

A Killer 1231

Chapter 1231: Cruel sister

"Now do you know why this eldest sister can have such a great strength in the Dark City?" The old woman looked at that Dugu Xie after simply speaking.

Duguxie stood there and nodded indifferently.

"I see." Four cold words came out of his mouth.

Hearing Duguxie's words, the old woman raised her head slightly and looked at Duguxie: "Then you should understand what I mean... You'd better not provoke that older sister anymore, because no one who provokes her will be better End of the game."

Listening to the old woman in front of her, Du Guxie suddenly burst into laughter.

"No, you are wrong."

"I tell you, in this world, no matter who it is, no matter who it is, as long as she dares to be against my young master...I will definitely kill her."

"Including the older sister you just mentioned." Duguxie said coldly, standing there like a death * in hell.

His words were like a sharp unsheathed sword, piercing straight into the heart of the old woman.

The old woman looked at Duguxie's horrible murderous aura in disbelief... she suddenly felt that the murderous aura of the one-handed man in front of her was so terrifying and full of domineering.

"Well...Since you choose to do this, hey, my old lady can't help you anymore." The old woman suddenly said, turning around slightly.

That Duguxie didn't pay any attention to the old woman in front of him, and slowly walked over to stay with the ghost servant and the white dragon.

"Recently, the city of Darkness has changed suddenly... and besides you, there have been many big people...you have to do it yourself." The old woman suddenly stood up slightly as if she was about to leave, and said to Duguxie.

"Who else will come besides us?" The ghost servant suddenly turned to look at the old woman who was about to leave and asked.

The old woman turned her head and smiled weirdly and said: "The two strangers, I don't know their names... But their level of skill is definitely beyond imagination..."

"The Dark City is a place full of depravity and inhumanity...hehe, I can guarantee that few people can match those two terrifying people."

"One of them is wearing a black robe and holding a black cane in his hand... the other is a man with red hair and blood pupils!"

While talking, the old woman walked forward slowly.

When the old woman suddenly said that two such weird outsiders had also arrived in the Dark City, Duguxie, the Ghost Servant, and Opteron were all taken aback.

"Old man...when did these two people come?" Only the ghost servant asked again.

The old woman said, "It was a dark night ten days ago."

"Thank you." Ghost servant said from behind.

The old woman turned around, waving her hands slightly, and said in her mouth: "No, no need..."

"Darkness has come...you have to take care of yourself." The old woman said as she staggered towards the distance.

"Old man, haven't you asked your surname?" The ghost servant finally shouted there.

But seeing that the old woman's body had been out of the deserted house in front of her, she stood outside in the cold wind and did not turn her head and said: "My old woman...has forgotten her name..."

After she said so, suddenly her figure flashed and disappeared outside.

Seeing that strange old woman suddenly left like this, the Duguxie, the ghost servant, and the Opteron in front of him were all standing in wonder, looking at...

"Second brother, this old woman is really strange..."

"Not only is her skill so high, but she also seems to be quite familiar with this inner city." The ghost servant said slightly.

Duguxie stood there and nodded silently.

"Yes."

"The Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon in the Dark City, it seems that we were really careless before." Duguxie said.

"I really don't know, what will happen next." Only the ghost servant in front of him said a little worried.

"Kill the eldest sister!" The three cold words came out of Duguxie's mouth as if he was sentenced to death.

It seemed that as long as Duguxie said who to kill, that person in the sky and underground would definitely not escape death.

Hearing Duguxie's words, the ghost servant didn't have any words, and he always listened to his second brother.

"Just now the old man said that the two people who came before this dark city... do you have any impression?" Opteron suddenly asked from a side.

They were dressed in black robes and held a black cane in their hands.

A man with red hair and blood pupils.

Duguxie and the ghost servant stood there thinking for a while, then slowly shook their heads.

"I don't know." Three words came out of their mouths.

When Optron heard them say this, he didn't say too much, turned around coldly and didn't ask any more.

But in their hearts, the impressions of those two people were deeply impressed in their minds.

In a room full of sluggish light, the music of death still sounded strangely.

It was only accompanied by the sound of weird music, and the sound of a leather whip hitting the flesh, and then I heard a painful cry from a man's mouth.

Look carefully at the whole room.

But the first thing I saw was the woman, a woman with a "cross" scar on her face, with a sinister look on her face, she took off her clothes in front of that look, and a woman was hung alive. the man.

And in the room also stood a dozen men with knives and guns.

The hanging guy was tattooed with a blue dragon all over his body, his naked back had been beaten with a whip and his body was completely bloody.

Look carefully at this man's face...

Wasn't he just the hunk that brought a bunch of younger brothers to Li Tian and his brothers to slaughter two hours ago?

How come you are hung here alive, and there are * whip marks all over your body?

Standing there was another guy who looked like a little brother, and the whip in his hand slapped the man with the blue dragon tattooed in front of him.

Every time the whip went down, a blood-red mark appeared on that guy's naked back.

"Take me... to the death." I just listened to the big sister saying coldly.

The subordinate took the whip and looked at it fiercely...

Bloody and cruel.

After seeing this scene, no one dared to speak, as if the man with a blue dragon tattooed all over his body was about to be beaten to death here alive.

Finally, I don't know how long it has been...

The whole back of the man with the blue dragon tattooed was beaten to blood and blood, and his whole body had been beaten to faint alive, the older sister stopped.

Pointing to the dangling flesh and blood body and said: "Pour water on me..."

Following her order, she saw a strong man carrying a bucket of ice-cold water next to him and pouring it on the fainted man.

Chapter 1232: Big shot

After a basin of cold water was poured on the * body of the man, the guy with the blue dragon tattoo came to his senses after hearing a scream.

Although his eyes were open there, there was a desperate look, and the bloodstains all over his body continued to flow down.

Looking at the hanged, blood-stained guy, the eldest sister slowly walked over, holding her sinister face: "Tell me...why let those * go?" The roaring voice came from the corner of her mouth. Came out.

After she said it, the man who was hanging was already speaking intermittently.

He said with difficulty: "Sister...I didn't let them go...it was...the death mother took them away."

A word came out of his mouth.

"Death mother-in-law?"

When the words "Mr. Death" came out, everyone in the room in front of them was stunned, and then they showed extremely ugly expressions.

"Death mother?" The elder sister in front of her suddenly narrowed her cold eyes and muttered silently.

Just listen to the terrible guy who was hung and beaten, blinking weak and swollen eyes and panting there and saying, "Yes... Big sister..."

"If it weren't for her...I...I can kill those people..."

Death mother-in-law?

When everyone in this room heard the name of the death mother-in-law, a weird expression flashed in their eyes for no reason, and their eyes seemed to be scared.

Why do people hear the death mother-in-law so scared?

It turned out that this dead mother-in-law was already a top-level master in the Dark City many years ago.

The Black Palace, a place known as the elite reserve of the Dark City, a place full of first-class masters, and who can imagine that the old woman who was in ragged clothes and hobbled on her way was once there. The number one is awesome.

It was just that the death mother-in-law quit the black palace... and she had sworn in front of the Poison Emperor that she would never step into the inner city again, so she left the inner city.

After so many years, the deeds of being too dead have long been buried by people.

But when it comes to her name, many people still remember her in the Dark City.

Unexpectedly, this dead mother-in-law never left the dark city, but willingly went to the outer city and pretended to be an old woman picking up garbage...

"Unexpectedly, it was the good thing that the old and immortal disturbed me." The eldest sister who only listened to the moment said angrily.

The "cross" scar on her face that was carved with a knife became even more hideous at this moment.

"Eldest sister, what shall we do now? Do you still deal with those outsiders?" Just listened to a subordinate who came over and looked at the older sister and asked.

The woman called the eldest sister gave a grimly smile, revealing her white teeth and suddenly said, "Tack."

"Check it out for me... Check it out street by street. Even if they go to heaven, they will find it out for me. I don't believe they can fly into the sky."

"Catch them and peel off their skins..." the elder sister said cruelly.

The people under his staff were stunned for a moment, and continued to ask: "Then... eldest sister... What if we meet the dead mother-in-law?"

"Killed together."

"An immortal from decades ago, are you still afraid of her?" said the eldest sister.

After hearing what the elder sister said, the younger brothers nodded quickly and said: "Okay, then we will send people to start a street search."

As they said this, they ran out quickly, ready to search the current Li Tian and his brothers, as if they would not give up unless they killed Li Tian and others.

"There seems to be a lot of things happening in the inner city recently, right?"

"The eldest sister's people are frequently dispatched to kill people..."

"Have you found out who the * is having a holiday with the older sister?"

In a closed room, there are no windows, no doors, just a faded wooden table and a few mottled stools.

There was a lamp in the corner of the wall, a lamp dimming at dusk.

After waiting, the confusing and confusing photos were shot across the room, on the face of a middle-aged man speaker.

The middle-aged man is slightly blessed, his body is slightly sideways, so the light can only shine on half of his face,

The outline of his face is very sharp, like a knife, his hair is black and shiny, and he is combing back neatly, holding a cup of steaming tea in a quiet and steady state, and whispering there. , While gently blowing the hot tea in front of him with his moustache mouth.

Standing beside him was another man in a suit.

The man's figure is very vigorous, with two hands hanging down, and the palms are full of calluses.

In that slightly said: "Through understanding, it seems like a bunch of outsiders."

"foreigner....."

"The Dark City seems to be getting more and more lively, and so many people have lived in just over a dozen days...hehe." The man holding the teacup suddenly gave a cold smile.

"Palace Master, the person who came this time is not an ordinary person... a big person who has become famous decades ago." Hearing only one sentence, he suddenly said it from the quietly standing man.

"Big guy? How big?" The middle-aged man turned his face slightly.

His face is normal, flushed and rich, but there is a black mole on the lower corner of his mouth.

Turning his head and looking at the man beside him, he asked.

"Evil sword, Duguxie, immortal servant, ghost servant."

The names of two peerless characters slowly came out of his mouth.

When he suddenly said that Duguxie and the name of the ghost servant, the middle-aged man holding the teacup suddenly trembling slightly at this moment.

Then the relaxed face just now became weird and ugly in an instant.

A pair of eyes suddenly stared at the man talking in front of him and said, "Are you sure?"

"Are you sure it's the evil sword? And the ghost servant?" the middle-aged man asked suddenly in surprise.

"Yes, during the death match in the outer city, I personally saw Duguxie and the ghost servant, so I am 100% sure that it is them." The man standing there said.

This man is undoubtedly from the Black Palace: Mr. Cai.

"How could they still be alive? Not dead yet?" The middle-aged man suddenly murmured in that weird mouth.

There was an unbelievable question in his voice, as if he knew Duguxie and ghost servants.

Mr. Cai, who was standing on the side, looked at the man and said, "Palace Master, now they have entered the city...Should we tell the Poison Emperor about this matter?"

Chapter 1233: Blood pupil, Mr. Black

The man called the Palace Lord turned out to be the owner of the Black Palace.

He contemplated for a moment, looked at the dark place in front of him for a moment of contemplation, and then said, "No."

"You send someone to check where they are now," said the man called the palace lord.

Then he added: "Also, remember, don't let them find you..."

After the palace lord in front of him said so, Mr. Cai nodded silently.

"Okay, I will do it now."

After he finished speaking, he seemed to be ready to retreat.

When he stepped back two steps, he suddenly stopped, and then suddenly said as if he was thinking of something: "By the way, what about the eldest sister?"

"She is chasing the evil sword everywhere, and the ghost servants like crazy now...Should we intervene?" Mr. Cai asked slightly.

After he said it, he just listened to the palace lord with a disdainful sneer: "Don't worry about that crazy woman..."

"If she herself really wants to trouble those two people all her life and death... then let her find it herself..."

After the palace lord uttered a word so coldly, Mr. Cai nodded quickly, and then quickly retreated.

After Mr. Cai exited the dim room, only the man called the palace lord slowly turned his ugly face.

"Evil Sword... Evil Sword... So it hasn't died for so many years?"

"Huh... I didn't expect to be in the Dark City now."

"Couldn't he come because of that?" Suddenly the palace lord in front of him had an extremely ugly face and said to himself.

Then after he thought this way, he suddenly moved forward.

To be precise, the "stool" he was sitting on moved.

No, it turns out that this palace lord is sitting in a wheelchair.

Is he disabled?

Yes, I looked carefully through the dim light, but it turned out that the two feet of the palace lord were two prostheses. His feet were all broken, and now he can only sit on a wheelchair.

As his hand slowly slid the wheelchair, the jet-black wheelchair began to slowly move forward.

The place in front is a wall, a cold wall.

There was a mural hanging on the wall. After the palace lord arrived in front of the mural, he slightly extended a hand and removed the mural. Then he saw a black button on the wall.

organ.

As his hand pressed lightly on the mechanism, the entire cold wall began to move slightly.

Then after the wall rumbled and cracked, a narrow passage appeared.

The passage seemed to lead directly to the outside, and then he slowly slid the wheelchair towards the outside.

After he got outside, the place outside looked like a house like a courtyard house.

Quiet and desolate.

In the courtyard, apart from a few vertical and horizontal corridors, there is a lonely big pine tree planted in the middle.

At the two exits on the side, a guard stood on one side.

The two guarding janitors, strong and burly in shape, looked like a ruthless character. Standing upright, they couldn't help bowing slightly when they saw him sliding in a wheelchair. Then he respectfully called: "Palace Master."

Known as the palace lord, he nodded slightly.

"What about the guest?" Suddenly a word came out of his mouth.

The two guys standing on both sides said, "The guest has just had a meal, and it should be in the wing now."

"Okay, I get it now."

After the palace lord finished asking, he then gently slid the wheelchair in his hand with his hand and then slowly swiped towards the place where the "guest" lived.

The guests?

Could it be that there are other guests in this black palace.

As the palace lord slowly slid his wheelchair to the wing room, he saw that the door was tightly closed.

Then he slid his wheelchair to the side of the door, and then reached out a hand and knocked on the door lightly.

After the door was knocked gently, a muddy voice came from inside.

"Please come in."

When the sound came, but seeing the palace lord sliding in a wheelchair, he gently pushed open the door. The moment the door was opened, two figures in the room flashed out.

Both were sitting quietly on one side.

One of them was wearing a black robe with a serene face and a dark snake-head scepter in his hands.

The other is red-haired and rosy, even the entire neck is flushed red, looking violent and savage, and his eyes are the strangest, they are all red.

After the palace lord came in, the two weird people just sat there quietly and didn't even move.

"Mr. Black...Mr. Blood Eye..." After entering, the Palace Master of the Black Palace seemed to respect these two people very much, and yelled with a smile after he came in with the wheelchair.

Mr. Black? Mr. Blood pupil?

Aren't these two of the three death guardians at the gate of hell?

It turns out that they are awesome characters who arrived earlier than Li Tian and his brothers ten days ago.

These two are here to hunt down the traitor of Hell Gate: Long Yin!

According to legend, Long Yin, who had taken the Li Tiantian Book Pill Roll, had already arrived in the Dark City early, and the two of them were also ordered by the * gate master to chase down Na Long Yin.

Having said that, after the palace lord in front of him walked in with a smile, the serene Mr. Hei looked at the palace lord and said, "The palace lord... has been so many days... I don't know who we are looking for, have you found out? ?"

The palace master smiled awkwardly at the moment and said: "Mr. Black... we have exhausted all our manpower to find the traitor you are looking for... But to be honest, in the city of darkness, there seems to be no him."

"Nonsense." Suddenly the red-haired blood pupil roared.

The violent voice was exactly the same as his appearance, wild and hideous.

He roared out like a hong bell ringing.

"Our * gate has long since found out that he escaped to the dark city... how come he didn't? Are you kidding us?" The scarlet and * eyes screamed like a roaring lion.

The voice was full of violence.

But seeing that the palace lord of the Black Palace heard him say this, he couldn't help but smile awkwardly.

Said: "Mr. Blood pupil... how is it possible?"

"Think about it, the relationship between our dark city and your * gate, how could we shelter that Long Yin? Besides, you also know that our poison emperor has already issued orders a few days ago and the whole city is searching for it. Long Yin...If we really find him, we will definitely notify you as soon as possible."

Chapter 1234: Treacherous

After the palace lord in front of him gave a reasonably reasonable explanation, the red-haired blood pupil couldn't help but snorted, and then seemed to want to say something more, but Mr. Hei, who saw him on the side, slightly stopped him.

Then Mr. Hei slightly raised his kind face and looked at the palace lord in front of him and said, "Then I will thank the Poison Emperor for our * gate first..."

As he said this, the palace lord quickly said: "Mr. Hei is too polite..."

"According to your opinion, currently Long Yin is no longer a dark city, right?" Mr. Hei continued to look at the palace master and asked.

The voice of Mr. Hei was softened, like an elderly man.

But when his flat voice is heard in people's ears, it unknowingly gives people a strange feeling.

The muscles of the palace lord in front of him trembled slightly and said: "We are still investigating... As for whether Long Yin is really in the Dark City, there should be clues in two days."

"Okay, very good." Hearing this palace lord said that, Mr. Hei squinted and smiled slightly.

"Then trouble you." Mr. Black said again.

The palace lord smiled slightly and said to Mr. Hei in front of him: "This is what we should do."

"The gate of * and our dark city were originally the same." He said with a big laugh.

After hearing the palace lord in front of him say this, Mr. Hei not only laughed.

"By the way, Mr. Hei... I think there may be one thing you are interested in." Suddenly the palace lord in front of him looked at that Mr. Hei and said.

Mr. Hei frowned slightly, then looked at the palace lord of the Black Palace in front of him and asked, "Oh, is it? Then what is it?"

The Palace Master of the Black Palace then said: "Recently, a bunch of strangers have arrived in the Dark City..."

"And these strangers are familiar to everyone." The Palace Master of the Black Palace squinted slightly and said.

Mr. Na Hei heard the palace lord of the black palace say this around the bend, and smiled kindly: "Palace lord has something to say straight."

"it is good."

"Mr. Hei, you must know the evil sword and the name of the ghost servant too...hehe, they have also arrived in the dark city now." The black palace master said.

When the palace master of the black palace suddenly said that Duguxie and the ghost servant had arrived in the dark city, the kind old face that Mr. Hei was smiling just now became ugly and weird at this moment.

The red hair and blood pupils on the other side also widened at this moment.

"Are they here too?"

"You have entered the dark city now?" Mr. Black asked immediately.

Just listen to the black palace master saying: "Yes, and now you have entered the inner city..."

"So fast!"

"Unexpectedly, they noticed here so quickly." Mr. Hei suddenly muttered.

The red-haired blood pupils beside him also closed his mouth tightly, those big red eyes blinking there, no one knew what he was thinking in his heart.

"Mr. Black... you also know what happened back then... And now this evil sword, and the ghost servant suddenly came to the Dark City... Don't you think it is strange?"

"Did they come for what happened back then?" The Palace Master of the Black Palace asked slightly.

But seeing Mr. Hei in front of him said: "No matter what they do... they must die."

"Our * gate has long hoped that these two people will die, but unfortunately there has been no chance...now that they have found this place, then we will let the two of them be buried here." Mr. Hei said unhurriedly. Say.

"Yes."

"I think the evil gods fell under our feet back then...huh, now the two of them will die here too." The red-haired blood pupil suddenly roared.

Hearing them say this, the palace lord of the Black Palace showed a weird smile.

"The two want to know the whereabouts of that Duguxie and the ghost servant?" The Palace Master of the Black Palace who listened to the moment suddenly looked at Mr. Hei and the blood pupil and asked.

Mr. Black looked at the Palace Master of the Black Palace and said, "Do you know their clues?"

The Black Palace Lord shook his head.

"I don't know yet... but I have arranged for someone to check..."

"If you two are interested in Duguxie and ghost servants, I will let my people find out and tell you immediately." The Black Palace Lord in front of you said grimly.

But unexpectedly, I saw Mr. Hei slightly waved his hand and said, "Thank you Palace Master for your kindness... It's just that we don't want to do anything with those two people now."

"We came to the Dark City this time to kill our  renegade... As for the Duguxie and the ghost servants, hehe, it's better not to provoke him."

Hearing what Mr. Hei in front of him said, the palace lord of the black palace said, "Okay."

"Since Mr. Hei doesn't want to deal with the Duguxie and the ghost servant first... Then I am not too strong."

"Ok."

"Okay, then I will retreat first... let's not disturb the two of you." The Palace Master of the Black Palace said as he slipped his wheelchair and walked slowly outside.

After the palace lord of the black palace walked out, I saw that Mr. Hei's smiling face turned ugly at this moment.

Looking coldly at the tightly closed door, I didn't know what was thinking in my mind.

The red-haired blood pupil next to him suddenly turned his head and said to Mr. Hei at this moment: "Why didn't we say that we were going to deal with the Duguxie and the ghost servant?"

"These two people have always been the confidant of our sect master. If we kill them here, the sect master will definitely be very happy." Just listen to the red hair and blood pupil roaring there at the moment.

After he said this, Mr. Black in front of him suddenly looked at him coldly.

"Why should we do it?"

"Are you stupid?"

"Don't forget, the poison emperor is also responsible for the incident that participated in the evil  massacre."

"If I'm correct, the reason why Duguxie and the ghost servants came to the Dark City must have heard some clues... They came here to find the truth about the murder of the evil  back then..."

"Now they don't deal with those two people but let us deal with Duguxie and the ghost servant... Hmph, obviously they want us to help them, are you willing to be a fool who has been called?"

Mr. Black said coldly there.

After Mr. Hei's cold words and words were analyzed, the red-haired and * pupils suddenly seemed to understand something...

He blinked his eyes and thought for a while and said: "What you said makes sense... It seems that these traitors are not good things either."

Mr. Black on the other side said slightly: "Now let's leave alone Duguxie and ghost servants... Our only purpose here is to * the Heavenly Book Pill Scroll back..."

"I just hope that we can find Long Yin as soon as possible...I hope we can get the Tianshu Pill scroll smoothly." Mr. Hei in front of him seemed to be worried about something, and said with a slight sigh.

The red-haired blood pupil sat there and nodded silently, and said nothing more.

Chapter 1235: Recuperate

The dark clouds have all shrouded above the dark city, and now all that is waiting is for the clouds to clear away.

Once the real hurricane blows, I don't know what changes will happen to the entire Dark City.

At this moment, Li Tian and his brothers were still quietly staying in the old and cold room.

Tang Xiaolong has gradually sobered up... the wound on his body has been simply bandaged by the ghost servant, and the blood has been temporarily restrained. In general, there is no major issue, but his face is still There is not much blood, pale and ugly.

The first thing he did after he was sober was to condolences Li Tian.

Although he was in a coma before, he knew that Li Tian had saved his life...So the first time he opened his eyes, he asked his little boss how he was.

The ghost servant and Duguxie sat aside and could only sigh slightly.

It turned out that Li Tian has not been sober until now.

His body is still very weak, very weak, and even using his own internal energy to save A Qiu and the dying Tang Xiaolong, it will cost him a lot of energy...So Li Tian still lies there weakly.

Tang Xiaolong's eyes slowly turned red when he saw his elder brother was unconscious because of him.

"Fuck me... If it weren't for me, the little boss wouldn't be like this." Tang Xiaolong said blamingly while wiping his ruddy eyes.

The ghost servant on the other side looked at Tang Xiaolong's expression and said quickly: "Xiaolong, don't talk nonsense."

"Get up... Hurry up and rest there, your body is still weak."

The ghost servant who was talking came over to help Tang Xiaolong who was covered in injuries.

But seeing Tang Xiaolong wiping his red eyes and saying, "Master... Am I of no use? Not only can't protect the little boss, but also hurt him for our brother." Tang Xiaolong was there. Said guiltily.

But the ghost servant looked at Xiaolong with a smile and said: "Fool, who dares to say that my disciple is useless at all?"

"Don't think like this... the young master was just overworked, so he was in a coma. After a period of rest, nothing will happen. Don't think about it, you know?"

"The only thing you have to do now is to take a good rest, have you heard?"

After the ghost servant said this, Tang Xiaolong lay down slightly, but there was no doubt that he was still worried about Li Tian in his heart.

Ah Qiu over there was already awake, but the brother who didn't like to talk just looked at the unconscious Li Tian with those sad eyes.

Although he did not speak, what was inside of him? Sometimes the pain of not speaking is more painful than the pain of speaking.

This is true for Ah Qiu, who has never liked to talk.

Time passed by every minute.

The brothers stayed there quietly with Li Tian who was in a coma, and nothing major happened in the middle.

Finally, after waiting for almost two hours, the comatose Li Tian finally had a little reaction, but saw his body move slightly.

When the Duguxie and ghost servants who had been following Li Tian suddenly saw Li Tian's body move suddenly, they couldn't help but said with joy: "Young Master is awake... Young Master is awake."

After the ghost servant over here yelled out happily, but seeing that Tang Xiaolong and A Qiu who were seriously injured over there ran over regardless of their injuries.

"Little boss...Little boss..." Tang Xiaolong shouted vigorously there.

A Qiu on one side also came over, looking at Li Tian with his eyes open.

But after seeing Li Tian's body move slightly, his eyes opened slowly in response to the shout.

When he opened his eyes, the tired look in his eyes could be clearly seen.

"Young Master... Young Master." That Duguxie exclaimed excitedly.

"Young Master, you are awake."

Li Tian saw his brothers in front of him at the first moment he opened his eyes.

"Little Dragon..." After seeing that Xiaolong was sober, Li Tian wanted to straighten up with excitement, but as soon as his body moved, he felt fatigue all over.

"Little boss...what's going on with you...it's all my fault, it's all we hurt you." Tang Xiaolong said reproachfully there.

That Duguxie hurriedly said: "Young Master, you have just awake, don't move around... Your body consumes too much energy, so you can't move at this moment."

Listening to Duguxie's words, Li Tian didn't move anymore. It was not that he didn't want to move, but he didn't have any strength at all, like a stinky skin that had been hollowed out.

But he was still happy in his heart, after all, he used his ability to save his two good brothers.

At this moment, Li Tian looked at Tang Xiaolong in front of him and at the corner of A Qiu's mouth with a smile and said, "You two are okay, I'm relieved..."

"Brother Tian, I just made you tired." Aqiu said, standing there.

Li Tiandao: "Don't say so many polite words between brothers."

"By the way... what about the old lady who saved us? How is she? Did she meet with us?" Li Tian blinked and looked around and asked.

Li Tian is the kind of person who knows his grievances, so after seeing that there is no old man in the audience to save him, he will not only ask worriedly,

But seeing Duguxie at this moment facing Li Tiandao: "Young Master, don't worry."

"That old man has already rendezvous with us, but she is gone again..." Du Guxie said simply.

Li Tian was slightly startled when Duguxie said this.

"she left?"

"Hey, that old man, I really didn't expect my kung fu to be so good... and saved our brother once at the most critical moment." Li Tian sighed.

When they remembered that when they first entered the Dark City, they saw that the old woman with rickety clothes and staggering walking turned out to be a first-class master, and he couldn't help being shocked secretly.

"Yes. We didn't expect that old man would be a master of masters." Ghost servant said aside.

"If there is a chance, I must thank her face to face for her life-saving grace." Li Tian said there.

The ghost servant next to him said: "Young master, don't worry, there will definitely be a chance."

After Li Tian was so sober, the brothers were no longer so worried.

The current Li Tian was slightly supported by Duguxie, and he wanted to slowly recover his state, so he sat there with his legs cross-legged in this meeting.

Ever since Li Tian's life and death Xuanmen acupoint was opened, Li Tian's internal energy has continued to flow, and it seems that he will never be able to finish it. But this time, in order to save his two brothers, Li Tian still tried too hard, so this will He must exercise his strength to recover his body quickly.

Chapter 1236: Madman: Opteron

The slight heat generated in the abdomen, as Li Tian slowly wandered away, and then the heat began to spread all over Li Tian's body, and at this moment Li Tian could gradually feel his body slowly beginning to be full of strength.

In this way, Li Tian and the brothers who were treating him quietly, suddenly heard loud noises from people in front of them.

After hearing the sound suddenly, Duguxie, the ghost servant, and the Opteron stood up first, and then their eyes became cautious.

"Ghost servant, what's the situation with you in the past...I and Opteron protect Young Master and Xiaolong."

Hearing Duguxie's instructions, the ghost servant nodded quickly, then said "OK" in his mouth, and then flew out in a flash, and quickly swept toward the voice.

And the Duguxie and Hao Long here cautiously protected Li Tian who was still in the treatment of Yun Gong, and Tang Xiaolong and A Qiu who were seriously injured.

Tang Xiaolong would endure his physical injury, and slowly stood up while supporting a wall.

"Senior Dugu...Could it be those * who chased him down?" He asked.

The Duguxie in front of him stood there with a cold face, and shook his head slightly. Of course he didn't know who the voice was speaking.

"If it's really those bastards, let's fight them..." Although Tang Xiaolong was seriously injured, he still clenched his fierce fist at this moment.

Duguxie glanced at Tang Xiaolong and smiled slightly: "Xiaolong, you can rest quietly..."

"Even if those people chase and kill, we will resist it." Duguxie said.

Hearing Duguxie's words, Tang Xiaolong didn't speak any more, and sat down slightly.

But seeing the ghost servant at this time, after 2 minutes of going out, he quickly swept back.

"Second brother..." After returning, the ghost servant cried out with an ugly expression.

Duguxie said: "How is it? Who is it?"

"It's the people who chased us!" A word came out from the ghost servant's mouth.

"But it looks like they are here to find us. There are not many...only a dozen."

When the ghost servant added this sentence again, the Duguxie in front of him suddenly revealed fiery murderous intent in his eyes.

"Second brother, to kill or not to kill?" The ghost servant suddenly looked at Duguxie and asked.

Duguxie thought for a while.

"Kill!" a cold word came out of his mouth.

"Since they want to die...then we will fulfill them." Duguxie suddenly lifted the bronze sword in his hand and said.

When the ghost servant heard Duguxie say this, he said hello, and prepared to pass.

But seeing this, Opteron walked over slightly.

"Duguxie, ghost servant, you should take care of Li Tian..."

"Leave the dozens of people to me...I'll settle them." White Dragon said.

It was the first time that Opteron decided to play spontaneously.

For a long time, this once-in-the-army tiger did not act alone, and this time he actually wanted to settle the dozens of people by himself.

After the white dragon spoke, to be honest, the ghost servant and Du Guxie were quite surprised.

The ghost servant did not speak at the moment, but raised his eyes to look at Duguxie, waiting for his reply.

But seeing Duguxie glanced at the white dragon standing there, a smile appeared on his indifferent face.

"Okay, I will trouble you." Du Guxie agreed.

When Duguxie said this, Opteron didn't say a word, and then walked towards the front alone.

Looking at the distant figure of White Dragon, the ghost servant said slightly: "Second brother...it seems that this wooden fellow is finally going to kill..."

Duguxie also showed a smile.

"Yes, from the North China Field Army, he has never shown a sharp edge... He has never made any shots... It seems that he is really ready to kill him this time."

It was true that Opteron hadn't made much shots along the way. Not to mention the murderous precepts like Li Tian and Duguxie. No way, he is a soldier after all, a soldier with discipline and strict requirements.

But today, Opteron seems to have changed.

He is really going to take action, and it is a single-handed action. It seems that this man who has been holding back his murderous aura is finally going to slaughter the Quartet.

Can't imagine how bold this once was when the No. 1 Tiger in the North China Field Army was angry? How capable is this mad dragon character who was able to fight the evil god?

Seeing that the white dragon's tall back disappeared, a voiceless excitement rose in the eyes of the ghost servant and the Duguxie.

On the street in front, you can see 16, and 17 guys in different dresses with knives and guns in their hands looking for them.

They are the characters sent by the eldest sister to find Li Tian and their whereabouts.

These cruel characters seem to have to cause Li Tian and his brothers to die. If they are so aggressive, then who died in the end?

At this moment, when these dozen guys suddenly walked towards the front place, they suddenly saw a tall and indifferent figure standing motionless on the opposite side.

Opteron.

The first fierce of the North China Field Army: Opteron.

When Opteron appeared on the opposite side, the dozen or so people with the guy in their hands were suddenly taken aback.

"Damn, I found it..."

"It's him... he's one of those strangers..." Only one guy yelled at the white dragon at the moment.

"Why is he the only one? What about the rest?"

"Take care of so much dry hair... The eldest sister has already said that as long as one of them is killed, the prize will be 100,000 in cash." I saw one of the men with unusual red hair saying there.

The other guy was still holding a cigarette in his mouth. The guy who looked awesome and red at the moment spit out half of the cigarette in his mouth, and then picked up the guy and said, "Then what are you waiting for... , Killed him."

As these crazy desperadoes finished speaking those words, then these characters who were not afraid of death rushed towards the Opteron like crazy, a dozen people, a dozen knives, and * faces. Wang's Opteron rushed over, as if he wanted to hack Opteron to death here.

Facing these dozen desperadoes, Opteron stood there like a mountain, without even moving.

He just raised those cold eyes, staring at the dozen or so guys who were not afraid of death in front of him.

Then his fists slowly began to clen, and the chucking of joints showed his mighty power.

Just when the dozen desperadoes rushed towards him with a machete, the white dragon suddenly burst out with extremely powerful murderous intent.

The two violent arms swept across like iron chains.

Ah, ah, the screams suddenly came from the mouths of the desperadoes.

Zhigang's boxing technique, the iron-blooded man, quickly smashed into a dozen people alone.

Whoever blocks will die, whoever blocks will fall.

Chapter 1237: Decide

The masculine spirit that had been trained in the army was completely released at this moment.

With every punch, you will hear the sound of the opponent's desperate muscles breaking.

Then came a series of tragic calls.

Although some desperadoes don't want their lives and fear nothing, they have weakened their legs in the face of this madman.

Because in less than a few minutes, more than a dozen guys have fallen on the ground. Some of those more than a dozen guys have been beaten to death alive, and some are crippled on the ground to gasp, screaming...

The remaining 34 men held the knives in their hands abruptly, and never dared to go up again.

They are scared, their legs are weak.

And what about the Opteron in front? But it is more murderous.

run!

Escape, this is their only choice.

After thinking this way in my mind, the three guys with knives fled like crazy at the moment.

It's a pity that Opteron gave them a chance to kick a bright machete under his feet suddenly, and then he reached out and took it in his hand.

At the moment of receiving it in his hand, Opteron jumped forward, his body spreading his wings like a big Peng, and suddenly the machete in his hand made a knife mark.

There was a scream, but seeing the two desperadoes who had just missed two steps were hit in the back by the machete in the hands of Opteron, with a scream, the two fell to the ground.

The remaining man's legs were completely soft, and he fell to the ground.

He was so scared that he couldn't help backing back, even his crotch was wet, and he gasped and cried, "No... you want to kill me... don't kill me..."

The words had just been uttered, but saw the steel knife in the hands of Opteron slammed into his stomach.

With a flutter, the sharp machete stabbed him into his body. The man's eyes widened violently, then he looked at the deadly machete on his stomach in disbelief, and then he died tragically there.

Without even looking at the corpse, Opteron suddenly turned his tall body, and then walked towards the back step by step.

The Duguxie, the ghost servant, Tang Xiaolong and others were all waiting for the return of the white dragon.

None of them knew what was going on outside.

While they were waiting, they suddenly heard footsteps coming step by step.

Then he saw the burly and tall figure of Opteron, and at the same time he held a man with a pale face as gray as death in his hand.

That man was undoubtedly one of the lives captured by Opteron.

At this moment, it was picked up by Opteron, like a chicken.

After returning, but seeing the white dragon stretch out his hand and throw it away, the boy's body was like a sandbag and was thrown heavily in front of Duguxie and the ghost servant.

"This is the only living mouth." A word came out of Du Guxie's mouth.

In less than five minutes, Opteron ended the battle... and slaughtered all the dozen guys.

Domineering.

Listening to what Opteron said, Duguxie and the ghost servant both showed a smile.

Then he looked at the man with his face upside down on the ground.

The man had already collapsed. At this time, after seeing that he was caught back, his eyes were full of panic and fear.

"Please... don't kill me... don't kill me..."

"I promise to do anything you ask me... as long as you don't kill me." The man knelt on the ground at the moment, begging for mercy.

He slammed his head to Duguxie and the ghost servant, as if he would be willing to do anything as long as he survived.

"Tell me, who sent you to chase us?" Duguxie said coldly, looking at the desperado who begged them.

The desperado just wanted to survive at this time, so he quickly said, "It's the elder sister... the eldest sister sent us to chase you down."

"All this is what the older sister forced us to do... and we have no responsibility for being a little one..."

"Please, please don't kill me." The desperado said on his knees begging for mercy.

"It's her again." Du Guxie said fiercely.

"Tell me, where can I find her?" Suddenly Duguxie looked at the man coldly and asked.

Just listen to the man saying: "As long as you reach the old nest, you can find the eldest sister...she stays there."

After hearing this desperado say so, the Duguxie in front of him suddenly turned his head and glanced at the ghost servant, and then the two of them agreed.

"Well...you will take us to find your eldest sister later." I heard Duguxie suddenly say.

When the desperado heard that Duguxie actually wanted to take them to find the eldest sister, he was stunned.

"what?"

"No...I don't dare..." The desperado's eyes suddenly showed fear.

"She will kill me... She will peel off my skin." Just listen to the desperado say in fear.

The ghost servant on one side sneered at the man and said, "Hmph, if you don't take us, believe it or not, I will make you die ten thousand times more cruel than in the hands of that woman."

Facing the ghost servant wearing a grimace mask, the desperadoes suddenly became dumbfounded.

"Ok...ok...I'll take you there." The desperado finally decided to take the brothers to find the eldest sister.

After all, he is not stupid, and of course he can feel that the ghost servant's words are absolutely not joking.

After the desperadoes agreed, Duguxie and the ghost servants were ready to "revenge,"

The character called "Eldest Sister", no matter who it is, no matter how ferocious, since they have provoke themselves now, then they will definitely pay for it.

Now everyone is waiting for Li Tian, waiting for Li Tian's recovery.

Li Tian quietly sat there to recuperate himself.

Finally after almost an hour, Li Tian finally slowly spit out a white gas from his mouth, and then slowly opened his eyes.

The moment he opened his eyes, his eyes burst out once again.

Yes, Li Tian has recovered.

Although Li Tian spent too much energy to rescue his brothers, his life and death profound door had already been opened, so the speed of his internal energy recovery was at least ten times faster than that of normal people.

Isn't this? After sitting quietly for almost three hours, Li Tian has now at least recovered more than half of his abilities.

At this moment, after Li Tian opened his eyes, the Duguxie, the ghost servant, and the Haolong saw a different Li Tian.

"Young Master...you look more energetic."

"Yes, Young Master." The two could not help looking at Li Tian with joy in their hearts.

After breathing out his true anger, Li Tian slowly stood up, shook his numb body, and said, "Well, I have recovered."

"Little boss, I am relieved to see that you are okay." Tang Xiaolong over there also said.

Chapter 1238: Revenge moment

Li Tian looked at Tang Xiaolong and his good brother Aqiu and said, "Don't worry, I'm fine."

After Li Tian finished speaking, he suddenly raised his eyes and saw the desperado huddled in the corner on one side.

The man's face was extremely pale, his eyes filled with unknown fear, and he sat timidly in that corner.

After taking a look at him, Li Tiandao said, "Who is he?"

So the Duguxie and the ghost servant told Li Tian about the white dragon going out to fight just now and the capture of this captive.

After hearing what they said, Li Tian turned his head and glanced at the desperado in front of him again.

"Young Master, the character named Big Sister doesn't know life and death. He has always been embarrassed for us, and this time he even went after us and sent people to chase us. I think we should give her a little bit of color." Suddenly Duguxie said to Li Tian.

"I think so too." Suddenly a cold word came out of Li Tian's mouth.

"I want her to die."

After Li Tianxia made up his mind, the brothers all made a decision.

They will retaliate.

That * eldest sister, it's time for her disaster.

"This guy said that the eldest sister is in their nest...I don't know if it is true or not?" Suddenly, Duguxie in front of him pointed to the desperado who shrank his eyes in the corner and said,

Li Tian looked at the desperate man with his eyes full of fear and said, "Are you saying true or false?"

"It's true...It's true..."

"How could I lie to you... The eldest sister is in the old nest." Just listen to the desperado hurriedly said in fear.

Listening to the desperadoes in front of him say this, Li Tianneng could see that he did not seem to be lying.

After determining the position of the eldest sister, Li Tian turned his head and glanced at the Duguxie and Tang Xiaolong in front of him.

"It's time for revenge." Four words came out of his mouth.

Duguxie and the ghost servant nodded there together.

"Xiaolong, Aqiu, you stay here." Li Tian told him at the moment.

Then Tang Xiaolong and A Qiu themselves suffered extremely serious injuries, so the two of them couldn't go at all at this moment.

After hearing Li Tian's instructions, Tang Xiaolong and A Qiu's eyes showed disappointment.

"Young Master, Ah Qiu and Xiaolong suffered extremely severe injuries, and someone must stay to protect them." The ghost servant at the moment said there,

Yes, this Qiu and Tang Xiaolong suffered such severe injuries, if they stayed, they would encounter those desperadoes, it would be bad.

At this moment, as the ghost servant said so, of course Li Tian had already thought of this question.

He slowly placed his eyes on that Opteron, then looked at Opteron and smiled.

"You stay and protect my two brothers..." Li Tian looked at the white dragon and said with a smile.

Hao Long stood there and glanced at Tang Xiaolong and Ah Qiu.

"Why me?" he asked stiffly.

Li Tiandao: "With your protection, I can rest assured."

He was telling the truth.

After Li Tian said that, the white dragon didn't say much, and nodded slightly with a face in silence.

"Okay, I'll wait for you," he said.

After Li Tian handed over the injured Tang Xiaolong and Na Aqiu to Opteron, his worries were gone.

At this moment, he said to the Duguxie and the ghost servant around him: "Let's go find that big sister... kill her."

"Ok."

"Take him away."

After Li Tian spit out this word coldly, then Duguxie and the ghost servants grabbed the desperadoes with fear on their faces and walked forward.

They are going to the elder sister's lair now, and then kill her personally.

After leaving with the desperado who led the way, the Duguxie, the ghost servant and Li Tian followed the desperado in front of them all the way.

"Go here." Although the desperado walking in front leads the way, he is still very scared, because he knows that he has no chance to run...If he moves, the people behind will definitely kill him.

Now he can only honestly take Li Tian and the others to find that big sister.

After passing the corner intersection ahead, I suddenly heard a voice coming from ahead.

The ghost servant quickly grabbed the desperado in front of him, then tightly pinched his neck, and then quickly leaned against the wall.

"There is someone in front." Just listen to the ghost servant saying there.

Li Tian and Duguxie were all aware of it, hiding at one end of the wall at this moment, blinking their eyes to look.

But seeing that there were 56 desperadoes walking down the street with guys in their hands.

After they walked over, the ghost servant slightly released a hand that was holding the desperado.

"Where is this place?" Only the ghost servant asked coldly.

The desperado said with a pale face: "It's almost here... there is one block away from the nest."

"it is good."

"You take us." The ghost servant forced him to say.

The desperado had no choice but to continue to lead Li Tian and the others towards the front.

The closer you go to the front block, the more you can find that there are a lot of people here, presumably Li Tian and his brothers have really reached the nest where the "big sister" lives.

After reaching the front block, Li Tian and Duguxie hid in the dark.

I saw that desperado who was forced by them pointed to an empty mansion guarded by 67 guys in front and said, "Big sister... right here."

"She's on the 17th floor of this building." Just listen to the desperado pointing at the building in front of him.

Li Tian and the brothers in front of him glanced at the towering deserted building in front of him. This building is very dilapidated, but very tall, and looks like 2030 floors in total.

Just at the entrance and exit of the building stood 67 little brothers with guys in their hands.

Besides, there seems to be no other way to enter this building except for the front entrance.

After looking at the environment in front of him, Li Tian frowned slightly.

"It seems that we want to go in and kill that woman... we must break in." Li Tiandao.

Duguxie also looked at the surrounding environment and said, "It can only be so."

Li Tian turned his head to look at the desperado and asked coldly: "Now tell me, how many of your people are in this building?"

"very many....."

"To put it bluntly, all the people in this building are under the eldest sister." The man said with frightened eyes.

Li Tian was depressed when the man in front of him said so.

At this moment, Li Tian glanced at the Duguxie in front of him, and then at the ghost servant in front of him, looking at the two of them in a questioning posture.

Chapter 1239: Bloody killing

The two did not speak, but looked at Li Tian and nodded.

After the two of them nodded together, a smile appeared at the corner of Li Tian's mouth.

Then he raised his arm and hit the back of the desperado next to him on the back of the head.

When the desperado didn't realize what was going on, his eyes suddenly went black, and the whole person fainted.

Li Tian didn't really kill this guy, but just knocked him out of a coma.

At this moment, after knocking out the guy who led the way in front of him, Li Tian and the Duguxie in front of him and the place where the ghost servant was hiding stepped out step by step.

The Chilian Sword was already in Li Tian's hands.

And Duguxie also exudes a terrifying killing intent from his entire body.

They are going to rush... It seems that the three of them are really going to head to the elder sister's nest.

As soon as the figures of the three of them appeared, a few desperadoes standing at the door with cigarettes in their mouths suddenly saw their figures.

"Who?"

"Who the * are you?" Only one of the guys holding a sharp machete raised the machete in his hand and pointed coldly at Li Tian, who was like a * of death, Duguxie and the ghost servants step by step.

Just when he said a fierce word, he saw Li Tian suddenly draw his sword.

The Chilian Sword came out of its sheath, and a black giant python with a gloomy aura suddenly swallowed it towards the man holding the sword arm.

Flutter a sword.

The Chilian Devil Sword slashed directly on one of the man's arms, and the guy's arm was chopped off immediately.

The moment the entire chopped arm fell to the ground, it was still squirming slightly, but the man screamed screamingly in Hysteri...The arm holding the blood like a fountain of blood screamed.

The magic sword was stained with blood, and it became more and more ferocious, and the black light became more explosive.

The little brothers who watched the door saw these people come up and killed the Quartet, so they raised the guys in his hands and cut them at Li Tian and the others.

"Hack them..."

A roar of 56 slashed the fierce machete fatally towards the Duguxie and the ghost servant in front of him.

Duguxie held the bronze sword in his hand, and the moment 56 people hacked at them, he let out an angry roar.

Then the blue light suddenly appeared...there was a sound of a dragon's roar in the warehouse, and then a long and narrow sword mark was slashed violently on the several men who rushed over.

Ahhhh screams.

All of the 56 guys were suddenly seen in different places, and each of them had a sharp and deadly sword mark on their bodies.

died.

In a blink of an eye, these 67 little brothers who were guarding the gate were killed alive by Li Tian and Duguxie.

Li Tian, Duguxie and the ghost servant in front of him did not hesitate at all, and then walked towards the building in front of him.

As soon as I arrived at the door, I heard the voice of screaming and killing coming from inside.

It turned out that the people on this floor had already heard the screaming sound just now, but after seeing more than 20 little brothers in their hands, they rushed towards Li Tian, Duguxie and the ghost servant frantically.

When the three of them saw so many people besieging them, they looked at each other coldly.

"kill....."

"Get in."

With a roar, Li Tian took the lead and jumped into the air.

Rashomon: Nine types.

A frightening atmosphere of darkness immediately permeated Li Tian's body. This Rashomon nine styles were the lifelong secrets of the dark Duanmu family. At this moment, once Li Angel came out, it really looked like a fierce demon.

Coupled with the red chain of the magic sword in his hand, it really is the Supreme Darkness.

Li Tian was enveloped in black aura like a demon, wherever he went, he screamed again and again.

Those desperadoes didn't seem to be close to Li Tian's side at all, and died one by one under Li Tian's magic sword, and then fell to the ground.

After that fierce magic sword was bloodthirsty, it seemed to be crazy, and the whole sword buzzed in Li Tian's hand, as if screaming excitedly.

Li Tian was slaughtering there like that... slaughtering these fresh lives.

Where is Duguxie? Stand with the sword.

Whoever blocks will die.

Although the bronze sword was not as fierce as the Red Demon Sword, Duguxie's sword moves were ten times, or even a hundred times more vicious than Li Tian.

As a generation of sword master Duguxie, his swordsmanship can be described as superb.

Every move can kill people, and the sword move is surprisingly fast.

Worthy of being the number one evil sword in the world: Duguxie.

As a result of sword strokes, a * corpse fell everywhere.

And where is the ghost servant over there? After the whole person entered the battlefield, the only thing he could see was a weird and erratic shadow. Those people could barely see the trace of the ghost servant, and then he was beaten to death by his cold ghost hand.

The brutal massacre, the * scene, it seems that Li Tian and his brothers are really angry.

Yes.

This extremely cruel eldest sister chased Li Tian and his brothers all the way for no reason, and also killed Tang Xiaolong and Aqiu who almost died tragically. How could Li Tian not repay this grudge?

So he is killing endlessly at this moment.

The blood seemed to have stained the entire ground... Except for the scarlet blood on the entire cold floor, there were dead bodies all over the floor.

"Elder sister...Elder sister...that bunch of strangers have killed our nest." Suddenly, on the 17th floor of the entire building, a pale man with a machete in his hand rushed in and said to the older sister Say.

The elder sister, who had an ugly face and was engraved with a "cross" scar, suddenly stepped over after hearing the words of her man, and then grabbed her neckline: "What did you say?"

Her voice was full of disbelief and anger, and her face became distorted.

I saw the little brother who was grabbed by her neckline and quickly said again: "Eldest sister...the bunch of strangers...the strangers actually came in..."

"How dare they bring it to the door by themselves?"

"Aren't they afraid of death?" The eldest sister shook off the younger brother beside her and walked there with a distorted expression.

The dozen or so little brothers standing in the room all showed shocked expressions.

"Sister, what should we do now? The murderous outsiders have broken into our first floor..."

"It seems to be coming in soon." The subordinates looked at the older sister and asked.

The ugly face of that elder sister suddenly became evil.

"Notify me everyone in the entire building...stop them...stop them...pass the order, no matter who kills the gang...I have many rewards."

"Remember, they must not be allowed to come up." Only the eldest sister in front of me said angrily.

After the elder sister in front of me said so, the younger brothers in the room yelled together: Yes!

Then he quickly ran downstairs...

After everyone retreated to intercept Li Tian and the others, the eldest sister on the 17th floor was extremely angry.

Chapter 1240: Destroy the world

xShe was pacing back and forth in the room, her face completely distorted by evil had long lost its original purple color, but now it was a hideous and ugly face.

"I'm going to kill them..."

"I want to kill them all."

She gasped in her mouth and said, like a hungry beast.

The * killings downstairs continued.

At this moment, Li Tian saw people murder and saw demons slaughter demons.

The Chilian Sword in his hand combined with his killing was really fierce. Needless to say, the Duguxie over there was also a one-stop ten, very domineering, and every sword swiped there was a scream of people.

But no matter how they killed them, it seemed that these people would never be slaughtered... and more people rushed in from upstairs one after another.

Li Tianyi saw that the number of people was increasing and each of them seemed to be not afraid of death at all. When he knew that he was going to die or rushing forward, Li Tian exploded with anger.

With a clang, his magic sword was sheathed.

He doesn't need a sword anymore.

When the red sword was squeezed into the scabbard by Li Tian, the entire black mang disappeared unwillingly...At the same time, the whole sword also lost his original sharpness, as if unwilling, as if angry.

However, after Li Tian returned the red forged sword to the scabbard, the dark air flow in his body has become heavier and heavier.

The internal energy continuously injected from the two channels of Ren Du and Du, gradually infused into his two arms.

The fierce force accumulates in his hands like a river with an open channel.

Oh my god, is he going to use that trick?

The move that destroys the world?

The trick in the Heavenly Book Pill Book has no name and no explanation for the world-destroying control! ! !

Yes, Li Tian really wants to use that supreme hand.

When the energy of the whole body was poured into both palms, the desperate desperadoes who rushed over suddenly felt that the atmosphere of the surrounding space seemed to change in an instant... It became suffocating, it became like the whole space. Was torn apart.

boom! !

There was a loud noise.

When Li Tian's palm came out, the entire first floor seemed to be torn apart alive, and then I saw the powerful palm power shook out from the clutches of the world destroying the world like a hurricane. The desperate group of desperadoes shot.

The black devilish energy pressed toward the desperadoes like a billowing cloud.

Those desperadoes can only feel the breath of suffocation suffocating their chests, internal organs...

Ahhhhh...

But seeing those desperadoes who couldn't stand the palm strength, they were suddenly shocked and they fell to the ground violently.

Although some were not shaken to death alive, they seemed to be crippled. They fell to the ground, screaming hoarsely, and could no longer get up.

In a blink of an eye, the dozens of desperadoes who were still in the limelight just now all fell when Li Tian used this trick to ruin the world and destroy the earth.

In the dark breath, but seeing Li Tian standing still there.

His eyes have turned blood red, like a demon, an evil demon.

Looking at the corpses on the ground that he had killed, he didn't show any mercy.

At this moment, the Duguxie and the ghost servants standing there couldn't help being shocked when they saw their young master's use of the supreme control of the heavenly book pill scroll.

"This trick again?"

"Young Master has used this trick again..." Du Guxie muttered unbelievably there.

According to the truth, it should have been a fortunate thing for Li Tian to shake all the desperadoes with this palm technique, but I don't know why, but the eyes of Duguxie and the ghost servant at this moment are deeply carried. A weird expression.

It seemed that the two of them were also shocked by Li Tian's domineering skill.

The ghost servant in front of him also looked at the fallen corpses on the ground in disbelief, and then looked at Li Tian over there in disbelief.

The murderous Li Tian was standing there at this moment, filled with a terrifying aura that Duguxie and the ghost servant had never seen before...

"go!"

Suddenly Li Tian didn't even look at the corpses he had slaughtered. He took cold steps, stepped on the blood on the ground and walked upstairs step by step.

The Duguxie and the ghost servants here were slightly stunned, and then they looked at each other weirdly, and then followed Li Tian upstairs without saying anything.

When I first walked to the front position, I saw a dozen desperadoes with guys in their hands rushing over.

But when the desperadoes rushed down to see the corpses of their brothers lying on the ground, and the brothers who were not dead but wailing and screaming, they were stunned...

The guy in his hand dared not rush anymore.

I couldn't help going back one by one.

Scared? death?

Who can not be afraid?

Seeing that there are corpses all over there...Don't they want to live? Still want to come up to die? Of course they are not stupid, so they didn't do anything, they just stepped back around Li Tian and the brothers.

Li Tian was full of wicked hostility at the moment, walking forward step by step.

No one dared to stop him.

I didn't know that it was the desperate guy who yelled at this moment, raising the guy in his hand and rushing over. Just as he rushed over, Li Tian slapped his hand.

The violent palms directly shook the body of the desperate guy out, and the entire body that had been blasted out fell heavily on the cold wall. With a bang, the person was shaken to death alive.

Blood was still flowing on the cold walls.

They seemed to have seen the real demon at this moment, saw the real murderous madness, and they all stepped back in fear.

"Eldest sister, can't keep it... the outsiders are too powerful... they have already killed them." At this moment, a little brother covered in blood came to the room on the 17th floor and said to the older sister.

He didn't know whether it was his blood stains or the blood stains of his companions. He looked * and violent... At this moment, he was breathing violently for the eldest sister in front of him, while talking there.

But seeing the ugly eldest sister suddenly seemed crazy when she heard her say this.

"What did you say? You say it again?" Suddenly she asked with a distorted face and grabbing her hands.

The teeth of that man seemed to be trembling and said: "Sister...the group of people are really amazing...They are simply not humans, demons, beasts,...our...brother...brother... ...All died in their hands...So far, our dead brothers have almost a hundred people."
