

A Killer 1291

Chapter 1291: Ruzi can't be taught

Where did Li Tian and the mysterious gray robe senior arrive? It is estimated that no one knows except them.

In the dark city, the cold wind is still blowing, blowing this city full of depravity.

"Senior, why are we here?"

Far away from the outside world of the dark city, but seen in a piece of yellow sand, a naked, muscular man sitting in the hot yellow sand in the sky.

He is not someone else, it is Li Tian.

Li Tian at the moment is completely like a "savage."

His bronze skin exudes a male domineering atmosphere under the hot sunlight, and the scars on his body are mottled vertically and horizontally, just like a domineering totem.

The sky was the scorching sun, and the scorching sun was basking Li Tian's entire body at this moment.

And Li Tian was sitting cross-legged on the yellow sand like that, sweat was already falling drop by drop on his face, and the whole body slowly began to shed sweat.

But he couldn't move, he couldn't move, he could only sit like this.

Beside him is the mysterious old man in gray robe standing with his hands on his back.

The mysterious gray-robed old man stood with his hands on his back, and his white hair was blown by the hot sand and fluttered in the wind.

How did they get into the desert?

How could this be?

And how could Li Tian sit in the hot yellow sand with his upper body naked?

It turned out that the mysterious gray-robed old man asked Li Tian to do all this.

But after seeing this meeting, Li Tian followed his question, the gray-robed old man standing quietly beside him said slightly: "The old man just wants you not to be disturbed by the outside world..."

"You should continue to sit here and meditate..."

Following the words of the mysterious gray-robed old man, his figure suddenly swept away like a big Peng spreading his wings.

Gradually his figure rose and fell two times in the hot yellow sand, and then disappeared.

What about Li Tian? Can only continue to sit there.

Meditation, meditation.

Li Tian couldn't understand, this gray-robed old man taught himself Kung Fu, is it the so-called teaching himself how to meditate?

He really can't figure it out.

But even though Li Tian couldn't understand, he still listened to the words of the mysterious senior.

So he held his breath, concentrated all the attention of his body, and continued to meditate.

The blazing sun was baking him there, his skin seemed to be burning, but Li Tian endured, endured the scorching pain, he felt everything around him with his mind.

Sun, hot wind, and hot yellow sand... and the goshawk that occasionally flew above his head.

After sitting quietly in the desert for a day with his eyes closed like this, Li Tian felt that his whole body was getting overdrawn bit by bit.

Fortunately, at night, the air fell. There was no daytime heat or sandstorm during the day, and Li Tian felt much better.

At this moment, he felt much more comfortable meditating in the dark, and he could feel everything around him more clearly.

Li Tian closed his eyes as if he could feel the darkness, he could feel the yellow sand around him being blown up by the cold wind... just sitting, feeling and feeling everything around him.

When Li Tian was meditating, a strong wind suddenly swept over from a distance.

From a distance, I saw a figure flying here in the long yellow sand.

Of course he is the gray-robed old man.

After the gray-robed old man reached Li Tian's side, he took a look at Li Tian, and then said slightly, "Okay, you can stand up."

Hearing what the mysterious gray-robed old man said, Li Tian quickly opened his eyes, then moved his numb limbs, and then quickly stood up.

"Senior." After standing up, Li Tian yelled respectfully in the gray robe senior who looked in front of him.

The gray-robed old man gave a hum, then looked at Li Tiandao in front of him and asked: "Tell me, what did you hear in meditation today?"

Li Tian frowned slightly, and said to himself: Why is this problem again?

After thinking about it, Li Tiandao said: "I heard the sound of sand blowing in the wind...I can hear the sound of sand scattered on the ground...I can still hear..."

While Li Tian was narrating what he had heard today, the gray-robed old man in front of him suddenly turned cold.

"Okay, don't talk about it." The gray-robed old man said in a very bad tone.

Li Tian was startled slightly, it was obvious that his answer made the mysterious gray-robed senior very dissatisfied.

After the gray-robed old man became angry, Li Tian felt helpless and stood there without speaking.

"Tomorrow you will continue to sit here to meditate... Also, starting from tomorrow, you are not allowed to rest at night... If you can't realize one day, you are not allowed to rest." The gray-robed old man spit out coldly.

When the gray-robed old man uttered such a sentence, Li Tian finally couldn't help his inner question. Although he respected the gray-robed old man in front of him very much, he still couldn't help his doubts.

So he held back his heart and said, "Senior... please tell me, when will I think about it?"

"Is Li Tian just sitting here and meditating all my life?"

"Senior, you promised me to teach me kung fu. I respect and appreciate seniors, Li Tian, but I won't be teased by Li Tian... So meditating, I really don't know when Li Tian will be a head?"

After Li Tian vented his dissatisfaction all of a sudden, the old man in the gray robe suddenly turned his old face.

The powerful energy that filled the gray-robed old man's body immediately caused Li Tian's body to retreat uncontrollably.

"Fool, presumptuous!" The roar came out violently from the gray-robed old man's mouth.

That powerful energy made the yellow sand around the gray-robed old man fly up, and it also made Li Tian's body standing in front of him suddenly seem a little unable to stand, almost shocked by the powerful innocent energy Downfall in general.

"Fool, how dare you say that the old man teased you?" The roaring voice came out of Senior Grey's mouth again.

But seeing Li Tian also felt that he had said something wrong. No matter how this old man taught him kung fu, he always asked for tutoring, and for such a long time, it was the mysterious old man in front of him that helped him once. After a difficult time, thinking of this, a state of guilt surged from the depths of Li Tian's heart.

"Senior, I was wrong..." Li Tian said with his head down suddenly.

I saw the mysterious gray-robed old man in front of him whispered coldly at the corner of his mouth: "Huh, you can't even understand the old man's Maha Boundless Beginner Realm, and you want to learn the old man's Maha Boundless magic...It's a shame. ,shame."

"You are inferior to your father by 10,000, just because of you, you still want revenge... Humph!!!"

"You can't teach a child!"

After the mysterious gray-robed old man threw down these few words fiercely, his figure suddenly rose from the ground and swept towards the desert of the night at the speed of an electric light, no longer ignoring Li Tian.

Chapter 1292: Grain of sand

What about Li Tian? After being scolded by the mysterious gray-robed old man, the whole person seemed completely stunned.

He sat down on the icy desert with a slumped ass, staring at the distant starry sky with dull eyes.

"Am I really stupid?"

"Am I really stupid?"

"Why can't I understand... Why can't I feel anything... Is everything the senior said true? Am I really that stupid?"

Li Tian looked at the dark sky in despair.

In the past, Li Tian was confident.

No matter it was at any time, from Li Tian who came out of the small county town, to Li Tian who comprehended Tianshu Danjuan, to Li Tian who broke through all the way to the present, he has always maintained a state of blood boiling... even for a time. An extremely confident state.

But today, at this moment, he suddenly felt that he was going to collapse completely.

For the first time, he felt his "dumbness" and his own "clumsy". He didn't know that the mysterious gray-robed old man made him understand the mystery, let alone where he did something wrong... Now he felt this for the first time. Of confusion.

Looking at the boundless black sky, Li Tian stayed there like that, he didn't know what to think.

But what about the gray-robed old man? After leaving with such anger, will he never take care of Li Tian again?

But under the endless darkness, the cold wind blows up the sand, and the yellow sand is flying around with the cold wind in the dark night sky.

The sky is covered with black spots of starlight, and here is indeed a piece of yellow sand, and the entire open field of vision is endless, giving people an extremely spectacular scene.

But seen in the long yellow sand, the figure of the gray-robed old man stands tall in this world.

He looked up at the sky, as if feeling something there.

The wind blew through his snow-white hair, floating away, the wrinkles of the years on his face seemed to be telling ancient stories.

Suddenly the mysterious gray-robed old man in the cold wind couldn't help muttering to himself.

"Is the old man asking too much?" A word came out from the corner of his mouth.

"I have been with that child for less than 3 days, and now I want him to understand the boundless realm of Maha... Am I too impatient?" In the darkness, the gray-robed old man asked side by side. Yourself.

Finally, he finally sighed deeply: It seems that I was wrong...I demanded too much of that child.

Who can imagine this mysterious old man condemning himself in the empty night?

If Li Tian can hear it now, he must be extremely happy in his heart.

Just listen to the gray-robed old man suddenly muttering there again: "It took me more than two hundred years to realize the Maha Boundless... Now I want that kid to realize it in a few days... Haha, haha, It seems that it's not that the child is dull, but I am dull, hey."

The gray-robed old man mocked himself in the darkness.

"But if he really can't understand the true meaning of meditation, the old man can't do it... Even if I teach him formulas, I can't make him practice magical skills." The gray-robed old man suddenly sighed and said.

"Forget it, everything depends on fate... in the dark, there is a destiny." After the gray-robed old man said that, he didn't say a word.

Where is Li Tian? What will it look like after experiencing the first such severe blow last night?

Will he just collapse like this? In other words, he just stopped making progress, or he would never practice that "Mahwa" anymore...

The next day, the sun was scorching.

The sun is still scorching the desert in front of you, and the yellow sand is hot and hot. Just touching the sand with your hands will make it hot and painful.

Just in the scorching sun, I can see a male masculine body sitting quietly in the hot desert.

His skin has been tanned, and hot sweat has flowed from his scarred back, face, and body, and occasionally a gust of wind blows, and the wind feels like a hot roast. It's not wind, but a hot, steaming heat.

What about Li Tian? Just sit in the hot desert.

The scorching sun and the steaming hot wind seemed to be unable to invade his body. He sat naked and his entire back under the sun like that, letting the scorching sun shine, letting everything go, and he was meditating carefully...

I thought that Li Tian would give up, but didn't expect Li Tian to insist on meditating there, insisting on everything.

Far away, but saw the figure of the gray-robed old man swooping over from a distant place.

The mysterious old man in the gray robe did not leave! !

When the figure of the mysterious old man in the gray robe flew over quickly, he saw Li Tian sitting still in the hot desert at a glance.

Originally, even he thought that Li Tian would give up, but when he saw Li Tian continue to sit and meditate in the hot desert, his eyes finally showed relief.

"Yes...Yes...This is like the son of Kua Father Cthulhu." The mysterious old man in the gray robe murmured.

Although Li Tian closed his eyes there, he had already heard the sound coming from the strong wind. Needless to say, he knew that it was the mysterious old man in gray robe.

At the moment he was still sitting there quietly, eyes closed.

After arriving in front of Li Tian, the mysterious gray-robed old man stood there with his hands on his back and paused for a while before he said: "Remember my words, if you want to practice, you must be immeasurable. You must achieve no form and impermanence."

"There are no ten aspects of sentient beings, and there is no impermanence of all beings. The main body of the ten aspects is hue, sound, fragrance, taste, contact, life and residence, bad, male, and female, and impermanence refers to the changing situation... "

"Child, you have to keep in mind: all beings have no form before they become one."

Li Tian closed his eyes and listened to the words of the mysterious gray-robed old man, and nodded deeply.

"You open your eyes and look at my hand..." Suddenly the mysterious gray-robed old man said a word.

At the moment when the mysterious gray-robed old man asked Li Tian to open his eyes, Li Tian slowly opened his eyes, and then looked at the mysterious gray-robed old man.

But seeing the mysterious gray-robed old man slowly stretched out a hand, and then saw that on the thin old hand, a small grain of sand that was almost invisible to the eyes was placed in his palm.

He smiled and looked at Li Tian in front of him, and said: "See clearly..."

Li Tian stared tightly at the hand of the mysterious gray robe senior in front of him, and then slowly nodded.

After nodding, but seeing the mysterious gray-robed old man's palm moved slightly, an invisible energy slowly suspended the tiny grain of sand that was almost invisible with the naked eye... and the whole grain of sand was also Slowly reached the middle of the gray-robed old man's palm.

Then the gray-robed old man turned his palm lightly, and the small grain of sand turned in a fast rolling manner. I don't know if it was urged to move by the gray-robed old man's strength... I don't know whether it was. For some reason, the sand suspended on the palm of the gray-robed old man began to turn around...then the mysterious old man in gray-robed stretched out his right hand slightly, and the sand suspended in the palm of his palm moved toward the front of him at a fast speed. Swirling over the open place.

Just hearing a bang, the moment a small grain of sand that was almost invisible to the eyes whirled out, it turned out to be like an explosion, causing a huge whirlpool to explode on the sand in front of it.

The energy dissipated and the yellow sand flew!

Chapter 1293: A thousand days of enlightenment, an epiphany

If Li Tian hadn't seen it with his own eyes at this moment, would he dare to believe it was true? This is a fact?

Gosh! Too strong.

A piece of ordinary sand has become so powerful in the hands of the mysterious gray-robed old man! It was too terrifying for Li Tianzhen.

Looking at the huge vortex not far in front, Li Tian was completely stunned. At this moment, all his previous doubts and puzzles were gone.

He stared at the mysterious gray-robed old man in front of him stupidly.

After the mysterious gray-robed old man showed his hand slightly, he looked at Li Tian and said slowly, "Did you see clearly?"

"Look... I see it clearly." Li Tianzhen was horrified, even his words became uncomfortable.

The mysterious gray-robed old man continued: "This is the immeasurable power of Maha...Remember, although the grains of sand are small, the sand in the sky can form vast sand dunes, and use a single force to drive the overall power. Lead out the avenue."

"Only in this state can Maha Wuliang exert his real mighty power, and the prerequisite for this is that all living beings are impermanent and impermanent."

After the mysterious gray-robed old man slightly incited, Li Tian muttered these four words silently in his mouth.

"No phase, impermanence..." He muttered these words silently in his mouth.

As he chanted these words, his mind started to think about the meaning of these words at the same time...

What exactly did the mysterious gray-robed old man let him sit here to realize? What on earth is he listening to?

To be honest, Li Tian still doesn't know very well. Although he has seen the powerful strength of the mysterious senior with his own eyes, he still hasn't realized the true meaning of impermanence.

A thousand days of enlightenment, hope, I will wake up.

On this day, Li Tian sat quietly for a day.

When arriving at night, the mysterious gray-robed old man came again, and asked the same question as the previous day.

"Tell me, what did you hear today?"

Li Tian said in darkness for a moment, and slowly said, "I still heard the sound of the wind blowing... I heard the sound of flying sand..."

The gray-robed old man sighed deeply and sighed.

"Continue tomorrow..." Four words came out of the gray-robed old man's mouth.

Li Tian didn't ask the reason again this time, nor did he ask why, he just continued to do what the mysterious gray-robed old man said.

The next day was another day.

The third day is also a repeating day...

In this way, after seven consecutive days, Li Tian has been sitting and listening repeatedly.

In the past few days, every night, the old man in gray robe would come and ask, what did Li Tian hear during this day?

Li Tian then answered everything he could hear!

But whenever Li Tian finished answering, the mysterious gray-robed old man sighed and shook his head, feeling dissatisfied.

Facing such a situation, what exactly did the mysterious gray-robed old man tell Li Tianjing to sit there and listen?

Could it be that Maha's boundless kung fu can only be learned by this meditation?

Do not!

Or what do you have to hear first in order to learn this maha?

So far, no one knows.

Seventh day!

Li Tian sits on the seventh day of meditation.

On this day, Li Tian sat there as usual, listening to everything around him quietly.

He has the same mind, feeling the scorching sun, feeling the hot wind...

At the same time, his mouth was muttering silently: No phase, impermanence! !

Just as he was sitting so silly and meditating, a hot wind suddenly blew the yellow sand beside him, and then hit his body.

Li Tian was hit by the hot sand on his body and his face. His eyes opened slowly at this moment. Because of the wind and sand on the desert, the small sand that hit his face suddenly hits his face. Into his eyes...

When the sand entered Li Tian's eye sockets, Li Tian's eyes suddenly became sore, and then he began to reach out and rub his sore eyes.

After being rubbed by him, his eyes were a little dizzy, and he couldn't see clearly...

Just as he looked at the wind and sand in front of him with dizzy eyes, his mind suddenly shook, and at this moment his whole heart beat for it... Then his eyes looked like a daze. Looking at the sand falling in front of you, one grain, one grain...

The sand in the sky seemed to become slow in front of him... the movements were very slow and slow.

At the beginning, Li Tian's eyes could still see the sand. After looking at it for a while, his eyes suddenly became empty...he couldn't see anything.

His eyes are open, but he doesn't see anything. Why?

Li Tianwu!

At this moment, he suddenly realized!

Beings have no form. The so-called nothingness means emptiness... The essence of no form means no substance.

The heart is also empty, the eyes and ears are empty, the ten phases are empty, and everything is empty!

So everything is like this?

At the moment when Li Tiantian suddenly realized it, he almost jumped up with excitement...but he didn't do it. He just dreaded the excitement that he couldn't help, and began to slowly close his eyes. Start listening to everything around...

At the beginning, Li Tian could still hear the wind around him and the sound of the sand in his ears.

But later, he...

At night, the desert.

The brilliance outside the space of today's night.

In the starry sky, there are shining stars.

From a distance, I could see the image of the mysterious gray-robed old man flying over as usual, the speed was still so fast, so scary.

When the mysterious gray-robed old man arrived the same as the previous few days, Li Tian was still sitting there, still meditating there.

It's just that today's Li Tian is a bit weird. Judging from his facial expressions and breathing attitude, he was so calm...so comfortable, just like a person in the most relaxed state.

Looking at Li Tian in front of him, the mysterious gray-robed old man didn't say anything, but said slightly: "Open your eyes."

After Li Tian heard the voice of the mysterious gray-robed old man, he slowly opened his eyes.

The mysterious old man in gray robe looked at Li Tiandao as usual and said, "Tell me, what have you heard today?"

To be honest, the mysterious gray-robed old man did not have much hope! Because he knew in his heart that it took him more than two hundred years to realize Maha Boundlessness, it is impossible for anyone to realize it in such a short time...Although this is not the essence of Maha Boundlessness, it is only a realm of entry, but it is mysterious To tell the truth, the gray-robed old man still did not have much hope.

But what about Li Tian? What about Li Tian's answer this time?

After the mysterious gray-robed old man asked, Li Tian stood there and took a deep breath of fresh air, then looked at the mysterious gray-robed old man and said: "Senior, I didn't hear anything..." It came out from Li Tian's mouth.

Did not hear anything?

Li Tian said he didn't hear anything?

When the mysterious gray-robed old man heard Li Tian's words, his whole person was shocked, he suddenly turned his head, and looked at Li Tian incredulously.

"Child, what are you talking about?" The mysterious gray-robed old man looked at Li Tian in front of him with his eyes widened and twinkling like dragons.

But seeing Li Tian smiled slightly there, and then said: "Senior... I said, I can't hear anything."

"Before my ears could hear everything... But today, I suddenly understood what the predecessors said, and finally understood what is called impermanence, impermanence... So I felt it, my heart was empty, There is nothing empty...Even the ears can no longer hear any worldly noise, any wind and grass... The only thing I can hear is the voice of my heart."

Chapter 1294: Goshawk

After Li Tian's words came out, the mysterious gray-robed old man's eyes exploded, looking at Li Tian in front of him unbelievably.

"You understand it, you finally understand it." Suddenly the mysterious gray-robed old man said with excitement in his words.

A pair of relieved eyes looked at Li Tian intently.

Yes, Li Tian did understand it.

Before today, Li Tian had never known why the mysterious gray-robed old man asked him to sit and meditate...Why let him listen to the things around him, he didn't know, but at this moment, Li Tian finally realized everything.

Impermanence and impermanence were meant to be a state of nothingness in the outside world. Although the mysterious gray-robed old man kept Li Tian listening there, he never told Li Tian what he wanted to listen to... Li Tian went to feel.

Li Tian finally realized it. He could hear things in his ears, hear the sound of the wind, and hear any sounds around him... That's because Li Tian's heart is still still! It's not quiet yet, so the mysterious gray robe senior will feel unsatisfied every time he asks Li Tian.

But today, Li Tian finally realized it, he finally said: He can't hear anything.

What the mysterious gray robe old man wants is this effect, what he wants is such a state of meticulous emptiness.

But seeing the mysterious gray-robed old man in front of him looked at Li Tian and laughed and said, "The old man thought, at least you have to realize it for three and a half months... I didn't expect you to realize it so quickly... OK, really. Great."

Listening to the mysterious gray-robed old man, Li Tian smiled embarrassedly at the corner of his mouth: "Senior, I am dull. Fortunately, senior has been enlightening by the side. If it weren't for your enlightenment, I'm afraid Li Tian would not be able to realize it in this life. This level of nothingness."

As Li Tian said so, the mysterious gray-robed old man looked up to the sky and laughed.

"You're too humble....."

"The realm of emptiness must be realized and thought by oneself. It is not based on anyone's enlightenment. If you can realize this realm today, it will not be a waste of the old man's efforts."

"From tomorrow on, the old man will officially begin to teach you the Boundless Maha." The mysterious gray-robed old man said in relief.

When Li Tian heard the words of the mysterious gray-robed old man, he couldn't help being excited.

At the moment, he bowed and said, "Thank you, senior."

The mysterious gray-robed old man looked at Li Tian slightly and said, "My child, you have now realized that all beings have no form, and the state of impermanence of all bodies is just the entry level of my Maha Immeasurable art... tomorrow's cultivation will take far. It's much more difficult than today's start... I hope you can hold it back then."

The result of Li Tian's meditation for so many days turned out to be only the entry level of Boundless Maha. This makes Li Tianxin unable to help curiosity, and his heart is secretly lining: What kind of skill is that Boundless Maha?

But Li Tian was originally a man who never admits defeat, so I saw him smiling there and saying, "Senior, don't worry... Even if the difficulties ahead are great, I will try Li Tian."

"Well, what I want is your words." The mysterious gray-robed old man squinted his eyes.

"It's getting late, you rest here first..."

"Tomorrow, the old man will teach you the immeasurable Maha." After the mysterious gray-robed old man said this, he suddenly turned around, and then swept away in the distance.

Seeing the mysterious gray-robed old man walking away, Li Tian felt mixed feelings in his heart.

After so many days of meditation, Li Tian finally realized that, after tomorrow, he will really start to learn about the Maha Immeasurable. Thinking of this, Li Tianxin has joys and worries. What is happy is that so many days of hard work finally It was not in vain, but what worries about is how difficult it will be to practice Maha Imamara after tomorrow.

With such weird feelings in this way, Li Tian lay alone in the dark desert.

He took a sip of a pot of cool water beside him, and then he lay down in the desert, thinking and thinking.

The place where the mysterious gray-robed old man stayed was also in the desert, but he was not with Li Tian.

In the darkness of the sky, but seeing the mysterious gray-robed old man sitting cross-legged quietly in the desert, he looked like an old monk in a calm manner, and his face was peaceful...a strange light gleamed faintly on his body, and the light seemed to be It was like a coat draped over the mysterious old man.

Tomorrow, the mysterious gray-robed old man will teach Li Tianmahe's boundless kung fu...

This night he seemed to be very peaceful, sitting very clean.

Just as he meditated cross-legged in this way, suddenly a sharp cry came from the dark sky.

It's the cry of an eagle.

Quack, quack...

When the sound came from the vast darkness, it was so crisp, so loud.

Just in this dark sky, when an inexplicable cry of a goshawk came, the eyes of the mysterious gray-robed old man suddenly opened, and his eyes exploded.

Then he saw his body sitting cross-legged slightly standing up, Long Jiong looking at the black spot in the dark starry sky...Goshawk.

"Xiao Hei, why are you here?" He muttered in his mouth, and his ancient face was full of surprise.

Following his figure stood up, but saw a majestic goshawk flying from a distance in the dark night sky.

But seeing that majestic goshawk, it reached a terrifying length of 105130cm when it spread its wings. The head is gray-black to the front, black behind the eyes, with obvious white eyebrow spots; the lower body is white with a large number of small gray-black horizontal spots. It has a heavy body, and its claws are very hard and extremely sharp, like a blade. .

At this moment, after seeing the majestic goshawk hovering around the sky for a few times, suddenly those black sharp eyes seemed to see the gray-robed old man standing in the desert.

Then there was a beep... its huge body flew straight down from the dark sky.

The only thing that can be seen in the darkness is a group of black shadows flying towards the mysterious gray-robed old man.

What happened to this goshawk that was inexplicably flying from the dark sky? How could he suddenly fly towards the mysterious gray-robed old man in front of him? No one knows at the moment.

But seeing that when he flew towards the mysterious gray-robed old man, the gray-robed old man looked at the goshawk's mouth that was getting closer and closer on the sky with a slight smile.

Then he slowly stretched out an arm, the flying goshawk like a sharp arrow, swish in front of the gray-robed old man, and hovered over the mysterious gray-robed old man's head. A few laps, croaking, croaking, croaking, yelling a few times, as if calling the mysterious gray-robed old man in front of you...Then two sharp claws gently fell on the mysterious gray-robed old man's arms.

It is said that the eagle is the overlord of the bird and the overlord of the sky.

Chapter 1295: friend

And the goshawk that fell on the arm of the mysterious gray-robed old man in front of him was more like a fighting wild bird, extremely brave. .

But when this extremely ferocious goshawk landed on the arm of the mysterious gray-robed old man, its behavior was so docile, so cute, just like an ordinary bird.

Could it be said that this mysterious gray robe senior is the master of this goshawk?

Yes, the mysterious gray-robed old man in front of him is indeed the master of this brave goshawk.

Looking at the goshawk falling on his arm, the mysterious gray-robed old man suddenly smiled and gently stroked its smooth black feathers with another thin old hand, and said at the corner of his mouth: "Xiao Hei, why are you here?"

The mysterious gray-robed old man actually communicated with the "Goshawk" in front of him?

After the mysterious gray-robed old man said so, but seeing the goshawk as if he could understand the words of the mysterious gray-robed old man, the entire huge head swayed slightly, and at the same time the sharp mouth squatted. Croaked a few times.

After yelling like this, the mysterious gray-robed old man suddenly looked a little serious.

His eyes looked strangely at the majestic goshawk that fell on his arm in front of him, and continued: "Xiao Hei, you said his body is getting worse?"

Who?

Who is getting worse and worse?

Just after the mysterious gray-robed senior asked, the majestic goshawk that fell on his arm seemed to understand it, and the huge bird's head lightly nodded, and then there was a whine in his mouth.

After hearing this goshawk's call, the mysterious gray-robed old man's eyes changed again, and this time even the extremely old face was moved at the same time.

Then the mysterious gray-robed old man in front of him looked up at the boundless shady, with a solemn and worried expression.

"Quah, quack."

Just when the mysterious gray-robed old man was thinking about something solemnly, the goshawk suddenly flew up from the mysterious gray-robed old man's arm... and then it whirled constantly over the mysterious gray-robed old man's head, constantly Swirling, keep tweeting.

It was like the mysterious gray-robed old man urging in front of him.

And the mysterious gray robe old man? When he saw Goshawk showing such an impatient attitude, his heart became even more confused.

Secretly: How could this be? Is his injury worsening again? "Xiao Hei" is obviously urging him to go back soon, and take care of him soon... But, tomorrow, he is going to teach that Li Tianmahe immeasurable magic skills?

This is how to do? The mysterious gray-robed old man suddenly hesitated there.

The goshawk above his head was still screaming and screaming, hovering and flying, while the mysterious gray-robed old man was full of depression and worry.

Finally, after a few minutes of silence in his contemplation, he sighed deeply, then looked at the majestic goshawk flying above his head, and said slightly: "Xiao Hei...I know. Let's go tomorrow. Let's go back and take care of him."

After the mysterious gray-robed old man uttered these words, the mighty goshawk seemed to understand the words of the old predecessor, croaked, and then fell on the shoulders of the mysterious gray-robed old man. Above, the huge eagle head leaned against the cheek of the mysterious gray-robed old man...

In the darkness, but seeing the mysterious gray-robed old man sighed deeply, murmured: "So it seems...I won't be able to see that child practice my Immeasurable Maha."

That night, Li Tian did not sleep well.

Because he couldn't sleep at all, couldn't sleep excitedly.

Regarding the "Maha Boundless" Kungfu that will be learned tomorrow, Li Tian can be said to be excited all night without sleep.

Li Tian got up early the next morning, and after taking the lead in moving his muscles and bones, he waited with excitement and anxiety for the mysterious old predecessor, waiting to teach him the supreme power of Maha .

Finally, while Li Tian was waiting excitedly, he saw the mysterious gray-robed senior flying by from a distance.

What only puzzled Li Tian was that in the silhouette of the mysterious gray-robed old man flying over, there seemed to be a "big bird" following his head, what's the situation? Why is there a big bird following the mysterious senior in front of him? Li Tian frowned, thinking.

As the distance got closer, and his eyes became clearer, Li Tian finally saw that the "big bird" hovering tightly above the mysterious gray robe senior's head was a mighty goshawk.

The goshawk was exceptionally majestic, and its entire body had beautiful black plumage feathers. When it flew up, it looked like a "fighter".

He followed the mysterious gray-robed old man closely and flew over.

When Li Tian saw a huge goshawk flying over by the mysterious gray-robed old man, he frowned.

Why is there a huge goshawk beside Mysterious Senior? what's the situation?

Li Tian was still depressed here, but seeing that the mysterious gray-robed predecessor had flew over, and the huge goshawk beside the mysterious gray-robed predecessor, at this time, when he saw people, his mouth issued A deafening scream... The majestic wings spread out and hovered high in the sky. Those sharp, knife-like eyes stared at Li Tian below, as if Li Tianli would become its prey. .

Li Tian was full of curiosity at this moment. After seeing the mysterious senior flying over, he stepped forward and said, "Senior."

The mysterious gray-robed old man glanced at Li Tian, who was in good spirits, and smiled with satisfaction.

"Senior, what happened to that eagle?"

"Why have you been following you all the time?" Li Tian couldn't help but asked with curiosity.

Following Li Tian's question, he smiled slightly when he saw the mysterious gray robe senior around him.

"This is the old man's friend... the name is Xiaohei." But seeing the mysterious gray-robed old man pointed to the goshawk flying in the sky and said.

friend?

The mysterious senior actually said that the huge goshawk was his friend?

Make friends with a goshawk? Li Tian was speechless at once.

Just when Li Tian was horrified, he saw the mysterious gray-robed old man said to the goshawk that hovered above his head, "Xiao Hei, come down..."

Following his ancient voice, he saw that the goshawk flying in the sky suddenly flew towards the mysterious gray-robed old man like a sharp arrow, and then landed on the mysterious gray-robed senior. On his shoulders, the hard eagle mouth is still screaming "croak" and "croak"...

When Li Tian saw that this goshawk could understand the words of the mysterious senior, he was not only moved at once.

Chapter 1296: Senior Eagle

Can't help but ask in horror: "Senior, can this goshawk understand you?"

The mysterious gray-robed old man said: "Of course."

"I have had friendship with it for almost a hundred years...Of course it can understand what the old man said." The mysterious gray-robed old man said.

Listening to what he said, Li Tian was really shocked this time.

This goshawk did not expect to have friendship with the old man in front of him for more than 100 years...

Just when Li Tian was curious about it, the mysterious senior slightly turned his head to the majestic goshawk on his shoulder and said, "Xiao Hei...Go say hello to him."

The mysterious gray-robed old man said while pointing at the goshawk.

After the black and majestic goshawk heard this command from the mysterious gray-robed old man, it flew up with a flutter, and then stretched out its two huge wings and flew towards Li Tian. The speed was terrifying, and the sharp claws As if to catch Li Tian, he flew straight towards Li Tian at once.

Li Tianyi saw the goshawk suddenly rushing towards him, he was shocked...the body quickly backed away.

After all, if the sharp claws of this eagle caught a person, that would not be a joke!

But although Li Tian's body is fast, the goshawk is faster than him. After flying in front of Li Tian, two sharp claws suddenly stretched out, seeming to be grasping at Li Tian's face. go with.

Li Tian was shocked, and all of his true energy suddenly accumulated in his palms. If the goshawk was near him, Li Tian would definitely make a move.

At this moment, but seeing the huge body of the goshawk rushing towards his face, it suddenly stopped in front of Li Tian's face, and then the whole body flew upside down, croaking in the sky, croaking...

A false alarm.

Li Tian was really taken aback. After the powerful true energy accumulated in his palm, he let out a slight sigh after the goshawk flew past.

I saw that the mysterious gray-robed old man laughed.

"My bird friend, sometimes likes to tease people... Are you okay?" I saw the mysterious gray-robed old man at the moment looking at Li Tiandao who was pouting.

Not only was Li Tian a little embarrassed, he looked at the flying goshawk above his head, and he secretly lined his heart: So the big bird Nima was teasing himself?

Not only said at this moment: "Senior, I'm fine."

"It's just that this goshawk seems to be very powerful!" Li Tian said sincerely.

Just now when the goshawk rushed towards Li Tian, Li Tian's first reaction was as if a great master slapped him in the face, so Li Tian seemed a little flustered. At this moment, after calming down, Li Tian After thinking about the environment just now, I couldn't help but say.

Listening to Li Tian, the mysterious gray-robed old man actually sensed the power of this goshawk, squinted slightly and said, "What you said is really good."

"Xiao Hei has been following the old man for more than a hundred years...The strength of its claws, even if a person has a strong vajra shield on his body, he must not be able to avoid its fatal scratch." The mysterious old man said with a smile.

When the mysterious old man said so about the power of the goshawk, to be honest, Li Tian was still deeply shocked.

Looking at the goshawk that hovered above his head, Li Tian frowned secretly, and said to himself: Doesn't that mean that the eagle is also considered a first-class master? Can even be said to be more powerful than the first-class master?

After thinking about it, Li Tian looked at the goshawk more.

The goshawk that hovered in the air is also very strange. It can't help hovering above Li Tian's head at this moment, as if it was going to say something to Li Tian, and its hard mouth was still there. , Croaking.

This made Li Tian feel very curious. Why did this goshawk keep screaming and flying on top of his head?

"Senior, what's the matter with this goshawk? Why does it keep flying over my head?" Li Tian couldn't help but ask curiously.

The mysterious gray-robed senior Long Jiong glanced at "Xiao Hei" in the sky, and suddenly said earnestly, "That's because it has spirituality. It wants to talk to you..."

"Eagle is spiritual, want to talk to himself?" Li Tian was still quite curious when he heard the mysterious gray robe senior say.

At this moment, I couldn't help but continue to ask: "Senior, what does it want to talk to me?"

After Li Tian asked this sentence, the mysterious gray robe senior suddenly sighed slightly: "Hey, now you may not know... but when the time is right, you will naturally know everything."

After the words of the mysterious gray robe senior, Li Tian fell into a puzzled situation.

I couldn't help but lining up in my heart: What do the words of the senior gray robe mean? What is the time is ripe?

"Xiao Hei has been following the old man for more than a hundred years. According to the qualifications and the number of generations, you should call him a senior."

"Also, when you understand everything in the future, you will be grateful to Xiao Hei in front of you...thank him for everything he has done for you and for your..."

The mysterious gray-robed old man didn't know why the words just stopped suddenly, as if there was something hidden in the words.

Li Tian listened to the mysterious gray-robed old man saying this, although he was curious in his heart, but he did feel fond of the goshawk, so he nodded to the mysterious old man there.

"Well, then I will call it Senior Eagle." Li Tian said.

Although he said so, he still felt a little awkward. After all, a living person would call a goshawk senior... it was indeed a bit embarrassing.

After Li Tian yelled so, the majestic goshawk seemed to have heard it, and suddenly his whole body soared in the sky with joy, his two majestic wings flapped, and his mouth croaked, croaked, croaked. Speak out

Li Tian looked at the flying goshawk and couldn't help laughing.

It seems that this goshawk is indeed very human!

As the goshawk was spinning, the mysterious gray-robed old man suddenly sighed, and then looked at Li Tian in front of him.

"I am here today to tell you something."

After the mysterious old man said this sentence in a slightly solemn voice, Li Tian slowly turned his face to look at the gray-robed old man in front of him.

"Senior, please say..."

The gray-robed old man glanced at Li Tian, and then slowly said: "The old man is leaving." Just like that, a sentence came out of the mysterious gray-robed man's mouth.

what?

"Senior is leaving?" When Li Tian suddenly heard the mysterious gray-robed senior in front of him when he said these words, he was stunned. The whole person seemed to be stunned and looked at the mysterious gray in disbelief. Seniors.

But seeing the mysterious gray-robed senior in front of him, watching Li Tian's face with horror and disappointment, slowly said, "Yes."

Chapter 1297: Practice yourself

"The old man was born because he thought that many things were under his control... But I didn't expect that Xiao Hei suddenly flew in yesterday... After it flew, the old man knew that the situation had changed, so he must now I'm leaving." The mysterious gray-robed old man said slowly there.

Listening to the words of the mysterious gray robe senior, Li Tian instantly understood.

No wonder there was a majestic goshawk beside the mysterious gray-robed old man...It turned out that this majestic goshawk flew last night.

It seems that this goshawk is here to convey news.

After Li Tianxin understood this way, a smile barely appeared at the corner of his mouth, and he looked at the mysterious senior and said, "Since senior has something to do, please do business first..."

When he finished saying this, Li Tian only felt empty inside.

After all, so many days of practice, so many days of waiting, now it seems to be vanished.

Li Tian wants to learn the supreme kung fu, because only in this way can he protect his brothers and protect the people he loves...Li Tian's strength has not yet reached that kind of supreme realm, so he wants to learn.

But since the mysterious old man in front of him has already said that there are important things, what can Li Tian do? Even if he has ten thousand thoughts, he can't force others' mysterious predecessors.

Of course the mysterious gray-robed old man could see the slight sense of loss in Li Tian's eyes.

Looking at Li Tiandao, he said, "Are you feeling disappointed? The old man planned to start teaching you to practice Maha Boundlessness today, but now it seems that the old man can't guide you here..."

Listening to what the mysterious gray robe senior said, Li Tian smiled at the mysterious old man and said, "Senior, you have thought about it..."

"To be honest, the younger generation does have some small losses in his heart...but I know that the older generation has bigger things to do, so Li Tian dare not delay the senior here."

"Furthermore, although Li Tian does not have the opportunity to learn the highest exercises from his predecessors now, I believe there will be opportunities in the future."

After Li Tian said some words, the mysterious gray-robed old man felt quite satisfied.

He nodded cheerfully and said, "What you said is not wrong... What the old man is going to do this time is really a big deal. You will know it later, and I believe that when you know it later, you I will be grateful for what the old man did today." The mysterious gray robe senior laughed as he said.

Li Tian looked at the mysterious gray-robed old man and said, "Thank you, seniors, for your careful guidance and enlightenment to Li Tian for so many days... To be honest, although I have only been in contact with seniors for only a few days, Li Tian feels like I am good at martial arts With a new understanding, I have to thank the predecessors for all this." Li Tian said sincerely.

The mysterious gray-robed old man was very pleased when he heard Li Tian say this, and said with a smile: "This is also mainly because of your high savvy...Compared with your father back then, there is no doubt about this."

When the mysterious gray-robed senior said about his father, Li Tian slammed his heart and looked at the mysterious gray-robed senior and said, "Senior...you are a master outside the world. Does senior know that my father is still alive?" Li Tian asked the mysterious old man who was staring in front of him with expectation in his eyes.

When Li Tian suddenly mentioned his father, the mysterious gray-robed old man looked at Li Tian with weird eyes.

"Child, about your father, what the old man can only tell you is: now is not the time when you know the answer." The mysterious gray-robed old man said leisurely.

"Why?" Li Tian asked suddenly, because he felt that the mysterious gray-robed old man in front of him seemed to know the news of his father and the evil  that had disappeared for more than 20 years.

"Senior, why can't you tell me now?" Li Tian asked again excitedly.

"Because in the dark, the heaven is doomed." The gray-robed old man suddenly looked up at the sky and muttered.

"Child, you listen to the old man, when the time is right, you will naturally understand everything... But now is still a time when you shouldn't know." The mysterious gray robe senior said to Li Tian again.

Li Tian was a little confused in his mind.

He didn't understand why everyone said the timing was not ripe? When is the time ripe? When will I know if my parents are alive?

He wanted to scream, wanted to use all of his body's strength to scream, but in the end he held it back, his whole body just couldn't help trembling there.

Looking at the extremely excited Li Tian, the mysterious gray-robed senior finally sighed slightly.

"Child, don't think about it..."

"Remember, meditate, don't think!" The mysterious gray-robed old man comforted Li Tian.

Li Tian had no choice but to stand alone blankly.

He has experienced too much loss today... He was originally excited to learn martial arts, but he didn't expect everything to be in vain. Now he wants to know the deeds of his father Cthulhu, but the mysterious senior said that the time is not ripe... Li in front of him Tian is really helpless, very lost.

The mysterious gray-robed old man could also feel Li Tian's feelings, standing there with a weird face at this moment, as if he was hesitating there.

Finally, after the mysterious senior was silent for two minutes, he suddenly seemed to have made up his mind, and slowly raised Long Jiong's eyes to look at Li Tian in front of him.

Silence, awkward silence together.

Li Tian is very disappointed now. Although he tries to keep smiling, he is still so helpless.

"Child, I know today is a disappointing day for you, but the old man wants to ask you something." The mysterious gray-robed old man suddenly said.

Li Tian raised his face and looked at the mysterious gray-robed senior in front of him, and said slightly, "Senior, what's the matter?"

"Do you really want to learn from the old man's Boundless Maha?" The mysterious gray robe senior said suddenly, his eyes firm.

When Li Tian heard it, the spark of hope that had been extinguished suddenly ignited at this moment.

Looking at the mysterious senior, he said in disbelief: "Senior...you want to teach me Boundless Maha?"

Senior Mysterious Grey Robe said very seriously: "Yes."

Listening to the mysterious gray robe senior saying this, Li Tiandao: "But seniors still have major issues to deal with...How can you teach me?"

"I didn't teach you, I let you practice yourself." The mysterious gray-robed old man suddenly faced Li Tiandao.

what?

Let Li Tian cultivate the Immeasurable Maha by himself?

When the mysterious senior said that he wanted to cultivate the supreme and unparalleled Maha Wuliang, Li Tian stayed there.

Chapter 1298: Buddha and Demon

"Before you answer the old man's question, I must first tell you that the immeasurable Maha Art created by the old man more than two hundred years old is divided into nine layers... first from the entry gate, then to the middle, and finally to the The supreme realm of heaven... This is easy to cultivate slowly at the beginning, and then the more you practice, the more difficult it will be. If you are not careful, your character will be eroded by your skill. At that time, you will become confused and mistaken. Going astray..."

"To be honest, if you want to practice Maha Wuliang without the guidance of an old man, it will be a very dangerous thing... The old man tells you this to remind you that if you really dare to cultivate yourself, the old man will I will teach you the immeasurable tips of Maha that I have created over the past century, but if you are worried, the old man does not have to teach you, and the old man will teach you when you have the opportunity in the future!"

After listening to the words of the mysterious gray-robed old man in front of him, Li Tian was more excited than ever.

"Senior, I am not afraid, I am not afraid of anything."

"As long as the predecessors dare to teach me the immeasurable tips of Maha, then I, Li Tian, dare to practice by myself." Li Tian said decisively.

After Li Tian said this, the mysterious gray-robed old man showed a slight worry in his eyes, because even he himself didn't know whether what he did this time was right or wrong, and taught the immeasurable key of Maha to nothing. Li Tian, guided by people, is a bad thing? Still a good thing?

"Aren't you afraid of getting into the magic?" The mysterious gray-robed old man looked at Li Tiandao and said.

Li Tian heard this from the mysterious gray robe senior, and said firmly in his eyes: "Don't worry, senior, if I practice my own practice, I will be more careful... I will definitely not let myself go crazy."

Hearing Li Tian's determination again, the mysterious gray-robed old man finally said, "Well, since you said that, the old man will teach you the immeasurable tips of Maha."

"But the old man had a word in advance. If in the future, once you practice the old man Mohe Wuliang accidentally get into a demon, the old man will take you personally." The mysterious gray-robed old man said firmly.

"You have to know that once you become a demon, your humanity will be wiped out. You will become a bloodthirsty madman, a demon who specializes in killing common people, so once you become like that, the old man will be born to stop him. You, even if you are at the end of the world..." the mysterious gray-robed old man suddenly said.

Yes, if Li Tian really cultivates Maha, he will surely slaughter all the people in the world. By that time, Li Tian will be a complete demon. It is estimated that there is nothing in the world except the mysterious. Except for the gray-robed old man, no one can control his demon.

And Li Tian knew that his destiny would be greatly changed from today, and he knew that the decision he made today would make him suffer for a lifetime. If he could recall the tragic death of the Kunlun Xuanmen true person Feng Qingzi, Feng Lao's words, presumably Li Tian will not take over the Maha Wuliang in his hands at this moment. I remember that when Xuanmen Fengqingzi was in the earliest days, when Li Tianchu came out of the small county where he had lived for more than ten years, he had seen the sky patterns and ground patterns in his palm. At the same time, he also counted his fate: He is A fiendish star, he was destined to be fierce and murderous. This is the content of the following article, not to mention it for now

After Li Tian decided to practice the Immeasurable Maha, the mysterious gray robe old man really slowly took out a quick cloth from the gray robe placket. The cloth was gray, just like the gray robe placket. The cloth was Rolled up, rows of small text can be clearly seen on it.

This is the Maha Wuliang, and this is the supreme unique skill.

After the mysterious gray-robed old man took it out carefully, he looked at Li Tiandao: "From now on, I will teach you the immeasurable key of Maha that I have created for more than a hundred years."

After he said so, Li Tian slowly extended two trembling hands to take it.

When his fingers touched the Maha Boundless Key, Li Tian's heart beat violently, as if he was stabbed with a knife, as if there was something wrong the moment he took it. A good premonition is about to happen.

But now Li Tian didn't care about the strange feeling that his body had just now, he was just very excited in his heart... I was pleasantly surprised to take over the immeasurable key of Maha, and then happily looked at the mysterious gray robe in front of him. The old man said: "Thank you senior..."

The mysterious gray-robed man was half-happy and half-worried on his ancient face full of vicissitudes, because he didn't even know whether the decision he made this time was right or wrong. Maybe when he looks back many years later, he will smile sadly.

The mysterious gray-robed senior who waved his hand slightly said, "Remember what the old man said."

"Cultivation of this maha infinite must be avoided. Don't be impatient, don't be chaotic. Everything goes according to your heart, and it came into being, the vast road, you only pursue your heavenly way, if your heavenly way is successful, you will be successful, otherwise, the devil's heart will go back. , Then escape into the magic way."

"The difference between Buddha and Devil is only one thought, child, you can do it yourself." The mysterious gray-robed old man suddenly said leisurely.

Under the advice of the mysterious gray-robed elder, Li Tian nodded cautiously, and then said: "The younger generation remembers the words of the senior... and I dare not forget it."

"That's good, that's good..."

"It's getting late, the old man should go." The mysterious gray-robed old man suddenly looked at the distant sky and said.

When Li Tian heard that the mysterious senior was about to leave, his eyes were slightly disheartened.

"Senior, when you leave, when will I see Senior again?" Li Tian asked.

The mysterious gray robe senior smiled in Cang Ran, "The reason is fixed, when the time comes, the old man will meet you naturally."

As the mysterious gray-robed old man said this leisurely, he suddenly looked at the goshawk flying in the sky and said: "Xiao Hei, we should go back..."

After his words were uttered, the majestic goshawk's stabbing sound sounded... and then it whirled in the air, suddenly its wings soared towards the gray-robed old man...

"I'm going..." Following the words of the mysterious gray-robed old man, his body flew towards the distant desert with the huge and powerful goshawk.

When Li Tian saw that the mysterious senior suddenly left like this, he suddenly thought of a question that he had been wondering for a long time. He hurriedly looked into the distance and shouted: "Senior...I don't know your name so far ...Can you tell the younger generation?"

Chapter 1299: Dark Demon

When Li Tian's voice sounded, the mysterious gray-robed old man had already drifted away. Li Tian, who thought that the mysterious gray-robed senior would not hear his words, suddenly heard the sound of the mysterious gray-robed old man's thousands of miles in the air. Occult.

"World Promise... Free and easy... I am a wandering crane, how can I have a common name?"

Four words came from a distant place. The mysterious gray-robed old man and his majestic goshawk had turned into a tiny black spot in the vast desert, and finally there was no black spot.

Li Tian looked at the place where the mysterious man in the mysterious gray robe disappeared, carefully repeating the two sentences he just said: I am a wandering crane, how can I have a worldly name? Promise, happy! Could he be the legendary old man Wuji?

The old man Wuji, the old man Wuji, Li Tian finally understood the meaning of the four sentences, his eyes looked at the place where the mysterious gray-robed man was far away with fiery light, his eyes full of respect.

The key to Maha Boundlessness, as well as the heavenly book pill scroll were all returned to Li Tian's hands. What he now holds in his arms is the heavenly book pill scroll that the world can't understand, and what he holds in his hand is the supreme, supremely learned Maha Boundary , He was surging and excited in his heart, and it was difficult for him to calm his happy state for a long time.

In the distant sky, one person and one eagle are galloping in the desert.

Shenfa is so fast, so fast.

This person and eagle is of course the mysterious gray-robed person and the goshawk in front of him.

I saw the mysterious gray-robed old man looking at the goshawk and said, "Xiao Hei...Is the injury of Kuafu Cthulhu really recurring?"

After the weird words in his mouth were uttered, the goshawk soaring in the air "quack, quack, quack" yelled several times... as if answering the words of the mysterious gray-robed man.

The mysterious gray-robed man sighed softly.

"It seems that the old man still hasn't saved my disciple..."

"The old man is not good, I killed him." The mysterious gray-robed old man suddenly said in deep self-blame.

Killed him

Who hurt?

How could an old man like him harm people?

The goshawk flying next to him saw his master blame himself at the moment, and screamed two miserably. The huge black wings lightly stroked the shoulder of the mysterious gray-robed old man, as if to comfort him. general.

When the mysterious gray-robed old man saw his old friend "Xiao Hei" comforting him in this way, he couldn't help a vicissitudes of smile.

He looked at the direction behind him slightly and said: "Since the old man has killed one of my favorite apprentices in this life, he must never harm his son again... I hope this son can learn the old man's Maha Boundlessness. I hope he can Reinvigorate his father's former glory."

Just when the mysterious gray-robed old man said this, the sky that had been emptied thousands of miles suddenly began to thunder and cloud.

The billowing black cloud covered the whole world like a devilish energy. When seeing the black cloud suddenly pressing down on the earth, the mysterious gray-robed man suddenly violently shook his mind. This was never before. A terrible feeling suddenly came to my heart.

His eyes became weird and ugly in an instant, and even the goshawk next to him suddenly began to whine...The voice was full of weird calls.

"How could this be?"

"How could this happen?" The mysterious gray-robed old man suddenly looked up at the sky.

But the sky did not give the mysterious gray-robed old man an answer. It was still black clouds rolling in. Then, there was a thunder between the sky and the earth... As if the earth was shaken by the thunder, the thunder and lightning flashed and whizzed. ...

Demon, the black demon energy rushed towards Li Tian from the far west...

At this moment, the world seemed to have changed, becoming extremely stern.

With a click, a violent lightning pierced the sky, tearing open the dark magic sky curtain with a huge hole, and the pouring rain fell from the sky...

The cold raindrops fell from the sky drop by drop like the world was crying.

The cold rain was not like rain, not water, but tears, like red blood.

The mysterious gray-robed old man looked at the billowing dark sky and the downpour of the whole world. At this moment, his tall and ancient body suddenly couldn't help shaking...

This old man with peerless martial arts, this expert who has lived for more than two hundred years, actually trembled in the dark rain.

At the moment he trembled, the goshawk croaked, croaked, croaked over and used black wings to "hold" the mysterious gray-robed senior at once, and at the same time croaked and looked at the mysterious gray in his mouth. The old man in the robe called.

How could the mysterious old man in gray robe be like this?

What happened to him?

But seeing the cold jade wet on his gray robe and his white hair, he suddenly looked up at the sky and shouted, "Is the old man making the wrong decision this time?"

"Am I wrong..."

As he roared through the world, a thunder blasted from the dark sky, and his roaring sound was directly drowned...

Then the thunderstorm became more violent, and the black cloud rolled even more.

The mysterious gray-robed old man standing in the cold and heavy rain suddenly turned his head, turned his body wetted by the cold rain, and looked at the direction that had just left Li Tian. His eyes were full of shock. The fear... he seemed to have a foreboding...

"No, it's impossible!"

"impossible!"

The mysterious gray-robed old man suddenly looked at that Li Tian's direction and yelled, and at the same time he stepped out with old steps... as if to return!

But just as soon as he stepped out, the thunderstorms on the dark sky made more thunder... With a click, lightning rang there like a raging madman.

But the mysterious gray-robed old man stepped back abruptly.

"Why don't you let me stop?"

"Why?" The mysterious gray-robed old man suddenly looked up at the sky and yelled.

At this moment, he seemed to be ready to go against heaven.

But what about heaven? Where did the billowing black cloud of the sky make mortals oppose it, and the thunder and lightning completely drowned the voice of the mysterious gray-robed old man.

The mysterious gray-robed old man stood under the billowing sky, as if so small!

How can one be against the sky?

His eyes were desperate at this moment... His tall and old body suddenly felt old for many years, like many years.

No one knows what the mysterious gray-robed man has foreboding, and no one knows what he wants to do?

But everything is no longer important at this moment. The important thing is that darkness has come completely. No one can stop the darkness from happening, and no one has the ability to stop it.

Darkness surging, demonic energy abounds, at this moment there are no gods in the world, and there are only dark demons.

Chapter 1300: Chase all the way

The majestic rain was rolling across the sky with dark clouds.

The cold rain fell from the sky as if pouring,

What about Li Tian in the desert? At this moment, although the cold rain water poured over his body, but at this moment, there is no meaning to avoid it, because he is excited, because he is excited.

He stored that maha's immeasurable key and magical skill in his arms, and then watched the heavy rain in the sky: "I should go to my brothers."

It's been seven or eight days. In the past few days, Li Tian has been staying with this mysterious gray-robed senior. He didn't know how the brothers were doing now, so he decided to find his brother at the moment. They.

In the dark city, Li Tian came again.

The poison emperor is dead.

The death of the Poison King has a huge impact in the Dark City, because so far no one knows who killed the Poison King.

It is said that the poison emperor's body was discovered by his men two hours after his death... When the poison emperor's body was found, the poison emperor's whole body seemed to have withered, and it was also shrinking... two hands, I don't know why both feet seem to be pumped, and at the same time even the body becomes dry.

It seems that everything in the body has been sucked up.

After the poison emperor died inexplicably, the entire dark city suddenly became chaotic.

Those former poison emperor's subordinates began to look for the anti-poison emperor like mad dogs.

Although they were not sure who had acted on the poison emperor, they all knew that many strangers had come recently.

So they think the biggest suspicion is Li Tian and Duguxie and the strangers.

Now Tang Ao, the palace lord of the Black Palace, took his men and many figures in the Dark City around looking for the Duguxie and Li Tian and the others.

The dark city full of depravity is now full of haze.

But in the ruins, I vaguely saw people hiding there.

Look carefully, but see that the people hiding in the ruins are not Duguxie, ghost servants and others?

Why are they here? And from their faces, it seemed that something big had happened.

On the other side, I saw that Duguxie's bronze sword was out of its sheath, and there were scarlet blood stains on the sharp blade. I didn't know if the blood stains belonged to him or someone else.

The ghost servant was hiding on the other side, his eyes showed a fierce light, and his eyes stared at the empty alley in front of him.

But seeing Tang Xiaolong and Ah Qiu here, everyone is panting, and you can see that Tang Xiaolong's arm is still slightly injured, but it doesn't seem to be very important to him. At this moment, the two are also He raised his eyes and looked ahead.

Xue Wuhen's white shirt was covered with blood stains, and his face was slightly pale, but the blood stains were not on him, but the blood splashed on the body of the person he killed.

How could this be? What happened to the brothers?

At this moment, I just listened to the ghost servant on the other side saying to Duguxie, "Second brother, this is no way to continue..."

"Brothers can no longer hold on..."

Hearing what the ghost servant said, Du Guxie let out a cold roar, and he stood there with no words.

"Fuck him, the * in this dark city is crazy...Why are you chasing us all the way?"

"Moreover, why did we kill the * Poison Emperor?"

"Fuck him, uncle... I haven't seen that * Poison Emperor before Tang Xiaolong, how could I kill him?" Tang Xiaolong said with a heavy breath in his roaring mouth.

It turns out that the brothers have been staying in the Dark City after not finding Li Tian. They hope to find Li Tian and at the same time find the mysterious gray-robed senior.

But what they didn't expect was that they had not found Li Tian and the mysterious old man in gray robe, Tang Ao, the palace lord of the black palace in the dark city, began to order them to hunt down...

In addition to the participation of many masters in the Black Palace, there are also two death guardians at the gate of hell, Mr. Black, and the red-haired blood pupil.

The brothers were unfamiliar with this dark city and were chased overnight by this group of desperadoes, isn't it? For a few days, Duguxie and his brothers had been in a state of fleeing for their lives.

If it were not because Li Tian was still in this dark city, they would have already left.

But they can't leave after all, because they want to find Li Tian, so they have been in a stalemate with Tang Ao, the lord of the black palace.

"Who killed the Poison Emperor? It's really hard to understand." Xue Wuhen over there hiding in the ruins and sighed gently.

"Anyway, it's not us." Tang Xiaolong answered with a stern voice.

"The Poison Emperor's skill is unfathomable. At least in the Dark City so far, no one has been his opponent. I didn't expect him to die so easily. It is really strange." Na Xue Wuhen continued. Tao said, Xue Wuhen had stayed in the Black Palace before. Although he had not personally seen the Poison Emperor act, he knew the strength of the Black Palace Lord Tang Ao. Tang Ao was like a clown in front of the Poison Emperor. Now, how powerful should the Poison Emperor be? But now that the poison emperor died so easily, who killed it? Who actually slaughtered the hero in the poison emperor's own territory?

"Big Brother Ghost, do you think it was the Poison Emperor who killed that mysterious senior and Big Brother?" Xue Wuhen said suddenly there excitedly.

The two people he was talking about were of course Li Tian and the mysterious gray-robed old man.

After Xue Wuhen said so, the ghost servant frowned slightly.

"I do not know."

"But I know, if it's the Poison Emperor the Young Master and the others killed, then why don't you turn with us now?" the ghost servant asked back.

What the ghost servant said is extremely reasonable.

Except for the new brother Xue Wuhen who just joined, everyone knows that Li Tian cares most about his brothers. He will never leave his brothers behind and do some things on his own, so Xue Wuhen just now The speculation is obviously not true.

"Who would it be?"

"Who will kill the Poison Emperor?" Xue Wuhen blinked and guessed.

Just as he said this silently in his mouth, suddenly a noisy sound rang out in front of him.

"Here...they are here." As the noise came, you could hear the messy footsteps running towards this side from a distance.

Hearing the voice, the ghost servant in front of him whispered: "No, the people from the Black Palace are chasing."

"Second brother, what should I do?" He only listened to the ghost servant's words of Duguxie looking in front of him.

Duguxie glanced around.

Today they have been chased and killed four times. Four times, they all fled like chased. They didn't expect that this time they would be found by the guys at the gate of hell.
