Chapter 13: drug

Now this woman Li Tian can see that if she is not saved, she will really die soon, so he runs fast.

When he arrived at the pharmacy of Mrs. Chen, Mrs. Chen saw Li Tian at a glance.

"Little Lizi, are you okay?" Old Madam Chen asked concerned when he went up.

It turned out that he was worried that the few people who were looking for trouble would trouble Xiao Lizi. After all, Li Tian's residence was what he said. At this moment, he couldn't help but blink his eyes and found that Li Tian was holding an unconscious woman in his arms, and he was taken aback.

"This woman..." Old Mrs. Chen pointed at Situ Ningbing in Li Tian's arms and said.

"Old Chen, hurry up and save her. She is seriously injured now, and she is also poisoned..." Li Tian put Situ Ningbing's beautiful body on a small bed inside.

Although Grandpa Chen in front of him hadn't understood what was going on, he was the first to save people.

"What's wrong with her? Poisoned there?"

"Here." Li Tian pointed and said.

I took a look at the woman's wound, and was shocked to see that her wound was full of purple and black, and the surrounding area was still swollen.

After seeing the woman's injury, Grandpa Chen frowned suddenly.

"The injury is so serious." He said he hurried to get the medicine.

He quickly brought the medicine box over to treat Situ Ningbing for treatment. Li Tian next to him looked at the tightly closed eyes of Situ Ningbing, his head was in a mess.

What the **** did I do?

There are a few corpses hidden in his small room now. If the police find him by this time, he will be numb.

The more he thinks like this, the more irritable he is, but he has to work hard to keep himself awake.

"No, these people weren't killed by themselves at all, she killed them, this weird and mysterious woman killed them." Li Tian thought.

She is a killer!

Li Tian suddenly remembered what she had said, and was shocked.

No wonder she is so powerful, she still wants to kill herself at every turn, it turns out that she really kills people without blinking.

When he looked at Situ Ningbing again, Li Tian felt a strange feeling in his heart.

After more than an hour of busy work, the old lady Chen finally finished his work. He wiped the sweat on his forehead and said, "Hey, who is she, Xiao Li, why got snake venom?"

"Snake venom?" Li Tian couldn't help wondering.

"Well, don't you know?" Old Madam Chen looked at Li Tian and said. '

Li Tian said quickly: "Know, know."

"By the way, why are those outsiders looking for you?" Old Madam Chen asked.

Li Tian smiled awkwardly. He whispered to himself when he heard the deeds of the outsiders in his ears, because he knew better than anyone in his heart, and now the bodies of the outsiders were lying in his house.

Can only say: "It's okay, they are looking for the wrong person."

"Oh, it turned out to be like this, those people are really fierce... Xiaoli, it's not that I said you, it's best not to provoke those people who are inconsistent from other provinces." Old Mrs. Chen said in a earnest voice.

Li Tian nodded perfunctorily, but there was a mess in his head.

What should I do? There are a few dead bodies in my room at the moment. This is fine for one day. If they are hidden for a long time, they will definitely leak.

Besides, the "killer" in front of him, Situ Ningbing is dead or alive, but he doesn't know whether Li Tian's head is a mess.

"Little Lizi, I can't cure this woman's wound." Old Chen said suddenly, looking at the woman's wound.

"I can only help her deal with the wound when I'm dead. As for the poison in her body, I don't have serum at all."

Li Tian was suddenly depressed.

"What should I do? Old Chen, you must save her."

Old Chen looked at Li Tian: "Little Lizi, tell me the truth, who is this woman?"

Li Tian was speechless...Yes, who is she? After thinking for a long time, Li Tian didn't know what to say.

"Little Lizi, isn't it the little girlfriend you're looking for? I think this woman is a good match for you, am I right?" Old Chen suddenly squinted.

"My girlfriend?" Li Tian was suddenly excited when he heard what Old Chen said.

With an extremely embarrassed expression, he could only nod and smile...He couldn't help whispering in his heart: Hey, she's a killer.

But having said that, if such a beautiful murderous wife really wants to be my girlfriend, Li Tian would admit it even if she died.

"Be nice to a woman, you see that the girl is poisoned now... Hey, you'd better **** out the poison from her body quickly with your mouth, otherwise, I'm afraid she is really in danger of life." Chen Old saying.

"Huh? Use your mouth to take drugs?" Li Tian opened his mouth and said.

"What's the matter? Don't you have the heart to watch such a beautiful little girlfriend poison and die?"

Li Tian was suddenly depressed.

What should I do? Do you really want to use your mouth to take drugs?

"I...I..." Li Tian said twice but didn't say anything.

"Hurry up, why is she ashamed of your girlfriend, I'll go out first, you quickly **** out her poison with your mouth, remember to put a piece of white gauze on your mouth when you take drugs, be careful, don't take the poison It's okay if you **** it into your stomach, and it's okay if you **** it until the red blood comes out."

After Chen Lao finished speaking, he walked slowly outside.

The remaining Li Tian was stupid, looking at the big beauty lying on the bed, what should he do? Do you really use your mouth to suck?

For such a superb beauty, whoever doesn't want to kiss her skin, there are only two kinds of people, one is a eunuch, the other is a fool...

So Li Tian certainly wanted to touch the fragrant skin of Situ Ning with his mouth.

But he was a little scared in his heart. He was afraid that he would really do this, and he would lose his life after looking back. This woman was a killer, a killer who didn't blink.

Li Tian, who had been thinking for a long time, couldn't defeat his heart in the end.

Suck!

He slowly lowered his head, looking at the woman's snow-white crystal skin, his heart throbbing, but he still gently put the gauze on Situ Ningbing's wound, and then gently leaned in with his mouth and sucked.

When he sucked out the first mouthful of blood, there was a sour feeling in his mouth, and he spit out black blood.

Then he started taking drugs with his mouth.

Soon, a **** blood spit out from his mouth again, one after another, and finally Li Tian almost sucked the venom in Situ Ningbing's body.

He wiped the blood stains on the corners of his mouth with his sleeves, quickly pulled up Situ Ningbing's clothes, and then turned his head and shouted, "Old Chen..."

After hearing Li Tian yelling from inside the room, Old Chen limped in.

"Did you finish sucking?" Old Chen asked, blinking.
