

A Killer 114

Chapter 114: Only two tricks

Seeing Li Tian was about to be hit by the whirlwind.

There were crazy screams from the audience, and even the aloft Lord Feng frowned.

That Shen Feng was even more worried and couldn't help screaming: "Be careful of his legs..."

When the voice was called out, it seemed to be too late.

Because anyone can see that the whirlwind slashed straight towards Li Tian's head.

Who knew that when everyone thought that Li Tian would be chopped to death by this leg, they didn't expect his footsteps to move strangely.

At the same time, a hand suddenly protruded, and with the sound of breaking the wind, he slammed forward. It happened to be caught on one of the gray wolf's legs. Then, amidst everyone's horror, Li Tian suddenly pulled, that The gray wolf in the air didn't touch the ground, couldn't stabilize his figure, and was suddenly led forward.

Then after watching Li Tian pull his arm, with a bang, the gray wolf fell down in the air.

Li Tianfei kicked as soon as he fell to the ground.

It's a pity that the gray wolf was really powerful, a beautiful backflip, and he stood up directly, blocking Li Tian's leg with his hands.

The audience immediately broke out in exclamation.

"Good boy, I thought he would die in the ring." Feng Ye suddenly laughed excitedly.

Meng Chong, who had been motionless, couldn't help frowning at this moment, and muttered in his heart: "How could this be?"

Shen Feng in the audience was even more excited: "Brother Tian, great! Kill that bastard, kill him."

The gray wolf, who was pulled to the ground by Li Tian suddenly, was really angry.

He really didn't expect that his nirvana would be avoided by this kid.

Duanmu Lei over there wanted to watch a good show and let Cang Lei live in the ring to kill Li Tian, but he didn't expect that Li Tian would turn defeat into victory, and he would kill Cang Lei. He suddenly became angry. Zi stood up.

"Black wolf, what the * are you doing?"

Listening to Duan Mu Lei's curse at the audience, Cang Lang's eyes became * beasts, staring at Li Tian fiercely.

"If I personally kill you today, I am not the Northwest Grey Wolf."

The angry gray wolf rushed towards Li Tian like a tornado.

It seems that he really wants to take Li Tian's life.

The reason why Li Tian was able to turn defeat into victory just now was entirely because the catch suddenly appeared in his mind.

At this moment, I saw the gray wolf rushing towards him, and suddenly recalled the moves in his mind, and suddenly rushed up. With the weird pace, he immediately bullied his body and approached, unavoidably, like a situation where both lose and lose. To the deadly catch the wolf.

If the Blue Wolf didn't dodge like Li Tian, then his heavy move would definitely hit Li Tian, on the contrary Li Tian's fatal catch would also hit him.

This Li Tian is now clearly a desperate style of play, it is clear that the enemy is injured by a thousand, and the self-harm is 800.

What about the gray wolf? Of course he wouldn't fight him so hard. The Canglang was originally stronger than Li Tian. If he fights hard like this, wouldn't it be a big loss?

Therefore, the gray wolf in front of him uttered angrily, and could only pull away and quickly back away.

A cheating flew out from the side and kicked towards Li Tian.

Li Tian gritted his teeth and blocked with his hands, his hard legs kicked on Li Tian's arm.

The force of the impact made Li Tian lean to the left abruptly and almost fell.

Immediately afterwards, the gray wolf swept towards Li Tian with a beautiful sweep of his legs.

Li Tian quickly avoided and responded with a blow.

The fist hits from an incredible angle, who knows that the speed is still a little slower. When Li Tian's fist hits the gray wolf, he suddenly saw the gray wolf suddenly spread his five fingers and tightened one tightly. He grabbed Li Tian's fist, Li Tian was shocked and kicked his leg.

But the gray wolf didn't give him a chance, and quickly shot out his left elbow.

It slammed into Li Tian's chest. Fortunately, Li Tian's body was blocked by a huge amount of vigor, and he was able to avoid the terrible blow, but he could still feel the blood boiling in his chest.

Li Tian suddenly became angry, his fists clenched tightly, and his fists suddenly attacked the wolf.

The fast and fierce boxing technique made Canglang overwhelmed and did not dare to be careless.

Li Tian does not ban boxing moves, but also uses catching moves. The combination of the two can be said to make the audience boil over. He is completely different from before. He would be completely vulnerable when he first played. Now it is bigger and stronger.

Let those who scolded him just now all have expressions of astonishment and disbelief.

Even Feng Ye's eyes came out.

"This kid seems to be a real person without showing his face."

When the voice was exited, I heard a scream from the audience.

It turned out that Li Tian didn't pay attention just now, and he hit the gray wolf on the shoulder with a punch.

The Cang Wolf was beaten and staggered back a few steps.

The shouts in the audience became more vigorous, and Duan Mu Lei over there looked gloomy as if he was about to kill, staring coldly on the court.

Fists clenched tightly.

The invisible murderous intent of the Canglang standing on the ring at the beginning, this will have suddenly become stronger and weaker by Li Tian.

At this moment, I can't help wondering how this kid's boxing skills have never been seen before, not taekwondo, let alone karate, nor Sanda fighting. Strictly speaking, his boxing skills are not like boxing at all, more like ancient martial arts. !

In fact, the gray wolf was right at all. Li Tian played the boxing technique in the "Book of Heaven Pill Scroll" left over from ancient times.

Boxing does not focus on moves, only attacks.

However, even after the Canglang got a punch on the shoulder, the Canglang felt that although Li Tian had a strange fist and a weird grasp, he was beating back and forth.

It seems that Li Tian would have such a catch, as if there is a fist move?

"Boy, are you finished? Are you going to do these two tricks?" The wolf said fiercely.

Li Tian was shocked, this guy actually saw it.

He really knows these two tricks. Li Tian, who had learned the two tricks from the broken book, of course nothing else.

So after the wolf said so, he was suddenly shocked.

"It's my turn now..." After the Cang Wolf said, his body rushed again.

This time the attack on the gray wolf completely used a different attack method than before.

Use legs exclusively.

The sharp legs swept fatally toward Li Tian.

An empty sweeping leg kicked Li Tian's unsuspecting body with a slam kick, kicking him down on the ring,
