Chapter 12 Don't hurt her

The gangster smiled on his face.

Shadow), do you still fight?"

Situ Ningbing knew that he might really have no escape today, but he stood up stubbornly, wiped the black blood on the corner of his mouth with his arm, and then he held the wall next to him with his hand.

"I will kill you even if I die."

Situ Ningbing, who roared, suddenly ignoring his own injury and suddenly rushed toward the Xiao Poison. At the same time, he saw the silk hiss in his hand, pulling away from his hand toward the Xiao Poison. This desperate one The hit is extremely fast.

The heroine didn't dare to be careless, and quickly backed away.

But at the moment he retreated, Situ Ningbing in front of him suddenly turned to the red tiger and attacked.

The Chihu who was standing there didn't even think that she would pounce on him, and he backed away in a hurry, but it was too late.

I saw that the silk in Situ Ningbing's hands suddenly wrapped around his neck, and then Chihu's eyes widened, his face was as gray as death... Then he saw Situ Ningbing's hands violently pull. The silk slid over Chihu's neck.

Then Chihu's whole body began to choke violently, a blood-red slit suddenly appeared at the neck, and his head slipped from the top of the neck and fell to the ground. The head and eyes that were rolling on the ground were still open. , His face is incredible, but what about his head? Has fallen.

died.

Chihu was cut off by Situ Ningbing alive.

Looking at Chihu's dead gangster, his face was extremely ugly, and he suddenly rushed over: "I want you to die."

After Situ Ningbing solved the Chihu in one move, he didn't have the power to fight back at all, isn't it? Before she could dodge, she was grabbed by the heroine on her shoulder, and then the other hand of the heroine slammed Situ Ningbing's body like a ghost, and Situ Ningbing sprayed out another black blood.

She was lying on the ground, her mouth was smeared with black blood, and her body? It's still faltering,

What about the drug in front? But slowly raised his hand: "You go to die..."

After the sound came out, a hand suddenly raised.

At this critical moment, seeing that Situ Ningbing was about to die tragically in the hands of that gangster, suddenly a figure rushed over.

"Don't hurt her."

At the moment when this voice suddenly came from behind Xiao Du, Xiao Du suddenly turned around, but he didn't expect that the guy who ran over was still holding a handful of lime.

Then I saw the running guy throwing lime towards the eye of the gangster.

Xiao Du was shocked, and hurriedly covered his eyes with his hands, but the lime powder still entered his eyes, and suddenly a fiery pain passed into his eyes.

The guy who ran over hugged Xiao Poison's waist and rushed back.

Xiaopo's whole body was knocked to the ground with a bang.

He never expected that a * would suddenly appear at this moment, and Lime would attack him.

Situ Ningbing, who had already closed his eyes and was about to die, also opened those big watery eyes in surprise, looking at him, who is he? Isn't it Li Tian who was scolded by her?

Unexpectedly, it was he who came back to save himself.

"Asshole, are you a * man to bully a woman?" Li Tian pressed the gangster underneath his body, raised his fist and hit the gangster on the head with no face and no face.

Li Tian, who had been fighting since he was a child, was quite tricky. He hit the gangster's eye with a punch. The gangster's eye was stung by lime. At this moment, the gangster suddenly hit the eye and screamed in pain sound.

The furious gangster suddenly lifted his knees and slammed against Li Tian's chest. Li Tian was knocked into flight and fell to the ground.

This time he fell so hard that Li Tian could not be an ordinary person. How could he be compared with such a terrifying killer?

However, this gangster claimed to be a sinister life, but he did not expect to be planted in the hands of the ungrateful Li Tian today.

He was blinded by the most common fighting tactics with lime.

His eyes were tingling and unable to open now, he stood up and shouted like crazy, and the left eye was bleeding from being beaten by Li Tian.

"Come out, bastard, I'm going to kill you, I'm going to kill you..." Xiaodu said crazy there.

The two younger brothers hurried to help the invisible horror.

But Xiao Poison thought it was the enemy approaching him, and suddenly reached out and grabbed a man in a black suit who was approaching him, and immediately pinched the opponent's throat with his hand. The man didn't even make a sound, and his throat was crushed directly.

died.

The remaining man in the suit was so scared that his face changed color, and he wanted to run quickly, but he could run away. No, he was slammed on his face by the owl poison, and then he wore a poisonous snake. The ring's hand grabbed the opponent's heart, and the man was beaten to death.

Looking at the lunatic poison at this moment, Situ Ningbing suddenly endured his injured body and stood up, and then rushed toward the blind poison.

Xiaopo heard the strong wind coming from behind and turned around quickly, but he could be the opponent of Situ Ningbing that he couldn't see right now. He just turned around and was suddenly caught by the deadly silk in Situ Ningbing's hand. Got wrapped around his neck.

Then Situ Ningbing's murderous intent appeared in his eyes, and he pulled with his hand.

With a puff, Xiao Du's body fell to the ground like a piece of wood, and a thin blood-red thread around his neck moved his head and neck.

Dead, too is the drug bot.

Then Li Tian was frightened when he watched Xiao Poison fall down in front of him.

He had only seen murder scenes on TV before. When he saw the dead for the first time, he was stunned.

Blinking and looking at that Situ Ningbing, she seemed to be unable to support her anymore, her eyes went dark, and her whole body fell to the ground.

Li Tian was shocked, ran over and helped Situ Ningbing up: "Hey, hello, are you okay?"

But what about Situ Ningbing? How can I hear her voice, she has already fainted.

Li Tian stood up and looked at the corpses on the ground. He was deeply shocked for the first time when he had never seen such a * scene.

God, what should I do? These people are dead, what should I do? He muttered.

Looking at these corpses, Li Tian quickly wisely moved these corpses into his own small room one by one.

Soon these corpses were moved into the room by him, and then Li Tian used things to deal with the blood stains.

Hugging the fainted body of Situ Ningbing next to him, he ran towards the small medicine shop of Old Lady Chen.
