

A Killer 137

Chapter 137: angry

The fat man who was talking put the red pill into the glass of water. After the red pill was put in, it immediately began to dissolve and become invisible.

Then turned around and walked outside and waved to the two younger brothers who were standing outside.

"Hey, come here."

The two little brothers heard the greeting and came over.

"Go help me hold down that woman and let her drink this glass of water for me." The fat guy in front of him said with a smile.

After hearing the fat guy in front of him say so, the two guys who looked like little brothers couldn't help being taken aback.

"Go ahead, shit, what are you doing in a daze?" As he said, he handed the stimulant-filled water to the two people in front of him.

The two younger brothers could only do the same, and soon after entering the room.

But seeing that Xia Xue looked at the two men who walked in in shock and fear, and saw that they still had a glass of water in their hands.

"You...what are you doing?"

Xia Xue yelled in panic.

The two men looked at each other helplessly, without speaking, and then one of them quickly walked behind Xia Xue. Amidst Xia Xue's scream, he saw that the guy was already holding Xia Xue's shoulders with both hands. , Controlled her body and kept her from moving.

And the other man standing in front suddenly walked towards Xia Xue with the glass of water in his hand.

"Asshole... let me go... let go..."

It is a pity that poor Xia Xue had not had time to yell, but the man holding the water cup pinched her mouth, and then he began to pour the cup of medicine water into Xia Xue's mouth.

The bright and clear water poured into Xia Xue's mouth, Xia Xue choked a part of it, but she drank a large part of it.

After seeing Xia Xue drinking some, the two let go of their hands.

Cough and cough, Xia Xue, whose face was full of water, was choked by the water at this moment.

Lifting their red eyes, looking at the two leaving men Hystily shouted: "What did you drink for me... Come back, tell me, tell me."

But the two guys walked out without saying a word.

After a while, I saw that the fat guy had walked in with a smile.

Looking at Xia Xue with red eyes: "My little heart, you will feel comfortable later."

While talking, he suddenly walked towards Xia Xue. In Xia Xue's scream, the fat man suddenly grabbed Xia Xue's arm and dragged her from the ground to another room.

In the other room there was a soft Simmons bed, and Xia Xue was thrown onto the bed.

The fat guy smiled sullenly and said: "My be careful, I will wait for you for a while, and then the medicine will work, and then I will come and serve you again."

The fat man who was talking walked outside.

And what about Xia Xue? It was completely stunned.

What did you drink to yourself just now? Is it medicine? What medicine?

Xia Xue trembled with fright, couldn't help but scream for help, but unfortunately no one responded to her.

A bleak voice echoed throughout the room.

At this moment, Li Tian and Shen Feng had already reached Dongcheng District quickly.

"That one is Ping An Street." The taxi driver in front said there.

After speaking, he pointed to a narrow street in front of him.

Li Tian and Shen Feng saw that Ping An Street was not far away, so they got out of the car quickly, and after giving the taxi driver money, the two of them ran towards the Ping Street.

"No. 12, No. 30 is just ahead." Shen Feng said.

Then the two quickly ran forward.

When they quickly found the house at No. 30 Ping'an Street, Li Tian and Shen Feng discovered that the No. 30 room was originally just an ordinary residential house.

There is also a large courtyard outside.

"That's it." Shen Feng said.

Then the two people walked quickly to the door. The door was closed tightly, and the two people looked inside through the crack of the door.

At a glance, he saw two guarding men standing outside.

"It's them." Shen Feng in front of him recognized at a glance that one of them was a guy who had appeared in a black market boxing match, and whispered to Li Tian.

Li Tian took a look at the environment inside, then glanced at the wall in front of him.

"Let's turn over from here, and then kill them." Li Tiandao said.

Shen Feng nodded silently, and then the two of them began to take action.

A wall more than two meters high is not too high, isn't it? Li Tian in front of him quickly climbed up.

Then he stretched his head and took a look at the situation inside, and found that the two of them hadn't paid attention to this side, and then they slid and jumped in at a very fast speed.

The moment he jumped in, his body suddenly rolled on the spot, hiding himself directly on the side.

Seeing that Li Tian had quickly turned in, Shen Feng climbed up the wall at this moment and jumped in.

Falling on the ground, the sound is not very loud.

After two people came in at the same time, Li Tian and Shen Feng carefully observed the surrounding environment to see if there were anyone else!

In the end, it seemed that there were only these two people, but there was movement from inside the house.

The screaming voice of a woman could be faintly heard.

It was the cry of Sister Xue.

Suddenly when Li Tian heard this, his heart was cut like a knife, and a sense of urgency that had never happened before surged up.

At this moment, Li Tian, who was desperate for everything, ran quickly towards the two men a few meters away.

The two guys also heard footsteps behind them at this moment, and turned their heads abruptly.

"Who....."

As soon as he uttered a word, he saw Li Tian grabbed his throat directly, and then directly strangled his head with the other arm, twisted and clicked, and the man was placed directly on the ground. There is still unwillingness in the eyes, but unfortunately there is no breath in the nose.

The other Shen Feng was a sweeping leg that swept down the man directly, and the moment the man was about to fall to the ground with a bang, Shen Feng suddenly grabbed his arm with both hands, and one foot flew accurately. Kicked on the guy's head.

Suddenly fell to the ground and fainted.

In a blink of an eye, these two guys were all put to the ground before they understood how it happened.
