

A Killer 107

Chapter 107: Who dare? Who am I?

And Li Tian, who had turned around, didn't expect Meng Chong behind to make a sudden move.

Suddenly facing a strong wind coming from behind, Li Tian instinctively dodges to the left, his footsteps follow the consciousness in his mind and use a fast pace, at the same time one hand quickly becomes a grasping shape, towards the arm that hits behind. Grab it.

With a bang, Li Tian's five fingers abruptly grabbed the arm that was attacked by the rush.

At the same time, Li Tian's whole body began to gush out from between his fingers.

Na Mengchong didn't seem to have thought that Li Tian could grab his wrist. Just when Li Tian tried to pour all the energy into his grasping Mengchong's wrist, Mengchong's expression suddenly changed and his steps suddenly took a step forward. , The body became an open bow, and the joints between his bodies rattle with the explosive power of his body.

With a bang, Li Tian was holding onto Meng Chong's arm tightly, but he was bounced back by his thick arm.

Li Tian stepped back, taking two steps, before grabbing his figure and froze there.

He really did not expect this dull man to have such a strong body. The force he used in his previous grab would never be lower than the strength of the Muay Thai fighter who killed him in the black market boxing match, but he was so dull as a stone. 'S man just broke away all at once.

Li Tian couldn't believe it, standing there, his eyes fixed on Meng Chong.

But Meng Chong still had that motionless expression, staring at Li Tian.

However, he was secretly surprised in his heart: What kind of trick was this kid's catch? It's so sharp? Few people on the road could evade one of his own tricks just now. Didn't you expect to be caught by him? And the strength that came out of his body later carried a strange feeling.

"Li Tian, what's the matter?"

At this moment, Xia Xue heard the fighting outside, and ran out quickly, looking at Li Tian who was standing there and asking, then she looked at the blindfold again.

Li Tian looked at Xia Xue and smiled faintly: "Sister Xue, I'm fine."

Then turned his head to look at Meng Chong.

Meng Chong said calmly: "I want to tell you that this time you killed people in the black market boxing match, it has already spread to the ground in the underground boxing arena."

"If you don't fight another round, the trouble will come one after another, and I can guarantee that everyone around you will be affected one by one." Meng Chong said these words coldly. The eyes were fixed on Xia Xue's face.

Li Tian did not speak, his face was ugly,

He really didn't expect that he would create such a situation after he shot in the black market boxing match?

Now that gang of people from other provinces still want to punch themselves?

What if you don't agree? According to what this guy named Meng Chong said, is it true that there will be a lot of trouble and will find himself? What should I do then? My unlucky relationship, but if it hurts Xia Xue and Shen Feng, wouldn't it be troublesome?

Li Tian thought this way and stood there in a mess.

Meng Chong continued: "If you can promise me today, I am here to assure you that the next boxing match will be a fair and upright match. There is no black hand, no one dares to spoil it, and we Master Feng is looking after you in the background, so you don't have to worry too much."

Listening to Meng Chong's words once again, Li Tian hesitated.

He didn't know whether he should agree or not.

After thinking for a long time in silence, Li Tian suddenly raised his head and looked at Meng Chong: "Okay, I promise you, I promise to fight again with the boxers from other provinces."

"But I hope no one will harass anyone around me." Li Tiandao said.

Meng Chong's face with little expression suddenly appeared a stiff smile.

"Okay! I'm rushed to assure you that from now on, no one dares to move the people around you, who dares? I will chop off someone's hand."

"See you in the underground boxing field in three days."

After the indifferent and decisive words came out of Meng Chong's mouth, he turned around and walked outside with a few people behind him.

Li Tian and Xia Xue were left standing in the small restaurant.

---

"Why do you want to fight the black market boxing match again? Didn't you promise me not to fight?" Xia Xue stared at Li Tian and couldn't believe it.

Li Tian silently raised his eyes and looked at Xia Xue, with a wry smile at the corner of his mouth.

Does he really want to fight? of course not.

He was only for Xia Xue and Shen Feng, who were currently the only "relatives" around him.

Because Li Tian can feel that if he doesn't fight, this group of people will definitely not give up. With the trick of the dull man just now, Li Tian can definitely feel that his strength is absolutely terrifying.

If you don't fight the black market boxing, what kind of trouble will Xia Xue and Shen Summit encounter? Li Tian couldn't imagine, so he decided to go and fight again.

"Li Tian, can you promise me not to fight the black market boxing?" Xia Xue suddenly reached out and grabbed Li Tian's.

Hold the two hands tightly together.

Xia Xuemei's eyes were filled with silent concern, and Li Tian slowly turned his head and stared at the beauty in front of him.

"Sister Xue, I'm sorry. I can't help but fight."

After Li Tian said this, Xia Xue's delicate hands suddenly became cold.

Then Xia Xue turned around and stopped paying attention to Li Tian and walked inside.

Li Tian was stunned outside, looking at Xia Xue's back, without saying a word, walking silently towards the house of Shen Feng.

The Shen Feng inside was leaning against the bed behind him. When he saw Li Tian, his eyes showed a look of worry.

"Do you really want to fight again?" Shen Feng in front of him suddenly looked at Li Tian and said.

Shen Feng listened to the sound outside just now.

Li Tian smiled and nodded: "Yeah."

"Hey, it's hard for you, brother."

"Blame me, we are the one who caused you. If it weren't for my carelessness, you wouldn't need to fight for me." Shen Feng said reproachfully.

Li Tian smiled and shook his head: "It's okay."

"Since they want me to fight again, I will fight again."
