to the floor.

The waiters in the entire hotel were shocked and screaming. They didn't understand how so many soldiers would flood in at this moment... and they were still soldiers in the army.

What's the matter? What terrorist incident happened?

Having said that, just after Li Tian pressed the firing signal from his waist, the ecstasy saw his tiny movement.

"What are you doing?" The Evil Envoy suddenly stared at Li Tian coldly.

But seeing Li Tian smiled, he suddenly slowly took out the transmission signal from his waist.

When Li Tian took out the thing that sent the signal just now, the complexions of the twin old ghost, Ouyang Longyan, and Ecstasy suddenly changed.

"What is this?" The ecstasy in front of me pointed to Li Tian's hand and asked.

Li Tian smiled.

"This is a miniature transmitter. It's not a secret. Before you came here, the North China Field Army had already surrounded the entire building."

When I heard Li Tian say this all of a sudden, what about them at the gate of hell? There was an unbelievable look on his face.

"Smelly boy, are you deceiving us?" The hag woman suddenly roared.

Li Tian smiled faintly.

"Old monster, your people at the gate of * do a lot of evil, and have such a big hatred with me, how can I be so stupid to come out in person and be caught by you? Tell you the immortal, today I will catch you all. "

Listening to Li Tian's words, the ghost woman couldn't help the anger in her heart anymore. With a weird scream, she suddenly grabbed her two skinny claws towards Li Tian.

There was a strange black air current hidden in the claws, and there seemed to be a skeleton faintly grabbing toward him.

Li Tian took a step back, then bent his bow, bent his hand, and directly pushed his right hand forward. One of Rashomon's nine moves came out of his hand.

After resisting the ferocious move of the hag, the devil next to him moved.

This time he was still accompanied by the screams in his mouth, and his short body rolled from the ground to attack Li Tian's bottom plate. ,

Li Tian stepped back, not dare to take this trick.

The right palm accumulates palm strength, and slaps a palm to the ground. The devil quickly bounced... avoiding his palm.

And the ecstasy from the left and the right and Ouyang Longyan also attacked him at the same time.

The combined blow of the four masters.

How mighty, how domineering.

These four people are undoubtedly the best players in the world. If their combined blow really hit Li Tian, then Li Tian must be dead.

Seeing that Ouyang Longyan had two Ecstasy, one with a fierce and domineering palm, the other with a light and deadly sword, one left and one right when he stabbed at the deadly part of his body.

But what should Li Tian do?

Suddenly at this critical juncture, he raised his left hand upwards, like a sword rushing, a weird sword move unexpectedly came out of his hand, and his arm suddenly picked up to block the sword move of Ouyang Longyan.

Hand slave sword?

And the sword move seems to have the mood of the sword move of the Duguxie evil sword, but it is a bit different!

It turned out that Li Tian was at this critical juncture, unable to avoid the attack of Ouyang Longyan's fatal sword move. He could only bite the bullet and use the sword move that Duguxie taught him that day... It's a pity that his hand There is no sword, so he uses his hand as a sword, and Li Tian didn't fully learn the Duguxie's sword tricks that day. He could only memorize a few tricks scattered in his mind, so at the moment there are only nondescript tricks. Came out

But it was precisely this weird sword trick with the hand slave sword that made Na Ouyang Longyan startled.

He has used swords for so many years, and has never seen a person who does not have a sword in his hand, but still uses a sword to move...

At this moment, he was taken aback, the soft sword in his hand shook in the air, and then he rubbed Li Tian's arm into the air, almost piercing Li Tian's arm with a sword.

At the same moment, the strong palm strength of the Ecstasy hit Li Tian's ribs fiercely.

Li Tian's right hand directly accumulates palm strength, and in the middle of the air, a palm aligns with the palm of the ecstasy.

Chapter 1043: Be surrounded

Bang!

The violent collision of Zhang Jin and Zhang Jin seemed to tear the air in the entire space.

Then I saw two figures retreating at the same time!

Li Tian still has that ecstasy.

The two of them stepped back a few steps each before squeezing their steps.

The ecstasy was standing there with an extremely ugly face, a right hand trembled slightly behind his back, but the whole person stood motionless.

What about Li Tian? But he also stood there with a cold complexion, colliding with that ecstasy, which directly caused blood in his chest. If it were not for Li Tianqiang to endure the blood in his mouth, I am afraid he would have a mouth at this moment. Your blood will flow out.

Just now he connected the two masters and attacked at the same time. Fortunately, he used the sword tricks that the Dugu cult gave him. Fortunately, he lost his life, but undoubtedly he had the internal organs shaken by the heavy palm of the ecstasy. Some minor injuries.

Such a situation completely stunned the people in the gate of hell.

How can this kid be able to progress so fast in just a few months?

Where did he learn his inner strength and his kung fu?

Even if he has Duguxie and ghost servants around him, and three peerless characters like Baihua Fairy who teach him kungfu, it is impossible to be so powerful...what is going on?

At this moment, the ecstasy, Ouyang Longyan, and the twin old ghost over there were completely surprised.

"kill him!"

"If you don't kill him again, I'm afraid we will be too late." The hag could already hear the sound of sprinting from the corridor.

She knew in her heart that the soldiers of the North China Field Army were about to come.

Following her roar, the whole person rushed towards Li Tian again, the black aura in his hands grabbed Li Tian with a scream.

Li Tian flickered in a staggered step and kicked the ghost woman.

Granny Ghost grabbed her left hand and suddenly grabbed Li Tian's ankle, and cut her left hand directly to Li Tian's leg.

Li Tian didn't dare to be careless, her feet shrank suddenly, and then slapped a palm. In order not to take this palm, the ghost woman could only avoid the hand holding Li Tian's ankle.

And then the devils and ecstasy also let go of their identities, and simultaneously besieged Li Tian.

Facing the combined attack of the four masters, Li Tian knew in his heart that he could not be their opponent, and at this moment he had to escape.

With such an idea born in his mind, I saw his luck suddenly spread all over his body, and the dark breath behind him suddenly expanded like a raging black mist...

Then Li Tian roared in his mouth, and both palms shot out at the same moment.

The clutches are now, the world changes!

When Li Tian used his full strength to fight the horrible clutches, the dark and demonic ability to swallow directly made the four masters in the  gate feel that Li Tian seemed to have a protective barrier around his body, making them almost Unable to attack.

Just in this gap, Li Tian suddenly jumped forward...When the four masters had no time to attack him, he suddenly jumped out of the encirclement and fled directly outside.

That Ouyang Longyan, the twin old ghosts and the ecstasy were able to escape when they saw that Li Tian was attacked in front of the four of them, and their anger soared.

Turning around suddenly, he chased after Li Tian.

It's a pity that just as they chased them out, the sound of gunfire shot at them all at once.

"Be careful!"

After hearing the ecstasy scream, the four people who had just chased out of the room were forced back into the room again.

And what about the corridor here? However, a dozen soldiers with automatic rifles in their hands slowly leaned toward the room.

Where is Li Tian? Standing behind them, his mouth gasped lightly...

"Report to the brigade commander, report to the brigade commander... the gangster is now trapped in the room by us." Only the soldier in the front with the Type 99 automatic rifle in his hand was talking.

From there came the voice of the 39th Army Brigade Commander: "How about Li Tian? How is he? Is he injured?"

"Report to the brigade commander that Li Tian is intact and unharmed!"

After hearing that Li Tian was safe there, Wang Zhen finally let out a sigh of relief.

"Okay, great!"

"Hurry up and * him down... Don't let him intervene in this matter anymore... Give it to me, I'll come right away, remember, be careful, this time you must not let those gangsters escape for me. ...Heard clearly." Wang Zhen over there said almost in a roaring voice.

After Wang Zhen finished speaking, the soldier here said: Yes!

Then he turned his head and suddenly said to Li Tiandao: "Mr. Li, the brigade commander ordered me to take someone to * you down."

"what?"

"Let me go down?" Li Tianyi became unhappy at the moment.

"No! I can't go down. You don't know the people at the gate of hell... If I am not here, more people will definitely die here." Li Tian understood the power of the gate of hell, although these North China field troops The soldiers are not vegetarians, but this kind of close contest is not a battlefield, so the soldiers may not be able to win.

The soldier knew that he could no longer persuade Li Tian, so he suddenly waved to his hand: "Mr. Li, I'm sorry, you two will take Mr. Li down."

The two soldiers behind then received the order: "Yes!"

So he immediately stopped Li Tian in front of him, and Li Tian was taken aback. He who originally wanted to make a move, think about it and forget it.

After all, the entire building is now surrounded by soldiers from the North China Field Army. The people at the gate of * may not be able to fly out even if they put their wings on, so they agreed and were taken down by the two soldiers. .

In the messy room, but seeing Ouyang Longyan, the ecstasy, and the twin old ghosts standing there with pale faces, their bodies tightly pressed against the wall, and their mouths couldn't help but breathe nervously.

"What to do?" Suddenly, the Ecstasy asked coldly.

His previously vicious and sharp eyes became a little flustered at this moment, said the hag who was watching over there.

But seeing the ghost mother-in-law's face was also pale, her twin old ghost killed countless people in her life, but she had never encountered a situation like today's encirclement, and she was surrounded by the entire army with guns.

She is not a god, nor a demon, so no matter how powerful she is, she can only regret it.

She did not directly answer the Ecstasy's words, but hurriedly went to the side window and took a look...

When she just turned her head and was about to look out the window, with a bang, the bullet from the sniper rifle shot towards the window.

The hag woman dodged in a thrilling body.

Chapter 1044: Moment of death

Sniper!

A sniper was placed outside the window.

For a moment, the ghost woman stepped into a gray body and leaned against the wall. Her face was already extremely ugly when she was almost shot by a sniper just now.

It seems that the people of the North China Field Army are really moving this time!

Not only was it all surrounded inside and out, but there were also elite snipers in the army lying around.

Now, let's not say that a person can escape the hotel in front of him, I am afraid it is extremely difficult for a fly to fly out.

"We seem to be completely surrounded today." The ghost woman said with a strange smile on her suddenly pale face.

Although Ouyang Longyan and Ecstasy didn't speak in front of them, they also showed a desperate look on their faces.

Only the devil has blood red eyes, as if unwilling!

He kept screaming.

"Are we going to die here?" Ecstasy asked coldly.

The hag woman did not speak, but with a sorrowful smile at the corner of her mouth, her whole body pressed against the wall in front of her.

"No... I will never die here!"

"Never!" Guizi Li Xiao said.

Just as he said it out, his whole short body suddenly rushed out like crazy.

"Devil!"

The ghost mother who screamed still wanted to catch the devil, but it was too late, because the devil's speed was too fast. When she called out, the devil's figure had already flown out.

Then I heard the sound of machine guns.

"Be careful....."

"Everyone, be careful!"

In the messy corridor with gunfire, the small figure of the devil crawled on the wall like a gecko and rushed towards a dozen soldiers here at speed like lightning.

what

A * scream came out of the mouth of a soldier first.

Then he saw that his neck had been directly smeared by the tooth blade in the devil's hand.

After killing one soldier like a ghost, the devil went straight to kill the second one.

But when his short body had just risen into the air, he heard the sound of bullets hitting him.

Puff puff!

The sound of his bullet piercing through his body came out of his body...

Then I saw the devil's body suddenly fell from mid-air, and fell into the cold corridor passage with a plop.

Look carefully, but see the scarlet blood on the corners of the devil's mouth, and the cruel blood red in those dark eyes... His face is twisted and ferocious with unwilling anger... But what about his body? Having been shot through by a bullet, one of his small hands stretched out, as if trying to catch something, but in the end it fell down.

died!

The devils were beaten to death by random guns.

As soon as the devil was killed, the sword made a heart-piercing scream from the ghost woman's mouth... the sound was like a weird howl from hell.

Making all the soldiers in the corridor sound not only creepy.

Is it a man or a ghost?

In the room, blood was dripping from the eyes of the hag.

Those scarlet eyes looked terrifying and scary.

Twin old ghosts are dependent on life and death.

Now one of the little ghosts is dead...what about the old ghost's hag?

Her hands were already oozing blood on the wall in front of her, with a terrible killing intent on her face, as if to dig out the hearts of all the soldiers outside.

A miserable and terrible cry came from her mouth.

The dozen or so soldiers standing in the corridor did not dare to act rashly. They were waiting, waiting for the arrival of their brigade commander.

After about a minute or so, I suddenly heard messy and noisy footsteps in the corridor behind.

"How is it?" You can hear the voice of Wang Zhen, commander of the 39th Army Brigade.

He turned his head to look, but saw Wang Zhen personally in uniform, and more than 20 soldiers in full uniforms rushed over behind him.

"Report to the brigade commander that one of the gangsters has been killed by us, and the other gangsters are now trapped in the room." Only one of the soldiers said.

With a gun in his hand, Wang Zhen strode forward, saying, "Where is the corpse?"

"Just ahead," said the soldier under him.

When Wang Zhen walked over and saw that the devil's body was actually the size of a child, he was stunned for an instant...

Secretly: How could it be a child?

Just as he was thinking like this in his heart, he suddenly saw that the devil's child-like corpse, after dying, suddenly began to metamorphose...Then the original white and tender little hand became like a 5060-year-old man. Dry and old. And even that baby face was instantly filled with wrinkles...

Gosh!

Facing such a panic, Wang Zhen almost stunned.

"How is it?" he asked in surprise.

The soldiers under his command looked at the aging corpse and shook their heads depressed.

It turned out that after the devil died, his body, which had belonged to the devil since childhood, began to get rid of...The original child-like face returned to what he should have, so this situation occurred.

Looking at the weird corpse in front of him, Wang Zhen snorted: "It seems that the people in the gate of * are all monsters!"

"Take this corpse to me first... the rest will come with me." Wang Zhen roared with a gun in his hand.

Dozens of soldiers with guns in their hands followed behind the brigade commander and slowly walked towards the room where they were hiding.

After Wang Zhen and the others came over, he did not order a direct attack. Instead, he stood there and said loudly, "The people inside, let me listen... You have been surrounded by us... and this hotel is inside and outside. The outside are all within our surveillance range... Our snipers are also lying there, if you want to survive, just get out of the way... If you want to die, just continue to stay with me over there."

When Wang Zhen's cold words spread into the room, the ecstatic envoy glanced at Ouyang Longyan on one side.

Ouyang Longyan's face was pale, his body was pressed against the wall, he didn't speak or make any expressions.

As for the ghost mother over there, there is hatred in her eyes, with endless hate. Her * eyes look scary...Two zombie-like hands are tightly grasped On the wall, weird words whispered in my mouth, as if the ghost had died just now, and the hag's nerves had been severely hit.

Chapter 1045: blood

Surrounded!

In the narrow and long passage, a dozen black and cold Type 99 automatic rifles were facing there at the moment.

No matter how powerful a master is, I am afraid it will be difficult to withstand the oncoming dozen guns! Moreover, this corridor is still so narrow.

Wang Zhen took the lead and stood in front, holding a pistol in his hand.

There was no movement in the call just now.

A guard behind Wang Zhen said to Wang Zhendao at this moment: "Brigadier Commander, don't talk nonsense with those bastards, let's just rush in and kill them and avenge our dead brother."

Wang Zhen took a look at the form in front of him, and did not rush in directly. Instead, he held his throat again and said, "Has the people inside heard it?"

"Do you really want to fight to the death?"

Cold words spread into the room, but the door of * in the room still has no answer.

At this moment, Wang was angry.

"Smoke bombs, start preparing them for me!" Wang Zhen ordered.

The next two soldiers immediately took out the smoke bombs on their bodies, and then they began to put on protective masks one by one.

"Flush!"

Following Wang Zhen's order, it seemed that he really couldn't wait.

Then the two soldiers in the front with smoke bombs in their hands immediately threw the guy in their hands in.

With a flutter.

With a loud noise, but seeing Ouyang Longyan in the room where they were, white smoke suddenly evaporated.

The strong smoke instantly filled the whole house.

"Smoke bomb!" Ouyang Longyan inside and the ecstasy made them not only show horror on their faces when they saw the smoke bomb.

Although they are all first-class masters, facing the dense smoke bomb at this moment, they can only quickly cover their noses.

As the white smoke became stronger and stronger, gradually the whole room became unclear about anyone.

"Ready to... rush for me!" Wang Zhen in the corridor outside immediately gave the order. The soldiers behind him wearing protective masks began to move steadily towards the door.

Although they are covered by smoke bombs, they are still cautious.

Just after arriving at the door, suddenly I saw a figure rushing over.

Shenfa is as fast as a ghost.

She is exactly the deadly hag.

It turns out that the twin old ghosts depend on life and death. After that ghost was killed by a bullet, this hag was already in a state of madness...Her eyes were dripping with scarlet blood, and the whole person looked like running in hell. The evil spirits that come out are terrifying and scary.

"I want you all to go to hell."

A scream came from the mouth of the first soldier in an instant.

Although covered by smoke bombs, although he saw the hag with the ultraviolet rays of the protective mask, he still did not have time to pull the trigger in his hand.

No way, the speed of the hag was too fast, and his body was too fast to react.

A scream came out of his mouth, but he saw that his chest was dug into the whole chest by the hag's claws.

"Shooting." Wang Zhen roared after seeing the tragic death of his men.

The pistol in his hand was raised first, and shot at the figure of the hag.

But even though the ghost mother-in-law is in such a narrow passage, she still comes and goes like a fish.

Several bullets grazed her body and shot past.

The ghost woman screamed and suddenly her five fingers were like electricity, and once again she grabbed one of the soldiers' faces with a claw, but when she saw the soldier's scream, the whole face was bloody... Death is extremely ugly.

"Kill her, kill her for me."

For so many years, Wang Zhen killed the battlefield, and he had never seen any formation in the war, but it was the first time he saw such a cruel and powerful character like today, and he was roaring there now.

The rear row of automatic rifles all fired.

The bullets shot towards the hag's figure.

No matter how powerful the ghost mother is, no matter how weird her body is, she can't resist the indestructible bullet. After all, she is also a flesh and blood.

The puff puff bullet finally hit her after the hag dodged for a few times, and a weird scream came from her mouth... and then the ugly body thumped and fell to the cold floor. Above, a large pool of scarlet blood flowed out of her.

The bullet stopped.

White smoke is still blowing in that room.

On the other side of the corridor, Wang Zhen led his subordinates and slowly moved towards the dead ghost woman who fell on the ground.

After they moved to the corpse of the hag, Wang Zhen waved his hand and motioned to the two soldiers beside him to carry the corpse of the hag to the back.

The two soldiers nodded quickly, and then they were about to drag the corpse of the hag.

Just when the two of them were about to bend over to drag the corpse of the hag, suddenly a bad cry came out.

"I want you to die..." A terrifying and careful voice suddenly came from the hag woman's mouth lying on the ground, and then her motionless corpse suddenly got up, and then two lifelike hands It was steel claws that pierced into the bodies of the two soldiers.

what

A scream came from the mouths of the two soldiers.

Their pupils were astonished, with a face full of disbelief, looking at the two hands that were * inserted into their bodies...dead.

"You bastard!"

Bang bang bang

The sound of the bullet sounded from Wang Zhen's hand, and then he saw Wang Zhen as if he was crazy, raising the pistol in his hand and hitting the hag's body one by one, the bullet penetrated There was a whistling sound in her body.

Bang, click, click!

Until Wang Zhen finished firing the bullet in his hand, he seemed unwilling to do so, still pulling the cold trigger there.

And what about the hag? This time, all the bullet holes on his body were  and he was even shot in the head.

Her body finally fell down in anger, and her blood-filled eyes were still filled with anger, but this time she couldn't get up anymore, she was dead...

The soldiers behind them were all taken aback when they saw such a situation.

They looked at the brigade commander who was angry next to him, then at the ugly and ugly body of the hag, and finally hurriedly carried the corpses of the two dead brothers over, and then two soldiers grabbed the hag. The body was dragged to the back. ,

The  corridor is full of slimy blood...

Chapter 1046: surrender

Just when the killings were going on here and the blood was splashing.

Across the building on the opposite side, three men in black are observing everything here with binoculars in their hands, and their gazes see everything.

The telescopes with high mirror multiples passed through the glass windows in the corridor to see the situation here.

Who are the three of them?

How could you observe under such circumstances?

These three people are the figures of the black gate in the gate of hell.

Long Yin, and the two monster twins around him.

"Unexpected...Unexpectedly, after the mantis catches the cicada and the oriole, the kid surnamed Li still has such a hand." Long Yin said grimly in that mouth.

The two monster twins behind him couldn't help asking in unison at this moment: "Then what should we do now?"

"Don't save them?"

"Save?" Suddenly a weird smile appeared on the corner of Long Yin's mouth.

"Fools like their Mingmen, it's better to die, save it and I have to do it myself!" Long Yin suddenly sneered.

"trouble."

The two twins standing behind Long Yin asked now, "What about the son of which evil god?"

"Just let him go like this?"

But listening to Long Yin slowly put down the telescope with a high focal multiple in his hand, and then said: "Let him live a few more days."

"I feel more and more that the evil god's son means." Long Yin suddenly said with a playful smile on his mouth.

"Have you seen that kid's strength is absolutely extraordinary, even the twin old ghost, the ecstasy and the kid with scars on his face can't besiege him..."

"I really didn't expect the evil  to dominate the situation more than 20 years ago, and his son would be so outstanding after more than 20 years." Long Yin muttered.

"No matter how powerful he is, he can't escape the palm of our master." The two twin monsters behind him said.

"Hehe, that is."

"Everyone who offends our master will die!"

The strange words came out of Long Yin's mouth.

"Boss Long, should we do something to Mu Yunlong?" The two weird twins suddenly spoke at the same time.

Do it to Mu Yunlong? The commander-in-chief of the North China Military Region? ?

Could it be that they are crazy and dare to attack the commander-in-chief of the North China Military Region?

Just after the two weird twins said these words, they heard that Long Yin suddenly said: "It's time."

Then he said nothing, his body was nowhere to be seen in a flash, and the two weird twins behind him also left at this time.

Gosh!

Are the people at the gate of  really going to attack Mu Yunlong, commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army?

Are you crazy? What are you doing?

No one knows what the people in these three black gates are going to do? But a terrifying killing was slowly unfolding.

Ouyang Longyan where are they here?

Just after the hag was shot to death by random guns, he and the ecstasy had nowhere to hide in that room.

The two of them were completely covered by smoke bombs. Even though they had extremely powerful skills, they couldn't do anything at this moment.

"Don't shoot... we surrender!"

Suddenly, a deep and unpleasant hoarse voice came from the room.

While talking about the unbearable coughing sound, it was obvious that the Ecstasy and Ouyang Longyan couldn't stand the smoke bombs here, and could only surrender at this moment.

When they heard that the gate of * inside finally surrendered, the soldiers of the North China Field Army outside said angrily: "Brigade commander, kill them all and avenge the dead brothers!

"Yeah, brigade commander, killed them."

The soldiers around him roared.

These soldiers, Ouyang Longyan at this moment, can be said to be extremely hated, killing so many soldiers from the 39th Army of the North China Field Army... Only now surrendered? How can they be blessed?

But Wang Zhenhao calmed down.

It is not his style to kill captives and those who surrender.

Even if he wants to kill the enemy in front of him with his own hands, don't forget that he is a soldier, a soldier of flesh and blood with dignity.

So this rationality finally defeated him.

"Shut up all to me!"

"No one is allowed to shoot without my order...Don't forget, you are soldiers...the most important soldiers in the country."

Listening to the brigade commander's roar, these soldiers bowed their heads one by one, with a look of shame on their faces.

"Let me listen to the gangster inside... You are only allowed to give it out quickly within 1 minute... Otherwise, we will kill him!" Wang Zhenxue said with red eyes and a gun in that hand.

There was the sound of ecstasy making cough cough cough cough...

"Ok... let's come out."

Then in the thick smoke, the two figures slowly moved out.

Those two figures bent over, covering their noses and mouths with their hands...

After seeing the two black figures slowly approaching the door, a dozen automatic rifles all pointed at them...

"Don't shoot... we surrender," just heard the voice from one of the figures.

From the hoarse and low voice, he could be judged to be the ecstasy.

When their two figures finally appeared in the corridor, Wang Zhen saw their faces at a glance.

"Buckle me..." Just listen to Wang Zhendao.

Then the soldiers behind him walked towards the ecstasy and the indifferent Ouyang Longyan without saying a word, and the cold clasps were snapped on their arms.

Ecstasy and Ouyang Longyan were caught just like this.

Their faces were pale and powerless, stimulated by the smoke bombs, and their eyes were filled with helplessness...the moment they were buckled with the cold hands, they had no words.

Wang Zhen walked over and swept across the faces of the two of them with hatred eyes.

"You are the people of the gate of hell?" Wang Zhen looked at Ouyang Longyan and the Ecstasy and asked coldly.

The two of them had no words, no words.

After taking a look at Ouyang Longyan, Wang Zhen then cast his gaze on the face of the Ecstasy.

He wears a black mask on his face, only the exposed pair of eyes are vicious and sharp.

Suddenly, Wang Zhen stretched out his hand to pull the black mask on the face of the ecstasy, but when he saw the ecstasy roared in his mouth, his whole body exuded a terrible murderous aura. The clasps that clasp his hands tightly were squeaked by him. ring.

"Don't move... I'll shoot you again." The cold guns of the soldiers beside them said to the head of the ecstasy.

No matter how powerful the Ecstasy was, he couldn't point his head with a bullet, and he was powerless even if he wanted to move.

Chapter 1047: The commander-in-chief is here

The cold black gun hole pointed at the ecstasy in front of him.

The ecstasy, no matter how awesome, is afraid of the bullets in front of him, so he can only do nothing,

At this moment, Wang Zhen stretched out his hand and tore off the black mask on his face.

At the moment when the black mask was removed, the soldiers here thought he was so fierce and evil, but no one thought he was such a jade-faced boy? Looks so handsome.

This not only made the soldiers of the North China Field Military Region stunned, even Brigadier Wang Zhen was also slightly stunned.

After seeing the real face of the ecstasy, Wang Zhen coldly snorted, "Bring them down for me."

Following Wang Zhen's roar, the soldier under his hand neatly took the Ecstasy and Ouyang Longyan in front of him.

"Brigade commander, I just received an urgent call. It seems that the commander-in-chief knows about it and is now on his way to Binjiang City!" Only one of the soldiers who came running quickly said to Wang Zhendao.

When Wang Zhen suddenly heard that the commander-in-chief was about to come, his expression changed.

"What? The commander-in-chief is here?" Wang Zhen said.

"Yes." The soldier said there.

When Wang Zhen heard this, he thought he would be scared, but he didn't expect her to laugh.

"Okay! The commander-in-chief is here..."

"I, Wang Zhen, finally did not disappoint the commander-in-chief... Now I have arrested all the gangsters." Wang Zhen said with satisfaction.

The soldiers under his command did not speak too much.

"By the way, where's Li Tian? Where is he now?" Wang Zhen asked.

"Li Tian is outside the hotel."

"Let's go, let's find him... This time thanks to him for taking the risk, if it weren't for him, I am afraid we would not be able to catch these gangsters so quickly." Wang Zhen said sincerely.

The soldiers under him also nodded quickly.

As Wang Zhen brought all his men down to the building in front of him, he saw Li Tian standing in the army there.

At this moment, Li Tianzheng raised his eyes and stared at the captured Ecstasy and Ouyang Longyan without blinking.

He glanced at the indifferent Ouyang Longyan first, and finally turned his gaze on the Ecstasy.

Li Tian didn't know why. When he saw the true face of the Ecstasy Lushan, he was taken aback for a while, and then from the Ecstasy, he suddenly felt that the handsome face of the Ecstasy was very similar...very... she was?

Your favorite Ningbing?

how could it be possible?

Especially the outline... it looks a bit like Ningbing.

It's as if Ningbing and the ecstasy of this  gate are brothers and sisters.

And when the ecstasy at this moment and Ouyang Longyan also saw Li Tian, their eyes were not hate, but indifferent.

Then they were all taken away by the North China Field Army, and they got onto the Hummer on one side.

"Li Tian."

Li Tian who was here suddenly heard the voice of Brigadier Wang Zhen,

Look carefully, but see Wang Zhen running towards Li Tian with a smile on his face.

Seeing Wang Zhen coming over, Li Tian smiled: "Brigadier Wang."

"Li Tian, thanks to you this time, if it weren't for you, Wang Zhen really didn't know how to deal with these villains." Wang Zhen sincerely thanked Li Tian.

But seeing Li Tian shook his head slightly.

"No, Brigadier Wang, I actually did this for myself."

"Because they also have a lot of hatred with me, besides, I really want to get some clues about the gates of  from them."

Listening to Li Tian's words, Wang Zhen laughed.

"Anyway, Wang Zhen not only owes you a life, but also owes you such a big favor..."

"No matter what happens in the future, as long as you have something to do, you can give me a word to Wang Zhen at any time, and Wang Zhen will not hesitate to go through fire and water."

Li Tian smiled slightly when Wang Zhen said so generously.

"By the way, Li Tian, the commander-in-chief is coming over soon." Wang Zhen said suddenly.

When Wang Zhen suddenly said that the commander-in-chief was coming over, Li Tian was not only taken aback.

"My grandpa?"

"Does he know our business?" Li Tian asked suspiciously.

Then Wang Zhen thought for a while and said, "It should be known."

Li Tian hesitated and said, "Then you should be fine, right?"

Wang Zhen smiled and said: "It's affirmative to be scolded by the commander-in-chief...hehe, but I believe the commander-in-chief will not punish me."

Li Tiandao: "Yes, after all, you have captured these characters."

Just as Brigadier Wang Zhen captured Ouyang Longyan and the Ecstasy, three Hummer military vehicles and an off-road vehicle rushed towards Binjiang City.

The car in the middle was where the commander-in-chief Mu Yunlong was sitting.

At this moment, his face was extremely ugly. He didn't know Li Tian and Wang Zhen's situation here, so he was worried and worried that Li Tian was in danger.

"Report to the commander, the 39th Army just sent a message." I heard that a guard in the Hummer vehicle suddenly received an order and said to Mu Yunlong.

Mu Yunlong said coldly, "Say, what information?"

"Report commander, Wang Zhen, commander of the 39th Army, called. He stated in the report that he had successfully arrested the gangster and that Li Tian was safe."

After listening to the guard at hand, after reading the news, Mu Yunlong in front of him finally let out a sigh of relief.

"Wang Zhen, this kid..." Although Mu Yunlong said angrily, there was a smile on his face.

"Commander in chief... now you don't have to worry anymore." The first guard by his side, Opteron, suddenly said.

Mu Yunlong smiled.

"Ok!"

"As long as Tian'er is okay, I can rest assured..."

"But Wang Zhen, this kid just owes scolding...If I don't scold him, he might be able to poke me out of a big basket." Mu Yunlong laughed loudly while talking.

Just as they were talking, a heavy truck loaded with gasoline drove over here.

The heavy-duty truck is a tank truck, Dongfeng Tiger T200z, with a total weight of 50,100 tons, and it is heading here at this moment.

The back of the canned heavy truck is a round oil tank, which looks like it is loaded with a large box of diesel. The tall truck has dark glass windows on the front of the truck, and it rushes toward the road side like a cut tiger. .

When I saw this truck loaded with diesel coming toward this side, the three Hummer military vehicles of the North China Field Army and the off-road military vehicle at the front did not pay much attention.

Chapter 1048: explosion

They all thought it was an insignificant heavy-duty diesel truck, so they didn't pay much attention.

But if you look carefully at the front of the truck, you can clearly see that the truck's seats are actually empty!

Is there no one driving?

How can the car move without anyone driving?

A closer look revealed that there was a sticky blood stain on the truck's windshield.

Yes, it is scarlet blood.

Then you can see a motionless corpse lying in the driver's seat of the truck... The corpse is a middle-aged man in his 40s, wearing a normal blue overalls. At this moment, his throat has been cut by a sharp blade. The blood spurted from the throat tube was dry and stuck together. Obviously, he was dead for a while, and he was lying on the steering wheel in a nest-like position.

And his hands are still holding the steering wheel...

Can the dead drive? Isn't this a joke!

No, it is not a joke today, because although the stance in front of him is dead, he is indeed driving. His two hands are tightly tied to the steering wheel by ropes, and then they are used to control the steering of the steering wheel.

And one foot was supported by an iron stick, which pressed the front accelerator.

Because this section of the road is an expressway, the lowest speed is 60kmh, so when the heavy-duty truck driven by the "dead man" was driving from the opposite side at a very fast speed, the North China Military Region's The vehicle did not pay too much attention.

Moreover, because it is not on a unified lane, the three Hummer military vehicles of the North China Field Army and the front off-road vehicle did not look at the heavy-duty truck too much.

But no one thought that a time bomb was installed on the fuel tank of the heavy-duty truck in the left lane.

This time bomb is obviously made by hand, it is not so professional. It is equipped with a mixture of sulfur, saltpeter, and charcoal. The explosive force cannot hurt people, but the power of this bomb is enough to explode the container oil tank in front of you. Open.

The oil tank was full of diesel. If you encounter a bomb, the power of the explosion might be unimaginable.

At this moment, I saw that the time bomb on the oil tank was walking accurately, Didi, Didi, Didi!

The sound of death seemed to follow this didi, the sound of didi getting closer and closer.

Just when he was approaching the North China Field Military Region convoy, the soldier driving the off-road military vehicle in front of him stepped his head and glanced at the truck. He glanced at it as if he saw that the truck was unmanned... ..

Then he thought that his eyes were dazzled, so he rubbed his eyes and looked again. This look made him stunned.

"No one is driving?"

"The truck in front is unmanned?"

Unbelievable words came out of his mouth.

The three Hummer military vehicles behind have not noticed the situation here.

Of course, Mu Yunlong, who was sitting in the Hummer in the middle, did not know that a terrorist attack was slowly unfolding.

At the same moment... the heavy truck loaded with diesel was already driving with them at the same time...

Then the time bomb behind the oil tank, drip

There was a harsh noise.

boom

There was an explosion.

It came from the sound of a time bomb behind the truck... Then the moment the time bomb exploded the oil tanker, there was another loud bang, and the flames soaring up into the sky like a fire dragon. stand up.

The strong energy that burst out directly spread to the surrounding horror.

With a snap.

The windows of the four military vehicles were all shattered, and the terrifying sound of the explosion directly shattered the eardrums of all of them...

This container of diesel exploded, how powerful is that? Without even thinking about it, I could guess how terrifying the explosive force would be.

with no doubt!

The four military vehicles were directly overturned by the powerful explosive energy... the vehicle rolled several somersaults in the air, directly banging, banging, banging, and all fell to the ground severely.

The screams, the sound of flames flooding the sky, and the sound of broken car parts scattered on the ground, instantly rang all around.

But in the light of the sky, the heavy-duty truck has been blown to pieces, and the skeleton left is still burning there.

And here is Commander Mu's military convoy?

It is estimated that all the guards sitting in the off-road military vehicle in front were dead, because they were the closest to the truck, so all the soldiers on the entire vehicle were dead.

The soldiers sitting in the second Hummer were almost dead at this moment. One or two were not dead, but they were already covered in blood, screaming and unable to move...

The most important thing is Mu Yunlong's Hummer military vehicle.

I saw that their Hummer military vehicle was completely scrapped, and the entire vehicle fell backwards to the ground.

The driver of the guard who was driving in front had his head knocked on the glass, and his face was bloodied to death there. The deputy sitting next to him was also inserted by a bumper directly through his chest. He was nailed to the seat and died there.

Mu Yunlong at the back had blood on his head and closed his eyes as if he were dead.

died? Still dizzy?

Nobody knows.

There was a creak in the Hummer where I thought there was absolutely no survivor, and then I saw a * hand, slowly stretching out from the left side, and then I saw him The whole person was covered with blood, slowly drilling out from the compact body.

He is no one else, but the first guard, Opteron, next to Mu Yunlong.

He didn't know whether it was other people's blood or his own blood. After crawling out, he hurried to pull the commander beside him.

"Commander...Commander-in-chief..." he shouted there with a * face.

What about Mu Yunlong? After Hao Long shouted a few times, he finally wowed a puff of blood out of his mouth... and then he woke up with one hand on his chest.

I took a closer look, but saw that Commander Mu's left arm had been fractured, and his chest was severely stabbed by a steel pipe in the car. At this moment, the military uniform was covered with scarlet blood.

Fortunately, he is not dead yet.

When Opteron saw that the Commander-in-Chief hadn't had an accident, there was an ecstasy in his eyes.

"Commander in chief... how are you?"

"Are you injured there?" White Dragon hurriedly held Mu Yunlong in the car with difficulty.

Chapter 1049: Fierce: Opteron

In the blood, but seeing Mu Yunlong clutching his chest tightly, he hummed uncomfortably.

He is old after all, after all, he is not young Mu Yunlong.

The pain in the heart tortured him at the moment, but he still gritted his teeth and endured it, glanced at the two guards who died in the car in front of him, and a distressed look appeared in Mu Yunlong's eyes.

Climb out!

This is their only way out.

At present, it seems that Opteron didn't have difficulty slowly climbing out of the overturned car.

After Opteron climbed out of the car with difficulty, he hurried to drag Commander-in-Chief Nammu.

One of Mu Yunlong's foot was stuck in the car, and it took a long time to pull it out with difficulty. After pulling out Commander Mu, both of them seemed exhausted and sat on the cold ground with a plop.

Looking at the several completely scrapped military vehicles in front of them, as well as the dead soldiers in the vehicles...they were stunned.

What's going on?

The bombed truck on the highway is still burning...

There seemed to be alive soldiers in the Hummer at the end, and they could hear their miserable howls at this moment.

"There are people alive!" Wang Long heard the voice and immediately stood up.

"Quickly, help them escape." Mu Yunlong ordered.

Opteron hurried over to help the soldier trapped in the car.

But when he ran two steps, his whole body suddenly stopped there.

Mu Yunlong, who was sitting on the ground here, was not only stunned when he watched the motionless Opteron suddenly stunned there.

"Optical Dragon, what are you doing there?"

"Don't hurry to rescue them?" Mu Yunlong cried out from here.

But what about Opteron? This iron-blooded soldier who had always only known to obey orders, at this moment, did not answer the words of Commander Mu, but stood straight and motionless.

What happened?

Look carefully, it's not that Opteron doesn't listen to Commander Mu's words.

It's just that Opteron discovered something more important than listening to orders at this moment.

Two people walking slowly in front of him.

Two weird people exactly the same.

They held a blade in both hands, a sharp blade similar to a scimitar.

This weapon is: the evil weapon, the Moon Blade, other than the eighteen weapons.

Two exactly the same two people just walked towards Opteron with the cold, dazzling Moon Blade in their hands.

Opteron!

The Raptors, the most combative in the North China Field Army, was a madman who had only defeated a few moves in the hands of the evil god.

At this moment, he instinctively took a step back when he felt the murderous aura of these two people.

"Commander...it seems we are in trouble!" Only heard the white dragon speak slowly.

As he said, Mu Yunlong saw the people here.

"Commander, Opteron can't protect you first... It seems you have to protect yourself first, these two people, leave it to me."

Opteron knew that the two people in front of him were not ordinary characters. He could feel the terrifying aura from them. No one could fight at this moment, except for himself, so he could only let Mu Yunlong protect himself first. What he has to deal with is the two monsters in front of him.

At this moment, Mu Yunlong also saw the two men with weapons in his hands. He was also stunned for an instant. Originally, he thought the explosion that happened today was an accident, but at this moment, it was a massacre. .

"Who are they?" Mu Yunlong asked with an ugly expression.

He was seriously injured, but the domineering spirit in his body did not disappear at all. Although facing the enemy, he did not feel the slightest fear. He deserves to be the iron commander who crawled out of the blood.

"Enemy!" Opteron said these words directly and briefly.

In the eyes of Opteron, all people who are not friends are enemies.

"Is it the bomb they planted?"

"Did they kill my soldiers?" Mu Yunlong suddenly endured the tingling in his chest and roared.

Zhao Long stood there and said, "At present, it should be!"

"Optical Dragon, listen to my order and kill them! I want them to pay for their lives..." Mu Yunlong roared.

"Yes! Commander-in-Chief!" Opteron spit out a few words coldly.

war!

Fight madly!

The raging warfare is burning in the fire...

At this moment, the two twin monsters with Moonblade in their hands walked towards Opteron step by step. They didn't say a word on their cold faces from beginning to end, as if they were dumb.

Finally, they stopped.

But at the moment they stopped, the horrible aura that was originally suppressed on their bodies suddenly swelled up... the horrible aura directly attacked the white dragon like a beast.

Of course Opteron knew they were about to do it.

fast!

Draw your gun as fast as lightning!

Opteron doesn't care how to win at this moment. For him, he only needs to protect the commander-in-chief and his life, which is the most important, so he still likes to use the fastest and most direct way to kill the enemy.

gun!

The fastest way to solve the enemy is of course the gun, and the Opteron is definitely a first-class sharpshooter in the army.

But, no matter how fast the Opteron is, will those two identical monster twins give Opteron a chance?

Just when Opteron's fingers touched the gun in his waist like an electric speed, suddenly the moon blade in the hand of a monster on the left suddenly stood out from the hand!

Swish swish, a deadly moonblade, with the howling wind directly, shuttled towards the fingers of the white dragon in front of him.

Just as the lightning-fast Moonblade pierced towards Opteron's finger, Opteron gave up the gun in his hand because he really had no chance.

With a muffled mouth, his body retreated slightly, and he flew a kick and kicked directly on the flying moonblade. The kicked moonblade turned again with the howling wind, and unexpectedly returned to the guy on the left. in.

At the same time, the guy on the right pounced directly at the white dragon.

The coordination like a dense rain is simply perfect.

One move, one static!

Sure enough, it is a match made in heaven. It is worthy of being identical twins, and even hands-on are so tacit understanding.

The moon blade in the hand of the guy on the right made a moon mark in the air, and slashed towards the white dragon.

Opteron fought with bare hands, not retreating but advancing.

Clenching a fist with his right hand, lightning cut out with his left hand, cutting straight to the opponent's elbow, and a thumping fist from his left fist struck the guy on the right in the chest.

If a sturdy fist hits that guy's body, it will definitely break his ribs. The guy on the right seems to feel the horror of the punch, and his body quickly backs away, the moon blade in his hand can't help it. Attack again, only to retreat.

one move!

With one move, the fierce Opteron forced the two monsters that matched perfectly.

Chapter 1050: Opteron's decision

It really deserves to be the first guard next to Mu Yunlong; Opteron!

After Opteron forced the two identical monsters back with one move, the two identical guys turned pale at the moment.

The moonblade in his hand creaked tightly.

Suddenly he roared and rushed towards the white dragon again,

The moon blade in the hand of the guy on the left suddenly pierced out, piercing the left chest of the guy on the right, and the guy on the right pierced the moon blade directly at the throat of the dragon.

Opteron stepped back, dodge the blow, and then rolled to the side of an abandoned military vehicle. He reached out and picked up a thick steel pipe from the scattered parts of the abandoned military vehicle and squeezed it in his hand. .

It really seemed very difficult for him to deal with these two identical guys with his bare hands, so he could only hold a weapon in his hand.

After seeing the "weapon" in his hand, the two guys in the black door rushed over again, and the moon blade in his hand stabbed at that white dragon fiercely.

The steel pipe in Opteron's hand suddenly blocked and slammed, but seeing that the guy on the left was shocked, his arm was sore, and the moon blade in his hand almost fell to the ground.

Then Opteron continued with the power of the steel pipe and flew a kick directly on the opponent's chest.

But after hearing a muffled snort, the guy was kicked by the white dragon, and then fell to the ground like a bomb.

Just after Opteron kicked the guy down, the guy on the right rushed towards him fiercely.

Brush!

The Moon Blade in his hand made three consecutive attacks, all of which were insidious and life-threatening, piercing towards the big hole in the whole body of the white dragon.

Opteron dodged his body, evading, and the steel pipe in his hand suddenly swung out.

The guy didn't dare to take it hard, so he could only jump and dodge away. The moment he jumped away, Opteron directly slammed his right fist on his cheek with a bang, and hit his cheek severely. The punched guy staggered back... scarlet blood was reflected in the corner of his mouth.

It was obvious that the two identical monsters in the black door were not the opponents of Opteron at all.

Just when Opteron was about to attack the two monsters, he suddenly heard a terrible laugh.

"Not bad..."

"It's worthy of being a soldier in the North China Field Command... powerful enough."

The voice came from behind Opteron. When he heard this voice, Opteron slowly turned his head, but seeing Mu Yunlong's side no longer knew when there was a tall and thin body with a sallow face like a zombie. The same man looked at him intently with a smile on his lips.

Opteron slowly turned around, his resolute eyes staring at the zombie-like man in front of him, Long Yin.

"If you don't want to die, just take your people and let me go." The cold words suddenly came out of Hao Opteron's mouth.

I saw that Long Yin suddenly smiled strangely after hearing the words of Bai Long again, the laughter was sharp and unpleasant.

"Who will live and die today, I'm afraid it is not always certain."

While he was talking, those eyes suddenly looked at Mu Yunlong who was lying on the ground in front of him.

Commander-in-chief Mu was severely injured in his chest at the moment, still bleeding, and one arm was broken, and he was sitting there with difficulty.

But there was no fear on his face.

"You desperadoes, you don't know how to live or die... I want to shoot you all." Mu Yunlong roared.

That Long Yin suddenly laughed.

"Old commander...you still have to stay still...or else your blood will run out."

Mu Yunlong has been fighting on the battlefield all his life. He has never been ridiculed like this, and now he has to pull the gun in his waist when he roars.

"Go to hell!"

As Mu Yunlong roared, he would draw his gun and shoot Long Yin in front of him.

But before his hand touched the gun in his waist, he saw Long Yin in front of him all at once. A cold hand grabbed Mu Yunlong's shoulders, and then took him all at once. The tall body was lifted up.

Ah, a cry of pain came from Mu Yunlong's mouth.

Na Long Yin actually grabbed Commander Mu's broken arm with one hand and twisted it severely.

"Commander in chief!"

When the Opteron standing here saw that his commander had suffered so much, he screamed and wanted to run over.

It's a pity that Long Yin only heard a cold snort: "Stop..."

"If you dare to take a step forward, your commander-in-chief's order will be dead." Long Yin sneered.

What about Opteron?

The whole body was trembling with anger, and a pair of angry fists clenched and rattled, but he did not dare to take a step forward.

"Asshole, you have to dare to touch the commander-in-chief with a hair...I swear that you will die in this life." Opteron roared, his eyes seemed to bleed.

Na Long Yin sneered, and forced a hand at Mu Yunlong in front of him, while looking at Opteron.

"Unfortunately, you probably won't have a chance."

The old commander Mu Yunlong was grasped by Long Yin at the moment, and he couldn't help gasping violently, and the tingling in his chest made his body numb more and more.

He roared there with red eyes, "Oh Long, leave me alone...Kill this bastard."

But what about Opteron? It was motionless.

How could he ignore his commander?

His body was trembling, and his fists were about to bleed...

"Optical Dragon, did you hear me talking?"

"I... order you... to kill these bastards." Mu Yunlong roared there with the last bit of strength.

But can Opteron listen to orders?

Of course not!

Although the military order is like a mountain, at this moment, Opteron did not accept the order,

He just clenched his * fist tightly, looking at Long Yin angrily.

"How can you release my commander?" Just listen to White Dragon looking at that Long Yin and say.

Long Yin sneered and looked at the Opteron in front of him.

"As long as you listen to me obediently... I'll let the old commander's order."

"Well, as long as you release the commander, I will do whatever you say." Opteron said there.

When Mu Yunlong heard this, he yelled: "Optical Dragon, you idiot... Follow my order and kill these bastards."

But Opteron did not pay attention to the commander-in-chief. He just looked at Long Yin in front of him.

"You pick up the gun on the ground now!" Hearing that Long Yin suddenly said to the white dragon.

Long Yin's hand pinched Mu Yunlong's neck, threatening the white dragon there.

When Opteron heard this Long Yin saying this, he was slightly taken aback...Although he didn't know what the * in front of him was going to do, he was a loyal man. Similarly, he was also a soldier. As long as he could protect the old commander at this moment, He would rather give his life, so he really slowly bent over to pick up the cold pistol on the ground.
